⁴ My lips won’t speak lawless things,
Or my life contemplate doing wrong;

⁵ For such things bring the sentence of death!

‘I’m not saying that I’m free from blame...

⁶ But I’ll cling to what’s right and never let go,
For I know when I’m doing what’s wrong.

⁷ ‘May my enemies disappear with the godless
And my opposers be destroyed with lawbreakers.

⁸ ‘What kind of hope have the godless?
Do they think they’ll be saved by Jehovah...

⁹ That God will hear what they pray,
Or He’ll come when they are in need?

¹⁰ Can they stand before Him securely
As those who can call and be heard?

¹¹ ‘I’ll tell you of the things [God] holds in His hands...
I won’t lie about the Almighty.

¹² {Look!} For He piles what’s foolish on the foolish...

¹³ This is what the impious will get from the Lord,
And it’s what their most mighty receive.

¹⁴ ‘Should the Almighty One come to their aid,
And should the sons [of the wicked] grow many? No!
Their purpose is just to be slaughtered,
And they’ll beg to be allowed to grow into men.

¹⁵ But, those who remain will die of the plague,
And on their widows, none will show mercy.

¹⁶ ‘If they gather silver as though it were dirt,
And set aside gold as though mortar;
¹⁷ The righteous will [soon] own these things,
And those who are true will control it.
¹⁸ ‘Then his house will belong to the moths
And to the cobwebs of spiders.
¹⁹ The rich man will sleep and not rise again...
He’ll be dead, though his eyes are wide open.
²⁰ ‘Grief will pour upon him like water,
And dark will overtake him during the night.
²¹ A burning wind will snatch him away,
And like chaff, he’ll be blown from his place.
²² ‘He’ll be sent where no one can save him...
By [God’s] hands, he’ll be taken to exile.
²³ Then all men will be clapping their hands,
And they’ll whistle at him from wherever they are.’

Chapter 28

¹ ‘There is a place where silver is mined,
And a place where gold is refined.
² Men take iron out of the ground,
And copper is quarried like stones.
³ This is how He’s established an order for darkness,
And precisely set all its limits.
‘Like the darkness [that’s inside a mine]...
So is the shadow of death.
⁴ And as they [pan gold] in fast-running streams,
The ways of the just are discovered...
By mortal men, they are sifted.
⁵ Even our bread comes out of the ground
As though roasted in fires [in pits] down below.
⁶ ‘There are places where sapphires are found,
And places where gold may be mined.

⁷ There are also roads even birds do not know...
By the eyes of eagles, they've been overlooked.
⁸ They haven't been walked by sons of the rich,
Nor have lions ever gone there.

⁹ 'He's sticks out His hand and chisels a place,
And the roots of mountains, He overturns.
¹⁰ The banks of rivers, He has destroyed...
And my eyes have beheld such great things.

¹¹ 'The depths of rivers, He has laid bare,
And in the [day]light, He's shown all their power.
¹² But, where can wisdom be found,
And what is the source of great knowledge?

¹³ 'For, no man really knows of its ways,
Since such ways can't be found among men.
¹⁴ Says the abyss, It's not found in me,
And says the sea, Nor in me!

¹⁵ So, no one can make an investment in it,
And with silver, it cannot be bought.

¹⁶ 'It can't be compared to all Ophir's gold,
Nor to precious onyx or sapphires.
¹⁷ With [diamonds] and gold, it can't be compared,
And it can't be bought with gold coins.

¹⁸ 'I won't compare it to crystals or coral,
For wisdom is higher than all we could want.
¹⁹ To Ethiopia's topaz, it can't be compared,
Nor can it equaled by finest gold.

²⁰ 'So, where can wisdom be found,
And from where comes great understanding?
²¹ It escapes the notice of every man,
And is hidden from the birds in the skies.

²² 'Thus say the days of destruction and death:
We have heard of its fame,

²³ *For God speaks well its ways,
And He alone knows where it is found.*

²⁴ ‘He looks down from the heavens above,
And from there, He passes inspection...
So He sees what happens throughout the earth.

²⁵ ‘He also weighs the things that He makes...
He’s measured the wind and the water...

²⁶ When He made them, He saw them and counted it all,
Then He made a way for the thunder.

²⁷ ‘He saw [what He made] and described it...
The One who prepared it has tracked all its ways,

²⁸ And this is what He has concluded:
*{Look!} Wisdom is being like God,
And higher knowledge is staying away from what’s bad.’*

² ‘O that He’d let me return
To that month once again...
To those days when He watched over me,
And His lamp was lit over my head,

³ By His light, I traveled through darkness,
⁴ As I walked down the streets in importance,
And when God watched over my house...

⁵ When I was exceedingly plump,
And I had all my children around me...

⁶ When all that I did poured like butter that’s warm,
And mountainous things poured like milk...

⁷ When, in the morning, I entered the city,
And they’d set a chair for me in the square.

⁸ ‘Before me, the young ran and hid,
And the elders arose in respect.

⁹ Stout men would all stop their speaking,
And place their fingers over their mouths.

¹⁰ ‘Then, all who listened said I was blest,
And their tongues would stick in their throats.

¹¹ They listened with their ears and then praised me,
And when they saw me, they all stepped aside.

¹² For I rescued the poor from the hands of the mighty,
And to helpless orphans, I supplied aid.

¹³ ‘So, you who are dying; please praise me again...
May the mouths of the widows praise me once more!

¹⁴ For I once dressed up to give justice
In a robe that was doubled;

¹⁵ Then I served as eyes for the blind,
As well as feet for the lame...

¹⁶ And to the disabled, I became like a father.

‘When I didn’t know the right thing to do,
It worked out well anyhow.

¹⁷ I broke the molars of the unrighteous,
And I snatched their prey from their teeth.

¹⁸ ‘I said: *I’ll grow old and round like the trunk of a palm,
And I will live for many more years;*

¹⁹ *For my roots have reached deep to the water,
And the dew always settles on my harvest.*

²⁰ ‘Back then, my glory meant little to me;
For, I had entrusted my bow to His hands.

²¹ Then, men would pay close attention to me,
And stay silent as I offered council.

²² ‘When I was speaking, they never spoke;
And they were joyful whenever I talked...

²³ As the ground enjoys rain when it’s thirsty,
That’s how they thought of my words.

²⁴ ‘For at them, I never laughed...
Which is why they trusted my council.
For the light of my face was before them,
²⁵ And I showed them the right ways to go,
So, I was always their prince.
And though I camped like a king ‘midst his army,
I remembered to comfort the mourning.’

Chapter 30

¹ ‘Now I’m ridiculed by even their least;
And those whose fathers I’ve viewed with contempt
Now dare to give me correction...
Those whom I once thought unworthy
To serve as dogs to watch over my flocks.
² ‘So what value is the strength of their hands before me,
Since their vigor has already perished?
³ They’re in need and hungry, with nothing...
They’re miserable, like those who flee from a war
To hide in a place with no water!
⁴ ‘They stand on the shore and pick seaweed;
For, plants from the sea are their grain.
They have no honor, and nothing to give;
They’re looked on as worthless and lacking all good.
‘In hunger, they’ve gnawed upon tree roots...
⁵ These who’ve risen against me like thieves...
⁶ Those who once burrowed in rocks.
⁷ ‘But they look for places to yell
(These ones with homes made of sticks).
⁸ They’re the sons of dishonored fools,
Whose fame will be wiped from the land.
⁹ ‘Yet now, they’re strumming their harps about me...
I’m the topic of all their discussions.

¹⁰ They dislike me and stay far away,
And into my face, they now spit.

¹¹ ‘For [God’s] opened His quiver and shot me,
Then He led me away from His presence.

¹² ‘So the hands of their sons have risen against me...
They stick out their legs and kick me!

¹³ They’ve wiped my ways from their wicked paths,
And they’ve taken the clothes that I wore.

‘So He’s run me through with His spear,
¹⁴ And He’s judged me the way that He wished.
Thus with anguish, I am now befouled,
¹⁵ And all of my grief has returned.
My hope has passed like the wind,
And my salvation has faded like clouds.

¹⁶ ‘So, may my life soon be poured out,
Since I’ve had enough days of this grief.

¹⁷ All night long, my bones burn,
And my nerves are broken and shattered.

¹⁸ With great power, my robe is disfigured...
And in its folds, I’ve been wrapped.

¹⁹ ‘So now, you treat me like dirt,
And think that ashes are all I deserve.

²⁰ Though I’ve cried out to you, you don’t listen...
You just stand and think of my plight.

²¹ ‘Together, you’ve joined to attack me,
And with mighty hands, you have whipped me.

²² You’ve handed me over to grief
And removed any hope of salvation.

²³ ‘I know that death will soon wipe me away,
For the ground is the home of all mortals.

²⁴ So, should I consider killing myself,
Or ask someone else to do?

²⁵ ‘Though I’ve cried over all the disabled,
And moaned when I saw people in need,
²⁶ I’m still waiting for good things to come,
And I hope for good days, not bad.

²⁷ ‘My belly is noisy and rumbles,
As more days of suffering confront me.
²⁸ I’m moaning because of discomfort,
And among the gathering, I find myself weeping.

²⁹ ‘To trapped demons, I am now a brother,
And to the ostrich, I am a companion.
³⁰ My skin has become very dark,
As my bones continue to swelter in heat.

³¹ ‘So in mourning, I now strum my harp,
And my hymns are all about weeping for me.

Chapter 31

¹ ‘I’ve made a vow that my eyes
Will not pay attention to virgins,
² For what I have, came from God up above...
It’s the inheritance of what the Almighty saw fit.

³ ‘To the godless comes woe and destruction,
And those who break laws are alone.
⁴ So, why won’t He consider my ways
And count the footsteps I’ve taken?
⁵ For, I haven’t traveled with those who play jokes,
And my feet haven’t rushed to do evil.
⁶ So, I can step on a scale
And prove myself just in the balance.

‘For Jehovah knows that I’ve done no wrong
⁷ And my feet haven’t turned from His way
(Though my eyes often follow my heart),
And my hands have never touched bribes.

⁸ Yet, what I have planted, others now eat...
I no longer have roots in the ground.

⁹ 'If my heart had followed another man's wife,
And if I stood in wait at her door;

¹⁰ May my wife then please other men,
And my babies be humbled thereafter.

¹¹ For the One who dirties another man's wife
Should receive [God's] unrestrained anger.

¹² May a fire burn in all his parts,
And may he be destroyed to his roots.

¹³ 'If I've disregarded my debts to my servants,
And if my maids ever had to beg before me;

¹⁴ What could I say to my God
When I am beaten by Him...
When He visits, how could I reply?

¹⁵ For, weren't they also born from a womb...
Didn't they come from the belly?

¹⁶ 'But the disabled and needy never missed out,
And the eyes of the widows weren't wasted.

¹⁷ Even when I ate my food all alone,
I set some aside for the orphans.

¹⁸ Like a father, I fed them the food from my mouth,
And I led them as though from my own mother's womb.

¹⁹ 'If I hadn't provided for those without clothes,
²⁰ Or if I offered no help to the disabled
Unless they gave me a blessing;
Or if I'd refused to take my lamb's wool
And used it to warm up their shoulders;

²¹ If I wouldn't lift a hand to help orphans,
Or help those who trusted in me to give aid;

²² May my shoulders be pulled from my collars
And my arms be broken at the elbows.

²³ ‘It was the fear of Jehovah that caused me to act;
For without His care, I couldn’t endure.

²⁴ If I had trusted in gold for my strength,
Or in gems, had put all my trust;

²⁵ If I [did these things] to make myself rich,
Or to get my hands on great treasure;

²⁶ May my eyes see the sun growing dim,
And the moon, as its starting to darken.

²⁷ ‘So, if my heart has deceived me,
And if I’ve secretly [kissed] my own hand;
²⁸ May this be considered the worst of my crimes,
For I’ve lied to the Most High, Jehovah.

²⁹ ‘If I felt joy at my enemy’s fall,
And if I’d said in my heart, Well done;
³⁰ Then, let my ears hear the curses I’m due,
And may everyone speak of my badness.

³¹ ‘I’ve never said to my female attendants,
Please give me some of your flesh!
³² Nor have I forgotten the need to be kind,
And to lodge strangers, my door was kept open.

³³ ‘Unintentional sins, I’ve not hidden,
And I’ve never been swayed by the masses.
³⁴ The disabled, I’ve never turned from my door,
Or with empty stomachs, sent them away.

³⁵ ‘So, please may I find a person to listen...
Someone in awe of the hand of the Lord!
For I’ve never sent anyone bills,
³⁶ Nor read what they owed me while wearing a crown.
³⁷ I just tore [the debts] up and returned them
Without getting whatever they owed me.

³⁸ ‘Have I given the ground a reason to moan...
Have I given her furrows reasons to weep?
³⁹ If I have taken some of her strength,

⁴⁰ And ate it alone without paying;
Or if I've made the land's owner mad,
And he has been bothered by this;
⁴¹ May my wheat become stinging nettles,
And my barley be turned into weeds.'
Well with that, Job stopped speaking.

Chapter 32

¹ Then for a while, all got quiet, and Job's three friends stopped contradicting him, for they started thinking that he was truly a righteous man. ² That's when EliHu (the son of BarachiEl the Buzite, a descendant of Ram from Ausis) became very angry with Job for declaring himself righteous before God. ³ And he was also indignant with Job's three friends, because they couldn't give Job a reply and they found him to be a righteous man.

⁴ EliHu had patiently waited to give Job an answer, because the others were much older than him. ⁵ But when he saw that no more replies were coming from the mouths of these men, he became angry and went into a rage. ⁶ So, EliHu (the son of BarachiEl the Buzite) then said:

'Because I am younger in years,
And you are much older than me;
I've chosen not to speak until now,
For I feared to say the things I must say.

⁷ I said, *This isn't the time to speak out;
For with their years, they have gained much more wisdom.*

⁸ Yet, though there's a spirit in humans,
The Almighty's Breath does the teaching.

⁹ And since the wise don't live long enough,
The old don't always know what is right.

¹⁰ 'Now, I beg you all to listen to me,
And I'll tell you the things that I know.

¹¹ Give an ear to what I will say,
And I'll speak to you free of charge.

¹² ‘Examine my words and you’ll see
That you’ve not given Job the correction.
¹³ Don’t say that you’ve found wisdom from God,
¹⁴ For you got your commission from men!’
¹⁵ Well at that, they were all afraid and they refused to say anything more, because the words they were hearing had the sound of age. ¹⁶ Also, he had waited and refused to speak until they stood there with no answer.
¹⁷ So EliHu said:
‘Now, I am ready to speak,
And I have many things that I wish to say.
¹⁸ ‘I cannot hold back the wind in my chest,
¹⁹ For within me, it bubbles like very young wine...
It’s been tied up in me like a bellows,
And awaiting the time to break out.
²⁰ So now, I will speak and give myself rest,
For the time has arrived to open my lips.
²¹ ‘I’m not embarrassed to speak before men,
Nor will I feel shame before humans.
²² For, if I should show special favor to men,
By moths, may I then be devoured.

Chapter 33

¹ ‘Listen, O Job, to my words...
Give ear to what I am saying!
² For {Look!} I will now open my mouth
And use my tongue to instruct.
³ These words are pure and come from my heart,
And what comes from my lips is all clean.
⁴ ‘By the Breath of [God], I was made;
And by the Almighty’s Spirit, I have been taught.
⁵ So, if you are able to answer,
Then reply to me concerning these things!

Yes, wait... just stand here [and face] me,
And I will stand up to you!

⁶ ‘You and I were both made of clay...

From the same dirt, we were formed;

⁷ So don’t twist against me in fear.

⁸ ‘Now, the things that I heard you say,

And the claims that I heard you make, are:

⁹ I am pure and I have not sinned...

I’m blameless and I’ve broken no laws.

¹⁰ Yet, though He doesn’t have a complaint,

God thinks me to be His opponent.

¹¹ For He’s put my feet into stocks made of wood,

And He’s watched all the things that I’ve done.

‘But, how can you claim to be righteous

And say that He’s paid no attention to you?

¹² For, He has lived through the ages,

And is far above all us mortals.

¹³ Yet you ask, Why hasn’t He seen my just ways...

Why hasn’t He heard what I’ve said?

¹⁴ ‘Jehovah may only speak once,

Or He may reply even twice.

¹⁵ He may send a dream or a vision at night,

Bringing us fear we lie in our beds.

¹⁶ ‘He uncovers the things that men think,

And He sees the things that we fear...

Then He uses such things just to scare us...

¹⁷ To turn us away from our sins

And to rescue our bodies from downfall.

¹⁸ From death, He is saving our lives,

And protecting us from many battles.

¹⁹ ‘When we are sick in our beds,

And when our bones cannot move;

This is discipline that is coming from Him.

²⁰ So, when we're offered grain, we won't take it,
Though food is the thing that we really need.

²¹ 'Our flesh will just lie there and fester
Until our bones can be seen

²² And death has finally approached...
Then it sends our lives down to the grave.

²³ 'But though thousands of angels may come to bring death,
No way will one pierce you through,
If in your heart, you'd just make a change,
And turn to Jehovah again.

'So it's about ourselves that we should complain...
We should speak of the laws that we've broken;
²⁴ For then our God would support us...
Not allow us to fall into death.

'Then, like someone who plasters a wall,
He'd make our bodies new once again,
Refilling our bones with their marrow,
²⁵ And renewing our flesh like a child,
To restore us to what we'd once been.

²⁶ 'If you make a vow to Jehovah,
And your vow is thereafter accepted,
You'll walk away with a face that is clean
And a mouth that's speaking His praises...
For He always deals justly with men.

²⁷ 'So, we each should blame ourselves and then say,
What are the things that I've done?
What have I done to be disciplined,
And what are the sins I've committed?

²⁸ O save my soul from corruption,
So I can see light once again!

²⁹ ' {Look!} This is how the Almighty deals with each one,
And they're the three things that He does.

³⁰ For from death, He has rescued my soul,
So my life can go on to praise Him in light.

³¹ ‘O Job;

Lend me an ear and hear what I say...

Be quiet, for I am now speaking!

³² But, if there are words you can use to reply,
Then speak, for you should be given what’s just!

³³ Yet, if you don’t, then just hear me out...

Be quiet and I’ll tell you what’s wise!’

² ‘And hear me now, O you wise men...

Give ear, O you who have knowledge!

³ For the ear judges words as the mouth tastes it’s food...

⁴ And that’s how we should be judging ourselves,
Since we already know whether we have been good!

⁵ ‘Now, Job has said, Although I am righteous,
Jehovah has ended my case,

⁶ And when He judged me, He lied.

So at His injustice, I now shake my spear!

⁷ ‘Though Job is a man who drinks [wine],
And sneers as though it were water,

⁸ He says he’s not sinful or godless,
And had nothing to do with the lawless,
Or gone along with those who show no respect.

⁹ ‘Now, perhaps you think it all wrong
For someone to watch over men.

¹⁰ Yet, we all are watched by Jehovah,
And He searches through all of our hearts.

‘Listen, yes hear me, my God;
For no way do I wish to show disrespect...
May the Almighty not think me unjust!

¹¹ ‘He pays men back for all they deserve,
And in his own paths, each man finds Him.

¹² ‘Can you imagine Jehovah being guilty of wrong,
Or the Almighty One being unjust?
Is not the earth His creation...

¹³ Didn’t He make all that’s under the sky?

¹⁴ ‘So, if He would hold back His power,
Or if He’d remove all His Breath;

¹⁵ All life on earth would come to an end,
And mortals would return to where they were formed.

¹⁶ ‘But, what if He didn’t correct us?
Shouldn’t we hear the sounds of His words?

¹⁷ {Look!} He’s the One who hates all lawbreaking,
And through the ages, has proven to be righteous;
So, He will destroy all the wicked!

¹⁸ ‘It’s impertinent to say to a king,
You have broken the law,
Or to say to a prince,
You have acted ungodly.

¹⁹ ‘So, who may show disrespect
To such a person of honor?
For the mighty are never appointed
Because He thought well of their faces.

²⁰ ‘Nothing good can come when we cry out to men;
For they’re all unrighteous and won’t help the poor.

²¹ But, He observes the things that they do,
And their deeds don’t escape His attention.

²² ‘There is no place for the lawless to hide;

²³ For He tolerates men no more than He must.

²⁴ So all men are inspected by God,
And He notices those that are doing what’s wrong.

‘He observes the things that are hidden,
As well as things to be honored...
Extraordinary things unnumbered.

²⁵ He knows all the [bad] things we do,
And He humbles us during the night.

²⁶ ‘He wipes away the ungodly
Because He can see the things they have done

²⁷ When they have turned from God’s Laws,
And given no thought to His rules.

²⁸ ‘The cries of the needy reach up to Him,
And He hears the calls of the poor.

²⁹ So, since He’s the One who is bringing them rest,
Who would dare to condemn Him?

‘If He hides His face, who will see Him,
Whether a nation or just a man?

³⁰ But, He can appoint a hypocrite king
If He finds the people unruly.

³¹ ‘Has anyone heard a mighty one say,
I’ve been so blest, I don’t need Him?

³² Or, *Unless He can prove that He knows of my sins,
There is nothing that He can require!*

³³ ‘Will He pay for the things that you’ve thrown away?
Give me an answer... yes, tell me!

³⁴ ‘Understanding hearts will reply to such things,
And a wise man will hear what I’ve said.

³⁵ But, Job hasn’t thought about this,
Since his words don’t reflect higher knowledge.

³⁶ ‘So learn, O Job... don’t be a fool...

³⁷ Don’t add any more to your sins!
For we’re all considered law breakers
When we stand and speak [before God].’

² ‘Why does justice matter to you...
Who are you to proclaim yourself righteous,
And say you deserve no vengeance from God?’

³ ‘You’ve asked what sins you’ve committed.
And about this, I’ll give you an answer,
Then I’ll tell it to these, your three friends.

⁴ ‘Look up to the sky and see
How high the clouds are above you!

⁵ So, if you have sinned, what will you do?

⁶ Yes, what can you do if you’ve broken [God’s] laws?

⁷ ‘And if you are truly so righteous,
What are the things you can give Him,
And what will He take from your hands?’

⁸ Will He accept irreverence from men,
Or unrighteousness from their children?

⁹ ‘Many call out when they have been robbed...
But they yell at the strong one who robbed them!

¹⁰ They don’t ask, *Where is [God] who made me...
The One who’s in charge of night watches,*

¹¹ *And made me different from the beasts of the earth,
As well as from the birds in the sky?*

¹² ‘Oh, they can cry out, but no one will listen;
For there’s insolence in the wicked.

¹³ Yet there’s nothing that goes unnoticed by God,
Because He is the Almighty.

¹⁴ ‘He observes all those who break laws,
And you can ask Him to save you...
That is, if you’re praising Him now!’

¹⁵ ‘He assigns no numbers to His rage,
And He sets no limits on sins.

¹⁶ Yet, Job has foolishly opened his mouth,
And in ignorance, weighed his words.’

² ‘Be patient for a while and I’ll teach you;
Because I still have [much] more to say.

³ ‘I was taught in a faraway land,
And I’ve learned to do as I say.

⁴ So I’ll speak of what’s true and righteous,
And you’ll find that I’m not telling lies.

⁵ ‘I know that Jehovah won’t harm a good man...
One who’s mighty and has strength of heart.

⁶ But, to the irreverent, He won’t return life.

‘He will give justice to those who are poor,
⁷ And He doesn’t turn His eyes from the righteous.
For they’ll sit as kings upon thrones...
They’ll be raised and treated like winners!

⁸ ‘The crook who is led off in shackles,
In poverty’s cords, will be wrapped.

⁹ Then He’ll speak of all the bad things he’s done,
And of his many transgressions.

¹⁰ ‘But [God] listens to what the righteous ones say,
And He warns them to turn from all badness.

¹¹ So, if they should listen and serve [Him],
They will live a very long time
And spend many years having good things.
So, when they come to the end of their days,
Many beautiful things, they will own.

¹² ‘But the godless will not be preserved;
For they fail to look to Jehovah.
And though they’ve been warned time and again,
They keep on refusing to listen.

¹³ ‘Though the hypocrite’s heart will know rage,
He won’t call out, for [God] has him bound.

¹⁴ So his life will end while he is still young,
Since angels will arrive to pierce him

¹⁵ If he’s mistreated the weak and disabled...
Yet, they will be fair to the humble.

¹⁶ ‘When an enemy uses his mouth to deceive,
[God] opens a pit underneath it,
Where his table of good things is thrown.

¹⁷ ‘To the righteous, He’ll always bring justice,
¹⁸ While on the impious, He sends His rage.
For in godless ways, they’ve taken bribes;
And in justice, they’ll get all that they deserve.

¹⁹ ‘So, don’t be blind to the cries of disabled,
Or send away those who seeking aid in the night.

²⁰ Rather, you should go out and help them,
So that others can see your example.

²¹ Be careful to never mistreat them,
Or take advantage of their lowly condition.

²² ‘{Look!} Though the strong use their strength to overpower...
Who are those that are feeling so mighty?

²³ Who examines the things that they do,
And tells them when they are doing what’s wrong?

²⁴ ‘Remember that it’s the great things we do
That give us control over men.

²⁵ And each man knows deep within his own heart
How many mortals he has stabbed through.

²⁶ ‘{Look!} The Almighty is great... yet we don’t really know Him;
For, there is no end to His years.

²⁷ He can count the number of rain drops
Before they’re even formed in the clouds.

²⁸ Then they fall and flow past the things that grow old...
Past the shadows of the uncounted dead.

‘He’s established a time for animal’s lives,
And this order of things, they understand.
Yet you haven’t bothered to think about this,
And your heart doesn’t know your own body.

²⁹ But remember, as you watch the clouds passing by...
This will also happen to the tent that is you.

³⁰ ‘{Look!} He has stretched the light out above us,
And the roots of the seas, He’s covered.

³¹ Then between them, He judges the people,
And He nourishes those who’ve shown strength.

³² ‘He can cover the light with His hands,
And tell the clouds what to do.

³³ Yet, we can trust that He’ll speak to His friends,
And provide them a haven from evil.

Chapter 37

¹ ‘So, this is what has bothered my heart...
They’re the things that make my heart drop.

² Pay attention to my report on God’s rage,
For what I’ve said has come from His mouth!

³ ‘He’s the sovereign of all under heaven,
And His light shines to the wings of the earth.

⁴ ‘Though voices may yell out against Him;
He thunders at the sound of their insults.
For He must bargain with no one...
With none of those who may hear His voice.

⁵ ‘When the Almighty speaks, it’s like thunder,
Which tells of the great things He’s done.
⁶ He orders the snow in the winter,
And instructs it to cover the ground...
And the rain also follows His orders
⁷ ‘He’s the One who shackles men’s hands,
To make them aware of their weakness.
⁸ ‘Wild beasts live within His protection;
So, in their lairs, they are tranquil,
⁹ While in your bedrooms comes grief,
And from far away, comes a chill.
¹⁰ ‘From the Almighty’s Breath comes the ice,
And water is steered wherever He chooses.
¹¹ If He covers a cloud, it passes away,
Followed by light in its order.
¹² ‘Cyclones are turned aside by His rules
(The ways by which they must work),
¹³ Sparing the land on which He shows mercy...
He’s the One who orders such things for the earth.
¹⁴ ‘So, O Job, pay attention!
You should stand in awe of God’s power!
¹⁵ For we know that it all comes from God,
Who created light from the darkness.
¹⁶ ‘He know the difference between every cloud,
As well as the ways that the wicked will fall.
¹⁷ ‘So, your clothes are all hot and sticky;
From the south, blows peace for this land.
¹⁸ ‘Can you join Him as He spreads out the skies,
And turns them into bronze mirrors?
¹⁹ ‘So now, teach me what I should tell Him,
And let’s bring an end to this banter!

²⁰ Is there a scribe with a scroll next to me,
To whom I must now be pleasing?
²¹ ‘For the light is now shining so brightly,
Bringing light to all that is old.
It’s as though He has parted the clouds,
²² And made them glow like gold in the north.
Their honor and glory reflect the Almighty;
²³ For in no one else may such strength be found.
‘Since He’s the One who brings honest judgments;
Don’t you think that He has listened to you?
²⁴ So, we all have good reasons to fear Him...
Even those who think their hearts wise.

Chapter 38

¹ Then, after EliHu finished his speech, Jehovah spoke to Job from the clouds during a storm, saying:

² ‘Who is it that’s hiding counsel from Me,
And thinks he can cover the things in his heart?
³ Now, wrap up your loins and act like a man,
For I’ll ask the questions and you answer Me!
⁴ ‘Where were you when I laid the foundations of earth?
Tell me, if you know, and if you understand!
⁵ Who planned and laid out its measures... do you know?
And who laid the string down upon it?
⁶ Upon what have its hooks been supported,
And who set its foundation slabs?
⁷ ‘When I did this, all the stars praised Me,
And My angels shouted a cheer.
⁸ Then I locked the seas in their gates,
When they first burst from the womb.
⁹ ‘I established the clouds as [the seas’] clothes,
And I wrapped it in fog, like a child.
¹⁰ Thereafter, I established its limits

And I bolted its gates into place.

¹¹ I said, This is as far as you can go...
You cannot go any farther,
So your waves must now break within you.

¹² ‘Did I use you to bring morning light,
Or to set the morning star in its place?’

¹³ [Can you] grab the wings of the earth,
And shake off all the ungodly?’

¹⁴ ‘Have you picked up a piece of clay from the ground,
And used it to make something living?
And who brought the powers of speech to the earth?’

¹⁵ ‘Have you removed the light from the godless,
Or broken the arms of the proud?’

¹⁶ Have you found the springs of the seas,
And walked in the tracks of the deep?’

¹⁷ ‘Do the gates of death open before you,
And do the keepers of the place of the dead
Get alarmed whenever they see you?’

¹⁸ ‘If you’ve been told about all under heaven;
Then, tell Me how great it all is!’

¹⁹ Where is the land from which the light comes,
And from what kind of place comes the darkness?’

²⁰ ‘If you could lead Me up to their limits
(That is, even if you even knew of their paths),

²¹ You’d already know all these things.
And if you were born on that day,
Your years by now, would be many.

²² ‘Have you found the treasuries of the snow?
Have you seen where the hail is all stored?’

²³ For you, has the hour of enemies been reserved,
Or the days for battle and war?’

²⁴ ‘When the frost leaves, where does it go?
And where under the skies goes the south wind?
²⁵ Who prepares the storms when they blow,
²⁶ And who holds back rain from the ground?
²⁷ ‘Who made the deserts where no men can live,
But then fills unwalked, uninhabited lands
With sprouts and new shoots of green?
²⁸ ‘Who is the father of rain,
And who gives birth to the dewdrops?
²⁹ In whose womb does the ice start to form,
And who gives birth to frost from the skies,
³⁰ Then turns it into drops to make streams?
‘Who is it that changes the face of the godless,
And who creates their alarm?
³¹ ‘Have you seen what bonds the Pleiades?
Have you opened the barriers of Orion?
³² Have you opened MazurOth when it can be seen,
Or have you led Hesperus by its tail?
³³ ‘Do you know how the orbits of the heavens all work,
Or how things under heaven work together?
³⁴ Can you call to a cloud and cause it to shake,
Then obey you and pour out a storm?
³⁵ ‘Are you able to send for the lightning?
Will it ask, What is it, and obey you?
³⁶ ‘Who gave women the wisdom to weave,
And who gave them the skill to embroider?
³⁷ ‘Who in his wisdom can count all the clouds...
Who can lean on the sky and the ground?
³⁸ ‘Who poured out the powder that created the earth,
And stuck it together as a stone block?

³⁹ ‘Will you hunt for lions as prey,
And be filled with the souls of wild beasts?
⁴⁰ Yet, they must be feared when they’re in their lairs,
Or when they’re lying in wait in the woods.
⁴¹ ‘Who gives carrion to the crows for their young,
As they call to Jehovah while searching for grain?’

Chapter 39

¹ ‘Tell Me this, if you know:
When do rock antelopes give birth,
And have you seen the birthing of hinds?
² Have you counted the months for them to give birth,
And do you know how long they have birth pangs?
³ ‘Do you know how their offspring are fed,
And can you bring an end to their labor?
⁴ For their young rip out and many are born...
Then they just walk away.
⁵ ‘Who is it that set zebras free...
Who untied them from bondage?
⁶ I am the One who [gave him] his home
There in the deserts and salt flats...
I’m the One who gave him his dwelling.
⁷ ‘He laughs at the complaints of those living in towns,
And tax collectors, he can ignore.
⁸ He views the mountains as his pastures,
As he searches for green things to eat.
⁹ ‘Can you make the rhinoceros serve you?
Can you force him to sleep in your barn?
¹⁰ Can you tie him with straps and put on a yoke,
Then use him to plow up your fields?
¹¹ ‘Can you trust him to do this because of his strength,
And will he lighten the work that you do?’

¹² Can you trust him to carry your grain,
And haul it to threshing-floors for you?

¹³ ‘Consider the wings of the ostrich...
Whose feathers the storks use for their nests.

¹⁴ They lay their eggs on the ground,
Then incubate them in the dust.

¹⁵ ‘If she forgets them, they then may be lost,
Or crushed by wild beasts in the fields.

¹⁶ So she’s hardened herself against her own young,
And she isn’t sad when her work is in vain.

¹⁷ ‘It was God who removed all her wisdom,
And gave her such scant understanding.

¹⁸ But, when she spreads her feathers to run,
She laughs at the horse and its rider.

¹⁹ ‘Was it you who gave the horse all its strength,
Or who caused his neck [to tremble] in fear?

²⁰ Are you the one who gave him full armor,
And put the glory of daring in his breast?

²¹ ‘In the fields, he grazes and prances,
And with strength, he runs in the plains.

²² He laughs when he meets up with spears,
And from weapons of iron, he never retreats.

²³ ‘When he’s struck by arrows and swords,

²⁴ He just gets angry and tears up the ground.

He doesn’t quit ‘til the trumpet is blown,

²⁵ And then he just says, Well done!

‘He can even smell war from a distance,
Then he stands on his [back] legs and whinnies.

²⁶ ‘Was it you who gave hawks their look of defiance
As they set their wings to fly toward the south?

²⁷ Was it by your order that eagles fly high,
Or vultures to lodge in nests ²⁸ among rocks?

²⁹ ‘From such places, [these birds] search for food,
For their eyes can see from a distance.

³⁰ Then their young become covered in blood,
Because they find all that has died.’

³¹ Then Jehovah God said this to Job:

³² ‘Have you chosen to correct this One who’s so able...
And can the One who teaches God give an answer?’

³³ Then Job replied to Jehovah:

³⁴ ‘So, why must I still go on begging,
And for what am I being corrected...
Why are my prayers being ignored?

‘Since I can’t reply [to Your questions],
I’ll just cover my mouth with my hands...

³⁵ I’ve spoken and I’ll say no more.’

Chapter 40

¹ Then Jehovah God replied to Job, saying:

² ‘Are you judging the One who’s so able...
And when someone scolds God, must He reply?’

³ So Job thought about this and then he asked the Lord:

⁴ ‘But, why must I stand here and beg...
Being scolded and disciplined by God?

‘No, I am nothing at all,
And yes, I have heard all that You said;
So what answer can I give in reply?

‘Now I’ll cover my mouth with my hands,
⁵ For I’ve spoken and I’ll say no more.’

⁶ Then the Lord once again spoke to Job from out of the clouds, saying:

⁷ ‘Now, wrap up your waist and act like a man,
Then I will ask you, and you must reply!

⁸ ‘Should you undo My decisions?
And do you think it was Me who sent these [bad] things,
Or that you’d have to prove yourself righteous to Me?

⁹ ‘Is your arm like the arm of Jehovah?
Is your voice like His... can it thunder?
¹⁰ If so, lift yourself in stature and might,
And clothe yourself with glory and honor;

¹¹ Then send out [His] angels in rage
To humble those who are proud,
¹² And to bring an end to the haughty...
Right now, cause the godless to rot!

¹³ Hide them together inside of the ground,
And with dishonor, then cover their faces!
¹⁴ For, surely you know that your right hand can save!

¹⁵ ‘Now, notice the dragon that’s standing beside you;
He eats the same grass as the ox.

¹⁶ Yes, behold the strength in his loins,
And the power in the navel of his belly.

¹⁷ ‘He makes his tail tall like a cypress,
And his nerves are all closely entwined.

¹⁸ His sides are like something that’s made out of brass,
And his spine is much like cast iron.

¹⁹ ‘He’s the beginning of the things [that I] shaped,
And he was made to be mocked by My angels.

²⁰ ‘When he climbs upon chiseled mountains,
He brings joy to those four-footed beasts
Who within Tartarus dwell.

²¹ ‘He sleeps under all kinds of trees...
By the papyrus, reeds, and bulrushes.

²² In his shadow, [rest] birds in the trees,
Who unknowingly sway in [his branches].

²³ ‘When storms come, he pays no attention;
For he trusts that it runs to the Jordan,
And from there, it flows into his mouth.

²⁴ ‘When he is on watch, who can take him?
But if, in a snare, you could catch him,
Would you drill [a hole] through his nose?

Chapter 41

NOTE: It is our studied opinion that many of the following verses have been corrupted to some extent in both the Hebrew and Greek texts, since much of what follows is disjointed and unclear. We feel that part of the reason for this is due to the fact that those who sang this song, those who copied it, and those who translated it simply didn’t understand its cryptic message... that the ‘beast’ or ‘dragon’ being spoken of in these and in the previous verses was the evil spirit who was bringing these woes upon Job.

Can you put a halter ‘round his nose?

² Will you put a hook though his nose as a clasp,
And bore a hole in his lip?

³ ‘Will he speak and beg you in an earnest, soft way...

⁴ Will he make an agreement with you...
Will you keep him as your servant through the age?

⁵ ‘Will you play with him like a bird...
Would you cage him like a sparrow for a child?

⁶ Wouldn’t you rather feed him to the nations...
For Phoenicians, carve him as [steaks]?

⁷ ‘If all that floats were assembled,
There’s no way they could carry his hide or his tail,
Nor could fishermen’s boats bear his head.

⁸ ‘Could you lay your hands out upon him,
Then contemplate the war in his flesh,
And let it no longer take place?

⁹ ‘[It is true] that you cannot see him.
But hasn’t the one speaking ever wondered...
¹⁰ Aren’t you in awe of this thing I’ve prepared?
‘But, who can really stand and oppose Me...
¹¹ Yes, who can resist Me and win,
Since all under heaven is Mine?
¹² ‘So I won’t remain silent for his sake;
For the word of My power to show mercy
Is greater than anything he has to say.
¹³ ‘Who will uncover the front of his clothes
And enter the fold of his chest plate?
¹⁴ Who will open the gates of his face,
And see that in his teeth, there is fear?
¹⁵ ‘His insides are like shields of brass,
And his sinews are like emery stone.
¹⁶ Each of them cleave tightly together,
And through them, no wind [can blow]...
¹⁷ They are close like a man and his brother,
And they cannot be parted.
¹⁸ ‘His sneezing brings about brightness,
And his eyes are like morning stars.
¹⁹ From his mouth come lamps that are burning
Like the scattered coals of a fire.
²⁰ ‘From his nostrils come the smoke of a furnace,
Burning with the fire of live coals.
²¹ For his soul is much like live coals,
And flames shoot out of his mouth.
²² ‘Within his neck, there is power,
And before him, there is much destruction.
²³ The flesh of his body cleaves tightly,
So he’s never bothered by rain.

²⁴ ‘His heart is fixed like a stone...
He stands as an anvil that cannot be bent.
²⁵ When he turns, he frightens the four-footed beasts,
As well as those [flying over] the ground.
²⁶ ‘With lances, he cannot be harmed,
Nor does he fear armor or spears.
²⁷ He views iron weapons as straw,
And brass ones, just like rotting wood.
²⁸ ‘By bows of brass, he cannot be pierced,
And he views [stone] slingers as grass.
²⁹ He thinks of hammers as stubble,
And he laughs at the quaking of those who bear fire.
³⁰ ‘His bed is strewn with sharp needles;
And all the gold in the seas,
Under him, are as coals on the grates,
And like just so much mud.
³¹ ‘He breaks from the abyss as though a brass pot;
He thinks of the seas as his own ointment jar,
³² And the depths of Tartarus as his captive.
For to him, the abyss is just a promenade.
³³ ‘Nothing else on the earth is quite like him...
He was made to be mocked by My angels.
³⁴ ‘He can see all things that are lofty,
And he’s the ruler over all in the waters.’

Chapter 42

¹ Then Job spoke to the Lord saying:
² ‘I know that You can do all,
And there is no end to Your power.
³ So, who can hide their thoughts before You,
And who can hold back their words,
Thinking that You cannot [hear them]?’

‘You’ve just told me some things that I never knew...
Great and wonderful things
Of which I had no understanding.

⁴ ‘So please listen to me, O my Lord,
For I have many things that I’d like to say...
I’ll ask, and then You can teach me!

⁵ ‘In the past, I’ve heard men talk about You,
But now that I’ve seen You with my own eyes,
⁶ I think of myself as having no value.
For before You, I’ve melted away,
And consider myself to be ashes and dirt.’

⁷ Well, after the Lord had spoken about all these things to Job,
Jehovah then said this to EliPhaz the Temanite:

‘You and your two friends have sinned;
For you haven’t spoken the truth,
As did My faithful friend Job.

⁸ So, take seven calves and seven rams,
And carry them to My faithful friend Job,
So that he can offer them on your behalf...
For no way do I hold him blame.

‘But for him, I would have destroyed you,
Because of what you’ve said to My faithful friend.’

⁹ So EliPhaz the Temanite, Baldad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Minaean went and did as Jehovah had told them. Then He forgave the sins that they had committed against Job.

¹⁰ Thereafter, Jehovah blest Job. And because they were his friends, he vowed to forgive those men for all their sins.

Then Jehovah [blest Job] with double, giving him twice as much as he had before.

¹¹ And when his brothers and sisters heard of the good things that had happened to him, they all went to see him, and he ended up with twice as many friends as he had at first. Everyone ate and drank with him, and they offered him much consolation. Yet they each wondered about all the things that had happened, and about all the things that Jehovah had done. Then each one gave him a lamb and an unmarked four-drachma coin.

¹² So Jehovah blest the ending for Job, and he gained much more than he had before. For He came to have ten thousand cows, four thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand oxen teams, and a thousand grazing mares.

¹³ Seven more sons were also born to him, and he had three more daughters. ¹⁴ He named the first daughter Day, he called the second one Casia, and he named the third one Horn of Plenty. ¹⁵ And among all the women under the sky, none were prettier than the daughters of Job. He also gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

¹⁶ Well, after his calamity had passed, Job lived on for a hundred and seventy more years, reaching the age of two hundred and forty. Job lived to see his sons and the sons of his sons through the fourth generation. ¹⁷ Thereafter, Job finally came to his end, an old man who'd lived a full life.

Psalms

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

NOTE: Recognize that the book of Psalms was the IsraElite songbook, so each Psalm was originally written as poetry and had a cadence. Since this can be clearly seen in even the Greek translation of the Septuagint, we have tried to restore the poetic beauty in our English translation by adding or deleting extraneous words to compensate for the language differences, while not allowing the poetic changes to harm the integrity of the original message. We found that by doing this (by looking for natural cadence and following the laws of Hebrew poetry), it became much easier to see where errors and changes have crept in due to translating or scribal errors, for it soon became clear that some of the Psalms (note Psalm 68, for example) have suffered obvious losses, which required us to work harder to restore a natural cadence and logical order to the sentence structures.

Psalm 1

NOTE: Why Psalm and not Psalms? Recognize that this is the book of IsraElite hymns or sacred music, for 'psalm' means 'sacred hymn.'

Therefore, since each of the Psalms is just a song (not songs) in that book, it is a book of Psalms (songs), but each Chapter is just a Psalm (or song).

- ¹ Blest is the one who ignores the impious
And will not side with the sinners,
Or sit among the disgusting.
- ² For he wants to do the Will of Jehovah,
And consider His Laws day and night.
- ³ He'll be like a tree that's planted near water,
And he will bear fruit every season...
He'll thrive and his leaves will not drop.
- ⁴ But, for the impious, this will not be so;
For they're like the dust that's blown 'cross the earth.
- ⁵ So they won't be raised in the Judgment,
Nor will sinners see the [blessings] on the righteous.
- ⁶ For Jehovah knows what the righteous have done,
And the ways of the impious will perish.

Psalm 2

A Psalm of David.

NOTE: Superscriptions such as the one above are notes to show such things as who wrote the song, or whom it was written, what inspired its writing, the occasions on which it is to be sung, or how it is to be sung.

- ¹ Why do the nations and all of the peoples
Think about things that are worthless?
- ² For the rulers of their lands and their kings
Are against Jehovah and His anointed.
- ³ They say, 'We should strip off their bonds,
And we should throw off their yokes.'
- ⁴ But the One in the heavens is laughing...
At them, Jehovah is laughing.

⁵ So, in His anger, He'll speak,
And in His rage, He'll disturb them and say,
⁶ 'I've placed My king on Mount Zion
To be the ruler over My Holy Place.'
⁷ Then the Lord spoke to me about His decree.
[He said to me], 'You are My son,
And today, I've become your own Father.
⁸ So just ask and I'll give you the nations
All the way to the ends of the earth
As those whom you will inherit.
⁹ With a rod of iron, you'll lead them,
And break them like pots made of clay.'
¹⁰ O kings of the earth, pay attention;
And those judging the lands should now learn
¹¹ To serve Jehovah in fear...
Yes, all should tremble and praise Him.
¹² Give ear to all these instructions
So you don't provoke Him to rage.
For, if you should kindle His anger,
Away from the righteous, you'll perish,
While those yielding to Him will be blest.

Psalm 3

A Psalm of David when he was running from his son AbSalom.

Why are so many against me
And why are so many attacking?
² Concerning my soul, they are saying:
'He won't be saved by [his] God.'
³ But, You are my shield, O Jehovah...
You're my glory who raises my head.
⁴ So, with my voice, I've called to the Lord,
And from His holy mountain, He heard me.

⁵ Then I went to bed and I slept,
And when I awoke, God sent me His aid.
⁶ So, I will not fear tens of thousands
Who've surrounded me and [planned to] attack.
⁷ Arise and act, O Jehovah...
Deliver me please, O my God!
Now, You have cut down all those
That had no reason to hate me,
And You've broken the teeth of the sinners.
⁸ For salvation comes from Jehovah,
And He blesses His people.

Psalm 4

To the music director; a Psalm of David.

¹ When I called to my God in difficult times,
He felt pity and heard what I prayed.
² [So hear me], O sons of men;
How long will you stay so hardhearted,
And why do you love what is foolish,
Always searching for things that aren't true?
³ You must be aware of the wonders
That God has performed for His clean one;
For He listened to me when I called out to Him.
⁴ So, be angry with me, but don't sin...
Complain as you pray in your beds.
⁵ To Him, offer pure sacrifices,
And put all your trust in Jehovah!
⁶ Many have asked, 'Who'll show us His good things...
Who will show us the light from God's face?'
⁷ He's the One who put joy in my heart,
And provided me with fruit, grain, and oil.

⁸ So, I will lie down in peace, O my Lord,
Since You have filled me with hope.

Psalm 5

To the music director; a Psalm of David to his heir.

¹ Lend me an ear, O my Lord,
Please listen to me when I call...

² Hear my voice and the things that I beg
As I pray to Jehovah, my King and my God!

³ Hear my voice in the morning...
As I pray, stand by me and watch over me.

⁴ For You aren't the God of lawbreakers,
And the wicked may never travel with You.

⁵ O Lord;
You don't put up with those who break laws,
And before Your face, the lawless won't stand.

⁶ For You will destroy all the liars
And the men of blood and deceit, whom You hate.

⁷ Because of Your mercy, I'll enter Your House,
And toward Your Most Holy, I'll bow...
Yes, I'll always [show that] I fear You.

⁸ O Jehovah;
Lead me in ways that are righteous
When my enemies are standing before me.
Straighten out all of my paths,
But please keep an eye upon them.

⁹ For there is no truth in their mouths,
And foolish ways are bound in their hearts.
Their throats are like open tombs,
And they've used their tongues to deceive.

¹⁰ So, bring Your judgments against them, O God,
And cause their council to fail.

For their irreverence, drive them away,
Since they're in rebellion against You.

¹¹ All can be glad who've put trust in You...
May they cry out and loudly shout cheers!
For among them, You'll dwell in Your Tent,
And those loving Your Name will boast about You.

¹² You're the One who blesses the righteous, O Lord...
With the shield of goodness, You've crowned us.

Psalm 6

To the music director: A psalm of David for the eight-string lyre.

Don't discipline me in Your rage,
And please don't correct me in anger.

² Show mercy on me, for I'm weak, O my God...
My bones are shaking, so heal me O Lord.

³ The man that I am is deeply disturbed!
So, where have You gone, O my God...
How long will You stay far away?

⁴ Return to me... please save me [O Lord];
Deliver me please, in Your mercy!

⁵ For the dead are unable to bow before You...
In the place of the dead, who can praise You?

⁶ Of moaning, I have grown so tired...
Each night, I soak my bed with my tears.

⁷ For my eyes are very disturbed
By all the troubles they see.

I've aged because of those who oppose me;

⁸ So, please remove all that's lawless in me
And hear the sounds of my weeping, O God.

⁹ Then Jehovah heard the things that I've begged...
My God showed me favor and listened!

¹⁰ So, may those who hate me be shamed and disturbed...
May my enemies all be dishonored.

Psalm 7

A Psalm of David that he sang to Jehovah because of the things that were said by Cush [of the tribe] of Benjamin.

¹ O Jehovah, my God;
In You, I have put all my trust,
So save me from those who pursue me.
² May my life not be snatched by those lions,
From whom I cannot be ransomed or saved!
³ O Jehovah, my God;
If I have done many bad things,
Or if, in my hands, there's injustice...
⁴ If I've repaid bad to those who've done good,
May I fall before all of my enemies.
⁵ May those who hate me, chase me and catch me,
Then trample my soul to the ground,
And may it thereafter camp in the dust.
⁶ O Jehovah, my God;
In Your rage, now arise...
Before my enemies, stand tall!
Awaken, O Jehovah my God,
And give the order to attack them!
⁷ By many, I have been surrounded,
So now's the time for You to arise.
⁸ Condemn all these people, Jehovah,
But please find me guiltless and righteous.
⁹ O God;
Bring an end to the badness of sinners,
And straighten the ways of the righteous...
Examine their their kidneys and hearts.
¹⁰ Please send me aid, O my God,
And save all those with straight hearts.

¹¹ My God is just, forgiving, and strong...
He's not One who's angry each day.

¹² But, if you should try to oppose Him,
He will shine up His sword,
Then He will stretch tight His bow... ¹³
He'll prepare His weapons of death,
And get ready to shoot flaming arrows.

¹⁴ See how the wicked are slaves to their sins;
For in misery, they have been conceived,
And to lawless ways, they've given birth.

¹⁵ But whenever they dig out a pit,
They'll fall into that cesspool they've made...
Yes, into the pit that they dug.

¹⁶ May their misery fall upon their own heads,
And may they receive their own wicked ways.

¹⁷ But, I will follow my God's righteous paths,
And I'll strum to His Most-Holy Name.

Psalm 8

To the director over the wine vats; a Psalm of David.

How great is Your Name on the earth,
For Your majesty has reached to the heavens.

² From the mouths of infants and babies,
You have ordered up praises.
And as for those who oppose You;
You'll remove the opponents and avengers.

³ I see in the skies, the works of Your hands...
The moon and the stars that You've founded.

⁴ So, what is man that You'd think about him,
Or a son of man that You'd visit?

⁵ A bit less than Your angels, You've made him,
Then You crowned him with glory and honor,
⁶ And placed him over the works of Your hands...
You put it all under his feet.

⁷ You brought sheep and oxen together,
And all the cattle that live in the plains.
⁸ [You put] flying things in the sky,
And fish in the water, treading paths through the seas.

⁹ O Jehovah, our Lord;
How wonderful is Your Name on the earth.

Psalm 9

To director; A private Psalm of David to his son.

Wholeheartedly, I will praise You,
And I will describe all Your wonders.

² O Highest One;
In You, I'll be joyful and glad,
And I will strum to Your Name.

³ You've turned my enemies and made them retreat...
Before Your face, they are weak and destroyed.

⁴ You've heard my case and my cause,
And from Your throne, You sent righteous decisions.

⁵ For, You have scolded the nations,
And wiped the irreverent away...
Through the age and the age of the ages,
You have wiped away all their names.

⁶ My enemy's swords have all failed,
And the memory of them and their cities
Has all been wiped [from our land].

⁷ Jehovah lives through the ages,
And He's ready to judge from His throne.

⁸ In justice, He'll judge this place where we live;
And He'll judge all the peoples uprightly.

⁹ Jehovah is a refuge to the needy
And a helper to those in distress.

¹⁰ All who know You will trust in Your Name,
Since You never reject those searching for You.

¹¹ So, strum to Jehovah, you people on Zion...
Proclaim His deeds to the gentiles!

¹² For, He remembers whose blood is required,
[And He hears] the cries of the needy.

¹³ Show mercy on me, O Jehovah...

From the gates of death, please lift me away,

¹⁴ So I can shout in joy in praise about Your salvation
And laud You before Zion's gates.

¹⁵ In their corruption, the nations are mired,
And in their own snares, their feet have been caught.

¹⁶ For Jehovah is known as the One who brings justice,
And the One who sets snares for the sinners
With the things that their own hands have made.

¹⁷ Now, bring Your vengeance on the sinners,
And send those who hate You away to their graves.

¹⁸ Do not forget those in need,
Nor allow the hopes of the poor to be crushed.

¹⁹ Yes, please arise, O Jehovah...

May You not be beaten by men!

Stand the nations before You in judgment,

²⁰ And appoint [Your servant] to give them their laws...
Then remind them that they are just mortals.

Why have You stayed far away...

Why have You left us, for we need You now!

² Because of their pride and their wicked ways,
The Godless are chasing the poor.
But, may those proud ones fall into a trap
Because of their slanderous ways.

³ The sinners are blessing themselves
With all the things that their [hearts] have desired...
It's the only way that the unrighteous are blest.

⁴ But those sinners are provoking God's rage,
For they don't choose to search for Jehovah;
So with them, our God never walks,
⁵ And He views their ways as disgusting.

O please don't decide on their behalf...
Make them rule among people who hate them.

⁶ For, they have said in their hearts:
'I will never be shaken...
Through generations, nothing bad will happen to me.'

⁷ Bitterness and cursing is what fills their mouths...
Toil, misery, and treachery comes from their tongues.

⁸ With the rich, they lie waiting in ambush
To kill the innocent and poor.

⁹ They lie and wait in concealment
Like lions inside of their lairs.
They lie in wait to capture the poor,
So they can snatch them away
And keep them under their power.

¹⁰ But their domination of the needy,
Is what will lead to their downfall.

¹¹ For they say in their hearts, 'God's forgotten...
God's turned his face and He doesn't see.'

¹² So arise, O Jehovah my God!
Raise your hand and remember the poor!

¹³ The irreverent keep making God angry,
Because they have said in their hearts,
‘There will never be an accounting.’
¹⁴ But, since You can see the misery they bring;
So in rage, do not overlook them...
Snatch them up with Your hands!
For the poor and the orphans have nothing,
And their only helper is You.
¹⁵ So, break the arms of those sinners...
When we search for them, they may not be found!
¹⁶ Jehovah is king through the ages,
And into the age of the ages.
May the gentiles be wiped away from His land,
¹⁷ And may He hear the cries of the poor.
O Jehovah; Your ears have heard what they’ve planned...
The things that they’re saying deep in their hearts.
¹⁸ So, please bring justice to the orphans and poor,
And may such men find no reasons to boast!

Psalm 11

For the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ Since I have submitted to Jehovah,
Why has He said to my soul,
‘Like a sparrow, you must fly to the mountains?’
² {Look!} For sinners are stretching their bows,
And preparing arrows for their quivers,
To shoot at my heart in the moonlight.
³ Yes, all that You’ve built, they’ve demolished;
And where are the righteous... what have they done?
⁴ Jehovah is in His Most Holy Place,
And His throne is high in the heavens.

But His eyes pay attention to the needy,
And His eyelids [are open] to see sons of men.

⁵ About the righteous, Jehovah inquires;
But those loving injustice, He hates to the core.

⁶ So upon the unrighteous, He will rain fire...
They'll get sulfur and wind in their cup.

⁷ For Jehovah is just and He loves what is true,
And His face sees the good things they do.

Psalm 12

To the director; the eighth Psalm of David.

¹ O Jehovah; please come down here and save me,
For there are no holy ones left,
And few among men tell the truth.

² Each man, to his neighbor, now speaks foolish things...
Deceit and wrong, they speak from their hearts.

³ So Jehovah; please destroy the lips of the liars,
And the tongues of those who boast of great things...

⁴ Those who say, 'We'll make our tongues great,
And ask with our lips, Who's Jehovah?'

⁵ 'Because of the misery of the poor
And the moaning cries of the needy,
I'll arise and offer them safety...
To them, I will openly speak.'

⁶ Jehovah's wise words are like the best silver...
They are wisdom refined seven times in a fire.

Though you stand tall in the heights, O our Lord,
On the sons of men, You still keep an eye.

⁷ So, please watch over and keep us
From [the bad ones of] this generation and age.

⁸ For the Godless now have us surrounded,
And around us, they walk everywhere.

Psalm 13

To director; A Psalm of David.

¹ For how long, O Jehovah, will I be forgotten...
How long will You keep Your face turned away...
Will it be this way 'til the end?

² How long must my life endure grief,
And plan for it night and day in my heart...
How much longer will my enemies be stronger?

³ Listen to me, O Jehovah!
O my God, please look down upon me!
Brighten my eyes, so I won't sleep in death...

⁴ May my enemies never say that they've won.
For, those who oppress me will cheer if I fall.

⁵ I have put faith in Your mercy,
And Your salvation brings joy to my heart.

⁶ So I'll sing to Jehovah who's blest me,
And I'll strum to His Name in the heights.

Psalm 14

To the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ 'There is no God,' says the fool in his heart,
As he does what's corrupt and disgusting...
And none are doing what's righteous!

² But Jehovah looks down from the heavens
To see if sons of men are searching for God.

³ Yet, all are crooked and useless,
For, no one does good... no, not one!

Their throats are like open tombs,
And they use the tongues in their throats to deceive.
Under their lips, there's the poison of asps,
And with what's bitter, their mouths have been filled.

Their feet are in a great hurry
To shed innocent blood and destroy.
There is misery in all of their ways;...
The road to peace they've not known;
And in their eyes, there's no fear of God.

⁴ Those who break laws do not understand,
For they swallow down people as though they are bread.
They haven't called out to Jehovah,

⁵ So, they're afraid when there's nothing to fear.

With generations of the righteous, God is nearby;

⁶ But most look down on wise words from the poor,
And on those put faith in Jehovah.

⁷ So, who will stand up for Zion,
And to IsraEl, who'll bring its salvation?

But, when Jehovah brings back our captives,
Jacob will cry out in joy,
And in IsraEl, there'll be reasons for joy.

Psalm 15

A Psalm of David.

Who is allowed to visit Your Tent,
And who can camp on Your Holy Mount?

² Just the flawless who pursue righteous ways...
Just those who speak truth in their hearts...

³ Just those whose tongues don't speak treachery...
Just those who won't harm their neighbors,
Or scorn those that are living nearby...

⁴ Just those who won't join with the wicked.

They're the ones who praise those fearing the Lord,
And speak well of those who do as they say.

⁵ They don't lend their money for interest,

Nor ask the innocent for bribes...
Through the ages, such ones won't be shaken.

Psalm 16

An inscription by David.

¹ Please watch over me, O Jehovah,
For in You, I've put all my hope.
² I've said to Jehovah, 'You are my Lord,
And other than You, I have nothing good.'
³ The holy ones within His land
Are all in awe of Jehovah,
And they are willing to serve Him.
⁴ Yet, there are many who give in to weakness
And hurriedly search to do what is bad.
I'll never gather with such men for blood,
Or mention their names with my lips.
⁵ Jehovah, You are my inheritance
And You're the share in my cup,
For You've given me back what is mine.
⁶ My borders have fallen across the best parts,
And upon the choicest of portions.
⁷ So I'll praise the Lord who gives me direction,
And corrects my kidneys at night.
⁸ For I see that Jehovah is always beside me...
He's at my right hand, so I'll never fall.
⁹ For this, my heart will always be glad,
And with my tongue, I will speak praises of Him.
Upon Him, my flesh camps in hope,
¹⁰ For, He won't abandon my soul in the grave,
Nor will His holy one see corruption.
¹¹ The ways of life, He has shown me,
And His face has filled me with joy.

Therefore, to my delight;
I'll sit in perfection at His right hand.

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

- ¹ Please listen, O Lord, to my cries,
And pay attention to the things that I beg.
Notice the things about which I pray;
For my words are not being spoken
With lips that have tried to deceive.
- ² In Your presence, may my judgment be given,
And may Your eyes look upon me in fairness.
- ³ For You've tried my heart in Your visits at night...
You've [tried] me by fire and found nothing
To prevent me from speaking [to You].
- ⁴ Concerning the hard ways of men;
Your lips have been my protection.
- ⁵ Into Your ways, You've molded my steps,
So my feet may never be caught in a snare.
- ⁶ Yes, I called out to You and You heard me, O God...
Your ears listened to the things that I begged.
- ⁷ O You who [will bring us] salvation;
Please show Your wonderful mercies
To those who are trusting in Your right hand.
- ⁸ Guard me like the pupil of Your eye...
Take me under Your wings,
And there, provide a safe haven for me.
- ⁹ From the faces of the Godless, protect me...
From those who wish to bring misery.
For my enemies have me surrounded,
- ¹⁰ And they speak with mouths filled with pride,
As they are wrapped in their fat.

¹¹ They've driven me out and have me surrounded...
Their eyes have plans to cut me to the ground.
¹² They treat me like a lion they've prepared for the hunt...
As a cub that must now run and hide.
¹³ So now, please arise, O Jehovah;
Cut them off and then knock them down!
With Your sword, save my soul from the godless...
¹⁴ Use Your hands to destroy those who hate me.
Yes, cut their bodies to pieces,
And leave them there on the ground!
But, fill [righteous] bellies with good things,
And please provide for their children,
Then give what is left to their babies.
¹⁵ May Your righteous one be seen once again,
And may I be filled with Your glory.

Psalm 18

To the director; A Psalm of Jehovah's servant David, which he sang to the Lord on the day that God rescued him from his enemies and from the hands of Saul.

With all my strength, I will prove that I love You,
² For to me, You are real, O my Lord...
Yes, You are my refuge and savior.
My helper is God, and in Him I will trust...
³ He's my protector and defender...
He's the trumpet of my salvation.
³ So in praise, I'll call to Jehovah,
And from my enemies, I will be saved.
⁴ By the pangs of death, I once was surrounded...
I was attacked by floods of the lawless.
⁵ Of the place of the dead, I was in fear,
And I was expecting death's snares.

⁶ Then, in my distress, I called to my God.
I shouted, and He heard me, there in His Home...
My cries to Him reached His ears.

⁷ Then the ground trembled and shook,
And foundations of mountains were disturbed,
As the rage of my God rumbled against them.

⁸ After that, came the smoke of His rage,
Along with the fire that He sent,
Which ignited the coals all around Him.

⁹ He leaned and came down from the heavens,
As darkness was under His feet.

¹⁰ He arrived riding on cherubs,
With their wings spread out on the winds.

¹¹ For concealment, He came in the darkness;
For, He was wrapped in a tent of dark fog.

¹² The radiance of His presence was covered by clouds,
As well as by hail and by fire.

¹³ Jehovah thundered from out of the sky,
And the Most High spoke with His voice.

¹⁴ He shot His arrows all around them,
And with lightning, He then filled the skies.

¹⁵ Then He opened the sources of water,
And the foundations of homes were exposed.
O Jehovah, this came from Your scolding...
From the blast of the Spirit of Your rage.

¹⁶ Down from the heights, He arrived,
Then He grabbed me and took me away from the floods.

¹⁷ From the mighty, He came down and saved me...
From those mighty ones who detest me.

¹⁸ They opposed me during bad days,
But Jehovah became my support.

¹⁹ He then carried me to a [safe] place...

Yes, because He chose me, He saved me!

²⁰ The Lord will provide my reward

According to the righteousness of my ways.

Yes, for my clean hands, He will repay me,

²¹ Since I have kept watch on His ways...

Unlike the irreverent, I've never left God.

²² His decisions are now here before me,

And from His Laws, I've never departed.

²³ So flawlessly, I'll stand here before Him,

As I guard against all Law breaking.

²⁴ Then Jehovah will repay me for my righteous ways,

Since His eyes have seen that I've kept my hands clean.

²⁵ To the holy, we must always be holy,

And be blameless to those free from blame,

²⁶ Then among the elect, we'll be chosen...

But we'll be turned away if we're crooked.

²⁷ Your people must watch out for the humble,

And humble the eyes of the proud!

²⁸ Light my lamp, O Jehovah my God...

Please light my way in the darkness.

²⁹ From bands of marauders, please save me...

Then by my God, I can scale any wall.

³⁰ The ways of my God are all flawless,

And His words have been proven by fire.

He's the defender of those who believe,

³¹ And there's no other God than Jehovah...

Who else can be compared to our God?

³² He's the God who wrapped me in power,

And showed me ways that are flawless.

³³ He's made my feet firm like those of a stag,

And He's lifted me into the heights.

³⁴ He taught my hands about ways of war,
And He turned my arms into bows made of brass.

³⁵ You've prepared a shield to protect me...
You've taken me in Your right hand
And given me all Your instructions;
So, with Your guidance, I can stand 'til the end.

³⁶ You've widened the path underneath me,
And You have given me strength.

³⁷ So I'll chase my enemies and catch them,
And not return 'til I've won.

³⁸ I'll squeeze them until they're unable to stand,
And at my feet, they'll have fallen.

³⁹ You've wrapped me in the power of war...
You've bound my enemies, both hand and foot.

⁴⁰ You've shown me my enemy's backs,
And destroyed all those who detest me.

⁴¹ They shouted, but no one could save them...
They called to their Lord, but he didn't hear.

⁴² So I'll grind them to powder and throw them away...
Like dust in the squares that's blown by the wind.

⁴³ You'll rescue me from their disputes,
And place me as the head over nations.
Unknown peoples will serve me...

⁴⁴ They'll hear my voice and obey me.
And those sons of foreigners who have told lies

⁴⁵ Will grow old and lame in their unrighteous paths.

⁴⁶ Jehovah lives, so may [He] be praised...
May [the Name] of the God who saves me be raised...

⁴⁷ The God who handles my vengeance,
And makes all the peoples submit.

⁴⁸ From all my enemies, He's saved me...
Yes, from those who've attacked and opposed me.

You've raised me above the unrighteous...
You've rushed to my aid and You've saved me.
⁴⁹ So I'll praise You before all the nations...
O Jehovah, I'll strum to Your Name.
⁵⁰ For You've shown all the ways that You can save the king...
You've shown mercy upon Your anointed...
To David and his seed through the ages.

Psalm 19

For the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ The heavens describe the glory of God,
And space speaks of things that He's made with His hands.
² Day after day, His words bubble up,
And He brings us knowledge night after night.
³ There is no more speaking nor words,
And the sounds of voices cannot be heard.
⁴ For throughout the earth, their [death] knell has gone,
And these words have reached to the ends of the man's home...
That He's pitched His Tent on the sun!
⁵ Like a groom who has come from his [wedding],
He shouts like the mighty in His journey.
⁶ He leaves from one end of the sky,
And from the other side of the heavens, returns.
So, no one can hide from His heat.
⁷ The Law of Jehovah is perfect,
And it brings changes to lives!
What God says can always be trusted,
And from it, even young ones learn wisdom.
⁸ Jehovah's rules are all straight,
And they bring joy to our hearts.
The Commandments of the Lord radiate,
Providing light for everyone's eyes.

⁹ The fear of Jehovah is pure...
It lasts through the age and through ages of ages.
And the judgments of the Lord are all true,
For they bring equal justice to all.

¹⁰ More precious than gold or gems are [His Laws],
And they're sweeter than honey in its comb.

¹¹ For, when His servants obey them,
They will receive grand rewards.

¹² Yet, none of us realize all our sins,
So from sins that are hidden, please cleanse us.

¹³ From foreign peoples, protect me;
For, if they cannot control me,
I'll remain unblemished and free of all sins.

¹⁴ Then good prophecies will flow from my mouth,
And all thoughts in my heart will be of Jehovah;
For, He is always my helper.

Psalm 20

To the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ In bad times, you should turn to Jehovah...
Let the Name of Jacob's God be your shield.

² For, from His Holy Place, He will send help...
He'll send you assistance from Zion.

³ May He remember all that you've sacrificed...
Yes, all of your fattened burnt offerings.

⁴ May God provide you the things your hearts crave,
And fulfill whatever you've planned.

⁵ Then all people will shout about His salvation,
And praise the Name of our God...
So, may Jehovah grant you whatever you ask.

⁶ Now I've [seen] Jehovah's salvation;
For, from His holy place in the heavens

He heard the things His anointed had asked,
And it was all under control.
Yes, with His right hand, He saved me
⁷ From the attacks of chariots and horsemen.
For, when I called on the Name of [my] God,
⁸ They fell and were bound hand and foot,
While I arose and stood firm.
⁹ O Jehovah; please save the king,
And hear us when we call out to You.

Psalm 21

A Psalm of David.

The king gladly submits to Your power,
And for Your salvation, he cries out in joy,
² Since You've given him all that his heart could desire,
And provided all the things that he asked.
³ And even before he had asked You,
You [poured] great blessings upon him,
And placed a gemmed crown on his head.
⁴ When he asked for life, You gave him long days,
Into the ages of ages.
⁵ Through Your salvation, You glorified him,
And laid splendor and majesty upon him.
⁶ Through the age, You have blessed him,
And made him glad with the joy of Your face.
⁷ The king has put his hope in Jehovah,
And he trusts in the mercy that comes from above.
⁸ So, may his enemies be found in Your hands;
May Your right-hand grab all those who hate him,
⁹ And in Your Day, throw them into an oven.

In Your rage, please send them disturbance,
And then destroy them in fire.
¹⁰ Destroy their fruit from the earth,
And their seed from among sons of men.
¹¹ For their purpose toward You was just to do bad,
And they argued over plans unfulfilled.
¹² So, throw them away with Your garbage,
And prepare their faces for this.
¹³ O Jehovah; may Your might be exalted,
And we'll sing and strum about Your mighty deeds.

Psalm 22

To the director; for help in the early morning. A Psalm of David.

¹ O God, my God, please listen to me!
Why have I been abandoned by You?
Are the words about all my errors,
Keeping me from Your salvation?
² For, all day long, I call out to You;
However, my God, You don't listen...
So don't think that I'm thoughtless during the night.
³ You dwell within Your Most Holy Place
As the One who sends IsraEl blessings.
⁴ In You, our fathers put faith,
And then You brought them salvation.
⁵ They called out to You as their only hope,
And they were never disgraced.
⁶ But people think of me as a worm, not a man...
I'm the scorn and contempt of my people.
⁷ Yes, those who see me [are laughing]...
They're shaking their heads and they're saying:
⁸ 'Since he's putting his trust in Jehovah;
If God wants him, let Him come down and save him!'

⁹ It was You who pulled me from [my mother's] womb,
And You were my hope when I sucked at her breasts.
¹⁰ By You, I was thrust from the womb...
And from the belly of my mother, You've been my God.
¹¹ So, please don't leave me now that trouble is near,
For no one else will come to my aid.
¹² I'm surrounded by great herds of cattle,
And by mighty bulls, I'm encircled.
¹³ Like lions, against me, they've opened their mouths...
Like those who roar and drag off [their prey].
¹⁴ My bones have become just like water,
And the heart in my chest has melted like wax.
¹⁵ My strength has dried out like a clay pot,
And my tongue is stuck to my throat;
For to the dust of death, I've been led.
¹⁶ Many dogs now have me surrounded,
And the wicked have gathered against me.
They're cutting into my hands and my feet,
¹⁷ And they count all my bones as they watch me and think.
¹⁸ They've divided my garments among them,
And thrown dice for the clothes that I wear.
¹⁹ O Jehovah;
I know that Your help is not far away,
For You'll notice then and come to my aid.
²⁰ So please, rescue my soul from the broadsword...
[Your] one-and-only son from the hands of the dogs!
²¹ Save me from the mouths of the lions;
On rhinoceros horns, May I not be disgraced.
²² Then I'll speak of Your fame to my brothers,
And among the congregation, I'll praise You.
²³ All you who fear Him; Give praise to Jehovah!
Yes, glorify Him, seed of Jacob,
And seed of IsraEl, show Him your fear!

²⁴ For He's never looked on you with contempt,
And He's never loathed the prayers of your poor...
Nor from me, has He ever turned His face,
For I've called out to Him and He listened!

²⁵ So, before the gathering, I'll praise Him,
And before them all, I'll confess.
I'll also pay all my vows
In the presence of those who respect Him.

²⁶ Then the stomachs of the poor will be filled once again,
And those who are seeking Jehovah
Will offer Him praise from their hearts
Through the age and through ages of ages.

²⁷ So, turn back to Him... remember Jehovah,
All you to the ends of the earth.
All the families of the nations should bow before Him,

²⁸ For the right to rule is just His alone.

Yes, He is the King of all nations,

²⁹ And He'd feed all the mighty on earth,
If they would just bow down before Him,
[Instead of] choosing to go under the ground.

So, with my whole soul, I'm living for Him,

³⁰ And my seed will serve Him alone.

They'll proclaim Him to future generations,

³¹ And they'll speak of His justice to those not yet born.

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David.

¹ Because Jehovah has watched over me,
There's nothing that I've ever lacked.

² For, in tender grass, He has camped me,
And beside still waters, He's fed me.

³ In Him, my life is renewed;
And He's guided me along righteous paths
For the sake of His Name.

⁴ So, should I travel through the shadow of death,
I'll fear nothing evil, because He is near...
And in His scepter and staff, I'll find comfort.

⁵ Now, before me, He's set a spread table,
Away from those who oppose me.
My head, He's anointed with oil,
And with His excellent cup, made me high.

⁶ Since His mercies have pursued me throughout my whole life;
I will dwell in the House of Jehovah
For the rest of my days.

Psalm 24

A Psalm of David [to be sung] on the Sabbath.

¹ The land and its goodness belongs to Jehovah...
The world and all who live in it.

² For, He's the One who prepared all its rivers,
And the One who founded its seas.

³ Who can ascend the mountain of God,
And who can stand in His Holy Place?

⁴ Just those with innocent hands
And those with hearts that are pure...
Those who've chosen not to do what is foolish,
Or sworn evil things against neighbors.

⁵ Yes, only such ones will be blest by Jehovah,
And see the charity of our Savior, God.

⁶ This generation is seeking Jehovah...
They're seeking the face of Jacob's God.

⁷ So, open the gates of your rulers...

Yes, open the gates of the ages,
That your glorious King may now enter.

⁸ Who is this glorious King?
He is the Almighty Jehovah...
The dynamic Lord with the power of war.

⁹ Yes, open the gates of your rulers...
Open the gates of the ages,
So your glorious King may now enter.

¹⁰ And who is this glorious King?
He is Jehovah of Armies!

Psalm 25

A Psalm of David.

¹ O Jehovah;
To You, I've lifted my soul;
² For, You are the God to whom I submit.
So, through the age, may I not be disgraced,
Nor may my enemies make fun of me.
³ Don't bring disgrace to those clinging to You,
But bring shame to those who rebel without cause.
⁴ O Jehovah; You have shown me Your ways,
And now teach me to walk in Your paths!
⁵ In Your ways of truth, please guide me,
And teach me that You're My Savior and God;
For I've waited on You all my days.
⁶ Remember Your compassions, O Lord,
And the mercy that You've shown through the ages.
⁷ Please overlook the sins of my youth...
Forget the ignorant things that I've done.
Speak to Yourself about mercy for me...
Please be kind, O Jehovah!

⁸ Jehovah is upright and kind,
But He upholds His Laws against sinners.
⁹ He guides the meek ones toward justice,
And He teaches the gentle His ways.
¹⁰ [God's] ways are all about mercy,
And to those hearing His words, He sends truth...
To those [who live by] His Sacred Agreement.
¹¹ Because of Your Name, O Jehovah,
Please cover over my sins!
¹² To those in fear of Jehovah,
He gives His laws [and straightens] their paths.
¹³ Then their souls will lodge among good things,
And their seed will inherit the land.
¹⁴ For Jehovah's a fort to all those who fear Him,
And to them, He has given a promise.
¹⁵ So my eyes always look to my Lord,
For He pulls the snares from under my feet.
¹⁶ O look upon me and feel mercy,
For I am a poor only child
¹⁷ Whose pain of heart keeps on growing.
Please lead me toward the things that I need...
¹⁸ Please notice my humiliation;
Yes, look at my deeds and forgive all my sins!
¹⁹ For my enemies have kept on increasing,
And the unrighteous all hate and detest me.
²⁰ So, guard my life and please save me...
May I not be disgraced, for I'm trusting in You.
²¹ The guileless and upright have stuck close to me,
Because I've been sticking by You, O [my God].
²² So, ransom us please, O IsraEl's God...
[Save us] in our time of distress.

Psalm 26

A Psalm of David.

- ¹ O God, please provide me with justice!
For the ways that I've walked are free from all blame,
And I've put my trust in Jehovah.
- ² O Lord, I will never waver;
So, test me and put me on trial...
Set my heart and kidneys on fire!
- ³ Before my eyes are Your mercies,
And I am pleased with Your truths.
- ⁴ I don't sit in the high court with fools,
Nor do I hang out with those who break laws.
- ⁵ I've detested the gatherings of those who are bad,
And with the irreverent, I've never stayed.
- ⁶ In innocence, I have washed my hands,
As I've walked 'round Your Altar, O Lord.
- ⁷ Hear my voice as I'm singing Your praises,
And as I'm lauding Your wonders.
- ⁸ The beauty of Your House, I have loved, O Lord...
That place where You Tent in glory.
- ⁹ So, don't destroy my soul with the Godless,
Nor with men of blood, end to my life...
- ¹⁰ Those whose hands are filled with what's lawless,
And those who's right hands take bribes.
- ¹¹ Ransom me, for I am free from all blame...
Please show mercy upon me!
- ¹² For with my feet, I've walked a straight path,
And among the congregation, I've praised You, O Lord.

Psalm 27

A Psalm of David before his anointing.

¹ Jehovah's my Light and my Savior;
So, whom should I have reason to fear?
The Lord is my life's defender;
So, before whom, should I ever be shy?

² For, those who attacked to bring evil,
And those who wished to devour my flesh
(Those enemies of mine who've oppressed me)
Have all weakened and have fallen.

³ Should they set their camps up before me,
And should they attack me in war;
My hope is that my heart won't show fear.

⁴ There is one thing that I've asked of Jehovah
(Yes, this is the one thing I'm seeking):
To dwell in His House all the days of my life,
Where I can see the delights of the Lord,
And visit His Most Holy Place.

⁵ For, whenever evil arrives,
He hides me inside of His Tent,
And during bad days, He's my shelter.
Within His Tent, He conceals me,
And He stands me high on a rock.

⁶ For look... He has lifted my head
Higher than my enemies!
So, around His Tent, I'll walk and bring gifts...
A sacrifice of praise, I will offer,
And I'll sing and strum to Jehovah!

⁷ I've said to You in my heart:
'I will always search for my God!'

⁸ Yes, within my heart, I've been saying:
'I will always search for Jehovah!'

My face will always be looking to You,
And Your face, I will always be seeking.

⁹ So, please don't turn from me, O my God...
Don't turn from Your servant in anger;
Rather, keep on being my helper!

'Don't ever curse me or send me away...
Don't leave me and don't overlook me.
O God, may I trust that You are my Savior!'

¹⁰ Though my father and mother have left me,
Jehovah has chosen me as His own.

¹¹ So Lord, put Your ways in my heart,
And before my enemies, straighten my paths.

¹² Don't hand me to those who oppress me...
Those who've witnessed against me and lied,
And whose justice has lied to itself.

¹³ I trust that I'll get what is good from the Lord
While I'm still in the land of the living.

¹⁴ Thus, I'll wait on Jehovah and act like a man...
I'll wait on the Lord who strengthens my heart!

Psalm 28

A Psalm of David.

¹ I'll call out to You, O Jehovah...
My God, I won't remain silent!
So, don't be silent with me,
Or make me like those who enter the pit.

² Listen, O Lord, to my voice as I beg
And raise my arms toward Your Temple.

³ Don't draw me along with the sinners,
Nor destroy me with the unjust.
For, though they speak peace to their neighbors,
Inside their hearts, there is evil.

⁴ O Jehovah; repay them for the bad things they do,
And for all of their wicked deeds.

Give them back all the [bad] things they've done...
Yes, give them a just compensation!

⁵ O Lord;

Because they don't notice the things that You do
(All the works that You do with Your hands),
You should wipe them away,
And never rebuild them again.

⁶ Praise Jehovah, for He's heard my prayers...

⁷ He's my helper and my defender,
So in Him, my heart has put hope.
Because He's helped me, my flesh has done well,
So to Him, I will always sing praises.

⁸ Jehovah's the fort of His people...

His anointed's Defender and Savior.

⁹ So upon Your inheritance, pour blessings,
And bring salvation to Your people...
Through the ages, please tend them and lift them.

Psalm 29

A Psalm of David for when the Sacred Tent was being transported.

¹ O sons of God;

To Jehovah, you should bring sacrifices...
The offspring of rams, you should offer to God.
To the Lord, offer glory and honor...

² [Yes, speak] of His Glorious Name,
And bow to Him in His courtyard.

³ His voice is over the waters...

The glory of God causes thunder,
And it also brings [rain].

⁴ The voice of Jehovah is mighty,
And of His majesty, it speaks.

⁵ The voice of Jehovah breaks [trees]...
Even Lebanon's cedars.
⁶ He thins them out like Lebanon's calves,
And as the rhinoceros young.
⁷ Like [lightning], the voice of Jehovah cuts through...
⁸ The voice of the Lord shakes the desert.
The Deserts of Kadesh tremble before Him,
⁹ For with His voice, He fashioned the hinds.
So, He tears down all of the sacred poles,
Since those who wish to glorify Him
Should [do it at] His [Temple].
¹⁰ Jehovah brings calmness to storms,
And He seats His king through the ages.
¹¹ Jehovah shows His strength for His people,
And our Lord will bless them with peace.

Psalm 30

A Psalm for the dedication of David's palace.

¹ O Jehovah; I praise You for lifting me high,
And for not giving joy to my enemies.
² I've called out to You, O my God,
And You have sent healing to me.
³ O God, You've saved my life from the grave...
And from those going into the pit.
⁴ So, You holy ones, play music to Him...
Remember and acknowledge His pureness.
⁵ For, while there is wrath in His rage,
There's also life in His Will.
And though weeping may come in the evening,
In the morning, there'll be much rejoicing.
⁶ In prosperous times, I once said:
'Through the ages, no way will I [stumble],

⁷ For by Your Will, I was given my [power].⁷
But thereafter, You just turned away,
And I was very disturbed.
⁸ So, O Lord, I cried out to You...
Before my God, I was begging.
⁹ What value has my blood if I die
And rot away under the ground?
Is there knowledge of You in the dust,
And will dirt testify to Your trueness?
¹⁰ Jehovah then heard and showed mercy on me...
He was my helper [once more].
¹¹ So my [heart] that once beat in fear,
Has now returned to rejoicing.
¹² You tore off my sackcloth and wrapped me in joy,
So I'll strum to You in my glory.
And O Jehovah, my God;
There's no way that I'll ever be angry [with You],
And through the age, I'll keep singing Your praises.

Psalm 31

To the director; A Psalm of David about his change of state.

¹ In You, O Jehovah, I've put all my hope;
So, may I not be disgraced through the age.
Please rescue me in Your justice,
And take me away from this place.
² Incline Your ear and listen to me...
Hurry and take me away!
Become to me a God of defense,
And make Your House a place of salvation...
³ A fortified place and safe haven!
For the sake of Your [Holy] Name,
Please direct me and feed me,

⁴ Then lead me away from their snares...
For Jehovah, You are my defender.

⁵ Into Your hands, I've entrusted my breath,
And You've paid my ransom, O God of truth.

⁶ You detest those who waste time doing what's foolish,
So I'll put my trust in Jehovah,

⁷ And I'll shout in praise of His mercy.

For He's noticed my humiliation,
And He's witnessed the distress in my life.

⁸ Then He saved me from my enemies' hands,
And He set my feet in a place where [it's safe].

⁹ So show mercy on me, O Jehovah,
For I am in great distress.

My eyes are disturbed and enraged,
As is my belly and soul.

¹⁰ My life has been wasted in grief,
And through most of my years, I've had to moan.
For my strength has been weakened by poorness,
And there has been pain in my bones.

¹¹ I am scorned by my enemies,
And I'm even scorned by my neighbors.
So, those who know me now fear me,
And the rest have all run away.

¹² I've been forgotten like one of the dead,
And as a shattered pot, my heart has become.

¹³ I've heard the complaints of those moving about,
As they have gathered against me.

Though they've come together to kill me,

¹⁴ I have put my trust in Jehovah.

I've said to Him, ¹⁵ 'You are my God,
And I've left my [life] in Your hands.

So please rescue me from my enemy's hands,

And from all those who pursue me.

¹⁶ Please show Your face to your servant...
In Your great mercy, please save me!’

¹⁷ O Jehovah, don’t let me meet with disgrace,
For I am calling to You.
May all the godless be shamed,
And then be led to their graves.

¹⁸ May the lips of deceivers be speechless...
Those who condemn righteous people
In contempt and in proud, lawless ways.

¹⁹ O Jehovah, Your ways are all kind,
But they’re hidden from those who don’t fear You.
Before them, You send aid to the faithful,
²⁰ And within Your face, You conceal them
From the disturbance of those who are evil.
Yes, You shelter them inside Your Tent,
Away from all scolding tongues.

²¹ So, praise Jehovah for His mercy,
And for the miraculous things that [He brings]
To those cities that are under attack.

²² I said, when I saw things had changed:
‘He’s thrown me away from His eyes.’
But then, You listened to me,
And You heard what I said when I called out to You.

²³ So, love Jehovah, you holy ones;
For such trueness is what God requires.
But, He will send retribution
To those who have too much pride.
Therefore, act like men and strengthen your hearts,
And put all your faith in Jehovah!

Psalm 32

¹ Blest are those who're forgiven for breaking the Law
And those whose sins He has covered.

² Blest are those in whom He doesn't find sin,
Or treacherous words in their mouths.

³ I've become more settled as my bones have aged...
I no longer cry out all day long.

⁴ For Your hand pressed against me both day and night,
And in misery, I writhed, as though run through by thorns.

⁵ My lawless deeds, I've admitted to You,
And my sins, I've not tried to hide.
I've openly confessed to the Lord
All of my lawless ways,
And You forgave the godless thoughts in my heart.

⁶ For this, the holy should pray at right times,
So the flood will never approach them:

⁷ 'You're my refuge from the troubles I face,
And You have ransomed my soul
From those who had me surrounded.'

⁸ [And in response, God will reply]:
'I'll send understanding to you...
I'll teach you the ways you should go,
And I'll always watch over you.

⁹ So don't act like horses or mules
That have to be bridled and don't understand,
And whose jaws must be squeezed to behave.'

¹⁰ Sinners will be whipped many times,
But, mercy surrounds those who trust in the Lord.

¹¹ So, you should find joy in Jehovah;
Shout about Him in joy, all you righteous...
Wholeheartedly boast about Him!

Psalm 33

¹ You righteous; rejoice in Jehovah,
Because He blesses the upright.

² Play psalms to Jehovah on harps;
Strum to Him on your lutes of ten strings;

³ Then before Him, sing a new song...
Yes play, shout loudly, and cheer!

⁴ The words of Jehovah are righteous;
So, trust in the things that He does.

⁵ For our God loves charity and fairness,
And the earth is filled with His mercy.

⁶ By the Word of Jehovah, the skies came to be,
And the Breath from His mouth formed their powers.

⁷ As in a leather bag, He pulled them together,
And in treasuries of the deep, He put water.

⁸ So, fear Jehovah, all dwellers on earth;
Before Him, let all stand in awe.

⁹ For He just spoke and it all came to be...
When He gave the orders, it started.

¹⁰ He wipes the plans of nations away,
And annuls the devices and plots of their kings.

¹¹ But Jehovah's Will lasts through the ages...
From generation to generation are the things in His heart.

¹² So, Blest is the nation whose God is Jehovah...
Those whom He's chosen to inherit.

¹³ From the heavens, Jehovah looks down,
And He watches the things that the sons of men do.

¹⁴ From the home that He has prepared,
He watches those dwelling on earth.

¹⁵ He's the One who fashioned their hearts,
And He watches the things that they do.

¹⁶ So, Kings can't be saved by large armies,
And giants aren't always saved by their might.

¹⁷ Thus, don't look to a horse for salvation,
Because, even with their strength, you can lose.

¹⁸ {Look!} Jehovah watches all those who fear Him...
Those who put faith in His mercy.

¹⁹ Only He can keep their lives from destruction,
And in times of famine, provide them with food.

²⁰ So, we must wait on Jehovah,
For He's our defender and helper.

²¹ Find joy in Him with your whole hearts,
And put trust in His Holy Name.

²² Please send us Your mercy, Jehovah;
For in You, we have put all our faith.

Psalm 34

A Psalm of David that speaks of the time his view of Abimelech changed and how it caused him to send him away.

¹ Through the age, I'll give praise to Jehovah...
His praises will stay on my lips,

² And I'll praise the Lord with my life.
So, listen you meek and be glad...

³ Glorify Jehovah with me...
Let's praise His great Name together.

⁴ I searched for the Lord and He heard me...
He rescued me during my travels.

⁵ So, come to Him... be enlightened,
And your faces will never be shamed.

⁶ A poor man once called to God and He heard,
Then He rescued him from all his problems.

⁷ God's messengers camped all around him,
And He saved this one who showed fear of His Name.

⁸ Taste and see that our God is good,
For those trusting in Him will always be blest!

⁹ Yes, fear Jehovah, you holy ones;

For those fearing Him will lack nothing.
¹⁰ And though the rich may go hungry and poor,
Those seeking the Lord won't lack for what's good.
¹¹ Come to me, children, then listen,
As I teach you the fear of Jehovah!
¹² Who is the man that doesn't want life,
And to see better days?
¹³ Remove all that's evil from your lips...
Take treachery away from your tongues...
¹⁴ Turn from what's bad and do what is good...
Search for peace and pursue it!
¹⁵ For Jehovah keeps His eyes on the righteous,
And His ears hear the things that they ask.
¹⁶ But the face of Jehovah opposes the bad,
And He'll wipe their memory out of the land.
¹⁷ The righteous call out and God hears them,
Then He rescues them from their problems.
¹⁸ God's near to those who have broken hearts,
And the humble in spirit, He rescues.
¹⁹ Though the righteous will have many problems;
From such things, God will save them.
²⁰ For Jehovah watches over their bones,
And not a single one will be broken.
²¹ In sadness, the sinners will come to their end,
And those hating the righteous will be condemned.
²² But Jehovah will ransom the lives of His servants,
And no way will He harm those who trust Him.

Psalm 35

A Psalm of David.

Bring judgment on those who are doing me wrong...

Wage war with those waging war!

² Take up Your weapons and shield me, my God;
Arise and come to my aid!

³ Swing Your sword at those who pursue me...
Say that You'll deliver my soul!

⁴ May those seeking my life feel shame and remorse...
May those wishing me bad retreat in disgrace.

⁵ May they soon be like dust in the wind...
May God's messengers squeeze them all dry.

⁶ May their road become slippery and dark,
And may they be chased by God's angels.

⁷ Though I have done them no wrong;
Snares, they have hidden before me,
And about my soul, they speak badly.

⁸ So, let them be caught in the snares that they've set...
May the snares that they hunt with, catch them...
Into the traps that they've set, may they fall.

⁹ I'll praise Jehovah with my whole soul...
Of His salvation, I'll shout.

¹⁰ With my bones, I'll say to Jehovah:
'O Lord, there's no one else like You!
For You rescue the poor with a hand that is greater
Than those who tear the needy to shreds.

¹¹ 'For they sent lying witnesses against me,
And asked questions that I didn't understand.

¹² They've repaid me with bad for the good things I've done,
And left my soul without seed.

¹³ 'Because of the troubles they've caused me,
I've had to wear sackcloth and fast.
So now, I pray that I might be restored.

¹⁴ 'As neighbors and brothers, they once were so kind;
So in mourning and sadness, I've humbled my soul.

¹⁵ But they happily gathered against me,
And they were not sad when they cut me with whips.

¹⁶ ‘They tried me and then they made fun...
Against me, they were grinding their teeth.

¹⁷ O Jehovah, how long will You let this go on?
Rescue my soul from their evil plans!’

¹⁸ [Then God replied:]

‘O My only begotten;
From those lions, I am coming to save you.
Then, before the assembly, I’ll praise you,
And before those bad ones, I’ll lift you!’

¹⁹ So, may those who hate me unjustly
Not [be allowed to] rejoice...
Those who detest me without any charge...
Those who looked away with their eyes.

²⁰ Though to me, they once spoke of peace,
In anger and treachery, they’ve plotted.

²¹ They’ve opened their mouths against me and said:
‘Well done... yes, very well done.
For we’ve seen it all happen with our own eyes.’

²² O Jehovah, You’ve witnessed it all!
So, don’t remain silent or leave me.

²³ Awaken, O Lord... pay attention!
Take notice of my cause, O my God.

²⁴ Judge me, O Lord, and bring justice...
My God, don’t let them rejoice!

²⁵ Don’t allow them to say of my soul in their hearts,
‘Well done... yes, very well done.’
And please don’t allow them to say,
‘We have swallowed him down!’

²⁶ May those who’ve rejoiced at my harm feel ashamed,
And may those who witnessed against me feel bad,

²⁷ As those who seek justice are joyful.
Then, may they cry, ‘Praise Jehovah,
Because He brought peace to His servant!’
²⁸ Then I’ll use my tongue to sing of Your justice,
And I’ll praise You throughout the rest of my days.

Psalm 36

To the director; about David, the servant of Jehovah.

¹ About his sins, the lawbreaker says,
‘As I see it, there’s no God to fear.’
² So before Him, he acts wickedly...
Yet, [God] will expose his lawbreaking.
³ Of treacherous things, their mouths speak,
And they talk about breaking [God’s] laws,
Since they have no desire to know what is good.
⁴ They dream of crimes as they lie in their beds
And do nothing at all that’s worthwhile;
For they’ve never learned to hate what is bad.
⁵ O Jehovah, who lives in the heavens;
Your mercy and truth ascends to the clouds.
⁶ Your justice is like the mountain of God,
But Your judgments are like an abyss,
Which saves both men and their cattle.
⁷ O God;
In many ways, Your mercies are seen.
And sons of men put their hope
In the protection of Your wings.
⁸ They feast on the things that come from Your House,
And they delight in the water from its streams.
⁹ For the springs of life come from You,
And from Your light, we’ve come to see light.
¹⁰ So, send mercy to all those who know You,
And give justice to those with straight hearts.

¹¹ May I not be kicked by the feet of the proud,
Nor may hands of sinners ever shake me.
¹² May all those who work at lawlessness fall,
Rejected and unable to stand.

Psalm 37

A Psalm of David.

¹ Never be jealous of the wicked,
Nor envy those who break laws.
² For like grass, they'll quickly be dried,
And they'll wilt away like young shoots.
³ Rather, put your hope in Jehovah,
And always act in kind ways.
If you live off the ground, its riches will serve you,
⁴ And you'll find delight in Jehovah.
For He'll give you all that your hearts may desire.
⁵ Open your ways to Jehovah;
Yes, trust in Him, and He'll act.
⁶ He'll shine a light on your righteous deeds,
And brighten them like it was noon.
⁷ Yes, put your trust in Jehovah,
And to Him, you must always pray.
Don't envy those who prosper from crime,
⁸ And don't be angry... abandon your rage!
Don't let jealousy move you to do wicked things,
⁹ For the wicked will soon be destroyed,
As those who wait on Jehovah
Will inherit the land.
¹⁰ Soon the sinners will no longer be here...
You'll look where he was and not find him.
¹¹ But the meek will inherit the land,
And find great delight in the abundance of peace.

¹² For, sinners keep their eyes on the righteous
And grind their teeth when they see them.

¹³ But at them, Jehovah is laughing,
For He sees what He'll do to them in His Day.

¹⁴ Sinners have unsheathed their swords
And stretched their bows very tight
To attack the needy and poor,
And to kill all those with straight hearts.

¹⁵ But, may their swords strike their own hearts,
And may their bows be broken to bits.

¹⁶ A little is better to the righteous
Than an abundance wealth is to sinners.

¹⁷ For the arms of sinners will be broken,
And the Lord will support all the just.

¹⁸ He knows the ways of the flawless,
And their inheritance will last through the ages.

¹⁹ They won't be disgraced in hard times,
And when famine arrives, they'll be filled.

²⁰ But the sinners will all be destroyed.
And then, those enemies of God
Who think they're glorious and exalted,
Will be blown away just like smoke.

²¹ The sinners borrow and do not repay,
But the righteous feel mercy and lend.

²² So, those who praise them will inherit the land,
While those who curse them will be wiped away.

²³ Jehovah straightens the footsteps of men,
And all should [walk in] His ways.

²⁴ Then, if you should fall, you won't break;
For the Lord will be holding your hand.

²⁵ I was once young, and now I've grown old;
Yet, I've not seen the righteous abandoned,

Or his seed ever begging for bread.

²⁶ Since, each day, he shows mercy and lends;
Thus his seed will always be blest.

²⁷ So, turn from evil... do what is good,
And live through ages of ages!

²⁸ For Jehovah is a lover of justice,
And through ages, He doesn't abandon the holy...
So the righteous will always be guarded,
As the lawless are driven away.

The seed of the Godless will perish;

²⁹ But the righteous will inherit [the] land,
And through ages of ages, they'll camp there.

³⁰ Mouths of the righteous think first and then speak...
They talk of fairness and justice.

³¹ And because they have God's Law in their hearts,
They will not stumble and fall.

³² When the sinner thinks of the righteous,
He searches for ways to destroy them.

³³ But Jehovah won't abandon them into their hands,
Nor will He condemn them in judgment.

³⁴ Wait on Jehovah and follow His ways,
And you will inherit the land.

Then, you will see the sinners destroyed,

³⁵ While they will see you lifted high...
As high as Lebanon's cedars.

³⁶ I went to see... and look, he was not!
I searched in his place and he's gone!

³⁷ So, guard your innocence and honest ways;
For those who love peace are the ones who'll survive,

³⁸ While the lawless will all be destroyed,
Along with any godless that still might remain.

³⁹ For Jehovah will save all the righteous
And He'll be their defender when they are oppressed.
⁴⁰ Yes, the Lord will help them and save them...
He'll snatch them away from the sinners...
He will deliver and save them,
Because they've put faith in Him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm of David to be remembered on the Sabbath.

¹ O Jehovah; don't discipline me in Your rage,
And in anger, don't give me correction.
² For Your arrows have already struck me,
And Your hand has been heavy upon me.
³ My flesh has not healed from the rage of Your face,
And there's no peace in my bones because of my sins.
⁴ All my bad deeds hang over my head...
They oppress me and they weigh me down.
⁵ The stripes of my foolishness fester and smell,
⁶ And in misery and sadness, I walk through the day.
⁷ My flanks have been covered by mocking,
And in my flesh, there's no healing.
⁸ I've been humbled and afflicted for my wicked ways.
So, from the moaning in my heart, I have roared:
⁹ 'O Jehovah, my desire is to stand before You,
So from You, my moaning won't be hidden.
¹⁰ For my heart is disturbed and my strength is all gone...
Even my eyes do not work.
¹¹ 'My friends and neighbors oppose me...
They approach, but they stand at a distance.
¹² 'Those seeking my life and wishing me bad,
Speak foolishly as they plan to deceive me.
¹³ But I pretend that I do not hear them,

As though I am someone who's deaf,
And like the mute, I don't open my mouth.

¹⁴ 'I became like a man with no hearing,
And with nothing to say in reply.

¹⁵ For in You, O Jehovah, I've put all my trust...
And my God, I've hoped that You'd listen.

¹⁶ 'May my enemies not rejoice at my fall...
May my legs not shake as they're plotting against me.

¹⁷ 'I'm ready for all of their whips...
I'm prepared and ready to suffer.

¹⁸ I'll admit to all of my lawless deeds,
And I'm anxious because of my sins.

¹⁹ 'My enemies have camped all around me...
All those who hate me unjustly.

²⁰ They've repaid my good deeds with bad,
And lied when I was on trial.

²¹ 'So, do not leave me, Jehovah!
Yes, my God, don't desert me!

²² Hear my pleas for help, O my God;
O Jehovah, please come here and save me!'

Psalm 39

To the director; an ode of David to IdiThun.

¹ I promised to guard all my ways,
And not to sin with my tongue.
So I put a lock on my mouth
When sinners are standing before Me.

² Then, I became humble and mute,
And I spoke not even good words,
As my pain kept on growing.

³ Then my heart became hot within me,
Burning away all my thoughts,

And my tongue spoke out and I said:
⁴ ‘Jehovah, please show me my limits,
And the number of days I will live,
So I can understand what I must yet do.
⁵ ‘{Look!} The days of a palm, You’ve given to me;
Yet, I am nothing before You.
For, foolish are the ways of all men.’
⁶ When men travel, they may carry an idol...
For they trust in things that are foolish.
They may also carry their treasures along...
Yet they know not why they collect them.
⁷ But I believe that I can endure,
With just the aid of [My God].
⁸ So, please save me from my lawless ways,
And from the scorn that fools bring.
⁹ I was mute and I wouldn’t open my mouth,
For these trials have come from Jehovah.
¹⁰ But, please bring an end to the whippings,
For in mighty hands, I am failing.
¹¹ This correction is what You have sent me...
And along with the lawless, You’ve disciplined me.
Like spiders, men’s lives waste away,
And this is the folly of humans.
¹² So, hear my prayer, O Jehovah...
Listen as I beg in my tears!
Please don’t stay silent with me,
For, like my fathers, I’ve traveled with You!
¹³ Refresh me and spare me before I must leave...
Before I no longer exist.

Psalm 40

¹ I've endured and waited on God,
Then He noticed and heard what I prayed.

² He led me from the misery of the pit...
From the mud and slime, He removed me.

Then He stood my feet on a rock,
And straightened the paths that I walk.

³ He put a new song in my mouth...
A sacred hymn to my God.

When they're afraid, many look to the Lord.

⁴ And blest are those who trust in His Name...
Those who do not search for what's foolish,
And those who don't act in rash ways.

⁵ O Jehovah; You've done such wonderful things...
Wondrous and great are Your ways, O my God,
And there are none who are equal to You!
So I'll speak and tell of Your glorious ways
And the unnumbered ways they keep growing.

⁶ Sacrifices and offerings, You didn't want,
Nor did You seek whole burnt offerings
Or sacrifices for [the covering of] sins;
Yet, You prepared a body for me.

⁷ So I said, 'Look, I have come...
In the knob of the scroll this was written about me:

⁸ *I've come to do Your Will, O my God;
For Your Laws lie deep in my [heart].*

⁹ 'I've announced the good news of [Your] righteous ways
Among the great congregation...
O Lord, I've not held back my lips!

¹⁰ 'I've not hidden Your righteous ways in my heart,
And I've told the truth about Your salvation...
I've not hidden Your mercy and truth
Before the great congregation.

¹¹ So Jehovah, don't hide Your compassions from me...
May Your mercy and truth give me strength.'

¹² Bad things are now all around me,
For my lawless deeds overtook me
And I'm no longer able to see.
They've multiplied like the hairs on my head,
And by my own heart, I'm abandoned.

¹³ So think well of me and save me, O God...
O Jehovah, pay attention and help me!

¹⁴ May those who are seeking my life
(Those who wish to lift it away)
Together, feel shame and disgrace.

May those who wish to do evil
Feel shame and be forced to back off.

¹⁵ Let them feel their shame right away...
Those who are saying of me,
'Well done, yes very well done.'

¹⁶ May all those who seek You be happy, O Lord,
And may they start shouting in joy...
May all who love Your salvation
Start shouting aloud, 'Praise Jehovah!'

¹⁷ I now find myself poor and in need,
So, please don't forget me, my God.
Since You're my defender and helper,
Please don't wait or delay!

Psalm 41

To the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ Blest are those who are paying attention
To the needs of the poor.
For God will save them when bad days arrive.

² May Jehovah bless them and guard them...
May He keep them alive on the ground
And save them from their enemy's hands.

³ May God give them aid in their beds of grief,
And turn their beds when they're ill.

⁴ I said, 'O Jehovah, show mercy on me;
Heal my soul, for I've sinned against You,

⁵ And my enemies are saying bad things,
Asking about me, When will he die?'

⁶ Once foolishness came here to visit,
And he spoke to me from his heart.
He also brought the lawless along,
And they all went outside to talk.

⁷ To each other, my enemies whispered,
And developed a plot [to destroy] me.

⁸ They planned to do something illegal...
They said, 'He'll go to bed, but never arise.'

⁹ And a man with whom I always had peace
(One upon whom I had always relied
And who once ate bread at my table),
Against me, made plans of deceit.

¹⁰ But You, O Lord, showed mercy on me.
You lifted me up and repaid him.

¹¹ By this, I knew that you [loved] me,
And that my foes will never rejoice over me.

¹² You helped me because I'm not guilty,
And through the age, I stood strong before You.

¹³ So, Praise Jehovah, IsraEl's God,
Through the age and the age of the ages...
May it ever be so!

Psalm 42

To the director; the contemplation of the sons of KorAh.

¹ As a stag searches for springs of water,
Is how my heart longs for You, O my God...

² Since my soul thirsts for the Almighty God.
When may I come and stand before You?

³ My tears have become my bread day and night...
Each day, people ask me, 'So, where is your God?'

⁴ I think of such things and thereafter,
[Before You], I pour out my soul.
I'll go to Your wonderful Tent...
I'll go to the House of my God.
I'll go shouting aloud, singing praises to You,
As though it were a great holiday.

⁵ O man within me; why are you so sad...
Why do you bother me so?
You must put your trust in your God...
Sing in praise of the ways that He saves!

⁶ O my God; I'm so bothered within,
And it's about You that I am concerned.
In the land of the Jordan, I think about You,
Here on little Mount Herman.

⁷ Because of the roar of floods in the deep,
I cried out to You [in my fear];
For I'm covered by Your crests and Your waves.

⁸ Each day, I beg God for His mercy,
And each night, I pray that He'll send it...
This God [who watches over] my life.

⁹ Then I say to God, 'Since You are my shield,
Why do You still overlook me...
Why must I always look downcast,
And have to squeeze past my opposers?'

¹⁰ ‘For they berate me as they’re breaking my bones,
And afflict me each day, as they ask:
So now, where is your God?’

¹¹ O man within; why are you dejected,
And why do you bother me so?
Put your hope in Jehovah...
Praise your Savior and God!

Psalm 43

A Psalm of David.

¹ Judge me, O God... try my case
Here in an unholy nation...
Save me from the unjust and deceitful!

² Since You are my God and my fortress,
Why have you thrust me away...
Why must I be so downhearted,
And be oppressed by my enemies?

³ From Your Tent and Your Holy Mountain,
Send Your light and truth as my guide.

⁴ Then I’ll go to the Altar of God...
To the God of my youth who once brought me joy.

⁵ Why have You rejected my soul
And allowed me to be so upset?
Yet, I still have faith in my God,
And I’ll still sing praises to Him...
So please rescue my soul, O my God!

Psalm 44

To the director; a Contemplation of the sons of KorAh.

¹ O God; Our ears have heard about it,
For our fathers told us the stories
Of the deeds that You did in their days.

² How, with Your hand, You replanted nations,
And of how You also destroyed them...
How You oppressed them and drove them away.

³ How they couldn't inherit this land with their swords,
Or of how their own arms couldn't save them...
Only by Your right hand and mighty arm,
And by the light of Your face (if You liked them).

⁴ So, You are my King and my God...
You're the One who told us how Jacob was saved.

⁵ So [we'll trust] that our enemies will also be gored,
And that in Your Name, those rising against us
Will come to know Your contempt.

⁶ Therefore, I will not trust in my bow,
Nor in my broadsword to save me...

⁷ Just in the One who will save us,
And bring disgrace to those who detest us.

⁸ Yes, we'll praise our God every day,
And through the ages, speak of Your Name.

⁹ But now, You've pushed us away in disgrace
And no longer take the lead of our army.

¹⁰ From our enemies, You've forced us to flee,
And You've given us as plunder to them.

¹¹ Like sheep, You gave us as food,
And scattered us among all the nations...

¹² You treated Your people as worthless,
And assigned us as having no value.

¹³ You've made us the scorn of our neighbors,
To be taunted and sneered at by those roundabout.

¹⁴ You've made us a parable to the gentiles...
As those at whom they can just shake their heads.

¹⁵ So, all day long, I am taunted,
And with shame, my face has been covered.

¹⁶ The sounds of berating and disrespect
Is all that I hear from our enemies,
Who have carried us off.

¹⁷ Yet, though all these things have happened to us,
We've not forgotten our God,
Nor have we broken our Agreement with You.

¹⁸ We've not left our hearts in the rear,
Nor have we turned from Your righteous paths.

¹⁹ In this God-forsaken place, we've been humbled,
And we're covered by the shadow of death.

²⁰ If we'd forgotten the Name of our God,
And chosen the hands of foreign gods,

²¹ We should have expected such things.
For He knows the secrets deep in our hearts.

²² Because of You, we're slaughtered all day...
We're thought of as sheep to be butchered.

²³ So, wake up... why are You sleeping, O Lord?
Stand up... don't push us away 'til the end.

²⁴ O why have You turned away,
And not noticed our misery and affliction?

²⁵ For our souls have been humbled down to the dust,
And our bellies have been forced to the ground.

²⁶ So arise, O Jehovah, and help us!
Ransom us for the sake of Your Name!

Psalm 45

To the director: Regarding the changes. An ode of contemplation of the loved one by the sons of KorAh.

¹ From my heart, I thrust out good words,
Then quickly, I wrote my work for the king;
For my tongue had become like a reed pen...
As one that is held in the hands of a scribe.

NOTE: This appears to be a Messianic prophecy.

² More beautiful than the children of men,
Is the favor that pours from your lips.
³ And for this, may our God be praised though the age.
³ So now, strap your sword to your thigh,
⁴ And in your fineness, stretch tight your bow!
Bless us and rule us in truth...
In your gentle ways and in justice,
Give us direction with your right hand!
⁵ Sharpen your arrows, O mighty one.
For the peoples beneath you must fall...
All the enemies in the heart of the king.
⁶ Your throne, O [\[god\]](#), is through ages of ages,
And your Kingdom is ruled by your scepter.
⁷ For, you have loved what is right,
And you have hated law breaking.
And for this, The God who's also your God
Has anointed you with His oil
And praised you above all your peers.
⁸ Your clothes smell of myrrh, balsam, and fruit,
Which is found in your palace of ivory.
⁹ In your honor, the daughters of kings find delight,
While your queen is at your right hand,
Wearing finest clothes embroidered with gold.
¹⁰ So listen, O daughters, and look...
Incline your ears and forget your own kin...
Those in the house of your father.
¹¹ For the king has desired your beauty,
And he is your [\[sovereign\]](#) lord.
¹² So, you daughters of Tyre, bow before him,
And you rich, bring gifts to curry his favor!
¹³ The king's daughter is glorious within,
And she's wrapped in clothes embroidered with gold.

¹⁴ Then, all the virgins who follow in her train
(Those closest to her) will be carried to you.
¹⁵ They'll be carried there singing praises of joy,
And led to the Most Holy Place of the king.
¹⁶ Then, in place of your fathers, sons will be born,
And you'll appoint them as rulers over the lands.
¹⁷ From one generation to another,
All will remember your name.
Yes, all the peoples will praise you,
Through the age and the age of the ages.

Psalm 46

To the director; by sons of KorAh regarding secret things

¹ Our God is our refuge and powerful aid
Against the many problems we face.
² Because of this, we won't be afraid
When the whole earth is upset,
And the mountains fall into the seas.
³ For, by His force, the waters will roar,
And the mountains will all be disturbed.
⁴ A river brings joy to the city of God...
To the holy high Tent of Jehovah.
⁵ Since God is in there, [the city] won't fall;
For, morning-after-morning, God sends it His aid.
⁶ Kingdoms were tilted and nations were shaken,
For the Most High shouted and then shook the earth.
⁷ But, Jehovah of Armies is with us;
Yes, Jacob's God is our shield!
⁸ Come and witness the works of our God...
The miracles that He brings to our land!
⁹ For He's driven wars to the ends of the earth...

He has destroyed all the bows,
And He's burned all the weapons and shields in a fire.

¹⁰ 'Relax and know that I am your God;
And among the nations, I'll be raised high...
I'll be raised high throughout the whole earth.'

¹¹ Yes, Jehovah of Armies is with us;
The God of Jacob is our shield!

Psalm 47

For the director; by the sons of KorAh

¹ Clap your hands, all you nations
And joyfully call to our God!

² Fear Jehovah, for He's the Most High;
Yes, He is the King of the earth!

³ He's caused the peoples to yield,
And He's put all the nations under our feet.

⁴ For, as His inheritance, He chose us;
And He loves the beauty of Jacob.

⁵ With a shout, our God has ascended...
From Jehovah, the sound of the trumpet was heard.

⁶ So, to our God, play your music...
Strum [your harps] to our King.

⁷ Since our God is the King of the earth,
Before Him, play your instruments well.

⁸ God rules over the nations,
And He reigns from His holy throne.

⁹ So, under AbraHam's God,
The rulers of the peoples are gathered;
For He owns all the kings of the earth,
And by them, He's greatly respected.

Psalm 48

A Psalm; an ode by the sons of KorAh for the second Sabbath.

- ¹ O how great is Jehovah...
May He be praised in the city...
Praise our God upon His Holy Mountain!
- ² Leap for joy, all you on the earth;
For, just to the north of Mount Zion
Is the city of the great king.
- ³ In her estates, God is well known,
And He's the One who comes to her aid.
- ⁴ {Look!} The kings of the earth have assembled...
Yes, they have all come to this place,
- ⁵ And when they saw it, they were amazed...
It shook them and it disturbed them.
- ⁶ Thereafter, they started to tremble
Like a woman undergoing birth pangs.
- ⁷ With storms, You will wreck boats from Tarshish,
⁸ And the things that we've heard are what we believe...
That the city of Jehovah the Almighty
(Yes, the city of God)
Was established by Him through the ages.
- ⁹ We've received Your mercies, O God,
And among Your people, we're standing.
- ¹⁰ O God, may Your Name always be praised
To the ends of the earth;
For, from Your right hand comes true justice.
- ¹¹ So Mount Zion, you should be joyful...
And shout in joy, you daughters of Judah
Over the judgments of God.
- ¹² Encircle Zion and grab hold of her...
Describe each one of her towers.

¹³ Keep her army close to your Hearts,
And make her palaces strong,
So that future generations can see her.

¹⁴ [Jehovah's] is our God through the ages
And into the age of the ages.
For, through the ages, He's watched over us.

Psalm 49

To the director; by the sons of KorAh.

¹ Listen to this, all you nations;
Give ear, all you who dwell in the land;
² You earth-born ones and sons of men,
Both the rich and the poor.

³ For my mouth will now speak of wisdom,
And the thoughts that my heart comprehend.

⁴ So, incline your ears to listen to proverbs,
For I'll explain my riddle in this song:

⁵ *Why should I fear that wicked day
When the lawless are chasing my heels,
And when they have me surrounded...*

⁶ *Those who enforce their own power,
And brag of their wealth before all?*

⁷ *A man's brother can't serve as his ransom,
Since he can't pay God for even himself!*

⁸ *And if he should try to ransom himself,
Through the age, he'll grow weary trying.*

⁹ *Thus, may he live 'till the end,
So his body will not see corruption.*

¹⁰ *Whenever a wise man comes to his end;
Along with the foolish and mindless he leaves,
And his wealth is then passed on to strangers.*

¹¹ *Thereafter, his home is his tomb...
It's his tent through the next generations.
And though they may call the land by his name,
¹² He'll see no honor in that.*

*He then becomes like the cattle;
For like them, he thinks not at all...
¹³ And this is the snare in his path.
Though his mouth may find pleasure in the things that he's said,
¹⁴ Like a sheep, he goes to the the place of the dead,
And he's put in a place where he's tended by death.*

*In the morning, he was ruled by the upright,
But their help grows old and ends in the grave
Where they and their glory are banished.*

¹⁵ *For, only God can ransom our lives
From the hands of the grave,
Whenever He chooses to take us.*

¹⁶ *So, fear not those who make themselves rich,
Or those whose houses receive all the glory.
¹⁷ For when we die, we take nothing away,
And all of our glory is gone.*

¹⁸ *Yet, while we're alive, we think our lives blest,
Since men have given us praise.*

¹⁹ *But from one generation to another,
We all just go down to our fathers,
And through the ages, we never see light.*

²⁰ *For an honored man does not realize
That he's like the unthinking cattle,
And [his end] is also like theirs.*

Psalm 50

¹ Jehovah is the God of all gods;
For He speaks and calls the sun from the east,
Where it crosses the earth to where it descends.

² It's from Zion that His beauty is shining,
³ And when His coming is seen,
He'll not be silent thereafter!

For a fire will go before Him and burn,
And a gale will blow all around Him.

⁴ He'll call to the earth from the heavens above,
And then, He'll set separate people.

⁵ He'll gather His holy ones to Him
(Those who [follow] His Sacred Agreement),
⁶ Then across the skies, He'll shout His decisions.

For, God is truly our judge.

⁷ He says, 'Listen, My people, and I'll tell you...
Yes listen, O IsraEl, and I'll testify!
For I am God... I'm your God!

⁸ 'I won't discipline you for what you sacrifice,
Since you whole burnt-offerings have been there.

⁹ However, I never asked you for calves,
Or for your winter yearlings or flocks.

¹⁰ 'For the beasts in the fields are already Mine,
As are your cattle and oxen,

¹¹ And all the birds in the skies.

For the beauty of the fields came from Me!

¹² 'If I were hungry, I would never tell you;
For, all in man's habitation is Mine.

¹³ So, why should I eat meat of bulls,
Or drink the blood of male goats?

¹⁴ 'Why not offer Me praise as your sacrifice,
And just pay the vows that you make?

¹⁵ Then, you could call out to Me,

And I would [be there to] save you...
And thereafter, you'd speak of My glory.'

¹⁶ So, to the sinners, God asks:
'Why do you bother to take up My Laws
And speak of My Sacred Agreement,
¹⁷ When you really hate My instructions,
And disregard all that I say?

¹⁸ 'If you saw a thief, you'd run with him,
And you'd join with those committing adultery!
¹⁹ For your mouths are filled with what's bad,
And your tongues are twisted in lies.

²⁰ 'Against your own brother, you sit and speak ill...
You set snares for the sons of your mother!
²¹ Then, if I don't speak when you're breaking My Laws,
You think that I am like you!

'But, I will soon discipline you...
I'll stand in your face [and speak of] your sins!
²² So notice, all you who've forgotten your God;
For the time will come when I'll snatch you away,
And no one will be there to save you.

²³ 'And though you may have offered Me glory
With your sacrifices and praises...
There's no way that I will then spare you!'

Psalm 51

To the director; A Psalm of David when the Prophet Nathan came to him over his taking BathSheba the wife of UriAh.

¹ Show mercy on me, O my God!
In Your abundant compassions
Please erase the ways that I've broken Your Laws...
² Wash away all of my lawless deeds,
And cleanse me from all my sins.

³ For I know all the laws that I've broken,
And my errors are ever before me.

⁴ Against You alone have I sinned,
And before You, I've done wicked things.
So, Your decisions are righteous,
And You're justified in Your judgments.

⁵ {Look!} But in lawlessness, I was conceived...
Yes, in the strange food of sin
That I've craved [since I came from] my mother.

⁶ However, You love what is true,
And now You've revealed the bad things I've done
From the hidden, private things of Your wisdom.

⁷ So may I be sprinkled with branches of hyssop
That I may be clean once again...
Wash me with the snow from above,
So I can stand whitened before You.

⁸ Please let me know cheering and gladness...
Let my humbled bones be joyful again!

⁹ Turn Your face away from my sins
And erase all of my lawless deeds!

¹⁰ O God, please give me a heart that is clean,
And with a righteous spirit, renew me inside.

¹¹ Don't reel and turn Your face in disgust,
Nor take away Your Holy Breath.

¹² Return the joy of salvation to me...
Support me and [help me] rule [well].

¹³ Then I'll teach Your ways to the lawless,
And I'll turn the irreverent toward You.

¹⁴ O my Savior and God;
If You'll save me from the guilt of this blood,
³¹ My tongue will shout in praise of Your justice.

¹⁵ O Jehovah; to You, I'll open my lips,
And with my mouth, I will praise You!

¹⁶ If You wanted sacrifices, I'd give them,
But You don't think well of burnt offerings.

¹⁷ What You want is a spirit that's broken,
Since You don't overlook humbled hearts.

NOTE: Some versions of the Septuagint don't include the following verse, which seems to have been a later addition to this song.

¹⁸ O Jehovah; In Your good will,
Do the best thing for Zion...

Let JeruSalem's walls be rebuilt.

¹⁹ Think well of our righteous sacrifices,
And we'll bring burnt offerings to Your Altar.

Psalm 52

To the director; A Psalm of David's contemplation, regarding the time when Doeg the Edomite went to Saul to tell him that David had gone to the house of AhiMelek.

¹ O you who think you're so mighty;
Why do you boast of the evil you've done,
And of your lawless deeds, all day long?

² For, unrighteousness thinks of your tongue
Like the treachery of a razor strap,

³ Since you have preferred evil to goodness,
And lies to telling the truth.

⁴ You have loved words that cause drowning,
As well as tongues of deceit.

⁵ For this, our God will destroy you...
He'll pluck you out of your tent,
And uproot you from the land of the living.

⁶ Of the righteous, you then will know fear;
For they'll laugh at you and then say:

⁷ 'Notice this one who won't lean on God,

But rather, puts trust in his wealth,
And feels strong in his own foolish ways.’

⁸ But, in the House of my God,
I’ve been like a tree of ripe olives.
For, through the age, I’ve trusted His mercy...
Through the age, I’ve put faith in my God.

⁹ Therefore, through the ages, I’ll praise Him,
For He’s finally brought me results.
And I will trust in His Name,
Because He provides for His holy ones.

Psalm 53

To the director; A Psalm for the harp. A contemplation of David.

¹ ‘There is no God,’ say the fools in their hearts;
So, they are corrupt and disgusting.
For, they are breaking [God’s] Laws,
And they don’t choose to do what is good!

² God looks upon them from His place in the skies,
For He watches what sons of men do
To see if they’re paying attention,
And if any are searching for Him.

³ But they’ve all turned aside and are useless;
There are none that do good... no, not one!

⁴ Don’t they know (those who act without law...
Those eating [God’s] people like bread),
That they should [search for] Jehovah?

⁵ For that’s why they’re afraid when there’s nothing to fear.

Yet, God will scatter the bones
Of those who just try to please men.
And since they live their lives in disgrace,
God treats them all with contempt.

⁶ Now, who will be appointed from Zion
To become IsraEl's savior?
For when God returns all carried away,
Jacob will cry out in gladness,
And IsraEl will once more know joy!

Psalm 54

To the director; one of the hymns of contemplation by David, regarding the time when the Ziphites said to Saul: ' {Look!} Isn't David hiding among us?'

Please save me for the sake of Your Name,
And use Your powers to bring us what's fair.

² O God,
Please listen to my prayer...
Hear the words that come from my mouth.

³ For, strangers have risen against me,
And the mighty who don't know You are seeking my life!

⁴ But look!
God then came and He helped me...
Jehovah has shielded my soul!

⁵ To my enemies, He's sent what is bad,
And He's used the truth to destroy them.

⁶ So I'll offer sacrifices to You,
And I will give praise to Your Name.

⁷ For, from great danger, You've saved me,
And my eyes have seen my prayers answered.

Psalm 55

To the director; one of the hymns of the contemplations of Asaph.

¹ Give ear, O God, to my prayer...
Don't overlook the things that I beg...

² Please pay attention and listen!

I sat alone and was worried;
For, by my enemy's voice,
I became very disturbed,
³ As well as by the oppression of sinners.
For lawlessly, they have turned against me,
And in anger, they've shown me their rage.
⁴ My heart was pounding within me,
And fear of death overcame me...
⁵ I was afraid, shaking, and covered by darkness,
⁶ So I begged, 'Please give me the wings of a dove,
That I may spread them and go find some rest!'
⁷ {Look!} I was driven far away into exile,
And I was forced to live in the desert,
⁸ Where I waited for someone to save me
From my own fears and the storms.
⁹ O Jehovah; please sink them...
Make them speak different tongues!
For I've seen how lawless they are,
And I hear of their wars in the cities.
¹⁰ Lawless ways and misery dwell in their midst...
Day and night, they encircle our walls,
¹¹ Bringing injustice to our city squares,
By treacherously charging interest for loans.
¹² Had I been slandered by my enemies,
I would have been happy to endure it.
And if someone who hates me had threatened,
I just would have hidden from him.
¹³ But it's you, O man, someone like me...
A leader of mine and a Seer!
¹⁴ It was you who once sweetened my food,
And we lived in the same house together!

¹⁵ But may death now come to them all,
And alive, may they fall into their graves.
For, wickedness travels among them,
And it dwells in their midst.

¹⁶ Then I cried out to God, and He heard me.
¹⁷ So at morning, noon, and during the night,
I'll beg Him for the things that I need,
And He'll listen to all my requests.

¹⁸ Because I was peaceful, He'll ransom my soul...
He'll save me from those who were once on my side
But who have now come to attack me.

¹⁹ Yes, our God, who exists through the ages,
Will listen and then make them humble...
He will not bargain with them,
Because they've not learned to fear Him.

²⁰ He'll stretch out His hand and repay
All those who've profaned His Sacred Agreement.
²¹ With the rage of His face, He will cut them to shreds,
And then He will snatch out their hearts.
For though His words sound as soft as olive oil,
He can also shoot them like arrows.

²² So upon Jehovah, throw your concerns,
Then He'll nourish and watch over you.
For He won't allow ages to pass,
As the righteous are being abused.

²³ Yes You, O God, will soon lead them
(Those men of blood and deception)
Into the well of corruption.
There's no way that they'll live half of their days;
And Jehovah, I'm trusting in You.

Psalm 56

To the director. For the people; from the holy things of David and for an inscription [about the time] when the Philistines held him at Gath.

- ¹ Show mercy on me, O my God;
For a man has trampled on me all day long,
And he has oppressed me in war.
- ² All day long, my enemies are winning...
From higher ground, they have fought me.
- ³ But today, I won't be afraid,
For in You, I am putting my trust.
- ⁴ I'll praise You with words throughout the whole day;
For in my God, I'm putting my hope,
So I'll not be afraid of what flesh can do.
- ⁵ Every day, they've hated my words,
And they think of ways they can hurt me.
- ⁶ They run and hide, then watch for my heel,
As they patiently wait for my soul.
- ⁷ Yet, You won't bring them salvation,
But in rage, You'll thereafter destroy them.
- ⁸ O God, to You, I've given My life,
And as You promised, You've noticed my tears.
- ⁹ So, when I must call out to You,
Please drive my enemies away.
- {Look!} I've always known that you are my God,
¹⁰ So I've [paid attention to] Your council,
And I've spoken in praise of Your words.
- ¹¹ So because I've put faith in my God,
I'll not be afraid of what men can do.
- ¹² Within me, O God, are the vows
That I made as I was speaking Your praises...
- ¹³ For from death, You ransomed my soul.
There are also tears in my eyes,

For You didn't allow them to trip me.
Thus, here in the light of the living,
I can keep pleasing Jehovah.

Psalm 57

To the director; 'Do not Destroy,' by David. For an inscription on a monument regarding the time he ran away from Saul [and hid in] a cave.

¹ O God, show mercy upon me...
Yes, please be merciful to me!
For to You, I have given my life,
And in the shadow of Your wings, I've put faith.
Until these lawless things pass me by,
² I'll call out to God, the Most High...
The One by whom I am blest.
³ From the heavens, He's sent me protection,
And heaped scorn on those who were walking on me.
God sent me His mercy and truth,
⁴ And from those young lions, He saved me.
For, whenever I went to bed,
I was bothered when I thought about sons of men
Whose teeth are just like their weapons,
And whose arrows are like sharpened swords.
⁵ May You be exalted, my God,
Above the highest of the heavens...
Above all the lands, may Your glory be raised!
⁶ Now, they have set snares for my feet,
And my soul, they have dragged down to the ground.
And though they dug a cesspool in front of my face,
They were the ones who fell in it.
⁷ So my heart is now ready, O God,
To sing and strum to Your glorious Name.

⁸ Therefore, awaken my glory and ready my harp
When I arise in the morning.
⁹ Then among the peoples, I'll praise You, O Lord,
And among all the nations, I'll strum to [Your Name].
¹⁰ For above the heavens, Your mercy is raised,
And Your Truth is higher than the clouds.
¹¹ So above the skies, may You ever be raised...
O God, may Your glory [shine] on the earth.

Psalm 58

To the director; 'Do Not Destroy,' by David. An inscription on a monument.

¹ Won't You speak out for righteous ways,
And won't You, in justice, judge sons of men?
² For their hearts have brought lawless ways to our land,
And their hands are wrapped in injustice!
³ Sinners come out of the womb
And wander from the belly speaking lies.
⁴ Their rage is like that of serpents;
And as asps that can't speak, for their ears have been closed,
⁵ So they can't hear the sounds of [snake] charmers,
[And they strike] with the potions of witches.
⁶ But now, God has broken the teeth in their mouths...
Their molars of lions, He has shattered.
⁷ He views them as though they're just water,
And He'll stretch tight His bow 'til they're conquered...
⁸ Like melted beeswax, they will be removed;
For, He will strike them with fire,
And thereafter, they'll not see the sun anymore.
⁹ As white-thorned shrubs, He views their thorn-bushes;
And He'll swallow them down still alive.
¹⁰ We'll all rejoice when we see they've been punished,
And wash our hands in the blood of those sinners.
¹¹ Thereafter, each man will be forced to declare

That this is the fruitage of justice,
And there's a God who brings what's fair to the land.

Psalm 59

To the director; 'Do Not Corrupt' by David. An inscription on a monument about the time when Saul sent men to watch his house in order to kill him.

¹ From my enemies, please save me, O God...
Ransom me from those who attack me.
² Deliver me from those breaking the Law...
From those men of blood, please save me!
³ {Look!} For, they have been hunting soul...
Yes, they've sent their mighty against me.
But Jehovah; I've not broken Your laws,
Nor are [they coming] because I have sinned!
⁴ Although I've done nothing illegal,
From them, I've been forced to flee...
So awaken to meet me and notice!
⁵ O God, Jehovah of armies...
O God of IsraEl, take notice...
Come and visit those nations!
Don't pity those who are lawless...
⁶ May they come back starved in the evening,
And like dogs, may they roam through the [streets]!
⁷ They shout with their swords held up to their lips,
As they ask, 'Who is paying attention?'
⁸ But You, O Lord, should be laughing out loud,
And treating them all with contempt.
⁹ For, You are my strength, O my God...
You are my shield [and protector].
¹⁰ So Your mercy travels before me,
And to my enemies, You send whatever I wish.

¹¹ But don't kill them, so Your Laws are not overlooked;
Rather, scatter them with Your great power.

O my defender, Jehovah;
Have them be led far away!

¹² For the sins of their mouths and the words on their lips,
Let them be taken as captives...

May they be cursed for their pride and their lies.

¹³ In Your rage, please come and consume them,
So that they will no longer exist.

Then all to the ends of the earth
Will know Jacob's Lord is the [only true] God.

¹⁴ When they arrive in the evening;
May they be starved upon their return,
And like dogs, may they roam through the [streets].

¹⁵ May they be scattered to search for their food,
And then, let them grumble as they're starving.

¹⁶ Then I'll sing of all Your great powers,
And I'll praise Your mercies each morning;
For, You are my refuge and shield
In my day of distress.

¹⁷ Because You're my helper, I'm strumming to You...
I'm playing to You, for You are my God.
O God; You are truly my shield,
For, You have shown mercy upon me.

Psalm 60

To the director; 'The Changings.' For an inscription on a monument by David, as a lesson about when he fought the MesoPotamians of the Syrian [army] under SoBal, and when JoAb returned and cut down twelve thousand men of Edom in the Salt Valley.

You've knocked us down and pushed us away,
But, along with Your rage, You've also felt pity.

² For though You shook our land and disturbed it;
You've healed the cracks that resulted.

³ You've taught Your people hard lessons,
And we've melted in the wine of Your rage.

⁴ But, to those who feared You, You then sent a sign,
To flee from the face of the bow.

⁵ So, since You have saved all those whom You love,
Please listen, and with Your hands, save me!

⁶ And from His Holy Place, our God then spoke out.
He said, 'I'll shout and then divide SheChem...
The Valley of Tents, I will split.

⁷ 'Gilead is Mine and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim is the fort of My head,
And Judah is the place of My king.'

⁸ Then, over Edom He said:
'Moab is the kettle of My hope;
So, I will stretch out My sandal,
And make the Philistines submit.

⁹ So, who can take Me up to their forts,
And who can guide Me to Edom?'

¹⁰ O Lord; why did You thrust us away?
O God; won't You be with our army?

¹¹ Help us in our day of oppression,
For, there is no salvation from men.

¹² Only by God do we have any strength...
Only He can show great contempt
For those who have been our oppressors.

Psalm 61

To the director; one of the hymns of David. A Psalm.

¹ Listen, O God, to the things that I beg...
Please pay attention to my prayer!

² From the ends of the earth, I called out to You
When my heart was discouraged at the Rock;
Then You lifted me high and showed me the way.

³ When my enemies were there in front of my face,
You were my only reason for hope...
You were my tower and strength.

⁴ So I'll go to Your Tent through the ages;
In the protection of Your wings, I'll seek shelter.

⁵ For You, O God, have heard what I vowed,
And an inheritance is what You will give
To those who are fearing Your Name.

⁶ Day after day, add life to the king
From one generation to another.

⁷ Through the ages, may he live before You
And search for Your mercy and truth.

⁸ Then, through the ages, I'll sing to Your Name,
And I'll render my vows every day.

Psalm 62

To the director; for IdiThun. A Psalm by David.

¹ Shouldn't my life be devoted to God?
In His salvation, shouldn't I trust?

² For, He is my God and my Savior...
He is my shield, so I'll not be afraid
When I must fight larger armies.

³ So, how long will You pile so much upon men?
For like walls that lean, we've become...
Like fences that have many gaps...
And then, to each one, You send death.

⁴ Because they've conspired to remove all my honor;
From them, I have run away.

For though, with their mouths, they have blest me;
Within their hearts, they have cursed me.

⁵ But I've given my life to my God
And I've trusted in Him to survive.

⁶ He is my God and my Savior...
He's my shield, so I'll never leave Him.

⁷ Yes, He's my salvation and glory...
God is my hope, so I'm trusting in Him.

⁸ In Him, the congregation should also put faith...
Since He's their helper, they should pour out their hearts.

⁹ In the sons of men, they shouldn't put trust,
Since they are the same as the false weights
That are used to cheat them on scales...
To mislead them and do them wrong.

¹⁰ Nor should they trust in unrighteous ways,
Or long for things they can steal.
And should they find treasures before them,
They shouldn't let it enter their hearts.

¹¹ For the Lord spoke to me and said this:
'God sends His mercy along with His might,

¹² And He pays each one back for the things that he does.'

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David about the time he spent in the desert of Idumea.

¹ God, O my God, I rise early,
Because my soul is thirsting for You.
Yes, my flesh has been longing for You
In this land that is barren, unwalked, and dry.

² So, to Your Holy Place, I've now come
To behold Your power and glory.

³ And since Your mercies are better than life,
My lips will [sing praises about them].

⁴ With my whole life, I will praise You,
And to Your Name, I will raise my hands.
⁵ So may my life become filled with the fatness of fat,
And with joyful lips, may my mouth offer praise.
⁶ I'm thinking of You as I lie in my bed...
I'm meditating at the breaking of dawn.
⁷ And because You're my helper, I'm shouting in joy,
As I lie in Your wings of protection.
⁸ To You, my soul will stick closely,
And I'll grab hold tightly to Your right hand;
⁹ For there are those who are seeking my life.
May they be sent to the depths of the ground...
¹⁰ May they be handed up to the sword...
The reward of foxes, may they receive.
¹¹ May the king find joy in [his] God,
And may he swear oaths here before Him;
For, He has stopped up the mouths
Of those who've spoken against him.

Psalm 64

To the director; A Psalm by David.

¹ O God, please listen to my voice;
For, I am begging before You.
Of my enemies, I am afraid...
So, please come and rescue my soul!
² From the conspiracies of the wicked, give me shelter...
And from the crowds of the unrighteous.
³ For they've sharpened their tongues just like broadswords,
And in bitterness, they've stretched tight their bows.
⁴ They aim from hiding at the unblemished,
Then shoot at me without fear.

⁵ They've decided to do evil things,
And they've talked about how they'll hide all their snares...
Asking each other, 'Who will see them?'

⁶ For lawless ways, they have searched,
But all their searching has failed;
For, not a single man would step forward,
Who had any depth in his heart.

⁷ So, may Jehovah be praised;
For, even on their infants, calamity came.

⁸ Though they spoke in contempt with their tongues,
And all who viewed them were frightened;

⁹ Of the works of my God, they all were in awe,
When they came to see He was with me.

¹⁰ So, may the upright find joy in Jehovah,
And in Him, may they put all of their trust;
For He blesses those with straight hearts.

Psalm 65

To the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ From Zion, I am sending this hymn, O my God;
From JeruSalem, I'm sending this vow.

² Please hear this prayer [that I offer];
For before You, all flesh must approach.

³ Though we were overwhelmed by our errors,
Our irreverent ways, You have covered.

⁴ Blest are those whom You've chosen and claimed;
For, in Your courtyards, they'll camp,
And there, You'll fill them with the good things
That come from Your House and Your Holy Tent.

⁵ Of Your righteousness, we all are in awe;
So, hear us, our God and our Savior!

⁶ You're the hope of all to the ends of the earth,
And of those far away on the seas.
You're the One who made mighty mountains,
⁷ And the One who brings disturbance to the seas
(The roar of which no one can stand).
⁸ But, that's how the nations will soon be disturbed...
It's how those at our borders will come to know fear.
⁹ Your signs bless the comings of mornings and evenings,
And You've made the land drunk with Your visits.
With the river of God, You've enriched it...
You've nourished [our land] with the water You sent.
¹⁰ Yes, You've sent [much water to the land]
To saturate the rows and make them produce.
You've sent raindrops to make it all grow,
And we're happy to watch as it springs from the ground.
¹¹ You graciously bless the crown of the year,
When You fill our fields up with fatness.
¹² Then the beautiful mountains will also be fat,
Along with all of the deserts.
And wrapped [in green], the hills will become,
¹³ As the rams and sheep grow much wool.
For in the valleys, You make the grain grow,
So of You, we'll shout and sing praises.

Psalm 66

To the director; a Psalm of awakening.

¹ Shout to Jehovah, all you on the earth,
² And then play music to His Name!
Shout in praise of His Glory!
³ Tell Him, 'We fear the things that You do,
So, may Your enemies submit to Your power.
⁴ May the whole earth bow down before You,
And may they strum to You in the heights.'

⁵ Come witness the works of our God,
For they're more to be feared than men think;
⁶ Because, He changed the sea to dry ground,
And He did the same to the river...
For they walked across them both on their feet.
So in Him, we all should find joy,
⁷ For, He's the master of His domain.
And through the age, He's been watching the nations;
So, may those who enrage Him not think themselves great.
⁸ O nations; give praise to our God...
May we hear the sounds of your voices!
⁹ For, He's the One who gave life to my soul,
And let nothing stumble my feet.
¹⁰ Yes, You have tried us, O God,
For, You have refined us like silver.
¹¹ First, You led us into a snare,
And upon our backs, laid oppression.
¹² Then, You assigned men to be over our heads...
But through fire and water, You led us to rest.
¹³ So, with my offerings, I'll go to Your House
And render to You all my vows...
¹⁴ Those things that my lips have opened to say...
The words my mouth spoke in distress.
¹⁵ I will bring burnt offerings before You,
As well as incense and marrow...
My rams, winter yearlings, and bulls.
¹⁶ Come listen to me and I'll tell you
About my fear of my God,
And of the things He has done for my soul.
¹⁷ To Him, my mouth has cried out,
And with my tongue, I then shouted this:

¹⁸ ‘If You’ve found injustice within my heart,
O Jehovah; then, please overlook me.’

¹⁹ However, He listened to all that I said...
He heard the sounds of my prayers!

²⁰ So, may our God forever be praised,
Since He didn’t overlook what I said,
Nor did He remove His mercy from me.

Psalm 67

To the director; a hymn among the Psalms of David.

¹ O God, feel pity and bless us...

Show mercy and shine Your face on us!

² Throughout the whole earth, may Your ways be made known,
And may all the nations see how You save...

³ May everyone come to know You, O God...
May they all be aware of Your [power].

⁴ You gentiles; be glad and cry out [in joy],
For He judges the peoples in straightness,
And He will lead all the nations on the earth.

⁵ So, may all come to know You, O God...
May they all be aware of Your [greatness].

⁶ The earth has provided us all with her fruit...
And it was from God (our God)
That such a blessing arrived.

⁷ So, may our God continue to bless us,
And may He be feared to the ends of the earth.

Psalm 68

To the director; a Psalm of David.

¹ May God chase away those who hate Him,
And may those who detest Him, flee far from His face.

² Like smoke, may they just blow away,

And melt like beeswax in fire.
That's how the sinners will all be destroyed
Before the face of our God.

³ But the righteous have reasons for joy;
So, may they happily shout in His presence...
May they all be joyful and may they be blest!

⁴ So, sing to God... yes, strum to His Name!
Open the way to the One riding west...
The One whose Name is Jehovah!

May they all shout before Him in joy,
And before His face, may they all be concerned.

⁵ For, He is a Father to orphans,
And the One who gives justice to widows...
He's the God who dwells within His Most Holy.

⁶ He settles common people in homes,
And He releases all those bound in shackles.
He [provides] for even the bitter,
And for those who dwell among tombs.

⁷ O God, as You passed by Your people,
And as You were crossing the desert,

⁸ The land was shaken and the skies dripped with rain,
Before the face of the God upon Sinai...
Before the face of IsraEl's God.

⁹ O God; You sent rain to Your people,
And then You set us apart.

¹⁰ You also gave life to the beasts [in the fields],
And Your kindness provides for the poor.

¹¹ So, the Great God Jehovah will speak
And announce the good news to our army,

¹² That the king and his armies of loved ones
Will divide the spoils in his palace.

¹³ Then, if you must sleep among sheep folds;
You will also sleep amidst doves...
The types that have silver wings,
With the colors of green and gold on their backs.

¹⁴ The Heavenly One scatters kings
Like snow when it falls on Mount Selmon
¹⁵ (The mountain of God and the Hill of BaShan...
The fourth great mountain of provision).

¹⁶ So mountains; why does God dwell upon you?
For Jehovah camps at the extremes,
¹⁷ And His chariots number into the millions.
Yet, from His Holy Place on Mount Sinai,
The Lord still sends His provisions.

¹⁸ To the highest places, he has stepped up,
And he's taken captivity as his captive;
Then, he gives gifts to the people
As he camps among those who resist His persuasion!

¹⁹ So, praise Jehovah our God...
Yes, praise Jehovah each day!
For, He is the One who has blest us...
Our God is the One who has saved us!

²⁰ Yes, our God is the God of salvation...
For, from the brink of death, He has saved [us]!

²¹ So our God will shatter our enemies' heads...
The tops of hairy heads of those walking in sin.

²² For Jehovah spoke and said this:
'I'll bring them back from the depths of the seas...
From BaShan, I will return them.

²³ Then I'll dip their feet in their enemy's blood,
And it will stain the tongues of their dogs.'

²⁴ O God;
Your travels are seen from Your Holy Place...

The comings and goings of my God the King.
²⁵ Rulers have traveled before You,
As women played harps and [shook] tambourines.

²⁶ May God be praised in the gathering
All the way to IsraEl's springs.

²⁷ It's the place where (to our surprise),
Young BenJamin was appointed the ruler
Of the governors and princes of Judah,
And the leaders of ZebuLun and NaphTali.

²⁸ Give orders, O God, and send us Your power...
Give us the strength to accomplish
All the things that You want us to do!

²⁹ Then the kings [of the earth] will bring gifts
To Your Holy Place in JeruSalem.

³⁰ Scold those wild beasts that live in the reeds,
And the bulls that are mixed among heifers.
Lock away those who put trust in their silver,
And scatter the nations... all those that want war.

³¹ Yes, send ambassadors from Egypt,
With Ethiopians in front and their hands stretched toward God.

³² O you kingdoms throughout the whole earth;
Sing before God and play music!

³³ Yes, strum to Jehovah who lives in the skies...
In the heavens above, toward the east.

{Look} Let them shout in a powerful voice

³⁴ And give glory to IsraEl's God,
Whose majesty and power [is seen] in the clouds.

³⁵ God's wonders are in His Most Holy Place.
And from there, IsraEl's God sends the power
That He uses to strengthen His people.
So, all should give praise to [Jehovah]!

Psalm 69

To the director; for the changes. A Psalm of David.

- ¹ Save me, please, O my God,
For my soul [is drowning] in water.
It's deep and slimy, and I have no support...
- ² I've gone into the depths of the sea,
And by the winds of a gale, I've been sunk.
- ³ From shouting, I have become tired,
And my throat is now very sore.
But, though my eyes have started to fail,
I still have faith in my God.
- ⁴ My enemies number more than the hairs on my head...
Yes, there are many who hate me.
And my foes are now very strong
(Those who've unjustly driven me out).
And for things that I didn't steal,
They tell me that I must repay.
- ⁵ O God; You know of my sins,
And You know of my foolish ways...
For from You, they've never been hidden.
- ⁶ But, may all those who put trust in You
Never feel ashamed about me.
Yes, O Jehovah of armies;
May those who are seeking IsraEl's God
Never feel ashamed about me.
- ⁷ But, because of You, I am scorned,
And my face has been covered with shame.
- ⁸ I've been driven away from my brothers...
I'm a stranger to the sons of my mother.
- ⁹ Though zeal for Your House has consumed me,
The scorn of blasphemers has fallen upon me.

¹⁰ So my life is now wrapped up in fasting,
And this gives them more reasons to laugh.
¹¹ For, when I was covered in sackcloth,
I became a parable among them.

¹² Those who sit at the gates now think about me,
And about me, even drunks [make up] songs.
¹³ But to You, O Jehovah, I've cried out in prayer:
'O God, I'll wait 'til the time that You've set,
When in Your mercy, You'll heed me once more,
And show them the truth of how You can save.'

¹⁴ O save me, for I'm stuck in this mud...
Pull me out of the waters of those who detest me!
¹⁵ May the gale not sink me in water,
Nor swallow me down in the mouth of its well.

¹⁶ Please listen to me, O Jehovah,
For Your mercies are all very tender.
Yes, in Your compassion, please look upon me!

¹⁷ Don't turn Your face from Your servant...
In my time of affliction, please notice!
¹⁸ Pay attention and ransom my soul...
From my enemies, please come here and save me!

¹⁹ You know of my shame and remorse,
And before You, my enemies scorn me.
²⁰ Though I thought they would grieve over my misery;
They didn't, and they brought me no comfort.

²¹ As food, they offered me bile,
And they gave me vinegar, to quench my thirst.

²² May [what they offered] become their own snare...
May [it keep them] from their reward.

²³ May their eyes become dark, so they cannot see,
And may their backs be bent over double.

²⁴ Please pour out Your anger upon them...
May they be caught in Your rage.

²⁵ May the houses that they own become empty,
And may no one ever live in their tents.

²⁶ For they've chased this one whom You struck,
And added to the pain of my wounds.

²⁷ For their lawless ways, may they see lawless ways...
May they not enter Your justice.

²⁸ In the Scroll of Life, may their names not be written...
Among the righteous, may their names be erased.

²⁹ I stand in Your presence, poor and in pain;
So God, please take care of me!

³⁰ Then I'll praise Your Name [every day]...
With songs, I will sing of Your glory.

³¹ So, God above, I will please You...
[I will offer] hoofed calves that are just sprouting horns.

³² Then may all the poor people see it,
And may they all start rejoicing!

Inquire of God who gives life to our souls;

³³ For Jehovah pays attention to the needy,
And He listens to those bound in shackles...
He never looks upon them in contempt.

³⁴ So, praise Him You heavens, you earth, and you sea,
And all the things that may crawl there;

³⁵ For Zion will be saved by our God,
And the cities of Judah will then be rebuilt,
Which the people will inherit thereafter...
Yes, that is where they will dwell.

³⁶ The seed of Your servants will own it,
And those loving Your Name will all camp there.

Psalm 70

To the director; A Psalm of David in remembrance of his being saved by Jehovah.

¹ O God, please hear me and help me...
O Jehovah, please rush to my aid!
² May those seeking my life feel shame and remorse...
May those wishing me harm retreat in disgrace.
³ May those saying of me, 'Well done, well done,'
Turn back and then be ashamed.
⁴ But, may those who seek You be glad and rejoice...
May those who love Your salvation
Give praise to You, O Jehovah.
⁵ Help me, O God, for I'm poor and in need...
Become my helper and Savior...
I [need You now], so do not delay!

Psalm 71

A Psalm of David that was sung by the sons of JoNadab who were the first to be carried off as captives.

¹ In You, O Jehovah, I've put all my hope;
So, may I not be disgraced through the age.
² In Your justice, please take me and save me...
Incline Your ear and deliver!
³ Become to me, a God of defense,
And carry me to a fortified place.
For, You are my trust and my refuge!
⁴ Then, from the hands of sinners, God saved me...
From the lawless and those who were doing me wrong.
⁵ O Jehovah; You're the One who helped me endure...
The One whom I've trusted since youth.
⁶ From the womb, I have always put faith in You,
And from the belly of my mother, You watched over me.
So to You, I will always sing praises.
⁷ You've been a miracle to many,
And You've been my fortress and helper.

⁸ So, may my mouth sing in praise of Your glory
And majesty, throughout the whole day.

⁹ When I grow old, don't toss me away;
Don't abandon me when my vigor is gone.

¹⁰ My enemies met, and against me, they spoke...
Together, those seeking my life laid their plans.

¹¹ They said, 'God's left him, so let's chase him down,
Since there is no one that will come to his aid.'

¹² So my God, don't stay far away...
My God, pay attention and send me Your aid!
¹³ May those slandering my soul become failures...
May those wishing me bad feel shame and remorse.

¹⁴ In You, I will always trust,
And I will continue to praise You.

¹⁵ My mouth will speak of Your justice all day,
And of Your salvation, I'll write.

¹⁶ I will walk in the might of Jehovah...
My Lord, I will speak of Your justice.

¹⁷ O God; from my youth, You have taught me,
And now, I will speak of Your wonders.

¹⁸ My God; don't forsake me when I'm old and grey,
Or until I've spoken to the next generation
Of [the power of] Your mighty arm.

¹⁹ O God; I will speak of Your justice and might,
And of the magnificent things that You've done...
For my God, to no other, can You be compared.

²⁰ Though You showed me hard times and affliction,
You then turned around and gave back my life.
You brought me back from the pit...
You led me up out of the ground.

²¹ In the abundance of Your greatness, You blest me...
You returned to offer me comfort.

You led me up from the abyss,
And lifted me out of the ground.

²² So Jehovah, I'll praise You to all,
And I will sing songs about Your just ways...
About IsraEl's Most Holy, our God.

To You, I will also strum on my harp,
²³ And as I play before You, I'll be shouting aloud,
Because You have ransomed my soul!
²⁴ With my tongue, I'll speak of Your justice,
And make those who do wrong feel shame and remorse.

Psalm 72

For Solomon; A Psalm of David.

¹ O God, show the king Your decisions
And teach the king's son to be just,
² So we can judge Your people uprightly,
And always be fair with the poor.
³ May the mountains send peace to Your people,
And may the hills send them justice that's true.
⁴ Help [my son] to be fair with the poor...
May he save the sons of the needy
And humble all those who'd extort them.
⁵ As long as the sun, may he live...
For generations of generations, like the moon.
⁶ May he be like rain upon fleece,
And as the rain that falls to the ground.
⁷ May his days stand for justice and peace
Until the moon is no more.
⁸ From sea to sea, may he rule...
From the river to the ends of man's home.
⁹ Before him, may all Ethiopians fall...
May his enemies all lick the dust...

¹⁰ May the Kings of Tharsis and the islands
Come to him bearing their best...
May the kings of Saba and Arabia bring gifts.

¹¹ May all the earth's kings bow before him...
May all the nations start to serve him.

¹² For he'll save the poor from the mighty,
As wells as the needy, who have no one else.

¹³ May he spare the poor and the needy;
May he save the lives of those who have little.

¹⁴ From interest and injustice, may he ransom their souls,
And may his name be valued among them.

¹⁵ May he live a very long life,
And may he receive Arabian gold.
May he be someone that they pray for,
And may they praise his name every day.

¹⁶ Let grain abound throughout all his land...
On the tops of the hills, may it sway.
May the grain grow like Lebanon's trees...
May it thrive like grass in the fields.

¹⁷ May his name be praised through the ages...
May his name endure [as long as] the sun.
May the tribes of the earth praise his name,
And may all nations call him the Blest One.

¹⁸ Praise Jehovah, IsraEl's God,
For, He's the One who brings wonders!

¹⁹ Through the ages, praise His Name and His glory,
And on through the age of the ages...
May the earth be filled with His glory... amen!

²⁰ This is the end of the hymns of David, the son of Jesse.

Psalm 73

A Psalm of Asaph.

To those who have hearts that are straight!

² But my feet had once been unsteady,
So I slipped and fell in my tracks,
³ Because I was zealous for unrighteous things,
As I noticed the peace of the wicked.

⁴ I noticed that they have no fear of death,
And I've not seen them whipped [for their badness].
⁵ They don't work as hard as other men do,
And they never seem to be beaten.

⁶ So because of this, they are proud to the end...
In injustice and irreverence, they're wrapped!
Injustice pours from their fatness,
As they follow the ways of their hearts.

⁸ They think, and then speak wicked things...
In their pride, they speak of injustice.

⁹ Since they have set heaven against their own mouths,
Their tongues will go under the ground,
¹⁰ While [from there], Your people will all be returned
And then, full days they will know.

¹¹ Yet they ask, 'Doesn't God ever notice?
Aren't these things known up above?

¹² For {look!} the sinners continue to prosper,
And through the ages, hold onto their wealth!'

¹³ This is why my heart justified foolish things,
And from innocence, I then washed my hands.

¹⁴ So, I deserved to be whipped all day long,
And to be scolded each morning.

¹⁵ I said, 'This is how I'll describe what I've done:
{Look!} With Your sons, I've broken the contract,

¹⁶ But now, I've stopped and thought it all through,

And what I've done weighs heavy upon me...
¹⁷ So I'll take it before God to see what I'm due.'
¹⁸ On the deceitful, He's appointed what's bad,
And from their high perches, He will throw them down...
¹⁹ Yes, how far they'll fall to meet with this end...
Because they are lawless, they'll be suddenly gone.
²⁰ O Jehovah, when I came to my senses,
I awoke and examined Your city,
Then I noticed how You treat the bad with contempt.
²¹ Then my heart came on fire and my kidneys were changed;
²² For, I was the one deserving Your contempt...
An unthinking brute, I'd become.
²³ But You never left me, despite all I'd done...
You held me by my right hand.
²⁴ You gave me correction and led me,
Then into Your glory, returned me.
²⁵ Now, what do I have in the heavens...
Well, other than You, what else do I need?
²⁶ O God; though my heart and flesh have both failed,
Through the age, You've been my portion and strength.
²⁷ Look! All will perish, who stay far from You...
The unfaithful, You will destroy.
²⁸ But please keep me close to You, O my God,
For I need to trust in my Lord.
At Your gates, may I always sing praises of You
Before the daughters of Zion.

Psalm 74

A Psalm of contemplation by Asaph.

¹ O God; You have pushed us away to the end...
What made You angry with the sheep in Your pasture?

² Remember those whom You purchased first...
Your inheritance and those whom You've ransomed
When You first arrived to camp on Mount Zion.

³ Please come and look at these ruins...
See what they've done to Your Most Holy Place.
⁴ For, those who hate You now feel they can boast,
And on Your Holy Days, claim success as their sign.

⁵ But the thing that they don't realize
Is that this all came to us from above.

They went to the woods and cut down the trees,
⁶ Then with axes and chisels, they broke down our gates,
⁷ And they burned Your [Tent] to the ground.

They've profaned the Tent that carries Your Name,
⁸ And they said in their hearts to their brothers:
'Let's drive His Holy Days from the land!'

⁹ So from You, we haven't seen signs,
Nor have we had a Prophet among us,
For we're no longer known by our God.

¹⁰ O God;
How much longer will [You let them] berate us?
Will they oppose Your Name through the ages?

¹¹ Why have You taken Your right hand away,
And held it back on Your chest?

¹² Our God and King lives through the ages,
And He'll bring salvation back to our land.
¹³ He's the One who holds back the sea with His might,
And who smashed the head of the dragon...
The one that rules over the waters.

¹⁴ Yes You fractured the head of the beast
And fed him to the black peoples.

¹⁵ You tore open his rivers and springs,
And dried all his creeks that held water.

¹⁶ The days are Yours, and so are the nights;
For it's You who created the sun and the moon.
¹⁷ You're the One who set the earth's borders,
And You're the One who made summer and spring...
¹⁸ Please don't overlook the things that You've made!
Our enemies speak badly of [You],
And the foolish are provoking Your Name.
¹⁹ So, don't leave the praise of Your Name to wild beasts,
And [forever] forget those who need You.
²⁰ Yes, we've overlooked Your Sacred Agreement,
And for this, our land has grown dark...
It's covered with the homes of lawbreakers!
²¹ But, please don't turn from the humble
And let them be brought to disgrace,
For these poor and needy still praise Your Name.
²² So stand up, O God, and judge Your great cause...
Then notice those fools that are laughing at You!
²³ Don't overlook the voices of Your servants,
Or the pride of all those who hate You
And oppose You throughout the whole day.

Psalm 75

To the director; Do Not Destroy. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ I will praise You, O God...
Of You, I will speak, and I'll call on Your Name.
I will describe all Your wonders,
² For at the right time, You will send justice.
³ Now the land has just melted away,
As have [the righteous] who live there...
In that place where You who once set its columns.
⁴ But I've spoken to the unrighteous
And warned them to stop breaking laws.

Then, to the sinners, I said:
‘Stop raising your trumpets [for battle]...
⁵ Don’t lift your horns to the heights,
Or say unrighteous things about God.
⁶ ‘For, you can’t escape to the valleys,
Or into the mountains or deserts.
⁷ Since God is our judge, He may humble one,
While He’s elevating another.’
⁸ A cup is now in the hand of the Lord,
Which He has filled with pure wine.
And though He leans it this way and that,
His wine and its dregs never spill...
And from it, the sinners must soon drink their fill.
⁹ Through the age, I’ll shout in praise of Jehovah,
And to Jacob’s God, I will strum.
¹⁰ For the trumpets of the sinners, He’ll shatter,
While the horns of the righteous, He’ll raise.

Psalm 76

To the director; one of the Psalms of Asaph. An ode about Assyria.

¹ In Judah, our God is well known,
And in IsraEl, His Name’s become great.
² Since His home is on Zion, this place now knows peace,
³ And He’s broken all the bows, shields, and swords,
So there can be no more war.
⁴ From this mountain of the ages,
You have sent us the light,
⁵ While You disturbed those with ignorant hearts.
For, all the rich fell asleep,
And then, in their hands, they found nothing.
⁶ The men riding horses slept also,
And the God of Jacob was laughing at them.

⁷ For, they should fear You, since none can oppose You,
And none can [survive] when You're angry.

⁸ From the heavens, Your decisions were heard,
As the earth stood still and felt fear.

⁹ But then, You stood up for justice, O God,
And You saved the meek of the land.

¹⁰ So the minds of men are [singing] Your praises,
And the rest of their thoughts, celebrate You.

¹¹ What you vow, you should pay to Jehovah...
And you who are living nearby
Should also bring gifts before Him!

¹² You should always be in fear of Jehovah,
Because He can break the spirits of rulers...
And of Him, even kings are in terror!

Psalm 77

To the director; a Psalm of Asaph for IdiThun.

¹ With my voice, I called out to Jehovah...
I shouted to God [in hope] that He'd hear.

² In the day of attack, I begged to my God,
And my hands were [folded] before Him all night.

I could not [find any comfort],
And my soul refused to find rest;

³ For I thought of my God and was bothered...
As I thought, my spirit grew faint.

⁴ Then, each time that I closed my eyes,
All I saw was my enemies...
Which disturbed me so much that I couldn't speak.

⁵ So I reasoned about days of old,
And I thought of the years of the ages.

⁶ In my heart, I pondered it greatly...

And I remembered the songs that I sung in the night,
Then suddenly, my breath became still.

⁷ Has God pushed me away through the age...

Will the Lord care about me no more?

⁸ Through the age, will His mercy be gone...

Through generations, will He not reply?

⁹ Will God forget to show pity...

In His rage, will He forget His tender compassions?

¹⁰ Then I said, 'I'll now make a change...

And perhaps His right hand will change.

¹¹ I'll recall the works of Jehovah,

And think about all of His wonders.

¹² Of the things He has done, I'll now meditate,

And I'll contemplate all of His works.'

¹³ O God; Your ways are all holy,

And what God is as great as our God?

¹⁴ You're the God who does wonderful things,

And among all mankind, Your powers are known.

¹⁵ For, with Your arm, You ransomed Your people...

The sons of Jacob and Joseph.

¹⁶ O God; the waters beheld You...

They looked at You and their depths were in fear.

¹⁷ So, rain and thunder came from the clouds,

And Your arrows shot both near and far.

¹⁸ From the thundering of Your wheels, there came lightning,

Which trembled and shook the home of mankind.

¹⁹ Your ways can be found in the seas,

And Your roads are [covered by] rivers,

So Your footsteps can never be seen.

²⁰ But You guided Your people like sheep

Through the hands of Aaron and Moses.

Psalm 78

A contemplation of Asaph.

¹ My people; Pay attention to my laws...
Incline your ears to the words from my mouth!
² For my mouth will now speak illustrations,
And I'll talk in riddles from the start.
³ We've heard about it so many times,
For our fathers told us the stories...
⁴ From their children, they never did hide it...
They told of how each generation
[Spoke] in praise of [God] and His rule,
And of the wondrous things that He's done.
⁵ He provided a witness in Jacob,
And to IsraEl, He sent us a Law,
Which He ordered the fathers to teach to their sons,
⁶ So each generation would know,
And the sons being born would pass it along...
⁷ That they all must trust in Jehovah,
And never forget the things He has done,
Or fail to inquire about His Commandments,
⁸ So they won't become crooks like their fathers,
Who were a crooked and a bitter generation
That never straightened their hearts
And had a spirit that God couldn't trust.
⁹ Ephraim's sons stretched tight their bows,
Which they shot and which saved them in the days of their wars.
¹⁰ But they failed to keep their Agreement with God,
And His Laws, they chose not to follow.
¹¹ They forgot all the good things He'd done,
And all the wonders that He'd shown them...
¹² The wonders that He showed to their fathers in Egypt
(In plains of Tanis, where it happened),

¹³ When He ripped open the sea,
And through its midst, led them through...
As He held back the waters as though in a bag.

¹⁴ Then He led them with a cloud during the day,
And by the light of a fire throughout the night.

¹⁵ He split open the rock in the desert,
And from a pit, gave them something to drink...

¹⁶ He brought water out of a stone,
And a river, thereafter flowed from it!

¹⁷ But then they turned and they sinned against Him...
They embittered the Most High in that dry place...

¹⁸ They put God to the test in their hearts
By demanding the type of food their souls craved.

¹⁹ And of God, they spoke ill when they asked,
'Can't God set a table in the desert?'

²⁰ Since He struck the rock and from it flowed water
(And a stream poured across the whole land);
How could they ask if He'd provide bread,
Or set a table for His people?

²¹ So when Jehovah heard all of this,
It raised His anger against them.
Then He lit a fire within Jacob,
And He brought His rage upon IsraEl.

²² For they'd failed to put faith in their God
And in His power to save them.

²³ Then He ordered the clouds up above,
And the gates of the heavens were opened.

²⁴ Manna rained down for them to consume...
The bread of heaven, He gave them.

²⁵ So the bread of angels was eaten by men,
And He sent enough to make them all full.

²⁶ Thereafter, He sent the winds from the skies...
By His power, He brought the winds from the south,

²⁷ And meat rained upon them like dust...
Feathered creatures, as the sands of the seas.
²⁸ They fell in the midst of their camp,
As well as around all their tents.
²⁹ So they ate and became very full,
Since He'd brought them all they desired.
³⁰ No, they weren't deprived of the things that they'd asked;
But, while the food was still in their mouths,
³¹ The rage of Jehovah came upon them,
And there amidst plenty, He killed them...
IsraEl, His chosen, He then pushed away.
³² For by saying these things, they had sinned,
Since they'd failed to believe in His wonders.
³³ So in folly, they ended their days,
And their years concluded too soon.
³⁴ Then, after those deaths, they turned back to Him...
They again arose early to search for their God.
³⁵ They remembered that God was their helper...
The Most High God had redeemed them.
³⁶ But, though with their mouths, they spoke of their love;
With their tongues, they also told lies.
³⁷ With Him, their hearts had never been straight,
Nor did they trust His Agreement with them.
³⁸ Yet, He felt pity and covered their sins...
He didn't destroy them or show them His rage...
Or allow His anger to blaze.
³⁹ He remembered that they were just flesh...
Like winds that blow by to never return.
⁴⁰ Then they made Him bitter in the desert,
And provoked Him to rage in a waterless land.
⁴¹ They turned around and put God to the test...
The Holy One of IsraEl, they angered.

⁴² They forgot the hand that He used on that day
To buy them from their oppressors...

⁴³ All the signs that He'd sent upon Egypt,
And the miracles that came upon Tanis' plains...

⁴⁴ How He turned their rain and rivers to blood,
So they were unable to drink it...

⁴⁵ And of how He sent fleas there to bite them,
Followed by frogs, bringing ruin...

⁴⁶ Or of how He appointed blight on their fruit,
And sent them the misery of locusts.

⁴⁷ Then He killed their grapevines with hail,
And He sent killing frost to their sycamore trees.

⁴⁸ He also brought hail on their cattle,
And burned their possessions in fire.

⁴⁹ Then He sent them His rage to show His displeasure
By commissioning wicked angels against them...

⁵⁰ He opened the road of His anger,
And He did not spare them from death...
Even their cattle were chosen to die.

⁵¹ He struck all the firstborn in Egypt...
He sent misery upon tents of Ham.

⁵² But like sheep, He set His people aside,
Then like a flock, led them into the desert.

⁵³ They weren't afraid, so He led them;
Then He covered their enemies under the sea.

⁵⁴ To His Holy Mountain, He brought them...
All of those whom He'd purchased
With His mighty right hand.

⁵⁵ Then before them, He drove away nations,
And created a place for them to inherit.
Then He allowed them to set up their camps...
The tents of IsraEl's tribes.

⁵⁶ But they tested and embittered God the Most High;
For His [Laws], they chose not to keep.

⁵⁷ They turned and annulled their [Agreement with Him],
And became crooked bows like their fathers.

⁵⁸ In their hills, they provoked Him to rage,
And made Him jealous with things carved by hand.

⁵⁹ Then, because God heard what they'd done,
He turned from IsraEl in contempt.

⁶⁰ The Tent in Shiloh, He then pushed away...
The Tent where He'd camped among men.

⁶¹ Then, into captivity, He handed their strength...
Their beauty, to their enemy's hands.

⁶² He gave His people to broadswords...
His inheritance, He then overlooked.

⁶³ Their young men were burned up in fires,
And there weren't wedding songs for their virgins.

⁶⁴ Their Priests all fell by the sword,
And no one wept for their widows.

⁶⁵ Then Jehovah awakened from slumber
Like a Mighty One who was dizzy from wine.

⁶⁶ He struck their enemies and made them retreat,
Appointing them to scorn through the ages.

⁶⁷ But the tent of JoSeph, He rejected,
And Ephraim's tribe, He no longer chose.

⁶⁸ It was Judah's tribe that He wanted,
And Mount Zion would be the place that He loved...

⁶⁹ It's where His Most Holy Place would be built.
So He laid its foundation out on the ground,
[As something that would last] through the ages.

⁷⁰ Then He chose David, His servant,
And took him away from his flocks.

⁷¹ To tend Jacob, He left [his sheep] giving birth...
God's inheritance... IsraEl, His servant.

⁷² David cared for them with an innocent heart,
And with hands that were skilled, he led them thereafter.

Psalm 79

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ O God; to Your inheritance, the nations have come,
And defiled Your Temple in JeruSalem,
Turning it into a storehouse for fruit!

² The decaying flesh of Your servants
Has become food for the birds in the skies...
Yes Your holy ones have become food
For the wild beasts of the earth.

³ In [the streets of] JeruSalem,
Their blood has been poured out like water,
And their bodies have been left unburied.

⁴ So, we're now the scorn of those living nearby...
We're sneered at and taunted by neighbors.

⁵ O Lord, how long will You let this go on...
Will You be angry forever?
How long will Your zeal keep burning like fire?

⁶ Please pour out Your rage on the nations instead...
On those who don't know You and don't bear Your Name.

⁷ For, they have swallowed down Jacob
And turned his place into a ruin.

⁸ Please forget our past lawless deeds...
Send Your compassions, for we [need Your aid]!

⁹ Help us, O our Savior, God
For the sake of Your glorious Name!

Jehovah, for the sake of Your Name,
Please save us and cover our sins,

¹⁰ So the nations may never have reason to ask,
'So, what has become of your God?'

To the nations before us, make [Your Name] known...
Avenge the blood of Your servants!

¹¹ Bring an end to the moans of the shackled...
By the might of Your arm, protect them from death!

¹² Please repay our neighbors with seven times worse
For scorning and speaking badly of You.

¹³ O God; We are Your people,
And we are the sheep of Your pasture.
Then, through the ages, we'll tell about You...
And praise You to coming generations!

Psalm 80

To the director; for the changings. A testimony of Asaph. A Psalm about the Assyrians.

May the One who sends cherubs arrive,
And to JoSeph's sheep, serve as our guide!
² Awaken before Ephraim, BenJamin, and ManasSeh,
And use Your might to bring us salvation!

³ O God; please return to us once again...
Show Your face and we will be saved!
⁴ O Jehovah, [the Great] God of armies;
How long will our prayers make You angry?

⁵ The bread of tears, You have fed us...
A measure of tears, we've been given to drink.

⁶ You've brought us war with our neighbors,
And allowed our enemies to sneer in disgust.

⁷ O Jehovah, [the Great] God of armies;
Turn Your face toward us and we will be saved!

⁸ You removed Your grapevine from Egypt,
And in front of us, drove away nations
To provide a place for our planting.

⁹ Before us, You opened the way,

Then You sunk our roots in the ground.
¹⁰ You gave us mountains to shade us,
As well as the branches of cedars.
¹¹ To the sea, we then spread our limbs,
And we stretched our roots east toward the river.
¹² So, why have You torn down our fences,
And given our fruit to all who pass by?
¹³ For we're being destroyed by boars in the woods...
You're allowing pigs to consume us!
¹⁴ O God of armies, turn back...
Look down from the heavens and visit this vine!
¹⁵ Tend those whom Your right hand had planted...
On Your own behalf, make these sons of men strong!
¹⁶ For we've been dug up and then burned...
By reproach from Your face, we're being destroyed.
¹⁷ Stretch Your hand out toward Your people...
Toward these sons of men, please stretch Your hand...
These ones whom You once had made mighty.
¹⁸ Don't allow this separation from You...
Return our lives and we'll call on Your Name.
¹⁹ O Jehovah, God of armies;
Turn Your face toward us and we will be saved!

Psalm 81

To the director; for the wine vats. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ Shout in joy to our helper, God;
Yes, call out before Jacob's Lord.
² Sing and beat on your tambourines...
Make beautiful music on harps.
³ Blow trumpets on all the New Moons...
On the holy days, blow your horns!

⁴ To IsraEl, He once gave these orders
(They were the decisions of Jacob's God);
⁵ As a witness, He sent them to JoSeph
After he was taken to Egypt,
Where he heard a language that he didn't understand:
⁶ 'I removed the heavy loads from your backs,
And I freed your hands from serving as slaves
Who had to bear [heavy] loads.
⁷ 'It was there that you first called upon Me,
And from their oppression, I saved you...
I heard you when you had to hide from their storms,
Then I tested you at the Waters of Dispute.
⁸ 'So, listen to Me, O my people,
For I will now testify.
Yes, O IsraEl... listen and hear Me!
⁹ 'No new gods may you have,
Nor may you bow before others.
¹⁰ For, I am Jehovah, your God...
The One who led you from Egypt.
Now, widen your mouths and I'll fill them!
¹¹ 'But My people just would not listen...
IsraEl paid no attention!
¹² So I drove them away for the things that they did,
And for the bad they'd conceived in their hearts.
¹³ 'If only My people had listened...
If IsraEl had followed My ways,
¹⁴ They wouldn't have been humbled by their enemies...
For against their oppressors, I'd have stretched out My hand.'
¹⁵ But though the enemies of God lied before Him;
The time will arrive in this age,
¹⁶ When you will be fed on the fatness of wheat,
And out of the rocks, you'll suck honey.

Psalm 82

A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹ God stands in the gathering of gods,
And among them, He is passing judgment.
- ² So, how long will You judge their injustice
And put up with the presence of sinners?
- ³ ‘Please defend the orphans and poor...
Bring justice to the afflicted and the oppressed!
- ⁴ Rescue the weak and the needy...
From the hands of sinners, please save them!
- ⁵ For, they don’t know, nor do they perceive,
Because such ones travel in darkness,
That the foundations of the earth will be shaken.
- ⁶ ‘I said to them, You are gods...
You are sons of the Most High!
- ⁷ But, like men, you will perish also,
And like their rulers, you’ll fall.’
- ⁸ So arise, O God, and judge the whole earth,
For, You will inherit the nations!

Psalm 83

An ode. A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹ O God; to whom can You be compared?
O God; do not remain silent.
- ² For {Look!} Your enemies have shouted their battle cries,
And those who hate You have now raised their heads.
- ³ Against Your people, they’ve planned treachery...
Yes, against Your holy ones, they’ve gathered.
- ⁴ They’re saying, ‘Come, let us destroy them,
So they are no longer a nation...
May IsraEl’s name be forgotten!’

⁵ But, it's against You, that they've met and conspired,
And now they've reached an agreement...

⁶ Those tent-dwellers in Edom...
Those of Hagar, ⁷ AmMon, and Gebal...
The Amalekites and Philistines,
And all the peoples of Tyre.

⁸ Even Assyria has joined them,
And to the sons of Lot, they sent aid.

⁹ So, do to them as You did at the Kishon,
To Sisera, Midian, and Jabin.

¹⁰ For, You destroyed them at EnDor,
And made them like manure on the ground.

¹¹ Make their rulers like Oreb and Zeb,
And like Zebee and SalMona,

¹² Who said, 'We'll inherit God's Most Holy Place.'

¹³ Make them like whirlwinds, O God...
Like stubble that's blown in the air...

¹⁴ Like fire that burns down a forest...
Like flames that consume on the mountains!

¹⁵ Send storms to chase them away...
Send Your rage to disturb them!

¹⁶ Fill their faces with dishonor,
So they'll have to search for Your Name!

¹⁷ O Jehovah; make them ashamed...
Disturb them through ages of ages.

Make them all feel ashamed
Just before You destroy them!

¹⁸ Let them know that Your Name is Jehovah,
And that You alone are God, the Most High!

I have proven my love for Your Tent,
² And that I have longed for Your courtyards...
For, about my living God, my flesh shouts in joy,
³ Since by Him, even sparrows find homes,
And doves find nests for their young!

O Jehovah of armies...
[How I have longed for] Your Altar;
For, You are my King and my God!
⁴ Blest are those who've stayed with You,
And those who've praised You through the ages.

⁵ Blest is the man who trusts in Your aid;
For, You will send joy to his heart.
⁶ Then, when he must enter the valley of tears,
He'll be in line for great blessings
From the One who gave him His Laws.
⁷ For, He will be strong once again
Through the God of all gods who is dwelling on Zion.

⁸ O God, Jehovah of armies...
Please hear the things that I'm praying.
⁹ Look upon me, my defender and God...
Gaze at the face of Your anointed!

¹⁰ For a day that is spent in Your courtyard
Is better than thousands of days spent elsewhere.
And I'd rather be one who's rejected
In the House of my God,
Than to live in tents among sinners.

¹¹ For Jehovah is a lover of truth,
And mercy comes from our Lord!
Because God cares, He will send glory...
To the blameless, He'll send what is good.

¹² O Jehovah of armies;
Blest are those who put faith in You.

Psalm 85

To the director; for the sons of KorAh.

- ¹ O Jehovah; You have thought well of Your land,
For, You have returned Jacob's captives...
- ² You've forgiven the lawless deeds of Your sons,
And all of their sins, You have covered.
- ³ You have brought rest to Your anger,
And turned away from Your rage.
- ⁴ So become to us, the God of salvation...
Turn from Your anger and rage!
- ⁵ Will You always stay angry with us...
Will Your rage last through many generations?
- ⁶ O God; when You come back, please make us alive,
And let Your people know joy once again!
- ⁷ O Jehovah; please show us Your mercy,
And send to us Your salvation!
- ⁸ O Jehovah; I'll listen to all that You say,
For God will speak to His people in peace...
He'll speak to those who are holy
And wholeheartedly wish to return.
- ⁹ For He's close to all those who fear Him...
He saves, so in glory, we'll camp in His land.
- ¹⁰ Now, mercy and truth have been joined,
And justice and peace have now kissed.
- ¹¹ Truth has arisen throughout the whole land,
And justice peers down from the heavens.
- ¹² Because Jehovah kindly provides,
Fruit will [grow] in our land once again.
- ¹³ Then from Him, justice will flow,
And in His footsteps, we'll walk.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

- ¹ O Lord; turn Your ear and listen to me,
For I am poor and in need.
- ² Watch over my life, because I am pure...
God save Your servant who's trusting in You!
- ³ O Jehovah; show mercy upon me,
And all day long, I will call out to You.
- ⁴ Please bring joy to the life of Your servant,
For to You, I have lifted my soul.
- ⁵ O Lord; you are my provider...
You are merciful and You are patient
With all those who call out to You.
- ⁶ So, give ear to my prayer, O Jehovah,
And heed my voice as I beg.
- ⁷ In the day of distress, I called out to You,
And to me, You paid close attention.
- ⁸ O Jehovah; You're unequaled among other the gods...
No others can do what You do.
- ⁹ So You'll make all the nations bow before You,
And they'll glorify Your Name as their Lord.
- ¹⁰ For You're great and You perform wonders...
You are the only [true] God.
- ¹¹ Guide me, O Lord, in all of my ways,
And I will walk in Your truth.
Let my heart rejoice, O my God,
And I will give praise to Your Name.
- ¹² Jehovah, my God, I will praise You...
With my whole heart, I'll glorify You.
- ¹³ For Your mercies toward me have been great,
And from place of the dead, You have rescued my soul.

¹⁴ But the lawless have risen against me, O God...
They've ignored You and they've gathered to kill me.

¹⁵ Yet, You are patient, Jehovah my God...
You've displayed Your mercy, pity, and truth.

¹⁶ So now, look upon me... please show mercy!
Show Your might on behalf of Your child...
Save the son of your slave girl...

¹⁷ Give me a sign that [You're with] me,
And let those who hate me see it in shame...
Let them know it was You that came to my aid,
And You're the One who provided me comfort.

Psalm 87

To the sons of KorAh; a Psalm of an ode.

² The gates of Zion are more loved [by Him]
Than the rest of the tents within Jacob's land.
³ So, glorious things have been said about you,
O you holy city of God.

⁴ To Babylon and RaHab, I'll speak,
As well as to all those who know me.
{Look!} To the Philistines I will speak also,
As well as to the peoples of Tyre,
And to the Ethiopians, I'll say:

⁵ 'There are men who call Zion their mother,
For men have been born on her heights.
⁶ This how it's described in the writings of men,
Which tell of the kings that were born there.'

⁷ For all of these reasons, you should rejoice...
You people who are dwelling upon her!

Psalm 88

For the director; an ode. A Psalm by the sons of KorAh to be played on the harp. The contemplation about Heman, the IsraElite.

¹ O Jehovah; my Savior and God;
During the night, I'm calling to You.

² My prayer is ascending to You;
So, hear the things that I'm begging.

³ With all kinds of trouble, my soul has been filled,
And my life is approaching the grave.

⁴ Among those in the pit, I've been numbered...
A man with no cure, I've become.

⁵ I am free, like one of the dead...
Like one who's been killed and thrown into a tomb...
I'm someone that You have forgotten...
From Your hands, they took me and threw me away.

⁶ They've put me into the lowest of pits...
In a place that is dark like the shadow of death.

⁷ For upon me, Your anger's remained,
And I have received all Your rage.

⁸ You've driven away all my friends,
And made me disgusting to them.
From them, I've been taken away,
And no other place, may I go.

⁹ My eyes are now sore from crying,
As I call to You throughout the whole day.
To You, I have spread out my arms...
Toward You, they are now opened wide.

¹⁰ Can the dead speak to others of Your wonders...
Will the dead arise and give praise to You?

¹¹ Will those in tombs tell of Your mercy,
And will the destroyed [speak of] Your truth?

¹² Can Your wonders be seen in the darkness...
Will Your justice be known in lands that are lost?

¹³ O Lord; in the morning, I cried out to You,
And You knew my prayer before it was said.

¹⁴ So why, O Lord, have You pushed me away...
When will You turn Your face toward my soul?

¹⁵ I've been poor and troubled since youth...
I was humbled and left with nothing at all.

¹⁶ For upon me, You've poured out Your rage,
And sent frightful things to disturb me.

¹⁷ Like water, they had me encircled all day,
And now they have me surrounded.

¹⁸ You've driven away all my dearest of friends,
And because of my miserable condition,
They're [pretending that] they never knew me.

Psalm 89

A Psalm of contemplation by Ethan the IsraElite.

So, through generations, I'll sing about them,
And my mouth will report of Your truths.

² For, through the ages, Your mercies will grow,
And Your truths will be lifted high into the skies.

³ 'With My anointed, I've made an agreement...

I've sworn an oath to David, My servant,

⁴ That I will watch over his seed;

And from one generation after another,

I will establish his throne.'

⁵ So the heavens will praise all your wonders, O Lord,
And among the assembly, we'll speak of Your truths.

⁶ For, who in the clouds can be likened to [him],

And which of God's sons is his equal?

⁷ So you councils of the holy; glorify God,

For He's great and He should be feared by us all.

⁸ O God of armies; there's no other like You,
For You're the Almighty Jehovah,
And You are surrounded by truth.

⁹ Of the strength of the seas, You're the Master;
For You can calm the waves when they rise.

¹⁰ You humble and kill those who have too much pride,
And Your mighty arm drives our enemies away.

¹¹ Yours is the heavens and Yours is the earth...
You founded man's home and its fullness.

¹² It's You who created the north and the west,
So Tabor and Herman are shouting Your Name!

¹³ You dominate all with Your mighty arm;
So, strengthen Your hand and raise [Your arm] high.

¹⁴ For, justice and fairness come from Your throne,
And from Your face, comes mercy and truth.

¹⁵ Blest are those who are shouting in joy...
In the light of Your face, may they travel, O Lord!

¹⁶ May they shout in joy of Your Name every day,
For Your justice has lifted them higher.

¹⁷ You're the power in which they can boast;
So may they trumpet in praise of Your goodness!

¹⁸ For, Jehovah God is our helper...
The Holy One of IsraEl is our King!

¹⁹ In a vision, You spoke of Your son and You said:
'I'm sending them help through this great one I've raised...
This one whom I've chosen from My people.

²⁰ 'For, I found David, My servant,
And with My holy oil, I've anointed his head.

²¹ So, with My right hand, I'll help him,
And with My right arm, I will make him strong.

²² 'His enemies will take nothing from him,
And the lawless will do him no harm.

²³ Before him, I'll cut his enemies down,
And I'll chase away all those who hate him.

²⁴ My truth and My mercy are with him,
And his battle horn will be raised in My Name.

²⁵ 'I'll set his [left] hand over the sea
And his right hand over the river.

²⁶ Then he'll call out to Me and he'll say,
Father, You are my God...
Yes, You are my Savior and shield.

²⁷ 'I'll appoint him to be my firstborn,
And put him over the kings of the earth.

²⁸ In mercy, I'll guard him throughout the age,
And he can trust the things that I've promised.

²⁹ 'I'll establish his seed throughout the ages,
And his throne, as the days of the skies.

³⁰ But, if his sons should abandon My Laws
And choose not to walk in My ways...

³¹ If My rules, they choose to profane,
And My Commandments, they choose not to keep...

³² For their lawless ways, I'll send them My switch,
And whip them for all of their sins.

³³ 'But in mercy, I will not wipe them away,
Nor in any way, will I wrong My truth.

³⁴ To My agreements, I'll always be true,
And I won't annul the things that I've said.

³⁵ So, after I've sworn oath before him,
Could My holiness lie before David?

³⁶ 'So, his seed will last through the ages...
His throne will stand for as long as the sun,

³⁷ And it will endure like the moon...
These things I've prepared through the ages
As My trustworthy witness above in the skies.'

³⁸ So then, why have You thrust him away in contempt,
And against Your anointed, have You lifted [Your hand]?
³⁹ Have You wiped away the promise You made,
And defiled his safe havens throughout the land?
⁴⁰ You've removed the barriers around him,
And turned his forts into places of fear.
⁴¹ Those walking the roads have taken what's his,
And he's become the scorn of his neighbors.
⁴² You've raised the hands of those who oppress him,
And given his enemies joy.
⁴³ You've turned Your help from his broadsword,
And refused to assist him in war.
⁴⁴ You've desisted from making him clean,
And You've ripped his throne to the ground.
⁴⁵ You've shortened the days of his reign,
And upon him, You have poured shame.
⁴⁶ How long, O Jehovah, will You turn away...
How long will Your rage keep burning like fire?
⁴⁷ Please notice these problems that I'm facing!
In folly, You made sons of men;
⁴⁸ For, which living man will never see death?
Can he save his own soul from the grave?
⁴⁹ So, where is Your mercy, O ancient Lord...
When You swore to David, were You telling the truth?
⁵⁰ Notice the scorn that Your servant's received...
The scorn that the nations have sent to my belly...
⁵¹ At Your anointed, Your enemies are laughing!
⁵² Amen... through the age, may Jehovah be Praised!

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

From one generation to another.

² Yes, before the mountains existed,
And the earth (the dwelling of man) took its shape...
Through ages of ages, You've been there.

³ So, please don't humble Your people;
For you told them, 'Return to Me, sons of men!'

⁴ Why, a thousand years in Your eyes, O Jehovah,
Are like yesterday, after they've passed...
They're like just a watch in the night.

⁵ But the years [of men] are looked on in scorn,
For like sprouting plants, we just pass away...

⁶ In the morning, we blossom and sprout,
And in the evening, we dry up and fall.

⁷ Now, we've failed in the face of Your anger,
And we've been disturbed by Your rage.

⁸ For the Laws that we've broken are all there before You...
They stand in the light of Your face.

⁹ Yes, all of our days have been failures,
And we've even failed when it comes to Your rage.
Our years are as brief as the time that it takes
For a spider to think [of catching its prey].

¹⁰ Our days may last for seventy years,
Or if You command, until eighty.
But they're mostly spent in misery and toil,
'Til we mellow and accept [Your] correction.

¹¹ Who knows the power of Your rage?
And because of the fear of Your anger,
How can we number our days?

¹² So, please expose Your right hand to me,
And send Your wisdom into my heart,
That I may receive Your correction.

¹³ How long will it be, O Jehovah,
Until You turn back to us?
O please send comfort to Your servants!

¹⁴ For, in the morning, O Lord,
We were filled with Your mercy...
We shouted in joy and were glad every day.

¹⁵ We were grateful for even the days we were humbled,
After many years of seeing the bad.

¹⁶ So, please look on Your servants (Your works),
And to our sons, please send them Your guidance.

¹⁷ Send us Your light, O Jehovah our God,
And bless the all things our hands do...
Yes, please bless the works of our hands!

Psalm 91

A Psalm of Praise by David.

¹ Those who live in the care of the Most High
And lodge under the God of heaven's protection
² Will say, 'You're my refuge and shield...
You're my God, and You're the One that I trust.'

³ From the snares of hunters, He'll save you...
He'll rescue you from all your problems.

⁴ With the shadow of His back, He will shield you,
And under His wings, He will hide you,
Where you'll be surrounded by truth.

⁵ You won't be afraid of things in the night;
Of arrows that fly during the day;
⁶ Of things that happen, which you haven't planned;
Of things that travel in darkness;
Or of the demon at noon.

⁷ A thousand will fall at your right,
And ten thousand, you'll hold in your hand.

⁸ You'll see it all with your eyes and then think,
'This is the outcome for sinners.'

⁹ O Jehovah; You're the One that I trust.

If you'll make the Most High your refuge,

¹⁰ Nothing bad will approach you,

And the whip will not enter your tent.

¹¹ For, to His messengers, He will give orders...

He'll tell them to keep an eye on your ways,

¹² So then, with their hands, they will lift you,

And no stone will stumble your feet.

¹³ You can step on an asp or a cobra,

And trample on lions or dragons.

¹⁴ 'Because he trusts Me, I'll save him...

I'll be his shelter, for he knows My Name.

¹⁵ He'll cry out to Me and I'll listen,

And during hard times, I will be there.

'I'll rescue and glorify him...

¹⁶ I'll extend the days of his life,

And show him the many ways I can save.'

Psalm 92

A Psalm for the Sabbath Day.

¹ It's good to praise You, O Most High Jehovah,
And to strum to Your Name...

² To [sing] of Your mercies each morning
And about Your truths every night,

³ As [I strum] on my lute of ten-strings...
Playing songs of You on my harp.

⁴ O Jehovah; You bring me much joy
With all the things that You do.

So I'll shout in praise of the works of Your hands.

⁵ How great are Your deeds, O Jehovah,
And how deep are the things that You think!

⁶ A foolish man will not understand,
And such things, the senseless can't comprehend;

⁷ That though sinners will keep arising like grass,
And the lawless will keep on increasing;
Through ages of ages, they will be destroyed.

⁸ Through the ages, You've been the Most High!

⁹ So, when you notice Your enemies, Lord,
{Look!} You'll scatter them and they'll perish...
All those who work at doing what's bad.

¹⁰ Like a rhinoceros, I'll raise my horn high,
And offer You plenty of oil 'til I'm old.

¹¹ Though my eyes must always see my enemies
(Those who are rising against me),
And though my ears must still hear of the wicked;

¹² Soon the righteous will blossom like palms,
And grow like Lebanon's cedars...

¹³ Those who are planted in the House of the Lord,
And those in God's courtyard, will bloom.

¹⁴ There, they will grow old and have plenty,
And take much pleasure in proclaiming,

¹⁵ 'Our God, Jehovah, is righteous,
And in Him, there is no injustice.'

Psalm 93

For the Sabbath Day, after being resettled in the land. A song of praise by David.

¹ Jehovah reigns and brings beauty...
He's wrapped Himself in great power...
Man's home, He's made steady and firm...
² And your throne, He's prepared through the ages.

³ O Jehovah; the rivers have risen,
And the waters have lifted their voices.
⁴ But the rivers will be taken away...
By the sounds of many waters, You'll wear them away.
How wonderful are the tides of the sea,
As well as all the high places.
⁵ 'The witness that you've given can be trusted;
So to your House, will come what is clean,
Throughout the rest of your days.'

Psalm 94

A Psalm of David for the fourth Sabbath.

¹ Jehovah is a God who seeks vengeance,
And this God who seeks vengeance has spoken.
² So arise, O Judge of the earth,
And pay the haughty all that they're due!
³ O Jehovah;
How much longer will the sinners remain...
How much longer will the sinners have reason to boast?
⁴ For, when they speak, they do so unjustly,
And they boast when they're breaking [Your] Laws!
⁵ O Jehovah;
They are mistreating Your people...
To Your inheritance, they're doing what's bad.
⁶ They kill the orphans and widows,
And they murder foreign peoples who come here.
⁷ They've said, 'Jehovah can't see...
Jacob's God doesn't know [what we're doing].'
⁸ Look, you fools among [men]...
You should think it over, then quit!
⁹ Is the [maker] of ears unable to hear...
Is the shaper of eyes unable to see?

¹⁰ Won't the One who corrects all the nations
And teaches knowledge to men,
Also bring correction to you?

¹¹ For Jehovah knows the ways that men think,
And that the things we ponder are foolish.

¹² O blest is the man who's corrected by You...
So please, Lord; teach him Your Laws.

¹³ Back him away from his evil days,
And then, he'll dig graves for the sinners.

¹⁴ For Jehovah won't push His people away...
His inheritance, He'll never abandon.

¹⁵ How long until righteous judgments return...
Until those with straight hearts receive what is fair?

¹⁶ Who will oppose the wicked with me...
Who will stand and oppose the law breakers?

¹⁷ For if it weren't for the help of Jehovah,
My soul would have gone to the place of the dead.

¹⁸ Did I ask for my feet to start shaking?
O Jehovah, show mercy and help me!

¹⁹ Despite all the grief in my heart;
To my soul, You've brought comfort and love.

²⁰ Will the thrones of the lawless continue before You...
Those who turn order into chaos?

²¹ Will You let them keep hunting for the souls of the righteous,
And keep on shedding shed innocent blood?

²² Jehovah has become a refuge to me...
My God is my helper and hope.

²³ He'll give the lawless what they deserve,
And remove them from view for their badness.

Psalm 95

A song of praise by David.

¹ Come and shout praise to Jehovah...
About God, our Savior, we'll yell!
² We should stand in His presence and praise Him...
To Him, we should sing sacred hymns!
³ For God, Jehovah, is great...
He is the King of the whole earth!
⁴ In His hands, He holds the ends of the earth
As well as the tops of the mountains.
⁵ His are the seas, for He made them,
And with His hands, He shaped the dry land.
⁶ So, let us all bow down before Him...
Let's weep before Him, for He made us.
⁷ We're the sheep of His pasture and He is our God...
We're the sheep that He holds in His hands.
⁸ Therefore, if you should hear His voice on this day,
Do not harden your hearts...
Don't be bitter like they were in that day
When they put Him to the test in the desert.
⁹ 'I was tested and tried by your fathers,
Though they'd already seen the things that I'd done.
¹⁰ So I came to loathe that generation,
And they wandered for the next forty years.
'In their hearts, they knew not My ways,
¹¹ So I swore this oath in My anger:
They will not enter My rest.

Psalm 96

¹ Sing a new song to Jehovah!
Sing to the Lord of the earth!
² Yes, you should sing to Jehovah,
And shout in praise of His Name!
Proclaim the good news every day...
The good news about how He saves.

³ Speak of His glory to the nations...
Tell others about all His wonders!

⁴ Jehovah is great and worthy of praise...
He's more to be feared than all other gods!

⁵ For the gods of the nations are demons,
But Jehovah created the heavens.

⁶ Before Him are beauty and praiseworthy things...
Clean and majestic is His Holy Place.

⁷ O you families from all of the nations;
You should offer [gifts] to Jehovah...
To the Lord, give glory and honor,

⁸ And speak in praise about His great Name!
Bring offerings to His holy courtyard,
And before the Lord, you should bow;

⁹ For in front of His face, the earth trembles!

¹⁰ Say to the nations, 'Jehovah is King...
He's the One who established man's home
So that it will never be shaken,
And He'll judge the peoples in justice!'

¹¹ Be glad you heavens, and earth, shout in joy...
May the seas and what's in them be shaken!

¹² Rejoice, O you fields and you crops;
And you trees in the forests should cry out in joy

¹³ Before the face of Jehovah.

For He's coming to judge the whole earth,
And bring justice to man's habitation...
All the people will be judged by His truth!

Psalm 97

A Psalm of David for when his [kingdom] was established.

¹ Shout in joy, O earth, because the Lord reigns!
Let all of the islands be happy!

² For, though He's surrounded by darkness and clouds,
On justice and judgments, He's founded His throne,
³ And flames shoot out from before Him,
To consume His enemies in fire.

⁴ The lightning that He sent was seen by [all men].
They saw it, and it shook the whole earth.

⁵ Like bee's wax, the mountains have melted before Him...
Before the face of the Lord of the earth.

⁶ The heavens speak of His justice,
And His glory is seen by all peoples.

⁷ So those bowing to carvings are shamed,
As are those who boast of their idols.
For before Him, the angels bow to their feet!

⁸ Zion is happy and the daughters of Judah are shouting in joy
Over Your judgments, O Lord.

⁹ For, You're the Most High of the whole earth...
You're higher than all other gods!

¹⁰ All those who are loving Jehovah
Must [learn] to hate what is bad!
For Jehovah guards the lives of the clean,
And from the hands of sinners, protects them.

¹¹ Upon the righteous, light shines,
And those with straight hearts will have reasons for joy.

¹² So you righteous; take joy in Jehovah...
Remember and praise all His ways!

Psalm 98

A Psalm of David.

¹ Sing a new song to Jehovah
About the wonderful things He has done.
For He brings salvation with His holy right arm.

² Jehovah's made known to the nations
How He can save and bring justice.
³ He's remembered His mercy to Jacob,
And to the house of IsraEl, He sent His truth.
To the ends of the earth, they've seen how He saves,
And they know that our God can deliver!
⁴ So, shout to God, all the earth!
Sing... yes, cry out and strum!
⁵ Play to Jehovah with harps,
And along with the strumming, sing psalms!
⁶ With brass trumpets and the blowing of horns,
Shout before Jehovah, our King!
⁷ Roar, O seas, and all that is in them...
Man's home and all those who live there!
⁸ Clap your hands, O you rivers,
And mountains, cry out in joy at His face.
⁹ For He's coming to judge the whole earth...
In fairness and justice, He'll judge
Man's home and all of its peoples.

Psalm 99

A Psalm of David.

¹ Because Jehovah now reigns,
Many people will be very angry.
For the One who is sitting on cherubs
Is coming to shake up the earth.
² Great is Jehovah on Zion,
For He is above all the peoples.
³ So, may they all give praise to His Name,
Because He is holy and fearsome.

⁴ Our Mighty King is a lover of justice;
So, He has prepared righteous judgments...
Yes, He will bring justice to Jacob.

⁵ May our God Jehovah be raised...
He's holy, so all should bow at His feet!

⁶ Among His Priests, numbered Moses and Aaron,
And SamuEl is someone who called on His Name.
They called out to the Lord and He heard them,
⁷ Then He spoke to them from a column of clouds.
For, they had guarded His words
And obeyed the orders He gave them.

⁸ Yes, O Jehovah, You heard them!
O God, You became their provider,
And You punished them for the bad things they did.

⁹ So our God Jehovah should be raised high,
And before His holy Mountain, all should bow low;
For Jehovah is the most holy God.

Psalm 100

A Psalm of praise by David.

¹ Shout to God, all the earth...
² Yes, serve Jehovah in joy!
Go before Him with happy shouts,
³ And know that Jehovah is God!

For, we didn't do it... He made us!
We're His people... the sheep of His pasture.

⁴ So, go to His gates shouting praises,
And enter His courtyard with hymns.

Go praising His Name and confessing;
⁵ For, through the ages, He's proven His mercy...
Through generations, He's proven His truth.

Psalm 101

A Psalm of David.

- ¹ O Jehovah, I'll sing of Your mercy and justice...
² Of Your perfect ways, I will strum.
How long will it be until You return?
For there are innocent hearts in my home.
- ³ I've not set my eyes on things that are bad,
And illegal things, I have hated.
- ⁴ Toward things that are crooked, my heart has not turned,
And bad men, I have rejected.
- ⁵ Those who privately speak ill of friends,
I have driven away,
And I will not eat beside eyes that are proud,
Nor with those who have hungry hearts.
- ⁶ My eyes are on the trustworthy...
They are the ones with whom I will sit...
Those who've chosen to walk in pure ways,
And those who have shared in my rule.
- ⁷ For, no one with pride can stay in my house,
And before my eyes, the unrighteous can't stand.
- ⁸ In the morning, I'll destroy the land's sinners,
Along with the lawless who live in the towns.

Psalm 102

A prayer for the poor when they are discouraged and come before Jehovah to pour out their hearts.

- ¹ Please hear my prayer, O Jehovah...
Please listen to my cries when I come before You.
- ² Don't turn Your face when I need You,
But incline Your ear closer to me...
Whenever I call, please respond!

³ For my days have passed by like smoke,
And my bones are parched like dry twigs.
⁴ Like grass, I have been mowed down,
So my heart forgets to eat bread.
⁵ My bones stick out from my flesh,
And they're [tired] of the sounds of my groaning.
⁶ Like a pelican, I [travel] alone...
I've become like the owl in its range.
⁷ Sleepless, [I lie throughout the whole night],
And I live like a sparrow alone on the roof.
⁸ All day, my enemies berate me,
And those who once praised me now swear oaths against me.
⁹ Ashes, I've eaten for bread,
And my drink has become my own tears.
¹⁰ For with the anger and rage of Your face,
You lifted me up and then broke me down.
¹¹ Like shadows, my days have declined,
And I have dried up like hay.
¹² But You, O Lord, live through ages...
From generation to generation, You're remembered.
¹³ So arise and feel pity for Zion,
Since the time for its pity is due.
¹⁴ To Your servants, her stones are all very dear,
And over her dust, they feel sorrow.
¹⁵ O Lord;
Among all nations, Your Name is revered,
And all kings of the earth speak of Your glory.
¹⁶ For Jehovah will rebuild Zion once more,
And there, He'll appear in His glory.
¹⁷ He [hears] the prayers of the humble,
And He has no contempt for the things they request.

¹⁸ So, let this be written for each generation,
Then those born anew will all praise the Lord.

¹⁹ Jehovah looks down from His home in the heights...
He sees the earth from the heavens.

²⁰ From there, He hears the moans of the shackled,
And He releases the sons of condemned ones.

²¹ In Zion, announce the Name of the Lord,
And shout His praises in JeruSalem!

²² For, all the peoples, as well as their kings,
Will soon be serving Jehovah.

²³ Then, in His mighty way, He will speak
And tell me how few of my days yet remain.

²⁴ But, please don't [give me] just half of my days;
For Your years are through generations.

NOTE: Some of the following verses are applied to Jesus at Hebrews 1:10-12, so the words we have translated as 'the Lord' in several of these verses may not be referring to The God.

And where we suspect this to be true, we have not capitalized the personal pronouns that refer to him.

For more information, see subheading The Question Raised at Hebrews 1:10-12 in the linked document, 'Jehovah.'

²⁵ In the beginning, you founded the earth,
And the heavens are the works of your hands.

²⁶ Yet, they will pass by, while you still remain,
And like clothes (an old robe), they'll grow old.

Then, you'll wrap them up and they will be changed.

²⁷ But, you're the same, for your years don't expire.

²⁸ So the sons of your servants will live in [your] camp,
And through ages, their seed will remain.

Psalm 103

A Psalm of David.

¹ I'll praise Jehovah with my whole soul...
Yes I'll praise Him with all that is in me,
And I will give praise to His Holy Name!

² Praise Jehovah, my soul,
And don't forget how He's blest us.
³ For He's covered our sins and law breaking,
And He's cured us from all of our ills...
⁴ He's ransomed us from life's corruptions,
And then He crowned us with mercy.
⁵ With good things, He fulfills our desires,
And like mighty eagles, He gives back our youth.
⁶ For Jehovah freely provides,
And sends justice to those who've been wronged.
⁷ To Moses, His ways were revealed,
And to IsraEl's sons, He showed His desires.
⁸ Jehovah feels pity and mercy...
He's forgiving and filled with compassion.
⁹ To the end, you won't make Him angry,
Nor through the ages, will He cherish wrath.
¹⁰ He hasn't repaid us for our lawlessness deeds,
Nor has He kept count of our sins.
¹¹ As high as the heavens are over the earth
Is His mercy toward all those who fear Him.
¹² And as the distance between east and west,
Has He set us from the laws that we've broken.
¹³ As a father shows mercy upon his own sons,
Is how He feels mercy for those fearing Him.
¹⁴ For, He remembers how we were once formed,
And He doesn't forget that we are just dust.
¹⁵ For the days of a man are like grass,
Or like the blossoms of flowers in a field.
¹⁶ And when the wind blows, he passes away,
So his place is thereafter forgotten.
¹⁷ God shows ages of mercy to those fearing Him,
And justice to the sons of their sons...

¹⁸ On all those who guard His Sacred Agreement,
And on those who obey His Commandments.

¹⁹ Jehovah has prepared His throne in the skies,
And in His Kingdom, He's the Master of all.

²⁰ So, praise Jehovah, you angels;
For He shows His might and His strength
To those who listen to His words.

²¹ Yes, praise Jehovah, His armies...
All His servant who are doing His Will.

²² Praise Jehovah, all of His works,
Every place within in His dominion.
Yes, praise Jehovah, my soul!

Psalm 104

A Psalm of David

¹ O my soul; give praise to the Lord...
Give praise to Jehovah, my God!

You've made Yourself great and praiseworthy,
And clothed Yourself in much beauty.

² You wrap Yourself up in light like a robe,
And You stretch out the heavens like leather.

³ With water, You've filled its roof and upper rooms,
And as Your chariot, You created the clouds,
Which You ride on the wings of a breeze.

⁴ Your angels, You've made like the winds,
And Your servants are like flames of fire.

⁵ You've laid and made firm the foundations of the earth,
So through ages of ages, it will not fail.

⁶ The depths [of the seas] are Your wrap,
And on the mountains, You have piled water.

⁷ But at Your reproach, they will all pass away...
They'll quake at the sound of Your thunder.

⁸ Then the waters will pour down the mountains,
And descend from there to the plains...
To wherever You tell them to go.

⁹ You've set limits that [the seas] may not pass,
So they cannot cover the land.

¹⁰ You send rain as springs into valleys,
So that, from the mountains, rivers will flow.

¹¹ To wild beasts in the fields, You send water,
Which wild burros use to satisfy thirst...

¹² As do the winged creatures that live in the skies,
Which build their nests between rocks,
Where they can sound out their cries.

¹³ You send water to the mountains from Your upper rooms
To fill the lands with the fruits of Your works...

¹⁴ And to make grasses grow for the cattle to eat,
As well as all the young sprouts,
Which bring us food from the ground.

¹⁵ [You give] wine to men to make their hearts glad,
And olive oil, as a blessing to their faces...
Then, for their hearts, You provide them with bread.

¹⁶ The plains, You have filled up with [trees],
And the cedars of Lebanon were Your planting.

¹⁷ It's there that the sparrows build nests,
Until herons take over their dwellings.

¹⁸ [You created] high mountains for wild goats to roam...
You made rocks as the refuge for badgers.

¹⁹ You made the moon to show us the seasons,
As well as the sun, which knows when to set.

²⁰ You made the darkness of night,
Where beasts in the woods roam about...

²¹ It's when lion cubs roar and attack,
Seeking by God, to find food.

²² But, when the sun rises, they gather
And return to their dens to lie down.
²³ That's when men arise and then go to work,
Continuing their toil until dusk.
²⁴ So, how great are Your works, O Jehovah;
You created it all in Your wisdom...
You have filled the earth with the things that You've made.
²⁵ You made the vast lands and great seas,
Where animals that slither may dwell.
There's no way to count all Your creatures...
All the great and the small.
²⁶ For, boats pass over [other] wild beasts,
Which You created in fun.
²⁷ Yet they all expect to be nourished by You,
And to receive it at the right time.
²⁸ So, You're the One [whom they trust] to provide...
You open Your hand and they're filled with what's good.
²⁹ But if You turn away, it upsets them;
And if you should hold back their breath,
They would die and go back to the dust.
³⁰ But with Your Breath, You'll create them again,
When You renew the face of the earth.
³¹ So, may God's glory last through the ages,
And may He find joy in the things He has made.
³² He just looks at the earth and it trembles...
He touches the mountains and they start to smoke.
³³ So, with my whole soul, I'll sing to the Lord...
For as long as I live, I'll strum to my God.
³⁴ May He find my verses delightful...
May they make Jehovah's heart glad.
³⁵ May all the sinners expire from the earth,
And may all the lawless cease to exist!

Yes, praise Jehovah, my soul!

Psalm 105

¹ Praise Jehovah... call on His Name...
Tell all the nations of the things He has done!
² Sing to Him and strum well...
Try to describe all His wonders,
³ Then applaud His most holy Name...
May the hearts of those who seek Him find joy!
⁴ Yes, seek Jehovah and you will grow strong...
Always search for His face.
⁵ Don't forget the wonders He's brought...
The miracles and judgments that come from His mouth.
⁶ You seed of AbraHam... His servants;
You sons of Jacob... His chosen;
⁷ He is Jehovah our God
Whose decisions are [seen] throughout the whole earth.
⁸ He remembers His age-long Agreement...
His promise through a thousand generations...
⁹ The Agreement that He made with AbraHam,
And the oath that He gave to IsaAc.
¹⁰ With Jacob, He set out the rules,
Which IsraEl [was to follow] through the ages.
¹¹ Then He said, 'To you, I will give CanaAn's land...
Your inheritance is a measured allotment of ground.'
¹² [But back then], their numbers were few
(Not many were visiting [the land]),
¹³ And they traveled from nation to nation...
From one kingdom on to another.
¹⁴ But He allowed no one to harm them...
He sent warnings to their kings, in which He said:
¹⁵ 'Do not touch My anointed,
And don't do any harm to My Prophets.'

¹⁶ Then, to their lands, He sent famine,
So they could not trust in their bread.
¹⁷ And a man named JoSeph, He sent them...
A slave who'd been purchased [with money].
¹⁸ He'd been humbled, for shackles were put on his feet,
And his soul had been pierced through by iron.
¹⁹ But, after the Word had arrived,
Signs from the Lord purified him.
²⁰ For the king sent word to release him...
By a ruler of the peoples, he was set free.
²¹ This man made him master over his house,
And put him in charge of all that he owned.
²² So, he appointed rulers, as he saw fit,
And for wisdom, he looked to the elders.
²³ Then IsraEl traveled to Egypt...
Ham's land was visited by Jacob.
²⁴ And there, his people grew greater...
Mightier than their enemies, [God] made them.
²⁵ Then [God] brought a change to [Egyptian] hearts,
So they'd start hating His people,
And with His servants, deal badly.
²⁶ So He sent His servants, Aaron and Moses
(Those whom He'd chosen to serve Him),
²⁷ And through them, He sent the [Egyptians] His signs...
To the land of Ham, He sent miracles.
²⁸ [God] sent darkness and it became dark,
But against His words, [Pharaoh] chose to rebel.
²⁹ Into blood, He then changed their water,
And He killed off all of their fish.
³⁰ Then frogs crawled onto their land,
And into the closets of kings.

³¹ He spoke, and stable flies came,
Which was followed by fleas, to their borders.

³² Into hail and fire, He then turned their rain,
Which burned throughout the whole land.

³³ Thereafter, He struck their grapevines and figs...
He broke every tree in that land.

³⁴ He spoke, then locusts and grasshoppers came...
So many that they couldn't be counted,

³⁵ Which devoured all their grasses and fruit.

³⁶ Thereafter, He struck their firstborn...
The first-fruits of all they'd accomplished.

³⁷ And with silver and gold, He then led us away,
So our tribes were no longer poor.

³⁸ The Egyptians were happy to just see us go,
For with fear, they'd been overcome.

³⁹ Then He spread out a cloud to protect us,
And sent fire as our light through the night.

⁴⁰ We asked Him for [meat], so He sent us quail,
And with bread from the sky, we were filled.

⁴¹ He tore open the rock and water poured out;
So a river then flowed through the desert.

⁴² For He hadn't forgotten His Holy Word...
What He'd promised to AbraHam, His servant.

⁴³ So He led out His people shouting in joy...
Those whom He chose, left there happy.

⁴⁴ Then He gave us the lands of great nations...
We inherited things for which others had worked.

⁴⁵ So, we should now guard His decisions,
And always search for His Laws.

Psalm 106

¹ Praise Jehovah, because He provides,
And His mercies last through the ages.

² Who will tell of His mighty deeds,
And speak out loud in His praise?

³ Blest are those who are honest,
And do what's righteous each season.

⁴ O Jehovah, please don't forget us,
Or the kindness that You've shown to Your people...
Please come visit and save us!

⁵ Your elected find joy in seeing the good,
And Your people should loudly applaud
The inheritance that You assigned them by lots.

⁶ But, we and our fathers have sinned...
We've broken [\[Your\] Laws](#) and done wrong!

⁷ Why, even our fathers in Egypt,
Did not understand all Your wonders,
Nor did they remember Your mercy.
For, they had even rebelled,
While going down through the Red Sea.

⁸ Yet, You saved them because of Your Name,
And let them see all Your powers.

⁹ You scolded the Sea and it dried,
Then You guided them through that abyss,
[And led them up] into the desert.

¹⁰ From those who disliked them, You saved them...
You ransomed them from their enemy's hands.

¹¹ Then You covered their oppressors with water,
Leaving not a single survivor.

¹² When they trusted Your Word, they were blest...

¹³ But they quickly forgot the things that You did,
And they failed to await Your instructions.

¹⁴ For they wanted the things they desired,
And they put You to the test in the desert.

¹⁵ Then You gave them the things for which they had asked,
And You sent them enough to satisfy them.

¹⁶ But then they provoked Moses to rage,
As well as Your holy one, Aaron.

¹⁷ So You opened the ground, and Dathan was swallowed,
Then it covered all of AbiRom's group,

¹⁸ As a fire blazed in the midst of the camp,
And its flames consumed all the sinners.

¹⁹ Then, in that dry place, they made a [gold] calf,
And they bowed to the thing that was carved.

²⁰ They changed [God's] Glory to a calf that eats grass,

²¹ Forgetting the God who had saved them...

The One who did those great things in Egypt

²² (The wonders [that He'd sent] to Ham's land),

And His awesome deeds at the Red Sea.

²³ So He spoke and said He'd destroy them;

But, Moses (His chosen) just stood there

Among those whom God wished to destroy.

[Then Moses] approached and turned back His rage,

So He chose not to wipe them away.

²⁴ But they looked with contempt on that glorious land,

And in the things that He'd promised, they didn't have faith.

²⁵ So they stood in their tents and they grumbled,

Refusing to hear the voice of Jehovah.

²⁶ Thus, against them, He then raised His hand,

To cut them down in the desert...

²⁷ To scatter their seed to the nations,

And to spread them among many lands.

²⁸ For they also bowed to BaAl Peor,

And sacrifices to the dead, they consumed.

²⁹ They did all that they could to provoke Him,
And to bring more blows on themselves.

³⁰ Yet, PhineHas stood and offered atonement,
And abated [God's plans to] destroy them.

³¹ As the result, he was thought of as righteous,
Through all generations and ages.

³² Then they made Him angry once more,
There at the Waters of Dispute,
Where a bad thing happened to Moses.

³³ For they made his spirit grow bitter,
And then he drew open his lips.

³⁴ Thereafter, they failed to destroy all the nations,
As Jehovah had told them to do...

³⁵ They mixed with the gentiles and learned of their ways,

³⁶ Bowing to their idols, to offend Him,

³⁷ And offering their sons and daughters to demons!

³⁸ They poured out innocent blood...

The blood of their own sons and daughters!

To the carvings of CanaAn, they sacrificed them,

And tpolluted the land with murder and blood.

³⁹ [So the land] was defiled by the things they had done,

And they became practicing whores.

⁴⁰ So with His people, Jehovah was angry...

His inheritance, He started to hate.

⁴¹ Then He gave them into their enemies' hands...

Those who hated and ruled over them.

⁴² He allowed their enemies to oppress them,

And humble them under their hands.

⁴³ Though He came back to save them time and again,

They kept on making Him angry,

And all they did was talk back.

So, they were humbled for the bad things they did.

⁴⁴ Yet, when He saw how they were oppressed,
He listened to the things that they begged.

⁴⁵ He remembered His Sacred Agreement,
And mercifully turned to them once again...

⁴⁶ Before those by whom they'd been captured,
He showed deep compassion for them.

⁴⁷ So, Jehovah our God, please save us,
And gather us back from the nations,
So we may praise Your most Holy Name,
And boast about You once again!

⁴⁸ O praise Jehovah through ages of ages!
To this, all should shout, 'May it be!'

Psalm 107

Praise Jah!

¹ Praise Jehovah, because He provides...
His mercy endures through the ages.

² About Jehovah, this has been said
By those whom He saved from their enemies' hands...

³ From the places from which He had gathered them back...
From the north, south, east, and the sea.

⁴ They wandered in the desert without water,
And no town could they find as their home...

⁵ So their lives were failing from hunger and thirst.

⁶ Then, in great distress, they called to the Lord,
And He rescued them from this condition.

⁷ He guided them in a straight path
To a city that they could call home.

⁸ So, may they give praise to Jehovah,
For all the mercies [He's shown],
And the wonders that He brings to sons of men.

⁹ He sends fulfillment to empty lives,
And He fills the hungry with good things...
¹⁰ Those who sit in the shadow of death,
And the poor who are shackled in irons.
¹¹ But against God's Word, they rebelled,
And counsel from above, they rejected.
¹² So their hearts were humbled and troubled...
They were weakened and no one came to their aid!
¹³ Then, in their affliction, they called to the Lord,
And He saved them from their distress.
¹⁴ Thereafter, He tore off their shackles,
And led them from the shadow of death.
¹⁵ So, let them praise [God] for His mercy,
And the wonders that He brings to sons of men.
¹⁶ For He broke down all those brass gates,
And He smashed their iron bars into pieces.
¹⁷ Due to their lawless ways,
He kept humbling them to drive out their pride
¹⁸ Until they no longer could eat their own food,
And they were approaching death's gates.
¹⁹ Then, in their distress, they called to the Lord,
And He saved them from their condition...
²⁰ He sent them His word and it healed them,
And saved them from their corruption.
²¹ So, may they praise [God] for His mercy,
And the wonders that He sends upon sons of men.
²² Sacrifices of praise, they should offer,
And then shout in joy for the things He has done!
²³ The men who go down to the sea in their boats
And those who work across many waters,
²⁴ Have all beheld the works of Jehovah,
And they've seen the wonders that He brings to its depths.

²⁵ For He spoke and established the winds and the gales,
Which arise and create the tall waves

²⁶ That lift them high into the sky;
Then to the abyss, they descend...
And this melts away the bad in their lives.

²⁷ For, this upsets them and shakes them,
Then they swallow their wisdom like drunks.

²⁸ In their affliction, they cry to the Lord,
And from their distress, He then leads them.

²⁹ For He sends His orders to the gales,
Which become just a breeze to quiet the waves.

³⁰ Then they're joyful, after all has been stilled,
And He guides them toward the harbors they seek.

³¹ So, let them praise [God] for His mercy,
And the wonders that He shows to sons of men.

³² Before gatherings of peoples, they should praise Him,
And before the seats of their elders.

³³ Though He created a river in the desert,
And to a thirsty land, brought water;

³⁴ The land still bore fruit that was bad,
Because of the evil of those living there.

³⁵ But He turned a desert into water-filled lakes,
And into dry ground, [He put] springs,

³⁶ Where He thereafter settled the hungry,
And led them to cities in which they would live.

³⁷ Then they planted vineyards and fields,
Which brought the produce of fruit.

³⁸ He blest them, and soon they were many,
And not very few were their cattle,

³⁹ After they'd been decreased and mistreated...
Afflicted with evil and grief.

⁴⁰ Contempt had been poured on their rulers,
And they'd wandered in places without any roads.
⁴¹ But, from their needy, He removed poor conditions,
And He treated their families like His own flock.
⁴² Then, all the upright were joyful,
As the mouths of the lawless were blocked.
⁴³ So, who now has enough wisdom,
To understand the mercies of God?

Psalm 108

A Psalm of David.

¹ My heart is prepared, O my God...
In my glory, I'll now sing and play!
² Awaken my glory, my lute, and my harp,
As I am arising at dawn.
³ O Lord; among all the peoples,
I will offer You praise;
About You, I'll strum to the nations,
⁴ Because Your mercy is great...
It's higher than even the skies,
And Your truth reaches into the clouds.
⁵ May Your glory grow higher than the heavens, O God...
Yes, far above the whole earth.
⁶ Please bring salvation to Your loved ones...
Please hear me and save me with Your right hand!
⁷ Then in Holiness, God spoke and said this:
'[My Name] will be lifted high.
For, I will subdivide SheChem,
And lay out My tents in its valley.
⁸ Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine,
And Ephraim is the pillow for My head.

⁹ Judah [is the place of] My king,
And Moab's the kettle of My plans against Edom.
'So, I'll stick out My shoe [and step down],
And to Me, the Philistines will bow.
¹⁰ Can they save their fortified cities from Me?
Can they serve as My guide throughout Edom?'
¹¹ However, O God, You've pushed us away...
So Lord, won't You send us Your [angels]?
¹² In this time of oppression, please send us Your aid;
For the salvation of man has no value.
¹³ Only by God do we have any strength...
On our enemies, only He can show our contempt.

Psalm 109

To the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ O God of my praise, don't stay silent,
² For sinners and liars have spoken against me.
They speak against me with deceitful tongues,
³ And I'm covered with their hateful words.
⁴ They battle with me for no reason...
Instead of love, they send slander...
So to You, I will lay out my prayer!
⁵ Instead of good, they're bringing what's bad,
And they're showing hate [in return for] my love.
⁶ So, send them away with the sinners,
And put the Slanderer at their right hand.
⁷ When they're judged, may they leave condemned,
And may their prayers be thought of as sins.
⁸ May their days no longer be many,
And may others take their positions.
⁹ May all their sons become orphans,
And may their wives become widows.

¹⁰ Let their sons wander and beg...
May they be driven away from their homes.

¹¹ May bankers search for the things that they own,
And may strangers loot what they've worked for.

¹² May no one come to protect them,
And may no one pity their orphans.

¹³ May all their children be wiped away...
In one generation, may their names be erased.

¹⁴ May Jehovah remember the sins of their fathers...
May the sins of their mothers not be forgotten.

¹⁵ May they stand [in judgment] before You, O Lord...
May their memory be wiped from the land.

¹⁶ For, they forgot to show mercy,
And they chased a man who is needy and poor...
Someone whose heart has been broken.

¹⁷ Since they love curses, may they get them;
Since they offer no blessings, may they go far away.

¹⁸ They wore curses as though they were clothes,
Which poured like water within them,
And became like oil in their bones.

¹⁹ So, may they wear their curses like robes...
May they wear them like belts on their waists.

²⁰ May this be the reward from Jehovah
For all those [guilty of] slander,
And for those speaking bad of my soul.

²¹ O Lord, Jehovah, please help me,
For the sake of Your Name and Your mercy.

²² Rescue me, for I'm poor and in need,
And my heart is deeply disturbed.

²³ Like a shadow that passes, I've been removed...
I've been [eaten] away as by locusts.

²⁴ My knees are now weakened from fasting,
And for lack of oil, my flesh has been changed.

²⁵ To them, I'm someone to laugh at...
They look at me and just shake their heads.

²⁶ So help me, Jehovah, my God;
In Your mercy, please send me your aid,
²⁷ And let them know that this came by Your hand...
That it's You, O Jehovah, who did it!

²⁸ Upon themselves, may their curses fall,
But please, [my God], send [me] blessings.
May those who've risen against me be shamed;
But, may Your servant find joy.

²⁹ On those guilty of slander, bring shame...
Wrap them in shame as though it were clothes.

³⁰ Then, I will offer You praises, my Lord...
With my mouth, I will praise You to many.

³¹ Now He stands at this poor one's right hand,
To save me from those pursuing my soul.

Psalm 110

A Psalm of David.

¹ Jehovah said this to my lord:

'Sit here at My right hand
Til I set your enemies as a stool for your feet.

² A powerful scepter, I'll send you from Zion,
And amidst your enemies, you'll rule.

³ 'In the day of your power, you'll be the sovereign,
And your holy ones will then shine.

For, since the time that you came from the womb
I've made you [the \[bright\] morning star.](#)'

⁴ This oath was sworn by Jehovah,
And for it, He will never repent:

‘You will be a Priest through the ages
In the order of MelchiZedek,
⁵ And at My right hand, you will sit.
‘In the day of your rage, you will shatter kings,
⁶ And you’ll be the judge of the nations.
‘Then you’ll fill their [lands] with the dead,
And you’ll shatter many heads on the earth.
⁷ From the [Kidron] Wadi, you’ll drink,
And there, you’ll raise your head high.’

Psalm 111

Praise Jah!

¹ I’ll praise You, Jehovah, with my whole heart,
And Your instructions, [I’ll share with] the righteous.
² The deeds of Jehovah are great,
And He searches for those whom He loves.
³ Majestic and worthy are the things that He does,
And through ages of ages, His justice endures.
⁴ He’s made His wonders to not be forgotten,
And Jehovah shows pity and great empathy.
⁵ He nourishes all those who fear Him,
And remembers His promises through ages.
⁶ His powerful deeds, He’s announced to His people,
And they will inherit the nations.
⁷ The works of His hands are all just and true,
And His commands are trustworthy.
⁸ So, through the age of the ages
His truth and uprightness will stand.
⁹ He will ransom His people,
And through ages, He’ll give them instructions
Concerning His Holy Sacred Agreement,
And of how His Name should be feared.

¹⁰ Wisdom starts with the fear of Jehovah,
And those who take this [to heart]
Will always be understanding and good...
They will be praised through the age
And into the age of the ages.

Psalm 112

Praise Jah.

¹ Blest are those in fear of Jehovah
And desire to obey His Commandments.
² For their seed will grow strong on the land...
For generations, their righteous ways will be blest.
³ Glory and wealth will dwell in their homes,
And through the age of the ages
Their righteous ways will endure.
⁴ For the upright, they light up the darkness,
⁵ And they'll show the righteous pity and mercy.
⁵ The kind feel compassion and lend,
And they manage their matters uprightly.
⁶ So, they will endure through the ages,
For the righteous will not be forgotten.
⁷ They won't have to be in fear of bad news,
For they've readied their hearts to trust in the Lord.
⁸ And because their hearts are so sure;
Of their enemies, they'll not be in fear.
⁹ They contribute to those who are needy,
And through the ages, they prove themselves just;
So their trumpets will be lifted in glory.
¹⁰ But in anger, the sinners will see this...
They'll grind their teeth, and then melt away
Along with the things they desired.

Psalm 113

Praise Jah.

- ¹ His servants should all praise Jehovah...
Yes, praise the Name of the Lord.
- ² May the Name Jehovah be praised
Both now and into the ages.
- ³ From the time the sun rises until it descends,
It praises the Name of the Lord.
- ⁴ For Jehovah is high above all the nations,
And His glory exists in the heavens.
- ⁵ Who else is like Jehovah our God,
The One who dwells in high places?
- ⁶ To the humble, He pays close attention...
Both those in the heavens and those on the earth.
- ⁷ He raises the poor from the ground,
And from cesspools, He raises the needy.
- ⁸ Then He sits them next to the rulers...
Those who are over His people.
- ⁹ He provides homes for the childless,
And large houses for those who have many.

Psalm 114

Praise Jah.

- ¹ After IsraEl left Egypt...
After the house of Jacob fled the barbaric,
- ² Judah became [God's] Most Holy Place,
And IsraEl was His power to accomplish.
- ³ The sea beheld them and it moved away,
And the Jordan turned around and flowed backward...
- ⁴ The mountains started leaping like rams,
And the hills were behaving like lambs.

So, what is it with you, O sea...
Why did you withdraw from before them...
Yes, why did you move away?
And Jordan, why did you flow backward...
⁶ You mountains, why were you leaping like rams,
And Hills, why were you behaving like lambs?
⁷ In the presence [of God], the ground rattled...
It shivered before Jacob's God.
⁸ For, from a rock, He brought water,
And from stone, He chiseled a spring.

Psalm 115

The Idols.

¹ Don't do it just for us, O Jehovah...
Don't do it just for our sakes!
Do it to glorify Your Name,
And to show everyone Your mercy and truth,
² So the nations won't ever have reason ask,
'What has become of your God?'
³ Our God dwells in the heavens,
And on the earth, He does as He wills.
⁴ But the nations worship idols of silver and gold...
Things that are made by men's hands.
⁵ These idols have mouths that can't speak;
They also have eyes that can't see;
⁶ Though they have ears, they cannot hear,
And their noses smell nothing at all.
⁷ They have hands with which they can't grab things;
And though they have feet, they can't walk,
Nor can they speak with their throats.
⁸ So, let those who made them, be like them,
Along with those who bow before them.

⁹ The house of IsraEl has faith in Jehovah;
For, He's their defender and helper.
¹⁰ The house of Aaron puts hope in the Lord;
For, He's their defender and helper.
¹¹ All those who are fearing Jehovah
Are those who put trust in their Lord;
For, He's their defender and helper.
¹² Jehovah remembered and blest us...
The house of IsraEl, He blest,
And the house of Aaron, He blest...
¹³ He has blest both the great and the small
Who put all their trust in the Lord.
¹⁴ May Jehovah provide for you and your sons...
¹⁵ May you all be blest by the Lord...
The One who created the heavens and earth.
¹⁶ For the heavens belong to Jehovah,
But to the sons of men, He gave the earth.
¹⁷ The dead will not praise You, Jehovah,
Nor will those who are going into the grave.
¹⁸ It is only the living who will offer You praise,
Both now and into the ages.

Psalm 116

Praise Jah.

¹ I love the fact that Jehovah will listen
To the words of [my prayers].
² He leans His ears down to hear [what I pray],
So I'll call upon Him through the rest my days.
³ In the pangs of death, I once had been wrapped,
And fear of the grave was around me;
So, I was afflicted and grieved.
⁴ But I called out in the Name the Lord:
'O Jehovah, please rescue my soul!'

⁵ Merciful and just is Jehovah,
For our God is the One who shows mercy.

⁶ And this Lord who humbles and saves me
Also keeps watch over infants.

⁷ O my soul;
Return to your restful state,
For Jehovah has watched over you.

⁸ O my soul;
He has saved you from death,
And He has removed the tears from your eyes
By keeping your feet from taking wrong steps.

⁹ So to Jehovah, I wish to be pleasing,
And to stay in the land of the living.

¹⁰ I was too proud and that's why I spoke;
But thereafter, I learned to be humble.

¹¹ For in ecstasy, I once said
That every man is a liar.

¹² With what can I repay Jehovah
For all that He's done for me?

¹³ I'll accept His cup of salvation,
And continue to call on the Name of the Lord.

¹⁴ My vows to Jehovah, I'll render
Before all of His people.

¹⁵ For, when His holy ones die,
They are never forgotten by God.

¹⁶ O Jehovah, I am Your servant...
I'm the son of Your female slave,
And it's You who tore off my shackles.

¹⁷ So I'll offer sacrifices of praise,
As I call on the Name of the Lord.

¹⁸ To You, I will pay whatever I vow
There in front of Your people...

¹⁹ There in Your Temple courtyard
In JeruSalem's midst.

Psalm 117

Praise Jah.

¹ Praise Jehovah, you nations...
May He be praised by you all.
² For His mercy upon us is strong,
And His truth endures through the ages.

Psalm 118

Praise Jah.

¹ Praise Jehovah, because He is good,
And His mercies endure through the ages.
² May the house of IsraEl say, 'He is good,
And His mercies endure through the ages.'
³ May Aaron's house say, 'He is good,
And His mercies endure through the ages.'
⁴ May those fearing Jehovah say, 'He is good,
And His mercies endure through the ages.'
⁵ In my time of distress, I called to the Lord,
And He answered my prayers in great ways.
⁶ Jehovah's my helper, so I will not fear;
For, what can men do to me?
⁷ And because Jehovah's my helper,
I will also judge those who hate me.
⁸ It is better to yield to Jehovah
Than to give in to men.
⁹ It is better to hope in the Lord
Than to put any trust in your rulers.
¹⁰ Many nations once had me surrounded,
But in the Name of the Lord, I pushed them away.

¹¹ Yes, they once had me encircled;
But, though they had me surrounded,
In the Name, Jehovah, I pushed them away.

¹² As bees on a comb, I was covered;
But, they were then burned like thorn bushes...
In the Name of the Lord, I pushed them away.

¹³ I was stabbed and fell flat on the ground,
Then the Lord took hold of my [hand].

¹⁴ So, Jehovah's my strength and my song of praise...
He has become my Salvation...

¹⁵ He's the voice of shouting in joy,
And the Savior of the tents of the righteous.

Jehovah's right hand showed its power,

¹⁶ And by His right hand, I was raised...
The Lord's right hand showed its power.

¹⁷ So, I will not die, I will live,
And I'll speak of the works of Jehovah.

¹⁸ By Jehovah, I once was corrected,
And He didn't hand me over to death.

¹⁹ The gates of justice have been opened to me,
So through them, I'll walk and confess to the Lord.

²⁰ Yes, this is the gate of Jehovah,
Through which the righteous will pass.

²¹ Because You heard me, I will confess,
That You are truly my Savior.

²² So, the stone that the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone...

²³ It's by Jehovah that this came to pass,
And in our eyes, it's a beautiful thing.

²⁴ This day was made by Jehovah,
And for it, we'll cry out in joy:

²⁵ 'O Jehovah, please save us!

O Lord, please bless all our ways!

²⁶ And blest is this one who comes in God's Name...
In the House of Jehovah, we'll praise him!

²⁷ Our God Jehovah is shining on us;
So, gather for a great holiday!
Come with many sacrifices
To present on the horns of the Altar.

²⁸ You're my God, and I will confess
That You are my Lord, and I'll hold You high.
I'll confess that You have listened to me,
And explain that You are my Savior.

²⁹ I'll confess to Jehovah, because He is good,
And His mercies endure through the ages.

Psalm 119

Praise Jah.

¹ Those who are spotless are blest...

Those who obey the Laws of Jehovah.

² And blest are those who search for His [words]...
Those who seek Him with their whole hearts.

³ But, those who practice what's lawless
Will never walk in His ways.

⁴ You've told us to follow Your orders;

⁵ So, straighten our paths to follow Your Laws,

⁶ Then we will never be shamed

By failing to keep Your Commandments.

⁷ To You I'll confess with a pure heart,
And I'll study Your judgments and justice.

⁸ I will always follow Your Laws,
So that You will never desert me!

⁹ How can a young man keep his ways straight?
By wholeheartedly obeying Your words.

¹⁰ So, from my heart, I've inquired of You,
And from Your Commandments, don't push me away!

¹¹ I've hidden Your prophecies deep in my heart,
So against You, I will not sin.

¹² May You be praised, O Jehovah...
Please teach me [all of] Your ways!

¹³ With my lips, I'll declare the decisions
That have come from Your mouth.

¹⁴ I've found delight in the things that You've said,
And I view them as greater than treasure.

¹⁵ On Your Commandments, I will meditate,
And I'll contemplate all of Your ways.

¹⁶ I'll also think of Your Laws,
And never forget the things that You've promised.

¹⁷ So, bless and enliven Your servant,
And I will do as You've told me.

¹⁸ Uncover my eyes and I'll contemplate
The wondrous ways of Your Laws.

¹⁹ I'm just a sojourner on earth,
So, please don't hide Your Commandments from me.

²⁰ For my soul has longed for Your judgments...
They're the things that I've always desired.

²¹ You have scolded the proud,
And those who reject Your Commandments are cursed.

²² So, take away my scorn and contempt;
For I've searched though the proofs that You've sent.

²³ But against Your servant, the rulers speak badly,
Though I have pondered Your ways.

²⁴ I've thought of the proofs You've provided,
And Your Laws have been my advice.

²⁵ Though my soul has been pushed to the ground,
Your Word has kept me alive.

²⁶ My [foolish] ways, I've admitted to you,
And You have heard [all my prayers].

So, teach me Your rules ²⁷ and show Me Your Laws...
Teach me to fully understand them,
And to contemplate all Your wonders.

²⁸ My soul was asleep and indifferent;
But now, make me firm in Your words.

²⁹ Remove injustice from my all of ways,
And let Your Laws teach me mercy.

³⁰ The way of truth, I have chosen,
And Your decisions, I've never forgotten.

³¹ In Your just paths, I have always remained,
So Lord, don't put me to shame.

³² Toward Your Commandments, I've run
From the time that You widened my heart.

³³ So establish Your Laws deep within me,
And I'll follow them always, O Lord.

³⁴ Please teach me to understand,
And I will search for Your Laws,
Then guard them with my whole heart.

³⁵ Toward Your Commandments, please lead me;
For, they're what I've always desired.

³⁶ Lean my heart toward Your righteous ways,
And remove my desires for wealth.

³⁷ To my eyes, please give good direction,
So they'll never desire what is foolish.

Enliven me in Your ways,

³⁸ And send Your servant an omen of fear!

³⁹ Remove my scorn and the things that I dread;
For, all Your decisions are kind.

⁴⁰ Your Commandments, I've always desired;
So, make me alive in Your righteous ways.

⁴¹ Please send me Your mercies, O Lord...
And as You once promised, please save me.

⁴² Then I will be able to give a reply
To those who speak ill of me,
And I can put faith in Your words.

⁴³ Don't remove Your words of truth from my mouth;
For, in Your judgments, I have raised hopes.

⁴⁴ I'll guard Your Laws through the ages
And into the age of the ages.

⁴⁵ Because I have searched Your Commandments,
My life has become more important...

⁴⁶ I have spoken of Your ways before kings,
And of this, I've never been shamed.

⁴⁷ On Your Commandments, I have pondered,
And I've come to love them so dearly.

⁴⁸ I've sworn to obey all Your orders...
I've considered and loved all Your rules.

⁴⁹ Remember Your words to Your servant,
For they have given me hope.

⁵⁰ They've provided me comfort in times of shame,
And Your signs have given me life.

⁵¹ Though the proud have all been unjust,
From Your Laws, I've not turned away.

⁵² Through the age, I've remembered Your rules;
And Jehovah, they've brought me much comfort.

⁵³ Because of the sinners, I was depressed...
By those who've abandoned Your Laws.

⁵⁴ But Your rules became like music to me,
And [remain within me] wherever I go.

⁵⁵ During the night, I think of Your Name;
And Jehovah, I've followed Your Laws.

⁵⁶ All the [good] that has happened to me,
Has come because I've searched for Your ways.

⁵⁷ O Lord, You're the share I was given,
And of guarding Your Laws, I have spoken.

⁵⁸ With my whole heart, I've begged to Your face,
'Show mercy on me as You promised.'

⁵⁹ Though against Your ways, I once argued;
My feet then turned toward the things that You said.

⁶⁰ I've prepared myself to keep Your Commandments,
And by them, I'm never disturbed.

⁶¹ Though I've been twisted in the cords of the sinners;
I've not forgotten Your Laws.

⁶² So at midnight, I wake up to thank You
For Your decisions and justice.

⁶³ I'm a partner to all those who fear You...
To those who obey Your Commandments.

⁶⁴ For the earth is filled with Your mercy,
And I have learned from Your rules.

⁶⁵ You've used Your servant to do what is good,
According to Your Word, O Jehovah.

⁶⁶ Now, teach me to know what is right
And to put trust in Your judgments.

⁶⁷ I was a sinner before I was humbled;
But, ever since then, I've guarded Your words.

⁶⁸ You've provided so kindly for me, O Lord,
So in kindness, please teach me Your Laws.

⁶⁹ The injustice of the proud is a burden to me;
But I'll seek Your Commandments with my whole heart.

⁷⁰ Though their hearts of such ones have curdled like milk,
I have still pondered Your Laws.

⁷¹ It's good that I have been humbled by You,
So I'd learn to follow Your rules.

⁷² For to me, the Laws that come from Your mouth
Are worth more than silver and gold.

⁷³ It was Your hands that made me and shaped me;
So, help me to understand better
And to learn about Your Commandments.

⁷⁴ Now, those who fear You, rejoice when they see me,
For I've raised their hopes through Your words.

⁷⁵ O Jehovah;
Through Your judgments, I've learned to be just,
And by Your truth, I've been humbled.

⁷⁶ May Your mercy bring comfort to me
As You've revealed it to Your servant in signs.

⁷⁷ Show compassion on me and I'll live,
So I can continue to study Your Laws.

⁷⁸ May the proud be shamed for treating me badly;
For, they have broken Your Laws,
While I've remembered Your Commandments.

⁷⁹ May those who fear You support me...
Those who've heard the things that You've said.

⁸⁰ So, put Your rules in my heart,
Then I will never be shamed.

⁸¹ Yes, Your salvation is what I have sought,
And Your words have given me hope.

⁸² My eyes have failed as I've searched for Your signs;
So, when will You send me some comfort?

⁸³ Though I'm like a leather bag in the frost,
I haven't forgotten Your rules.

⁸⁴ How many more days will Your servant remain,
And when will You judge those who chase me?

⁸⁵ For, lawbreakers are plotting against me,
But not by Your Laws, O Jehovah.

⁸⁶ Your Commandments are true... so, please help me!
For they're chasing me down for no reason.

⁸⁷ Yes, soon they will wipe me out of this land,
Though I've never left Your Commandments.

⁸⁸ In Your mercy, please strengthen my soul,
And I'll guard the words that have come from Your mouth.

⁸⁹ For, through the ages, O [God],
Your Words have been in the heavens...

⁹⁰ From one generation to another,
Your truth has always [been found] there.

You laid the foundations of the earth,
And it has continued to be...

⁹¹ It's at Your choosing that each day arrives;
For, all is under Your power.

⁹² Had I not thought of Your Laws,
In shame, I'd have now been destroyed.

⁹³ So, don't let forget Your rules through the age,
Since they have given me life.

⁹⁴ Because I'm Yours, please save me;
For I have searched for Your rules!

⁹⁵ But, sinners now wait to destroy me,
Because I have followed Your ways.

⁹⁶ When I thought that I was seeing the end,
Your Commandments brought me [more] time.

⁹⁷ So I've loved Your Laws, O Jehovah;
Throughout the day, they stay on my mind.

⁹⁸ For You've made me wiser than my enemies,
And Your Commandments will be mine through the age.

⁹⁹ I've seen more than all those who taught me,
Because I've obeyed Your instructions.

¹⁰⁰ I've also seen more than the elders,
Because I've searched for Your rules.

¹⁰¹ I've held back my feet from what's evil,
So I can guard all Your words.

¹⁰² From Your judgments, I've not turned aside,
And You have established my laws.

¹⁰³ How sweet to my throat are the things that You say...
They're like honey inside of my mouth.

¹⁰⁴ And from Your Commandments I have learned
To hate the ways of injustice.

¹⁰⁵ Your Law is a lamp to my feet,
And it is a light to my paths.

¹⁰⁶ So I've stood before You and sworn with an oath
To guard Your justice and judgments.

¹⁰⁷ O Jehovah; I have been knocked down;
So, lift me back up, as You promised.

¹⁰⁸ The offerings that come from my mouth
Bring pleasure to me, O my Lord.
So, teach me all Your decisions.

¹⁰⁹ O Lord; my life is now in Your hands,
And Your Laws, I haven't forgotten.

¹¹⁰ Though sinners set snares in my paths,
From Your Commandments, I've never strayed.

¹¹¹ I've inherited Your proofs through the age,
And they've made my heart leap for joy.

¹¹² I've inclined my heart to follow Your rules
Through the age, in repayment to You.

¹¹³ I have detested lawbreakers,
And I have loved all Your rules.

¹¹⁴ So, You are my helper and shield,
And by Your words, I have raised other's hopes.

¹¹⁵ Please turn me away from what's wicked,
And for Your Commandments, I'll search.

¹¹⁶ Take hold of me, [as You promised] in signs...
Make me strong and don't shame my hopes.

¹¹⁷ Send me help and I will be saved...
For I'll always think of Your rules.

¹¹⁸ But, those who turned from me in contempt
Have broken Your Laws with unrighteous thoughts...

¹¹⁹ This land's sinners are breaking Your Laws,
While I've loved the things that You've said.

¹²⁰ Though they nailed up my flesh with no fear of You,
I continued to fear Your decisions,

¹²¹ Which taught me Your judgments and justice...
So don't save those who're treating me badly.

¹²² Keep an eye on Your servant for good...
Don't allow the proud to extort me.

¹²³ For my eyes await Your salvation
And to hear the sacred words of Your justice.

¹²⁴ Deal with Your servant in mercy
And teach me all of Your righteous ways.

¹²⁵ Help me to know, for I am Your slave;
Then, I will teach [others] Your words.

¹²⁶ It's now time to act, O Jehovah;
For, they've wiped away all Your Laws!

¹²⁷ But, I have loved Your Commandments
More than topaz or gold.

¹²⁸ I have also followed Your Laws,
And their unrighteous ways, I have hated!

¹²⁹ Wondrous are the proofs that You've given;
So, with my whole soul, I'll search for Your words.

¹³⁰ For the revealing of them sheds much light,
And they bring understanding to the simple.

¹³¹ I've opened my mouth and I've sighed...
And for Your Commandments, I've longed.

¹³² So, look upon me and show mercy...
Show mercy to those who are loving Your Name.

¹³³ Please straighten my steps toward the ways I should walk,
And by lawless ways, may I never be ruled.

¹³⁴ From men's extortions, please save me,
And I will keep Your Commandments.

¹³⁵ Please show Your face to Your servant
And teach me all Your righteous rules.

¹³⁶ For, streams of water will flow from my eyes
Should I find myself breaking Your Laws.

¹³⁷ You are so righteous, Jehovah,
And all Your decisions are straight.

¹³⁸ For You've told us [that we must be] fair,
And the things that we say must be true.

¹³⁹ But Your zeal is being [overlooked],
For my enemies don't remember the things that You said...

¹⁴⁰ Though the signs that You sent them were blazing like fire,
And Your servant has loved them in truth.

¹⁴¹ Because of my youth, I am shown no respect;
But Your rules, I haven't forgotten.

¹⁴² Through the ages, it has proven true,
That You and Your Laws are righteous and just.

¹⁴³ Though distress and afflictions have found me,
About Your Commandments, I've pondered.

¹⁴⁴ Through the ages, Your words have all proven true;
So, please help me to fully understand them,
That I may continue to live.

¹⁴⁵ With my whole heart, I've cried out to You:
'Hear me, O Lord, and I'll search for Your rules.'

¹⁴⁶ To You, I've called out, 'Please save me;
And in Your righteous ways, I will go.'

¹⁴⁷ Before midnight, I called out [to You],
And in Your words, I've put hope.

¹⁴⁸ Then, as my eyes opened at dawn,
I noticed the signs You provided.

¹⁴⁹ In mercy, O Jehovah, please hear my voice...
In Your justice, please save my life!

¹⁵⁰ Turn from those who chase me unjustly;
For, they have turned from Your Laws.

¹⁵¹ You are always near me, O Lord,
And truthful are all of Your ways.

¹⁵² From the beginning, I've known of Your words,
And they've served as my rock through the age.

¹⁵³ Look down and save me, so I'm not disgraced,
For I've not forgotten Your Laws.

¹⁵⁴ Judge my case and [give justice]...
For the sake of Your Word, let me live!

¹⁵⁵ Take me away from the sinners...
Those who haven't searched for Your rules.

¹⁵⁶ But, You are filled with compassion, O Lord...
So with Your righteous decisions, please save my life.

¹⁵⁷ Though many are trying to drive me away,
And many are those who oppress me;
I haven't strayed from Your words.

¹⁵⁸ I've seen others who are lacking good sense,
And because they don't follow Your words,
They are just wasting away.

¹⁵⁹ Notice how I've loved Your Commandments, O Lord!
So in mercy, please save my life!

¹⁶⁰ For Your words have been true from the start...
Age-long are Your judgments and justice.

¹⁶¹ Without any reason, I'm being pursued,
And my heart is in dread of Your words.

¹⁶² But I'll shout in praise if You'll send me a sign,
As one who has found great rewards.

¹⁶³ I've detested and abhorred all injustice,
And Your Law, I have always loved.

¹⁶⁴ Seven times each day, I praise Your decisions,
And I think well of Your justice.

¹⁶⁵ Peace comes to those who are loving Your Laws,
And nothing can stand in their way.

¹⁶⁶ So, in Your salvation, I've trusted, O God,
Because I have loved Your Commandments.

¹⁶⁷ My soul has guarded Your words...
It proves how I truly have loved them.

¹⁶⁸ I have kept Your words and Commandments,
And my ways, O Jehovah, are open before You.

¹⁶⁹ O Lord, please hear what I'm begging,
And help me to understand all Your signs.

¹⁷⁰ If You find me worthy, please let me approach...
Save me, as You've shown me through omens.

¹⁷¹ Then, with my lips, I'll sing hymns,
And I'll let You teach me Your rules.

¹⁷² With my tongue, I will sing of Your omens,
And of how Your Commandments are righteous.

¹⁷³ Please send Your hand down to save me,
For, I've accepted all Your Commandments.

¹⁷⁴ Your salvation is what I have longed for, O Lord,
And I've contemplated all of Your Laws.

¹⁷⁵ So, if You'll allow me to live,
I will [continue to] praise You,
And Your decisions will serve as my guide.

¹⁷⁶ But, I have strayed like a lamb
That would have perished alone;

So, please come and search for Your servant,
For Your Commandments, I've never forgotten.

Psalm 120

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ In my despair, I called to the Lord,
And to [my prayer], He then listened.
² 'From unrighteous lips, please save me, O Lord...
[Save me] from those who have tongues that deceive.
³ 'What can I give and what can I add
When it comes to those with tongues that tell lies?
⁴ For against me, the arrows of the mighty
Are now being sharpened in coals.
⁵ 'I've run far away to escape them,
And in [the Valley of] Cedars, I've camped.
⁶ My soul was forced to run off and hide
From these men who hate peaceful ways...
⁷ Though I've spoken mildly to them,
They've battled with me for no reason.'

Psalm 121

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ I've lifted my eyes toward that Mountain
From which I receive all my aid.
² For my help comes from Jehovah...
The One who made the heavens and earth.
³ He won't let your feet stumble,
For the One who keeps watch never sleeps...
⁴ No, IsraEl's protector never slumbers or sleeps.
⁵ Jehovah's your guard and protector;
He's always at your right hand.

⁶ So by day, the sun won't beat down upon you,
Nor will the moon, during the night.

⁷ Jehovah will protect you from evil,
For the Lord watches over your soul.

⁸ Jehovah will guard your comings and goings,
From now and into the ages.

Psalm 122

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ I'm overjoyed when they tell me,
'To the house of Jehovah, we'll go,
² And we'll stand within JeruSalem's gates.'

³ JeruSalem was built as a city
That we can all share together,
⁴ And the tribes of Jehovah go up there;
For, this is required by IsraEl's Law.

⁵ There sits the throne from which judgments come...
The throne of the house of [King] David.
⁶ It's where you can [pray] for JeruSalem's peace,
And prosperity for all whom you love.

⁷ [Pray], 'Let there be peace for our army,
And prosperity for our fortified towns.

⁸ On behalf of my brothers and neighbors,
I pray for peace upon all...

⁹ I've come to the [House] of Jehovah our God
To pray for good things [to come].'

Psalm 123

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ I have lifted my eyes
To the One who lives in the heavens.

² For as the eyes of a slave look to his master,

And as the eyes of a handmaid look to her lady;
Our eyes should look to Jehovah our God
Until He shows His pity for us.

³ Show mercy upon us, Jehovah...
Please extend Your mercy to us!
For, with disrespect, we've been treated...
⁴ Our lives have been filled with the scorn of the rich,
And with the contempt of the haughty.

Psalm 124

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

² Say it, O IsraEl!
³ Unless Jehovah is with us,
The men who attack will swallow us down...
⁴ In their rage, we would have been drowned,
And their streams would have taken our lives...
⁵ Their raging waters would have taken our lives!
⁶ So, praise Jehovah, because He provides,
And we won't be given as game for their teeth.
⁷ Like sparrows, our lives will be rescued
From the traps of men who are hunting us down.
Yes their snares have been broken and we have been saved,
⁸ Since we've looked to the Name of Jehovah for aid...
The One who made the heavens and earth.

Psalm 125

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ All those who put faith in Jehovah
Are like those [who live on] Mount Zion.
For, those who live in JeruSalem
Have remained firm through the ages.

² And as [that city's] surrounded by mountains,
The Lord will encircle His people
From now and through eons of time.

³ For, He won't allow whips of sinners
To [fall on the backs] of the righteous...
They will not be stretched out before them,
Or by their hands, be mistreated.

⁴ O Jehovah; do good for those doing good
And for those whose hearts have been straight.

⁵ But remove those who are turning toward badness...
Take them away with the lawless, O Lord;
And in IsraEl, may there be peace!

Psalm 126

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ When Jehovah returns Zion's captives,
It will bring comfort to us.

² With joyful [cries], our mouths will be filled,
And our tongues will be shouting cheers.

Then, those of the nations will say,
'Jehovah has proven Himself to be great
By the ways that He is dealing with them.'

³ Yes, He will prove Himself great
By the good ways that He treats us...
Yes, He will make us all joyful!

⁴ O Jehovah, please bring back our captives,
As water returns to the streams in the south.

⁵ Then, those who are planting with tears
Will harvest with cries that are joyful.

⁶ For the ones who've been taken are gone,
So those scattering seeds now do so with tears.

But when they return, we'll be shouting in joy
As we carry our sheaves [to Your Temple].

Psalm 127

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ If the house isn't built by Jehovah,
Its builders have [worked hard] in vain.
And if the Lord isn't guarding a city,
It's in vain to stay awake and keep watch...

² Though you arise early and go to bed late,
It will all be in vain.

O you who must eat bread of grief;
He will still bring rest to those whom He loves.

³ {Look!} The inheritance of Jehovah is sons,
And your wage is the fruit of the belly.

⁴ For the sons born to you are like arrows
In the hands of the mighty.

⁵ So, those filling their [quivers] with [sons] are the blest,
For they will not be disgraced
When they must stand against enemies
Who have arrived at their gates.

Psalm 128

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ Blest are those in fear of Jehovah...
Those who walk in His ways.

² For, from the works of their hands, they will eat...
They will be blest and all will go well.

³ Your wives will prosper like grape vines,
Which grow on the walls of your homes.
And your sons will be like young olive trees,
As they sit 'round your table.

⁴ {Look!} Those who fear Jehovah are blest...
⁵ Yes, may He bless them from Zion.
May they all see good from JeruSalem
Throughout the rest of their lives...
⁶ May they live to see the sons of their sons,
And on IsraEl, may there be peace!

Psalm 129

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ Many times, they've waged war against me
Since the time of my youth...
Say it, O IsraEl!
² Many times, they've waged war against me
Since the time of my youth,
Yet, they've been unable to beat me.
³ Behind my back, the sinners conspired,
As they continued in their lawless ways.
⁴ But [our God Jehovah] is righteous,
For He's chopped them off at their necks.
⁵ Let them be shamed and be forced to retreat...
All those are hating Mount Zion.
⁶ Let them become like grass on the roofs
After it's pulled up and dried.
⁷ Why hasn't the harvester filled up his hands,
Or collected the sheaves to his chest?
⁸ Because those passing by didn't offer this blessing:
'We bless you in the Name of the Lord.'

Psalm 130

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ I cried out to You from the depths, O my Lord:
² ‘O Jehovah, please hear my voice...
May Your ears hear the words of my prayers!
³ ‘If You just look upon our lawless ways;
O Lord, who’ll be able to stand?
⁴ But though we have reason to fear You,
You have covered our sins.
‘Because of Your Name, I’ve waited for You...
⁵ O Jehovah; My soul has awaited Your word...
⁶ My soul has put hope in the Lord
From early-watches until late at night.’
⁷ Let IsraEl put faith in Jehovah,
For in mercy, He has paid our ransom...
⁸ IsraEl has been repurchased by Him
From their own lawless ways.

Psalm 131

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ O Jehovah; I haven’t exalted my heart,
Nor have my eyes been too lofty.
I haven’t traveled with great ones,
Nor in the wonders of those who’re above me...
² For if I’ve failed to be humble, I’ve sinned!
But now, my life has been raised
As one who’s been weaned from his mother.
So, please ransom my soul,
³ And may IsraEl put faith in Jehovah
From now and into the ages.

Psalm 132

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ O Lord; remember [King] David,
And all of his gentle ways.
² For he swore an oath to Jehovah...
To the God of Jacob, he made this vow:
³ ‘When I go home and go to bed,
⁴ Could I let my eyes fall asleep
Or my eyelids to slumber as I rest in my house,
⁵ Before I find a place for Jehovah...
A Tent for the God of Jacob [to dwell]?’
⁶ {Look!} We’ve heard it was there in EphRatha...
It was found in the plains among groves.
⁷ So we went to His Tent and we bowed there,
In the land that serves as His footstool.
⁸ Now, arise from Your rest, O Jehovah,
And visit the Chest in Your Most Holy Place.
⁹ Then Your Priests will make themselves righteous,
And Your holy ones will cry out in joy.
¹⁰ From [King] David Your servant...
From Your anointed, You’ll not turn away.
¹¹ For Jehovah swore this to David as truth,
And He will never annul it:
‘On your throne, I’ll establish the fruit of your belly.
¹² So, if your sons guard My Sacred Agreement
And obey all the rules that I’ll teach them;
Through the ages, their sons will sit on your throne.’
¹³ Now, Jehovah has chosen [Mount] Zion...
He took it as His own place to dwell when He said:
¹⁴ ‘Here, I will rest through ages of ages...
It’s [the place that] I’ve chosen and where I will stay.
¹⁵ ‘I will bless the blest among her wild beasts,
And with bread, I will fill up her poor.

¹⁶ Her Priests, I'll clothe with salvation,
And her holy ones will sing songs of joy.

¹⁷ 'There, I will raise David's trumpet,
And for My anointed, I'll ready a lamp.

¹⁸ Then I'll clothe his enemies with shame,
And on him, I'll make holiness blossom.'

Psalm 133

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

¹ {Look!} How good and delightful it is
When brothers can all live together.
² It's like perfumed oil that runs down the beard...
Upon Aaron's beard and then down his clothes.
³ It's like the dew on [Mount] Hermon
That runs to the mountains of Zion.
For it's there that Jehovah gave meaning
To the blessing of life through the ages.

Psalm 134

A song [to be sung] while ascending [to the Temple on Mount MoriAh].

Those who stand in the House of the Lord...
Those who stand in the courtyards
Of the House of our God through the night.
² Raise your hands to His Holy Place,
And give praise to the Lord.
³ May Jehovah bless you from Zion...
The One who made the lands and skies.

Psalm 135

Praise Jah.

¹ Praise the Name of the Lord...
Yes, praise Jehovah, His servants...
² All you who stand at His Temple...
In the courtyards of the House of our God.
³ Praise Jehovah, because He is good...
Play music to His Glorious Name.
⁴ For, He chose Jacob to be His own...
IsraEl is the Lord's prized possession.
⁵ I know that Jehovah is great,
And our Lord is higher than all other gods.
⁶ He's done His Will in the Heavens and earth,
As well as in the seas and their depths.
⁷ He leads the clouds from the ends of the earth...
He made the lightning and rain,
And He brings the winds from His storehouse.
⁸ He struck the firstborn of Egypt...
All those from men to their cattle.
⁹ Signs and wonders, He sent to [that land]...
Upon PharaOh and all of his servants.
¹⁰ He's the One who struck many nations,
And brought death to their mightiest kings.
¹¹ There was Seon, the Amorite king,
As well as Og, king of BaShan,
And all the kingdoms of CanaAn.
¹² Then He gave us their lands to inherit...
For IsraEl (His people) to own.
¹³ O Jehovah;
Your fame [will last] through the ages...
For generations, it's how You'll be known.
¹⁴ Jehovah will judge all His people,
And they will bring Him much comfort.

¹⁵ The idols of the nations are silver and gold...
They're just the works of men's hands.
¹⁶ A mouth they have, but they cannot speak;
Eyes they have, but they cannot see;
¹⁷ Ears they have, but they cannot hear,
Nor have they any breath in their mouths.
¹⁸ So, may those who made them be like them,
As well as all those who serve them.
¹⁹ O House of IsraEl, give praise to Jehovah!
O House of Aaron, give praise to Jehovah!
²⁰ O House of Levi, give praise to Jehovah...
All those fearing the Lord, praise Jehovah!
²¹ May Jehovah be praised in JeruSalem...
Praise [the God] who tents upon Zion.

Psalm 136

Praise Jah.

¹ Let's confess to Jehovah, because He is good,
And His mercies endure through the ages.
² Let's confess to the God of all gods,
For His mercies endure through the ages.
³ Let's confess to the Lord of all lords,
For His mercies endure through the ages.
⁴ Only He does things that are wondrous and great,
And His mercies endure through the ages.
⁵ He crafted the skies with great skill,
And His mercies endure through the ages.
⁶ Over water, He raised solid ground,
And His mercies endure through the ages.
⁷ He alone made the lights [in the skies],
And His mercies endure through the ages.
⁸ He made the sun the ruler of day,
And His mercies endure through the ages.

⁹ The moon and stars, He made rulers of night,
And His mercies endure through the ages.

¹⁰ He's the One who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
And His mercies endure through the ages.

¹¹ Then, from their midst, He led IsraEl,
For His mercies endure through the ages,

¹² With His arm and hand lifted high,
For His mercies endure through the ages.

¹³ Then He split apart the Red Sea,
For His mercies endure through the ages;

¹⁴ And through its midst, He led IsraEl,
For His mercies endure through the ages.

¹⁵ He shook PharaOh and his army into the sea,
For His mercies endure through the ages.

¹⁶ Then He led His people into the desert,
For His mercies endure through the ages;

¹⁷ And there, great kings, He struck down,
For His mercies endure through the ages...

¹⁸ Yes, many strong kings He destroyed there,
For His mercies endure through the ages,

¹⁹ Such as Seon the Amorite king,
For His mercies endure through the ages,

²⁰ As well as Og, king of Bashan,
For His mercies endure through the ages.

²¹ Then, as our inheritance, He gave us their land,
For His mercies endure through the ages...

²² An inheritance to IsraEl, His servant,
For His mercies endure through the ages.

²³ He didn't forget us when we shamed ourselves,
For His mercies endure through the ages;

²⁴ He ransomed us from our enemies' hands,
For His mercies endure through the ages.

²⁵ Then, He nourished our flesh,

For His mercies endure through the ages.

²⁶ So, confess to God, O you heavens,

For His mercies endure through the ages.

Psalm 137

A Psalm of David through JeremiAh.

¹ At Babylon's rivers we sat
And we wept, as we thought of [Mount] Zion.

² And there in [Babylon's] midst,
We hung our instruments on willows.

³ For there, our captors had asked us
To sing the words of our psalms...
Yes, those who took us away, dared to say:
'From the odes of Zion, please sing us a song.'

⁴ But, how can we sing the songs of the Lord,
There in an alien land?

⁵ O [City of] JeruSalem;
Should I ever forget you,
May I also forget my right hand.

⁶ May my tongue stick to the [roof of my mouth]
If I ever fail to remember
And prefer the joys of JeruSalem,
Which I had known long ago.

⁷ Remember the sons of Edom, O Lord,
In JeruSalem's day...
Those who said, 'Make it empty...
Cut it down to its very foundations!'

⁸ O miserable daughters of Babylon;
Blest are those who'll repay you
With the same sort of payment that you sent to us...

⁹ Yes, blest is the one who'll grab hold of you
And dash your infants on rocks!

Psalm 138

A Psalm for David, by HagGai and ZachariAh.

¹ With my whole heart, I thank You, O Lord,
And I'll sing Your psalms before angels...
May You hear these words that will come from my mouth.

² I'll bow toward Your Holy Temple,
And I will give thanks to Your Name
Because of Your mercy and truth...
[I'll sing] about Your Holy Name,
Which You have raised above all.

³ In whatever day that I call upon You,
Please quickly answer my prayer,
And give my soul the strength to endure.

⁴ Let the kings of the earth give You thanks,
For they've heard all the words that came from Your mouth.

⁵ Then, let them sing of the ways of the Lord,
For the glory of Jehovah is great.

⁶ Though Jehovah is higher than all,
He still watches out for the lowly,
While the haughty, He sees from afar.

⁷ Though I've had to walk through difficult times,
It was You who gave me the strength.
And against my enemy's rage,
You thereafter, lifted Your hands,
And with Your right hand, You saved me.

⁸ O Jehovah... repay them for me,
For Your mercy, O Lord, lasts through ages...
Don't overlook the works of Your hands!

Psalm 139

To the director; A Psalm.

¹ O Jehovah, You've known me and tried me.
² You knew me when I rose or sat down...
From far away, You've known all my thoughts.
³ You've traced out my path through bent grass,
And looked ahead to the ways that I'll go;
⁴ So You know that there's no deceit on my tongue.
O Jehovah; there's nothing that You do not know...
⁵ Both the things that have past and the things that will be.
It was You who shaped me and made me...
You laid me out in [the palm] of Your hand.
⁶ So the knowledge of You brings me wonder and strength,
And no way can I fully comprehend it.
⁷ Where could I go [to hide] from Your Breath,
And where could I flee from Your presence?
⁸ If I flew to the sky, You would be there;
And I will still be in Your hand
When I must go to the place of the dead.
⁹ If I could grow wings [and fly toward] the dawn,
Or if I could camp at the ends of the seas,
¹⁰ Your hand would be there to guide me,
And in Your right hand, You'd hold me.
¹¹ I said, 'I'll surely be trampled by darkness,
And around me, the light will turn into night.'
¹² But the dark isn't darkness to You...
Night is as day and darkness as light.
¹³ For, You [have examined] my kidneys,
And it's You who took me from my mother's womb;
¹⁴ So, I will offer You praise.
The wonders of Your works, I've thought of in fear...
And the man within me knows this is true.
¹⁵ Even my bones weren't hidden from You
When You made me in secret.

When I was conceived on the earth,
¹⁶ You saw me before I was finished;
For You write the lives of all men in Your scroll
On the day they are formed and alone.

¹⁷ How precious are Your thoughts, O my God;
They've been mighty ever since the beginning.
¹⁸ And if I were able to count them,
They'd be more than the sands [of the seas]...
Yet, when I wake up You're still with me.

¹⁹ Please destroy the sinners, O God...
Turn [Your face] from all men of blood!
²⁰ For, concerning their thoughts, You have said,
'They've acted like fools in My [land].'

²¹ O Lord, I hate those who hate You,
And against Your enemies, I have shown zeal.
²² In perfect hatred, I've learned to detest them,
And they are my enemies also.

²³ So, try me, O God, and examine my heart...
Search me through and know all my paths.
²⁴ See if any lawless ways are within me,
Then guide me to the paths of the ages.

Psalm 140

To the director; A Psalm of David.

¹ Please take me away, O Jehovah,
From all of these wicked men...
Save me from the unrighteous...
² Those whose hearts are unrighteous all day,
And are always ready for war!
³ For like snakes, they have sharpened their tongues,
And the poison of asps is under their lips.

⁴ From the hands of sinners, please guard me, O Lord...
Remove me from the unrighteous...
Those who've laid plans to stumble my feet.
⁵ For against me, the proud have hidden their snares...
Ropes, they've held out to trip me,
And obstacles they've placed in my path.
⁶ I said to Jehovah, 'You are my God;
O Lord, please hear the sound of my prayers!
⁷ O Mighty Lord; who else can save me?
Watch over my head in the day of the war.'
⁸ O Lord; don't grant them the things that they want...
Those sinners who are railing against me...
Don't leave me, so they won't grow [stronger].
⁹ Bring trouble to those who surround me,
And then, close up their lips.
¹⁰ Into coals of fire, please throw them...
In a miserable place where they'll not rise again!
¹¹ May those slandering me never prosper...
May the unrighteous hunt them like prey
And search for great ways to harm them.
¹² I know that Jehovah keeps watch on the poor,
And He stands up for the needy.
¹³ So, may the righteous sing songs to His Name,
And may the upright dwell in [the light] of His face.

Psalm 141

A Psalm of David.

¹ O Jehovah, I've called out to You;
So, please pay attention to my cries.
² May my prayers rise before You like incense,
And the raising of my hands as an evening sacrifice.

³ O Jehovah; set a watch for my mouth
And a fortress door for my lips.
⁴ Don't allow wicked words to enter my heart,
Or the deeds of the lawless to become my excuse.
If I've ever been guilty of taking their things,
⁵ May the righteous correct and rebuke me.
May I not be considered a friend to the wicked,
And may my prayers be in opposition
To all the things they desire.
⁶ For their judges were swallowed down next to the rocks,
So they didn't hear the sweet words I've spoken.
⁷ The ground beneath them ripped open,
And pulled their bones into the grave.
⁸ In You, O Jehovah my Lord,
My eyes have trusted in the hope
That You will keep watch on my life.
⁹ So, keep me away from the snares that they've hidden...
The obstacles that the lawless have set.
¹⁰ Within their own nets, may those sinners be caught,
And may they remain there until I have passed.

Psalm 142

A Psalm of contemplation by David about the time when he was praying in the cave.

¹ With my voice, I cried to Jehovah...
Before Him, I [bowed down to] beg.
² I poured out before Him the things that I need,
And I spoke of how I was being oppressed.
³ For He knows that my spirit has failed me,
And they've hidden their snares on the roads that I walk.
⁴ Then I looked to the right and I noticed
There was no one around whom I knew...

There was also nowhere to run,
And about my life, no one was concerned.

⁵ So I cried out to Him, ‘O Jehovah!
I’m calling to You, for You are my hope...
Since You’re all that I have in the land of the living,
⁶ Please listen to the things that I’m begging;
For before You, I’ve humbled my soul.

‘Save me from those who pursue me,
Because they are stronger than me.

⁷ Lead my soul out of this prison
So that I can keep praising Your Name.
Then the righteous will gather around me,
Because of the goodness You’ve shown.’

Psalm 143

A Psalm of David about when his son was pursuing him.

¹ Please hear my prayer, O Jehovah...
In Your truth, hear the things that I beg!
Listen to me in Your justice,
² And please don’t pass judgment on me.
For I know that none of the living
Can ever be righteous before You.

³ My enemy had chased me and humbled my soul...
My life had been cut to the ground!
And through the rest of the age,
He would have me thrown into the darkness
That is reserved for the dead.

⁴ So the spirit within me was troubled,
And my heart was very disturbed.
⁵ Then, days of old, I remembered...
I thought of the things that You’ve done,
And I pondered the works of Your hands.

⁶ So I opened my [arms] and spread them before You,
For my life had become like a desert.

⁷ Then, quickly You heard me, Jehovah...
[Before] I had to give up my breath.

So from me, please don't turn Your face,
Or make me like those going into the pit.

⁸ May I be heard in the morning once more;
For, I have put faith in Your mercy.

O Jehovah; please show me the way I should go,
For to You, I have lifted my soul.

⁹ From those who hate me, please save me, O Lord;
For I've taken refuge in You.

¹⁰ You are my God, so teach me Your Will;
For Your Spirit is good and will serve as my guide
To lead me in paths that are straight.

¹¹ Because of Your Name, O Jehovah;
You will allow me to live,
And will Your justice lead me away
From all of this pain in my life.

¹² To my enemies, please send destruction,
And please show mercy on me...
Wipe away those who're trying to kill me,
For I am Your servant, O Lord.

Psalm 144

A Psalm of David to GoliAth.

¹ Praise Jehovah my God
Who has taught my hands to fight battles,
And the arts of war to my fingers.

² He's my mercy, my refuge, and shield...
He is my defender and Savior.

Since He made my people obey me,
In Him, I have put all my hope.

³ What is mankind to You, O Jehovah,
That to us, You'd make Yourself known,
Or the son of man, that You'd think about him?

⁴ For we really don't have any value,
And our days pass by like the shadows.

⁵ O Jehovah; lean down from Your heavens...
Touch the mountains and cause them to smoke.

⁶ Shoot Your arrows to disturb them...
Flash lightning and drive them away.

⁷ Reach Your hand down from the heights,
Then grab me out of the water...
From the sons of strangers, please save me!

⁸ For, with their mouths, they say foolish things,
And their right hands are filled with unrighteous ways.

⁹ O God; to You, I will sing a new song,
Which I'll play on my harp of ten strings:

¹⁰ 'Please bring salvation to this king...
From the sword, save David, Your servant!

¹¹ 'From these sons of strangers, please save me.
For their mouths have said foolish things,
And their right hands are filled with unrighteous ways.

¹² 'Whose sons are these... they're like new-planted seeds,
Which feel secure in their youth.
Their daughters are well dressed and brightly adorned...
As nicely as you'd see in a temple.

¹³ 'Their storerooms are all overflowing,
And their sheep are very prolific...

For they multiply in the streets,
¹⁴ While their oxen have grown thick [and strong].

‘None of their fences are broken;
None of their streams are [befouled];
And no crying is heard in their squares.

¹⁵ ‘Rather, bless the people of whom this is true...
Bless those whose God is Jehovah!’

Psalm 145

A praise of David.

¹ I’ll raise Your [Name] high, my God and my King,
And through the age and the age of the ages,
I will [sing] praises about You.

² I will praise Your Name every day...
I’ll praise Your Name through the rest of the age
And into the age of the ages.

³ Jehovah is great and praiseworthy...
There is no end to His greatness.

⁴ To one generation after another,
I will sing in praise of Your works
And I will report of Your power.

⁵ I’ll speak of Your majesty also,
And about Your holiness and glory;
Then, I will describe all Your wonders.

⁶ I’ll speak of Your power and of Your fearful deeds,
And I will describe all Your greatness,

⁷ So the memory of all the kindness You’ve shown
Will keep on growing [among them].

Then, about Your justice, they’ll shout:

⁸ ‘Jehovah is very forgiving...
He’s filled with kindness and mercy.

⁹ The Lord is benevolent also...
He shows compassion in all that He does.’

¹⁰ May all of Your works give praise to You...
Yes, may all of Your holy ones praise You!
¹¹ May they speak of Your glorious Kingdom,
And boast of the realm of Your rule.

¹² To all sons of men, may Your rule become known,
And the glory of the majesty of Your Kingdom.

¹³ Your Kingdom is a kingdom of the ages,
And Your authority is through generations.

What Jehovah says can be trusted,
And the things that He does are all holy.

¹⁴ He gives support to the fallen,
And He builds up all the broken.

¹⁵ Yes, to You, all eyes look in hope,
And at right times, You provide them their food...

¹⁶ You just open Your hand,
And all living things are then filled.

¹⁷ Jehovah is righteous in all of His ways,
And the things that He does are all holy.

¹⁸ Jehovah is near to those calling on Him...
To those who call on Him in truth.

¹⁹ He'll do the will of all those who fear Him...
He'll hear their prayers and He'll save them.

²⁰ For Jehovah guards all those who love Him,
But the sinners, He will wipe away.

²¹ So my mouth will speak in praise of Jehovah...
May all flesh speak well of His Name.
Praise Him throughout the rest of this age,
And into the age of the ages!

² With my whole life, I'll give praise to the Lord
And I'll strum to my God for as long as I live!
³ Do not put faith in your rulers;
For, sons of men cannot save you.
⁴ Their breath goes out and they're gone from their land...
In that day, their thoughts pass away.
⁵ Blest are those who have Jacob's God as their aid...
Those who put trust in Jehovah...
⁶ The One who made the heavens and earth...
The seas and everything in them...
The One who guards truth through the ages...
⁷ The One who brings justice to those who've been wronged,
And who provides food to the hungry.
For Jehovah releases the shackled,
⁸ And to the blind, He gives wisdom.
Those who've been broken, Jehovah restores,
And He loves all those who are righteous.
⁹ The Lord guards foreigners, orphans, and widows;
But the ways of sinners, He wipes away.
¹⁰ O Zion; Jehovah reigns through the age...
Through all generations, He is your God!

Psalm 147

Praise Jah. A Psalm of HagGai and ZechariAh.

¹ Praise Jehovah, for our God is good,
And praising Him is delightful!
² For our Lord will rebuild JeruSalem,
And return all of His scattered people.
³ He's the One who mends broken hearts,
And wraps all those who are broken.

⁴ He has counted all of the stars,
And He calls each one by its name.

⁵ Great is our Lord and great is His strength...
There's no way to count all the things that He knows.

⁶ Jehovah watches over the meek,
While sinners are humbled and led to the ground.

⁷ So, take the lead in praising Jehovah...
Strum to our God on your harps!

⁸ For He made the clouds that cover the skies,
And from them, sends rain to the ground,
Which makes the grass grow on the mountains,
And shoots to sprout for men [to consume].

⁹ He's the One who gives food to their cattle,
And to the infants of crows...
To all that are calling upon Him.

¹⁰ He doesn't need the strength of a horse,
Nor has He any use for men's legs.

¹¹ But Jehovah thinks well of those who fear Him,
And of those who trust in His mercy.

¹² So, praise Jehovah, JeruSalem...
O Zion, give praise to your God!

¹³ For He's strengthened the bars on your gates,
And He allows you to give your sons blessings.

¹⁴ He's the One who brings peace to your borders,
And the fatness of wheat to your bellies.

¹⁵ He's the One who sends His signs to the earth,
And the things that He says happen quickly.

¹⁶ He sends us His snow as though it were wool,
And He strews the fog as though ashes.

¹⁷ Like breadcrumbs, He scatters His ice,
And who can withstand His chill?

¹⁸ But, by His word, it will all melt...
He can blow His breath and turn it to water.

¹⁹ He's the One who gave signs to Jacob...
To IsraEl, He sent His rules and decisions.
²⁰ He's done this for no other nation...
To no other lands have His judgments been shown...
So we should [sing] praises about Him!

Psalm 148

Praise Jah. A Psalm of HagGai and ZechariAh.

¹ All you in the heavens; give praise to Jehovah...
Yes, praise Him in all the high places.
² All of His angels should praise Him...
Yes, praise Him, all you in His armies!
³ Praise Him, O sun and moon;
Yes, praise Him, all stars and all lights!
⁴ Praise Him, O heavens of heavens,
And praise Him you waters that cover the skies!
⁵ Praise the Name of the Lord,
For He just spoke and they came to be...
He gave the instructions, and then they began!
⁶ He's established them into the ages,
And into the age of the ages.
So, since He's the One who set them in place,
They will not pass away.
⁷ You beasts on the ground, give praise to Jehovah,
As should those who dwell in the deep!
⁸ For fire, hail, and snow, and icy wind blasts,
All arrive by His Word,
⁹ As did the mountains and hills,
And all the fruit-bearing trees.
He's the One who made all the cedars...
¹⁰ All the wild beasts and slithering things,
And all the feathered, winged creatures.
¹¹ He made all the kings and their subjects...

The rulers and all of the judges...

¹² The young men and virgins, the old the young;

¹³ So, let them all praise the Name of the Lord!

His Name alone is the highest,

And He's higher than all the skies and the lands;

¹⁴ So, all should be raising their horns

And [singing] hymns to His holy ones...

Yes, to the sons of IsraEl ...

A people whom He's held so dearly.

Psalm 149

Praise Jah.

¹ Sing a new song to Jehovah...

In the gatherings of the holy, sing His praises.

² Let IsraEl [take pride in] their maker,

And may Zion's sons rejoice in their king.

³ Then, may they all dance to His Name...

May they dance to the strumming of lutes,

And to the beating of tambourines.

⁴ Jehovah finds pleasure in His people,

And the meek, He will lift up and save.

⁵ Then the holy will boast of their glory,

And shout in joy from their beds.

⁶ They will praise God with their throats;

For with a double-edged sword in His hands,

⁷ He's coming to punish the nations,

And to scold them for the bad things they've done.

⁸ He'll tie up their kings and put them in stocks,

And put shackles of iron on their nobles.

⁹ For He's coming to bring execution

Because of the judgments that He's written about them,

And to bring His holy ones glory.

Psalm 150

Praise Jah.

¹ In His Most Holy Place, praise our God...

Throughout all space, praise His power.

² In His dominion, shout praises of Him...

In the expanse, give praise to His greatness.

³ Praise Him by the blowing the trumpets;

Praise Him with lutes and with harps;

⁴ Praise Him with tambourines,

And with the company of dancers.

Praise Him with the strings of the lyre,

Praise Him with the sounds of woodwinds.

⁵ Praise Him with the clashing of cymbals;

And along with the cymbals, add shouts...

⁶ May all that breathes praise Jehovah!

Proverbs

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

Mostly written by Solomon about 1000-BCE, but it was later added to by others.

Chapter 1

¹ These are the proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, who reigned over Israel.

² To get to be wise and to truly learn,

You must understand intelligent words.

³ [You must see how] words can be shifted and turned,

And used to unlock enigmas.

You must also understand true justice...

How to make judgments that are straight,

⁴ So that all your decisions can be guileless and wise,
While perceiving and reflecting like a child.

⁵ Yes, if you'll listen, the wise will get wiser
And receive intelligent guidance.

⁶ You'll understand dark illustrations...
The sayings of the wise and enigmas.

⁷ True wisdom starts with the fear of Jehovah;
And all who follow that rule
Will be understanding and good,
Since perception begins with reverence for God.
For, those who fail to respect Him,
Treat wisdom and learning with contempt.

⁸ Hear, O son, the laws of your father,
And don't reject the rules of your mother.

⁹ Then a garland of favor you'll get for your head,
And a gold chain for your neck.

¹⁰ O son;
Don't let the godless lead you astray,
And do not follow their ways.

¹¹ For they'll offer you comforting words and then say:
'Come with us and we will [shed] blood!
For we'll treat the righteous unfairly,
Then we'll hide their bodies under the ground.

¹² 'Like the grave, we'll swallow them down still alive,
And remove their memory from the land.

¹³ Then we'll take all their things that have value,
And fill our houses with loot.

¹⁴ So, come with us and join in,
And we'll each gain large sacks of money!'

¹⁵ But don't ever follow their ways...
Turn your feet from their paths!

¹⁶ For their feet always run to do evil,
And they are quick to shed blood.

¹⁷ Haven't they wrongfully spread out their traps,
As would be done to catch birds...

¹⁸ Then murder to gain evil treasures?

¹⁹ Yes, these are the ways of the unrighteousness;
And because of their lack of respect,
They are bringing destruction on their own lives.

²⁰ But the praises of wisdom are sung in the streets...
She's celebrated in all public places.

²¹ For she shouts aloud from the tops of the walls,
And at city gates, she courageously says:

²² 'As long as the honest have justice,
They will never be shamed.'

But the insolent fools who crave [what's not theirs],
And those who do not fear [God]
Are the ones who are lacking good sense...

²³ So, they will be disciplined.

{Look!} Now I'll free the sayings of my spirit,
And to teach you, I'll be speaking [wise] words.

²⁴ Though I called to you, you failed to obey...
I explained it, but you wouldn't listen.

²⁵ You have ignored all my council,
And to my scolding, you've paid no attention.

²⁶ So I'll laugh when you are destroyed,
And I'll shout in joy at your ruin.

²⁷ Yes, when troublesome times come upon you,
And in a blast, you're quickly undone...

When you're oppressed and assaulted,

²⁸ And you feel the need to cry out to me,
I will not listen to you.

For when evil men search, they can't find me,

²⁹ Because they've detested what's wise,
And they've failed to show fear for Jehovah.

³⁰ To my council, they chose not to listen,
And when they were scolded, they sneered.
³¹ So they'll have to eat their own fruitage,
And then receive their own disrespect.
³² Because they've done wrong to the simple,
They will soon be destroyed...
Yes, after they're tried, they'll be slaughtered.
³³ But those who have chosen to listen to me
Have camped in peace with no fear of evil.

Chapter 2

¹ O son; hear the things that I'm saying...
Take them and hide them within you.
² Your ears should obey these wise sayings...
Understand them and put them deep in your heart,
Then pass them along to your sons.
³ If you will call out for wisdom,
And if you will seek understanding...
⁴ If you'll search for perception like treasure,
⁵ You'll learn the fear of the Lord
And find the knowledge of God.
⁶ For, wisdom comes from Jehovah...
In His presence, you'll find understanding and knowledge.
⁷ For those who are walking straight paths,
He has treasured away their salvation,
And He'll shield them wherever they travel,
⁸ Since He guards the ways of the righteous,
And protects those who show Him respect.
⁹ Then you'll understand justice and judgments,
And set yourself on a course to do good.
¹⁰ Now, should you decide to make wisdom your goal...
If your soul decides to search for perception...
¹¹ If you'll choose to follow good council,

And if you'll be careful to do holy things;
¹² From evil ways, this will save you,
And from [the wiles] of men who tell lies.

¹³ They're the ones who've abandoned straight paths,
And in ways of darkness, they've chosen to walk.

¹⁴ For, badness is what makes them happy,
And about what's perverse, they rejoice.

¹⁵ All of their pathways are crooked,
And curved are all of their tracks.

¹⁶ Away from straight paths, they will lead you,
And from righteous plans, they'll drive you away.

So, don't let bad council mislead you...

¹⁷ Rather, [follow] the things that you've learned since your youth,
And don't overlook God's Sacred Agreement.

¹⁸ There are women who put death near their homes,
For the things that they do lead to the grave.

¹⁹ Those who approach them never return...
They never turn back to straight paths,
For from the road of life, they have strayed.

²⁰ But, smooth are the roads that the righteous have found;
For the meek will inherit the land,
And the honest are those who'll remain here.

²¹ Then, only the upright will camp in the land,
And those who'll be left are the holy.

²² Disrespectful ways will no longer be,
And those who break laws will be banished.

Don't forget the laws [that I've shown you],
And keep the things that I've said in your heart;
² For, this will add length to your life.

Yes, you will live [many] years,
And peace will be added to you.

³ May charity and faith never fail you...
If you'll tie them around your neck
And write them on the tablet of your heart,
⁴ You will find the favor [of God].

Before Jehovah and men
You should always plan to do what is good.

⁵ Wholeheartedly trust in your God,
And on your own wisdom, never rely.

⁶ Keep sight of [wisdom] in all of your ways;
For before you, she cuts a straight path.

⁷ So, in your own skills, never trust...
Fear God and turn from all that is bad.

⁸ Then, healing will come to your body,
And care will be shown to your bones.

⁹ You must always honor Jehovah...
Work hard at doing what's good.
As first fruits, offer Him your righteousness ways,
¹⁰ Then with grain, your stores will be filled,
And wine will gush from your vats.

¹¹ O son;
Never take lightly the instructions of God,
Or be upset when He disciplines you.
¹² For Jehovah loves those who accept His correction,
And He whips those whom He welcomes as sons.

¹³ The man who finds wisdom is blest,
As is the mortal who's smarter.
¹⁴ She's a better trade than silver or gold,
¹⁵ And she's worth more than all that's expensive.

Nothing of value is worth more than her;
¹⁶ For long life and survival are in her right hand,
And in her left, is glory and wealth.

Out of her mouth flows true justice;
On her tongue, there is mercy and law.

¹⁷ Goodness is found in her ways,
And all of her paths lead to peace.

¹⁸ She's a tree of life to all who'll grab hold
(Those leaning on her as they do on the Lord)...
They're the ones who'll get away safely.

¹⁹ For in wisdom, God founded the earth,
And with intelligence, He assembled the skies.

²⁰ By His perceptions, the valleys were formed,
As dew flowed down from the clouds.

²¹ So, don't let my council slip by...
Pay attention and learn to gain insight,
²² Then the person you are will continue to live
And [God's] favor will be tied 'round your neck.
For, to your flesh, this brings healing,
As well as comfort to all of your bones.

²³ Then, peace will follow in all of your ways,
And your feet will never be stumbled.

²⁴ When you sit down, it will be without fear;
And when you lie down, your sleep will bring rest.

²⁵ No terrible thing will you fear,
Nor will the godless push you aside.

²⁶ For Jehovah will watch all your ways
And make straight paths for your feet,
So you won't stumble and fall.

²⁷ Don't overlook those who are poor
When you have what they need in your hands.

²⁸ Don't say, 'Come back at some other time...'

I'll give you what you need tomorrow.'
Give them what's good when you have it,
So you'll never see the birth of what's bad.

²⁹ And never plot to do bad to a friend,
Or to those with whom you must travel...
Those who've put trust in you.

³⁰ And don't quarrel without a good reason,
So people don't try to get even.

³¹ Don't follow the evil of those you despise,
Or ever be jealous of the bad things they do.

³² Since Jehovah considers lawbreakers unclean,
The righteous should not sit among them.

³³ The houses of those who show no respect
Have all been cursed by the Lord,
While the homes of the righteous are blest.

³⁴ For Jehovah opposes the proud,
And shows favor to those who are humble.

³⁵ So the wise will inherit all glory,
While the godless will just get dishonor.

¹ O child;
Hear the words of your father!
Listen, so you can gain insight!
² For I'm going to give you a gift,
And from these instructions, don't stray!
³ I was also the son of a father,
And one who was loved by his mother;
⁴ So, by them both, I was taught.
[They said], 'Keep our words in your heart...
Do not forget our commandments!
⁵ Seek knowledge and wisdom...
Don't forget or ignore the words from our mouths,

Or ever turn aside from these things!
⁶ Stick with this way, do not leave it...
Love it with passion and you'll be kept [safe].⁷
⁷ Wisdom is the basis for all [that is good];
So with all you acquire, gain wisdom!
And among all the things you possess,
Be sure that you gain understanding!
⁸ Build her a fort and she'll lift you...
Hold her in esteem and she'll watch over you...
She'll place a crown on your head...
⁹ A luxurious crown that will shield you.
¹⁰ Hear, O son, and receive all my words;
For they'll multiply the years of your life,
And many ways, you'll then understand.
¹¹ I'm teaching you the ways of the wise...
I'm piling on you tracks that are straight,
¹² So the ways that you go will not hem you in,
Or ever be a block to your footsteps;
Thus, when you must run, you won't tire.
¹³ Grab my instructions and don't let them go...
Hold them tight for yourself and your life!
¹⁴ Don't follow in the ways of the godless
Or be jealous of the ways of lawbreakers.
¹⁵ Don't go to places where they hang out...
¹⁶ Yes, alter your course and divert;
For, they won't sleep until they've done wrong.
And since they can't sleep, they don't go to bed...
¹⁷ On the grain of irreverence, they feed,
And on the wine of lawless ways, they get drunk.
¹⁸ For the ways of the righteous are like light...
They shine and give light until morning,
¹⁹ While the ways of the irreverent are dark,
And they don't realize how often they fall.

²⁰ O son;
Pay attention to the things that I'm saying
And listen to my words with your ears;
²¹ For then, your wells will not fail you.
Store them deep in your heart,
²² For those who find them will live,
And to your flesh, they'll bring healing.
²³ With all the things that you guard,
Pay close attention to your heart,
Because it's the source of your life.
²⁴ From your mouth, remove all that is crooked,
And keep unrighteous lips far away.
²⁵ Let your eyes always look straight ahead...
Let their lids not wink at injustice.
²⁶ Make straight tracks for your feet,
And straighten out all of your ways.
²⁷ Don't turn aside to the right or the left...
Just turn your feet from what's bad.
For God knows the ways that are right,
And those who pervert them, He puts on His left.
But if you'll choose to make your tracks straight,
He'll lead you in ways that bring peace.

Chapter 5

¹ O son; pay attention to my wisdom
And lend your ears to my words
So that you can understand clearly...
² Then my lips will tell you the things I've perceived.
Pay no attention to bad women!
³ For the lips of a whore drip with honey,
Which fattens the throat for a while...
⁴ But you'll find them more bitter than bile
And sharper than a double-edged sword.

⁵ Foolish are the feet of those turning to her,
For this leads to death and the grave...
And the tracks aren't easily noticed.

⁶ Her ways do not lead to life,
And the tracks that she makes are slippery and dark.

⁷ O son, please listen to me...
Don't ignore these things that I'm saying!

⁸ From them, you should stay far away...
Don't go near to the doors of their homes

⁹ So you don't pass your life onto others
And share your vigor with those who lack mercy.

¹⁰ No, don't fill a stranger with your vigor...
Your strength shouldn't enter [a whore]...

¹¹ For, you will be sorry when your flesh falls away.

¹² You'll say, 'How I hated to be told...
How discipline [bothered] my heart...

¹³ So I wouldn't accept their correction...
My ears wouldn't hear the things I was taught.

¹⁴ Then little by little, I fell into bad
Among the great congregation.'

¹⁵ O son;
Drink water from your own jar
That comes from the flow of your own well!

¹⁶ Let the waters of your springs overflow...
Carry your own water when you enter the squares!

¹⁷ Let it be yours all alone...
Do not share it with strangers!

¹⁸ Let your spring be just yours alone,
And find joy in the wife of your youth...

¹⁹ Your favorite filly, and your friendly hind.
Let her share conversation with you...
Hold her high and keep her nearby,
For this friendship will mean a great deal.

²⁰ Do not spend time with strange women,
And never hold one that's not yours.
²¹ For the eyes of God watch the ways of a man,
And He's tracking the things that we do.
²² Unlawful acts are a snare to all men,
And you'll be bound in the chains of your sins.
²³ Those who don't learn this will come to their end,
And then they will lose all they own...
They'll perish in their own foolish ways.

¹ O son;
When you co-sign a loan for a friend,
You've put yourself in your enemy's hands.
² From your own lips you've been captured and snared...
By words that came from your own mouth.
³ O son;
Save yourself by heeding my words.
For, if you choose to do such a thing,
Into evil hands, you will fall.
Don't leave yourself [in such a position];
For you'll find that you'll even anger your friend...
The one for whom you co-signed the loan!
⁴ So don't let your eyes go to sleep
⁵ Or allow your eyelids to slumber,
Before you've escaped like a doe from a noose,
And as wild fowl from a snare.
⁶ Lazy one, you should be like the ant...
Feel zeal when you see what he does.
Yes, you should become just like him...
But, you should also be wiser!
⁷ For he doesn't own his own farm,
And he has no one to urge him to work,

Nor is he under a master.

⁸ But, during the summer, he gathers much food,
As he prepares to feast in the harvest.

⁹ O lazy one;

How much longer will you continue to lie there...

Yes, when will you awaken from sleep?

¹⁰ You sit for a while, then rest for a while,
And after a while, you slumber

With your hands and arms on your chest,

¹¹ As poverty overtakes you like a mugger,
And lack catches you like a sprinter.

¹² A man (a fool and lawbreaker)

Will travel in ways that are evil.

¹³ He beckons with his eyes,

Makes signs with his feet,

And teaches with the motions of his fingers.

¹⁴ He plans to do bad, since his heart is perverse,

And he brings disturbance to his own town.

¹⁵ But because of this, his death will come soon...

He'll be cut off and not be brought back,

¹⁶ Since he rejoices over things that God hates.

He'll be destroyed, since his life is unclean...

¹⁷ Because his eyes are insulting...

Because his tongue is unrighteous...

Because his hands have shed righteous blood...

¹⁸ Because his heart conspires to do bad

And his feet have run to do evil.

¹⁹ When [a man] tells a lie [in a courtroom],

This unrighteous witness lights fires,

Bringing lawsuits between even brothers.

²⁰ O son, guard the laws of your father,

And don't cast aside the rules of your mother!

²¹ Fastened them tight to your soul...
Tie them around your neck with a cord!

²² Bring them along wherever you walk,
And make sure they are always nearby.
When you fall asleep, let them keep watch,
And have them remind you when you arise.

²³ For the Law's Commandments are a lamp and a light...
They are a complete way of life!
They're correction and instruction to guard you

²⁴ From bad women who are already married,
And from the distractions that come from strange tongues.

²⁵ Don't let their beauty entice you...
Do not get trapped by the things you can see,
Or be beguiled by their eyes.

²⁶ For, less than bread is the value of a whore,
And a woman of men ensnares precious lives.

²⁷ Can a man light a fire upon his own chest
Without it burning his clothes?

²⁸ Can someone walk on live coals
Without them consuming his feet?

²⁹ For, when you [have sex with] another man's wife,
That's what will happen to you,
Since none who touch her are found free from guilt.

³⁰ It's no surprise when someone's caught stealing,
For, to fill a hungry soul, men will steal.

³¹ Then, when they're caught, seven times they'll repay...
They'll give all they own to be saved.

³² But, by the lack of good sense,
The man who's committing adultery
Upon himself, brings destruction.

³³ For he suffers both grief and dishonor,

And his scorn will not be forgotten
Throughout the rest of the age.

³⁴ Because of the jealous rage of her man,
You won't be spared in the day that you're judged.

³⁵ And because of the hate of this person,
You'll not be able to bargain,
Nor will many gifts buy your freedom.

Chapter 7

¹ O son;
Keep my words and commandments...
Hide them inside of yourself!

² Have deep respect for Jehovah,
And He will make you grow stronger...
In addition to Him, fear no other!

Keep His commands and live [a long] life...
Like the pupil of your eye, guard His words.

³ Wrap them around all your fingers,
And inscribe them in the depths of your heart.

⁴ Guard wisdom as your own sister
And intelligence as your best friend,

⁵ So they'll keep you away from strange women,
As well as from all that is wicked,
So about you, good things will be said.

⁶ She leans from the window of her house on the square,

⁷ And whenever she views foolish offspring
(Young men who are lacking good sense)

⁸ Passing the corner near the path to her house;

⁹ She speaks from the darkness of the evening,
When all are at rest in the dimness of night.

¹⁰ She meets with him and she looks like a whore,
And the young man's heart starts to flutter.

¹¹ She's so enticing and carnal...
But, don't let your feet stop by her [door].

¹² At times, she'll stray outside her house,
And stand on the corner of the square.

¹³ There she reaches out and she fondles,
And with an impudent face she might say:

¹⁴ 'A sacrifice of peace, I must offer,
And today, I must render my vows...

¹⁵ So, that's why I've met up with you.
I noticed your face [as you're passing],
And I came over here just to find you.

¹⁶ 'Now, while I was sewing, I laid out my bed,
And spread it with sheets [made in] Egypt.

¹⁷ With saffron, I sprinkled my bed,
And cinnamon, I've put 'round my house.

¹⁸ 'So, come and enjoy my friendship 'til dawn...
Come, and we'll wrap up in passion!

¹⁹ For my husband isn't at home...
He's gone away on a journey.

²⁰ He left with a bundle of silver,
And he'll not be back for several more days.'

²¹ She leads him astray and acts like a friend,
While tying a noose 'round his neck.
By the words from her lips, she then reels him in;

²² And he follows like an ox to the slaughter...
Like a dog that's being led on a leash,
Or a stag that's been shot in the liver.

²³ So he hurries like fowl toward a snare,
Not knowing that he's running for his life.

²⁴ Now, hear and pay close attention
To the sayings that come from my mouth!

²⁵ Don't turn aside to her ways in your heart,
And don't be misled by her wiles.

²⁶ Many she's stabbed through and then thrown away...
Unnumbered are those whom she's murdered.
²⁷ Her house is on the road to the grave,
And it leads to the storeroom of death.

Chapter 8

¹ If you will call out for wisdom,
Intelligence will also obey you!
² He is higher than all of the others,
And he stands in the midst of all roads.
³ He is the home of the mighty,
And in their doorway, he sings:
⁴ 'O men, I will bring comfort to you,
And I'll sing this aloud to your sons:
⁵ *All you guileless should learn to be shrewd,
And the unlearned should store it deep in their hearts.*
⁶ 'So, you should listen to me,
For I'm speaking of serious things...
From my lips comes something that's true!
⁷ So my throat will be speaking truly,
Since those with lying lips, I have hated.
⁸ 'Righteous are the sayings that come from my mouth...
Nothing in them is crooked or evil.
⁹ So the discerning should stand face to face
With the one who is teaching them knowledge.
¹⁰ 'Seek instruction, not silver...
Put knowledge above proven gold!
¹¹ And wisdom is better than most precious gems...
Nothing is worth more than it,
¹² Since wisdom camps with counsel and knowledge!'
'And as I'm reflecting, I'll say this:
¹³ *Those fearing Jehovah will hate all injustice,
As well as insolence and pride,*

*And ways that lead to what's evil...
For He hates the perversions of those who do bad.*

¹⁴ ‘Council and safety are mine!
Intelligence and strength are mine also!
¹⁵ For by me, the kings start their reigns,
And the mighty write about justice.

¹⁶ ‘By me, the great become sovereigns...
Through me, they rule the whole earth.
¹⁷ Those fond of me are always beloved,
And those who seek me find favor.

¹⁸ ‘By me, wealth and glory exist,
As well as the lands of the just.
¹⁹ So the blest will gather my fruitage
Before seeking gold or rare gems...
For my reward is better than silver.

²⁰ ‘I walk in the ways of the righteous
And return in the pathways of reason.
²¹ I provide for all those who love me,
And I fill their treasuries with things that are good.

²² ‘I’ll proclaim what happens each day,
And I’ll speak of the things of the ages.
For, by Jehovah, I came to be,
And He made the head of His ways...
I’m the one [in charge] of His works.

²³ ‘In the beginning, He made me,
Before this age came to be...
Before He decreed the creation of lands...
²⁴ Before He made the abysses,
And before the springs gushed with water.

²⁵ ‘Yes, I was fathered by Him
Before the mountains and hills...

²⁶ Before He made the places to live,
Or the ends of man's home under the skies.

²⁷ 'As He was preparing the heavens,
I'm the one who presented them to Him.
Then He placed His throne on the winds,
²⁸ And moved clouds above with His strength.

'Then He made all the springs under the skies,
²⁹ And set limits for the waters of the seas,
So they couldn't cross over their borders.
And when the foundations of the earth were made strong,
I'm the one who stood there beside Him.

³⁰ 'By Him, all things worked together,
And He found joy in them all.
Each day that I stood there before Him,
In this, I also found much delight.
³¹ Then He was pleased when He finished man's home,
And over sons of men, He was happy.'

³² Now, listen to me, O my son:
Blest are those who are guarding his ways!
³³ Learn from wisdom and you will be wise...
Do not cover it over!

Blest is the man who listens to it...
The man who guards all its ways...
³⁴ The one who's awake at its entrance each day,
And who pays close attention at its doors!

³⁵ For, those who seek it find life
And receive the favor of God!
³⁶ But, those who are sinning against it
Are disrespecting their souls...
All who hate it are lovers of death.

Chapter 9

- ¹ Wisdom has built a house for himself,
And atop seven columns, he's propped it.
- ² He has offered the needed sacrifices...
He has mixed the wine in their jars,
And he has readied his table.
- ³ Then he sends his servants to call [all the guests],
And with a grand proclamation, he says:
- ⁴ 'All you who are foolish; turn here to me!'
- ⁵ He says to those who are lacking good sense:
'Come eat my bread and drink my wine
That I have mixed up for you!
- ⁶ Stop being a fool, become smarter,
So you will live a long time...
Get straight with wisdom and knowledge!'
- ⁷ Those who attempt to straighten the godless,
Upon themselves, bring dishonor.
For, when you scold those who have no respect,
You just make a fool of yourself.
- ⁸ So, don't scold those who are evil,
For they will just start to detest you!
But, reprove the wise and they'll love you...
- ⁹ Give them help and they will be wiser...
An explanation to those who are righteous,
Will thereafter, bring them much more.
- ¹⁰ Wisdom starts with the fear of Jehovah,
And counsel about holiness brings understanding.
Also, knowledge of the Law is good to consider;
- ¹¹ For if you learn it, you'll live a long time...
Many years, it will add to your life.
- ¹² O son; if you choose to seek wisdom,
You will make yourself wise.

But, if you choose to seek evil,
You'll just bring bad things on yourself.

¹³ A woman without food who is foolish and bold,
Has no knowledge of shame.

¹⁴ She sits at the door of her house in a chair
To make herself seen in the square.

¹⁵ Then she calls out to those who pass on the street,
And to those who are walking straight paths:

¹⁶ 'You who are the most foolish;
Turn aside and come here to me!'

She arouses the stupid by saying,

¹⁷ 'You'll touch secret bread loaves in pleasure,
And steal sweet water to drink!'

¹⁸ But the thing that they don't understand,
Is that she brings destruction upon earthly men...
That she's perching them on the edge to the grave!

Chapter 10

¹ A wise son gladdens a father;
But a foolish son brings his mother distress.

² Treasures bring no help to the lawless;
But, they can rescue the righteous from death.

³ Jehovah won't let the righteous go hungry;
But, impious ways [lead to famine].

⁴ Poverty humbles a man;
But, hard-working hands will enrich him.

Correcting a son makes him wiser;
So the foolish, he'll treat as his servants.

⁵ An intelligent son will be saved
And he'll not [have to slave in] sweltering heat;
But wind will destroy all the harvest
Of the son who is a lawbreaker.

⁶ Jehovah sends blessing to the heads of the righteous,
And mourning to the mouths of the wicked.

⁷ The righteous are remembered and commended;
While the names of the irreverent will perish.

⁸ A wise heart does as it's told;
But, back-talking lips will be stumbled.

⁹ For those who comply, things go easy;
But, resistance will not be forgotten.

¹⁰ The eye that winks at bad things
Is creating distress for the rest.
But, the man who openly scolds,
Is the one who is bringing them peace.

¹¹ Mouths of the righteous are like springs of life;
But a mouth that curses, leads to destruction.

¹² Hatred leads to a war;
But, those who won't fight create friendships.

¹³ Those whose lips bring forth wisdom
Are beating the heartless with a stick.

¹⁴ The wise learn to hide their perceptions;
But, mouths that speak rashly, bring destruction.

¹⁵ The rich man's wealth is his fortress,
While poverty brings ruin to the poor.

¹⁶ The deeds of the righteous bring life,
While the fruit of the irreverent brings sin.

¹⁷ Following instructions leads you to life;
For, without instructions, you'll stray.

¹⁸ Righteous lips cover your hatred;
But, those who shout insults are fools.

¹⁹ A sin can't be covered with many words;
So it's wise for your lips to say little.

²⁰ A righteous tongue is like refined silver,
But the hearts of the irreverent are worthless.

²¹ The lips of the righteous speak of high things,
While fools die for the lack of understanding.

²² Jehovah blesses the heads of the righteous...
He enriches and brings no distress to their hearts.

²³ The fool will laugh when he's doing what's bad;
But, wisdom makes a man act much smarter.

²⁴ By destruction, the impious are carried away,
While the righteous will receive the things that they crave.

²⁵ A blast will come to destroy the impious;
But the righteous will turn and escape in that age.

²⁶ As green grapes are bad for your teeth,
And smoke is bad for your eyes;
So are lawless ways to those who are harmed.

²⁷ The fear of Jehovah adds days to your life,
While the lives of the irreverent are shortened by years.

²⁸ Happiness stays with the righteous,
While the irreverent one's hopes are destroyed.

²⁹ Jehovah's a fort of those who show mercy,
But a ruin to those who are doing what's bad.

³⁰ The righteous will live through the ages;
But the impious will not live long in the land.

³¹ From the mouths of the righteous, drips wisdom,
While unrighteous tongues lead to ruin.

³² From the lips of the righteous comes loving care;
But rejection comes from the mouths of the godless.

Chapter 11

¹ Dishonest scales are disgusting to [God]...
Fair weights are what He approves.

- ² Those who shout insults show their dishonor,
While the mouths of the humble speak wisely.
- ³ The righteous leave no regrets when they die;
But, when the irreverent are wiped away,
Ridicule is all they receive.
- ⁴ The perfection of the righteous will guide them,
While the Godless are plundered by failure...
In the day of [God's] rage, their possessions will fail,
As the righteous are rescued from death.
- ⁵ Holiness keeps righteous ones on straight paths;
But, by their godless ways, the unrighteous fail.
- ⁶ The right ways of the good is what saves them;
But the thoughtless ways of lawbreakers
Is the thing that leads them to jail.
- ⁷ When a righteous man comes to his end,
The things that he's hoped for are never destroyed.
But the boastful ways of the godless
Will soon bring about their destruction.
- ⁸ When the righteous are saved from a trap,
The irreverent are then put back in it.
- ⁹ The mouths of the irreverent are snares to their friends;
But the mouths of the righteous bring blessings.
- ¹⁰ By the good of the righteous, a city is born;
And the destruction of the irreverent brings it joy.
- ¹¹ By the praises of the upright, a city is raised;
But the mouths of the impious tear it back down.
- ¹² A senseless man sneers at his comrades;
But an intelligent man leads them to rest.
- ¹³ A double-tongued man reveals plans,
While the trustworthy keep matters hidden.

¹⁴ Those with no guidance will fall just like leaves;
For salvation is found [by seeking] advice.

¹⁵ The wicked act badly among righteous men,
And the sounds of their safety, they hate.

¹⁶ A praiseworthy woman brings glory to her man,
But those hating what's right, bring dishonor.

The lazy will never be wealthy,
While those who work hard will be rich.

¹⁷ A merciful man brings good to his soul,
While the merciless bring themselves ruin.

¹⁸ The impious receive what is wrong as their wage;
But the seed of the righteous is their reward.

¹⁹ A righteous son will gain life,
While an irreverent son will bring his own death.

²⁰ Twisted ways are disgusting to [God]...
He just approves of those who are walking straight paths.

²¹ Those who wrongly lay hands on another
Will not go unpunished for their evil ways.
But, those who are fair are assured a reward.

²² As a gold ring in the snout of a pig
Is a pretty woman with evil desires.

²³ The righteous will receive what is good,
While the hopes of the godless will perish.

²⁴ There are those who'll plant seeds and reap more...
But some will also reap less.

²⁵ A generous man will be blest...
Those who water will also be watered.

²⁶ A man who hoards grain will leave it to [others],
While the heads of those who share it are blest.

²⁷ Those planning to do good, seek its blessings;
But, those who plan to do evil,
Will be captured by those who've planned to do good.

²⁸ Those who trust in wealth won't succeed;
But, those who help the righteous will last.

²⁹ The man who doesn't love those in his own home
Will just inherit the wind...
To the intelligent, he'll be just a fool and a slave.

³⁰ From the tree of life, the righteous [gather] fruit,
While the souls of the lawless are lost.

³¹ If the righteous will be saved [by the skin of their teeth];
What hope is there for the impious and sinners?

Chapter 12

¹ Those who love to be taught, love understanding,
While those hating correction are fools.

² Those who find the favor of [God]
Are the ones who'll receive what is best,
While the lawless just get condemnation.

³ Those who break laws won't endure;
But the righteous won't be uprooted.

⁴ A virtuous wife is a crown to her man;
But, one who is bad will eat him away
Like a worm that is boring through wood.

⁵ True judgments are the ways of the righteous,
And treacherous are the ways of the godless.

⁶ The impious lie in wait to shed blood,
While righteous mouths offer protection.

⁷ When the irreverent lose, they just pass away,
While the homes of the righteous remain.

⁸ The mouths of the discerning are praised by all men,
While those with dull hearts will be sneered at.

⁹ It's best for the dishonored to be servants
Than be too proud and go without bread.

¹⁰ The righteous are concerned for the lives of their cattle,
While the impious feel no compassion or mercy.

¹¹ Those who work their ground will eat bread,
While those who chase vain things go hungry.
There are those who drink wine as their pastime...
But they leave their honor behind them.

¹² The desires of the impious are evil;
But the roots of those who are showing respect
Will become strongly entrenched.

¹³ By the sins of his lips, a sinner is snared,
While the righteous will flee from such things.

¹⁴ From the fruits of his mouth, a man's soul receives good...
He'll be repaid for the things his lips say.

¹⁵ Fools will follow in their own ways,
While the wise will follow advice.

¹⁶ A fool bares his rage before all,
But the wise will hide his dishonor.

¹⁷ The righteous put trust in telling the truth;
But, an unrighteous witness will lie.

¹⁸ There are some who speak as though stabbing with swords,
While the tongues of the wise send healing.

¹⁹ Lips that are straight will speak what is true,
While the lips of the unrighteous are hasty.

²⁰ Those planning to do bad have treachery in their hearts;
But, those planning peace will find joy.

²¹ The righteous aren't pleased by injustice,
While the godless [find pleasure] in doing what's bad.

²² Lying lips are disgusting to [God]...
He only accepts those whose lips He can trust.

²³ The wise don't show all the things that they know;
But the hearts of fools blurt their folly.

²⁴ Hands that are honest, easily win,
While the hands of the deceitful are plundered.

²⁵ Frightful words disturb hearts of men;
But a message that's good brings them joy.

²⁶ A friend is one who suggests what is right...
But, sinners support evil and impious ways.

²⁷ A deceitful man won't get what he wants,
While those with pure hearts will be wealthy.

²⁸ The ways of the righteous lead them to life...
From death, it turns them away.

Chapter 13

¹ A wise son does as his father directs,
While those who won't listen meet with destruction.

² From the fruit of righteous lips, good people will eat,
As the lives of the lawless are all wiped away.

³ Those who keep watch on the things that they say
Are also keeping watch on their lives;
While those who let their lips go
Are turning their lives into failure.

⁴ While idle men think of the things that they want;
Hardworking hands bring results.

⁵ The righteous hate words that aren't true,
While the lies of the wicked bring themselves shame.

⁶ Righteousness guards the ways of the honest,
While the irreverent are led into sin.

⁷ There are those who seek wealth and get nothing;
And there are those who put themselves low that get rich.

⁸ A man's wealth may be used to ransom his life,
While the poor have nothing to fear.

⁹ The righteous will always have light,
While the light of the irreverent is extinguished.

¹⁰ Those practicing evil, [shout] insults,
While the wise argue just with themselves.

¹¹ Things gained in haste by the lawless
Will soon lose all of their value,
As things that are gathered by the righteous
Will keep on growing in worth.

¹² Those who plan in their hearts to help others
Are better than those who just promise
And raise [false] hopes in [the poor].

A tree of life is the desire to do good;

¹³ But, those who hate to do what is right
Will be hated for that very same reason.

Those who deceive will get nothing good;
But a servant's wise ways will be prospered.

¹⁴ The Law is a well of life to the wise,
Which turns them away from death's snares.

¹⁵ Understanding what's good, brings [God's] favor...
Knowing and considering [His] Law, is what's good.
But the roads of all those who hate it
Are the paths that lead to destruction.

¹⁶ A wise man acts on the things he has learned,
While the fool continues in his evil ways.

¹⁷ A hasty king will find trouble...
But wise counselors can save him from this.

¹⁸ Poverty and dishonor are removed by instruction,
And those following correction, will be blest.

¹⁹ The irreverent desire the things that delight them...
But, ignorance is all they accomplish.

²⁰ Those who travel with the wise will be wise,
While those traveling with fools will be fools.

²¹ Sinners will do evil things.
While the righteous will do what is good.

²² A good man will inherit the sons of his sons,
And the wealth of the impious is reserved for the righteous.

²³ The righteous will spend many years with their wealth,
While the wicked will suddenly perish.

²⁴ Those who don't spank them, dislike their sons,
While those who love them give careful correction.

²⁵ The righteous will eat and make their lives full,
As the lives of the godless go lacking.

Chapter 14

¹ A woman who's wise will strengthen her home;
But the foolish rips theirs down with their own hands.

² Those on straight paths fear Jehovah,
While those on crooked paths [truly] hate Him.

³ From the mouth of a fool comes an insult,
While the lips of the wise hold it back.

⁴ Where there are no cattle, the stables are clean;
But the strength of the ox is apparent
In barns that are prospering well.

⁵ A trustworthy witness won't lie;
But a lying witness will commit other sins.

⁶ The bad who seek wisdom, won't find it;
But to the discerning, it comes easily.

⁷ Whatever the foolish say will be wrong;
But wise lips are the weapons of those with good sense.

⁸ From their wisdom, the wise get direction,
While fools are misled by their own thoughtless ways.

⁹ The homes of the lawless need cleaning,
While the homes of the righteous are worthy of praise.

¹⁰ A man whose heart is easily hurt
Will always be in distress.
But, insults won't bother a heart filled with joy.

¹¹ The homes of the impious will meet with destruction,
While the tents of the upright will last.

¹² There are ways that may seem straight to a man,
But they end in the depths of the grave.

¹³ Bold hearts are always filled with their ways,
While a good man is filled with his thoughts.

¹⁴-

¹⁵ A gullible man believes every word,
While the wise will think it all through.

¹⁶ In fear, a wise man will turn from what's bad,
While a fool gives in and breaks laws.

¹⁷ A man prone to rage will act without thought,
While the wise will endure many things.

¹⁸ A fool will share in doing what's bad,
While the wise will maintain good sense.

¹⁹ The evil slip in among those who are good,
And the irreverent watch the doors of the righteous.

²⁰ Friends dislike friends that are poor,
While many are the friends of the rich.

²¹ Those who dishonor the needy are sinners,
While those showing mercy to the poor will be blest.

²² Those who stray, contrive evil schemes,
While the good contrive mercy and truth.
The bad have no mercy or faith,
While the good are generous and trusting.

²³ For those who care, there's more than enough,
While the rest will seek pleasure and lack.

²⁴ The crown of the wise is their wealth;
But, evil is the pastime of fools.

²⁵ A trustworthy witness snatches lives from the bad,
While a deceitful man will just lie.

²⁶ Those who trust in the strength of Jehovah,
Will leave an inheritance for their children.

²⁷ The rules of Jehovah are life-giving springs
That lead men away from death's snares.

²⁸ A prosperous nation brings glory to its king;
But a nation in want brings him ruin.

²⁹ An intelligent man forgives freely;
But a faint-hearted man [holds a grudge].

³⁰ A practical man is a healer of hearts;
But a sensitive man is a moth to the bones.

³¹ The man who's extorting the needy
Is provoking the One by whom he was made;
But, those whom He holds in esteem
Are the ones who show mercy to the poor.

³² For their evil, the irreverent will be shunned,
While the righteous will be looked on as holy.

³³ In the heart of a good man, rests wisdom,
Which can't be found in the heart of a fool.

³⁴ Justice will build up a nation;
But, sinners will bring its decline.

³⁵ Wise counselors are [a joy to] the king,
For they can remove his dishonor
In very ingenious ways.

Chapter 15

¹ Even the smart are destroyed by their rage;
For harsh words will make others angry,
While an answer that's mild turns back rage.

² Tongues of the wise bring forth knowledge;
But the mouths of fools just speak evil.

³ The eyes of Jehovah see all...
He watches both the good and the bad.

⁴ A tree of life, is the tongue that heals...
Those who have it are filled with [God's] Breath.

⁵ A fool will sneer at his father's instructions;
But the wise will do what he says.

Where there's justice, [a nation] is strong...
For their irreverent will be uprooted from their land.

⁶ There is strength in the homes of the righteous,
While the fruits of the impious bring them destruction.

⁷ The lips of the wise are bound by good sense;
But the hearts of fools can't be trusted.

⁸ Sacrifices of the irreverent are disgusting to God...
He accepts just the vows of those who walk straight.

⁹ The ways of the irreverent are disgusting to God;
But He loves those who do what is righteous.

¹⁰ Those who heed the instructions of the guileless
Will be the ones who follow straight paths.

Those who dislike correction
Will come to their end in disgrace.

¹¹ Of destruction and the grave, God has warned us;
So, why isn't this in the hearts of all men?

¹² The ignorant hate those who correct them,
And they don't wish to stay near the wise.

¹³ A happy heart makes a face shine;
But a heart in distress makes it downcast.

¹⁴ An upright heart will seek understanding;
But an ignorant heart knows just evil.

¹⁵ Evil eyes enjoy seeing bad things,
While the [eyes] of the good [search for] peace.

¹⁶ It's better to have little and the fear of Jehovah,
Than to have great treasures and no fear of God.

¹⁷ It's better to eat vegetables in a place where there's love,
Than to dine on calves where there's hatred.

¹⁸ An outraged man is ready to fight;
But with an apology, he can be soothed.

The forgiving man prevents lawsuits;
But the irreverent would rather create them.

¹⁹ The roads of the lazy lead into thorns,
As the industrious travel on busy highways.

²⁰ A wise son brings joy to his father;
But a foolish son sneers at his mother.

²¹ The paths of the unthinking don't make any sense;
But the ways of the wise lead them a straight line.

²² From the hearts of advisors, there's much to be [learned];

²³ But a man who is bad won't [take their advice],
Nor will he learn anything useful.

For to him, what's good is mundane.

²⁴ The thoughts of the discerning lead men to life,
And they'll turn a man back from the grave.

²⁵ Jehovah tears down the homes of the proud,
While He gives support to the widows.

²⁶ The ways of the unrighteous are disgusting to God...
He only respects the requests of the pure.

²⁷ Those who takes bribes, bring themselves ruin,
While those who hate them are saved.

Mercy and faith wipe away sins,
And the fear of Jehovah turns us from bad.

²⁸ Faithful hearts think of what's righteous,
While irreverent mouths speak of what's evil.

The ways of the righteous are accepted by God...
By them, even enemies become friends.

²⁹ From the irreverent, God stays far away;
But He hears the vows of the righteous.

It's better to be fair and gain little
Than to gain much through injustice.

³⁰ An eye that sees good, brings joy to the heart,
And good news puts fat on the bones.

³¹ Those who heed the corrections of life
Will find themselves lodging with those who are wise.

³² Those who won't listen to instruction,
Really don't care for themselves,
While those who heed correction, love life.

³³ The fear of Jehovah is instruction and wisdom...
Heeding Him is the sum of all glory,
And the humble will be led to this glory.

Chapter 16

¹ May hearts of men consider what's righteous,
So that God can set their feet on straight paths.

² The deeds of the humble are apparent to God...
But He'll destroy the irreverent in His day.

^{3,4} -

⁵ To God, proud hearts are unclean,
And He will never forgive
Those who lay their hands on another unjustly.

⁶ Goodness starts with doing what's right...

⁷ It's better than offering a sacrifice.

⁸ Those seeking Jehovah find knowledge and justice...
Those who righteously seek Him, find peace.

⁹ A man's heart is what sets his direction,
But Jehovah sets the course for his feet.

¹⁰ Though a curse may be on the lips of a king,
His mouth must not err in his judgments.

¹¹ A scale that gives a true measure
Is something that's righteous with God...
His ways require honest weights.

¹² The king is disgusted by those who are evil,
For the sovereignty of his throne is based upon justice.

¹³ Righteous lips are what the king will accept...
Your lord loves things that are straight.

¹⁴ The rage of a king is an angel of death,
But a man who is wise can appease him.

¹⁵ The sons of a king are the light of his life,
For to Him, those he loves are like gentle rain.

¹⁶ Sources of wisdom are better than gold,
And understanding is worth more than silver.

¹⁷ The road [to long] life avoids what is bad,
And righteous ways will lead to old age.

Those willing to learn are counted as good,
And those accepting correction are thought of as wiser.

The man who keeps watch on his ways
Is someone who's protecting his soul...
So, those who love life will watch what [they say].

¹⁸ Insolent ways lead to destruction,
And evil thoughts lead to a downfall.

¹⁹ It's better to share a little with the meek
Than to share great spoils with the haughty.

²⁰ The discerning are inventors of good things,
And those yielding to God find His blessings.

²¹ Though the vile may shout to the wise and discerning,
Those with sweet words are the ones they will hear.

²² Understanding brings life to its seekers;
But the instruction of fools just leads to bad.

²³ From their own mouths, the hearts of wise ones will learn,
And from their own lips, they'll gain knowledge.

²⁴ Sweet words are like combs filled with honey,
For their sweetness brings healing to the soul.

²⁵ There are ways that may seem straight to a man,
But end on the road to the grave.

²⁶ A hardworking man works for himself,
And this leads him from poverty,
As the rest wear failure over their mouths.

²⁷ The foolish search for things that are evil,
And upon their own lips, they heap fire.

²⁸ A man who is crooked spreads evil...
With treachery, he lights many fires,
And in this, he drives [a wedge between] friends.

²⁹ A lawbreaking man puts his friends to the test,
And he leads them into corruption.

³⁰ His eyes are fixed as he plans to do wrong,
And he confirms what's bad with his lips...
Such a man is a furnace of evil.

³¹ Old age is a crown of which one can boast
When it's found among those who are righteous.

³² It's better to be forgiving than strong,
And smartness is better than owning much land.
But, better than taking a city,
Is the ability to keep your temper in check.

³³ Unrighteous lips will bring what is bad,
For all that's good comes from [God].

Chapter 17

¹ A scrap of food that's eaten in peace
Is better than a house of feasting with fights.

² Over foolish masters, a smart slave will win,
And he'll divide what he takes with his brothers.

³ As silver and gold are refined in a furnace
Is how Jehovah tries hearts.

⁴ A bad man obeys what lawbreakers say,
And the unrighteous will heed lying lips.

⁵ Those who make fun of the poor
Provoke the One by whom they were made.

Those who rejoice at the downfall of others
Won't [find their sins overlooked];
For, mercy comes to those who show that they care.

⁶ The crown of old age is grandchildren,
And fathers will boast of their sons.

The arrangements of [God] can be trusted;
But the faithless won't know how [He] did it.

⁷ Trustworthy lips aren't enough for a fool,
Nor will lying lips please the righteous.

⁸ Instruction pays well to those who will learn,
And all who use it will prosper.

⁹ Those covering offenses are looking for love;
But the unforgiving leave family and friends.

¹⁰ Intimidation breaks the heart of someone who's wise;
But a fool who is whipped never learns.

¹¹ All evil men like to argue;
But the Lord sends merciless angels against them.

¹² An intelligent man will be anxious [for right];
But about evil things, fools will argue.

¹³ The one who repays good things with bad,
Will never see evil removed from his home.

¹⁴ When a ruler supports righteous words,
There are fewer fights and divisions.

¹⁵ When the righteous must judge the unjust,
They'll find them unclean and disgusting.

¹⁶ What value has wealth before fools?
For, in their hearts, there's no wisdom.

As those who are building tall houses
Make plans for something that will fall...
Evil plans bring the downfall of the crooked.

¹⁷ Use your time to gain friends;
For in bad days, they will be your brothers...
It's for such favor that they have been born!

¹⁸ A foolish man claps and shakes hands,
Then he [co-signs] a loan for a friend.

¹⁹ Those fond of sinning bring strife,
And those with hard hearts bring nothing good.

²⁰ A tongue that twists words will bring evil,
And the heart of a fool brings grief to himself.

²¹ A father won't be proud of an ignorant son...
But smart ones bring joy to their mothers.

²² While a joyful heart brings good health;
A worried heart dries a man's bones.

²³ The unrighteous want gifts to be dropped in their laps
So that they can pervert true justice.

²⁴ Faces of the discerning look wise;
But the eyes of the foolish look distant.

²⁵ A foolish son angers his father
And brings grief to the [mother] that bore him.

²⁶ It is wrong to penalize the righteous
And unholy to plot against a just king.

²⁷ Those holding back harsh words show insight,
And a man who concedes shows his wisdom.

²⁸ When an unthinking man asks a question,
He is often thought of as wise;
And when he refuses to argue,
He'll be thought of as a person that's smarter.

Chapter 18

¹ Those making excuses are rejected by friends,
And they'll always be spoken of poorly.

² Those lacking good sense have no use for wisdom;
For, by what's foolish, they wish to be led.

³ When the irreverent reach the depths of their evils,
They don't notice that they're scorned and dishonored.

⁴ A word that touches the heart
Is like very deep water...
Like a river or a life-giving spring.

⁵ It is evil to favor the wicked,
And unholy to deny justice to the righteous.

⁶ A fool's lips will lead him toward bad,
And the boldness of his mouth beckons his death.

⁷ The mouth of a fool will destroy him,
For his lips are snares to his own soul.

⁸ The lazy are easily frightened,
And timid souls will go hungry.

⁹ A man who won't work for himself
Is a brother to the one who brings himself ruin.

¹⁰ In the Name of the Lord there is power...
It's where the righteous can turn for their strength.

¹¹ The wealth of the rich is a fortified town,
And its glory casts a long shadow.

¹² Before his ruin, a man's heart is proud,
And just before glory, it's humbled.

¹³ When a man replies before hearing,
It's foolish and brings him much scorn.

¹⁴ A man can endure a [long] illness;
But, who can endure a spirit that's worried?

¹⁵ The hearts of the smart gain perception
And the ears of the wise search for insight.

¹⁶ When a man brings a gift, he makes friends,
And he will sit beside rulers.

¹⁷ Before speaking, the righteous examine themselves;
For they know that they'll be reproved
By those who do not agree.

¹⁸ Choosing by lottery ends a dispute
And it defines the boundaries of rulers.

¹⁹ A brother who is helped by his brothers
Is like a high city with fortified walls,
And like a castle that's well-built and strong.

²⁰ From the fruits of his mouth, a man's belly is filled...
From the fruits of his lips, he'll get what he needs.

²¹ The handle of the tongue carries both life and death,
And those who fail to restrain it
Will end up eating its fruitage.

²² The man who's found a good wife
Has done himself a great favor...
Joy from Jehovah is what he's received.

The man who sends a good woman away
Doesn't recognize things that have value;
But the one who keeps an adulteress
Is a foolish and irreverent person.

²³ Though those in need make many requests,
The rich will respond very harshly.

²⁴ A man should seek many friendships,
For some friends will stick closer than brothers.

Chapter 19

^{1,2} -

³ Doing what's foolish lays waste to men's ways;
But in their hearts, they'll blame it on God.

⁴ Wealth will bring many friends;
But, friends will be few when you're poor.

⁵ A lying witness will not go unpunished,
And a false accuser will never escape.

⁶ Many seek the king's favor,
And all who bring gifts are his friends.

⁷ Those who hate a brother who's poor
Will never be good at making friends.

Insight is good for all those who seek it,
And an intelligent man will soon find it.

The evil are good at doing what's bad,
And those who aggravate won't be saved.

⁸ Those [willing to learn], love themselves;
For those seeking what's wise will find what is good.

⁹ A lying witness will not go unpunished,
And those bringing evil will perish by it.

¹⁰ Luxury is no advantage to the fool;
And it's wrong for a servant who's been given some power
To use it in ways that are haughty.

¹¹ A merciful man is forgiving,
And he triumphs over those who have sinned against him.

¹² Intimidation from a king is like a lion's [roar];
But, bringing him joy is like dew on the grass.

¹³ A foolish son will bring shame to his father.

Impure, are all of the vows
That are paid with the wage of a whore.

¹⁴ Though fathers may leave us homes and possessions,
A sensible wife comes from [God].

¹⁵ Worry holds back a cowardly man,
And the lives of the idle go hungry.

¹⁶ Those keeping the Commandments are protecting their souls;
But those hating its ways will soon perish.

¹⁷ God lends to those showing mercy to the poor,
And He repays them according to the gifts that they give.

¹⁸ Though correction builds confidence in sons,
You can't make them better with insults.

¹⁹ An evil-minded man will be punished;
And if he [kills], he must pay with his life.

²⁰ Listen, O son, to the words of your father,
So that in your last days, you will be wise.

²¹ There are many choices in the heart of a man;
But counsel from God lasts through ages.

²² Charity is what is desired of a man;
For it's better to be righteous and poor
Than to be rich and a liar.

²³ The fear of Jehovah brings life to a man;
But, those who have no such fear
Will lodge where no knowledge is found.

²⁴ Since the unrighteous hide their hands behind folded arms,
They can't bring [what's good] to their mouths.

²⁵ When you whip a foolish man his mischief,
It will make all simple men wiser;
But an intelligent man will understand more,
And he'll make the needed corrections.

²⁶ Those who show disrespect to their fathers
And push their mothers away,
Will always be reviled and disgraced.

²⁷ Sons who disobey their father's instructions
Will focus on the evil that they hear.

²⁸ The man who [co-signs] a loan
Is the same as a child who is foolish.

The mouths of the irreverent will swallow
All those who show disrespect for the Law.

²⁹ Whips are prepared for all those
Who fail to watch what they say,
And for the backs of the foolish.

Chapter 20

¹ Wine and strong drink can make you drunk,
And fools will get involved in such things.

² The intimidation of a king is like a lion's rage,
And those who provoke him
Are sinning against their own lives.

³ It's glory for a man to avoid shouting insults;
But a fool stays involved in such matters.

⁴ If you scold the lazy, he'll never be shamed...
He even borrows grain in the harvest.

⁵ Instruction is deep water within a man's heart
From which the intelligent can draw.

⁶ A respected man has much value,
And a merciful man isn't easily found...
But it's harder to find one who's faithful.

⁷ Those who offer true justice
Will leave many blessings for their children.

⁸ When a just king sits on a throne,
He won't abide evil in his presence.

⁹ Who can boast that he has a pure heart,
And openly say that he's clean from all sins?

¹⁰ An untrue weight, whether large or small,
Is something unclean to Jehovah...
For both the weight and its maker

¹¹ Will be bound hand and foot for such things.

A young man who's [a friend] to the holy
Will surely find his ways to be straight.

¹² The ears can hear and the eyes can see;
For they're both the works of Jehovah.

¹³ Do not love too much sleep
So that you don't end up as poor;
Rather, open your eyes and be filled with bread!

¹⁴ The barterer says, 'It's no good, it's no good!'
But after he [buys it], he'll boast.

¹⁵ There [are treasures] of gold and of precious gems;
But understanding lips have more value.

¹⁶ If you should offer all of your clothes
As security for the loan of a stranger;
May that stranger thereafter reclaim them.

¹⁷ The bread of deceit may seem good to a man;
But he'll find his mouth filled up with gravel.

¹⁸ Make plans with discussion, counsel, and guidance
Before you go to fight battles.

¹⁹ Double-tongued is the man who reveals someone's plan
When he is speaking to others;
For his lips shouldn't speak of things not his own.

²⁰ The man who speaks badly to a father or mother
Will find that his torch is extinguished,
And the pupils of his eyes will see darkness.

²¹ Whenever a thing is easily gained,
In the end, it will have little value.

²² Don't ever say you'll get even...
Just wait on Jehovah to help you.

²³ Two different weights are disgusting to [God],
And a balance that's off is evil to Him.

²⁴ A man's steps must be set straight by [God];
For, how can mortals know the right ways to go?

²⁵ It's a snare to offer something as holy too quickly;
For after you vow, you might change your mind.

²⁶ A wise king rejects those who don't show respect,
And he'll have them put on the wheel.

²⁷ The spirit of men is a light to Jehovah,
Which He uses to see what's inside them.

²⁸ Mercy and truth safeguard a king;
For, to his throne, they'll bring justice.

²⁹ The glory of young men is their strength,
And the glory of old age is gray hair.

³⁰ The bad will have bruises and broken [bones],
And illness will come to their bellies.

¹ A king's heart is like the waves [of the sea]
When it's in the hand of our God.
For, wherever He wishes, He nods,
And that's the way he will go.

² All men like to think themselves righteous;
But Jehovah's the One who weighs all their hearts.

³ Telling the truth and doing what's right
Is more pleasing to God than a blood sacrifice.

⁴ A high-minded man is insolent and bold,
And the torch of the impious is sin.

⁵ The thoughts of hard-workers are of [gaining much] more;
But, those who're too hasty will end up with less.

⁶ Those who seek treasures by lying
Are really pursuing in vain;
For, in death's snares, they'll be caught.

⁷ The ruin of the irreverent is welcomed as a guest
By those who prefer righteous ways.

⁸ To the crooked, God sends what is crooked;
For His ways are all straight and pure.

⁹ It's better to live on the corner of a roof
Than in a house whitewashed with injustice,
Or to live in one that's unclean.

¹⁰ Since the godless prefer to do what is bad,
They'll never see mercy from others.

¹¹ When you discipline men for their lack of restraint,
You make the guileless more clever;
For by his insight, the wise man will learn.

¹² Impious hearts are examined by the righteous
Who treat their evil ways with contempt.

¹³ Those who close their ears to the weak
Will call out and no one will listen.

¹⁴ A gift that is given in private
Will soothe [a person who's angry];
But, where there's no gift, the rage may remain.

¹⁵ The pure are joyful when the righteous get justice;
But this terrifies those who do evil.

¹⁶ A person who travels in ways that are righteous
Will rest among gatherings of great ones.

¹⁷ A man who loves pleasure won't end up with much;
And those fond of wine and [olive] oil
Will never [find themselves] wealthy.

¹⁸ To the righteous, the wicked are trash...
And that's also how they view the Law-breakers.

¹⁹ It's better to live in the desert
Than with a wife who likes to argue and fight,
Or with one who is prone to be angry.

²⁰ Treasure rests in the mouths of the wise,
For the foolish just swallow theirs down.

²¹ Those who seek charity and justice
Will also find glory and life.

²² A wise man can attack fortified cities;
And he can demolish the forts
In which the irreverent put trust.

²³ Those who keep watch on their mouths and their tongues
Are saving their souls from the problems they cause.

²⁴ A bold, self-willed, and presumptuous man,
Is one who's considered a plague;
For, all resent those who live without law.

²⁵ Lazy desires bring death to a man,
For his hands will choose to do nothing.

²⁶ The irreverent want to do evil,
While the righteous show pity and mercy.

²⁷ The sacrifices that the irreverent bring
Are viewed as disgusting by [God];
For whatever they bring is not by the Law.

²⁸ Since a witness who lies deserves death;
A [wise man] will watch what he says.

²⁹ The irreverent impudently stand in the front,
But the upright know what they're planning.

³⁰ The godless have no wisdom or courage,
And the advice that they offer is bad.

³¹ Though a horse is prepared for the day of the war,
Help really comes from Jehovah.

Chapter 22

¹ A good name is better than wealth,
And good favor is better than silver and gold.

² The rich and the poor should meet with each other;
For, both were made by Jehovah.

³ When a clever man sees the bad being punished,
He makes corrections within his own self...
But this escapes the fools that pass by.

⁴ The fear of Jehovah is the father of wisdom...
Its rewards are wealth, glory, and life.

⁵ Thistles and snares line ways of the crooked;
But those guarding their souls will avoid them.

⁶ Raise your child [in good] ways,
And when he grows old, he won't leave them.

⁷ The rich are in control of the poor...
They're the masters of all those who borrow.
Those planting evil will harvest what's bad...
Yes, calamity is what they will reap
From all the bad things that they sow.

⁸ God loves those who cheerfully give,
And He overlooks the foolish things that they do.

⁹ Those who show mercy to the poor
Will eat the same bread that they give them.

Those who bring gifts buy victory and honor,
While those who withhold them may soon lose their lives.

¹⁰ If you keep mischief-makers out of your group,
Their unpleasantness also goes with them.
For you're dishonored when they sit in your midst.

¹¹ Jehovah loves hearts that are holy...
Those with pure ways, He accepts.

¹² The eyes of Jehovah keep guard on good sense,
And He treats lawbreakers as [refuse].

¹³ The lazy make many excuses...
They say, 'There's a lion in the street;
So, I could be killed in the square.'

¹⁴ The mouths of the lawless are cesspools,
Into which those whom God hates will fall.

¹⁵ Foolish ways delight the hearts of the young;
But instruction and spankings will drive them away.

¹⁶ Those who swindle the needy,
Upon themselves, bring much evil...
And they'll give all they've gained to the wealthy.

¹⁷ Lean your ears toward these wise words that come from my mouth...
Pay attention to the things that I'm saying.
Yes, prepare your heart to fully comprehend,

¹⁸ For what I am saying is good!
If you'll put it all deep in your heart,
You'll see that it will bring joy to your lips.

¹⁹ Put your hope in Jehovah,
And He will show you His ways.

²⁰ Write them down three times for yourself,
For your own instruction and knowledge.

²¹ I'm teaching you words that are true;
So, listen closely and learn,
Then you can reply with words that are true,
When people are asking you questions.

²² Don't push away the needy and poor,
And don't dishonor the weak at your gates;

²³ Since it's Jehovah who argues their cause,
You'll save your soul from reprisal.

²⁴ Don't be a friend to a man prone to rage,
And don't lodge men prone to anger,

²⁵ So that you don't learn from their ways,
And bring a noose to your life.

²⁶ Don't shame your face by ensuring a loan;
For, if [your friend] can't repay it,
They'll take the bed from under your back.

²⁸ Don't move the markers of the ages,
Which were set in place by your fathers.

²⁹ An observant man who is sharp in his ways
Will also stand beside kings...
He won't stand beside the dull witted.

¹ If you're invited to dine with a ruler,
Pay attention to all that's around you.

² Especially pay attention to your hands...
Have them prepared at such [times].

And though you may be very hungry,

³ Don't be too fond of his food,
For that will not save your life.

⁴ And should you find yourself in great need,
Do not reach out to the wealthy...

Use insight and stay at a distance.

⁵ For, though you keep watch, they will not appear,
Since they have the wings of an eagle,
And they can [escape] to their homes.

⁶ Don't dine with a man prone to envy,
Nor should you desire his food...

⁷ Eat and drink like you're swallowing a hair.
And don't bring him into your house for a meal;

⁸ For, he will just vomit it out
And lay waste to the things you've prepared.

⁹ Don't speak into the ears of a fool,
So he doesn't sneer at your wisdom.

¹⁰ Don't move the markers of the ages,
And never take an orphan's possessions,
Since their ransom is paid by the Lord...

¹¹ He's mighty and He'll argue their case.

¹² Open your hearts to great learning,
And prepare your ears for sensible words!

¹³ Don't avoid correcting the young...
For, if you spank him, no way will he die.

¹⁴ And if you give him a spanking;
From death, you may rescue his soul.

¹⁵ Son; if you teach your heart to be wise,
You'll bring much joy to my heart.

¹⁶ And if [what you say] should prove to be straight,
We'll spend much time sharing words from our lips.

¹⁷ Don't let your heart be jealous of sinners...
Fear Jehovah all day!

¹⁸ For, if choose to take this advice,
You will have many descendants,
And you'll get everything that you've hoped for.

¹⁹ Hear me O son and be wise...
Straighten the thoughts in your heart!

²⁰ Don't be a person who drinks too much wine,
Or reclines with the meat in the markets!

²¹ For whoremongers and drunks will be poor...
The nightgowns they wear will be ragged and torn.

²² O son; pay attention to your father,
And don't disrespect your old mother.

²³ With all you have, [search for] truth...
And don't reject wisdom, instruction, or knowledge!

²⁴ A righteous father is one who provides,
And a son who is wise brings joy to his soul.

²⁵ So, please bring joy to your father and mother...
May the one who bore you, rejoice!

²⁶ Lend me your heart and your eyes...
O son, pay attention to my words!

²⁷ The house of a [whore] is a keg with a hole...

It's a well that is narrow and strange,
²⁸ And all [who enter] will perish!
For, those who break laws are destroyed.

²⁹ Who is the one that has problems and woes...
For whom are there many disputes...
For whom is there intrigue and rancor...
Who is destroyed for no reason...
And who's the one with dark eyes?

³⁰ It is those who linger with wine,
And those who go looking for parties!
So, don't be a man who gets drunk on wine,
Or hangs out with [the unrighteous]...
Don't go around [with those who are bad]!

³¹ For, if you search for [the contents of] cups,
You'll end up as bare as a pestle...
³² Stretched out like one who's been struck by a snake,
Or one poisoned by the bite of horned vipers.

³³ When your eyes behold a strange woman,
And your mouth starts to speak perverse things;
³⁴ When you lie down with her, you will be
Like one who has fallen in the depths of the sea...
As a sailor who's been covered by waves!

³⁵ (You'll say): 'They beat me, but I felt no pain;
They mocked me, but I didn't know it.
How long will it be 'til it's dawn
So I can go back and do it again?'

Chapter 24

¹ Son;
Never be jealous of evil men,
Or desire to go along with them.

² For their hearts just think about lies,
And misery is found in their lips.

³ Wisdom has built a house for himself,
And it was erected with skill.
⁴ Its storerooms are filled with good sense...
Things of value, goodness, and wealth.
⁵ Gaining wisdom is better than gaining great strength,
And being smart is better than owning much land.
⁶ Seek guidance before going to war;
For, from the hearts of advisors, comes aid.
⁷ Wisdom and insight are good,
And they're found within the gates of the wise.
⁸ The wise won't turn from the Laws of Jehovah,
And they consider His things in their meetings.
⁹ Those who fail to learn this will die,
⁹ Since the fool will fail because of his sins.
¹⁰ With what's dirty, do not get involved;
For, when a day of trouble arrives,
You'll see how such things have worked out.
¹¹ Rescue those being led to their deaths,
And ransom those about to be slain!
¹² Don't say that you never knew them,
For the Lord knows what's in the hearts of all men,
Since He's the One who put breath in them all.
So, He's aware of all that we do,
And He pays us back for the [sins] we commit.
¹³ Son;
To eat honey from the comb is delightful;
For, into your throat, this brings sweetness...
¹⁴ And that's how wisdom should be in your life;
For, if you find it, your death will be good,
And your hopes will not be abandoned.
¹⁵ Never lead the irreverent
To the fields of a man who is righteous,

Or join with them in deception.

¹⁶ For, though the righteous may fall seven times,
They'll also stand up again,
While the irreverent will be plagued for their badness.

¹⁷ Do not rejoice if your enemy falls,
And after his fall, he can't rise.

¹⁸ For Jehovah will see this and He'll be displeased,
Then He'll send His rage down upon you.

¹⁹ And do not rejoice over those doing evil,
Or ever be jealous of sinners!

²⁰ For the lives of the wicked will come to an end,
And the torch of the irreverent will be put out.

²¹ Fear God, O son, as well as the king...
Never resist their persuasion!

²² For they both can bring sudden death
Upon those who show no respect.
So, who can know how they'll punish?

²³ I'm saying this to the wise and to you:
If you're in awe of a person you're judging,
That's a poor way to start out a trial.

²⁴ For a man who declares the irreverent just
Will be cursed among all his people
And detested in every nation.

²⁵ But, those who reprove will look better,
And upon such a person comes praise...

²⁶ Lips will kiss his righteous decisions.

²⁷ Now, prepare to stop what you're doing,
And let's go out to work in your field...
Then follow me, and we'll work on your house!

²⁸ Don't ever be a witness who lies,
And don't be too quick to open your lips.

²⁹ Don't say, 'I'll do what he did to me...
I'll get even with the one who has wronged me!'

³⁰ A foolish man is much like a farm,
And one lacking good sense, like a vineyard.

³¹ For, if you just leave them alone,
They each will become overgrown...
Their stone fences will fail and fall down.

³² I once decided to change...
I planned to just [sit back] and learn.
³³ Then I started to doze and fell fast asleep
With my hands folded over my chest.
³⁴ And if you allow this to happen to you,
Poorness will soon overtake you,
And lack will pass you like a sprinter.

Chapter 25

¹ These are the [proverbs] of Solomon that were recorded by friends of HezekiAh, the king of Judah.

² God's glory covers a matter;
But, kings view all things as important.

³ As the heavens are high over the earth...
So is the heart of a king.

⁴ Beating out unrefined silver
Is one way to make it more [pure].

⁵ Slay the impious surrounding the king,
And you'll make his throne one of justice.

⁶ Don't boast when you're standing in front of the king,
Nor do it in gatherings of the mighty.

⁷ It's better if [a king] says, 'You may approach,'
Than to be humbled in the presence of the mighty.

Tell the king only those things
That you have seen with your eyes.

⁸ Don't be too quick to start fights;
Or in the end, you'll wish that you hadn't.

Whenever a friend wants to scold you,

⁹ Don't pull away or get angry.

¹⁰ For, if his scolding makes you hate him,

It's the same as bringing his death.

Since favor and friendships bring freedom,

Pay close attention to the things that you do,

And give him no reasons to scold you...

Don't do things that will cause any trouble!

¹¹ As a gold apple in a pendant of rubies

Is the value of words that are wise.

¹² And as a gold earring with a setting of [gems]

Are wise words to ears that will listen.

¹³ A trustworthy messenger is like falling snow

In the heat of the harvest;

For he benefits the lives of all whom he tells.

¹⁴ As winds, clouds, and rain are apparent;

So is the man who chooses to boast

Of gifts that he didn't give.

¹⁵ Patience before a king brings success,

And a mild reply will break bones.

¹⁶ When you find honey, just eat what's enough,

Lest you should get filled and vomit it out.

¹⁷ Be sparing in the ways that you [visit] your friends

So they don't get tired and start to detest you.

¹⁸ The same as clubs, swords, and arrows,

Is the person who slanders a friend.

¹⁹ For their evil, the lawless will die

In the bad days that are [coming].

²⁰ As vinegar on a [cut] that brings [pain]

Is a heart in distress to its body.

Like a moth in [wool] clothes and as worms inside wood

Is how worry [will eat] a man's heart.

²¹ If your enemy is hungry, you should feed him,
And if he's thirsty, you should give him a drink!
²² By this, you'll pile burning coals on his head,
And Jehovah will repay you for the good things you did.
²³ As a wind from the north will bring clouds...
Impudent tongues will bring aggravation.
²⁴ It's better to live on the corner of a roof
Than with a woman who likes to complain.
²⁵ As cold water is enjoyed by the thirsty;
So is good news that comes from afar.
²⁶ As unbecoming as plugging a spring,
Which results in wasting the water,
Is the fall of someone who's righteous
Before those whose ways are impious.
²⁷ As eating too much honey isn't good;
Kind words can also give too much praise.
²⁸ As a city without walls and protection
Is the person who won't take advice.

Chapter 26

¹ As snow in the summer and rain in the harvest;
It's wrong for a fool to be honored.
² As sparrows and other winged creatures
May spread [their wings, but not] fly;
An undeserved curse will not happen.
³ Like a whip to a horse or a spur to a mule;
A nation of the lawless must be beaten.
⁴ Don't answer a fool in his same foolish way
So you're not thought of being just like him.
⁵ Rather, reply to show how he's foolish,
So he doesn't think himself wise.

⁶ The man who sends a foolish report
Heaps scorn upon all his ways.

⁷ Remove from fools their reasons [to speak],
And take their proverbs out of their mouths.

⁸ For as a man who ties a stone to a sling,
Is the person who gives glory to a fool.

⁹ As thorns will grow in the hands of a drunk;
Slavery grows in the hands of a fool.

¹⁰ As a bad storm may cause damage;
The flesh of fools will meet with destruction
Over things in which they find pleasure.

¹¹ As a dog returns to its vomit;
A fool will return to the evil he's done
And commit same sins again.

¹² I've seen men who thought themselves wise,
Yet, they were no better than fools.

¹³ When you send out the lazy, they'll say:
'There are lions in the roads and murderers in the squares.'

¹⁴ The lazy one rolls in his bed
Like a door that's swinging on hinges.

¹⁵ When the lazy one hides his hands in [his robe],
He's unable to bring them up to his mouth.

¹⁶ The lazy one thinks himself wiser
When something he says appears to be true.

¹⁷ As one who grabs hold of the tail of a dog
Is the man who joins in a quarrel not his.

¹⁸ As doctors also need healing;
Those who give council will stumble.

¹⁹ When a man is caught stealing from friends,
He'll claim that it was just a joke.

²⁰ Where there's plenty of wood, a fire will grow;
But, when there's no reason to disagree,
There's also no reason to fight.

²¹ As a grate filled with coals or wood on a fire;
A man who shouts insults is seeking a fight.

²² The words of those who are bad may sound soft;
But they beat the insides of the bowels.

²³ Silver that you get from treacherous deeds
Is the same as a fine pot that is cracked.

Comforting [words] will bring rest
To hearts that are deeply distressed.

²⁴ An enemy who cries will always agree,
As he makes wicked plans in his heart.

²⁵ When an enemy is calling to you,
Don't pay him any attention;
For there are seven kinds of evil in his heart.

²⁶ Treacherous are those who hide hatred;
But in a court, their sins are revealed.

²⁷ The man who digs a pit for his neighbor
Will be the one who falls in it;
And the one who's rolling a boulder
Will roll it back on himself.

²⁸ A lying tongue hates the truth,
And an open mouth can bring problems.

Chapter 27

¹ Don't boast of the things that you'll do tomorrow;
For, [no one] knows what tomorrow will bring.

² Let your praises come from friends (not from you)...
Let them come from the lips of strangers (not yours).

³ Rocks and sand are heavy to bear;
But the rage of a fool is greater than both.

⁴ Rage has no mercy and anger is sharp;
But before the zealous, no one can stand.

⁵ It is better to offer correction
Than to use many flattering words.

⁶ The wounds of a friend can be trusted
More than an enemy's kisses.

⁷ At honeycombs, the foolish will laugh;
And to the starving, what's bitter tastes sweet.

⁸ Like a bird that flies from its nest,
Is the man who strays from his home.

⁹ Perfume, incense, and wine
Can make the heart very happy;
But, things that go wrong will shatter a soul.

¹⁰ Don't leave a friend or a friend of your father,
And in hard times, don't go to the house of your brother.
For a friend who is near is much better
Than a brother who lives far away.

¹¹ Become wise, my son, and make my heart glad...
Do not shout hateful words!

¹² When the clever see evil, they flee;
But a fool passing by gets involved.

¹³ Take the clothes from the man who shouts insults
And who destroys the goods of a stranger.

¹⁴ Shouting praises of a friend too early in the day
Is the same as when you shout curses.

¹⁵ As a house leaking rain in the winter;
A nagging wife drives a man from his home.

¹⁶ Since wind from the north blows so hard,
It is fittingly called the north wind.

¹⁷ As iron is sharpened by iron;
A man can sharpen the face of a friend.

¹⁸ The man who is planting a fig tree
Is the one who will gather its fruit;
And the man who guards [the life of] his master
Is the one who'll be held in esteem.

¹⁹ As faces aren't like other faces;
Men's hearts are also quite different.

²⁰ As the grave and destruction can never be filled;
The eyes of men can't be satisfied.
But the [desires] of the eyes are disgusting to [God],
As are the stupid who don't mind their tongues.

²¹ As silver and gold are refined in a fire;
A man is refined by correction.

²² You can dishonor a fool with a whip before crowds,
But you can't drive his foolishness from him.

²³ Know the condition of the lives of your flock,
And keep your herd in your heart.

²⁴ A man's might and strength won't last through the ages...
Through generations, he cannot retain them.

²⁵ If you tend the greens that grows in your field,
You'll take their cuttings for food.

And if you'll gather hay from the hills,

²⁶ You'll also have wool for your clothes.

Therefore, hold your fields in high esteem,
So you can own many lambs.

²⁷ O son;
All of these proverbs that I've spoken

Will add many years to your life...
And they'll also bring life to your servants.

Chapter 28

¹ The godless will flee when they're not being chased;
But as secure as lions, are the righteous.

² From the sins of the irreverent come lawsuits;
But a clever man can avoid them.

³ An energetic man who does evil things
Can damage the poor like a storm.

⁴ Those leaving the Law will praise godless ways;
But for those who love it, the Law is a wall.

⁵ The evil don't understand fairness...
But those seeking Jehovah know what it means.

⁶ It's better to be poor and walking in truth
Than to be rich and a liar.

⁷ A discerning son will follow the Law;
But those driven by lust bring their parents dishonor.

⁸ Those who gain wealth from interest on loans
Will [pay it] to those who are kind to the poor.

⁹ [God] hates the prayers of all men
Who turn their ears from the Law.

¹⁰ Those who lead the righteous toward evil
Will also fall into corruption.
Then the honest will claim all their good things,
And won't let them enter among them again.

¹¹ A rich man thinks himself wise;
But an intelligent poor man sees through him.

¹² When the righteous triumph, there's glory;
But when the wicked succeed, men will hide.

¹³ Those who excuse their ungodly ways
Won't live to see prosperous times.
But, those who admit and make the correction
Will find themselves truly loved.

¹⁴ Blest is the man who worships in awe
When those with hard hearts see only what's bad.

¹⁵ Like a thirsty wolf or a lion that's starved
Is the king who rules a poor nation.

¹⁶ A king who doesn't tax learns to extort;
But those hating corruption will live a long life.

¹⁷ The man who stands good for a loan
Is the same as a man blamed for murder;
For he will be sent into exile,
Where he won't find a safe place to hide.

¹⁸ The one who travels right ways will be helped,
While those walking crooked paths will get tangled.

¹⁹ The man who works his land will eat bread;
But those who are lazy will be poor.

²⁰ A trustworthy man will be praised over much;
But the evil will not go unpunished.

²¹ The evil look down on the righteous...
For a scrap of food, I'd sell such a man.

²² Though evil eyes are in a hurry to get rich;
They don't know that poverty awaits them.

²³ Those offering correction will be loved
More than those who just flatter.

²⁴ Those who evict their fathers and mothers
Assume that they have not sinned...
But to the godless, they've made themselves partners.

²⁵ A dissatisfied man makes bad choices;
But those trusting in God find His [love].

²⁶ A fool will yield to rash ways in his heart,
While those who act wisely stay safe.

²⁷ Those who give to the poor will not be in want,
While those passing them by will never be filled.

²⁸ Where the rulers are godless, the righteous will moan;
And the righteous will prosper when they're destroyed.

Chapter 29

¹ It's better to accept your correction
Than to be someone who's proud.
For, upon the proud will come flames
From which they will never be healed.

² When the righteous are honored, the people rejoice;
But when the godless rule, people moan.

³ Lovers of wisdom bring joy to their parents;
But those who seek whores destroy wealth.

⁴ A righteous king makes his land firm;
But a lawless king tears it down.

⁵ The one who sets a snare for a friend,
Wraps it around his own feet.

⁶ A snare is set for those who choose sin...
Which brings gladness and joy to the righteous.

⁷ The righteous give justice to the poor...
But because the godless don't understand justice;
To the poor, they're very bad judges.

⁸ Those fond of mischief will burn their own city;
But the wise can turn back their rage.

⁹ A wise man will judge many nations,
While the ignorant only bring rage,
Along with ridicule and disrespect.

¹⁰ Partners in blood hate the holy and upright,
So they're always seeking their lives.

¹¹ A fool will show all his rage,
While the wise will hold it inside.

¹² A king who will listens to unrighteous things
Brings joy to [the hearts] of the lawless.

¹³ In meetings between lenders and debtors;
Jehovah observes their agreements.

¹⁴ When a king gives justice to the poor,
He brings good reports to his throne.

¹⁵ Spanking and scolding brings wisdom;
But a child who is left to his own ways
Will soon bring shame to his parents.

¹⁶ When the godless are many, many will sin.
But, when they fall, the righteous learn fear.

¹⁷ Correct your son and he'll bring you rest...
He'll be a decoration throughout your whole life.

¹⁸ No one can save a lawbreaking nation;
But, those that obey the laws will be blest.

¹⁹ You can't correct stubborn servants with words;
For, if they understand, they still won't obey.

²⁰ When you see a man who speaks hasty words,
Know that he shares the same hopes as a fool.

²¹ A man who is raised without purpose
Will soon become somebody's servant,
And he'll grieve for himself in the end.

²² An angry man looks for reasons to fight,
And a man who's enraged will seek ways to sin.

²³ Insolence tears down a man;
But meekness brings glory from God.

²⁴ The man who shares with a thief
Is a man who hates his own life.
And if he should hear public cursing,
He will never report it.

²⁵ Those who fear men will be stumbled;
But those yielding to God will find joy.
Disrespect is what stumbles a man;
But the one who yields to his lord will be saved.

²⁶ Though many come to stand before rulers,
True justice comes from Jehovah.

²⁷ To the wicked, the righteous are foolish;
And to the lawless, those walking in straight paths [are fools].

Chapter 30

The proverbs of Agur, son of JahYeh.

¹ Thus says this man to those trusting in God:
‘I’m weary, ² for I’m the most foolish of men,
And the intelligence of man isn’t in me.

³ Yet, God has taught me much wisdom,
And the holiest of knowledge, I know.’

⁴ Who’s gone into the sky and returned?
Who has gathered the winds to His chest?
Who has bundled the seas in His robe?
Who has held the ends of the earth?
Yes, what is the name by which He is known,
And by what names has He called His sons?

⁵ All of God’s words are truly pure,
And He’s a shield to those who show Him respect.

⁶ But don’t add to His words or He’ll whip you,
And He will prove you a liar.

⁷ These are the things that I've asked Him to do:

· May I find Your favor [throughout my life].

· ⁸ Please take away my vain, foolish words.

· Don't give me poverty or wealth...

Just give me the things that I need

So I can remain self-sufficient.

· ⁹ Don't leave me in need, so I'd steal,

And thereby profane the Name of my God.

¹⁰ Don't return a [slave] to his master

So he'll have no reason to curse you.

¹¹ A bad son curses his father

And doesn't speak in praise of his mother.

¹² A bad son is one who judges himself

And refuses to clean up his ways.

¹³ A bad son is one that is [proud]

And holds himself high in his own eyes.

¹⁴ A bad son has teeth that are swords

And molars that are like pruning knives,

Which he uses to consume the weak of the land

And to take from the needy.

¹⁵ To the leech was [born] three beloved daughters;

But with the three, she wasn't satisfied,

So she also [gave birth to] a fourth,

Since she couldn't say, 'That's enough!'

¹⁶ For the desires of a woman and the grave can't be filled,

As the ground never gets too much water...

As with fire and water, it's never enough!

¹⁷ May the eyes of those who make fun of their fathers

And dishonor their mothers in their old age

Be removed by crows in ravines,

And devoured by the young ones of vultures.

¹⁸ There are three things I can't comprehend,
And there's a fourth that I do not know:

- ¹⁹ The tracks of the flight of an eagle
- The ways of a snake on a rock
- The path of a ship as it travels the seas
- And the ways of men in their youth.

²⁰ As an adulterous wife is still washing herself,
She'll claim that she has done nothing wrong.

²¹ These three things shake the ground,
And the fourth it's unable to bear:

- ²² When someone's servant becomes king
- When a fool has plenty of food
- ²³ When a handmaid's released by her lady
- When a hateful woman gets a good man.

²⁴ There are four lesser things on the earth,
And these are wiser than the wise:

- ²⁵ The ants that are weak,
But spend their summers storing food.
- ²⁶ Rabbits that form a weak nation,
But make their houses in rocks.
- ²⁷ Locusts that live all alone,
But march in order when given the command.
- ²⁸ And the lizard with hands that are sticky...
For, though they are easily caught,
They live in the castles of kings.

²⁹ There are three things that continue to prosper,
And a fourth that is best overlooked:

- ³⁰ The cub of a lion; for though it's not strong,
It won't turn away and it doesn't know fear.
- ³¹ A rooster that struts among hens.
- A male goat who takes the lead of his flock.
- And a king who speaks to his nation.

³² When you lose your joy and raise fists to fight,
You've already lost all your honor.

³³ If you churn milk, you'll have butter;
If you squeeze your nose, it will bleed;
And if you just keep on talking,
Arguing and fights will result.

Chapter 31

The words of the King Belonging to God.

¹ These words [that I've written] were spoken by God...
Through a king came an answer divine.

He was once asked by his mother:

² 'What, O my child, what should I tell you...
Which saying of God should I tell my firstborn?
What, O child of my belly...
What, O child of my vows?

³ 'Don't [waste] your money on bad women,
Nor your abilities and mind seeking pleasure.
Think it all over and follow [my] words...
And [do not] drink [too much] wine!

⁴ 'Since the mighty are easy to anger;
Never offer them wine,
⁵ Lest they lose their wisdom in drink.
For they make poor decisions when they're weak.

⁶ 'Give liquor to those in distress;
Offer wine to those who are grieving
⁷ So they can forget their condition
And remember their misery no more.

⁸ 'O son;
Open your mouth to speak Godly words,
And offer fair judgments to all.

⁹ Open your mouth with righteous decisions...
Stand up for the needy and weak!

¹⁰ ‘Who can find an industrious wife?
More than precious gems, is her value!
¹¹ If the heart of her man courageously guards her,
He’ll never be lacking good treasures;
¹² For she’ll use her strength to support him,
And she’ll not waste her life in doing what’s bad!
¹³ She’ll work with her hands spinning linen and wool,
¹⁴ And act like a ship that trades far away...
For, that’s how she’ll gather her money.

¹⁵ ‘She gets up while it’s still night,
Along with her female attendants,
To ready the food for her household.
¹⁶ She may see a farm and then buy it...
From the fruits of her hands, she’ll gain more.

¹⁷ ‘She wraps her waist to give it support,
And readies her arms to do work.
¹⁸ She’s tasted and found work to be good,
And keeps her lamp lit all night long.

¹⁹ ‘She reaches for things advantageous,
And applies her hands to the spindle.
²⁰ She opens her hands to the needy,
And stretches her arms toward the poor.

²¹ ‘She wouldn’t consider using what’s yours
Whenever you’re gone for a while;
And all that are hers will have enough clothes.

²² ‘A doubled coat made of goat’s hair,
She has sewn for her man;
And from the bolt-ends of linen and purple,
She’s also made one for herself.

²³ So, her man is admired when he sits at the gate,
And meets with the rest of the elders.

²⁴ ‘She takes fine linen to make loincloths
For all of her Canaanite [servants].
²⁵ She’s [proud] of her strength and her beauty,
And is happy throughout the rest of her days.
²⁶ ‘She opens her mouth to speak wisdom and Law,
And charity rests on her tongue.
²⁷ Her pastimes are things that shelter her home,
And the grain of laziness, she doesn’t eat.
²⁸ ‘She raises her sons so they will grow rich,
And her man sings praises of her.
²⁹ Her many daughters will also be rich
By doing the things that she’s [taught them].
‘But, you are still the first [in her eyes]...
Above all the rest, she holds you.
³⁰ ‘So, beauty and allurements are false;
Therefore, that isn’t what you should seek.
Rather, find a woman who’s praised and discerning...
One who’s known for her fear of God.
³¹ Take from her, the fruit of her lips,
And you’ll always be praised at the gates.’

Ecclesiastes

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians
A poem or song written by Solomon about 1000-BCE.

Chapter 1

¹ These are the sayings of the great congregator, the son of David,
the king of Israel in Jerusalem.
² ‘All is foolishness and waste,’
Said he, the great congregator.
‘Foolishness and waste... all that’s done is in vain.’

³ What value does man gain from the things he has done,
And the things he's worked hard for under the sun?

⁴ For, one generation passes away,
And then another arrives...
Yet the earth remains through the ages.

⁵ The sun keeps on rising and setting
As it draws to its place,
⁶ And the winds blow in from the south,
As they move to the north in a circle...
Then they go back and come 'round again.

⁷ Though all the rivers flow into the sea,
The sea does not become filled.
For, to the places from which they all came,
They return and flow back again.

⁸ So, no man can speak all the words he might say,
Nor can his eyes be filled with all he can see,
And his ears can't handle all he can hear.

⁹ What is this thing that [just] happened?
The same thing will happen again!
What is this thing being done?
The same will be done in the future...
For there's nothing that's new under the sun!

¹⁰ Who can say, 'Look, here's something new!'
For the same thing has happened for ages
To those who have lived before us.

¹¹ But the things that they did were forgotten,
And those who are born in the future
Won't remember the things that we're doing now.

¹² The great congregator is the king
Over all of IsraEl from JeruSalem.

¹³ So I set my heart to survey and inquire
About all that has happened under the sky.

God gave me this to distract me from bad,
And to lead sons of men back to Him.

¹⁴ I've seen all that's done under the sun,
And I find it to be a waste of [good] breath.

¹⁵ For, things that go wrong are never made right,
And there's too much that's wrong to be counted.

¹⁶ Once I spoke in my heart and I said:
'Look how great I've become!
For, I've been given more wisdom
Than all who have lived before me!'

So, I set my heart to learn wisdom and knowledge;
¹⁷ And wisdom and knowledge, my heart then beheld,
As well as higher learning and proverbs.

It became the resolve of my spirit
¹⁸ To gain an abundance of wisdom,
Along with vast volumes of knowledge.
But, those who gain knowledge also gain pain.

Chapter 2

¹ Then I said to my heart, 'Well come now;
I'll [fill] you with joy and then you'll know good!'
But, even that was just folly.

² To laughter, I said, 'You're a burden!'
And to joy, I asked, 'What have you achieved?'

³ So I thought in my heart,
'I will drink wine for my flesh!'
But my heart then led me toward wisdom.

Next, I decided to hold onto joy
Until I could see just what kind of good

⁴ There is to be found among sons of men,
And what they can do in their short days of life.

⁴ So thereafter, I went into action...
I planted vineyards and built many homes.
⁵ I made myself gardens and parks,
Which I planted with all sorts of fruit.
⁶ Around them, I dug ponds and lakes
To water the groves filled with trees.
⁷ I acquired many slaves (both women and men),
And many native servants were born.
I also acquired great herds and flocks...
More than all who had come before me.
⁸ I collected much silver and gold for myself...
The possessions of kings and estates.
I prepared for myself many singers...
Men and women were brought to amuse me.
I had men and women who just served me wine;
⁹ Then, I became great as my wisdom increased
(More than all who had come before me);
And indeed, my wisdom was proven.
¹⁰ Everything that I could ask for
Was there in front of my eyes,
And no joy was withheld from my heart.
But, though these efforts of my heart brought me joy;
This was the sum of all I'd achieved.
¹¹ For, when I looked at the things I had done,
And the things that I'd made with my hands...
When I considered the effort it took,
I saw that it all was just folly.
Since, no matter what our spirits may choose to do;
It brings no advantage under the sun.
¹² So thereafter, I examined my wisdom,
And I saw that it too was just folly.
For who under the sun will follow my words...
Which man will do [what I've said]?

And though the wise may have eyes in their heads,
The fools will still travel in darkness.

I also realized that both them and I
Will eventually all meet together.

¹⁵ So, in my heart I said this:
‘Since the fate of fools will also take me;
What value is there in my wisdom?’

And I also said this in my heart:
‘The things that I’ve said about being a fool
Are also just [wasted breath];

¹⁶ For, both the wise the fools are forgotten,
And what they do will not be remembered.
So, how are the wise any better than fools?’

¹⁷ Then, I became disgusted with life;
For, all that I’ve done under the sun
Will eventually end up as bad...
It is all foolish and a waste [of good] breath.

¹⁸ I became disgusted with all of the things
That I had accomplished under the sun,
For I’ll leave it to the one who comes next...

¹⁹ And who knows if he’s wise or another poor fool...
Who knows if he’ll care for the things I have made,
Or all the things I’ve discerned under the sun?
So, all of this is just folly!

²⁰ Thus, I turned to dismiss from my heart
All the results of my efforts,
And all that I’d made under the sun.

²¹ There’s a man who worked hard to gain wisdom,
As well as knowledge and courage.
But there’s also a man who made no such effort,
And he will receive the same fate.
So, this is a great wicked folly.

²² What happens to a man and his efforts,
And the resolves of his heart under the sun?
²³ During all of his days there is pain,
And rage over things that are being destroyed;
So, during the night, his heart knows no rest...
Indeed, this too is just folly.

²⁴ Nothing worthwhile comes to a man
But eating, drinking, and searching for good...
These things come from God's hand;
²⁵ For without Him, who's able to eat or to drink?
²⁶ To those whom He declares to be good,
He gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy...
But, from the sinners, He rips this away!
They're just given to those whom He deems to be good,
And who stand before the face of [our] God.
Yet, this is also just folly,
And just a waste of [good] breath.

Chapter 3

¹ For all that's under the sky
There is a season and time...
² There are times to give birth and times that bring death;
There are times to plant and to harvest;
³ There are times to destroy and do healing;
There are times to build and times to tear down;
⁴ There are times to laugh and to cry;
There are times for mourning and dancing;
⁵ There are times to pick up and times to throw stones;
There are times to hug and times to push away;
⁶ There are times to lose and to find;
There are times to collect and discard;
⁷ There are times to plant and times to rip out;
There are times to speak and times to be quiet;
⁸ There are times to love and times to show hate;

There are times for peace and for war...

⁹ So, what can your efforts accomplish?

¹⁰ I've seen the amusements God's given
To the sons of men to distract them...

¹¹ All that God's made is good in its time.
But, though He's put the ages into our hearts,
No man can know all that we've done
From the most ancient times to the present.

¹³ So once that a man has it all
(All that he needs to eat and to drink),
He'll know that his ways have been blest,
And he'll know that these gifts came from God.

¹⁴ All that God does lasts through ages;
So to them, you can add nothing more,
Nor can you take them away.
For, all that God has accomplished
Was done so we'd live before Him in fear.

¹⁵ And all that is, has already been...
Yes, it's all happened before,
And God searches to see which we've chosen.

¹⁶ I've also noticed that under the sun,
There's a place where the godless are judged
And a place where the righteous are judged.

¹⁷ So, in my heart I've concluded
That both the unrighteous and just will be judged.
Yes, there is a season for all,
And for every action, there is a right time.

¹⁸ I said in my heart what sons of men say...
That God views us as though we are cattle.

¹⁹ For man's outcome is the same as his herds...
As this one dies, so dies the other,
Since we all share the very same breath.

So, how are men better than cattle... they aren't,
And it is all just a joke!

²⁰ For we all return to the very same place...

We come from the dust and return to the dust.

²¹ So, who knows if man's breath thereafter goes up,
Or if the breath of his cattle goes into the ground?

²² In all of this, I saw [little] that's good,
Except to find joy in the things that we do...

Yes, this is all we've been given.

For, who will lead us to see

The things that will happen after [we're gone]?

Chapter 4

¹ Yes, I've turned and I've seen it all...

The extortions and other such things

That will happen to all under the sun.

I've seen power in the hands of extorters,

And I've seen the tears of the swindled...

Then, no one came to offer them comfort.

² I've also praised the things of the dead;

For, more have died than have lived,

³ And the best of these two is the one not yet born...

The one who has not seen the evil

In what will be done under the sun.

⁴ I beheld all their efforts and acts of great courage...

Men's rivalries with their companions.

And I see that it all is just foolish...

It's all a huge waste of breath.

⁵ The fool folds his hands... then he eats his own flesh.

⁶ But it's better to enjoy a handful in peace

Than to have twice as much in distress;

For, this is also a waste of good breath.

⁷ I turned and noticed man's foolish ways...
All that he's done under the sun.

⁸ For there are those who live all alone,
And who have had no dependents.
But, though they have no brothers or sons,
They deprive their lives of things that are good.
And indeed, this too is just folly...
It's just a distraction from evil.

⁹ Two are better than living alone,
For the efforts of two return a good wage...

¹⁰ If he stumbles, his partner will lift him.
But, woe to the one who stumbles and falls,
And has no partner to raise him.

¹¹ When two share a bed, they'll be warm...
But one alone can't keep himself warm.

¹² And a person alone can be beaten,
While two make a better defense...
Yet, a three-corded rope is harder to break.

¹³ It's better to be a poor but wise child
Than a king who is foolish and old...
One who no longer listens [to council].

¹⁴ For he reigns within his own prison,
And in his own kingdom, has nothing.

¹⁵ I've gazed upon all of the living
(All who are walking under the sun),
And I see the next generation
That will soon become their replacements.

¹⁶ There's no limit to all of the people,
Or to those who have come before.
And since the last take no joy in the first;
This too is foolish and a waste of good breath.

Chapter 5

¹ Watch your feet as you enter God's House
(Whenever you go there to listen),
And bring an offering that is better
Than the rest of the gifts of the foolish
Who are unaware of the evil that comes.

² Don't let your mouths speak too quickly
Or let your hearts be too hasty
When making [a vow] in the presence of God.
For, God is up in the heavens,
And you are here on the earth;
So, let your words remain few.

³ As many [concerns] bring [bad] dreams;
Many words are heard from the voices of fools.

⁴ So, when you make a vow to [your] God,
Don't waste any time to repay it,
Since He doesn't like vows that are foolishly made.

So, whatever you vow, you should bring!

⁵ And it's best that you don't make a vow
Than to vow and then fail to pay it!

⁶ Don't let your mouth lead your flesh into sin,
And don't say too much in the presence of God.
[Do not say] stupid things,
And don't make Him angry with your words,
Or He'll bring destruction to the works of your hands.

⁷ So, though you may have many daydreams and follies,
Fear to say many words,
Whenever you stand before God.

⁸ If you see the needy extorted and robbed
By lawsuits or other legal actions;
Don't give this too much attention.

For, from above, the High One keeps watch...
He sees all that happens under [the sky].

⁹ And though the bounty of the land is for all,
Even a king needs his fields to be worked.

¹⁰ But for those who love silver, there's never enough,
And with plenty comes even more young...
And indeed, this too is just folly.

¹¹ For, when you have many good things,
There will also be many to eat it.
So what value is there in getting much more,
When it's just to be seen by your eyes?

¹² Sleep is always sweet to a slave,
Whether he has little or much...
But the rich never get enough sleep.

¹³ I've seen all this illness under the sun...
For, there are those who store up much treasure,
¹⁴ Which is thereafter lost in hard times.
So, wealth is just a distraction from bad.

When a man fathers a son,
The child arrives here with nothing at all.

¹⁵ Naked he comes from his mother's womb,
And when he dies, he leaves the same way...
With nothing to show for his efforts,
And nothing to carry back in his hands.

¹⁶ Indeed, this is illness that's evil;
For as he arrives is how he returns.
And what advantage has he gained from his efforts,
When they're [blown away] in the wind?

¹⁷ In darkness and mourning, men fill their days...
In anger, illness, and rage.

¹⁸ Yet, I've seen good in the things that we eat and drink,
And I've seen good come from man's efforts...

In the things he's accomplished under the sun,
And in the portion of life that God has allowed.

¹⁹ For, those who gain wealth and possessions from God,
Are allowed to own them and eat them,
Thus they reap the joy of their efforts...
And these are [the true] gifts from God!

²⁰ So, though they'll forget most days of their lives,
God amuses them with the joy in their hearts.

Chapter 6

¹ There is something bad that I have beheld,
Which is common to all under the sun.

² It's when God gives him wealth, possessions, and glory,
And a man lacks nothing that his soul could desire...
Then he's not allowed time to [enjoy] it,
And thereafter, it's given to strangers...
Yes, this is a sickness and folly.

³ If a man should live to a hundred
(No matter how long the days of his years),
And his life has never known good things;
Before he's buried, I'd say:

'It would have been better if he'd been miscarried.'

⁴ For from darkness he came, and in darkness he left,
And in darkness his name will be covered.

⁵ Indeed, he knew not the sun,
And none would know him from others.

⁶ And if he came back and lived thousands [of years],
But he still never saw any good;
Wouldn't things be just the same?

⁷ So, all men can do is just fill their mouths,
Since their lives never reach their fulfillment.

⁸ And what advantage have the wise over fools?
For, only the poor put just living first.

⁹ It's better to have a dream in your eyes
Than to see what will really happen in life;
So, all of that is just folly...
It's just a waste of good breath.

¹⁰ Whenever something new comes along,
It has already been named [in the past].
And though a man may know his own [strength],
He can't know when someone is stronger.

¹¹ There's so much that makes foolishness grow,
¹² And what does this mean for a man?
Who knows what will be the best in his life,
Or how many of his days will be foolish?
For his life is much like a shadow,
And who can report to a man
What under the sun will succeed him?

Chapter 7

¹ A good name is better than oil,
And the day that you die is much greater
Than the day of your birth.

² So it's better to go to a funeral
Than to spend time at a banquet...
For that is the end of all men,
And it's good for all who are living
To take such good warnings to heart.

³ Indignant rage is better than laughter;
For a face that's been hurt creates a good heart.

⁴ So the hearts of the wise are at funerals,
While the hearts of fools [search for] pleasure.

⁵ It's better to hear the wise scold you
Than to hear the [praises] of fools.

⁶ As the [crackling] of tinder under the pot,
Is the sound of the laughter of fools;
For this is also just folly.

⁷ Extortion will drive the wise crazy;
For it destroys their heart's greatest plans.

⁸ The way that a matter turns out
Is [more important] than how it began.

It's better [for a man] to forgive
Than to have a high-minded spirit.

⁹ Do not get angry too quickly;
For rage rests in the bosoms of fools.

¹⁰ Don't ask why past days were better;
For in asking such things, there's no wisdom.

¹¹ Wisdom brings plenty of good
To those who can still see the sun;

¹² For, in its shadow is wisdom,
As well as the shadow of silver.

The advantage of those who know wisdom
Is that it gives life to those who can find it.

¹³ Behold the actions of God;
For, who can add to whatever He brings?

¹⁴ Enjoy the good life during good days,
For you know that bad days will come!

{Look!} Harmonious words, God sent through this man,
So people will need nothing more!

¹⁵ I've seen it all in my foolish days...
I've seen the righteous unjustly destroyed,
And the irreverent allowed to keep doing what's bad.

¹⁶ Don't become super righteous or too discerning,
So you will not overwhelm others.

¹⁷ Nor should you be disrespectful,
Lest you harden and die before it's your time.

¹⁸ It's best to hang on to all that is good
And not to make your hands dirty;
For, everything comes to those who fear God.

¹⁹ Wisdom has much greater power
Than ten mighty men in a city.

²⁰ There's no man on the earth who is righteous...
There are none who are good and free from all sins.

²¹ Don't keep all things that are said in your heart,
And don't notice when you're cursed by your servants.

²² For against you, they'll say wicked things,
And often they'll hurt you at heart...
Just as you've often cursed others.

²³ All of these things, I've tested as wisdom;
But, though I may say that I understand,
It has really stayed too far from my grasp...

²⁴ It's too high above me and too deep below;
So, who is able to find it?

²⁵ To understand, I've searched my heart through...
I've looked it all over and sought what is wise.
I have reasoned and seen how the godless are fools,
And of how they're misled to do wrong.

²⁶ I find her more bitter than death...
The woman with snares and nets in her heart,
And who creates slaves with her hands.
Only those who are found to be good before God
Will be delivered from her,
While those who sin will be captured.

²⁷ 'Look! This is what I have found,'
Says the great congregator.
'I've counted and carefully searched,

²⁸ Seeking with my whole soul...
But I was unable to find,
A man in a thousand who's [righteous],
And none at all among women!

²⁹ 'Yet, this is the one thing I've found:
God deals with the man who is upright,
And He searches for ways to reward him.'

But, who knows who truly is wise,
And who comprehends the meanings of proverbs?

Chapter 8

¹ Wisdom will make faces brighter,
While impudent faces are hated.

² Watch the mouth of a king
Because of the oath that God swore!

³ Don't depart from his face in a hurry,
And don't go to him for wrong reasons.
For he'll do whatever he pleases;

⁴ And who can ask of the king:
'Why did you make [that decision]?'

⁵ Those who keep the Commandments don't think about bad;
And wise hearts discern right times and right ways.

⁶ For there's a time and a ruling for all;
And the knowledge of men ranges widely.

⁷ But, since no one knows what will happen,
Who can tell him the future?

⁸ No man controls [his own] spirit,
Nor is he able to keep it in check.
None can avoid the day of their deaths,
And none can avoid days of war...
Nor can the irreverent avoid what they're due.

⁹ I have now seen it all...
I've given my heart to all that's under sun...

And all that a man is able to do,
Is just bring bad on himself.

¹⁰ I've seen the irreverent carried to tombs
From a place that is Holy.
Yet, they were praised in the city
For all the things they had done...
And this is also just folly.

¹¹ When no one opposes the wicked,
Men's hearts feel safe in turning toward evil.
¹² Yet, those who are guilty of sins,
Will just go on living their lives.

I know that good comes to those who fear God,
And before Him, all should be in fear.

¹³ For, good doesn't come to the godless,
And what they do doesn't lengthen their days.
Rather, they are just shadows [that pass],
Since they've shown no fear before God.

¹⁴ There is even more folly that's done on the earth...
As when the righteous receive what the guilty deserve,
And the godless receive what the righteous deserve...
Yes, this is also just folly!

¹⁵ So, though I may sing their praises in joy,
There's nothing good that happens to men
Anywhere under the sun,
Other than eating, drinking, and pleasure...
Yes, that's all there is to man's efforts...
It's what he's been given by God
As [his portion] under the sun.

¹⁶ So I turned my heart to learn wisdom
And to overlook what's done on the earth.
For, both day and night, men sleep with [closed] eyes,
So they cannot see all that happens.

¹⁷ Then I started to observe the actions of God,
Which men under the sun haven't noticed.
For, despite all the efforts they put in their search,
They've been unable to find it.
And though the wise speak of knowledge,
They too are unable to find it.
But because I gave my heart to discernment;
These are the things that my heart came to see.

Chapter 9

¹ The deeds of the righteous and wise
Are in the hands of our God.
Yet, with all of their loves and dislikes,
Man cannot comprehend it...

² For, foolish are the ways of all men!

There are things that happen to the righteous,
And there are things that happen to the godless...
And to either can come good or bad.

There are both the clean and unclean;
There are those who bring sacrifices,
And there are those who offer God nothing.
Yet, the same things [happen to] both...
To the good as well as the sinners...
To those who choose to swear oaths,
And to those who fear to swear oaths.

³ In all of this, there is evil
In what is done under the sun...
For the same things happen to both.

Indeed; the sons of men's hearts are filled with what's bad,
As well as madness throughout their whole lives...
And then they go to the grave.

⁴ But, for the living, there is still hope,
Since a living dog is much greater

Than a lion that's died.

⁵ For the living know that they'll die,
While the dead know nothing at all,
Nor do they have a reward,
Since the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶ Their loves and dislikes are both gone,
And their zeal has already perished.
Then, through the age they'll not be involved
In whatever is done under the sun.

⁷ So, eat your bread in contentment,
And drink to your heart with fine wines...
And God will think well of your actions.

⁸ May your clothes always be white,
And may there be plenty of oil for your head.

⁹ Share what you have with the woman you've loved
All the days of your wasted life.
For, this is all that you'll get under the sun,
Since the days of your life are a folly...
Yes, this is the sum of your life
For all of your efforts under the sun.

¹⁰ So, whatever your hands find to do,
Do it with all of your power!
For there's no doing, thinking, wisdom, or knowledge
In the place of the dead where you're going.

¹¹ I turned and I saw that under the sun,
The race isn't won by those fleet of foot,
Nor are battles all won by the mighty.
The wise aren't always those who eat bread;
The discerning aren't always the rich;
Nor are those with knowledge shown favor.

Yet, there's a time and a meeting for all,

¹² And no one knows when this time will arrive.

As fish being caught in a net,
And as birds being trapped in a snare;
The sons of men are caught swiftly
In a bad time that arrives all too quickly.

¹³ I've beheld all this wisdom under sun,
And it rests heavily upon me.

¹⁴ If a city is small with just a few men,
And a mighty king comes to attack it,
Building high siege mounds around it;

¹⁵ And if a wise man who's poor can be found there,
Whose wisdom results in saving that town;
All will forget that he had been poor.

¹⁶ So, this is what I can tell you:
'Wisdom is better than power.'

But the wisdom of the poor is treated with contempt,
And none pay attention to their words.

¹⁷ Yet, the words of the wise who have nothing
Should be heeded over words of the foolish
Who may have been given the power,

¹⁸ Since wisdom is better than weapons of war,
And a single error can destroy all that's good.

Chapter 10

¹ As a dead fly can spoil a good ointment;
A little folly can conquer great wisdom.

² The hearts of the wise are at their right hands,
But the hearts of fools stay on their left.

³ So, whichever way a fool chooses to go;
In his heart, he's sure that he'll fail,
Since he thinks that he cannot succeed.

⁴ If the spirit of a ruler flares against you,
Don't turn away from your place;
For, [patience] will heal all great sins.

⁵ I've observed a wickedness under the sun...
It's when a ruler does something in haste,
⁶ And puts a fool over something important,
While those who've proven their worth are put low...
⁷ I've seen slaves who are riding on horses,
And princes who are walking like slaves on the ground.

⁸ The one who is digging a cesspool
Is also the one who'll fall in it;
And those who move boundary markers,
Will find themselves bitten by snakes.

⁹ Quarry workers may be harmed by the rocks,
And those who split logs are in danger.

¹⁰ If the axe isn't sharp, you'll work harder;
So, doing what's wise paves the way to success.

¹¹ If a snake-charmer whispers and his serpent still bites;
All of his charming is worthless.

¹² Words from a wise mouth bring favor;
But, foolish lips tear it down.

¹³ And if foolish words are spoken at the start;
It will end in what's wicked and crazy.

¹⁴ Since the fool often speaks many words
(Though he doesn't really know what will happen,
Or what will soon come to be);
Who will walk behind and announce him?

¹⁵ The efforts of fools bring them trouble...
For they don't know the right ways to enter a town.

¹⁶ Woe to you, O great city,
Where your king is just a young [man],
And your princes eat meals in the mornings.

¹⁷ Rather, blest is the land
Where the king has been born of nobles,
And whose princes eat at the right times.

For, what they eat makes them strong,
So they will never be shamed.

¹⁸ By sloth and neglect a home [falls apart],
And with idle hands, [its roof] starts to leak.

¹⁹ Bread, wine, and oil are made to cause laughter,
And to bring joy to the living...
But they must also be [paid for].

²⁰ Never curse a king in your mind,
Nor curse the rich in your bedrooms or closets;
For your words will be carried by birds in the skies,
And those with wings will report what you've said.

¹ Scatter your seeds on the water,
And after some time, you will find them.

² Yes, share what you have with seven or eight,
Since you don't know what bad may come to the land.

³ If the clouds become filled, they'll send rain to the ground.
And if a tree falls toward the north of the south,
Wherever it falls, it will stay.

⁴ So, those who look to the wind may not plant,
And those who look to the clouds may not reap.

⁵ For, attempting to know which way the wind blows,
Is like knowing the bones in the womb of a mother...
You don't know the actions of God,
Or any of the things He will do.

⁶ So, start your planting in the morning,
And don't stay your hand 'til the evening;
For you never know what will grow over here,
Or what will grow best over there...
Or if the two will grow well together.

⁷ Daylight is sweet and it's good for the eyes
To be able to see by the sun.

⁸ But, though a man's years may bring him much joy,
He'll also know many dark days...
And all that will come is just folly.

⁹ Take joy, young man, in your youth;
And may your heart do good while you're young.
May your heart walk in ways that are pure,
Not in the ways that you see with your eyes...
For, know that this leads to God's judgment.

¹⁰ So, remove all the rage from your heart,
And all the wicked ways from your flesh;
For, youth's thoughtless ways are all folly!

Chapter 12

¹ Remember your Creator in the days of your youth;
For, bad days will come [all too soon],
And the years will arrive when you'll say,
'I never wanted [to see] them!'

² [It's a time when] the sun becomes dark,
And you'll not see the light of the moon or the stars,
Or the clouds passing by after rain.

³ It's a day when the watchman starts to tremble...
When the powerful man is bent double,
And the grinders cease because they are few.

Then, women will stare from their windows at darkness,

⁴ And they will lock all their doors
In fear of the sounds of those grinding in the market.

Then the sound of a sparrow will wake you;
And the daughters of song will be humbled.

⁵ From above, you'll look down and see
Frightening things on the road.

Then, at the time when almonds should bloom,
The locusts will grow to be many,

And capers will drop on the ground...
For, you'll have gone to your home of the ages.

Then people will circle the market,
Beating their chests in mourning for you.

⁶ For the silver cord has been severed;
The gold decoration is broken;
The bucket at the well has been shattered;
And the wheel has rolled into the pit.

⁷ For, that which is dust went back to the ground
From which it once had been taken;
And the breath has also returned
To the God from whom it was given.

⁸ 'Oh how silly and foolish,'
Says the great congregator.

⁹ Yet to him, came even more wisdom,
And he taught all his knowledge to men...
He traced it all out and composed it as proverbs.

¹⁰ The great congregator searched for the words,
And he wrote them as right ways of truth...

¹¹ As words to the wise and as ox goads...
As nails that are hammered in tight.
They're agreeable things from a shepherd;

¹² So, carefully guard them, my son!

For, many scrolls have been written
(Yes, to them, there's no end),
And spending much time thinking about them
Is just a weariness to the flesh.

¹³ But listen, for this is what I've concluded:
Fear God and keep His Commandments...
This is all that there is for a man!

¹⁴ The rest just leads to judgment by God,
Who decides whether we have been bad or good.

Song of Solomon

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians.

A song written by Solomon around 1000-BCE.

*Note: The Song of Solomon can be some of the most difficult reading in the Bible, for it is a two-way conversation between a man and a woman who are separated by the unlikely distance of the private suite of the king and the place of shepherds in the fields, and just who is speaking isn't always identified. However, remember that it is a song, not a narration. Therefore, to clarify who is speaking, we have placed what appear (from the tenses) to be the woman's words in bold type, and the words of her shepherd lover in italic.*

² May you kiss me with kisses from your mouth,
For, the feel] of your chest is better than wine.

³ And the smell of your scent is much better
Than the odor of all the perfumes
That have been poured in your name...
And because of this, young women have loved you.

⁴ For, they are the ones who drew me toward you,
And toward the scent of your fragrance, we ran.

Though the king has carried me off
Into his private apartments;
I shout in joy and am glad over you,
For I love your chest more than wine,
And what I have for you is [pure] love.

⁵ O daughters of JeruSalem;
I am as pretty and tan
As the tents in the Valley of Cedars,
And as [King] Solomon's leathers.

⁶ Yet, don't bother to look, for I'm very dark,
Because [I've worked hard] in the sun.
For the sons of my mother quarreled with me

And made me work hard in a vineyard...
Yes, I tended vineyards that were not my own.

7 So, tell me, O love by my life;
Where is the place that you tend [your sheep],
And where are you napping at noon?
For I wish to be wrapped all around you
There among your companions of flocks.

*8 Well, if you don't know, O my fair one,
Follow at the heels of the flocks;
For I tend my kids near the tents of the Shepherds.*

*9 As my horse from the chariots of Pharaoh,
Is how I [view] you, my dear one.*

*10 Your cheeks are as pretty as doves,
And your neck is much like the pendant*

*11 That I'll make for you
Out of gold accented with silver.*

12 When the king came here to lie down with me,
The oils I was wearing gave off their scent.

13 But for me, the man that I truly love
Is like a bundle of balsam,
And between my breasts, I want him to stay.

14 For my love is a cluster of cypress...
And like the vineyards of EnGedi.

*15 Look... you're so pretty, my dear one,
And your eyes are like those of doves.*

16 And look... you're so handsome, my dearly-loved man;
And beautiful will be our bed in the shade,

17 Where the beams of our house will be cedar,
And our barns will be made out of cypress.

Chapter 2

1 I am a flower of the fields...
Yes, I am a lily of the valley.

*2 As a lily in the midst of thorn bushes,
Is my dear one among many daughters.*

3 And as an apple among other trees in the grove,
Is my loved one amidst other sons.
To rest in his shadow, is what I desire,
For I've found his fruit to be sweet.

4 So, carry me away to the tavern,
And when we get there, order me love!

5 Cover me with fragrant oils,
And then pile apples upon me...
For, I've been pierced through with love.

6 Now, his left hand is under my head,
And with his right, he's drawing me near.

7 O you daughters of JeruSalem;
Swear by the powers and strengths of the fields
That you won't arise and awaken your love
Until [the time] it's desired.

8 O hear the voice of my dearly-loved man...
Look, he's coming, springing over the mountains,
And leaping above all the hills.

9 For my dearly-loved man is [a fawn],
And a stag among many hinds!

{Look!} He's standing outside of my window,
And peeking at me through the shades.

10 The man that I love is calling and says,
Get up and come here, my dear one...
*Yes, my fair one and dove;

11 *For look, the winter has passed,
And the rains have poured down and ended.

12 *Flowers have blossomed throughout the whole land,
And the time for pruning's arrived.

*You can hear the voices of doves calling out;
13 The fig trees are putting out buds;
And you can smell the blossoms on grape vines.*

*So, arise and come here, my dear one...
Get up and come here, my dove!
14 Come, my dove, and stay near the rocks
That are piled outside of the wall.*

*Please let me see what you look like,
And let me hear your voice once again,
For I love the way that you speak,
And I [love to gaze at] your beauty.
15 So, grab hold of the foxes destroying the vines;
For my grapevines are now in full bloom!’*

16 Yes, my dearly-loved man is for me,
And I am his one and only.
But he’ll be [outside] tending lilies,
Until a new day when the clouds will be gone.

17 O my dearly-loved man;
Be like the fawn or a buck among hinds,
And [stay nearby] in the mountains.

Chapter 3

1 During the nights, there in my bed;
Whole-souled, I searched for the one that I love.
But though I searched, I was unable to find him...
I called to him, but he didn’t reply.

2 So I’ll get up and go through the city,
Then I’ll search the markets and squares
For the one that I love with my whole soul.

Well, I searched, but I couldn’t find him.

3 And then they found me... the ones keeping guard...
Those who do rounds in the city.
[And I asked], ‘Have you seen the love of my life?’

4 But, shortly after I passed them,
I found the love of my life.
I grabbed hold of him and didn't let go,
Then I took him to the house of my mother...
To the bedroom of the one who conceived me.

5 O daughters of JeruSalem;
Swear by the powers and strengths of the fields
That you won't arise and awaken your love
Until [the time] it's desired.

6 *Who is this woman that comes from the desert
Like smoke arising from the odor
Of myrrh and frankincense, and the powders of all the perfumers?*

7 Look... there's King Solomon's bed
With sixty mighty men standing 'round it
From among all of Israel's great ones.

8 Each one is holding his broadsword,
And in ways of war, they all have been trained.
They wear their swords at their thighs,
[And they keep watch] through the night.

9 King Solomon has a carriage made from Lebanon's cedars,
10 Which has columns of silver, couches lined with gold,
And purple carpets that line all its steps...
Gifts of love from the daughters of JeruSalem.

11 So, come and behold, O daughters of Zion...
See Solomon and the garland he received from his mother
On the day that he took me,
And when his heart was so filled with joy!

Chapter 4

1 *{Look!} You're so pretty my dear one...
See how pretty you are!
Your eyes look like doves inside of your veil;
Your hair is as herds of Gilead's goats.*

² *Your teeth [are as white] as freshly-sheared sheep
After they've come from the bath...
All of whom have born twins,
And none are childless among them.*

³ *Your lips are like scarlet ribbons,
And the way that you talk is so pretty.
Your cheeks, when they're outside your veil,
Are red like pomegranate skins.*

⁴ *Your neck is like the tower of David
(The one that was built for protection),
In which hangs the shields of a thousand,
As well as the arrows of his mighty.*

⁵ *And your breasts are just like twin fawns,
Which are feeding there among lilies.*

⁶ *But, until a new day arrives
When all the shadows are gone,
I'll go to the mountain of myrrh,
And wait for you at the frankincense hill.*

⁷ *For, entirely fair is my dear one...
Yes, she is totally perfect.*

⁸ *So, come from Lebanon, my bride...
From Lebanon, please come here to me!
Come to me through the Archway of Trust...
From the peaks of Shinar and Hermon...
From that mountain of leopards and lions.*

⁹ *For, you have captured my heart,
O my sister and bride...
You've captured my heart with your eyes,
And with your neck of garlands [and flowers].*

¹⁰ *Pretty are both your breasts,
O my sister and bride.*

*They are better than the finest of wines,
And the scent of your clothes exceeds all perfumes.*

¹¹ *Your lips are like honey as it drips from the comb...
Honey and milk are under your tongue,
And as frankincense, is the odor your clothes.*

¹² *But you're locked in a garden, my sister and bride...
Like a well that's been covered and sealed.*

¹³ *All the messages that you have sent
Are like pomegranate gardens to me...
They are like the fruit from the trees...
They're like the scent of cypress and nard...*

¹⁴ *Yes, cypress, nard, calamus and saffron,
And the smell of cinnamon and Lebanon's cedars,
Along with aloes and the best of perfumes.*

¹⁵ *They're like life-giving springs in a garden,
And the wells of the waters of life,
Which from Lebanon, still pour down upon us.*

¹⁶ *So wake up, O north wind... come now!
And south wind, breathe life on my garden...
Come and let its scents flow!*

Chapter 5

¹ May the man that I love enter his garden,
And may he eat the fruit from its trees!

*Yes, I went to my garden, my sister and bride,
And I gathered my harvest of spices and myrrh.
I've eaten my bread and its honey,
And I've drunk its milk and its wine.*

Please eat, my dear one, and drink...

Let's both get drunk, my dearly-loved man!

² Though I [want to] sleep, my heart tells me no;
For my loved one has knocked on my door, and he said:

*'Open to me, O my sister...
Yes open, my dear one and my perfect dove.
For my head is covered with dew,
And my curls [are wet] with the mist of the night.*

*3 I've removed all of my underclothes...
But, must I put them back on?
I have also washed off my feet...
Must I run and get them dirty again?'*

4 Then my dearly-loved man stuck his hand through [my door],
And he was aroused [by the touch of my skin].

5 So I got up and opened to him,
As my hands were dripping with myrrh...
My fingers dripped myrrh on the lock.

6 But, when I opened for the one that I love;
The man that I love wasn't there.

With my whole soul, I yearned for his voice;
So I searched, but I couldn't find him...
I called for him, but he couldn't hear me.

7 Then they found me (the guards who make rounds through the town)...

They struck me and hurt me, and took off my wrap (Those who keep watch at the walls).

8 So, O JeruSalem's daughters;
Swear by the powers and strengths of the fields...
Please tell me if you've seen my dearly-loved man,
For I've been pierced through by love!

9 Who is this man that you love above all,
O prettiest one among women?
Who is this one whom you love so dearly
That you've bound us with such an oath?

10 My man has white skin and red cheeks...
He's the choicest and my one and only.

¹¹ His head is like gold from Kephas;
His curls are flowing like fir trees,
And they are as black as a crow.

¹² His eyes are like doves near deep pools...
As though bathed in milk over water.

¹³ His mouth is like a bowl filled with spice,
Which is set out to give a fresh smell.

His lips are also like lilies,
Dripping with full-bodied myrrh;

¹⁴ And his hands are like gold from Tharsis and gems.

His belly is a tablet of ivory,
Upon which is mounted a sapphire.

¹⁵ His legs are like columns of marble,
Resting on bases of gold.

He looks like the finest of Lebanon's cedars,

¹⁶ And his [voice] is desirable and sweet.

O daughters of JeruSalem;

He's the man that I love and my dearest one!

Chapter 6

¹ O prettiest one among women;
Where has he wandered... where has he gone,
So we can search on your behalf?

² My loved one has gone to his garden
To gather his bowls filled with spices.
He's gone to tend to his garden,
And to gather his lilies.

³ I belong to my dearly-loved man,
And my dearly-loved man is [just] mine...
This one who is tending his lilies.

⁴ *You're so pretty, O dear one...
As pleasing [to me] as JeruSalem.*

But you're disturbing as [men] preparing for war.

*⁵ So, turn your eyes from before me,
Because they excite me too much.*

*For your hair is like that of Gilead's goats,
⁶ And your teeth [are as white] as freshly-sheared sheep,
Which have just come from the bath,
All of whom have born twins,
And none are childless among them.*

*Your lips are like scarlet ribbons,
And the way that you talk is so pretty.
⁷ Your cheeks that show through your veil,
Are as red as pomegranate skins.*

*⁸ Yet, there are now sixty queens,
And eighty concubines more,
As well as unnumbered young women...
⁹ And one of them is my perfect dove!*

*She's the only daughter of her mother...
The most-loved one of the mother who gave birth.
The daughters and queens call her blest,
And the concubines all [sing] her praises.*

*¹⁰ 'Who is this one that looks like the dawn
And is as fair as the moon...
The chosen one of the sun,
Who's as disturbing as men preparing for war?'*

*¹¹ To the grove of walnuts, I traveled...
I went down to gaze on their fruits,
Which are there by the stream in the valley.
I went there to see if grapevines had flowered,
And to view the pomegranate blossoms.*

¹² For my soul had made me like the chariots of nobles.

*¹³ Please return, O Shulamite girl!
Return, return, for I'm searching for you!*

*How would you know it's the Shulamite girl?
She arrives like an army in the camp.*

Chapter 7

*1 How pretty are your feet in your sandals,
O you daughter of nobles.
Your thighs are shaped like fine pendants...
The works of the hands of a craftsman.*

*2 Your navel is like a finely-shaped bowl,
Not lacking a mixture of wines.
Your belly is like a mound of best grain,
That's wrapped within fields of lilies.*

*3 Your breasts are like two young fawns...
A pair of twins of the doe.*

*4 Your neck is a tower of ivory,
And your eyes are like lakes in HeshBon
(Those by the Gates of Many Daughters).*

*Like Lebanon's Tower, is your nose...
The one overlooking Damascus.*

*5 Your head [has the beauty of] CarMel,
And its braids are like purple cloth,
In which the king's wrapped as he passes.*

*6 How beautiful and delicious you are, O my love,
In the luxurious things you possess.*

*7 In greatness, you're much like a palm tree,
And your breasts are as clusters of grapes.*

*8 So I said that I'd climb up that palm tree,
And to its top, I would cling.
For your breasts are like clusters of grapes on the vine;
The scent of your nose is like apples;*

9 And [the taste] of your [mouth] is like finest wine.

I'm going to my dearly-loved man straight away,
For [I need him close] to my lips and my teeth.

¹⁰ I'll turn to the man that I love,
And he will then turn toward me.

¹¹ Come, O man that I love;
We'll run to the fields and lodge in the towns!
¹² We'll get up early [and go into] the vineyards,
To see if the grapevines have bloomed;
To see if the flowers have blossomed;
To see if the pomegranates have buded;
And there, I'll give you my breasts.

¹³ The mandrakes have given their odor,
And new and old fruit trees are outside our doors.
O man that I love; I've saved them for you!

Chapter 8

¹ O man that I love,
Whom I'd grant to nurse at my mother's breasts;
If I found you outside, I would kiss you,
And let none ever show disrespect.

² Yes, I would come there and take you...
I'd bring you to the house of my mother,
And into the room where I was conceived,
Where I'd allow you to drink the spiced wine
That comes from my pomegranate nectar.

³ O his left hand is now under my head,
And with his right hand, he's holding me close.

⁴ O daughters of JeruSalem;
Swear by the powers and strengths of the fields
That you won't arise and awaken your love
Until [the time] it's desired.

⁵ Who is this that ascends from the desert,
Hanging onto the man that she loves?

*From under apple trees, I awoke you,
And there was your mother beside you...
The one who through pain gave you birth.*

*6 Please set me as a seal on your heart,
And as a seal on your arm!
For, as strong as death is [my] love for you,
And [my] zeal is as hard as the grave.*

*It sparks with the fire of [love's] flames,
7 Which can't be extinguished with water,
Nor can the rivers engulf it.
But should a man give all he owns for his love,
[Most] others would think him [a fool].*

*8 'Our sister is [young] and she still has no breasts;
So, what should we do on the day she's engaged?
9 If she should be like a wall,
We'd build parapets of silver around her.
But, if she should be like a door,
With cedar planks, we would board her.'*

10 I'm a wall and my breasts are like towers;
So in their eyes, I let them find peace.

*11 In BaAl Hermon, there once was a vineyard,
Which was owned by Solomon, [the king].
Then to others, he entrusted his vineyard,
Who would thereafter maintain it.
And all men had to pay for its fruit,
With a thousand pieces of silver.*

*12 [For he said:] 'The vineyard before me is mine!
So to Solomon, you must pay your thousands,
And two hundred more to those tending his fruit.'*

13 O you who now sit in the garden;
My companions have noticed your voice,
And the things that you've said to me.

So, man that I love, you must now run away...
Be like the doe or the fawn of the hinds,
And [hide] in the mountain of spices!

Isaiah

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians
Written by IsaiAh over a period from around 800-BCE to around 730-BCE.

Is it poetry or isn't it poetry?

Something that only a Bible translator would notice is that whenever God or His spokesperson are quoted, the words were in the form of Hebrew poetry, since there is a definite cadence that can be noted in the original language. Therefore, since this is the chosen style of God, we have rendered it as it should be, in poetic verse.

Why did God and His spokesperson communicate through poetry?

Because poetic words provide memory aids that can be easily recalled to mind, so that the messages could be spread throughout the population via the most common medium of communication at the time, song.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns:

Another thing that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in many of the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His messages through a mediator, who appears to have been referred to as 'The Word' throughout the text. So, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that this is where the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ These are the visions that IsaiAh (the son of Amoz) saw during the reigns of UzziAh, JoTham, Ahaz, and HezekiAh, the kings of Judah about things that were to come upon Judah and JeruSalem.

² Hear, O heavens, and [pay attention] O earth;
For Jehovah spoke and said this:
'I fathered sons and I raised them,
But they've paid no attention to Me.

³ 'Though every ox knows its owner
And every burro knows its own master's barn;

By IsraEl, I am unknown,
And My people do not understand.’

⁴ So, woe to you, sinful nation;
For you’re a people who are filled with your sins...
You’re an evil seed and lawless sons,
Since you have abandoned Jehovah,
And IsraEl’s Holy One, you’ve provoked...
So now you’ve been pushed to the rear!

⁵ Why be struck down for [your] lawless ways?
For your head is in a miserable condition
And your heart is in great distress...

⁶ Nothing is healthy from head to foot.

Your wounds and contusions are inflamed and unhealed,
Since no one has dressed them or applied oil,
Nor have they come here to wrap them.

⁷ Your land has been completely destroyed
And all of your cities are burned.
They’ve devoured the [land] that’s before you...
By strangers, it has been destroyed,
And foreign peoples have wiped it away.

⁸ The daughter of Zion has been abandoned
Like an old shack in a vineyard
Or a shed in a cucumber garden,
Or like a city that’s being besieged.

⁹ So unless Jehovah of Armies
Should choose to leave us a seed...
Like Sodom and GomorRah, we’ll be!

¹⁰ Hear the word of Jehovah
O you rulers of Sodom
And you people of GomorRah...
Pay attention to the Laws of our God,

¹¹ For He is asking you this:

‘What good are the things that you offer to Me?
Of your whole-burnt-offerings of rams,
I’ve received more than enough...
As I also have with the fat of your lambs!

‘I never asked for the blood of your bulls,
Or the blood of your billy goats...
¹² And I don’t want you standing before Me!
Who asked for your hands to contribute such things?

‘So I’ll not let you trample My courtyard;
¹³ And if you should bring fine flour to Me,
You will do it in vain...
Since I find your incense disgusting!
Nor will I accept your New Moons,
Or your Sabbaths or holiday feasts.

¹⁴ ‘With My whole soul, I’ve come to detest
All of your fasts and your Sabbaths...
And your holidays and your New Moons!
For with you, I am filled [to the brim],
So I’ll not [overlook] your sins anymore.

¹⁵ ‘Then I’ll turn My eyes when you hold out your hands
And not listen, no matter how often you pray,
Because your hands are so filled with blood!

¹⁶ ‘Why not bathe yourselves and get clean...
Remove your wicked [ways] from My eyes?
Stop being bad and ¹⁷ learn to do good...
Insist on [judgments that are] fair!

‘If you’ll rescue those who’ve been wronged,
Decide [in favor of] orphans,
And give justice to widows...

¹⁸ Then you can plead before me again,’ says Jehovah!

‘Then, if your sins should be crimson red,
As white as snow, [I will make them].

And even if they are like scarlet,
I'll make them as white as fine wool!

¹⁹ 'If you should choose to listen to Me,
You'll eat good things that come from the ground.

²⁰ But, if you won't listen and choose to rebel,
I'll send the sword to consume you.'

[Yes, Jehovah actually] said these things.

²¹ 'How did Zion, that city of faith,
Become a whore so worthy of judgment?
For, murderers exist where justice once slept;

²² All of your silver is tainted;
And your merchants all water their wine.

²³ 'Your rulers resist all persuasion,
And they serve as partners to thieves.

They are also lovers of bribes...
None will stand up for orphans,
And none will give justice to widows!

²⁴ 'Because of this,' says Jehovah of Armies;
'Woe to you, O IsraEl's mighty!
For My rage against the contrary won't cease,
And on My enemies, I'm now passing judgment!

²⁵ 'Against you, I'll be raising My hand,
And I'll scrub you until you get clean!
I'll destroy those resisting persuasion;
I'll remove all the lawless among you;

²⁶ And I will cut down your proud.

'Then I'll give you judges like those in the past,
And counselors like those who lived long ago.

And the Righteous City, you will be called...

The trusted mother-city of Zion.

²⁷ ‘Through justice and mercy, she will be saved,
²⁸ When I break the lawless and sinners...
And those leaving Jehovah are gone.
²⁹ ‘Of the idols that they have preferred
And those [sacred] gardens that they have loved,
They will then be ashamed.
³⁰ For they’ll be like dropping pine needles
And like parks that don’t have any water.
³¹ ‘Their strength [will be weak] like the stubble of hemp,
And the things that they do will become the sparks
That burn the lawless and sinners...
Flames that no one will come to put out.’

Chapter 2

¹ These are the words that came to IsaiAh (the son of Amoz) regarding Judah and JeruSalem.

² In the last days,
The Mountain of Jehovah will be seen,
And the House of God will be over the hills,
Raised above highest mountains,
And all the nations will go there.

³ Many nations will go there and say,
‘Come, let’s ascend the mountain of Jah...
Let’s go to the [Temple] of Jacob’s God.
For there, He will show us His way,
And that’s the way we will go.’

Then, Law will come out of Zion,
And the Word of the Lord from JeruSalem.

⁴ He’ll judge in the midst of the nations,
And He will correct many peoples.

Then they’ll cut their swords into plow shears,
And [shape] their spears into sickles;

[Against other] nations, they won't raise their swords,
Nor will they learn war anymore.

⁵ House of Jacob; Return to the light of Jehovah!

⁶ For, from the house of Jacob, He's now turned [His face],
Since it's become the same as it was at the start...

A [land] that is filled up with takers,
And where Philistine children are born.

⁷ They've filled their [land] with silver and gold,
And there is no limit to all of their wealth.

They've also filled it with horses,
And chariots they have, beyond numbers.

⁸ With the disgusting works of their hands,
They've also filled up their land...
They bow before things that their fingers have made ...

⁹ To such things, the people bow low,
Bringing disgrace to each person.
So, now there's no way I can spare them!

¹⁰ Therefore, go to the rocks and hide in the ground
In fear of Jehovah and the glory of His Might;
For He's coming to wipe out the land!

¹¹ The eyes of Jehovah are lofty,
While the eyes of men are debased;
So in that day, these men will be low,
And Jehovah will be lifted high.

¹² For the day of Jehovah of Armies
Is coming upon the insulting and proud.
And those who are high and important
Will soon be brought [to the ground].

¹³ Then, all of Lebanon's tall cedars,
And every great oak tree of Bashan...

¹⁴ Yes, every high mountain and every high hill...

¹⁵ Every high tower and every high wall...

¹⁶ All ships in the seas and their beauty,
¹⁷ And every man will be small.
For the pride of men will [fall] in that day,
And Jehovah alone will be high.

¹⁸ When He arises to wipe out the land,
Men will then hide [all the idols]
That they have made with their hands.

¹⁹ They will hide them in caves,
In cracks between rocks
And in burrows under the ground,
Because of their fear of Jehovah,
And before the might of His glory.

²⁰ Then the disgusting things that they've made with their hands
(Those worthless things made of silver and gold,
Which they've made to bow down before)
Will be tossed before bats in their caves
And in the cracks between rocks,
In fear of Jehovah and the might of His glory,
When He arises to wipe out the land.

Chapter 3

¹ So, stop acting like men who breathe through their noses,
For [what value] do they really have?
Consider Jehovah of Armies (our Lord);
For throughout Judah and JeruSalem,
He'll remove the men and the women,
Along with the strength of [their] bread
And all the strength of [their] water...

² Their giants, their strong, their soldiers and judges...
Their prophets, their thinkers and elders...

³ Their generals and finest of counselors,
As well as their wisest of builders...
The most discerning among them.

⁴ Then He'll appoint young men as their rulers
In order to make them look foolish,
⁵ And to make the people act like they're drunk.
The men will all be rebellious
And arise against their own neighbors;
Young boys will be attacking the old,
And by those without any honor,
Their mighty ones will be shamed.

⁶ Then, men will grab hold of their brothers,
And families will go to their fathers and say,
'You have clothes; so, you be our leader...
Then you can provide us with food!'

⁷ But, in that day, such men will reply:
'I will not act as your leader...
Since I have no bread or clothes in my home,
I don't choose to serve as your ruler.'

⁸ Yes, JeruSalem has been forsaken,
And Judah has now been debased!
For the tongues of their people speak against [God]...
They just discuss what is lawless
And refuse to make any changes.

⁹ Their glory is also debased,
For their faces no longer show any shame,
And they publicly announce and admit
To sins that are as those of Sodom.

So now, woe to their souls;
For, they have sought wicked council!

¹⁰ They say, 'Let's [lock] up the righteous
Because they've become inconvenient.'

So, they'll reap the fruitage of their bad deeds,

¹¹ And woe will come to the lawless.
For the evil that their hands are now doing
Will soon be brought back on them!

¹² ‘O my people;
Those whom you owe are gleaning from you,
And those whom you owe are your lords!

‘O my people;
Those who say you are blest, have misled you,
And they’re [clouding] the paths for your feet.

¹³ For you’re being judged by Jehovah...
Against His own, He’s arisen as judge.

¹⁴ Jehovah Himself is judging the elders,
As well as those ruling His people.

‘And you, [O elders and rulers];
Why are you burning My vineyard,
And why are the poor [now slaves] in your homes?

¹⁵ Yes, why are you wronging My people,
And disgracing the faces of the poor?’
This was asked by Jehovah of Armies (our Lord).

¹⁶ And Jehovah’s said:

‘Because the daughters of Zion are proud
And walk with their [noses] held high,
As they beckon with their eyes and walk tiny steps,
And drag their underwear beneath their feet;

¹⁷ I’ll bring down the daughters of Zion,
And expose their true state in that day.

¹⁸ I’ll remove the glory of their clothes...
The fringes, crescents, ¹⁹ and necklaces that they wear,
As well as their facial adornments.

²⁰ ‘[I’ll remove] their armlets and bracelets...
Their wreaths, their rings, and right armbands...

²¹ Their earrings, purple fringes, and all decorations,

²² As well as the cloths for their homes...

Their coverings through which you can see...

²³ Their fine linens interwoven with scarlet and blue...

The linens embroidered with gold and blue threads,
And the lightweight covers for their divans.

²⁴ ‘Then instead of pleasant odors, there’ll be only dust...
Instead of belts, they’ll tie ropes on their [waists].
Yes, because of the things that they’re doing,
Instead of gold [combs], they’ll be bald...
And instead of fine purple underclothes,
They will be forced to wear sackcloth.

²⁵ ‘Then the sons you love most will fall by the sword,
As your mighty are disgraced and cut down.

²⁶ You’ll mourn [the loss] of your [most precious things],
And then you’ll be left all alone,
Beaten down to the ground.’

¹ In that day;

Seven women will reach for one man,
And this is what they will say:

*We’ll [make] our own bread and wear our own clothes;
But, let us be called by your name
In order to remove all our scorn!*

² ‘In that day;

The glory of the council of God
Will shine upon the whole earth
In order to raise and bring glory
To those few in IsraEl who still remain.

³ ‘And the few in JeruSalem and Zion
Will then be called Holy Ones...
This will happen to those in JeruSalem

[Whose names] have been written for life.’

⁴ Then Jehovah will wash away all the filth
Of the sons and daughters of Zion.

He'll remove all the blood from JeruSalem's midst
With the spirit of judgment and fire.

⁵ When He comes, every place on Mount Zion
Will stand in the shade of a cloud every day,
And the light of a fire every night...
So His glory will then be their shelter.
⁶ It'll be a shade of protection from heat,
And a shelter from rain and bad weather.

¹ I'll now sing [a song] to the One that I love...
A song of my loved One concerning His vineyard.

‘A vineyard belonged to One who was loved...
A horn of plenty in a bountiful land.

² Around it, He built a fence and palisade,
Then the choicest of grapevines, He planted.

‘In its midst, He then built a tower,
And thereafter, He dug out a winepress.
Then he waited for grapes to start growing,
But all that grew was thorn bushes.’

³ Now, you who dwell in JeruSalem...
Yes, you men of Judea...
Judge between Him and His vineyard!

⁴ What can He do for His vineyard
That hasn't already been done?
He waited for it to grow grapes,
But all it produced was thorn bushes.

⁵ So I'll tell you what He'll do to His vineyard:
He'll remove its gate and let it be ravaged...
He'll demolish its walls and let it be trampled.

⁶ He'll abandon His vineyard, so it won't be pruned,
Nor will it be hoed anymore.

He'll return it [to the way it once was]...
An uncultivated land of thorn bushes.
And to the clouds, He'll then give the order
Not to provide it with rain.

⁷ The house of IsraEl is the vineyard
Of Jehovah of Armies,
And Judah's people are His beloved plants,
On whom He waited to give Him what's due.
But they just produced lawless ways...
Instead of a tower of justice,
Cries of distress is all that they brought.

⁸ So, woe to those who gather in homes
And in the fields roundabout.
For, after your neighbors are taken away,
You'll live all alone in the land,

⁹ Since Jehovah of Armies has heard what you've done!

So, where there were once many houses,
There will just be desolation,
And no one will live there again.

¹⁰ And though you'll plow with ten teams of oxen,
You'll harvest just enough to fill one clay pot.
And though you may plant six large measures,
Just three measures will grow.

¹¹ So, woe to those who rise early
To spend their days chasing liquor
And stay up late as they drink it;
For, they will burn along with their wine.

¹² They drink to [the sounds] of the harp and the lute
Along with pipes and tambourines,
As they fail to think of the works of Jehovah...
The works of His hands, they fail to consider.

¹³ So my people will all become captives
Because they've forgotten their Lord.
Many will die from hunger and thirst;
¹⁴ For the place of the dead has widened its soul
And opened its mouth to consume.
Then the glorious will fall with the great and the rich,
And all of those who respect them.

¹⁵ My people will then be cut down,
And their men will all be dishonored...
Yes, those who [walked proud] will be shamed.
¹⁶ But the justice of Jehovah of Armies will rise...
And because He has [proven His] justice,
Our Holy God will be glorified.

¹⁷ Then, there will come those who will rip you apart,
And on your bulls, they will graze...
Yes, those who will come to wipe out your land
Will also be eating your lambs.

¹⁸ So, woe to those drawing sins as with ropes,
And lawless ways as the yoke on a bull...
¹⁹ Those saying, 'Let Him come and do what He wants...
Let Him do it soon, so we'll see it...
Let the Holy One's Will come to pass,
So we can all know what it is!'

²⁰ And woe to those who call evil good
And those who are calling good bad...
Those who turn what's dark into light
And turn what's light into darkness...
Those who make bitter sweet
And those who turn sweet into bitter.

²¹ Woe to those who think themselves wise,
And think that they have greater knowledge.
²² Woe to your strong ones and those drinking wine...
The mighty who are mixing their liquor...

²³ Those who favor the wicked, because they've been bribed,
And from the righteous, snatch justice.

²⁴ For this, they'll be burned up like stubble...
They'll be burned like coals leaping with flames.
Their roots and flowers will be turned into dust
For rejecting the Laws of Jehovah of Armies...
They've despised IsraEl's Holy One's words.

²⁵ For with His people, Jehovah of Armies is angry,
And to strike them, He's lifted His hand.

[The smell] of rotting flesh will anger the mountains...
For like manure on the roads, they'll become.
Yet, even this won't [soften] His rage
Or still the raising of His hand.

²⁶ So He'll lift a sign to nations far away ...
He'll whistle to them from the ends of the earth,
And they'll take quick notice and come here.

²⁷ They won't get hungry or tired,
Nor will they slumber or sleep.
They'll not untie their belts from their waists,
Nor will they loosen their sandals.

²⁸ With stretched-tight bows [they will come],
And with arrows that they've sharpened.
The feet of their horses will be like hard rocks,
And blasts will come from their chariot wheels.

²⁹ Like lions, they will then advance
With all their cubs walking beside them...
They'll snatch you and yell like wild beasts,
As they carry you off...
When no one will be there to save you.

³⁰ Because of you, they'll yell in that day
Like the sounds of the roar of the seas.
Then you'll look to the heavens above,

And [to the ground] underneath you,
And all you will see is hard darkness
In your terrible time of distress.

Chapter 6

¹ It was in the year King UzziAh died, that I saw Jehovah sitting on a high, lofty throne, and the [Temple] was filled with His glory. ² The seraphim stood all around Him, each of whom had six wings that touched the wings next to them. Their first two wings covered their front sides, the second two wings covered their feet, and they flew with their third two wings. ³ They were shouting to each other and saying:

'Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of Armies...
The whole earth is filled with His glory!'

⁴ Well, the threshold of the [Temple shook] at the sound of their shouting, and the [Temple] became filled with smoke. ⁵ And I said: 'Oh, I'm so unworthy and hurt by this, because I'm just an unclean man who lives among people with unclean lips. Yet, now I have beheld the King, Jehovah of Armies... I've seen Him with my own eyes!'

⁶ Then one of the seraphim was sent to me; and in his hand, he carried a [live] coal that he had taken from the Altar with tongs. ⁷ So touched it to my mouth and said:

'{Look!} Now that your lips have been touched by this coal,
It has removed all of your lawless deeds
And it has purged you of all your sins.'

⁸ Then I heard the voice of Jehovah ask:

'Whom shall I send...

Yes, who will go to these people?'

And I replied: 'Look! Here I am, send me!'

⁹ And He said,

'Then, go to these people and say,
*When it comes to hearing, you'll hear,
But no way will you comprehend.
And when it comes to seeing, you'll see,
But no way will you understand!*

¹⁰ ‘Since the hearts of these people have hardened,
Their ears now listen too slowly,
And their eyes cannot see, since their eyelids are closed.
Thus, they will not hear with their ears
Nor will they see with their eyes.
So their hearts will not understand
And make them turn back, so I’d heal them.’

¹¹ And I asked, ‘How long [will this be true], O Lord?’

And He answered:

‘Until all the cities lie wasted
And there are no people living there anymore...
Until no one is left in their homes
And until the whole land has been ravaged.

¹² ‘Then, God will stay far from these people,
As those who survived multiply.

¹³ But, only a tenth will remain there,
For the rest will be [cut down] like pines.

‘However; like an acorn that stays in its shell,
The holy seed will remain in the stump.’

Chapter 7

¹ It was in the days of Ahaz (the son of JoTham and the grandson of UzziAh) the king of Judah, that Rezin \(the king of Aram\) and Pekah (the son of RemaliAh) the king of IsraEl came to JeruSalem to wage war against it... however, they were unable to conquer it. ² But when the house of David was told that Aram had joined forces with Ephraim, they were startled and the souls of the people were shaken like a forest of trees in a windstorm.

³ Then the Lord said this to IsaiAh: ‘You and your son JaSub (the one whom you left behind) must now go to meet with [King] Ahaz at the upper pool of the washer women, ⁴ and you must tell him...

Do nothing at all and don’t be afraid...

Don’t let those two pieces of smoking wood

*Make you feel weak [in your knees].
For, when I [send] them My rage,
You will be saved once again.*

⁵ ‘And as for the sons of RemaliAh and Aram; Because they met and wickedly agreed ⁶ to come to Judah together so as to conquer and rule over you by setting TabeAl’s son [on the throne]... ⁷ tell him that Jehovah of Armies said this:

*‘There’s no way that your plan will succeed...
It will never take place.*

⁸ *‘For the head of Aram is Damascus,
And the head of Damascus is Rezin.
Thus in six, plus another five years,
These people will destroy Ephraim.*

⁹ *‘For the head of Ephraim is Samaria,
And the head of Samaria is the son of RemaliAh...
But, none will understand, unless they believe.’*

¹⁰ Then Jehovah [sent a message to] Ahaz, that said:

¹¹ ‘Ask for a sign from Jehovah your God,
Whether from the depths or the heights.’

¹² And Ahaz replied: ‘There’s no way that I’ll ask, nor will I put Jehovah to the test!’

¹³ So [the messenger] said,
‘Listen to this, O house of David...
If it’s too unimportant a thing
To supply enough men for a battle;
How can you fight a war for the Lord?’

¹⁴ ‘Now, Jehovah will give you a sign...
{Look!} A virgin will get pregnant and then bear a son
Whose name you must call, ImManuEl.

¹⁵ He’ll eat butter and honey before he is sure
Whether he wants to be wicked or do what is right.

¹⁶ ‘But, before the boy can know good from bad;
By resisting wicked persuasions,
He will choose to do what is right.
Then the land of two kings of which you’re afraid
Will be totally abandoned!

¹⁷ But first, God will bring Assyria’s king
Upon you, your people, and the house of your father...
They’ll be days unlike any that have come
Since the time that Ephraim split from Judah.

¹⁸ ‘For in that day, Jehovah will whistle
And call for the flies on the [Nile],
And for Assyria’s bees.

¹⁹ Then they’ll come and settle in your valleys...
In the burrows, rocks, and in caves...
In every hole and in all the trees.

²⁰ ‘In that day, Jehovah will speak,
And He’ll tell Assyria’s king
To bring his razor and shave off those drunks
[Who live] on the river’s [east banks].
Then he’ll shave their heads and the hair on their feet,
Before he cuts off their beards.

²¹ ‘But, in that day, each man that remains
Will have a cow and two sheep.

²² So, there will be milk for those who remain,
And [plenty of] butter and honey.

²³ ‘Yet, in that day;
Where once grew thousands of grapevines
Valued at thousands in silver;
Only thorn bushes will grow.
For, grape cultivation will have ceased.

²⁴ Then, with bows and arrows they’ll [hunt] there;
For the land will be wild and covered with thorns.

²⁵ ‘But thereafter, they’ll plow up the mountains,
And they won’t be afraid anymore;
For that uncultivated land of thorn bushes
Will then become a pasture for sheep,
And a land that is trampled by oxen.’

Chapter 8

¹ Then the Lord said this to me:

‘Go [buy] a large, new scroll of papyrus,
And write upon it with the pen of a man
About the plundering and looting
That will be coming upon them!

² ‘Then appoint these two trustworthy men
As witnesses on my behalf:
Choose UriAh the Priest,
And ZechariAh, the son of BarachiAh.’

³ Well after that, I [had sex] with Prophetess, and she got pregnant and gave birth to a son. Then the Lord said to me:

‘Call his name, Quick Gloom and Swift Looting;

⁴ For, before the child learns how to call
To his own father and mother,
Someone will carry the power of Damascus
And Samaria’s spoils to Assyria’s king.’

⁵ Then the Lord spoke to me again and said:

⁶ ‘Because these people have refused to return
To SiloaAm’s waters in peace,
But prefer Rezin (the son of RemeliAh)
To serve instead as their king;
{Look!} Jehovah will be bringing against them
The waters of a great mighty river...

The king of Assyria and his glory.

⁷ For, he will then enter their valleys
And walk right up to their walls.

⁸ ‘Thereafter, he’ll sweep into in Judah
And overrun it up to its neck.

So then, the out-spread wings of his camp
Will fill the whole [land] of ImManuEl!

⁹ ‘Know this, O nations, and then be nailed shut!
Pay attention, all you peoples to the ends of the earth...
Ready yourselves to be nailed down tight!
And if you should ever grow strong after that,
Once more, you’ll be nailed down tight!

¹⁰ ‘Then, no matter whom you ask for solutions;
Jehovah will wipe them away.
And no matter what you say you’ll accomplish;
Because Jehovah’s [against] you,
Nothing that you do will succeed!

¹¹ ‘For, this is what Jehovah has said:
*These people have resisted [My] persuasion
About the ways they should go.*
And they say, ¹² What You’ve told us is too hard [to do]!

‘Yet, whatever they’ve said is too hard to do
Should not be feared or disturbing.

¹³ Just treat Jehovah of Armies as holy,
And only Him, should they fear...

¹⁴ If they’ll yield to Him, He’ll be their Most Holy,
And upon no stones will they stumble,
Nor upon any rocks will they trip!

‘But the house of Jacob is [now] in the trap
Of those lying in wait in their valleys.

¹⁵ Since many of their people are already weak,
They’re about to fall and be broken.
Then [those armies] will come and carry the people
Away from the land where they’ve lived so securely!

¹⁶ ‘Then, it will be easy to see
Which ones were [the chosen and] sealed,

And which wouldn't [follow] the Law.

¹⁷ For, one will say, *I'll wait on The God
From whom the house of Jacob has now turned its face,
And in Him, I will put all my trust...*

¹⁸ {Look} Both the children God gave me and I.

'Then, to the house of IsraEl, they will serve
As the miracles and signs of Jehovah of Armies...
The One who dwells on Mount Zion.

¹⁹ 'And if, at that time, they should tell you
To seek those who can interpret the omens
That are sent by those who speak from the ground,
Or to those who speak empty words from their guts...
[You should say this to them]:
Shouldn't a nation first ask of its God?'

*'Why ask the dead on behalf of the living?
²⁰ For He gave us His Law as our helper,
So we shouldn't be turning to those that can't help.*

²¹ This is why a great famine is coming to you!

'So, when you're hungry and worried,
And speak wicked things of your fathers and kings...
When you look to the sky up above you,

²² And to the ground underneath you,
What you'll see is darkness, distress, and hard times...
A darkness that will last a long time.

Chapter 9

¹ 'Drink this first and fast... do it quickly,
O lands of ZebuLun and NaphTali...
You on the coasts and on the Jordan's east shore,
And you, O Galilee of the gentiles!

² 'The people who were traveling in darkness
Then saw a [very] bright light.

For a light will then shine upon those
Who live in the place of the shadow of death.

³ ‘To a time of joy, He will lead them,
And they’ll all be as happy before Him
As those who take joy in the harvest,
Or as those who’re dividing up loot.

⁴ For they’ll not be wearing a yoke anymore,
Nor [will they feel] the whip on their backs.

‘He’ll destroy the [whip] of all those who use it
As He did in the days of Midian’s war.

⁵ Then, those who did this must pay for the clothes
That they, through treachery, have taken;
For the people will [demand] the return of their clothes...
Even if they have been scorched!

⁶ ‘But to us, a child has been born,
And to us, a son has been given
Upon whose shoulders the kingdom will come...
And these are the names by which he’ll be called:
The Angel of Great Understanding;
The Wonderful Councilor and Mighty God;
The Powerful One and Prince of Peace;
And the Father of the Age that is Coming.’

‘Then to this prince, I’ll bring peace and good health;
⁷ And from the throne of David, his rule will be great...
There will be no end to his peace!
For his kingdom will be founded on justice and judgments
Both now and into the age...
Which will come through the zeal of Jehovah of Armies.

⁸ ‘But now, upon IsraEl and Jacob,
Jehovah is just sending death.
⁹ And all the peoples of Ephraim
(Those with haughty and insolent hearts
Who within Samaria, have settled)

Will realize this and then say:

¹⁰ *Since all our bricks have now fallen,
Please come and help us shape stones;
Then we'll cut down some cedars and sycamore trees,
And we'll build ourselves a great tower.'*

¹¹ 'But, God will knock down all those
Who will come against Zion and Him.
He'll wipe all His enemies away...

¹² The Syrians from where the sun dawns
To the Greeks in the place where it sets...
Those who've swallowed IsraEl down with their mouths.

'But this won't bring an end to His rage against them;
For His hand will still be held high...

¹³ Because His people refused to repent
Or to search for Jehovah of Armies
Until [the day] they were struck;

¹⁴ The Lord will remove the head and the tail...
All of IsraEl's great and small in one day.

¹⁵ 'Their head is the elders and highly regarded,
And the prophets (those teaching lawless ways) are the tail.

¹⁶ They're the ones who say, These people are blest,
And mislead them to swallow them down.

¹⁷ 'Yes, it is because of these things
That God won't show favor upon their young men,
Nor will He show mercy on their orphans or widows...
Because they're all lawless and wicked,
And every mouth is unrighteous.
Yet, none of these things will turn back His rage,
For His hand will still be raised high.

¹⁸ 'Then the lawless will be burned as in fire...
They'll be devoured like flames through dry grass...
They'll be burned like thickets in the woods,
And consumed like hay in the hills.

¹⁹ ‘Because of Jehovah’s anger and rage,
All of their land will be burned,
And its people will be as those burned in fire;
For a man won’t show mercy to even his brother.

²⁰ ‘Then they’ll look at their right hands in hunger,
And they will eat their left [arms]...
But the flesh of their arms will not fill them.

²¹ ‘ManasSeh will gnaw upon Ephraim,
And Ephraim will chew on ManasSeh...
Then together, they’ll come against Judah.
Yet, none of these things will turn back [God’s] rage,
For His arm will still be held high.

Chapter 10

¹ ‘Woe to those who write wicked [laws];
For the reasons that they write them are evil...

² To deny equal rights to the poor,
And to snatch away justice from the needy...
To loot orphans and ravage the widows!

³ ‘So, what will you do in the day of inspection...
When hard times come from afar,
Whom will you run to for aid,
And to whom will you give all your wealth...

⁴ For, you won’t be forced to be slaves?

‘And if you should hide under those that are killed,
You’ll see that this won’t bring an end to His rage...
For His hand will still be held high.

⁵ ‘Woe to Assyria (the rod of My wrath)...
Those who hold My rage in their hands.

⁶ But on that lawless nation, I’ll also send rage...
I’ll order My people to plunder and loot them,
Then trample their cities and turn them to dust.

⁷ ‘But now, they aren’t thinking about this,
For their souls have failed to reflect.
[No, Assyria’s king] doesn’t know...
He just wants to destroy many nations.

⁸ ‘He’ll ask, Am I not your sole ruler?
⁹ *Isn’t all above Babylon mine,
As well as Calneh, where the tower was built?*
*‘Haven’t I conquered Arabia,
As well as Samaria and Damascus?*
¹⁰ *So, in the same way that I’ve taken all these,
I will conquer the rest!*

‘So shriek, O carvings in JeruSalem;
¹¹ For, as I did to Samaria and her idols
(Those things that they made with their hands),
I’ll also do to JeruSalem
And to all of the idols that are there!

¹² ‘But, after Jehovah completes all these things
That He’ll do to JeruSalem and Zion;
He’ll arise and strike that great mind...
Yes, the mind of Assyria’s ruler,
And the haughty glory of his eyes.

¹³ ‘For, [this great ruler] has dared to say:
I will act in a very strong way.
And in my wisdom and great understanding,
I’ll remove the boundaries of nations
And bring an end to their powers.

¹⁴ *I’ll shake the cities in which they all live,
And grab hold of the people that live there*
As I’d take a bird’s nest in My hands...
And then, I’ll deport the survivors.

*‘No, none will evade or oppose me...
They’ll just open their mouths and let out a chirp.*

¹⁵ ‘Does the axe really have any glory
Unless there is someone to swing it?
Does the saw really have any value
Unless there is someone to draw it...
And can a rod swing itself?

¹⁶ ‘So, dishonor will replace all his honor...
And this will be done by Jehovah of Armies.
Upon his glory, He’ll send fire,
And [that king] will be consumed by its flames...
¹⁷ Then this fire will serve as IsraEl’s light.

‘For He’ll make her holy through fire,
Which will eat her like grass in the woods in that day.
¹⁸ It will burn through her mountains, forests, and hills,
And devour all the life from her flesh.

‘Then, those who flee will be running from flames,
¹⁹ And very few will remain...
An infant could write down their numbers!

²⁰ ‘But in that day, those remaining in JeruSalem
Won’t go along [with what’s bad] anymore.
For [the sons] of Jacob who then will be saved
Won’t put up with those that have wronged them.
They will only be yielding to God,
And to the truths of IsraEl’s Most Holy.

²¹ ‘Then, those of Jacob who survive
Will return to their Almighty God.
²² And the people of IsraEl will then grow to be
As many as the sands of the seas
From the very few that remained.

²³ ‘So, this matter will be finished in justice;
For Jehovah is the One that is drawing the line.
Yes, Jehovah of Armies will act
Throughout the world [of mankind].

²⁴ ‘For this reason, Jehovah of Armies has said:
*Don’t fear the Assyrians, My people...
Yes, you who are dwelling in Zion.
Though they will strike with a rod
And distress you as they’re [marching] toward Egypt;*
²⁵ *In a very short time, My anger will end,
And I’ll turn My rage toward their plans.*

²⁶ ‘The God of Armies, Jehovah, will arise
And bring calamity upon them
As He did to Midian’s people
In the Place of Oppression.

‘For His rage [will be expressed] by the sea
As they are traveling toward Egypt.

²⁷ Their terrible yoke, He’ll lift from your shoulders,
After He has destroyed them.

²⁸ ‘They’ll enter the City of AngAi;
But, they will bypass MegidDo...
And at MichMash, they’ll then drop their weapons.

²⁹ ‘They’ll enter the valley at AngAi;
So, those in Rama will be gripped with fear,
And the city of Saul will then flee.

³⁰ ‘At that time, O daughter of GalLim;
Your voice will sound just like snorting.
And be careful [O you] at LachIsh...
And AnathOth, you must be wary.

³¹ ‘There’ll be fear in Gebim and MadMenah...

³² To survive, you should all band together
As [Assyria] is marching your way!

‘O daughter of Zion;
You must then flee to the mountains,
And gather upon JeruSalem’s hills!’

³³ O Lord, Jehovah of Armies;
How Your strength has scattered the famous
And broken the insolence of the haughty
To teach them the need to be humble!
³⁴ For the haughty will all be cut down with swords,
And Lebanon will fall with the rest of the proud!

Chapter 11

¹ From the root of Jesse, a [shoot] will then sprout,
And a flower will grow from his root.
² The Spirit of Jehovah will rest upon him...
The spirit of wisdom and understanding...
The spirit of purpose and strength...
The spirit of reverence and knowledge.
³ The Spirit will fill him with fear of The God,
And he won't judge men by their wealth,
Nor scold them for the things that they've said.
⁴ He'll judge the case of the lowly,
And [give justice to] the poor of the land.
He'll strike the earth with the words from his mouth,
And wipe the godless away with the breath from his lips.
⁵ Justice will be wrapped 'round his waist
And his sides will be girdled in truth.
⁶ Then the wolf and the lamb, together will feed;
The leopard will nap with the kid;
Bulls, calves, and lions will all graze together,
And by a small child, they'll be led.
⁷ Together, the ox and the bear will eat grass,
And together, their young ones [will play];
For then, the lion will eat straw like the ox.
⁸ On the burrow of an asp, an infant will play,
And he'll lay his hands in a bed of young cobras.
⁹ For, on My holy mountain, none will destroy,

Nor will they not do any harm,
Since the earth will be filled with the knowledge of [God]
As the seas are covered by water.

¹⁰ In that day, the root of JesSe [will sprout]...
He'll arise to rule [all] the nations.
In him, the gentiles will trust,
And upon him, honor will rest.

¹¹ In that day, God will show the zeal of His hands
On behalf of the few who remain...
The remnants returning from Assyria, Babylon, and Egypt,
As well as Ethiopia and Elam...
Those who come back from the sunrise
And from the Arabia's land.

¹² For He'll raise a sign to the nations
And collect the IsraElites that were being destroyed...
He'll gather the scattered of Judah
From the four [corners] of the earth.

¹³ Then, at that time, Ephraim's envy,
And the enemies of Judah will all be destroyed.
For, Ephraim will no longer be jealous of Judah,
And Judah will oppress them no more.

¹⁴ At that time, they will all get together
To [attack] the Philistines who live in the west,
And plunder the Edomites at the sunrise.
Moab will be conquered first,
But the sons of Ammon will be first to submit.

¹⁵ Then the Lord will [split] Egypt's Sea,
And He'll lay His hands on their River...
He'll send gales to its seven ravines,
So it can be walked through in sandals.

¹⁶ Then, it will serve as a road for His people...
A path for those left behind,

And for those in Assyria who haven't returned.
Then for IsraEl, it'll be the same as that day
When they first came out of Egypt.'

Chapter 12

¹ And in that day, they will say:
'O Jehovah, we praise You!
For, though You were angry with us,
Your rage has now turned away
And You have shown mercy upon us.

² 'Look... my God and my Savior!
I'll do what You say and not be afraid!
For, Jehovah's my glory and praise,
And He has become my salvation.'

³ Then, water will be drawn from life-saving springs,

⁴ And in that day, you will say:
'Sing in praise to Jehovah...
Yes, yell aloud about His great Name!
To the nations, announce His honorable deeds...
Say that His Name has been raised!

⁵ 'Sing in praise to the Name of the Lord
For all of the great things He's done...
Yes, announce these things throughout the whole earth!

⁶ 'Shout aloud and be very joyful,
All who you are living in Zion;
For, IsraEl's Most Holy One
Has now been raised in her midst!'

Chapter 13

¹ This is the vision that IsaiAh (the son of Amoz) saw against Babylon.

² 'Raise a flag on the tops of the mountains,
Then don't be afraid, shout it loudly.

Open [your mouths], O you rulers...
Put your hands [to your mouths] and call out for aid!

³ ‘For I’m in command and I’ve given the order
To giants that are coming to fulfill My rage...
Together they’re coming, shouting insults.’

⁴ There’s a voice like the sound of great crowds
That [you’ll hear from the tops of] the mountains.
It’s the sound of a gathering of kings,
And a great assembly of troops.

For Jehovah of Armies has given the order
To a nation of warriors with weapons

⁵ That are coming from a faraway land...
From the pillars of the skies they’ll arrive.
Yes, the Lord and His warriors are coming
To bring ruin to the place where you dwell.

⁶ So shriek, for the day of the Lord is at hand,
And destruction from God will come quickly!

⁷ So, all of their hands will go limp
And the soul of each man will know fear.

⁸ Their elders will all be disturbed
And have pains like women about to give birth.
They’ll discuss it and be sad for each other,
And together, they’ll all be in shock...
Their faces will be changed into flames!

⁹ For {Look!} the day of the Lord is about to arrive...
It’s a day of incurable anger...
The rage to destroy the place where you live
And wipe away all the sinners.

¹⁰ Then the stars in the skies (including Orion)
And the heaven’s arrangement will no longer shine.
The rising sun will be darkened,
And the moon won’t give out its light.

¹¹ ‘I’ll punish this world for its evil,
And the irreverent, I’ll destroy for their sins...
I’ll end the insolence of the lawless,
And bring the haughty ways of the proud to the ground.

¹² ‘Then, those left behind will be rarer than gold...
They’ll be rarer than gold from Ophir.

¹³ For the skies will then be enraged,
And the foundations of the earth will be shaken
By the anger and rage of Jehovah of Armies
On the day that He sends His wrath.

¹⁴ ‘Then, those who remain will be fleeing like deer...
Like sheep, they will all run away...
No way will a man return to his house,
For they’ll all be fleeing their homes.

¹⁵ ‘The captured will then all be [slaughtered]...
Yes, those who are caught will fall by the sword.

¹⁶ Before them, their young will be dashed to the ground,
All of their homes will be ruined,
And their women will all be dishonored.

¹⁷ ‘{Look!} For against you, I’m arousing the Medes...
Those who think nothing of silver
And those who have no need for your gold!

¹⁸ ‘They’ll break the bows of your young men,
And on your young, show no mercy...
Their eyes will not spare your children!

¹⁹ ‘Then Babylon (the home of the king of Chaldea)
Will be wiped away by our God,
As He did to Sodom and Gomorrah.

²⁰ And through the ages, no one will live there again,
Nor for generations, will anyone go there...
No Arabs will go there, and shepherds won’t stop there to rest.

²¹ Wild beasts will surely be found there,
And fill all the houses with growling.

‘It’ll be a place where demons will dance...
²² A place where vultures will dwell,
And where hedgehogs build nests in the homes.’

Chapter 14

¹ This will all happen very quickly...
It won’t take very much time
And the days [‘til it comes] won’t drag on.
But, [God] will show mercy on Jacob,
For IsraEl will still be His chosen,
And they will find rest in His land.
To them, foreign peoples will come
(To the house of Jacob, they’ll come),
² And they’ll accept the gentiles among them...
As an inheritance, they will all then be welcomed.
At that time, within the land of our God,
There’ll be many servants (both women and men).
For, those who once took them as captives
Will, in turn, be their [slaves]...
They’ll dominate those who once ruled them.
³ In that day, the Lord will send rest,
And an end to your anger and grief,
As well as to the hard labor
Under which you once slaved.
⁴ Then you’ll take up this wail against Babylon’s king...
In that day, you’ll say this about him:
‘O how much rest [we now can enjoy]
From this one who once demanded so much...
How much rest [we now have from] our masters!
⁵ ‘For, Jehovah broke the yoke of those sinners,
As well as the yoke of their rulers.
⁶ In His rage, He struck down a nation...

He brought calamity upon them...
He didn't spare any and He didn't hold back!

⁷ 'So, now our land is shouting in joy...

⁸ The trees of Lebanon are happy and say:
*From the time that you were laid low,
No one has come here to cut us!*

⁹ 'From below, the grave has arisen to meet them;
And all the giants who once ruled the earth
(Those that stood and opposed you)
Have all been gathered up there.'

Then the kings of those nations will arise from their thrones,

¹⁰ And they will say [to those giants]:

'Have you been captured as we were,
And are you now considered to be one of us?

¹¹ For your glories and joys have gone down to the grave,
And beneath you, they'll make a bed of decay
Where you will be covered with worms!'

¹² O how the bright one has fallen

(The [star] that arises at dawn);

For this one who [once conquered] nations,
Has now been broken to the ground.

(Note: This text could also be rendered: 'O how you have fallen from the sky; howl, O one that arises at dawn; for, you who [once conquered] nations, have now been broken to the ground').

¹³ You're the one who once said in his heart:

'I'll ascend into the heavens

And I'll put my throne above all the stars.

Then I'll sit upon a high mountain...

On the highest mountain up in the north.

¹⁴ Yes, I will ascend above all the clouds,

And I will be like the Most High!'

¹⁵ But now, you'll go down to the grave...

Down to the foundations of the earth.

¹⁶ Then, those who see you will wonder and ask:
‘Isn’t he the one who provoked the whole earth...
Isn’t he the one who once shook its kings...

¹⁷ Isn’t he the one who brought desolation
Upon mankind’s habitation...
The one who demolished its cities
And the one who set no slaves free?’

¹⁸ So, while all the kings of the nations
Will go to sleep in full honor
(As will every man within his own house);
¹⁹ You’ll be tossed in the mountains along with the slain.

Yes, you’ll be abhorred the same as the rest
Who have been run through with swords
And gone down to the place of the dead.

²⁰ ‘Like clothes that are dirtied by blood,
You won’t be pure or clean anymore;
For, to My land, you brought desolation,
And you have murdered My people.
So, no way will you last through the age,
You seed of all that is evil!

²¹ ‘Prepare your young to be slaughtered
Because of the sins of their fathers!
So, they won’t arise and inherit the land,
Nor again fill the whole earth with wars!

²² ‘For, I will rise up against them,’
Says Jehovah of Armies;
‘I’ll destroy their names, their remains, and their seed.’

And Jehovah said:

²³ ‘The land of Babylon, I will destroy...
I’ll make it a place where hedgehogs will dwell.
I will bring it to nothing...
It’ll be just a pit of destruction.’

²⁴ Then Jehovah of Armies said:

‘This is how it will happen...

Yes, this is the way it will be;

For this is what I’ve decided:

‘I’ll allow [Babylon] to remain

For just a little while longer,

²⁵ So that it can wipe the Assyrians away

From My land and My Holy Mountain.

They’ll be trampled and their yoke will then be removed,

As their dignity is cut from their shoulders.’

²⁶ This is the plan that Jehovah laid out

For the rest of mankind’s habitation,

As His hand is raised over the nations.

²⁷ For, who can erase the Holy One’s plans,

Or hold back His hand once it’s raised?

²⁸ In the year that King Ahaz died, these words came [to IsaiAh]:

²⁹ ‘O Philistines; do not be joyful,

For He’s breaking the yoke of those you’ve attacked.

And from the snake’s seed, young asps will arrive,

Which will then become flying serpents.

³⁰ ‘While God will feed all the poor

And peace will rest on the paupers;

Your seed will starve and be wiped away...

Yes, those that are left will be gone.

³¹ ‘So, shriek, O you city of gates,

And may your towns start crying aloud!

For the Philistines will all be disturbed

As they see smoke arise in the north,

Where no one will be left alive.

‘Now, what answer can the kings of the nations supply?

For though the Lord will destroy the foundations of Zion;

He will still save His people!’

Chapter 15

1 This is the word against Moab:

‘In one night, Moab’s land will be wiped away...
In the dark, its walls will be broken.

² In Dibon, your altars will all be destroyed,
And then you’ll just go there to weep.

‘In Moab, there’ll be shrieking on Nebo;
For every head will be shaved,
And you’ll all wear chains on your arms.

³ ‘In your squares, everyone will wear sackcloth,
And under all roofs, there’ll be mourning;
For, you will be shrieking and crying
In your squares and on all your streets!

⁴ ‘In HeshBon, there will also be shouting,
As well as in EliAleh...
As far as JaHaz, the sounds will be heard.

‘In Moab’s land, the mothers will cry;
For, in their souls, they will know...

⁵ In their hearts, they’ll know there’ll be screaming
All the way to ZoAr.

‘Then they’ll be like three-year-old heifers
[That are being led to the slaughter];
For there’ll be much weeping in LuHith,
And yelling on the road to HoroNaim,
Where they’ll tremble before they’re defeated!

⁶ ‘At NimRim, the waters will dry,
So her crops will fail and there’ll be no green grass...

⁷ Then, how will they be able to save her?
For, I will send Arabs into her valleys
And everyone there will be captured.

⁸ ‘Yes, there will be screaming and shrieking
In the lands of Moab and EglaiM.
There will also be screams at their wells,
⁹ For the waters of Dibon will be filled with blood.
‘Against Dimon, I’ll be bringing the Arabs,
And they will remove Moab’s seed...
Those remaining in AriEl and Adama.

Chapter 16

¹ ‘Then I’ll send a male lamb to be lord of their land...
For, Mount Zion’s daughter is not just bare rock.
² Then you, O daughter of Moab,
Will become like a bird that flies all about
After her young have been carried away!
‘O Arnon, sit down and discuss it,
³ And prepare for continuous mourning;
For at noon, everything will go dark,
And [your people] will be startled and flee.
‘So, do not start celebrating;
⁴ For with exiles of Moab, you’ll flee
From the faces of those who pursue you.
Because, they will be your only protectors,
Since your allies will all be lifted away,
And your ruler will perish and be crushed to the ground.
⁵ ‘Then, from a throne [based on] mercy,
[This lamb] will make all things right.
For, a man from David’s tent will sit [on a throne]
From which, he will judge righteously.
He’ll demand to know what is true...
Then swift justice, he’ll bring [to the land].
⁶ ‘For I’ve heard the insults of Moab...
And they have been very insulting.

[I've noticed] his pride, his insults, and rage...
And there was no reason for this.

⁷ 'So, there will be shrieking in Moab...
Throughout the land, there'll be screaming.
But you'll think of those who were dwelling in Seth,
And then you'll feel less ashamed.

⁸ 'In the plains of HeshBon, you'll mourn
Over the grapevines of SibMah;
For the nations will swallow you down...
And as far as JaZer, they'll trample your vines.

'Then no way will you get back together;
But, through the desert, you'll wander!
Then those who are carried away will be lost
Like those who are carried over the sea.

⁹ 'And I will cry over this,
As will [the people] of JaZer
Who are weeping for the grapevines of SibMah.

'O HeshBon and EliAleh;
Your trees will all be cut down,
And I'll trample your harvests and crops...
Yes, all of these things will soon fail!

¹⁰ Then, in your vineyards, they'll not leap for joy,
Since the reasons for joy will be gone...
And none will be treading your wine vats,
For the [growing of grapes] will have ceased.

¹¹ 'Then my belly will sound like a harp over Moab,
And I'll [groan for her cities of bricks].

¹² 'This should bring shame on them all;
For, Moab's shrines will no longer be strong...
Those places where they go to pray
Before the things that they made with their hands...

They won't be unable to save them!'
¹³ This is what Jehovah proclaimed against Moab.
¹⁴ Then the Lord spoke again and said this:
'In just three years
(In the length of someone's employment),
Moab will meet with dishonor...
All of her wealth [will be gone],
And just a few peasants will live there.'

Chapter 17

¹ This is the word against Damascus.

'{Look!} Damascus will be lifted away
From among the rest of the cities...
It will [soon] meet its downfall.

² 'Then, through the ages, it'll serve as a bed...
A resting place and safe haven for flocks.
³ No more will it be a fortified city
(A place of Ephraim's refuge);
For the kingdom in Damascus will be gone,
And Syrians will no longer dwell there.

'But, it will be better for [those in that city]
Than for IsraEl's sons and their glory,'
Said Jehovah of Armies.

⁴ 'For the glory of Jacob will end in that day...
His bountiful glory will be shaken.

⁵ 'It'll be as it is in a harvest
Where someone reaps grain in a valley of rocks.

⁶ For, stubble will be all that's left...
Just two or three olive pits
On the tops of very tall trees
That only have four or five branches.'

This is what The God of IsraEl said:

⁷ 'In that day, all the people will have to rely

On the One by whom they were made...
To the Holy One of IsraEl, their eyes should then turn.

⁸ ‘They shouldn’t rely on their shrines
Or on the things that they’ve made with their hands.
In that day, they’ll not look to their trees,
Or to the disgusting things [that they’ve made].

⁹ ‘For their cities will all be abandoned,
As were the cities of the Amorites and Hivites
Before the faces of IsraEl’s sons.

‘Desolate places, they will become,
¹⁰ For they have forsaken their Savior...
Yes, they have forgotten their God!

‘So, when they are planting, they’ll do so unsurely,
For they’ll be unsure of their seeds.

¹¹ And about the right day to plant,
They will then be misled.
So, though they may sow in the morning,
Their seeds will rot before harvest.

‘Then the fathers of men will be forced to choose
Which of their sons they will [feed],
By casting lots on their behalf.

¹² ‘And woe to you, the rest of the nations;
For you will also be shaken...
You’ll be disturbed like the sea [in a storm],
¹³ And by raging floods, you’ll be carried away.

‘For I’ll scold them all and then they will flee...
Yes, I’ll chase them a very long way,
And they’ll be like dust on the mountains
That’s [blown away] by the winds,
Or like clouds of dust raised by wheels.

¹⁴ In the evening, there will be much mourning,
And by dawn, they’ll no longer be.’

This is what will happen to those who've brought ruin...
It's the inheritance of the ones who inherited us.

Chapter 18

¹ 'Woe to you, O land of winged boats
Beyond Ethiopia's rivers...

² Those sending paper treaties and letters
Across the waters [to you].

'For, messengers will be sent by a nation
Of strange and ill-tempered people
By whom you don't want to be trampled.

³ 'They live in a land divided by rivers,
And their place will [soon] be a flag
That is lifted above the tall mountains...
Like a signal of the blowing of trumpets.'

⁴ (This is what I was told by the Lord).

'Though I have protected My city
From the afternoon heat

And by clouds of dew before harvest;

⁵ When the flowers have blossomed and young grapes have formed,
I'll remove their clusters with a sickle...

Yes, I'll cut the small branches off of the vines,

⁶ Then leave them behind for the birds of the skies,

And for the wild beasts of the earth.

So then, all winged creatures that fly in the skies

And all the wild beasts of the earth

Will gather there to consume them.

⁷ 'Then those people who've been afflicted and plucked
Will offer gifts to Jehovah of Armies.

They're a people who've been great [through] the ages...

But they're a nation whose hopes will be trampled.

‘They live in a place that runs from a river
To where the Name Jehovah of Armies
Is found upon His Holy Mountain.’

¹ This is the vision against Egypt.

{Look!} The Lord will arrive upon a swift cloud,
And down to Egypt, He’ll go.

There, He’ll shake the idols that they’ve made with their hands
(Those that stand in front of His face),
And then, their hearts will then be pierced.

² Egyptians will [war] with Egyptians...
Against their own brothers and neighbors, they’ll fight.
City will rise against city,
And home [will rise] against home.

³ The Egyptian’s spirits will all be disturbed,
And He will wipe out their plans.
Then they’ll ask their statues, their prophets, and gods,
And those that speak from the ground.

⁴ But, over the Egyptians, He will assign
Men who will make them work hard...
Mean kings, He’ll appoint over them.

For this was said by Jehovah of Armies:

⁵ ‘Egyptians will be drinking sea water,
Because their rivers will dry up and fail...’

⁶ Their aqueducts and their rivers will fail,
And all their water will dry.

⁷ ‘Then papyrus marshes and reeds,
As well as what’s green by the rivers
(Including the crops that are planted nearby),
Will dry up and be blown away.’

⁸ ‘Then, those who go fishing with hooks,
Those who go fishing with dragnets,
And those who cast nets in the rivers
Will all start moaning and mourning.

⁹ ‘Also, those who shred flax and weave linen
¹⁰ Will all be grieved and ashamed.
And there’ll be great concern among those who brew beer,
As the lives of all become painful.

¹¹ ‘Then, fools will be appointed their rulers;
And those who speak stupid things
Will be the king’s councilors in Tanis.

‘For, they will say to the king:
We are the sons of the wise men...
As sons of kings, [we were born]!

¹² ‘But, where will your wise men have gone?
Let them return and explain
What Jehovah of Armies has planned against Egypt.

¹³ ‘Then the princes in Tanis will fail,
And the haughty rulers in Memphis
Will cause Egypt and its tribes to wander.

¹⁴ For the Lord has concocted for them
The spirit of addiction to delusions,
Which will cause Egypt to [stagger]
Like a drunk who goes outside to vomit.

¹⁵ ‘Egypt won’t know its head from its tail,
Or discern a beginning or end.

¹⁶ In that day, Egypt’s men will be acting like girls,
And they’ll tremble before the hand of Jehovah...
He’s the One who will cause this to happen.

¹⁷ ‘Then Egyptians will fear the Judeans...
Yes they’ll fear those who call themselves Jews;
For against them, Jehovah of Armies has plans.

¹⁸ ‘In that day, in five cities of Egypt,
They’ll speak the Canaanite tongue
And swear oaths in the Name, Jehovah of Armies.
Then the City of [the Sun] will be called
The City of the [Living God].

¹⁹ ‘There’ll be an Altar to Jehovah in Egypt,
And a monument to the Lord at their border,
²⁰ Which will serve as a sign through the ages
That, to Jehovah, Egypt belongs.

‘Then they’ll call to [Him] when they are oppressed,
And He will send someone to save them...
He’ll save them and He’ll bring them justice.

²¹ ‘So to the Egyptians, our God will be famous...
All Egypt will know who is Lord in that day.
Sacrifices and gifts, they’ll offer to Him...
They’ll make vows to Jehovah and pay them.

²² ‘For, after He brings bad things upon Egypt,
He’ll heal them, and they’ll turn to Jehovah...
He’ll listen to them and He’ll heal them!

²³ ‘In that day, between Assyria and Egypt,
There will then be a road
Where the Assyrians will travel to Egypt,
And to Assyria, the Egyptians will go...
For Assyrians will then serve the Egyptians.

²⁴ ‘In that day, along with Assyria and Egypt,
IsraEl will then be the third
When it comes to their land being blest.

²⁵ ‘For Jehovah of Armies will offer this blessing:
Praise My people in Egypt,
And praise those who live in Assyria...
And praise My inheritance, IsraEl.’

Chapter 20

¹ It was in the year that Tartan entered AshDod (when he was sent by Sargon the king of the Assyrians to wage war against AshDod and captured it) ² that the Lord spoke to IsaiAh (the son of Amoz) and said this:

‘Now, remove the sackcloth from your loins,
And untie the sandals from your feet.’

So thereafter, that’s what IsaiAh did... he started walking naked and barefoot!

³ And the Lord said:

‘As My servant, IsaiAh, walks barefoot and naked;
The same signs and miracles will be sent
Throughout Ethiopia and Egypt
In the coming three years.

⁴ ‘For the king of Assyria will lead you as captives
(Ethiopians and Egyptians, both young and old)
Naked and barefoot, to show Egypt’s shame.

⁵ ‘The Ethiopians who rely on Egyptians
Will then be vanquished and shamed;
For their [only] glory was [Egypt].

⁶ ‘And they’ll say to those in the islands:
*{Look!} Though we thought we could turn to you to protect us,
You couldn’t save us from Assyria’s king...
And since even you couldn’t save us,
How can we now be delivered?’*

As a blast of wind from the desert
Blows through a land that is dry;

² I received a frightening hard vision

Concerning those who have no regard...
Those who have no respect for the Law.

[I dreamed] that the Persians attacked me;
So I moaned and tried to comfort myself.
³ And because of this, my loins became weak
As though I was going through birth pains.

Unrighteously, I chose not to hear,
And I rushed away so I wouldn't see.
⁴ For, in my heart I had strayed,
And in lawlessness, I had been wrapped.
Then my soul became wrapped up in fear.

⁵ So, prepare the table to eat and to drink...
Awaken the rulers and ready the shields!

⁶ For, this is what I was told by the Lord:
'You must go and stand as a watchman,
And you must announce all that you see!'

⁷ Well at that, I looked up and I saw two riders approaching; one [was riding] a burro, and the other [was riding] a camel.

⁸ [And then I was told that] I should listen and that I should call out to UriAh from Jehovah's watchtower. So I stood there throughout that whole day, and I kept watch over the camp all that night. ⁹ And then look! I saw someone riding on a double chariot, and he was shouting that Babylon had fallen along with all of her idols... yes, all of her idols had been dashed to the ground!

¹⁰ So listen, all of you who've survived,
And all of you who are grieving...
Hear what Jehovah of Armies has said...
What IsraEl's God is announcing to you!

¹¹ The vision of Edom.

From SeIr, He called out to me and He said:
'Now, you must keep watch on the walls...'

¹² Stand there from morning 'til night...
Keep watch with Me and you'll live!

¹³ 'Then, you should bed down in the evening
In the woods on the road to DeDan.

¹⁴ And bring some water for the thirsty you'll meet...
Those who are coming from Teman!

'Also bring some bread for the fleeing...

¹⁵ Because of those being slaughtered...
Because of all who must wander...

Because of those who are brandishing swords...

Because of those with tightly-stretched bows...

And because of those who have fallen in war!'

¹⁶ Then the Lord said this to me:

'In a year (the year of someone who's hired)
The glory of Kedar will end,

¹⁷ And few will remain of their bowmen;
For the Lord God of IsraEl has spoken.'

Chapter 22

'O what has happened to you
That made you foolishly climb up on your roofs?

² 'Though your city is now filled with screaming,
Your slain were not killed by the broadsword
And your people haven't died because of a war.

³ 'But your rulers all fled [in fear of] the bow,
And now they're all tied up together...
Yes your mighty have all run away.'

Well, because of this, I said: 'Now please let me go and find someplace to cry... ⁴ and don't try to offer me any comfort over the destruction of the daughters of my people, ⁵ for this has been a very disturbing day...

it's been a day of trampling and destruction and a day of addiction to delusions that has come to us from Jehovah of Armies!

'In the valleys of Zion, they wander...

All from the small to the great...

Yes, between the mountains, they wander.

⁶ 'For the people of Elam have collected [their arrows]

And their men have mounted their horses

To gather in battle array.

⁷ So with their chariots, our valleys will be filled,

And their horsemen will block all our gates.

⁸ 'In that day, they'll reveal Judah's gates

And survey the city's best homes.

⁹ Through the palace of David, they'll search,

And they'll see how much they can find there.

¹⁰ 'You'll divert the water to the city's ancient pool

And demolish the outsides of your homes

To strengthen the walls of JeruSalem.

¹¹ Yes, between the two walls, you'll bring water

And send it inside to that ancient pool.

But to the One who made it, you'll still fail to look...

To its Creator, you will fail to turn.

¹² 'For this, Jehovah of Armies

Has called for tears in that day...

For the beating of chests,

For the shaving [of heads],

And for the wearing of sackcloth.

¹³ Yet, they were all happy and leaping for joy...

Slaughtering calves and offering sheep,

Then eating the meat and drinking the wine,

And saying, 'We should all eat and drink,

For tomorrow we're going to die!'

¹⁴ Since this has reached to the ears of Jehovah of Armies,
These sins will not be forgiven
Until the day that you die!

¹⁵ For Jehovah of Armies said this:
'Now, go and enter My [Holy Place]...
Go to the store-keeper ShevNa and ask,

¹⁶ *Just what are you doing here...
What [business] have you been conducting?
Why did you carve a memorial for yourself,
And why have you made an engraving
Of yourself in the stones of this Temple?*

¹⁷ *{Look!} Jehovah of Armies will now throw you out...
He'll wipe away such a man!
Your [official] clothes, He'll remove,
Along with your garland of honor!*

¹⁸ *'Then He'll throw you into a dungeon,
And that is where you will die!
On your chariot, He will bring dishonor,
And He'll trample the homes of your princes...*

¹⁹ [He'll] remove your position and station!

²⁰ *'In that day, I will call to My servant
(EliAkim the son of HelkiAh),*

²¹ And I'll put your garments on him...

Yes, I will give him your garland...

Your duties, I'll put in his hands...

And then he'll become like a father

To those in Judah and JeruSalem.

²² 'And around his shoulders, I'll also put

The key to the palace of David...

Yes, he'll be the one who unlocks it!

'To him, I'll give the glory of David...

He'll rule and no one will argue.

²³ For I'll make him the ruler of a place that's secure,

*And he'll sit on a glorious throne
Within the house of his father.*

²⁴ *'And the honorable ones of his father's house
(Those from the least to the greatest)
Will then rely upon him...
Yes, all the small vessels and cups
Will depend on him in that day.*

²⁵ *'Jehovah of Armies also said,
This man will now be removed
And another will then be entrenched
Within that trustworthy place.*

*'He'll be removed and he'll fall,
And all of his glory will just waste away.
For Jehovah [of Armies] has spoken!'*

Now shriek, you on boats out of Carthage;
For [Tyre] has wiped away,
And they won't be [sailing] from Cyprus again,
Since [the people of Tyre] are all captives!

² To whom can I liken their [people]...
To Phoenician traders who pass through the seas,
³ Or to the seed of those traders
Who transport the harvests of nations.

⁴ 'And you, O Sidon, be ashamed,' said the sea!
Then the power of the sea told them this:
'I've no pains and I've not given birth,
Nor have I fed young or raised virgins.

⁵ But when Egypt hears what has happened to Tyre,
They'll be overtaken by grief.'

⁶ So, travel to Carthage and shriek,
All you who live on the islands!

⁷ For, she was the source of your insolent ways
Back before she had fallen.

⁸ Who was it that planned these things against Tyre...
For, isn't she the strongest and best...
Aren't her merchants the glorious rulers of nations?

⁹ It was Jehovah of Armies that laid out the plans
To end the insolence of these glorious ones...
To dishonor the glories of the whole earth!

¹⁰ So now, you'll be forced to be farmers,
Since boats won't be sailing from Carthage again,
¹¹ And your hands won't control the seas anymore,
O you provokers of kings.

Yes, it was Jehovah of Armies
Who ordered the destruction of Canaan's strength,
¹² So you would not keep on insulting
And wronging the daughter of Zion.

Then, if you should travel to Cyprus,
You will not find any rest there.

¹³ And if you should go to Chaldea,
You won't find rest, for her walls will soon fall...
The Assyrians will come and destroy it.

¹⁴ So Shriek, you on boats that are coming from Carthage,
Because your fort will soon be destroyed!

¹⁵ This is how it will be in that day:
Tyre will remain in that state
For the next seventy years...
The length of the lives of both men and kings.
Then, after the seventy years have elapsed,
Tyre will become like the song of a whore.

¹⁶ So, pick up your harp and wander away,
O great whore that will soon be forgotten!
Play your harp and sing very well,
So there'll be someone who doesn't forget you!

¹⁷ Then, after those seventy years have elapsed,
God will come and revisit Tyre...
He'll restore her as she had been...
She'll be a market for all kingdoms once more
Throughout man's home on the face of the earth.

¹⁸ Then her trading will pay a holy wage to the Lord;
For their [profits] will not be carried to them...
[They'll be sent] to those who dwell before [God]...
All [the wealth of] her trading [will then go to them],
Which they'll use to eat and drink 'til they're full,
As a compact memorial before God.

Chapter 24

¹ {Look!} The Lord will lay waste to the place where you live...
He will totally destroy it!
Yes, He will uncover its face
And scatter those living within it.

² Then, [common] people will serve as the priests;
The servants will then be the masters;
The handmaids will then be the ladies;
Those who buy will be those who sell;
Those who borrow will be lenders,
And those who owe will be the ones that are owed.

³ 'With corruption, your land will be wasted,
And by looting, your place will be plundered!'
Yes, these things were said by the mouth of the Lord.

⁴ 'Then your land will go into mourning,
For your system of things will be ruined.

‘The land’s most important will mourn
5 For [that place] that’s considered so lawless...
They’ll wail for the people who live there...
Those who have broken [\[God’s\] Laws](#)...
Those who’ve wiped away and traded away
The Sacred Agreement of the ages!

6 ‘This curse will then devour [your] land,
For those who live there have sinned!
Then, only the poor will be left ...
Just a few men will remain.

7 ‘So the wine will mourn and the grapevines will moan
Over the souls of all those
To whom they once brought great joy.

8 ‘Happy sounds of tambourines will have ceased,
And those pleased with themselves will be gone,
Along with the wealth of the godless,
Who’ll no longer hear the sounds of the harp.

9 ‘And because they’ll be shamed, they won’t drink the wine...
For the liquor will be bitter to even the drunks!

10 ‘Your cities will then become empty,
And the houses will all be locked up,
So that no one will be able to enter.

11 ‘Therefore, shriek for the wine everywhere,
Since the joy of the land will have ceased...
Yes, it will be taken away,

12 And all that will be left behind
Is desolate cities and empty homes,
Which thereafter, will just waste away.

13 Yes, all of these things will come to that land
There in the midst of the nations.

‘In the same way that you would glean olives,
Is how such ones will be gleaned...
As though the harvest of crops will have ceased.

¹⁴ ‘So, they will cry out in loud voices...
But those who remain in the land
Will rejoice, to the glory of God.

‘Then the waters of the seas will be shaken,
¹⁵ And the glory of Jehovah will be [seen]
On all the islands throughout the seas...
And the Name of the Lord will be honored.

¹⁶ ‘[For all the peoples will say]:
*O God of IsraEl, Jehovah;
Of [Your] miracles, we’ve heard, throughout the whole earth,
And there’s hope for those who respect You.*

‘And once again, they will say,
*Woe to those who’ve annulled...
Yes, those who’ve ignored the Laws [of our God],*
¹⁷ *Since fear, the pit, and a snare
Have come upon those who once dwelled in that land.*
¹⁸ *For those fleeing in fear fell into the pit,
And those climbing out were captured in snares.*

‘Then the windows of the heavens will open,
And the foundations of the earth will be shaken.
¹⁹ Disturbance will come to the ground,
And perplexity will grip the whole land.

²⁰ ‘For, it will be shaken and tipped
As [a horn] that’s filled with the fruits of the earth...
Yes, it will topple and fall
Like someone who’s dizzy and drunk,
And never be able to stand up again
[In that land] where the lawless grew strong.

²¹ ‘For, God will raise His hand in that day
Against the arrangement of the heavens,
And against the kings of the earth.
²² They’ll be gathered as one congregation,
And in castle dungeons, be locked away,
Where they’ll stay through many generations.
²³ ‘Then the bricks will melt and the walls will all fall;
The moon will be sad and the sun will be shamed;
For the Lord will start reigning in JeruSalem...
And before Zion’s elders, he’ll be glorified.’

Chapter 25

¹ O Jehovah, my God, I’ll glorify You,
And to Your Name, I’ll sing praises,
Because of the wonderful things You have done,
And because [Your] ancient council proved true... amen!
² The towns have been turned into rubble,
As have the foundations of cities...
And these cities of the godless will not be rebuilt
Throughout the rest of the age.
³ Because of this, I offer You praise...
With the poor and the wronged, I praise You!
⁴ For to cities of the meek, You sent aid,
And You’ve rescued all the depressed...
Those whom You saved from the wicked.
To the thirsty, You are a protector...
You’re an inviting breeze to those who’ve been wronged.
⁵ For You’ve rescued Zion’s worried and thirsty...
From godless men, You have saved us!
⁶ At that time, Jehovah of Armies
Will hold a great feast for the nations...
Yes, on this mountain, they’ll drink wine in joy,
⁷ And with perfumed oil, they’ll anoint on this hill.

Yes, even for the gentiles, You'll do this,
Since this is a plan for all nations.

⁸ For from the mouth of the Lord came these words:

‘Then death, which prevails, will be swallowed;
Jehovah will wipe away tears from each face,
And remove the disgrace from earth's peoples.’

⁹ And in that day, they will say:

‘{Look!} This is our God in whom we have hoped...
The One who brought us salvation.
This is Jehovah... we've waited for Him!
And because He has brought us salvation,
We'll joyfully shout praises of Him!’

¹⁰ Then, on this mountain, God will bring rest,
While the land of Moab is trampled
Like a threshing floor rolled on by wagons.

¹¹ He'll unfold His hands and snatch up the haughty...
For their insolence, He will destroy them...
The high walls of their homes will be broken.

Chapter 26

¹ In that day, in Judah, they'll be singing this song:

‘Look! [Ours is now] a strong city...

To save us, He made our walls strong!

² So, open the gates and let all those enter

Who have guarded justice and truth...

³ Those who grab truth and guard peace!

⁴ ‘Upon You, we've hoped through the ages,

O Jehovah, great God of the age.

⁵ For You've humbled and brought down those who lived high...

Fortified cities, You have thrown down...

You've torn them down to the ground,

⁶ And as footstools, You've set them under Your feet.

⁷ ‘The road for the righteous, You’ve straightened...
You’ve prepared a way for the Godly;

⁸ For the paths of Jehovah are just.

‘We have put hope in Your Name,
And You, we have never forgotten,

⁹ Since You’re what our souls have desired!

‘In the [morning], my God, I’ll rise early to You,
For Your orders bring light to the earth.

‘So, learn justice, all you who live on the earth!

¹⁰ For the irreverent will soon all be gone
Because they’ve never learned to be fair,
Nor have they ever been truthful.

So, please remove the ungodly,
That they may not gaze on Your glory!

¹¹ ‘O Jehovah;

Though You’ve always held Your arm high,
They’ve been unable to see it...

But, when they see it, they will be shamed.

Then You’ll snatch up those ignorant ones in Your zeal,
And send fire to consume our oppressors.

¹² ‘O Jehovah our God; please send us peace,
For all that we have was given by You!

¹³ Please own us, O Jehovah our God;
For, we have known no other as Lord...
We have only called on Your Name.

¹⁴ ‘But those dead ones will never see life,
Nor will any doctor revive them,
Because You attacked and destroyed them...
From among them, You took every man.

¹⁵ ‘O Jehovah;

Add to them all that is bad,
And bring evil upon their glorious ones!

¹⁶ ‘O Jehovah;
We thought of You when we were oppressed,
And Your instructions were with us during hard times.

¹⁷ ‘Like a woman with birth pangs
(One who screams before she gives birth),
Is how we are in Your presence, O Lord.

¹⁸ For we fear You, O Jehovah [our God].

‘In fear of You, we conceived in the womb...
We went into labor and then we gave birth
To the spirit of salvation that You’ve brought to our land.

‘So, we will not stumble... though others may fall,

¹⁹ And our dead will be raised from their tombs.

Then, all in our land will be joyful;
For like morning dew, You’ll send them a cure,
While in the lands of the godless, there’s failure.

²⁰ ‘O my people;

When you wake up, stay in your bedrooms...

Remain inside and lock all your doors,

Then hide in [your homes] for a while!

For, this will happen, then that;

And the rage of Jehovah will pass.

²¹ ‘Look... from His Most Holy Place,
Jehovah sends rage to those on the earth.

For, He has uncovered all of the blood,

And He won’t allow the killers to hide.’

Chapter 27

¹ So in that day, He’ll bring His great holy sword
Against the dragon (the crooked fleeing snake),
And He’ll destroy that beast of the sea.

² In that day, there’ll be a good vineyard,
And about it, we’ll be singing this song:

³ ‘She’s a fortress that’s under attack,
So it’s foolish to [offer her] water,
Since she will be captured during the night,
And her walls will fall before morning.

⁴ ‘Because none have failed to have [sex with] her,
Jehovah will do as He promised...
For she’s about to be burned!

⁵ ‘Then, those living there will yell this:
We should make peace with Him...
Yes, let us make peace [with Him]!

⁶ ‘Then, Jacob’s seed will return,
And IsraEl will burst forth and blossom...
Their home will be filled with its fruitage.

⁷ ‘It won’t be as He’s struck others;
For, He would be striking Himself!
No, it won’t be as when He destroyed them;
For, He would be destroying Himself!

⁸ ‘But He’ll send them in combat shouting insults
(Not those of you who don’t think too harshly)
And they’ll kill them in a spirit of rage.

⁹ ‘On account of this;
Lawless ways will be taken from Jacob,
And then, [God] will offer this blessing:
I will remove all your sins,
When you rip down the stones of their shrines
And grind them to powder and dust...
When their poles and idols are gone...
Like a far-away forest that’s being cut down.

¹⁰ ‘Then, any flocks that remain will dwell there...
Any flocks that have been left behind.
They will spend time in your pastures,
And there, they will have time to rest.

¹¹ But they won't be eating green grass,
Because it all will have dried [into hay].

'So come, you women, who've seen all this happen;
For you're a people who did not [believe].
He'll show no mercy on those who made [idols]...
Nor feel pity for those who have shaped them!

¹² 'In that day, Jehovah will lock them together,
From the aqueducts to the RhinoCorura,
As one by one, IsraEl's sons are returned,
¹³ Blowing their horns on that day!

'For, those lost to Assyria will be returned,
As well as those who went down to Egypt...
They'll all come back and bow to Jehovah
On His Holy Mountain in JeruSalem.'

Chapter 28

¹ Woe to that insolent garland...
Ephraim's faded flowers and those whom he's hired...
Those who have fallen from glory
There on their mount of thick branches...
Yes, those who get drunk without wine.

² For {Look!} the rage of Jehovah is both strong and hard...
It's like hail that falls with great force
In a place where there's nowhere to [hide].
It's like a flood that drags away [homes]
In that land where He once sent rest to your hands.

³ Then the feet of Ephraim's hired
Will trample their insolent garland,
⁴ And its flowers (its hope of glory) will fall
Like the shoots of figs on their mountains.
Then, all who see it in front of their hands,
Will wish to take it and swallow it down.

⁵ In that day, Jehovah of Armies
Will be the only true garland...
A crown of glory for His people.

⁶ For by the spirit of fairness, they will survive...
By justice and the strength of destruction withheld.

⁷ But, there are those who will stagger and reel
Because of their liquor and wine.
Yes, it is because of the liquor
And because they've swallowed the wine
That the priests and prophets are out of their minds.
And then, when they sober, they'll stagger...
Which will be witnessed by all.

⁸ A curse will thereafter devour their plans;
For the plans that they have are just to get rich.

⁹ To whom have we announced all this evil...
To whom have we spoken this message?
To those being weaned from the milk,
And to those being drawn from the breast.

¹⁰ Problems on problems, hope after hope...
Still a little, and then a bit more!

¹¹ For in foreign tongues, they'll speak these foul words:

¹² 'Since those who are starved are unworthy,
We will have to destroy them'
(Which is something that no one wishes to hear).

¹³ Then this oracle from God is what they'll receive:
'Problems on problems, hope after hope;
Still a little, and then a bit more'...
And thereafter, they'll be faced with great danger.
For, first they will have to retreat,
And then they'll be broken and captured.

¹⁴ Thus, hear these words of Jehovah:
'O men who are being attacked
And you rulers of JeruSalem;

¹⁵ You say that you've made a pact with the grave...
That you've made a treaty with death,
And that, if a windstorm should blow,
It won't be blowing on you.
So, you've put your hope in [your] lies,
And you [think] that these lies will protect you?

¹⁶ 'Because of this,' says Jehovah;
'{Look!} Upon the foundation of Zion
I'll place a valuable stone...
A costly, select cornerstone,
In order to serve as its base...
And those trusting in him will never be shamed.

¹⁷ 'Then, in place of hope, will come judgments;
And to My charity, I'll attach weights.
So those trusting in vain in the lie
Will not be passed by the storm.

¹⁸ Then your treaty with death will be gone,
Along with your pact with the grave.

'For, by a blast, you will be crushed...

¹⁹ When it passes you by, it will take you.
Morning after morning, it'll blow upon you,
And it will blow throughout the nights...
So what happens to you will be bad.

²⁰ 'Learn how to hear, O you who've been squeezed...
There's no way you'll be able to fight it!
For, you will be weakened, then captured.

²¹ 'From the godless, the Lord will make hills,
When to Gibeon's valley, He brings His rage...
That's where His bitter deed will be done.

'His rage will be brought in strange ways...
Yes, these rotten deeds will be strange.

²² And for you, there'll no longer be joy,
Since, in your chains, you won't have any strength.'

Yes, all these things will come soon...
It's what He will bring to this land...
It's what Jehovah of Armies has said.
²³ So give ear and listen to all that I say...
Pay attention and hear all my words!

²⁴ Doesn't it take a full day
To get things ready for plowing?
And doesn't the planter have to prepare
Before he starts working the ground?

²⁵ Doesn't he level its face
Before he plants pepperwort or cumin,
And wheat, spelt, and barley in its borders?

²⁶ So, that's how you'll be corrected...
In the fair ways of your God...
Then once more, you'll [have reasons] for joy.

²⁷ 'You don't scrub Pepperwort to clean it,
And you don't run wagons over cumin!
You beat out pepperwort's [seeds],
²⁸ And cumin should be eaten with bread.

'So I won't stay angry with you through the age,
Or with bitter words, will I trample you down.

²⁹ Rather, from Jehovah of Armies,
Miracles will [be sent to your land]!

So, you should accept all this counsel,
And not raise anyone's hopes of comfort in vain!

Chapter 29

¹ 'Woe to the City of the Altar of God,
On which King David waged war.

'Gather your crops year after year,
And share them with the people of Moab.

² Then I'll squeeze the City of the Altar of God,
And all her strength and wealth will be Mine.

³ 'I'll encircle [your city] like David,
And throw up a siege mound against it.
With siege towers, I will surround it,

⁴ And your words will be brought to the ground...

Yes, your words will go down to the ground!
Then you'll speak like those who speak from the grave,
And from the ground, your voices will get weaker.

⁵ 'Then the wealth that you gained from your godless ways
Will become the same as clouds of dust
That are raised by the passing of wheels.
For then, all those who oppress you
Will be as many as dust [in the air].

⁶ 'It will happen right away (in a moment);
Then Jehovah of Armies will arrive
And consume you with thunder, disasters, and noise,
As well as with wind blasts and flames.

⁷ 'It will be like a nightmare to you,
When the wealth of many nations come marching
Against the City of the Altar of God.
For the armies of all her oppressors
Will gather against JeruSalem.

⁸ 'Then, to those who are sleeping,
And to those who are eating and drinking,
It will seem as though it's a dream...
And this is what they'll be dreaming:

'Those who get thirsty and drink
Will still be thirsty when they awake.
And there'll be no more hope in their lives
When the wealth of many nations marches on Zion.

⁹ ‘Be tipsy, be dizzy, and then be amazed...

But not from liquor or wine;

¹⁰ For the Lord will send you frustration to drink!

‘Then He’ll close the eyes of your prophets,

As well as the eyes of your seers and rulers.

¹¹ And all that’s written in this sealed-up scroll

Will be given to a man who knows how to read.

Then you’ll say to him, Please read these things!

But he will reply, I can’t read this,

Because the scroll has been sealed!

¹² ‘Then you’ll hand this scroll to a man who can’t read,

And you will also ask him to read it;

But he’ll answer and say, I can’t read.’

¹³ For, this is what was said by the Lord:

‘With their mouths, these people approach Me,

And with their lips, they offer Me praise...

But they’re far away from Me in their hearts.

So they waste their time when they bow before Me,

Since they’re teaching the ideas and instructions of men!

¹⁴ ‘It’s because of this, that I’m coming

To bring a change to these people...

Yes, I will come and transpose them!

The wisdom of their wise, I’ll destroy,

And the understanding of their discerning, I’ll hide.

¹⁵ ‘So, woe to those who’ve come up with plans

That haven’t been approved by Jehovah!

And woe to those who make them in secret,

As they do things in darkness and ask:

Since no one can see us or recognize us,

Who can know what we’re doing?

¹⁶ ‘Aren’t you just clay in the hands of a potter?

So, can the thing that is shaped say to its shaper:

You aren’t the one who has shaped me?

Or can something that's made say to its maker,
I don't like the way that I'm made?

¹⁷ 'Soon, Lebanon will meet with a change...
Her mountains will be changed into crop fields,
And the crops on her mountains, into forests.

¹⁸ 'In that day, even those who are deaf
Will hear the words of this scroll.
Then, those in the darkness and those in the fog,
And the eyes of the blind ones will see it!

¹⁹ 'So the poor will cheer because of the Lord,
And those without hope will be joyful.
²⁰ For the lawless and evil will then have all failed...
The proud will have all been destroyed...
And those who break laws will be gone,
²¹ Along with those whose words led them to sin.

'Then, all who reprove at the gates
Will be known as those who have stumbled;
For, they have twisted [the law],
And those who are righteous, they've wronged.

²² 'And concerning the house of Jacob,' said the Lord...
'Those whom I have selected
From among AbraHam's sons;
Jacob will not come to shame,
Nor will their faces be saddened again.

²³ 'For, when their young see the things that I'll do;
{Look!} They'll treat God's Name as holy once more...
They'll [praise] the Holy One of Jacob,
And learn to fear IsraEl's God.

²⁴ 'Then, those with wandering spirits
Will have to learn understanding...
Yes, those who complain must learn to obey,
And stuttering tongues must learn to speak peace.'

Chapter 30

¹ The Lord said:

‘And woe to you children of apostates...

You who’ve looked for direction from others
And made treaties that were not by My Spirit.
For by this, you have added to your sins!

² ‘You [sent ambassadors] to Egypt
And asked for help from their Pharaoh...
Yes, you sought shelter from Egypt...
But, you failed to ask Me!

³ ‘So, because you sought Pharaoh’s protection,
You will come to know shame.
And because you’re relying on Egypt,
You will also know scorn...

⁴ For the envoys from Tanis are evil.

⁵ ‘You are foolish to labor for others
Who won’t bring help or send any aid,
While upon you, they heap shame and scorn.’

⁶ This is the vision of the four-footed creatures in the desert:

‘In difficult times of distress,
[There stands] the lion and its cub,
As well as asps and the young of winged asps.

‘These are the ones who are bearing your wealth
On the backs of camels and burros
To a nation that’ll bring you no help,
But will just heap shame and scorn upon you.

⁷ For, all that Egypt can send
Is waste and [words] that are empty...
So the comfort they send is in vain!’

⁸ [Then the Lord told me}:

‘You must now sit down and write this...
Record these words in the tablet of a scroll.

For these are the days and times I've appointed...
[They're the things that will happen] in this age:

⁹ 'You people have resisted my persuasion...
You are liars who won't listen to God's Law.

¹⁰ You're the ones who say to the Prophets:
Don't bring His pronouncements to us!
And to those who see visions, you say:
Don't tell us the things that you've seen!

*But, if you must give us a message,
Tell us and addictive delusion!*

¹¹ *Turn us away from this road...
Yes, shift us away from this course,
And bring an end to IsraEl's curses!*

¹² 'It's because of this, that thus says the Holy One of IsraEl:
*Since you've chosen to resist My persuasions
And preferred to put hope in a lie...*

Because you've grumbled and failed to have faith,

¹³ This is what will happen to you:

*'Your sins will be like the walls of a city
That fall and lead to a capture...
For your downfall is now close at hand.*

¹⁴ *'And like the breaking of a thin vase,
This crash won't lead to a breaking of parts...
Pieces you can find and pick from the coals
With which you can hold little water.*

¹⁵ 'This is what the Lord Jehovah has said...

It's what IsraEl's Holy One said:

You should moan, then turn back and be saved!

'Think about all of these foolish things
In which you've been putting your hope...
Think of how you chose not to hear,
And then, of how weak you became!

¹⁶ ‘But you say that you will escape
From those coming against you on horses...
You think you will flee and you’ll say,
We are very light riders!
But those chasing you will be faster.

¹⁷ ‘For, thousands will flee at the voice of one man,
And ten thousands will flee at the voices of five.
So, you will be left all alone
Like a pole on top of a mountain,
Or a banner flying high on a hill.

¹⁸ ‘Then once again, you’ll [turn back] to God
And [hope] that He will feel pity.
And because of this; He will show you mercy,
Since your judge is Jehovah, your God.

‘Blest are those who stick close to Him;
¹⁹ For the holy will live on Zion once more!

‘JeruSalem will cry, Show mercy on me!
And He will show mercy upon her.
For, when He hears the sounds of your cries,
Once more, He’ll pay attention to you.

²⁰ ‘Then Jehovah will provide you with water and bread,
And those who misled you will no longer be.
You’ll remember those who tried to mislead you,
²¹ And those who followed to trick you...
Those who said, This is the way you should go...
Yes, you should go this way or that!

²² ‘Then you’ll remove your silver-plate idols,
As well as those that are gilded with gold,
And crush them into fine powder,
Then toss it into the wind.
You’ll reject them like a [rag filled with blood],
And throw them away like manure.

²³ ‘Then, rain will come to your land to sprout seeds...

There’ll be plenty of bread and fat in your land.

Your cattle will graze in large fertile fields,

²⁴ And your bulls will work the ground and eat straw,

As you get ready to harvest the barley.

²⁵ ‘And in that day;

After many people have been destroyed

And the towers have all been knocked down;

Water will flow from the mountains and hills.

²⁶ ‘Then the moon will be as bright as the sun,

And the sun will be seven times brighter,

In that day when Jehovah brings healing

To His people who’ve been broken down,

And an end to the grief of disaster.

²⁷ ‘{Look!} After a while, the Name of the Lord

Will arrive in glory and in burning rage.

For the omens from His lips are omens of rage,

And the flames of His rage are consuming!

²⁸ ‘His Breath is like water that races through valleys,

Then comes to the neck and divides.

So, for their addiction to delusions,

He will disturb all the nations

And [allow] their delusions to trap them.

²⁹ ‘Then, whenever you enter [God’s] Holy Place,

You will do so in joy...

As though it were a great holiday!

And as you do this, you will be happy...

Singing songs as you travel to the Mountain of [God]!

³⁰ ‘Yes you’ll sing to Jehovah with the glory of your voice;

For by His arm, He can send His anger and rage...

Like lightning, He violently strikes,

And as flames [of fire], He consumes...

Like rain and hail being driven by storms.

³¹ ‘By the voice of Jehovah, Assyria will fall...
He’ll strike and bring calamity upon them.
³² For, He is always nearby
To aid those who put faith in Him...
Those playing their harps and shaking tambourines.
‘He’ll wage war with those who revolt...
³³ But, after some days, He’ll let them return,
Since He’s prepared His Kingdom for them.
‘As a ravine that is deep
And as piles of wood near a fire
Is the rage of Jehovah...
Like a ravine that is burning with sulfur.

Chapter 31

¹ ‘Woe to those who seek help from Egypt...
Those trusting in their chariots and horses
Because their chariots are many,
And because they have many horses.
‘These are people who just will not listen...
In IsraEl’s Holy One, they haven’t put faith
And they haven’t searched for their God!
² ‘Thus, He’ll wisely bring evil upon them,
So His Word will not be annulled.
Against their houses, He will arise,
And He’ll oppose their vain, wicked hopes.
³ ‘Egyptians are men... they aren’t Gods;
And their horses are no help at all,
Because they too are just flesh!
So against them, Jehovah will soon raise His hand
And make those who are helping them tired...
And thereafter, they’ll perish together.’
⁴ Then the Lord told me this:
‘In the same way that a lion or its cub

Will roar over game that it's taken,
And then continue to roar over it
Until the mountains are filled with its voice
And all the prey has been chased away
Because they've been frightened by its rage;
That's how Jehovah of Armies will be
When He comes against Zion.

⁵ 'But Jehovah of Armies can be like a bird
That flies above JeruSalem,
So as to rescue, save, and protect.

⁶ 'O you sons of IsraEl who have gathered
So as to discuss lawless things;
It's time for you to turn back!

⁷ For the day will come when you'll turn from your idols...
The things that you've molded from silver and gold...
The things that you've made with your hands!

⁸ 'Then [Assyria] will fall, but not by men's swords...
She'll not be devoured by swords,
Nor will she flee before daggers!
But her young men will all have been conquered...

⁹ They'll be picked up and beaten like rocks for a siege,
And those who flee will be captured.

'This is what Jehovah has said:

*Blest are those who have seeds in Zion,
And those with families in JeruSalem.'*

Chapter 32

¹ '{Look!} Then a righteous king will start reigning,
And in justice, his princes will rule.

² Each man will be like a shelter from wind
And a place to run from the storms...
Like streams of water in a dry land,
And the shade of a rock in the desert.

³ ‘Then, men will no longer put trust in men,
And ears they’ll be given to hear.
⁴ Hearts of the weak will be paying attention,
And stammering tongues will learn to speak peace.
⁵ ‘They’ll not [appoint] morons to rule anymore,
Or tell their officials to be quiet!
⁶ But now, the morons just say foolish things,
And in their hearts, they’re planning what’s wasteful.
‘They are doing things that are lawless,
And against the Lord, they’re speaking delusions
To scatter the souls of the hungry,
And bring waste to the lives of the thirsty.
⁷ ‘What the wicked recommend are plans to do bad...
To take advantage of the meek, they are speaking.
They overrule with unrighteous words
Any judgments that would favor the lowly.
⁸ ‘But, those who love God will consult
With those who have understanding,
And the things they suggest are the things that will last.
⁹ ‘Hey, all of you wealthy women...
Wake up and hear what I’m saying!
O you daughters who still live in hope;
To My words, you should pay close attention!
¹⁰ ‘Speak of each day in grief, but with hope.
For the crops have all been consumed,
The planting has come to an end,
And things are not getting better.
¹¹ ‘So, be amazed, and then start to worry,
All you who have tried to persuade!
¹² Strip off your clothes ‘til you’re naked,
Then wrap your waists and beat on your breasts

On behalf of the crops of the fields,
As well as for the produce of vines!

¹³ ‘For the land of My people has now become thorns...
Even the grass will soon dry,
And joy will be gone from each home.

¹⁴ ‘The houses will then be abandoned,
As wealth [flows] out of your towns,
And all the best cities and homes
Will exist as caves through the ages...
Places of joy for wild burros,
As well as pastures for shepherds.

¹⁵ ‘But when [God’s] Breath flows from the heavens again,
The deserts will be fruitful fields,
And the fields will be thought of as forests.

¹⁶ ‘Then, judgment will rest in the deserts,
Justice will dwell on [Mount] CarMel,
¹⁷ And of peace and righteous ways, there’ll be plenty.

‘This righteousness will then be spread,
And bring rest to the faithful through the ages.

¹⁸ So, God’s people will live in cities of peace,
And those who are saved will rest and live well.

¹⁹ ‘Then if hail should fall, it won’t fall on you;
And the meek who dwell in the forests
Will be as those who live in the plains...

²⁰ For those who plant crops will be blest.
And in places where only wild burros could live,
There will be water again.

Chapter 33

¹ ‘Woe to those who bring misery,
But who are made miserable by no one,
As well as those who show no respect,
But who are highly regarded.

‘For, those who don’t show respect
Will then be captured and [squashed]
Like a moth that’s caught in a robe and destroyed.’

² O Jehovah, show mercy upon us,
For we are relying on You.
Destroy the seed of those who oppose us,
But save us in our time of oppression!

³ Your fearful sounds will startle the people,
And in fear, the nations will scatter.

⁴ But then, You will gather Your spoils great and small
As though You were picking up locusts.

⁵ Holy is The God who lives in the skies;
For, He will fill Zion with fairness and justice.

⁶ In that time, He’ll become a foundation that’s firm...
A source of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
For in Him, all wisdom and knowledge exists...
And fear of God [is the key] to this treasure.

⁷ {Look!} Yes, those fearing You will be frightened...
They’ll scream in fear over You!

For, You will send angels that will bring peace,
And this will cause the unrighteous to weep,

⁸ Since that will bring an end to their [evil] ways.

‘And the nations will also have reasons for fear,
Because of the treaties they’ve broken,
And because they’ve been disrespectful.

⁹ So the lands will all go into mourning,
And Lebanon will be brought to shame.
But our marshes will then be like Sharon,
And like Galilee and CarMel, they’ll shine.

¹⁰ ‘And that’s when I will stand tall,’ says Jehovah...
‘I’ll be glorified and respected.

¹¹ When you see it, you'll then understand
That their other efforts have all been in vain.

'For their spirits will be burned as by fire...

¹² By the nations, they will be consumed
Like thorn bushes out in the fields,
Which have been tossed in the flames.

¹³ 'Then, from far away, they'll hear what I've done;
And those who come here will know of My might.

¹⁴ For, when the lawless are taken from Zion,
The irreverent will all start to shake.

'So, who will make the announcement...
The announcement that the fire has been lit?
Yes, who will speak of such things
In this ancient place of the ages?

¹⁵ Just the one who is walking uprightly;
The one who tells things just as they are;
The one who hates lawless ways and injustice;
The one whose hands shake off bribes;
The one who won't listen to judgments of blood
And whose eyelids are closed to injustice.

¹⁶ 'At that time, he will stay in a cave in the heights,
Which is surrounded by boulders.
His bread will also be given to him,
And he can trust [that he will have] water.

¹⁷ 'Then your eyes will see a glorious king
Coming from a far-away land...

¹⁸ And your souls will contemplate fear.

'Then, what will happen to all of the scribes...
What will happen to all the advisors...
What will happen to the accountants and their records?

¹⁹ 'Well, from the small to the great, they won't take advice,
Nor do they listen to warnings

About the ways they're mistreating the people...
So, none understand what they're being told.

²⁰ 'O great city on Zion;
Look and see your salvation...
See JeruSalem as a city of wealth,
Filled with unshakable tents.

'There the tent poles will last through the ages,
So their cords won't have to be pulled,
²¹ And they'll be called by the Name of Jehovah.

'There'll be aqueducts and wide rivers;
But you will not travel upon them,
For boats will never be rowed there.'

²² My God, Jehovah, will not pass me by,
Because the Lord is our judge...
Yes, He's our ruler and king,
And our God will bring us salvation!

²³ But now, all their ropes will be torn,
And the masts on their boats will be weak...
They'll lean, so their sails cannot be unfurled,
And their flags will never be raised
Until all you have has been plundered...
Taken by even the lame!

²⁴ But those who remain won't say they are tired,
For their sins will have all been forgiven.

Chapter 34

¹ 'So, listen to this, O you nations...
And your rulers should pay close attention!
Yes, hear, O earth and its dwellers...
The habitation of man and all you who live there;
² For Jehovah is bringing His rage to the nations...
His rage upon all of their numbers,
To destroy and hand them to slaughter.

³ ‘Their slain and dead will be just thrown away;
Their smell will ascend [to the heavens];
And their blood will pour down the mountains.

⁴ ‘Then the powers of the heavens will melt;
The sky will be wrapped like a scroll;
And all the stars will then fall
Like the leaves of a grapevine or fig.

⁵ ‘For My sword will then become drunk in the sky,
And {Look!} upon Edom’s land, it will fall...
Upon people who’ve been judged for destruction.

⁶ ‘In Bozrah, His sword will become thick with blood
And with the fat of the lambs, goats, and rams
That to our God, will be sacrificed,
When this great slaughter comes upon Edom.

⁷ ‘Then, even the stout will be cut down and killed,
Along with the rams and the bulls.
So the ground will then be drunk on their blood,
And it will be filled with their fat
All the way to the ends of their borders.

⁸ ‘For this is the great Judgment Day of the Lord...
It’s a year of judgment and payback for Zion.

⁹ Their valleys will then be filled up with pitch
And their ground [will be covered with] sulfur.

¹⁰ ‘Through the ages, they’ll burn with pitch day and night,
And the flames will not be extinguished.
For generations, her smoke will ascend,
And it will all be desolation...
Then, it will lie barren for a very long time.

¹¹ ‘Only crows will be able to dwell there,
Along with ibis, hedgehogs, and birds.
A surveyor’s line will mark her destruction,
And she’ll be inhabited [by demons].

¹² ‘Then, she will be without rulers,
Since her kings and great men will be gone.
¹³ So, thorns will grow in her cities and forts,
And they will be owned by chained demons...
A place where ostriches roam.
¹⁴ ‘Then [loose] demons will meet with the chained ones,
And they will yell to each other.
Chained [spirits] will also find rest there,
And they’ll have a place to retire.
¹⁵ ‘There, hedgehogs too, will build their nests,
And in safety, their young will play on the ground.
It’s where stags will all meet together,
Then stare face to face at each other.
¹⁶ ‘They’ll pass in large numbers and none will be lost...
They’ll not have to search for each other,
Since Jehovah will give them instructions,
And by His Breath, they’ll be gathered together.
¹⁷ ‘Then, on their behalf, He will cast lots,
And divide up the land for their grazing,
Which they will inherit through the ages...
So, from one generation to another,
They will find rest in this place.

Chapter 35

¹ ‘So, thirsty desert, you should be glad...
Yes, shout in joy and blossom with lilies!
² For the desert by the Jordan will cry out and bloom,
And the beauty of Lebanon will be given to it,
Along with the honor of Carmel.
For, at that time, my people will see
The glory of] Jehovah their [God,
And come to know the full stature of Him.

³ So be strong, forsaken hands and weak knees...
⁴ Take comfort, O you with faint-hearts!
Be strong and don't be afraid,
For {Look!} the judgments of our God will [bring] justice...
Yes, He will come here and save us!

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
And the ears of the deaf will be able to hear.

⁶ The lame will be leaping like stags,
And stammering tongues will speak clearly.

Then a spring will burst forth in the desert,
And through thirsty lands, water will flow.

⁷ For, deserts will be turned into marshes;
In the dry lands, there'll be springs;
And among reeds and marshes, birds will find joy.

⁸ Then, there will be a pure road
That's called, 'The Way of the Holy.'
And nothing unclean will pass on it;
So, it will always be pure.

Those who were scattered will travel that way,
And from it, they won't stray again.

⁹ No lions or fierce beasts will roam there,
Nor will they even be found there.
There'll just be those who've been ransomed...

¹⁰ Just those gathered by the Lord will walk there.

'So, they'll return to Zion in joy
Feeling the glee of the ages.

For, blessings will come upon all their heads...

They'll be happy and leaping for joy,
Since from distress, moaning, and grief,
They will then have escaped.'

Chapter 36

¹ It was in the fourteenth year of the reign of HezekiAh that SenNaCherib, the king of Assyria, [marched against] the fortified cities of Judah and took them. ² Then the king of Assyria sent RabShakeh from LachIsh to King HezekiAh in JeruSalem with a huge army, and he [set up camp] by the aqueduct to the upper pool, which is on the road to the field of the washerwomen.

³ So, EliAkim (the son of HilkiAh) [the King's] house manager, the scribe ShebNa, and JoAh (the son of Asaph) the recorder, went out to meet with him. ⁴ And RabShakeh said to them: 'Speak to HezekiAh and tell him that this is what the great king of Assyria has said: On what are you really relying? ⁵ Have you worked out a plan with the words from your lips about how you're going to fight this battle? On whom are you relying so that you're resisting my persuasion? ⁶ {Look!} If you're relying on that fractured reed cane Egypt... if a man should put his weight on [that country], it will go all the way through his hand. Yes, this is all that Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) and those who are relying on him amount to. ⁷ And if you should say that you're relying on your God Jehovah... isn't He the same One whose high places and altars were removed by HezekiAh, and who then told Judah and JeruSalem that they had to come and bow before the Altar here in this place?

⁸ 'Why not rather join with my lord the king of Assyria? For if you do, I'll give you two-thousand horses... that is, if you're able to provide enough riders for them. ⁹ Can your governors who are relying on the Egyptians provide you with that many horses and riders?

¹⁰ 'And do you think that we were able to come up to this place and wage war against it without [the aid of] Jehovah? It was Jehovah who told us to come to this land and destroy it!'

¹¹ Well, EliAkim, ShebNa, and JoAh then said to RabShakeh: 'Please speak to your servants in Syriac, so we alone can [understand] what you're saying. Don't speak to us in the Judean tongue! Why must you speak so that all the men along the walls can hear you?'

¹² And RabShakeh replied: ‘Do you think that my lord sent me to speak these words to just your lord? For, aren’t these men who are sitting along the walls the ones that will have to eat their own poop and drink their own pee?’

¹⁶ ‘The king of Assyria says: ‘Don’t listen to HezekiAh! If you want to receive his blessings, come here to me and you’ll each eat from your own grapevines and fig trees, and drink water from your own wells. ¹⁷ Because, when I come here, I will carry you to a land that will become yours... a land of grain, wine, bread, and vineyards!

¹⁸ ‘So, don’t let HezekiAh deceive you and say, Our God will come and save us! Have any of the gods of the nations been able to rescue their own places from the hands of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of HaMath or ArPhad? Where is the god of the Cities of Scrolls... was he able to rescue Samaria from my hands? ²⁰ Since none of these gods of the nations could rescue their lands from my hands, how can Jehovah save JeruSalem from my hands?’

²¹ Well, everyone stayed silent and no one replied with a word, because the king had decreed that no one was to answer him.

²² Then EliAkim (the son of HelkiAh) the house manager, ShebNa the scribe, and JoAh (the son of Asaph) the recorder ripped their clothes and returned to HezekiAh to tell him what RabShakeh had said.

Chapter 37

¹ Well, when King HezekiAh heard this, he tore off his clothes and put on sackcloth, then he went to the [Temple] of Jehovah. ² He also sent EliAkim his house manager, ShebNa the scribe, and all the elders among the priests (who were each wearing sack cloth) to the Prophet IsaiAh (the son of Amoz). ³ For he told them to say, ‘These are the words of HezekiAh: This is a day of affliction, scorning, scolding, and rage... it’s a day of all the pain of a woman who doesn't have enough strength to give birth! · So, may Jehovah your God hear the words of RabShakeh who was sent by his lord the king of Assyria to berate the living God... may Jehovah your God hear the words that he said to berate Him! Please go to Jehovah your God to beg before Him concerning those of us who are still left here!'

⁵ So the servants of King HezekiAh went to IsaiAh, ⁶ and this is what IsaiAh said to them: ⁶ 'Tell your lord that Jehovah says you shouldn't be afraid of the words that you heard the ambassador of the king of Assyria say to berate Him, ⁷ for {Look!} He is going to send a spirit against him, and when he hears its message, he'll just go back to his own place, where he'll fall by the sword within his own land!'

Then [SenNaCherib] sent his people back to HezekiAh with a message that said this: ¹⁰ 'Tell HezekiAh the king of Judah not to allow his God upon whom he is relying to deceive him when He says there's no way that JeruSalem will be given into the hands of the king of the Assyrians. ¹¹ {Look!} Haven't you heard what the kings of Assyria have done throughout the whole earth and of the destruction that they've brought? Who is really going to save you now? ¹² Have the gods of any of the nations that my father destroyed been able to rescue them... those of Gozan, Haran, and Rezepth in the region of Tel Assar? ¹³ Where are the kings of HaMath, and where is ArPhad? Where are the cities of SepharVaim, Henah, and Hivah?'

¹⁴ Well, after HezekiAh took the proclamation from [SenNaCherib's] messengers and read it, he went up to the [Temple] of Jehovah again and unrolled [the scroll] before the Lord, ¹⁵ and he prayed to Jehovah, saying: ¹⁶ 'O Jehovah of Armies, God of IsraEl... the One who rests upon cherubs; You're the only God over all the kingdoms of the habitation of mankind, for You're the One who made the lands and the skies. ¹⁷ So, O Jehovah; lean Your ear toward me and please listen O Lord! O Jehovah, open Your eyes! Look down, O Jehovah, then hear and understand all the words that SenNaCherib sent to berate the living God! ¹⁸ It's a fact, O Jehovah, that the kings of the Assyrians have conquered the entire habitation of mankind everywhere. ¹⁹ And there amidst all the flames, they've erected their idols to replace those that were never gods but are just the works of men's hands – things made of wood and stone – after they did all their destroying.

²⁰ 'But now, O Jehovah our God; please rescue us from his hands, so that all the kingdoms of the earth will know that You are the only God!'

²¹ Well thereafter, [God sent] IsaiAh (the son of Amoz) to HezekiAh, and he told HezekiAh that Jehovah the God of IsraEl said that He'd heard everything that he'd prayed concerning SenNaCherib the king of Assyria, and that this was Jehovah's reply to him:

'You've sneered at the virgin daughter of Zion,
And you've treated her with great disrespect.
So [the virgin] daughter of Jerusalem
Has nodded her head against you!

²³ 'Do you know whom you've provoked and berated,
Or against whom you've raised your voice
And lifted your eyes to the heights?
It's against the Holy One of IsraEl!

²⁴ 'Through messengers, you have berated Jehovah
When you said, *I'll climb over their mountains
With huge numbers of chariots behind me
That will stretch to Lebanon's borders.
Then, on their heights, I'll cut down their cedars
And the beauty of their cypress trees.
Then I'll climb to the tops of their forests,*
²⁵ And I will dam up their [rivers].

²⁶ 'Haven't you heard of the things I can do,
And of the things that I ordered to be done long ago?
For I've shown how I can destroy
Nations and fortified cities,

As well as those in their towns and their forts.

²⁷ I've weakened and dried up their hands,
Turning them into dry hay...
Like the grass that grows on their roofs.

²⁸ 'I know that you have been resting
From all of your comings and goings.

²⁹ And now, all your hatred and rage
Is being directed toward Me!
So I'll put a rein 'round your nose,
And I'll put a bit in your lips,
Then I'll send you back by the way that you came.'

³⁰ 'This is the sign that I'll do it:
This year, you'll eat what you've planted,
Then in the second, you'll eat what remains.
And in the third, you'll plant and you'll reap...
Once more you'll plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

³¹ 'The same will also be true of all those
Who still remain in Judea...
They will sprout roots from below,
And from above, they'll reap grain.

³² Then, those who are left in JeruSalem
(Those who remain on Mount Zion)
Will thereafter be brought to the fore
Through the zeal of Jehovah of Armies.'

³³ 'So, concerning the king of the Assyrians, Jehovah said this:
*There's no way that he'll enter this city...
[His men] won't shoot arrows against it,
Nor will any even lift up their shields
Or build a siege mound around it.*

³⁴ *They'll just return by the way that they came,
And they will not enter this city!*

‘Jehovah said:

³⁵ *I’ll shield this city and save it
Because of Myself and My servant David.’*

³⁶ Well thereafter, a messenger came from Jehovah and he destroyed the camp of the Assyrians... a hundred and eighty-five thousand of them! So when the [people] awoke the next morning, all they found was just dead bodies!

³⁷ Then SenNaCherib (the king of the Assyrians) [packed up] and left for Nineveh, where he went to live. ³⁸ And it was while he was there bowing to the ground in the temple of his god Nisroch, that AdramMelech and ShaRezer (his sons) struck him with swords and fled to Armenia. So, another son, EsarHaddon, started reigning in his place.

Chapter 38

¹ Well, it was shortly after this that HezekiAh became ill to the point of death. And the Prophet IsaiAh (the son of Amoz) went to him and told him, ‘This is what Jehovah has said:

*Give orders regarding your house,
Because you won’t live... you will die.’*

² Then HezekiAh turned his face to the wall and started praying to Jehovah, saying: ³ ‘O Jehovah; Remember that I’ve walked before You in truth and with a true heart, and remember all the things that I’ve done to please You.’ And at that, HezekiAh broke down and cried.

⁴ Well, the Word of Jehovah then came to IsaiAh and said: ⁵ ‘Go tell HezekiAh that Jehovah said this:

*The God of your ancestor David
Has heard your prayer and seen your tears.
So, {Look!} fifteen more years, I will add to your [life];*

⁶ *And I’ll also save you and this city
From the hands of the Assyria’s king...
For around this city, I am putting a shield.*

⁷ ‘And Jehovah says that this is your sign that He’s going to do all these things. He said:

⁸ {Look!} I will cause the shadow of the sun
That moves down ten stairs in the house of your fathers,
To go up the ten stairs it went down.’

⁹ Well, this is the prayer that HezekiAh the king of Judah prayed after [learning that he would] recover from his illness:

¹⁰ ‘I prayed to the heavens concerning my days,
For I’d approached the gate to the place of the dead,
And I had been robbed of the rest of my years.

¹¹ ‘So I said, *I’ll not look to Jehovah again
Within the land of the living.
And no way will I [be seen] anymore
By any of those who’re alive.*

¹² ‘My family, I had forsaken,
And I’d [written off] the rest of my life.
For my life was ending and leaving like those
Who [who spend just a night] in a tent,
And my breath had become like the end of the weave,
To be cut off like wool from a loom.

¹³ ‘In that day, I was spared through the morning;
Then, like a lion, He broke all my bones...
From morning ‘til night I was conquered.

¹⁴ So, should I call out like a swallow,
Or take time to think like a dove?

‘When my eyes couldn’t see into the heights,
Jehovah became my salvation...

¹⁵ He acted and removed the grief from my soul.

¹⁶ ‘Yes, to Jehovah, I [prayed] about this,
And then He awakened my spirit...
I’m alive, because He sent comfort to me.

¹⁷ ‘{Look!} The thought of resting in peace
Was truly bitter for me...
But You gave back my life, so I’d live,

And You pushed all my sins to the rear.

¹⁸ *So, those in the grave should all praise You,
And those who are dying should bless You.*

*‘But, it’s too late for those in the grave,
¹⁹ Since only the living can praise You.
So, from this day, I’ll raise many children
Who will shout in praise of Your justice.*

²⁰ *‘O [Jehovah] my Savior;
For the rest of my life, I will praise You...
And not cease to strum on my harp about You
In the [Temple] of my God.’*

²¹ Then IsaiAh said to HezekiAh: ‘Now, take a cluster of dried figs and grind them up to make a plaster [for your chest], and thereafter, your health will return.’

²² And that’s when HezekiAh asked, ‘What is the sign that I’ll be able to go up to the [Temple] of my God once again?’

Chapter 39

¹ Well at the time, Merodach Baladan (the son of Baladan, the king of Babylonia) had sent letters, ambassadors, and gifts to HezekiAh, because he’d heard that he was ill to the point of death and that he’d been [granted a recovery], ² and this made HezekiAh very joyful. As the result, he showed them his storehouses that were filled with spices, silver, gold, balsam, incense, and perfumes, as well as his treasury buildings and everything in his treasuries... there wasn’t anything that HezekiAh failed to show them.

³ Then the Prophet IsaiAh went to King HezekiAh and asked: ‘What did you say to those men, and from where did they come to visit you?’

And HezekiAh replied: ‘They came from a faraway land... from the land of Babylon.’

⁴ Then IsaiAh asked: ‘Did they see your [palace]?’

And HezekiAh said: ‘Yes, they saw everything in my house... there isn’t anything that I failed to show them, including everything in my treasuries.’

⁵ Then IsaiAh said, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah of Armies:

⁶ *Look! The day will soon come
When all that your fathers have collected
Down to this very day,
Will be carried off to Babylon...
They will leave nothing behind!*

⁷ ‘God also said that they will take your children (those whom you have fathered) and make them eunuchs in the houses of Babylon.’

⁸ Then HezekiAh said to IsaiAh: ‘The word of Jehovah that you spoke to me is good... but may there be peace and justice during the days [of my reign]!’

Chapter 40

¹ ‘Take comfort, take comfort, My people,’
Says [Jehovah], Your God!

² ‘O Priests, you must speak and bring comfort
To JeruSalem’s heart;
For her humbling has been fulfilled,
And all of her sins are untied.
Yet, it was because of her sins
That she received twice as much from His hand.’

³ Then I heard a voice that was calling from the desert. It said,
‘Prepare the way for Jehovah...
Straighten the roads for our God!

⁴ Fill the valleys and flatten the mountains and hills...
All crooked paths must be straightened
And the ruts in the fields must be smoothed!

⁵ Then the glory and salvation of God will be seen;
For Jehovah has told you to do this.’

⁶ Then the voice again shouted, ‘Now, yell!’

And I asked, ‘What should I yell?’

‘Yell that all flesh is just grass
And man’s glory is like the flowers of grass.

⁷ But now, the grass has all dried,
And all of their flowers have dropped;
For upon them, God has blown His Breath.

‘The people are really the grass...

⁸ And though grass may dry and its flowers may drop;
God’s Word endures through the ages.

⁹ ‘So, climb to the top of that mountain,
O you who are bringing good news to Zion,
And shout it as loudly as you can!
Yes, those bringing good news to JeruSalem
Must shout it out loud and not be afraid!

‘To the cities of Judah, you must shout this:

Look and see... for here comes Your God!

¹⁰ *Your Lord, Jehovah, is coming in strength,
And to conquer, His arm has been raised!*

*‘Look... He’s bringing the wages
For the things being done here before Him!*

¹¹ *Like a shepherd, He’s arrived to tend to His flock;
Then He’ll gather His lambs in His arms,
And within His womb, bring them comfort.*

¹² ‘Who can measure all the water in the skies
With just the span of His hand,
And who holds the whole earth as a handful?
Who established the weight of the mountains,
And weighs the forests in the yoke of a scale?

¹³ ‘Who knows the mind of Jehovah...
Who has become His advisor
And who can give Him instructions?

¹⁴ Whom has He asked for advice,
And who's told Him the things He should do?

'Who taught Him how to be just,
Or shown Him the right ways to think?

¹⁵ For the nations are like drops from a bucket
That are [weighed] in the yoke on a scale
And found to be [no more than] spit.

¹⁶ 'To Him, all of Lebanon is unfit to burn,
And unfit for sacrifice are its four-footed beasts.

¹⁷ Before Him, the nations are also unfit...
For He views them as nothing at all.

¹⁸ 'To whom can our Lord be compared?
Just how would you [make an image] of Him?

¹⁹ Aren't statues created by [artists]...
Aren't they each carefully designed,
Then cast and gilded by smiths?

²⁰ 'Doesn't the maker choose durable wood,
And wisely choose the best place
To stand it where it will not fall?

²¹ 'Don't you know, and haven't you heard...
Weren't you told this from the beginning...
Do you how the earth was established?

²² He's the One who holds fast the curve of the earth,
And those dwelling upon it are like locusts.
He's the One who established the skies like a veil,
And stretched it like a tent in which we can dwell.

²³ Then He made our rulers from nothing,
And from nothing, He brought forth their lands.

²⁴ '[Without Him], we can't plant or sow,
Nor can our plants grow roots in the ground.
For, He can just breathe and they'll wither...
With a blast, like twigs, they'll just blow away.

²⁵ ‘And it’s this Most Holy One who is asking you this:

Whom can you liken to Me...

Can you make Me look more important?

²⁶ Look high in the sky [and then tell Me]

Who introduced all these things?

‘He’s the One who assembled them all...

All the things within His arrangement!

Then, in His great glory and strength,

He named it before you had seen it!

²⁷ ‘Would you dare to say before Jacob,

O IsraEl, why have you spoken to me,

For my ways have been hidden from God,

So I won’t stand in judgment before Him?

²⁸ ‘Don’t you know... haven’t you heard?

God [exists] through the ages!

He’s the One who prepared the ends of the earth,

But He doesn’t get hungry or tired,

Nor can His wisdom be fathomed.

²⁹ ‘He’s the One who gives strength to the famished,

And brings comfort to those who are grieved.

³⁰ ‘While the youngest of men will get hungry and tired,

And the best of men will lose all their strength;

³¹ Those who wait on Jehovah will grow stronger,

And like eagles, they will grow wings.

Then they’ll run without getting tired...

They’ll keep going without getting hungry.’

Chapter 41

¹ ‘O [you gentiles who live] in the islands;

You should hold feasts to His [Name]...

For the powers that be will be altered!

So, let them come and confer,

Then announce what they have decided!

² ‘For, [He’s] stirred up one in the east
Who’ll bring justice and call it to walk on its feet.
To him, the nations will be given,
And before him, their kings will all be removed.

‘He’ll force them to bury their swords,
And like twigs, he will shatter their bows.

³ But, though he’s the one who will chase them,
His feet will walk peaceful paths.

⁴ ‘By whom will he accomplish these things?
By the One who called for this generation
In the very beginning...
By the One who said, I am God...
I’m the first, and I’m into [the future]!

⁵ ‘Nations will see Me and fear...
To the ends of the earth, they’ll be startled,
And then they’ll be gathered together.

⁶ ‘At that time, all their neighbors will choose
To offer help to their brothers, and say,
⁷ The one who brought us together is strong
(The blacksmith who forged it with a hammer);
But how long can [this unity] last?

‘And He will give this reply:
The bond [between them] is good;
For I’ve made it stronger with rivets...
I’ve made it so it cannot be broken!

⁸ ‘But you, O IsraEl, My servant...
Yes, Jacob, the one that I’ve chosen...
AbraHam’s seed whom I’ve loved...
⁹ Those whom I’ve snatched from the ends of the earth...
Those whom I’ve called from the heights...
Those to whom I said this:

*‘To be My servant, I chose you,
And you, I’ve never abandoned.*

¹⁰ So, don’t be afraid, for I’m with you...

Don’t stray from Me, for I am your God...

I’m the One who gives you your strength,

And sends you aid with My righteous right hand.

¹¹ {Look!} So, your enemies will all come to shame,

And no more will they fail to respect you;

For, they won’t exist anymore,

Since all who oppose you will perish!

¹² ‘Then you’ll search and you will not find them...

Those drunks who’ve been shouting insults at you,

Because they will no longer be...

There’ll be none to wage war against you,

¹³ For I am your God who’s at your right hand!

‘I’m the One who is saying to you,

¹⁴ O Jacob, don’t be afraid...

O IsraEl’s remnants, don’t fear,

Because I am your helper... your God.’

‘O IsraEl;

I’m the One who paid the ransom for you,

¹⁵ {Look!} And I’ve made you like a threshing device

That’s been fitted with many new teeth;

So you’ll thresh the mountains and thin out the hills...

Then, into dust, you will turn them.

¹⁶ ‘Yes, you will winnow them all,

And the winds will blow them away...

By a windstorm, they will be scattered.

And among IsraEl’s holy ones, there will be joy.

¹⁷ ‘Then the poor and needy will start to rejoice,

As will those who’ve been searching for water

But haven’t been able to find it...

Those whose tongues have dried out from thirst.

‘For, I am Jehovah, IsraEl’s God...

I’ll pay attention and never desert you.

¹⁸ From the mountains, I’ll open up rivers,
And into the plains, I’ll put springs.

‘Deserts, I’ll turn into marshes,
And into thirsty ground, I will put canals.

¹⁹ In the waterless land, I’ll plant boxwoods and cedars,
Along with white poplars, myrtles, and cypress.

²⁰ ‘Then, all who see them will know
That it came by the hand of Jehovah...
By the Holy One of IsraEl, they were planted.

²¹ ‘But now, your time of judgment has come...
The time of decisions has arrived,’
Says the King over Jacob.

²² ‘So, let all [your idols] step forward
And tell you the things that will happen.
For, they’re the ones to whom you have said,
*We’ll pay close attention you,
So we can know what will happen,
And how it all will work out.*

²³ ‘So, ask [your idols] to tell you...
Yes, have them announce the things that will be;
Then we’ll know that they truly are gods
Who can choose good or bad for themselves...
We’ll wonder and see it at the same time.

²⁴ ‘Then we’ll know the place from which they have come
And we’ll see the source of the things they can do...
These ones that the people have chosen...
These disgusting things that they have preferred.

²⁵ ‘But from the north, I’ll be raising one man,
And I’ll raise another from the sun in the east...
And they will be called by My Name.

‘Then, both of these rulers will come here,
And like the clay of a potter
(The clay that he works [with his feet]),
They will trample you down.

²⁶ ‘So, which [of your idols] can tell you
How it all was at the start,
So we can know how it all came to be...
Have them tell us how it all came to pass!
Aren’t any of them able to speak?
For, no one has heard a reply!

²⁷ ‘I am the One who raised Zion...
The One who sent comfort to JeruSalem.

²⁸ Yet, {Look!} the nations have heard nothing at all...
No announcements have come from their idols!

‘So, if I should ask where they’re from,
No way can they give a reply.

²⁹ But you say that you were created by them...
How foolish are the ways in which you’ve been led!’

Chapter 42

¹ ‘Jacob, My child, I’ll hold onto you...
O IsraEl, you’re the one that I’ve chosen.
So [I’m sending someone] who will pour out My Breath
And who will pass judgment on the nations.

² He won’t cry out or raise his voice,
And his words won’t be heard out of doors.

³ ‘No crushed reed will he break,
And no smoking flax wick will he snuff.
But, he will truly bring what is fair...

⁴ He’ll endure and not be destroyed
Until he brings justice to the earth.

‘In his name, the nations will hope,’
⁵ Said [Jehovah our] God,

The One who made and assembled the skies,
Who founded the earth and everything in it,
And who poured His Breath on the people...
On those who walk [in His ways].

⁶ ‘I’m Jehovah, who called you in justice...
I’ll grab of your hand and I’ll give you strength.

‘With you, I made a Sacred Agreement
To make you a light to the nations,
⁷ To open the eyes of the blind,
To lead out those who are shackled,
And those who must sit in dark dungeons.

⁸ ‘I’m [Jehovah your] God... yes, that is My Name...
My glory, I’ll not give to another,
And I won’t give My glory to things that are carved.

⁹ ‘[Look!] The ancient things have already past,
And the new things that I’ll announce
Will happen before I pronounce them!

¹⁰ ‘So, sing a new hymn to Jehovah...
Glorify His Name to the ends of the earth,
O you who sail and go down to the seas,
And you who live on the islands!

¹¹ ‘And you in the deserts, be joyful,
As should you in the cities and lands,
As well as those who dwell in the cedars...
Yes those living in [caves] should be joyful,
And from the tops of the mountains, be shouting in joy.

¹² ‘For they’ll all give glory to God,
And the Islands will speak of His virtues.

¹³ Then the God of Armies, Jehovah, will come
And bring an end to all wars.

‘He’ll awaken His zeal and His strength,
And against His enemies, He will say this:

¹⁴ *Through the age, I have remained silent;
But, must I always be patient and quiet...
Must I endure like a woman with birth pangs?*

‘I’ll amaze you by making them wither away...

¹⁵ I’ll destroy their mountains and hills,
And I will dry up their grass.
Into their rivers, I’ll put islands,
And I’ll turn their marshes into dry ground.

¹⁶ ‘I’ll lead these blind ones in ways they don’t know,
And make them walk on roads they can’t see.
Then their darkness, I’ll turn into light,
And their crooked ways, I will straighten.

‘These are the things that I’ll do,
For I won’t abandon [my people]...

¹⁷ Though they will be forced to retreat.

‘So, be ashamed (yes, you should feel shame),
O you who put faith in carved [idols]...
You who say to things that were formed by your hands,
You are [truly] our gods!

¹⁸ ‘Listen to Me, you deaf mutes...

Look and see, all you blind ones!

¹⁹ For, who are as blind as My servants,
And who are can hear less than their rulers...
Yes, who are as blind as those who’ve had all?
For God’s servants have now all gone blind!

²⁰ ‘How many times have you looked, but not seen,
And with opened ears, been unable to hear?’

²¹ O the Will of Jehovah is righteous,
And it will be praised and held high again!

²² Then I beheld that it all came to pass...
The people were plundered and looted,
And in all their stores, there were snares.

So they gathered to hide inside of their homes,
Since they had all become plunder...

There was no one to save all the captured,
And no one to say, 'Give them back!'

²³ So, who will listen to these things...
Who'll pay attention to the things that will be?

²⁴ Yes, who gave Jacob to be ravaged,
And who gave IsraEl to serve as their loot?
Hadn't they sinned against God?
Didn't they choose not to walk in His ways
And to ignore all His Laws?

²⁵ So He sent upon them His anger and rage...
He sent their neighbors to burn them in war.
Yet, none understood or took it to heart.

Chapter 43

¹ So, thus says Jehovah, [your] God
(The One who made you, O Jacob;
The One who shaped you, IsraEl):
'Don't fear, for I've paid your ransom...
I called you for My Name, and now you are Mine!

² 'So, if you must pass through the waters,
I will be there [to guard] you,
And the rivers won't swallow you down.
Or if you should travel through fire,
It won't be able to burn you...
You won't be consumed by its flames.

³ 'For, I am Jehovah your God...
I'm IsraEl's Holy One and their Savior...
I'm the One who bargained for you
With Egypt, Ethiopia, and SheBah.

⁴ 'I've viewed you with value and esteem...
You were glorious and loved [in My eyes].

For you, I traded other peoples,
And for your heads, I gave rulers away.

⁵ ‘So, don’t be afraid, for I’m with you,
And from the east, I’ll lead back your seed...
From the [east and] west, I’ll return you.

⁶ ‘Then, I will say to the north:
Send them back to the south...
Do not try to restrain them!
Return My sons from your faraway lands,
And My daughters from the ends of the earth...
⁷ Release all those who’ve been called by My Name!

‘For I made them to glorify Me...
I’m the One who shaped them and made them.
⁸ But I sent them away because they were blind
(They couldn’t see, although they had eyes,
And they were deaf, although they had ears),
And I’m the One who gathered their rulers.

⁹ ‘So, who will announce all these things...
Who’ll explain the things that have happened?
Bring on those who will witness for them,
And they must [now speak the truth]...
Let’s hear them explain what has happened!

¹⁰ ‘But on My behalf, you must now testify,’ says Jehovah,
‘Then I’ll be a witness [for you]...
I’ll say that you’re the servant I’ve chosen....
But you must know and believe that I am!

¹¹ ‘No other gods came before Me,
And there’ll be no others that come after Me!
For, I am the only true God...
Other than Me there are none...
I’m the only One who can save!

¹² I've announced, delivered, and berated,
When no alien God was among you.
So, you are the ones who must now testify
That I [alone] am The God!

¹³ 'Even in the most ancient times,
No one could wrest you out of My hands,
And no one could change the things that I did!'

¹⁴ Thus says Jehovah, IsraEl's God...
The Holy One who has paid your ransom:
'I'll send to Babylon on your behalf
To arouse all those who carried you off,
And in boats, the Chaldeans will then bring you back.

¹⁵ 'So, I am [your] Most Holy God...
IsraEl's defender and king!'

¹⁶ Thus says Jehovah,
The One who put roads in the seas,
And through mighty waters, made paths...

¹⁷ The One who led chariots and horses,
Along with many strong [men],
To a sleep from which they'll never awake,
And who snuffed them out like flax wicks:

¹⁸ 'You can forget the things that came first,
And the ancient things, you don't have to consider.

¹⁹ For {Look!} now, I will bring about new things...
And you all will know what they are!

'I'll make a road through the desert,
And through waterless lands, I'll cut rivers.

²⁰ Then, all the wild beasts will give praise to Me...
Even ostrich daughters and those that are chained.

'For, into their deserts, I'll bring water...
Yes, rivers in [all their] dry places
For My chosen people to drink.

²¹ For they are the people I purchased,
And they should describe all My virtues!

²² ‘O IsraEl and [people of] Jacob;
I am the One who has called you,
And I’ve done nothing at all to wear you out.

²³ ‘Yet you brought Me no sheep or [burnt] offerings...
No sacrifices to glorify Me.
So to offerings, you were never enslaved,
And by frankincense, you were not wearied.

²⁴ ‘You offered no silver to Me,
And I didn’t desire the sacrificed fat...
So before Me, you stood in your sins,
And in all of your unrighteous ways.

²⁵ ‘I am... I’m the One who wiped them away...
All of your lawless deeds.

²⁶ Because of Myself, I’ll forget all your sins;
But you must remember all that you did!
So, come here and let us discuss them!
Yes, come and confess all your lawless ways,
So you can be righteous again!

²⁷ ‘For your fathers were the first to have sinned,
And your rulers were lawless against Me...
²⁸ My holy things were defiled by your kings,
So to destruction, I then handed Jacob...
Yes IsraEl, I gave to be scorned!’

Chapter 44

¹ ‘Now hear Me, O Jacob, My child;
Yes IsraEl, the one that I’ve chosen!

² For, Jehovah, your God
(The One who made you and shaped you) says this:

*‘Don’t be afraid, for I’ll help you!
O Jacob, My dearly-loved servant...
IsraEl, the one whom I’ve chosen.*

*³ ‘To your thirsty, I’ll provide water
As they enter a waterless land.
Then I’ll place My Breath on your seed,
And I will bless all your children.*

*⁴ They’ll grow like grass near [a river],
And like willows next to a stream.*

*⁵ ‘This one will say, I’m God’s [servant];
That one will say, I am Jacob’s;
Another will write, I am God’s,
And they’ll call themselves by IsraEl’s name.’*

*⁶ ‘This was said by your God, Jehovah of armies...
IsraEl’s Savior and King:
I am the first and the last,
And there are no Gods other than Me!*

*⁷ ‘Who else [can claim] that he’s like Me?
Let him arise and announce it...
Let him stand up and tell
How man was made in that age!*

*‘And have them tell you the future...
⁸ Don’t let them [hide] or wander away!
‘For, didn’t you hear these things long ago...
Didn’t I give a report?
So, you are the ones who can now testify
That there are no gods other Me!*

*⁹ ‘But they failed to listen back then...
Those who carved and shaped worthless things...
Those who did whatever they pleased...
Things that did them no good.
So, against themselves, they have testified!*

‘For, they didn’t see and they didn’t know
That by their bad deeds, they were shamed,
When they formed the things that they thought of as gods,
And cast moldings of things that are worthless!

‘{Look!} Those sharing in this will be shamed
¹⁰ (Those who shaped gods and carved worthless things),
¹¹ For the places that they came from will wither away.

‘So, let these dumb ones now gather
Then stand together and feel some remorse...
Together, let them all feel ashamed!

¹² ‘For the smith sharpens his tools,
And with a hammer, he works it in coals...
Then, in it, he drills holes for [handles].

‘He shapes it with the might of his arm,
As he grows hungry and weak,
Because he won’t drink any water.

¹³ ‘And the carver selects a good piece of wood,
Then he measures it out before he starts carving it
Into the shape of a man.

¹⁴ ‘He cuts down an oak tree or cedar,
Then he takes a tree that was planted by Me
And which I made grow with the rain.

¹⁵ Then part, he burns to get warm;
Part, he burns to bake bread;
And with what’s left, he shapes into a god,
To which he thereafter will bow!

¹⁶ ‘He carves it and then bows before it...
Yet, half he burned to cook meat
(To prepare a roast that would fill him).
And as he sat there warming himself,
He said, Ah, this is so good,
For I’ve seen the fire and now I am warm!

¹⁷ Then the rest, he carves into a god,
And to it, he then bows and prays,
Please save me, for you are my god!

¹⁸ ‘He doesn’t realize, nor does he think...
For his eyes are just too blind to see,
And he doesn’t comprehend in his heart...

¹⁹ Yes, He’s just too stupid to see...
Half was burned in a fire to bake bread;
Then, over the flames, roasted meat that he ate,
And with the rest, he made something disgusting
Before which, he bowed with his face to the ground!

²⁰ ‘Know that these [men] have all erred;
For the hearts [of their gods] are just ashes,
And none are able to save them!

‘{Look!} Don’t say that My right hand has lied
About the things it’s accomplished.

²¹ And, O IsraEl and Jacob;
Don’t forget the things that I’ve done!
For, you [alone] are My servant...
I shaped you and you are My slave!
So IsraEl, do not forget Me!

²² ‘{Look!} Your lawless deeds, I’ve wiped out like clouds,
And I’ve thrown all your sins in the shadows.
So, return to Me and I’ll buy you back!’

²³ Now, shout in joy, O you heavens;
For, IsraEl’s God has shown mercy on you!
And foundations of the earth, blow a trumpet...
Yes, yell in joy, you mountains and hills,
As well as the trees that live on them;
For, Jehovah’s made IsraEl glorious,
And He’s [paid the] ransom for Jacob!

²⁴ So says the Lord (the One who shaped you in the belly, and the One who ransomed you back):

‘I am Jehovah... I’m the One who accomplished it all!
I’m the One who stretched out the sky,
And the One who made solid ground!

²⁵ ‘I’m the One who wipes away the conclusions
Of the signs and omens men that bring from their hearts.
And I cause the intelligent to backtrack
By making their counsel look stupid.

²⁶ ‘I’m the One who causes to happen
Whatever My servants ask their in prayers,
And who makes the council of My messengers true.

‘I’m the One who says to JeruSalem,
You will be lived in again...
To the cities of Judah, You’ll be rebuilt...
And to her desolate places, I’ll raise you!

²⁷ ‘I tell the abyss, You’ll be empty,
And I say to the rivers, I’ll make you dry.’

‘I’m the One who’ll say this to Cyrus:
Think first and then you must do
All that I will tell you to do.
JeruSalem must be rebuilt,
And My [Temple’s] foundation must be laid.’

Chapter 45

¹ This is what God is saying to Cyrus
([The one whom He] will anoint...
The one whose hand He will grab,
And who’ll cause the nations to listen to him):

‘[For you], I will rip strength from kings,
And no doors or gates will be closed before you!

² I will travel before you,
And before you, I’ll level the mountains!
Doors of brass, I will break,
And their iron bars will be shattered.

³ ‘I’ll give you treasures unfathomed
And open to you what’s concealed and unseen,
So you’ll know that I am Jehovah, The God...
The God of IsraEl, who called you by name.

⁴ ‘Because of My servant Jacob...
Yes, because of IsraEl, My chosen,
I’ve accepted you and called you by name,
Although you have never known Me.

⁵ ‘I am Jehovah, The God...
And there are no gods other than Me!

‘I’m the One who gave you your power
Before you knew who I was,

⁶ So that those from the sun in the east
And those from where it sets in the west
Will know that there are no others beside Me.

‘I am Jehovah, The God,
And other than Me, there are none!

⁷ I prepared light and made darkness...
I’m the One who created peace and bad times.

‘I’m Jehovah, The God who accomplished it all;

⁸ So be glad you heavens above,
And let the clouds sprinkle justice...
Let the ground arise and grow mercy,
And together, let justice burst forth!

‘I’m the Lord who made all there is,
⁹ And what excellent things I did make,
As though it was done with the clay of a potter.

‘Will those who plow land, plow in one day,
And will the [thing made of] clay ask the potter:
What is it that you’ve really done?
For you don’t do any work,
And you don’t really have any hands!

¹⁰ ‘Woe to those who would ask of their fathers,
Why did you father me?
And those who would ask of their mothers,
Why did you give me birth?’

¹¹ Thus says IsraEl’s Most Holy Lord...
The One who created it all:
‘Ask Me concerning My sons
And about the works of My hands...
Yes, go on and just ask Me!

¹² ‘I made the earth and I [put] man upon it,
And I established the skies with My hands.
I’m the One who instructed the stars,
¹³ And the One who raised a just king.

‘I’m the One who made his ways straight
So that he would rebuild My city
And allow the return of My people
(But not for a ransom or gifts)’...
So says Jehovah of Armies!

¹⁴ Thus says Jehovah of Armies:
‘I’ll wear out Egypt before you,
And Ethiopians and Sabeian traders...
You’ll pass over men who were proud before you,
And they will then be your servants.

‘Thereafter, they’ll follow behind you,
Shackled and walking in chains.
I will hand them over to you,
And before you, they must then bow.

‘To you, they will pray [as though] you’re a god,
And to them, there won’t be any other.

¹⁵ Yet, [I am] a God whom you’ve never known...
IsraEl’s God and your Savior.

¹⁶ ‘So, your enemies will be shamed and remorseful
Before they’re led off in dishonor.

‘O islands, dedicate yourselves to My [cause],
¹⁷ For IsraEl will be freed by Jehovah
And [remain that way] through the age...
Through the ages, they’ll not feel shame or regret.’

¹⁸ This was what was said by Jehovah,
The One who created the heavens...
Who [formed] the earth and made it distinct...
Who did not leave it empty or void,
But shaped it as a dwelling [for man]):

‘I alone am Jehovah...
And other than Me, there are none.
¹⁹ I’ve never spoken in secret,
Nor explained things in earth’s darkest places.
And I never told Jacob’s seed
That they should seek what is foolish!

‘I’m Jehovah, the One who speaks what is just,
And the One who announces the truth.

²⁰ So, you should all gather and come here...
Yes, come here and let’s meet together,
O you who’ve been saved from the nations!

‘Yet, they still do not understand...
These one who [cut] wood and shape it,
Then pray to gods that can’t save them.

²¹ ‘Let all the announcers approach
So the whole congregation may know
Who it was that accomplished these things.

‘From ancient times, it has been announced
That I am [Jehovah], The God!
There are no others that are righteous,

And there are no others that can save them...
Yes, other than Me, there are none!

²² ‘So, turn to Me and I’ll rescue
All those who’ve been scattered to the ends of the earth...
I’m the only God... there aren’t any others!

²³ ‘I’ve sworn an oath by Myself
That what comes from My mouth will be righteous...
None of My words will be twisted.

²⁴ ‘So to Me, every knee should bend low,
And by Me, every tongue should swear oaths.
²⁵ Justice and glory should be offered before Me,
And those leaving Jehovah should feel ashamed.
²⁶ For, IsraEl’s seed must be righteous
And [speak] gloriously of their [most holy] God.’

Chapter 46

¹ ‘Bel has fallen and Dagon is broken;
For their images were bound to wild beasts and cattle,
And the load proved to be just too heavy,
So they tired and fainted from hunger.

² Thus, they were unable to save them in war,
And they too were taken as captives.

³ ‘Listen to Me, O house of Jacob!
O house of IsraEl, listen to this:
You’re the ones that I raised from the belly
And the ones I’ve corrected since childhood
⁴ Until the time you matured.

‘I am and [will be] until you grow old...
I am and I’ve had to endure you.
But, because I made [you], I’ve spared [you];
And once more, I’ll remake you and save you!

⁵ ‘To whom can I be compared?
{Look!} Contrive [and answer], O you who mislead.

⁶ You're the ones who take gold from a bag
And weigh out silver on the yoke of a scale,
Then hire smiths to hand-make your idols,
Before which, you bow to your faces.

⁷ 'If you carry them on your shoulders, they'll move;
But, when you put them down, they just sit there,
For they cannot move by themselves...
And if you should yell, they can't hear you;
So, they are unable to save you!

⁸ 'Consider these things and start moaning,
Then change your minds, O you the misled...
Yes, turn around in your hearts!

⁹ Remember all the things that have happened
Before this age came to be!

'I am the only true God,
And there are none other than Me.

¹⁰ I can tell you what happens before it takes place
Or before it comes to an end.

'I said that My purpose will stand
And all that I've planned, I will do.

¹¹ So I've summoned the [eagle] from the east
To do the things that I've spoken and planned...
I made him, I'll lead him, and he'll do it...
I'm the One who will send him and I'll prosper his ways.

¹² 'Hear Me, O you heartbreakers,
And you who've come so far from true justice!

¹³ I'm the One who sent you My justice,
And it has never been far away.

'So, I'll not be slow about saving you,
For I'm the One who appointed Zion
To be IsraEl's savior and glory!'

Chapter 47

- ¹ ‘Now, get down and sit on the ground
You virgin daughter of Babylon...
Yes, you should sit on the ground!
O virgin daughter of Chaldea;
You won’t always [sit on] a throne...
Delicate and soft, you won’t always be called.
- ² ‘Rather, get a millstone and start grinding flour...
Remove the veil from your face,
Then expose your gray hairs and uncover your legs!
For, that’s what you’ll do when you cross your rivers,
³ And show everyone your shame and your scorn.
- ‘I’ll remove my righteous from among you,
And no more will I hand my people to you.
- ⁴ For their Savior’s Name is Jehovah of Armies...
IsraEl’s Most Holy One!
- ⁵ ‘So sit down and then be stabbed through...
O daughter of Chaldea, enter the darkness!
For, you’ll be called a mighty kingdom no more!
- ⁶ ‘Because my inheritance provoked me,
I allowed you to dirty my people
And I gave them into your hands...
But you showed no mercy upon them.
- ‘For, you then oppressed their old men
And made them work hard under yokes.
- ⁷ Then you said, Through ages, I’ll rule them.
- ‘Yet, in your hearts, you had failed
To understand why this all came to be
And how this situation will end.
- ⁸ ‘Hear [what I’m saying], O delicate one...
Yes, you who are now sitting down...
The one who so easily yields...

The one who says in her heart,
I am, and there are no others,
So I'll never sit as a widow
And I will never know sorrow!

9 'But, these two things will happen to you
Suddenly and in just one day:
· You will be childless and widowed
· They will instantly come upon you,
Despite your sorcery and enchantments.

10 'In your own wicked ways, you have trusted,
And you said, I am...
And other than me, there are none!
But, you should know and understand this:
Your whoring will soon bring you shame,
Because you said [these words] in your heart:
I am... and other than me, there are none!

11 'So, instant destruction will come upon you,
And into a cesspool, you'll fall,
Where you'll know misery and never get clean.
Yes, sudden destruction will happen;
And you'll not be aware until it arrives!

12 'Now, stand there in your enchantments
And in the witchcraft you've learned since your youth.
Then, see if it does any good...

13 For your magic words have grown tired.

'Let your astrologers who gaze at the skies
(Those who examine the stars)
Now arise and announce what's coming to you!

14 '{Look!}' Like torches of sticks, your people will burn...
No way will they save their lives from the flames.

Then, you'll be forced to sit on the coals

15 Of those who looked to you for their aid.

‘You’ve worn yourself out with the traffic of youth,
And now that the men have all wandered away,
No one will be there to save you!’

Chapter 48

*Note that much of the following prophecy isn’t being spoken by The God, but by ‘the Lord,’
whom we assume to be the person who later became known as Jesus, since some of these prophecies are about him. For this reason, we have not capitalized the personal pronouns in the places where we think this person was speaking.*

- ¹ ‘Pay attention, O house of Jacob...
Yes, you who are called by IsraEl’s name...
You who’ve come from the waters of Judah...
You who swear oaths by IsraEl’s God...
- ² You who’ve forgotten justice and truth...
You who view your city as holy,
And you who lean upon IsraEl’s God,
Whose Name is Jehovah of Armies!
- ³ ‘I’m saying the same things that I’ve said before...
I’m saying the same things that came from my mouth...
The things that you heard and then happened...
The things that I spoke and then came to be!
- ⁴ ‘I know that you’re a hard [people]...
That the nerves in your necks are like iron
And your heads are [as solid as] bronze.
- ⁵ ‘I told you in the past what would happen
Long before it all came to be.
I shouted it loudly, so you couldn’t say,
This was done by my idols;
Yes, my carved idols foretold it!
- ⁶ ‘But though you heard it, you didn’t understand,
And now that I’m telling you new things;
You’ve not spoken a word in reply.

⁷ ‘For the things that I’ve said will happen to you
Won’t be the same as they’ve been in the past...
They’ll not be the same as they were long ago
Or the same as I told you before,
So you can’t say that you already knew.

⁸ ‘Yes, these are things that you haven’t known
Since the time that I opened your ears long ago,
And which I knew that you’d disregard.
For, since you were called from the belly,
You’ve continued in your lawless ways.

⁹ ‘Because of my name, I’m sending my rage...
My noble deeds, I’ll be bringing upon you...
Yet, I won’t completely wipe you away.

¹⁰ ‘{Look!} With silver, I’ve never bartered for you,
But I saved you from poverty’s furnace.

¹¹ And now, because of myself, I will act...
Because my name is being profaned,
And my glory I’ll not give to others!

¹² ‘Hear me, O Jacob, O IsraEl...
Yes you, the ones whom I’ve called...
I’m from the beginning and into the ages!

¹³ ‘The foundation of the earth, I laid with my hands,
And with my right hand, I fixed the skies.
So I’ll call to them and they’ll gather...

¹⁴ They’ll assemble and listen together!

‘But now, I’ll also speak of the things
That I’m bringing against Babylon
Because of my love for you...
For I’ll lift away the seed of Chaldea!

¹⁵ ‘I’m the one who spoke and called out to you...
I’m the one who prospered your ways.

¹⁶ So, turn your ears and hear what I’m saying!

‘What I said long ago wasn’t a secret,
For I was there when it happened.
But now, I’ve been sent by Jehovah the Lord
Along with His [Holy] Spirit.

¹⁷ And thus says Jehovah, your Savior...
IsraEl’s Most Holy One:

*‘I am Jehovah your God,
I’m the One who showed you the right ways to go.*

¹⁸ *And if you’d obeyed My Commandments,
Your peace would have flowed like a river,
And your righteous ways as the waves of the seas.*

¹⁹ *‘Your seed would have been like the sands...
Those from your bellies, as the dust on the ground.
You would never have met with destruction,
And your names would not be erased.*

²⁰ *‘But, after all of this has happened to you,
You’ll get up and leave Babylon...
Yes, you will flee from Chaldea!*

*Thus, in joy, announce this out loud
So that all will know what will happen!
Yes, send the report to the ends of the earth
That Jehovah will save Jacob, His servant!*

²¹ *And when they get thirsty in their trek through the desert,
He’ll bring them water out of a rock!*

*‘For I’ll split the rock and water will flow,
And then, My people will drink it...*

²² *But the godless will not rejoice over this,
Says Jehovah, [your God].’*

Chapter 49

*Note that much of the following prophecy is not actually being spoken by God but by ‘the Lord,’
whom we assume to be the person who later became known as Jesus, since some of these prophecies are about him. So, we have not capitalized the personal pronouns in the places where we think he was speaking.*

Yes, pay attention O nations;
For after some time, it will happen,’ said the Lord.

‘From the belly of my mother, He called me by name
² And He made my mouth a sharp sword.
In the protection of His hand, He then hid me;
Yes, I’m the one He selected
As the favored arrow in His quiver.

³ Then He said, You are My servant!
And through you, I’ll be glorified.

⁴ ‘But I replied, I’m useless and tired,
So it will all be in vain,
Since I’ve used all my strength and gained nothing.
I have been judged by Jehovah,
And all my works [were examined] by God.

⁵ ‘But now, says Jehovah
(the One who shaped me as His servant from the belly),
You must collect Jacob for Me
So that IsraEl will all be returned.

‘He said that before Him, I’ll be glorified,
And in my God, I’ll gain strength.

⁶ He said, To be called My servant
Is truly the greatest of things;
For the tribes of Jacob, you will return,
And you’ll bring back the scattered of IsraEl.

{Look!} I’ve made a Sacred Agreement with them
To be a race that’ll serve as a light to the nations,
And bring salvation to the ends of the earth.

⁷ ‘Yes Jehovah, IsraEl’s God
(The One who will bring them salvation) says this:
You must treat [this person] as holy
Who views his life as having no value...

*The one whom the nations will hate,
And be abhorred by the servants of rulers.*

*‘But, kings will see him and rulers will rise;
Then before him, they all will bow low,
Because this Lord is trustworthy...
He’s My chosen and IsraEl’s most holy one!
Yes, this most holy one can be trusted,
And he’s the one that I’ve chosen, ⁸ said Jehovah.*

*‘So at a time that I have appointed,
I’ll pay attention to you,
And on the Day of Salvation, I’ll save you.*

*‘For, I’m the one by whom you were formed,
And now I have promised the nations
That I’ll reestablish your land...
You’ll inherit an inheritance that’s been wiped away.*

*⁹ ‘So, tell those in chains that they can now leave,
And tell those in the darkness to walk toward [the light]!
For, in all your paths, there’ll be grazing,
And along all your roads, there’ll be pastures.*

*¹⁰ ‘There you’ll no longer be hungry or thirsty,
And you won’t be burned by the sun or hot winds.
For My merciful one will send comfort to you
And lead you beside springs of water...*

*¹¹ He’ll flatten the mountains that stand in your way,
And the roads will serve as your pastures.*

*¹² ‘{Look!} [My people] will come from a distance...
Some from the north and some from the west,
And others from the land of the Persians.*

*¹³ ‘So be glad, you heavens...
Yes, cry out in joy, O you earth...
And mountains, be splitting with glee!*

For, God has shown mercy on His people,
And to those who are meek, He's brought comfort.

¹⁴ 'For in Zion, these words have been said:

*By Jehovah, I had been abandoned...
By the Lord, I had been forgotten!*

¹⁵ 'But Jehovah replied and said this:

*Will a woman forget her own child...
Will she forget to show mercy
On the one that sprang from her belly?*

*'Yet, if a woman could ever forget;
I will never forget you.*

¹⁶ *For {Look!} I've sketched your walls on My hands,
So that you are always before Me.*

¹⁷ *Thus, what was demolished will soon be rebuilt,
And those who destroy you will soon be destroyed.*

¹⁸ 'Look up, look around, and see it with your eyes!
{Look!} They've all been gathered and returned!'

*'As I live, says Jehovah;
You'll wear them as ornaments over your clothes...
You'll wear them as the jewels of a bride.*

¹⁹ *'Now, all of your desolate places
(Those that had once been destroyed,
As well as those that had fallen)
Will then become too confining
For all of those who will dwell there;
Since, those who once swallowed you down
Will then be sent far away.*

²⁰ 'And at that, my [people] will say in your ears:
*This place is too cramped for the sons we had lost;
So, please make new places where they can live!*

²¹ 'And then you will ask in your hearts:
Who made me a father to them?

*For I'm childless, widowed, and an unwelcome stranger.
But these... who told me to feed them?
Yes, I had been left all alone...
But these... from where did I get them?'*

²² *'Look, says Jehovah, the Lord;
I'll be lifting My hand to the nations,
And on the islands, I'll be raising My sign.
Then they'll lift your sons to their chests,
And your daughters, they'll lift on their shoulders.*

²³ *'Their kings will then serve as your [butlers],
And their queens will be your wet nurses.
Before you, they'll bow to the ground,
And they'll lick the dust from your feet.*

*'Then you'll know that I am Jehovah,
And those waiting for Me will never be shamed.*

²⁴ *'Can someone take loot from a giant,
And will the captured be saved without ransom?*

²⁵ *No, for thus says Jehovah:
If someone can capture a giant,
He can take all the things that he owns...
In safety, he can loot from the strong.*

*'Now, I'm the One who is pleading your case,
And I'm the One who will rescue your sons.*

²⁶ *So, those who oppress you will eat their own flesh,
And the wine that they drink will be their own blood.*

*'Then, they will get drunk and all flesh will see
That I am Jehovah, your Savior...
The One who gives Jacob his power.'*

Chapter 50

*Note that much of the following prophecy is not actually being spoken by God but by 'the Lord,'
whom we assume to be the person who later became known as Jesus,*

since some of these prophecies are about him. So, we have not capitalized the personal pronouns in the places where we think he was speaking.

¹ And then the Lord said this to me:

‘What kind of divorce certificate is this,
By which I sent you back to your mother...
Yes, whom did I owe that I’ve sold you?

‘{Look!} You were sold because of your sins,
And I sent you home to your mother
Because of your lawless ways!

² ‘When I was there, was there no man?
Yet, when I called you, no one replied.

‘And now, aren’t my hands strong enough
To rescue you and return you...
Am I unable to save you?

‘{Look!} I can scold the seas and wipe them away,
And I can desolate rivers,
Leaving their fish without water,
So they will die in their thirst!

³ ‘With darkness, I can clothe skies,
And wrap them in robes made of sackcloth!’

⁴ ‘Jehovah gave me a tongue to instruct
And a knowledge of when to speak the right words.
Morning after morning, He stood there by me
And gave me ears, so I’d listen...

⁵ [He] opened my ears to instructions,
And I didn’t resist Him or argue.

⁶ ‘So my back, I gave to be whipped,
And my jaws, [I left open] to slaps.
Then to shame those spitting on me,
I did not turn my face.

⁷ ‘For the Lord Jehovah is my helper,
And for this, I won’t let them shame me.

Then I set my face as solid as rock
So that I would not bring [Him] dishonor.
⁸ For the One who's declared me righteous is close...
And by Him alone, am I judged.

'So, which [of you] would now judge me?
Let him [stand up and] oppose me!
Yes, who is the one that would judge me?
Let him come and resist me!

⁹ '{Look!}' Since Jehovah will come to my aid,
Who is able to harm me?
{Look!} For like and old robe, such ones will wear out,
And then they'll be eaten by moths!

¹⁰ 'Who among you has fear of Jehovah?
If you do; obey the voice of His servant!
So, may those who travel in darkness
(Those for whom there has been no light)
Yield to the name of the Lord,
And lean upon God for support!

¹¹ '{Look!}' Though you've lit a fire and helped the flames grow,
You were then [drawn] to its light...
Toward the very same flame that you kindled!
And because of me, this has happened,
So in anguish, you'll spend the rest of your nights!'

Chapter 51

Continuation of a Messianic Prophecy.

¹ 'Listen to me, O you righteous...
You who are seeking Jehovah;
Look to the rock that you've quarried
And into the pit of the well that you've dug!
² Look to AbraHam, your father,
And to SarAh, who bore you!

‘Though he was just [flesh], I called out to him...
Yes, I loved him and blest him,
And I prospered his [ways].

³ ‘So, I will bring comfort to Zion...
To your desolate places, I will [bring rest]...
A paradise of God, I will make them.

‘Then, your western lands will be gardens,
And those dwelling there will be happy...
They will be leaping for joy,
And [raising] their voices in praise.

⁴ ‘Listen... yes, hear me, my people;
And kings, give an ear to the things that I say!
For, I will send you my laws
And my judgments will enlighten the nations.

⁵ ‘My justice will come to them swiftly,
And my saving light will quickly arrive.
Then, they will put faith in my arm...
Yes, even the islands will wait upon me,
And they will trust in [the might of] my arms.

⁶ ‘So, lift your eyes to the skies,
Then look to the ground underneath you!
For the skies [will be filled with] smoke,
And the earth will wear out like old clothes...
And though those who live there will die;
My salvation will last through the age...
There’s no way that my justice will fail!

⁷ ‘Hear me, O you who know justice;
For you people have my laws in your hearts.
So, don’t fear the scorning of men,
And don’t let their bad words defeat you!

⁸ ‘Though clothes will wear out with time,
And wool will be eaten by moths;

My justice will last through the ages,
And my salvation is through generations.

⁹ ‘Wake up... wake up, O JeruSalem,
And put on the might of your arm!
Wake up as you did in past days...
Like generations that lived in past ages!

‘Haven’t you [people] been dug up
And ripped apart by the dragon?

¹⁰ But, for your sake, I parted the sea
(All that abundant, deep water),
And then I made a road through its depths,
To create a ford for those being saved...

¹¹ For those whose ransom I paid!

‘So, it’s by Jehovah that they’ll be returned...
They’ll go back to Zion in gladness...
Through the ages, they’ll be leaping for joy!

‘Upon their heads, there’ll be blessings,
And with great joy, they’ll be overcome,
Since their anguish, grief, and moaning will have ceased.

¹² ‘I am... I’m the one who brings comfort!
So, know who it is that you should fear,
Since men and their sons will dry up like grass!

¹³ ‘For, you’ve forgotten your Maker, your God...
The One who created the skies
And who laid the foundations of the earth!
You should fear Him throughout all your days,
Before the oppressor [arrives]...
The one that [has plans to] carry you off!

‘[But don’t fear] the rage of your oppressor;

¹⁴ For, when it comes to bringing salvation,
[Your God] won’t stop or waste time.

¹⁵ He’s the One who jostles the seas...

The One who makes its waves roar...

His Name is Jehovah of Armies.

¹⁶ ‘He’s the One who puts His words in your mouths
And shelters you inside of His hand.

He’s the One who established the heavens...

The One who founded the earth...

And the One who said, You’re My people, to Zion,

¹⁷ ‘So, wake up... yes arise, O JeruSalem...

You who will drink rage from the cup

That comes from the hand of Jehovah!

Receive your blows from that cup,

And drink them until they’re all gone!

¹⁸ ‘For no others gave comfort to the children you bore,
And no others held the hands of the sons that you raised.

¹⁹ So, when all these bad things come upon you,

Who will share in your grief...

When downfall, defeat, and hunger arrive,

Along with the edge of the sword...

Whom do you think will bring comfort?

²⁰ ‘At that time, your sons will all be confused,

And like half-boiled beets, they’ll sleep in the streets...

They’ll feel the rage of the Lord,

And before Jehovah, they’ll faint.

²¹ ‘So, you who’ve been humbled should listen
(Yes, you who are drunk, but not from the wine)!

²² For, thus says [Jehovah your] God...

The One who is judging His people:

‘{Look!} I’ve taken the cup of blows from your hands,

Which is the cup of My rage,

So that you must no longer drink it.

²³ ‘For then, I’ll put it into the hands

Of those who’ve been doing you wrong...

*Those who are humbling you...
Those telling your souls to bow as they pass...
Those who've cut all your things to the ground,
And laid them outside for all passing by.'*

Chapter 52

Continuation of Messianic Prophecy.

O Zion, put on all your strength!
O holy city of JeruSalem,
Put on [all of] your glory!
For the uncircumcised and unclean
Will no longer be passing through you.

² 'So, shake off the dust and arise...
Sit down and remove the chains from your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion!

³ For, thus says Jehovah [your God]:
*Since you were sold for no money;
You won't have to be ransomed with silver.*

⁴ 'Yes, thus says Jehovah, your Lord:
*My people once went down to Egypt
And they stayed in that place for a while...
But then, to Assyria, they were taken by force...*

⁵ Do you know why all of this this happened?'

Then the Lord told me this:
'Since my people were taken without payment,
[All should] wonder and shriek!
For, this was said by Jehovah:
*'It's because My Name was blasphemed by you
Among all the rest of the nations.
⁶ But, you will remember My Name once again...*

*Yes, in that day, you'll know who I am...
For this One who is speaking will come there!*

⁷ 'As a time of beauty on the mountains...
As welcome as the feet that are bringing good news...
As joyful as a message of peace
When good things are being announced,
Will be the day when I save you,
And your God is reigning on Zion again.

⁸ 'Then the voices of those keeping watch will be raised,
And all their shouts will be joyful.
For they'll see it happen with their own eyes...
When Jehovah shows mercy on Zion.

⁹ 'Then JeruSalem's desolate places
Will applaud together in joy,
Because Jehovah's shown mercy on them...
And brought salvation to JeruSalem!

¹⁰ 'Jehovah will bare His great holy arm
Before all of the nations,
And it will be seen to the ends of the earth...
This salvation that comes from our God.

¹¹ 'So, leave... get out... get away,
And stop touching the thing that's unclean!
Get out of its midst and stay far away,
You who bear the Lord's [holy things]!

¹² 'For you'll leave without any trouble,
And as you go, you won't have to run,
Since your Lord will travel before you,
And IsraEl's God will cover your rear.

¹³ '{Look!} My servant will then understand,
For he'll be glorified and exalted...
He'll be raised exceedingly high

¹⁴ To the amazement of all.

‘Though men will despise his appearance,
And his glory will be hated by sons of men;
¹⁵ The nations will wonder at him,
And at him, [their] kings [will cover] their mouths.
For, things untold, they’ll see about him...
Things they’ve not heard or understood.’

Chapter 53

Continuation of Messianic Prophecy.

Who has trusted the report of the Lord
And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

² ‘We’ve announced that a boy has appeared before Him
As a root in land that is dry.
He doesn’t have glory or looks...
We’ve seen him, and he doesn’t have beauty.

³ ‘He’s appeared as one who’s dishonored,
And by sons of men, he seemed lacking.
He’s a man [who was born] for disaster,
And he knows how to bear the illness of men.

Since he turned his face in dishonor,
He wasn’t [thought of as great].

⁴ But, he has carried our sins;
And because of us, he’s come to know grief.

‘He came here to know misery...
For calamity and ill treatment by God.

⁵ He was wounded because of our sins,
And for our lawless deeds, he was bruised.

‘[To bring us] peace, he was whipped,
And by his stripes, we were healed.

⁶ For just like sheep, we’ve all strayed,
And in our own ways, we have wandered.

‘So [God] sent him to [cover] our sins;
7 And when evil was inflicted upon him,
He did not open his mouth...
He was led like a sheep to the slaughter.
And like a lamb with no voice before shearers,
He did not open his mouth.

8 ‘In humiliation, his justice was taken away...
Who can speak of the evil of that generation?
His life was lifted away from the land,
And he was led to his death
For the lawless ways of My people.

9 ‘Though they made his grave with the wicked,
Among the rich, [he was buried].
For, he had broken no Laws,
Nor was treachery found in his mouth.

10 ‘It was [God’s] Will to cleanse him [with stripes].
But, [because he] was brought as an offering for sins,
Your seed will know very long lives.

11 It was the Will of Jehovah...
It was by His hand that He would remove
The misery that his life came to know...
As well as to show him the light...
To give him great understanding...
And to prove this righteous one just...
This good one who would serve for so many
In order to bear all their sins.

12 ‘For this, he inherited many,
And he’ll share his spoils with his mighty,
Because his soul was handed to death
And among the lawless, he was numbered.
For, the sins of many, he bore...
And for their lawless deeds, he was given.

Chapter 54

¹ ‘So be glad, all you who are sterile,
And yell, O you who haven’t given birth...
Yes you, the ones without birth pains!
For the children of the barren will be many...
More than those who have [their own] man!
For the Lord Jehovah spoke and said this:

² *‘Widen the place for your tent,
And hang leather coverings on [its walls]!
Don’t scrimp... take plenty of land,
And then, you should strengthen your tent pegs...
³ Spread out [your tent] to the right and the left!
For your seed will inherit the nations,
And in their empty cities, you’ll dwell.*

⁴ ‘So don’t fear that you’ve been disgraced
Or be ashamed that you have been scolded;
For you’ll soon forget all this shame,
And the scorn of the widows will pass,
⁵ Because the Lord has remade you...
The One whose Name is Jehovah of Armies.
Yes, you’ve been saved by IsraEl’s God,
And He will be called, the God of the earth.

⁶ ‘[He] didn’t call you as a woman forsaken...
One broken-hearted and hated since youth.
For, this is what was said by your God:

⁷ *‘Though I abandoned you for a while;
Upon you, I’ll now show great mercy.
⁸ And though I turned My face in rage for a while,
Ages of mercy, I’ll show you,
Said Jehovah, your Savior.*

⁹ *‘This has long been My plan,
Since the waters fell upon Noah.*

*For the oath that I swore toward the earth at that time
Was to send My rage against it no more...
Since I didn't want to you fear Me again.*

¹⁰ *'So your mountains [will never] be changed,
And your hills will not be taken away.
My mercy on you will not fail,
And My Agreement for peace will not be removed.
Yes, that's how Jehovah spoke kindly of you.*

¹¹ *'Though I've humbled you and confused you,
And you've not received any comfort from Me,
{Look!} I've prepared garnets as your building stones
And sapphires for your foundations.*

¹² *I'll make your parapets of jasper;
With crystal stones, I'll build your gates;
And I'll use the choicest of [gems] for your doors.*

¹³ *'Then, all your sons will be taught about God,
And much peace will be sent to your children.*

¹⁴ *You'll be established on justice
Far away from all the unrighteous.
For then, you'll have nothing to fear,
And trembling will never approach you.*

¹⁵ *{Look!} Because of Me, strangers will come,
And with you, they will then wish to stay...
For they'll run to you as their refuge.*

¹⁶ *{Look!} I did not make you a forge to blow coals,
Nor did I buy you as tools to do work.*

*For corruption or destruction, you were not made;
¹⁷ So no weapons that they bring against you will win.*

*'Then the voices of those who've condemned you will end...
This is what God's servants will inherit.
And before Me, you will be found righteous, says Jehovah.'*

Come buy and eat without money...

Yes, come here and buy without paying

For even fat calves and the finest of wines!

² 'Why place money higher than bread...

Your efforts into things that won't fill you?

Listen to Me and eat good things...

Yes, your souls will find joy among good things!

³ 'So your ears must pay close attention,

And then you must walk in My ways...

Yes, come and listen to Me,

And your souls will receive all that is good!

I'll proclaim an Agreement with him through the age

For the sacred, trusted things of [King] David.

⁴ {Look!} I'll seat him as a proof to the nations...

As a ruler and signal to the peoples.

⁵ {Look!} Nations you don't know will call upon him...

Those you don't know will seek refuge in him,

Because of your God Jehovah...

Because of IsraEl's Most Holy One...

For by Him, you'll be glorified.

⁶ 'So, each of you must search for Jehovah,

And when you find Him, you must call out to Him...

Then, He will draw close to you.

⁷ 'The irreverent should leave their bad ways,

And the lawless should abandon their evil plans!

For, if they'll return to Jehovah,

Our God will show mercy upon them...

He'll even forgive the worst of their sins!

⁸ 'Your plans are not like My plans,

And your ways are not like My ways, says Jehovah.

⁹ *As far as the heavens are over the earth,
Are My ways higher than your ways,
And My thoughts higher than your thoughts.*

¹⁰ *'For as rain and snow fall from the skies
And do not return 'til they soak the ground,
And the earth gives birth and sprouts [plants],
Which give seeds to the planters and bread as their food;*

¹¹ *So are the words that come from My mouth...
To Me, they won't return empty,
Until they complete whatever I wish...
So I'll prosper your ways in ways I see fit.*

¹² *'Then you will travel in joy,
And you will be led out in gladness.
For the mountains and hills will be leaping
And be ready to receive you in favor and care,
As the trees in the fields clap their branches.*

¹³ *'Instead of brush piles, cypress will grow,
And instead of briars, myrtles will sprout.
Then Jehovah's Name will be known,
And through the ages, it will serve as a sign
That will never come to an end.*

Chapter 56

¹ *'Jehovah says:
Guard right decisions and justice,
For salvation from Me has approached...
Yes, you will soon witness My mercy.*

² *'Blest is the man who is doing these things,
As well as the one who is holding them [dear]...
The one who is guarding the Sabbaths
And is careful not to profane them,
As well as the one who keeps watch on his hands,
So he never does what's unrighteous.*

³ ‘Don’t let the foreigners say
(Those who’ve come to be joined to the Lord),
Jehovah has set me apart from His people.
And may the eunuch not say,
I am just a dry tree!

⁴ ‘For, thus says Jehovah to eunuchs
And to those who are keeping His Sabbaths...
To all who choose to do as He wills
And hold on to His Sacred Agreement:

⁵ ‘I’ll give you something better than daughters and sons...
From My [Temple] and famous walled [city],
I’ll give you a name through the ages...
[A name] that will never expire.

⁶ ‘I’ll give it to those foreign peoples
Who come to be joined to the Lord...
To those who love him and bow to his name...
To those women and men who will serve him,
And to all who are keeping My Sabbaths
(To those who do not profane them),
And to those who hold onto My Sacred Agreement.

⁷ ‘To My Holy Mountain, I’ll bring them,
And I’ll give them joy in My House of Prayer.
I will accept their burnt offerings
And all that they bring to My Altar.
For, at that time, My [Temple] will be called
A House of Prayer for all Nations.’

⁸ ‘This was all said by Jehovah...
The One who’ll return IsraEl’s scattered.
He’ll call them for an assembly

⁹ To which the wild beasts are invited...
The wild beasts of the woods will go there and eat!

¹⁰ ‘See how they all have been blinded...
Those dumb dogs who don’t know how to bark...

Those dreaming of beds and those fond of slumber...

¹¹ Those impudent dogs with unfulfilled lives.

‘For they’re wicked and they don’t understand,
And they’ve followed the ways that they’ve chosen
To gain an unfair advantage...

Those who say, ¹² Come here and get wine;

Then, let’s all drink ‘til we’re drunk.

For tomorrow will be a much better day!

Because they don’t watch their hearts.

So the righteous are lifted away,

And no one gives it a thought.

‘Yes, the just are lifted away

Before the face of injustice.

² And though they’ll find peace in their graves,

They’ve been lifted away from your midst.

³ Then the sons [of the] lawless are led before Me...

The seed of adulterers and whores!

⁴ ‘In what have you found such enjoyment?

Against whom have you opened your mouths

To say wicked things with your tongues?

Aren’t you the sons of destruction...

A seed without any honor?

⁵ ‘Aren’t you the ones who call out to idols

From under all the bushes and trees?

Aren’t you the ones who slay your own babies

Between the rocks in the valleys?

⁶ ‘Yes, this is your portion... this is your lot;

For to [idols], you’ve poured out drink offerings,

And to them, you’ve brought sacrifices...

Wouldn’t such things provoke Me to rage?

⁷ ‘You make your beds on the tops of high hills,
And you carry sacrifices up there.

⁸ Then, behind your doors, you place [idols]...
Do you think that if you left Me, you’ll prosper?

‘You’ve loved all those with whom you have slept...

⁹ Those with whom you’ve done whoring...
And how many [lovers] you’ve left behind!

‘You’ve sent ambassadors across all your borders;
And for this, you’ve been [cursed] to the place of the dead.

¹⁰ But, though you’ve tired of your many [bad] ways,
You’ve never said, I’ll repent!

Yes, you have done all these bad things;
And for this, I won’t listen to the things that you beg!

¹¹ ‘You’ve held sacred those things that you fear,
And against Me, you have all lied...

You’ve never stopped to consider
Or to think of Me in your hearts!

¹² So, I will report your [in]justice,
And your evils won’t benefit you.

¹³ ‘Then, in your [time of] affliction,
And when you must yell out [for aid],
Ask [your idols] to save you!
For the wind will take all your things,
And a gale will blow them away.

‘But, those who choose to hold onto Me
Are the ones who’ll [inherit \[the\] land](#),
As well as My Holy Mountain.

¹⁴ ‘Then, at that time, I will say:
Come and smooth out the roads...
Take the rocks from the paths of My people!’

¹⁵ Thus says the Most High God in the heights...
The One who rests in His Most Holy Place...

That place where He dwells through the ages,
In His Most-Holy of Holies...

Jehovah is His [great] Name.

He's the One who is patient with the meek
And gives life to those who have broken hearts:

¹⁶ 'I'll not punish you [again] through this age,
Nor will I remain angry with you.

I will pour My Spirit upon you;
For I'm the One who gave you your breath!

¹⁷ 'Because of their sins, I grieved them a while...
I turned My face and I struck them...
I brought them grief and they traveled in gloom.

¹⁸ 'But I saw all their ways and I healed them;
I gave them comfort... comfort that's true.

¹⁹ Yes, I brought peace upon peace
To those who are near and those far away.'

And Jehovah said:

'As the result, I will heal them!

²⁰ But the unrighteous will roll like the waves,
And they'll be unable to rest...

²¹ There'll be no peace for the godless,' said God.

Chapter 58

¹ 'Yell it out loud... don't hold it back!
Raise your voices like trumpets,
And announce the sins of My people...
Tell the house of Jacob how lawless they've been!

² 'But the day will come when they'll seek Me
And wish to know all My ways.
For they'll be a righteous people again,
And they won't abandon the justice of God.

'Even now, they ask for My righteous decisions,
And they want to come closer to God.

³ They have repeatedly asked Me:
*Why haven't You looked when we fasted...
Why didn't You notice when we humbled our souls?*

*'[But, this is what you should tell them]:
On the days that you fast, you do as you please...
And you oppress those whom [you employ].*

⁴ *'You fast [to win] lawsuits and battles,
As you beat the humble with your fists.
So, why are you fasting to Me
In the ways that you're doing today...
Just to hear the sounds of your voices?*

⁵ *'I never chose fasts for such reasons;
For, when you fast, you should humble your souls.
So, don't bend your necks in a crook,
Or wear sackcloth with ashes beneath you;
For, when you call fasts for such reasons,
I will refuse to accept them.'*

⁶ *'Jehovah says:
I've not asked you to fast for such things.
I've asked you to loosen the bonds of injustice,
And to end your violent exchanges.*

*'Send away freely, those who've been wronged,
And tear up your unrighteous [contracts]!*

⁷ *'Break bread with those who are hungry,
And accept the homeless and poor in your homes!*

*'If you see someone naked, provide him with clothes!
And concerning the seed of your family;
You should dislike them no more!*

⁸ *'Then, the next morning, light will break through,
And the things that need cures will be gone.'*

*'[If you should choose to do all these things],
The righteousness will travel with you,*

And the glory of God will protect you.
⁹ When you call to Jehovah, He'll listen,
And while you're still speaking, He'll say, Here I am!'

'If you'll get rid of your evil plans,
[And happily] stretch out your hands...
¹⁰ If you will open your hearts
And give bread to the hungry
Until the souls of the humble are filled;
Your light will arise from the darkness,
And your darkness will be as midday;
¹¹ Your God will always be with you,
And you'll [get] all the things that you want.

'Like well-watered gardens, your bones will grow fat,
And you'll be like springs in a desert.
¹² Your desolate places will all be rebuilt...
For generations of generations, their foundations will last.
You'll be called a builder of walls,
And there'll be no stones in your paths.

¹³ 'If you'll turn your feet toward the Sabbaths,
And not do as you wish on this holy day;
If you'll call the Sabbaths delightful
(Things that are holy to God);
If you won't lift a foot to do work,
Nor let angry words flow from your mouths,
¹⁴ And you just rely on Jehovah;
To your land, He will send blessings...
He'll feed the inheritance of Jacob (your father).'

From the mouth of the Lord, these things were all said.

Chapter 59

- ¹ Is the hand of Jehovah too weak to save...
Are His ears too heavy to listen?
- ² It's your sins that have brought this division

Between yourselves and your God...
It's because of your sins that He's turned away
So as not to show mercy upon you.

³ For your hands are tainted with blood,
And your fingers [are covered with] sins.
Your lips speak about lawless things,
And your tongues discuss what's unrighteous.

⁴ Of righteous things, you no longer talk,
Nor is there any true justice.
You're relying on things that are foolish,
And the words that you speak are all empty.

To things that are lawless, you've given birth,
And to misery, you are a father.

⁵ You hatch eggs of asps and weave spider's webs;
But, before they can be devoured,
A rotten egg breaks and out comes a cobra.

⁶ So, they won't weave your webs into clothes,
And you'll not wear the rest of the things that you've made;
For, all that you're doing is lawless.

⁷ Your feet now run toward what's wicked,
And you're quick to shed innocent blood.
Your thoughts are all about murder...
In your paths, are misery and destruction.

⁸ The ways of peace, you've not known,
And in your roads, there's injustice.
The paths that you walk are all twisted,
And peaceful ways, you've forgotten.

⁹ Yes, things that are fair have all left you...
There's no way that you will be just.

So, as these people are waiting for light
(As they're awaiting the sunrise),

All that comes will be darkness,
And they'll walk as though it were midnight.

¹⁰ Along the walls, like blind men, they'll grope
(They'll grope like men with no eyes),
And they'll stumble at noon as at midnight...
Then, moan like those who are dying...
¹¹ They'll travel like a bear with a dove.

So although we have waited for justice,
Our salvation is still far away,
¹² Since our lawless ways before Him are great,
And our sins haven't been left behind.

Yes, our lawless ways are still in us,
And we're aware of all our offenses.
¹³ We've lied and we have been godless...
We have departed from God.

We've spoken unjustly and don't wish to change...
Of unrighteous things, we think in our hearts.
¹⁴ We've left behind all that is fair,
And justice is now far away.

Truth is being consumed in our ways,
And we're unable to walk in straight paths.
¹⁵ Yes, truth has been lifted away,
And the thoughts of the knowing are twisted.

Jehovah saw this and He wasn't pleased;
For, nowhere could fairness be found.
¹⁶ He thought and beheld that there's no one...
Not a man who'll give aid [to another].

So, with His arm, He became their defender...
In His mercy, He gave them support.

¹⁷ He put on the chest plate of justice,
And the helmet of salvation, He raised to His head.

¹⁸ In the coat of vengeance, He then wrapped Himself

(In the robe of deserved retribution)
To repay the scorn of His enemies.

¹⁹ So, Jehovah's Name will be feared in the west,
And in the east, they'll honor and respect Him.
For the anger of the Lord is now blazing
Like the rage of a river.

²⁰ 'Then a savior will come out of Zion
Who'll remove the irreverence from Jacob,' said Jehovah.

²¹ 'And this is My Promise to him:
*My Spirit will rest upon you
And I'll put My words in your mouth.
At that time, your mouth not will fail you,
Nor will the mouths of your seed
From now and into the ages.'*

Chapter 60

¹ So now, you should walk toward the light...
O JeruSalem, be lighted once more!
For His light is shining upon you,
Since the glory of Jehovah has risen!

² {Look!} Though darkness will cover the earth
And the nations will be covered with gloom;
Over you, the Lord will appear,
And His glory will shine down upon you.

³ Then the nations will be drawn to your light,
And their kings will [head toward] your brightness.

⁴ So, lift your eyes and look all around,
For you'll see your children being gathered...
From far-away places, your sons will return,
And your daughters will be carried on shoulders.

⁵ You'll see it in fear and your hearts will [skip beats];
For the wealth of the seas will then turn toward you,
And to you, the nations and peoples will stream.

⁶ Then, teams of camels, you'll own;
For the camels of Midian, Ephah, and Sheba
Will arrive bearing gold and frankincense...
And with the good news of Jehovah's salvation.

⁷ 'The sheep of Cypress will be gathered to you,
And NebAiOth's rams will come also
To be sacrificed on My Altar,
And My House of Prayer will be glorified.

⁸ 'Who are these that fly by like clouds...
Passing by like doves with their young?

⁹ 'Islands have waited upon Me...
But first, the boats of TarShish must come
To return your children from faraway lands,
Along with much silver and gold,
To honor the Name of the Lord...
To glorify IsraEl's Most Holy One.

¹⁰ 'Then, foreigners will come to rebuild your walls,
And their kings will be standing beside you.

'And though I struck you because of My rage;
It's because of My mercy that you will be loved.

¹¹ 'Then your gates will always be open
(Both day and night they'll never be locked)
To bring in the might of the nations...
And their kings will be leading the way!

¹² 'The nations and kings who won't serve you will die...
They'll be wiped away and destroyed.

¹³ But to you, the glories of Lebanon will come...
They'll bring cypress, pine lumber, and cedars
In order to glorify My Holy Place...
I'll glorify the Place where you're standing.

¹⁴ 'Then the sons of those who once humbled you
Will stand before you in awe.

And those who provoked you will bow
With their heads at the soles of your feet.
You'll be called the City of [God]...
And IsraEl's Most Holy Place, Zion.

¹⁵ 'Because you were abandoned and hated,
And no one came to your aid;
Through the ages, I'll make you a leaping for joy,
And a gladness throughout generations.

¹⁶ 'You'll drink the milk of the nations,
And from the wealth of kings, you will eat.
Then you'll know that I am Jehovah...
Jacob's God, who rescues and saves.

¹⁷ 'Then instead of bronze, I'll bring gold;
Instead of iron, I'll bring silver;
Instead of wood, I'll bring bronze;
And instead of stones, I'll bring iron.

'I'll appoint your rulers for peace,
And appoint your overseers for justice.

¹⁸ No more, will injustice be heard in your land...
No misery or destruction in your borders.
For your walls will be known as Salvation,
And your gates will be called Shouts of Joy.

¹⁹ 'No longer will your days be lit by the sun
And the moon won't be the light for your nights.
For through ages, Jehovah will serve as your light...
Yes, God will then be your glory!

²⁰ 'Upon you, the sun will not set,
And the moon will never subside.
For the Lord is your light through the ages,
And your reasons to mourn will be gone.

²¹ 'Then, all your people will be righteous
And they'll inherit the land through the ages.

They will keep all the things that they plant,
And the works of their hands, they will own.

²² ‘The remnant will then become thousands,
And the least will become a great nation;
For in time, Jehovah will bring them all back.’

Chapter 61

¹ ‘The Breath of Jehovah is upon me,
And I’ve been anointed by Him
To announce good news to the poor.

‘He sent me to heal broken hearts,
To proclaim freedom to captives
And a recovery of sight to the blind...

² To call for a year of [God’s] favor,
As well as a day of [God’s] vengeance,
And to comfort those who are sad.

³ ‘Instead of ashes, I’ll bringing glory
To those who are mourning for Zion...
An anointing of gladness to all those who mourn
That will serve as a glorious clothing,
Instead of the spirit of being unclean.

‘They’ll be called, *A Generations of the Righteous...
A Planting to the Glory of [God]*.

⁴ Then, through the ages, they’ll build in the deserts...
In places that were once desolation.

‘They’ll arise and revive desert cities,
Which, through generations, lay wasted.

⁵ Foreign peoples will come there to tend your sheep,
And Philistines will be your vinedressers and plowmen.

⁶ ‘Then, Priests of Jehovah, you will be called...
They’ll say you’re the servants of God.
You’ll devour the strength of the nations,
And be admired because of your wealth.

⁷ So, once again, you'll inherit the land,
With ages of joy over your heads.

⁸ 'For, I am the Lord... a lover of justice,
And one who hates unrighteous seizures.
So, to the righteous, I will return
The things for which they've worked hard,
And I'll make an age-long Agreement with them.

⁹ 'Then their seed will be known by the nations,
And their descendants will be known by all people.
Yes, all who see them will recognize them,
For they'll be a seed that is blest by God

¹⁰ And find joy in the joy of the Lord.

'May my soul shout in praise of Jehovah,
For He's wrapped me in a coat of salvation
And in an inner garment of joy!
A garland, He's placed on my head, like a groom,
And like a bride, He's adorned me with jewels.

¹¹ 'As flowers that grow from the ground
And as seeds that sprout in a garden,
The Lord Jehovah will raise what is righteous,
And bring joy to all of the nations.

Chapter 62

¹ 'For Zion, I will not stay silent,
And for JeruSalem, I will spare none
Until my justice goes forth like the light,
And my salvation burns like a lamp.

² 'Then the nations will look at your justice,
And their kings will see all your glory.
They will then call you by your new name...
A name that came from the mouth of Jehovah.

³ For, in His hand, you'll be a crown...
A royal turban in the hand of our God.

⁴ ‘You’ll no longer be called The Forsaken,
And your land won’t be called Desolation.
My Will, is what you’ll be called,
And your land will be called Habitation.
For the Lord has found pleasure in you,
And with him, you’ll dwell your land.

⁵ ‘As a young man joins with a virgin
Is how your sons will stick close to you.
For, as happy as a groom with his bride
Is how the Lord will find joy in you.

⁶ ‘O JeruSalem;
Upon your walls, I’ll place guards
Who will not stay silent throughout days and nights...
And to the end, they will speak of Jehovah.

⁷ ‘For to you, there’ll be no other like Him,
Because He will set matters straight,
And JeruSalem will be the earth’s navel.’

⁸ ‘For, Jehovah swore this by His right hand
And by the strength of His arm:
Your enemies won’t eat your food or your grain,
Nor will foreigner’s sons drink your wine.

⁹ Only the harvesters will eat it,
And they will give praise to Jehovah...
And those who pick [grapes] will drink their [own wine]
Within My Holy estates.

¹⁰ ‘So, get up and open My gates...
Open the way for My people!
Remove the stones from their roads,
And raise a sign that the nations will see.

¹¹ ‘Then, to the ends of the earth,
The Lord will broadcast these words.
He’ll, say to the daughter of Zion:

*Look, your Savior has come,
And before his face is his work and reward!*

¹² ‘Then He’ll call you, *A Most Holy People
Who have been Ransomed by [God].*
And you’ll be called, The City We’ve Searched For,
And no longer, The One that’s Abandoned.’

(From BozRah, wearing clothes with red stains)...
This handsome one with that great, mighty arm?

‘I have [arrived to bring] justice
And [to plead] your case for salvation.’

² But, why are you wearing red clothes,
As though you’ve been treading a vat?

³ ‘I’m covered with the things that I’ve trampled,
And none from the nations are with me;
For I’ve trampled them all in my rage.

‘I broke them [like plowing] the ground,
And I’ve poured their blood over the land...
So that’s why my clothes are defiled.

⁴ ‘For the day of retribution has arrived
And the year for paying the ransom is here.

⁵ ‘But I searched and found no one to help me...
I noticed that no one would come to my aid.
So I brought salvation with my own mighty arm...
I attended to it in my rage.

⁶ ‘I trampled them down in my anger,
And led their blood into the ground!’

⁷ ‘I’ve considered the mercies of [God],
And the virtues of His retribution.

[I found His] judgments on IsraEl just,
For what He brings is justice and mercy.

⁸ ‘He said, *If My children will show Me respect;
From their opposers, I’ll save them...
Yes Me, not My angel or envoy!*

⁹ ‘Because He loves them, He’ll save them...
He’ll spare them, and [He’ll pay] their ransom.
But, though He once took them and raised them;
Throughout the days of that age

¹⁰ They still refused to listen to Him,
And by this, they provoked His Spirit.

‘So, Jehovah turned against them in hatred,
And then He waged war against them.

¹¹ But He thought about days of old,
And then, He raised a man from the ground
Who would shepherd His sheep.’

¹² So, where is this one who poured out [God’s] Breath...
The one who led Moses with his right hand...
This one with the glorious arm?

Before [Moses], he conquered the waters,
And through ages, he made a name for himself.

¹³ For he led them through the deep [sea];
Then they didn’t wear out like horses in the desert.

¹⁴ Thereafter, as though they were cattle,
[They traveled from there through] the plains...
For the Spirit of the Lord came to guide them.
And once more, this is how he will lead them,
And make a glorious name for himself.

¹⁵ So, turn and look down from the heavens...
Look down from your holy, glorious place!
Where is your zeal and your strength...

Where is the mercy and compassion
That you've been withholding from us?

¹⁶ Our father, you have become;
For by AbraHam, we wouldn't be known,
Nor would IsraEl be able to recognize us.
So Lord, please come to our aid;
For you have become our [true] father!

¹⁷ From ancient times, we've carried [God's] Name;
So, why did He let us stray from His ways
And harden our hearts not to fear Him?

Please return to us, because we're Your servants...
We're the tribes that You have chosen by lot
¹⁸ To inherit Your Most Holy Mountain.

Your enemies have trampled on Your Holy Place,
¹⁹ And we've returned to what we once were Before You became our Ruler
And when we were not called by Your Name.

Chapter 64

¹ If You should choose to open the skies,
The mountains would tremble and melt
As though they were beeswax in fire.

² So, You will send flames to consume [our oppressors],
And [among us], Your Name will then shine...
Before You, the nations will quiver.

³ And when You do Your honorable deeds,
The mountains will all start to tremble.

⁴ Through the ages, no one has heard,
Nor have their eyes seen a god that's like You...
None that have done the deeds You have done
On behalf of those seeking Your mercy.

⁵ You will meet with the righteous,
And remember how we had been just.
{Look!} But now, we have sinned and provoked You to rage,
And for this, we've been forced to wander.

⁶ For we've pushed aside what is righteous
Like a rag used in menstruation.
Into lawless ways, we have fallen like leaves,
So the wind will blow us away.

⁷ Now, none among us call on Your Name,
Nor have any remembered to grab hold of You.
So from us, You have turned Your face,
And You've handed us over because of our sins.

⁸ But Jehovah; You are our [true] Father,
And we are just [clay]... the works of Your hands.

⁹ So, [please] don't stay angry with us...
Don't always remember our sins!

O Jehovah, please look down upon us,
Because, we are your people!

¹⁰ Your Holy City Zion, is now desolation,
For JeruSalem has been destroyed.

¹¹ Your House and its Glorious Most Holy
By which our fathers were blest,
Lies scorched, and its honorable things are torn down.

¹² All of this, You've had to endure, O Lord...
As You've been silent and let us be humbled.

And found by those not asking for Me...
I said, Here I am, to a nation
That had never called on My Name.

² 'For I've held out My hands all day long
To a people who just wouldn't listen,

And to those who only talked back...
Those who've not followed in good ways,
But who've kept on [walking] in sin.

³ 'Before Me, they stand and [do evil things]...
For they sacrifice in their gardens
And burn incense on bricks before demons;

⁴ They sleep in tombs and in caves to have dreams,
Then eat pig flesh and [offer Me] gravy.

'So, all that [they offer] is tainted;

⁵ Yet, they say, Stay away... don't approach me,
For I have made myself clean!

'Such things will bring them the smoke of My rage,
And a fire that will burn through the rest of their days.

⁶ 'Look! It's written that here in My presence,
I won't stay silent until I've repaid
And [raked] all their sins onto their chests,
⁷ As well as the sins of their fathers,' says Jehovah.

'So on those who burn incense on the mountains
And speak ill of Me in the hills;
I'll [rake] their [bad] deeds onto their chests!'

⁸ Jehovah says:

'When they find seeds in grapes, they often say,
Do not throw them away,
For they'll bring us good luck!

And that's how I'll deal with My servants...

It's what I'll do, so I don't destroy all.

⁹ 'From Jacob and Judah, I'll pick out one seed
Who'll inherit my Holy Mountain.
My elected, he'll also inherit,
And they will dwell with him there.

¹⁰ 'Then, flocks will dwell in their groves,
And in the Valley of Achor,

My people's herds will find rest...
Yes, the [sheep of those] who are searching for Me.

¹¹ 'But, you are the ones who have left Me...
From My Holy Mountain, you've turned away,
As you've prepared tables for demons,
And mixed [magic potions] to bring you good luck.

¹² 'So, to the sword, I'll now hand you,
And you will fall in the slaughter.
For I called out, but you wouldn't listen...
I spoke, but you paid no attention...
You kept doing what's wicked before Me,
And the things I don't want are the things that you chose.

¹³ 'So because of this,' says Jehovah,
'{Look!} My servants will eat, while you starve;
{Look!} My servants will drink, while you're thirsty;
{Look!} And those serving Me will be happy,
While you will be filled with shame.

¹⁴ Yes, those serving Me will cry out in joy,
While you cry out in misery of heart...
And you'll shriek as you're being destroyed!

¹⁵ 'Then the names that you'll leave behind
Will be a glut to My chosen.
For the Lord will do away with you all,
And I'll give a new name to My servants.

¹⁶ 'Throughout the whole earth, they'll be blest,
And they will give praise to Jehovah.
Then, those on the earth who swear oaths,
Will swear them by the true God.
They'll forget the trials that they had to endure...
Such things won't enter their hearts.

¹⁷ 'For there'll be new lands and new skies,
And past things will not be remembered,
Nor will they enter their hearts.

¹⁸ Then, all will be leaping for joy
Because of the happiness they'll find there!

‘{Look!} I'll make JeruSalem a leaping for joy
And a source of glee to My people.

¹⁹ About that city, I'll shout in praise,
And be happy along with My people.

‘No more will you hear sounds of weeping
Or the sounds of crying among them.

²⁰ No way will there be a miscarriage,
Or the old who don't live out their days.
For a man will be young at a hundred,
And at a hundred, the sinners will be cursed and die.

²¹ ‘The rest will build houses in which they will live...
They will plant vineyards and eat their fruit,
And they will drink their own wine.

²² No way will they then build for others,
And no way will they plant what others will eat.

‘Then the days of My people will be like a tree,
And what they make with their hands will grow old.

²³ ‘My elect won't labor for nothing,
Nor will they give birth to cursed children;
For their seed and all their descendants
Will then be blessings from God.

²⁴ ‘Before they call, I will hear them,
And when they speak, I'll ask what they want.

²⁵ ‘Then wolves and lambs will all graze together,
And lions will eat straw like the oxen.
The snake will eat the ground as its bread,
And none will harm or destroy
On My Holy Mountain,’ says Jehovah.

¹ Jehovah said:

‘Since the heavens are My Throne and the earth is My footstool;

What kind of House can you build for Me...

What kind of place [can you build] for My rest?

² For, since it all was made by My hands,

These things are [already] Mine!’

Then Jehovah said:

‘Upon whom will I look [in favor]?

Just the unassuming and humble...

Just those who tremble at the things that I say.

³ ‘But a calf that is offered by the lawless

Is to Me, like the slaps of a man.

And when they sacrifice from the flock,

I view it as though they are offering dogs.

‘[I consider] their offerings of fine flour

The same as the blood of a pig...

And the frankincense that they offer

As shouting blasphemies against Me.

‘For they’ve each selected their own ways to go,

And what they’ve chosen has proven disgusting.

⁴ So, I’ll choose My own ways to mock them,

And I’ll pay them back for their sins.

‘For, I called out to them and they chose not to hear...

I spoke and they just wouldn’t listen.

They’ve acted wickedly before Me,

And did things that I didn’t want.’

⁵ So, hear the word of Jehovah,

O you who tremble when you hear His voice!

Tell your brothers who hate and detest you

To glorify the Name of Jehovah –

[A Name] that should be looked on in joy
And of which they should not feel ashamed!

⁶ There's a voice crying out from the city...
From the Temple, a voice can be heard...
It is the voice of Jehovah,
And concerning His retribution, He said:

⁷ 'Before her labor to give birth
And before the misery of birth pangs,
She fled and gave birth to a son.

⁸ 'Who has ever heard such a thing...
Who's ever seen anything like it?
Has the earth given birth in a day...
Has a nation given birth all at once,
As Zion will labor and bring forth [a son]?'

⁹ Jehovah said:
'I told them what they should expect,
But they failed to remember [My words].
For {Look!} I made the ones who give birth,
As well as those who are sterile.'

And your God says:

¹⁰ 'So JeruSalem; you should be glad...
Those who love her should all celebrate.
Yes, celebrate in joy, you who live there,
And all of you who have mourned her!

¹¹ 'For, you can now nurse and be filled
With the comfort that comes from her breasts...
In sucking, you too may indulge,
When her glory is finally shown.'

¹² Jehovah said:
'{Look!} Toward them, I'll divert a river of peace,
And they'll be covered with the glory of the nations
Who'll carry your children on their shoulders,

And on their knees, [your young] will find comfort,
¹³ As any [good] mother gives comfort.

‘This is how I will then bring comfort to you...
And JeruSalem; you’ll find comfort.

¹⁴ You’ll see it and rejoice in your heart and your bones...
Then you’ll flourish like grass in a pasture!

‘All will know that this came from [God’s] hand...
Yes, all those who fear Him will know it.
But, He will threaten all those
Who choose to resist His persuasion.

¹⁵ ‘For {Look!} the Lord will come like a fire...
As a blast from his chariot wheels, in his rage,
To pay back and punish in flames
All those who’ve turned from him in contempt.

¹⁶ ‘Then the lands will be judged by his fire,
And all flesh [will be judged] by his sword.
Many will be slain by the Lord in that day...

¹⁷ Those who’ve gone to their gardens for cleansing
And those who ate pork on their thresholds
(The disgusting things and the mouse)...
Together, they’ll all be consumed,’ said Jehovah.

¹⁸ ‘I know their works and their ways,
And I’ve come to gather all nations and tongues...
To see My glory, they’ll gather,

¹⁹ And I will give them a sign.

‘I’ll return those whom I gave to the nations...
From TarShish, Pul, MeShach, and Lud...
From Tubal, Greece, and the islands...
From those far away who’ve not heard of My Name
And those who’ve not witnessed My glory.

‘They’ll announce My glory to the nations...

²⁰ And then, as a gift from the Lord;

From the nations, I'll bring back your brothers,
Along with horses and wagons,
And royal chariots with awnings, drawn by mules.'

And Jehovah said:

'Then the sons of IsraEl will bring sacrifices
And sing songs in the [Temple] of God.

²¹ And from them, I'll choose Levites and Priests,' said Jehovah.

²² 'For, as the new lands and new skies that I'll make
Have been waiting before Me,' says Jehovah;
'I'll establish your seed and your name.

²³ 'Then, there in JeruSalem;
From New Moon to New Moon and Sabbath to Sabbath,
All flesh will come and bow before Me,' said Jehovah.

²⁴ 'They'll go out and see the bodies of men
(Those who've rebelled against Me)
Whose worms won't come to an end,
And whose fire will not be extinguished...
It'll be a sight for all flesh [to see].'

Jeremiah

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians.

Written by JeremiAh over a period somewhere between 655-BCE and 570-BCE. However, the fact that JeremiAh is sometimes mentioned in the third person indicates that a later writer (possibly Ezra) also had a hand in the writing.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator, whom appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ These are the words of God that came to JeremiAh (the son of HilkiAh), a Priest who lived in AnathOth in the land of BenJamin.

² God's words came to him in the days of JosiAh (the son of AmMon) the king of Judah in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³ All of this happened from the time of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah, until the eleventh year of ZedekiAh (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah and [the beginning of] the captivity of JeruSalem, [which happened] in the fifth month.

⁴ The Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

⁵ 'I knew you before you were formed in the womb
And before you came from the belly.
So I chose you and I made you holy
To serve as a Prophet to the nations.'

⁶ But I said, 'O Great Being... O Lord... O Jehovah; {Look!} I don't know how to speak, for I'm just a young man.'

⁷ And the Lord told me:

'Don't say that you're just a young man;
For you'll go to whomever I send you
And you'll speak whatever I tell you to say!

⁸ So, don't be afraid when you go before them,
Since I'm with you and I will protect you.'

⁹ Then the Lord stuck his hand out toward me and touched my mouth, and said:

'Look! I'm putting My words in your mouth.

¹⁰ For I've appointed you over nations and kingdoms
To root out, cut down, and set free,
And then to rebuild and replant.'

¹¹ Thereafter, the Word of Jehovah came to me again and asked, 'What do you see now, JeremiAh?'

And I said, 'I see a walnut walking stick.'

¹² Then the Lord said to me:
‘You are [very observant];
And I’m [watching to see if you’ll] do as I [say].’

¹³ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me a second time and asked, ‘What do you see now?’

And I replied: ‘I see a kettle over a fire, and the front side of it is facing the north.’

¹⁴ Then the Lord said to me:
‘Thus, from the face of the north,
All those who are bad will be burned away
From among those who live in the land.
¹⁵ For, {Look!} this is what was said by Jehovah:
*From the north, I’ll be gathering kingdoms
That will come, and then they’ll each place their thrones
On the thresholds of JeruSalem’s gates,
And on the walls of the cities of Judah.*

¹⁶ *‘Then I’ll speak My judgments against them
For all the bad things [these people] have done...
[I’ll speak of] how they have left Me
And sacrificed to gods that they’ve never known,
Then they bowed before the works of their hands.*

¹⁷ ‘So arise and wrap up your waist,
And say to them what I’ll tell you to say!
Don’t be afraid when you go there,
Nor be in terror before them;
For, this was said by Jehovah:
I’m with you and I will [protect] you.

¹⁸ ‘{Look!} So today, I’ve turned you into a fort...
A fortified wall made of brass
To resist Judah’s rulers and kings,
And to oppose the people of your land.’

¹⁹ And the Lord said:
‘Although they will wage war against you,
There’s no way that they will be able to win;
For I’m with you and I will [protect] you.’

Chapter 2

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me again and said,

² ‘Go and yell in JeruSalem’s ears...

Tell them that thus says Jehovah:

I remembered the mercy you had in your youth

And the love that you had for perfection

When you obeyed IsraEl’s Most Holy One.

‘Yes, this was said by Jehovah,
IsraEl’s Most Holy Lord.

³ For, IsraEl is Holy to Jehovah,
And because they are His first born,
He’s offended by those who are chewing them up
And on those doing this, He’s bringing bad things.

⁴ ‘O house of Jacob (you families of the house of IsraEl);
Hear the word of Jehovah!

⁵ For Jehovah is asking you this:
What defect in Me, did your fathers find
That they’d leave Me to act in this way
And start following after those foolish things?

⁶ ‘They no longer ask, Where’s Jehovah...
The One who led us through the desert from Egypt...
Through that vast land of no water or fruit...
A land through which no man can travel...
A land where none can survive?

⁷ ‘For I led you to CarMel, where you ate its fruits,
As well as its other good things...
Then you entered My land and defiled it,
And My inheritance, you turned into something that’s foul.

⁸ *'But the priests don't ask, Where's Jehovah?
So, those who were resisting the Law
Weren't prompted to turn back to Me.
Your shepherds also showed no respect,
And your prophets spoke prophecies by BaAl,
So they followed after things that were worthless!*

⁹ *'But despite all of this, I still chose them, says Jehovah;
And the sons of their sons, I've [accepted].*

¹⁰ *'Now, go to the Island of Cyprus and see...
Yes, send to Kedar and you'll understand!
See if the gods of those nations
Have ever had any effect...
Then you'll know that they really aren't gods!*

¹¹ *'Yet, My people have left all their glory
For things that do them no good!*

¹² *And by this, the heavens were amazed...
[It caused them to] shudder, says Jehovah.*

'To Me, My people did two wicked things:

*· ¹³ They abandoned the spring of the waters of life,
· And they dug cracked cisterns that cannot hold water.*

¹⁴ *'Is IsraEl a slave or a native-born son;
For, why did he choose to be plundered?*

¹⁵ *Now, lions are roaring before him
That are ordered to wipe out his land.
So his cities will be cut to the ground,
Then no one can live there again!*

¹⁶ *'The sons of Memphis and TahPanhes...
Those that know you, are laughing at you!*

¹⁷ *And this happened because you have left Me,
Says Jehovah, your God.*

¹⁸ *'Now, what are the ways of Egypt to you
That you would [long for] their waters?*

*And what are the ways of Assyria to you
That you'd wish to drink from their rivers?*

¹⁹ *'So, because you've left Me, I'll discipline you...
For your evil ways, I will scold You...
You'll see it happen and then you will know
How bitter are the ways of turning from Me,
Says Jehovah, your God!*

²⁰ *'I've come to think [poorly] of you,
Says Jehovah your God.
For, through the ages, you've broken My yoke
And you have ripped off My bonds.*

*'You said, I won't be [Your] servant;
But I'll climb up every high hill
And bow beneath every shade tree...
And there is where I'll go whoring!*

²¹ *'Yet, I planted you as My grapevine
For the purpose of bearing the fruitage of truth.
So, why did you then turn so bitter
And become a grapevine that's strange?*

²² *'Now, if I would wash you in lye,
And if I'd use plenty of soap,
You'd still be spotted in your sins before Me.*

²³ *'How can you say you're not dirty
And that you've not chased after BaAl?
See how you're acting in graveyards...
Yes, you know all the things that you've done!*

²⁴ *'Upon desert waters, her ways have been spread,
And she's driven by the winds of desires.
So to them, she's been handed over,
To turn her away from her [evil].*

*'Now those searching for her won't get tired,
And she will be humbled when they arrive.*

²⁵ *'Though she should turn her feet from this path
And turn her throat from this thirst,
This is what she's still saying:
I will act like a man;
So, I will chase after strangers,
And with them, I will make love!*

²⁶ *'As a thief is shamed when he's caught,
Is how IsraEl's sons will be shamed...
Yes they, their kings, and their rulers,
As well as their prophets and priests.*

²⁷ *'For they've said to a tree, You're my father;
And they've said to a stone, You gave me life.

'Yet, though they have all turned their backs
(But not their faces) toward Me;
When hard times arrive, they'll still say:
O Jehovah, please save us!*

²⁸ *'Will [your idols] save you in difficult times...
Will [you turn] to these gods that you've made for yourselves?

'In Judah, each city now has its own gods,
And in all of JeruSalem's streets
They offer sacrifices to BaAl.*

²⁹ So, why are you talking to me?

*'Jehovah says:
You've been irreverent and lawless toward Me,
³⁰ And it's in vain that I've spanked you like children;
For, from My correction, you have failed to learn!*

*'So, though your prophets were devoured by swords,
And though lions came and wiped them away,
This hasn't [taught you] to fear Me.*

³¹ *'Therefore, hear the Word of Jehovah,
For Jehovah is asking you this:*

*To IsraEl, am I now like a desert...
Am I a land that's barren before you?*

*'Why is it that My people say,
Because you aren't our Lord anymore,
We'll no longer be coming before You?*

³² *'Will the bride forget her tiara,
And will virgins forget the bands for their breasts?
Yet, I've been forgotten by you
Through too many days to be counted.*

³³ *'What good can you make of your ways,
So that you can seek [My] affection again?
It just won't do any good,
Because you've made yourselves wicked.*

*'All of your ways are now dirty,
And innocent blood is found in your hands.*

³⁴ *No, I don't find [their bodies] in ditches,
But [hanging] from every [tall] tree.*

³⁵ *Yet, you still say, I'm not guilty...
So please, turn back You rage!*

*'{Look!} I'm the One who's passing judgment on you
When you say that you haven't sinned!*

³⁶ *And for you, I've come to feel great disdain
Because of the things that you're doing.*

*'Therefore, by Egypt, you will be disgraced,
As Assyria has disgraced you before.*

³⁷ *You'll be taken from here with your hands on your heads,
Because Jehovah has thrust you away,
And then none of you hopes will succeed.*

Chapter 3

¹ *'If a man releases his woman
And she [then moves in with] another...
If she thereafter [also leaves him],*

*Can she return [to first one] again?
For, once she has been defiled,
Isn't she always defiled?*

*'Yet, after [you've had] many shepherds,
You want to come back to Me, said Jehovah.
So now, raise your eyes to see the right way...
See how you've been defiled!*

*'For you sat by the road [and waited] for them
Alone and defiled like a crow
In this land of your evil and whoring.*

*3 'You've stumbled and had many shepherds,
And because you looked like a whore,
You have brought shame on them all.*

*4 'Yet, didn't you call me [your] Father...
The One who founded your virgin condition?*

*5 [And wasn't it you who once said],
Through the age, I'll still be a virgin...
I'll guard this state 'til I've won?
{Look!} Yet, though you once made such a vow,
You went and did this vile thing!'*

6 Well, it was during the days of King JosiAh that the Lord came and said this to me:

*'You saw what the house of IsraEl has done...
For she's climbed up every high mountain
And crawled under every tree in the woods,
And there, she's committing [adultery].*

*7 'Then, after she does all her whoring;
Though I've told her to turn from this badness,
She still refuses to stop.*

*'So, when I saw that Judah had broken [her vows];
8 I knew that in order to benefit all,
I had to stand up [for what's right].*

‘For the house of IsraEl fell into seduction,
And then she committed adultery.
So, with a certificate of divorce, I sent her away.

‘But the [vow]-breaker Judah wasn’t bothered by this,
And she continued in her whoring ways.

⁹ For, whoring was nothing to her...

She even did it with wood and stone things...

¹⁰ Her heart refused to turn back,

And all she offered was lies.’

¹¹ Then the Lord said this to me:

‘Even IsraEl was better than this [vow]-breaker Judah;

¹² So, go to the north and then read these words...

Tell [those in the north] that thus says Jehovah:

*‘O house of IsraEl, if you’ll come back to Me,
Against you, I’ll not set My face...*

*I will show mercy upon you, says Jehovah,
And I won’t stay outraged through the age.*

¹³ ‘Just be aware of your sins!

For you’ve shown disrespect to Jehovah your God...

[Your love] you’ve given to strangers

Beneath every tree in the woods,

And you didn’t choose to do what I said, says Jehovah.

¹⁴ ‘So return, you sons who’ve revolted, says God,

And I’ll be your Lord once again.

I’ll choose one man from each city,

And I will choose two from each family;

Then, I will take them to Zion

¹⁵ And appoint these ones that My heart has chosen

To serve as shepherds for you,

And with higher knowledge, they’ll watch over you.

¹⁶ ‘Then, as you grow and spread in the land, says Jehovah;

In those days, they’ll not speak anymore

Of IsraEl’s Holy Chest of the Sacred Agreement...

*No, it won't come into their hearts...
It won't be named or examined...
This won't be done anymore!*

*¹⁷ 'For, in those days and during that time,
JeruSalem will thereafter be known
As the place of the Throne of Jehovah,
And it's where all the nations will gather
With no wicked thoughts in their hearts.*

*¹⁸ 'In those days, the houses of IsraEl and Judah
Will become one [nation] again.
They'll be gathered from the lands of the north
To the place that I gave to their fathers.'*

¹⁹ Well at that, I shouted: 'May it happen, O Lord! For You told me that You will let me have children again, and that I will receive a choice piece of land... the inheritance of the Almighty God... [the God] who will be over all the nations! Yes, Father; You've called me, and now I'll never turn from You!'

²⁰ But the Lord said:

'The house of IsraEl has left me,
Like a woman who's rejected her man.

²¹ And for this, her lips will start weeping.

'So, tell IsraEl's sons to turn back and beg,
Because their ways have led them to sin,
And they've forgotten their Most Holy God.

²² So sons; you now must turn back...

Turn back and I'll heal your broken condition!'

[And I said]: 'Look... that's how we'll be with You then, for You are our God Jehovah, ²³ and all the powers of the hills and mountains are really the powers of our Lord... our God who is IsraEl's Savior! ²⁴

However, the efforts of our fathers have been eaten away by shame since the time of their youth, and now all their calves and sheep (their sons and daughters) ²⁵ go to bed in shame and they're covered by their dishonor. Yes, like our fathers, we have sinned before God from the time of our youth down to this day, and we've failed to pay attention to the voice of our God Jehovah!

Chapter 4

Then the Lord said:

'If IsraEl should [choose to] return,
I'll also turn back to them.

If they'll wash the disgusting things from their mouths...

If they'll show that they will respect me,

² And if they'll swear As Jehovah is living in oaths;

I'll bless them with equity, justice, and truth.

Then the rest of the nations will praise them,

And in JeruSalem, all will praise God.

³ 'So to the men of Judah and JeruSalem

Jehovah gave these instructions:

Prepare your [hearts]... yes, get them ready for plowing...

Don't allow thorn bushes to grow there again!

⁴ 'O men of Judah and JeruSalem;

Circumcise yourselves to your God...

Snip the hardness out of your hearts

So He doesn't send the fire of His rage...

[A fire] that can't be extinguished

Because of the bad things you're doing!

⁵ 'Announce [this message] to Judah,

And let them hear it in JeruSalem:

Blow trumpets throughout the whole land,

And then, cry out in loud voices!

⁶ 'Say, All should gather inside the walled cities...

Gather your things and run to Mount Zion!

Do this quickly, don't wait,

For, from the north, bad things will arrive...

A terrible destruction is heading your way!

⁷ *'Now the lion has come from his lair,
And he is wiping out nations.
He's arisen and now he's come from his place
To desolate lands and destroy them!*

*'So, your cities will all be demolished,
And you'll no longer be living within them.*

⁸ *Because of this, put on sackcloth...
Yes, be sad, and then start to bawl!
For the anger and rage of Jehovah
Will not be diverted from you.*

⁹ *'And in that day,' said the Lord,
'There'll be no heart in the king...
The hearts of the rulers and priests will be shocked
And the prophets will all be confused.'*

¹⁰ Then I replied: 'O Almighty Lord; You must surely be joking... aren't you misleading these people? Aren't you saying that there'll really be peace for JeruSalem and that the sword won't be coming into our lives?'

¹¹ [But He replied]:
'At that time, I'll say to these people
(To those who live in JeruSalem):
*An addiction to delusions has come from the desert;
For the ways of the daughters of my people
Can no longer be thought of as pure...
None have kept themselves holy.*

¹² *So the spirit of fulfillment is coming from me,
And I'm now speaking judgments against them.'*

¹³ 'Look! Like a cloud, someone has arisen
Whose chariots are sending out blasts,
And whose horses are lighter than eagles.
So woe, for misery is headed your way!

¹⁴ 'Therefore, O JeruSalem;
Rinse the evil out of your hearts
So that somehow, you might be saved!

For, how long did you think you can do all those things
That are [the root] of your [problems]?

¹⁵ ‘So from Dan, you’ll start hearing voices,
And from Ephraim will come misery.

¹⁶ ‘{Look!} Remind your nation of this,
And shout this aloud in JeruSalem:
*From a far-away land will come an alliance
That’s speaking against the cities of Judah!*

¹⁷ ‘For Jehovah says:
*They’ll [camp] around her and guard all her fields
Because I’ve been neglected by you.*

¹⁸ *It’s because of your [bad] ways and [your bad] deeds
That they are coming against you...
Because your evil’s so bitter
That it has reached to your hearts!*

¹⁹ ‘This [thought] brings pain to My belly...
It causes My heart to feel spasms and ache...
But My Soul has been forced to take action!

²⁰ ‘So, since I’ll no longer stay silent,
My Soul now hears trumpet blasts
And the cries of misery and war.

*‘This conflict is something that’s called for,
And misery will come to your land.
For, you have abandoned My Tent,
And its covering of skins you have parted.*

²¹ ‘Why must I watch [people] fleeing
And hear the blowing of trumpets?

²² *Yet, this will all happen because,
The leaders of My people don’t know Me...
They’ve become undiscerning, foolish sons...
They’re just wise when it comes to doing what’s bad,
And they don’t remember how to do what is good.’*

²³ Well at that, I looked down at the ground and I couldn't see anything, then I looked up into the sky, and its lights weren't there. ²⁴ I also noticed that the mountains were shaking and all the hills were being disturbed. ²⁵ So I looked around and I couldn't see anyone, for even the birds in the skies had been frightened away. Then I noticed that CarMel was bare and all its cities were burning... they had been set on fire by the face of Jehovah. ²⁶ For due to His anger and rage, He had removed them from His view.

²⁷ And at that, the Lord said:
'Though the whole land will soon lie in ruins;
No way will it all be destroyed.

²⁸ 'But the land should now start to mourn
Because the skies above will grow dark...
I've spoken, and I won't change My mind.
No, I won't be dissuaded... it will happen!

²⁹ 'So, from the sounds of horsemen with tightly stretched bows,
In every place, they will run...
They'll hide in caves and in sacred groves...
Down among rocks, they'll descend.
Then their cities will all be abandoned...
No one will be living there.

³⁰ 'So now, what will they do...
Will they wrap themselves in scarlet and gold?
If they rub antimony on their eyelids,
It will all be in vain!
For, though they may dress in their finest of clothes,
Their lovers have already pushed them away...
And now they are seeking their lives!

³¹ 'So I hear the sounds of a woman in labor
And the moans of one who is giving first birth.
But the voice of the daughter of Zion grows faint,
And her hands grow weak as she says:

*Woe to me, for my life has now failed
And I am being destroyed!*

¹ ‘Now, run through JeruSalem’s streets...
Yes, seek and search in her squares...
See if you can find just one righteous man...
A single trustworthy person.
Then to such a one, I’ll be kind,’ said the Lord.

² ‘As Jehovah lives, they often say,
But, when they swear oaths, aren’t they lying?’

³ [And I said], ‘O Lord;
Your eyes have searched for those who are true;
But, when You whipped them, they felt no pain...
And even when You brought destruction on them,
They had still failed to learn...
Their faces remained as solid as rocks,
And they refused to turn back to You.

⁴ ‘But perhaps it’s only the poor
Who don’t understand the ways of the Lord,
Or comprehend the fairness of God.

⁵ So I’ll go and speak to the wealthy...
They’ll recognize the ways of the Lord
And [trust in] the fairness of God.

‘But look! Together, they’ve broken their yokes
And they have torn off their bonds.

⁶ And because of this, lions have attacked...
Then, out of the woods came a wolf,
Which entered their homes and [consumed] them,
As leopards kept watch in their cities.

‘That’s how those who leave Him are hunted,
Since none have shown Him respect,
And their rejection [of God] has grown worse.’

⁷ [And the Lord said]:

‘What sort of kindness should they expect
Now that their sons have all left me?
Because they swear oaths by those that aren’t gods,
I’ve now filled with [their disrespect].
For they’re even committing adultery,
And whores find rest in their homes!

⁸ ‘Like horses, they snort and are sex crazed...
Each one for the wife of his neighbor.
⁹ So for this, shouldn’t I come to visit,’ asked the Lord?
‘Shouldn’t my soul now take vengeance
Upon a nation that’s acting this way?

¹⁰ ‘So her battle towers, they will scale,
And they’ll knock them down until none remain...
Yes, these are the ones who will do it!
They’ll destroy everything that supports them,
For [their badness] didn’t come from Jehovah!

¹¹ ‘Jehovah says,
*They haven’t shown Me any respect...
Not the houses of IsraEl or of Judah.*
¹² *And about their Lord, they have lied;
For they’ve said, These things will not happen...
What’s bad won’t really come upon us...
Neither famine nor sword will we see.*

¹³ ‘For [His] Prophets are really just windbags,
And they don’t [speak] the word of Jehovah;
So it will happen to them, not to us!’

¹⁴ ‘*But because of this, says Jehovah the Almighty...
Because you have said all these things,
I’ve put My words like flames in your mouths,
And they’ll consume you like wood [on a fire].*

¹⁵ ‘O house of IsraEl, pay attention:

For, from a far-away land

I’m bringing a nation against you,’ said the Lord,

‘Which speaks a tongue that you won’t understand.

¹⁶ 'The quivers of their mighty are like open tombs,

¹⁷ And they'll consume your harvests and bread,
As well as your sons and your daughters.

'They'll eat your sheep and your calves...
They'll devour your vineyards and fig groves,
As well as all of your olives.
They'll thresh your fortified cities with swords
(Those places that you have relied on).

¹⁸ 'And in that day,' said the Lord;
'Your God won't allow you to come to fulfillment.

¹⁹ And when you ask why this happened,
Jehovah will give this reply:

*I did it because you have left Me,
And you served strange gods in My land.
So, you will now have to serve strangers
In a land that is no longer yours.*

²⁰ 'So, to the house of Jacob, announce all these things,
And let it be heard throughout Judah:

²¹ *Pay attention, you foolish and heartless...
You who have eyes that can't see,
And you who have ears that can't hear.*

²² *'Why have you failed to show fear,
And not bowed to your faces before Me?
For, I'm the One who ordered the sands
To be the limits of the seas!
It's the order [that I gave] through the ages
That the seas cannot go beyond them...
Its [waves] may never disturb them...
There's no way that they can beat them.
So, no matter how great their waves roar,
They can't pass beyond the limits I've set.*

²³ *'But these people have hearts that don't listen,
So they continue to resist My persuasion...
They've turned aside and they've left [Me].*

²⁴ *'They haven't said in their hearts,
We should fear Jehovah our God...
The One who gives rain in its seasons
(Both the early and late rains),
And who orders full harvests for us.*

²⁵ *'By your lawless deeds, you've turned from these things...
By your sins, you've removed what's good from yourselves.*

²⁶ *For, among My own people, the godless are found...
Those who set snares to corrupt other men,
As they devise plans to do evil.*

²⁷ *'As a trap is set to catch many birds...
With treachery, their homes are now filled.
And because of this, they are famous and rich...
They have grown fat on injustice!*

²⁸ *The side of orphans, they never take,
And they don't give justice to widows.*

²⁹ *'Am I not watching such things, asks Jehovah?
Won't My soul bring vengeance upon them?*

³⁰ *'So, this is why things have changed...
This is why they'll shudder throughout the whole land!*

³¹ *For their prophets now prophesy lies
As their priests are applauding and clapping their hands.
So, since this is what My people have loved,
I must now do this bad thing!'*

Chapter 6

¹ *'O sons of BenJamin, be strong
There in JeruSalem's midst.
But, you should start blowing your trumpets...
From the House in the Vineyards, sound the alarm!
For, bad things now loom in the north,
And a great destruction is headed your way!*

² ‘O you daughter of Zion;
Your haughty ways will soon be removed!
³ For to you, will come shepherds and flocks
That will pitch their tents all around you,
And there, each one will tend his own lot.
⁴ *‘Get ready to wage war against her...
Arise, and we will attack her at noon!
But, woe to us, for the day is now gone
And the shadows of daylight have failed.*
⁵ *So, let’s get up and attack her at night,
Then wipe her to her foundations!*
⁶ ‘For, thus says Jehovah of Armies:
*Cut down all of her trees...
Against that city of liars, send troops...
Complete your tyranny against her!*
⁷ *‘Just like the cool taste of well water,
You must cool off her evil.
Since disrespect and misery are in her,
Throw it back in her face!*
⁸ *‘O you [who live] in JeruSalem;
In misery, with whips, you’ll be lashed,
But My soul won’t totally leave you...
I won’t make you a land that is no longer walked
And won’t be lived in again.*
⁹ ‘For, thus says Jehovah of Armies:
*Glean them as you glean grapes
(Those few who’ll be left in IsraEl)...
Return as the picker returns to his [vines]!*
¹⁰ ‘To whom should I be saying these things...
Yes, whom can I tell that will listen?
{Look!} For, because their ears are uncircumcised,
They are unable to hear.

And since Jehovah's words are something they scorn,
{Look!} They'll be unwilling to listen!

¹¹ 'But though I waited, My rage wasn't filled,
And I didn't completely finish them off...
So I'll pour it out on their children
And upon their groups of young men.

'Their women and men will be taken away
Along with the elders and those who've lived many days.

¹² Then their houses will be given to others,
Along with their women and fields.

'Jehovah says,
Against all in this land, I'll stretch out My hand...
¹³ Against all from the small to the great...
All those who are filled with their own lawless ways.

*'For their priests and all their false prophets
Have each acted in falsehood.*

¹⁴ *And though they claim to bring healing,
They are just bringing contempt.
They also claim there is peace...
But, where indeed is this peace?*

¹⁵ *'So now, they'll be shamed, because they have failed.
But, even though they'll be disgraced,
They'll refuse to accept their dishonor.
And because of this, they will fall...
They'll perish when I come to visit, says Jehovah.*

¹⁶ 'And Jehovah said:
Now, stand in the roads and behold...
[Consider the] paths of the ages;
*Then, choose the best road and travel that way
As you search for ways to clean up your lives!*

*'But because you have said, We won't go,'
17 I'm appointing watchmen for you,
And you must listen for the sounds of their trumpets!*

*'But, though you will say, We won't listen,
18 The nations [that are coming] will listen,
As will all those who are tending their flocks.*

*19 'O land, pay attention and look,
For I'm bringing what's bad on your people...
It's the fruitage of their rejection [of Me].
For, because they've ignored My words and My Laws,
I have pushed them away.*

*20 'Why offer frankincense from SheBa to Me,
And cinnamon from far away lands?
For, your whole burnt-offerings, I will not accept,
Since your sacrifices delight Me no more.*

*21 'Because of this, says Jehovah,
Upon them, I'm bringing a weakness...
Yes, fathers and sons will be weak,
And their neighbors and loved ones will die.*

*22 'Then Jehovah said:
{Look!} From the north, a people are coming
Who'll awaken the nations to the ends of the earth...
23 They'll come with their spears and their bows,
And on you, they won't show any mercy.*

*'Their sounds are like the roar of the sea,
And with horses and chariots, they will attack...
They'll bring the fire of war against you,
O you daughters of Zion.*

*24 'About them, we've heard the reports,
And the things that we've heard have made our hands weak...
Anguish has grabbed hold of us
Like the pangs of a woman about to give birth!*

²⁵ ‘So, don’t go out to the fields,
And do not walk on the roads,
For they’re filled with enemies that are carrying swords!

‘So, you daughters of My people;
[It’s time for you] to wear sackcloth...
Strew ashes and mourn for your loved ones,
²⁶ And in pity for yourselves, beat your breasts;
For misery will suddenly come upon you.

²⁷ ‘Among you (you people on trial),
I’ve appointed someone who will judge you;
And as you’re tried, you’ll know I’m the One
Who is judging your ways.

²⁸ ‘Yet, none have been willing to listen,
Since they just walk crooked paths...
They’re corrupted like brass touching iron.

²⁹ ‘Because the forge bellows have failed,
It’s in vain that the smith works his silver;
For their wicked ways will not melt.

³⁰ ‘So, you should call out and tell them
That their silver has all been rejected...
Yes, they’ve been rejected by [God].’

Chapter 7

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh and said,
‘Go stand at the gate of [the Temple],
And against them, you must read these words:

² ‘O Judah; Hear the Word of Jehovah,
For Jehovah of Armies (the God of IsraEl) says this:

³ *‘If you’ll set right the things that you’re doing,
And if you’ll choose to straighten your paths,
I’ll settle you here in this place.*

⁴ *'But you can't rely on your lies anymore;
For they'll be no help when you're shouting,
O the Temple of Jehovah!
O the Temple of [God]!*

⁵ *'You must change your deeds and your ways,
And get yourselves straightened out.
Each man must start being fair with his neighbors,
⁶ As well as with foreigners, orphans, and widows.*

⁷ *'[No, you] may no longer be tyrants...
Innocent blood, don't shed in this place...
And stop chasing after strange gods!*

*'Then, [when you remove all this] badness,
I'll bring you back to this land once again
That I gave to your fathers through the ages.*

⁸ *'But now, you are trusting in words that are lies
And which will do you no good.
⁹ You commit adultery, murder, and steal,
And when you swear oaths, you are lying!
You also burn incense to BaAl,
And follow strange gods that you've never known.*

¹⁰ *'So, though there's just badness within you,
You still come and stand before Me
In the [Temple] that's called by My Name,
And then dare to say, We are clean.*

¹¹ *'Hasn't My House that's standing before you
And which is called by My Name
Become just a den of thieves?
Look... this is what I've seen, says Jehovah!*

¹² *'Go to My old place in Shiloh
Where I camped and placed My Name long ago,
And see what I did because of their evil
Before the faces of IsraEl, My people!*

¹³ *'Now, because you are doing these things
About which I warned you, but you failed to hear...*

*The things that I shouted before you,
But to which, you failed to make any change;*

¹⁴ I'll do the same thing to this [Temple]...

*The one that is called by My Name,
And upon which you have relied...*

The Place that I gave to your fathers and you.

'Yes I'll do the same as I did to Shiloh...

¹⁵ *I'll throw you away from My face
Just like I cast off your brothers (Ephraim's seed).*

¹⁶ 'Now, you must not pray for these people...

Don't come and petition for mercy,

Nor approach Me with vows on their behalf...

For I will not listen to you!

¹⁷ 'Don't you see the things that they're doing

In all the cities of Judah

And in JeruSalem's streets?

¹⁸ 'The sons go out to gather the wood,

So their fathers can then light the fires

[To bake] the dough that their women knead

As cakes for the armies of the heavens.

'They offer drinks to strange gods,

So they can provoke Me to rage...

¹⁹ Don't they provoke Me to rage, asks Jehovah?

But, shouldn't they be the ones who're provoked

By the disgrace on their faces?

²⁰ 'It's because of this, says Jehovah,

That I'll pour out My anger and rage on this Place...

Upon the men and their cattle...

Upon every tree in their fields,

As well as on the land's produce.

This fire has been lit and it won't be put out!

²¹ 'Jehovah said:

*Gather up all your burnt-offerings,
As well as your other sacrifices,
Then go on and just eat all the meats!*

²² 'For on the day that I led them from Egypt,
I didn't ask your fathers to offer such things...
I didn't really tell them to bring Me
Whole burnt offerings or other sacrifices.

²³ 'The only instruction that I gave them
Was to pay attention to the things that I say!
For you'll be My people and I'll be your God
As long as you walk in My ways
And do whatever I tell you is good!

²⁴ 'But, they didn't listen to Me,
And their ears just paid no attention...
They followed the evil thoughts in their hearts
And became the butt not the head
From the day that their fathers left Egypt 'til now.

²⁵ 'So I sent them My servants the Prophets
Morning after morning and day after day.

²⁶ But, they didn't listen to Me...
Their ears just paid no attention,
And then they made their necks stiffer...
Yes, harder than those of their fathers.

²⁷ 'So, go and tell them these things,
But they won't listen to you...
Yes, call out to them, but they won't respond.

²⁸ 'Go tell them that theirs is the nation
That refused to hear the voice of its God...
They failed to believe or give heed
To the instructions that came from [His] mouth.

²⁹ *'So, shear your [hair] and throw it away,
Then let your lips start to wail;
For Jehovah's rejected and pushed away
The generation that has done all these things!*

³⁰ *'Jehovah says,
The sons of Judah are wicked before Me,
For they've brought disgusting things to My House
And defiled the Place that is called by My Name.*

³¹ *'They've built a shrine of Topheth for themselves
There in the Valley of Hinnom
Where they burn their sons and daughters in fire...
Something that I never told them to do
Or ever came into My heart.*

³² *'Jehovah says,
{Look!} Because they've done this, the days have arrived
When, from the Valley of Hinnom's sons
And the Shrine that they [built there to] Topheth,
Nothing more will ever be heard.*

*'For their valley will soon be destroyed
And they'll [bury] Topheth in a tomb,
Since his place will no longer exist.*

³³ *'His people will also be dead,
And they'll serve as food for the birds in the skies,
As well as for the wild beasts on the ground,
Since no one will come to chase them away.*

³⁴ *'From the cities of Judah, I'll take them,
And I'll remove them from JeruSalem's streets.
Then all the sounds of joy will be gone,
And the voices of brides and grooms won't be heard;
For the land will become desolation.*

Chapter 8

¹ *‘Then, during that time, says Jehovah,
In the graveyards of JeruSalem,
They’ll dig up the bones of Judah’s kings,
As well as the bones of its rulers,
Along with the bones of its Prophets and Priests,
And the bones of the rest of people,
² And let them dry under the sun...
Yes, under the moon and the stars,
Beneath the armies of the heavens
That they served and so loved...
Those whom they worshiped and followed,
And those before whom they once bowed.

‘Thereafter, they won’t be lamented,
Nor will their bones be returned to their tombs...
³ They’ll just lie on the ground as examples...
For rather than life, they chose death.
So, all who remain of those generations
Will be laid wherever I choose.’*

⁴ *‘Then Jehovah asked:
Will the fallen not be resurrected...
Will those who rebelled not return?*

⁵ *‘Why did they choose My rejection
And hold so firmly to their resolve...
Why didn’t they wish to [live once again]?’*

⁶ *‘So, give ear and pay close attention;
For, since they’re not being told what is right,
None have repented their badness,
Nor have they asked what they have done wrong...
They’ve just stopped running the race
Like a horse that’s snorting and covered with sweat.*

⁷ ‘Storks in the skies know their time,
As do swallows and doves in the fields...
Even sparrows keep watch for their end.
Yet My people do not understand
The judgments that Jehovah has made.

⁸ ‘So, how can they say, *We are wise,
And we have the Law of Jehovah?*
For, all the lies that are written
By the quills of their scribes are in vain!

⁹ ‘*Now the wise are frightened and shamed
Because they’ve rejected My Word...
So what wisdom do they truly have?*

¹⁰ ‘*For I’ll give their women to other men,
And I’ll leave their fields to other men’s heirs.
Since, from the small to the great,
They’ve chased after money;
And from prophet to priest, they all lie!*

¹¹ ‘*They’ve dishonored the daughters of My people,
And shout, Peace! Peace! when there’s really no peace!*

¹² ‘*So, by the disgusting things that they’re doing,
They have brought shame on themselves...
Yet, they’re not ashamed of their shame...
They refuse to know any shame!*

*‘And because of this, they will fall
Along with the rest that will fall...
In the time of my visit, they’ll fall, says Jehovah.*

¹³ And they will reap what they’ve [sown].’

‘Now there are no grapes on the grapevines,
And there are no figs on their trees...
Even the leaves have dropped off.

¹⁴ ‘So, why are you just sitting there...
You should flee to the fortified cities!

But there, you will be turned away,
Because your God has disowned you.

‘Then, bile you’ll be given for water,
Because you have sinned against [God].

¹⁵ And though you will gather for peace,
You won’t receive any peace...

Just worry when you really need healing.

¹⁶ ‘From Dan, you’ll hear sounds of swift horses
(The sounds of snorting and those riding steeds)...
So many that the ground will be shaken.

‘They’ll come here and eat up your land
Along with everything in it...

The cities and all those who dwell there.

¹⁷ ‘{Look!} I’ll send snakes against you to kill you
(The types that have never been charmed).

¹⁸ Then, they will incurably bite you,
Adding grief to hearts already disturbed.

¹⁹ ‘Look! Hear these cries of the daughters of My people,
Which will come from far-away lands:

Isn’t Jehovah on Zion...

Don’t we have a king anymore?

‘But, they’ve provoked Me to rage
With their carvings of idols,
And by following many strange, worthless things.’

²⁰ Now, although summer has already passed,
We’ve not received any harvest.

²¹ And about the destruction of the daughters of my people,
I’m perplexed and swallowed by darkness...

I’m in labor like a woman about to give birth.

²² For in Gilead, there aren’t any ointments,
Nor do they have any doctors.

So the daughters of my people will never be healed.

Chapter 9

¹ Who'll provide enough water to come from my head
And feed the springs of tears from my eyes,
So I can cry for my people day and night,
And for the daughters of those who'll be slain?

² Who'll provide me a hut in the desert
Where I can escape from them all?
For, they are committing adultery,
And they're breaking their Sacred Agreement [with God].

³ *'Their tongues are stretched tight like bows,
As lies and mistrust increase in the land;
For, evil after evil is what they pursue,
And they no longer know Me, said Jehovah.*

⁴ *'So each man must keep watch on his neighbor
And not rely on even his brother;
For their brothers will stomp them under their heels
And their friends will [try to] deceive them.*

⁵ *'Now, they all [laugh at] their friends
And no way do they tell them the truth.
Since their tongues have learned to speak lies,
They do whatever is wrong,
And aren't sorry for the bad things they do.*

⁶ *'They're compounding interest on interest
And treachery upon treachery;
For they no longer wish to behold Me, says [God].*

⁷ *'Because of this, says Jehovah of Armies;
{Look!} I'll judge them and set them on fire!
For what else can possibly I do
In the face of these wicked ways
Being done by the daughters of My people?*

⁸ *'Their tongues are piercing like arrows,
And the words from their mouths are deceitful.*

*Though each one speaks peace to his neighbors;
Inside, they really feel hatred.*

*9 ‘So, shouldn’t I pay them a visit, asks Jehovah,
And bring My vengeance upon them?’*

*10 ‘[It’s time to] mourn for the mountains,
And time to wail for their desert roads...
They’re failing, because there aren’t enough men,
And they no longer hear sounds from the birds in the skies...
Why, even the cattle are gone!*

*11 ‘Evacuation is coming to JeruSalem,
And she’ll become a home for wild beasts.
I’ve appointed extinction to the cities of Judah,
And they will no longer be lived in.*

*12 ‘Now, who is the man that’s discerning?
Let him recognize this...
May the words of Jehovah be with him
So he can tell you the reasons
Why this land is being destroyed...
Being burned away into a desert
Where no one will thereafter live.*

*13 ‘And Jehovah said:
Because they’ve abandoned My Law
That I set in front of their faces,
And they’ve paid no attention to My voice
14 As they chase after things that pleasure their hearts
(Things that are evil and idols,
Which their fathers had taught them to worship)...*

*15 On account of this, says IsraEl’s God
(Jehovah of Armies is His Name);
{Look!} Upon distress, I will feed them,
And I’ll make them drink bile for their water.*

*16 ‘They’ll be scattered among many nations
That they and their fathers haven’t known;*

*For against them, I'm sending the sword
Until they'll be completely consumed.'*

¹⁷ Then the Lord said:

'You should call for the women who wail...
Yes, shout and tell them to come!
Send for all the wise women
And tell them that this is their time to speak.

¹⁸ 'For, they should start their lamenting
And really bring tears to their eyes...
Cause water to flow from their eyelids!

¹⁹ For in Zion, this dirge will be heard:

*'How have we come to such misery?
We're disgraced, for our land is abandoned
And our tents have been thrown away!*

²⁰ 'Listen to this, O you women;
For, these are the words of your God!
Let your ears hear the words from His mouth,
Then teach this lament to your daughters...
Let each one teach her neighbors to wail!

²¹ 'For, death has crept in through your windows...
It has come to your land to wipe out your young
And remove the young men from your squares.

²² 'Then, your men must die on the face of the plains,
To set an example for those in your land;
And just like grass that's been mowed,
None will go out to collect them.

²³ 'Then Jehovah said:

*'Don't let the wise boast of their wisdom...
Don't let the mighty boast of their strength...
Don't let the rich boast of their wealth!*

²⁴ *For, when they boast, let them brag about this:
That they perceive Me and know Me...*

*That they know of My mercy and fairness,
And that I've judged this land to bring justice...
So these things being done, are My will, says Jehovah.*

²⁵ *'{Look!} For the days are coming, says Jehovah,
When I'll visit the uncircumcised,*

As well as the circumcised of Edom

²⁶ *(Those in Judah, Egypt, and Edom;
The sons of AmMon and MoAb...*

*All those who are shaving their faces
And those who live in the deserts).*

*For though the flesh of the nations is uncircumcised,
In their hearts, IsraEl is uncircumcised too.'*

Chapter 10

¹ O house of IsraEl; Listen to the Word of Jehovah!

² Don't learn the ways of the gentiles
And don't [follow] the [zodiac] signs...

These things that are feared by the nations,

³ For the customs of the nations are worthless!

An idol is a tree that they've cut from the woods,
Or it's something that someone has cast [in a mold].

⁴ They adorn them with silver and gold,
And nail them in place with a hammer...

They [nail them tight] so they cannot move.

⁵ But they're just carved pieces of silver...

So, they are unable to speak,

And they also have to be carried,

For they can't lift themselves into place!

'Thus, there no reason to fear them,

For nothing in them can do bad or good.

⁶ They aren't like You, O Jehovah;

For You're great... and great is the strength of Your Name.

⁷ Who won't fear You, O King of the Nations?

For to You come the wise from all lands;

Because, in each of their kingdoms,

They have no gods that are like You.

⁸ [For their idols] are foolish and thoughtless,

Since trees can just teach foolish things.

⁹ It's by the hands of skilled goldsmiths

That silver from Tarshish is melded

Into gold that comes from Uphaz...

It's just the workings of craftsmen...

¹⁰ Then they deck those things in purple and blue!

¹¹ As the result, tell them this:

'Let these gods that didn't make the skies or the ground

Be destroyed from all lands under the skies!

¹² For, it was Jehovah who made the earth...

By His might, He erected man's home.

Then, in His intelligence and wisdom,

Above it, He stretched out the heavens.

¹³ 'He gathers all the waters under the skies

And [assembles] the clouds to the ends of the earth.

He made the lightning and rain,

And from His treasuries, He brings the winds.

¹⁴ 'The knowledge of men, He disgraces;

And goldsmiths are shamed by the idols they carve.

For false gods are just cast in ovens,

And there is no spirit within them.

¹⁵ 'They are foolish works that are made to be mocked;

And in the time [when God] visits,

They will all be destroyed.

¹⁶ 'But, this isn't the portion of Jacob;

For the One who shaped everything

(IsraEl's inheritance and scepter)

Is named Jehovah of Armies!

¹⁷ And from the [nations], He will gather supporters
Who will dwell among His elected.’

¹⁸ Then the Lord said:

‘{Look!} I’ll stumble those who live in this land,
And squeeze them to [show what they’ve done].

¹⁹ So, woe to you, for you’ll be destroyed,
And your wounds will be very painful.’

And I said: ‘But I’ve already been wounded... and this has surely come from You! ²⁰ For my tent is in such a miserable condition that it is almost totally destroyed... its coverings of skins have been ripped apart, my sons and my sheep are all gone, there are no walls for my tent, and I have no place to store its leather! ²¹ Even my shepherds have been acting stupidly. For since they’ve also failed to search for Jehovah, they’ve allowed all of my sheep to be scattered and confused in their pastures.

²² ‘{Look!} Now we’ve received a report that the sounds of a great rumbling can be heard coming from the land in the north, and that orders to have been given to come here and destroy our cities too... to scatter us like the nest of an ostrich!

²³ But I know, O Lord, that our people don’t know the right way to go, and we don’t even know how to walk a straight path. ²⁴ So, correct us in fairness, O Jehovah... don’t send Your rage and allow only a few of us to remain! ²⁵ Pour out Your rage on the nations [instead]... on those kingdoms that really don’t know You, and on those who don’t call on Your Name. For IsraEl has already been completely consumed, all of our pastures lie desolate, and now they’re getting ready to come and consume the rest of Jacob!’

Chapter 11

¹ Then these words came to JeremiAh from the Lord. He said:

² ‘Listen to the words of my Sacred Agreement,
And you must read them to the people of Judah,
As well as to those in JeruSalem.

³ This is what IsraEl’s God Jehovah has declared:

*‘Cursed is the man who pays no regard
To the words of the Sacred Agreement
That I made with your fathers
On the day that I led them from Egypt...
From out of that furnace of iron.*

*‘If you’ll pay close attention to My voice
And do all the things that I tell you to do,
Then, you’ll be My people and I’ll be your God.*

*‘I’ll reestablish My oath
(The oath that I swore to your fathers)
To give them this land of honey and milk
That has flowed to them to this day.’*

And I replied, ‘May it be so, O my Lord.’

‘And the Lord said to me:

‘Read these words in the cities of Judah
And at JeruSalem’s [gates].

Then, tell them to pay close attention
To the words of the Sacred Agreement,
And to [be careful to] obey them!

‘For, we bore witness together,
And I’ve testified to your fathers
From the day that I led them from Egypt
Down to this very day...

I came to them early each morning
In order to witness to them.

I told them to hear the words of my voice!

But, they wouldn’t listen or turn an ear...

They just followed the bad thoughts in their hearts.

‘Though they agreed to the words of this Contract
And to the things that I said they must do;

‘Thereafter, they just didn’t do them.

‘So, because of this, tell them that thus says Jehovah:
A conspiracy has been found among Judah’s men

And among those who live in JeruSalem!

¹⁰ They've returned to the bad ways of their fathers...

The ways of those existed before them,

Who also refused to listen to Me.

{Look!} For, those in the houses of IsraEl and Judah

Are following and serving strange gods...

They've annulled My Agreement with their fathers!

¹¹ 'And because of this, says Jehovah;

{Look!} I'll bring an evil upon them

That they won't be able to bring to an end.

'Then, once again, they'll start calling to Me,

But this time, I just will not listen.

¹² And [what happens to] those in the cities of Judah,

Will [be worse] than for those in JeruSalem.

'So then, they'll have to call to their gods...

Those to whom they burn incense...

Those who can't save them in times of [distress].

¹³ 'Now, every town in Judah has its own gods,

And there are shrines on all of JeruSalem's streets

Where they burn incense to BaAl.

¹⁴ 'So, you must not pray for these people...

Don't beg or petition for them!

For when they call, I won't listen

In their time of distress.

¹⁵ 'For, disgusting things are being done in my House

By those for whom I've shown love!

So will vows and holy meat atone for their bad...

Are they putting their hope in such things?

¹⁶ 'As a pretty olive tree providing much shade

Was the sight of those who called on His Name.

Then I heard the sound of it being chopped down...

It was lit on fire [and burned]...
So her tender branches were wasted.

¹⁷ ‘Yet, it was planted by Jehovah of Armies...
The One against whom they spoke evil.
So, on the houses of IsraEl and Judah
There also came evil things
That they brought on themselves by provoking His rage...
By their burning incense to BaAl.’

¹⁸ [But I said]: ‘O Lord; please tell me about it so I’ll know, because you’re the only one that is fully aware of the things they’re doing! ¹⁹
However, I’m just an innocent lamb that doesn’t know he’s being led to the sacrifice; for they’re even plotting and making plans against me, saying:

*Come, let’s give him wood for his bread...
From the land of the living, let’s wipe him away,
And make sure that his name is forgotten!*

²⁰ ‘O Jehovah of Armies; Please judge them fairly over such things... try their kidneys and hearts! May I [live to] see Your punishment on them... but remember that I’ve acted uprightly.’

²¹ It was because of this that the Lord then replied concerning the men of AnathOth who were seeking my life. For these were the ones that were saying to me, ‘Don’t prophesy in the Name of Jehovah anymore, for if you do, we’ll kill you!’ ²² So concerning them, Jehovah of Armies said this:

‘Look! I’ll pay them a visit,
Then, all their young men will die by the sword,
And their sons and daughters will starve.

²³ ‘None of them will remain;
For, to those who are living in AnathOth,
I will be bringing what’s bad
In the year that I come to visit.’

Chapter 12

¹ [And I said]: ‘You are righteous, O Lord; so let me plead my case before You, and I’ll leave it for you to decide.

‘Why do the irreverent [seem to] succeed,
And the wicked and disrespectful continue to prosper?

² Yet, they were planted and rooted by You,
And they produced children and fruitage.
So it seems as though You are near to their mouths
But far away from their kidneys.

³ ‘You know me, O Lord,
And before You, my heart has been tried.
So, may they be gathered like flocks
That are dedicated for slaughter!

⁴ ‘How long will the land have to mourn
And all the grass in the fields become dry
Because of their evil deeds?
Though they offer God cattle and birds,
They say that He doesn’t see what they’re doing.’

⁵ [And the Lord replied]:
‘Since your feet get so tired when they run,
How can you be ridden like a horse?
Why have you trusted that there will be peace
And why do you whinny for the Jordan?

⁶ ‘For, even your brothers and the house of your father
Have failed to pay any attention to you...
Behind your back, they are yelling at you!
So don’t trust them when they speak kind words.’

⁷ [And I said]:
‘I have abandoned my home...
My inheritance, I have forsaken...
And into the hands of her enemies
I’ve given the love of my life.

⁸ ‘For [she], (my inheritance) has become
Like a lion that lives in the woods...
She roared, so I started to hate her.

⁹ ‘She’s become a den of hyenas,
And [this den] is now her protection.
So, gather to her the beasts of the fields
And let them go there to eat her!’

¹⁰ [And the Lord replied]:
‘Many shepherds have corrupted my vineyard...
Yes, they have tainted my portion...
They’ve turned my portion into a land that’s unwalked!

¹¹ ‘So destruction and extinction is what I have planned.
And because of me, the land will all be destroyed.
Yet, the people have failed to take this to heart.

¹² ‘Then, through every pass in the desert
Will come those who bring misery...
Those who will use my sword to consume.
And from one end of the land to the other;
For all flesh, there won’t be any peace.

¹³ ‘For, though I once planted wheat there,
Thorn-bushes is all that it [grew]...
So all of my efforts were wasted.
Therefore, be ashamed of your prideful words
And for speaking in scorn to Jehovah!’

¹⁴ Then the Lord said:
‘When it comes to the wicked around you
(Those who have touched my belongings...
IsraEl, my people and portion);
{Look!} From their land, I will take them away...
I’ll uproot the people of Judah.

¹⁵ ‘But, after I drive them away,
I will also let them return,

And I will show mercy on them.
Yes, I'll let them return and resettle
In the land they received from their fathers...
I'll return each one to his [home].

¹⁶ 'And if my people should learn the right way
Then start swearing their oaths by [God's] Name...
If they'll say, As Jehovah is living,
As they're now swearing by BaAl;
I'll let them return and rebuild their homes.

¹⁷ 'But, if they should choose not to return,
I will lift that nation away...
I'll remove them and then I'll destroy them,' said the Lord.

Chapter 13

¹ Then the Lord said:

'Now, go buy a loin cloth made of linen,
And thereafter, wrap it around you...
But, do not wash it in water.'

² So I went out and bought the loincloth, just as I was told by the Word of Jehovah, and I wrapped it around my loins. ³ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me a second time saying:

'Now, you should take off the loincloth
(The one that you've wrapped 'round your loins),

⁴ Then get up and go to the River EuPhrates,
And hide it in a hole in the rocks!'

⁵ So I went and hid it by the EuPhrates, just as the Lord had told me to do.

⁶ Then after many days, the Lord said to me:

'Now, get up and go back to the River EuPhrates...
Go search and bring back that loincloth...
The one that I told you to hide there.'

⁷ So I went back to the EuPhrates and dug up the loincloth from the place where I'd hidden it... and {Look!} it was ruined... there's no way that it could have been used after that!

⁸ Then the Word of Jehovah came and told me, ⁹ 'This is what Jehovah has said:

*'Like this, I'll corrupt the insolence of Judah
Because of JeruSalem's insolent ways...*

¹⁰ *The insolence of those who don't wish to obey...
Those who follow the wicked ways of their hearts
By chasing and serving strange gods,
Then bowing to their faces before them.*

*'They will become like this loincloth,
Which will never be useful again.*

¹¹ *For, just as this cloth hugs the loins of a man,
I've stuck by the houses of IsraEl and Judah, says Jehovah.*

*'They'd have been a famous people to Me
And a reason for boasting and glory...
But they have paid Me no heed!*

¹² 'So, speak these words to those people...
Say that IsraEl's God, Jehovah, says this:
Your leather bags will be filled with wine!

*'And when they ask,
Don't you think that we already know
That our leather bags will be filled with wine?
Why have you have said this to us?*

¹³ 'Tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*{Look!} I'll fill those in this land with strong drink...
Their kings (David's sons) who sit on their thrones,
As well as their priests and their prophets,
Along with all those who are living in Judah
And those who are living in JeruSalem.*

¹⁴ *‘Then, I will send them away...
Each man will be torn from his brother,
And all sons will be torn from their fathers.
And thereafter, I will not miss them, says Jehovah...
I won’t spare them or pity their ruin.’*

¹⁵ So, hear this... yes listen, and then give up hope!
For, this is what the Lord said:

‘Give glory to Jehovah, your God...

¹⁶ Give glory before it gets dark...
Before your feet stumble amid mountain shade
Where you’ll wait for light in the shadow of death,
But where you will only find darkness!

¹⁷ ‘For, if you choose not to listen,
You’ll weep in secret, because of your pride;
And there, your eyes will shed tears
For the scattered flock of Jehovah.

¹⁸ ‘Now, go and say this to your king:
*Your rulers must sit down and humble themselves,
For their wreaths of glory will be knocked from their heads.*

¹⁹ *‘The cities toward the south will be also closed,
And not be opened again.
Then the people of Judah will be resettled
In a complete relocation.*

²⁰ ‘So raise your eyes, O JeruSalem,
And see what’s coming to you from the north!

‘So, where is the flock that was given to you...
[Yes, where are] the sheep of your glory?

²¹ What will you say when those people arrive
And you’ll have to teach them hard lessons
Against yourselves and your rule?

‘Won’t labor pangs then control you
As though you’re a woman about to give birth?

²² ‘And if you should ask in your heart,
Why has this happened to me?
It’s because your sins have been great!
So, your butt will now be uncovered
To be an example to your heels.

²³ *‘If Ethiopians could change their skin color
Or leopards could change all their spots;
You’d also be able to do what is good
And learn [not to do] any evil.*

²⁴ *‘This is how your people will be scattered by Me...
Like twigs that are blown in the desert by winds.*

²⁵ *Yes, this is your portion and lot,
Because of the ways you’ve opposed Me, says Jehovah.*

‘For, you forgot Me and trusted in lies.

²⁶ *So, to your faces, I’ll now show your butts...
Your dishonor will be exposed before all.*

²⁷ *‘Yes, I’ve seen your snorting and adultery...
Your disgusting acts and the whoring
That you’ve done in your hills and in all your fields.*

*‘So, woe to you, O JeruSalem,
Because you’re too dirty to come after Me,
And for you, there’s no longer any hope!’*

Chapter 14

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me (JeremiAh) to [speak about] the drought, [For I had said:]

² ‘Judah is mourning, for her gates are now empty,
And the land is enveloped in darkness,
As cries are ascending from JeruSalem.

³ ‘Her great ones send young men for water,
Who find nothing when they get to the wells;
So, all they bring back is just empty jars.

⁴ ‘The works in the land have failed also,
Since there hasn’t been any rain.
So, the farmers are shamed and they cover their heads.

⁵ And when the hinds in the prairies give birth,
They just abandon their young...
For there’s not enough [grass] in the fields.

⁶ ‘Wild burros in the woods must suck wind;
And because there is so little hay,
The eyes of the wild beasts have failed.

⁷ ‘Because of our sins, [You’ve] opposed us, O Lord;
But, help us for the sake of Your Name.
However, our errors are many,
And we’re [guilty] of sinning against You.

⁸ ‘But Lord; You are IsraEl’s endurance...
In hard times, You’ve been our Savior.
So, why are You being a stranger to us...
Like a native-born son on vacation?

⁹ ‘Are You like a man who is sleeping,
Or are You someone who is able to save us?
For, You’ve been among us, O Lord,
And we are called by Your Name;
So, You should never forget us!

¹⁰ And the Lord replied concerning these people:
‘They’ve [sinned] and they have spared no one;
So, God hasn’t prospered their ways,
And because He is recalling their sins...
For their errors, He’s coming to visit.’

¹¹ Then the Lord told me:

‘Don’t request good things for these people;

¹² For, when they fast, I won’t listen to their prayers.
And if they should bring sacrifices,
I won’t look kindly upon them.

Rather, I'll finish them off with the sword,
And to the rest, I will then send a famine.'

¹³ And I said:

'O Great Being... O Lord; our prophets have said that we won't ever see the sword and that we'll never go hungry... rather, they're saying that you're going to bring peace to our land!'

¹⁴ And then the Lord said this to me:

'Those who prophesy such things in [God's] Name
Are just telling them lies;
For, I did not really send them,
Nor did I tell them what they should say.

'So the visions that they have are all lies;
And the signs and omens by which they prophesy,
Are just things that come from their hearts.

¹⁵ 'Therefore, this was said by Jehovah:

*You must tell those who prophesy lies in My Name
(Those whom I didn't send)...
[Because you've said] that famine and the sword
Will never come to this land;
You prophets will die by diseases,
And I'll finish what's left by starvation!*

¹⁶ 'Yes, you who are speaking such prophecies
Will all die by the sword and by famine;
Then your bodies will be tossed in JeruSalem's streets.

*'You won't be buried in tombs...
Nor will your wives, sons, or daughters.
For I'll pour your own badness upon you!*

¹⁷ 'Then tell them that Jehovah said this:

*Your eyes will be filled with tears day and night...
For, you will never stop crying!
To the daughters of My people will just come defeat...
Yes, they will be horribly beaten!*

¹⁸ *'So, when you go out to the fields,
You'll just see those cut down by the sword.
And when you enter the cities,
You'll see the misery of famine.
Then, to lands that you've never known,
They'll carry you prophets and priests!'*

¹⁹ [And I asked:] 'Are you saying that Jehovah has rejected all of Judah and that He has removed His Soul from Zion? Why is He striking us instead of healing us? For though we've been waiting for peace, nothing good has happened... [we've been waiting for] healing, but things are just getting worse!

²⁰ 'O Lord, we're aware of our errors and the sins of our fathers... yes we know that we're guilty of sins before You. ²¹ But please back off because of Your Name... don't destroy Your glorious throne! Please remember Your Sacred Agreement... please don't wipe it away! ²² For, which idol of the nations bring rain... which one can bring what they say they can bring from the skies? Who other than You can accomplish such things... [who other than] our God Jehovah? Therefore, we'll continue to wait upon You, since You're the One who created it all!'

Chapter 15

¹ And then the Lord said to me:
'If you'd stand SamuEl and Moses before me...
Even for them, my soul wouldn't change.
So, send these people away from my face...
Yes, let them [be carried away]!

² And if they should ask, Where are we going?
You should tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*'As many as are [appointed for] death
[Are the numbers of those] who will die;
As many as are [appointed] to the sword
[Are the numbers of those] who will die by the sword;
As many as are [appointed] to famine
[Are the numbers of those] who will starve;*

*And as many as are [appointed] to be captives
[Are the numbers of those] who'll be carried away.'*

3 'And Jehovah said:

I will take vengeance in four different ways:

- They'll be put to death by the sword*
- They'll be torn to pieces by dogs*
- They'll serve as prey for wild beasts*
- They'll be rotting flesh for the birds in the skies.*

*4 'To many distresses, I'll hand them
To all the kingdoms throughout the earth
Because of ManasSeh, king of Judah
(The son of King HezekiAh),
And for all that he did in JeruSalem.*

*5 'O JeruSalem; who will spare you?
Yes, who will be timid against you,
And who will say, May you have peace?
For to Me, you have now turned [your backs], says Jehovah.*

6 So, you will be [forced to] retreat;

*'Then I'll stretch out My hand to destroy you
And I will not spare you thereafter.*

*7 'I'll scatter and disperse those inside their gates,
And they will all become childless...
They'll destroy My people, because they're so bad.*

*8 'Then there'll be more widows than the sands of the seas...
To mothers of young men, I'll send misery...
I'll bring trembling and anxiety upon them at noon.*

*9 'So the one who bore seven will have none,
Since her life will meet with misfortune
And her sun will have set at midday.
She'll be disgraced and berated,
And I'll hand what's left to the sword, says Jehovah.'*

¹⁰ So, woe to you, O mother who bore me;
For I've become a man who must judge
And bring bad things to this land.

Yet, none of this will benefit me,
Since no one has offered to help me,
And I've been weakened by all those who curse me.

¹¹ So may it be, O Jehovah the Almighty...
May they get no help in their time of distress,
And may their enemies bring them no good.

¹² Let them know that [You are like] iron
And Your strength is like a robe made of brass.

¹³ [Then the Lord said this concerning the people]:
'Because of the sins in your borders,
I'll hand all your treasures to them.

¹⁴ Before them, you all will be slaves,
And you'll live in lands that you've never known.
For, a fire will start burning among you,
Which will be lit by my rage.'

¹⁵ But Lord; please do not forget me...
Save me from those who pursue me...
Please don't hold back [Your hand],
Since it's because of You, that I'm hated

¹⁶ By those who don't want to hear what You've said.

If You'll completely finish them off,
Your words will bring joy to my heart.
For, O Jehovah the Almighty;
I'm a man who is called by Your Name!

¹⁷ I don't sit among those who have mocked You,
And before Your hand, I was cautious.
I sat by myself all alone
Filled with great indignation.

¹⁸ But, why do You allow those who bring grief to prevail?
For my wounds by them have been so severe...
And now, where can I go to be healed?
To me, this is untested water...
It's something that I cannot trust.

¹⁹ Then the Lord said:
'If you should ever return [to this land],
I'll return everything that you've owned,
And before my face, you'll stand once again.

'But now, you must separate those who are worthy
From all the rest who are not,
And you must serve as my mouth.

'And though they may come before you,
You must not go before them.

²⁰ For, to these people, I've made you
A fortified wall of forged brass.

'So, though they'll wage war against you,
They won't be able to beat you,
Because I am here and I'll save you.

'Yes, I'll rescue you from their hands,' said [the Lord]...
'From the hands of the wicked, I'll save you...
I'll ransom you from these cursed people.'

Chapter 16

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² 'Do not take another wife in this place
And don't father daughters or sons.

³ For, concerning the sons and the daughters
That have been born in this place...
And concerning the mothers who gave them birth,
And those in this land who are fathers,
[Your God Jehovah says this]:

⁴ *'They'll die by death and disease,
And not be entombed or lamented...
As examples, they'll lie on the face of the ground!*

*'Most will fall by the sword,
And starvation will kill all the rest.
Their corpses will serve as food for wild beasts
And for the birds in the skies.'*

⁵ And the Lord told me:

*'Don't join in their [funeral processions],
And for them, don't mourn or lament,
Since I'm the one who took peace from them,
Along with compassion and mercy.*

⁶ *'So, the great and the small of this land will all die
And they won't be lamented or buried...
No one will beat their chests over them,
Nor cut on themselves or shave their heads.*

⁷ *'No way will there be feasts for the mourning...
No bread will be broken to console
Those who are mourning their dead.
Nor will any drinks be provided
For the deaths of their fathers and mothers.*

⁸ *'So, don't enter their homes for a banquet...
Don't sit beside them to eat or to drink;*

⁹ For thus says Jehovah, IsraEl's God:

*'{Look!} Before your eyes, I'll remove them,
And during your [life, this will happen].
There'll be no sounds of gladness or joy,
Nor the voices of grooms and their brides.*

¹⁰ *'Now, when you say this to the people, they'll ask:
Why has Jehovah pronounced such bad things...
What wrongs have we really done...
How have we sinned against God?*

¹¹ ‘And this must be your reply:
*It’s because your fathers have left Me, says Jehovah;
And they have followed strange gods...
They bowed before them and served them...
They’ve abandoned Me and not kept My Laws...
¹² And you’re even more wicked than them!*

*{Look!} For you’ve chase any evil that pleases your hearts,
And you have refused to obey Me.*

¹³ *So I’ll drive you away from this land
To a land that is strange to your fathers and you,
Where you’ll serve strange gods day and night...
Those who will show you no mercy!*

¹⁴ *‘Yes, because of this, days will come when they’ll say,
As Jehovah is living...
The One who led IsraEl from Egypt.*

¹⁵ *But then, they will also be saying:
As Jehovah is living...
The One who led IsraEl back
From the lands in the north,
And from everywhere else they were taken.
For then, I will bring them back to their land...
This land that I gave to their fathers.*

¹⁶ *{Look!} To them, I will send men who fish, says Jehovah,
And they will go fishing for them.
I will also send out the hunters
Who’ll hunt for them on the mountains and hills
And even in holes among rocks.*

¹⁷ *‘But My eyes are now watching their ways,
So they can’t hide their offenses from Me.*

¹⁸ *And it’s because of all their unrighteous ways...
For the sins with which they’re ruining My land...
For the disgusting things of their rotting flesh*

*And for filling My inheritance with lawless deeds,
That I will pay them back double!*

¹⁹ *'But thereafter, they will be saying,
O Jehovah, our strength and our helper...
Our refuge during hard times...
To You, all the nations will come
From the ends of the earth.*

*'And they will also be saying:
How false were the idols that our fathers acquired;
Because, in them, there was no hope at all...*

²⁰ *Though each man made his own gods,
None of these proved to be gods.*

²¹ *'{Look!} At that time, I will show them My hand...
Yes, I will show them My might.
Then they'll learn that My Name is Jehovah!'*

Chapter 17

¹ *'Thus says Jehovah:
All the sins of Judah have been inscribed
With a stylus of iron...
In the tablets of their hearts, they've been clawed,
And upon the horns of their altars.*

² *'So their sons will remember their altars,
As well as their sacred poles,
Which were found under every tree in the woods
And upon every high hill.*

³ *'And on the mountains, there in your plains,
I will give your wealth and treasures as loot
For the sins [you've committed] upon these high peaks.*

⁴ *'Then the inheritance that I gave to you will be gone,
And you'll have to serve people who hate you
In a land that you've never known.*

*For you've kindled the fire of My wrath,
Which will blaze against you through the rest of this age.'*

⁵ 'And Jehovah said:

*Cursed is the man who has any hope;
For, though his flesh is still on his arms,
His heart is far from Jehovah.*

⁶ *So he'll be like a tree in the desert,
And when good things arrive, he won't see them.
For in a desert of salt, he'll be planted...
In a brackish land, where no one has lived.*

⁷ *'But, praised is the man who relies on the Lord
And puts his hope in Jehovah.*

⁸ *For he'll be like a tree planted near water
That shoots its roots into moisture.*

*'He'll have no fear of sweltering heat
And grow fat like a tree in the woods.
He'll have nothing to fear in the year of the drought,
And he'll keep on producing good fruit.*

⁹ *'Since hearts are the deepest of things,
Who can know [what's inside of] a man?*

¹⁰ *But, I can examine the hearts,
And I can also put the kidneys on trial,
Then repay each one for his ways
By the fruits of the things that he's done.*

¹¹ *'As a partridge calls out to [eggs] that won't hatch,
Is the man who is rich but unfair.*

*For, in the last half of his days,
He will lose all his wealth...
And this [will prove] that he's been a fool.'*

¹² [O Lord];

*Our Holy Place is Your glorious throne,
Which we've held in esteem since most ancient times.*

¹³ But, IsraEl now awaits the disgrace
That will come upon those who have left You.
So, may the names of those who've rebelled
Be written deep under the ground,
Since they've left their Lord and the source of their life!

¹⁴ Make the Sabbath days holy again...
Heal me, O Lord, and I will be healed...
Save me and I'll be delivered,
For You are my reasons for boasting!

¹⁵ They ask, 'Where is this Word of Jehovah?
May [whatever He says] come upon us!'

¹⁶ But I've never tired of following You,
And I've not desired to do what they've done.

You know all the things that have come from my lips...
Before Your face, they're all here!

¹⁷ So, please don't push me away...
Protect me when the bad day arrives!

¹⁸ May those who chase me be shamed,
And may I not bring disgrace on myself.
Though they may come to know terror,
May terror never come upon me.
Yes, bring that bad day upon them...
Double the destruction upon them!

¹⁹ And then the Lord then said this to me:
'Go stand at the gates of the sons of your people
(The gates through which kings of Judah now walk ...
Those gates through which they must pass).

Yes, go and stand at each of those gates,

²⁰ And this is what you should tell them:

'O you kings of Judea...

You kings of Judah and JeruSalem

*And all the rest who enter these gates;
Hear the Word of Jehovah!*

²¹ *'For Jehovah has told you to save your lives
By not carrying loads on the Sabbaths...
To carry nothing through JeruSalem's gates
²² And nothing from your homes on the Sabbaths.
He told you not to do any work,
For you must keep the Sabbath days holy;
Since, that's what He told your fathers to do!*

²³ *'But, they'll not turn and listen to you...
They'll have stiffer necks than their fathers...
They'll not pay attention or do what you say.'*

²⁴ *Then the Lord [told me to say this to them]:
'If you will just listen to Me
And not carry goods through these gates on the Sabbaths...
If you'll treat the Sabbaths as holy
By refusing to do any work;
Then, kings and rulers will enter these gates
Who will still sit upon David's throne.*

²⁵ *'They'll come through here with horses and chariots,
And I will appoint them the rulers
Of Judah and JeruSalem...
Then they'll settle in this city through the ages.*

²⁶ *'And at that time, [the people] will come
From Judah and JeruSalem.
And from BenJamin's land they'll come also...
From the mountains and fields in the south.*

*'They will be bringing burnt-offerings,
Along with incense and frankincense,
As well as offerings of praise and thanksgiving
To the Temple of Jehovah.*

²⁷ ‘But, if you should choose not to listen
And not treat My Sabbaths as holy...
If you continue to lift and tote loads
Through JeruSalem’s gates on the Sabbaths;
I’ll kindle a fire inside of its gates
To devour JeruSalem’s plazas...
A fire that’ll never be extinguished!’

Chapter 18

¹ This message came to JeremiAh from Jehovah. ² He said:
‘Get up and go to the house of the potter
And hear the words that I’ll say there.’

³ So I went to the house of the potter, and {Look!} there I found the man making a [pot] on his stone. ⁴ However, the pot that he was making then fell apart, so he reshaped it into one that he was pleased with.

⁵ It was then that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

⁶ ‘Now, Jehovah is asking this question:

O House of IsraEl;

Can’t I shape you in the same way

That the potter just [reshaped this pot]?

For, O house of IsraEl;

Like clay in the hands of a potter

Is what you are in My hands.

⁷ ‘So, when I speak of bringing an end
To any nation or kingdom,
And I plan to destroy them and lift them away;

⁸ If the nation should turn from the bad,

I can then change My mind

About the bad things that I’d planned.

⁹ ‘And when I speak of building a nation or kingdom,

¹⁰ And they [choose to be] wicked before Me,

Refusing to hear what I say;

*About the good things of which I had planned,
I can then change My mind.*

¹¹ ‘So, say this to those men of Judea
And to those who live in JeruSalem...
Tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*‘{Look!} I will shape bad things against you
And devise against you, a plot,
Unless you turn from your evil ways
And change your bad ways to good!*

¹² ‘Yet, this is what they’ll say in reply:
*We’ll act like men and do as we please...
We’ll do whatever is bad in our hearts!*

¹³ ‘And because of this, thus says Jehovah:
*Go and ask the gentiles this question:
Have you heard better reasons to shudder
Than what IsraEl, the virgin, has done?*

¹⁴ *‘Will snow leave the rocks on the mountains?
Will rain not fall when it’s blown by the wind?*

¹⁵ *Yet, because My own people forgot Me,
It’s in vain that they’re burning incense to Me,
And they’ll now grow weak in their paths.*

*‘On the roads of the ages, they will not walk;
For, since they don’t know the right way to go,*

¹⁶ *They’ve ordered extinction upon their own land...
A hissing [that will last] through the ages.*

*‘Then, all who go there will be stupefied,
And they will just shake their heads.*

¹⁷ *For, enemies will blow them away
As though they are flames in the wind...
Yes, I’ll show them the rear not the front
In the day that they’re being destroyed.’*

¹⁸ Well after that, [the people] started saying: ‘We need to come up with a plot [to destroy] JeremiAh, for the Law won’t really pass away, nor will the wisdom or words of [our] prophets. Come on, let’s beat him on his tongue so we won’t have to listen to his words anymore!’

Please remember [all the times] that I stood here before You and asked You to do good things for them... when I urged You to turn from Your rage against them! ²¹ But now, because of [these things that they’re sayng], please bring a famine upon all their sons and hand them over to those who are carrying swords! Let their women become childless and widows... may all of their husbands be killed, and may all their young men fall by the sword! ²² Yes, let there be cries in their homes as You set looters upon them... for now they’re plotting to arrest me and they’re hiding snares to catch me!

²³ Yes, You know, O Lord, that they’re planning to kill me; so don’t overlook their errors and sins, and wipe them away from before You. Let their failures always remain in Your [eyes], and then deal with them in the day of Your rage!

Chapter 19

¹ Well at that, the Lord said to me:
‘Go buy a shaped earthenware pitcher
From the elders of the people and the priests.

² Then go to the graveyard of Hinnom’s sons
At the threshold of the East Gate,
And read all these words that I’ll tell you:

³ ‘Say, *O you kings of Judea,
And you who live in JeruSalem;
Hear the word of Jehovah!
For, this was said by Jehovah of Armies...
The God of IsraEl now says that He’ll bring
So many bad things to this place
That it’ll ring in the ears of those hearing about it.*

*4 'For, they have left Him and [chosen] this place
Where they burn incense to their strange gods
(Gods that their fathers never knew).
And the kings of Judah have filled up this place
With the blood of innocent people.*

*5 'Here, they've built [altars] to BaAl,
And they've burned their sons in a fire...
Something that God never spoke of
And which He never told them to do,
Or ever came into His heart!*

*6 'And because of this, days will come, said the Lord,
'When they'll call this [The Valley] no longer,
Nor the Graveyard of Hinnom's sons.
It'll be called, The Graveyard of Slaughter!*

*7 'For there, I'll slay the counselors of Judah,
As well as those of JeruSalem...
Before their enemies, I'll cut them down
Through the hands of those who are seeking their lives.
Then I'll hand their dead to the birds as their food,
As well as to the wild beasts of the ground.*

*8 'I'll order the extinction of this city...
It'll be just a place where hissing is heard.
And all who come here will look at it sadly,
Then whistle [when they see] its disaster.*

*9 'Here they'll eat the flesh of their daughters and sons,
And in their strongholds, the flesh of their neighbors,
When their enemies (those seeking their lives) have arrived.*

*10 'Then, break that pitcher in front of their eyes.
And before those who've traveled there with you,
11 Tell them that thus says Jehovah:*

*'This is how I will do it;
I'll break your city and its people*

*Just like this pot has been shattered,
So that it cannot be repaired.
Then they'll be buried here in this place
Where [they now play] tambourines...
There'll be no other place to be buried.*

¹² 'Jehovah says:

*This is what I will do to this place,
And to all those who live here...
I'll hand this city to destruction...*

¹³ *Yes, all of JeruSalem's homes
And the palaces of all its rulers.*

*'It will all fall into ruin
Because of the bad things they've done here.
For here, they've burned incense on roofs
To each of the [Zodiac signs],
And they've offered drinks to strange gods.'*

¹⁴ Then JeremiAh left [the valley] where The Lord had sent him to prophesy, and he went and stood in the courtyard of the [Temple] of Jehovah and said this to all the people who were there:

'Thus says Jehovah of Armies:

*{Look!} I'll bring calamity on this city
And to the rest of its cities and towns.*

*I'm bringing all the evils that I've spoken against her;
For, you have hardened your necks,
And not listened to the instructions that I sent.'*

Chapter 20

¹ Well, when Pashur, the son of ImMer the Priest (who had been anointed as the leader of the Temple of Jehovah) heard what JeremiAh was prophesying, ² he had him beaten and thrown into the dungeon near the Upper Gate of the House of BenJamin, which was near the Temple of Jehovah.

³ Then the next morning, as Pashur was leading JeremiAh out of the dungeon, JeremiAh said to him:

‘Jehovah won’t call your name Pashur anymore. Rather, He’s going to call you Refugee. ⁴ Because Jehovah says this:

*‘{Look!} I’ll hand over you and your friends,
Who’ll be taken away from this place,
Where they’ll fall by your enemy’s swords...
And your eyes will see it all happen.*

*‘Then, I will hand Judah to Babylon’s king,
And he’ll move the people away
Or cut them to pieces with swords.*

⁵ *‘I’ll remove the strength from this city
– All its works and all the king’s treasures –
And put them into their enemy’s hands.*

‘To Babylon, they will be led;

⁶ *Then, you and all who live in your house
Will be taken to Babylon as captives,
And there is where you will die...*

*It’s where you’ll be entombed with your friends
To whom you prophesied lies.’*

⁷ Then I said: ‘You’ve deceived me, O Lord... yes, I was truly deceived! Though You’ve held on and won, I’m the butt of their laughter every day and I’m the one at whom they’re all sneering! ⁸ So from here on, I’m just going to laugh at the bitterness and call for more misery and rebellion, since all that speaking the word of Jehovah has brought me is scorn and taunting every day.’

⁹ And I said: ‘There’s no way that I’m going to [speak of] Jehovah anymore... I won’t even mention His Name!’ However, soon it became like a fire that burned and blazed in my bones and made me weak on the inside, until I was no longer able to bear it. [So I said:]

¹⁰ *‘I’ve heard that they’ve said in their meetings,
We should all rise up against him...*

*Yes, let's stand together against him
As well as against all his friends.*

*'Let's ignore what he says will be coming...
Yes, let him keep on being deceived.
For against him, we will prevail,
And then, we'll take vengeance upon him.*

¹¹ 'However, Jehovah is with me,
As a warrior who's making me strong.
So, they have chased me in vain...
And though they will all meet with shame,
They'll fail to see their dishonor,
Which will not be forgotten through ages.

¹² 'O Lord;
Try me according to Your righteous ways...
Examine my kidneys and heart.
May I witness Your punishment on them...
For before You, I've laid out my pleas for defense.

¹³ 'So, sing to Jehovah and praise Him,
Because He'll save the lives of the poor
From the hands of those who have power!

¹⁴ 'O cursed is the day I was born...
May the day that my mother gave birth
Never be longed for again!

¹⁵ 'And may that person be cursed
Who brought the news to my father:
Rejoice, for you have a male child!

¹⁶ May he be as the cities that did not repent
And were destroyed by Jehovah!

'Let him hear their cries in the mornings,
As well as their shouting at noon!

¹⁷ For [God] failed to kill me in my mother's womb
And let it serve as my tomb through the ages.

¹⁸ ‘Why did I come from the womb...
Just to see all of this misery
And to spend all my days in such shame?’

Chapter 21

¹ The following are the words that came to JeremiAh from Jehovah after King ZedekiAh had sent Pashur (the son of MelchiAh) and ZephaniAh (the son of MaAseJah) the Priest to him to say this: ² ‘Go beg to Jehovah for us, because the king of Babylon has us surrounded. [Ask] if the Lord will send wonders and drive that king from [our walls].’

³ So the Lord then told JeremiAh, ‘Give this reply to King ZedekiAh:

*‘I’ll turn back the weapons of war in your hands
That you’re using to fight those Chaldeans
Who have come to oppress you,
And who are outside of your walls;
Then, I’ll bring them into your city.*

*For, I will wage war against you
With My outstretched hand and My mighty arm
In [My] anger and rage.*

*‘I’ll strike all those who live in this city
In a slaughter of men and their cattle...
Yes, they will all be destroyed!*

*And then, said Jehovah,
I’ll hand over Judah’s King ZedekiAh,
As well as all of his servants,
Along with those that live in this city
Who’ll survive death from the famine
And the swords in the hands of those seeking their lives.*

*‘By the mouth of the sword, they’ll cut them to bits...
They will not spare or feel pity.*

⁸ ‘Then, speak to these people and tell them...
Yes, tell them that thus says Jehovah:

‘{Look!} Before your faces, I’ve put life and death.

*° And those who stay in this city
Will die by the famine and sword.*

*But, those who leave to join the Chaldeans
(Those men who have you surrounded) will live...
Your [reward] will be your own lives!*

*10 ‘For against this city, I’ve now set My face
To do just bad things, not good, says Jehovah.
It’s going to be handed to Babylon’s king,
And he will then burn it with fire.*

*11 ‘O house of the kings of Judea;
Hear the Word of Jehovah!*

*12 And to you, the house of [King] David;
Against you, Jehovah said this:*

*‘In the morning, discuss the judgment on you,
And then get yourselves straightened out.
Rescue those being shredded
From the hands of those who are doing them wrong!*

*‘Don’t let My anger be lit like a fire;
For, after it has been kindled,
No one will come here to put it out!*

*13 ‘Look... it’s Me that’s coming against
All you who live in these [mountains],
And you who live in the plains...
Those who have asked, Whom must we fear?
And, Who could enter our homes?*

*14 ‘Yes, I am the One who is watching
And the One who’ll be lighting the fire
That will burn everything that’s around [you]!’*

Chapter 22

¹ Then the Lord said,

‘So now, go to the [palace] of Judah’s king,
And these are the words you must speak there:

² *‘O you king of Judea,
Hear the Word of Jehovah...
Yes, you who are sitting upon David’s throne...
You, as well as your servants,
And all the people that enter your gates!*

³ ‘Tell him that this is what was said by Jehovah:
*You must [learn to] be righteous and fair,
And rescue those being plundered
From the hands of those who are doing them wrong!*

*‘Don’t tyrannize strangers, orphans, or widows...
Don’t be irreverent anymore...
And stop shedding innocent blood in this place!*

⁴ *‘For, if you [continue] doing such things,
Their kings will enter the gates of this house,
And on David’s throne, they will sit.
Yes, they, their children, and people
Will come here on chariots and horses!*

⁵ *‘If you choose not to listen to Me,
I swear this oath by Myself, says Jehovah:
On your house, I will bring desolation!’*

⁶ ‘And Jehovah said this against the [palace] of the king of Judah:
*You’re the same as Gilead to Me;
For, you are Lebanon’s head.
So, shouldn’t I wipe you away
And leave your cities deserted?*

⁷ *‘I’ll bring annihilation upon you
By a man who carries the axe.*

*He'll cut down all your fine cedars,
And throw them into a fire.*

⁸ *'Then, nations will [march] through this city,
And each man will ask his companion,
Why did [God] let this happen?*

⁹ And the other will give this reply:

Because they abandoned their Sacred Agreement With Jehovah their God...

Because they bowed down and served other gods.

¹⁰ *'So don't weep or feel sorry for those who will die...
Rather, weep for those who'll be carried away.*

For, they will never return

Or see the land of their fathers again.

¹¹ 'The Lord also said these words against ShalLum (JehoiAkim) the king of Judah (the son of [King] JosiAh), [who reigned in place of his \[brother\] who'd been carried\] off \[to Egypt\]](#). He said:

'You will never return here,

¹² *And you'll die where I'll have you taken...
So this land will never see you again!*

¹³ *'For your [palace] was built on injustice,
And unfairly, its rooms were constructed,
Since you made your neighbors work without pay...
You didn't even pay them their wages!*

¹⁴ *'A well-designed house, you've built for yourself,
With windows and good ventilation,
And cedar walls that are painted vermillion.*

¹⁵ *But, should you have started to rule
Because you disliked your father?*

*'Of food and drink, he had plenty,
Because he was fair, honest, and just!*

¹⁶ *But, you have not [seen the need]
To judge the humble in fairness,*

Or to be just with the poor!

Have you done this because you don't know Me, asks Jehovah?

¹⁷ *'{Look!} There is nothing good in your eyes or your heart,
And your desire is just to gain wealth.
So, you are shedding innocent blood
And committing such evils as murder!*

¹⁸ *'Then Jehovah said this against JehoiAkim, king of Judah:
Because of all that he's done,
Woe [will come to] this man.
So let no one feel sorry for him,
And no one should wail, O my brother!*

*'Over him, they should never weep,
Or say, Too bad for you, O my Lord!*

¹⁹ *For, he'll be buried like a donkey...
He'll be scraped up and tossed from JeruSalem's [walls]!*

²⁰ *'Now, go up to Lebanon and shout...
Go to Bashan and call to the ends of the sea,
[And you'll see that] your lovers have been beaten!*

²¹ *'I've spoken to you of your sins,
And you said that you'd pay Me no heed.
This has been your way since your youth...
You've paid no attention to My voice!*

²² *'So your shepherds will just tend the wind,
And your lovers will be taken as captives.
Then, you'll be shamed and disgraced
Before all of those with whom you've made love.*

²³ *'O you who call Lebanon [your home],
And you who nest among cedars;
You'll groan like a [woman] about to give birth;
For, pangs of grief are coming to you!*

²⁴ *'As I live, says Jehovah;
King ConiJah (JehoiAkim's son)*

*Will become a seal on My right hand;
For, from your place, I will take you
²⁵ And hand you to the man who is seeking your life...
The one before whom you are cautious...
To the hands of King Nebuchadnezzar
And to the hands of all his Chaldeans.*

*²⁶ 'I'll throw you and the mother who bore you
Into a land where you were not born...
And you will have to die in that place!
²⁷ So, to this land that's the love of your life,
You will never return.*

*²⁸ 'Coniah will also meet with disgrace...
And like a pot [that's been thrown] in the garbage;
He'll be thrown in a land that he's never known.'*

*²⁹ 'O land, hear the Word of Jehovah:
³⁰ Record this king as one that's been banished,
And thereafter, proclaim this in public:
Nothing will grow from his seed
That will ever sit upon David's throne,
Or rule in Judah again!'*

Chapter 23

*¹ 'O you shepherds who scatter
And destroy the sheep of His pasture;
Against you, Jehovah said this...
He said this to those who shepherd His [sheep]:*

*² 'You have scattered My sheep...
Yes, you have pushed them away
And refused to [watch over] them.
So, {Look!} I will take vengeance upon you
For the wicked things that you've done.*

*³ 'Then, from wherever they are on the earth,
I will gather them back*

*(Those that are left of My people)
From wherever they have been pushed,
And bring them [back] to their pastures,
Where they'll multiply and grow once again.*

*4 'Then, I will raise shepherds to tend them
So they won't know terror or fear,
Nor will they have to be searched for again, says Jehovah.*

*5 '{Look!}' The days are now coming, says Jehovah,
When I'll bring a righteous dawning to David,
And an understanding king will then reign,
Who'll bring what's righteous and fair to the land.*

*6 'In his days, he'll bring salvation to Judah,
And IsraEl will camp in submission.
Then the Lord will call him, Jehovah is Righteous.*

*7 'And because of this, {Look!} days will come,' said the Lord;
'When they'll not say, As Jehovah's alive...
The One who led IsraEl from Egypt.*

*8 But rather, they will be saying,
As Jehovah is living...
The One who gathered back IsraEl's seed
From the lands in the north,
And from everywhere else that they had been pushed,
And then, He returned them to their own land.*

*9 'But their prophets have broken my heart,
And they have rattled my bones.
I became like a person who's broken,
Or as one who's had too much wine
Before the face of Jehovah...*

Before His beautiful, glorious face...

10 For the land is now full of adultery.

*'Because of this, the land is in mourning,
And all of its pastures have dried.*

For their race has become wicked and weak,
¹¹ And their prophets and priests are corrupt.

*'I saw their wicked ways in My [Temple], said Jehovah,
¹² So I allowed them to slip into darkness,
Where they have stumbled and fallen!
Then, in the year that I visit,
I'll bring more bad things upon them, says Jehovah.*

¹³ *'Among Samaria's prophets,
I beheld the violations of [My] Law.
For, it was by BaAl that they prophesied
To mislead IsraEl, My people.*

¹⁴ *'Then, among the prophets in JeruSalem,
I also saw reasons to shudder.
For they committed adultery and lied,
While shaking hands with the wicked...
Not turning their hands from bad ways.*

*'So, they are like Sodom to Me,
And like GomorRah, are the rest who live there.
¹⁵ And because of this, says Jehovah to those prophets;
{Look!} I will feed you on grief,
And bitter water, I'll give you to drink.
For, everywhere throughout the whole land,
JeruSalem's prophets have brought what is foul.*

¹⁶ *'So, thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
Don't listen to the words of those prophets...
Those who speak prophecies before you.
For their visions prove how foolish they are,
And that what they speak just comes from their hearts,
Not from the mouth of Jehovah.*

¹⁷ *'They are told by those who've pushed the Lord's Word aside:
You will find peace if you'll follow your hearts...
No evil will come to any of those
Who follow the delusions in their hearts.'*

¹⁸ O who has stood in the fort of Jehovah...
Who has beheld and heard what He said...
Who has listened and paid close attention?

¹⁹ {Look!} A shaking will come from Jehovah...
His anger will arrive as a rumble;
Then a whirl-wind will come to the godless.

²⁰ Yet, this won't turn back the rage of Jehovah
Until His heart has been satisfied.
And they won't comprehend 'til their days reach their end.
[For He said]:

²¹ 'Though I didn't send those false prophets,
They came to you anyhow.
And though I've never spoken to them,
They have still prophesied.

²² 'If they had followed My council
And paid attention to what I had said,
My people would have turned from their wicked ways.

²³ 'But, I am a God who is near,' says Jehovah!
'I'm not a God who is far away.

²⁴ So, what can be hidden [from Me]...
What is the secret that I cannot see?
For, weren't the heavens and earth filled by Me,' asks Jehovah?

²⁵ 'Yet, I've heard what those prophets have said...
Those who speak lies in My Name...
Those who say, I saw this in a dream!

²⁶ 'How long will their lies still continue
Within the hearts of those prophets...
How long will they prophesy lies,
And speak from the desires of their hearts?

²⁷ 'They've come up with ways to forget My Name.
Then they use their dreams to describe to their neighbors
How [it was really] their fathers
Who've forgotten My Name,
And then turned to the service of BaAl.

²⁸ 'Let those dreaming prophets describe all their dreams!
And let those who say that they have My word
Describe what I've really said!

'As straw is to grain; so are My words,' says Jehovah.
²⁹ 'Aren't My words like the flames of a fire,' asks the Lord?
'Aren't they like an axe that cuts rocks?

³⁰ 'Look! I am against all those prophets
Who steal My words from their neighbors.

³¹ 'Look! I am against all those prophets,' says Jehovah,
'Who roll prophecies out from their tongues,
While all they really do is just sleep.

³² 'Look, I am against all those prophets
Who prophecy from false dreams that they have.

For, they are misleading My people
With all their lies and delusions!

‘No, I did not really send them,
Nor did I tell them to do this...
I gave them nothing to bring to these people,’ says Jehovah.

³³ ‘And if you are asked by these men
Or if you’re asked by a prophet or priest,
Over what is Jehovah concerned?
This is what you must reply:

*‘What bothers Me is you people,
For I’ll beat you down,* says Jehovah...

³⁴ *You people, you prophets, and priests...
You who’ve dared to ask why I’m bothered,
So I’ll punish you men along with your homes!*

³⁵ ‘Then each one will be asking his neighbor,
And each man will be asking his brother:
*What was Jehovah’s reply...
What answer came from the Lord?*

³⁶ But don’t ask Jehovah about this again;
For, His replies should be your concern,
³⁷ Since you have twisted God’s words.

‘So, [in the future, when] those prophets ask
What was said by Jehovah ...

³⁸ Because they’ve spoken these words once again;
I’ll send Jehovah’s concerns upon them.
For I told them that that they should no longer ask
What Jehovah’s concerned with, again!

³⁹ ‘{Look!} And because they’ve done this, I’ll take them
And beat them down in this place
That I once gave to their fathers.

⁴⁰ I’ll place scorn on them through the ages...
A dishonor that won’t be forgotten.’

Chapter 24

¹ Well, it was after Nebuchadnezzar (the king of Babylon) had taken Jeconiah (the son of Jehoiakim) the king of Judah and the governors from Jerusalem as prisoners and led them into Babylon that the Lord showed me two reed baskets of figs sitting before the Temple of Jehovah. ² The first basket of figs was much fresher and better than the other, for the second basket of figs was so bad that they couldn't be eaten. ³ And the Lord asked me, 'What do you see, Jeremiah?'

And I replied, 'Figs... some are good, but the others are so bad that they can't be eaten.'

⁴ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

⁵ 'Jehovah, the God of Israel, says this:

*These good figs are like those Judeans
Whom I already sent away from this place
Into the land of Chaldea.*

⁶ *'I will fix My eyes upon them for good,
And to this land, I'll restore them...
I'll rebuild them and not destroy them again...
I'll plant them and not pluck them up.*

⁷ *'I'll give them hearts that will know Me...
So they'll know that I am their Lord.
Then they'll be My people and I'll be their God,
And with their whole hearts, they'll turn back to Me.*

⁸ *'And when it comes to those bad figs
That no one could possibly eat...
Because he has made himself rotten, says Jehovah;
I'll hand over King Zedekiah
Along with all his great men.*

*'Then the rest of the people in Jerusalem
And those who've remained in this land,
As well as all those [fleeing to] Egypt,
⁹ Will be scattered throughout the whole earth.*

*‘As a parable of hatred, they will be scorned
And cursed everywhere that I’ll push them.*

*¹⁰ Upon them, I will bring famine,
As well as plagues and the sword,
Until they’ve been forced from this land
That I gave to their fathers and them.’*

Chapter 25

¹ Well, it was in the fourth year [of the reign] of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah that these words came to JeremiAh concerning all the people of Judah. And then, during the first year [of the reign] of NebuChadNezzar (the king of Babylon), ² the Prophet JeremiAh went and spoke to all the people of Judah and to those who were living in JeruSalem, and he said this to them:

³ ‘From the thirteenth year of JosiAh (the son of Amon) – for [the past] twenty three years – Jehovah’s word has been coming to me, and I’ve been getting up early each morning to tell you [what God has said]. However, you just haven’t listened. ⁴ [So now, Jehovah says this]:

*‘At dawn, I sent you My servants the Prophets,
But your ears refused to listen to them,
And you chose to pay no attention.*

⁵ *‘They told you to turn from your wicked ways,
And then, you’d continue to live in the land
That I gave to your fathers and you
Through the age and into the ages.*

⁶ *‘I told you not to follow strange gods...
Not to serve them or bow down before them,
So you wouldn’t provoke Me to rage
With these things that you made with your hands,
And I wouldn’t bring bad things upon you...*

⁷ However, you just wouldn’t listen!

⁸ *‘So because of this, says Jehovah...
Since you didn’t trust the things that I said;*

⁹ {Look!} I've called for a family that lives in the north
And led them down to this land...

I've brought them against those who live here
And against the nations that are living around you,
And they're bringing desolation upon you...
They'll appoint you to extinction, hissing, and scorn
Throughout [the rest of] the age.

¹⁰ 'They'll destroy the sounds of happiness and joy...
The voices of grooms and their brides,
As well as the scent of lamps and perfumes.

¹¹ 'There'll be an extinction throughout the whole land,
Then you'll serve that nation for seventy years...
As well as Babylon's king.

¹² 'And after the seventy years are fulfilled;
On the king of Babylon and his wicked nation,
I will then bring My vengeance
For the unrighteous things that they'll do, says Jehovah.

'I've appointed the land of Chaldea
To extinction through the rest of the age.

¹³ And against that land, I'll bring all the words
That I have spoken against them...
All the things that JeremiAh has written in this scroll,
And which he has spoken against them!

¹⁴ 'For, they will have forced many nations,
As well as their great kings to serve them.
So, I'll pay them back for the bad things they'll do...
According to the works of their hands.'

¹⁵ 'Then Jehovah the God of IsraEl said:
Take this cup of pure wine from My hand
And give it to those nations where I'll send you...
Give it to them as their drink!

¹⁶ Then they'll drink it and vomit it out,
And go mad before the sword that I'll send.'

¹⁷ So thereafter, I took the cup from the hand of the Lord and gave it to the nations to drink (all of those to whom He had sent me... to JeruSalem and the cities of Judah... to the king of Judah and his governors) ¹⁸ so as to appoint desolation upon them and to be lands that are no longer walked (places of hissing and curses), ¹⁹ as well as on Pharaoh \(the king of Egypt\), on his children, on his people, and on all his great men (yes, all who live in his realm), ²⁰ and upon the kings of Philistia and Uz; on AshKelon, Gaza, EkRon, and those who are left in AshDod, ²¹ and on those in Edom and MoAb.

*‘He said, Sons of AmMon will then be extinct,
²² As will be the kings of Sidon and Tyre,
And the kings who [live] ‘cross the sea,
²³ Such as Dedan, Tema, and Buz
(All those who are shaving their faces),
²⁴ And the kings of Arabia and their subjects
(Those who rest in the desert)...
²⁵ All the kings of Zimri and Elam;
All the kings of the Medes;
²⁶ And all the kings from the east wind
(Both those far away and those who are near),
Along with all of their brothers,
And the rest of the kingdoms on the face of the earth...
Pharaoh Shishak will also drink with them!’*

²⁷ ‘Tell them that thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
*They all will drink it and all will get drunk,
And then, they will vomit and fall!
For, they will be unable to stand
Before the sword that I’m sending to them!*

²⁸ ‘And if they refuse to drink from the cup;
Explain that Jehovah of Armies said this:
*[You have no choice] but to drink it;
²⁹ For this affliction has already started
In the city that carries My Name.*

*‘And if you should try to clean yourselves up,
There’s no way that you’ll ever be holy;
For now, I have called for a sword
To come upon all your lands,
Says Jehovah of Armies.*

³⁰ ‘You must speak these words against them and say:

*From high above in His Holy Place,
Jehovah will bring execution...
He’ll speak a word with His voice,
And against your place, He’s sending destruction.*

‘Then, those who gather this vintage will say

To those who have settled the land:

³¹ *Part of the earth has been ruined;
And from Jehovah, this judgment of nations has come.
For, with all flesh, He’s contending,
And the irreverent will be given to the sword.’*

³² ‘Jehovah of Armies also said this:

*{Look!} From a nation comes evil to nations,
And a storm will rage to the ends of the earth.*

³³ *And in that day;
From one part of the earth to the other,
Those who are slain by Jehovah
Won’t be lamented, gathered, or buried...
They’ll be like manure on the face of the ground.*

³⁴ ‘So shout, O shepherds, and cry out!

Beat on your chests, O rams of the flocks!
For your days are fulfilled for the slaughter,
And you will fall like the choicest of rams.

³⁵ ‘For the shepherds; their chance for flight will be gone,
And safety will flee from the rams of the flocks.

³⁶ So, from the shepherds, cries will arise,
As well as the bleating of rams,
When Jehovah wipes their pastures away.

³⁷ ‘Peaceful places to rest, there’ll no longer be
In the face of Jehovah’s anger and rage.

For, He’s come like a lion that’s abandoned its lair
To make their land a place that’s unwalked
With the face of His mighty sword.’

Chapter 26

¹ It was in the first part of King JehoiAkim's (the son of JosiAh) reign that this word came from Jehovah. [The Lord] said:

² ‘Go and stand in [the Temple] courtyard
And there, give orders to those in Judea...

To all who are coming to bow here.

Tell them all the things that I said,

And don't forget any words!

³ Then, perhaps they will listen and turn from their bad,

And I can bring an end to the evil

That I've arranged to send upon them

Because of the bad things they're doing.

⁴ ‘So, tell them that thus says Jehovah:

If you refuse to listen to Me

And obey all the Laws that I've set before you...

[If you won't] obey the words of My servant

⁵ (The words of the Prophet whom I sent,

But to whom you chose not to listen),

⁶ I'll make this [Temple] like Shiloh,

And appoint this city as a curse

Before all the nations throughout the whole earth.'

⁷ Well, all the priests and false prophets, as well as all the people heard what JeremiAh said when he spoke those words in the [Temple] of Jehovah. ⁸ And after he finished saying everything that the Lord had ordered him to say to the people, the priests, and the false prophets, they grabbed him and said: ⁹ ‘We're going to kill you for prophesying in the Name of Jehovah and for saying that this [Temple] will become like Shiloh and that this city will be desolate with no one living in it!’

So thereafter, they all gathered inside the [Temple] of Jehovah and put JeremiAh on trial. ¹⁰ But when the rulers of Judah heard [what JeremiAh was saying], they went from the king's [palace] up to the [Temple] of Jehovah, and they all sat down on the threshold of the New Gate. ¹¹ Then the priests and false prophets said this before the rulers and all the people: ‘This man deserves the judgment of death for prophesying against this city... something that you all heard him say with your own ears!’

¹² And [in reply], JeremiAh said this to the rulers and the people: ‘It was Jehovah who sent me here to prophesy all these words that you heard me speak against this [Temple] and this city. ¹³ So, it would really best for you to change the ways that you’re acting and the things that you’re doing, and to start listening to the voice of your God Jehovah. For then the Lord would bring an end to all of these evils that He has spoken against you here.

¹⁴ ‘However, {Look!} here I am in your hands! So, do to me whatever you think is going to be advantageous and best for yourselves! ¹⁵ But know and understand that if you do away with me, you will have brought the guilt of innocent blood against yourselves, this city, and everyone that lives here; for it was really Jehovah who sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears!’

¹⁶ Well at that, the rulers and people said to the priests and false prophets: ‘This man doesn’t really deserve the sentence of death, for he was speaking in the Name of our God Jehovah!’

¹⁷ Then, men from among the elders of the land stood up and spoke before the whole gathering and said, ¹⁸ ‘MicAh the Morasthite was a Prophet in the days of HezekiAh, the king of Judah, and he spoke to all the people of Judah and told them that Jehovah of Armies had said this:
*Zion is now a field to be plowed,
For JeruSalem will be a storehouse of fruits,
And the Temple Mount will soon be converted
Into a grove of sacred poles.*

¹⁹ However, King HezekiAh and the people of Judah didn’t do away with him, because they were afraid of Jehovah. So they begged and bowed before [God], and He brought an end to the evils that He had spoken against them. And once again, we have [for a fact, been sinning] in a great way against our own souls!’

²⁰ Well, around that same time, there was another man that had been prophesying in the Name of Jehovah, UriAh the son of ShemaiAh (from KiriAth JaiRim). And he had also prophesied about the city and the land, using the very same words as JeremiAh. ²¹ But when he heard what King JehoiAkim and all the rulers had said about seeking to kill [JeremiAh], UriAh became afraid and he fled down to Egypt. ²² However, the king sent his men (ElNathan the son of AchBor, and some others) to Egypt ²³ and they brought him back from there. Then when he stood before the king, he was cut down with a sword and [his body] was thrown into the tomb of the sons of his people. ²⁴ But because the hand of AhiKam (the son of ShaPhan) was with JeremiAh, he kept him from being handed over to the people so they could do away with him.

Chapter 27

¹ It was at the beginning of the reign of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah, that these words came to JeremiAh from Jehovah. ² The Lord said:

‘Now, make some shackles for yourself
And a collar [of iron] to be put ‘round your neck.
³ Then send them to the kings of Edom and MoAb,
And to those of AmMon, Sidon, and Tyre
By the hands of those who have come here
To see ZedekiAh, king of Judah.

⁴ ‘Tell them that they must say to their Lords
That IsraEl’s God Jehovah of Armies said this:

⁵ *‘I’m the One who created the earth and its people,
And all cattle on the face of the ground
By means of My strength and My mighty arm,
And I’ll hand it to whomever I choose.*

⁶ *‘So now, I have given all of your lands
To NebuChadNezzar (Babylon’s King),
[And all people] must start serving him,
As must all the beasts in the fields,*

⁷ *As well as your sons and the sons of your sons
Through the time that I've set for your land...
Yes, all of this is now his!*

*'Many nations and kings will start serving him,
⁸ And upon any nation or kingdom
That won't serve King Nebuchadnezzar
(That refuse to wear his yoke on their necks),
I'll send the sword, famine, and plague, says Jehovah,
Until they yield to his hand.*

⁹ *'So, don't listen to what your false prophets say
(Those who through dreams prophecy,
Or those who give omens through potions)
When they tell you not to serve Babylon's king;
¹⁰ For, they are lying to you,
And you'll be driven out of your land...
For I'll drive you out and [destroy] you!*

¹¹ *'To the nation that puts its neck in the yoke
And chooses to serve Babylon's king;
I'll allow them to stay in their land, says Jehovah...
They'll continue to work there and live.'*

¹² So I went and spoke all these words to Zedekiah the king of Judah. I told him: 'If you'll put your neck in the yoke of Babylon's king ¹³ and work for him and his men, you'll live! Why should you and your people choose to die by the sword, famines, and plagues, as Jehovah told the nations would happen to them if they don't wish to serve Babylon's king? ¹⁴ You shouldn't listen to the words of those prophets when they tell you that you must not serve him, for they're prophesying unrighteous things! ¹⁵ Jehovah says that He didn't send them, and what they're prophesying in His Name is unrighteous, so He'll have to destroy both them and you... yes, you'll die along with those prophets who are lying to you!'

¹⁶ Then I spoke to the priests and to all the people, and told them that Jehovah said this:

‘Don’t listen to the words of the prophets
When they speak prophecies and tell you
That the items of the [Temple] of Jehovah
Will soon be returned from Babylon.
For, they are lying to you!

¹⁷ ‘No, do not listen to them...
Serve Babylon’s king and you’ll live...
Why bring destruction to your city?’

¹⁸ [I said], ‘If they truly are Prophets and they really have the word of the Jehovah, then have them all come here and meet with me, so that the things that are left in the Temple and the things that belong to Judah’s kings (whatever is still left in JeruSalem) won’t end up being taken to Babylon.

¹⁹ For Jehovah sent me this warning about the columns, the [Sacred] Sea and its base, and about all the rest of the things that are still here, ²⁰ which the king of Babylon didn’t already take at the time when he removed Jeconiah (JehoiAkim’s son) the king of Judah and all of his rulers and carried them from Judah and JeruSalem to Babylon. ²¹ For Jehovah of Armies \(the God of IsraEl\) said this about the things that have been left behind in the [Temple] of Jehovah and all that is left in the homes of the kings in Judah and JeruSalem:
²² *To Babylon, they will be taken,
And that is where they will stay
Until the day that I come to visit,
And lead them back to this place.*

Chapter 28

¹ It was in the fifth month of the fourth year of the reign of ZedekiAh (king of Judah) that HananiAh (the son of Azur) the false prophet from GibeOn spoke to me in the [Temple] of Jehovah before the eyes of the priests and all the people. He said, ² ‘Jehovah of Armies the God of IsraEl spoke to me and said this:

I will break the yoke of Babylon’s king.

³ And in two more years, I will return

All the things of the [Temple] of Jehovah,

⁴ As well as Jeconiah and the [people] of Judah

Who have been moved away.

For, I’ll break the yoke of Babylon’s king.’

⁵ Then the Prophet JeremiAh replied to HananiAh, there before the priests and before the eyes of all the people who were standing in the [Temple] of Jehovah. He said: ⁶ ‘May Jehovah indeed do what you’ve said in the words of your prophecy and return the things of the [Temple] of Jehovah along with all those who were carried off to Babylon. ⁷

However, listen to the words that I'll speak into your ears before all of these people:

⁸ Through the ages (long before you and me), there have been many men who've prophesied great things against this land concerning war, oppression, and plagues... ⁹ and there were also those who also prophesied peace. Then after it happened, the [people] started believing whichever prophet that had really been sent by Jehovah.'

¹⁰ Well, HananiAh then tore the yoke from the neck of JeremiAh and broke it. ¹¹ And he said (there before the eyes of all the people): 'Jehovah told me that this is how He will break the yoke of the king of Babylon from the necks of all the nations in just two more years!'

So at that, JeremiAh left. And as he was leaving ¹² (after HananiAh had broken the yoke from his neck), the Word of Jehovah came to him and said, ¹³ 'Return and tell HananiAh that Jehovah said this:

*Because you've broken this wooden yoke,
I'll turn the wooden yokes into iron.*

¹⁴ So JeremiAh [went back and said this]: 'Jehovah of Armies (the God of IsraEl) said,

*I'll put an iron yoke on the necks of all nations,
Then they'll serve and work for Babylon's king...
And to him, I'll give all their cattle.'*

¹⁵ Then JeremiAh said this to HananiAh: 'Listen O HananiAh; Jehovah hasn't sent you to these people just so they can learn to rely on the things that they've been doing wrong. ¹⁶ And because of what you've been saying, the Lord told me this:

*{Look!} I'll remove you from the face of the earth...
Yes, this very year, you will die
For speaking against Jehovah!'*

¹⁷ Well, he did in fact die that year, in the seventh month.

Chapter 29

¹ These are the words of the scroll that JeremiAh the Prophet sent from JeruSalem to the elders that had already been relocated, as well as to the priests and false prophets... to all the people that NebuChadNezzar had moved from JeruSalem to Babylon ² after King Jeconijah, his queen, his eunuchs, and all the freemen, servants, and craftsman had been taken from JeruSalem. ³ [He sent it] by the hand of ElAsah (the son of ShaPhan) and GemariJah (the son of HilkiJah). For they were the ones whom ZedekiAh (the king of Judah) had sent to the king of the Babylonian [Empire] who lived in [the city of] Babylon.

[The scroll] said, ‘Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl, says this to those who were carried away (those whom He moved from JeruSalem to Babylon):

⁵ *Build houses and then get ready to live there...
Plant gardens and then eat their fruits...*

⁶ *Take wives and also have children...
Father both daughters and sons!*

*‘Take [mates] for your sons and your daughters;
For, they will give birth to daughters and sons...
They’ll multiply and not be reduced!*

⁷ *‘Seek peace in the land where I’ve sent you,
And pray to Jehovah on its behalf;
For, in its peace, you’ll find peace!*

⁸ ‘Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl, also said this:

*‘Don’t believe the false prophets among you...
Do not be influenced by those
Who say that you will find comfort...
And pay no attention to the things that they’ve dreamed!*

⁹ *For, there will be those who will come in My Name,
And they will prophesy falsely;
However, they weren’t sent by Me, says Jehovah!*

¹⁰ ‘Then, this is what Jehovah told me:

After the seventy years
*Upon Babylon have been fulfilled,
I’ll come to visit and do as I said...
I’ll bring your people back from this place.*

¹¹ *‘I’ll work out a way that’s peaceful, not bad,
In order to give you these things.*

¹² Then, you can pray and I'll hear you...

¹³ You can search for Me and you'll find Me.

'And when you search for Me with you whole hearts,

¹⁴ To you, I will then appear!

¹⁵ *For, you have been told that the Lord has put Prophets
Among those that are living in Babylon.'*

¹⁶ 'Then Jehovah said this about the king who was then sitting on the throne of David and about all the people who are living in this city... about all your brothers who didn't leave and weren't taken into captivity along with you. ¹⁷ Jehovah of Armies said this:

'{Look!} I'll send them the sword, famines, and plagues...

Like a bad fig, I will make them...

[A fig] that's too rotten to eat.

¹⁸ I'll pursue them with swords, famines, and plagues,

Then scatter them to all the kingdoms of earth.

And to confusion, hissing, and scorn they'll be cursed

Among all the nations where I'll send them.

¹⁹ 'For they've paid no attention to My words, said Jehovah,

That I spoke to them through My servants, the Prophets...

Those whom I sent and rose early [each day],

But to whom, they chose not to listen, said Jehovah.

²⁰ 'Yet, those of you who've been moved away

From JeruSalem to Babylon,

Have also ignored the Word of Jehovah.

²¹ 'For Jehovah also spoke against Ahab (the son of KolaiJah)

And ZedekiAh (the son of MaAseJah)

Who prophesied lies to you in His Name.

So, this is what He has said about them:

'{Look!} To Babylon's king, I will hand them,

And he'll cut them down in front of your eyes.

²² So when Babylon's Jews speak curses, they'll say:

May Jehovah do the same thing to you

That He did to ZedekiAh and Ahab...
Those who Babylon's king fried in fires.

²³ *'For, JeruSalem's people are lawless...
They're committing adultery with their countrymen's wives.
Yet [their prophets] are saying things in My Name
That I didn't tell them to say...
And I am the witness [against them],'* says Jehovah!

²⁴ Then [the Lord instructed me] to say this to ShemaiAh the NeHelamite:
'Though you weren't sent in My Name;
You wrote to the Priest, ZephaniAh,
Saying that thus says Jehovah:

²⁵ *'I'm the One who appointed you as the Priest
To take the place of JehoiAda
And to be in charge of [My Temple],
As well as over the prophets.*

²⁶ *'And now, I tell you to put every man
Who acts [like a prophet], in prison...
Put them in the [lowest of] dungeons.*

²⁷ 'So, why have you joined in and scolded
JeremiAh from [the city of] AnathOth
Who has served as a prophet to you?

²⁸ 'Through him, I told those in Babylon
And the rest in its most-distant places
That freedom is still far away.
So, they should build houses and dwell there...
Plant gardens and then eat their fruits.'

²⁹ Well, after the Prophet JeremiAh read this letter in the ears of ZephaniAh, ³⁰ the Word of Jehovah came to him again and said: ³¹ 'Send [a message] to those who've been sent away and tell them that Jehovah has brought condemnation upon ShemaiAh
the NeHeLamite. He said:

*Since ShemaiAh has prophesied before you
Despite the fact that I didn't send him,
And he urged you to trust in the bad things you're doing...*

³² *Yes, because of this, says Jehovah;
I'll visit ShemaiAh and all of his kind,
And there won't be a man left among them*

*Who'll see the good that I'll do among you, says Jehovah;
For he's preached a turning from Me.'*

Chapter 30

¹ These words came to JeremiAh from the Lord. He was told that Jehovah the God of IsraEl said this:

² 'You must write all these words that I've spoken to you in a scroll:

³ *{Look!} The days are coming, said Jehovah,
When I'll return the people of IsraEl and Judah
(All those who've been relocated), said Jehovah...
I'll bring them back to this land that I gave to their fathers,
And they will once more be its lords.'*

⁴ And after that, these were the words that the Lord spoke concerning IsraEl and Judah:

⁵ 'Jehovah says:

*Fearful sounds, you will hear...
You'll hear fearful sounds and there'll be no peace.*

⁶ 'Ask if a male has ever given birth...
Yet, I see all men with their hands on their hips
As though they are women about to give birth,
And their faces are [yellow with] jaundice.

⁷ 'For, that will be a great day of woe,
And there couldn't be days worse than that...
But, Jacob will then be returned to his land.

⁸ 'For thus says Jehovah of Armies:
In that day, I'll break all the yokes from their necks...
I'll also tear up all their bonds,

*And they'll no longer be toiling for strangers.
⁹ At that time, they'll work for Jehovah, their God,
And I will raise David to be their king.*

¹⁰ 'So you, O My servant Jacob;
Don't be afraid, says Jehovah...

*O IsraEl, do not be in terror,
For {Look!} I'll bring you back from those far-away lands!
'I'll bring your seed from that captive place...
Jacob will be returned and find rest.
Then he'll receive an abundance of good things,
And he will have nothing to fear.*

¹¹ *'Because I'm with you, I'll save you, says Jehovah.
And I will appoint a conclusion
To those nations where you have been scattered...
For no way have I appointed your end.
But, I will correct you in fairness,
And I'll scrub you until you are clean!'*

¹² *'Jehovah said:
I'll remove the pain of destruction;
¹³ For, no one else will be judging your case,
And no one else will be treating your [wounds]
To bring consolation to you.*

¹⁴ *'But by your friends, you will be forgotten,
And no one will ask why I struck you...
Why I let your enemies beat you.*

*'My discipline will be very substantial,
Because the things that you did were so bad!
¹⁵ So don't yell [to Me] about your destruction,
And the incurable state of your misery!*

*'It will happen because your sins were so great,
And because of the harsh things you've done...
This is why I'm bringing these bad things on you.*

¹⁶ *'But those who [are now] eating you
Will find themselves being consumed,
And your enemies will be taken as captives...
Those scattering you, will be scattered,
And those looting you, will be plundered.*

¹⁷ *'Then your grievous wounds, I will cure...
Yes, I will treat all your ailments, says God.
Then Zion will be called The Replanted Place,
And none will [attack] her again.*

¹⁸ *'Jehovah said:
{Look!} I'll return those of Jacob who've been taken away...
All who were led off as captives.
Then, I will show mercy upon them
And rebuild their city there in the heights,
Where I will seat all the people
According to the fairness of their actions.*

¹⁹ *'And from among them, there will come singers,
As well as the music of musicians
That will grow in super abundance,
And no way will it then be diminished.*

²⁰ *'Each man will enter along with his sons,
Just as they've done in the past,
And their praises will rise up to Me,
When I come against those who've oppressed them.*

²¹ *'From among them, I'll then choose a leader...
Yes, their ruler will be one of them.
I'll collect them and bring them to Me
(All those whose hearts will want to return), says Jehovah...*

²² Then, they'll be My people and I'll be their Lord.

²³ *'This is why the rage of Jehovah was sent...
To change the godless, His anger went out
In order to make them turn back to Him.*

²⁴ *'But, no way will [God's] anger and rage turn away
Until He has taken some action...
Until He's done what His heart has decided...
Which, in the last days, you will understand.'*

Chapter 31

¹ Then the Lord told me this:

‘They’ll be the race of IsraEl’s God...

Yes, they’ll be His people once more.’

² And the Lord said:

‘Though they found it hot in the desert
When they were destroyed by the sword;
IsraEl will find places to rest once again!

³ ‘For they’ll see Jehovah in the distance,
And this is what He will say:

*With the love of the ages, I’ve loved you,
So I’ve drawn you close to show mercy on you...*

*I will rebuild you and you’ll be rebuilt,
O virgin daughter of IsraEl.*

*‘Your tambourines will be raised once again
And you’ll play them before the assembly.*

*⁵ You will also plant vineyards again
Upon Samaria’s mountains...
Yes, you will go planting and plant,
And you will go praising and praise!*

*⁶ ‘Then, on the day that I call out to you;
On Ephraim’s mountains, the watchmen will cry:
Get up and go to Mount Zion...
Return to Jehovah your God!*

*⁷ ‘Then Jehovah said this concerning [the people of] Jacob:
Be glad and shout to those leading the nations...*

*Do it... shout loudly in praise!
Say, Jehovah has rescued His people...
Those IsraElites that are left!*

*⁸ ‘Look... from the north, I will lead them,
And I’ll gather them from the ends of the earth*

*To observe a [glorious] Passover...
They'll return, and they'll have many children!*

*° 'Though when they left, they did so in tears;
I'll send them comfort and lead them to rest
Along straight roads with [pure] streams,
A from [that path], they'll not stray;
For I'll be IsraEl's Father again,
And [a Father] to Ephraim, My firstborn.*

*¹⁰ 'O nations; hear the word of Jehovah
And announce it as far as the islands.
Say, The One who blew IsraEl off like the chaff
Will gather them back once again,
And like a grazing flock, he will guard them.*

*¹¹ 'For Jehovah will [pay] Jacob's ransom,
And from mighty hands, He will save them...*

¹² Then in joy, they'll come back to Zion.

*'And there in a land filled with grain,
They will find good things from God...
Wine, olive oil, fruit, cattle, and sheep.
So, their lives will then be like fruit trees,
And they will go hungry no more.*

*¹³ 'Then the virgins will all be rejoicing,
And men young and old will be shouting in joy.
For their mourning will be changed into cries of glee...
They'll be happy, and He'll bring them comfort.*

*¹⁴ 'Then I'll magnify the lives of the Priests
And [the lives of] the sons of Levi...
My people will own many good things!*

'Jehovah said:

*¹⁵ A voice was heard crying from RamAh...
The sounds of weeping, wailing, and grief.
It was RachEl crying for her sons...*

*She refused to accept any comfort,
Because they aren't here anymore.*

¹⁶ 'Then to her, Jehovah said this:

*Stop crying and dry the tears from your eyes,
For you'll receive a wage for your work...*

They'll be returned from their enemies' lands,

¹⁷ *And there's hope for those who've survived, says Jehovah;
For your sons will return to their borders.*

¹⁸ 'Then I heard Ephraim grieving;

So I listened and he told Me this:

You beat me and I was corrected;

For I had acted like a [wild] calf.

But You turned me around and I have returned;

For, You are Jehovah, my God!

¹⁹ 'Captivity brought a change to my mind

In that day when You shamed me.

But, after I moaned, I then understood...

Plainly, I showed You that I had accepted

The scorn [I deserved] since my youth.

²⁰ 'Ephraim is My dearly loved son...

A child in whom I find joy,

And because My words are within him,

I will never forget him.

'It was because of this, that I hurried;

For, when it comes to showing him mercy,

I will show mercy upon him, said Jehovah.

²¹ 'So, erect the road signs and guideposts,

And give your hearts to your shoulders,

For they will be [coming back home]!

Yes return, O IsraEl, the virgin...

Return to your cities in mourning!

²² *'O My daughter;
When will you return from those places
Where you were being disgraced?
For the Lord has made new places for you
Where it will be safe to do planting,
And where people can travel in safety.*

²³ *'Jehovah of Armies (IsraEl's God) then told me this:
Once more, you'll be speaking of Me
In the land of Judah and in all your towns,
When I bring back those who were carried away.*

*'So, praise Jehovah on His Holy Mount!
²⁴ For, those who live in the cities of Judah
And the farmers [who dwell] in His land
Will grow once again, along with their flocks!*

²⁵ *'To thirsty souls, I'll send something to drink,
And hungry souls, I will fill.*

²⁶ *Then, when you get up [in the morning],
You'll see that your sleep has been peaceful.*

²⁷ *'Look! The days are coming, says Jehovah,
When I'll sow both IsraEl and Judah
With the seeds of men and the seeds of wild beasts.*

²⁸ *'It'll be as when I watched over them
(Not when I brought them destruction),
And over them, I'll be watchful...
They'll be rebuilt and replanted, said Jehovah.*

²⁹ *'In those days, no way will they say,
Though it was the fathers who ate unripe grapes,
The teeth of their children felt chills.*

³⁰ *For then, only sinners will die
Because of the bad things they're doing,
And those eating green grapes will feel their own chills.*

³¹ *'Look... the days are coming,' says Jehovah,
When I'll make an arrangement with IsraEl's house,
As well as with the houses of Judah.*

*I'll conclude a New Sacred Agreement
³² *That's unlike the one that I made with their fathers
In the day I took hold of their hands
To lead them from Egypt's land.
But, because they wouldn't keep My Sacred Agreement,
I had to let them go, says Jehovah.

³³ *'So, this is My [New] Sacred Agreement
That I'll make with IsraEl then, said Jehovah:
I will put My Laws in their minds,
And in their hearts, I will write them.
Then, they'll be My people and I'll be their God.*

³⁴ *'There's no way they'll then teach their neighbors and brothers
That they must learn of Jehovah;
For, all will know Me from the least to the great.
And when it comes to their errors and sins...
I'll be kind and forget them!*

³⁵ *'But, this is what Jehovah [has promised]
(The One who appointed the sun
To serve as light for the day,
And the moon and the stars as light for the nights...
The One who brought the roar of the seas,
As well as the sounds of their waves...
Jehovah the Almighty, is His Name):*

³⁶ *If these Laws before Me should ever cease to be,
Then the race of IsraEl will no longer stand
As a nation before Me
Throughout the rest of their days.*

³⁷ *'Jehovah says:
If the skies can be raised even higher
And the floor of the ground can be lowered,*

*I can reject IsraEl's offspring, says Jehovah,
For all the things that they've done.*

³⁸ ‘{Look!} But the days are coming,’ said the Lord,
‘When the city of Jehovah will be rebuilt.
[It's walls will run] from the HananEl Tower
All the way to the gate at the corner...

³⁹ To the hills of Gareb, I'll measure it out
And surround it with most precious stones.

‘From the Valley of Phagarim and its ashes,
And from AsaRemOth to the Wadi of Cedars,
Then east to the corner of the Horse Gate,
It'll be a Holy Place to Jehovah,
And its roots won't be pulled up again...
It won't be destroyed through the ages.’

Chapter 32

¹ These words came from Jehovah to JeremiAh in the tenth year [of the reign] of ZedekiAh, the king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of [the reign of] NebuChadNezzar the king of Babylon. ² At the time, the army of the king of Babylon had built a siege wall around JeruSalem, and JeremiAh [was under arrest and being kept in] the courtyard of the guard, which was located inside the [palace] of the kings of Judah, ³ since King ZedekiAh had him thrown in jail. [For the king had asked him], ‘Why did you prophesy and tell us that Jehovah said, {Look!} I will hand this city over to the king of Babylon and he will take it...’ ⁴ and that, ZedekiAh won't escape from the hands of the Chaldeans, but he will be delivered into the hands of the king of Babylon, where he will speak to him mouth to mouth and eye to eye... ⁵ and that, ZedekiAh will taken into Babylon and stay there until I look favorably upon him. So, if you wage war against the Chaldeans, you won't succeed?’

⁶ Then the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh, telling him this: ⁷ ‘{Look!} Your paternal uncle HanamEl (the son of ShalLum) will come to you and ask you to buy his field in AnathOth... and it will be advantageous for you to acquire it!’

⁸ And thereafter, that's what happened... my paternal uncle HanamEl (the son of ShalLum) did what the Lord said he would do. It was there in the courtyard of the guard that he said to me, 'Buy my field, the one in AnathOth of the land of BenJamin, because you are the eldest and it would be advantageous for you to acquire it!' And since I knew that this was the word of Jehovah, ⁹ I purchased the field in AnathOth from HanamEl (my paternal uncle); I paid him seven large silver coins for it, ¹⁰ then I recorded [the transaction] in a scroll, put a seal on it before witnesses, and weighed out the silver in a balance scale. ¹¹ Then I took the scroll that had been testified to and sealed and gave it to BarUch (the son of NeriAh, the son of MaAseJah) before the eyes of HanamEl (my uncle), ¹² as well as before those who had served as witnesses of the deed scroll, and before the eyes of all the Judeans who were sitting in the courtyard of the guard at the time.

¹³ Thereafter, before them all, I gave BarUch these orders: ¹⁴ 'Jehovah the Almighty God of IsraEl says that you should take this scroll that has been sealed as my proof of ownership, then you must read it and then store it away in an earthenware jar, so that it will last [a long time]. ¹⁵ Because, Jehovah of Armies the God of IsraEl told me this:

*Fields, houses, and vineyards
Will again be restored in this land.'*

¹⁶ Then, after I gave the deed scroll to BarUch (the son of NeriAh), I prayed to Jehovah, saying: ¹⁷ 'O Great Being; O Lord God; You who made the lands and the skies with Your mighty arm held high above You, and from whom nothing at all can be hidden; ¹⁸ O You who show mercy to thousands and who brings the sins of the fathers upon the chests of their children; the great and Almighty God whose Name is Jehovah of Armies:

¹⁹ '[You are the God] of great counsel,
And mighty are all of Your works.
Your eyes see the things that the sons of men do,
And You pay each one back for their deeds
According to the fruits of their works.

²⁰ ‘You’re the One who brought the miracles and signs
To IsraEl when they were in Egypt
And which continue to happen down to this day.
For, You have made Your Name known
To all who’ve been born on the earth until now.

²¹ ‘You’re the One who led IsraEl from Egypt
With signs and miracles from Your mighty right hand...
With Your arm held high and through visions.

²² And thereafter, You gave them the land
About which You swore to their fathers...
A land that’s flowing with honey and milk.

²³ ‘So they entered this land and they claimed it,
But they chose not to listen to Your orders or voice...
They wouldn’t do what You told them to do,
So You brought all these bad things upon them.

²⁴ ‘{Look!} Now, a great army has come to this city,
And they have made plans to destroy it.
To the hands of Chaldeans, it has been given...
To those who are warring against it,
Bringing the sword, famine, and plague...
{Look!} All that You said has now come to pass!

²⁵ ‘Then You’ve told me to bring along silver,
And before witnesses, purchase a field...
Despite the fact that this city’s been given
To the hands of Chaldeans!’

²⁶ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

²⁷ ‘*Since I am Jehovah, the God of all flesh;
[Did you think] that such things were hidden from Me?*’

²⁸ ‘Then Jehovah said:
*I have allowed this city to be given
Into the hands of the Chaldeans,
And into the hands of Babylon’s king...
So, he will [very soon] take it!*

²⁹ *'The Chaldeans will come and [capture] this city,
Then they will burn it with fire,
Consuming the houses where people burn incense
Upon their roofs, before BaAl,
And where they offer [food] to their gods
In order to make Me feel bitter.*

³⁰ *'Only the sons of IsraEl and Judah
Would practice such evil in front of My eyes.
For, since their youth, they've offered such things
Before [those gods] that they made with their hands,
In order to make Me feel bitter, says Jehovah.*

³¹ *'So My anger and rage has been on this place
From the day it was built until now,
To remove it from in front of My face
³² For the bad ways of IsraEl and Judah.*

*'They've done all these things to make Me feel bitter...
Their kings, their rulers, their prophets, and priests...
The men of Judah and JeruSalem.*

³³ *'They turned their faces and showed Me their backs...
So each morning, I [sent someone] to teach them,
But they chose not to listen or learn.*

³⁴ *'Then, in their unclean condition,
They put disgusting things in the House
That is called by My Name.*

³⁵ *'There, they built shrines to BaAl;
And to Molech, they've offered their daughters and sons
Down in the Valley of Hinnom...
Something that I never told them to do.
Such disgusting things never entered My heart
To make Judah sin [in this way].'*

³⁶ 'Then Jehovah the God of IsraEl made a pronouncement against the city, for He told me to say this:

*Through famine, sword, and the plague,
I've handed this city to Babylon's king.*

³⁷ *But {Look!} I'll also gather them back from those lands
Where I'll scatter them in My rage...
From all that I'll do in My fury!*

*'I'll bring them back to this place,
And in safety, I'll resettle them here;*

³⁸ Then, they'll be My people and I'll be their God.

³⁹ *'I'll give them new ways and new hearts
So that they will learn how to fear Me
For the rest of their days and for their own good,
And for the good of their children.*

⁴⁰ *'A [New] Sacred Agreement of the ages
I'll make with them at that time...*

*An Agreement that I won't take away.
Then I'll put the fear of Me in their hearts,
So from Me, they'll not turn again.*

⁴¹ *'Then I'll visit them just to do good things;
And with My whole heart and soul,
I'll plant them securely here in this land.*

⁴² 'Then Jehovah said:

*And as I brought bad things upon them,
I'll also bring the good things that I promised.*

⁴³ *Then they will buy fields in this land
That you say won't be walked by man or by beast,
For it's been handed over to the Chaldeans.*

*'With silver, they'll buy these fields once again,
Which you'll record and seal in a scroll,
And to which, witnesses will then testify.*

⁴⁴ *'[It will happen] in Benjamin's land,
And in Jerusalem and the cities of Judah...
In all the towns in the mountains,*

And in the Shephela and Negev...

From wherever they were taken, I'll be bringing them back, says Jehovah.'

Chapter 33

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh a second time while he was still shackled in the courtyard of the guard. ² He said, 'The Lord who shaped and created the earth Whose Name is Jehovah, says this:

³ *'Call out to Me and I will reply...
I'll report of things both mighty and great
About which, you haven't known!'*

⁴ Then the Lord God of IsraEl told of how the houses of the city [of JeruSalem] and the [palace] of the king of Judah would be demolished for use as siege mounds and fortifications ⁵ in their fight against the Chaldeans, and of how they would be filled with the [bodies] of those whom [He will] strike down in His anger and rage when He turns His face away from the city because of all its wickedness.

⁶ [He said]:
'{Look!} Then I'll bring a cure and a closing of wounds...
I'll treat them, and I will make sure
That they will all hear and then come to know
That I'll bring them peace they can trust.

⁷ 'I'll return those of IsraEl and Judah
Who were [carried away] and resettled,
And I will rebuild them as they once were.

⁸ 'I will cleanse them of all their errors,
And from the ways that they've sinned against Me.
No way will I remember their sins,
Or the many ways that they've left Me.

⁹ 'Then, before all those who live on the earth,
I'll give them a joyful, praised name.
For, all will all hear of the good things I'll do,

And they will be humbled and fearful
Because of the good and the peace
That I will be bringing upon them.’

¹⁰ Then the Lord said to me:
‘In this place that you’ll call desolation,
You’ll hear [the sounds of] both men and beasts
Once more in the cities of Judah.

‘And then, outside of JeruSalem
(In those desolate places where the sounds of men and beasts are not heard),

¹¹ There’ll be the voices of gladness and joy...
The sounds of grooms and their brides,
And the sounds of men who are saying,
*Praise the Almighty God;
For Jehovah really does care,
And He’ll show mercy on us through the ages!*

‘Then they’ll carry gifts to the House of Jehovah;
And those taken from the land, I’ll return,’ said the Lord.

¹² ‘And Jehovah of Armies said:
*But this first must become a desolate place,
And its cities will be void of cattle and men...
It will be a place where shepherds will lodge,
And a place for them to bed down their flocks.*

¹³ *‘In all the cities in the mountains...
In the cities of the Shephela and Negev...
Throughout BenJamin’s land...
In the places outside of JeruSalem
And in all the cities of Judah,
There will just be those who count sheep,* said Jehovah.

¹⁴ ‘{Look!} *The days are coming, says Jehovah,
When I’ll [fulfill] all the good words I’ve spoken
About the houses of IsraEl and Judah.*

¹⁵ *'Yes, in those days and at that time;
From David, a shoot that is righteous will sprout,
And a king will reign who'll bring understanding,
As well as what's righteous and fair to this land.*

¹⁶ *'In those days, upon Judah, salvation will come,
And JeruSalem will be lived in securely.
Then they'll call [Me] Jehovah Our Justice.'*

¹⁷ *'And Jehovah said:
There'll always be a man of David's [line]
That will sit on IsraEl's throne.*

¹⁸ *'And from among the Levites and Priests,
There will always be a man who will stand
To bring burnt offerings before Me,
As well as sacrifices, incense, and gifts
Throughout the rest of the days.'*

¹⁹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh saying,

²⁰ 'This is what Jehovah has said:

*If you could annul My Sacred Agreement
– My Agreement with the day and the night –
So there'd be no day and night in that time;*

²¹ *Then, there would be no more need
For [David's] sons to reign from his throne,
Nor for Levites and Priests to serve before Me.*

²² *'For the seed of My firebrand, David,
Will become too many to be counted
– Like the armies of the heavens and the sands of the seas –
And the same will be true for the seed of the Levites
Who will be serving before Me.'*

²³ Then the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh and said:

²⁴ *'Don't you hear what those people are talking about?
They're saying that the Lord chose two families,
And then, He threw them both out...*

*That [I am oppressing] My people,
And they're no longer a nation before Me.*

²⁵ 'Then Jehovah said:

*If My Agreement with the day and the night hadn't been,
And if I hadn't sent them all the Laws
[To govern] the lands and the skies;*

²⁶ *Jacob's seed would not have been chosen,
Nor would the seed of My servant David,
And the seed of the rulers [that came] from the seed
Of AbraHam, IsaAc, and Jacob,
So that they couldn't come back to Me.*

*'But, I'll return them from their captive condition,
And upon them, I will show mercy.'*

Chapter 34

¹ These words came to JeremiAh from Jehovah concerning NebuChadNezzar the king of Babylon, the entire camp of his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that are under the domination of his hand... all those people who are waging war against JeruSalem and the cities of Judah. ² The Lord God of IsraEl told me to go to ZedekiAh the king of Judah and tell him that this is what Jehovah had decreed:

*'When it comes to handing things over;
I'll hand this city to Babylon's king...
He'll capture it and burn it with fire.*

³ *'Then, no way will you be saved from his hands;
For he'll capture you and snatch you away...
He'll look at you eye to eye
And speak to you mouth to mouth...
And to Babylon, he will then take you.*

⁴ *'Listen to what Jehovah's decreed,
O ZedekiAh, king over Judah:
You will not die by the broadsword;
Rather, in peace, you will die.*

*⁵ And when you die, they'll burn incense
Like they did for your fathers before you.
As they burn it, they'll cry out O Lord,
While they are mourning for you.
Yes, this is what Jehovah's decreed.'*

⁶ So I (JeremiAh) then went and said all these things to King ZedekiAh there in JeruSalem. ⁷ And thereafter, the armies of the king of Babylon attacked JeruSalem and all the remaining cities of Judah (because the fortified cities of LachIsh and AzekAh in Judea still hadn't [been conquered]).

⁸ And once again, the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh after King ZedekiAh [had issued a decree] to the people in JeruSalem concerning [God's] Sacred Agreement, in which he called for everyone to set ⁹ all their Hebrew male and female servants free (as well as all of the rest of their slaves), so that there would be no more slaves in Judah. ¹⁰ And all the great men and all the rest of the people actually agreed to release their male and female slaves, so they wouldn't have to serve them anymore... yes, they actually paid attention and set them all free! ¹¹ But right after they did that, they went and took back their male and female slaves (whom they had just set free) and put them to back work as their slaves once again!

*¹² So the Lord said to JeremiAh:
'In the day that I saved your fathers from Egypt
And from the houses in which they were slaves,
¹³ I made a Sacred Agreement with them
¹⁴ In which I said that on every sixth year,
They must release all their brothers
(Those who'd sold themselves as their slaves)...
That they may only toil for six years,
And then, they must all be set free!

'But, they haven't listened to Me,
Or turned their ears so they'd hear what I say!*

¹⁵ *'Yet today, they decided to do the right thing
When you told them to set free their neighbors;
And before Me, they said they would do this,
There in the [Temple] that's called by My Name.*

¹⁶ *'Then they turned and broke their promise to Me
By reclaiming [all of] their slaves...
Those whose lives had just been set free...
They turned back and made them slaves once again!*

¹⁷ *'It's because of this, says Jehovah...
Because they refused to listen to Me
And set free their brothers and neighbors;
{Look!} I'll call the release on their behalf
By the sword, famine, and plague!
And then, I will scatter these people
Throughout the kingdoms of the whole earth.*

¹⁸ *'As to those who voided My Sacred Agreement
By not keeping the promise that they made before Me
With a calf that they cut in two pieces;*

¹⁹ *I will come through the midst of those halves...
To the rulers of Judah and JeruSalem
(To the mighty, as well as the priests,
And to all the people who live in that land);*

²⁰ *Then, to their enemies, I'll hand them...
I'll hand them to those who are seeking their lives!*

*'Then their rotting flesh will serve as a meal
For all the birds in the skies,
And for all the wild beasts on the ground.*

²¹ *'Then I'll hand over Judah's King ZedekiAh,
As well as all of his princes
To their enemies who are seeking their lives...
To the armies of Babylon's king...
To those before whom they are fleeing!*

²² ‘Look! I’m the One who issued the order, said Jehovah,
To bring them into this city,
Where they’ll fight against it and take it,
And then they will burn it with fire...
I’ll make all the cities of Judah
Places where no one will walk.’

Chapter 35

¹ It was during the time of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah that the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh saying:

² ‘Call for the Rechabite families,
Then bring them to the House of Jehovah
And into one of the courtyards,
Where you must offer them wine.’

³ So I went and brought JaAzaniAh (the son of JeremiAh and grandson of HabaZiniAh), as well as his brothers and sons, along with the rest of the families of the Rechabites into the [Temple] of Jehovah. ⁴ There I [seated them] in the dining room of the sons of Hanan (the son of IgDaliAh, a man of God), which was located next to the house of the [Temple] overseers and above the house of MaAseJah (the son of Shallum), the person who guarded the entryways, ⁵ and I set a clay pitcher of wine before them and some cups, and I offered them some wine.

⁶ But they said: ‘There’s no way that we’re going to drink any wine, because our ancestor JoNadab (the son of Rechab) told us: You must never drink wine – you and your sons – through the ages!’ ⁷ ⁸ So we’ve obeyed the instructions of JoNadab (the son of Rechab) our ancestor, and we haven’t done anything that he told us not to do. We haven’t drunk any wine throughout our lives – not us, our wives, our sons, or our daughters – ⁹ nor have we built houses, owned vineyards, or planted seeds in fields... none of this has ever happened among us. ¹⁰ We’ve done everything that our ancestor JoNadab told us to do, and we’ve been living in tents. ¹¹ Then when Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to this land, we told him: We will leave [our position] in front of the

Chaldeans and the armies of the Assyrians and go up to JeruSalem... and we've been living here ever since.'

¹² Well after that, the Word of Jehovah came to me and told me that ¹³
Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl, told me to do this:

*'You must go and speak to the men of Judea
And to those who are living in JeruSalem;
Then, tell them that thus says Jehovah:*

'There's no way that you've heard the things that I've said;

¹⁴ *Yet, the sons of JoNadab (the son of Rechab)
Have obeyed the instructions he gave to his sons
Not to drink any wine...*

*And they've drunk no wine to this day!
They've paid attention to their father's commands.
But when I spoke plainly to you,
You refused to listen to Me!*

¹⁵ *'So each morning, I sent you My servants the Prophets...
I sent them and told them to teach every man
To turn from his evil ways...
To be better and not follow or serve other gods,
So you could continue to live in the land
That I gave to your fathers and you.
But, you have learned nothing at all...
Your ears have paid no attention!*

¹⁶ *'Yet the sons of JoNadab (the son of Rechab)
Have obeyed the commands of their father...
They've not done the things he said [not to do],
While you haven't listened to Me!*

¹⁷ *'So because of this, says IsraEl's God Jehovah of Armies;
{Look!} I will be bringing on Judah
And on those who live in JeruSalem
All the bad that I've spoken against them.
For, when I spoke, they paid no attention...
When I called out to them, they didn't reply.'*

¹⁸ Then JeremiAh said to the house of the Rechabites, ‘This is what Jehovah has declared:

Since the descendants of JoNadab (the son of Rechab)

Have paid attention to their father’s commands

And done everything that he told them to do;

It’s because of this, says IsraEl’s God, Jehovah of Armies;

¹⁹ No way will a man of JoNadab’s sons

Ever fail to stand before Me.’

Chapter 36

¹ It was in the fourth year [of the reign] of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah that the Word of Jehovah came to me saying:

² ‘Get a papyrus scroll for yourself

And write all the words that I’ve said

About both IsraEl and Judah,

And about all the nations of which I have spoken

From the time of King JosiAh of Judah

Down to this very day!

³ Then perhaps the house of Judah will hear

All the bad things that I’ve planned

And turn from their wicked ways,

So I can cover their failures and sins.’

⁴ Therefore, JeremiAh called BarUch (the son of NeriAh), who wrote all the words of Jehovah that came from the mouth of JeremiAh on a papyrus scroll. ⁵ Then JeremiAh said to BarUch: ‘Because I’m being watched, I can’t enter the [Temple] of Jehovah. ⁶ So you’ll have to go there and read this papyrus scroll into the ears of all the people who happen to be in the House of Jehovah on a fast day... read it into the ears of all the Judeans who are coming there from all their cities, ⁷ and perhaps their need for mercy will fall before Jehovah and they’ll turn from their evil ways. For the anger and rage that Jehovah has spoken against these people is great!’

⁸ As the result, BarUch (the son of NeriAh) did everything that JeremiAh told him to do. He went and read the scroll of the words of the Lord

there at the [Temple] of Jehovah. ⁹ Then in the fifth year and ninth month [of the reign] of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah, all the people of JeruSalem and of the house of Judah held an assembly to fast before Jehovah, ¹⁰ and BarUch again read the scroll of the words of JeremiAh into the ears of all the people who were there at the [Temple] of Jehovah. [He did this] from the [apartment] of GemariAh (the son of Shapha) the scribe, in the upper courtyard, which is in front of the threshold of the [Temple's] New Gate.

¹¹ Well, after MichaiAh (the son of GemariAh and grandson of ShaPhan) heard all the words of Jehovah being read from the scroll, ¹² he went down to the palace of the king and went into the house of the [royal] scribe, where {Look!} he found all the rulers gathered – EliShama the scribe, DalaiJa (the son of ShemaiAh), ElNathan (the son of AchBor), GemariAh (the son of ShaPhan), ZedekiAh (the son of HananiAh), and all the supervisors. ¹³ Then MichaiAh told them everything that he'd heard BarUch read from the scroll into the ears of the people. ¹⁴ So the rulers sent for BarUch (the son of NeriAh, the son of JeHudi, the son of NathaniAh, the son of ShelemiAh, the son of Cushi) and told him: 'Pick up the scroll that you read into the ears of the people and bring it here!' Then BarUch (the son of NeriAh) picked up the scroll and went down to them, ¹⁵ and they said, 'Now, read that scroll into our ears!' And BarUch read it to them.

¹⁶ Well, after they heard all the words being read, each one started discussing it his neighbor, and they said to BarUch: 'We've decided that we should announce all these words to the king!' ¹⁷ And they asked BarUch: 'Just where were you when you wrote all these words?' ¹⁸ And he replied: 'These words came from the mouth of JeremiAh... he's the one who spoke the words. All I did was record them in this scroll!'

¹⁹ Then the rulers said to BarUch: 'Go somewhere and hide... both you and JeremiAh! Don't let anyone know where you are!'

²⁰ Then they had the scroll kept under guard in the house of EliShama the scribe, and they went into the courtyard of the king and told the king everything that it said. ²¹ So the king sent JehuDi to get the scroll, and he went and took it from the house of EliShama the scribe, and JehuDi read it before the king and all the rulers who were sitting around him.

²² The king happened to be in his winter palace at the time (for it was the ninth month), and he was sitting in front of his fireplace. ²³ And after JeHudi had read just three or four lines, [the king] shredded [the scroll] with a scribe's razor and tossed it into the fire in his fireplace. As the result, the papyrus scroll was entirely burned up and destroyed.

²⁴ Well, nobody was surprised... none of those who were there ripped their clothes... not the king, any of his servants, or any of those who heard those words. ²⁵ Though ElNathan, DalaiJa, and GemariAh had suggested to the king that he shouldn't burn the papyrus, ²⁶ he refused to listen to them. Then the king told JerahMeEl (the king's son), SaraiAh (the son of AzriEl), and ShelemiAh (the son of AbDeEl) to go and arrest both BarUch the scribe and JeremiAh the Prophet. However, these men were already in hiding.

²⁷ Well, after the king burned the scroll that BarUch wrote containing all the words that were spoken by JeremiAh; the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh again, and said,

²⁸ 'Take another scroll of papyrus
And write the same words that you wrote in the scroll
That King JehoiAkim burned.

²⁹ Then tell JehoiAkim (king of Judah)
That this is what was said by Jehovah:

*'Though you have burned up this scroll,
You still asked why I had it written.
For it told you that Babylon's king
Will enter this land and destroy it,
Wiping away all the men and their beasts.*

³⁰ 'And for this, Jehovah has said this against [you]:
*'O King JehoiAkim of Judah
Who is sitting upon David's throne;
You will no longer sit [on that throne] ...
For, into the sweltering heat of the day*

*And into the icy cold of the night,
Your decaying flesh will be tossed,
³¹ Since I'm coming against you, your family, and sons.
And because of your lawless ways;
Upon you and those in JeruSalem and Judah,
I'll bring all the evils about which I've warned,
And to which you chose not to listen.'*

³² Then JeremiAh took another papyrus scroll and gave it to BarUch (the son of NeriAh) the scribe, and he once again wrote the same words that came from the mouth of JeremiAh upon it – all the words that JehoiAkim the king of Judah had burned in the fire – and he added many more words to it (such as these).

Chapter 37

¹ Well thereafter, ZedekiAh (the son of JosiAh) started reigning in place of ConiJah (the son of JehoiAkim), whom NebuChadNezzar the king of Babylon had appointed to reign in the land of Judah. ² But he, his servants, and the people of the land wouldn't listen to the words that Jehovah had spoken through JeremiAh either. ³ Yet later, King ZedekiAh sent JehuKal (the son of ShelemiAh) and ZephaniAh (the son of MaAseJah) the Priest to JeremiAh to say this to him: 'Please pray to Jehovah your God for us.'

⁴ Well at the time, JeremiAh was free to come and go in the city as he wished, because they hadn't locked him up yet. ⁵ However, when the Chaldeans heard that the armies of Pharaoh were marching from the land of Egypt, [they \[started their attack\] on JeruSalem](#).⁶ And that's when the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh and said, ⁷ 'Jehovah the God of IsraEl says that you are to go and shout these words to the king of Judah (the person who sent you to inquire of Me):

'{Look!} This army of Pharaoh that is marching to help you

Will turn and flee back into Egypt.

⁸ And then the Chaldeans will come here

To wage war on this city...

Then, they will take it and burn it with fire!

⁹ 'Jehovah says:

*Now your souls shouldn't think about saying,
The Chaldeans will turn back once more,
For there is no way this will happen.*

¹⁰ *‘And if you should beat the Chaldeans
Who are coming to wage war against you;
Even the wounded that they leave behind
Will arise and burn this city with fire.’*

¹¹ Well, that’s what happened... soon the Chaldean armies [attacked] JeruSalem right in front of the armies of Pharaoh.

¹⁷ Fortunately, King ZedekiAh thereafter sent for him, and the king asked him secretly if he had received any word from Jehovah. And JeremiAh replied, ‘Yes... He says that you’ll be handed over to the king of Babylon!’

¹⁸ Then JeremiAh asked the king this: ‘How have I wronged you, your servants, or your people, so that you would have me thrown into a prison latrine... ¹⁹ and where are those prophets who prophesied to you and told you there’s no way that the king of Babylon will ever come into this land?’

²⁰ ‘Now, hear this, O Lord, O king; You must show mercy on me as I’m standing here before you... you must not return me to the house of JoNathan the scribe and allow me to die there!’

²¹ So the king gave orders, and then they locked JeremiAh in the guard house, where they provided him with a loaf of bread each day, which was baked outside of the city, because there was no bread left there. And after that, JeremiAh stayed in the courtyard of the guards.

Chapter 38

1 Well, ShephatiJah (the son of MatTan), GedaliAh (the son of Pashur), JuKal (the son of ShelemiAh), and Pashur (the son of MelchiAh) started thinking about the words that JeremiAh had spoken to the people when he warned them that 2 Jehovah had said that anyone who remained in the city would die by the broadsword, famine, and plague, but those who [surrendered] to the Chaldeans could save their own lives and live. 3 For this is what he told them that Jehovah had said:

‘When it comes to being handed over;
This city will be handed over
To the armies of Babylon’s king,
And soon thereafter, he’ll take it.’

4 So those rulers went to the king and said this to him: ‘We have to do away with that man, because he’s weakening the hands of the troops that remain in this city and the hands of all the people when he says things like that. He doesn’t prophesy peace, he’s just telling us bad things!’

5 So because the king was unable to resist them, King ZedekiAh said: ‘Look! He’s in your hands!’ 6 And as the result, they took JeremiAh and threw him into the [outhouse pit] that belonged to MelchiJah (the king’s son), which was located in the courtyard of the guard. They took rough cords and lowered him into the pit, which contained no water (just manure), and that’s where he had to stay... in the filth!

7 Well, the Ethiopian Eunuch EbedMelech happened to be in the King’s courtyard when they threw JeremiAh into the pit. And at the time, the king was outside sitting on the Gate of BenJamin. 8 So EbedMelech left the king’s palace and went to speak to the king. He said to him: 9 ‘O my lord and king; These men have done something very wicked when they dropped the Prophet JeremiAh into the outhouse pit... he’ll starve to death there, since there’s no more bread left in the city!’

¹⁰ So the king gave orders to EbedMelech, saying: ‘Take thirty men to the pit and pull him out, so he doesn’t die.’

¹¹ Then EbedMelech gathered the men and they went to the sub-basement of the king’s palace and found some old rags and ropes, and they tossed them down to JeremiAh in the pit, ¹² saying, ‘Wrap these around you!’ And that’s what JeremiAh did. ¹³ So they lifted him with the ropes and pulled him up out of the pit. And thereafter, JeremiAh once again stayed in the courtyard of the guards.

¹⁴ Well after that, the king sent for JeremiAh while he (the king) was staying in the house of AsaLiseEl (which is located inside the [Temple area] of Jehovah). And the king said to him: ‘I want to ask you something... and don’t hide the truth from me!’

¹⁵ But JeremiAh asked, ‘If I answer you [truthfully], won’t you just have me killed? Besides, you haven’t listened to any of the advice that I’ve given to you up to this point.’

¹⁶ Then the king secretly swore an oath to him, saying, ‘As Jehovah who gave us this life lives; I won’t kill you or hand you over to these men who are seeking your life!’

¹⁷ So JeremiAh said to him, ‘Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl, said this:

*If you will go and surrender
To the governors of Babylon’s king,
You’ll live... you will save your own life,
And this city won’t be burned with fire...
Both you and your family will live!*

¹⁸ *But, if you don’t go [and surrender],
This city will be handed to the Chaldeans
And they will burn it with fire...*

When that happens, you won’t be saved from their hands.’

¹⁹ Then the king said to JeremiAh: ‘But if I do that, I’ll have a problem with the Judeans who went over to the side of the Chaldeans... if I’m handed over to them, they’ll make [life miserable for] me!’

²⁰ But JeremiAh told him: ‘There’s no way that you’ll be handed over to those people. Rather, you should listen to the words of Jehovah that I’ve spoken to you, because it would be better for you to save your own life and survive! ²¹ However, if you don’t choose to go out and surrender, this is what Jehovah has said:

²² ‘*{Look!} All the women who remain in [your] house
Will be carried to the king of Babylon’s princes.
Then these women will say that your allies deceived you;
For they care so little about you
That they’ll turn and stumble your feet,
And help them to bring you to ruin.*

²³ ‘*Then they’ll take your wives and your children,
And no way will you then be saved...
You’ll be taken by Babylon’s king,
And this city will be burned to the ground.*’

²⁴ Well at that, ZedekiAh said to JeremiAh: ‘If you don’t speak about this to anyone else, you won’t die. ²⁵ But if the rulers hear that I’ve spoken to you about this and they come and ask you, What did you say to the king... if you don’t hide it from us, we won’t do away with you... what did you say to the king? ²⁶ You must tell them, I went to plead for mercy before the eyes of the king. I just asked him not to take me back to the house of JoNathan and let me die there.’

²⁷ And in fact, the rulers did come to JeremiAh and say this to him, and he said what the king told him to say. So, they didn’t ask him anything more, because they didn’t know what had happened. ²⁸ And after that, JeremiAh stayed in the courtyard of the guards until the time that JeruSalem was captured.

Chapter 39

¹ Well, it was in the ninth year and tenth month [of the reign] of ZedekiAh the king of Judah that NebuChadNezzar the king of Babylon came to JeruSalem with all his armies and attacked it. ² And it was in the eleventh year, on the fourth month and ninth day of ZedekiAh’s reign that the city’s walls were breached. ³ Then all the governors of the king of Babylon entered [the city] and they sat down at the Central Gate... these included NergalSharezer, SamGar, NeboSarsechim, NebuSarkes, NergalShareZer (the King's advisor), and all the rest of the governors of the king of Babylon.

⁴ Meanwhile, ZedekiAh (the king of Judah) and all his soldiers had fled the city during the night, going through the king's garden and then through the gate that leads between the city wall and the fortification around the wall, following the road to the ArabAh. ⁵ However, the Chaldean army chased them down and caught up with ZedekiAh on the other side of Jericho. Then they carried him back to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, who was at RibLah (a city in the land of Hamath), where he passed judgment on him... ⁶ and the king of Babylon had ZedekiAh's sons killed there in front of his eyes (there in RibLah), along with all the rest of the rulers of Judah. ⁷ Then he had ZedekiAh blinded and bound in shackles, before he was led off to Babylon.

⁸ Well, after that, the Chaldeans set the King's palace and the houses of the people on fire and demolished them. ⁹ Then all those who were left in the city and the deserters were taken before the king of Babylon, ¹⁰ and Nabuzaradan (the chief of the guards) had them carried off to Babylon. However, he did leave many of the poor people of the land of Judah and those who were of no importance behind, assigning them to watch over the fields and vineyards.

¹¹ Then Nebuchadnezzar (the king of Babylon) gave instructions to Nabuzaradan (the chief of the guards) concerning JeremiAh. He said, ¹²

'Take this man and keep an eye on him... but don't do anything bad to him. Just treat him as you would like to be treated.'

¹³ So Nabuzaradan (the chief of the guards), as well as Nabushasban, RabSares, Nergel, SharEzer, RabMag, and all the princes of the king of Babylon sent for JeremiAh... ¹⁴ they took him out of the courtyard of the guards and handed him over to Gedaliah (the son of AhiKam and grandson of ShaPhan), who then led him outside to sit among the rest of the people. ¹⁵ But it was while he was still in the courtyard of the guards that the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh and said:

¹⁶ 'Go speak to the black man, EbedMelech,
And tell him that thus says Jehovah...
Yes, say that the God of Israel said this:

*{Look!} I've fulfilled My words on this city
To do just bad things, not good!
And now, though you must stand before them;
¹⁷ On that day, I will be there to save you, says Jehovah.
I will not be handing you over
To stand before the faces of those whom you fear.
¹⁸ 'So when it comes to salvation, I'll save you...
No way will you fall by the sword...
Your reward will be your own life,
Because you trusted in Me, says Jehovah.'*

Chapter 40

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to JeremiAh again after he had been led off in shackles by NabuZarAdan (the chief of the guards) and after he'd been separated from the rest of the Judeans who were being relocated from RamAh to [the empire of] Babylon. ² And as the chief of the guards was leading him away, he said this to JeremiAh: 'Your God Jehovah spoke to you against this place and against all of its badness, ³ and then the Lord did just as He said He would do, because you had all sinned against Him and you refused to listen to His voice. So, these things that happened to you are just the things that He said He would do. ⁴ Therefore, after I remove the manacles from your hands, you can choose to travel with me to Babylon where I'll watch out for you, or you can just run away from here! Look... the whole land before you is good! So you can go anywhere that pleases your eyes, ⁵ or you can choose to return to GedaliAh (the son of AhiKam and grandson of ShaPhan), whom the king of Babylon has appointed to be over the land of Judah, and you can live among your people under him... yes, if it seems good in your eyes to go there, then go!'

Well after that, the chief of the guards held a feast for JeremiAh and they gave him some gifts before sending him away. ⁶ Then [JeremiAh] went to GedaliAh at MizPah and stayed among the people who'd been left behind in the land.

⁷ Meanwhile, when all the [Judean] generals who were still in the fields with their armies heard that the king of Babylon had appointed GedaliAh to be over the land, they brought their men and their wives to him, along with the simple people and the poor of the land... all those who hadn't been relocated by the Babylonians.

⁸ Then IshMaEl (the son of NethaniAh), JoHanan (the son of KareAh), SeraiAh (the son of TanHumeth), the sons of EphAi the Netophathite, and JezaniAh (the son of the MaAchathite) came to GedaliAh at MizPah... they and all their men went to him. ⁹ And GedaliAh swore an oath to them and their men, saying, 'You will no longer have anything to fear from the servants of the Chaldeans. Therefore, I urge you to come and live in this land and work for the king of Babylon, since this would be the best thing for you to do! ¹⁰ {Look!} As I'm sitting here in MizPah, I'm doing so before the faces of the Chaldeans, and [they're protecting us from anyone] who might come against us. So, collect your wine, autumn fruits, and olive oil in jars, then come and live in these cities that we've been able to retain!'

¹¹ Well, when those Judeans who were in MoAb and all the rest who had stayed among the sons of AmMon (those who'd been scattered throughout the land of Edom) heard that the king of Babylon had given an allotment to Judah and that he had appointed GedaliAh (the son of AhiKam) to be over them, ¹² they each returned from the places where they'd been scattered and they gathered to GedaliAh in MizPah in the land of Judah, bringing along all their wine, autumn fruits, and a tremendous amount of olive oil.

¹³ However, JoHanan (the son of KareAh) and all the generals of the armies that were still in the fields then went to GedaliAh at MizPah ¹⁴ and they warned him, saying: 'Don't you know that BaAl Ish (the king of the sons of AmMon) is sending IshMaEl (the son of NathaniAh) to [assassinate] you?'

However, GedaliAh (the son of AhiKam) just didn't believe them.

¹⁵ Then JoHanan (the son of KareAh) went and spoke to GedaliAh in secret there in MizPah. He told him: 'I will go and strike down IshMaEl

(the son of NathaniAh)... however, don't tell anyone! For he's going to kill you and scatter all the Judeans that have gathered here with you, then he will wipe out the rest of Judah!

¹⁶ But GedaliAh told JoHanan (the son of KareAh): 'Don't you dare to do this thing... for you're really lying about IshMaEl!'

Chapter 41

¹ Well, it was in the seventh month that IshMaEl, the son of NathaniAh and grandson of EliShama (who was related to the king) came to GedaliAh in MizPah with some of the royal appointees and ten other men. Then, after sharing some bread, ² IshMaEl and the ten men who came with him got up and struck down GedaliAh with their swords, killing him (the man who had been appointed over the land by the king [of Babylon]) ³ as well as all the Judeans who were with him at MizPah, and any Chaldeans that they found there... he even killed the guards!

⁷ However, as they were traveling through the city, [IshMaEl] and his men started striking them down and killing them next to a well.

⁹ It so happened that the well where IshMaEl had killed the men was very large (it's the one that King Asa [had dug] in fear of BaAsha, the king of IsraEl), so IshMaEl (the son of NathaniAh) threw their bodies into it. ¹⁰ Then IshMaEl took all the people who were left in MizPah – which included the daughters of the king who had been left in the care of the chief of the guards by GedaliAh (the son of AhiKam) – and he set out for the other side [of the land] of the sons of AmMon.

¹¹ Well, when JoHanan (the son of KareAh) and the generals who were with him heard of all the evil things that IshMaEl (the son of NathaniAh) had done, ¹² he took his entire camp and set out to wage war with IshMaEl, catching up with him next to the water of the great pool in GibeOn. ¹³ And when all the people who were with IshMaEl saw JoHanan (the son of KareAh) coming with the generals, they were very happy, ¹⁴ and they went over to JoHanan's side.

¹⁵ However, IshMaEl was able to escape along with eight of his men, and they headed toward the [land of] the sons of AmMon. ¹⁶ So JoHanan then took all the generals and their armies, along with all the remaining people from MizPah – those whom IshMaEl (the son of NathaniAh) had captured after he killed GedaliAh (the son of Ahikam), all the mighty men of war, as well as all the women, the eunuchs, and everything that was left in GibeOn – ¹⁷ and they set up camp at KimHam (near BethLehem), as they traveled toward the land of Egypt. ¹⁸ [For they had decided] to run from the Chaldeans, since they were afraid to face them because of IshMaEl's striking down GedaliAh (the man whom the king of Babylon had appointed to be over their land).

¹ Well, they traveled on from there – all the generals, JoHanan (the son of KareAh), JezaniAh (the son of HoshaiAh), and all the people from the least to the greatest – and they went to JeremiAh the Prophet and said this: ² ‘May our need for mercy fall before you! Please pray to Jehovah your God about all these things; for there were once as many of us as your eyes could see, but now we are so few. ³ Tell us which way Jehovah your God says we should go, and that's the way we will go!’

⁴ And JeremiAh the Prophet said to them: ‘I've heard you, so {Look!} I will pray to Jehovah our God about the things you've said, and then I'll announce to you whatever Jehovah tells me to say... there's no way that I'll hide a single word from you!’

⁵ And they replied to JeremiAh: ‘May Jehovah be a righteous and trustworthy witness against us if we fail to follow every word that Jehovah your God sends to us. ⁶ We will obey [every word] from the voice of our God Jehovah, the One to whom we are sending you, whether it’s for the good or for the bad! We will pay attention and listen to the voice of our God Jehovah, so that things will go well for us!’

⁷ Well, it was ten days later that the Word of Jehovah finally came to JeremiAh. ⁸ So he called for JoHanan (the son of KareAh), the generals, and all the people (from the least to the greatest), ⁹ and he said this to them, ‘Jehovah the God of IsraEl to whom you sent me, has heard all your prayers before Him. ¹⁰ [And this is what He told me to say]:

‘If you wish to survive, you must stay in this land,
For I’ll build you up, not wipe you away...
I’ll plant you and not pluck you out...
I’ll bring you rest from the bad that I’ve sent.

¹¹ ‘Don’t worry about Babylon’s king,
The one whose face you now fear...
No, don’t be afraid,’ says Jehovah;
‘For I’m with you, and I will save you...
I will rescue you from his hands!

¹² ‘I will grant you this one act of kindness,
And I will show mercy upon you...
For I’ll take you back to your land.

¹³ ‘But if you should say to yourselves,
No way will we stay in this land,
And you fail to obey the voice of your God...

¹⁴ If you should say, *There’s no way...
For we’ve chosen to go down to Egypt
So we will no longer know fighting
Or hear the sounds of the trumpets,
Nor will we go hungry, because there’s no bread...
So we’ll [go down to Egypt] and live there;*

¹⁵ Then, hear the Word of Jehovah,

O you remnant of Judah!

For Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl says this:

If you point your faces toward Egypt,

And enter [that land] and then plan to stay...

¹⁶ The broadsword that you're now facing

– The one of which you're in fear –

Will also find you in Egypt.

And the famine that you have been facing

Will also overtake you in Egypt...

And there is where you will die!

¹⁷ 'Yes, all those men whose faces are set

To go down to Egypt and live,

Will fall by the broadsword, famine, and plague...

None will survive all the evils

That I will be bringing upon them!

¹⁸ 'Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl, said this:

As My rage has dripped on JeruSalem,

My rage will then drip upon you,

Should you choose to go down into Egypt.

'You'll become a land that's unwalked,

And come under the hands of other men...

You'll be a cursed [people] that is scorned,

And never again will you see this [land]!

¹⁹ 'Yes, this is what Jehovah spoke against you, O remaining ones of Judah... you must not go down into Egypt!

'Now, you're aware of all this, for I've testified to you about it today! ²⁰

But you [weren't really being honest] with yourselves when you sent me to Jehovah your God and said, Pray to the Lord for us and we'll do whatever Jehovah our God tells us... whatever He says, we will do!

²¹ 'And now, although I've warned you, you won't listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and follow [the words] that He sent to you. So, you will come to your end in that place where you now want to go and live by means of the broadsword, famine, and plague.'

Chapter 43

¹ Well, just after JeremiAh had finished speaking all the words that Jehovah their Lord God had sent to them, ² AzariAh (the son of HoshaiAh), JoHanan (the son of KareAh), and all the proud ones started shouting at JeremiAh and saying: ‘You’re lying! Our God Jehovah didn’t send you to tell us that we shouldn’t go down into Egypt and live there! ³ And look at BarUch (the son of NeriJah)... he has joined with you against us to hand us over to the Chaldeans, so that they can just kill us or move us to Babylon!’

⁸ And it was while JeremiAh was in TahPanHes that the Word of Jehovah came to him again and said:

⁹ ‘Now, take two huge rocks for yourself
And [bury] them under the thresholds
Of the gates of Pharaoh’s house in TahPanHes.
Do this in front of the men of Judea,

¹⁰ And tell them that thus says Jehovah of Armies:

*‘{Look!} I’ll send for My servant NebuChadNezzar,
And he’ll set his throne on these [buried] rocks,
And lay his shields down upon them.*

¹¹ *For he’ll come and then attack Egypt,
Bringing death to those who are already dead,
Resettlement to those who’ve been moved away,
And the sword to those who bear swords.*

¹² *'Then he'll burn the [temples] of their gods,
And he will resettle them all...
The land of Egypt, he will fumigate
As a shepherd fumigates his own clothes...
Only then, will he leave there in peace.*

¹³ *'He'll destroy the columns of the City of the Sun,
And he'll burn Egypt's gods in a fire.'*

Chapter 44

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah once again came to JeremiAh concerning the Judeans who were living in the land of Egypt... those who had settled near the watchtower, or in TahPanHes, or in Memphis, or in the land of Pathros. He said, ² 'Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl says this:

*'You have witnessed all the bad things
That I brought upon JeruSalem
And upon the cities of Judah;
For {Look!} they have lain desolate down to this day...
No one lives there at all,*

³ *Because of their wicked faces,
And what they did to make Me feel bitter
By burning incense to gods they've not known...
Which you and your fathers have also done!*

⁴ *'So [each morning], I sent them My servants the Prophets
To tell them not to do these bad things...
Those disgusting things that I've hated.
⁵ But, they wouldn't listen to Me,
Or lean their ears to pay any attention
And turn from their evil ways
Of burning incense before other gods.*

⁶ *'So My anger and rage dripped upon them.
And now, all the cities of Judah
(All those surrounding JeruSalem)*

*Have been desolated and burned...
They lie unwalked to this day.*

*7 'So Jehovah (IsraEl's Almighty God) asks you this:
Why are you still bringing evil
Into your lives, O My people...
Upon your women, your infants, and babies,
So there'll be no survivors in Judah?*

*8 'For you continue to make Me feel bitter
By the things that you do with your hands,
When you burn incense to other gods
In the land of Egypt where you've gone to live.
So now, you'll be cut off and cursed,
And scorned among all the nations!*

*9 'Have you forgotten all the evils
That your fathers have committed...
The evil deeds of Judah's kings...
The evils of all of your rulers,
And the bad that your women have done
In JeruSalem and in Judah...*

*10 And which they're still doing down to this day?
'For, they have not learned to fear Me,
Nor have they followed the orders
That I set before them and their fathers.*

*11 'It's because of this,
Said IsraEl's God, Jehovah of Armies;
{Look!} Against you, I've now set My face
Because of all the bad things you've done
Since the time that I sent destruction to Judah.*

*12 'So I'll take the remnant of Judah
That went down to Egypt to live,
And I'll cause them to fail throughout the whole land...
Yes, from their least to their greatest.*

They'll all fall by the broadsword and famine...

They'll be cursed, scorned, and destroyed!

¹³ 'I'll visit those who've settled in Egypt

The same as I visited JeruSalem...

I'll bring the same broadswords, famines, and plagues,

¹⁴ Which [JeruSalem's people] could not escape.

'So, none of the remnant of Judah

That went down to Egypt and hoped to return,

Will be allowed to go back again.

There's no way that they'll ever return...

Except for a few who'll escape.'

¹⁵ Well, [none of the men] would reply to JeremiAh, because they all knew that their women were burning incense to other gods. And at the time, there was a great gathering of the women among all those who had settled in the land of Egypt at Pathros. And there these women said, ¹⁶ 'We won't pay any attention to the words that you've spoken to us in the Name of Jehovah, ¹⁷ and we'll do whatever we choose to do... we'll keep on burning incense to the Queen of Heaven! Yes, we'll keep on offering her [food and drink] as our fathers, our kings, our rulers, and the rest of us have done in Judah and around JeruSalem in the past... back when we were better off... back when we had enough bread to eat and things weren't so bad! ¹⁸ For it was only after we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and offering her [food and drink] that things became worse and we started falling by the sword and from famine. ¹⁹ Haven't you noticed all that has happened since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven... back when we (without the aid of our husbands) made cakes and offered drinks to her?'

²⁰ Then JeremiAh replied to all the people (the mighty men, the women, and everyone else who had responded to him) saying: ²¹ 'When it comes to the incense that you've burned in the cities of Judah and in JeruSalem (you, your ancestors, your kings, your rulers, and the rest of the people of the land); Jehovah hasn't forgotten this! Yes, it has reached all the way up to His heart! ²² And it's because He was unable to bear all your wicked deeds and the disgusting things you were doing that He brought desolation upon your land... He made it an unwalked place and a curse to this day!

²⁴ And JeremiAh said to the women and to all the people: ‘Hear the Word of Jehovah, all you Judeans who are now living in Egypt! ²⁵ For Jehovah the God of IsraEl says that you and your women have brought this [upon yourselves] by your own mouths and your own hands, when you said that you will continue to acknowledge and burn incense to the Queen of Heaven, and to offer [food and drink] before her.

‘So, you still plan to continue making offerings before her, do you? ²⁶ Well, because of this, hear the Word of Jehovah all you in Judah and those of you who have settled in the land of Egypt:

*{Look!} I have sworn this oath by My Name, said Jehovah,
That My Name won’t remain in the mouths of these Jews,
Because they have failed to say,*

*O Jehovah, our Lord;
Come and live among us in Egypt!*

²⁷ *{Look!} I’ll be zealous about bringing them harm (not the good)!
So those Jews who are living in Egypt
Will fall by the broadsword and famine
Until [they all] cease to be!*

²⁸ *‘Just the [few] who escape from the sword
Will ever return to Judea...
And there will be very few!*

*‘Then, all the remnant of Judah
(Those who went down and now live in Egypt)
Will know whose words have proved to be true...
If it’s My words, or those [of their gods].*

²⁹ *‘And this is your sign, says Jehovah,
That I will visit this place,
So you’ll know that My words have stuck upon you
Because of your evil deeds:*

³⁰ *‘{Look!} I’ll hand the house of Egypt’s King HophRa
To his enemies and those who are seeking his life,
As I handed Judah’s King ZedekiAh
To his enemy NebuChadNezzar,
Who was seeking his life.’*

Chapter 45

¹ These were the words that the Prophet JeremiAh spoke to BarUch (the son of NeriAh) as he was writing all the words that came from the mouth of JeremiAh in this scroll during the fourth year of [the reign of] JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah. He said, ² ‘Jehovah, the God of IsraEl, said this about you, O BarUch, ³ because you made this complaint:

*Alas, to my misery, Jehovah has added hard labor;
For I went to bed moaning and there found no rest.*

⁴ *‘So Jehovah told me that I should say this to you:
{Look!} That which I’ve built, I’ll demolish,
And that which I’ve planted, I will pluck...
Yes, even this land that is Mine.*

⁵ *‘Were you looking for great things to happen?
If so, you had best take that thought from your mind;
For {Look!} upon all flesh, I’m bringing what’s bad, says Jehovah.
But as your reward, I’ll give you your life,
No matter which way you may choose to go.’*

Chapter 46

¹ These are the words that Jehovah sent to JeremiAh the Prophet against the nations. ² [He said this concerning] Egypt and the armies of Pharaoh Necho the king of Egypt, who was at the EuPhrates River in CarChemIsh when he was [killed] by NebuChadNezzar the king of

Babylon, which happened in the fourth year [of the reign] of JehoiAkim (the son of JosiAh) the king of Judah:

³ ‘Now, pick up your weapons and shields,
And then get ready for battle!

⁴ Saddle the horses and mount up their riders...
Don your helmets and chest plates,
And you should take up your spears!

⁵ ‘Why are they frightened and running?
It’s because their mighty have fallen,
And into exile, they’re going...
They’ll not return to their land,’ says Jehovah.

⁶ ‘Their nimble will not be able to flee,
And their strong won’t be saved from those in the north...
For at the EuPhrates, they’ll fall.

⁷ ‘What is this that’s rising like a river...
Yes, like a river that’s swollen?

⁸ The waters of the river of Egypt arose,
And said, *I will rise and cover their land...
I’ll destroy their cities and all who live there.*

⁹ ‘So, ready the chariots and mount up your horsemen...
Assemble the Ethiopians and Libyans
All armed and carrying shields!

‘Come, O Lydians, and stretch tight your bows,
¹⁰ For this day belongs to Jehovah of Armies,
Who’ll arise to take vengeance on His enemies.
Then the sword will devour and be filled...
It will get drunk on their blood.

‘There’ll be a sacrifice to Jehovah of Armies
[Being offered by those] from the land to the north
At the River EuPhrates.

¹¹ ‘So, go to Gilead for ointment
[To heal] the virgin daughter of Egypt!

But the attempts to heal her will all be in vain,
And the ointments will do her no good.

¹² ‘Now the nations have all heard your voices,
For your cries have filled the whole earth.
Warriors fighting warriors have weakened together,
And together, they’ve fallen [in battle].’

¹³ This is what Jehovah said through JeremiAh the Prophet concerning the coming of NebuChadNezzar (the king of Babylon) to strike the land of Egypt:

¹⁴ ‘Send the announcement to Egypt...
Yes, let them hear it in Migdol,
And then give warning to Memphis!
Tell those who live in TahPanHes
To prepare their yew to be [chopped] by the sword!

¹⁵ ‘Why are your mighty all lying face down?
They can’t get up, for the Lord knocked them down!

¹⁶ ‘Yes, your mighty [armies] have weakened,
Then they turned to their comrades and said,
*Let’s arise and go back to our people and homes...
Let’s [flee from] the face of the Greeks!*

¹⁷ ‘You can call on the name, Pharaoh Necho...
The one who’s the king of all Egypt,
But [his time of glory has past].

¹⁸ ‘As I live,’ says the King, Jehovah of Armies;
‘As sure as Tabor is found among mountains,
And as sure as CarMel is found by the sea,

¹⁹ I’ve come here to settle up matters.

‘So, get ready, O daughter of Egypt,
And those of you who are still left alive;
For Memphis will now be destroyed,
And she’ll be referred to as Woe,
Because she’ll be left without people.

²⁰ ‘Egypt is a heifer prepared for the slaughter
By a broken branch that will come from the north.

²¹ For the soldiers they’ve hired are like calves
That are cared for and very-well fed.

But, they will all turn back and flee,
²² Because they won’t wish to wait for the day
When their destruction will come...
The time when they will be punished.

‘Since her voice is like the hissing of snakes
That slither along in the sand;
They will attack her with axes
As though they are chopping up wood.

²³ ‘Then, they’ll cut down all her forests,’ says Jehovah!
‘For, no one can imagine their numbers...
As with locusts, there’s no way to count them!

²⁴ ‘Disgrace will come to the daughter of Egypt,
And she’ll be given to the men from the north.

²⁵ ‘Yes, IsraEl’s God, Jehovah of Armies says this:
*{Look!} Amun (Thebes’ God) will be punished;
For, I will bring this on Egypt,
As well as on her gods and her kings...
To Pharaoh and those who are trusting in him.*

²⁶ *‘To those seeking their lives, I will hand them...
To the hands of King NebuChadNezzar,
As well as to the hands of his servants.*

‘Once again, it will be as it was long ago, says Jehovah.
²⁷ *So, My servant Jacob should not be afraid,
Nor should IsraEl ever be terrified.*

*‘{Look!} For I’ll bring you back from faraway lands...
Your seed, from where they were captives.
Jacob will come and then sleep in peace,
And no one will bring them more trouble.*

²⁸ *'So, don't be afraid, O Jacob, My child, says Jehovah;
For, I will be there with you!
And all the nations to which you were led
Will be appointed to destruction...
The nations where I sent you will all be consumed.
'But though I'll never appoint you an end,
I will still judge and correct you.
I won't declare you free from all guilt,
Nor will you ever be acquitted.'*

Chapter 47

¹ These words of the Lord came to JeremiAh the Prophet against the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

² 'Jehovah says:

*{Look!} From the north, the waters will rise
To become a river that's flooding.
It will flood the land and all its good things...
The city and all those who live there.*

³ *'Then, all the men will start crying,
And those living there will be shouting,
Because of the sounds of the beating of hoofs
And the rumble of chariot wheels.*

*'Fathers won't [help] their own sons
Because their hands will be just too weak
⁴ In the day that he comes to destroy the Philistines...
To wipe away Sidon, Tyre, and their friends.*

*'To the Philistines, Jehovah is sending destruction,
As well as to Cappadocia's islands.*

⁵ *Baldness will come upon Gaza,
And Ashkelon will be thrown away,
Along with Anakim's [giants].'*

⁶ *How long will you strike with the sword of Jehovah...
Until when, will it finally be stilled?*

Please put it back into its sheath...

Lift it away and put it to rest!

⁷ But, what can make it be stilled?

For it came from Jehovah upon AshKelon

And against [her cities] by the sea,

So that all the rest would be shaken.

Chapter 48

¹ Jehovah of Armies, the God of IsraEl, said this against MoAb:

‘Woe to Nebo, for it was destroyed,

And KiriAth JaiRim was taken...

Their forts were all vanquished and shamed.

² ‘MoAb won’t be dancing in HeshBon,

For God’s planned many bad things against her.

Come and cut her out of the nations...

Let’s bring her to an end with the sword!

³ ‘From HoroNaim comes the sound of men shouting,

For destruction and ruin have arrived,

⁴ And MoAb will be wiped away!

Announce this too in Zogora!

⁵ For, Luhith is now filled with weeping,

And on the road to HoroNaim, they’re crying.

‘You can hear the cries of destruction;

⁶ So escape, and run for your lives...

Go and live in the desert like zebras!

⁷ ‘But, you’ll be captured because you’ve relied

On your treasures and forts.

So you’ll be taken away and resettled,

Along with your princes and priests.

⁸ ‘To your cities, ruin is coming...

None of your towns will be saved.

So your valleys will then be destroyed,
As will even your plains,' says Jehovah.

⁹ 'Post signs over MoAb that say she has plague;
So, soon she'll have to be burned.
Her cities will be unwalked lands,
For there'll be no one living within them.

¹⁰ 'O cursed is the one who's indifferent
When it comes to doing the work of the Lord...
Cursed is the one who holds back his sword!

¹¹ 'MoAb has rested since childhood,
Relying upon his own glory.
He's never poured dregs from pitcher to pitcher,
Nor has he been carried away...
So his sense of taste hasn't left him,
And his ability to smell still remains.

¹² 'But, because of this,' says Jehovah,
'{Look!} The days are coming when I'll send
Those who wish to lean upon him.

'They'll water [the wine] in his pitchers,
And they will break all his trumpets.

¹³ MoAb will be disgraced before Chemosh
As IsraEl was disgraced before BethEl.

¹⁴ 'So, how can you say, We are strong...
All our men are mighty for war?

¹⁵ For, MoAb and his cities are gone...
His young men have fallen in slaughter,'
Says the King, Jehovah of Armies.

¹⁶ 'MoAb's day of harm has quickly arrived.

¹⁷ So, those around him should all move away,
And those who were trusting in him should now ask,
Who broke this famous one's staff...
Who broke that magnificent rod?

¹⁸ ‘So, descend from your glory and sit where it’s damp,
O you daughters of Dibon!
For now that MoAb has been destroyed,
Someone is coming to you
Who will destroy all your forts!

¹⁹ ‘Stand in the road and then look,
All you who are sitting in AroEr,
Then ask the fleeing what has happened.

²⁰ ‘MoAb is broken and he’s been disgraced.
So, shriek, cry out, and announce it in Arnon
That mighty MoAb has fallen!

²¹ ‘For, judgment has come to the land of Misor...
On MephaAth, JaHazah, and Holon,
²² As well as on Dibon and Nebo,
And on the house of the DiblaThaim.

²³ ‘On KiriAth JaiRim, it’s arrived,
And on the house of GaMul,
As well as on the house of MeOn.

²⁴ ‘It has come on KiriAth and BozRah...
Upon all the cities of MoAb,
Both those that are near and those far away.

²⁵ ‘The horn of MoAb is broken
And his mighty arm is destroyed,’ says Jehovah.

²⁶ ‘So let [all of his people] get drunk;
For before them, he made himself great.

‘In his own vomit, MoAb will wallow,
And he’ll be considered a joke.

²⁷ O IsraEl; you’re the reason why this happened...
It was your cunning ways that brought this on them,
Because they were [your ally] in war.

²⁸ ‘The people of MoAb have all fled their towns,
And now they must live among rocks...
They must live like doves among stones.

²⁹ ‘I heard the insolence of MoAb,
And he was very insulting...
Then his insults and pride raised his heart.

³⁰ ‘But I’m aware of the [bad] things he’s done,’ says Jehovah,
‘And from him, I’ve endured far too much...
Yes, I know of his [wicked] deeds.

³¹ ‘Because of this, MoAb will shriek,
And the men of KeIr will be yelling
Because of their squalid conditions!

³² ‘The same as I’ve wept over JaZer
Is how I’ll cry over you,
O great grapevine of SibMah.
For your vines have reached to the sea,
And they’ve touched the city of JaZer.

‘Now, ruin has come to your autumn fruits,
And on those who are picking your grapes.

³³ ‘But at CarMel, there’s reason for shouting and joy;
For there’s no one to tread MoAb’s wine vats...
Yes, from morning to evening, they’re [shouting in] joy.

³⁴ ‘From HeshBon, to ElYaleh, and to JaHaz
There now arises a cry;
From ZoAr to HoroNaim there’s bleating
As though coming from three-year-old heifers...
For the waters at NimRim have dried.

³⁵ ‘To MoAb, I will bring destruction,’ says Jehovah...
‘To this one who goes up to his shrines
And burns incense there to his gods.

³⁶ ‘So like pipes, MoAb’s heart will soon resonate
The same as My heart resonates

For all the people of KeIr-Aras...
Where like pipes, their [hearts] will resonate too,
Since the things that they've gained will all perish.

³⁷ 'Then all their heads will be shorn,
And all their beards will be shaved...
They'll be beating their chests with their hands,
And every loin will wear sackcloth.

³⁸ '[There'll be wailing] on the rooftops of MoAb,
As well as in all of their squares,
Because I will have smashed MoAb,' says Jehovah,
'Like a pot that is no longer used.

³⁹ 'O how very contrite;
O how MoAb's repented;
For, MoAb's now laughed at and shamed...
An object of horror to those [passing by].'

⁴⁰ Jehovah says:
'I'll spread and stretch out My wings over MoAb...

⁴¹ KiriAth and her forts will be seized.
In that day, the hearts of the armies of MoAb
Will become like the hearts of their women.

⁴² 'MoAb will [soon] be destroyed,
So he will no longer be many...
For against him, Jehovah will prove Himself great.

⁴³ 'Snare, fear, and the pit have arrived
Upon you who have settled in MoAb,' says Jehovah.

⁴⁴ 'For those fleeing in fear will fall into pits,
And those climbing out will be caught in a snare.

'I'll be bringing these things upon MoAb
In the year that I go there to visit,' says Jehovah.

⁴⁵ 'In the shadow of HeshBon, they stopped...
The army that was running away.
For, fire arose out of HeshBon,

And in SiHon's midst, there were flames
That devoured the forehead of MoAb
And the scalps of the sons of SiHon.

⁴⁶ 'Woe upon you, O MoAb!
For the people of Chemosh have all been destroyed,
And their sons and daughters were carried away.

⁴⁷ But the captives of MoAb, I will return
In the last days,' says Jehovah.

This was the judgment upon MoAb.

Chapter 49

¹ To the sons of AmMon:

Jehovah asked this:

'Are there no sons in IsraEl...
Is there no one left to inherit?
Why has Moloch inherited Gad and his sons,
And why does he dwell in their cities?

² '{Look!} Because of this, days will come,' says Jehovah,
'When I'll cause the disturbance of war
To be heard in RabBah by AmMon's sons,
And then, they will all be destroyed.
So their land [will soon] be unwalked,
And their shrines will be burned up in fire.
Then, IsraEl will inherit its kingship,' says Jehovah.

³ 'Shout, O HeshBon, for Ai was destroyed...
Cry out, O daughters of RabBah,
And then wrap sackcloth around you!
Give in and lament over Moloch;
For together, his priests and his rulers
Will be carried away and resettled.

⁴ 'Why are there cheers in EmaKeim,
O you presumptuous daughter...

You who've relied on your treasures and asked,
Who would dare come against me?

⁵ ' {Look!} I will bring you something to fear,'
Says Jehovah of Armies...

'From your cities, [your people] will scatter
In whichever direction their faces [will look],
And those who flee will never return.

⁶ 'But the sons of AmMon, I will return
From wherever they've been taken captive,' says Jehovah.

⁷ To Edom:

Jehovah says:

'There is no more wisdom in Teman;
For the council of their experts has been wiped away,
And their wisdom has been beguiled and undone.

⁸ 'So, get accustomed to sitting,
All you are living in Dedan;
For, in the day that I come to visit,
I will be bringing hard times.

⁹ 'Then, those who harvest grapes will arrive,
And they will leave nothing behind...
They'll come upon you and snatch you away
As though they are thieves in the night.

¹⁰ 'For, as I once dragged Esau down;
I'll uncover the things that you've tucked away...
No way can you keep them hidden.
Then, you'll be destroyed by a people
Who are not your neighbors or brothers.

¹¹ 'So, abandon your orphans, that they might survive;
For, I will keep them alive
As I'll also keep your widows alive,
Because they've put faith in Me.'

¹² Jehovah says:

‘{Look!} Those who weren’t under [My] Law
Were given the cup from which they must drink.
And because you will be found guilty,
You will also have to drink from that cup.

¹³ ‘For I swear this oath by Myself,’ says Jehovah,
‘That your land will soon be scorned and unwalked...
In her midst, you will be cursed,
And through the ages, your cities will be deserts!’

¹⁴ Then I listened and heard this from Jehovah. For He sent His messengers to all the nations in order to give them this message:

‘Gather and come here against her...
Arise and get ready for war!

¹⁵ {Look!} I’ve appointed her to be small among nations,
And something despised by all people.

¹⁶ ‘For her [schemes] have worked out against her,
And because of the audacious ways of her heart,
Her people will be living in hills,
And in holes among rocks.
For if they set their nests higher than eagles,
I will still bring them back down,’ says Jehovah.

¹⁷ ‘Then Edom will be a land that’s unwalked...
All who go there will just be amazed
And whistle at all that has happened to her.

¹⁸ ‘For as Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed
Along with all those who lived there,’ said Jehovah;
‘No man will sit [in Edom] again,
Nor will sons of men ever dwell there.

¹⁹ ‘{Look!} Like lions, they will then arrive
[And attack] AiTham from the Jordan...
They’ll quickly drive them away from their land,
And a young man [will serve as their ruler]!

‘For who else can be likened Me,
And by whom can I be opposed...
Which shepherd can stand and oppose Me?’

²⁰ So, hear the plan of Jehovah...
His plan against Edom and what He’s devised
Against those who are dwelling in Teman:

‘Even their smallest of sheep
Will soon be taken away,
And the places where they rest will be empty.
²¹ The sounds of their downfall will shake the whole earth,
And their cries will be heard ‘cross the seas.

²² ‘{Look!} He’ll soar like an eagle and spot her,
Then stretch out his wings toward her forts.
In that day, the hearts of the mighty of Edom
Will become like women with birth pangs.’

²³ To Damascus:

‘HaMath will soon be disgraced,
And from Arpad, they’ll hear bad reports...
They will be startled and enraged,
And they’ll be unable to rest.

²⁴ ‘Damascus was weakened and she turned to flee...
By trembling, she was overcome.
Concern and grief held her down
Like a woman who’s about to give birth.

²⁵ ‘O you praised city that was never abandoned...
You town that was ever so loved;

²⁶ ‘Your young men will fall in your squares,
And your mighty will all be cut down,’ says Jehovah of Armies.

²⁷ ‘For I’ll kindle a fire on the walls of Damascus,
And burn the Plaza of the Sons of Hadad.’

²⁸ To Cypress and its queen in her courtyard, [concerning the attack by] NebuChadNezzar the king of Babylon.

Jehovah of Armies says this:

‘Arise and go up to Cypress,
And then attack Kedem’s sons.

²⁹ Take all their tents and their sheep,
As well as their clothes, their camels, and jars;
For I’ve called for destruction upon them.

³⁰ ‘Flee right away... just grab what you need,
O you who are resting in yards,’ says Jehovah!
‘Since King NebuChadNezzar’s made plans against you,

³¹ Get up and flee to a nation that’s safe,
All you who are sitting and resting
In a place with no gates and no bars.

³² ‘Then, all your camels will be plundered,
And your cattle will all be destroyed...
I’ll blow them away with the winds
And shave them away from your sides...
I’ll bring your enemies to drive them away,’ said Jehovah.

³³ ‘Then your yards will become ostrich playgrounds...
Places unwalked through the ages.
No way will men ever sit there again,
Nor will sons of men ever live there.’

³⁴ Well, after the Lord told the Prophet JeremiAh that these things would happen to them, this is what did happen to Elam around the beginning of the reign of ZedekiAh, the king of Judah. ³⁵ For Jehovah of Armies said this [to JeremiAh]:

‘Look! I will break Elam’s bows,
As well as his sources of power.

³⁶ I’ll bring the four winds against Elam
From the four corners of the skies,
And to those four winds, they’ll be scattered.

‘Many nations will come against Elam
To push them out of their land.

³⁷ Before their foes, they’ll be scattered

(Before those who are seeking their lives).
For upon them, I'm bringing My anger and rage,' says Jehovah,
'And I'll chase them away with My sword
Until they're completely consumed.

³⁸ 'Then in Elam, I'll establish My throne...
And that's where I'll send a king and great men,' says Jehovah.
³⁹ 'But in the last days, I will also return
All the captives of Elam,' says Jehovah.

Chapter 50

¹ These are the words that the Lord spoke against Babylon and the land of the Chaldea through the mouth of JeremiAh, the Prophet:

² 'Announce it to all of the nations...
Make it heard and erect a sign...
Let them all know, do not hide it!

*'Say, Babylon has now been captured,
And to Bel, disgrace has arrived.
MeroDach has been [destroyed]...
All of his idols were shamed,
And have now been [carried away].*

³ 'For a nation from the north came against her
And brought her land to extinction.
So, no one will ever live there again...
None from among men or beasts.

⁴ *'During those days and at that time,
They will be entered and shaken, says Jehovah.
Then the sons of IsraEl and Judah
Will get together and leave her.*

'Before Jehovah, they'll be weeping [in joy],
For they will be seeking their God.

⁵ They'll ask for directions to Zion,
And that's where they'll set their faces to go.

‘In Jehovah, they will seek refuge,
And they’ll remember His Sacred Agreement.

⁶ ‘For my people became as sheep that were lost,
Since their shepherds had pushed them into the hills...
They led them astray from mountain to hill,
And then, they just walked away.

⁷ ‘So, those who found them consumed them...
Their enemies said, *We won’t spare them
Because they’ve sinned against God
In those pastures [that He gave] to their fathers.*

⁸ ‘So, flee from Babylon’s midst...
Get out of the land of Chaldea...
Escape like sheep being chased by wild beasts!
⁹ For {Look!} against Babylon, I will be bringing
A great nations from the lands in the north,
Which will then come and attack her,
And take [her people] as captives...
For the arrows of their finest of warriors
Won’t return without seeing success.

¹⁰ ‘*Then all the Chaldeans will be plundered,
And those who loot her will take what they want,* said Jehovah.

¹¹ ‘*For, she was glad and found glory
When My inheritance was plundered by her...
She leaped like a calf in My pasture,
And then, she gored like a bull.*

¹² ‘*So, she will bring shame to her mother,
And become the least of the nations...
A barren parched land, and a desert.*

‘{Look!} It will lie empty as a place that’s unwalked;
¹³ For because of the rage of Jehovah,
She will no longer be lived in...
Yes, everyone there will be gone.

And those who travel through Babylon,
Will look sadly and whistle at her fate.

¹⁴ ‘So, come and lay siege against Babylon...
Stretch tight your bows and then shoot her down!
Don’t spare the arrows in your attack,
For against Jehovah, she’s sinned.

¹⁵ ‘Then tie up her hands and lead her away...
Raze her parapets and all of her walls!
For, this is vengeance from God...
Do to her as she once did to you!

¹⁶ ‘May Babylon’s seed be taken away
(Those who [swing] sickles in the harvest)
Before the swords of the Greeks,
Who will carry them back to their people,
As they are going back home.

¹⁷ *‘IsraEl was a flock that had strayed,
So lions pushed them out [of their land].
Assyria’s king ate them first,
And then Babylon’s king chewed on their bones.*

¹⁸ *‘But because of the things they will do, says Jehovah of Armies;
{Look!} I’ll take vengeance on Babylon’s king and his land,
As I’ve done to Assyria’s king.*

¹⁹ *‘Then I’ll bring IsraEl back to their pastures,
And in Bashan and CarMel, they’ll feed...
Yes, upon Ephraim’s mountains,
And in Gilead, their souls will be filled.*

²⁰ *‘In those days and at that time, says Jehovah;
In IsraEl, you’ll search for unrighteous ways,
But they will no longer exist.
And if they search throughout Judah for sins,
They won’t be able to find them...
They’ll only find kindness from those who return.*

²¹ *'So, go to that land and attack her...
Attack all the people who live there...
Punish the ones who once clapped their hands...
Wipe them away with the sword, says Jehovah...
Do to them, what I told you to do!*

²² *'There's the sound of destruction and war
In the land of Chaldea.*

²³ *For they'll be defeated and smashed
By the hammer of the whole earth...
O how the nations will bring Extinction upon Babylon!*

²⁴ *'They'll attack her and she will be captured
Before those in Babylon know
That they'll be relocated and taken away;
For it's Me, Jehovah, whom they have opposed!*

²⁵ *'The Lord has opened His storehouse
And withdrawn the things of his rage
To do the work of Jehovah of Armies
Within the land of Chaldea.*

²⁶ *'So, because it's her time, you must open her stores,
Then search her through like a cave...
And thereafter, you should destroy her...
Don't leave a trace [of where she has been]!*

²⁷ *'Then, dry up all of her fruits
And carry them down to the slaughter!
Woe to them, for their day has arrived...
The time for them to be punished!*

²⁸ *'There's the sound of [people] who are fleeing...
From Babylon's lands, they are running.
So announce Jehovah's vengeance to Zion...
God's vengeance over what they did to His Temple.*

²⁹ ‘Urge many to come against Babylon...
Tell all to stretch tight their bows!
Around her, set up your camps
And allow no one to escape.

‘Pay her back for the things she has done...
Do to her as she once did to you!
For Jehovah’s the One that she has opposed...
IsraEl’s Most Holy God.

³⁰ *‘It’s because of this, that she’ll fall.
And all the young men in her squares,
As well as all of her warriors,
Will be [run through] in that day, says Jehovah.*

³¹ *‘{Look!} I’m the One who’s against you, O proud one,
Says Jehovah of Armies,
And your day has finally come...
The day for you to be punished!*

³² *‘The insolence you had will now fall
And no one will raise it again.
In her woods, I’ll kindle a fire
To devour everything that’s around her.*

³³ ‘Jehovah of Armies also said:
*To the sons of IsraEl, you were tyrants,
And to the sons of Judah, you were even [more cruel]...
You’ve been tyrants to all whom you’ve captured,
And let no one return to their homes.*

³⁴ ‘But the Almighty will ransom them back
(Jehovah the Almighty is His Name).
He judges His opponents in fairness,
Before He takes them away from their lands.
And now, He is sending His rage
To those who are living in Babylon.

³⁵ *'Bring a sword upon the Chaldeans, says Jehovah,
And upon all of Babylon's people...
Upon all her great men and experts!*

³⁶ *'Bring a sword against her clairvoyants,
And prove them all to be fools!
Bring a sword against all her soldiers,
And let them each receive wounds!*

³⁷ *'Bring a sword upon all their horses,
And upon their chariots also.
Then those in her midst will be acting like girls!*

*'Bring a sword upon all her treasures...
[Yes, haul them away] as your loot!*

³⁸ *'And though she's relied on her waters,
They will soon be disgraced.
For, they are a land of carved idols
Before which, those in the islands have bowed.
³⁹ So their idols will be sent to those islands,
Where among chained demons, they'll dwell.*

*'Through the ages, she'll not be lived in again...
Through generations, no one will camp there.
⁴⁰ For as God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah,
As well as the places round-about them,' said the Lord,
'There's no way that men will live there again,
Nor will sons of men ever stay there.*

⁴¹ *'{Look!} There are people who are coming from the far north...
A great nation will come from the ends of the earth
Along with many [great] kings,
⁴² All brandishing arrows and swords.*

*'They will be very audacious;
For, they will act without mercy,
And their voices [will roar] like the seas.*

‘O you daughters of Babylon;
They’ll come against you on horses,
And with fire, as they’re preparing for war.

⁴³ ‘Babylon’s king will hear the report,
And then his hands will grow weak...
He’ll be gripped with pangs like a woman giving birth.

⁴⁴ ‘{Look!} Like a lion, he’ll ascend from the Jordan,
And he’ll go to a place called AiTham.
Then quickly, I’ll drive them upon her...
I’ll set all their young men against her.

*‘For who else is like Me and who can resist...
What shepherd can stand before Me?’*

⁴⁵ ‘So, hear the plan of Jehovah...
His plans against Babylon
And the equipment that He has devised
Against those in the land of Chaldea.

‘Surely their lambs will all be destroyed...
Surely their fields will be captured!

⁴⁶ ‘From the sounds of Babylon’s conquest,
All on the earth will be shaken,
And her cries will be heard in all nations.’

Chapter 51

¹ The Lord said:

‘{Look!} I’ll awaken a wind that burns and destroys
Against Babylon’s people
And all the Chaldeans who live there.

² ‘Against Babylon, I’ll be sending the proud
Who’ll insult her and wipe out her land.
Woe to Babylon and those round-about
In the day that she is oppressed.

³ ‘Let the bowman stretch tight his bow
And strap on all of his weapons!
Do not spare her young men...
Wipe all her armies away...

⁴ May all in the land of Chaldea fall dead.

‘May their [mercenary troops] be pierced through and fall.

⁵ For, IsraEl and Judah aren’t the widows
Of Jehovah the Almighty God.

‘It was because their land was filled with injustice,
And from IsraEl’s holy ways, they had strayed,
That they were allowed to be captured.

⁶ ‘So, those in Babylon’s midst should now flee...
Each man should save his own soul!
In her unrighteous ways, don’t get involved,
Since it’s time for her to be punished...
To be repaid for the bad things she’s done!

⁷ ‘Within the hands of Jehovah,
Babylon is like a gold cup
From whose wine, the earth became drunk.
For she forced all the nations to drink it,
And this is why they are reeling.

⁸ ‘So, Babylon will fall and be broken;
Then the [time to] lament her will come when they’ll say:
*‘Bring an ointment to heal all her wounds,
And to see if she can be saved!*

⁹ *‘Though we treated her, she couldn’t be healed...
So, all should return to their lands,
Since heaven has approached to pass judgment on her...
Before the stars, she has been exposed.*

¹⁰ ‘Yes, Jehovah’s brought judgment upon her;
So come, let’s announce it in Zion...
For, this is the work of Jehovah our God.

¹¹ ‘Prepare you bows... fill your quivers;
For the spirit of the king of the Medes
Has now been aroused by Jehovah,
To bring His rage against Babylon
And to wipe her away.
Yes, this is the vengeance from God...
He’s getting revenge for His people.

¹² ‘Raise the flags on Babylon’s walls!
Prepare the watchmen and ready the shields!
For Jehovah’s about to do what He said
Against those who are dwelling in Babylon.

¹³ ‘O you who camp between waters
And you who [put trust in] your treasures;
The limit has finally been reached
As to what your bowels can hold.

¹⁴ ‘For Jehovah has now sworn this oath
By [the power of] His mighty arm:
*I’ll fill you with men (like locusts they’ll come)...
And they’ll shout as they are attacking!*

¹⁵ ‘He’s the Mighty One who created the earth...
The One, who in His great wisdom
Prepared mankind’s habitation,
And the One who with great understanding,
Stretched out the heavens above it.

¹⁶ ‘With His voice, He sends waters down from the skies,
And He brings the clouds from the ends of the earth.
He sends lightning along with the rain,
And from His treasures, He then draws the light.

¹⁷ ‘He has proven all men to be foolish,
[And foolish] is the knowledge of their goldsmiths;
For, they have cast idols and they have carved gods,
Which are unable to breathe.

¹⁸ ‘So their deeds are wasted and scornful,
And they’ll be destroyed when He visits.

¹⁹ Yet, this won’t be the portion of Jacob...
Their inheritance is the One who shaped all,
Whose Name is Jehovah of Armies!

²⁰ ‘So before Me, lay out your items of war,
And I’ll scatter [many] nations before you...
Over many kings, I will raise you,

²¹ And before you, I’ll scatter their horses and riders,
As well as their chariots and horsemen.

²² ‘I’ll scatter before you, their husbands and wives...
I’ll scatter their elders and children.

Before you, I’ll scatter their young men and virgins,
²³ And I’ll scatter their shepherds and flocks.

‘I’ll scatter before you their farmers and farms...
Governors and commanders, I’ll scatter.

²⁴ Before your eyes, I will pay back
Those of Chaldea and Babylon
For the evils they committed against Zion, said Jehovah.

²⁵ ‘Look... I’m against you, you mount of corruption,
And I oppose your iron that corrupts the whole earth.
So I’ll stretch My hand out against you,
Then upon you, I will roll rocks,
As I set your mountain on fire!

²⁶ ‘No way will your stones then be carried
To be used as foundation blocks...
You’ll be wiped away through the ages, said Jehovah.

²⁷ ‘So, raise the banners throughout the whole earth...
Signal the nations with trumpets;
Then, make them holy against her...
The Araratites and the AshKenazi!

‘Bring many weapons against her...
Bring horses like locusts, upon her!
²⁸ Drag many nations [to fight] her...
The king of the Medes and the rest of the earth...
Their leaders and all their commanders!

²⁹ ‘Then the earth will be shaken and reel
By Jehovah’s plans against Babylon,
Since He’s arranged the extinction of Babylon’s land
So that no one will live there again!

³⁰ ‘Babylon’s soldiers will fail to wage war...
They’ll just sit in their forts as they’re losing control.
They’ll become like women whose tents are ablaze,
And then, her bars will be broken.

³¹ ‘Those chasing will meet others chasing,
As they pursue the announcers
Who will meet with those who proclaim,
And make the announcement to Babylon’s king
That his great city was captured,

³² And the last of his moats have been breached...
That his ramparts have been burned by fire,
And all of his men have surrendered.

³³ ‘For Jehovah of Armies (the God of IsraEl) says this:
*The palace of Babylon’s king
Will become a floor to do threshing...
And now is the season for threshing,
Because it’s time for the harvest!*

³⁴ ‘[And those living in Zion will say],
*By NebuChadNezzar, Babylon’s King,
I was crushed and divided...
He caught up with me in the darkness;
Then, like a beast, he swallowed me down,
And his belly was filled with My good things.*

³⁵ So in misery and in great trouble,

*To Babylon, I was taken,
And my blood was laid upon those Chaldeans.*

³⁶ *‘But because of this, says Jehovah;
{Look!} I will judge your opponents
And send My vengeance to them for the ways
That they will be punishing you.*

*‘I’ll destroy her [rivers] and dry up her springs,
³⁷ And Babylon will be an extinction
– A den for wild beasts and for snakes –
Which won’t be lived in again.*

³⁸ *‘As lions and their cubs are aroused in the heat,
I’ll give them a drink that will make them all drunk...
I’ll stupefy them and put them to sleep,
³⁹ Which will be a sleep for the ages
From which they’ll never awaken, says Jehovah.*

⁴⁰ *‘I’ll bring them like lambs for the slaughter...
Like rams that are mixed among [goats].*

⁴¹ *‘Thereafter, Sheshach will be captured,
And the earth’s boastful ones will be hunted...
For Babylon won’t be great again
Among the rest of the nations.*

⁴² *‘May Babylon be covered up by the sea...
May she be covered by the roar of its waves...*

⁴³ *May all her cities meet with destruction,
And may her land be dry and unwalked.*

*‘Nothing alive will go there again,
Nor will sons of men ever rest there.*

⁴⁴ *For, I will take vengeance upon Babylon,
And from her mouth, I’ll snatch what she ate.
No more will nations gather with her,
And even her walls will soon fall.*

⁴⁵ ‘So, get out of her midst, O my people...
Let each man save his own life
From the anger and rage of Jehovah.

⁴⁶ ‘And don’t let your hearts be consumed...
Don’t fear the reports that are heard in that land;
For in one year, there’ll come a report,
And in the next, another will come
Of misery and sin in that land,
And of one leader ruling another.

⁴⁷ *‘Because of this, {Look!} days will come
When I’ll bring vengeance on Babylon’s idols.
Then, all in their land will be shamed,
As in her midst, the slain will be falling.*

⁴⁸ *‘Heaven and earth will be joyful,
As well as all those who live there.
For her destroyer will come from the north, says Jehovah.*

⁴⁹ *And as Babylon murdered the IsraElites,
The slain will fall in Babylon’s land.*

⁵⁰ ‘So flee, O you who’ve been saved from the sword,
For you should stay there no longer!
Then speak of Jehovah in far-away lands...
And JeruSalem should remain in your hearts!

⁵¹ *‘We were shamed when we heard of our scorn,
And in dishonor, we covered our faces;
For, foreigners entered our Most Holy Place...
They entered the House of Jehovah!*

⁵² *‘And because of this, {Look!} days will come, said Jehovah,
When I’ll take vengeance upon her carved idols,
And the slain will fall in her land.*

⁵³ *‘So if Babylon could climb up into the skies
And fortify her strength in the heights;
I’d still send those who’d destroy her, said Jehovah.*

⁵⁴ ‘So from Babylon, you will hear cries,
As destruction comes to the Chaldeans.

⁵⁵ Jehovah will wipe away Babylon...
With the sounds of waves, He’ll destroy her,
And to her voice, He’ll bring ruin.

⁵⁶ ‘Misery will come upon Babylon,
For her warriors will soon all be captured,
And terror will come to her bowmen...
Yes, this is her payback from God.

⁵⁷ *‘The Lord will repay her with what she is due,
And he’ll make them all [reel like] drunks...
Yes, her governors, commanders, and wise men,
Says the King, Jehovah the Almighty.*

⁵⁸ ‘And thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
*The broad walls of Babylon will fall,
And her gates will fail and be burned;
For the nations and peoples will tire of her pride.’*

⁵⁹ These were the words that the Lord had instructed JeremiAh the Prophet to say to SeraiAh (the son of NeriAh and grandson of MaAseJah) when he went with ZedekiAh (the king of Judah) into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign (SeraiAh was in charge of the gifts that were [brought to the king]). ⁶⁰ Then JeremiAh wrote of all the bad things that were to come upon Babylon in a scroll, including all the rest of these words that were written against Babylon.

⁶¹ JeremiAh also told SeraiAh that when he got to Babylon, he was to read all of these words to [the people of Babylon], and then say,

⁶² ‘It was Jehovah who spoke ill of this place...
He’s the One who said He’d destroy it
So that no one will ever live here again...
Neither man nor beast, through the ages.

⁶³ [Then JeremiAh told him:] ‘Then, when you finish reading this scroll, tie it to a rock and toss it into the EuPhrates, and tell them,

⁶⁴ This is how Babylon will sink

*And not be raised up again...
She'll vanish, because of the bad things He'll bring.'*

Yes, these were all the words of JeremiAh.

Chapter 52

⁷ Thereafter, the city's [walls] were breached and all its warriors fled... they escaped during the night by way of the gate in the middle of the wall and the area around the wall that was next to the king's garden. [They did this] as the Chaldeans were already in and around the city... and then they headed toward the desert.

¹² It was during the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that NabuZarArdan (the chief of the guards who always stood before the king of Babylon) came to JeruSalem ¹³ and he burned the [Temple] of Jehovah, the king's palace, and all the houses in the city with fire, including all of its mansions. ¹⁴ Then the chief of the guards had the Chaldean armies tear down all of the city walls, ¹⁵ and he removed all the poor people (those who had been left behind in the city) as well as those who had gone over to the king of Babylon, along with everyone else. ¹⁶ However, the chief of the guards did leave some of the poor people behind to serve as vinedressers and farmers.

²¹ No one could know the weight of all the brass; for the columns were each thirty-three feet tall, they had a circumference of twenty-two feet, and their walls were four fingers thick. ²² The moldings were also eight feet long (one of them was very fine), and there was a net of pomegranates around the moldings, all of which was made of brass. ²³ There were ninety-six pomegranates on each [molding] and a hundred pomegranates on each of the nets that encircled them.

²⁴ Then the chief of the guards carried off SeraiAh (the High Priest), ZephaniAh (his second in command), and three of the [Temple's] entrance guards. ²⁵ And from the city, he took one of the eunuchs who was in charge of the warriors, seven of the famous men who stood before the king (all of whom were found in the city), the scribe of the armies, the one who acted as scribe for the people of the land, and sixty men from among the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city. ²⁶ NabuZarArdan (the chief of the guards) took them all away and led them before the king of Babylon in RibLah, ²⁷ and the king of Babylon had them all killed at RibLah (in the land of HaMath). Then the rest of the people of Judah were deported from the land.

²⁸ There were three thousand and twenty-three people whom NebuChadNezzar deported in his seventh year. ²⁹ Then in the eighteenth year of NebuChadNezzar's [reign], he deported another eight hundred and thirty-two souls from JeruSalem. ³⁰ And in the twenty-third year of [his reign], the chief of the guards deported seven hundred and forty-five more souls from among the Judeans. So, all those [who were carried away] came to four thousand, six hundred.

³¹ Then in the thirty-seventh year, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month after the relocation of JehoiAchin the king of Judah, EvilMerodach (the king of Babylon) took JehoiAchin (the king Judah) and led him from the house where he'd been kept under guard (he did this in the first year of his reign). ³² Then he spoke to him kindly and gave him a throne that was higher than all the thrones of the other kings who were there with him in Babylon. ³³ He took him from his prison, provided him with better clothes, and allowed him to eat bread before him for as long as he lived. ³⁴ He was also provided a daily allowance by the king of Babylon until the day that he died.

Lamentations

From the Greek Septuagint text as was used by First Century Christians

A dirge written by JeremiAh after the fall of JeruSalem.

Chapter 1

After IsraEl was captured and JeruSalem was desolated, Jeremiah sat down and cried, wailing this lamentation over the city:

O how that city, once filled with people

Must now sit all alone.

Among the nations, she [sits as] a widow...

She is ruled and [must pay] a tribute.

² She cried and wept all through the night,
As tears rolled down her cheeks;
For, no one is left to offer her comfort
Among all those who once loved her.
Yes, those who cared have now left her,
And her enemies, they have become.

³ So, humiliation has come upon Judah,
For [all of her people] were [taken away]
And she has become just a slave.

Now, she finds no way to rest,
Because she [belongs to] the gentiles.
Yes, all those who chased her have caught her,
And [she lives] among those who oppress her.

⁴ The roads to Zion now mourn,
For there is no one who comes there
To celebrate her holiday feasts.

All of her gates have been broken,
All of her Priests must now groan,
And all of her virgins are captives;
So, inside herself, she is bitter.

⁵ For her head is those who oppose her,
And to her enemies, [she now must submit].

Her humiliation was brought by Jehovah,
Because she no longer showed Him respect.
So her young were led off as captives
Before those who had oppressed her.

⁶ The daughters of Zion (her beauty) are gone,
[And others now serve as] their rulers.
As rams without pasture, they left without strength
In front of those who'd pursued them.

⁷ So, when she thinks of these days of disgrace,
She is very upset.

All of her beautiful things [are now gone]...
Those things that she's had since most ancient times.
For her people fell into the hands of oppressors,
And no one came to their aid.
Then all her enemies laughed
When they saw these things being taken away.

8 It was because of JeruSalem's sins
That she was allowed to be battered.
She was humbled by the One who had loved her
When He saw how indecent she had become.
So now, she [just sits there and] moans,
And all she does is reflect.

9 Her filth lies there at her feet,
Because she forgot how things would work out.
So, she has now been brought low,
And there's no place where she can find comfort.
[She cries]: 'O Lord, see how I've been shamed;
For, to my enemies, I now must submit!'

10 Those who oppressed her have reached out their hands
To take her desirable things.
She watched as the gentiles entered her [Temple]...
Those whom [God] said never should enter
Among the assembly [of His people].

11 Now, all of her people are groaning
Because they are searching for bread.
Her desirable things, they've traded for food,
In order to save their own lives.

O Jehovah; please look down upon this,
For she has been so disgraced!

12 All those to whom You once became close
But thereafter chose to reject You,
Will see if there's pain like the pain that I feel.

For, I've been humbled by the One who addressed me...
By Jehovah, in the day of His rage.

¹³ To my bones, He has sent fire...
Yes, fire is what He has sent.
Then He spread out a net for my feet
To turn me back and make me retreat.
He appointed me to be hidden from view
And to grieve throughout the rest of my days.

¹⁴ He was aware of my godless deeds;
For, they were close to my hands...
And then they [crawled] up my neck.
So, all of my strength has now left me,
Since Jehovah's put grief in my hands
And I am unable to stand.

¹⁵ All of my mighty have left me
(As has Jehovah),
For the time arrived for His visit,
And to break the best of my men.
So the Lord has trodden the winepress
Of the virgin daughter of Judah.

¹⁶ It's over such things that I weep...
It's why my eyes are now filled with tears.
For, those who would offer me comfort
(Those who would bring back my life)
[Have now been carried] away.

All of my sons are now gone...
By my enemies, I have been conquered.

¹⁷ And though Zion has spread out her hands,
There's no one who'll come to console her.

Jehovah gave a warning to Jacob
That they'd be surrounded by those who'd attack.
For JeruSalem was meant to serve as a woman

That was set apart from the unclean...
Though she had to live in their midst.

¹⁸ Yet, Jehovah has been proven righteous;
For, we're the ones who embittered His mouth.
So, hear all you peoples and look at my pain,
Since all my young men and virgins are gone...
They've all been taken as captives!

¹⁹ I was misled by those whom I loved...
My priests and my elders had failed me!
They just wanted food for themselves,
So they could save their own lives.

²⁰ Behold, O Lord, my painful condition,
For my stomach is very upset
And my heart is rolling within me!

I have become very bitter,
For the sword has left me without any sons...
It's as though there is death in my home.

²¹ Listen indeed to my moaning,
For there's no one to offer me comfort.
Since my enemies had heard of my badness,
They rejoiced at the things that they did.
But upon them, You'll bring a day and a time
When they will become just like me!

²² Yes, may their evils fall upon them...
Glean them as they've gleaned me for my sins!
For, [they are the cause] of my moaning,
And they're the ones that bother my heart.

When it came to the daughter of Zion.
For He pulled IsraEl's glory out of the heights

And threw it down to the ground...
Yes, in the day of His rage,
He forgot the stool for His feet.

² [He] didn't hold back, nor did He spare
Jacob's beautiful things.

In His rage, He destroyed all the forts
Of the virgin daughter of Judah.
He cut them down to the ground,
And profaned our rulers and king.

³ He broke them to pieces in anger and rage,
Taking all of IsraEl's strength...
He turned His hand from the enemy's face
And allowed them to set Jacob ablaze...
To consume everything that's around him.

⁴ As an enemy, He stretched tight His bow,
And as an opponent, he stiffened His hand
To destroy all the things that my eyes had desired.
On the Tents of the daughters of Zion,
He poured out the flames of His rage.

⁵ So Jehovah became our enemy...
He sunk IsraEl and all its estates.
He also destroyed all its forts...
The strongholds of the daughters of Judah.
He multiplied those who were humbling us,
And increased the numbers of those being humbled.

⁶ Like a grapevine, He spread out His Tent,
And His holiday feasts, He corrupted.
He forgot all the things He'd appointed for Zion...
The holiday feasts and the Sabbaths.
He did this, because we'd provoked Him,
Then He threatened our king and our priests in His rage.

⁷ [He] thrust away His own Altar...
His Holy Place, He has brushed aside.
So our enemies broke down our walls,
And shouted in the House of Jehovah
As we used to do on our holiday feasts.

⁸ Jehovah made plans to ruin the walls
Of the virgin daughter of Zion.
First, He stretched out His ruler,
Then His hand sent a trampling upon us,
Which caused us to mourn around all our walls,
Because the walls were destroyed,
⁹ And the gates had been cut to the ground...
They broke and destroyed the bars for our gates!

So now, her king and her rulers
Have been scattered among all the nations,
And there is no longer a Law,
Nor do our prophets see visions.

¹⁰ They silently sit on the ground
(The elders of the daughter of Zion)
As they throw dust on their heads...
As they are dressing in sackcloth...
As the heads of JeruSalem's virgins
Are being pushed to the ground.

¹¹ Then the tears in my eyes started to fail,
Because my heart had become so disturbed.
My glory had just been poured on the ground
By the destruction of all the daughters
And the nursing mothers with babies,
There in our city square.

¹² They demanded grain and wine from the mothers
When they were as weak as the wounded.
Then, in those squares, they poured out the lives
[Of the babies] that nursed at their breasts.

¹³ And now, what more can I say,
O virgin daughter of JeruSalem...
To what can you be compared?
Who can now come and save you,
O virgin daughter of Zion...
Since the cup of destruction was widened for you,
Who can now bring you healing?

¹⁴ Though your prophets saw all of your folly,
They refused to uncover your sins
And save you from captivity...
Though they were concerned over your foolish ways,
And they knew that you had to be purged!

¹⁵ Now, people clap hands as they're passing,
And whistle as they shake their heads
Over JeruSalem's daughter.
'Isn't she the one that was called glory's crown...
The most joyful place in the whole earth?

¹⁶ 'But your enemies opened their mouths
And whistled, as they ground their teeth.
They said, *We will swallow her down,
And this is the day that we planned...
We found it and [we made it happen]!*'

¹⁷ So Jehovah did what He'd decided...
He finished what He said must be done...
The things that He said [He must do] long ago.
So, He didn't spare, He demolished...
He brought your enemies joy over you,
And raised the trumpets of those who attacked you!

¹⁸ Before Jehovah, they were yelling,
'We'll tear down the walls upon Zion
And make its people stream tears day and night!
Don't allow them the time to get sober,
Or to let their eyes become still!'

¹⁹ So, during the night, awaken and think...
At the start of each watch, pour out your hearts
Before the face of Jehovah!
Raise your arms up before Him
On behalf of the children that are starving,
Which are found on every street corner!

So the Lord has trodden the winepress
Of the virgin daughter of Judah.

¹⁶ It's over such things that I weep...
It's why my eyes are now filled with tears.
For, those who would offer me comfort
(Those who would bring back my life)
[Have now been carried] away.

All of my sons are now gone...
By my enemies, I have been conquered.
¹⁷ And though Zion has spread out her hands,
There's no one who'll come to console her.

Jehovah gave a warning to Jacob
That they'd be surrounded by those who'd attack.
For JeruSalem was meant to serve as a woman
That was set apart from the unclean...
Though she had to live in their midst.

¹⁸ Yet, Jehovah has been proven righteous;
For, we're the ones who embittered His mouth.
So, hear all you peoples and look at my pain,
Since all my young men and virgins are gone...
They've all been taken as captives!

¹⁹ I was misled by those whom I loved...
My priests and my elders had failed me!
They just wanted food for themselves,
So they could save their own lives.

²⁰ Behold, O Lord, my painful condition,
For my stomach is very upset
And my heart is rolling within me!

I have become very bitter,
For the sword has left me without any sons...
It's as though there is death in my home.

²¹ Listen indeed to my moaning,
For there's no one to offer me comfort.
Since my enemies had heard of my badness,
They rejoiced at the things that they did.
But upon them, You'll bring a day and a time
When they will become just like me!

²² Yes, may their evils fall upon them...
Glean them as they've gleaned me for my sins!
For, [they are the cause] of my moaning,
And they're the ones that bother my heart.

When it came to the daughter of Zion.
For He pulled IsraEl's glory out of the heights
And threw it down to the ground...
Yes, in the day of His rage,
He forgot the stool for His feet.

² [He] didn't hold back, nor did He spare
Jacob's beautiful things.
In His rage, He destroyed all the forts
Of the virgin daughter of Judah.
He cut them down to the ground,
And profaned our rulers and king.

³ He broke them to pieces in anger and rage,
Taking all of IsraEl's strength...
He turned His hand from the enemy's face
And allowed them to set Jacob ablaze...
To consume everything that's around him.

4 As an enemy, He stretched tight His bow,
And as an opponent, he stiffened His hand
To destroy all the things that my eyes had desired.
On the Tents of the daughters of Zion,
He poured out the flames of His rage.

5 So Jehovah became our enemy...
He sunk IsraEl and all its estates.
He also destroyed all its forts...
The strongholds of the daughters of Judah.
He multiplied those who were humbling us,
And increased the numbers of those being humbled.

6 Like a grapevine, He spread out His Tent,
And His holiday feasts, He corrupted.
He forgot all the things He'd appointed for Zion...
The holiday feasts and the Sabbaths.
He did this, because we'd provoked Him,
Then He threatened our king and our priests in His rage.

7 [He] thrust away His own Altar...
His Holy Place, He has brushed aside.
So our enemies broke down our walls,
And shouted in the House of Jehovah
As we used to do on our holiday feasts.

8 Jehovah made plans to ruin the walls
Of the virgin daughter of Zion.
First, He stretched out His ruler,
Then His hand sent a trampling upon us,
Which caused us to mourn around all our walls,
Because the walls were destroyed,

9 And the gates had been cut to the ground...
They broke and destroyed the bars for our gates!
So now, her king and her rulers
Have been scattered among all the nations,

And there is no longer a Law,
Nor do our prophets see visions.

¹⁰ They silently sit on the ground
(The elders of the daughter of Zion)
As they throw dust on their heads...
As they are dressing in sackcloth...
As the heads of JeruSalem's virgins
Are being pushed to the ground.

¹¹ Then the tears in my eyes started to fail,
Because my heart had become so disturbed.
My glory had just been poured on the ground
By the destruction of all the daughters
And the nursing mothers with babies,
There in our city square.

¹² They demanded grain and wine from the mothers
When they were as weak as the wounded.
Then, in those squares, they poured out the lives
[Of the babies] that nursed at their breasts.

¹³ And now, what more can I say,
O virgin daughter of JeruSalem...
To what can you be compared?
Who can now come and save you,
O virgin daughter of Zion...
Since the cup of destruction was widened for you,
Who can now bring you healing?

¹⁴ Though your prophets saw all of your folly,
They refused to uncover your sins
And save you from captivity...
Though they were concerned over your foolish ways,
And they knew that you had to be purged!

¹⁵ Now, people clap hands as they're passing,
And whistle as they shake their heads
Over JeruSalem's daughter.

‘Isn’t she the one that was called glory’s crown...
The most joyful place in the whole earth?

¹⁶ ‘But your enemies opened their mouths
And whistled, as they ground their teeth.
They said, *We will swallow her down,
And this is the day that we planned...
We found it and [we made it happen]!*’

¹⁷ So Jehovah did what He’d decided...
He finished what He said must be done...
The things that He said [He must do] long ago.
So, He didn’t spare, He demolished...
He brought your enemies joy over you,
And raised the trumpets of those who attacked you!

¹⁸ Before Jehovah, they were yelling,
‘We’ll tear down the walls upon Zion
And make its people stream tears day and night!
Don’t allow them the time to get sober,
Or to let their eyes become still!’

¹⁹ So, during the night, awaken and think...
At the start of each watch, pour out your hearts
Before the face of Jehovah!
Raise your arms up before Him
On behalf of the children that are starving,
Which are found on every street corner!

²⁰ Behold, O Lord... see what You’ve gleaned!
Should women eat the fruit of their bellies...
Should the babies be murdered as they’re nursing on breasts...
Will you kill the priests and the prophets
Inside the Holy Place of Jehovah?

²¹ Young boys must now sleep in the streets
Along with the old men and virgins.
My young men were all taken captive,
And then killed by the famine and swords.

For, in the day of Your rage,
You slashed and You haven't spared any!

²² As a festival day (as no other day),
You called to those living around us.
Then because of Your rage, no one was saved...
They left no one behind...
My enemies were filled, and You won.

Chapter 3

¹ Now, I am a man who is helpless,
For the rod of His rage has been laid upon me.
² He took me, then led me away
Into the darkness (not into the light).
³ So, throughout the rest of my days,
Against me, He has turned His hand.
⁴ My flesh and my skin, He's made old,
And He has broken my bones.
⁵ Against me, He's now built [a wall],
And my head He's encircled with trouble.
⁶ Inside a dark place, He has put me,
As though I'd been dead through the ages.
⁷ Against me, He has constructed a wall
Through which I cannot escape,
And with a brass chain, He has weighed me down.
⁸ Although I cry out and yell,
He has shut out all my prayers...
⁹ He's blocked all my roads and my ways!
¹⁰ He's become a bear that is lying in wait,
And a lion that's lurking, unseen.
¹¹ When I rebelled, He then chased me down
And caused me to no longer be...
He established me to be wiped away.

¹² He has stretched tight His bow,
And set me on a stone as His target.
¹³ Into my kidneys, He's shot poison arrows
¹⁴ And He's made me a source of His laughter...
A psalm throughout the whole day.
¹⁵ With bitterness, He has now filled me,
And bile, He gave me to drink.
¹⁶ With a small rock, He knocked out my teeth,
And He gave me ashes to eat.
¹⁷ He has pushed peace from my life,
And He made me forget all the good things I had.
¹⁸ So I said that my victory had perished
Along with my hope in Jehovah.
¹⁹ But, this is what I remembered:
Despite the state that I came to be in
(Despite my persecution, bitterness, and bile),
²⁰ I have not been forgotten...
Yes, my life will continue!
²¹ This is [the thought] that I've kept in my heart,
And the reason why I keep on waiting.
²² For the mercies of [God] never end,
And His compassions will never fail.
²³ Each morning, they are renewed,
And on Him, we always can rely.
²⁴ 'The portion that's mine is Jehovah,' said my soul.
'And because of this, I'll keep waiting.
²⁵ For Jehovah is good to all those who wait
And wholeheartedly keep searching for Him.
²⁶ So it's good [for us all] to be quiet
And await Jehovah's salvation.
²⁷ And it's also good for each man
To bear his own yoke from his youth.

²⁸ Yes, we should sit all alone
And quietly carry our loads;
²⁹ Then, put our mouths to the dust,
And believe that there is still hope.

³⁰ We should turn the other cheek when they slap us,
And we should accept all their scorn.

³¹ For, [in our hearts], we'll know that Jehovah
Won't push us away through the ages.

³² Since, in His abundance of mercy,
He shows pity for those who humble themselves.

³³ Harsh replies don't come from His heart,
As He teaches sons of men to be humble.

³⁴ And now He has humbled the feet
Of those who've been carried away from this land.

³⁵ From before His face in the heights,
He's removed the decisions of men.

³⁶ But Jehovah never said that He'd bring Condemnation upon all mankind.

³⁷ And who could ever say such a thing...
Yes, who could cause it to happen
Without Jehovah saying it's so?

³⁸ From His mouth in the heights
Can come good or bad.

³⁹ So, why do the living choose to grumble
At others concerning their sins?

⁴⁰ For, before Him, our ways are stretched and examined
To see how we can be turned to the Lord.

⁴¹ So, we should lift our hearts with our hands
Toward the Most High in heaven.

⁴² It's because we've been irreverent sinners
Who don't deserve any forgiveness,

⁴³ That we've been wrapped in His rage...
It's because we chose to reject Him

That He decided to send us away...
Why He chose to destroy, not to spare us.

⁴⁴ So He wrapped Himself in a cloud
And closed His eyes to our prayers...

⁴⁵ Yes, this is why He pushed us away.

⁴⁶ So against us, our enemies [shouted],
⁴⁷ Which stunned us and made us feel fear...
And then, our destruction arrived.

⁴⁸ So, tears have poured from my eyes
For the destruction of the daughters of my people.

⁴⁹ But I'll [drink the tears] from my eyes,
And I'll not hold back or be quiet
⁵⁰ Until the time that I can look through
And see Jehovah in the heavens.

⁵¹ Now my eyes look back on my life in great rage
For [what's happened to] the daughters of my city.

⁵² By our enemies, we were hunted like sparrows,
⁵³ And now they have ended my life...
They have tossed me into a grave
And covered it up with a stone.

⁵⁴ Then, as water dripped down on my head, I said:
'I have been just thrown away.'

⁵⁵ So I called on Your Name, O Jehovah,
From out of the lowest of pits.

⁵⁶ I said, 'Don't cover Your ears...
Hear my voice and the things that I beg.'

⁵⁷ Then You came to my aid on the day that I called,
And You told me to not be afraid!

⁵⁸ O Lord, You have pleaded my case,
And then You ransomed my soul.

⁵⁹ For You've seen the things that they've done, O my Lord;
So, pass judgement on them on my behalf.

⁶⁰ You've beheld their vengeance upon me,
And the plans that they've plotted against me.
⁶¹ You listened to their scornful words
And saw the [things that they did]...
⁶² You heard from the lips of those who attacked me
And You knew what they thought all day long.
⁶³ For, when they sat down and when they arose,
You saw what they did through their own eyes!
⁶⁴ O Lord;
Will You will pay them back with what they deserve
According to the works of their hands?
⁶⁵ Curse them for all the trouble they've caused,
⁶⁶ Then pursue them in rage and remove them
From all places under the sky, O Lord.

Chapter 4

¹ O how the gold's lost its luster
And how the silver's been tarnished;
For the [Temple's] holy stones have been tossed in the streets.
² Because the sons of Zion esteemed
And gained their courage from things made of gold,
They came to be looked on as earthenware pots...
And as works in the hands of a potter.
³ Then, nursing cubs were stripped from the breasts
By those who'd become like the Dragon,
And the daughters of my people were abandoned
Like sparrows that are lost in the desert.
⁴ Now the tongues of the nursing, stick to the breasts,
In hope that their thirst can be quenched.
And as the infants are crying for bread,
It's being snatched from their mouths.
⁵ So from those who once ate the best,
All been taken away...

And those who were raised wearing purple
Are found in the streets embracing manure.

⁶ For the lawless ways of the daughters of my people
Proved to be greater than Sodom...
That place which no one tried to save
When it it was being wiped away.

⁷ Her Nazarites were once like the snow...
Radiant and whiter than milk...
Yes, even better than sapphires!

⁸ But now, their appearance is darker than soot,
And they're unrecognized in the streets.
For their skin is now stuck to their bones,
And they have dried up like lumber.

⁹ It was better for those who were killed by the sword
Than for those who've been pierced by starvation...
Those in want of the produce of fields.

¹⁰ And the hands of women [who were known for their] pity,
Then boiled their own children as food...
Amid the destruction of the daughters of my people,
¹¹ Jehovah completed His rage.

Then, as He poured out the wrath of His rage,
He lit a fire throughout Zion,
Which burned her to her foundations.

¹² To the kings of the earth who lived in that time,
It was hard to believe...
That an enemy could enter JeruSalem's gates
And then bring so much devastation.

¹³ But it happened because of the sins of her prophets
As well as the failures of her priests,
And the shedding of innocent blood in her midst.

¹⁴ Then, in her streets, her watchmen were stunned;
For, they became [spattered] with blood...

It was something that they couldn't avoid,
Since the clothes that they wore had to touch it.

¹⁵ So, people started shouting, 'Get away... get away,
Because you're all now unclean!
Get away... get away... do not touch them!'

Then, after we fled and wandered about,
The gentiles said, 'You can't stay among us!'
Yes, the gentiles shouted at us:
'There's no way that we want you to come here!'

¹⁶ Though our portion was the person of [God],
He no longer kept watch over us,
For the people had shown no respect
To their elders or Priests.

¹⁷ So our eyes had started to fail
As we were searching for aid...
They just watched us and offered no help...
A nation with no one to save them.

¹⁸ Now, stay away from our city squares,
For they are hunting our young...
Our time has approached and our days are fulfilled,
So our end is now close at hand!

¹⁹ Those who chased us were even more agile
Than eagles [that attack from] the mountains...
They just sat there and waited for us
From their perches high over the desert.

²⁰ Jehovah's anointed (our life's breath and lord)
Has also been seized and carried away
Because we became so corrupt...
Yes, this one about whom we once said:
'Among the nations, we'll dwell in his shadow.'

²¹ So rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom...
The one that's residing in Uz!

Yet, you'll also go into the cup of the Lord,
Where, after you're drunk, you'll be poured.'

²² O great daughter of Zion;
Your lawless acts have now reached their end,
And [God] won't be in the places you're sent.

And you, O daughter of Edom;
He'll also examine your lawless ways,
And reveal your unrighteous deeds.

Chapter 5

¹ O Jehovah; remember what has happened to us...
Look down and see how we have been scorned!

² Our inheritance has been [given] to strangers,
And our houses have been offered to gentiles.

³ Since we don't have fathers, we're orphans,
And all of our mothers are widows.

⁴ So now, we must pay for our water,
And we must barter for wood.

⁵ Because we were closely pursued,
We were tired and we couldn't find rest.

⁶ Then to Egypt, we held out our hands,
And also to Assyria's bounty.

⁷ Since our fathers had sinned, they are gone...
They've paid the cost of breaking Your Law.

⁸ And as the result, we're now slaves,
Who have no one to redeem us.

⁹ We carry bread at the risk of our lives
Before the swords in the desert,

¹⁰ And our skins are dark, as though oven baked,
For they have shriveled from famine.

¹¹ They've [raped] the women of Zion,
And the virgins in the cities of Judah.

¹² Rulers were hung by their hands,
And elders couldn't be recognized.

¹³ So the best of men are now weeping,
And from hauling wood, the young men are weak.

¹⁴ Our elders no longer sit at our gates,
And our [singers] no longer sing psalms.

¹⁵ So what once brought joy and dance to our hearts,
Has now been turned into dirges.

¹⁶ It is because of our sins
That the crowns of our heads reflect woe.

¹⁷ The grief in our hearts is more grievous,
And our eyes have become even darker.

¹⁸ Mount Zion has now been destroyed,
And it looks like foxes ran through it.

¹⁹ But You, O Jehovah, have lived through the ages...
Through generations of generations, Your throne has remained.

²⁰ So, why did You forget to let us succeed...
Will we be forsaken through the rest of our days?

²¹ Please turn back to us, O Jehovah,
Then, when we return, we'll make our days new
As they had been long ago!

²² But, we were pushed away and rejected
Because we provoked You to rage.

Ezekiel

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

Written by Ezekiel over a period starting from around 619-BCE to 14 years after the destruction of JeruSalem.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator, whom appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ It was during the thirtieth year, in the fourth month and on the fifth day of the month, as I was amidst the captivity by the Chobar River, that the heavens opened up and I beheld visions [from] God. ² This was five years and five months after King JehoiAchin had been carried off as a captive.

³ The Word of Jehovah came to me (Ezekiel the son of Buzi, a Priest) near the Chobar river in the land of the Chaldeans. And this is what I received from the hand of the Lord. ⁴ For I looked up and I saw a wind that could lift iron coming from the north, along with a huge cloud that had bright lights all around it and flashes of lightning. I also had a vision of a bright bronze casting in the middle of a fire. ⁵ Then, there in its midst was something that looked like four animals. But in this vision, they also looked like men. ⁶ Each had four faces and four wings. ⁷ Their legs were straight, there were feathers on their feet, there were sparks like flashes of brass, and they had very fine wings.

⁸ Beneath each of their four wings was a man's hand, and they had wings on each of their four parts. So, they each had four faces and four wings, ⁹ and they traveled opposite to [the direction] they were facing. Also, their wings didn't turn as they moved.

¹³ Also, there among the animals, I had a vision of burning coals that looked like lamps that were spinning in their midst. The flames were very bright, and lightning shot from the flames.¹⁴ Also, the animals were moving up and back like lightning.

¹⁵ Then I looked and I saw wheels on the ground that were next to each of the four animals,¹⁶ and the wheels [sparkled] like peridots. There also appeared to be four wheels within each wheel, and they worked as though there were wheels within wheels.¹⁷ Each [wheel] moved in the direction that [the animals] faced, and they [moved together]¹⁸ (the rims were tall and awesome). Then I looked again and I noticed that their back sides were full of eyes that went all around each of the four wheels.

¹⁹ As the animals moved, the wheels moved next to them. And when the animals lifted up from the ground, the wheels went up also,²⁰ along with a cloud that went wherever [God's] Breath led it.²¹ The animals and the wheels moved up along with [the cloud], because the breath of life was in the wheels.²¹ Wherever [the animals] traveled, the wheels went along. For when they stood still, the wheels stood still, but when they rose above the ground, the wheels went up with them, because the breath of life was in the wheels.

²⁴ The sound that I heard from the movement of their wings as they traveled was like the sound of a lot of rushing water and the sound of someone very important whenever they moved. However, it was like the sound of [many] words being spoken in a camp whenever the animals stood still and rested their wings.

²⁵ {Look!} There was also a sound that came from far above.²⁶ In the vision [that I had]; above their heads there was what looked like huge a sapphire stone, and sitting above it was a throne upon which, what appeared to be a man from the heavens, was sitting.²⁷ I saw what looked like molten bronze that was filled with fire around and above His loins; and beneath that, I just saw fire and brightness all around Him.²⁸ He was like a rainbow that forms in the clouds on a rainy day, and there was just brightness all around Him. This was in fact a vision of the likeness of the glory of Jehovah! And when I saw this, I fell to my face.

And at that, I heard a voice that started speaking [to me].

Chapter 2

¹ He said to me:

‘Son of man; you must stand on your feet,
And thereafter, I will address you!’

² And at that, His Spirit came over me... it picked me up and lifted me up on my feet. Then I heard Him speaking to me. ³ He said:

‘O son of man;
To the sons of IsraEl, I’ll send you...
Those who’re rebelling against Me.
For against Me, they and their fathers
Have been in rebellion down to this day.

⁴ ‘They’re a harsh and hard-hearted people,
And these are the ones to whom you’ll be sent.
So, tell them that thus says Jehovah:

⁵ *You should listen in terror,
For you are a house in rebellion.*
And [after you do this], they will know
That you’ve served as a Prophet among them.

⁶ ‘And you, O son of man, should not be afraid
Or be upset by their faces.
For, they will get all heated up,
Then they will rise up against you,
And they will have you surrounded.

‘So, among these scorpions, you’ll have to live...
But don’t fear the things that they’ll say to your face,
For they are a house in rebellion.

⁷ ‘You must tell them My words,
So that they will hear them and fear...
For they are a house in rebellion.

⁸ ‘Now you, O son of man, must pay close attention
To the One who’ll be speaking to you...
Don’t rebel, like that house in rebellion!

‘Now, open your mouth very wide
And eat this thing that I’m handing to you!’

9 So at that, I looked and I saw a hand that was reaching out toward me with a rolled up scroll. 10 But then He unrolled it before me... and written on both the front and backsides was a lamentation and a dirge.

Chapter 3

1 Then He said to me:

‘O son of man, you must eat this...
And after you eat it,
You must tell the sons of IsraEl [what it says]!’

2 So He opened my mouth so he could feed me the scroll. 3 Then He said to me:

‘O son of man;
After I put this scroll in your mouth,
Your belly will get filled with this thing
That I am feeding to you.’

So I ate it and found it to be as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 Then He said to me:

‘O son of man;
Now, go to the house of IsraEl
And tell them all that I’ll say!

5 ‘You won’t have to speak to those with thick lips
Or to those that speak foreign tongues...
It’s to the house of IsraEl that you’re being sent.

6 ‘I’m not sending to too other peoples ...
To those who speak words that you won’t understand
Or to those who have foreign, thick tongues
(Those who won’t know what you’re saying),
But to those who will understand you.

7 ‘Yet, the house of IsraEl will not listen
To the things that I’ll tell you to say...
They’ll not agree to listen to Me,
Since they are a hard-hearted people
And all they do is talk back.

⁸ ‘{Look!} Now, against their faces, I’ve made your face strong,
So your face will firmer than theirs...
Yes, it will be harder than rock.

⁹ ‘So, don’t be afraid [when you go] before them,
And you should not be afraid,
For they are a house in rebellion.’

¹⁰ And he said to me:
‘O son of man;
Now, take My words into your heart,
And listen to them with your ears.

¹¹ Then, tell the captive sons of your people
That The Lord Jehovah has spoken,
And surely they’ll listen and yield.’

¹² Well after that, [\[His\] Spirit](#) stood me erect, and from behind me I heard a rumbling sound that spoke to me and said:

‘Praise the glory of Jehovah
That has come [to you] from His realm!’

¹³ Then I heard the sound of the flapping of the wings of the animals (because [the wings] were touching each other), as well as the sounds of the wheels that were moving next to them with a great rumbling.

¹⁴ And thereafter, [God’s] Breath lifted me up and carried me away... so my spirit was being lifted and motivated by the hand of Jehovah that had come over me, and this made me extremely powerful!

¹⁵ Then, while I was in this elevated [condition], I traveled among the rest of captives who live next to the Chobar River, and I stayed there for seven days. ¹⁶ And at the end of the seven days, the Word of Jehovah came to me and said this:

¹⁷ ‘O son of man;
Over the house of IsraEl,
I have made you the watchman.
So, you will hear the words from my mouth,
And then, you must bring them my warnings.

¹⁸ ‘For I’m saying that the lawless will die!
And you will also die with them
If you fail to give them my orders.

‘Give these warnings to those lawless people
And tell them that they will only survive
If they’ll turn from their unrighteous ways!
But, if they should choose to stay lawless,
They will die for their sins,
And I won’t require their blood from your hands.

¹⁹ ‘If you give my word to the lawless,
And they refuse to turn from their ways;
They will die in their sins,
But I will still rescue you.

²⁰ ‘For, if a righteous man should turn from right ways
And starts doing things that are evil;
I’ll torment his face ‘til he dies.
But, if you’ve failed to bring him my word,
And this is what caused him to die,
So his righteous deeds are forgotten;
I’ll require his blood from your hands.

²¹ ‘But, if you will give [my] word to the righteous,
And you warn them that they must not sin...
And they choose not to sin because they’ve been warned,
And this results in their being saved;
You will have saved your own life.’

²² And after that, the hand of the Lord came upon me and said:
‘Now arise and go out to the plains;
For there, I will tell you much more!’

²³ So I got up and went out to the plains; and {Look!} there was the glory of Jehovah – the glory that I had seen by the Chobar River – and I fell to my face. ²⁴ Then [God’s] Breath came over me and stood me up on my feet... and it spoke to me and said:
‘Go home and lock yourself inside your house;

²⁵ {Look!} For you, O son of man, are appointed to be bound...
Yes, they will come here and then tie you up,
And no way will you set yourself free.

²⁶ ‘They’ll also wrap your tongue in your throat,
So you’ll be unable to speak,
And you won’t be able to scold them;
For, they are a house in rebellion.

²⁷ ‘But then, my voice will start speaking through you...
I will open your mouth, then you’ll tell them
That this was said by Jehovah:
*‘All you who wish to hear, should now listen!
But, those who don’t wish to make any change,
Can continue to resist My persuasion;
For you are a house in rebellion!’*

Chapter 4

¹ ‘And you, O son of man;
Must go find a brick,
Then set it in front of your face.

‘Draw a map of JeruSalem upon it,
² Then surround it with a circle of forts.
Also draw a siege mound and camps,
And encircle the city with weapons.

³ ‘Then, go find an iron frying pan,
And set it as a wall between you and the city,
Then prepare your face to oppose it...
Prepare for a siege, then attack it...
This will serve as the sign to the sons of IsraEl!

⁴ ‘Then, go to sleep on your left side,
And lay the sins of the house of IsraEl upon you...
You must bear their unrighteous ways
For the number of days that you’ll sleep [on that side].

⁵ ‘For, I’ve appointed two things that you must do
Because of their unrighteous deeds:

· ‘The unrighteous ways of the house of IsraEl
Must be born upon you,
For [three hundred and ninety \[full\] days](#).

· ⁶ ‘Then, after that, you must sleep on your right side
For the house of Judah’s unrighteous ways.
You must do this for forty more days...
A day for each year, is what I’ve established!

⁷ ‘And as for the siege on JeruSalem;
Prepare your face and stiffen your arm;
For against [that city], you must then prophesy.

⁸ ‘{Look!} Because I’ve appointed their bondage on you,
Don’t turn from one side to the other,
Until the days of your siege are fulfilled.

⁹ ‘Take wheat, barley, and beans for yourself,
As well as wild oats, lentils, and millet,
And put them into an earthenware pot;
Then, use them to bake loaves of bread.

‘Make enough for the number of days
(All the three hundred and ninety)
That you must sleep on your side.

¹⁰ And the weight of the food that you can consume
Will be just ten ounces a day,
Which you may eat at various times.

¹¹ ‘You must also measure the water you’ll drink...
You may drink just ten ounces from time to time.

¹² ‘And bake the barley cakes that you’ll eat
Over human manure,
Which you must hide in the coals
Before the eyes [of the people].’

¹³ ‘And Jehovah (the God of IsraEl) said:
*For, this is the type of uncleanness
That the sons of IsraEl will eat
Among the nations where they will be thrown.’*

¹⁴ And I said: ‘Absolutely not, O Lord God of IsraEl! For my soul has never been defiled or made unclean by decaying flesh, nor have I eaten wild animals from [the day] that I was born until now... nothing unclean has ever entered my mouth!’

¹⁵ So he said to me:
‘Then, rather than using human manure,
I’ll allow you to use cattle dung...
You may bake your loaves over that.’

¹⁶ And he said to me:
‘O son of man;
{Look!} I’ll break JeruSalem’s trust in its bread;
For they’ll have to ration it out,
And they’ll ration the water they drink ‘til it’s gone.

¹⁷ ‘Since there won’t be enough water or bread,
Each man [will steal] from his brother,
And because of their unrighteous deeds,
They will then melt away.’

Chapter 5

¹ ‘And you, O son of man;
Go and buy a sharp blade
(A razor that’s used by a barber),
And shave your head and your beard.

‘Then, [put the hair on] a scale,
And divide it in portions by weight.

² A fourth must be used to kindle a fire,
Which you must burn in the midst of the city,
[To show] the number of days of its siege...
Then, toss the second quarter into the fire.

‘And use a knife to cut the third quarter;
Then, scatter it throughout [the city].
And toss the last quarter into the wind;
For I’ll empty them out with the sword.

³ ‘Thereafter, you must take what little remains,
And put it into a bag...

⁴ Then, take out some [of the hairs],
And toss them into the fire.
And as they’re burning, tell the house of IsraEl
That this was said by Jehovah:

⁵ *‘This is what I’ll do to JeruSalem...
I’ll place her amid many nations,
And they will have her surrounded.*

⁶ ‘Then, speak of My righteous decisions...
Yes, speak to that lawless nation,
And to those lawless ones living around them.
For they’ve pushed away My righteous decrees,
And they haven’t followed My Laws.

⁷ ‘You must say, It’s because of this, says Jehovah,
*That lawless ways will now come to you
From the nations that have you surrounded.*

*‘For, you haven’t followed My Laws,
Nor have you observed My righteous decrees...
You’ve not even come up to the standards
Of the nations that are living around you!*

⁸ ‘So because of this, says Jehovah;
*{Look!} I am now standing against you,
And I’ll bring My judgments upon you,
There before all those nations!*

⁹ *‘I will bring [many bad] things upon you
That have never happened before,*

*Nor will they be done in the future,
For the disgusting things that you're doing!*

¹⁰ *'For, fathers will then eat their own children,
Or children will eat their own fathers;
And the rest will be scattered to the [four] winds...
For My righteous decisions will be poured out on you!*

¹¹ *'As I live, says Jehovah...
Because you've dirtied My Holy Things
With all that's disgusting and loathsome,
I will push you away...
My eyes won't spare or show mercy!*

¹² *'So a fourth will be consumed by the plague;
A fourth will be finished by famine;
A fourth will be scattered to the [four] winds;
And a fourth will fall by the broadsword...
Yes, you'll all be surrounded,
And the sword will be emptied upon you.*

¹³ *'But, after I've brought My anger and rage,
I'll return and offer you comfort.
For then, you'll know that this happened
Because I (Jehovah) had warned you,
And in My zeal, I showed you My rage.*

¹⁴ *'I'll turn you and your daughters into waterless lands
In the presence of all who pass by.*

¹⁵ *For the nations will squeeze you and scoff,
When I bring My anger and judgments on you,
Along with My vengeance and rage.
For, I (Jehovah) have spoken.*

¹⁶ *'I'll send the arrows of famine to you,
And after you come to be in great need,
I'll send [the nations] to finish you off.
Yes, I'm sending a famine among you,
To break your reliance on bread.*

*¹⁷ 'I'll not only bring famine upon you,
But also ferocious wild beasts!
And with plagues, you will also be punished,
Before your blood will be spilled;
For upon you, I'm bringing the sword.
Yes, I (Jehovah) have spoken!'*

Chapter 6

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me saying,

² 'O son of man;

Now, turn your face toward IsraEl's hills,
And against them, you must now prophesy!

³ 'Speak to those in IsraEl's mountains
And tell them to hear the Word of Jehovah!

Yes, hear what He has decreed

To the mountains, hills, valleys, and forests:

*'{Look!} Against you, I'm bringing the broadsword
And it will destroy your high places.*

⁴ I will also break all your altars;

Your [incense stands], I'll tear down;

And before their idols, I'll leave all your slain.

'The bodies of IsraEl's sons

Will be offered in front of their idols;

⁵ And then, on their altars, I'll scatter their bones.

⁶ 'All the homes in your towns will be empty;

All the high places will be wiped away;

All your altars will be destroyed;

Your idols will no longer be,

And your incense stands will be lifted away...

Yes, your works will all be erased.

⁷ Then, as the slain are falling among you,

You will know that I am Jehovah.

⁸ *'Then, those who escap from the broadsword
Will be scattered among all the nations.*

⁹ *And those who escape from the nations
Where they will be taken as captives,
Will start thinking of Me once again.*

*'I vow this against the hearts of all those
Who 've committed adultery against Me
And done so many bad things...*

*They will slap their own faces
Over of the vile acts they've performed.*

¹⁰ *Then they'll know that I am Jehovah,
And that this is why I sent them the warning
That I'd bring such evil upon them.'*

¹¹ 'Then Jehovah said:

Clap your hands... yes, stamp your feet and then say,

This is what they deserve

For the disgusting things that IsraEl's done.

Yes, may they fall by the broadsword,

As well as by famine and plague!

¹² 'Then, those far away will die by the plague;

Those who are near will fall by the sword;

And those who are left after the siege

Will be finished off by the famine,

As I wear out My anger against them.

¹³ 'And you'll know that I am Jehovah,

When among your idols, you'll see all your slain...

The idols that you've placed on all the high hills

And under each shade tree and bush,

Before which, you have burned incense.

¹⁴ 'For, against such ones, I'll stretch out My hand,

And I'll bring an end to their homes and their lands...

I'll dry them out like figs in the desert,

And they'll know that I am Jehovah.'

Chapter 7

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said, ² ‘And to you, O son of man; Jehovah says this about IsraEl:

*‘To the four wings of the land,
The end has finally come...*

³ *Yes, the end has arrived;
For upon them, I’m bringing My rage.*

*‘I’m the one who is standing against them
And I’ll punish them for the things that they’ve done...
I’ll hold them to blame for their evil,
⁴ And my eyes won’t spare or show mercy!*

*‘Because they have been so disgusting,
I’ll no longer forgive all the badness
That’s being done in their midst...
Then they’ll know that I am Jehovah!*

⁵ *‘Jehovah said:
{Look!} Upon the evil, evil will come...
⁶ For their end has reached its fulfillment,
And their punishment has been awakened.*

⁷ *{Look!} The circle of the wreath has fallen on them
(All those who live in the land),
And the time has finally arrived...
The day of tumult and distress.*

⁸ *‘For now, I’ll pour out My rage
And finish My anger against them.
They’ll be judged for the bad things they’ve done,
And I’ll hold them to blame for their evil.*

⁹ *‘My eyes won’t spare or show mercy,
For I’ll make them pay for their ways
And the disgusting things that they’ve done.
Then, they will know that it’s Me...
I’m the One who is knocking them down!*

¹⁰ *'Look! The day of the Lord has arrived,
And his rod has [finally] blossomed.*

¹¹ *The time to injure has come,
Which will break the resolve of the lawless.
Then, nothing at all will remain...
No wealth and nothing of value.*

¹² *'Look! The time has arrived...
Today is truly the day!
So, those who buy shouldn't rejoice,
And those who sell shouldn't wail;
For [God's] wrath will cover such things.*

¹³ *'Now, the one who buys will not return
What he bought to the person who sold it,
Since neither one will survive.*

*'This vision is for all of you
(As many as live in this place),
And it will not be turned back.*

*'Yet, the eyes of these people won't see
[The things that are coming into] their lives.
¹⁴ So, though they should be [preparing themselves]
And knowing what is coming to them,
No one's getting ready for war
As My wrath is approaching her crowds!*

¹⁵ *'For, when the sword arrives on the outside,
There'll be famine and plagues on the inside.
And those who carry their swords to the fields
Will thereafter die [in those fields],
While there's famine and plague in their cities.*

¹⁶ *'Then, those who try to escape
Will sit on the mountains like pigeons and know
That destruction has come because their badness,.*

¹⁷ *'So, all their hands will be weak
And all their loins will be wet,
¹⁸ As around themselves, they'll wrap sack cloth.
For, they'll be covered by shock;
Upon every face will be shame;
And every head will be bald.*

¹⁹ *'Then they'll toss their silver into the squares,
And their gold won't have any value;
For their silver and gold will not save them
In the day of the wrath of Jehovah.*

*'Then their lives won't find satisfaction,
Nor will their bellies be filled,
Since the torment for their sins will then have arrived.*

²⁰ *'Of their [silver and gold], they are proud,
So they used it to create their foul idols...
And for this, I've handed them over to filth.*

²¹ *'Yes, I will hand them to strangers
Who will then rip them to pieces.
To the pests of the earth, I will give them,
And as their spoils, they'll profane them.*

²² *'For, from them, I've now turned My face;
And to those over whom I kept watch,
Sudden destruction will come.
The attack will come when it isn't expected...
And then, they will all be profaned.*

²³ *'Yes, a great befouling will come
To a land that is filled with judgments of blood.
For, with all of their lawless ways,
This city is filled to the brim!*

*'So upon them, I will then bring
The evil ways of the nations,
And [the gentiles] will take all their homes.*

²⁴ *'I will turn away all their neighing
About how great they've become,
And the things they hold holy will then be defiled.*

²⁵ *'Yes, the time to repay has arrived,
And those who seek peace will not find it.*

²⁶ *For, there will come woe upon woe,
As message after message arrives.*

*'Then, from their prophets, they'll search for a vision;
But the law of their Priests will be gone,
As will the counsel of the king's elders.*

²⁷ *'Then, after their rulers are gone,
The peoples' hands will go limp,
And I'll do to them the same as they've done...
I'll punish them with their own judgments,
So they'll know that I am Jehovah.'*

Chapter 8

¹ It was during the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, while I was sitting in my house and all the elders of Judah were sitting before me, that the hand of Jehovah came over me. ² For I looked and I saw what appeared to be a man... but from his loins down he looked like fire, and from his loins up he looked as bright as molten bronze. ³ Then he stretched out what appeared to be a hand, and he lifted me by the decorative fringes on my clothes. In a wind, he lifted me up between the ground and the sky and he blew me back to JeruSalem. Then in this vision from God, I found myself looking north toward the [city] gate, and there [I saw] a monument to [the god], The Consumer.

⁴ In this vision; {Look!} there in the plains, I saw the glory of Jehovah the God of IsraEl. ⁵ And He said to me: 'O son of man; Now raise your eyes and look toward the north!'

So I raised my eyes toward the north and I saw that just north of the gate (on the east side of the Altar) there was the idol of Jealousy that was standing at the entrance [to the city]. ⁶ And He said to me:

‘O son of man;
Do you see these things that they’re doing...
These lawless deeds of the house of IsraEl
To push Me away from My Holy Place?
But you’ll see even greater and worse lawless deeds!’

⁷ So then He carried me to the threshold of the [Temple] courtyard, and there {Look!} I saw an opening in the wall. ⁸ Then He said to me: ‘O son of man; Dig [a hole] in this wall!’

So I dug [a hole] in the wall, and there {Look!} I found a door. ⁹ And He said to me:

‘Now, enter and see all the evil...
All the lawless things being done there!’

¹⁰ So I went inside and {Look!} I saw depictions of all sorts of crawling things, [unclean] animals, and all the idols of the house of IsraEl... foolish and disgusting things that had been painted on the walls.

¹¹ Then I saw seventy men among the elders of the house of IsraEl, with JaAzaniAh (the son of ShaPhan) standing in front of them, and each man was holding a smoking incense pan in his hands.

¹² And He said to me:

‘O son of man;
See what IsraEl’s elders are doing
In the darkness of these hidden rooms...
They’re saying that Jehovah is gone from the land!’

¹³ And then He said: ‘But [I’ll show you] even greater lawless things.’

¹⁴ So He carried me up to the threshold of the Gate of the [Temple] of Jehovah (the one that faces north), and there I saw women sitting and wailing for TamMuz. ¹⁵ And He said to me:

‘O son of man;
Now, after you’ve seen all of this,
You’ll see even worse being done here.’

¹⁶ So He carried me into the inner courtyard of the [Temple] of Jehovah, up to the threshold of the House of the Lord; and there between the columned porch and the Altar I saw about twenty-five men who were facing east with their backsides to the Temple of Jehovah... they were bowing to the sun in the east!

¹⁷ Then He asked me:

‘Should I not be concerned
About all of these lawless deeds
That the house of Judah is doing?
They’ve filled the land with their lawless ways...
They’ve turned from Me and provoked Me to rage!

‘And look!

They’re holding out branches of grapevines
As though they are sneering at Me!

¹⁸ ‘So, I’ll deal with them in My rage,
And My eyes will no longer spare them
Nor will I show mercy upon them.
So no matter how loud they shout in My ears...
I won’t listen to the things that they’re saying!’

Chapter 9

¹ Then He shouted into my ears with a great voice and said: ‘The punishment on this city has arrived!’

[And at that, some men appeared], and each one was carrying implements of destruction in their hands. ² {Look!} There were six men coming along the road that leads to the upper gate (the one that faces north), and they were each carrying battle axes in their hands. There was also a man in their midst who was wrapped in a robe that reached to his feet and who had a belt [covered with] sapphires that was wrapped around his waist. Then they entered [the Temple area] and stood next to the brass Altar. ³ And at that, the glory of the God of IsraEl ascended from between the cherubs and hung there between them in the open air of the [Temple].

Then He called out to the man that was dressed in the full-length robe and wore the belt of sapphires, ⁴ and said to him:

‘Now, go through the midst of the city
– Through the midst of JeruSalem –
And put a sign on the foreheads
Of the men that are groaning and deeply upset
For the lawless deeds being done there!’

⁵ And He said [to those who were carrying the axes] in my hearing:
‘Now, go through the city behind him and strike...
Don’t let your eyes spare or show mercy!’

⁶ Kill and wipe out the old and the young,
Including the women, children, and virgins...
And start here at My Most Holy Place...
But, don’t approach those that are marked with the sign!’

So they started [by destroying] the elders that were there inside the [Most Holy]. ⁷ For He said to [those who were carrying the axes]:
‘Now, go and start defiling My [Temple]...
Fill its courtyards [with those whom you’ll slay],
And strike down all who are [fleeing]!’

⁸ Then as they started their destroying, I fell to my face and yelled out:
‘O Lord! Are you going to wipe out all the remaining ones of IsraEl by pouring Your rage upon JeruSalem?’

⁹ And He told me:
‘The sins of the houses of IsraEl and Judah
Have now become just too great;
For with [bloodshed], the land’s become filled,
And the city is full of uncleanness and sin.

‘For they’re saying that Jehovah’s abandoned the land,
And that He’s no longer paying attention.

¹⁰ So My eyes won’t spare or show mercy,
And I’ll hold them to blame for their badness.’

¹¹ Then {Look!} the man who was wrapped in the full-length robe and wearing the belt around his waist returned to Him and said:
‘All that You’ve told me to do has now been accomplished!’

Chapter 10

So he went in [between the wheels] there in front of me ³ (as the cherubs were standing to the right of the place where the man had entered), and a mist started to fill the inner courtyard. ⁴ Then the glory of Jehovah (which had been hanging in the open air between the cherubs) entered the Temple, and [the inner courtyard] became filled with the cloud, as well as with the brightness of the glory of Jehovah.

⁵ Meanwhile, I could hear the sounds of the wings of the cherubs coming from the outer courtyard, which was like the voice of God when He speaks. ⁶ And they said this to the man who was wrapped in the holy robe:

‘Go between the wheels that are under the cherubs And carry out some of the fire!’

So he entered and stood next to the wheels. ⁷ Then a cherub stuck his hands into the midst of the fire that was under the cherubs and he grabbed some of the [fire] and placed it in the hands of the man that was wearing the holy robe... who then took it and left.

⁸ Well, as I was looking at the cherubs, I noticed that they had what appeared to be the hands of men between their wings. ⁹ And {Look!} I noticed the four wheels that were standing beside each of the cherubs (there was one wheel for each cherub). These wheels looked like peridots, ¹⁰ and there appeared to be wheels within each of the four wheels, ¹¹ but their four parts didn’t move as they traveled. Then, whichever way the [cherub’s] heads looked, the [wheels] would travel in that direction... but the [wheels] didn’t turn as they moved.

¹² I also noticed that there were eyes all over the flesh [of the cherub's] hands and wings, as well as on the four wheels... ¹³ and it was then that I heard that these wheels were called 'The Chariots.' ¹⁴ [I also noticed] that [each of the cherubs] had four faces. One face was that of a cherub, the second was the face of a man, the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.

¹⁵ Well thereafter, the cherubs started moving upward; and it was then that I started to realize that these were the [same] living creatures that I had seen by the Chobar River.

¹⁶ Well, wherever the cherubs went, the wheels traveled alongside them. Yet when the cherubs flew high above the ground with their wings, the wheels next to them didn't turn. ¹⁷ And whenever they stood still, the wheels stood still; but when they flew upward, the wheels flew upward with them, because the breath of life was in [the wheels].

²⁰ Well, it was after I had first seen these animals traveling beneath the God of IsraEl back at the Chobar River that I came to realize that they were cherubs. ²¹ Each one had four faces, four wings, and what looked like the hands of a man under each wing... ²² and these [cherubs] had the same faces that I saw under the glory of the God of IsraEl in the vision by the Chobar River, and they also traveled in whichever direction that they faced.

¹ Well at that, the wind lifted me up and led me to the East Gate of the [Temple] of Jehovah. And {Look!} there on the threshold of the gate, I saw about twenty-five men. Among them I could see JaAzaniAh (the son of Azur) and PedaiAh (the son of BenaiAh)... the ones who were supposed to be guiding the people. ² And He said to me:

‘O son of man;

These are the men that think foolish things
And discuss evil plans for this city.

³ They are also the ones that are saying,
*Since we have just built homes for ourselves,
This [city] is our kettle and we are its meat!*

⁴ ‘For this, you must say this against them...
O son of man; you must now prophesy!’

⁵ Then the Breath of Jehovah came over me and He told me to say that Jehovah said this:

‘O you of the house of IsraEl;
I know the things that you’re saying,
And I know what you’ve planned in your [hearts].

⁶ To this city, you’ve brought many deaths,
And you’ve filled her roads with the murdered.

⁷ ‘Because of this,’ says Jehovah;
‘Those whom you’ve killed are the meat in her midst,
And [JeruSalem] is their kettle...
For I’ll drive you out of her midst!

⁸ ‘Since you’re so afraid of the broadsword,
I’ll be bringing the broadsword against you,’ said Jehovah,

⁹ ‘I will lead you out of her midst,
And bring My judgments against you,
For I’ll hand you over to strangers;

¹⁰ And at their hands, you will fall by the sword.

‘To the borders of IsraEl, I’ll judge you,
And you’ll know that I am Jehovah.

¹¹ Then [this city] will be your kettle no more,
And in her, you’ll not be the meat.

¹² ‘To the borders of IsraEl, I’ll judge you...
And then you’ll know that I am Jehovah.
For, you chose to overlook My Commandments,

And you didn't [respect] My decisions.
Then you walked in the ways of the nations...
Those that now have you surrounded.'

¹³ It was then that the prophecy came to pass, for PedaiAh (the son of BenaiAh) dropped dead. So I fell to my face and yelled out in a loud voice, saying, 'Alas, O Jehovah; Have You appointed those who are left in IsraEl to be totally consumed?'

¹⁴ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁵ 'O son of man;
Your brothers and your fellow captives
Have arrived at the place where I sent them.
But, those that are still in JeruSalem
Are saying these things about them:
*Because they are far from Jehovah,
We will inherit their land!*

¹⁶ 'So, tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*I'll push you away to the nations
And scatter you to many lands.
Then I'll not be someone to whom you can turn
In the places where you will be taken.*

¹⁷ 'And tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*Yet, I'll gather you back from the nations
(I'll bring you back from those places),
And I will give back [your land].*

¹⁸ *For by that time, you will have rejected
The disgusting, lawless things that you've done.*

¹⁹ 'A new spirit and heart, I will give you...
*I'll remove your hearts made of stone
And exchange them for hearts made of flesh.*

²⁰ *So, you will then follow My orders...
You'll guard My Laws and obey them...
You'll be My people and I'll be your God!*

²¹ *'It's because of the disgusting things that you've done
And the lawless ways of your hearts,
That your hearts have chosen to do such [bad] things,
And caused Me to pour your guilt on your heads,* says Jehovah.

²² Then the cherubs lifted their wings [and started flying], as the wheels moved alongside them and the glory of the God of IsraEl was above them. ²³ So the glory of Jehovah then arose from the midst of the city and settled on the mountain that sits in front of it. ²⁴ And at that, the wind picked me up and blew me back to the land of the Chaldeans (back to the land of our captivity) in this vision that came from the Breath of God.

Well, after I came out of this vision that I was seeing, ²⁵ I told [my fellow] captives every word that the Lord had spoken to me.

Chapter 12

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me again and said:

² 'O son of man;

You live in the midst of unrighteous [men]...

Those who have eyes that can't see

And those who have ears that can't hear;

For, they are a house in rebellion.

³ 'So you, O son of man,

Must go and gather the things of a captive,

Then act like someone in prison...

[You must sit] there before them throughout the whole day.

'Before them, you must act like a captive...

Someone who was carried away

And taken to some other place,

So that they will be able to see

What a house in rebellion they've been.

⁴ 'You must set your things of a captive

In front of their eyes, throughout the whole day,

And walk as a captive before them each night.

⁵ ‘Dig a hole in the wall and crawl in it,
⁶ And carry [your things] on your shoulders...
Act as though you are trying to hide,
Then cover your face so you can’t see the ground.
For, to the house of IsraEl, I’ve made you a sign.’

⁷ Well, I did that... everything that He told me to do. I brought out the items of captivity that day, and that evening I dug a hole through the wall for myself (by hand), and I crawled into it as though I was hiding. And thereafter, I carried my things on my shoulders before them.

⁸ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me the next morning, and said:

⁹ ‘O son of man;
The house of IsraEl (those who are now in rebellion)
Didn’t ask you what you were doing.

¹⁰ So, tell them this concerning their rulers...
Those who are giving direction
To JeruSalem and its people.

‘Say that Jehovah has spoken.

¹¹ Then, explain to them that you’re acting out signs
Of the things that will happen to them.
For, [in the same way as you’re acting],
They will be carried away.

¹² ‘Say that the one who rules in their midst
Will bear his things on his shoulders.
Then, he’ll dig a hole in a wall with his hands,
Which he will crawl into and hide.

‘He’ll cover himself, so he can’t be seen
In a place where he can’t see the ground.

¹³ Then around him, I’ll spread out My net,
And he will be caught in its wraps.

‘Then, off to Babylon, I’ll lead him...

Yes, into the land of Chaldea...

But he won’t be able to see it,
And there, he’ll come to his end.

¹⁴ ‘Thereafter, I’ll scatter his helpers
And those who’ve been his assistants
To the [four] winds [of the earth]...
I’ll send the broadsword [to chase] them away.

¹⁵ ‘And they’ll know that I am Jehovah,
When they’re scattered among many nations...
[For, wherever they go], they’ll be scattered.

¹⁶ ‘Yet, among their numbers, I’ll still leave a few
As survivors of the sword, famine, and plague
To speak of these things in great detail
To all the nations where they will be sent.
They’ll also speak of how lawless they’ve been...
And they’ll know that I am Jehovah.’

¹⁷ And thereafter, the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁸ ‘O son of man;
In grief, you will now eat your bread,
And in torment and affliction, drink your water.

¹⁹ You must speak to the men of this land,
And tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*‘Soon, there will be no more bread,
And the drinking water will vanish
Both in IsraEl and JeruSalem.
Then, you will become extinct in the land,
And the violence among those who live there
Will finally have come to an end.*

²⁰ *‘The cities where you dwell will be [empty]
As extinction comes to your land,
So you’ll know that I am Jehovah.’*

²¹ Thereafter, the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

²² ‘O son of man; Why are all the people saying this proverb about IsraEl?

*The days [that he speaks of] are still far away,
And all the visions have perished.*

²³ ‘Because of this, tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*I will turn their proverb around
And the house of IsraEl will say this no more.
Instead, they will say that the days have arrived,
As have the words of the visions!*

²⁴ ‘And [you must also say this]:
*False visions will come to an end,
And there’ll be no more speaking of omens
To curry the favor of IsraEl’s sons.*

²⁵ *For, after I tell them what I will do,
I’ll act and not stretch out the time.*

‘Yes, tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*In your days, O you house in rebellion,
I’ll just say the words and then act!’*

²⁶ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me again and said:

²⁷ ‘O son of man;
See how IsraEl is rebelling,
For this is what they are saying:
*The visions he sees are of some distant time,
And he prophesies things [that won’t happen for years]!*

²⁸ ‘Because of this, tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*I’ll no longer stretch out the words that I speak;
For now, I’ll speak and then do it!’*

Chapter 13

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² ‘O son of man;
Against IsraEl’s prophets, you must now testify
(Those who [say they can tell what will come])!
You must speak to these prophets and tell them
That their prophecies spring from their hearts.

‘So, you must prophesy and tell them
To hear the Word of Jehovah;
³ For, these are the words that He spoke:

*‘Woe to those who speak prophecies
From ideas that come from their hearts
And who have seen nothing at all...
Those following the direction of their spirits!*

⁴ ‘O IsraEl;
*Your prophets are like foxes that live in in fields,
⁵ For they do not take firm positions.
To the house of IsraEl, they don’t gather flocks,
Nor are they getting them ready for war
By warning them about the Day of the Lord.*

⁶ *‘The visions that they see are all false,
And all of their omens are useless;
For they say that Jehovah has spoken,
And they make their words sound important;
Yet, they were not sent by Jehovah.*

⁷ *‘Haven’t your visions all proven false...
Aren’t the words that you’ve spoken untrue?
Since you speak when I haven’t spoken, says Jehovah!*

⁸ *‘For this, I want you to tell them, said Jehovah,
That because their words are all false
And they prophesy things that are foolish...
Because of this, I’m against them.*

⁹ *‘So, toward those prophets, I’ll stretch out My hand (Toward those who are seeing false visions
And those who declare foolish things
When they give instructions to My people);
Then, among [the faithful of] IsraEl,
Their [names] will never be written,
And they’ll know that I am Jehovah!*

¹⁰ *'For, they are misleading My people
By saying there's peace, when there's really no peace...
So the people are plastering walls that will fall.*

¹¹ *'They should tell those who are plastering walls:
Your [walls] will soon fall and the rain will pour in.
For I'm sending rocks to be hurled against you,
And then, your [walls] will just drop...
[I'll send] a mighty wind to destroy them!*

¹² *{Look!} And after the walls have all fallen,
They will then come here and ask:
What happened to all of the plaster
That we used to make repairs on these [walls]?*

¹³ *'It's because of this, says Jehovah,
That I will send out a wind,
Which will rip down [their walls] in My anger;
And then, My rage will flood in.*

*'In My rage, I'll cause rocks to be thrown
As I bring it all to an end!*

¹⁴ *For I'll raze the walls that they've plastered...
I'll lay them out on the ground,
And then, I'll expose their foundations.*

*'And [you who've foretold better things]
Will then be worn out by their shouting...
And you'll know that I am Jehovah.*

¹⁵ *'Yes, against those walls I'll wear out My rage,
And on those who are plastering them;
For, all their walls will soon fall.*

*'Yet [the problem] is not with the walls
Or with those applying the plaster;*

¹⁶ *It's with those who speak well of their future...
Those who [come to] them and speak about peace,
When there really won't be any peace, says Jehovah.*

¹⁷ ‘And you, O son of man, must now fix your face
Against the daughters of your people...
Against those who now prophesy
According to the things in their hearts.
Against them, you must prophesy this...
¹⁸ Tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*‘Woe to those who sew pillows
That are made to be placed under elbows,
And those who create all sizes of veils
That they say will serve as protection...
Those misleading the lives of My people!*

¹⁹ *‘You profane Me in front of My people
For a handful of barley or a few scraps of bread.
You’re ending lives that don’t have to die,
And offer protection to souls that won’t live...
You promise foolish things to My people!*

²⁰ *‘And because of this, says Jehovah,
I am opposed to your pillows,
Which you’re using to gather their souls.
So, from your arms, I will rip them away,
And lead away those you’ve misled...
For, they will soon all be scattered.*

²¹ *‘I will also rip off your veils
To save My people from your [wicked] hands.
No, into your hands, they’ll not fall again...
And you’ll know that I am Jehovah.*

²² *‘You’ve perverted the hearts of the righteous
And strengthened the hands of the lawless...
You’ve failed to turn them from bad, so they’d live!*

²³ *‘And because of this;
You will not see false visions again,
And you won’t see any more omens.*

*For, from your hands, I'll rescue My people...
And you'll know that I am Jehovah.'*

Chapter 14

¹ Well after that, elders from among the people of IsraEl came to me and they all sat down in front of me. ² Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

³ 'Son of man;
The thoughts in the hearts of these people are set;
So, lay out their badness before them,
Since I will now give them an answer...

⁴ Speak and tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*'Any man from the house of IsraEl,
Who may start to think in his heart
That he'll not be punished for his badness,
Should arrange his face and then come to the Prophet,
And I (Jehovah) will tell him his thoughts*

⁵ *So I can change the house of IsraEl's hearts...
Those whose hearts are so far from Me.*

⁶ 'So, speak to the house of IsraEl
And tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*Turn from the things that you're doing...
Turn your faces from your godless deeds!*

⁷ *'For a man – any man – from the house of IsraEl
Or from among foreign converts
Who no longer chooses to [walk in My ways]
And starts to think in his heart
That he should never be punished
For all the bad things that he's doing,
Must arrange his face and come to the Prophet,
Then ask, and I will reply
About the things over which he's concerned.*

⁸ *'For I'll fix My face against such a man
And assign him to a place in extinction...
From the midst of My people, I'll lift him away...
And he'll know that I am Jehovah.*

⁹ *'And if a prophet should say that he's been misled,
And he says I'm the One who misled him;
Against him, I'll stretch out My hand
And remove him from IsraEl's midst.*

¹⁰ *'So each one who [comes before Me] and asks
Must bear the punishment he's due
For all of his unrighteous acts...
According to the things that he's done.*

*'Then the sins of the prophets will come down on them,
¹¹ So the house of IsraEl will not stay misled
And remain defiled by its errors.
Then, they'll be My people and I'll be their God, says Jehovah.'*

¹² Well after that, the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹³ *'O son of man;
If a land sins against Me and falls into sin;
Against [that land], I will stretch out My hand,
And break its reliance on bread...
Famine I'll send [to that land]
And remove men and beasts from upon it.*

¹⁴ *'But, should such good men be found in that land
As Noah, DaniEl, and Job;
I will save such a man, says Jehovah.*

¹⁵ *'And if I must bring ferocious wild beasts
As a punishment upon such a land;
It will become an extinction...
None will pass through it again
Because of the faces of the wild beasts I'll send.*

¹⁶ *'But, if three such good men are found there;
As I live, says Jehovah;
Though its sons and daughters will not be saved...
[Those three men] will be saved,
And the land will be thereafter ruined.*

¹⁷ *'Or if I should bring the sword to that land
– If I say, Let the broadsword pass through it –
And I cause men and beasts to be lifted from there...*

¹⁸ *If three such men can be found in its midst;
As I live, says Jehovah,
Though its sons and daughters will not be saved,
Those [three men] will be rescued.*

¹⁹ *'Or, if I should send a plague to that land
And pour My rage upon it in blood,
Destroying both men and wild beasts...*

²⁰ *And among them, three such men can be found
As Noah, DaniEl, and Job;
As I live, says Jehovah,
Its sons and daughters will not be saved...
For the only thing that can save them
Is becoming as righteous [as those three men]!*

²¹ *'Then Jehovah said:
To JeruSalem, I'll be sending four things:
The sword, famine, and plague,
As well as ferocious wild beasts...
They'll destroy all the men and their cattle.*

²² *{Look!} And any of those who remain
(Those who escape all these things)
Will then be carried away,
Along with their sons and their daughters.*

*'Then {Look!} they will be brought here to you,
And you'll know of the things that they thought,
As well as of the things they have done.*

*'And though you'll be saddened by the harm that I'll bring
(All that I'll do to JeruSalem),
23 [Your mind] will then be relieved,
Because you will see their ways and their thoughts,
And you'll know all the things that I did
Weren't done without a good reason, says Jehovah.'*

Chapter 15

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² '[Let Me ask] you this, O son of man:
What happens to the wood from all of the vines
That live among trees in the forests?

³ Do they find some use for this wood...
Do they use their pieces as hangers? ⁴ No!

'{Look!} Each year, they're thrown into the fire,
As [people] are cleaning [their yards].
So, the wood disappears in the end,
Since no use for it can be found!

⁵ And even whole pieces aren't useful;
For, after they're burned in the flames,
They no longer have any value.'

⁶ 'So Jehovah said this:
*As I've put the vines among trees
To be burned in fires and consumed...
That's what I've done to those in JeruSalem.*

⁷ '*For against them, I've now set My face,
And fire, they'll have to [endure]...
For fire will [come and] consume them.
And [when they see that] it's My face against them,
They'll know that I am Jehovah.*

⁸ '*I'll appoint [their] land to extinction,
Because they fell into sin, said Jehovah.'*

Chapter 16

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

² ‘O son of man;

To JeruSalem, you must now testify
About all of her lawless deeds!

³ So, tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*‘Your roots and your birth are in CanaAn,
Where an Amorite man was your father,
And a Hittite [woman], your mother.*

⁴ *‘And concerning your birth and the day you were born;
Your naval wasn’t cut, nor were you washed,
No one [cleansed] you with salt,
And you weren’t wrapped up in a blanket.*

⁵ *‘For their eyes didn’t feel enough pity for you
To do such things on your behalf;
They just threw you into the fields,
Since your soul had been deformed from your birth.*

⁶ *‘Then I came and saw you defiled in your blood,
And I said to you, Come to life!
Yes, I said this to you in your blood:
Come to life... become many!*

⁷ *‘I made you like crops that grow in the fields,
Then you became many and great
And you entered the city of cities.*

*‘Thereafter, your breasts and your hair both grew full...
But you were still indecent and naked.*

⁸ *‘It was then that I came and beheld you,
And I saw that it was your time...
A time for you to find rest.*

*‘So I opened and spread out My wings over you
And covered your indecent condition.*

Over you, I then swore an oath,
And concluded a Sacred Agreement, says Jehovah.
So, that's when you became Mine.

⁹ 'I bathed you in water and washed off your blood,
And then, I rubbed you with oil.

¹⁰ I dressed you in [the best] colored clothes...
In blue and linen, I had wrapped you,
And I placed a braided belt [on your hips].

¹¹ 'I decked you with ornamentation...
I put bracelets on [both] of your [wrists],
And around your neck, put a necklace.

¹² 'I gave you a ring for your nose,
As well as disks for your ears,
And to boast, a garland [to wear on] your head.

¹³ 'So, you were adorned in silver and gold;
Your wraps were the finest of linen;
You had braided hair and colored clothes,
And you ate the finest of flour,
As well as the best honey and oil.

'So, you became exceedingly [great],
And you prospered as one who's a [queen].

¹⁴ Among the nations, your name became known,
And this was true of your beauty;
For I'd made your beauty complete...
I'm the One who ordered it for you, says Jehovah.

¹⁵ 'Then, on your beauty, you came to rely,
And you gave away [sex], because of your fame...
You poured it out on the roads.

¹⁶ 'Then you [ripped] your clothes, so that you could make strings
To tie all your idols together,
And you used them to do what's immoral.

*So now, there's no way that you can return...
No way may you come back to Me!*

¹⁷ *'Then you took the things of which you could boast
(The silver and gold that I gave you)
And made idols, with which you've had sex.*

¹⁸ *You dressed them up in your colored clothes,
And set before them My incense and oil.*

¹⁹ *'You took the bread that I made
With the fine flour, honey, and oil,
And set it in front of their faces
As pleasing scents and aromas.*

*'And after you did all of this, says Jehovah.
²⁰ You took the sons and daughters you bore
And offered them up to [your gods]
Until [they had all] been consumed.*

²¹ *'Yes you killed them to make your gods happy...
You gave all of your children to them!
²² And this is much more disgusting
Than the rest of the bad things you've done.*

*'For, you forgot the days of your youth
When you were indecent and naked,
And lived befouled in your blood.*

²³ *And now that you've done all your evil,
Woe, woe, upon you, says Jehovah!*

²⁴ *'A whorehouse you've built for yourself,
And you've posted signs in the squares.*

²⁵ *You've erected them on each corner,
And there, you've wasted your beauty.*

*'Between your legs, you've led all who would pass.
And again, you made it much worse...*

²⁶ *You had sex with the sons of Egyptians...
With the flesh of those who live just next door!*

*Yes, you have done all these bad things
That have driven Me into a rage.*

²⁷ *'So, {Look!} against you, I'll stretch My hand,
And I'll take away all your Laws,
Then hand you to those who detest you...
To the daughters of the Philistines,
Whose godless ways you have followed.*

²⁸ *'With Assyria's sons, you also had sex,
Which brought you no satisfaction...
You had sex, but it wasn't enough.*

²⁹ *'So in Canaan's land, you also had sex,
As well as with the Chaldeans...
But you still couldn't find satisfaction.*

³⁰ *'O what will I do to your heart, asks Jehovah,
As you are doing these bad things...
The works of a woman who's known as a whore,
And who's even had sex with her daughters!*

³¹ *'Whorehouses, you've built upon every [street],
But you don't act as the madam!*

³² *'An adulterous woman is all that you are...
One whose man acts as her pimp!*

³³ *'You've even paid those with whom you've had sex...
You've paid wages to all of your lovers
As inducements for them to stay near
And engage in all of your whoring!*

³⁴ *'Your perversions are worse than all others;
For with other whores, you've even had sex...
You paid them (they didn't pay you);
So, what you have done is perversion!*

³⁵ *'Because of this, O you whore;
Hear the Word of Jehovah:*

³⁶ 'Because you paid others with your copper coins,

*Your shame will soon be uncovered...
Your whoring with all of your lovers,
As well as your evil thoughts...
Your lawless deeds and the blood of your young,
Which you have offered [to idols].*

³⁷ *'So, because of these things that you've done,
I'll gather your lovers against you
And mix those whom you've hated among them.
Together, I'll bring them against you
Until they have you surrounded.
I'll uncover your evils before them,
And then, they'll all see your shame.*

³⁸ *'I'll punish you as an adulteress,
And I will pour out your blood...
In My zeal, I'll appoint you for blood,
³⁹ And I'll hand you over to them.*

*'Then, they will cut down your whorehouses...
They'll demolish your base, and rip off your clothes,
Then take all the things about which you boast...
They'll leave you indecent and naked again.*

⁴⁰ *'Against you, they will lead mobs
Who'll stone you with rocks and stab you with swords,
⁴¹ Then burn your whorehouses with fire...
They will wreak vengeance upon you,
There before other women.*

*'But I'll turn you away from your whoring,
And return the money you've paid to your lovers...
⁴² Against you, I'll slacken My rage
And remove the jealous zeal I once had...
So I can rest and be anxious no more.*

⁴³ *'Because you forgot the days of your youth
And brought Me regret with your actions;*

*{Look!} I'll bring them down on your head, says Jehovah,
And then, you'll be godless no more!*

⁴⁴ 'For against you, they all have said this:

The daughter is just like the mother;

⁴⁵ And truly, you're just like your mother...

A woman released by her man,

And one who abandoned her children,

As well as her brothers and sisters...

Yes, she also pushed them away,

Along with her husband and children.

'For an Amorite man was your father,

And a Hittite woman, your mother.

⁴⁶ Samaria is your big sister,

Whose daughters have lived to your left.

'Your younger sister, who lives on your right,

Along with her daughters, is Sodom.

⁴⁷ And in their ways, you have traveled

– Their lawless deeds, you've done also –

So their ways are now better than yours!

⁴⁸ 'As I live, says Jehovah;

Has your sister, Sodom, or her daughters

Ever acted like you and your daughters?

⁴⁹ 'The sin of Sodom (your sister) was pride.

For, though she had plenty of bread

(She and her daughters had more than enough),

This thing that was found among them was true:

They offered no aid to the needy and poor...

⁵⁰ Before Me they bragged and broke laws,

And as you saw, I removed them!

⁵¹ 'Yet, Samaria didn't sin with half of your sins,

And you're now more lawless she.

All the lawless things that you've done

Prove your sisters more righteous.

⁵² So now, you must carry your torment!

*'By your sins, you've corrupted your sisters...
For your lawless ways are much worse than theirs,
So that they now look better than you!
Yes, be ashamed and accept your dishonor,
For it's you who made them look better.*

⁵³ *'So from them, I'll remove My rejection
– The rejection of Sodom and her daughters –
And I'll remove Samaria's rejection
(As well as that of her daughters)...
And then, I'll wipe you away from their midst!*

⁵⁴ *'So, you must now bear the torment and disgrace
For all that you did to provoke Me.*

⁵⁵ *And your sister, Sodom, and her daughters
Will be restored as they were at the first,
Along with Samaria and her daughters,
Who'll be as they were [in their youth].
Yes, her daughters will all be restored
As they had been [long ago].*

⁵⁶ *'Wasn't Sodom (your sister) a reason to boast
In the days of your pride,*

⁵⁷ *Before your evils were seen...
Those evils for which you're now being scorned
By all of Syria's daughters
And by those who are living around you...
Like the daughters of the Philistines...
Those who live just next door?*

⁵⁸ *'So, because of your godless ways,
And the lawless deeds that you've done, says Jehovah;*

⁵⁹ *I'll do to you as you've done to Me...
For you've disgraced the promise you made
By breaking your Agreement with Me.*

⁶⁰ *'Yet, I will remember My oath...
The one that I made with you in your youth,
To establish My Agreement with you through the age...
⁶¹ Then perhaps you'll remember the right ways to act.

'But for following in the ways of your sisters
(Both the younger and older),
You will now be despised.

'But then, I'll give them to you,
And you can start teaching them
(But, not of your Agreement with Me.
⁶² For My Sacred Agreement will just be with you)...
And you'll all know that I am Jehovah.

⁶³ 'So remember, and then be ashamed...
Do not open your mouth,
Since your face has been so dishonored.
And I am the One who has born the cost
Of the sins that you have committed, says Jehovah!'*

Chapter 17

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,
² 'O son of man;
Tell this story and sing it as a song
Before the house of IsraEl...
³ Tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*'There was a great eagle with very great wings
Whose claws were long and outstretched.
To Lebanon, He was then led,
Where He perched on the choicest of cedars.

⁴ 'The most tender tips, He plucked off,
And to the land of CanaAn, He took them;
Then He placed them in a city with walls.

⁵ 'He also took a seed from that land
And planted it in ground fit for sowing*

*(A place with plenty of water),
And He arranged for it to be tended.*

*6 'Thereafter, [the seed] grew into a vine,
Which proved that it would be great.
Above, it grew many branches of vines,
As its roots [spread out] underneath it...
It became a vine with layers of vines,
And its tendrils kept spreading abroad.*

*7 'There was also another great eagle
That had large wings and [long] claws.
So {Look!} the grapevine then twisted toward him,
As did its roots and its branches.*

*'She reached toward him from her water,
Which pulled her from her place in the sun...
8 Though the soil in which she was planted was good,
And though she had plenty of water.
For, she was fat and putting out buds,
And as a great vine, was bearing much fruit.*

*9 'Then Jehovah asked:
So will she continue to prosper...
Will she continue to have tender roots ...
Won't all her fruits start to rot?*

*'Yes, those early shoots will all dry,
But not because of some great mighty arm
Or because an army had pulled up her roots.*

*10 '{Look!} This fat one will no longer prosper
Because she'll be touched by hot winds
And she will be dried up by drought...
When the east winds blow, she will shrivel!'*

*11 Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:
'Ask the rebellious house what all of this meant...
Yes, [go ahead and just] ask them!*

¹² ‘{Look!} Babylon’s king will come to JeruSalem
And capture her king and her rulers;
Then, to Babylon, they’ll be taken.

¹³ ‘Yes, he’ll take the seed of the kingdom,
Then force him to swear an oath of allegiance...
As he carries the rulers away from their land.

¹⁴ ‘So the kingdom will then be so weak
That it won’t be able to lift itself up.
And in order for them to survive,
They’ll have to keep their treaty with him.

¹⁵ ‘But [the king] will thereafter revolt
And send his envoys to Egypt
To beg them for horses and soldiers.

‘Will he succeed...
Will the one who disobeyed be preserved...
Will the one who broke his oath then be saved?

¹⁶ ‘*As I live, says Jehovah;
Surely, here in the place of the king,
He’ll disgrace the One who allowed him to rule
And he’ll break the oath of his treaty.
So to Babylon, he will be taken,
And there is where he will die.*

¹⁷ ‘*No, he won’t succeed despite his great power
Or because of the [strength] of his [army].
For though Pharaoh will join him in war
And build many weapons and siege mounds,
Which will bring many lives to an end;
¹⁸ Because [the king] will have disgraced his oath
(The one that he will swear before Me)...
When he breaks the agreement he made
({Look!} The one over which he held up his hand)...
For this, he will not escape.*

¹⁹ ‘So, tell him that thus says Jehovah:
*As I live... you will be disgraced
For breaking the agreement you made before Me.
So, upon your head, I’ll lay this:*

²⁰ ‘Over you, I’ll spread out My net,
*And in it, you’ll be wrapped up and captured...
Then to Babylon, you’ll be led,
Where I’ll judge you for your sins against Me.*

²¹ ‘Then your armies that are ready for battle
*Will all be cut down by swords,
And the survivors will be scattered to the [four] winds...
Then they’ll know that I (Jehovah) have spoken.’*

²² ‘Thereafter, Jehovah said:
*But then, from the choicest of cedars,
I will pluck off a top...
Yes, out of its heart, I will pluck it,
And on a high mountain, I’ll plant it.*

²³ ‘On a Mountain in IsraEl, I’ll place it...
*I’ll plant it and then it will bud,
And it will bear fruit once again.*

*‘Once more, it will be a great cedar,
And a place of resting for birds...
In the shadow of its branches, they’ll rest,
For the branches of her vines will then be restored.*

²⁴ ‘So then, all the trees in the plains
*Will know that I am Jehovah...
I’m the One who humbles the trees in their heights
And who raises those that have been laid low.*

*‘I’m the One who can dry up green trees
Or make them flourish in dryness,
Because, I am Jehovah...
So I’ve spoken, and now I will act!’*

Chapter 18

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me saying:

² ‘O son of man;

How does the proverb apply

To the land of IsraEl, which goes:

‘When the fathers eat unripe grapes,

The mouths of the children get toothaches?

³ ‘Jehovah says, As I live;

‘Will this proverb prove true among IsraEl?

⁴ ‘I’m the One who owns all their souls...

Yes the souls of both the fathers and sons.

And since they are all really Mine;

The sinners among them will die!

⁵ ‘But the one who is fair, righteous, and just...

⁶ Who doesn’t feast to idols on hills...

Whose eyes are not [filled with pride]...

Whose thoughts are of the House of IsraEl...

Who doesn’t defile the wife of his neighbor

Nor does he dirty his wife

By approaching her in menstruation...

⁷ Who does not tyrannize others...

Who asks no collateral [for loans]

(Things that he doesn’t return)...

Who takes nothing by force...

Who gives bread to the hungry and clothes to the naked...

⁸ Who doesn’t require interest on loans

(Who asks no payment of interest)...

Who turns his hand from injustice...

Who is fair when he serves as the judge

Between a man and his neighbor...

⁹ Who follows in the ways of My orders...

Who guards My Laws and obeys them...

*Such a man will be thought of as righteous,
And he will then receive life, says Jehovah.*

¹⁰ 'But, if he should father a bad son...

One who sins and sheds blood,

¹¹ And won't follow the righteous ways of his father,

But feasts before idols on mountains,

And willingly defiles the wife of his neighbor...

¹² Who tyrannizes the needy and poor

And seizes collateral by force,

Then chooses not to return it...

Who turns his eyes toward the idols,

Then practices all that is lawless,

¹³ And lends his things out for interest...

He will not receive life.

For his lawless deeds, he will die,

And his blood will be upon his [own head].

¹⁴ 'Then, if he should father a son

Who fears all the sins of his father,

And refuses to act as he did...

¹⁵ If he's one who won't feast to idols on hills,

And remembers the house of IsraEl...

If he doesn't defile the wife of his neighbor...

¹⁶ If he doesn't act like a tyrant...

If he doesn't require collateral for loans...

If he doesn't take things by force...

If he gives bread to the hungry and clothes to the naked...

¹⁷ If he doesn't turn his hand toward injustice

Or charge interest for the loans that he makes...

If he's righteous and follows My orders...

He'll live and not die for his father's sins!

¹⁸ 'But, because his father was oppressive and bad...

Because he took things by force

And was contrary among his own people...

For his unrighteous ways, he will die!

¹⁹ ‘But then, you will ask:

Why won’t the son bear the sins of his father?

It’s because he is merciful, righteous, and fair...

He’s kept My Laws and obeyed them,

And as the result, he will live...

²⁰ Just the soul that is sinning will die!

*‘So, the son won’t be blamed for his father’s bad ways,
And the father won’t be blamed for those of his son.*

Yes, the righteous ways of each person

And lawless ways of each person

Are what they will bring on themselves!

²¹ But, if the lawless one turns from what’s bad

And starts to keep My Commandments

(If he becomes merciful, righteous, and just),

He will be granted life...

Yes, he will live and not die!

²² I will forget all his sins

(No matter how many there are)...

For his righteous ways, he will live!

²³ ‘Do I wish to bring death to the lawless, asks Jehovah?

No, I want them to turn from the bad, so they’ll live!

²⁴ But, if the righteous should turn from right ways

And commit all the sins of the lawless...

If they do such things, they will die...

I’ll forget the righteous things that they’ve done

And destroy them for their errors and sins.

²⁵ ‘But then, you will say:

The ways of Jehovah aren’t right!

‘Pay attention, O house of IsraEl!

Haven’t My ways proven straight?

Aren’t yours the ways that are crooked?

²⁶ ‘When a righteous man turns from right ways,

Shouldn’t he die for his sins...

*Since he's the one who's to blame,
Isn't he the one that should die?*

²⁷ *'And when the lawless turn from bad ways...
When they start acting righteous and fair
²⁸ And recognize how godless they've been;
All these people should live...
No way should they have to die!*

²⁹ *'Yet, the house of IsraEl still claims
That the ways of Jehovah aren't straight.*

*'O house of IsraEl;
Is it really My ways that aren't straight?
Aren't yours the ways that are crooked?*

³⁰ *'Therefore, O house of IsraEl;
I'll judge each man by the things that he does, says Jehovah.
So, if you will turn from your bad ways,
You won't be punished for the bad things you've done!*

³¹ *'But, you must discard your bad ways,
As well as your irreverence toward Me...
Create for yourselves new spirits and hearts!*

*'O house of IsraEl; why should you die?
³² I want no one to die, says Jehovah...
So, return [to Me] and you'll live!'*

Chapter 19

¹ *'Now, against the rulers of IsraEl,
I want you to sing this lament:*

² *'Your mother was a lion with cubs...
For, in the midst of lions, she had many cubs.
³ Then, one of her cubs made the leap
Into becoming a lion...
He learned to attack and eat men.*

⁴ *'But the nations soon heard about him,
And in their corruption, they caught him,
Then in a cage, they brought him to Egypt.*

⁵ *'Well, when she saw that [her son] had been caught
And that she had lost her support;
She took another one of her cubs
And made him grow into a lion.*

⁶ *'So he started to walk among lions,
And very soon, he became one...
He captured prey and ate many men.*

⁷ *'In their cities, he then boldly fed
Until the whole land was destroyed
And filled with the sounds of his roaring.*

⁸ *'So the nations all came from their places...
They surrounded and then they attacked him...
In their corruption, they threw nets and caught him.*

⁹ *'Into a cage, he was put,
And to the king of Babylon, they took him.
So, because he was kept in a cage,
His roar was no longer heard
In IsraEl's mountains, thereafter.*

¹⁰ *'Now, this mother was much like a grape vine
Or a pomegranate planted near water.
And because there was so much water,
Soon she grew buds and fruit.*

¹¹ *'Among the head tribe, she became a strong rod,
And she was esteemed for her greatness
Amidst the rest of those great trunks [of trees]...
And she saw that her branches were what made her great.*

¹² *'But in rage, she was thereafter broken...
Yes, she was cut to the ground
And by burning winds, she was dried.*

*Then her choicest of branches (the rods of her strength),
Were punished, dried out, and burned.*

¹³ 'For, she'd moved herself into the desert...

To a land that was thirsty and dry.

¹⁴ So the flames on her choicest of branches

Also reached down and burned her,

Which left her without the rod of her strength.

So, to her tribe, she became a sad song

About one who will surely be missed.'

Chapter 20

¹ It was in the seventh year, in the fifth month, and on the tenth day of the month that men from among the elders of the house of IsraEl came before me to ask [things] from Jehovah. So after they all came and sat down in front of my face, ² the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

³ 'O son of man; speak to IsraEl's elders
And tell them that thus says Jehovah:

'Have you come to ask something of Me?

As I live, I will not reply, says Jehovah!

⁴ But I'll punish you, O sons of men,

For the lawless deeds of your fathers...

Yes, this is what you must tell them!

⁵ 'And tell them that thus says Jehovah:

From the day that I took the house of IsraEl

And to Jacob's seed, I became known,

(When I let them know Me in Egypt)...

Yes, when I took hold of their hands

And told them that I am Jehovah their God;

⁶ Since the day that I took them into My hands

And led them from Egypt's land

Into the land that I had prepared

(A land that flowed with honey and milk...

Honeycombs that are far greater

Than those in all other lands),

⁷ *And I told them that they must abandon
The disgusting things in front of their eyes
And the defilements of Egypt...
Since then, I've been Jehovah their God!*

⁸ *'But then, they revolted against Me
And refused to hear what I said.
Their disgusting things, they didn't remove
(The things [they could see] with their eyes),
Nor did they leave the bad ways of Egypt.*

*'So I threatened to pour out My rage upon them,
And finish My anger among them in Egypt.*

⁹ *But I acted so My Name would not be profaned
Before the nations among which they lived
(Those to whom I had made [Myself] known)...
And I led them from Egypt's land.*

¹⁰ *'Then I led them from Egypt into the desert,
¹¹ Where I gave them My orders and all of My Laws...
Which, if a man does them, bring life.*

¹² *'And I gave them My Sabbaths to serve as a sign
That they knew that I am Jehovah...
The One who is making them holy.*

¹³ *'But, in the desert, they made Me feel bitter;
For, they didn't follow My orders
And My Laws, they then pushed away
(Which, if a man does them, bring life),
And they profaned all My Sabbaths.*

*'So, it was there in the desert
That I threatened to pour out My rage
And to completely wipe them away.*

¹⁴ *Yet, I didn't, so My Name would not be profaned
Among the gentiles who saw that I led them.*

¹⁵ *'Then, in the desert, I lifted My hand
So as not to bring them into the land
(A land that flows with honey and milk...
Honeycombs that are greater than in all other lands);*

¹⁶ *For they'd pushed away all My Laws,
And they chose not to follow My orders...
They also profaned all My Sabbaths,
And they followed the desires of their hearts.*

¹⁷ *'Yet, My eyes continued to spare them...
I did not wipe them away
Or destroy them there in the desert.*

¹⁸ *'In the desert, I then warned their children
Not to follow the laws of their fathers,
Nor to obey their [bad] rules...
Not defile themselves with their father's ways,
¹⁹ For I am Jehovah their God.*

*'[I told them that they must] follow My orders...
They must keep My Laws and obey them,
²⁰ And keep My Sabbath days holy.
For, this is the sign between them and Me
That I am Jehovah their God.*

²¹ *'But against Me, they also rebelled,
And their children wouldn't follow My orders...
They didn't guard My Laws or obey them
(The Laws that bring life to all who'll obey)
And they profaned all My Sabbaths.*

*'So I spoke to them in My anger...
I threatened to pour My rage upon them
And finish My wrath in the desert.*

²² *'So against them, I then turned My hand
And I acted because of Myself...
That My Name would not be profaned
Before the nations, from which they'd been led.*

²³ *'In the desert, I lifted My hand
To scatter them among all the nations,
²⁴ Because they'd refused to follow My Laws,
And My orders, they'd just pushed away!
Yes, they had profaned all My Sabbaths,
And they followed their father's ideas.*

²⁵ *'So I [let them do as] their fathers had said
And to follow their laws that do not bring life...
²⁶ Yes I let their orders defile them!
Then I scattered all those who opened the womb...
I completely wiped them away
So they'd know that I am Jehovah!*

²⁷ *'And because of these things (O son of man);
You must speak to the house of IsraEl
And tell them that thus says Jehovah:*

*'To this day, your fathers have enraged Me
By the sins they've committed against Me.
²⁸ For, though I brought them into the land
That I gave to them when I lifted My hand...
When they saw its shady trees and [beautiful] hills,
To other gods, they still sacrificed.*

*'So, on them and their gifts, I then brought My wrath;
For to other gods, they also had offered
Drink offerings, incense, and pleasing aromas.*

²⁹ *'Then I asked:
What's so great about your high places
That you're still choosing to go there?
(For they've called them High Places down to this day).*

³⁰ *'So tell IsraEl that thus says Jehovah:
Do all the lawless deeds of your fathers...
With their disgusting ways, dirty yourselves!
³¹ Offer them your first-fruits and gifts,
Then pass your children through fire!*

*Yes, defile yourselves in all of your thoughts
As you've continued to do to this day!*

'So house of IsraEl; must I give a reply?

As I live, says Jehovah;

If I should give you an answer,

Would your spirits pay any attention?

³² Won't you say that you'd rather be like the nations...

Like all the [other] tribes of the earth

Who serve before wood and stone idols?

³³ 'Because of this, as I live, says Jehovah;

I'll dominate you with a strong hand

And with My arm raised high in great rage!

³⁴ 'But I'll also lead you out of those nations,

And take you away from those places

Where My strong hand has sent you

With My arm raised high in great rage!

³⁵ 'Then I'll lead you into the deserts,

And there, before all the nations,

I'll argue your case with them face to face,

³⁶ Just as I did for your fathers

Back in the deserts of Egypt...

Yes, that's how I'll then be your judge, says Jehovah.

³⁷ 'I'll lead you away with My rod,

And bring you back [to your homeland].

³⁸ Then, I'll pick away all those among you

Who are irreverent and rebellious...

I'll remove them from those who [are righteous],

And to the land of IsraEl, they'll never return,

So you'll know that I am Jehovah.

³⁹ 'Jehovah says:

As for you, O house of IsraEl;

Move away from your evil deeds,

And then you must listen to Me!

*You may not profane My Holy Name
With your gifts and those [wicked] deeds
⁴⁰ That you practiced on My Holy Mountain,
And upon all of IsraEl's hills.*

*'Jehovah says:
IsraEl must serve Me there in their land;
For, that is where I'll receive them
And it's where I'll keep watch on their first fruits...
The first-fruits of all that they offer,
And the rest of their most-holy things.*

*⁴¹ 'And when I bring them back from the nations
(From the places where they will be scattered),
I'll accept their pleasing aromas again,
And I will be holy among them
Before the eyes of [the nations]...*

*⁴² And they'll know that I am Jehovah
When I bring them back to IsraEl's land...
The land that I gave to their fathers.*

*⁴³ 'Then, you will consider your ways,
And think about all the bad things you did
In order to make yourselves dirty,
And you'll slap your own faces for your evil ways...*

⁴⁴ For you'll know that I am Jehovah.

*'You'll also know that I did all these things
So My Name would not be profaned
By the bad things you practice and your evil ways, says Jehovah.*

⁴⁵ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

⁴⁶ 'O son of man;

Now, turn your face toward TeMan and look...

You must look toward [the land in the south];

Then, you must prophesy this

Toward the woods that lead to the Negev!

⁴⁷ ‘You must tell those in the Negev’s wooded lands
To hear the Word of Jehovah!

For, this is what He’s declared:

{Look!} Within you, I’ll now light a fire

That will burn up all of your trees

(Both those that are green and those that are dry).

And after this fire has been lit,

It won’t be extinguished thereafter!

‘All your faces will soon be consumed

By winds that come from the north and the east.

⁴⁸ And all flesh will know that I am Jehovah

When I light a fire that can’t be put out.’

⁴⁹ But I said: ‘O Lord... O Jehovah... by no means! For then they will ask, Aren’t you just telling us a parable?’

Chapter 21

¹ And the Lord replied to me saying:

² ‘Because of these things, O son of man,

[You must speak against them] this prophecy...

Toward JeruSalem, you must now set your face

And look toward its Most Holy place;

Then to IsraEl, you must prophesy this...

³ Tell IsraEl that thus says Jehovah:

‘{Look!} I’m the One who is coming against you;

So I’ll pull My sword from its sheath

And destroy your unrighteous and lawless.

⁴ ‘I’ll pull My sword out of its sheath

([Those men] from the north and the east);

⁵ And after I pull them out of the sheath,

I won’t be putting them back,

So that all will know that I am Jehovah!

⁶ ‘And you, O son of man;

Groan as though you have broken your hips...

Before their eyes, you must moan in grief.
7 And when they ask why you are groaning,
This is what you must tell them:

*‘The message that comes will break [all your] hearts
And all your hands will grow feeble.
For all flesh and all breathing will come to an end
And all [bottoms] will be tainted by wetness.*

8 *‘Look... it’s coming and now it will happen,
Says Jehovah, [your] God.’*

9 And thereafter, the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

‘O son of man;

Now you must prophesy this...

You must tell them that thus says Jehovah:

‘O broadsword, O broadsword, be angry and sharp,

10 Then slay the victims for slaughter.

Be sharpened until you are shiny,

Then prepare for numbing and slay!

Treat [them all] with contempt,

And chop down all of their trees!

11 ‘For He’s readied the sword that He holds in his hand
(This sword which He has just sharpened)

And prepared it for use by the one who stabs through.

12 ‘So, cry out and shriek, O sons of men,

For upon my people, it’s coming,

And upon all of IsraEl’s guides...

Yes, this sword [is coming to them]!

13 ‘It will come to all of my people,

And because of this, clap your hands;

For, this is justice that’s due.’

So I asked him: ‘But then, won’t my tribe be totally thrown away?’

And the Lord said, ‘Don’t worry, that just will not happen.’

¹⁴ ‘But you, O son of man, must now prophesy...
Clap one hand on the other
To summon another broadsword against them.
For this third one will be a sword of great slaughter...
It is one that will truly amaze.

¹⁵ ‘It will break all their hearts, as many grow weak,
When, at their gates, it arrives...
And all will be killed by this sword.

*‘Well done, O sharp one that slaughters.
Well done, O great shining one.
Now, like lightning, you must go forth and slay!*

¹⁶ *‘Sharpen both sides, the right and the left,
Then swing it wherever your face is aroused.*

¹⁷ *‘But after that, I will clap my hands,
And then I will slacken My rage...
For, I Jehovah, have spoken.’*

¹⁸ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me again, and said:

¹⁹ ‘And you, O son of man;
Prepare two ways for the sword to arrive
So that Babylon’s king may now enter.

‘Two [armies] will come from one place;
One will come from the right,
And the other from the city’s top street...
So, ready the corner of that street!

²⁰ ‘The broadsword [will first enter] RabBah;
And then, from the direction of AmMon’s sons
An attack will be launched on JeruSalem.

²¹ Then, on those most ancient roads,
The king of Babylon will stand.

‘On the corner, between the two streets, [he will stand],
Looking to his diviners for signs...
[He’ll ask them] to stir with the rod

And to question their idols,
Then, to look into the liver.

²² ‘So, an oracle will give him instructions
And tell him to throw up a siege mound
On JeruSalem’s right.

‘Then, he’ll open his mouth and he’ll yell:
*Raise your voices and shout,
And against her gates, erect siege mounds!
Yes, build the mounds all around them,
And create more weapons of war!*

²³ ‘For, he’ll serve as an omen against them...
He’ll provide divination concerning [their end].
He’ll remind them that they will be led off as captives
Because they have been so unrighteous.

²⁴ ‘And he’ll also help them to remember,’ said the Lord...
‘That he came because of their unrighteous ways,
And to reveal their irreverent condition.

‘He will then show them their sins,
As well as the laws that they’ve broken,
Which they’ll think of after they’re captured.

²⁵ ‘And you, O lawless profane one...
Upon you, who are IsraEl’s guide...
Your unrighteous days will have ended,

²⁶ For [the Lord] Jehovah said this:

*‘Remove the turban and take off the crown,
Because they’ll no longer be yours.
For, from your high place, you will be cut down,
And then, what is low will be raised!*

²⁷ *‘To the unrighteous, I’ll bring what’s unrighteous...
And that’s all there will be ‘til the time
That the one who is worthy arrives...
And to him, I will give it all back.*

²⁸ ‘So, prophesy now, O son of man...
To the sons of AmMon, you must say,
That Jehovah said this concerning their scorn:

*‘O broadsword, O broadsword, now be unsheathed...
Be unsheathed for the victims of slaughter
Arise and shine to consume them!*

²⁹ *‘For, all their visions are worthless,
And your oracles are just telling lies...
So they won’t be able to save you.
For your lawless ways, [I’ll bring swords to] your necks,
And your unrighteous days will have ended.*

³⁰ *‘Then return, [O sword], to your sheath!
For, in this place where you were once born
I’ll judge these [people] in their own land
³¹ And I’ll pour My rage out upon them.*

*‘Against them, I’ll breathe the fire of My rage,
And to barbarians, I then will hand them...
To those contriving corruption for them.*

³² *‘By fire, they will then be devoured,
And blood will be flowing throughout their land.
And thereafter, they’ll just be forgotten...
For, I Jehovah, have spoken.’*

Chapter 22

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² ‘And you, O son of man
Must now judge that city because of its blood...
You must make an example of her
For all of her lawless deeds!

³ ‘You must say that the Lord Jehovah said this:

*‘O city of so much shed blood
(The one that has made herself dirty);
⁴ You’ve fallen into the blood that you’ve shed*

*And defiled yourself with your thoughts.
So, the end of your days has drawn near...
You've reached the end of your years.*

*'You are given to be scorned by the nations,
And for every region to mock you...
⁵ You'll be mocked by those who are living nearby
And by those who live far away.
Yes, you unclean one, they'll mock you,
For your lawless ways are now famous.*

*⁶ 'For, see what IsraEl's guides have been doing...
They've joined with all their relations
In order to spill innocent blood!
⁷ Also [look at] your fathers and mothers...
All they speak of is doing what's evil!*

*'You treat foreign peoples unjustly,
And you tyrannize orphans and widows.
⁸ My holy things, you treat with contempt,
And you are profaning My Sabbaths!*

*⁹ 'The men among you are robbers,
And they are shedding innocent blood.
Then, in the mountains, they feast to their idols...
Such unholy things are now done in your midst!*

*¹⁰ 'You've uncovered the shame of your fathers,
And you have defiled many women
Who were sitting apart as unclean.*

*¹¹ 'You've [had sex] with the wives of your neighbors...
You've each defiled your daughters-in-law
And done ungodly things to your sisters...
You've debased the daughters of your parents!*

*¹² 'You also take bribes and shed blood...
Interest and rent, you require!*

*So you've reached the end of your evil...
In your tyranny, you have overlooked Me, says Jehovah.*

¹³ *'Now, if I clap hand against hand
Against all the evils you're doing
(Yes, against all the bad things you're doing,
And all the blood that's been shed in your midst),
¹⁴ Will your heart be able to stand [what I'll do],
And will your hands [still be strong] when I do it?
For, I Jehovah, have spoken...
Yes, [I've spoken] and now I will act!*

¹⁵ *'For I'll spread you among all the nations...
I'll scatter you to many regions,
And then, your uncleanness will be wiped away.
¹⁶ I'll assign other nations to watch over you,
And you'll know that I am Jehovah.'*

¹⁷ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:
¹⁸ 'O son of man;
{Look!} Before me, the house of IsraEl's become Like brass that's mixed in with iron,
Or like tin and lead mixed with silver.

¹⁹ 'And because of their [wicked condition],
You must tell them that thus says [Jehovah]:
*Since you are all mixed together;
I'll bring you into JeruSalem's midst
²⁰ As though you're inside of a furnace.*

*'Then, just as silver that's become mixed
With brass, tin, iron, and lead,
And air is blown in to refine it...
That's what I'll do to you in My rage.*

*'In My anger, I'll gather you all
And throw you into a furnace.
²¹ Then I'll blow on you with the fire of My rage,
And you'll be refined in its midst.*

²² *'Yes, as silver is refined in a furnace;
I'll throw you into an oven.
And you'll know that I am Jehovah
When I pour My rage out upon you.'*

²³ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

²⁴ 'O son of man;

You must tell them [that Jehovah said] this:

At that time, they'll call yours the land...

The land without any rain...

For there'll be no rain in the day of [My] rage.

²⁵ 'Since the leaders in your midst are like lions

That roar and seize prey by force...

Since they dominate, destroy, and consume,

And take whatever has value...

The numbers of widows will grow in your midst.

²⁶ 'For your priests have annulled all My Laws,

And My holy things, they've profaned...

They can't tell the holy from the profane

Or what's clean from the unclean.

²⁷ From My Sabbaths, they've hidden their eyes,

And I've been profaned in their midst.

²⁸ 'So her prophets who do the anointing

Will soon all be cut down...

Yes, those who can see only vain things

And omens that really aren't true,

But say that Jehovah has spoken to them

When He hasn't spoken at all.

²⁹ 'And even the land's [common] people

Call for what is unrighteous

And [ask for their share] of the loot.

They are tyrants to the needy and poor,

And they treat foreign peoples unfairly!

³⁰ *'Then I searched among them for one righteous man...
One who'll stand firm in the day of My rage,
So I wouldn't have to bring her conclusion
And totally wipe her away...
But, no such man could I find.*

³¹ *So, I will pour out My anger
And send the fire of My rage
In order to finish them off...
I'm bringing their blame upon their own heads, said Jehovah.'*

Chapter 23

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said: ² *'O son of man;
Two women were the daughters of one mother,
³ And they were immoral during their youth.
For, they [had sex] down in Egypt...
Yes, there is where their breasts fell,
And it's where they lost their virgin condition.*

⁴ *'The eldest one's name was Her Tent,
And her sister was named Her Tent is Within Her.
To Me, they both had been given
To bear My sons and My daughters.

'Are these really their names? No!
I'm calling Samaria, Her Tent,
And Her Tent is Within Her is JeruSalem.*

⁵ *'Her Tent had been unfaithful to Me,
And she doted upon all her lovers...
The Assyrians, with whom she had [slept] ...
⁶ Their blue-clad commanders and leaders,
And the choicest of all their young men,
As well as those who ride horses.*

⁷ *'To them, she offered herself...
To the choicest of Assyria's sons.*

*She gave herself to those she desired,
And wholeheartedly made herself dirty.*

⁸ *'But her affair with Egypt hadn't ended
(Those with whom she had [slept] in her youth).
She gave her virginity to them,
And they poured [their semen] upon her.*

⁹ *'So I handed her to all her lovers
(To the sons of the Assyrians, whom she desired),
¹⁰ And they uncovered her shame.*

*Then they took her sons and her daughters
And slaughtered them all with their swords.
The women also gossiped about her,
When [the Assyrians] brought vengeance upon her.*

¹¹ *'But when Her Tent is Within Her saw what had happened,
She became more corrupt [than her sister]...
Yes, even more immoral than her.*

¹² *'For she loved the sons of Assyria...
Those nearby commanders and leaders
Who wore such elegant clothes,
And the men who rode on their horses...
Yes, all of their choicest young men.*

¹³ *'So I saw that they'd both been defiled,
And that both were the same [kind of women].*

¹⁴ *'Then, to her bad ways, she then added
As she looked upon men that were painted on walls...
Images of the Chaldeans,*

*Depicted with brush strokes on walls,
¹⁵ Wearing colored belts on their hips,
As well as deeply-dyed turbans,
All giving the appearance of officials
Among the sons of Babylon...
Of her fatherland, the Chaldeans.*

¹⁶ *'She doted on them with her eyes,
And she sent her messengers to them
There in the land of Chaldea.*

¹⁷ *'So, those sons of Babylon came,
And on her marriage-bed they then rested...
In their immoral ways, they defiled her.*

*'And as she was being defiled,
She put her life in their hands...*

¹⁸ *Her immoral shame, she uncovered...
She removed My soul from her life
As her sister had already done.*

¹⁹ *'And then, she became even worse,
As she forgot the days of her youth
When she [had sex] down in Egypt
²⁰ And started thinking about the Chaldeans.
For, they had flesh just like burros,
And genitals like those of horses.*

²¹ *'She turned from the lawless ways of her youth
And from the things that she did down in Egypt
(That place in which she'd once lodged
And where the breasts of her youth had first fallen).*

²² *'So, because of this, O Her Tent is Within Her;
{Look!} I've awakened your lovers against you...
Yes, those to whom you once gave your soul.
And now, I will bring them against you,
Then they will come and surround you...*

²³ *The sons of Chaldea and of Babylon
– Pekod, Shoa, and Koa –
Along with Assyria's sons
And all of their choicest young men...
Their governors, commanders, and tribunes,
And the famous ones riding on horses.*

²⁴ *'From the north, they'll all come against you
With weapons and chariot wheels...
Many nations with chest plates, helmets, and shields.
They'll surround you and throw up a siege mound;
Then judgment, I'll put on their faces,
And you'll be punished by their (form of) justice.*

²⁵ *'Against you, I will then show My zeal,
And I'll deal with you in My anger.
They'll cut off your nose and your ears,
And they'll cut up what's left with the sword.*

*'They'll take your sons and your daughters;
Then, all who remain will be burned.*

²⁶ *They'll strip off all of your clothes,
And remove all the things of which you're so proud.*

²⁷ *'Your impious deeds, I'll remove,
Along with the bad things you practiced in Egypt.
To them, you won't raise your eyes anymore,
And you'll not think of Egypt again.*

²⁸ *'Jehovah says:
{Look!} I'll hand you to those who detest you
(Those to whom you've given your soul).*

²⁹ *Then they'll deal with you in their hatred
And take all the things for which you've worked hard,
Leaving you naked and disgraced.
Your immoral shame, they'll uncover,
Including your irreverence and whoring.*

³⁰ *'They'll do all these things, because you're a whore
Who defiled herself by thinking of them.*

³¹ *So, since you've followed in your sister's ways,
I'll now put her cup in your hands.*

³² *'And Jehovah said:
You'll drink deeply from the cup of your sister...*

*You'll drink so much that you'll laugh,
And in your drunken condition, you'll sneer.*

³³ *'For from the cup of extinction, you will be filled,
And it will make you feel weak...
The same cup of Samaria, your sister.*

³⁴ *'You will drink and then you will vomit...
Shards of broken pots, you will eat,
And you will start pulling your breasts.*

*'Then, I will pervert your holiday feasts,
As well as all your New Moons...
Yes, I've said that I will pervert them, says Jehovah.'*

³⁵ *'Then Jehovah said:
Because you forgot Me and pushed Me aside,
You'll get what you're due for your whoring!'*

³⁶ *'And Jehovah said: O son of man;
Now, judge Her Tent and Her Tent is Within Her...
Speak to them of their lawless ways...*

³⁷ *'Of their adultery and the blood on their hands...
For, even their thoughts are adulterous,
And they've led the children they bore Me through fire!*

³⁸ *'And as they did this against Me,
They defiled My holy things in that day,
And they have profaned all My Sabbaths.*

³⁹ *'They [offered] their children to idols,
And entered My Holy Place to profane it...
See what they've done in My Temple!*

⁴⁰ *'Then, to those in lands far away,
They sent messengers and begged them to come.
And as they were coming, they bathed...
They decked themselves out and [painted] their eyes.*

⁴¹ *'Before a spread table, they sat on a bed
And set before them My incense and oil
(Which these men found very delightful).*

⁴² *'Then the sounds of harmony and music
Was played before men who were drunk...
Men who'd just come from the desert.
Then, upon their arms, they put bracelets,
And garlands of boasting, they put on their heads.*

⁴³ *'Though I told them that they must be [faithful];
In the ways of a whore, they [had sex].*

⁴⁴ *So, they entered within them
As a man would enter a whore...
They entered Her Tent and Her Tent is Within Her...
Two lawless women with lawless ways.*

⁴⁵ *'But, because they are also just men,
They will punish them both
With the punishment that's due an adulteress.
In justice, they'll pour out their blood
For the adultery and blood on their hands.*

⁴⁶ *'Then Jehovah said:
Now, bring the armies against them...
Bring disturbance and ravaging to them.*

⁴⁷ *'May those armies then stone them with rocks
And run them through with their swords!
Kill their sons and their daughters,
And burn down all of their homes!*

⁴⁸ *'Yes, their godless [lovers], I'll bring to this land
In order to correct these two women,
So they'll not be godless again.*

⁴⁹ *'I'll bring their irreverence down on their heads,
And they'll bear their own sins and ideas...
Then they'll know that I am Jehovah!'*

Chapter 24

¹ It was in the ninth year, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² ‘O son of man;
Write the name of this day for yourself,
Since, this is the day that Babylon’s king
Will conquer JeruSalem...
Yes, that day has arrived!

³ ‘And say these words to that house in rebellion...
Tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*‘Prepare the pot... yes, ready the pot and fill it with water,
⁴ Then, you must put in the pieces...
All the best pieces... the shoulders and legs,
Then, rip the flesh from the bones!*

*⁵ ‘I have gathered the choicest of cattle;
So, start the fire to boil up the bones...
Boil and cook the bones in its midst.*

⁶ ‘For, their Sovereign Lord Jehovah said this:
*O you city of blood;
There’s a pot that is filled with your venom.
So, when they bring out your limbs,
[None] will claim your parts as their own.*

⁷ ‘Upon a rock, they will pour out your blood...
*But it won’t be poured on the ground
Or be covered by dirt.*

*⁸ For I’ll punish you in My rage
And I’ll have them pour your blood on a rock
So that [no one] can cover it over.*

⁹ ‘Because of this, said Jehovah;
*Woe to you, O city of blood
For your funeral pyre will be great.*

¹⁰ *'I'll add much wood and kindle a fire
To melt away all the meat.
And then, to render a broth,
The bones will have to be stewed.*

¹¹ *'You'll stay on the coals until you're burned through
And all your brass ornaments melt...
Until your uncleanness [is gone]
And all of your venom has failed...*

¹² Until little venom remains.

¹³ *'The venom of your filth, I'll bring to disgrace
Until it is all boiled away.
Since you dirtied yourself and wouldn't get clean,
You'll no longer be able to do that Until My rage on you is complete.*

¹⁴ *'For, I Jehovah, have spoken...
I'll do it and I'll make it happen!
I'll not warn you or show any mercy,
Nor will I offer you comfort.*

*'I will judge you for the things that you've done,
As well as for the things that you think, says Jehovah.'*

¹⁵ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁶ *'O son of man;
{Look!} With just one blow, I'll now take away
[The woman] you've treasured most dearly.*

'Yet, you must not show any sorrow...

¹⁷ *Do all your moaning in silence...
Over her, you must quietly groan,
And you may not wail at her grave.*

*'Don't take off your sandals or braid your hair,
Nor let them offer you comfort...
And don't eat the [food] that they bring.'*

¹⁸ Well, the next morning I told the people what he said to me; and then that evening, my wife died. So the [next] morning I did as I was instructed. ¹⁹ And when the people asked me to explain why I was doing these things, ²⁰ I told them that the Word of Jehovah had come to me and said this:

²¹ ‘You must speak to the house of IsraEl
And tell them that thus says Jehovah:
*{Look!} My Holy Place, I’ll profane...
That wonderful place about which you neigh
And the thing that your eyes have desired.*

*‘Now, in order to save your own lives,
You’ll have to abandon your daughters and sons...
For, they will all fall by the sword.*

²² *‘Then, when they ask what you’re doing,
You shouldn’t take comfort from anyone’s mouth,
Or share with them the bread of mankind!*

²³ *‘Your hair must remain on your heads,
And your feet must be wearing sandals.
But, you won’t lament or be crying...
You’ll just melt away in your sins,
And none will comfort their brothers!*

²⁴ *‘EzekiEl will serve as an omen and sign;
For, all that he says, you will do.
And after these things have all happened,
You’ll know that I am Jehovah.*

²⁵ ‘[Then He said]:
*O son of man;
This is how it will be in the day
That I take away all their strength
And the things about which they boast...
The desirable things of their eyes...
Their very own sons and their daughters
(Those in whom their souls take most pride).*

²⁶ *'Then, those who escape in that day
Will come and tell you what happened.
²⁷ And in that day, you'll open your mouth...
Yes, you'll speak to those who've escaped...
You'll speak and be mute no longer...
You'll explain how you were a sign,
And they'll know that I am Jehovah.'*

Chapter 25

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:
² 'O son of man;
Against AmMon's sons, you must now set your face...
[You must speak] this prophesy against them!
³ Tell the sons of AmMon to listen
And hear the Word of Jehovah.
For, this is what Jehovah's declared:
*'Because you were [filled with] rejoicing
⁴ When My Holy Place was being profaned
As the land of IsraEl was being destroyed,
And the house of Judah was led off as captives;
⁴ {Look!} It is for all of these reasons,
That to the sons of Kedem, I'll hand you...
And their inheritance, is what you'll become.

'They'll camp among you as [masters],
And spread their tents in your midst...
Then they'll drink your fatness and eat all your fruit!

⁵ 'I'll give them the cities of AmMon
To serve as pens where they'll keep their sheep,
And I'll also give them your camels...
Then you'll know that I am Jehovah.'*

⁶ 'Jehovah says:
*For you clapped your hands and stamped your feet...
You rejoiced over IsraEl's fall.*

⁷ *And because of this, {Look!} I'll stretch out My hand
And appoint you to be ravaged by the nations.*

*'I'll destroy you from among the rest of the peoples...
I'll wipe you out of your regions...
And you'll know that I am Jehovah.*

⁸ 'Jehovah says:

*Because Moab and Seir proclaimed
That the house of Judah is now like the gentiles;
⁹ {Look!} For this, I'll injure the shoulder of Moab...
The cities at the edge [of his land]...
The choicest parts of BethJeshiMoth...
The city of springs by the sea.*

¹⁰ *'To the sons of Kedem, I'll hand AmMon
To serve an inheritance among them...
Then the nations will forget about AmMon's sons.*

¹¹ *And in Moab, I will also wreak vengeance,
So they'll know that I am Jehovah.*

¹² 'And Jehovah says:

*Since Edom was very resentful
And sought vengeance upon Judah's house
By bringing such punishment upon them...*

¹³ *Yes, because of this, says Jehovah;
I'll stretch out My hand against Edom,
And from man to beast, I'll destroy all.
I will make [their land] desolation,
And from Teman to Ledan, those being chased
Will each be cut down by swords.*

¹⁴ *'For against Edom's land, I'll bring vengeance
At the hands of IsraEl, My people.
They'll deal with Edom as My rage demands
And in the ways of My anger.
Then, they will know of My vengeance, says Jehovah.*

¹⁵ *‘And because of this, says Jehovah;
Because the Philistines took vengeance
And they rejoiced in their souls
When they wiped [My people] away through the age...*

¹⁶ *Because of this, says Jehovah;
{Look!} Against the Philistines, I’ll stretch out My hand,
And their Cherethim I’ll destroy,
As well as the rest who’ve remained on the coast.*

¹⁷ *‘Against them, I will bring vengeance
With the rebukes of My rage.
Then they’ll know that I am Jehovah,
When I bring My vengeance upon them.’*

Chapter 26

¹ It was in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² ‘O son of man;

Tyre has said this of JeruSalem:

Well done, because she’s now broken!

For, she had destroyed many nations,

And then, she turned her attention toward me.

But this one who once was so full

Has now become desolation.

³ ‘Because of this, said Jehovah,

{Look!} I am against you, O Rock,

And I’ll bring so many nations against you

That they’ll be like the waves of the sea.

⁴ ‘The walls of Tyre, they’ll tear down,

And then they will knock down your towers.

I’ll scatter your dust to the [four] winds

And leave you like a smooth rock...

⁵ A place where they will dry fish nets.

For, I have spoken against you, says Jehovah.

*‘You will be a place that nations will loot,
6 And your daughters in the plains will be cut down by swords...
Then they’ll know that I am Jehovah.*

7 ‘And Jehovah said this:

O Tyre;

I’ll bring NebuChadNezzar out of the north

(Yes, this king of all kings)

With his cavalry, chariots, and horses,

And his army of many great nations.

8 Then he’ll use the sword to destroy

Your daughters who live in the plains.

‘Against you, he’ll send advance guards

Who’ll surround you and then they’ll dig trenches.

He’ll close you in with a siege mound

And arrange it with lances and shields.

9 Then they will demolish your towers and walls,

And they will destroy [all your] weapons.

10 ‘You’ll be covered by the dust of his horses.

And from the sounds of his horsemen

And the sounds of their chariot wheels,

All your walls will be shaken.

Then, when he enters your gates,

To him, it’ll be like a [walk through] the plains.

11 ‘His horse’s hooves will trample your squares

And [his men] will kill all your people with swords...

They’ll bring your supports and strength to the ground.

12 ‘Then, they will plunder your army...

They’ll take all their things, then tear down your walls

And demolish the best of your homes.

Thereafter, they’ll throw all the stones and the wood,

As well as the dust, into the sea.

13 ‘He’ll rip away your musicians,

And the sounds of strings will no longer be heard.

¹⁴ *He will make you like a smooth rock
And a place for the drying of dragnets.
There's no way that you'll be rebuilt,
For I Jehovah have spoken, said the Lord.*

¹⁵ *'Then Jehovah asked this of Tyre:
When their swords are unsheathed in your midst;
Won't the sound of your downfall
As well as the moans of your wounded
Rumble all the way to the islands?*

¹⁶ *'The rulers of the seas will step from their thrones,
Then remove their crowns and colorful robes,
Because they'll be startled by this change of state.
And of their destruction, they'll then sit in fear,
As they are moaning for you.*

¹⁷ Then, this is what they will sing:

*'O how great has been her destruction.
For, she was removed from her place by the sea
Along with all of [her people]
By the one who brought terror upon them.*

*'You're a city that once was so blest;
For you got your strength from the sea.*

¹⁸ *But now, all the islands are living in fear;
For, since the day of your downfall,
They've had many reasons to worry.'*

¹⁹ *'Then the Lord Jehovah said this:
I'll bring desolation to your cities
And leave them without any people...
By the waters of the deep, they'll be covered.*

²⁰ *'I will drag both you and your people
Into the pit through the age.
I'll settle you in the depths of the earth
As a desolate place through the ages,
Along with the rest who've gone down to the pit.*

*'In the land of the living, you'll no longer be;
21 For I've appointed you to be wiped away
So you won't exist anymore...
They'll look for you and not find you, says Jehovah.'*

Chapter 27

¹ Then the Word of The Lord came to me and said:

² 'And you, O son of man,
Must sing a lament over Tyre.

³ 'You must say to the Rock
(This city that dwells by the sea...
The marketplace of all the islands)
That thus says Jehovah to Tyre:

*'You say you've invested in beauty;
⁴ For the heart of the sea is your border,
And your sons have perfected your charms.*

⁵ 'Cedar is [the wood] with which you were built,
As well as with Lebanon's cypress.
With posts of fir, you make ship masts;
⁶ And in Bashan, they make all your oars.

*'Your temples are constructed of ivory
And your houses are made from the wood
That comes from the Island of Cyprus.*

⁷ 'Embroidered linens from Egypt
Serve as your sails and your flags.
And from the island of Aeolis
You receive the purple and blue
That you use to make the clothes that you wear.

⁸ 'The princes of Sidon and Arvad
Come and serve as your oarsmen;
And your navigators are their wise men, O Rock.

⁹ *'The elders among you are scholars
Who grow in their powers to direct you.
And all the oarsmen for your ships of the seas
Come to you from the west.*

¹⁰ *'Your warriors are Lydians and Persians
Who hang their helmets and shields among you...
And they also bring you much glory.*

¹¹ *Sons of Arvad serve as your soldiers
And they are stationed around all your walls,
As Medes serve in your guard towers...
They hang their quivers on your moorings,
And they are perfecting your beauty.*

¹² *'Men from Carthage are also your merchants
Who bring you abundance and strength
With silver, gold, iron, and brass,
And the tin and lead that they sell in your stores.*

¹³ *'The Greeks and the rest of the world
(Those from faraway lands)
Trade their slaves [in your streets],
Along with the brass that they sell.*

¹⁴ *'From the house of ToGarmah, come horses...
Horses and mules they bring to your stores.*

¹⁵ *'Sons of Rhodes are also your merchants...
From the islands, they bring you much trade.
And those who bring you your ivory
Are paid with the earnings from [slaves].*

¹⁶ *'There are your great stores of balsam,
As well as rolls of linen and purple,
Along with colored works out of Carthage,
Plus things from RamOth and ChoHor...
Yes, all of these things are sold in your stores.*

¹⁷ *'Judah and IsraEl are also your merchants
In the sales of grain and perfumes,
As well as the finest of honey,
And the olive oil and the lotions
That they bring to your stores.*

¹⁸ *'Damascus too, trades in your wares,
And [they also share in] your power.
For they bring fine wines in from Helbon,
And the best of wool from Miletus.*

¹⁹ *'Dan, and Javan, as well as MoOzel,
Bring their iron to your markets...
They add many tools and wheels to your stores.*

²⁰ *Dedan too, is your merchant,
Providing the choicest of saddles.*

²¹ *'Arabia and the rulers of Cyprus
Are merchants trading camels through your hands,
As well as the lambs and rams that they bring.*

²² *'Other merchants are Sheba and RamAh...
Yes, these are also your traders
Who bring choice spices and most precious gems,
As well as gold to your stores.*

²³ *'Haran, CalNeh, and Edem
Also do trading with you,
As do Assyria, Sheba, and ChilMad,
²⁴ Who bring blue [cloth] and great treasures
In [boxes of] cypress bound in rough cords.*

²⁵ *'Your many boats serve as your merchants;
For they carry an abundance of things to your stores...
Filled and weighed down in the seas.*

²⁶ *'Your oarsmen row it all into you
From [the boats that are blown] by south winds
As they sail through the heart of the sea.*

²⁷ *'But your armies, your wages, and stores...
Your counselors, navigators, and oarsmen,
As well as the goods that come from your stores
And all the warriors among you
(Those who have gathered within you)
Will be thrown into the heart of the sea
In the day of your downfall.*

²⁸ *'Those who navigate will be shaken
By the sounds of your outcries...
Yes, with fear, they'll be overcome.
²⁹ So your oarsmen will abandon their boats,
And their captains and crews will flee to dry ground.*

³⁰ *'Then, over you, they'll shout loudly...
Yes, over you, they'll bitterly cry.
Upon their heads, they'll throw dirt
And spread ashes as beds for themselves.
³¹ They'll shave their heads and wear sackcloth,
And bitterly weep over you.*

³² *'Their sons will also lament you
And wail for The Rock as they ask:
Who is as silent as Tyre,
There in the midst of the sea?*

³³ *'How much wealth did you gain from the seas?
For the nations are filled with the goods that you sell,
And their kings are enriched by your stores.*

³⁴ *'But, there in the sea, you'll lie broken,
As your stores are sunk in deep waters,
And those gathered there [will be carried away]
Along with all of your oarsmen.*

³⁵ *'There'll be gloom in all of the islands for you...
Their kings will be startled and amazed,
Then tears will burst from their faces.*

³⁶ *Merchants from the nations will whistle at you;
For, you [will soon be] destroyed...
Through the ages, you will be gone.*

Chapter 28

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

² ‘And you, O son of man;
Say this to the ruler of Tyre!
Tell him that thus says Jehovah:

*‘You have made your heart haughty
And proclaimed that you are a God;
For you dwell among the gods of the seas!
But you’re just a man, not a god,
Though you made your heart as that of a god.*

³ ‘Are you someone who’s wiser than DaniEl...
Didn’t the wise teach you wisdom?

⁴ *Which was it... intelligence or wisdom
That brought you all of your power
And your treasures of silver and gold?*

⁵ *Which was it... your trading or wisdom
That gave you your power and made your heart proud?*

⁶ ‘It’s because of this, says Jehovah...
Since you made your heart as that of a God;
{Look!} I’m bringing strange pests from the nations to you,

⁷ *And they’ll empty their swords out against you...
Against all the beauty of your wisdom,
Which they will spread to destruction.*

⁸ ‘Yes, they will soon cut you down,
And you’ll die the death of those that [have drowned]
In the heart of the sea.

⁹ ‘Will you say you’re a god to those who bring death?
No you’ll be just a man, not a god
In the hands of those who will pierce you.

¹⁰ *'Then you'll die among the uncircumcised
At the hands of those who are strangers.
For, this is what I've decreed, says Jehovah.'*

¹¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,
¹² *'O son of man;
Sing this lament to the ruler of Tyre.
Tell him that thus says Jehovah:*

*'Yours is the image on a seal
That's depicted as someone who's wise
And who's wearing a beautiful crown.*

¹³ *'The paradise of gods is the place where you dwell,
And every precious gem, you have owned...
Sardius, topaz, and emeralds;
Onyx, sapphires, and jaspers;
Silver, gold, amber, and agates;
Chrysolites, amethysts, and beryls.
Your treasuries are filled with onyx and gold,
And it's also found in your stores.*

¹⁴ *'From the day that you were created,
A cherub was chosen on your behalf,
Since you were anointed by God.
Then you were allowed to dwell in [His] Tent...
For on God's Holy Mountain, I set you,
And among stones of fire, you existed...*

¹⁵ *Yes, you lived in perfection from the day you began
Until the time that I said you were guilty.*

¹⁶ *'From the abundance of your trade, your storerooms were filled,
Then you became lawless and sinned.
So, you were removed from the mountain of God
(From among [those great] stones of fire),
And your cherub was taken away.*

¹⁷ *'Because of your beauty, your heart became proud...
Sins corrupted your wisdom and beauty.*

*So I tossed you down to the ground
To be an example to [others].*

¹⁸ *'Because of your many great sins
And the ways you've failed in your trading,
You have profaned all your temples.
So, I'm sending fire into your midst,
Which will burn you and turn you to ashes...
And this will be witnessed by all.*

¹⁹ *'Then, all the nations will mourn over you,
For you'll be destroyed and lost through the age.'*

²⁰ Thereafter, the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

²¹ 'O son of man;

*Now, fix your face against Sidon,
And against it, you must now prophesy!*

²² Tell them that thus says Jehovah:

*'{Look!} I am against you, O Sidon,
And by you, I'll be glorified;
For you'll know that I am Jehovah
When I bring My judgments against you...
And then, I'll be holy among you.*

²³ *'Against you, I'll send death and blood,
And your people will fall in your squares,
As the men among you (those closest to you)
Will all be wounded by swords...
And you'll know that I am Jehovah.*

²⁴ *'IsraEl's house will be gone...
Yes, that bitter barb and thorn of great grief.
And all those who are living around them
(Those who will bring dishonor to them)
Will know that I am Jehovah.'*

²⁵ 'Jehovah says:

Then I'll regather the house of IsraEl

*From the nations where they'll be dispersed,
And I will be holy among them
Before all the peoples and nations.*

*'Thereafter, they'll live in the land
That I gave to My servant Jacob.*

*²⁶ There, they'll plant vineyards and they'll build homes
In which, they'll dwell in hope everafter,
When I bring My judgments upon all of those
By whom they had been abused
(All those who were living around them),
And they'll know that I am Jehovah their God,
As well as the God of their fathers.'*

Chapter 29

¹ It was in the tenth year (on the first day of the tenth month) that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

² 'O son of man;

Fix your face against Egypt's King
And against those in his Great House...

Against him and Egypt, you must now prophesy!

³ Tell him that thus says Jehovah:

*'{Look!} I am against you, O Pharaoh,
The great dragon who waits between rivers...
The One who says, The rivers are mine...
Yes, they were created for me!*

⁴ 'Now, into your jaws, I'll put hooks,
And the fish from your rivers, I'll stick to you wings.
Then I'll pick you up from their midst
And I will remove all their scales

⁵ Before I throw you down with your fish.

*'On the face of the plains, I will toss you;
Then, you'll be collected and not be [thrown back].
There, I'll feed you to the beasts of the fields,*

As well as to the birds in the skies...

*6 Then, all those who are living in Egypt
Will know that I am Jehovah.*

*‘For to the house of IsraEl, you’ve proven to be
Just a reed, not a rod,*

*7 Since you broke when they grabbed onto you with their hands.
Then, by every hand, they were beaten,
Because they trusted in you...*

*Yes, because you broke [in their hands],
The nations have shattered their hips.*

*8 ‘And because of this, says Jehovah;
{Look!} I’ll bring the broadsword against you
To destroy all your men and your cattle.*

*9 ‘Then the land of Egypt, I will appoint
To be wiped away and destroyed...
And you’ll know that I am Jehovah.
[I’ll do this], because you once said,
All the rivers are mine...
They were created for me!*

*10 ‘{Look!} I’m against both you your rivers;
So, I will now hand over Egypt
To be destroyed by the broadsword
From Migdol on to SyEne,
All the way to Ethiopia’s borders.*

*11 ‘Neither man nor beast will then travel that way...
No way will any even walk through it.
And for the next forty years, you’ll lie empty.*

*12 ‘I’ll appoint your land to destruction,
And the ground will lie fallow and barren.
All of your cities will be empty...
For forty years, they’ll all be extinct.
I’ll scatter the Egyptians among all the nations...
To many places, I’ll [blow] them away.’*

¹³ ‘Jehovah says:

*Then, after forty years, I’ll gather them back
From the nations where they’d been dispersed;*

¹⁴ *I’ll return all the captured Egyptians
And settle them back in their lands
(Those from which they were taken),
And there, they must humbly submit.*

¹⁵ *‘But by then, her rule will have ended,
And she’ll not be the highest of nations again.
For I’ll cause them to be very few...
Uncounted among other nations.*

¹⁶ *‘So you’ll never again serve as IsraEl’s hope,
And they’ll be reminded that it had been wrong
For them to have trusted in you...
And they’ll know that I am Jehovah.’*

¹⁷ Well, it was in the twenty-seventh year (on the first day of the first month) that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁸ *‘O son of man;
Because of Tyre, King NebuChadNezzar
Has reduced his army to slaves.
For, all their heads are now bald
And their shoulders are covered with falling hair
Because of his army’s attack against Tyre,
And the work that they’ve done without pay.*

¹⁹ *‘Because of this, says Jehovah;
To Babylon’s King NebuChadNezzar,
I will now hand over Egypt.
Then, he will loot and plunder her spoils
And give it to his army, as their reward.*

²⁰ *‘Yes, in return for his work against Tyre,
I’ll give the land of Egypt to him
Because of the things he’s accomplished for Me, says Jehovah.*

²¹ *‘In that day, in the house of IsraEl,
A horn will thereafter be raised,
And I’ll give you an opened mouth in their midst,
So they’ll know that I am Jehovah.’*

Chapter 30

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,
² *‘O son of man; you must now prophesy and tell them that thus says
Jehovah:*

‘The day is near...

³ The Day of Jehovah has approached...

Yes, that dark day of the Lord,

Which is also the time of the nations!

⁴ For a sword will come against Egypt,

And Ethiopia will then be disturbed.

‘Egyptians will be cut down and slain,

And her abundance will be carried away...

She’ll be ripped down to her foundations!

⁵ ‘Lydians, Persians, and Cretans,

Libyans, Ethiopians, and mixed other peoples

Will fall with My Covenant people, ⁶ says Jehovah.

For, the supporters of Egypt will fall

Along with the insolence of her strength.

‘From Migdol to Syene, they’ll fall by the sword

⁷ And lie amidst places that will be wiped away,

As the cities in her midst are destroyed.

⁸ ‘Then they’ll know that I am Jehovah

When I bring fire against Egypt,

And I break all those who have helped her.

⁹ ‘In that day, messengers will quickly arrive

And destroy any hope Ethiopians had.

For in that day, there’ll be a disturbance in Egypt...

And look, it has already happened!

¹⁰ ‘Jehovah says:

*I’ll destroy many Egyptians
By the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar.*

¹¹ *For, he and all of his people
(With pestilent ones from the nations)
Are being sent to destroy that whole land.*

*‘They’ll empty their swords against Egypt
And fill its land with the slain.*

¹² *I’ll also desolate all their rivers
And give their lands to the wicked.*

*‘I’ll wipe their land clean and empty it out,
Then I’ll give its fullness to strangers...
For I’m Jehovah, and I have declared that it’s so!*

¹³ ‘Jehovah God says:

*Their disgusting things, I’ll destroy.
And to the [gods] of Memphis, I’ll provide rest...
For the rulers of Egypt won’t be anymore.*

¹⁴ *‘To the land of Egypt, I will send fear,
And the land of Pathros, I will destroy.
Then to Tanis, I will bring fire,
And I’ll punish The City of Gods.*

¹⁵ *‘I’ll pour My rage out on Sin,
Which is the stronghold of Egypt.
And the crowds of Memphis, I’ll also destroy.*

¹⁶ *‘Upon Egypt, I will send fire,
And to Sin, I’ll send a disturbance.
On The City of Gods, I will spit,
And I’ll take away all their water.*

¹⁷ *‘The young men of the City of the Sun,
And those who live in BuBastum*

¹⁸ *Will also fall by the broadsword,
And their women will be taken as slaves.*

¹⁸ *'In TahPanHes, the days will grow dark
When I break the chiefdoms of Egypt.
Then the strength of her insolence will end
And she will be covered by clouds,
As her daughters are led off as captives.*

¹⁹ *'Yes, I have passed judgment on Egypt,
And they'll know that I am Jehovah.'*

²⁰ Well, it was in the eleventh year (in the first month and on the seventh day of the month) that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

²¹ *'O son of man;
I will break Pharaoh's [right] arm,
{Look!} And for ways to heal him, they'll search.
Then, upon his wounds, they'll wrap dressings
In order to will help him carry his sword.*

²² *'But because of this, says Jehovah;
{Look!} Since I'm against Egypt's King and his Great House,
I will break both of his arms
(Including the one that's been broken),
And I'll rip his sword from his hand.*

²³ *'Then I'll scatter the Egyptians among all the nations...
To many places, I'll blow them away.*

²⁴ *'But I'll strengthen the arms of Babylon's king
And I'll put My sword in his hand.
Then, he will use it on Egypt...
He'll loot her loot and take all her spoils.*

²⁵ *'I'll strengthen the arms of Babylon's king,
And the arms of Pharaoh will fall.
Then they'll know that I am Jehovah
When I give My sword to Babylon's king,
And he lifts it against Egypt's land.*

²⁶ *'I'll scatter Egyptians among all the nations...
To many places, I'll blow them away...
And they'll know that I am Jehovah!'*

Chapter 31

¹ It was in the eleventh year (on the first day of the third month) that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² ‘O son of man;

Ask this of Pharaoh (Egypt’s king) and his armies:

When it comes to being high minded,

Who else is equal to you?

³ ‘{Look!} Assyria is like Lebanon’s cypress,
Since it had many dense branches.

It was also protected and stood very tall...

Amidst the clouds, stood its top.

⁴ By waters from the deep, it was nourished,

And as the result, it grew tall.

‘To the plants around him, a river was led...

She poured her waters on the trees in his fields,

⁵ And because of this, he grew even greater

Than all the other trees on the earth.

‘He had more branches and much taller shoots,

And over many waters, he stretched.

⁶ Among his boughs sat the birds of the skies;

Beneath his limbs bred the beasts of the plains;

And many nations dwelled in his shadow.

⁷ ‘He became great in his height

Because of his tender branches,

And his long roots that reached down to the water.

⁸ ‘In God’s paradise, none others were like him...

No pines could be compared to his shoots;

No firs had branches like his;

And there in God’s paradise,

None could compare to his beauty.

⁹ ‘I’m the one who made him so great

And who gave him his tender branches.

So the rest of the trees in paradise
Soon became jealous of him...
Yes, the rest of those trees in the garden
That was the delight of [Jehovah].

¹⁰ ‘Because of this,’ said the Lord...
‘Because he grew to such greatness
And put his tops high up in the clouds
As he lifted his heart to the heights;
¹¹ I gave him to those who rule other nations,
And they brought about his destruction.

¹² ‘By strangers, he was cut to the ground...
Yes, pestilent ones from the nations
Threw him down on the mountains,
And in the ravines, fell his branches,
As his [wood was strewn] ‘cross the plains.

‘He had fallen from his lofty position
As the protector of all of his people...
All the nations had cut him down to the ground.

¹³ ‘So that place where the birds of the skies once found rest
And under whose branches the beasts had once lived,
Has been cut to the ground.

¹⁴ ‘So the trees next to him lost their greatness
(Those trees that stood by his water)
And no longer put their tops in the clouds...
Those with whom he once had shared water
Couldn’t stand tall after that.

‘So, they were all handed to death
And went into the depths of the ground...
Like sons of men, they went down to the pit.

¹⁵ ‘And thus says Jehovah, the Lord:
In that day, he went down to the place of the dead,
And in the abyss, he was mourned.

*'Then I took control of the river
And withheld its abundance of water.
Lebanon then shadowed above him,
And all the trees of the plains became weak.*

*¹⁶ 'From the sound of his downfall, the nations all shook
When I brought him down to the place of the dead,
Along with those who went into the pit.*

*'And there in the bowels of the earth,
All the earth's trees offered comfort...
All the select and best trees...
Those choice ones of Lebanon that once shared his water.*

*¹⁷ 'But with him, they went down into the grave;
For, they were slain by the sword.
And the seed of the ones that he sheltered
Were destroyed in the midst of their lives.*

*¹⁸ 'To whom can you liken such power,
As well as the glory and greatness
Among all the choicest of trees?*

*'He went down with the choicest of trees
Into the depths of the ground,
Where he sleeps among the uncircumcised...
Among those who were slain by the sword.*

*'Yes, this is what happen to Pharaoh,
And to all of his friends, said Jehovah.'*

Chapter 32

¹ It was in the twelfth year (on the first day of the twelfth month) that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

² 'O son of man;

Sing this lament over Pharaoh (king of Egypt} ...

Yes, you must sing this about him:

‘You consider yourself a lion among nations,
But you’re just the beast of the sea.
For from the midst your rivers, you’ve gored...
You stamped your feet and you’ve trampled,
And this [has muddied] your waters.

³ So, Jehovah has said this to you:
*By a great assembly of peoples,
Around you, My net will be thrown;
And then, I’ll lead you around by My hook.*

⁴ *‘I will stretch you out on the ground,
And you will fill all the plains.
Upon you, I’ll set the birds of the skies
And use you to fill the wild beasts of the ground.*

⁵ *‘I’ll spread your flesh on the mountains
And fill the ravines with your blood.*

⁶ *With your manure, I’ll cover the land...
And with those that are living within you,
I’ll fill the valleys and fields.*

⁷ *‘Then, after you are depleted,
I will cover the skies...
I will darken the stars...
With clouds, I will cover the sun and the moon,
And no way will your light shine again.*

⁸ *‘Yes, the lights that shine in the skies
Will all become dark over you;
Then, over your land, I’ll send darkness,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

⁹ *‘To the hearts of your people, I will bring rage,
When before them, you’re led as a captive
Into a land that you’ve never known.*

¹⁰ *‘Many nations, thereafter, will mourn you...
Their kings will be stunned and amazed*

*As they also await their own downfall,
Which will come to them after that.'*

¹¹ 'Then the Lord Jehovah said:
*Yes, the broadsword of Babylon's king
Will thereafter come upon them.*

¹² *'With the swords of giants, you will be cut down,
And to the pests of the nations, I'll give all your strength...
They'll destroy the insolence of Egypt,
And they will break down her power.*

¹³ *'Then, I will destroy all the cattle
[That graze] around your great waters,
So thereafter, men's feet won't stomp in [the Nile],
And it won't be trampled by cattle again.*

¹⁴ *'Then your waters will all become still,
For your rivers will pour out like oil, says Jehovah.*

¹⁵ *When I bring destruction on Egypt,
The fullness of the land will be [gone].
And after I scatter [your people],
They'll know that I am Jehovah.*

¹⁶ *'Then they'll [sing] a lament over you...
Over Egypt, the nations' daughters will [cry]...
Yes, the loss of her strength, they'll lament,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.'*

¹⁷ Well, it was in the twelfth year (on the fifteenth day of the month) that the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁸ 'O son of man;
You should mourn for the multitudes of Egypt,
For her daughters will be defiled by the nations,
And there will be death throughout their whole land.

'Then, they will go into the pit...

¹⁹ From their beautiful waters, they will descend
To sleep among the uncircumcised!

²⁰ ‘With [Pharaoh] and his strength, they will fall
Among those who’ll be slain by the sword.

²¹ And the giants of the earth will then say:
*It’s best that you have gone into the pit,
Along with the uncircumcised,
To sleep in the midst of those slain by the sword.*

²² ‘For, Assyria is there, along with his crowd,
And around his grave, they’re all standing...
All those that were cut down by swords...

²³ All those with whom he now shares his grave
Along the sides of the pit,
And all of the crowd surrounding his tomb...
All of the slain that were cut down by swords...
Those who had once brought great fear
To the land of the living.

²⁴ ‘And there is Elam with his army...
Around his tomb, they [are standing],
Along with the uncircumcised
That have been cut down by the sword.
[They all went down] to the depths of the ground
At the hands of those who brought fear
To the land of the living.

²⁵ ‘They accepted their torment with those in the pit...
In the midst of those who’d been slaughtered.

²⁶ It’s where they put Mosoch and Tubal,
Along with all of their strength.

‘The slain are standing next to his tomb
Along with the uncircumcised,
All of whom had been killed with the sword...
Those who’d once brought great fear
To the land of the living.

²⁷ ‘But, now they sleep with the giants
Who through the ages, have fallen...

They went to the land of the dead
With all their weapons of war.

‘Their swords were placed under their heads,
And their lawless deeds fell on their bones;
For, they were just frightened giants
Back when they were alive.

²⁸ But, along with the uncircumcised,
They have all been destroyed,
And they sleep with the rest of those slain by the sword.

²⁹ ‘And there is Edem with all of her kings,
Along with Assyria’s rulers...
Those who gave up their strength,
And then, were run through by swords.
They too now sleep with the slain
Who have gone down to the pit.

³⁰ ‘There are also the rulers from the far north
– All of these, with Assyria’s generals –
Who have gone down with the slain
And have also shared in their fear.

‘Because, their strength has been shamed,
They will sleep among the uncircumcised.
And along with the rest of those slain by the sword,
They’ll carry their torment into the pit.

³¹ ‘For the Lord Jehovah declared:
*This is where they’ll see Egypt’s King and Great House,
And they will find comfort in this.
For, Pharaoh and his armies will also be slain.*

³² ‘*To his land, I am sending fear;
For he too will sleep with the uncircumcised
And with those that were slain by the sword...
This will happen to Pharaoh and all of his crowd,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*’

Chapter 33

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,

² ‘O son of man;

Speak to the sons of your people

And this is what you should tell them:

‘To whichever land that I bring the sword;

The people of that country should then choose a man

And assign him to act as their watchman.

³ Then, when he sees the sword coming,

He should blow his trumpet to warn them.

⁴ ‘And after they hear the sound of the horn;

If they should refuse to prepare

And the broadsword then overtakes them,

Their blood will be upon their own heads.

⁵ ‘So, when they hear the sound of the trumpet,

They should [quickly] prepare,

Or their blood will be on themselves,

While the one who kept watch on their souls will be saved.

⁶ ‘But if the watchman should see the sword coming

And fail to trumpet the signal

So the people are caught unprepared;

This watchman must then be taken away

Because of the lawless [thing that he did]...

And I’ll require his blood by their hands.

⁷ ‘And you, O son of man;

You’re the watchman that I have appointed

Over the house of IsraEl.

So whenever you hear a word from my mouth,

You must announce it on my behalf.

⁸ ‘Then, should I say that a sinner will die,

And you fail to speak out and warn him;

For this lawless deed, you will die...
I'll require his blood from your hands.

9 'But, if you should warn an irreverent man
And tell him to turn from [his bad] ways...
If he refuses to make any change;
For the bad things he's done, he will die...
But, you will have saved your own life.

10 'Now, O son of man;
Say this to the house of IsraEl...
Tell them that they have been asking:
*Since we are the ones who're to blame
For our delusions and our lawless ways;
If we should turn from them now,
Can our lives still be spared?*

11 'You should speak to them and give this reply...
Tell them that Jehovah said this:
*As I live...
I don't want the death of the godless,
[I just want them] to turn from their bad ways
So that they can continue to live!
But first, you must turn away
From all the bad things that you're doing...
O house of IsraEl, why must you die?*

12 'And you, O son of man;
Say this to the sons of your people:
*The good things that the righteous have done
Won't save them in the day that they turn away.
And the blame that the lawless are due
Won't come to them in the day
That they turn from their godless ways.
And no way will the righteous will be saved
In the day that they are found sinning.*

¹³ ‘So, when I say that the righteous will live,
And they come to rely upon this...
But thereafter, they [do what is] evil;
Their righteous ways are forgotten...
For the sins they commit, they will die!

¹⁴ ‘And when I say that the godless will die,
And then they turn from their sins
And start being righteous and fair...

¹⁵ If they give back the collateral they’ve taken,
And return all the things that they’ve seized...
If they’ll travel an orderly life
And no longer [follow] wrong [paths];
They will continue to live...
No way will they have to die...

¹⁶ Their sins will all be forgotten...
For making their ways righteous and fair,
Their lives will thereafter be spared!

¹⁷ ‘And if the sons of your people should say,
The ways of Jehovah aren’t right,
When it’s really their ways that aren’t right;
This is what you should tell them:

¹⁸ *If the righteous should turn from right ways
And start doing things that are lawless,
They will die [for their sins].*

¹⁹ *But, if you turn back a sinner,
And he becomes fair and righteous, he’ll live!*

²⁰ ‘Now, you’re saying that the ways of Jehovah aren’t straight!
However, O house of IsraEl;
I’ll judge each man by the things that he does!’

²¹ It was in the twelfth year (on the fifth day of the tenth month from our captivity) that someone who had escaped from JeruSalem came and told me that the city had been taken. ²² Then the hand of Jehovah came over me that evening. However, before that (earlier in the morning), he came and opened my mouth so that my mouth couldn't stay closed any longer.

²³ For the Word of Jehovah came to me and said this:

²⁴ 'O son of man;

Those who live in the places that are being destroyed

In the land of IsraEl, are saying,

Back in AbraHam's time,

He was given this land;

And now that we've become many,

We've also been given this land as our own.

²⁵ 'Because of this, tell them that thus says Jehovah their Lord:

Since you eat blood in your food,

And to disgusting things, lift your eyes,

And you shed [innocent] blood;

Why do you think you'll inherit this land?

²⁶ 'For, there you stand with your broadswords

As you do things that are loathsome!

If you profane the lives of your neighbors' wives...

Do you think that you will inherit this land?

²⁷ 'So, tell them that the Lord Jehovah says this:

As I live;

Those who live in the places that are being destroyed

Will all be cut down by the broadsword;

Those who run out to the plains

Will be given as food to wild beasts;

Those who hide behind walls and in caves

Will thereafter die from a plague!

²⁸ 'Then I'll turn their land into a desert,

And the strength of their insolence will perish.

I'll devastate IsraEl's mountains

So that none will pass through them again.

²⁹ 'Then they'll know that I am Jehovah

When I turn their land into a desert

For the disgusting things that they've done.

³⁰ ‘O son of man;
The sons of your people are talking about you
Along the walls and in the gatehouses,
As well as inside of their homes.
Each one is saying this to his brother:
*We should all gather and listen
To what Jehovah has planned.*

³¹ ‘So, after they all come to see you
And they sit down before you
To hear the things that you’ll say;
There’s no way that they’ll do [what you tell them]!
For the lie is still in their mouths,
And they follow the disgusting ways of their hearts.

³² ‘So, if you should be the sound of a harp
(A sound that is sweet and well-tuned),
They’ll listen to your words, but not do them!
³³ But after it’s done, they’ll admit:
Look... it has all come to pass!
And they’ll know there’s been a Prophet among them.’

Chapter 34

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:
² ‘O son of man;
Against the shepherds of IsraEl
You must now prophesy!
Tell them that thus says Jehovah, the Lord:
*‘O shepherds of IsraEl;
You have been feeding yourselves
When you should have been feeding My sheep!*

³ ‘{Look!} *You have drunk all their milk,
And you’ve wrapped yourselves in their wool.
You have slaughtered the best of My sheep
And you’ve failed to graze [all the rest].*

⁴ *'You haven't strengthened the weak,
And those that are ill, you've not treated;
Those with broken [bones], you've not wrapped,
And the strayed, you have failed to return.
No, you haven't searched for the lost,
And for the strong, all you do is make trouble.*

⁵ *'So now, My sheep have been scattered
Because they don't really have shepherds.
⁶ They're being consumed by wild beasts in the fields,
Since they're scattered upon every mountain and hill...
They're scattered across the face of the land,
And no one has searched to make them turn back!*

⁷ *'Because of this, O you shepherds;
Hear the Word of Jehovah!*

⁸ *'As I live, says Jehovah, the Lord;
Instead of My sheep being plundered
And being eaten by beasts in the plains...
Because there aren't any shepherds
(Shepherds who'll search for My sheep),
And because the shepherds have grazed on My sheep
While they've failed to provide them with grass;*

⁹ *Because of this, O you shepherds,
Hear the Word of Jehovah!*

¹⁰ For the Lord Jehovah says this:

*'Look, I'm against all the shepherds,
And I'll take My sheep out of their hands.
I'll remove them from tending My sheep,
And the shepherds won't graze upon them again.
I'll rescue My sheep from their mouths...
They'll no longer be something to eat!*

¹¹ *'The Lord Jehovah also said this:
{Look!} I will search for My sheep,
And then I will visit with them.*

¹² *As a shepherd who looks for his flocks
On dark cloudy days when they've strayed...
That's how I'll search for My sheep.*

*'I'll drive them back from where they were [lost]
On that dark, cloudy day.*

¹³ *I'll lead them out of the nations...
From many regions, I'll gather them back
And return them to their own land,
Where on IsraEl's mountains, I'll graze them...
In the valleys and homes of their country.*

¹⁴ *'I will provide good pastures for them,
And on IsraEl's mountains, they'll graze.
For there, they will find a safe haven...
A place where they can sleep and find rest
In good and plentiful pastures
Upon the mountains of IsraEl.*

¹⁵ *'I'll graze My sheep and bring them some rest,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

¹⁶ *I'll search for the lost and the strayed,
And I'll bring back the ones that are broken.
I will bind and strengthen those that are weak,
And I'll also watch over the strong...
I'll allow them to graze their fair share.*

¹⁷ *'Then, from among you, My sheep,
Says Jehovah, the Lord,
{Look!} I'll separate the sheep from the sheep
And the rams from the goats.*

¹⁸ *'Were the pastures you fed from so poor
That you trampled on them with your feet?
And weren't there enough places to drink
That you stomped and muddied the waters?*

¹⁹ *'Yes, My sheep have trampled their food with their feet,
And muddied the waters they drank from.*

²⁰ *Because of this, says Jehovah, the Lord;
{Look!} I'll separate the strong from the weak.*

²¹ *'For you pushed them away with your shoulders and sides,
And the weak, you have gored with your horns...
You squeezed them out and pushed them aside!*

²² *'So, I will rescue My sheep,
And no more will they serve as [your] plunder;
For between ram and ram, I will judge.*

²³ *'I will raise a shepherd for them,
And My servant David will tend them...
He'll be a shepherd that cares about them.*

²⁴ *Then, I (Jehovah) will be their God,
And My servant David will rule in their midst...
Yes, I (Jehovah) have spoken.*

²⁵ *'Among them, I'll make an Agreement of peace,
And I'll wipe the fierce beasts from their land.
Then, they will dwell in the deserts,
And in the forests, they'll sleep.*

²⁶ *'Around My Mountain, they will be spread,
And I'll give them rain when it's due...
It will be a rain of great blessings.*

²⁷ *'The trees in the plains will then yield their fruit;
The ground will yield all her strength;
And in the hope of peace, they'll dwell in their land.*

*'Then they'll know that I am Jehovah,
When I break the chains of their yoke
And save them from those that are making them slaves.*

²⁸ *'By the nations, they'll not be plundered again,
Nor will they be eaten by beasts.
They will then dwell in hope,
And no one will make them afraid!*

²⁹ *'For them, I'll raise plants of peace,
And they won't be hungry or starving again,
Nor will they be scorned by the nations.
³⁰ Then they'll know that I am Jehovah their God,
And that I will always be with them.
'For, you are My people, O house of IsraEl,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.
³¹ You are the sheep of My pasture
And I am Jehovah your God,
Says the Jehovah, the Lord.'*

Chapter 35

¹ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said,
² 'O son of man;
Now turn your face toward [Edom's] Mount Seir
And against it, you must now prophesy!
³ Tell them that thus says Jehovah the Lord:
*'Look! I am against you, Mount Seir!
So I'll stretch My hand out against you
And make you a wasteland and desert.
⁴ Your cities will be desolate places;
I'll turn you into a desert;
And you'll know that I am Jehovah.
⁵ 'For, through the age, you've been a resister
And an enemy to the house of IsraEl...
To enemies with swords, you gave them,
When they were being unrighteous.
⁶ 'So because of this... as I live, says Jehovah!
For the blood of these men, I'll pursue you...
For the blood you detested, I'll now chase you down!
⁷ 'Mount Seir has been appointed by Me
To become a desolate desert.
Its men and beasts, I'll destroy...*

⁸ *Its hills and valleys, I'll fill with your slain...
Yes, those who'll be killed by the broadsword
Will fall into your fields and ravines.*

⁹ *'I'll assign you to waste through the age,
And your cities, I will now empty...
Then you'll know that I am Jehovah.*

¹⁰ *'Because you said, His nation is mine,
And I will inherit [their land]...
Yes I'll own the place of Jehovah their God!*

¹¹ *As I live, says Jehovah;
I'll treat you with the hate that you've hated;
And what you did because you were jealous,
I'll reveal to you, when I judge you...*

¹² Then you'll know that I am Jehovah.

*'I've heard this blasphemous thing that you said:
The mountains in the deserts of IsraEl
Have been given to us as our food.*

¹³ *'Then your mouths spoke great words against Me...
Yes, against Me, you've shouted,
And I've heard every word that you said!'*

¹⁴ *'Therefore, Jehovah said this:
To the joy of this land,
I will turn you into a desert!*

¹⁵ *And as you were glad to inherit
And wipe the house of IsraEl away;
That's what I'll do to you, O Mount Seir...
I'll turn you into a desert,
And completely destroy Edom's house...
Then you'll know that I am Jehovah, The God!'*

Chapter 36

Against the mountains of IsraEl*

You must now testify.
You must tell IsraEl's mountains
To hear the Word of Jehovah...

² For the Lord Jehovah has spoken.

‘Because the enemy has said this against you:
*Well done, for these desolate places
Have now become ours through the ages;*

³ About this, you must prophesy...

Tell them that thus says Jehovah the Lord:

‘*Since you were dishonored and detested
By those who lived roundabout you
(Those who wanted the nations to take you...
Those who said bad thing about you
And who made you the butt of their scorn)...*

⁴ Because of this, O IsraEl's mountains;
Hear what Jehovah has said!

‘Jehovah says this to your mountains and hills
And to your desolate rivers and valleys:
*Though your cities are all abandoned and gone
(Looted and trampled by the nations roundabout)...*

⁵ Because of this, says Jehovah:

*In the fire of My rage, I have spoken
Against all of those that remain...
Yes, against all of Edom I've spoken,
For they happily took My land as their own...
They destroyed, looted, and dishonored My people.*

⁶ ‘So, about IsraEl, you must prophesy;
Say to her mountains and valleys,
And to her hills and her forests
That thus says Jehovah the Lord:

‘*{Look!} In My rage and zeal, I now have condemned
All those nations that scorned you.*

⁷ And because they did this to you, says Jehovah,

*I will raise My hand against each of those nations
(Those that live roundabout you)
And they will now bear your dishonor.*

⁸ *‘But, upon your mountains, O IsraEl,
My people will eat the fruit of their vines;
For they’ll live in the hope of returning.*

⁹ *‘{Look} Because I’m for you, I’ll watch over you,
And your [land] will be planted and worked once again.*

¹⁰ *Among you, I’ll multiply men
To the ends of IsraEl’s [borders];
Your cities will all be lived in again,
And your places destroyed will all be rebuilt.*

¹¹ *‘Among you, I’ll multiply cattle and men
(Yes, they will increase and grow many);
I’ll settle you as you were long ago
And do good for you as I’ve done in the past...
Then you’ll know that I am Jehovah.*

¹² *‘And those who’ve stood against IsraEl (My people)
Will also have many children,
But, they will become your possessions...
Yes, they will be owned by you,
And they’ll not leave you childless again.*

¹³ *‘And about those nations, Jehovah said this:
Many men have come and consumed you,
So your people no longer have children!*

¹⁴ *But you’ll not be consumed by men anymore,
And your nation will never be childless again,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

¹⁵ *‘And never again will you hear
The nations dishonoring you...
You won’t bear their scorn anymore,
Nor will your nation be childless again,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.’*

¹⁶ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁷ ‘O son of man;

Though the house of IsraEl has lived in this land,
They’ve defiled it with their bad ways...

By their uncleanness with women

Who were living apart as unclean.

‘This is how they’ve acted before me,

¹⁸ So, upon them, I’ve poured out my rage

For all the blood that they’ve spilled,

And for the disgusting things that they’ve done.

¹⁹ ‘Among the nations, I’ve scattered them all...

To many places, I [blew] them away.

I judged them each by the things that they did

And according to the sins they’ve committed.

²⁰ ‘Then they entered the nations where they had been sent,

And there, they profaned [God’s] Holy Name.

For the nations that lived there were saying:

Though these people belong to Jehovah,

He has driven them out of their land!

²¹ ‘So, for the sake of [God’s] Name

(Which the house of IsraEl profaned),

I spared them in all the [lands] where they went.

²² ‘And because of this,

Tell the house of IsraEl that thus says Jehovah:

‘O house of IsraEl;

I will not take action for your sakes,

But rather, for the sake of My Holy Name,

Which you’ve profaned among all the nations

Wherever you have been sent.

²³ ‘I will make My Name holy again,

Which is being profaned among gentiles

(The Name that you profaned in their midst)...

*Then those nations will know that I am Jehovah,
Says Jehovah the Lord,
When before their eyes, I'm made holy among you.*

²⁴ *'For I'll take you away from those nations
And gather you back from those [countries],
Then bring you back to your land.*

²⁵ *I'll pour clean water upon you,
And from your filth, you'll be cleansed.
I'll also cleanse you of idols,*

²⁶ And then I will give you new hearts.

*'Indeed, I will give you new spirits,
And remove your hearts made of stone,
Then change them to hearts made of flesh.*

²⁷ *'Within you, I will then put My Spirit,
Which will cause you to follow My rules.
And thereafter, you'll obey My decisions...
Yes, you'll observe every one!*

²⁸ *'Then you'll live on the land that I gave to your fathers...
You'll be My people and I'll be your God.*

²⁹ *I'll save you from your uncleanness;
I'll send you much grain... and then even more,
And never again will I send you famine.*

³⁰ *'I'll multiply the fruit on your trees,
As well as the crops in your fields;
So the scorn of famine, you'll not have to bear
Among the nations again.*

³¹ *'Then you'll think about all the bad things you've done
And the wicked ways that you've lived,
And you'll loathe those things that you've practiced
And the disgusting things that you did.*

³² *'But I won't be doing this for your sakes,
Says Jehovah the Lord;*

*But rather, in order to remind you
That you should be ashamed and remorseful
For the many bad things that you did!*

³³ *‘Then the Lord Jehovah said:
In the day that I cleanse you from your lawless deeds,
I will resettle your cities
And rebuild your desolate places.*

³⁴ *‘Your desolate land will be worked once again,
And the reasons why it was destroyed
Will be forgotten by all who pass by.*

³⁵ *‘They’ll say that this land that once was destroyed
Has become a luxurious garden.
And the towns that were wiped away and destroyed
(Those that once had been razed)
Will again be fortified cities.*

³⁶ *‘And then, the nations around you
(Those that are left at that time)
Will know I’m the One who rebuilt them
(Those cities that had once been demolished)...
I’m the One who replanted those places
That I had wiped away...
And thereafter, when I speak, I’ll take action!’*

³⁷ *‘And the Lord Jehovah said:
Then the house of IsraEl will seek Me
[And ask Me to] deal with them once again.
And just like sheep (holy sheep),
I’ll multiply men like JeruSalem’s flocks
During her holiday feasts.*

³⁸ *‘Then, all of her desolate cities
Will be filled with the sheep among men...
And they’ll know that I am Jehovah.’*

Chapter 37

¹ Then the hand of the Lord came upon me and led me by the Breath of Jehovah into a field that was filled with human bones... ² he led me around them in a circle, and look; there were huge numbers [of bones] lying there in the field. ³ Then he said to me: ‘O son of man; Will these bones ever come back to life?’

And I replied: ‘O Lord; only you know the answer to such things!’

⁴ Then He told me to prophesy over the bones and say this:

‘O dry bones; hear the Word of Jehovah.

⁵ For the Lord Jehovah says to these bones,
{Look!} The breath of life, I will [blow] into you,

⁶ *Then upon you, I will lay nerves,
And over that, I'll put flesh.*

Then I will stretch skin over you,

And I'll [breathe] My Breath into you

So that you will then come to life...

And you'll know that I am Jehovah.’

⁷ Therefore, I started prophesying just as he had instructed me. And at the sound of my prophesying, {Look!} a great shaking occurred that joined those bones, bone against joint. ⁸ And as I watched, I saw nerves and flesh [starting to grow]; and then [I saw] the skin growing over them. However, there still wasn't any breath in the bodies.

⁹ Then he said to me:

‘O son of man;

Now prophesy over the wind...

¹⁰ Tell the wind that thus says Jehovah the Lord:

From the four winds, send them breath...

Blow into these dead ones and make them alive!’

¹⁰ So I prophesied to the extent that he allowed me to do, and the wind entered them and they came to life... they stood up on their feet [and formed] a great crowd!

¹¹ And the Lord spoke to me and said:
‘O son of man;
These bones are the house of IsraEl;
For they say these dry bones are just like their bones,
Since their hope was destroyed and they’ve perished.

¹² ‘So, you must now prophesy
And tell them that thus says Jehovah their Lord:
*{Look!} I’ll open your tombs and then lead you out...
To IsraEl’s land, I’ll return you.*

¹³ *Then you’ll know that I am Jehovah,
When I lead you out of your graves.
And, O my people...*

*When I bring you up from your graves,
¹⁴ I’ll Breathe upon you and bring you to life.
Then I’ll lead you back to your land,
And you’ll know that I am Jehovah...
That I spoke and then I took action, says Jehovah!’*

¹⁵ And the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁶ ‘And you, O son of man;
Now, take a stick for yourself,
And write upon it, these words:
Judah and the sons of IsraEl.

Do this for those who’ll be sitting before you.
Then, take a second stick for yourself,
And write this before those sitting there:
JoSeph, Ephraim’s rod.

¹⁷ ‘You must hold both of these sticks together,
And they will be bonded as one.

Then, carry them out in your hands,

¹⁸ And ask the sons of your people
What they think that this signifies.

¹⁹ ‘You must tell them that thus says Jehovah, [their] God:
{Look!} Through Ephraim’s hand, I’ll take Joseph’s tribe

*And the tribes of IsraEl that are living next door;
Then to the tribe of Judah, I'll give them
So that they will become just one stick...
In the hands of Judah, they'll all become one.*

²⁰ *'You must take the two sticks upon which you wrote
And hold them toward them in your hands,
²¹ And tell them that thus says Jehovah:*

*'{Look!} I'll gather the house of IsraEl
From the midst of those nations where they have been sent...
I'll gather them from the nations roundabout
And return them to IsraEl's land.*

²² *'Then, I will make them one nation again
In My land among IsraEl's hills,
With one ruler who'll be the king over all.*

*'They won't be separate nations again...
They won't be a kingdom divided,
²³ And by idols, they won't be defiled,
Nor by their irreverence and failures.*

*'From their lawless ways, I will save them
(From all those ways in which they have sinned),
And thereafter, I will make them holy,
So they'll be My people and I'll be their God.*

²⁴ *'My servant David, will rule in their midst,
And there'll be one shepherd for all.
They will follow My orders...
They'll know My decisions and do them!*

²⁵ *'Then, they will live in the land
That I gave to My servant Jacob...
In this place where their fathers once settled.*

*'And through the age, both they and their sons
Will all be living together,
And be ruled by My servant David.*

²⁶ *'With them, I will make an Agreement of peace...
An Agreement [that will last] through the ages.
I'll resettle and multiply them,
And through the ages thereafter,
I'll place My holy things in their midst.*

²⁷ *'I'll put My shelter among them;
Then, they'll be My people and I'll be their God.*

²⁸ *And the nations will know that I am Jehovah
When My holy things are found there again
And I have declared them all holy.'*

Chapter 38

¹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:
² 'O son of man;
Against Gog and the land of Magog
(The ruler of Mosoch, Tubal, and Ros)
You must now set your face,
And against him, you must prophesy this!
³ Tell him that thus says Jehovah:
'{Look!} You ruler of Mosoch, Tubal, and Ros;
Because I'm the One whom you've opposed,
⁴ I'll be putting a bridle into your jaws,
And thereafter, I will lead you around.

'I'll gather your army and you,
And all your horses and horsemen...
Yes, all of those wearing chest plates,
And bearing shields, helmets, and swords...
⁵ Persians, Ethiopians, and Libyans
(All those people with their helmets and shields)...
⁶ Gomer and all those around him...
The house of Togarmah from the far north
As well as those dwelling around him...
Yes, all those nations that have partnered with you!

⁷ *'So, [it is now time] for you to prepare...
Yes, you should get yourselves ready
(You and those that have gathered with you),
For you will serve as [their leader].*

⁸ *'Then, after many days, you'll be ready;
And toward the end of the years,
You will come to this land
With the swords that you have collected
From all of the nations.
Then, to the land of IsraEl, you'll come...
To a land that once was demolished.*

*'For by then, they'll all have returned,
And together, they'll be living in peace.
⁹ Then upon them, you'll pour down like rain,
And like clouds, you will cover their land.
Yes, you'll arrive with all those around you...
The many nations that will join with you then.*

¹⁰ *'Then the Lord Jehovah said:
In that day, [bad] things will enter your heart...
You'll make wicked plans and you'll say:*

¹¹ *Against this land, I'll arise
(The land that once was rejected);
I'll come upon those who are resting
And who are living in peace...
Those in a land without walls
And with no locks on their doors,
¹² In order to plunder and loot...
To despoil and to take many spoils,
And to turn my hand toward this place
(This place, which was desolation
And is now resettled by a nation
That returned from among many nations).
For now, they have many possessions,
And they dwell there in the earth's navel.*

¹³ *'Then Sheba, Dedan, and the merchants of Carthage,
And those in their towns will be shouting
That they have come to plunder and loot,
And to take all they own as their spoils.
They'll gather to take all the silver
And to carry off all of the gold...
To take it all as their loot.*

¹⁴ *'Therefore, O son of man;
Now, you must prophesy this...
Tell Gog that thus says Jehovah:*

*'Against IsraEl, My people, you'll come in that day...
Against those who've settled in peace.*

¹⁵ *You'll come from your place in the north
And bring along many nations...
Horsemen all riding horses...
A huge crowd and a great army.*

¹⁶ *'Against IsraEl, My people, you'll come
Like a cloud that covers the land...
Yes, in the last days, this is what you will do.*

*'Against My land, I will lead you,
And then, all the nations will know Me
When before them, I am made holy through you.*

¹⁷ *'Then Lord Jehovah said:
You're the Gog of whom I spoke long ago
By the hands of My servants the Prophets
(The Prophets in past days and years),
In order to lead you against them.*

¹⁸ *'And it will be in that day
(In whichever day that Gog will attack),
Says Jehovah, the Lord,
That I will arise in My anger
¹⁹ And I'll speak in the fiery zeal of My rage.*

*'Surely, it'll be in that day;
From IsraEl, a shaking will come,
²⁰ And before My face, all will tremble...
The fish of the seas, the birds in the skies,
All the wild beasts in the fields,
As well as the things that crawl on the ground,
And all men on the face of the earth;
For, mountains will rip into valleys,
And all walls on the earth will then fall.
²¹ 'All sorts of fear, I will send upon him,
And against their own brothers, I'll turn each man's sword.
²² Then I'll bring My judgments against him
With plague, blood, rain, and great hailstones.
'Fire and sulfur, I'll rain upon him,
And upon all those who've come with him...
Upon all the nations that join him.
²³ 'Then, I'll be magnified and made holy...
I'll be known and glorified among all the nations,
And they'll know that I am Jehovah!*

Chapter 39

¹ 'And you, O son of man, must prophesy this against Gog... tell him that thus says Jehovah the Lord:
*'{Look!} I am against you, O Gog,
Ruler of Mosoch, Tubal, and Ros!
² I'll collect you and then lead you down...
I'll haul you down from the far north,
And to the mountains of IsraEl, I'll lead you.
³ 'Then I'll break the bow in your left hand,
And the arrows that you hold in your right.
⁴ On IsraEl's hills, I'll then throw you down...
You and those who've come with you will fall.*

*'Then, all the nations that have joined you
Will be given to flocks of winged creatures...
To all the birds in the skies
And to all the wild beasts in the plains...
I'll give you to them as their food.*

*⁵ 'On the face of the plains you will fall...
Yes, this is what I've declared, says Jehovah.*

*⁶ 'I'll also throw fire upon Magog,
And the islands will then live in peace.
For they'll know that I am Jehovah...*

*⁷ And My Holy Name will also be known
Among those in IsraEl, My people.*

*'No more will My Name be profaned.
For the nations will know that I am Jehovah...
I am IsraEl's Most Holy One.*

*⁸ 'Look, it's coming... it will surely take place,
Says Jehovah, the Lord!
And this is the day that I said it!*

*⁹ 'Then those who live in IsraEl's cities
Will thereafter light fires with their weapons
(All their small shields and spears;
All their bows and their arrows;
All the lances and sticks in their hands)...
For the next seven years,
They will be used to light fires.*

*¹⁰ 'No, they'll not cut shrubs in the plains,
Nor chop trees in the woods for their fires...
They will just use those weapons.
For they'll loot all those who once looted them
And despoil all those who despoiled them, says Jehovah.*

*¹¹ 'And in that day;
I'll make Gog a place of renown...*

*A remembrance in IsraEl's graveyards
For those who come here by sea.
They'll bury Gog and his hordes in a valley,
And call it, The Graveyard of Gog.*

¹² *'By IsraEl's house, they'll be buried...
For seven months, they will clean up the land.
¹³ They'll be buried by the people who live in the land,
And among them, that place will be famous,
As will be the day when I'm glorified,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

¹⁴ *'They will give orders to the people
To bury [all of the bodies]
That are lying upon the face of the ground.

'For seven months, they will search,
¹⁵ And when those going there find a man's bones;
Next to them, they'll put up a sign
For those in charge of digging the graves
Within the Graveyard of Gog.*

¹⁶ *For, Graveyard will be the name of that town,
And it will be cleansed from the land.*

¹⁷ *'And you, O son of man
(Said Jehovah, the Lord)
Must speak to all the winged creatures,
And to the wild beasts of the plains.
You must tell them to gather and come...
They must gather there from all places
[To consume] this great sacrifice
That I will offer to them...
A great sacrifice on IsraEl's hills.*

*'Come eat all the meat and drink all the blood!
¹⁸ For the meat of giants, you will consume,
And you'll drink the blood of earth's kings.*

*'Then all the rams, calves, and goats will grow fat,
19 Since they will eat fat 'til they're full
And they will drink blood 'til they're drunk
From this sacrifice that I'm giving to them.*

*20 'They will be filled from My table
That is covered with horses and horsemen,
As well as with warriors and giants,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

*21 'Then I'll put My glory among them,
And the nations will see all My judgments...
The things that I'll do with My hand,
And the things that I will have brought upon them.*

*22 'And from that day ever after,
The house of IsraEl will learn
That I am Jehovah their God.*

*23 And all the nations will know
That I allowed their houses to be taken away
Because of IsraEl's sins...
Because they'd annulled their Agreement with Me.*

*'Yes, this is the reason why I turned My face
And gave them into their enemies' hands...
To let them be cut down by swords.*

*24 It's because of all their uncleanness
And because they had broken [My] Laws,
That I turned My face and did this to them.*

*25 'Yet, after that, says Jehovah the Lord,
I'll return all the captives of Jacob,
And show mercy on the house of IsraEl...
I'll show them My zeal for My Holy Name!*

*26 'In peace, I'll bring them back to their land,
And they will accept their dishonor
For the unrighteous things that they've done.*

*'Then, no one will make them afraid anymore
27 When I bring them back from the nations.
And then, before all those nations,
I will be holy among them.*

*28 'For then, all the nations will know
That I am Jehovah their God...
When they see that I am among them.*

*'I will gather them back to their land
And never leave them again...*

*29 From them, I'll not turn My face,
For I will have [ended] My rage,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.'*

Chapter 40

1 It was in the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the first month and on the tenth [day] of the month (fourteen years after the city had been captured) that the hand of Jehovah came upon me 2 and I was led back into the land of IsraEl in a vision from God. There he put me on a very high mountain, where there was a city that was being built right in front of me. 3 So He took me [into the city], and I saw a man who looked like shining brass carrying a builder's string in his hand and a measuring reed. Then he laid them down in front of the city gate, 4 and the man said to me:

*'O son of man;
Now, look with your eyes and behold...
Listen with your ears and pay close attention,
Then prepare your heart for the things that you'll see,
Since this is why you were brought here.
And all the things that you'll see
Have to do with the house of IsraEl.'*

5 {Look!} Well, there was this outer wall that went all the way around the city. And in the man's hand was a reed that measured six cubits (the length of each was a forearm and a palm). Then he measured the area around the wall, and he found that its width was the same as its height [as measured] by the reed.

NOTE: We have stopped attempting to translate the rest of Chapter 40, all of Chapter 41, and Chapter 42 to verse 13, because many of the meanings of the descriptions in Alexandrian Greek have been lost. We have also examined the Hebrew text and found the same to be true, for no independent translators agree on the meanings of these texts. We assume that the descriptions of the city and Temple in these texts (although far more detailed) agree with the descriptions outlined in the Twenty-First Chapter of Revelation. However, we would rather write nothing than mislead you with a wild guess about the true words of these texts (as others have done in the past).

Chapter 42

¹³ And he said to me:

‘The inner chambers facing the north
And the inner chambers facing the south
(Those in front of the spaces)
Are the Holy-Place rooms where the Priests are to eat...
And it’s where they will come to Jehovah
With the holiest of all holy things.

‘There, they must carry the holiest things
– Sin offerings and the holiest things –
As well as their offerings for errors;
For, this is a most holy place.

¹⁴ ‘No one may enter [this place] but the Priests,

And from the Holy Place, they can’t leave

To go to the outer courtyard,
So that those who are leading will always be clean.
Nor may people touch the garments they wear,
For they are also most holy.
So when touching the people, they must wear other clothes.’

¹⁵ Now, after he had finished measuring the inside of the [Temple], he led me outside along the path to the gate that faces east, where he then measured the area that surrounded the [Temple]. ¹⁶ He stood facing the east with his back to the gate, and he measured five hundred forearms in reed lengths. ¹⁷ Then he turned toward the north and measured northward five hundred forearms in reed lengths. ¹⁸ Then he turned toward the west and measured westward five hundred forearms in reed lengths. ¹⁹ And he turned toward the south and measured southward five hundred forearms in reed lengths. ²⁰ So he established the [size of] the perimeter [around the Temple] as being five hundred cubits toward the east and five hundred cubits roundabout, which is to serve as the separation between the Holy Place and its outer walls.

Chapter 43

¹ Then he took me to the east gate to lead me out. ² But {Look!} the glory of the God of IsraEl was coming along the road from the east, and around me there were many voices that were chanting, while the ground all around me was bright and glorious. ³ Then I had a vision that was like the vision that I had when I first entered the city to anoint it... I saw a [celestial] chariot like the one that I saw at the Chobar river. So I fell with my face [to the] ground.

⁴ Then the glory of Jehovah entered the [Temple] by way of the east gate, ⁵ and [\[God's\] Breath](#) picked me up and carried me into the inner courtyard, as {Look!} the glory of Jehovah filled the [Temple].

⁶ Well, as I stood there watching, a voice started speaking to me from the [Temple]... and then I saw a person standing next to me, ⁷ who said:
'O son of man;

Now you can see the place of His throne
As well as the tracks of His feet.
This is the place where His Name will encamp
In the house of IsraEl through the ages.

'But, IsraEl will no longer profane His Name
As they did when they and their rulers when whoring
And murdered the leaders among them.

⁸ 'They won't build their thresholds next to His threshold
Nor set their doors by His doors
As they did when they claimed that His wall
Was the thing that bound them to Him...
Or when they profaned His Most Holy Name
By the lawless things that they did.

For, this is what His rage upon them
When He wiped them away in great carnage.

⁹ ‘Now, they must reject all their whoring
And the murders of those who would lead them to Him!
Then, through the ages, He’ll camp in their midst.

¹⁰ ‘And you, O son of man,
Must give this description to IsraEl’s house,
So they’ll be able to see it
And understand its [dimensions].

¹¹ For, they must turn from their sins
And accept the punishment [they’re due]
For all of the [bad] things they’ve done.

‘You must draw out the plans for this House
And show them how it must be built...
Show them its entrances and exits,
As well as how its foundations are set.

‘Then, speak of its orders and laws,
And explain to them all its rules.
You must draw out the plans there before them,
Then they must keep [God’s] commandments
And they must follow His laws!

¹² ‘Describe the [Temple] on top of the mount,
And set limits for the Holy of Holies...
For these are the rules for His Temple.

¹³ ‘And these are measurements of the Altar:
Its width is two forearms and a palm...
Its recess is to be two forearms deep,
And the molding that goes ‘round its lip
Must be one forearm wide.

‘The height of the Altar,
¹⁴ From the bottom of its hollow to the [top of its edge],
Must be two forearms high,

And its width is to be just one forearm.
From the small to the large, is four forearms,
And it must be one forearm wide.

¹⁵ ‘From the hearth of the Altar, is four forearms,
And from the hearth to the horns, is just one.

¹⁶ The hearth is to be twelve forearms [square],
And it must [be built with] four corners.

¹⁷ ‘Its ledge must be fourteen by fourteen,
And the molding around it, half a forearm.
Its encircling base is a forearm across,
And its steps must face toward the east.’

¹⁸ And he said to me, ‘O son of man; Jehovah [your] God now says this:
*These are My orders for the Altar
In the day that it will be made
To sacrifice whole burnt-offerings,
And to pour the blood out upon it.*

¹⁹ ‘Appoint Levite Priests from the seed of ZaDok,
And only they may approach Me,
Says Jehovah, [your] God.
Then, before they can come before Me to serve,
[They must sacrifice] a calf from the oxen
As an offering [to cover] their sins.

²⁰ ‘They must then take some of its blood
And place it on the Altar’s four horns,
Upon the four corners of its ledge,
And upon its base roundabout
To cleanse it and [to make it holy].

²¹ ‘They must choose a calf as an offering for sins
And burn it in the place set apart...
In a place outside of this [most holy place].

²² ‘And then, on the very next day,
They must choose a perfect kid from the goats

*To serve as an offering for sins,
Then [use it to] cleanse the Altar once more,
As they had done with the calf.*

²³ *‘And after [this cleansing] is done,
They must choose a perfect calf from the oxen
And a perfect ram from the sheep;*

²⁴ *Then, offer them there to Jehovah,
And add salt after they’re sacrificed
As [holy] burnt offerings to the Lord.*

²⁵ *‘Seven days, they must offer a kid for [their] sins,
As well as a calf from the oxen each day,
Plus a perfect ram from the sheep.*

²⁶ *‘[They must offer them] all seven days
To atone for the Altar and cleanse it,
And [to empower] the hands [of the Priests].*

²⁷ *‘Then, after these days are completed;
On the eighth day, the Priests must then put
The whole-burnt-offerings on the Altar
With the offerings for their salvation...
And only then may they enter,
Says Jehovah, [your] God.’*

Chapter 44

¹ Then he took me back to the outer gate of the Holies (the one facing east). However, it was locked. ² So the Lord said to me:

‘After this gate has been locked
It may not be opened and no one may enter...
Only IsraEl’s God, Jehovah, may enter,
And until He does, it must remain locked.

³ ‘And only those who are guiding may sit here
To eat their bread before God.
They must enter by way of the columned-porch gate,
And that’s also the way they must leave.’

4 Then he took me in the direction of the north gate, over against the [Temple], and I looked and saw that the [Temple] of Jehovah had become filled with His glory... so I fell to my face. 5 And the Lord said to me:

‘O son of man;
Now, prepare your heart and your eyes,
And ready your ears, so you’ll hear
All the things that I will now say
Concerning the instructions that I’ll give you
For the Temple of Jehovah and all of its laws.

‘Arrange your heart [so you’ll understand]
The ways they must enter and leave
From this Most Holy Place!

6 ‘Then, speak to those who’ve rebelled
(To those of the house of IsraEl)
And say that the Lord Jehovah said this:

*‘O house of IsraEl;
You must bring an end to your lawless ways!
7 For, into My Most Holy Place
You have brought foreigner’s sons...
Those with uncircumcised hearts
And flesh that is uncircumcised.*

*‘And you have even profaned
Your offerings of bread, fat, and blood.
Yes, you’ve broken [your] Sacred Agreement with Me
By all the lawless things that you’ve done.*

8 *‘You’ve not followed the rules of My Temple,
And you’ve put other people in charge.*

9 *So, no more may foreigner’s sons
Whose hearts and flesh are uncircumcised
Be allowed to enter My Most Holy Place.
For, foreign peoples may never become*

Part of the house of IsraEl...

¹⁰ And only My faithful Levites may enter!

*'Now, IsraEl has strayed far from Me
And followed their own [thoughts and] ideas.
So, they will now [pay for] their unrighteous ways.*

¹¹ *'But, the Levites are [to be treated] as holy,
For they serve as the keepers of My [Temple's] gates,
And that is the place where they'll work.
There the whole burnt-offerings will be slaughtered,
And they'll offer the things that the people will bring...
For, before the people, they'll stand.*

¹² *'But, because they have served before faces of idols
[On behalf of] the house of IsraEl,
They'll be punished for their unrighteous ways...
That's why I've raised My hand against them,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

¹³ *'Yes, they'll bear the blame for their lawless ways,
And they can no longer serve as My Priests,
Or [touch] the holy things inside of the Holies.*

*'Indeed, they must bear their dishonor
For the delusions in which they have strayed.*

¹⁴ *But I'll order them to be watchmen,
And to perform other tasks.*

¹⁵ *'The Priests of the Levites (the sons of ZaDok)
Were the only ones who truly kept watch
As IsraEl was straying from Me.
So, only they may approach Me,
And only they can serve before Me...
Before My face they will stand
To offer the blood and the fat,
Says Jehovah, the Lord.*

¹⁶ *'Only these may enter My Most Holy Place
Or approach My table to serve Me,
And stand guard in My Temple watches.*

¹⁷ *'So, when entering the gates of the inner courtyard,
They must wear their [official] linen clothes...
They may not wear wool when they enter these gates.*

¹⁸ *On their heads, they must wear linen turbans,
And beltless linen pants on their loins.*

¹⁹ *'And when they go to the people's outer courtyard,
They can't wear the clothes in which they must serve...
They must leave them in the Holy's inner chambers
And wear other clothes when they go there.
But no way can they make people holy
When they are wearing such clothes.*

²⁰ *'They may not shave the hair from their heads,
Nor may they leave their heads bare...
All of their heads must be covered.*

²¹ *And no way may the Priests drink any wine
Before entering the [Temple's] inner courtyard.*

²² *'They may not marry a divorcee or a widow...
Only a virgin from the house of IsraEl...
However, they may wed the widow of a Priest.*

²³ *'Then, they must teach all My people
The difference between the holy and profane,
And the difference between what's clean and unclean.*

²⁴ *'They must handle the cases of judgments of blood,
And attend to decide righteous matters.
They must be fair when judging for Me
According to My Laws and My orders.
They must also observe My holiday feasts,
And My Sabbaths, they must always keep holy.*

²⁵ *'They may not approach a dead person
So that they will not be unclean.
But they may approach their fathers, mothers, or sons,
Or their daughters, brothers, sisters, or wives,
Without becoming defiled.*

²⁶ *But even then, they must count seven days
Before they'll be clean once again.*

²⁷ *'On the day that they enter the inner courtyard
To serve in My Most Holy Place;
They must bring an atonement [for sins],
Says Jehovah, [your] God.*

²⁸ *'And since I am what they'll inherit;
They will be given no land
As their possession among IsraEl's sons...
For, I am to be their possession!*

²⁹ *'The sacrifices are what they'll eat...
The offerings for sins and for errors,
And the separation offerings will also be theirs.*

³⁰ *All the first-fruits are theirs,
As well as the first-born [of cattle].*

*'Then, for the Priests, they must set aside
Some of the first-fruits [they're given].
For, if they give part of the first-fruits
Of all that is brought, to the Priests,
This will bring [God's] blessings upon all their homes.*

³¹ *'The Priests may not eat rotting flesh,
Or cattle that are taken by wild beasts or birds.*

Chapter 45

¹ *'And as you're measuring the inheritances of land;
A place must be set aside
As the first-fruits to Jehovah.
Twenty-five thousand long, it must be,*

*As well as ten thousand wide...
And the area around it is holy.*

*² ‘The Holy Place’s four corners will be set there;
It will measure five hundred by five hundred,
Plus fifty-forearms of space roundabout.*

*³ ‘And from this place, you must also measure out
Twenty-five thousand, plus ten thousand wide
Between it and the Holy of Holies.*

*⁴ ‘And since all this land will be holy;
A portion must be assigned to the Priests
Who will serve within My Most Holy Place.
And then, for all of who approach
To serve in front of Jehovah;
This will be the place where they’ll live,
Since they must be separate and holy.*

*⁵ [Then a portion must be set aside]
That’s twenty-five thousand in length
And twenty thousand in width
For the Levites who’ll serve at the [Temple]...
To be theirs as the city in which they will dwell.*

*⁶ ‘And for this city that they will own,
You must set aside twenty-five thousand,
Plus a width of five thousand,
On behalf of the house of IsraEl;
And this will serve in the same way
As the Holy Place’s first-fruits.*

*⁷ ‘Then a portion of this must be set aside
As the place [where the Chief Priest will dwell],
And as the Holy Place’s first-fruits.
It will be his possession in the city
Before the Holy Place of the first-fruits,
And in front of the part of the city
That runs from the east to the west.*

*'It will be as long as the city,
And will run from the east to the west in the land.*

⁸ In IsraEl, this will be his possession.

*For, I will no longer treat harshly
Those who are leading My people.
And the rest of the land will then be
What the house of IsraEl will inherit
According to each of their tribes.'*

⁹ 'And Jehovah God said:

*Let this be enough for IsraEl's guides...
Let their misery and unrighteous ways be removed...
They must start being righteous and fair,
And lift tyranny away from My people,
Says Jehovah, your God!*

*¹⁰ 'They must use proper scales and right measures...
[Honesty] must serve as their guide!*

*¹¹ So if one should get a tenth measure,
He must receive a tenth measure.*

*And if someone should get a tenth weight,
He should receive his tenth weight.*

*¹² And if he's owed the weight of twenty-five coins,
The full weight of the coins is what he should get!*

'Your bread must weigh fifteen shekels.

*¹³ And the first-fruits that you set aside
Should be a sixth of ten bushels,
Or a sixth of sixty-two bushels for wheat,
Or forty quarts, if it's barley.*

*¹⁴ 'Olive oil is a cup from ten cups...
For ten cups equals a homer.*

*¹⁵ 'And one sheep must be set aside
Out of every two hundred
Among each of IsraEl's families,*

*As a whole burnt-offering sacrifice,
And as an offering of salvation from sin, says Jehovah.*

¹⁶ *'Everyone must offer their first-fruits
To the man who is IsraEl's guide.*

¹⁷ *And to this one who serves as your guide,
Whole-burnt offerings must also be brought,
As well as drink offerings and other sacrifices.*

*'They must bring them on each holiday,
As well as on New Moons and Sabbaths.
And on each of IsraEl's holidays,
All must bring sacrifices to cover their sins,
As well as one whole-burnt offering,
And offerings for IsraEl's salvation.*

¹⁸ *'Then Jehovah God said:
On the first day of the first month,
A perfect calf from the oxen must be offered
To atone for the Most Holy Place.*

¹⁹ *'Then the Priest must take some of its blood
And put it on the Temple's four corners,
And upon each of its doorposts,
As well as on the [horns of] the Altar,
And on the posts of the gate to the inner courtyard.*

²⁰ *'And each seventh month, they must do the same thing...
They must atone for the [Temple]
On behalf of the senseless and simple
On the first day of that month.*

²¹ *'Then the fourteenth day of the first month
Will be the [start] of your Passover feasts.
Unfermented bread will be eaten
For the next seven days.*

²² *And on that day, the one who's your guide
Must offer a calf for himself,
And one for the sins of the people.*

²³ *'And during that seven-day feast,
They must bring as whole burnt-offerings to God
Seven perfect calves, and seven perfect rams on each day.
Then for sins, he must also sacrifice
A kid of the goats on each day.
²⁴ He must prepare a cake for each calf and each ram,
And bring olive oil for each cake.
²⁵ 'And from the seventh day to the fifteenth,
He must offer the same things each day...
Whole burnt-offerings and sin sacrifices,
As well as gift offerings and oil.'*

Chapter 46

¹ *'Then God Jehovah said this:
The gate to the inner courtyard
(The one that faces the east)
Must stay locked for six days of each [week] ...
It's just to be opened on Sabbaths,
As well as on every New Moon.
² 'And the one who is guiding will enter
Through the columned-porch gate.
Then, he will stand at its threshold
As whole burnt-offerings are made by the Priests,
Along with an offering for him,
And one for IsraEl's salvation.
Then he'll bow as he leaves the gate's threshold;
And the gate won't be locked until evening.
³ 'Then, on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons
The people of the land must all come,
And on that threshold, they will bow to Jehovah.
⁴ 'Whole burnt-offerings must be brought on the Sabbaths
By the one who is IsraEl's guide,
Of six perfect lambs and one perfect ram,*

⁵ *As well as a gift of cakes for the ram
And a hand-made gift sacrifice for each lamb,
Plus a quart of olive oil for each offering of cakes.*

⁶ *'And on the days of the New Moons,
[He must offer] one perfect calf,
Plus six lambs and a ram
(All of which must be perfect),
⁷ And an offering of cake for each ram,
An offering of cake for each calf,
A gift offering for each of the lambs
(Whatever your hands might have made),
And a quart of olive oil for each cake.*

⁸ *'Then, whenever the one who is guiding comes in,
He must do it through the columned-porch gate;
And that's also the way he must leave.*

⁹ *'And when, on holidays, the people of the land
Come [to bow] to Jehovah;
They should enter through the north gate,
Then bow and leave through the south gate.
But, if they come through the south gate,
They must then leave through the north gate...
They may not return through the same gate,
And they must leave straight away.*

¹⁰ *'And the one who serves as the guide in their midst
Must enter as they start to enter,
And leave after they are all gone.*

¹¹ *'And during the festivals and holidays,
An offering of cake must be brought for each calf,
As well as one for each ram,
With whatever his hand should provide for the lambs,
Plus a quart of olive oil with each cake.*

¹² *'And if the one who is guiding should offer
A whole burnt-offering of salvation;*

*The gate facing the east must be opened for him.
So, his whole burnt-offering must be given
Along with his things for salvation
In the same ways as he does on the Sabbaths.
And after he leaves, they must lock all the gates.*

¹³ *'He must offer a perfect one-year-old lamb
As a whole burnt-offering to Jehovah,
Which he must prepare every morning,*

¹⁴ *Along with an offering as a gift
Of a sixth of a measure of olive oil,
Mixed with a third measure of the finest flour
As a continuous gift-offering to [God].*

¹⁵ *'The lamb, the gift offering, and olive oil,
Must be prepared and offered at dawn,
As whole-burnt-offerings, each day.*

¹⁶ *'Then Jehovah God said:
If the one who is guiding chooses to leave
His inheritance as a gift to his sons,
It will become the possession of his sons.
¹⁷ But, if he leaves a gift to his servant,
It will only be his 'til The Year of Release,
And then it must be returned
To the one who 'll be serving as [IsraEl's] guide...
But the inheritance of his sons, will be theirs.*

¹⁸ *'There's no way that the one who is guiding
May give them an inheritance from the people,
So as to tyrannize them.
He may only give the things that he owns
As an inheritance to his own sons,
So the possessions of My people won't be scattered.'*

¹⁹ Then he took me out the back gate to the inner chamber of the Priests in the Holy Place (the one that faces north), and {Look!} within it I noticed a place that was off to the side, ²⁰ and he said to me:

‘This is where the Priests are to boil
The offerings for all of their errors,
As well as sacrifices for their sins.
It’s where they’ll bake the gift offerings,
So that nothing will be carried through the outer courtyard
So the people will always be holy.’

²¹ Then he took me to the outer courtyard and led me around its four quarters. And {Look!} on each side of the [four] courtyards was another courtyard... ²² on each of the four sides of the courtyards were smaller courtyards that measured forty forearms long and thirty forearms wide. ²³ And there were inner chambers around each of the four courtyards, and cooking pits were located beneath and around the chambers.

²⁴ And he said to me:
‘These are the homes of the cooks,
And it’s where the sacrifices will be boiled
That the people will bring as their offerings
For those who serve at the [Temple].’

Chapter 47

¹ Then he brought me to the threshold of the [Temple], and look... there was water pouring from an open space that was under its east side (because its front faced the east). And the water poured down to the right side of the [Temple] toward the south, and then on south past the Altar.

² So he led me through the north gate and took me around to the courtyard gate (the one that faces east), and {Look!} the water was flowing down along its right side.

³ There I saw a man who came out across from that place carrying a ruler in his hand. He then went to the source of the water and measured out a thousand [forearms]... ⁴ he walked into the water and measured out a thousand, and it came up to his knees. Then he measured another thousand, and the water came up to his hips. ⁵ And after that, he measured out another thousand, and he wasn’t able to walk through it anymore, because the water was flooding with such force that it became a [river] that couldn't be crossed.

⁶ And he said to me: 'O son of man; what do you see?'

⁷ Then he led me over to the edge of the river; and when I turned around, I saw that along the banks of the river there were huge numbers of trees growing on each side. ⁸ And he said to me:

'This water flows east toward Galilee,
Then to Arabia and on to the sea.
And where it exits, the waters bring healing.

⁹ 'To all the herds, it brings life,
For all that come to this river will live!
And huge numbers of fish will also be there,
Because they'll all come to this water
That heals and gives life to all things...
Yes, all that come to this river will live!

¹⁰ 'Then, fishermen from EnGedi to EnEglaim
Will come here to dry out their nets;
For there'll be no other place like it,
Because there'll be so many fish...
It'll be like the fish in the Great Sea.

¹¹ 'But, where it turns and then flows away,
There's no way that it can heal [anymore];
For [those places] have been given to the salt.

¹² 'And on each side of the banks of that river
Will grow fruit-bearing trees that will never grow old
And will never fail to bear fruit.

'From the beginning, they'll start doing this;
For these waters have flowed from the Most Holy.
And as these waters flow past them,
They'll produce fruit [to be eaten],
And their leaves will bring healing to all.

¹³ ‘Then Jehovah God said:

These are to be your land’s borders ...

*The inheritance of the sons of IsraEl’s twelve tribes;
For they’ll each be given a measured piece of ground,*

¹⁴ *And as brothers, they’ll each inherit [their portion],
The same as they did when I lifted My hand
To divide it among their ancestors ...*

As an inheritance, this land is what they’ll passed on.

¹⁵ ‘The northern borders of this land

Will run from the Great Sea by HethLon ...

*From the gates of ¹⁶ HaMath, BerOthah, and Sibraim
To the limits of HaMath and Damascus,*

Then on to HatTicon’s courtyards

(Which are at the limits of the land of Haran).

¹⁷ ‘The borders will run from the sea in the north ...

From the courtyards of Enan to the limits of Damascus

And all places north to the borders of HaMath.

¹⁸ ‘They run east between Haran and Damascus,

To GileAd, through IsraEl, and on to the Jordan,

Where [the Jordan] flows from the east to the sea

And through the palm groves in the east.

¹⁹ ‘And these are the borders to the south and southwest:

They run from Teman and the palm groves

To the waters of MaribOth Kadesh;

And from there, they flow to the Great Sea ...

These are the borders to the south and southwest.

²⁰ ‘The Great Sea is the border from the gates of HaMath,

And it is the border to the west.

²¹ ‘Among the tribes of IsraEl

This land must be subdivided;

²² You must throw lots for yourselves,

And for the gentiles that will live in your midst ...

Those who will bear sons among you.

For, they will be yours as native-born sons
Among all the sons of IsraEl.
Along with you, they will eat,
And they'll receive an inheritance among all your tribes.

²³ 'Among the tribes that they came to, they'll live,
Along with others who've also been joined
And who will also inherit [the land],
Says Jehovah, your God.'

Chapter 48

¹ 'This is what each tribe [will inherit], by name:

'Starting at the top in the north
To where it splits at the gates of HaMath
And to the courtyard of Enan,
Then to the borders of Damascus in the north,
Along part of the borders of HaMath,
And from there to the east and the west
Is the portion of Dan.

² 'And from the borders of Dan
(From the east to the west)
Is the portion of Asher.

³ 'And from the borders of Asher
(From the east to the west)
Is NaphTali's portion.

⁴ 'And from NaphTali's borders
(From the east to the west)
Is the portion of ManasSeh.

⁵ 'And from the borders of ManasSeh
(From the east to the west)
Is Ephraim's portion.

⁶ *'And from Ephraim's borders
(From the east to the west)
Is the portion of Reuben.*

⁷ *'And from the borders of Reuben
(From the east to the west)
Is the portion of Judah.*

⁸ *'And from the borders of Judah in the east,
Is the place where they'll offer the first-fruits.
Twenty-five thousand will be its length,
And one measured portion will be its width
From the east to the west...
And the Holy Place will be in its midst.*

⁹ *'There they'll set first-fruits aside for the Lord...
Its width is to be twenty thousand
And ten thousand long, is its length.*

¹⁰ *Within it, they will store all the first-fruits
Of the holy things for the Priests.
It runs north for twenty-five thousand,
And toward the west for ten thousand,
Then toward the east for ten thousand,
And to the south for twenty-five thousand...
And the Holy Mountain and Most Holy Place
Will be located in its midst.*

¹¹ *'This is to be set aside for the Priests...
Zadok's sons who have been made holy...
Those who've kept watch at My Temple
And not followed the delusions of Israel's sons,
Or strayed in the ways of the Levites.*

¹² *'This must be given to them as their first-fruits
From all the first-fruits that come from the land...
A Holy of Holies from the borders of the Levites.*

¹³ *'And the Levites will also be given their portions
Next to the borders of the Priests.*

*Its length is to be twenty-five thousand,
And it will be ten-thousand wide.
The whole length is twenty-five thousand,
And ten thousand will be its full width.*

¹⁴ *'No part [of this land] may be purchased
Or measured out to be sold,
Nor may its first fruits be taken away;
For, it is all holy to Jehovah.*

¹⁵ *'But, concerning the extra five thousand
Amid that twenty-five thousand;
There'll be a place around the city wall
Where they will [then build their] homes...
And the city will be in its midst.*

¹⁶ *'And this is how it is measured:
From the borders toward the north; four thousand five hundred.
From the borders toward the south; four thousand five hundred.
From the borders toward the east; four thousand five hundred.
From the borders toward the west; four thousand five hundred.*

¹⁷ *'And to the north of the city, there also will be
A space that measures two hundred and fifty;
Then toward the south, two hundred and fifty;
Toward the east, two hundred and fifty;
And toward the west, two hundred and fifty.*

¹⁸ *'And there'll be an additional length
Next to the first-fruits of the Holy Place,
Which will measure ten thousand toward the east,
Plus ten thousand more toward the west.
This is for the Holy Place of the first-fruits,
Which is where the bread will also be [baked]
For those who will work in the city.*

¹⁹ *And those who will work in this city
Will come from each of IsraEl's tribes.*

²⁰ *'The first-fruits is twenty-five thousand
And squared by twenty-five thousand.
You must place it next to the city
As the first-fruits of the Holy Place.*

²¹ *'And an extra space must be set aside
On behalf of the one who serves as the guide.
It must run from this side to that side,
Between the Holy Place's first-fruits.*

*'The part that is his in the city
Will be twenty-five thousand from east to west
And twenty-five thousand along the west side...
It's the portion of the one who serves as the guide,
And for the Holy-Place's First Fruits...
And the Holy of Holies will be in its midst.*

²² *'And by the borders of the Levites
(In the mist of their part of the city)
Will be the place for the one who's the guide...
Between Judah and BenJamin's borders
Will belong to the one who's the guide.*

²³ *'And what's left of that which belongs to the tribes
(From the eastern borders to those in the west)
Will be BenJamin's portion.*

²⁴ *'And from BenJamin's borders
(From the east to the west)
Will be Simeon's portion.*

²⁵ *'And from Simeon's borders
(From the east to the west)
Will be IsSachar's portion.*

²⁶ *'And from IsSachar's borders
(From the east to the west)
Is to be ZebuLun's portion.*

²⁷ *'And from the ZebuLun's borders
(From the east to the west,
Will be the portion of Gad.*

²⁸ *'And from the borders of Gad;
The borders southwest will be his
From Teman and the waters of MaribOth Kadesh,
And from there, on to the Great Sea...
This is what he'll inherit.*

²⁹ *'These are the lands in which you'll throw lots
For those among IsraEl's tribes;
And these are to be their tribes' borders,
Says Jehovah, your God.*

³⁰ *'The northern access to the city
Must be four thousand five hundred;*

³¹ *And the city gates must carry the names
Of each of IsraEl's twelve tribes.*

*'The three gates toward the north will include
The Gates of ReuBen, Judah, and Levi.*

³² *And the three gates toward the east
(Four thousand, five hundred)
Are the Gates of BenJamin, JoSeph, and Dan.*

³³ *And the three gates toward the south
(Four thousand, five hundred)
Are the Gates of SimeOn, IsSachar, and ZebuLun.*

³⁴ *And the three gates toward the west
(Four thousand, five hundred)
Are the Gates of Asher, NaphTali, and Gad.*

³⁵ *'The circumference must be eighteen thousand,
And whatever the city is named
Will be its name from that day.'*

Daniel

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians
Written by DaniEl, covering a period from about 633-BCE to about 537-BCE.
The prophecies of DaniEl appear to be authentic, since they were quoted by Jesus.

Chapter 1

1 It was during the third year of the reign of JehoiAkim (the king of Judah) that NebuChadnezzar (the king of Babylon) came to JeruSalem and attacked it. 2 Then the Lord gave JehoiAkim into his hands, along with part of the things that were in the Temple of Jehovah, which he carried back to the land of Shinar and put into the treasury of the temple of his god.

3 After that, the king told his Chief Eunuch AshPenaz to bring some of the sons of IsraEl as captives to him who were descended from royalty and nobility. 4 They were to be young, perfectly formed, good looking, wise in all things, knowledgeable, intelligent, and bold enough to stand in the palace of the king. And then he told him to school the young men in the writing and the language of the Chaldeans. 5 The king also arranged for them to eat at his table each day, to share in his banquet wine, and to be given special care for three years, after which they were to be brought before the king. 6 Among these sons of Judah were DaniEl, HananiAh, AzariAh, and MishaEl. 7 However, the chief eunuch renamed DaniEl BelTeShazzar (gr. BalTaZar), HananiAh ShadRach (gr. ZedRach), MishaEl MeShach (gr. MiSek), and AzariAh AbedNego (gr. AbdNago).

8 Now, DaniEl had decided in his heart that there was no way he would pollute himself at the table of the king, nor would he drink any of his banquet wine. So he petitioned the chief eunuch not to be forced to pollute himself, 9 and God granted DaniEl the chief eunuch's mercy and compassion. 10 However, the chief eunuch said to DaniEl: 'I'm afraid of my lord the king, and since he's the one who's selecting your food and the things that you are to drink, I don't want him to see your faces looking sadder than the faces of the other boys who are your peers. For if that happens, the king will have my head!'

¹⁴ So he did what they asked and tested them for ten days. ¹⁵ Then at the end of the ten days, he examined them and noticed how they looked... and he found that they were stronger and in better shape than the other boys who were eating at the king’s table. ¹⁶ As the result, MelZar did away with their suppers and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them seeds to eat. ¹⁷ Then God gave them understanding and intelligence in all their studies, and He made them wiser. And it was then that DaniEl came to have an understanding of visions and dreams.

¹⁸ Well, the time finally arrived when they were to be brought before the king, so the chief eunuch took them to NebuChadnezzar. ¹⁹ Then, after the king questioned them, he found that there were none others like these four boys, DaniEl, HananiAh, MishaEl, and AzariAh, and he allowed them to stand before him. ²⁰ In every matter of wisdom and knowledge (whatever the king asked them about), he found them ten-times greater than all the other dignitaries and sorcerers throughout his realm.

²¹ DaniEl thereafter lived all the way into the first year of the reign of King Cyrus.

Chapter 2

¹ It was in the second year of the reign of NebuChadnezzar that the king had a dream that so deeply disturbed his spirit that he couldn’t sleep. ² So he gave the order to call for [all his] officials, priests, sorcerers, and Chaldeans, to have them interpret the dream.

Then when they came and stood before the king, ³ he said to them: ‘I had a dream that bothered me so deeply that I must know what it means.’

⁴ Well, the Chaldeans replied to the king in the Syrian language, saying, ‘O king; May you live through the ages! Just tell your servants what you dreamed, and we will announce the interpretation to you!’

⁵ But the king told the Chaldeans: ‘I’ve forgotten what it was about... and if you can’t tell me the dream and give me the interpretation, I’ll have you destroyed and your homes torn down!’ ⁶ However, if you can tell me the dream and give me its interpretation, I’ll give you many gifts, do many favors for you free of charge, and I’ll honor you greatly... but first you have to tell me the dream, and then you must explain to me what it means!’

⁸ And at that, the king said to them: ‘I know for a fact that you’re just buying time for yourselves, because I told you that every word of the dream has left me. So now, if you can’t tell me the dream, I’ll know that you are corrupt and lying, and that you’ve agreed to keep speaking before me just to [buy more] time. ⁹ First tell me my dream, and then I’ll know that I can believe the interpretation you give me!’

¹² And at that, the king flew into a rage! He was so angry that he ordered all the wise men of Babylon to be destroyed, ¹³ and he sent out a edict for them all to be put to death.

Well, when they went looking for DaniEl and his friends to do away with them, ¹⁴ DaniEl asked this of AriOch, the king’s head-of-the-guards (who had come to execute all the wise men of Babylon). ¹⁵ He said to him: ‘O [servant] of the king; Why was such a presumptuous decree put before him?’

Then AriOch told DaniEl about the things that had been said.

¹⁶ So then DaniEl went before the king and petitioned him to give him enough time to find the interpretation so that he could announce it to the king. ¹⁷ Then DaniEl went back to his house and there he [met with] his friends HananiAh, MishaEl, and AzariAh, to ask them to help him interpret [the dream]. ¹⁸ So they trusted in the compassions of the God of heaven [to help them unlock] this mystery and to keep DaniEl and his friends from being destroyed along with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

¹⁹ Well, that night, DaniEl had a vision in which the mystery of the dream was revealed to him. So he praised the God of heaven, and said this:

²⁰ ‘May the Name of The Great God be praised
Through the age and into the age of the ages.
To Him, understanding and wisdom belong...

²¹ He’s the One who changes the seasons and times.

‘He appoints kings and removes them...
To the wise, He’s the One who gives wisdom
And intelligence, so they’ll understand...

²² He uncovers the things that are hidden and deep.

‘He knows all that happens in darkness,
For He is the source of all light.

²³ So, I acknowledge and praise You,
O Great God of the ages.

‘You’re the One who gave me the wisdom and power,
And revealed what I petitioned from You
Regarding this matter of the king;
Yes, You have revealed it to me.’

²⁴ Then DaniEl went to AriOch (the one whom the king had appointed to destroy all the wise men of Babylon) and said to him: ‘Don’t destroy the wise men of Babylon! I want you to take me before the king so I can announce the interpretation of the dream to him.’

²⁵ As the result, AriOch quickly took DaniEl before the king and told him: ‘I’ve found a man among the captive sons of Judah who will announce to the king the interpretation of his dream!’

²⁶ And the king asked DaniEl (whom he referred to as BelTeShazzar): ‘Are you really able to tell me the dream that I saw and then explain its meaning to me?’

²⁷ And there in the presence of the king, DaniEl said this: ‘The mystery that the king has asked the wise men, sorcerers, officials, and astrologers to announce to him isn’t theirs to explain. ²⁸ However, there is a God in the heavens who uncovers mysteries, and He has made known to King NebuChadnezzar what’s going to happen in the last days.

‘The dream that you saw in your head while you were lying in your bed was this: ²⁹ You, O king, through the thoughts that you had in your bed, were elevated to see what will happen after this... for mysteries have been made known to you about things that will happen [in the future].

³⁰ ‘Now, I’m no wiser than any other living man; but this mystery has been uncovered to me so that the king may understand what it means, and so that you may know the thoughts that are in your own heart.

³³ ‘Well, you stared at it until a rock was cut from a mountain without any hands, which thereafter flew and hit the image on its feet of iron and baked clay, completely shattering them... ³⁴ and everything else was shattered at the same time (the baked clay, the iron, the brass, the silver, and the gold). Then it all became like a cloud of dust from a threshing floor during the harvest, ³⁵ until a wind came and blew it all away, leaving nothing at all. And after that, the stone that had struck the image became a huge mountain that filled the whole earth.

³⁶ ‘So that was the dream... and now I’ll tell the king what it means. ³⁷ You, O king, are the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given a strong, fortified, and honorable kingdom. ³⁸ And in every place where the sons of men live, as well as in every place where the wild animals of the fields and flying creatures of the skies live, has been given into your hands by Him, for He's made you the lord over it all. So you, O king, are the head of pure gold.

³⁹ 'But after you, another kingdom will arise that's inferior to yours, and then a third kingdom (the one of brass) will come to dominate the whole earth. [It will be followed by] a fourth kingdom that will become as strong as iron... ⁴⁰ for just as iron can crush and tame all things, it will crush and tame everything.

⁴¹ 'Then the feet and the toes that you saw, which were part iron and part baked clay, will be a divided kingdom. You saw the iron mixed with the baked clay, because some of the roots of the iron will be in it. ⁴² And because the toes of the feet are part iron and part baked clay, part of the kingdom will be strong and part of it will be easily broken. ⁴³ For as you saw the iron mixed with the baked clay; [this kingdom] will be mixed with the seed of mankind... and they won't stick to each other, just as iron won't stick to baked clay.

⁴⁴ 'And in the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a Kingdom through the ages that will never be corrupted, and His Kingdom will not be passed on to others. It will crush and sift all kingdoms, and it will stand through the ages.

⁴⁵ 'So, now that you've seen the stone cut from a mountain without hands, and how it crushed the baked clay, iron, brass, silver, and gold; the great God has revealed to the king what's going to happen after this. The dream is true, and you can trust its interpretation.'

⁴⁶ Well at that, King Nebuchadnezzar fell to his face and bowed before Daniel, and he offered him a very nice perfume as a gift. And thereafter, he [told his servants] to give him something to drink.

⁴⁷ Then the king said to Daniel: 'It's a fact that your God is the God of gods, Lord of lords, and King of kings. For He alone can uncover mysteries... as you were able to uncover this mystery!'

⁴⁸ Then the king honored Daniel by giving him many great gifts, and he appointed him over all the [districts] of Babylon as the ruler over all the governors and wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ And because he requested this of the king, ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego were appointed over the construction projects throughout all the regions of Babylon, and DaniEl [thereafter served] in the courtyard of the king.

Chapter 3

1 It was during his sixteenth year that King Nebuchadnezzar had a gold-[plated] idol made that stood a hundred feet tall and ten feet wide, which he placed in the plains of Dura, near Babylon. 2 Then he called for all his top officials, generals, lieutenants, governors, vassal kings, 3 and everyone else of authority in all his districts, and told them to come and [celebrate] a holiday of dedication for the idol that he had erected. So everyone came there and stood before the idol that Nebuchadnezzar had set up, 4 and the [king's] herald yelled at the top of his voice: 'O nations, peoples, tribes, and languages; You've been told that 5 when you hear the sound of trumpets, woodwinds, harps, stringed instruments, and bagpipes playing the anthem, you must all fall to your faces and bow before the idol of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has erected. 6 And if anyone chooses not to bow before it, he will be immediately taken out and thrown into a blazing furnace!'

7 So when the people heard the sounds of the trumpets, woodwinds, harps, stringed instruments, and bagpipes playing the anthem, all the peoples, tribes, and languages bowed low before the gold idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected.

8 But thereafter, certain Chaldeans went up and made an accusation against the Jews... 9 they went to King Nebuchadnezzar and said: 'O king; May you live through the ages! 10 However, the king gave an order that when we hear the sound of the trumpets, woodwinds, harps, stringed instruments, and bagpipes playing the anthem, 11 any man that doesn't fall and bow before the gold idol should be thrown into a blazing furnace. 12 Now, there were three Jewish men whom you've put over construction in Babylon – ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego – and they didn't obey your decree, O king; for they've chosen not to serve your gods or to bow before the gold idol that you've erected.'

¹³ Well at this, Nebuchadnezzar flew into an angry rage and he had them bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego before him. ¹⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar said to them: ‘Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; Is it true that you won’t serve my gods, and that you won’t bow before the gold idol that I’ve erected?’ ¹⁵ Well, when you hear the sound of trumpets, woodwinds, harps, stringed instruments, and bagpipes playing the anthem, it would be best for you to fall to your faces before the gold idol that I’ve made. Because, if you don’t bow to your faces before it, you will be immediately taken out and thrown into a blazing furnace... and then we’ll see which God can rescue you from my hands.’

¹⁶ But Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to King Nebuchadnezzar: ‘We don’t really have to answer you about this matter, ¹⁷ for our God in the heavens (whom we serve) can rescue us from the fire in the furnace... and He will rescue us from your hands, O king!’ ¹⁸ But even if He shouldn’t do this; you must know, O king, that we won’t serve your gods or the gold idol that you’ve set up and before which you’ve told us to bow!’

¹⁹ Well, Nebuchadnezzar was furious, and the way that he viewed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego started to change. So he gave instructions to heat the furnace seven-times hotter than usual... until they couldn’t get it any hotter! ²⁰ Then he gave some powerful men instructions to shackle Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and then throw them into the blazing furnace.

²³ Well, the three men (Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego) fell into the midst of the blazing furnace wearing shackles... but then they started walking around in the midst of the flames, praising God and blessing their lord. ²⁴ And when Nebuchadnezzar heard their praising, he was shocked. So he quickly got up and asked his mighty men: ‘Didn’t you throw three men wearing shackles into the midst of the fire?’

And they replied: ‘Yes we did, O king.’

²⁵ But the king said: ‘I see four men here that are walking around free in the midst of the flames, and none of them are being burned! And the vision that I’m having of the fourth one is as that of a son of God!’

²⁶ Then NebuChadnezzar leaned forward toward the top of the blazing furnace and said: ‘ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego... you servants of the highest God; Come here... come out of there!’

So ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego came from the midst of the flames, ²⁷ and then all the governors, generals, lieutenants, and king’s officials were called over to see these men, and to [witness the fact] that the fire hadn’t consumed their bodies! For the hair on their heads hadn’t been singed, their [clothes] were still the same, and there wasn’t even the smell of smoke on them!

²⁸ Then, right there before them all, the king bowed to Jehovah and said: ‘Praise the God of ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego who sent His messenger and rescued His servants that put faith in Him. For these men changed the word of the king and then they offered their bodies in fire, because they wouldn’t serve any god other than their God!

²⁹ So thereafter, the king issued this decree:

‘Any people, tribe, or language that speaks blasphemously against the God of ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego will be destroyed and their houses will be pillaged... for there’s no other god who can rescue in such a great way.’

³⁰ Then the king promoted ShadRach, MeShach, and AbedNego over all regions of Babylon, paid them more, and put them in charge over all the Jews in his realm.

Then sometime later, the king [wrote this] about [something else that had happened to him]:

Chapter 4

¹ ‘NebuChadnezzar the king, to all peoples, tribes, languages... to all who live in the land;

May you have an abundance of peace.

² I'm pleased to announce to you that the highest God has performed signs and miracles to me... ³ and His signs are great, His wonders are mighty, His kingdom is through the ages, and His authority is through generations.

⁴ 'I (NebuChadnezzar) was prospering in my palace and my throne was thriving. ⁵ But then I had a vision in a dream that struck me with fear and left me disturbed in my bed, for the vision that I saw in my mind really bothered me. ⁶ So I decreed that all the wise men of Babylon should brought before me so they could explain the meaning of the dream to me. ⁷ Then all the sorcerers, priests, astrologers, and Chaldeans came to me, and I told them of the dream, but they were unable to explain what it meant.

⁸ 'But thereafter, DaniEl (who is called BelTeShazzar, and who truly has the Breath of God) came in the Name of my God, and I told him my dream. ⁹ [I said], O BelTeShazzar, you leader of [my] wise men and someone whom I know has the Breath of God and is never powerless when it comes to understanding mysteries; Listen to the vision that I saw in my dream and then tell me what it means. ¹⁰ For this is the vision that I saw in my mind while I was in my bed:

{Look!} There was a huge tree that stood in the center of the earth... it was very tall, ¹¹ and the tree kept getting stronger and larger until it reached into the heavens and spread to the ends of the earth. ¹² Its leaves were beautiful and it was filled with enough fruit to feed everyone. So the wild animals of the fields camped under it, the flying creatures of the skies lived in its branches, and all flesh was being fed by it.

¹³ 'Then in the vision that I had in my bed that night, I saw a holy observer (a messenger) coming down out of the sky ¹⁴ who shouted and said:

'Now, you must cut down the tree...

Yes, cut off its branches and shake off its leaves,

Then scatter its fruit [on the ground].

You must chase off all the wild beasts

That are living under its branches,
And drive the flying creatures away!

¹⁵ ‘Leave nothing but its roots in the ground;
Then, bind it with iron and brass
So it will just lie there covered by grass,
Surrounded by the wild beasts of the fields
And bathed by dew from the skies
Just like grass on the ground.

¹⁶ ‘Then his heart will be changed from that of a man
And the heart of a beast will be given to him...
For seven times, this is how he’ll be changed.

¹⁷ ‘Then the observer said:

This is a [vision] from the Most Holy One
To show to all those who are living
That Jehovah is over all kingdoms,
And He gives them to whomever He chooses...
He can even appoint men who are viewed with contempt
To be in charge of it all.

¹⁸ ‘So, this is what I saw in the dream (yes me, King Nebuchadnezzar).
So I [said to] Belshazzar, Explain it to me... tell me what it means!
Though none of the other wise men in my kingdom have been able to interpret it for me, I know that you can, O Daniel, because the Holy Breath of God is within you!

¹⁹ Well, Daniel was unable to say anything for an hour, because he was so disturbed by his thoughts. Then I asked: O Belshazzar; why are you taking so long in interpreting the dream?’

‘And Belshazzar replied: O lord; Leave the interpretation to those who hate you and to your enemies! ²⁰ For the tree that you saw, which became so strong and so tall that it reached into the heavens and covered the whole earth, ²¹ and which grew such great leaves and had such an abundance of fruit that it fed all the wild animals that lived under it, as well as all the flying creatures that lived in its branches is you, O king. ²² Because your fame and greatness has been made to grow

so much that it now reaches into the heavens, since you now rule to the ends of the earth!

²³ 'And when the king saw a holy observer coming down from sky who [was told] to [cut down] the tree and destroy it, but to leave its roots in the ground and to band the tree with iron and brass, then let it lie there among the shoots of grass among the wild animals [where it is to be bathed by] the dew from the skies, [and is to remain that way] for seven times... ²⁴ this is what it means, O king. It is the highest form of interpretation, for this is what's going to happen to you, O my lord the king.

²⁵ *'You'll be driven away from mankind
And be forced to live among beasts in the plains
Where they'll feed you with grass like an ox,
And you'll [be bathed by] dew from the skies.*

*'For seven times, you'll be changed
Until you accept that Jehovah is higher
Than all the kingdoms of mankind,
And that He gives it to whomever He chooses.*

²⁶ 'However, because they were told to leave the tree's roots in the ground, your kingdom will be yours until you understand that your power has come to you from the heavens.

²⁷ *'But because of this, O king (and may my council be pleasing to you);
You must pay for your sins by giving to the poor...
You must pay a ransom for your errors
By showing compassion to the needy.
And then God may be lenient with you for your sins.*

²⁸ *'Well, all of these things happened to me (King NebuChadnezzar). ²⁹
For just twelve months later, while I was walking in the temple of my kingdom in Babylon ³⁰ and I was saying to myself, Isn't this the great Babylon that I've built as my royal home through my own power, strength, honor, and glory... ³¹ yes, while those words were still in my mouth, a voice came from sky that proclaimed:*

*'To you, it is now being said,
O King NebuChadnezzar,
That your kingdom has been taken from you.*

³² *‘For, men will drive you away,
And you’ll have to live among the wild beasts,
Where they’ll feed you grass like an ox.*

*‘For seven times, you will be changed,
Until you know that Jehovah
Is the One who is over all kingdoms,
And He gives it to whomever He wishes.*

³³ ‘Well, that’s what happened to me (King Nebuchadnezzar) in that very hour... I was driven away from my people, I ate grass like an ox, I was bathed by the dew from the sky, my hair became as strong as that of a lion, and my fingernails grew long like bird’s claws!

³⁴ ‘Then, after those days had been fulfilled, I (Nebuchadnezzar) raised my eyes to the sky, and my senses were returned to me. So I praised the Most High who lives through the ages... I praised and spoke gloriously of His authority that lasts through the ages, and of His kingship [that lasts] through generations of generations. ³⁵ For before Him, those of us who live on the earth are like nothing at all, since He rules the armies of the heavens and those who live on the earth in any way that He wishes... no one can resist His hand or ask Him why He does the things that He does.

³⁶ ‘Then, after my senses returned, the honor of my kingdom was restored to me; my appearance returned to me; and my rulers and great men once again looked up to me. So thereafter, I went on to strengthen my kingdom and more greatness was added to me.

³⁷ ‘Now, I (Nebuchadnezzar) praise, honor, and glorify the King of the heavens, because everything that He does is righteous, all of His ways are fair, and He humbles all those who are too proud.’

Chapter 5

¹ [Well, many years later], Belshazzar (the last Babylonian king) had prepared a feast for a thousand of his most important men, and they were each served wine. ² Then, while Belshazzar was tasting and drinking the wine, he told [his servants] to bring in the items of gold and silver that his ancestor Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple [of Jehovah] in Jerusalem, so that the king, his important men, and his concubines and mistresses could drink from them.

⁸ So thereafter, all the king's wise men were brought to him... but they were unable to read the writing or interpret it for the king. ⁹ Therefore, King BelShazzar was still disturbed and his and appearance was still changed. And of course, all of his important guests were also very disturbed.

¹⁰ Then the queen entered the banquet room and said this to the king: 'O king; May you live through the ages! Don't allow this to bother your thoughts and change your appearance, ¹¹ for there's a man in your kingdom that is filled with the Breath of God. For, back in the days of your ancestors, he was found to be an insightful and understanding man. And it was because of this that your ancestor King NebuChadnezzar put him in charge of all his advisors, Chaldeans, and astrologers. ¹² This man has a greater measure of [God's] Breath, and he's the most intelligent and understanding when it comes to such things as interpreting dreams, reporting things that are [forgotten], and untying knots. [This man] is DaniEl, whom the king renamed BelTeShazzar. You should call for him and he'll interpret [these words] for you.'

¹³ So DaniEl was thereafter brought before the king, and the king asked him: 'Are you DaniEl, the one whom my ancestor the king brought here among the captives from Judah? ¹⁴ I've heard that the Breath of God is in you and that you're insightful, understanding, and exceedingly wise. ¹⁵ Now, my wise men, priests, and astrologers have come here and they all tried to read this writing and to interpret it for me, but they couldn't explain what it means. ¹⁶ However, I've been told that you are able to interpret such judgments; so, if you can read this writing and interpret it for me, I'll dress you in purple, I'll place a gold chain around your neck, and I'll appoint you to be the third ruler in my kingdom.'

¹⁷ However, DaniEl said to the king: ‘You can keep your gifts and you can give the [power] over your house to someone else... but I will read the writing and interpret it for you, O king.

¹⁸ ‘O king; It was the Highest God who gave the kingdom, greatness, honor, and glory to your ancestor, NebuChadnezzar. ¹⁹ And it was because of this greatness that God put him over all the peoples, tribes, and languages, and made them tremble in fear before him. Therefore, he could destroy anyone he wished, beat anyone he wished, promote anyone he wished, and humble anyone that he wished to humble. ²⁰ But when his heart became too haughty and his spirit became too proud, he was brought down from the throne of this kingdom and this honor was removed from him. ²¹ Then he was driven away from among mankind and his heart became like that of a wild animal. So, he lived among the zebras, he was fed grass like an ox, and his body was bathed and washed by the dew from the skies until he recognized that the Most High God is the One who really rules all the kingdoms of mankind, and He can give [the power] to whomever He chooses.

²² ‘Now you, O BelShazzar ([NebuChadNezzar’s] descendant) have not humbled your heart before God, which is something that you knew you should do, ²³ and you’ve acted haughtily before Jehovah the God of the heavens by having the items from His Temple brought before you, where you, your important men, and your concubines and mistresses drank wine from them as you were praising your gods of gold, silver, brass, iron, wood, and stone, who can’t see, hear, or know anything at all... yes you failed to glorify the God who holds your breath and everything you are in His hands. ²⁴ So it’s because of this that the knuckles of a hand were sent from His presence... He’s the One who sent this writing to you.

²⁵ ‘This is what the writing says: Mene, Tekel, Peres.

²⁶ And this is what it means:

Mene means that God has measured your kingdom and brought it to an end.

²⁷ Tekel means that He has weighed you on a scale and found you to be lacking.

²⁸ Peres means that your kingdom will now be divided among the Medes and Persians.’

²⁹ Well after that, BelShazzar gave the order to dress DaniEl in purple, to put a gold chain around his neck, and he proclaimed him to be the third ruler in his kingdom. ³⁰ However, that very night, BelShazzar (the king of the Chaldeans) was killed ³¹ and Darius the Mede took the kingdom as his own at the age of sixty two.

Chapter 6

¹ Well after that, Darius appointed a hundred and twenty governors to be in charge over his entire kingdom. ² Then he appointed three ministers to be over them to whom the governors had to report, because the king didn’t want to be bothered... and DaniEl was one of these ministers. ³ Then, because he had an extra portion of [God’s] Breath, DaniEl was placed over the other two ministers, so that he was in fact in charge of the whole kingdom.

⁴ Of course, the other two ministers and the governors [weren’t pleased with this], so they kept looking to find some wrongdoing that they could use as an accusation against DaniEl. However, they couldn’t find any excuse, sin, or error against him, because DaniEl was always faithful.

⁵ Well, the other two ministers soon came to realize that the only thing they could use against DaniEl was the Law of his God.⁶ So they and the governors went before the king and said this:

‘O King Darius; May you live through the ages!

⁷ We, the generals, governors, and supreme leaders whom you’ve appointed over your kingdom – those whom you’ve appointed to royal positions – have met together, and we want you to enact [this law] to strengthen [your rule]: Anyone who makes a request of any man or god other than you for the next thirty days, O king, must be thrown into the lion’s pit. ⁸ Please, O king, enact this law and write it for public display, since the decrees of the Medes and Persians can’t be changed.’

⁹ As the result, King Darius gave orders for the decree to be written.

¹⁰ However, when DaniEl found out about the decree, he just went home, and there in an upper room before open windows that faced JeruSalem, he bent down on his knees to pray before and praise his God three times, the same as he had always done.

¹¹ Well, those men had been watching him closely. So when they saw DaniEl petitioning and begging before his God, ¹² they went to the king and said: 'O king; Didn't you enact an order saying that anyone who makes a request of a god or a man other than from you for the next thirty days should be thrown into the lion's pit?'

And the king replied: 'What you say is true, and the decrees of the Medes and Persians may not be changed!'

¹³ So they said to the king: 'We wanted to report to you that DaniEl (one of those who were brought as captives from Judah) hasn't followed your decree, for he still prayed before his God three times on this day!'

¹⁴ Well, this really disturbed the king, and though he wanted to do something to save DaniEl, ¹⁵ those men said to the king: 'You must know, O king, that any decree of the Medes and Persians may not be altered once the king has enacted it, no matter what the circumstances or what position [the person] may hold!'

¹⁶ So the king gave the order and they took DaniEl out to throw him into the pit of lions. [But before they threw him in], the king asked DaniEl: 'Will your God whom you've served so faithfully rescue you?'

¹⁷ [Well after that, they threw him in], and they took a stone slab and placed it over the top of the pit, and they sealed it with the king's ring and the rings of his top men, so that nothing could be changed for DaniEl. ¹⁸ Then the king returned to his palace and went to bed without eating any supper... he had no food brought him, and he wasn't able to sleep.

¹⁹ Well when the king got up the next morning (at daybreak), he went out to the lion's pit. And as he was approaching it, he called out to DaniEl, shouting loudly: ²⁰ 'O DaniEl... O servant of the Living God... has your God whom you've served so faithfully been able to rescue you from the mouths of the lions?'

²¹ And DaniEl replied: 'O king; May you live through the ages! ²² Yes, my God sent His messenger who blocked the mouths of the lions. They haven't been able to destroy me, because [my God] has found me to be righteous... and I haven't done anything against you either, O king.'

²³ Well, the king was overjoyed at that, and he ordered that DaniEl was to be taken out of the pit. And when they lifted him out, they found that DaniEl hadn't been harmed in any way, because he had trusted in his God.

²⁵ And after that, King Darius wrote a letter to all the peoples, tribes, and languages throughout the whole earth that said this:

'May you have peace!

²⁶ From my presence, I've sent this decree to all states throughout my realm:

*'Before the face of DaniEl's God
All should tremble and fear.
For, He is the one Living God
And He exists through the ages.*

*'His Kingdom will not be destroyed
And it will last through the ages...
He alone will rule 'til the end.*

²⁷ *'He snatches away and He rescues;
He sends us miracles and signs
Both in the heavens and on the earth...
For, this is the One who saved DaniEl
From the mouths of the lions.'*

²⁸ So DaniEl continued to prosper during the reign of Darius and on into the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Chapter 7

¹ It was during the first year of the reign of BelShazzar (the king of the Chaldeans) that DaniEl saw a vision in his head as he was lying his bed, and this is what he wrote about the things that he saw:

² In my vision during the night, I (DaniEl) saw the four winds blowing hard and stirring up the Great Sea; ³ and four large animals came up out of the sea that were different from each other. ⁴ The first looked like a female lion, and she had the wings of an eagle. But as I watched, her wings were plucked off and she was lifted away from the earth... then she stood on feet that were like those of a man, and the heart of a man was given to her.

⁵ I also saw a second wild animal that looked like a bear. It was lying on one side and there were three ribs sticking out of its mouth from between its teeth. Then it was told to get up and devour much flesh.

⁶ {Look!} I also saw another wild animal that looked like a leopard, but it had four wings [like those of] of a bird on its back, and it had four heads. It was also given great power.

⁷ And as I was watching, I saw a fourth wild animal that was astonishing, frightening, and huge. It had teeth of iron that were mighty for eating and crushing, and it trampled the others with its feet. It was very different from the wild animals that had come before it, and this one had ten horns. ⁸ Then as I was looking at its horns, another small horn came up in the midst of them, which pushed out the three horns that were in front of it. {Look!} This horn had the eyes of a man, and it started saying grandiose things.

Then a judgment seat was brought forward and scrolls were opened. ¹¹ And as I was watching, I heard a voice coming from the [animal's] horn that was speaking those grandiose words.

However, after that, the wild animal was condemned and put to death, then its body was thrown into a blazing fire. ¹² And after that, the rulership of the other wild animals was returned to them (gr. metestathe or changed over), and their lives were extended for a time and a season.

¹³ Then as I was watching the things in the vision that night, {Look!} someone like a Son of Man arrived riding upon the clouds of the skies, and he went up in front of the Most Ancient One, ¹⁴ who then gave him rulership, honor, and a Kingdom, so that from then on, all the peoples, tribes, and languages were to serve him. And [he was told that] the authority he was given was to last through the ages... it would never pass away or be destroyed.

¹⁵ Well at that, the spirit within me (DaniEl) shuddered (as often happens to me), because the visions that I saw in my head were so disturbing. ¹⁶ So I went up to the one who was standing there, because I wanted him to explain the meanings of all these things... and he spoke to me plainly, making the interpretation very clear. ¹⁷ [He said]:

‘These four great beasts are four kingdoms,
Which will arise on the earth...

¹⁸ But thereafter, they’ll be taken away.

‘Then this [Son of Man] will take over the kingdom
Of the holy ones of the Most High...
Through the age and through ages of ages,
He will be the one that will rule.’

¹⁹ Then I wanted to find out more about the fourth wild animal, because it was so different from the other wild animals and it was so frightening because of its iron teeth and brass claws that it used to eat, crush, and trample. ²⁰ I also wanted to learn more about the ten horns that were on its head, and about the [horn] that arose and shook off three of the [horns]... the one that had eyes and a mouth that spoke grandiose things, because it was the most disturbing of all the things that I saw. ²¹ For as I was watching, that horn attacked the holy ones and conquered them. ²² But then the Most Ancient One came and gave these Holy Ones His most favorable judgment, and they were able to take over their Kingdom.

²³ Then he told me this:

‘The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom
That will also rule over the earth.
It will be greater than all other kingdoms;
For, it will devour all the lands...
It will trample upon them and cut them to bits.

²⁴ ‘His ten horns are ten kings that will come;
And after them, another will arise
Who will conquer the previous kings...
And three of them will be humbled.

²⁵ ‘Then he will speak grandiose words
And mislead the Holy Ones of the Most High.
He’ll choose to change times and laws
For [a time, \[two\] times, and a half](#).

²⁶ ‘But thereafter, the judgment seat will arrive,
And his position of rule will be changed...
He’ll be removed from view and destroyed
Until the end has arrived.

²⁷ ‘Then the Kingdom, the authority, and the greatness
Of all the kings under the heavens
Will be given to the Holy One of the Most High,
Whose Kingdom will last through the ages...
Then these kings will serve and obey Him.’

²⁸ Well, that’s when [the dream] ended. But these thoughts disturbed me so much that they even changed my appearance. Therefore, I (DaniEl) remembered them and kept them in my heart.

Chapter 8

¹ It was in the third year of the reign of King BelShazzar that I (DaniEl) had a vision that was like the previous one. ² In the vision, I found myself at the palace in Sushan (in the region of Elam), and I was standing by the Ulai River. ³ Then when I looked up, I saw a ram standing at the river bank that had two long horns. One horn was taller than the other and it grew from behind it. ⁴ Then I saw the ram butting toward the west, north, and south, so that none of the other wild animals could stand before him and none could be saved from his hands. So he did whatever he wished and he became very powerful.

⁵ Well as I watched, {Look!} a male goat came across the land from the southwest whose [his feet] weren't touching the ground. This goat's horn was very conspicuous, because it grew out from between his eyes. ⁶ Then he rushed toward the ram that I saw (the one with the two horns) and butted him as hard as he could, ⁷ because he was furious with him... he ran as fast as possible and he hit the ram and broke off both of his horns, which left [the ram] weak and unable to oppose him. Then [the male goat] threw the ram to the ground and trampled him, and no one came to his aid.

became extremely powerful... it grew rapidly toward the south and east ¹⁰ until it reached to the powers of the heavens. Then he threw [the other three horns] to the ground and he also started trampling on the stars. ¹¹ For he became more powerful toward the commander-in-chief, so that through him, the sacrifices were to be disturbed and the Holy Place was to be destroyed. ¹² Yes, he was prepared as a sin-offering sacrifice that resulted in righteousness being tossed to the ground. And after he did that, he prospered.

¹³ Then I heard the Holy One speaking. He asked:

‘How long will this vision stand...
When the sacrifices are taken away
And the sin of destruction is allowed,
As the Holy Place and its power
Will thereafter be trampled upon?’

¹⁴ And he said:

‘After two thousand, three hundred mornings and evenings,
The Holy Place will be cleansed.’

¹⁵ Well, as I was seeing this vision, I (DaniEl) wanted to understand more. Then I saw what looked like a man standing before me; ¹⁶ and I heard a man's voice speaking from the midst of the Ulai [River]. He called out and said: ‘GabriEl; Let him understand the vision!’

¹⁷ So he came over to where I was standing. And as he was coming, I became very disturbed and fell to my face. Then he said to me:

‘Pay attention, O son of man;
For this vision is of the time of the end!‘

¹⁸ Well, as he was speaking to me, I stayed there with my face to the ground; but then he touched me and stood me up on my feet. ¹⁹ And he said:

‘{Look!} I’ll explain what will bring the end to [God’s] rage;
For, these are the things that will happen
In the time of the end:

²⁰ ‘The ram that you saw with [two] horns
Is the kingdom of the Medes and the Persians,
²¹ And the male goat is the king of the Greeks.

‘The great horn that stands between its [two] eyes
Will be their greatest of kings.

²² And after he’s broken, the four horns that arise
Will be four kings that succeed him;
But, none will be as strong as he was.

²³ ‘Now, in the last days of their kingdom,
They will be filled with sins.
Then a king will arise who has a proud face...
One who understands riddles.

²⁴ ‘Though he’ll have great power, the strength won’t be his;
Then he’ll prosper and corrupt in wondrous ways...
He’ll take action and he will bring ruin
To a people who are mighty and holy.

²⁵ ‘He’ll prosper by putting [others in] yokes,
And in his hands, there will be treachery;
For in his heart, he’ll think himself great.

‘His treachery will bring ruin to many,
And he’ll destroy many to establish himself...
He’ll break them like eggs in his hands.

²⁶ ‘As for the vision of the evenings and mornings;
The things that you saw are all true!

But, you must now seal up this vision,
For it will all happen in some future time!’

²⁷ Then I (DaniEl) went to bed and I was sick for several days after that. But I [finally] got up and did my work for the king; and I wondered about the vision... but I was the only one who knew about it.

Chapter 9

¹ Well, it was in the first year of Darius (of Xerxes), who was from the seed of the Medes and who ruled over the kingdom of the Chaldeans, ² that I (DaniEl) came to understand the number of the years from the words that Jehovah had given to the Prophet JeremiAh; for he had prophesied that JeruSalem would lie desolate for seventy years. ³ So I turned my face toward Jehovah God to ask Him about this through prayers, supplications, and by fasting in sackcloth and ashes. ⁴ I prayed to my God Jehovah, acknowledging Him and saying this:

‘O Lord; O great and wonderful God who keeps His Sacred Agreements and who is merciful to those who love Him and keep His Commandments;

⁵ We’ve sinned, done wrong, and been godless,
For from Your Commandments and ways, we have turned.

⁶ We’ve not listened to Your servants the Prophets
(Those who spoke in Your Name),
Or to our kings, rulers, ancestors, and kin.

⁷ ‘Though You, O Jehovah, are just;
The people of IsraEl and Judah,
As well as those in JeruSalem,
Have been covered with shame to this day...
Yes, all the people who [lived there]
And those who’d been [carried away]
To all the places where You’ve sent them,
Because they had been in rebellion
By annulling their Sacred Agreement with You.

⁸ ‘The faces of our fathers, rulers, and kings
Who’ve sinned against You are shamed.
⁹ But from You, O Jehovah our God,
Has come forgiveness and tender compassion
Despite our sins of withdrawing from You.
¹⁰ ‘To Your voice, we’ve not paid attention,
O Jehovah our God,
Nor have we obeyed the Laws that you gave
Through the hands of Your servants, the Prophets.
¹¹ ‘IsraEl has broken Your laws
And turned aside from hearing Your voice.
So the curses and oaths that were written
In the Law of Moses (the servant of God)
Have now fallen upon us
Because of our sins against You.
¹² ‘So the words that were spoken against us
And against the judges who judged us
Have now all come to pass...
They have brought such evil upon us
As has never been seen in JeruSalem’s skies.
¹³ ‘In the Law that You gave to Moses
It was written that these bad things would happen
If we failed to search for the face of our Lord
And turn away from our sins.
¹⁴ ‘This was the concern of Jehovah our God,
So He sent upon us, our own evil ways.
It was right for Jehovah to do all these things,
Since we’ve not paid attention to His voice!
¹⁵ ‘Now, O Jehovah our God...
You who led Your people from Egypt
With Your great, mighty hand
And established a Name for Yourself to this day;

We have broken Your Laws...
We've fallen into errors and sins!

¹⁶ 'But Lord;
In your great loving care,
Please turn away Your anger and rage
From Your [holy] city, JeruSalem,
And from Your most holy Mountain!

'It was because we walked in the sins of our fathers
That JeruSalem and Your people
Have become an object of such ridicule
By those who are living around us.

¹⁷ 'O Jehovah, our God;
Hear the prayer of Your servant
And listen to the things that I'm begging!

'May Your Face be seen in Your Most Holy Place
Before those whom You've deserted...
Do this for the sake [of Your Name]!

¹⁸ 'O my God;
Lean Your ear and listen to me!
Please open Your eyes and notice
How we and the city where You've put Your Name
Have been brought to destruction!

'So, we can no longer approach You
And throw our worries before You
Because of our unrighteous ways, O Jehovah...
Yet, we have many things that concern us.

¹⁹ 'Please listen, O Lord, and cover our sins...
Do it quickly, because this city and its people
Are the ones who are called by Your Name!'

²⁰ Well, it was just as I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sins and the sins of my people, throwing my desire for mercy before my God Jehovah concerning His Holy Mountain ²¹ that GabriEl (the person whom

I saw flying in my first vision) touched me (it was about the time for the evening sacrifice), ²² and then he helped me to understand... he spoke to me and said this:

‘O DaniEl;

I have come here to teach you
So that you can now understand.

²³ I’ve been coming since you started your prayer
To tell you that you have been found
To be a very desirable man.

‘So, you must now reflect on the things
That you will see in this vision.

²⁴ ‘Seventy periods of seven have been set
On behalf of you and your people
And for the Holy City on Zion
So as to bring an end to your sins,
To set a seal on your errors,
To wipe away all of your lawless deeds,
And to atone for the [bad things you’ve done]...
To restore righteous ways through the ages,
To set a seal on the prophecies and visions,
And to anoint the holiest of the holy.

²⁵ ‘So, know this, and now understand:
From the delivery of the word and its response
For JeruSalem to be built once again
Until the Anointed (Christ) Leader arrives,
Will be seven periods of seven,
Plus sixty-two periods of seven.
They’ll rebuild the walls and the squares,
But they’ll do it through difficult times.

²⁶ ‘And after the sixty-two periods of seven,
The anointed one will then be destroyed (gr. exolothreuthesetai)...
For in that place, there’ll no longer be justice.

‘Then the Holy Place and the city
Will be corrupted by a leader who’ll come
And cut them off by a downpour.
Yes, he’ll order an extinction upon them
Until the end of his war.

²⁷ ‘He’ll strengthen the Sacred Agreement with many
During one period of seven;
But, in half of that period of seven,
Sacrifices and drink offerings will be lifted away.

‘Then to the Temple will come the disgusting destroyer,
And until that time is fulfilled,
There’ll just be complete desolation.’

Chapter 10

¹ Well, it was during the third year of the reign of Cyrus, the king of Persia that these true words were uncovered to me (DaniEl... who was also called BelTeShazzar), and I was able to gain a great understanding from this vision.

² At the time, I (DaniEl) had been in mourning for three weeks... ³ I hadn’t eaten any meat or bread, and no wine had entered my mouth. And during those three weeks, I hadn’t rubbed myself with any oil.

⁷ I was the only one who saw this vision, for the men who were with me at the time didn’t see anything. However, something came over them that frightened them and they all ran away, ⁸ leaving me alone.

Well, when I had this great vision, it left me weak... it took all my glory and corrupted it, leaving me without any strength. ⁹ Then I heard a voice speaking words; and when I heard what was being said, I was confused. So I fell with my face to the ground.

¹⁰ Then {Look!} a hand reached out and touched me and lifted me up on my knees and onto the palms of my hands. ¹¹ And this what he said to me:

‘O DaniEl, you very desirable man;
Understand the words that I’m speaking to you...
Get up and stand on your feet,
For I have been sent here to help you!’

Well when he said that, I stood erect (but I was still shaking). ¹² And he said to me:

‘Don’t be afraid, O DaniEl.
For from the first day that you opened your heart
So as to understand [all these things]
And you started [your fast] to Jehovah your God;
All of your words have been heard,
And I’ve come here because of the things that you’ve prayed.

¹³ ‘But the ruler of the kingdom of Persia
Stood and opposed me for twenty-one days,
Until MichaEl (the foremost of rulers)
[Finally] came to my aid.

‘So, that is where I had left him...
With the ruler of the kingdom of Persia,
¹⁴ And I’ve come here so as to explain
What will happen to your people in the last days.
For, this is a vision of things that will be.’

¹⁵ Well as he was saying that, I fell with my face to the ground once again, because I was so confused. ¹⁶ Then {Look!} someone who looked like one of the sons of men came and touched my lips, and I was able to open my mouth and speak. So I said to the one who was standing before me: ‘O lord, seeing this vision of you has twisted my insides and left me weak. ¹⁷ So, O Lord, how will your servant be able to speak to you, since I’m weak, I’m unable to stand, and I can hardly breathe!’

¹⁸ Then [someone who] looked like a human came and touched me, and gave me strength; ¹⁹ and he said:

‘Don’t be afraid, you most desirable man...

May you have peace...

But now, you must be manly and strong!’

Well as he was speaking to me I did become stronger, so I said: ‘Now speak, O my lord, because you’ve given me the strength!’

²⁰ Then he asked:

‘Do you know why I have come here to you?

Though I must now go back and fight a war

Against the ruler of the kingdom of Persia

Before the ruler of the Greeks will arrive...

²¹ I’ve come here to help you write words of truth.

And no one is with me when it comes to these things

Other than MichaEl, your ruler.

¹ ‘Since the first year of Cyrus,

I’ve been standing nearby in power and might...

² And now, I will tell you the truth:

{Look!} In Persia, three kings will arise,

Then a fourth will come who’ll be richer.

And after he gains all his wealth,

He will attack the kingdoms of Greece.

³ ‘Then [from Greece], a mighty king will arise

Who will gain a vast kingdom

And do whatever he wishes.

⁴ ‘But, after his kingdom has been established,

It will be divided and broken

Toward the four winds of the skies...

And it won’t be as strong as during his rule.

For his kingdom will then be plucked up

And divided among the outsiders.

⁵ ‘Then the king in the south will grow mighty,
But another one will grow stronger
And he’ll use the authority he’s given
To rule a kingdom that’s vast.

⁶ ‘However, after his time,
They will all become allies;
And the daughter of Egypt’s king
Will go to the king in the north
And she will make treaties with him.
But his arm won’t be strong and his seed won’t survive.

‘Then, she will be handed over,
Along with all those who brought her,
As well as with her young women,
And the one who made her strong in her time.

⁷ ‘Then someone will arise from the root of her flower,
And when he’s ready, he will attack
The army of the king of the north
And overrun his supporters...
He will conquer and then win the war.

⁸ ‘He’ll carry away all of their molded gods
And all of their most desirable things
(Including their silver and gold).
Then, back to Egypt, he’ll take it...
For he’ll dominate the king of the north.

⁹ ‘Thereafter, [the king] of the north
Will come and enter the kingdom
Of the king of the south...
But then, he’ll return to his land.

¹⁰ ‘So his sons will gather an army,
Which will quickly overrun and pass through.
[In that land], they will thereafter settle,
And they’ll fight all the way to his stronghold.

¹¹ ‘This will enrage the king of the south
And he will raise a large army
To fight against the king of the north,
And he will take many captives.

¹² ‘Then his heart will become very proud,
And thousands, he’ll cut to the ground...
But the war he will fight won’t be won.

¹³ ‘Thereafter, the king of the north
Will gather an army that’s larger,
And toward the end of [his rule],
He’ll attack and enter with power,
Along with many [weapons of war].

¹⁴ ‘But, during that time, there will be a rebellion
Against the king of the south,
As the rabble among your people grow many,
So this vision will be proven true...
But then, they will also get weaker.

¹⁵ ‘Then the king of the north will attack,
And he will build many siege mounds
To capture their fortified cities.

‘And the chosen ones of the south will arise;
Yet, they won’t be quite as strong.

¹⁶ So the one who enters will do what he wants,
And none will be able to stop him.

‘Then he’ll stand in the glorious land,
And with his own hands, he’ll destroy it.

¹⁷ ‘Thereafter, he will set his face
To march against their whole kingdom
With those who have been proven upright,
And this is what he will do:

‘They’ll give him the daughter of a woman,
So that he can thereafter corrupt her,
But she will not stay and she’ll never be his.

¹⁸ ‘So he’ll turn his attention to the islands,
And many will be captured there.
This will stop the ridicule of their kings...
But, only for a short time.

¹⁹ ‘At that time, he will turn his attention
To making his land much stronger again;
But then, he’ll get weaker and fall,
And never be [heard from] again.

²⁰ ‘Yet, from out of his roots, will arise
The shoot of a kingdom to oppose him,
Who’ll demand all the glory of his kingdom.

‘Yet, in those days, he’ll be broken...
But, not by rebellion or war.

²¹ There’ll be someone who’ll stand in his place
Whom he once treated with great contempt
And not given any glory in his kingdom.
But, in prosperity, he will return,
And through treachery, he’ll then take the kingdom.

²² ‘So the strength of the one who was bringing the flood
Will be broken and washed away from his face...
The one who’s in charge of the Sacred Agreement.

²³ ‘For, after he’s made an alliance,
He will then act in deceitful ways.

‘Through a nation that’s small, he’ll gain power,
²⁴ And he’ll go to a prosperous place
To do what his fathers and even their fathers
Had been unable to do...
He’ll plunder and divide up the loot.

‘Then, he will plot against Egypt,
²⁵ And when he’s strong, he will set his heart
Against the king of the south,
And attack him with a great army.

‘But the king of the south will gather an army
And beat him with their new weapons of war...
²⁶ He’ll devour everything that he wanted to take,
And then, he’ll destroy his whole army...
He will break him and he will kill many.

²⁷ ‘So, both kings will have wicked hearts,
And when they sit down at a table,
They’ll lie and settle nothing at all
Until the end has arrived.

²⁸ ‘Then, when he goes back to his country,
He will do so with things that he’s plundered
And with his heart set firmly against
The Holy Sacred Agreement.

‘But, after he returns to [his] land,
²⁹ He will invade the south once again...
Yet it won’t be the same as he did at the first.

³⁰ ‘Then, [ships] of Cyprus will attack him
And [teach him] that he must be humble;
So he’ll return and show his rage once again
Against the Holy Sacred Agreement.

‘He’ll launch an attack against those who’ve supported
The Holy Sacred Agreement,
³¹ Then [they’ll come] and profane the great Holy Place...
And bring an end to the daily sacrifices.

Yes, he’ll bring the disgusting destroyer
³² Against all those who are breaking the Law
And disregarding the Sacred Agreement.

‘Yet, those who know God will grow stronger
And they’ll do whatever needs to be done...

³³ For they’ll come to know many things.

‘Yet, they’ll be weakened by swords and by fire,
And as captives, they’ll be carried away...
They’ll be ravaged for a very long time.

³⁴ ‘Then, after they have become weakest,
They will be given some help;
For, many will be added to them...
But they will not have the same zeal.

³⁵ ‘They’ll drag down those who do understand
And purify them as through fire
Until the time of the end,
Which will still be a long time away.

³⁶ ‘Thereafter, the king will grow in his might
And put himself higher than all of the gods...
Including the God of all gods.

³⁷ ‘He’ll forget the Gods of his fathers,
And not notice the desires of women...
He will ignore all the gods,
And put himself higher than all.

³⁸ ‘A god of war from his country,
He will then glorify
(A god that his fathers never knew)
With silver, gold, and most precious gems,
And many desirable things.

³⁹ ‘Within a fortress of refuge,
He will act with a strange god
(Whichever one that he chooses)...
He’ll make it grow in its glory,
And cause many to bow down before it,
And then, he’ll divide the land up as gifts.

⁴⁰ ‘Then, in the time of the end,
He’ll lock horns with the king of the south...
And the king of the north will gather to him
Many chariots, horsemen, and ships.
So, he will enter the land...
He will break it and he’ll pass through it.

⁴¹ ‘Thereafter, he’ll enter the glorious land,
And many there, will be weakened.
But, these ones will be saved from his hands:
Edom, Moab, and the sovereignty of Ammon’s sons.

⁴² ‘Then he’ll stretch his hand out over the land,
And the land of Egypt will not be saved.

⁴³ He’ll dominate all with the hidden reserves
Of their silver and gold,
And the best things of Libya, Ethiopia, and Egypt...
[Things that he’ll find in] their forts.

⁴⁴ ‘Then, out of the north and the east,
He will hear things that disturb him.
So, he’ll leave in a rage, bringing many along,
To wipe away and destroy.

⁴⁵ ‘His royal tent, he’ll then pitch
Between the sea and the Holy Mountain of Glory
Until he comes to his end...
When no one will be able save him.

Chapter 12

¹ ‘And in that very same hour,
The Highest Messenger, MichaEl, will come
(The one who keeps watch on the sons of your people),
And a difficult time will arrive
Such as has never happened before
And will never happen again.

‘At that time, your people will be saved
(Those whose [names] have been written in the scroll),

² And many who are sleeping in graves will arise,
Some to life through the ages,
And others to disgrace and ages of shame.

³ ‘Then, those who comprehend what I’m saying
Will shine like lights in the skies.
And the many who prove to be righteous
Will shine like stars through the ages.

⁴ ‘And you, O DaniEl...
Cover these words and seal up the scroll
Until the time of the end.
[It’s a time when] many will be taught
And knowledge will be multiplied.’

⁵ Then I (DaniEl) looked and I saw two others who were standing there, one on this side of the river and the other on the opposite bank; ⁶ and one of them asked the man in the linen clothes who was standing over the water in the river: ‘When will all these wonders of which you spoke reach their conclusion?’

⁷ And the man in the linen clothes who was standing over the river raised both his right and left hands high toward the heavens, and he swore an oath to The God who lives through ages, saying:
‘The holy ones will have to be scattered
For a time, [two] times, and a half,
Before these things reach their end.’

⁸ Well I heard it, but I didn’t understand it. So I said: ‘O lord; When will these things that you’ve spoke about start to happen, and when will your judgment arrive?’

⁹ And he said:

‘Go, O DaniEl...
Cover and seal up these words!

¹⁰ For, there will be many that are chosen
And they will be [dressed] in white robes.
By fire, they will be purified...
And thereafter, they all will be made holy.

But the sinners will continue to sin,
And they will not seek for knowledge.

¹¹ ‘From the time the disgusting destroyer arrives

And the sacrificing comes to an end
Is a thousand, two hundred, and ninety days.

¹² And all of those will be blest
Who endure all the way to the end
Of a thousand, three hundred, and thirty-five days.

¹³ ‘Now, [you will] go to your rest
Until that day and hour arrives.
For then, you will be resurrected,
And you will receive your inheritance
After those days reach their end.’

Hosea

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

A prophecy primarily against the 10-tribe Kingdom of IsraEl, which was written sometime between 790-BCE and 830-BCE.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator, whom appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ The Word of Jehovah came to Hosea (the son of BeEri) in the days of UzziAh, JoTham, Ahaz, and HezekiAh, the kings of Judah, and in the days of JeroBoam (the son of JoAsh) the king of IsraEl.

² This is the beginning of the Word of Jehovah by Hosea.

The Lord spoke to Hosea and said this:

‘Take a woman for yourself from the whores

So that children [can be born] from her whoring;
Because, by chasing after immoral sex,
The land has strayed from Jehovah.’

³ So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of DiBlaim, and she got pregnant and bore him a son.

⁴ Then The Lord said to him:

‘Call his name JezreEl;
For, in a short while, I will bring vengeance
On the house of Judah for JezreEl’s blood,
And to the Kingdom of IsraEl, I’m bringing an end.

⁵ In that day, I’ll break IsraEl’s bow
There in the valley of JezreEl.’

⁶ Then she got pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. And [the Lord] said to him:

‘Call her name, Show No Mercy;
For on IsraEl’s house, I’ll show no mercy...
Yes, I’ll stand against and oppose them.

⁷ ‘Yet, by the power of Jehovah their God,
I’ll show mercy upon Judah’s sons
And I will bring them salvation.
But, I will not save by the bow or the sword,
Nor by battles of horses and horsemen.’

⁸ Well, after she weaned Show No Mercy, she got pregnant again and bore a son. ⁹ And He said:

‘Call his name, Not My People;
For, you are no longer my people,
And I am no part of you.

¹⁰ ‘But the number of IsraEl’s sons
Will become as great as the sands of the seas,
So that no one can measure or count them.

‘And it will be in that place
Where I told them that they aren’t my people;
They’ll be called, The Living God’s Sons.

“ ‘Then they’ll gather the sons of IsraEl and Judah
And appoint someone to rule over them.
But, from this land, they’ll [be taken away];
For, JezreEl’s day will be great.’

Chapter 2

¹ ‘Now, the brother, Not My People, should speak,
As should Show No Mercy, his sister.

² They should plead with their mother,
Because she’s not really my woman
And I’m not really her man.

‘For, I’ll bring an end to her whoring
And the adultery she commits between her two breasts.

³ Then I’ll strip her down ‘til she’s naked
And make her like the day she was born.

‘To be wiped away, I’ll appoint her,
And I’ll make her a waterless land...
Then, I will destroy her with thirst.

⁴ ‘And on her children, I will not show mercy,
For they’re the result of her whoring...

⁵ Because their mother was immoral,
The one who bore them, disgraced them.

‘For she said: *I will follow my lovers...
Those who’ve provided my water and bread,
As well as my clothes and fine linen robes,
Along with my olive oil,
And the rest of the things that I truly deserve.*

⁶ ‘For this, {Look!} with barbs, I’ll close up her way...
I’ll block her ways and her roads
So she’ll no longer be easily found.

⁷ ‘Then, when she chases her lovers,
There’s no way she’ll be able catch them...
She’ll search for them, but not find them.

‘Then she’ll say, *I’ll return to my man,
For with him, things had been much better.*

⁸ But she doesn’t realize that I’m really the one
Who provided her grain and her wine,
As well as her oil and her silver.

‘However, she took my silver and gold
And used it to make things for BaAl.

⁹ And for doing this, I will return
And remove all my grain in its season,
As well as my wine in its time.

‘Then I’ll take away all of her clothes,
As well as my linen robes,
And leave her with nothing to cover her shame.

¹⁰ ‘I’ll expose her filth to her lovers,
And from my hand, she will not be saved.

¹¹ I’ll remove the joy of her feasts,
And her holidays, New Moons, and Sabbaths.

¹² I’ll also take the grapes and the figs
That she thought were the pay from her lovers.

‘Then I’ll appoint [these men] to witness [against her],
And she’ll be eaten by beasts in the fields,
As well as by the birds in the skies,
And by things that crawl on the ground.

¹³ ‘I will take vengeance upon her
For each day that she offered to BaAl...
When she put on her necklace and earrings
And forgot me to chase after lovers,’ said the Lord.

¹⁴ ‘For this, {Look!} I will cause her to wander,
And I’ll order desolation upon her.

But then, I will speak to her heart,
And I will give back her things...
I'll turn that troublesome valley
Into a valley of hope.

¹⁵ I'll make her as humble as she was in her youth...
Like the day that she came up from Egypt.

¹⁶ *'And in that day, says Jehovah;
She will call Me her husband...*

No more will she call out to BaAl!

¹⁷ *For the name of BaAl, I'll lift from her mouth,
And she won't remember his name.*

¹⁸ *'And in that day, I will conclude
An agreement with the beasts of the fields,
As well as with the birds in the skies,
And with the things that crawl on the ground.*

*'I'll also break the broadswords and bows...
I'll bring an end to the wars,
And I will send hope to the land.*

¹⁹ *'I'll take her as My woman through the ages...
I'll take her rightly and fairly...
In mercy and compassion, [I'll welcome her back].*

²⁰ *I'll take her to Myself in full trust,
And she'll think of Me as her Lord.*

²¹ *'And in that day, says Jehovah,
To the skies, I'll turn My attention.
Then, they will tend to the land,*

²² *And the land will tend to the grain
As well as to the wine and the oil...
To JezreEl, they'll pay attention once more.*

²³ *'I'll plant her in the ground for Myself,
And I'll love the one that's unloved.
Then I will say, You're My people*

*To those who weren't really Mine;
And she will say, Jehovah's My God!*

Chapter 3

¹ And the Lord said to me:
‘Go again and love an adulteress
Who wishes to do what is evil!
For, though Jehovah loved IsraEl’s sons,
They have looked to strange gods,
And of raisin cakes, they’ve become fond!’

² So I hired [such a woman] for myself for fifteen silver coins, two hundred quarts of barley, and a skin flask of wine. ³ And I said to her, ‘You must now sit next to me and you may not be immoral or be with [another man] for many days... you must be mine alone! ⁴ For, this is how the sons of IsraEl will sit for some time... without a king or a ruler, and with no altar, sacrifices, priesthood, or anything else to give them direction. ⁵ But after these things are completed, IsraEl’s sons will return to search for their God Jehovah and for David to serve as their king. So at the end of the days, they will find joy in Jehovah and with the good things that He provides.

Chapter 4

¹ ‘O sons of IsraEl, hear the Word of Jehovah;
For, He has a case against all of you
Who now live in this land,
Because you have no mercy or truth,
Or any knowledge of God.

² ‘Cursing, lying, murder, and fraud,
As well as adultery, cover your land.
You’ve also mingled blood with your blood...
And for this, your land will now mourn.

³ ‘So, those living here will be fewer...
And the game in the fields,

The birds in the skies,
And all the fish in the seas will now fail.

⁴ ‘Then there’ll be no priests or judges to scold you;

⁵ For each day, I’ll be making them weaker.

And I’ll do the same to your prophets...

So your mother will then be [the darkness of] night.

⁶ ‘For, from my people, they’ve taken the knowledge...

And because they have pushed higher knowledge away,

I will push them away...

They won’t be my priests anymore.

‘You’ve also forgotten the laws of your God,

So I’ll be forgetting your children.

⁷ And because of your sins against me,

Their glory, I’ll appoint to dishonor.

⁸ Then my people will have to eat their own sins,

As their lives will be claimed by their unrighteous ways.

⁹ ‘And these things that will happen to the people

Will also happen to the priests...

I will bring my vengeance upon them

For all of their evil ways,

And I’ll pay them back for their [unrighteous] thoughts.

¹⁰ ‘Then they’ll eat and never be filled;

For they’ve become whores who can’t straighten their ways.

They don’t look [to their God] anymore;

For, they’ve abandoned Jehovah.

¹¹ Yes, whoring, wine, and strong drink

Have captured the hearts of His people.

¹² ‘They now look to omens for answers,

And [wave magic] wands for replies.

In a spirit of whoring, they’ve wandered,

And to their God, they now are unfaithful.

¹³ ‘They sacrifice on the hill tops
Beneath the oaks and white poplars,
As well under the rest of the trees,
[To ask] for good and protection.

‘For this, your daughters will all become whores
And your brides will be filled with adultery.

¹⁴ Then, I will not visit your daughters
When they are found guilty of whoring,
Nor [will I visit] your daughters-in-law
When they are committing adultery.

‘Among prostitutes, they will be mixed
(Among those [who offer their bodies]),
And since the men will not understand,
They just will treat them like whores.

¹⁵ ‘So IsraEl; stop being stupid!
And Judah; stop going to GilGal
And to the temple at BethEl!
And do not say, As Jehovah is living,
When you are swearing your oaths!

¹⁶ For since IsraEl’s become like a heifer in heat,
She’ll be fattened like a lamb in a feed lot.

¹⁷ ‘And because Ephraim has partnered with idols,
He has set his own snares.

¹⁸ For with CanaAnite whores he’s had sex,
And he’s loved the dishonor of their neighing.

¹⁹ So a mighty wind will now sweep him away,
And his altars will bring him disgrace.

Chapter 5

¹ ‘Hear these things, O you priests...
And house of IsraEl, you should pay close attention.
O house of the king, you must listen;
For there’s a judgment that is coming against you!

‘Despite your important positions,
You have become your own snares.
So I’m stretching a net on [Mount] Tabor
² (The type that they use to catch game),
And I’ll be the one who corrects you.

³ ‘I think of Ephraim and IsraEl
Before they had strayed far from me.
But, Ephraim has since been immoral,
And IsraEl is also defiled...

⁴ Neither has remembered to turn to their God.

‘Now the spirit of whoring is in them,
And they’ve [forgotten] Jehovah.

⁵ So, because of her insolent ways,
IsraEl’s face will be humbled.
And for Ephraim’s unrighteous ways,
I will bring weakness upon him...
And I’ll also bring weakness on Judah.

⁶ ‘Though they bring before Him their sheep and their calves,
There’s no way that they follow Jehovah.
So now, they will no longer find Him,
Because they have all turned away.

⁷ ‘Yes, they have abandoned Jehovah,
And to children of strangers, they’re now giving birth.
So, they and all that they’d hope to inherit
Will soon be eaten by blight.

⁸ ‘So, blow trumpets from the tops of the hills...
Sound it from all the high places!
In the house of On, proclaim it,
So that BenJamin is startled.

⁹ For, Ephraim will be destroyed
In their day of correction!

‘Though IsraEl’s tribes once put faith God,
¹⁰ The rulers of Judah then joined with the rest

Who moved the property markers...
So on them, like water, I'll pour out my rage!

¹¹ 'Yes, Ephraim [will be oppressed]
Because he trampled on justice,
And because he chased worthless things.
¹² So to Ephraim, I'm sending disturbance,
And to the house of Judah, I'll now be a spur.

¹³ 'Though Ephraim saw his disease,
And though Judah understood his reasons for grief;
Ephraim looked to Assyria
And asked their king for his aid...
But [their king] won't be able to save them,
And he won't bring an end to their grief.

¹⁴ 'So to Ephraim, I'll now be a panther,
And to the house of Judah, a lion...
For I'll snatch them away and I'll go...
I'll grab them and no one will save them.

¹⁵ Then I will go back to my place,
And I won't be seen again 'til the time
That they turn and search for my face.

¹ 'But, when they're oppressed, they'll rise early;
And then, about Jehovah, they'll say:

*We should return to our God;
For, He'll snatch us away and then heal us.
He'll attack them and then dress our wounds...*

² *After two days, He'll restore us;
Then, by the third day, we'll be alive
And we'll be standing before Him!*

³ *'Knowledge of Him, we'll know and pursue...
We'll find Him at the first crack of dawn.*

*Then, like morning rain, He will arrive...
Like evening rain on the ground.*

⁴ ‘O Ephraim, what must I do?
And Judah, what must I do?
For your mercy is like morning fog,
Which like the dew, fades away.

⁵ ‘So, by the Prophets, I’ve mowed you down,
And I’ve killed you with words from my mouth...
My judgments upon you have gone forth like light.

⁶ What I want is mercy, not sacrifice...
Higher knowledge before whole burnt-offerings!
⁷ But you’ve broken your Sacred Agreement with [God],
And you have shown Him your hatred.

⁸ ‘Gilead is a city of wasted deeds...
One that muddies the water.

⁹ For her strength now comes from her thieves,
And her priests also murder from ambush.

‘Shechem has committed unrighteous acts
Against the house of Israel.

¹⁰ Causes for shuddering, I’ve seen there;
And because of Ephraim’s whoring,
Both Israel and Judah have now been defiled.

¹¹ So they will reap [from the vine] of rebellion
Until I bring back my people.’

Chapter 7

¹ ‘When I brought healing to Israel,
It exposed Ephraim’s injustice,
As well as Samaria’s evils.
For at first, they all just told lies;
Then, from among them, came thieves,
And robbers led them out to the highways.

² ‘They sang together of the evil in their hearts,
Remembering all the [bad things] they’d done.
And now, they are covered by the things that they chose...
These things that they did in front of my face.

³ ‘And all the bad things they’ve done
Have gladdened [the hearts] of their kings...
Yes, their lying ways delighted their rulers!

⁴ ‘All those who’re committing adultery
Are in an oven that’s heated for baking by flames...
They’ve been kneaded and allowed to grow fat
And now the [whole ball] has fermented.

⁵ ‘For, in the days of their kings,
Their rulers became enraged by their wine,
And they held out their [arms] toward those who were vile
⁶ And whose hearts were burning like kilns.

‘Then, Ephraim’s sleep became filled
With [thoughts of destroying] all night...
And in the morning, it burst into flames.

⁷ They all became heated like ovens,
And then they devoured their judges.
So, though their kings have all fallen,
No one has called out to me.

⁸ ‘Now, Ephraim’s people are all intermixed...
They’re like a cake that’s been baked in hot ashes,
Which [no one has bothered] to turn.

⁹ ‘So, strangers have eaten his strength
While he wasn’t paying attention...
And after that, his hair all turned grey,
Though he was still unaware.

¹⁰ ‘Now, IsraEl’s insolent ways
Will bring humility to all of their faces;
For, they haven’t turned toward Jehovah their God...

No, after these things have all happened,
They haven't gone looking for Him.

¹¹ 'So, Ephraim has become like a dove
That has no mind and no heart.
First, he called out to Egypt,
And then, to Assyria, he [turned].

¹² 'But, when they go there, I'll throw out my net
And I will catch them like birds...
I'll drag them down and correct them,
And listen as they are tormented.

¹³ 'Woe to them, for they've leaped away...
O how wretched their lives have become
In their irreverence toward me.

'Though I'm the one who once paid their ransom,
They spoke against me and lied...

¹⁴ In their hearts, they failed to call out...
They just laid there and shrieked in their beds,
As they sold themselves for wine and for bread.

¹⁵ 'When they were corrected by me,
I also strengthened their arms!
But then, against me, they hatched wicked plots.

¹⁶ 'So when they return, they'll have nothing...
They'll be like a bow that's stretched tight,
And their rulers will fall by the sword,
Because they've said stupid things;
Then in the land of Egypt, they'll all be defiled.

Chapter 8

¹ 'Yes their land is in [Egypt's hands],
And against [God's Temple], an eagle now flies,
Because they've broken His Sacred Agreement,
And they've disregarded His Laws.

² ‘However, they still cry out before Him:

O God;

Aren't we the ones who have known You?

³ But they threw away the good things He sent
And turned to His enemies for aid.

⁴ ‘By themselves, they chose their own rulers
(No, they didn't ask me),

And when these men started to rule,

They saw no reason to tell me.

Then with silver and gold they made idols...

So now, they must be wiped away!

⁵ ‘O Samaria; get rid of your calves,

Because they provoke me to rage...

How much longer will IsraEl stay dirty?

⁶ For [your calves] are just something you've made...

No, they aren't really gods!

O Samaria; you have strayed because of your calves!

⁷ ‘Seeds of destruction, you've sown to the wind,

And now your end is searching for you.

You're a stalk of grain too weak to give flour,

And if you could give just a little,

It would be eaten by strangers.

⁸ ‘So, IsraEl will be swallowed down,

And won't be a power among nations.

⁹ For, up to Assyria she traveled,

And as Ephraim so loves to do,

She offered them bribes [for their aid].

¹⁰ ‘So, they'll be [scattered] among all the nations,

And there they will just be too weak

To again anoint rulers and kings for themselves.

¹¹ ‘Ephraim has built many altars,

And the alters she loves are the [roots] of her sins.

¹² So for them, I'll write extra laws,
Because she loves those strange altars.

¹³ 'But if they offer sacrifices upon them,
And if they eat all the meat;
Jehovah won't receive them in favor.

'Their unrighteous ways are what He'll recall...
For their sins, He'll send vengeance upon them.
Since they have gone back to Egypt,

¹⁴ They've forgotten the One by whom they were made.

'Now, sacred precincts they've established
Within the walls of the cities of Judah.
So, I will send fire to their cities
And burn them to their foundations.

Chapter 9

¹ 'Therefore, IsraEl; do not rejoice,
For your people don't have any reason for joy.
Since against Jehovah, you've been a whore.

'You've loved the gifts of the grain
From the threshing floors where they laid you.

² But your threshing-floor grain [will not feed you],
And the wine in your vats will [soon fail].

³ 'For you chose not to dwell in the land of Jehovah...
Life in Egypt is what you preferred,
And with the Assyrians, you ate what's unclean.

⁴ 'You offered Jehovah no wine,
And set nothing delicious before Him.
So your sacrifices became like the bread
That is offered in mourning...
It defiles all those who would eat it.

'So, since you can't bring your bread to [His Temple]
For [the purpose of saving] your lives;

⁵ What will you do on your feasts to Jehovah
And on His festival days?

⁶ {Look!} For, because you've done all of these wicked things,
I'll return you to the misery of Egypt!

'Then, Memphis will watch over you,
And in Machmas, you will be buried.
So, ruin will inherit your silver,
And thorns will grow in your tents.

⁷ For the days of His vengeance have come...
The time when you'll receive what you're due.

'As a prophet without inspiration,
Is how IsraEl will view her affliction...
Like a man who's been blown away by the wind.
And because you've been so unrighteous,
The pressures [in your lives] will increase.

⁸ 'Though Ephraim's watchmen once [walked] with God;
Their prophets have become crooked snares,
And madness [now reigns] in their temples.

⁹ 'They've been corrupt since the days of the hills,
So He won't forget their unrighteous ways,
And He'll punish them for all their sins.

¹⁰ 'O IsraEl;
Back when I had first found you,
It was like finding grapes in the desert
Or early figs on a tree.
But thereafter, as I was still watching,
Your fathers [bowed to] BaAl Peor...
And that's when you left [me] in shame
To become something disgusting...
Something that's no longer loved.

¹¹ 'Ephraim's like a bird that flew [from its nest].
[Losing] the glory of [the place of] its birth
And its pangs of conception.

¹² So, though they now nourish their children,
They'll soon be childless along with the rest.

‘O woe, when I tear away all their flesh;

¹³ For, Ephraim’s young will be treated like game...
Their children will be led out and stabbed!’

¹⁴ Yes, give it to them, O Lord...

Yes, please give it to them!

Give them a womb that is childless,

As well as breasts that are dry!

¹⁵ ‘Now their evil deeds are in GilGal,
And that’s where [they’ve gained] all my hatred.
Because of the evils they’ve done there,
I’ll throw them away and love them no more,
Since none of their rulers [have listened].

¹⁶ ‘Though Ephraim is something I’ve tended and hoed,
His roots have still become dry,
And because of this, he longer bears fruit.
Thus, when they give birth, I will destroy
Those whom they love from their bellies...

¹⁷ Yes, I will push them away,
Because they refused to listen to Me...
Then among the nations, they’ll wander.

Chapter 10

¹ ‘IsraEl was a vine with many good branches,
And her fruit was [once] straight and true.
But the more of her fruit [I provided],
The more they built altars to others.
And the more prosperity [I brought to] the land,
The more they built [shrines of false worship].

² ‘They gave their hearts to such things,
So now, they’ll be wiped away.
For I’ll cut their altars down to the ground
And empty out all of their shrines.

³ ‘They say, We don’t have a king anymore...
Someone we feared [more than God];
For, what was Jehovah able to do?

⁴ ‘They give excuses and lie;
But because I had an agreement with them,
My judgments will soon rise against them
Like weeds in an untended field.

⁵ ‘To the calf in the [temple] at BethEl,
The people of Samaria now go.
And there, my people have wailed...
Which has embittered my soul.
When they should have rejoiced in [God’s] glory,
They chose to move far away.

⁶ ‘So, Assyrians will chain them and lead them away
As gifts and tributes to their king.
And then it will be by His decree
That Ephraim and IsraEl will be shamed.

⁷ ‘Samaria threw away her [true] King,
As though throwing a stick across water.

⁸ So the shrines at BethEl (IsraEl’s sin)
Will soon be lifted away.

‘Then, upon all of their altars
Thorns and thistles will grow.
So, they will say to the mountains,
Come and cover us over,
And they’ll say to the hills, Fall upon us!

⁹ For as long as the hills have existed,
IsraEl has stood in her sins.
So no way will her hills [come to her aid]
When war arrives on her unrighteous young

¹⁰ To correct them and bind them together...
For, it will take [war] to straighten their ways.

¹¹ ‘Ephraim’s a heifer that’s learned to love fights;
But, I will [grab hold] of her neck
And lead Ephraim off as [a captive].
I [will also force] Judah [to plow],
And Jacob [to break the hard ground].

¹² ‘So, you should sow what is righteous...
Gather the vintage of life!
On yourselves, you should shine light of knowledge,
And keep on seeking Jehovah
Until your [hearts] become righteous!

¹³ 'Why prefer to overlook the evil you do
And gather the vintage of unrighteous things?
For you're now eating fruit that is false,
And in chariots, you're putting your faith...
Yes, you're trusting in your own power.

¹⁴ But destruction will come to your people,
And all your walled [cities] will fall.

'O house of IsraEl;
As ShalMan once treated the house of JeroBoam
In the day of their war,
And dashed the mothers on top of their young...

¹⁵ That's how I'll treat you for your wicked ways.

Chapter 11

¹ 'It was early on when they were disowned,
And IsraEl's kings were also disowned.
But as an infant, IsraEl was so deeply loved,
So I called his children from Egypt.

² But, as I was calling them back,
They started turning from me...
To BaAl Im, they brought sacrifices,
And burned incense before the idols they carved.

³ 'I once held Ephraim in my arms...
And when he didn't know me, I healed him.

⁴ While he was in the corrupt state of men,
I wrapped him in the bonds of my love.

'To him, I became like a [father]...
One who disciplines him...
So I'll watch over him and I'll win!

⁵ 'To the land of Egypt, he will not return,
For Assyria's king will now rule him
Because he refused to repent.

⁶ 'So, swords will rage 'gainst their cities
And consume the bars of their gates...
For their bad decisions, they will be destroyed!

⁷ 'Their people have clung to things in their homes,
And I am enraged by the things they hold dear,
And as the result, I won't bless them.

⁸ 'How should I treat you, O Ephraim...
How can I shield you, O IsraEl?
Should I treat you the same as I've treated AdMah?
Will I appoint you as I did to Zeboim?

'Will my heart be changed in such matters...
Shouldn't I be bothered by them...
Yes, shouldn't such things make me sad?

⁹ 'But no way will I send all my rage upon you...
No way will I destroy Ephraim.
For I am your God (not a man)...
I'm the Holy One in your midst,
And I will not enter your cities!

¹⁰ ‘So, you must [return to] Jehovah;
For, He will roar like a lion
And startle your young by the sea in the west.
¹¹ ‘*They’ll be startled like a bird out of Egypt,
And like an Assyrian dove;
Then I’ll bring them back to their homes,* says Jehovah.
¹² ‘By Ephraim, I was circled with lies...
By the irreverence of the houses of IsraEl and Judah.
But Jehovah will know them once more
And call them The Holy People of God.’

Chapter 12

¹ ‘Ephraim has become like a bad wind
That pursues burning winds all day long
And does many things that are empty and vain.
With Assyria, he has [signed] peace treaties,
And traded olive oil down in Egypt.
² ‘But Jehovah also has a case against Judah,
So He’ll punish Jacob according to his ways,
And pay him back for the bad things he’s done.
³ ‘For, while he was still in the womb,
He caught the heel of his brother
And grew in strength with his God.
⁴ With an angel, he wrestled and won;
Then he wept and begged [for a blessing].
‘So, there in [BethEl], he found me.
⁵ And it was also there that I said:
*From now on, I must be remembered
[As Jehovah, the Almighty \[God\].](#)*
⁶ ‘So, you should return to your God...
Show mercy and learn to be fair...
Always [stay close] to Jehovah!

⁷ ‘Yet, in [your land], you have unrighteous scales,
And you love to tyrannize others.

⁸ So, Ephraim is saying, *I’ve become rich,
And I’ve found many ways to relax.*
But he’ll never see the fruits of his work,
Because of the bad things he’s doing.

⁹ *‘I am Jehovah, your God...
I’m the One who led you from Egypt.
And I’ll settle you in your tents once again
As I did in the days of My holiday feasts.*

¹⁰ *‘Once more, I will speak by My Prophets,
And many visions, I’ll send them;
For it’s through the hands of the Prophets
That I am being described.*

¹¹ ‘GilGal no longer exists
Because their kings offered things that were false.
So their altars are heaps of turtle manure...
The type that is found in unplanted fields.

¹² ‘To the plains of Syria, Jacob had gone,
As IsraEl’s servant searched for a wife;
Then, for a woman, he watched over sheep.

¹³ ‘And it was by [JoSeph], a Prophet of God,
That IsraEl was led down to Egypt.
Then, by that very same Prophet,
IsraEl’s people were saved.

¹⁴ ‘But now that Ephraim has provoked [God] to anger;
His blood will be poured out upon him...
For, Jehovah will pay him back for his scorn.’

Chapter 13

¹ ‘According to what Ephraim said;
IsraEl’s righteous laws came from him...
Then he turned to BaAl and he died.

² ‘Yet, they’ve continued to sin,
And cast images of idols with their silver,
Which are finished by craftsmen
Who say, *We must sacrifice men,
Because there aren’t enough calves anymore!*

³ ‘So, they are like morning fog,
Which like the dew, fades away...
As chaff on the floors, they’ll just blow away,
And like tears, they will dry.

⁴ ‘[God says], *I’m Jehovah, your God...
I’m the One who led you from Egypt,
And no other God, should you know,
For there are no saviors other than Me!*

⁵ ‘*I shepherded you in the desert,
And in barren lands, made pastures for you.*

⁶ *But then, your hearts became haughty,
And because of this, you forgot Me.*

⁷ *So I’ll be like a panther or a leopard to you...
According to the ways of Assyria.*

⁸ *Like an angry bear, I’ll attack you
And I will rip you to pieces,
Then feed you to my cubs in the woods...
Wild beasts of the fields will rip you apart.*

⁹ ‘When you’re so corrupt, O IsraEl,
Who will come to your aid?

¹⁰ Yes, what has happened to your king...
Why isn’t he saving your cities...
Why doesn’t he come and serve as your judge?

‘A long time ago you had asked Me
To give you a king as your ruler!

¹¹ So I gave you a king in My anger,
And My rage was then satisfied.

¹² ‘But from Ephraim there came much injustice,
And then he tried to cover his sins.

¹³ So the pangs of birth are now coming to him.
And even his smartest of sons
Won’t stop their children’s destruction.

¹⁴ ‘Will I save them from the hands of the grave?
Will I [pay] their ransom from death?
Where is your punishment, O death,
And where is your sting, O place of the dead?
For consoling them is far from My eyes!

¹⁵ ‘This is why I will separate brothers
And send burning winds from the desert to them,
Which will dry up their veins
And wipe away all their springs...
Their land and good things will wither and dry.

¹⁶ ‘Samaria will be wiped away
Because she resisted her God.
So her people will fall by the sword...
Then those by her breasts will be dashed [to the ground]
And those in the womb will be shredded!’

¹ ‘O IsraEl;
Return to Jehovah, your God!
For because of your sins, you’ve become weak.

² Follow your own [good advice]
And then turn back to Jehovah!

‘Just ask Him to please overlook
All of your unrighteous ways
So that you can receive what is good
And be repaid for the fruit of your lips.

³ ‘Assyria will not be your savior,
And upon their war horses, you’ll never ride.

So, don't call those hand-made things gods,
And start showing mercy to orphans!
⁴ Then, I will repair all your homes;
I will also confess that I love you;
And My rage will be turned away.
⁵ 'To IsraEl, I'll be like dew in the morning;
Then, like a lily, he'll blossom
And grow roots like Lebanon's [trees].
⁶ 'His branches will grow very full;
And as olive trees, they'll bear so much fruit
That to Lebanon, its scent will be carried.
⁷ 'Then, they will all be returned,
And in His protection, they'll sit.
They'll live amidst plenty of grain,
And like grapevines, they'll blossom...
They'll be remembered like Lebanon's wines.
⁸ 'O Ephraim;
What good are all of your idols?
Am I not the One who is humbling you
And the One who can make you strong once again?
I'm a dense juniper tree,
And it is only by me that you can bear fruit!
⁹ 'So, who among you is wise,
And who can understand all these things...
Yes, who among you can recognize them?
For the ways of Jehovah are straight,
And the righteous will live by these ways
While the irreverent will stumble and fall.'

Joel

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians
A late 7th Century BCE prophecy concerning the destruction and restoration of Jerusalem, parts of which were quoted by Peter when explaining how some of these words were fulfilled on Pentecost of 33 CE.

Chapter 1

¹ These are words of Jehovah that came to JoEl the son of BathuEl.

² ‘Listen to these things, O you elders...
Give ear, all you who live in the land!
Have you seen such things in your [lives]?
Were they seen in the days of your fathers?

³ ‘Describe these things to your children
And to all generations that follow!

⁴ For, caterpillars ate all that there was,
And locusts devoured what they didn’t eat;
Then, grasshoppers ate what remained from the locusts,
And what the grasshoppers didn’t consume
Was thereafter destroyed by the blight.

⁵ ‘Now, sober up and start crying,
All you who are drunk from your wine;
For joy and gladness are gone your mouths,

⁶ Since a powerful and populous nation
Has now arrived in your land.

‘They have teeth that are like those of lions
And molars like those of young bears.

⁷ They’ve appointed your grapevines to extinction
And condemned your fig-trees to splinters.
They are searching for you and cutting you down,
So now, all of your branches are white.

⁸ ‘Therefore, wail like woman in sackcloth
[Who mourns] for the man of her virgin years.

⁹ For the drink offerings and other sacrifices
Have been removed from [My Temple].
Yes mourn, O you Priests who serve at the Altar,

¹⁰ For all of the fields now lie bare!

‘And mourn, O land, for the grain is now gone,
Also, the wine has all dried,
And in short supply is the oil,
¹¹ Because the farmers have withered away.
Therefore, wail for all your possessions,
Since the wheat and barley are gone from the fields!

¹² ‘The grapes [have shriveled and] dried;
Very few fig-trees remain;
The pomegranates, palms, and the melons,
And all the trees in the plains are now dry...
Yes, all that brings joy to sons of men
Has been taken away!

¹³ ‘So Priests; tie your [hands] and beat on yourselves...
Yes wail, you who serve at the Altar!
Go to bed wearing sackcloth,
You who are serving before Me,
Since there’s nothing left to be sacrificed,
And nothing to bring as drink offerings
To the House of Jehovah!

¹⁴ ‘So, call for a period of fasting...
Proclaim a solemn assembly!
Gather the elders and all of the people
To the House of Jehovah your God,
Where all must fervently call to the Lord!

¹⁵ ‘Woe, woe, woe for this time;
For the Day of the Lord has arrived
And misery upon misery has reached you.

¹⁶ Before your eyes, all the food was destroyed,
With all that brings joy to your people.

¹⁷ ‘In the stables, the cows are now restless,
Since all that they treasure is gone.
The wine vats have all been cut down,

And all your grain is now parched...

¹⁸ So you're left with nothing at all.

The herds of oxen are bawling
Because they don't have any pasture,
And your flocks of sheep have all been destroyed.

¹⁹ So, you should call to Jehovah,
For your beautiful fields have been burned,
And flames have consumed all your trees.

²⁰ 'Now, even the beasts in the plains
Have all started looking to Me,
Because their springs have gone dry,
And the desert's beauty has vanished.

Chapter 2

¹ 'So, sound the trumpets in Zion,
And on the Holy Mountain, proclaim
That all should bow to their faces,
For the Day of the Lord is at hand (it is near)!

² 'It's a day that's gloomy and dark...
It's a day that's cloudy with fog.
And as dawn peaks over the mountains,
[You can see] a vast, mighty people.

'Through the ages, such a thing hasn't happened,
And through coming years, it won't happen again
From one generation to another.

³ 'A consuming fire is raging before you
And all that's behind you is burning.
A paradise of delights lies before you,
But all that's behind is extinction and desert
From which, no man can escape.

⁴ 'The sight of them is like horses...
Like cavalry in hot pursuit.

⁵ Theirs is the sound of chariot wheels

Leaping across tops of mountains...
Like the sounds of flames burning stubble
And of a vast mighty hoard of warriors.

⁶ ‘Before them, the people will all be destroyed
And their faces will be like burnt pots.
⁷ For as soldiers, they will attack you;
And as men of war, they’ll then scale your walls.

‘Each of their men will go their own ways,
And they’ll not be turned from their paths...
⁸ But, none will stray far from their brothers.

‘They will come here with shields,
And by their arrows, the people will fall...
For no way will they tire [of killing].

⁹ ‘They will then capture the city,
And along its walls, they will run.
Then, into your homes, they’ll descend
And climb through your windows like thieves.

¹⁰ ‘Before their faces, there’ll be just confusion,
And even the skies will be shaken.
Then the sun and the moon will grow dark,
And the brightness of the stars will decrease.

¹¹ ‘Before his armies, their lord will call out;
For he’s leading a great mighty hoard.
His power will be seen in the things that he does,
For great is the Day of the Lord,
Since none can stand and oppose him.

¹² ‘Now run,’ says Jehovah your God!
‘Flee to Me with your whole hearts,
Fasting, weeping, and beating your chests!’

¹³ So, tear at your hearts, not your clothes,
And turn to Jehovah your God!
For, He shows mercy and pity...

He's gentle and He's forgiving,
[So He'll overlook] the bad things you've done.

¹⁴ Who knows if He'll stop and consider,
Then change His plans and bless you instead.
So, bring sacrifices and drink offerings
To Jehovah your God!

¹⁵ Now, blow the trumpets in Zion...
Proclaim a [day] of holy fasts...
A day of sacred service must be declared!

¹⁶ Yes, gather all of the people
And proclaim a holy assembly!
Choose your elders, then gather your young...
Even those that are nursing at breasts!
Call the grooms from their bedrooms
And the brides from their wedding chambers!

¹⁷ O Priests, you should all start to weep...
Yes, you who serve before God
At the base of the Altar.
Then pray, 'Spare Your people, O Lord!
Don't hand them over for scorning
And to be ruled by the nations!
Then the nations will never have reason to ask,
So now, where is your God?

¹⁸ O Jehovah; show zeal for Your land,
And please show mercy to Your people!

¹⁹ O Jehovah; reply to Your people and say:
'{Look!} I'll send so much grain that you will be full,
Along with much wine and olive oil...
And you'll be scorned by the nations no more!'

²⁰ 'I'll drive away those who've come from the north
And push them into a waterless land...
I'll remove their faces to the farthest of seas,

And their rears to the opposite end,
Where they [will lie] rotting and groaning,
And where nothing they've done can be seen.'

²¹ So, be courageous O land...
Yes, you should rejoice and be glad,
For Jehovah will be moved to take action!

²² Also take courage, you cattle;
For, pastures will burst from the desert
And all the trees will bear fruit...
The fig-trees and grapevines will then yield their strength!

²³ And be glad, O children of Zion...
Find joy in Jehovah your God.
For to the righteousness, He will send food,
And He'll bring the rains (both the early and late)
Just like He's done in the past.

²⁴ Then your threshing-floors will be covered with grain,
As your vats of wine and oil overflow.

²⁵ He will repay you for all of those years
When your things were devoured by blight...
By grasshoppers, caterpillars, and locusts,
And by the great army that He sent against you.

²⁶ Then, you will all eat and be filled,
And you'll praise the Name of your God...
The One who sent you great wonders.
And thereafter, His people won't meet with disgrace
Throughout the ages that follow.

²⁷ 'O IsraEl;
At that time, you'll come here and know
That I am here in your midst...
Yes Me, Jehovah your God!
For there are no Gods other than Me,
And I'll not leave My people disgraced through the age!

²⁸ ‘In the last days, I will pour out My Breath,
And your sons and daughters will all prophesy,
Your aged men will dream dreams,
And young men in your midst will see visions.

²⁹ ‘In those days, I will pour out My Breath
Upon My male and female attendants.

³⁰ Miracles, I’ll bring to the skies,
And fire, smoke and blood to the land.

³¹ ‘For the sun will then become dark
And the moon [will be changed] into blood
Before the great and apparent
Arrival of the Day of the Lord.

³² ‘Then, all who call on the name of the Lord
Will be the ones that are saved,’ said Jehovah.
‘For, to Mount Zion and JeruSalem
Will come a person who saves
Announcing good news to all those
Who have been called by the Lord.

Chapter 3

¹ ‘For, {Look!} in those days and at that time,
I’ll return all those who were taken away
From Judah and JeruSalem.

² ‘Then I’ll gather all of those nations
To the Valley of JehoShaphat;
And on behalf of My people, I’ll judge them...
On behalf IsraEl (My inheritance)...
Those whom I’d scattered among all the nations...
Those among whom I have divided My land...
My people, over whom I’ve cast lots...

³ Those who once gave their boys to the whores
And sold their young women for wine (which they drank).

⁴ ‘What are you to Me, O Sidon and Tyre,
Or Galilee of the Philistines?
Shouldn’t I repay you for the things that you’ve done...
What reasons did I give you to hate Me?

‘So I’ll swiftly bring what’s due on your heads;
⁵ For you’ve taken My silver and gold,
As well as the things that I’ve chosen,
Then carried it back to your temples!

⁶ And the sons of Judah and JeruSalem,
You’ve given to the sons of the Greeks...
You pushed them away from your borders.

⁷ ‘But Look!
In every place where you’ve sent them,
I will make them stand once again
And I’ll lay the payment for them on your heads.

⁸ ‘Then, after that, I will give
Your sons and daughters to the sons of the Jews.
And many will be taken as captives
To nations that live far away;
For, I Jehovah, have spoken.

⁹ ‘So, proclaim these things to the nations!
Declare a holy war against them...

Yes, awaken the soldiers and shout:
[Attack and conquer], O men of war!

¹⁰ *Cut your plows into broadswords
And beat your scythes into spears!*

Let the weak among you say they are strong

¹¹ And attack the nations that live roundabout!

*Come and assemble [your armies],
And let your meek become warriors!*

¹² ‘Yes, awaken the gentiles and send them
To the Valley of JehoShaphat;
For there, I will separate nations

(Those that live round-about you),

¹³ And then, I'll send for the scythes...

For the crops are now ready for harvest!

Climb in and tread, for the wine vat is full...

The vats overflow with their badness!

¹⁴ 'Throughout the valley, [you will hear] the cries

Of those who're about to be punished;

For the Day of the Lord is at hand!

¹⁵ 'Then the sun and the moon will grow dark,

And the stars will start to grow dim.

¹⁶ And from Zion, the Lord will then shout...

From JeruSalem, his voice will be heard.

'Then the lands and skies will be shaken...

But the Lord will spare all his people.

For I'll make the sons of IsraEl strong,

¹⁷ And you'll know that I am Jehovah your God!

'On Zion, My Holy Mountain, I'll camp,

And JeruSalem will be holy once more...

The nations will not overrun her.

¹⁸ 'And in that day;

The mountains will trickle down sweetness,

Milk will flow from the hills,

And from the springs of Judah, water will flow.

'Then a spring will flow from My [Temple],

And its waters will become a great river!

¹⁹ 'Egypt will no longer be,

And Edom's land in the plains will be gone;

For to the sons of Judah, they were unfair,

And in their lands, they shed righteous blood.

²⁰ 'Through the ages, they'll be living in Judah...

Through generations of generations in JeruSalem.

²¹ Then I'll avenge all the blood that I've not avenged,
And the Lord will be tenting on Zion.'

Amos

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

A prophecy that was given to the Prophet Amos while he was living in the ten-tribe Kingdom of IsraEl, concerning the future destruction of many nations that lived around and/or had dealings with his nation, as well as what would happen to both Judah and IsraEl. According to archaeologists, it was written in 758-BCE. However, our Bible-based estimates place this closer to 800-BCE.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator, whom appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ These are the words of Amos [which tell] of things that took place [while he was at] Kiriath JaiRim in Tekoa, and of the things that he saw concerning JeruSalem in the days of UzziAh the king of Judah, and in the days of JeroBoam (son of JoAsh) the king of IsraEl, two years before the earthquake.

² From Zion, Jehovah spoke out...

From JeruSalem, he spoke and said this:

'Over their pastures, the shepherds will mourn

About the drought on [Mount] Carmel.'

³ And Jehovah said:

'Because of these three godless deeds of Damascus (and even four),

I won't turn [My] attention from them.

For they used iron saws to saw open

Those in GileAd with [babies] in their wombs.

⁴ 'So, to the house of HazaEl, I'll send fire
And burn the foundations of the sons of Hadad.
Damascus and those in On's plains, I'll destroy;

I'll cut the men of Edem to bits;
And Assyria's best men will be captured,' says Jehovah.'

⁶ Then Jehovah said:
'For Gaza's three godless deeds (and even four),
I won't turn [my] attention from them.
For they captured Solomon's captives,
And handed them over to Edom.

⁷ 'So to Gaza's walls, I'll send fire,
Which will eat her to her foundations.

⁸ I'll also destroy those in AshDod;
And from AshKelon, I'll remove a whole tribe.
Then I'll bring My hand against EkRon,
And destroy the remaining Philistines,' says Jehovah.

⁹ And the Jehovah said:
'Because of Tyre's three godless deeds (and even four),
I won't turn [my] attention from them.
For they locked away Solomon's captives in Edom...
Forgetting their treaty of brothers.

¹⁰ 'So to the walls of Tyre, I'll send fire,
Which will eat her to her foundations.'

¹¹ And Jehovah said:
'Because of Edom's three godless deeds (and even four),
I won't turn [my] attention from them.
For they chased their brothers with swords,
And [cut down] the mothers throughout the land...
They seized [the mothers] by force
As proof of their awesome terror,
And they continued to do this until they had won.

¹² So, I will send fire against Teman,
Which will eat her to her foundations.'

¹³ And Jehovah said:
'Because of the three godless deeds
Of the sons of AmMon (and even four),
I won't turn [my] attention from them.
For in GileAd, they had ripped open
[Women] with [babies] in their wombs,
Just to widen their borders.

¹⁴ 'So I'll light a fire upon RabBah's walls,
Which will eat her to her foundations...
Then I'll raise cries of war in that day...
And they'll shake in the day she's consumed.

¹⁵ Into captivity, I'll then send her king,
Along with her rulers and priests,' says Jehovah.

Chapter 2

¹ And Jehovah said:

‘Because of Moab’s three godless deeds (and even four),
I won’t turn [my] attention from them.
For, the king of Edom’s bones, they burned into dust.

² ‘So, I will send fire upon Moab,
And it will devour their cities’ foundations.
Then Moab will be left without strength...
She’ll hear cries and the blowing of trumpets.

³ ‘I’ll destroy all her judges and rulers...
Yes, I will kill them all,’ says Jehovah.

⁴ And Jehovah said:

‘Because of the three [lawless] deeds
Of the sons of Judah (and even four),
I won’t turn [my] attention from them.
For they pushed [aside all My] Laws,
And refused to follow My orders.

‘So, I will cause them to wander
And follow the foolish idols they’ve made,
Which they’ve followed [since the time of] their fathers.

⁵ ‘Then, I will send fire upon Judah,
And wipe JeruSalem to her foundations.’

⁶ And Jehovah said:

‘Because of IsraEl’s three godless deeds (and even four),
I won’t turn [My] attention from them.
For, from the righteous and needy
They demanded silver for sandals...

⁷ [Things they need] to walk on the dust of the ground.

‘They trampled the heads of the poor,
And turned the humble away.
Then, with the very same slaves,
Fathers and sons both had sex,
So that they could profane the Name of their God.

⁸ ‘Then, with their old clothes and rough cords,
They erected booths next to My Altar.
Where they drank the wine they’d extorted
There at the [Temple] of God!

⁹ ‘For them, I had wiped out the Amorites,
Though they’d become as strong as the oaks
And as tall as the cedars...
I removed all the fruit from their boughs,
As well as the roots underneath them.

¹⁰ 'Then from the land of Egypt, I took them,
And through the desert I led them
During the next forty years,
So they could inherit the Amorite's land.

¹¹ 'I also took their sons as [My] Prophets,
And their young men to serve Me as [Nazarites].
O Sons of IsraEl;
Aren't these the things that I did,' asks Jehovah?

¹² 'But to those [Nazarites], you then offered wine,
And you told the Prophets not to foretell!

¹³ So because of this, I'll roll over you
Like a wagon loaded with stubble.

¹⁴ 'Then, all hope of flight into exile
By those who can run, will be lost;
For the strong won't be able to maintain their strength,
And no way will the soldiers save their own lives.

¹⁵ 'Then you'll find your bowmen unable to stand;
Those fleet of foot will not escape;
Horseman won't save their own lives;

¹⁶ The strong won't have mighty hearts;
And in that day, they'll flee naked,' says Jehovah.

Chapter 3

¹ O house of IsraEl;
Listen to these words of Jehovah
That He is pronouncing against you...
To those tribes that He led out of Egypt.
For, this is what He's declared:

² 'I have known only you
Among all the tribes of earth;
And because of this (because of your sins),
I will take vengeance upon you!'

³ 'Can two walk together unless they've agreed? No!

⁴ Will a lion roar from the woods
If he hasn't [caught] any game? No!

Will a cub call out from his lair
If he hasn't captured his prey? No!

⁵ Will a bird fall to the ground
If it hasn't [been shot by] a hunter? No!

Will a snare snap shut without catching? No!

⁶ Will the sound of the trumpet be heard in a town
Without terrorizing its people? No!

Will harm ever come to a city
Unless it's been sent by Jehovah? No!

⁷ ‘There’s nothing that God Jehovah will do,
Unless it’s revealed to His servants, the Prophets.

⁸ So, as when a lion lets out a roar
And all who hear it are fearful;
When Jehovah God has something to say,
What [Prophet] will not prophesy?

⁹ ‘So, you must make this pronouncement
To Assyria and to those down in Egypt!
Tell them to gather on Samaria’s hills,
And as they gaze at her wonders,
They’ll see the tyranny within her.

¹⁰ Then, those who treasure misery and injustice
Will never see what is coming,’ said the Lord

¹¹ ‘So Jehovah, The God, sends this this message:
*Tyre and all that’s around it
Will soon become desolation.
For, I will remove all their strength,
And then rip their regions to pieces!*

¹² ‘Jehovah says:
*As a shepherd will pull from the mouth of a lion
Two legs or part of an ear;
That’s how IsraEl’s sons will be ripped
(Those dwelling in Samaria and Damascus)
By a tribe that they haven’t known.*

¹³ ‘And listen to this, O you priests...
*Then to the house of Jacob, proclaim it,
Says Jehovah, the Almighty God!*

¹⁴ ‘In the day of My vengeance upon IsraEl,
*I’ll destroy your altar at BethEl.
And because of the godless things that you’ve done,
They’ll cut off the horns of your altar
And knock it down to the ground!*

¹⁵ *'I will also send you confusion,
And I'll strike the bins in your barns
Where [the fruits of] your harvests are stored.
Your ivory houses, I'll also destroy,
As well as the homes roundabout them, says Jehovah.*

Chapter 4

¹ *'So, hear these words, O heifers of BaShan...
Yes, you in Samaria's mountains...
You who are tyrants to the needy,
And you who trample the poor...
Those poor ones who must beg their masters
To give them something to drink!*

² *'For by all that He deems to be holy,
Against them, God swore this oath:
Look, the days will soon come
When they'll gather you and your families
And throw you into hot cauldrons.
³ You'll be led away naked in lines,
And they'll scatter [your bones] on Mount Hermon, says Jehovah.*

⁴ *'For, when you went up to BethEl,
You went there to do irreverent things.
And at GilGal, you did even worse...
Though you brought sacrifices in the mornings,
And on the third day, you brought in your tithes;
⁵ Thereafter, you read outside of the Law,
And demanded [special] offerings for confessions.*

*'So, against you, I've made this pronouncement,
Because IsraEl's sons have loved all these things:
⁶ To your cities, I now will send toothaches,
And I will send famines of bread...
For you left Me and never returned, says Jehovah.*

⁷ *'I'll hold back the rain on your crops for three months;
Then, I will [send] rain to one town,
But I'll not send rain on another...
I will send rain to one portion,
And not send rain to another,
So that place will become very dry.*

⁸ *'Then, those from two or three cities
Will go to one city to drink...
But no way will they be satisfied,
Because they won't turn back to Me, says Jehovah.*

⁹ *'Then I'll strike you with jaundice and fire;
And the vineyards and gardens you've gained,
As well as your groves of olives and figs,
Will all be eaten by bugs...
But you still won't turn back [to Me], says Jehovah.*

¹⁰ *'Then from Egypt, I'll send you a plague,
And your young men, I'll kill by the sword.
Thereafter, I'll take all your horses...
And because this will just make you angry,
Into your camps, I'll send fire...
Yet to Me, you still won't return, says Jehovah.*

¹¹ *'Like Sodom and Gomorrah, I'll wipe you away...
I'll make you like coals that are pulled from the flames...
Yet to Me, you still won't return, says Jehovah.*

¹² *'Because of such things, O IsraEl;
Both this and that, I'll then do to you
Until you are ready to call to your God!*

¹³ *'Look! I am the One who sends thunder...
I'm also the One who created the wind
And the One who tells men about My concerns.*

*'For I send the dawn and the fog,
And I ride across the heights of the earth...
I am Jehovah, the Almighty God!*

Chapter 5

¹ 'So, hear the word of Jehovah;
For against you, He sang this lament:

*The house of IsraEl will fall,
And thereafter, she will not be raised.*

² *IsraEl (the virgin) will trip in her land,
And there will be no one to lift her.*

³ 'And thus says Jehovah, [her] God:
*From a city that a thousand had left,
Only a hundred will return;
And from a town that a hundred had left,
Only ten from IsraEl's house will return.*

⁴ 'For, thus says Jehovah to the house of IsraEl:

⁵ *Inquire of Me and you'll live...
Do not [travel to] BethEl,
And into GilGal, don't enter,
Or go the Well of the Oath!
For those going to GilGal will be captured,
And BethEl will be wiped away.*

⁶ 'So, inquire of Jehovah and live,
As the house of JoSeph has done...
And then you won't have to be burned!
For [fire] will come and consume,
And no one will douse IsraEl's flames.

⁷ 'For from the heights, it's Jehovah who says what is right
And who sets the earth's righteous [standards],

⁸ Because He is its Creator,
And the One who made everything different.

‘He’s the One who turns shadows into morning
And the day into the darkness of night;
He’s the One who calls water out of the seas
And pours it onto the face of the ground...
He’s Jehovah the Almighty God.

⁹ ‘He’s the One who divides the conflicts and strengths
And sends misery into the strongholds
¹⁰ Of those who shout at His Prophets
When they arrive at the gates,
Because they hate those who speak holy words.
¹¹ They’re those who strike the poor with their fists,
And steal their choicest of treasures.

‘I can see the paneled houses you’ve built...
Houses in which you won’t live.
I can also see the vineyards you’ve planted...
Vineyards from which you won’t drink the wine.

¹² ‘For I know all the [bad] things you’ve done
And of how you’ve trampled the righteous...
How you’ve inflated your prices,
And turned the needy away from your gates.
¹³ And during that time, I silently watched
As [you were becoming] more evil.

¹⁴ ‘Now, ask for the good (not the bad)
So that you can continue to live.
If you’ll ask the Almighty to be with you,
He’ll provide the things that you need
Whenever you are willing to say,
¹⁵ We hate what is bad and love what is good!

‘If you’ll bring justice to your [city] gates;
Jehovah the Almighty God
Will show mercy on the remnants of JoSeph.

¹⁶ ‘For, it’s because of such things,
Says Jehovah, the Almighty God,

*That you'll beat your chests in your squares,
And cry, Woe [is me] in your streets!*

*'Then the farmers will be called to do mourning...
They'll be wailing and beating their chests.*

¹⁷ *Yes, they'll know all the ways to beat on their chests,
Because I will go through their midst, says Jehovah.*

¹⁸ *'And woe to those who wish for the Day of the Lord;
For, after they ask what the Lord's Day will bring,
They'll find that it brings only darkness, not light!*

¹⁹ *'It's as when a man is fleeing a lion
Or being attacked by a bear,
And he rushes to his house and grabs hold of its walls...
Just to be bitten by snakes.*

²⁰ *'For the Day of the Lord will bring darkness, not light...
It will bring dimness, not brightness!*

²¹ *'I have detested and I've pushed away
All of your holiday feasts...
In your festivals, I [find no delight].*

²² *So, should you bring whole burnt-offerings to Me
Along with other sacrifices;
I will not receive them in favor
Or approve of your gifts for salvation.*

²³ *'So, take away the sounds of your hymns,
Since I don't wish to hear the tunes of your psalms!*

²⁴ *For the waters of judgment will pour down on you,
And the river of righteousness, you will not cross.*

²⁵ *'O house of IsraEl;
You brought victims to Me to be sacrificed
During the forty years in the desert.*

²⁶ *But then, you chose Moloch's tent
And the star of Raiphan to serve as your gods...
You molded idols of them for yourselves!*

²⁷ *So beyond Damascus, I'll move you,
Says Jehovah, the Almighty God.'*

Chapter 6

¹ 'Woe to those who treat Zion with contempt,
And those who put trust in Samaria's hills...
Those who've harvested heads from the nations,
And to whom the house of IsraEl has turned.

² 'Now, pass through them all and take a good look;
Travel to Hamath of RabBah
And to Gath of the Philistines.
Is yours any better than those kingdoms?
Are your borders any larger than theirs?

³ 'So, an evil day will soon come,
To those hanging onto false Sabbaths...

⁴ Those who sleep in ivory beds
And waste their lives on divans.

'They eat the kids of the flocks
And the suckling young calves from the midst of the herds.

⁵ They clap along as [music] is played,
And think themselves well-established
(Not as something that's passing away).

⁶ 'They drink [the best] filtered wine;
They wear the best of colognes;
And about the destruction of JoSeph,
They still remain unconcerned.

⁷ But soon, they'll be led into exile,
And their feasting and lounging will end.

⁸ 'So, Jehovah swore this oath by Himself:
*Because I abhor the insults of Jacob
And detest their fortified cities;
I will now lift them away
Along with all those who live there.*

⁹ So if ten should survive in a house,
They will die after that.

¹⁰ Yes, they'll walk away from their [loved ones],
And not retrieve their bones from their homes.

‘They’ll just ask those in charge of their homes
If any are still left among them;
And they will answer, No longer.
Then another will say, Just be quiet...
Don’t mention the Name of the Lord.

¹¹ *For, {Look!} He’s the One who gave them the order
To strike our mansions with fractures,
And to shred our small homes!*

¹² ‘Will horses run in the rocks? No!
Will stallions stay silent near mares? No!

‘But you’ve replaced true justice with rage
And turned righteous fruit into bitter.

¹³ You are also glad to hear bad reports,
And you say, We’re so strong that we have grown horns!

¹⁴ So house of IsraEl; Be careful,
For I’m arousing a nation against you
That will [surround you] and then hem you in
To keep you from running to HamAth,
Or from fleeing to the river in the west.

Chapter 7

¹ Then {Look!} the Lord showed me a breed of locusts that arrived early in the morning, being led by Gog the grasshopper king. ² These [locusts] came to devour all the grass in the land. So I shouted, ‘O Lord, please be kind; for, who will raise Jacob again, since so few now remain? ³ O
Lord, please change Your mind about this thing that You’re doing!’

But the Lord replied, ‘That won’t happen.’

⁴ Then {Look!} the Lord took me and showed me that he’d also called fire down upon them as their punishment... and [this fire] devoured everything to the depths [of the great sea], as well as a portion [of the land]. ⁵ And I said, ‘O Lord God, please stop! Who will raise Jacob again now that so few are left? O Lord, please change your mind about doing this!

⁶ But the Lord replied, ‘That won’t happen.’

⁷ Then the Lord [took me] and showed me something... {Look!} he was standing on a straight wall with a plumb line in His hand. ⁸ And the Lord asked me, ‘What do you see, Amos?’

And I replied, ‘A plumb line.’

Then the Lord said to me:

‘{Look!} In the midst of IsraEl, my people,
I will now set a plumb line,
And beyond it, I will no longer pass.

⁹ ‘I’ll wipe their shrines to laughter away,
And their sites of mystic rites will lie ruined;
For against the house of [King] JeroBoam,
I am now sending the broadsword.’

¹⁰ Well after that, AmaziAh (the priest of BethEl) sent [a message] to JeroBoam (the king of IsraEl) that said: ‘Amos is hatching a plot against you there in the midst of the house of IsraEl, and there’s no way that the land will be able to endure the things that he’s saying. ¹¹ For Amos is [telling the people] that JeroBoam will be destroyed by the broadsword, and that IsraEl will be led away from this land as captives.’

¹² And later, AmaziAh said this to Amos (there in front of everyone): ‘Get out of here and go to the land of Judah! Spend the rest of your life there and do all your prophesying there! ¹³ You may no longer prophesy here in BethEl, for this is the sanctuary of the king and the place of his royal palace!’

¹⁴ But I (Amos) replied to AmaziAh: ‘I wasn’t a Prophet or the son of a Prophet, I was just a herder of sheep and someone who picked the fruit of mulberry trees. ¹⁵ But then the Lord took me away from my sheep and said to me, Go and prophesy over My people IsraEl!

¹⁶ ‘So now, listen to what the Lord told me. Because you’ve warned me not to prophesy over IsraEl, and you’ve said, There’s no way that armies will be led against the house of Jacob, ¹⁷ this is what was said by Jehovah:

*Your wife will become a whore in the city,
And your sons and daughters will fall by the sword.
Then they’ll measure your land with a plumb line,
And you’ll come to your end in a place that’s unclean.
For, IsraEl will in fact be led from this land...
They’ll be carried away as captives.’*

Chapter 8

¹ Then {Look!} the Lord came and showed me the cage of a bird hunter, ² and he asked, ‘What do you see, Amos?’

And I replied, ‘A bird cage.’

Then the Lord told me, ‘This was said by Jehovah:
*My people, IsraEl, have now reached their end,
For I’ll no longer overlook what they’re doing.*

³ So in that day;

There’ll be screams from their temples and stock pens...

For, many [people] will fall there.

Then, I’ll bring silence to this place.

⁴ ‘*So listen, O you who’re destroying the needy,
And those who’re tyrannizing the poor...*

⁵ Yes, all of you who keep asking

When the [New Moons] will be over,

So you can go back to your trading,

And you who look for the Sabbaths to end

So you can open your [cash drawers],

Then measure out small and [unfairly]

By adding weights as you measure,

And by using unbalanced scales.

⁶ Then, from the needy and poor,

You take all of their silver

In return for sandals and [clothes].’

⁷ And after that, Jehovah swore this oath against Jacob’s pride:

‘Do you think that I’ll forget about this

And I’ll allow you to win?

Well, I won’t!’

⁸ Then [He said]:

‘Won’t this bring disturbance to the land,

And won’t all who live there start mourning?’

For, destruction will rise like a river,
And in its deep waters they'll sink.

◦ Jehovah said:

‘Then the sun will set at midday,
And the land will get dark in the daylight.

¹⁰ So their holiday feasts will turn into mourning,
And all of their songs into wailing.

‘Then, upon every loin, I'll bring sackcloth,
And baldness, I'll bring upon every head.
I'll appoint them as those who mourn loved ones,
And their happy days, I'll turn into grief.

¹¹ ‘Look, the days are coming,’ says Jehovah,
‘When to this land, I'll be sending famine...
But it won't be a famine of bread
Nor a famine of water,
But a famine of hearing the Word of the Lord.

¹² ‘From sea to sea, the waters will shake,
And [people] will run from the north to the east
Seeking the Word of Jehovah.
But then, no way will they find it.

¹³ ‘In that day, all of your pretty virgins
And all of your [handsome] young men
Will be wilting from thirst.

¹⁴ ‘And then, those who swear oaths by Samaria's Redeemer,
And say, O Dan, as your god lives,
Or, As your god lives, O BeerSheba,
Will fall and not rise again.’

Chapter 9

¹ Well after that, I saw the Lord standing at the Altar, and he said:

‘Strike the Propitiatory and shake all its gates,
Then cut off all of their heads,
And kill the rest with the broadsword!
There's no way that they can escape,
And no way that they will be saved!

² ‘If they should [hide] in the place of the dead;
My hand will [reach down and] grab them.
And if they should [fly] into the sky;
From there, I will lead them back down.

³ ‘If they should hide on [Mount] Carmel,
I'll search for them there and I'll grab them.
And if they hide from my eyes in the depths of the seas,
I'll send a wild beast to bite them.

⁴ ‘If their enemies should take them as captives,
I’ll instruct their broadswords to kill them...
Yes it’s for the bad, not for the good
That I have set my eyes on them.

⁵ ‘For Jehovah, the Lord God Almighty
Has grabbed the land and ordered a shaking.
Then, all who dwell there will mourn...
It will rise and fall like the Nile.

⁶ ‘And the One who built His [home] in the skies...
The One who founded the earth...
The One who calls water out of the seas
And pours it back on the land...
The One whose Name is Jehovah, says this:

⁷ ‘O sons of IsraEl;
To Me, you aren’t like sons of Kush,
For I’m the One who led you from Egypt,
And from the Cappadocian Philistines,
Then from the Syrians of Kir.

⁸ ‘{Look!} For My eyes watch the kingdoms of sinners
Whom I then remove from the face of the earth.
But the one that I won’t completely remove
Is the house of [My servant] Jacob, says Jehovah.

⁹ ‘But, {Look!} I will [soon] issue My orders
And cause IsraEl’s house to be threshed
[Along with] the rest of the nations
In the same way that you’d winnow with a shovel...
And no broken pieces will [be overlooked].

¹⁰ ‘Then, it will be by the broadsword
That the sinners among My people will end...
Yes, all of those who now say:
Such bad things will never approach us...
These things won’t happen to us!

¹¹ *‘And in that day, the tent of David that has fallen
Will thereafter stand once again
And its [broken] things, I’ll rebuild...
The things I cut down, I will raise...
I’ll rebuild it as it had been before.*

¹² *‘Then, those who remain of the nations
May inquire of those who have called on My Name,
Says Jehovah (the One who will do all these things).*

¹³ *‘For the days are coming, says Jehovah,
When harvests will last to the threshing
And grapes will stay stay ripe until planting.
The mountains will trickle down sweetness,
And [there will be] crops upon all the hills.*

¹⁴ *‘Then, I will bring back My people
(Those who were taken away...
The IsraElites who had been captured)
And they will rebuild all their cities
(Yes, they will all live there again).
Then, they will plant vineyards and drink their own wine...
They will plant gardens and eat their own fruit!*

¹⁵ *‘Upon their own ground, I will plant them,
And from this land that I gave them,
They won’t be plucked up thereafter,
Says Jehovah, The God.’*

Obadiah

From the Greek Septuagint text as was by First Century Christians

This is a late 7th Century BCE prophecy that was spoken against the descendants of IsaAc’s son Esau (the Edomites) concerning their coming destruction for the bad things they did to Judah when it was being destroyed.

Chapter 1

1 This is the vision of ObadiAh.

Jehovah God said this against Edom (I heard this report from Jehovah, and it's a summary of what He sent to the nations):

‘{Look!} Arise against her in battle!

2 ‘Among the nations, I’ve left you just few,
And upon you, I’ve brought much disgrace.

3 For, you have made your hearts proud
By camping high among cracks in the rocks;
And you have said in your hearts,
From here, who can bring us down to the ground?

4 ‘But, if you could fly as high as an eagle
And put your nest in the stars;
From there, I would lead you back down,’ says Jehovah.

5 ‘Now, if thieves were to enter among you,
Or robbers were to come during the night;
[How many things] would you lose?
Wouldn’t they take just the things [that they want]?
And if those who [steal] grapes came among you,
Wouldn’t they leave you a gleaning?

6 ‘But, there will come those who’ll search Esau through
And take all the things that you’ve hidden away.

7 Then, to your borders, they’ll drive you,
Where your allies will fight against you and win...
Yes, men with whom you’re at peace
Will then rise up against you,
And they’ll not understand why they did this.

8 ‘So, in that day,’ says Jehovah,
‘I’ll destroy all of Edom’s wise men.
Then, in the mountains of Esau,
Understanding will be gone from the land.

⁹ ‘For they’ll frighten your Temanite warriors;
And then, from the mountains of Esau,
All the men will be carried away.

¹⁰ ‘Because you’ve been so defiant
And brought slaughter to Jacob, your brother;
You will be covered with shame,
And through the age, you’ll be gone.

¹¹ ‘For, from the day that you faced and opposed them
To the day that strangers captured their army
And foreigners entered their gates,
Who then cast lots for JeruSalem’s spoils,
You were considered be one of them.

¹² ‘You shouldn’t have [sneered at] your brothers
On the day that those strangers arrived...
You shouldn’t have rejoiced at their downfall,
And [approved of the murder] of Judah’s sons.

‘You shouldn’t have [laughed] in the day of their pain,
¹³ And you shouldn’t have entered their gates
On that day of their misery!

‘Especially you should never have looked
Upon them in joy at their ruin.
Nor should you have joined to attack them
In the day that they were destroyed.

¹⁴ ‘In their mountain passes, you shouldn’t have stood
To destroy those who tried to escape.
Nor should you have locked up those fleeing
In their day of affliction.

¹⁵ ‘But now, the Day of the Lord has arrived
Upon all those nations [that did this].
So, all the [bad] things that you did
Are the things that they’ll do to you...
What you did will come upon your own heads!

¹⁶ ‘So, as you drank wine on My Holy Mountain,
The nations will drink wine from you...
Yes, they will swallow you down,
And it’ll be as though you never had been.

¹⁷ ‘But, salvation will come to Mount Zion,
And My Holy Place will stand there again.
Then the house of Jacob will inherit
All those who’ve inherited them.

¹⁸ ‘Like the fire that came upon Jacob’s house
And the flames that came upon JoSeph;
Like stubble, they’ll burn the house of Esau...
Among them, the fire will burn and consume.
So there’ll be no wheat harvest in Esau
For I, Jehovah, have spoken.

¹⁹ ‘At that time, the Mountains of Esau
Will be owned by those in the Negev.
And those who live in the Philistine Shephela
Will inherit Ephraim’s mountains,
Along with Samaria and BenJamin’s plains,
And all of GileAd’s land.

²⁰ ‘For the sons of IsraEl who will then return
Will inherit all the land
From CanaAn all the way to ZarEphath.
And those who return to JeruSalem
Will inherit the Negev to EphRatha.

²¹ ‘So the survivors [who return to] Mount Zion
Will take vengeance on the mountains of Esau,
And your kingdom will belong to Jehovah.’

Jonah

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians.

This book was likely written in the mid-8th Century BCE. And though it is a prophecy against the

*Assyrian City of Nineveh, it is also a moral lesson.
Is it a true story? Jesus spoke of the trials of Jonah in Matthew 12:39-41, so we can safely assume that these things really happened.*

Chapter 1

¹ The Word of Jehovah came to Jonah (the son of Amathi), and said:

² ‘Get up and go to Nineveh (the great city),
And give them this proclamation;
For, cries of their evil have reached me.’

³ However, Jonah got up and decided to flee from the face of Jehovah [all the way] to Tharsis. For he went down to Joppa and there he found a boat that was sailing to Tharsis, then he paid his fare, boarded, and preceded to sail away from the face of Jehovah.

⁴ But then Jehovah raised a wind over the sea that created huge swells, and [soon] the boat was in danger of breaking up. ⁵ Of course, this made the sailors so fearful that they each started yelling out to their own gods, and they started throwing things into the sea to lighten the load. Meanwhile, Jonah had gone down into the ship’s hold and fell asleep, and he started snoring. ⁶ So the ship’s captain went down to him and said, ‘Why are you [just lying there] snoring? Get up and call to your God so He’ll save us and we won’t be destroyed!’

⁷ Well at that, each man started saying to his companion: ‘Come, let’s throw lots so we can determine the reason why this evil has befallen us!’ So they threw lots, and the lot fell to Jonah. ⁸ And they asked him if he knew the reason why this evil had come down upon them. They also asked what he did for a living and where he came from from (what kind of place and what kind of people). ⁹ Then he told them: ‘I am a servant of Jehovah the God of the heavens... I worship the One who made the seas and the dry land.’

¹⁰ Well at that, the men became very fearful and they asked him what he had done (because the men realized that he was running away). So he explained [to them all that had happened].

¹¹ Then they asked him: ‘So, what must we do to you in order to calm the sea?’ And just as they asked this, the sea rose in a great swell.

¹² So Jonah told them: ‘Just pick me up and throw me into the sea... then it will become calm for you. For I know that it’s because of me that these great swells have come upon you.’

¹³ Nevertheless, the men pressed on and they tried to reach land... but they were unable, for the sea [kept pushing] against them. ¹⁴ So they called out to Jehovah and said: ‘Please don’t destroy us over the life of this man, because we don’t want the blood of the righteous held against us! But for You, O Lord, we’ll do whatever You wish.’

¹⁵ So then they took Jonah and threw him into the sea... and suddenly the sea became still and stopped tossing about. ¹⁶ As the result, the men became very fearful of Jehovah, and they made vows to Him and offered sacrifices to Him.

¹⁷ Then Jehovah ordered a great sea creature to swallow Jonah, and he stayed in its belly for three days and three nights.

Chapter 2

¹ There, Jonah prayed to Jehovah his God from the belly of the sea creature, ² saying this:

‘In my affliction, I called out to You,
O Jehovah, my God,
And You paid attention to me.
I’ve called from the belly of the place of the dead,
And from there, You have heard my voice!

³ ‘You threw me into the heart of the sea...
Into the depths of its waters,
And by the sea, I was covered.

‘Then I asked, as their waves and crests poured upon me,
⁴ *Have I been pushed away from Your eyes...
Won’t I see Your Holy Temple again?*

⁵ ‘But the waters were rolling around me,
And then, they entered my soul...
By the deep, I was encircled,
And my head went under the water.

⁶ ‘I went down between mountain fissures...
Through the earth and its bars of the ages.
And I said, O Jehovah, my God;
Let my soul rise above this corruption!

⁷ ‘Then, as my life was reaching [its end],
You noticed [my bad situation];
For my prayers had ascended to You...
Yes, to You in Your Holy Temple!

⁸ ‘Some pay attention to things that are foolish,
While others will listen to lies...
For they’ve given up on Your mercy.

⁹ But, with my voice, I will praise You,
And I’m offering [this song] as my sacrifice.
For I’ll do everything that I’ve promised
If you will just save me, Jehovah!’

¹⁰ And at that, the Lord gave orders to the large sea creature, and it vomited Jonah out on dry land.

Chapter 3

¹ Well thereafter, The Word of Jehovah came to Jonah a second time and said:

² ‘Now, you must get up and travel
To the great city of Nineveh
And proclaim my words over it,
Just as I told you before!’

³ So Jonah got up, and for the next three days he traveled to Nineveh, just as the Lord had told him (for God considered Nineveh to be a great city).

⁴ Then when Jonah arrived at the city, he spent [a full] day traveling through it proclaiming, ‘In just three days, Nineveh will be wiped away!’

⁵ Well, because the men of Nineveh believed in God, they called for a fast and for everyone (from the least to the greatest) to wear sackcloth. ⁶
And when [Jonah’s] words reached the king of Nineveh, he arose from his throne, removed all of his clothes and put on sackcloth, and then he sat in ashes.⁷ The king and his great men also sent a proclamation throughout Nineveh, that said: ‘The people may not eat anything, [nor may they feed] their cattle, oxen, or sheep... they may not eat or drink anything at all! ⁸ They are all to wrap themselves and their cattle in sackcloth as they all fervently call out to God! Each man must also turn from his wicked ways and from the sins of his hands and say, ⁹ Who knows if God will change His mind and turn from the anger of His rage, so that we will not perish?’

¹⁰ Well, when God saw what they were doing and that they had turned from their wicked ways, He changed His mind over the evil things that He said He would do to them, and He didn’t do anything.

Chapter 4

¹ However, Jonah was very upset and confused by this, ² so he prayed to Jehovah and said: ‘O Lord; Wasn’t this the same thing that I said [would happen] when I was back in my own land? It was because of something like this that I thought about fleeing to Tharsis! For I knew that because You are kind, sympathetic, lenient, and full of mercy, You’d change Your mind about doing such evil.

³ ‘And now, O Master and Lord; please end my life... it’s better for me to die than to live!’

⁴ And Jehovah asked: ‘Has this [really] grieved you so much?’

⁵ Then Jonah left the city and sat down in front of it... he put up a shelter and sat there, staring at the city.

⁶ Then Jehovah God provided a gourd [plant] that grew up over Jonah’s head to shade him during this bad [time]. And Jonah became very happy and joyful over the gourd [plant]. ⁷ But then early the next morning, God sent a worm that killed the [plant] and dried it up. ⁸ And just as the sun was rising, God sent a burning wind, which (along with the sun) burned Jonah’s head. So he became discouraged to the point where he wanted to just resign from life. For he said, ‘It’s better for me to die than to live!’

9 Then God asked Jonah: ‘Are you [really] that grieved over the gourd [plant]?’

And he replied: ‘Yes, I’m grieved to the point of death!’

10 And the Lord said:

‘You treated that plant so tenderly...

You nourished and worked hard over it,

Though it just grew in one night,

And it perished before the next evening.

11 ‘So, shouldn’t I spare this great city

Where a hundred and twenty thousand now dwell

Who don’t know their right from their left...

Along with all of their cattle?’

Micah

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians.

This is a prophecy that was written around 750-BCE, which foretold the destruction of Samaria and the northern ten-tribe kingdom of Israel, and which also foretold what would happen to Jerusalem before Sennacherib the king of Assyria invaded their lands in the time of Judah’s King Hezekiah. The prophecy then goes on to tell of Jerusalem’s destruction by Babylon and of how its people would thereafter be returned.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn’t personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator who appears to be someone referred to as ‘The Word.’ And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Also note that some of the words appear to be just those of the Prophet. So you will find quotation marks where we understand that God or His messenger appear to be speaking, and where the messenger is quoting God, the words will be rendered in italic. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

1 The Word of Jehovah came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of JoTham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (kings of Judah) and said this about the things he saw going on in Samaria and in Jerusalem.

² ‘Hear these words, O you peoples;
Also pay attention, you lands
And those who are dwelling within you!
For, from His Most Holy [Temple],
Jehovah will now testify.

³ ‘{Look!} Jehovah will come from His place
And go down upon your high places,
Then seat Himself in the heights.

⁴ ‘The mountains will shake underneath Him,
And like beeswax in fire, the valleys will melt,
Then flow like water that rolls down a slope.

⁵ ‘Yes, He will do all these things
Because of Jacob’s irreverent ways
And because of the sins of the house of IsraEl.

‘Isn’t Samaria the irreverence of Jacob
And isn’t Judah’s sin, JeruSalem?

⁶ ‘So I’ll turn Samaria into a barn
Where the fruits of the fields can be stored
Along with the [grapes] of the vineyards.
I’ll tear down her stones in great chaos,
And her foundations, I will thereafter expose.

⁷ ‘I’ll cut her carved idols to pieces;
Her temple whores, I’ll burn in a fire;
And I’ll appoint her idols to extinction.
For she hired whores and gathered them there...
So the wages of whores are what I’ll destroy.

⁸ ‘For this, she’ll wail and beat on her breasts...
She will go barefoot and naked...
She’ll beat on her chest like a dragon,
And mourn like chained demon’s daughters.

⁹ ‘This calamity upon her will surely arrive,
For she went to Judah and JeruSalem
And touched the gates of my people.

¹⁰ ‘Now, those in Gath shouldn’t feel special,
Nor should those living in BakaIm...
And don’t laugh as you’re trying to rebuild your homes,
For the land will be strewn with your laughter,
¹¹ And nothing good will come to your towns.

‘Then, those in ZaAnan will beat on their breasts
On behalf of the houses next door...
They’ll be grieved by the things that will happen to you.

¹² ‘For then, who’ll console her when she is sad
Over the bad things Jehovah will send,
Which will reach all the way to JeruSalem’s gates?

¹³ ‘They’ll hear the sounds of chariots and riders
[Attacking the City] of LachIsh.
For, they’re the ones who’ve been taking the lead
In the sins of the daughters of Zion...
All of IsraEl’s godless deeds can be found there!

¹⁴ ‘Because of this, they’ll be carried away
And become the inheritance of Gath...
Yes, to even their poorest of homes,
Where even IsraEl’s kings won’t be valued.

¹⁵ ‘Yes, [Gath’s] inheritance, they will become...
The people of LachIsh will then be their [slaves].
And off to AdulLam, they will carry
The glory of IsraEl’s daughters.

¹⁶ ‘So, shave [the heads of] your beloved young...
Make them as bald as the vultures;
For they all will be carried away.

Chapter 2

¹ ‘When they came here, they were looking for trouble
And doing what’s bad in their beds.
They did it all during the daytime,
And they wouldn’t raise their hands to Jehovah.

² ‘Because they desired more fields,
They plundered orphans and tyrannized homes...
They plundered the people along with their homes...
Both the men and the things they’d inherit.

³ ‘It’s because of this, that thus says Jehovah:
*{Look!} Against their tribe, I’m bringing what’s bad,
And no way will they then lift their necks
Or in any way walk erect...
For them, it will be a very bad time!*

⁴ ‘In that day, they’ll say these words about them...
They’ll raise this lament in a song:
*In our miserable condition, we knew misery;
For our people were [led off in] lines,
And no one [came here] to stop it
Or to bargain for their return;
So their fields were thereafter divided [as loot].*

⁵ ‘Now, no one will measure allotments
For those in the Lord’s congregation.

⁶ You’ll weep and cry for these things;
But, I won’t remove all your scum.

⁷ ‘Then, this is what they’ll say about you:
*Because the house of Jacob provoked
Jehovah’s Spirit to rage,
These are the things that He did;
For His words and His ways are all straight and good!*

⁸ [Through the years], My people have shown
A hatred and resistance to peace.
So they’ve flayed the skin [of those passing by],
[And brought on themselves] the conflict of war.

⁹ ‘Now the leaders of my people will be driven from their homes...
They’ll be pushed away, because they’re so bad!
So, flee to the mountains of the ages.

¹⁰ Since for you, there will be no rest,
Because you’re corrupt and unclean!

¹¹ ‘So you’ll run when no one is chasing,
Because of your lying spirit,
Which trickles upon you like the wine and strong drink
That you’ve gained from the sweat of your people.

¹² ‘But, after some time, they’ll return...
I’ll gather Jacob along with the rest,
And I’ll search for Israel’s remnants...
I’ll collect them and I will return them
Like sheep that have gone through hard times...
They will jump away from those people,
And in their own pastures, they’ll live as one flock.

¹³ ‘They’ll [run] though the breach that’s before them,
For the gate will be cut so they can escape.
And before them, will travel their king...
Yes, they will be led by their Lord.

Chapter 3

¹ ‘So listen, you head ones of Jacob,
And the rest who remain of IsraEl’s house!

‘When will you learn to do what is fair?

² Since you’ve hated what’s good and searched for what’s bad;
They’ll reach out for you and tear off your skin,
Then rip the flesh from your bones,

³ The same as you’ve eaten the flesh of my people
And flayed off all of their skin...

As you broke their bones as flesh for the pot,
And as meat for the cauldron.

⁴ ‘Then, you will cry out to Jehovah,
But He won’t listen to you...
He’ll just turn His face at that time,
Because of the wicked things that you’ve done.

⁵ ‘So, to the prophets, Jehovah declares
(To those misleading His people...
Those clenching their teeth as they proclaim peace
When [God hasn’t put] any [words] in their mouths):
A holy war, I’ll be sending to you

⁶ Because [you have spoken] such things.

*‘Then you’ll see no visions during the nights...
You’ll just see darkness (not light).
For the sun will not rise on you prophets,
And the days will darken before you.*

⁷ *‘Disgrace will then come to those who dream dreams,
And those telling the future will be ridiculed.
About them, all will speak badly,
And no one will pay attention to them.*

⁸ ‘However, I will be filled
With the strength and the Breath of Jehovah,
As well as with His justice and might,

So I can report the irreverence of Jacob
And speak to IsraEl about all their sins.

⁹ ‘Therefore, listen to this, O leaders of Jacob,
And you remnants of the house of IsraEl...
You who hate what is fair and twist what is straight...

¹⁰ You who’ve built Zion on blood
And filled JeruSalem with injustice!

¹¹ ‘For your leaders take bribes when they judge;
Your priests require a wage for replies;
And your prophets ask for silver for prophecies.
Yet, they still rest upon Jehovah and say:

Isn’t Jehovah among us?

No way will He bring bad things on us!

¹² And it is for all of these reasons
That Zion will be plowed like a field;
JeruSalem will become empty barns;
And the Temple Mount, just a place in the woods.

Chapter 4

¹ ‘But, in the last days, the Mountain of Jehovah
Will be seen once again
Sitting above the rest of the mountains...
Raised higher than all of the hills,
And to it, all the peoples will run.

² ‘Many nations will go there and say:
*Let’s ascend the Mountain of Jehovah
And enter the [Temple] of Jacob’s God.
For there, He will show us His ways,
And we will thereafter walk in His paths!*

*‘For, Laws will come out of Zion...
And from JeruSalem, the Word of Jehovah
³ Will serve as judge between peoples,
And make decisions among distant tribes.*

*'Then they'll cut their swords into plows,
And their spears, [they'll beat] into sickles.
Nation won't rise against nation again,
Nor will they learn war anymore.*

*4 'Under their own grapevines, each person will sit,
And they'll rest beneath their own fig trees...
For, no one will make them afraid anymore.
(This was said by the mouth of Jehovah the Almighty).*

*5 'And though other people may go their own way;
You will walk in the Name of your God
From the present and into the ages.*

*6 'And in that day, says Jehovah;
I'll regather all those who were broken
(Those whom I once threw away),
And I'll welcome back those whom I've pushed away.*

*7 'Yes, those who've been broken, I'll welcome,
And I'll make a great nation of them once again...
Of those whom I once pushed away!
And thereafter, and into the ages,
Their Lord will rule from Mount Zion.*

*8 'But on you, O tower of the flock...
To you, O JeruSalem's daughter
(You austere daughter of Zion);
The foremost of Babylon's kings
Will come here and enter your [gates]!*

*9 'For, why did you learn to do such bad things...
Wasn't there a king here among you,
And has all good council now perished?*

*'So, pangs are what you'll have to endure
Like a woman who's about to give birth.*

*10 But, hang on and take courage, O daughter of Zion,
As [a woman] who in fact will give birth!*

‘For, what’s coming to you is a city
That will set up its camps in your plains...
And then, to Babylon, they’ll take you.
But your God, Jehovah, will save you from there,
And ransom you from your enemy’s hands.

¹¹ ‘Now, many nations have gathered against you,
And this is what they are saying:
Our eyes will rejoice as we’re gazing on Zion!

¹² ‘But, they don’t know the ways of Jehovah,
And His council, they don’t comprehend.
For like sheaves [of grain], they’ll be gathered,
And on a threshing floor, they’ll be piled
¹³ So that you can thresh them, O daughter of Zion!

‘For I’ll turn your horns into iron,
And I’ll turn your hoofs into brass.
Then, I will dissolve many peoples,
And you will bring their abundance
As well as their strength to the Lord of the earth.

Chapter 5

¹ ‘Now, the daughter of Zion has reason to fear,
For upon her, He has decreed war,
And they’ll strike IsraEl’s tribes on the jaw!

² ‘Then from you, O BethLehem of EphRatha
(The few among the thousands of Judah)
Will come a man who’ll be IsraEl’s king
Whose [roots] are from the most ancient times
And from the days of the ages.

³ ‘And because of this, he’ll appoint her
A time that will be [like the giving] of birth.
For, she will thereafter give birth
To the remnant of those who are brothers,
And to the sons of IsraEl, they will return.

⁴ ‘Yes, by the strength of Jehovah,
A shepherd will rise to [watch over] them,
And they’ll bask in the glory of the Name of their God,
Which will then become known to the ends of the earth.

⁵ ‘And this is [the sign that there will be] peace:
When the Assyrians arrive in your land
And they climb up onto your place.

‘Seven shepherds will then rise against them
[And whip them] with the eight strokes of men.

⁶ ‘They’ll shepherd Assyria with a broadsword,
And the land of Nimrod [will serve as] her grave.
For, from the Assyrians, He’ll save you,
When against your land, they’ve ascended,
And when they’ve crossed over your borders.

⁷ ‘Thereafter, the few remaining of Jacob
Will [be scattered] among many peoples.
But, like the dew that falls from the Lord,
And like the lambs [that are fed] on wild grass;
They will be gathered by no one,
Nor among sons of men, will they stand.

⁸ ‘And though the remnant of Jacob
Will be [scattered] among all the nations
And dwell among many peoples;
They will be like lions among cattle ...
As bear cubs among flocks of sheep.

‘They will go through and scatter their prey...
None of which will be saved.

⁹ Then they’ll lift their hands against their opponents,
And their enemies will all be destroyed.

¹⁰ ‘*But [before] that day, says Jehovah;
I’ll destroy all your horses and chariots...*

¹¹ *All the cities in your land will wiped away,
And I will remove all your forts.*

¹² *'From your hands, I'll wipe out your potions,
And there'll be no fortune tellers among you.*

¹³ *I'll also destroy all the idols you've carved
And remove the sacred stones from your midst...
You'll [no longer] bow to the works of your hands.*

¹⁴ *'I'll cut down all of your sacred poles
And wipe away all of your cities.*

¹⁵ *Then, in My anger and rage,
I'll send My vengeance to the rest of the nations,
Because they too failed to listen!*

Chapter 6

¹ *'Hear indeed, what Jehovah has said!
Arise and plead with the mountains...
Let all the hills hear what He's said!*

² *'Listen, O mountains, to the judgments of God...
You foundations of the earth and its valleys!
For, between Jehovah and His people
There is a case to be tried...
And with IsraEl, He is going to war!*

³ *'O My people, what did I do...
Tell Me what trouble I've caused you!*

⁴ *From the land of Egypt, I led you...
From the house of slaves, I ransomed you back,
And before your face, I had sent you
Miriam, Aaron, and Moses!*

⁵ *'Remember the plans that Moab's King Balak
Had once made against you,
And the answers that BalaAm (the son of BeOr)
Was given from Shittim to GilGal,
So he'd know the righteous ways of the Lord.*

⁶ ‘Yes, how can you conquer Jehovah?
Can you snatch Him down from the heights?
With your whole burnt-offerings, can you beat Him,
Or with [the blood of] one-year-old calves? No!

⁷ ‘Will Jehovah [be swayed] by a thousand male sheep
Or ten thousand hearty winter yearlings? No!
For your sins, can you offer your first-born? No!
Can you offer the first fruits of your bellies
To cover [the sins] in your lives? No!

⁸ ‘To you, He’s explained it, O man...
All the things that are righteous.
All that Jehovah requires
Is for you to be fair and love mercy,
And to be ready to walk with your God!

⁹ ‘So the voice of Jehovah is calling to you,
And those fearing His Name will be saved.
Therefore, listen to this, O you tribes:
Who will be the adornment of your cities?

¹⁰ Won’t the homes of Law breakers be burned
Along with [the houses] of those who love crimes...
All the insolent and the unrighteous?

¹¹ ‘*Will I overlook your wicked scales
And your bags of deceptive weights?*

¹² *Will your irreverent ways be covered by wealth?
And all you liars who live there;
Will your [wicked] tongues [bring praise] from your mouths? No!*

¹³ ‘For your sins, I’ll torment you to extinction,

¹⁴ Then you’ll eat and never be filled.

I’ll banish you, and you will be lost

(No way will you be preserved);

And the survivors, I’ll hand to the broadsword.

¹⁵ ‘Then, though you may plant, you won’t reap;

And though you’ll press olives, you will not anoint,

*Nor will you drink any wine...
Since the Laws of My people will be wiped away.
¹⁶ ‘The rules of Omri, are what you have chosen,
And the deeds of the house of Ahab.
Yes, you have chosen their plans
So you wouldn’t be laughed at by others...
Thus, I’m bringing extinction upon you.*

Chapter 7

¹ ‘I’m like a man who gleanes stubble in the harvest,
Or one who gleanes grapes after they’re gone...
The ripe ones for which my soul craves (woe is me)!

² ‘For the upright have all been wiped from the land...
Those who walk straight, no longer exist...
And all righteous blood has been squeezed out
By the oppression of neighbors,
³ Who, with their hands, are doing what’s bad.

‘And though your rulers ask you for gifts
And your judges [give rulings] for bribes...
This is what your souls have desired!

⁴ ‘So, He’ll take away all your good things
Like a moth chewing through woolen clothes
[On behalf of those] who walk a straight line
In the day that you’re being inspected.

‘Yes, woe to you, for your punishment is due,
And soon you all will be weeping.

⁵ ‘So, don’t confide in your friends,
And put no hope in your leaders!
Watch out for the one who sleeps in your bed...
To her, show nothing at all!

⁶ ‘For, sons will dishonor their fathers,
And daughters will oppose their own mothers...

It's daughters-in-law against mothers-in-law,
And your enemies will be those in your own homes.'

⁷ But, I will look to my Lord;
On my Savior, Jehovah, I'll wait,
And my God will listen to me.

⁸ O my enemies; do not rejoice,
For though I've fallen, I will rise again.
And if I must sit in the darkness,
The Lord will provide me with light.

⁹ I'll endure the rage of Jehovah;
For against Him, I'm also a sinner.
But I'll wait until He sends justice...
Until He shows me His judgments
And leads me into the light,
Where I'll look to His righteous ways.

¹⁰ Then, upon my enemies, I'll gaze,
For then, they must bear all the shame;
Since they're the ones who once asked me,
So, where is Jehovah, your God?

[The Lord says]:

'My eyes have noticed these things,
So I'll trample on her like mud in the streets...

¹¹ Like mortar on bricks, she'll be wiped away,
And her rules will be gone in that day.

¹² 'Your cities will then all be leveled
And divided among the Assyrians.
Yes, your fortified cities will be given away
From Tyre down to the [Nile] river...
From mountain to mountain and sea to sea.

¹³ 'Yes, the land will all be destroyed,
Along with [the people] who live there...
It's the fruitage of the things that they've done.'

¹⁴ [O God;]
Tend Your people with Your mighty rod;
For, they are Your inherited sheep...
May they camp all alone in the woods
And [on the sides] of [Mount] Carmel!
In BaShan and GileAd, please feed them
As You did for them back in the age
¹⁵ When [You led] them from Egypt.

¹⁶ ‘Wonderful things, I will show them,
Which the nations will see in disgrace.
For [the nations will lose] all their strength...
They’ll place their hands over their mouths
And they will cover their ears.

¹⁷ Then, they’ll lick the dust just like snakes
That crawl along on the ground.
And by this, they will be confused.’

Yes, by God, they will be amazed...
But, they must learn how to fear Him,
¹⁸ For to what other god can He be compared?

Yet, as You remove the unrighteous,
[Please overlook] the irreverence
Of Your inherited ones that are left...
Hold back Your rage for the things that You’ve seen,
And please show mercy upon us!

¹⁹ Please turn and show pity upon us,
But sink our unrighteous ways...
Cast our sins into the depths of the seas.

²⁰ Then to Jacob, please send what is true,
And on AbraHam’s [seed], please show mercy,
As You swore in Your oath to our fathers.

Nahum

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

This book was written sometime during the mid-7th Century BCE, and it is a proclamation against the Assyrians (the world empire of that period), because he refers to himself as an Elkoshite, which appears to be a reference to the City of Alqosh in Assyria, where the Bible tells us that the ‘lost’ 10 tribes of IsraEl had been relocated by the Assyrians in the 8th Century BCE. It is interesting to note that this is the area where people known as the ‘Kurds’ live today.

¹ The concern over Nineveh. This is the scroll of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

² Because He is very zealous,
Jehovah will not fail to punish.
In His rage, Jehovah will punish
All those who are standing against Him...
He’ll destroy all those who oppose Him.

³ Jehovah is patient and mighty,
And the [guilty], [He] will not acquit.
His ways are rumbling and final,
And clouds of dust are under His feet.

⁴ He can squeeze the seas and cause them to dry,
And He can desolate rivers.
This is how BaShan and CarMel were weakened,
And why Lebanon’s blossoms have failed.

⁵ Before Him, the mountains have shaken,
And [before Him], the hills have all trembled.
They rise at His presence throughout the whole earth,
As do all [the peoples] who dwell there.

⁶ Before His rage, who can stand...
Yes, who can withstand His anger?
For, sovereign rulers melt at His rage,
And even the rocks split apart.

⁷ Yet, He’s kind to those who [put faith] in Him
In their day of affliction...
And He knows all those who respect Him.

⁸ Like a downpour, He wipes away and consumes
All those who've been roused [to oppose Him],
And He chases His enemies into the dark.

⁹ So, against Jehovah, what plans can you make,
For He can wipe you away.
But He will not punish you twice,
Or punish you for the same [errors].

¹⁰ His enemy's [cities], He will lay bare
To their very foundations.
Like twisted yews, they'll be burned
As though they are very dry stubble.

¹¹ Yet, against Jehovah, you have made plans...
Against Him, you've made wicked plans.

¹² So Jehovah (who rules all the waters) says this:

'I will send them away
And they'll not be heard from again.

¹³ For I'll lift their whips from [your backs],
And I'll remove all their shackles.'

¹⁴ It was concerning [the Assyrians], that Jehovah said this:
'Your name won't be mentioned again;,
For, I will destroy all your idols
(Those that you molded and carved),
Then a time will be set for your funeral,
Which will arrive very soon.

¹⁵ '{Look!} Upon the mountains, he's coming...
The feet of the one who's announcing good news
And the one with reports about peace!

'So in Judah, declare a holiday [feast],
And you must get ready to pay all your vows,
So that never again will they enter [your gates],
Nor again, should they see your corruption.'

Chapter 2

¹ Now He's finished [His work] and He has consumed...
This One who came up and breathed in your face...
This One who [sent] affliction to you!

So, watch the roads and [wrap up] your loins...
Be very manly and strong!

² For Jehovah has taken away
The haughtiness of Jacob's [tribes],
As well as IsraEl's insolent ways.

And now, He is ready to shake off
Those who've been shaking you,
And He'll bring their branches to ruin.

³ Under Him, there are men who have weapons,
And who laugh at fire, because of their might.

Their chariots have now been prepared,
And their horsemen will make many wail.

⁴ Their chariots will wreak havoc along all the roads,
And thereafter, they'll meet in your squares.

The sight of them is like burning lamps,
And lightning [is found in their wake].

⁵ So your mighty should now stop and think...
For in the daytime, they'll flee.

And as they leave, they'll be feeble,
Then between their walls, they will run
From the troops in the lead that arrive.

⁶ Then their city gates will be opened wide,
And all their great homes will be ruined...

⁷ Yes, all their supports will lie bare.

Their [women] will appear with their servants,
And as meek as doves, they'll be led away
To the flutter of their own beating hearts.

⁸ Nineveh is a pool amidst waters,
And her men won't resist, they'll just flee
When no one is paying attention.

⁹ So their silver and gold will be looted...
There are no limits to all that they'll take.
And those looters will then be weighed down
With [the city's] most desirable things.

¹⁰ There'll be thrusting, shaking, and tumult...
Hearts will be breaking and knees will be weak...
Loins will all become loose,
And all faces will look like burned pots!

¹¹ So, where is this great lion's den...
Yes, where is the pasture [where she hides] her cubs...
Where has the [great] lion gone?
She's gone away to be with her cubs
Who ran when there was nothing to fear.

¹² She is the same lion that once snatched away
All that her cubs had required.
And for her, the cubs strangled their prey,
Until their den became filled with game...
Their home was filled with the things she had seized.

¹³ 'But look!
I'm now the One that's coming against you,'
Says Jehovah, the Almighty,
'And all of your army, I'll burn into smoke.
'I'll devour your lions with the broadsword,
And I'll take all the game from your land,
So that none of the things you've accomplished
Will ever be mentioned again.

Chapter 3

¹ 'O you city of blood
And of all that is false and unrighteous;

You'll no longer be in charge of your game.
² For the sounds of whips, [you will hear],
Along with the rumble of [chariot] wheels...
The hot pursuits upon horses,
And the dust that they'll raise with their wheels...
³ The attacks of men riding steeds...
The shine of their swords and the flashing of shields.
'Great multitudes will be slaughtered;
For a downfall is coming to you.
Unnumbered nations will come there,
And from [looting and rape], they will tire.
⁴ 'You're a whore who once satisfied men,
And in the making of potions, you took the lead.
Then you sold your whoring to the nations,
And your potions, you sold to their tribes.
⁵ 'So look... I'm the One who's against you,'
Says Jehovah the Almighty!
'I will uncover your backside,
And show all the nations your shame...
Other kingdoms will see your dishonor!
⁶ 'Because of all your uncleanness,
I'll bring what's disgusting upon you...
Yes, I'll use you as an example.
⁷ 'Then, all who see you will leave you and say,
*O Nineveh, you wretched one;
Who will now mourn over you,
And where can they search to send comfort?*
⁸ 'So, tune up the strings of your lyres,
And prepare your potions for Amun
([Your God] who inhabits the rivers);
For your walls are surrounded by water,
From which you have ruled all the way to the sea.

⁹ ‘Though Ethiopia and Egypt have served as your strength,
They’ll [be no help] when you’re taken away...
There’ll just be Libya and the Sudan
Who will come to your aid.

¹⁰ ‘Your [people] will be captured and taken to exile,
And your infant’s [heads] will be dashed on the walls.
For your honorable things, they’ll cast lots,
As your great men are tethered and bound.

¹¹ ‘So, you’ll be provoked and get drunk,
As you seek shelter from your enemies.

¹² But what will happen to those in your forts,
Is the same as what will happen to you.

‘For, you will then be the fruit...
And when they start shaking the [tree],
You will fall into the mouths
Of those who have come to consume you.

¹³ ‘{Look!} Your enemies view you as women,
So they’ll burn the bars off your gates
And open the doors throughout your land!

¹⁴ ‘Then you’ll have to draw water from your rivers
To rescue all of your burning forts!
So, you should tread mortar and mix it with straw...
Then make it stronger with bricks!

¹⁵ For fire and the sword will destroy you...
They will consume you like locusts,
And by grasshoppers, you’ll be oppressed.

¹⁶ ‘Though you once grew your trade higher
Than all the stars in the skies;
Grasshoppers are coming to spread [over you]...

¹⁷ Small locusts will leap and consume,
And cover your fences like frost.
Then, as the sun rises, they’ll just hop away...
And woe, because you won’t know where they’ve gone!

¹⁸ ‘And you, O Assyria’s king;
All of your shepherds have fallen asleep
And all your mighty are resting.
Your people [have fled] to the mountains,
And no one is searching for them.
¹⁹ Thus, there’ll be no one to heal your destruction,
And your wounds will soon be inflamed.
‘Yet those hearing the message about you
Are all now all clapping their hands...
For to them, you have done evil things.’

Habakkuk

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

A prophecy concerning Jerusalem’s destruction by Babylon, written sometime around the middle 7th Century BCE.

Chapter 1

¹ These are the things that the Prophet Habakkuk saw:

² How long, O Lord, must I cry out
As You don’t listen [to me]?
How long should I yell to You over wrong
As You don’t bring us salvation?

³ Why have You shown toil and trouble to me,
As you look upon misery and irreverence?
Right opposite me, there’s judging going on...
But it is the judge who carries away!

⁴ Because of this, the Law has been shaken,
And in the end, there’s no justice;
For the godless are tyrannizing the righteous,
And the justice they receive is perverted!

⁵ [And the Lord replied]:
‘Look, O you who saying such words...’

Gaze and wonder at wonders,
And thereafter, just pass away!
For I'll do a work in your day,
Which you won't believe and none can describe.

⁶ ‘ {Look!} I'll awaken the Chaldean people,
And they'll travel across the breadth of the earth
To inherit tents not their own.

⁷ ‘[Their king] is known to be fearsome,
And he [creates] his own kind of justice,
For his only concern is himself.

⁸ ‘His horses leap higher than leopards,
And [their teeth] are like those of Arabian wolves.

‘His horsemen will make great advances...
They'll spread [their wings] out like eagles
That are eager for something to eat.

⁹ ‘Then, upon all those who don't show him respect,
They will bring a consumption...
It will come upon all who oppose him,
And he'll gather captives like sand.

¹⁰ ‘Then among all their kings, he will revel...
Their sovereignty will be his playthings,
And he will mock every fortress...
He'll build siege mounds around them and win!

¹¹ ‘But thereafter, his spirit will change;
For, he will repent and then say,
This power has come from my God!

¹² O Jehovah, my God and most Holy One;
Aren't You from the vey beginning?
But, though there's no reason for us to die,
You have ordered up justice...
For discipline and correction, You've shaped us.

¹³ But if Your eyes are too pure to look at the bad,
And You cannot view what is evil;
Why have You endured those who hate You?

Why must You remain silent and watch
As the impious are consuming the righteous?

¹⁴ Will You let us be like the fish in the sea
Or like the things that crawl [on the ground]
Where no one that is taking the lead?

¹⁵ You let [Babylon's king] catch destruction...
Yes, he pulled it up with a hook
And lifted it up with his net...
Then he brought it all in with his dragnet,
And this is why he's so happy.

¹⁶ So he'll offer sacrifices to his dragnet,
And to it, he will also burn incense.
For by it, he's fattened his portion,
And provided himself the choicest of food.

¹⁷ So, he will keep casting his net
To destroy many nations, not spare them!

Chapter 2

¹ [I've also told You] that during my watch,
I'll be the one who stands guard...
I'll climb on the rocks and observe,
Then listen to all that You'll tell me,
So I'll know what I must say in reply
When I am receiving correction.

² Then the Lord told me this... He clearly said:
'Now, you must write down this vision
To elevate those who will read it.

³ It's a vision of a time in the future...
It's what will happen in the time of the end.

‘Be patient if it seems to be late;
For, it will surely arrive...
No way will its coming be tardy.

⁴ ‘For in My soul, I do not find favor
In those who hold back [My words]...
For it’s by their faith that the righteous will live!

⁵ ‘But, those who are arrogant and hateful,
And any man who’s a braggart
Will receive no [blessings] at all...
For he’s widening his soul like the grave,
And like death, he never gets filled.

⁶ ‘So, if he should assemble all nations
And gather their peoples [under his rule];
Wouldn’t they say this against him...
Wouldn’t they speak this riddle and say:

*‘Woe to the one who takes what’s not his...
How long [can he stand] all the pressure?*

*⁷ For suddenly, there’ll come those who’ll bite him...
Yes, those plotting against him will awaken
And then they will saw him two.*

*⁸ ‘For, many nations, he’s ravaged.
But those that remain, will then ravage him
Because of all the blood that he’s shed,
And the things that he did to their cities and lands...
What he did to all those who lived there.*

⁹ ‘O you who’ve desired all their wealth;
Such bad things will also come to your house...
Yes, on you who’ve arranged your nest in the heights,
And whose hands brought evil [to others].

¹⁰ ‘For, you have brought shame upon your own house,
Since throughout your whole life, you have sinned,
And you’ve ended [the lives] of [many great] men.

¹¹ ‘Therefore, from your stone walls, I will yell,
And the beetles in the woods will repeat it:

¹² *Woe to those who build their cities on blood,
And [grow] their countries by doing what’s wrong!*

¹³ ‘Yet, it’s by Jehovah the Almighty
That so many have been tested by fire,
And the nations have proven faint-hearted!

¹⁴ 'So, like the waters that cover the seas,
The whole earth will soon become filled
With the knowledge about all His glory.

¹⁵ 'But, you have forced your neighbors to drink
Something intoxicating and cloudy
In order to gaze on their private parts.

¹⁶ 'So, drink deeply to the glory of your dishonor
And get extremely excited!
For thereafter, you'll be completely surrounded
Inside the cup in Jehovah's right hand,
Where your glory will meet with dishonor.

¹⁷ 'By Lebanon's irreverence, you'll be covered,
And the misery of wild beasts will terrify you,
Because of the blood of men that you've shed,
And the badness within [your] cities and lands,
Along with the [evil] of your people.

¹⁸ 'What good are the idols that they've carved,
Or the molded castings they've shaped...
The false things they can see [with their eyes]?
For your people rely on things that they've shaped...
On idols that they've made, which can't speak!

¹⁹ 'So, woe to those who say to the wood,
[It's time for you to] awaken and rise,
And say to things made of stone, Become great!
For, they are just things you can look at...
Things that you've hammered from silver and gold,
Which are unable to breathe.

²⁰ 'But, in His Temple, Jehovah's [alive]!
So, those in all lands should bow down before Him!

Chapter 3

¹ The prayer of Habakkuk (the Prophet) in a song:

² O Lord;

I heard Your report and I was afraid.

O Jehovah;

I thought of your works and I shook.

You stand between the two cherubs,
And in coming years, all will know You...
Yes, when that time comes, You'll be seen.

And when disturbance arrives in my life,
You'll think of [me] and show mercy.

³ For, God will come out of Teman...
Yes, from the shadow of Mount Paran,
The Most Holy one will arrive.

PAUSE

His virtues cover the skies
And His praises fill the [whole] earth...

⁴ Like all kinds of light is His brightness.

In His hands, He carries a trumpet;
And by His might, He sends us His love.

⁵ So, from His face, a word will go forth,
Which will travel from there into the plains;

⁶ And where His feet stand, the [whole] earth will shake.

When He looks upon them, the nations dissolve...

By [His] might, the mountains will break
And the hills of the ages will melt.

⁷ On the tents of Ethiopian peoples,
I saw distress about to arrive,
And the tents of Media were also disturbed.

⁸ Were You provoked by their rivers, O Lord...
Did their rivers make so You angry
That against their sea, You took action?

O you who are coming on horses;
As you ride, are you bringing salvation?

⁹ No, Jehovah has told you to stretch out...
Against their tents, you must now stretch your bows!

PAUSE

You'll divide up their lands by their rivers,
¹⁰ And when they see you, they'll start having birth pangs;
For they'll know that the rivers will be their new borders.

Then the abyss will shout to the heights
When it sees that you are arriving.

¹¹ Then the sun will not rise in the sky,
And the moon will fail and stand still.
But, by the flash of your arrows
And sparks from your weapons, they'll move.

¹² When [God] threatens, He'll leave just few in their lands;
For in His rage, He wipes away nations.

¹³ But to His people, He will bring salvation,
And He'll also save His anointed.

But to the heads of the lawless, He will send death...
First, He'll put chains on their necks,
Which will shake and astonish the mighty,
And then He will chop off their heads.

PAUSE

¹⁴ Yes, He'll split the heads of the mighty,
After He makes them all shake.
For, they will put down their reins
And look for places to hide...
Then, they will be fed like the poor.

¹⁵ For He'll lead their horses into the sea,
And there they will muddy its waters...
Which will make all afraid when they see it.

¹⁶ On my lips, there was the sound of a prayer...
Trembling entered my backside and bones...
Yes, all of my ways were disturbed.
But, I will find rest in that day of distress...
When I leave those people to whom I was sent.

¹⁷ For their fig trees won't bear fruit again,
And there'll be no grapes on their vines.
Their olive trees will also be gone,
And there'll be no crops in their fields.

At that time, there will be no sheep,
And there'll be no oxen left in their barns.

¹⁸ But, I'll shout in joy to Jehovah...
I'll rejoice over my Savior, God!

¹⁹ For Jehovah God is my strength,
And He's provided straight paths for my feet...
Upon a high place, He has set me,
And by His song, I will win!

Zephaniah

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

A prophecy against Jerusalem, its surrounding countries, and the Assyrians, which was written around 640-BCE.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator who appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ The The Word of Jehovah came to ZephaniAh (the son of Cushi, grandson of GedaliAh, and great-grandson of AmariAh, the son of HezekiAh) in the days of JosiAh (the son of Amon) the king of Judah, and said:

² 'When it comes to being in want,
Let all on the face of the earth be in want,' said the Lord!

³ 'Let men and their cattle all be in want;
Let things that fly in the sky be in want,
As well as the fish in the sea.

'May the irreverent all become ill
Because of their lawless deeds;
For, from the land, I'll remove them,' said the Lord.

⁴ 'Then over Judah and Jerusalem
I will stretch out my hand,
And the name of BaAl, I'll remove from this place,
Along with the names of his priests
And the things dedicated [to him].

⁵ '[I'll remove] all those who bow on their roofs
Before the [stars] in the skies,
As well as those who bow low
And swear their oaths by their masters,
Or those who swear oaths by their king.

⁶ For they have all turned from Jehovah,

And they are not seeking their Lord...
[To Him], they haven't stuck closely.

⁷ 'So be cautious before Jehovah [your] God,
For the Day of the Lord is at hand!
Jehovah has readied His [great] sacrifice,
And made He's His Chosen One holy.

⁸ 'For the day of sacrifice will arrive
When I will take vengeance upon all their rulers,
As well as on the house of their king,
And on those who wear foreign clothes.

⁹ 'When I take vengeance, you'll see it;
For, it will come to the gates in that day
Of those filling the House of Jehovah
With their treacherous, ungodly ways.

¹⁰ 'And in that day,' said the Lord,
'There'll come the sounds of cries from the gates...
[The sounds] of people who are being stabbed through.
And from the second quarter, the screams of the women,
As the battles rage on in the hills.

¹¹ 'So wail, all you who dwell in this place
That soon will be cut to pieces.
For [as happened] to the people of CanaAn;
Those who carry silver will be slaughtered!

¹² 'And in that day;
I'll search JeruSalem through with a lamp
And take vengeance upon all the people
Who've paid no attention to my orders,
And on those who have said in their hearts,
Jehovah will do neither evil nor good!

¹³ 'Then I'll give them the power to ravage
And ruin all of your houses.

So, you will build homes in which you won't live,
And plant vineyards, from which you won't drink the wine.

¹⁴ 'For the Day of the Lord has approached...

Yes, it will come very soon!

And the sounds of the Day of the Lord
Are ordered to be bitter and harsh.

¹⁵ 'It will be a day of his rage;
A day of distress and affliction;
A day of misery and extinction;
A day of dimness and darkness;
A day of clouds and [thick] fog.

¹⁶ 'It'll be a day when the trumpets are blown,
And there'll be cries around your walled cities,
As well as around their high towers.

¹⁷ For, I will squeeze out the people,
And then they will walk like the blind
Because of their sins against [God].

'I'll pour their blood out in the dust,
And I'll [pour] their flesh out like dung.

¹⁸ Then their silver and gold will not save them
In the Day of the Rage of Jehovah.

For the fire of His zeal will consume the whole land.

'In a diligent way, He will bring it
Upon all those who dwell in this land.

¹ 'So, gather and be bound together,
You nation that cannot be taught,
² Before this day passes by like a blossom...
Before [God's] wrath has come upon you...
Before the Day of His anger and rage.

³ 'So, seek Jehovah, you meek of the earth...
Seek what is righteous and fair!

Give truthful answers to all,
And tell them to hide in the Day of God's wrath.

⁴ 'For, it will bring plundering to Gaza,
And AshKelon will be wiped away.
AshDod will fall at mid-day,
And EkRon will soon be uprooted.

⁵ 'Woe to you in the lands by the sea...
All you who have [moved there] from Crete.
For the Word of Jehovah is coming against you
(You Philistines in CanaAn's land),
And I'll destroy all the places where you dwell.

⁶ '[Your lands] will become pastures for flocks...
They'll be safe havens for sheep.
⁷ And the lands of those who dwell by the sea
Will be given to the remnants of Judah.

'AshKelon's homes will then become [pens]
Where sheep will rest [in the heat of the day].
Then the sons of Judah, Jehovah will visit,
And from captivity, return them.

⁸ *'For I've heard the scorning of Moab
And of their mistreatment by AmMon's sons
When they berated My people,
And forced themselves over My borders.*

⁹ *'Because of this, as I live;
Says IsraEl's God, Jehovah of Armies,
Moab will soon be like Sodom,
And the sons of AmMon, like GomorRah.*

*'Damascus will also come to its end
And be heaps of salt through the age!
They'll be plundered by what remain of My people...
They'll be inherited by the remnant of My nation.*

¹⁰ ‘This will happen because of their insolent ways...
Because they berated [my people],
And because they put themselves higher
Than Jehovah, the Almighty God.

¹¹ ‘Then before them, the Lord will appear
To destroy all the gods of those nations and lands,
And thereafter, they’ll all bow before Him...
Each man within his own land,
And the gentiles who live in the islands.

¹² Then the Ethiopian peoples
I will put to death with my broadsword!

¹³ ‘I will stretch out my hand toward the north,
And the Assyrians too, will be wiped away...
I’ll turn Nineveh into a desert!

¹⁴ ‘Flocks will then feed in her midst
Beside the wild beasts of the land.
Chameleons and hedgehogs will live in her fretwork,
Wild beasts will roar in her ditches,
And crows will nest in her gates.

‘But because she has been a tall cedar,
¹⁵ This city that has paid no attention
Still hopes that she can survive.

‘For, she has said in her heart:
I am, and after me, there will be no others!
But soon, she will be just gone...
She’ll be a place where wild beasts will dwell,
And all who thereafter go through her
Will whistle and just wring their hands.

Chapter 3

¹ ‘And you, O great city of [JeruSalem]...
O my dove, whom I have repurchased;
² To His voice, you just wouldn’t listen,

And you chose not to follow His orders...
Upon Jehovah, you wouldn't rely...
You refused to turn back to your God.

³ 'So your rulers are now like roaring lions,
And your judges are like Arabian wolves
That leave nothing over 'til morning.

⁴ 'Your prophets are all wanton liars
[Whose words] are blown by the winds.
And [God's] Holy Things are profaned by your priests
Who have no respect for His Laws.

⁵ 'But among you, Jehovah's been righteous...
No way has He been unjust...
Each morning, He sends you justice and light.
But, nothing is hidden from Him,
And He doesn't put up with injustice.

'So the wicked will all come to shame,
⁶ And He will tear down your proud,
Then destroy every place where they hide.
'He'll also wipe away all your roads,
So that no one will go through your cities.
Then, all of your towns will be wiped away...
No one will dwell there, because they'll be gone.

⁷ *'I told you to fear Me and do as I say,
So I wouldn't have to destroy you.
But now, prepare for the vengeance
That I will be bringing upon you.
For, I will rise early and reap,
And even your gleanings, I'll ruin, said Jehovah.*

⁸ *'Then on the gathering of nations, I'll pass judgment,
And I'll pour out My rage on their kings...
Yes, all of My anger and rage
And the fire of My zeal will consume them.*

⁹ *'Then, to that generation, I'll bring just one tongue
So that all can call on the name of the Lord
And serve him under one yoke.*

¹⁰ *'From the ends of Ethiopia's rivers
I'll welcome back those who were scattered,
And they'll carry sacrifices to Me.*

¹¹ *'In that Day, you won't be disgraced
By the disrespect that you've shown Me.
For I'll remove your insolent ways
And the careless attitudes that you've shown...
Then, about My Holy Mountain, you'll boast once again.*

¹² *'But among you, I'll leave the humble and meek
(Those who respect the name of the Lord).*

¹³ *And this remnant of IsraEl will not be unrighteous...
Of vain things, they will not speak,
And no way will their tongues then deceive.
So, they will eat as they lie in their beds,
And no one will make them afraid.*

¹⁴ *'So rejoice, O daughter of Zion...
O JeruSalem's daughter, shout loudly...
Whole-heartedly [cry out in] joy...
JeruSalem's daughter, yell in delight!*

¹⁵ *For Jehovah has removed your offenses
And ransomed you from your enemy's hands.
For IsraEl's King, Jehovah, is with you,
So you'll see evil no longer!*

¹⁶ *'To JeruSalem, I'll say in that time:
Be courageous, O Zion,
And don't let your hands become weak!*

¹⁷ *For Jehovah your God, is among you...
The Almighty has brought you salvation!*

*'Then, He will spread gladness among you,
And because He cares, He'll revive you.*

He'll be as glad and delighted with you
As He was in the days of your holiday feasts.

¹⁸ *'Then I'll gather back those who are broken,
And bring woe upon any who scorn you!
¹⁹ {Look!} In that time, I will act on your behalf...
I will save all those who were pressured,
And I'll welcome back those whom I once pushed away.
Then I'll make them [a people] of boasting and fame
In every place throughout the whole earth.*

²⁰ *'At that time, your enemies will all be disgraced
And I'll do whatever you think to be good;
Because, in that time, I'll accept you...
I'll make you famous and reasons to boast
Before the rest of the nations on earth.
For, before their eyes, I'll return you
From the places where they once held you captive, said Jehovah.'*

Haggai

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

A prophecy that was sent to the people of JeruSalem sometime after 559-BCE concerning the need to rebuild God's Temple and to restore true worship there.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator who appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ In the second year [of the reign] of King Darius, in the sixth month and on the first day of the month, The Word of Jehovah came by the hand of HagGai the Prophet and said, 'Speak to ZerubBabel the son of ShealtiEl from the tribe of Judah and to JoShua (son of JoZadek) the High Priest, and tell them that Jehovah the Almighty says this:

*‘These people say that the time isn’t right
To rebuild the House of Jehovah.’*

Then the Word of Jehovah went on to say this through the hands of HagGai the Prophet:

*‘Is it indeed the right time
For you men to live in nice houses
While this [Temple] is lying in ruins?*

*‘And now, says Jehovah the Almighty,
Arrange your hearts for the ways you must go!
For you plant a lot, but you don’t harvest much;
You eat, but not ‘til you’re full;
You drink, but not ‘til you’re drunk;
You wear clothes that don’t keep you warm;
And those to whom you’ve paid wages
Keep them in bags full of holes.*

*‘So, thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
Now, get your hearts ready to travel,
And go to the mountains to cut the wood
With which you’ll rebuild [My Temple].
For, if you choose to do this,
I will think well of you,
Because that would glorify Me, says Jehovah.*

*‘Now you look for much [but find] little,
And after you carry it home,
I just blow it away.
This happens, says Jehovah the Almighty,
Because you’ve abandoned My House
While you each [repair] your own homes.
So the sky is withholding its dew,
And the ground is withholding its blessings.*

¹¹ *‘Therefore, to your land and its mountains;
Also, to your oil and your grain,
And to the ground that brings wine to men,
I will be sending the sword.
I’ll also send the sword to your cattle,
And [to the things that you make with] your hands.’*

¹² Well, ZerubBabel (the son of ShealtiEl) from the tribe of Judah, and JoShua (the son of JoZadek) the High Priest (as well as all the rest of the people) listened to the voice of Jehovah their God and to the words of HagGai the Prophet – to all [the words] that Jehovah their God had sent to them – and the people became fearful before Jehovah.

¹³ Then HagGai, one of the messengers of Jehovah, told the people this: ‘Jehovah says, I am with you!’

¹⁴ So thereafter, Jehovah awakened the spirit of ZerubBabel (the son of ShealtiEl) from the tribe of Judah, the spirit of JoShua (the son of JoZadek) the High Priest, and the spirits of the rest of the people, and they went to work on the [Temple] of their God Jehovah the Almighty. ¹⁵ They started [the project] on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year [of the reign] of King Darius.

Chapter 2

¹ Then on the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the Word of Jehovah came again by the hand of HagGai the Prophet. He said, ² ‘Speak to ZerubBabel (the son of ShealtiEl) of the tribe of Judah, and to JoShua the High Priest (the son of JoZadek), and to all rest who are left there, and ask them this:

³ *‘Who among you had seen this [Temple]
In [the days of] its glory?
Do you see what it has become...
It no longer exists here before you!*

⁴ *‘So ZerubBabel, you must be strong, says Jehovah;
And High Priest Joshua, you must be strong...
And you people of the land must also be strong;*

*For, if you choose to [be on My side],
I will be there with you,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.*

*⁵ ‘This is the same thing that I said to [your fathers]
When they were fleeing from Egypt...
And then, I sent My Breath.
So now, you must also show courage!*

*⁶ ‘For, thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
Once again, I will shake the lands and the skies,
As well as the seas and dry ground.
⁷ I will also shake all the nations,
And My chosen ones will return...
Then I’ll fill this [Temple] with glory,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.*

*⁸ ‘For, all the silver is Mine,
And all the gold is Mine also,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.
⁹ So the glory of this [Temple] will be greater...
Yes, this last will be greater than the first,
Says Jehovah the Almighty!*

*‘And to this place, I’ll bring peace,
Says Jehovah the Almighty...
Peace that will save all the lives
Of those who rebuild this Temple.’*

¹⁰ Then it was on the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month in the second year of Darius that these words came from the Lord to HagGai the Prophet. He told them that ¹¹ Jehovah the Almighty said this:

‘Ask the Priests, concerning the Law:

*¹² If a man should touch holy meat
With just the edge of his clothes,
And the edge of his clothes should thereafter touch
Bread, stew, wine, or olive oil*

(Or any other such food);
Would it make those things holy?’

And all the Priests replied, ‘No!’

¹³ Then HagGai asked,
‘But, if they should touch a dead person,
Would any of these things still be clean?’

And the Priests replied, ‘[No, they’d] be defiled!’

¹⁴ Then HagGai told them that this is what Jehovah said:

*‘So it will be of these people
(Of this nation that stands here before Me
And of the works of their hands)...
Those who come here will all be defiled
If they’re more concerned about their own [homes].*

*‘Such ones, should rather be grieving
About the wicked things that they’ve done;
For, they have hated [the Prophets]
Who scolded them at their gates.*

¹⁵ *‘So, take [these words] to your hearts from this day
Before laying stone upon stone
To [rebuild] the House of Jehovah:*

¹⁶ *‘Think of when you went to your stores
To get twenty measures of barley
And found there were only ten measures;
Or, when you went to the wine vat
To draw fifty measures [of wine]
And found there were just twenty measures.*

¹⁷ *‘Well, I am the One who had struck you
With this lack of production...
[I’m the One who struck] the works of your hands
And sent hail and strong wind upon you,
Because you refused to turn back to Me, says Jehovah.*

¹⁸ *'So, keep this in your hearts from this day...
From the twenty-fourth day and ninth month...
From the day the Temple's foundation was laid...
Yes, store it deep in your hearts!*

¹⁹ *'Will the threshing-floor still [be empty]? No!
And will the grapevines, fig trees, pomegranates, or olives
Fail to put out their fruit? No!
Because, from this day, I will bless them!'*

²⁰ Then the word of the Jehovah came to HagGai the Prophet a second time (on the twenty-fourth day of the month), and he said: ²¹ 'Speak to ZerubBabel (the son of ShealtiEl) of the Tribe of Judah, and this is what you must tell him:

*'I will shake the ground and the sky,
As well as the sea and dry land.*

²² *Then I'll wipe away the thrones of the kings
And I will destroy all the power
Of the nations [that are living around you]!*

*'Their chariots and horsemen will be wiped away...
Their horses and horsemen will fall,
And they'll each turn their swords on their brothers.*

²³ *'O ZerubBabel;
On this day, I've chosen you as My servant,
Says the Almighty Jehovah.
I've established you as a seal,
For you're the one that I've chosen,
Says the Almighty Jehovah.'*

Zechariah

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians

A prophecy about JeruSalem concerning the need to restore true worship there, which was written somewhere between 560 and 539-BCE.

The curious case of the changing personal pronouns: Something that all translators notice when translating the words of the Prophets is the constant changing of the personal pronouns

from the first to the third person in the pronouncements. And what we have come to realize is that God didn't personally speak to the Prophets. Rather, He sent His message through a mediator who appears to be someone referred to as 'The Word.' And so, wherever we find changes in personal pronouns from the first to the third person, we have interpreted this as meaning that the mediator is quoting God. Did we get it all right? Probably not, but it has been an honest attempt at doing so.

Chapter 1

¹ It was in the eighth month in the second year [of the reign] of Darius that the Word of Jehovah came to ZechariAh (the son of BarachiAh and grandson of IdDo) the Prophet and said:

² 'Jehovah was provoked by your fathers
And [driven] into great rage;

³ So, tell them that thus says Jehovah of Armies:
*Return to Me, says Jehovah of Armies,
And then, I'll turn back to you.*

⁴ *'Do not be like your fathers
Whom the Prophets accused.
For they came beforehand and warned them...
They said that Jehovah of Armies
Had warned them to turn from their wicked ways
And from the bad things they were doing.
But they just paid no attention,
And chose not to listen to Me, says Jehovah.*

⁵ *'Now, where are your fathers and where are those Prophets...
Have they lived into this age?*

⁶ *'You have My words and My Laws;
Yes, all that I sent by My Spirit
Through My servants the Prophets...
Yes, those who were seized by your fathers.*

*'For they gave this reply to [the Prophets]:
Whatever Jehovah of Armies had planned
Because of our sins and our evil ways
Has already been fulfilled upon us!'*

⁷ Well, it was on the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat), in the second year [of the reign] of Darius, that the Word of Jehovah came to me (ZechariAh the Prophet, the son of BarachiAh and grandson of IdDo). ⁸ For during the night, I looked up and saw a man who was riding a red horse. He was standing in the shade between the mountains, and behind him were red horses with white spots. ⁹ So I asked, 'What is this, O

Lord?' And [God's] messenger (the person who was speaking to me) replied, 'I will show you what all these things mean.'

¹⁰ Then the man who was standing between the mountains spoke to me and said:

'These [men] were sent by Jehovah
To travel throughout the whole land.'

¹¹ And thereafter, the men who were standing between the mountains said to the messenger of Jehovah:

'We have finished our travels throughout the whole land,
And {Look!} it is all tranquil and filled.'

¹² So the messenger of Jehovah said this:

'O Jehovah of Armies;
How long will you fail to show mercy
On JeruSalem and the cities of Judah?
For, this is the seventieth year of Your rage.'

¹³ And Jehovah replied to the messenger:

'You, the one who is speaking for Me,
Must send him good words that bring comfort.'

¹⁴ So then the messenger spoke to me and told me that I should start shouting [in joy], because Jehovah the Almighty had said this:

'I have a great zeal for JeruSalem...
Over Zion, I am very zealous!

¹⁵ And I've been provoked by the nations,
Because they had joined to attack you.

'But, though you people had provoked Me,
They planned their attack for bad [reasons].

¹⁶ And because of this,' said Jehovah,
'On JeruSalem, I will show mercy,

And My Temple will soon be rebuilt there.’

Then Jehovah added:

‘So, I’m stretching a line over JeruSalem.’

¹⁷ ‘[And the messenger said],

‘Therefore, shout aloud [in joy] once again!

For Jehovah of Armies said this:

To your cities, I’ll be sending good things;

For, I will show mercy on Zion,

Since JeruSalem is the place that I chose!’

¹⁸ Then, when I raised my eyes and looked, I saw four trumpets. ¹⁹ So I asked the messenger (the one who was speaking to me): ‘What are these, O Lord?’

And he replied:

‘These are the trumpets...

The ones that brought scattering to Judah,

As well as to IsraEl and JeruSalem.’

²⁰ Then the Lord showed me four workers. ²¹ So I asked him, ‘What have these come to do?’

And he replied to Me, saying,

‘They’ve come to cut down the trumpets

That brought scattering [to the people of] Judah,

And so much destruction upon IsraEl

That those who lived there could not raise their heads...

They’re the horns that the nations had raised

To scatter the land of Jehovah.’

Chapter 2

¹ Then I raised My eyes and I saw a man; and in his hand was the string of a surveyor. ² So I asked him, ‘Where are you going?’

And he said,

‘I’m going to measure JeruSalem...

To determine its length and its width.’

³ Well at that point, {Look!} the messenger that was speaking to me stopped, and another of [God's] messengers came to meet him ⁴ and said:

‘Tell him that JeruSalem

Will be lived in again...

Within her, there'll be crowds of cattle and men.

⁵ ‘And [tell him] that Jehovah says this:

I'll be a wall of fire to surround her

As well as the glory within her.

⁶ ‘So now, flee from the land in the north, says Jehovah;

For I'll gather you from the four winds,

⁷ And those who dwell among Babylon's daughters

Must get up and run back to Zion.'

⁸ Then [the messenger said]:

‘I was sent to the nations by Jehovah,

In order to reestablish your glory

In the midst of the people who'd sacked you.

‘For, those who have dared to touch you

Have touched the pupil of my eye.

⁹ So {Look!} against them, I'll now raise my hand,

And they will then be the spoils

Of those who had once been their slaves...

And you'll know I was sent by Jehovah the Almighty.

¹⁰ ‘So be glad and rejoice, O daughter of Zion;

For, I will return and camp in your midst.

¹¹ Then, many nations will come seeking refuge

Among Jehovah and His people...

For, I will be in your midst,

And you'll know that Jehovah the Almighty

Was the [One] who sent me to you.

¹² ‘Yes, Judah will be His inheritance again

(His portion in His holy land),

And JeruSalem, His chosen city, once more.

¹³ So to Jehovah. all flesh must now bow;
For, from His holy cloud, He's awakened.'

Chapter 3

¹ Then the Lord showed me JoShua (gr. Jesus) the High Priest. And standing before him was the messenger of Jehovah... but the Slanderer was also there, standing to his right in order to serve as his opponent.

² Then [the messenger] of Jehovah said to the Slanderer:

'O Slanderer;

May Jehovah send His reproach upon you...

May the Lord who chose JeruSalem

Speak condemnation against you!

For, doesn't [Joshua now look like] an ember

That has been snatched from the fire?'

³ Well, [I noticed that] JoShua was wearing filthy clothes as he was standing there in front of [God's] messenger. ⁴ So the messenger said to those who were standing before him:

'Now, remove all of his filthy clothes!'

Then he said:

'{Look!} And after you've removed all of these dirty things;

In a full-length robe, you must dress him!'

⁵ Then he said:

'Dress him in the [robes of a Priest],

And on his head, you must place a clean turban!'

So they dressed him in the official [garments], placed a clean turban on his head, and wrapped the [official] robe around him.

⁶ And thereafter, the messenger of Jehovah stood there and testified to JoShua saying,

⁷ 'Thus says Jehovah the Almighty:

If you will walk in My ways

And keep strict watch on My orders,

I'll [assign you to be over] My [Temple]

And to keep watch on My courtyard.

*Then I'll give you [guards] who will pace
Between other [guards] who'll stand still.*

*⁸ 'O High Priest JoShua, listen to this...
Yes, you and your neighbors that are sitting before you!
For these men [will serve as] observers of signs...
They'll be witnesses that I gave My servant
Something that will raise his position!
⁹ For I'll place a stone before JoShua's face,
And on this stone, there will be seven eyes.*

*{Look!} Then upon it, I will engrave an inscription,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.
It will say that I'll [wipe out] injustice...
In a day, I'll wipe injustice away
Everywhere throughout the land.*

*¹⁰ 'And then, in that day, says Jehovah;
Each one will call to his neighbors and brothers
From under his own grapevines and fig trees.'*

Chapter 4

¹ Then the messenger who was speaking to me returned and woke me up in the same way as you would wake up a man who'd been sleeping. ² Then he asked me: 'Now, what do you see?'

Well when I looked, I saw a gold lampstand and a bowl of oil... there were seven lamps on [the stand] and seven oil funnels for the seven lamps. ³ There were also two olive trees... one was on the right of its bowl, and the other was on its left side. ⁴ So I asked the messenger who was speaking to me: 'What are these things, O Lord?'

⁵ And the messenger that had been speaking to me replied: 'Don't you know what all these things mean?'

And I answered: 'No, O my Lord.'

⁶ Then he told me this:

'They're the words of Jehovah to ZerubBabel;

For, you must say this to him:
*Not by strength or great power,
But just by My Breath,*
Says Jehovah the Almighty.

⁷ *‘So, who are you, O great mountain,
To stand before ZerubBabel’s face?
For, you will become just a plain
Before My inherited rock
Upon whom I will show My favor and care.’*

⁸ Then the Word of Jehovah came to Me and said:
⁹ ‘ZerubBabel’s hands that laid the foundation
Will also be the hands that complete it.
Then you’ll know that Jehovah the Almighty
Was the One who sent Me to you.

¹⁰ ‘For, those who’ve despised the days of small things
Will rejoice when they see the stone plumb bob
Held in of ZerubBabel’s hands...
The stone with the eyes of Jehovah
That look upon the whole earth.’

¹¹ Then I asked him: ‘But what do the two olive trees signify... the ones on the right and left sides of the lampstand?’

¹² And I asked him again: ‘What [is the meaning of] the two branches of the trees that are [going around] the gold handles that are used to do pouring... and the gold funnels?’

¹³ So he spoke again and asked me:
‘Don’t you know what these things mean?’
And I replied: ‘No, O Lord.’

¹⁴ And he said:
‘These are two sons of the oil (or ‘fat,’ likely anointed ones),
Who will stand beside the Lord of the earth.’

Chapter 5

¹ Then I turned and raised my eyes and saw what looked like a flying sickle. ² And he asked me: ‘What do you see now?’

And I replied: ‘I see a flying sickle... it’s twenty forearms long and ten forearms wide!’

³ Then he said:

‘This is the curse...

The one that will go ‘cross the face of the earth.

One side brings death to all thieves,

And the other, to all who would lie in a trial.

⁴ ‘For Jehovah the Almighty says this:

I will [soon] send it forth...

I’ll send it to thieves who would enter My House

And to those who swear false oaths by My Name.

It will come and enter their houses,

And then it will wipe them away,

Along with their woodwork and stones.’

⁵ Then the messenger who was speaking to me came up and said:

‘Now, raise your eyes and see what is coming!’

⁶ And I asked him: ‘What is it?’

And he said:

‘What’s coming is the measuring basket

That will measure the land’s unrighteous ways.

⁷ Look... I have a measure of lead.

And look... there’s a woman inside of [that basket]!’

⁸ Then he said:

‘This [lead] is their lawless ways!’

And at that, he threw [the lead] at the basket, and it fell into the woman’s mouth.

⁹ Then I raised my eyes and I saw two more women coming. Both had wings that were like those of a hoopoe bird, which thereafter became filled with the wind. Then they grabbed the basket and lifted it between the land and the sky.

¹⁰ So I asked the messenger who was speaking to me: ‘Where are they taking the basket?’

¹¹ And he replied:

‘To the land of Babylon, they’ll take it,
Where they’re making ready a temple,
Which they have prepared for it there.’

Chapter 6

¹ Then I turned and raised my eyes and I saw four chariots coming from between two mountains... mountains that were made out of brass! ² The first chariot [that I saw] was pulled by red horses, the second was pulled by black horses, ³ the third was pulled by white horses, and the fourth was pulled by horses that were spotted dapple gray.

⁴ So I spoke to the messenger and asked him (this one who was speaking to me): ‘What are these, O my Lord?’

⁵ And the messenger who was speaking to me replied:

‘These are the four winds of the heavens,
And they will stand next to the Lord of the earth.

⁶ The black ones will go to the land of the north;
The white ones will follow behind them;
And the spotted are going to the land of the south.’

⁷ Then the dapple-gray ones left, and they traveled around the whole earth. For he told them:

‘Go and travel around the whole earth!’

So then they went and traveled throughout all the lands [of the earth].

⁸ Then he yelled out to me and said:

‘Look! The ones that are going to the land of the north
Have brought rest to My rage in the north.’

⁹ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁰ ‘Take [silver and gold] from the rulers,

As well as from those that are wealthy,
And from those who have greater knowledge!
[You will find them] in the house of JosiAh (son of ZephaniAh),
Who has just returned from Babylon.

¹¹ ‘With the silver and gold, make a crown,
And place it upon JoShua’s head
(The son of JoZadek, the High Priest).

¹² And tell him that thus says Jehovah:

*‘{Look!} There’s a male whose name is The Sprout,
And he will grow from below
To rebuild the House of Jehovah.*

¹³ *‘Then, he will receive all the greatness he needs
To sit and rule from his throne.
For there’ll be a Priest on [God’s throne],
And there’ll be peace and purpose between [those two roles].*

¹⁴ ‘This crown will remain [in the Temple]
As a reminder to those who showed recognition
And favor to the son of ZephaniAh...
This will serve as a psalm in the House of the Lord.

¹⁵ ‘And from far-away places will come
Those who’ll rebuild the [Temple] of [God].
Then, you will know that I had been sent
By Jehovah the Almighty.
And all who hear this will [wish]
That they had paid closer attention
To the voice of Jehovah their God.’

Chapter 7

¹ It was in the fourth year of [the reign] of King Darius, on the fourth day of the ninth month (which is Chislev) that the Word of Jehovah came to ZechariAh. ² For the king had sent SherEzar (as well as Regem and his men) to BethEl to atone [for their sins] before Jehovah. ³ Then they said to the Priests at the [Temple] of Jehovah the Almighty and to the

Prophets: ‘The holy offering has been brought here again in this fifth month, as we have been doing for a good number of years now.’

⁴ Then the Word of Jehovah of Armies came to me and said:

⁵ ‘Speak to the people throughout the land
And to all of the Priests,
Then tell them [that thus says Jehovah]:

*‘In the fifth and seventh months, you have fasted
And you’ve beat on your chests for seventy years;
But, during all of this fasting,
Were you really fasting to Me?*

*⁶ For, when you are eating and drinking,
Aren’t you eating and drinking just for yourselves?*

⁷ ‘Aren’t these the same words Jehovah once spoke
By the [mouths] of the Prophets
When He was blessing JeruSalem
And those in the cities [of Judah],
And those in her mountains and plains?’

⁸ And thereafter, the Word of Jehovah came to ZechariAh and said, ‘Jehovah the Almighty said this:

*I told them to make righteous judgments...
To show mercy and compassion to their brothers...*

*¹⁰ Not to tyrannize orphans or widows,
Or the needy, or people from foreign lands.
And no matter what harm their brothers may do;
In their hearts, they shouldn’t hold grudges.*

*¹¹ But, they resisted and paid no attention...
They turned their backs and just ranted,
Covering their ears, so they couldn’t hear.*

*¹² ‘They set their hearts to resist My persuasion,
And to My Laws, they chose not to listen,
Or to the words that came from their Lord
By My Breath through the hands of the Prophets*

*(Those whom I'd sent to give them a warning)...
So thereafter, My rage poured upon them.*

¹³ *'It's the same as I've told them before
When they refused to listen to Me...
I won't listen to them when they call out to Me,
Said Jehovah the Almighty.*

¹⁴ *'So, among the nations, I tossed them
(Among nations that they didn't know).
And from their land, they were then wiped away
And they weren't allowed to return...
For they'd brought extinction upon their choice land.'*

Chapter 8

¹ Then The Word of Jehovah the Almighty came to me and said:

² *'I've shown zeal for Zion and JeruSalem...
In My rage, I've been jealous on their behalf, ³ said Jehovah.
So to Zion, I will now return,
And in JeruSalem's midst, I will camp;
Then, it will be called The City of Truth...
The Holy Mountain of Jehovah the Almighty.*

⁴ *'And after that, Jehovah the Almighty told me to say this:
Old men and women will once again sit
In JeruSalem's squares,
Each with their canes in their hands...
For, they will have lived many days.*

⁵ *And the city will also be filled
With boys and girls who will play in her squares.*

⁶ *'Then Jehovah the Almighty said this:
Couldn't this have happened to those who remained...
To those who were left in your days? No!
But, is this something that I cannot do,
Asks Jehovah the Almighty? No!*

⁷ ‘For thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
*{Look!} I’ll [return] My people from the lands in the east
And from the lands in the west.*

⁸ *Yes, I will bring them all back,
And in JeruSalem’s midst, they will camp.
Then, they will be My people again,
And in truth and righteousness, I’ll be their God.*

⁹ ‘For, thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
*O you who listened during these days;
Strengthen your hands [to follow] the words
That have come from the mouths of the Prophets
Since the Temple’s foundation was laid
And in the day that they built it...*

¹⁰ *Back when their wages bought nothing,
And nothing was paid for in cattle.*

*‘For those who entered and those who went out,
There was only affliction, not peace;
And against their neighbors, I turned every man.*

¹¹ *‘But, I won’t treat the few [who remain]
The same as I did in the past,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.*

¹² *‘Rather, I will send peaceful times;
The grapevines will then produce fruit;
The land will yield its abundance;
And the sky will bring forth its dew...
I’ll bring this to those who remain.*

¹³ *‘And as for you, house of Judah;
Though you were a curse among nations,
I’ll now send salvation to you,
And you’ll be a blessing once more.
But, [you must now] be courageous,
And you must strengthen your hands!*

¹⁴ ‘Thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
*Though I once thought to bring evil on you
Because your fathers provoked Me to rage
(And since then, I haven’t relented),*

Says Jehovah the Almighty;
¹⁵ *I’ve reconsidered and I am now ready
To do good for those living in Judah
And for those who are living in JeruSalem...
So, you must now be courageous!*

¹⁶ *‘And these are the things you must do:
You must each speak truth to your neighbors;
You must make decisions that bring about peace;
And justice must be returned to your gates!*

¹⁷ *‘Against your neighbors, you must not consider
Doing evil things in your hearts...
And do not love lying oaths!
For, I detest all such things,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.*

¹⁸ Then the Word of Jehovah came to me and said:

¹⁹ ‘You must fast in the fourth and fifth months,
And fast in the seventh and tenth.
Then to Judah, I’ll bring joy and gladness,
And you’ll carry good things to your holiday feasts.
You’ll all be glad, for then there’ll be truth...
There’ll be peace and love [throughout the whole land].

²⁰ ‘For, thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
*Many peoples will then come among you,
And there’ll be many cities in which they can dwell.*

²¹ *Then, in those cities, they’ll gather and say:
Let’s go beg before the face of the Lord...
Let’s seek the face of Jehovah...
Yes, all should go there with me!*

²² *'To JeruSalem, they will come
Seeking the face of Jehovah
And so as to bow down before Him.*

²³ *'Thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
In those days, ten men from all nations and tongues
Will come to grab hold of the hem of each Jew,
And this is what they will say:
We all wish to come [and live] among you,
Because we've heard God is with you!'*

Chapter 9

¹ 'This is a proclamation... it's the word of Jehovah against the land of HadRach, and against [the city of] Damascus where they offer sacrifices [to him]. For Jehovah examines all men (not just the tribes of IsraEl). ² [This proclamation is also] for HamAth, as well as Sidon and Tyre, since all their people have the same mindset.

³ *'Tyre has made a fortress of herself...
She's treasured up silver like dust,
And gathered gold like mud in the streets.
⁴ So, by Jehovah, she will be owned.
He'll strike down her power over the seas,
And she will be burned in a fire.*

⁵ *'Then, AshKelon will see this and fear,
And Gaza will be very grieved.
In EkRon, her errors will bring her much shame,
And the kings of Gaza will perish.*

*'In AshKelon, no one will live,
⁶ And in AshDod, foreign peoples will dwell;
For, I will soon wipe away
The insolence of the Philistines...
⁷ I'll remove all the blood from their mouths,
And the disgusting things from their teeth.*

‘Then they’ll leave their things to your God
And submit to a general from Judah.
And what happened to the Jebusi,
Is the same thing that will happen to EkRon.

⁸ ‘[For Jehovah said:]
*Then, I’ll stand in My [Temple] high in the heights
And I will not leave it again.
No way, will [armies] march on it;
For upon it, My eyes will keep watch.*

⁹ ‘So rejoice, O daughter of Zion;
*Shout aloud, you daughters of JeruSalem;
For {Look!} your king will be coming to you...
The righteous one and your savior.*

*‘He will be [a person who is] gentle,
And on a beast of burden, he will arrive...
Yes, even upon a young foal!*

¹⁰ ‘Ephraim’s chariots, he will destroy,
*As well as JeruSalem’s horses.
He’ll destroy [all the weapons] of warfare,
And send you peace with the nations roundabout you.
Then he’ll rule from the waters of the [great] sea
To the rivers and passes throughout your land.*

¹¹ ‘Then by his blood of My Sacred Agreement,
*From dry pits, he will ransom your captives.
¹² Those who were captives, he’ll settle in forts,
And for each day that they have [been there],
He will repay them with double.*

¹³ ‘O Judah; I’ve held you tight to myself...
[As tight] as I’d hold a bow.

‘So, Ephraim will be [free] once again,
And I’ll awaken your children, O Zion,

Against the sons of the Greeks...

Like a warrior's sword, I will use them.

¹⁴ 'Then Jehovah will be seen as your leader,
And he'll [shoot] his arrows like lightning.
From the Lord Jehovah, a trumpet will sound,
Which will send intimidation upon them.

¹⁵ 'For Jehovah the Almighty will serve as your shield
As you bring them [destruction].
Upon them, your [sons] will heap sling stones,
And they'll drink their blood as though it were wine...
Like basins for the Altar, their bowls will be filled.

¹⁶ 'In that day, Jehovah will be known as your God,
And He'll save the sheep of His people...
They'll be like [gems] in His land.

¹⁷ 'Then for all of His that are found to be good,
And for all that are found to be fair;
Young men will be given their grain,
And there'll be fragrant wine for the virgins.

Chapter 10

¹ 'Then you can ask Jehovah for rain in each season
(Both the early and late rains),
And Jehovah will do what's fantastic...
To all their pastures and fields,
He will send winter rains.

² 'But there are those who are now declaring big things
Yet, they're really only bringing you trouble.
And there are those who are having false visions...
They speak of false dreams and offer no comfort.
So [my people now wander] like sheep...
They're ill and they haven't been healed.

³ 'So, since those shepherd have provoked [God] to rage,
He will come and visit His lambs.

Yes, Jehovah God the Almighty
Will visit the house of Judah (His flock).

‘And as He will do to His handsome horse,
He will then order up war...
⁴ In His rage, He will look [down] upon them,
And bows, He will order against them.

‘He will send [His armies] against them
⁵ And His warriors will tread mud in battle.
For Jehovah will [bless] the attack,
And to their cavalry, He will bring disgrace.

⁶ *‘The house of Judah, I’ll strengthen,
And house of JoSeph, I’ll save...
Because I love them, I’ll save them,
And they’ll be as before I disowned them.
Yes, because I am Jehovah their God,
I’ll pay attention to them once again!*

⁷ *‘Then they’ll be like Ephraim’s soldiers...
They’ll rejoice in their hearts as though drinking wine.
They’ll look at their children in joy,
And rejoice in their hearts over their Lord.*

⁸ *‘I’ll give them a sign that I will accept them...
I’ll pay their ransom and then they will grow
To be as many as they’d been before.*

⁹ *Then I’ll plant them among all the peoples,
And I’ll be remembered by those far away.*

¹⁰ *‘They’ll return and nourish their children...
From the land of Egypt, I’ll bring them back,
And from Assyria, they’ll come.
Then to Gilead and Lebanon, I’ll send them,
And no one will be left behind (no, not one)!*

¹¹ *‘Through the narrows of the sea, they will march;
For, they will strike the waves of the sea
And the rivers will dry to their depths.*

*‘Then the insolence of Assyria will vanish,
And Egypt’s scepter will no longer be.*

¹² By Jehovah, their God, I will make them strong...
And about His Name, they will boast,’ said the Lord.

And let fire devour all your cedars!

² Then, all the pine trees will shriek
Because the cedars have fallen...

Yes, misery will come to your great ones.

‘And oaks of BaShan, you should now howl,
For the groves where you’re planted will all be cut down!

³ ‘There’s the sound of the wailing of shepherds,
Because their greatness is gone.

And there’s the sound of the roaring of lions,
For no one’s keeping watch at the Jordan.

⁴ ‘So, thus says Jehovah the Almighty:
Tend the sheep for the slaughter...

⁵ *Those that were bought by the butcher,
And those that haven’t repented.*

For those who sold them have said:

Praise the Lord, because we’ve gained wealth!
And their shepherds have suffered no loss.

⁶ ‘So, I will not spare those who live here,’ said the Lord.

‘{Look!} To his neighbor, I’ll hand every man,
And into the hands of their king.

Then, they will divide up their land,
And from their hands, I’ll not save them.

⁷ So in Canaan's land, I will tend them...
All of these sheep for the slaughter.

'Then I'll take two sticks for myself;
The first one, I will call Beauty,
And the other, I'll call Measured Land...
And then, I will tend all those sheep.

⁸ 'In the first month, I'll take the three shepherds,
And my soul will be heavy against them,
For their souls have roared out against me!

⁹ 'So I told them that I will not tend them...
I'll let the ones that are dying just die,
And the ones that are failing just fail...
And let the rest eat the flesh of their neighbors!

¹⁰ 'Then I'll take my stick (the one [I called] Beauty)
And I will throw it away
To erase [God's] Agreement with them.

¹¹ It will be erased in that day,
And those in Canaan who have guarded my sheep
Will know that I'm The Word of Jehovah.

¹² 'And then, I'll tell them to do
Whatever they find to be good...
Yes, pay my wage or forbid it!
So, they established my wage...
It was thirty pieces of silver.'

¹³ Then the Lord said to me:
'Now, throw them into the [Temple]...
But check to make sure that the [coins] are all pure;
For, this is my [value] before them.
[So \[he'll\] take the thirty pieces of silver](#)
And throw them into the Temple.

¹⁴ 'That's when my second stick will be thrown
(The one that I called Measured Land),

For I'll wipe IsraEl and Judah away
From [the land] that they've owned.'

¹⁵ And the Lord said to Me:

'Now, gather a shepherd's tools for yourself...
The tools of one that's unqualified.

¹⁶ For {Look!} against the land, I'm sending a shepherd...

One who won't visit the [weak],
And one who won't search for the scattered.

Those that are broken, he will not heal,

And those that are well, he won't lead.

He will just [break] all their necks

And devour their choicest of meats.

¹⁷ 'So, you who are tending to vain things

And leaving behind all my sheep;

A sword will come against your right arms

As well as against your right eyes.

For your arms will then become withered,

And your right eyes will all be blind.'

Chapter 12

¹ The matter of the Word of Jehovah over IsraEl.

'Thus says Jehovah,

The One who stretched out the skies,

Who laid the foundations of the earth,

And from Himself, shaped the breath of mankind:

² '{Look!} I've appointed JeruSalem's thresholds

To be shaken by the people roundabout them.

Into Judea, they'll come,

And they will surround JeruSalem.

³ 'In that day, I'll appoint JeruSalem

To be a stone that the nations will trample.

For, all nations of the earth will [attack] her;

*And those who trample upon her
Will mock and poke fun at her.*

*4 'And in that day, says Jehovah the Almighty;
I will strike [Judah's] horses with wonder
And drive their riders to ranting.*

*'On the house of Judah, I'll then raise My eyes,
And I'll strike all their horses with blindness.*

*5 But the generals of Judah will say in their hearts:
JeruSalem's [people will always be safe]
Under Jehovah their Almighty God.*

*6 'But then, I'll make Judah's generals
Like burning coals amidst wood
And as flaming torches in stubble.
For they'll devour everyone that's around them
(Both those on their right and those on their left).*

*'Yet, JeruSalem will be lived in again
As it had been before.*

⁷ The the Lord will save Judah's tents
As he did in the beginning.
But they won't have any reason to boast
Over the house of [King] David,
Or to think themselves better than Judah.

*8 'So the Lord will be the shield in that day
For those who live in JeruSalem.
And in that day, even the least
Will be like David among them.*

*'And the house of David will then come to be Like the Temple of God...
As the angel that's standing before them.*

*9 'And in that day, I'll lift all the nations
That against JeruSalem marched.*

*¹⁰ Then, upon the house of King David,
And on JeruSalem's people,
I'll pour the spirit of mercy and care.*

*'So they'll turn to Me and beat on their chests
Like those who beat on their chests
Over the death of a loved one,
Because they've been disrespectful to Me.
And they will mourn with the grief
Of someone who's lost his first-born.*

¹¹ *'Yes, on that day in JeruSalem,
They'll all be beating their chests
As though they'd lost groves [of fruit trees].*

¹² *And the land will beat on its chest
For each of the tribes [by its name]...
The house of the tribe of David
As well as all of its women...
The house of the tribe of Nathan
As well as all of its women...*

¹³ *The house of the tribe of Levi
As well as all of its women...
The house of Simeon's tribe
As well as all of its women...*

¹⁴ *And the houses of the rest of the tribes
As well as all of their women.'*

Chapter 13

¹ *'In that Day, the [springs] will all open
For the rinsing and cleansing of David's house
And to cleanse [the people] of JeruSalem.*

² *'In that Day, says Jehovah of Armies,
The names of their idols, I'll wipe from the land
So they'll be remembered no more.
And false prophets that have unclean spirits,
I'll also remove from the land.*

³ *'So, if there's a man who still prophesies;
His father and the mother who bore him
Must tell him that he can no longer live*

*Because he's told lies in the Name of the Lord.
Then his father and the mother who bore him
Must bind him, because of his prophecies.*

*4 'And in that Day, their visions will bring them disgrace,
As will the things that they prophesied.
They'll cover their heads with animal hides,
Because all will know that they've lied.*

*5 'And they'll say, No, I'm not a prophet;
I'm a man who just works the ground...
This is all that I've done since my youth!*

*6 'But I'll ask: Then, what are these wounds in your hands?
And they'll say that these are the wounds they received
In the house of a friend.*

*7 'O broadsword, awaken against [such] a man
And against the shepherds [who live in] My land,
Says Jehovah the Almighty.
Strike the shepherds and scatter the sheep...
For against the shepherds, I'm raising My hand.*

*8 'And in that Day, says Jehovah,
Two-thirds will be wiped away,
But a third will still be allowed to remain.*

*'Then, like trying gold, I'll try all the rest.
I'll speak to those who have called on My Name,
And tell them, You are My people,
And they will reply, Jehovah's my God.'*

Chapter 14

*1 '{Look} The Day of the Lord has approached
When they will divide up the loot.
2 For to JeruSalem, I'm gathering nations,
And the city will thereafter be taken.*

*'All of its homes will be looted,
And all the women defiled.
Then, half of the city will be led away,
And the rest (those who are My people)
Will not be destroyed from the [land].*

*3 'But then the Lord will return
And he will attack all those nations
In his battle, on the day of the war.*

*4 'And in that Day, his feet will then stand
On the Mount of Olives (to JeruSalem's east).
Then in chaos, the Mount of Olives will split
In halves to the east and the west.
Half of the mount will lean toward the north,
And half will then lean toward the south.*

*5 'So, flee to the valley of My Mountain,
Which [runs] to the [Wadi] AzaEl.
You must flee as in the day of the earthquake
[That happened] in the days of UzziAh.*

*'For then, [your Lord] will arrive,
And bring all his Holy Ones with him.*

*6 There'll be no light in that Day...
There'll be just coldness and ice.*

*7 'But, this will all last just one day,
Which is only known by Jehovah.
There'll be no daytime or night,
But light will arrive toward the evening.*

*8 'In that day, from JeruSalem,
Life-giving waters will flow...
Half will flow to the [Dead] Sea,
And the rest, in other direction...
This will happen in the springtime and summer.*

⁹ ‘Then Jehovah will be the King of the earth;
And in that Day, there’ll be just one Lord,
And he will have just one name.

¹⁰ ‘Then around the land, there’ll be deserts...
From JeruSalem south to RemMon and Geba
(Though RamAh will still remain in its place);
From the BenJamin Gate to the First Gate,
And the Corner Gate to the Tower of HananeEl,
To where the king’s wine vats are stored.

¹¹ ‘Then JeruSalem will be a safe place,
And there won’t be any more danger.

¹² ‘But, there will be a great downfall
When Jehovah strikes down the peoples
Who against JeruSalem, marched.
Their flesh will melt as they stand on their feet;
Their eyes will flow from their sockets;
And their tongues will melt in their mouths.

¹³ ‘And in that Day, there will come
Astonishing things from Jehovah.
Each will grab hold of his neighbor’s hand
(Yes they’ll join hand-to-hand with their neighbors),

¹⁴ And there within JeruSalem,
Judah’s people will ready themselves
To collect the might of those living around them...
All of their silver and gold,
As well as huge numbers of clothing.

¹⁵ ‘I will bring the downfall of horses and mules,
As well as their camels and burros.
And to all the cattle that’s found in their camps,
It’ll be a day of great downfall.

¹⁶ ‘Then, all who remain from the nations
That marched against JeruSalem
Will ascend each year to bow to the King

– To the Almighty Jehovah –
And observe the feast of the Pitching of Tents.

¹⁷ ‘Then to all who won’t come [in that Day]
To bow before the Almighty
From all the tribes of the earth;
Bad things will then come upon them,
And they won’t receive any rain.

¹⁸ ‘So if the tribe of Egypt won’t come;
The same downfall will happen to them
That the Lord will bring to the nations...
To those that would not observe
The feast of the Pitching of Tents.

¹⁹ ‘For, this will be Egypt’s sin,
As well as the sin of all nations
When they refuse to ascend
To observe the feast of the Pitching of Tents.

²⁰ ‘In that Day, this is what will be [written]
Upon the bridles of their horses:
Holy to Jehovah the Almighty.

‘And then the stew pots of Jehovah
Will be like the bowls in front of the Altar.

²¹ And throughout Judah and JeruSalem,
They’ll treat the stew pots as holy
To the Almighty Jehovah.
And that’s where those who bring sacrifices
Will take them to cook all the meat.

‘And in that Day, there won’t be CanaAnites
That will stand before Jehovah of Armies.’

Malachi

From the Greek Septuagint text as used by First Century Christians.

This is one of the last prophecies that God gave to the Jews before the coming of Jesus. It outlines the reasons why He had become displeased with them and with their Priests, and it explains why they were being rejected. Here you will note references to the work of John the Baptist, the coming of Jesus (the Lord), the destruction of JeruSalem, and the respect that the people of the nations (the gentiles) had for Him and for His Name.

Chapter 1

¹ This is the matter of the word of Jehovah concerning IsraEl [that came] by the hand of His messenger.

² ‘I have loved you,’ says Jehovah.

‘But you’ve asked, How have You loved us?

‘Wasn’t Esau the brother of Jacob,’ asked Jehovah?

‘Yet, though I loved Jacob, ³ I disliked [his brother];

So I ordered an end to his borders

And I gave him a home in the desert.

⁴ ‘And because Edom will say,

Although we have been cut down,

We will return and rebuild our [homes] ...

For this,’ says Jehovah the Almighty;

‘If they rebuild them, I’ll still knock them down;

For the Lawless Borders, is what they’ll be called,

And a People Opposed to Jehovah.

⁵ ‘And when your eyes see this, you’ll say:

Jehovah has been magnified

Far beyond IsraEl’s borders.

⁶ ‘Fathers are glorified by their sons

And servants bring glory to their masters.

But if I’m your father, where is My glory,

And if I’m your Master, where is [your] fear,’

Asks Jehovah the Almighty?

‘You Priests treat My Name with contempt,

Then ask how you’ve shown it dishonor...

⁷ By bringing unclean bread to My Altar!

‘Then you ask how you’ve made it unclean...
You do it when you say that My table’s unclean,
And you treat it with contempt by the things that you bring.

⁸ ‘For, when you offer [a lamb] that is blind;
Isn’t this something that’s evil?
And when you bring Me the lame and the ill;
Isn’t this [something that’s] bad?

‘Carry it instead to [your king]
(The man who [rules over] you)...
Will this gift bring you his favor?
Yes, when you present it to him,
Will he bestow honor upon you,’
Asks Jehovah the Almighty? ‘No!’

⁹ ‘Now, repent before the face of your God...
Yes, come before Me and beg!
With all the bad being done by your hands,
Should I accept such things from your souls,’
Asks Jehovah the Almighty? ‘No!’

¹⁰ ‘Thus to you, the doors will be closed...
So don’t come and ask for My favor
By igniting a fire on My Altar.

‘There is nothing at all that I need from you,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty.
‘So I won’t accept any [gifts] from your hands.

¹¹ ‘Among the rest of the nations
(All from the sunrise to the sunset)
My Name has been glorified.
For, to My Name, even they now burn incense,
And what they offer before Me is pure!

‘Yes My Name is great among even the gentiles,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty.

¹² ‘But, you profane it whenever you say,

Jehovah's table's unclean,
And you treat the food that is set before Me
As something that's worthy of contempt.

¹³ 'For you say, It is just too much trouble...
And then, you [sniff in disdain],'
Says Jehovah the Almighty,
'As you bring Me game and the lame and the ill.
'Yes, you've offered such things up to Me.
But, when I receive these things from your hands,
Do you think that I'll show you favor,'
Asks Jehovah the Almighty? 'No!'

¹⁴ 'Cursed is the powerful man
Who has a male [sheep] in his flock
And whose vow [to Me] is now due...
But he offers Me something imperfect instead!
For, no one is greater than Me,'
Says Jehovah the Almighty...
'Even the gentiles know of My Name!'

Chapter 2

¹ 'O Priests; this is what I am saying:
² If you won't listen and take it to heart
That My Name must be glorified,'
Says Jehovah the Almighty;
'I will send curses upon you...
I will curse all the things that you want me to bless...
I'll curse them and not let them happen
If you do not take this message to heart.
³ '{Look!} Though I've given the [lamb's] shoulders to you;
I can throw their dung in your faces...
Their manure, I'll send to your holiday feasts,
And after that, I'll remove you!

⁴ Then you'll know I am the One
Who sent these instructions to you.

'This is what I promised to Levi,'
Says Jehovah the Almighty God.

⁵ 'For I made an agreement with him...
An agreement that brings life and peace.
I also gave him fear, so he'd fear Me,
As I prepared him to glorify My Name.

⁶ 'The law of truth, [I put] in his mouth,
And unrighteous words weren't found on his lips.
Straightforward in peace, he traveled with Me,
And many, he turned from injustice.

⁷ 'So the Priests must safeguard the knowledge
That used to come from his lips,
And seek the laws that came from his mouth;
For, he had served as an angel
Of Jehovah the Almighty God.

⁸ 'But, you have turned from his ways,
And many, you've turned from the Law...
You've corrupted My sacred agreement with Levi,'
Says Jehovah the Almighty!

⁹ 'So, I have now handed you over
To those whom you view with contempt...
To those whom even the gentiles
Fail to view with respect.
For, you haven't guarded My ways,
And My people, you've turned from My Laws.

¹⁰ 'Don't you each have one father,
And weren't you formed by one God?
So, why have you each let your brothers
Profane My Agreement with your fathers?

¹¹ ‘For this, I’m abandoning Judah...
Because in IsraEl and JeruSalem,
Disgusting things are now being done!

‘Judah has profaned [My] most holy things
(Things that I [dearly] loved)
When they [turned] to alien gods.

¹² ‘So the Lord will destroy those who’ve done this,
And Jacob’s tents will be humbled...
Those who are bringing sacrifices [before Me].

¹³ ‘Yes, you’re the ones who have done all these things,
And that’s why I’ve come to hate you...
For you’ve covered My Altar with tears!

‘You’ve brought weeping and moaning upon it,
Because of the troubles you’ve caused.
For you thought I’d accept whatever you bring
As though it was truly worthy!

¹⁴ ‘So the time has arrived when you’ll ask Me,
Why have You done this [to us]?
It’s because the Lord has served as a witness
Between you and the wives of your youth...
Those whom you’ve sent away...
Those who have [long] been your partners...
Those to whom [you’ve sworn oaths]!

¹⁵ ‘Because you’re doing such things,
Don’t expect Me to send anything good
With even small portions of My Holy Breath!

‘Then you asked, What more than a seed does God want?
[I want you to] safeguard your spirits,
And not to abandon the wives of your youth!

¹⁶ ‘No, do not detest them and send them away,
Then cover it up in your minds,’
Says Jehovah, IsraEl’s God.

For, thus says Jehovah the Almighty God:
‘Keep a close watch on your spirits,
And do not abandon [your women]!

¹⁷ ‘You also provoke [Me] with things that you say...
And then you ask how you’ve done this.
You do it saying that before Him
Even the wicked are good...
That He really thinks [kindly] of them,
And that God doesn’t truly want justice.

Chapter 3

¹ ‘So, {Look!} I’ll be sending My messenger to you
So as to prepare the way for the face of the Lord
(The one for whom you’ve been searching),
And he’ll suddenly arrive at My Temple...
This messenger of [My] Sacred Agreement.

‘Look, he’s coming,’ says Jehovah the Almighty,
² ‘And who can endure in the Day he arrives...
Yes, when he appears, who will stand?
For he’ll enter like the fire of a furnace
And like bleach that’s used to do washing.

³ ‘He’ll put his melting pot in a furnace
As they do when they refine silver;
Then the sons of Levi, he will refine,
And he’ll pour them out like silver or gold.

‘Then they’ll finally be found worthy to serve
[Before Jehovah, the Almighty]...
And they’ll offer sacrifices that are righteous.

⁴ Then once again, I’ll be as pleased
With the offerings of Judah and JeruSalem
As I was in the days of the ages,
And in the years of long ago.

⁵ ‘Then I’ll come against you in judgment,
And against all those who make potions.
I’ll also be a swift witness
Against those who’re committing adultery
And swearing false oaths by My Name...
Those who don’t pay their employees...
Those who tyrannize orphans and widows,
And to foreigners, won’t give any justice.
‘Yes, these are the ones that don’t fear Me,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty...
⁶ ‘I’m Jehovah, your God, and I never change!
⁷ ‘For you sons of Jacob just won’t turn away
From the sins of your fathers...
You’ve not turned from them or guarded My Laws!
‘[All I ask] is for you to turn back to Me,
And then I’ll turn back to you,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty!
‘Yet you ask, From what do you want us to turn?
⁸ ‘Will a man be stomped on by God? No!
Yet, you [are guilty] of stomping on Me!
Then you ask, How have we been stomping on You?
By holding back your first-fruits!
⁹ For you’ve turned from Me and stashed them away...
This is how you’re stomping on Me!
¹⁰ ‘This year has now come to an end,
And you’ve harvested produce and stored it in barns...
But your homes will soon all be ravaged!
‘If you’ll just offer Me what [is due],’
Says Jehovah the Almighty;
‘See if I do not open to you
An outpouring of rain from the skies!

‘Yes, I’ll pour My blessings upon you
Until you’ve received [more than] enough.

¹¹ For you, I will set aside food,
And I’ll not destroy the fruit of your ground,
Nor will I weaken your grapevines,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty.

¹² ‘Then, all the nations will say you are blest,
And your land will be one that’s desired,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty.

¹³ ‘But, you’ve put Me down with your words,’ says Jehovah.
‘And then you dare to [come here and] ask:
How have we spoken against You?

¹⁴ ‘By your saying, Our service to God is in vain!
And, Though we have kept His instructions;
Before Him, we still must come begging!

¹⁵ Therefore, we will bless foreign peoples,
As well as those who are breaking the Law...
And say that those who oppose God can live!

¹⁶ ‘Yet, there are some who still council their neighbors
And speak of their fear of Jehovah.
So the Lord will take notice and listen to this,
Then write [their names] in the scroll
Of those who show honor and still fear My Name.

¹⁷ ‘And in that Day, they’ll be Mine,’
Says the Almighty Jehovah;
‘I’ll prepare a procurement and set them aside
As a man [shows favor] to the son who [obeys].

¹⁸ ‘Then you’ll turn to look and you’ll see
The things that will happen to the sinners...
You’ll see what happens to those who serve God
And to those who prefer not to serve Him.’

- ¹ ‘Look! The Day is about to arrive
When they’ll be consumed in an oven...
I’ll blaze against their arrogance and evil...
In that day, they’ll be burned up like stubble,’
Says Jehovah of Armies...
‘No way will a branch or a root still remain!
- ² ‘But upon those who still fear My Name,
The sun of righteousness will then shine,
And healing [will follow on] its wings.
Then you’ll come here and leap like young calves
That have been spared from the stock pens.
- ³ ‘And on the lawless, you’ll trample...
They’ll be like ashes under your feet
In the Day that I have prepared,’
Says Jehovah the Almighty.
- ⁴ ‘Remember the Laws of My servant Moses...
Those that I gave him in that dry place,
As well as the orders and decisions
That I gave to IsraEl through him!
- ⁵ ‘{Look!} I’ll send EliJah, the Prophet
Before the Great Day of the Lord.
- ⁶ He’ll restore the hearts of fathers to sons,
And the hearts of men to their neighbors...
So I won’t have to strike the whole earth.’

Matthew

Written in Aramaic by Jesus' Apostle Matthew about 42-CE and translated into Greek in the early 2nd Century

The Poetry of Jesus: Recognize that many of the sermons and parables of Jesus were spoken poetically in order to be remembered by his followers. And though the cadence comes through clearly to Bible translators, most have chosen not to write it as poetry due to the extra effort this requires, and because most Bible readers simply aren't interested in the beauty of his words, but in the content. However, Jesus spoke and taught beautifully, and you will notice how we have attempted, within the range of accuracy, to render the words of Jesus' parables as he spoke them (poetically). Remember that there was no television, radio, or newspapers in Jesus' time, since printing and electronic media had not been invented. So, the main method for communicating widely to the public was through poetry and the words of songs that could easily be remembered and repeated.

Chapter 1

¹ This is the scroll of the origins of Jesus the Anointed, the Son of David, the Son of AbraHam.

² AbraHam fathered IsaAc. IsaAc fathered Jacob. Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers. ³ Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez fathered Hezron. Hezron fathered Ram. ⁴ Ram fathered AmiNadab. AmiNadab fathered Nashon. Nashon fathered Salmon. ⁵ Salmon fathered Boaz by RaHab. Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth. Obed fathered Jesse. ⁶ Jesse fathered David, the king.

David fathered Solomon by the wife of UriAh. ⁷ Solomon fathered RehoBoam. RehoBoam fathered AbiJah. AbiJah fathered Asa. ⁸ Asa fathered JehoShaphat. JehoShaphat fathered JehoRam. JehoRam fathered UzZiAh. ⁹ UzZiAh fathered JoTham. JoTham fathered Ahaz. Ahaz fathered HezekiAh. ¹⁰ HezekiAh fathered ManasSeh. ManasSeh fathered Amon. Amon fathered JosiAh. ¹¹ JosiAh fathered JeconiAh and his brothers before the deportation to Babylon.

¹² After the deportation to Babylon, JeconiAh fathered ShalathiEl. ShalathiEl fathered ZerubBabel. ¹³ ZerubBabel fathered AbiUd. AbiUd fathered EliAkim. EliAkim fathered Azor. ¹⁴ Azor fathered Zadok. Zadok fathered Achim. Achim fathered EliUd. ¹⁵ EliUd fathered EliAzar. EliAzar fathered MatThan. MatThan fathered Jacob. ¹⁶ Jacob fathered JoSeph (the father of Mary) from whom Jesus (who is called the Anointed One) was born.

¹⁷ So, there were fourteen generations from AbraHam to David, fourteen generations from David until the deportation to Babylon, and fourteen generations from the deportation to Babylon until [the coming of] the Anointed One.

¹⁸ This is the way that Jesus the Anointed One started out:

While his mother Mary was promised in marriage to JoSeph, she was found to be pregnant by [God's] Holy Breath before the marriage was consummated. ¹⁹ However, because JoSeph (her man) was righteous and didn't want to make [Mary] a public spectacle, he planned to release her secretly. ²⁰ But after he decided to do that, {Look!} Jehovah's messenger appeared to him in a dream, saying:

‘JoSeph, son of David; Don't be afraid to take Mary as your woman, because what has been fathered in her is from [God's] Holy Breath. ²¹ She will give birth to a son and you will call his name Jesus (Jehovah Saves), because he will save his people from their sins.’

²² This whole thing happened so that what was spoken by Jehovah through the Prophet would be fulfilled:

²³ ‘A virgin will get pregnant and then bear a son, whose name you must call, ImManuEl’ (With Us is God).

²⁴ Well, after JoSeph woke up, he did what Jehovah's messenger told him to do, and he took the woman. ²⁵ However, [JoSeph] didn't have sexual relations with her until after she had given birth to a son, whom he called by the name Jesus.

Chapter 2

¹ Then, after Jesus was born (in BethLehem of Judea during the days of King Herod), {Look!} Magi from the east came to JeruSalem, ² asking:

‘Where is this one who was born to be the king of the Judeans? We saw his star in the east and we came to bow low before him.’

³ Well, when he heard about this, King Herod was very disturbed (as was everyone else in JeruSalem). ⁴ So he gathered all the chief priests and the peoples’ scribes and asked them where this Anointed One was to be born. ⁵ And they replied:

‘In BethLehem of Judea... because, this is what was written through the Prophet:

*⁶ And you, O BethLehem in the land of Judea
Will no way be the least among rulers of Judah.
For from you, will come forth a leader,
Who will shepherd IsraEl, My people.’*

⁷ Then Herod secretly called for those Magi and carefully determined from them when the star had appeared. ⁸ And before he sent them on to BethLehem, he said:

‘Search carefully for the young child; and when you find him, report back to me, so I can go and bow before him also.’

⁹ Then, after listening to what the king had to say, they traveled on... for {Look!} the star that they saw in the east went ahead of them until it stood directly over [the place] where the young child was.

¹³ Well, after they left, {Look!} Jehovah’s messenger appeared to JoSeph in a dream saying:

‘Get up! Take the boy and his mother, then hurry to Egypt and stay there until I tell you otherwise, because Herod is going to search for the boy to destroy him!’

¹⁴ So, he got up during the night and took the child and his mother, and they left for Egypt, ¹⁵ where they stayed until after Herod died... so the thing that was said by Jehovah through the Prophet would be fulfilled: ‘I called My son out of Egypt.’

¹⁶ Well, when Herod saw that the Magi had outwitted him, he was furious. So, he sent [a proclamation] throughout BethLehem and its districts to have [all the boys who were two-years-old and younger to be gathered \[for destruction\]](#), since that was the period he had determined so carefully from the Magi. ¹⁷ And that’s also when the thing that was spoken through the Prophet JeremiAh was fulfilled, which said:

¹⁸ ‘A voice was heard crying from RamAh...
The sounds of weeping, wailing, and grief.
It was the voice of RachEl, crying for her sons,
And she refused to accept any comfort,
Because they’re no longer [alive].’

¹⁹ Well, after Herod died, {Look!} Jehovah’s messenger appeared in a dream to JoSeph while he was in Egypt, ²⁰ and he said: ‘Now, get up and take the child and his mother back to the land of IsraEl, because those who wanted to take the child’s life are dead!’

²¹ So, [JoSeph] got up and took the child and his mother back to the land of IsraEl. ²² However, when he heard that ArcheLaus had become the ruler in Judah in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, because of a divine warning that he had received in a dream. As the result, he traveled to the territory of GaliLee, ²³ and they went to live in a city named Nazareth. So, the thing that was spoken through the Prophet was fulfilled:

‘A Nazarene is what he’ll be called.’

Chapter 3

¹ It was in those days that John the Baptist came preaching in the desert around Judea, ² saying:

‘Repent, for the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God) has drawn near.’

³ He’s the one about whom the Prophet IsaiAh spoke, saying:

‘A voice calls out in the desert:

Prepare the way for the Lord...

Before him, straighten the roads!’

⁴ John wore clothes made of camel’s hair, he had a thick leather belt around his waist, and what he ate was locusts and wild honey.

⁵ Then, [people from] JeruSalem (as well as from the rest of Judea and the area all around the Jordan) came to him ⁶ to be baptized in the Jordan River, as they openly admitted their sins.

⁷ And when he saw many of the Pharisees and SadDucees (actually, Sad/dou/kai/um) coming to be baptized, he said to them:

‘Children of vipers; Who has shown you the need to flee from the coming rage? ⁸ You should first produce the [type of] fruit that proves you are worthy of repentance.

⁹ ‘And don’t be so bold as to say, Our father is AbraHam; for I tell you that God can make children of AbraHam from these stones!

¹¹ ‘Indeed, I baptize you in water [as a sign of your] repentance. But the one who is coming after me is greater than me... in fact, I’m unfit to remove his sandals! [When he arrives], he’ll baptize you in fire and Spirit... ¹² he’ll [take] his shovel into his hands and completely clean up his threshing floor, then he’ll gather the wheat into his storehouse and burn all the chaff with a fire that can’t be extinguished!’

¹³ Then, sometime later, Jesus came from GaliLee to see John at the Jordan River in order to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But [John] tried to prevent him, saying:

‘Since I’m the one who should be baptized by you; Why are you coming to me?’

¹⁵ But Jesus told him:

‘Let it be like this for now... this is the right thing for us to do, so we can fulfill all that is righteous.’

And at that, [John] no longer tried to stop him.

¹⁶ Well, after Jesus was baptized – immediately after he come up out of the water – {Look!} the heavens opened up before him, and [John] saw God’s Breath descending upon him [in the form of] a dove. ¹⁷ And {Look!} there was also a voice that came out of the sky that said: ‘This is My dearly-loved Son who has pleased Me well.’

Chapter 4

¹ Then [God’s] Breath led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the Slanderer. ² And after he had fasted for forty days and forty nights, he became very hungry. ³ So, the Tempter came to him and said: ‘If you are [really] the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread!’

⁴ And [Jesus] replied:

‘It is written:

*Man doesn’t live by just bread alone,
But by every word that comes from God’s mouth.’*

⁵ Then the Slanderer took him to the Holy City and put him up on one of the Temple’s high battle towers. ⁶ And he said:

‘If you are [really] a son of God, jump down! For it’s written:

*He’ll assign [His] messengers around you,
And on their hands, they will lift you,
So you’ll not hit your foot on a stone.’*

⁷ But Jesus told him:

‘Once again, it is written:

Don’t put Jehovah your God to the test.’

⁸ Then the Slanderer took him to an unusually high mountain where he showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹ And he said:

‘I will give all of these to you if you’ll just bow before me with your face to the ground.’

¹⁰ But Jesus replied:

‘Go away Slanderer, because it is written:

*Indeed; you must worship Jehovah, your God,
And Him alone should you serve.’*

¹¹ Well after that, the Slanderer left him, and {Look!} [God's] messengers came and started [serving \[Jesus' needs\]](#).

¹² It was after he heard that John had been arrested that [Jesus] returned to GaliLee... ¹³ he moved out of Nazareth and started living in CapharNaum (which is by the sea in the districts of ZebuLun and NaphTali). ¹⁴ This was done so [the prophecy] that was spoken through the Prophet IsaiAh could be fulfilled:

¹⁵ 'O lands of ZebuLun and NaphTali...
You coasts and those on the Jordan's east shore,
And you, O Galilee of the gentiles;
¹⁶ The people who were traveling in darkness
Then saw a [very] bright light.
For, a light will shine upon those
Who live in the place of the shadow of death.'

¹⁷ Well, from that time on, Jesus started preaching and saying:
'Repent, for the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God) has drawn near!'

¹⁸ Then, it was while he was walking along by the Sea of GaliLee that he saw two brothers, Simon (the one called Peter) and his brother Andrew... fishermen who were casting their nets on the sea. ¹⁹ And he said to them:

'Follow me and I'll make you fishers of men!'

²⁰ Well, they immediately dropped their nets and they started following him.

²³ Thereafter, [Jesus] traveled throughout all of GaliLee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the Kingdom, and curing all the peoples' diseases and infirmities. ²⁴ So, people came to hear about him all the way to the land of Syria, and they also brought their sick (those with various diseases and ailments, the demon-possessed, as well as epileptics and paralyzed persons), and he cured them all. ²⁵ As the result, huge crowds from GaliLee, the DecaPolis, JeruSalem and the rest of Judea, as well as those from the other side of the Jordan started following him.

Chapter 5

¹ Well, when [Jesus] saw the crowds, he went up a mountain and sat down, and his disciples came to him. ² Then he opened his mouth and started teaching them, saying:

³ ‘Blest are those poor in spirit;
For, theirs is the Kingdom of the heavens.

⁴ ‘Blest are those who are sad;
For, they will be given comfort.

⁵ ‘Blest are also the meek;
For, they will inherit the land.

⁶ ‘Those hungering and thirsting for righteousness are blest;
For, they will find satisfaction.

⁷ ‘Blest are those who show mercy;
For, mercy is what they’ll receive.

⁸ ‘Blest are those with pure hearts;
For, they will [come to] see God.

⁹ ‘Blest are those who make peace;
For, they will be called Sons of God.

¹⁰ ‘Blest are those who receive persecution
For doing [things that are] righteous,
Since theirs is the Kingdom of the heavens.

¹¹ ‘You’re blest when they persecute and insult you,
Then say many bad things about you,
And lie about you for my sake.

¹² You can rejoice and [cry out in] joy;
For your reward in the heavens is great,
Since that’s how they treated the Prophets before you.

¹³ ‘You are the salt of the earth;
But, if salt becomes weak, is it still salt?
No, when it no longer has strength,
It’s thrown outside to be walked on.

¹⁴ ‘You are the light of this world...
And a city on a hill can’t be hidden!

¹⁵ You don’t light a lamp
And put it under a basket...
You put it on a lampstand instead,
Where it can shine throughout the whole house!

¹⁶ ‘So, let your light shine before all,
Then they can speak of the good things you’ve done
And give glory to your Father in the heavens.

¹⁷ ‘Don’t think that I came to destroy
The Law or the [words of the] Prophets...
I came to fulfill, not to destroy.

¹⁸ ‘I’m telling you the truth when I say, it’s more likely that the land and the skies would pass away than for an iota or a small point on a letter of the Law to pass away before it is all fulfilled. ¹⁹ So, whoever breaks the least of the Commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven, while those who teach and follow [the Law] will be called great in the Kingdom.

²⁰ ‘I also say this to you: If you aren’t more righteous than the scribes and Pharisees, you won’t enter the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God).

²¹ ‘You’ve heard that the ancients were told:

You must not commit murder, for those who murder will be judged.

²² However, I tell you this: Whoever stays angry with his brother will also have to be judged, and anyone who calls his brother empty-headed must stand before the religious court. Also, anyone who [calls his brother] a moron will be [condemned] to the garbage-dump fires.

²³ ‘And if you bring a gift to [God’s] Altar, but while you’re on the way you remember that your brother holds something against you; ²⁴ leave your gift at the Altar and go. First make peace with your brother, and then return to offer your gift.

²⁵ ‘Also, while you’re on your way [to a court], you should quickly work out an agreement with your adversary, so you won’t have to leave the matter in the hands of the judge, who may hand you over to the bailiff, who will then lock you in jail. ²⁶ If that happens, I tell you this for a fact: You won’t be released until you’ve paid your last cent.

²⁷ ‘You’ve also heard that it’s said:

You must not commit Adultery.

²⁸ But I tell you that any man who stares at a woman and develops a desire [to have] her, has committed adultery [with her] in his heart.

²⁹ ‘So if your right eye becomes a trap to you, pull it out and throw it away! For it’s better to lose a piece of yourself than to lose your whole body in the garbage dump. ³⁰ Or if your right hand becomes a trap to you, cut it off and throw it away! For it’s better to lose a piece of yourself than to lose your whole body in the garbage dump.

³¹ ‘It is also said that whoever releases his woman should give her a certificate of rejection. ³² But I say:

Whoever releases his woman except for sexual immorality, leads her into adultery. And whoever marries a woman who has been so released is committing adultery.

³³ ‘Again, you heard it was said long ago:

You must not swear false oaths; rather, you must do as you vow before Jehovah.

³⁴ ‘However, I tell you this:

Swear oaths by nothing at all!

Don’t swear by heaven, for that is God’s throne;

³⁵ Nor should you swear oaths by the earth,

Because that is [God’s] footstool;

And do not swear by JeruSalem,

For that’s the city of the great king.

³⁶ ‘Don’t swear oaths by the hairs on your head,
For you can’t turn a hair black or white!

³⁷ Let your yes mean just yes,
And your no mean just no,
For it’s things like this that lead you toward evil.

³⁸ ‘You’ve also heard it was said:
Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.

³⁹ But, I say to you:

Don’t oppose evil men. If someone slaps your right cheek, turn the other to him also. ⁴⁰ And if someone wants to take you to court and sue you for your underwear, give him the rest of your clothes! ⁴¹ Or if someone forces you to serve him for a mile, go with him for two miles! ⁴² Yes, give freely to all those who ask, and don’t turn away anyone who wishes to borrow.

⁴³ ‘You’ve heard the saying that goes:

You must love your neighbors and dislike your enemies.

⁴⁴ But I say:

Show love for your enemies and pray for those who persecute you; ⁴⁵ for by doing this, you’ll prove yourselves the sons of your Father in the heavens who allows the sun to rise upon both the wicked and the good, and who sends rain to both the righteous and the unrighteous.

⁴⁶ ‘For, if you only love those who love you; What reward are you really due... don’t tax collectors do the same thing? ⁴⁷ And if you only greet your brothers; What are you doing that’s so special... don’t the gentiles do the same thing? ⁴⁸ Just be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect!’

Chapter 6

¹ ‘Be careful not to practice your righteousness before other men so that they can see what you’re doing; for if you do, you won’t receive a reward from your Father in the heavens.

² ‘And when you’re giving gifts to the needy, don’t blow a trumpet in the synagogue or out in the streets like the hypocrites do so they can be praised by the people. I tell you the truth; when they do this, that’s the only reward they'll receive. ³ Rather, when you give gifts to the needy, don't [tell] your left hand what your right hand is doing. ⁴ Give your gifts to the needy in secret, and then your Father who watches in secret will be [the One] who repays you.

⁵ 'And don't pray like the hypocrites do, for they [like to] pray as they're standing in their synagogues and on the corners of the main streets, so that people will notice what they're doing. I tell you the truth; that is their full reward. ⁶ Rather, when you pray, go into your room and after shutting the door, pray to your Father in secret. Then you'll be repaid by your Father who is watching in secret.

⁷ Also, when praying, don't babble the same words like the gentiles do. For they think that they may only be heard through the use of many words. ⁸ No, don't act like them, for your God and Father already knows everything that you need before you ask Him.

⁹ 'Now, this is how you should pray:

*Our Father who is in the heavens;
May Your Name be treated as Holy*

¹⁰ And may Your Kingdom arrive...

*May Your Will take place on the earth
As it has in the heavens.*

¹¹ 'Give us our bread for this day

¹² *And please forgive all our debts
As we've forgiven our debtors.*

¹³ *Into temptation, may we not be led,
And from the wicked [one], save us.*

¹⁴ 'For, if you're willing forgive other people's errors, your Father in the heavens will overlook yours. ¹⁵ However, if you aren't willing to forgive their errors, your Father won't forgive yours either.

¹⁶ 'Also, when you fast, don't put on a sad face like the hypocrites do, because they contort their faces to make sure that everyone knows they're fasting. I tell you the truth; this is all the reward they'll receive. ¹⁷ But whenever you fast, wash your face and rub your head with oil, ¹⁸ so that no one will know that you're fasting other than your Father who is watching in secret... and then your Father who's watching in secret will be [the One] who repays you.

¹⁹ 'Stop storing up treasures on here on the earth that can be eaten by rust and by moths, or which thieves can break in and steal. ²⁰ Rather, store your treasures in the heavens where they can't be consumed by moths or by rust, and where thieves can't break in and steal them. ²¹ For your hearts will be wherever your treasures are.

²² 'Your eyes are the lamps of your bodies, and if [you keep] your eyes simple, they'll make your whole bodies bright. ²³ But if your eyes are just wicked, they'll make your whole bodies dark. And when the only light within you is darkness; how great that darkness will be!

²⁴ 'No one can slave for two masters; for you'll [find that] you won't care for the one, but you'll love the other... yes, you'll be devoted this one, but you'll despise the other... and this is why you can't slave for God and for wealth!

²⁵ 'I'm also telling you that you shouldn't worry about your lives and about the things that you will eat --- or about your bodies and what you will wear. For, the person that you are on the inside is more important than food, and [your] body is more important than clothes. ²⁶ Rather, notice the birds in the skies... they don't plant seeds, or harvest, or put things in storage sheds, because your Father in the heavens provides their food... and aren't you [greater than] they are? ²⁷ Which of you can through worry add even a smidgen of the length to your lives?

²⁸ 'Also, when it comes to clothes, why should you worry? Rather, pay attention to the way that lilies grow in the fields. For, though they don't work or spin cloth, ²⁹ not even Solomon in all of his glory was as well-dressed as them. ³⁰ So, if God so well dresses the plants in the fields that are here today and thrown into the oven tomorrow; wouldn't He rather clothe you... you with so little faith?

³¹ 'Therefore, never be worried and ask, What are we going to eat or drink, or, What are we going to wear? ³² For, these are the types of things that the gentiles are concerned with... and your Father in the heavens already knows that you need these things! ³³ Rather, put the Kingdom and righteousness first, and then all these other things will be given to you.

³⁴ ‘No, don’t worry about what tomorrow will bring, because tomorrow will have its own problems and each day will have its own badness.’

Chapter 7

¹ ‘Do not judge others, so you won’t be judged...

² For, the [rules] by which you judge others
Are the rules they will use to judge you.
And the standards you are setting for them
Are the standards that they’ll set for you.

³ ‘Why look for the chaff your brother’s eye,
When you can’t see the rafter in yours?’

⁴ For, how can you say to your brother,
Let me remove this chaff from your eye,
When {Look!} there is a rafter in yours?

⁵ ‘Hypocrites!
Remove first the rafters from your own eyes,
And then you’ll be able to see
How to get chaff from the eye of your brother.

⁶ ‘Don’t lay your holy things before dogs
Nor throw your pearls before pigs,
So they can’t trample them under their feet
And then turn around and gore you.

⁷ ‘Keep asking and you will receive...
Keep searching and you will find...
Keep knocking and [the door] will be opened.

⁸ For, all will receive, who keep asking...
All who keep searching, will find...
And [the door] will be opened to all those who knock.

⁹ ‘For, about which man, isn’t this true:
If his son should ask him for bread,
He will not hand him a stone.

¹⁰ Or if he should ask for a fish,
He will not hand him a snake.

¹¹ ‘So if you, in your wicked condition,
Will provide good gifts to your children;
How much more will your Father in heaven
Give good things to those who keep asking?

¹² ‘Also, as you would like to be treated,
Is the way that you should treat others.
For, that’s [the whole point] of the Law and the Prophets!

¹³ ‘You should enter through the gate that is narrow;
For, the road to destruction is both broad and wide,
And that’s the way most people are going.

¹⁴ But the gateway to life is narrow and tight,
And few are those who can find it.

¹⁵ ‘Beware of false prophets who come dressed as sheep,
But on the inside, are just hungry wolves.

¹⁶ You’ll recognize them by the fruit that they bear...
For, you don’t pick grapes from the briars,
And you don’t pick figs from a thistle.

¹⁷ ‘Good trees will produce fruit that’s good,
While the rotten ones give fruit that’s bad.

¹⁸ A good tree will not bear bad fruit,
And a rotten tree will not bear good.

¹⁹ Then the trees that don’t bear good fruit
Will be cut down and thrown in a fire...

²⁰ So, you’ll recognize them by the fruit that they bear!

²¹ ‘Not all who shout Lord, Lord, to me
Will enter the Kingdom of the heavens...
Just those who are doing the Will
Of my Father in the heavens.

²² ‘Yet, many will say, O Lord;
In your name, didn’t I prophesy,

And in your name, cast out demons...

Yes, haven't we done great deeds in your name?

²³ But I'll tell them, I never knew you...

Get away from me, you lawbreakers!

²⁴ 'Now, those who listen and do what I say

Are like the very wise man

Who founded his home upon rock.

²⁵ So, because of its solid foundation,

It will be able to stand

When winds, floods, and rains beat on his house.

²⁶ 'Yet, those who hear and don't do as I say

Are like fools who build their houses on sand.

²⁷ For, when they face winds, rains, and floods,

Their houses will fall in a mighty collapse.'

²⁸ Well, after Jesus finished saying these things, the crowds were awe-struck by his way of teaching. ²⁹ Because, unlike their scribes, he taught with authority.

Chapter 8

¹ Then, as he was coming down the mountain (along with a large crowd that was following him), ² {Look!} a man with leprosy came up and bowed low before him, and said:

'Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean!'

³ So [Jesus] stuck out his hand and touched him, and said:

'I want to... be clean.'

And [the man] was immediately wiped clean of his leprosy.

⁴ Then Jesus said to him:

'Don't tell anyone [about this]... just go and show yourself to the Priests, then offer the gift that Moses specified, so they can testify to what happened.'

⁵ And as he was entering Capharnaum, a [Roman] Centurion came up to him and said:

⁶ 'Lord; My [house]boy is so paralyzed that he can't leave my home, and he's in a lot of pain!'

⁷ So [Jesus] told him:

'I'll cure him when I get there.'

⁸ However, the Centurion said:

'Sir, I'm unfit to have you enter my house... just say the word and I know that he will be healed. ⁹ For I'm also a man who has been given a lot of authority, because I have many soldiers under me. So, if I tell this one, Be on your way, he's on his way; if I say to another, Come, he comes; and if I tell my slave to do something, he does it.'

¹⁰ Well, Jesus was amazed at this, and he said this to those who were following him:

'I tell you the truth; I haven't found anyone in IsraEl with this much faith. ¹¹ I tell you this; many will be coming from the sunrise to the sunset, and they will recline [at the table] along with AbraHam, IsaAc, and Jacob in the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God), ¹² while the Sons of the Kingdom will be thrown outside into the darkness, where they'll cry and grind their teeth.'

¹³ Then Jesus said to the Centurion:

'Just go on... let it be just as you've believed!'

And the man's [house]boy was healed in that very hour.

¹⁴ Well, when he got to Peter's house, Jesus saw [\[Peter's\] mother-in-law](#) lying down, because she had a fever. ¹⁵ So he touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and started serving him.

¹⁶ Then later that evening, people started bringing him many of the demon-possessed. So, he cast out the spirits with a word and he cured all those who were ill, ¹⁷ so that the words which were spoken through the Prophet IsaiAh could be fulfilled:

'He took our infirmities and bore our diseases.'

¹⁸ However, when Jesus saw that a huge crowd had started to form, he said to [his disciples]:

'Let's go over to the other side [of the Sea of GaliLee].'

¹⁹ But, [as they were leaving], a scribe came up to him and said:
‘Teacher, I’ll follow you wherever you go!’

²⁰ And Jesus said to him:

‘Though foxes have burrows and birds in the skies have their nests,
The Son of Man has no place to lay his head.’

²¹ Then another disciple came up to him and said:

‘Lord, please allow me to go and bury my father first.’

²² But Jesus told him:

‘Just keep on following me and let the dead bury their own dead.’

²³ Well after that, Jesus and his disciples stepped into a boat and left. ²⁴
But soon, {Look!} the sea soon became agitated and waves started crashing over the boat... yet, [Jesus] was just lying there sleeping. ²⁵ So
[the disciples] went over and woke him up, and said:

‘Lord, please save us, for we’re about to be destroyed!’

²⁶ But [Jesus] asked:

‘Why are you so afraid... you with so little faith?’

Then he got up and scolded the winds and the sea, and a great calm set in, ²⁷ which caused the [disciples] to start wondering and asking each other:

‘What kind of person is this; for even the winds and the seas obey him!’

²⁸ Well, when they got to the other side [of the sea], into the country of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men came out from among the tombs to meet him. They were so unusually fierce that no one else had the courage to even pass that way. ²⁹ Then {Look!} they started shouting:
‘What do you want with us, O Son of God? Did you come here before the appointed time to torment us?’

³⁰ It so happened that at the time, there happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding [in a field] some distance away. ³¹ So the demons started begging [Jesus], saying:

‘If you’re going to cast us out, send us into that herd of pigs!’

³² And [Jesus] said to them:

‘Then, go!’

So, they came out and went into the pigs, and {Look!} the entire herd ran down a steep cliff into the sea, where they [drowned] in the water.

³³ Well, after that happened, the people who had been keeping watch over the pigs in that field ran away. And when they got to the city, they told everyone the things that they saw... including what [Jesus had done] to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴ So, {Look!} all the people in the city came out to meet Jesus.

However, when they saw him, they begged him to just cross back [over the sea] and leave their district.

Chapter 9

¹ So then, he stepped back into the boat, and they traveled back to the town where he had been staying. ² And when he got there, {Look!} some people brought him a paralyzed man who was lying on a cot. And when he saw that the man had a lot of faith, Jesus said to him:

‘Take courage child; your sins are forgiven.’

³ However, {Look!} some scribes [who heard him say this] were thinking to themselves:

‘He’s blaspheming!’

⁴ But Jesus (who knew what they were thinking) asked them:

‘Why are you thinking such wicked things in your hearts? ⁵ Is it easier to say, your sins are forgiven, or just, get up and walk? ⁶ However, I want you to know that the Son of Man has the power to forgive sins here on the earth.’

So at that, he said to the paralyzed man:

‘Now, get up, pick up your cot, and go home.’

⁷ And the man just got up and went home.

⁸ Well, when the crowds saw this, they were all frightened and they started praising The God who gives such powers to men.

⁹ So thereafter, he left that place, and as he was traveling on, Jesus noticed a man named Matthew sitting in a tax office, and he said to him:

‘Be my follower.’

And immediately, [Matthew] got up and started following him.

¹⁰ Then later, while [Jesus] was reclining at a table in [Matthew’s] home, {Look!} many tax collectors and sinners started coming in and reclining next to Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹ But on seeing this, the Pharisees asked [Jesus’ disciples:

‘Why is your teacher eating with these tax collectors and sinners?’

¹² Well, [Jesus] overheard them saying this, so he told them:

‘Healthy people don’t need doctors... only the sick do.

¹³ Now, go and learn the meaning of the words, I want mercy, not sacrifice. For I didn’t come here to call the righteous, just the sinners.’

¹⁴ Then some of John’s disciples came to [Jesus] and said to him:

‘We and the Pharisees always fast... so, why don’t your disciples fast?’

¹⁵ And Jesus answered:

The bridegroom’s friends don’t have any reason to be sad when he’s with them, do they? However, the day is coming when the bridegroom will be taken away from them... and then they will fast.’

¹⁶ ‘Understand that nobody sews a patch of un-shrunk cloth onto old clothes, because its [shrinking] strength will pull the clothes and make the tear worse. ¹⁷ And people don’t put new wine into old wineskins; for if they do, the old wineskins will burst, spilling the wine and ruining the skins... this is why people put new wine into new wineskins, so that both things are preserved.’

¹⁸ Well, as he was saying this, {Look!} a certain ruler came up and bowed low before him, saying:

‘By now, my daughter may have died... so, please come and lay your hands on her to bring her back to life!’

¹⁹ Therefore, Jesus got up and followed the man (as did his disciples).

²⁰ However, [as he was on the way], {Look!} a woman who had suffered from a blood flow for some twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringes on his robe. ²¹ [She did this] because she kept saying: ‘If I can just touch his clothes, I’ll be saved [from this illness].’

²² Then, when Jesus turned around and saw her, he said to her:
‘Take courage daughter; Your faith has saved you.’
And from that hour on, the woman was healed.

²³ Thereafter, when he got to the house of the ruler and saw flute players and a wailing crowd, ²⁴ Jesus said:
‘You should all leave, because the little girl isn’t really dead, she’s just sleeping!’

Well, everyone started laughing and making fun of him because of this. ²⁵
But, after the crowd had been ushered outside, [Jesus] went in and took hold of her hand, and the little girl stood up!

²⁶ So, word of what had happened there was quickly spread throughout that whole area.

²⁷ Then, just as Jesus was leaving that place, two blind men came up and started following him, hoarsely shouting:

‘Have pity on us, O Son of David!’

²⁸ And when he entered the house [where he was staying], these blind men followed him inside.

So, Jesus asked them:

‘Do you really believe that I can do this thing?’

And they answered:

‘Yes, Lord!’

²⁹ So he touched their eyes and said:

‘As you believed, may it happen to you!’

³⁰ And at that, their eyes were opened.

Then Jesus warned them sternly:

‘Now, don’t tell anyone about this!’

³¹ But, after they left, they started spreading the news [about what he had done] throughout all that area.

³² And then, before he could leave, {Look!} some more people brought him a man who couldn’t speak, because he was demon possessed. ³³ And after Jesus cast out the demon, the man was able to speak, which amazed the crowds. So they were saying:

‘Nothing like this has ever been seen in IsraEl.’

³⁴ However, the Pharisees were saying:

‘He’s casting out demons by the ruler of the demons!’

³⁵ Well from there, Jesus traveled throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in the synagogues, preaching the good news of the Kingdom, and curing every sort of disease and infirmity. ³⁶ For, when he looked at the crowds, he felt pity, because they were scraped and knocked about like sheep without a shepherd.

³⁷ Then he said to his disciples:

‘There is in fact a huge harvest, but there aren’t enough workers. ³⁸ So, beg the Master of the harvest to send more workers into the field to do His harvesting.’

Chapter 10

¹ Well after that, he called twelve of his disciples to him and he gave them the power to dominate and throw out unclean spirits and to cure every sort of disease and infirmity. ² These are the names of those twelve Apostles:

First there was Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew. And there was James the son of ZebediOu and his brother John. ³ There was also Philip, BarTholomew ([NathaniEl]), Thomas, Matthew (the tax collector), James (the son of Alpheus), ThadDeus ([Judas]), ⁴ Simon (the Cananaean), and Judas IsCariot (who [later] betrayed him).

⁵ Jesus thereafter sent these twelve out, giving them the orders:

‘Don’t go to the gentiles or to any of the Samaritan cities... ⁶ just go to the lost sheep of the house of IsraEl.

⁷ ‘[You should each] go your own way; and as you go, you should proclaim that the Kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.

⁸ ‘Cure sick people, raise the dead, make lepers clean, and throw out demons... you received it all freely, so give it freely!

⁹ ‘You won’t have to carry along any gold, silver, or copper [coins] in your waist sashes ¹⁰ or a food pouch for the trip; nor should you carry two pairs of underwear, or extra sandals, or walking sticks, because the worker has earned his provisions.

¹¹ ‘Then, whenever you enter a city or village, you should search for those who are deserving and stay with them until you must travel on. ¹² And when you enter any house, offer the household a greeting of peace... ¹³ and if the house is worthy, let peace come into it. But if it isn’t worthy, let the peace return to you.

¹⁴ ‘But, wherever the people don’t take you in and listen to your words; when you leave that house or that city, just shake the dust off your feet. ¹⁵ I tell you the truth; On the Judgment Day, it will be more bearable for the lands of Sodom and GomorRah than for that city.

¹⁷ ‘Now, be careful, because men will carry you before religious courts and they’ll whip you in their synagogues. ¹⁸ Yes, you’ll be taken before governors and kings for my sake as a witness to them and to the gentiles. ¹⁹ But when they bring you up [for trial], don’t worry about what you should say or how you should say it, because, what you must say will be given to you in that hour... ²⁰ you won’t be the one doing the talking, the Breath of your Father will be speaking through you.

²¹ ‘For, brothers will hand their own brothers over for death, and fathers will do the same to their children. Yes, even children will rise against their own parents and hand them over for death. ²² For, everyone will hate you because of my name... but those endure to the end will be saved.

²³ ‘So, when they chase you out of one city, just run to another. For I tell you the truth; you may not get to all of IsraEl’s cities before the Son of Man arrives.

²⁴ ‘Understand that a disciple can’t be higher than his teacher and slave can’t be higher than his master. ²⁵ However, a disciple may become like his teacher and a slave may become like his master. But, if they’re calling the master BeElZebub; how much more [will they say this] of those in his home? ²⁶ So, [expect this] to happen and don’t be afraid!

‘For there’s nothing that’s covered which will not be shown
And there are no secrets that will not be known.

²⁷ What I say in darkness, you must say in the light;
And whatever is whispered to you in your ear
Must be proclaimed from the rooftops!

²⁸ ‘Do not fear those who can just kill the body,
But can’t kill the person that you are.
Rather, fear the One who can fully destroy
The person and his body in the garbage.

²⁹ ‘Don’t two sparrows cost very little?
Yet, whenever one falls to the ground,
Your Father’s aware of what happened...

³⁰ For, He’s even counted the hairs on your head!

³¹ Therefore, you have no reason to fear;
For, more than many sparrows, is your value to Him!

³² ‘If you’ll admit that you’re with me to others,
I’ll also admit that I’m with you
Before my Father in the heavens.

³³ But, if you deny that you know me to men,
I’ll also deny knowing you
Before my Father in heaven.

³⁴ ‘Don’t think that I came to bring peace to the earth;
For, I’m not bringing peace... just the sword!

³⁵ I came to divide fathers from sons,
As well as daughters from mothers
And brides from their mothers-in-law.

³⁶ ‘Your enemies will be those in your own homes;

³⁷ But, those who care less for me

Than for their own fathers or mothers,
[Will never] be worthy of me.
And the one who cares less for me
Than for his sons or his daughters,
Isn't worthy of me.

³⁸ 'Those who won't lift their own torture poles
And follow behind me, aren't worthy.

³⁹ For, those who seek first their own lives
Are really the ones that will lose it;
But they'll find it, if they if they lose their lives for my sake.

⁴⁰ 'Those who invite you into [their homes]
Are also inviting me in.
And those who are inviting me in,
Are inviting the One by whom I was sent.

⁴¹ 'Those who welcome a Prophet because he's a Prophet,
Will receive a Prophet's reward.
And those who welcome the righteous because they are righteous,
Will receive the reward of the righteous.

⁴² 'For, whoever gives one of these least ones
So much as a cold cup of water
Because he is my disciple...
I swear that he will not lose his reward.'

Chapter 11

¹ Now, after Jesus had finished giving his twelve disciples these instructions, he went out to preach and teach in their cities.

² However, because John [the Baptist] (who was in jail) heard about the things that the Anointed One was doing, he sent his disciples to ask him ³ whether he was really the one who was to come, or if they should expect someone else. ⁴ And this is what Jesus told them:

'Go back and report to John all that you're seeing and hearing. ⁵ Tell him that the blind are seeing, the lame are walking, the lepers are being cleansed, the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised, and the poor are being taught the good news. ⁶ So, anyone that doesn't stumble over me will be blest.'

⁷ Then after [John's disciples] had left, Jesus asked the crowd this about John:

'What did you go to the desert to see...
Reeds being blown in the wind?

⁸ Yes, what did you go out to see...
A man who is dressed in soft clothes?

'Those wearing soft clothes live in mansions!

⁹ So, why did you really go out there?
Did [you go there] to [visit] a Prophet?
Yes, and one who's more than a Prophet!

¹⁰ For, this is the one of whom it was written:
*{Look!} I will send My messenger ahead
To prepare the road that's before him!*

¹¹ 'I tell you the truth; Of those born to women, none have been raised that are greater than John. But the least in the Kingdom of heaven (or, of God) will be greater than him. ¹² For, from the time of John [until now], the Kingdom of the heavens has been taken by force... and the forceful are the ones that have seized it. ¹³ Indeed, this was all prophesied in the Law and the Prophets. ¹⁴ And if you are willing to accept it; he's the EliJah that was to come [first]... ¹⁵ let those who have ears pay attention!

¹⁶ 'To whom can I liken this generation? They're like children playing in the markets who shout at their mates:

¹⁷ *We played the flute, but you didn't dance...
We wailed, but you didn't beat on your chests!*

¹⁸ 'When John came along; because he didn't eat fine food or drink any [wine], they said that he had a demon! ¹⁹ But because the Son of Man loves fine foods and wine, they call him an alcoholic and glutton... a friend of tax collectors and sinners! Yet, wisdom is proven righteous by its results.'

²⁰ And then he started to berate the cities where he had done most of his powerful deeds, because they hadn't repented. He said:

²¹ ‘Woe to you, O ChoraZin, and woe to you, O BethSaida; for if the powerful deeds that had happened in you had also happened in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in sackcloth and ashes. ²² So, in the Judgment Day, it will be easier for Tyre and Sidon than it will be for you.

²³ ‘And you, CapharNaum; will you be raised to the heavens? No, you’ll go down to the place of the dead! For if the powerful deeds that happened in you had also happened in Sodom, [that city] would still be here today.

²⁴ ‘So I tell you that it will be better for the land of Sodom in the Judgment than it will be for you.’

²⁵ Then it was concerning this that Jesus prayed:

‘I publicly praise you O Father, Lord of the heavens and earth; for You’ve hidden these things from the smart and the wise, while You revealed them to infants. ²⁶ Yes, Father; this is the thing that You have approved.

²⁷ ‘Everything that I have come from my Father; for, no one knows the Father as well as His son, and no one knows the son as well as his Father... or those to whom he’s revealed Him.

²⁸ ‘So, come to me, you who’ve worked hard and born heavy loads, because I will provide you with refreshment. ²⁹ Learn from me and put on my yoke. For, I am meek and I have a kind heart, so your souls will find refreshment in me. ³⁰ Yes, this yoke of mine is very gentle and my load is very light!’

Chapter 12

¹ Well, as Jesus was traveling through some grain fields on a Sabbath, his disciples got hungry and they started plucking some of the grain and eating it. ² But when the Pharisees saw this, they said:

‘Look! Your disciples are doing what’s illegal on the Sabbath!’

³ And [Jesus] said to them:

‘Haven’t you read what David did when he and his men got hungry... ⁴ how they entered the House of God and ate the show bread, which wasn't legal for them to eat, since it was only for the Priests? ⁵ Or haven't you read in the Law that the Priests in the Temple can break the Sabbath rules [by offering sacrifices] and not be found guilty?

⁶ 'So, I'm telling you that something greater than the Temple is here now! ⁷ And if you understood what the words mean, I want mercy, not sacrifices, you probably wouldn't be condemning these innocent ones. ⁸ For, the Son of Man is the Lord of the Sabbath!'

⁹ Then from there, Jesus entered their synagogue, ¹⁰ where {Look!} he found a man who had a withered hand. So [those Pharisees] then asked him:

'Is it legal to heal on the Sabbath?'

(They said this so they could find something that they could accuse him of doing wrong).

¹¹ And he asked them:

'If any of you had a sheep that fell into a pit on the Sabbath; which one of you wouldn't go there to lift it out?'

¹² 'So, since a man is worth much more than a sheep... yes, it is legal to do good things for him on the Sabbath!'

¹³ And at that, he said to the man:

'Now, stretch out your hand.'

And when he stretched it out, it became healthy just like the other hand!

¹⁴ Well thereafter, the Pharisees then went out and assembled a counsel to destroy [Jesus]. ¹⁵ However, Jesus knew what they were planning, so he left that place.

There were many [people who traveled] with him at that time, and he cured them all. ¹⁶ But he sternly warned them not to expose him, ¹⁷ so that the words spoken through the Prophet IsaiAh might be fulfilled:

¹⁸ ' {Look} My servant, whom I have chosen...

My loved one who's approved by My Soul!

In him, I will now put My Breath,

And he'll tell the nations about My decisions.

¹⁹ ‘Yet, he will not argue or shout,
Nor will they hear his voice in the main streets.

²⁰ He will not crush a bruised reed,
Nor will he extinguish a smoking flax wick
Until he brings triumph to justice

²¹ And the nations put hope in his name.’

²² Well, after that, they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and couldn’t speak, and he cured him so that he could both speak and see. ²³ This amazed the crowds and they all started asking: ‘Isn’t this the Son of David?’

²⁴ However, when the Pharisees heard them saying this, they said: ‘He’s throwing out demons by [the power of] BeElZebub, the ruler of the demons!’

²⁵ Of course, [Jesus] knew what they were thinking, so he said this to them:

‘A kingdom that’s divided will fall,
And a city or house that’s divided won’t stand.

²⁶ So, if the Opposer casts out the Opposer,
He’s fighting himself and his kingdom won’t stand.

²⁷ ‘Now, if I’m really using BeElZebub’s [power] to cast out demons, then, whose [power] are your sons using when they cast them out?

‘You see; it’s things like this that condemn you! ²⁸ For, if I am really casting out demons by means of God’s Breath, then God’s Kingdom has rolled over you! ²⁹ After all; no one can break into the house of a powerful person and steal his things unless they first tie him up... only then can they loot his house.

³⁰ ‘So now; those who aren’t with me are against me, and those who are not on my side will be scattered. ³¹ And I’m telling you this:

All sins and blasphemies can be forgiven... but not [blasphemy against \[God’s Holy\] Breath](#). That will not be forgiven!

³² ‘If someone speaks badly against the Son of Man, this is something that can be forgiven. But if someone blasphemes [God’s] Holy Breath, he won't be forgiven... no, not in this age or in that to come. ³³ So, either declare the tree and its fruit to be good or declare it [all] to be rotten. For, you will recognize the trees by the fruit that they bear.

³⁴ 'O you offspring of vipers; How can evil people like you speak of good things, since, what you're saying is coming from your hearts? ³⁵ A good man will bring what's good from the good [that's in his heart], while the evil just bring bad things from what is stored there.

³⁶ 'So, I'm telling you now that when the Judgment Day arrives, you will each answer for the things that you've said to mislead... ³⁷ you'll either be found righteous, or you'll be condemned by the things that you are saying.'

³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees came up to him and said: 'Teacher, we want to see a sign from you!'

³⁹ And [Jesus] replied:

'A wicked and adulterous generation [is always] looking for signs. However, they won't receive one other than the sign of Jonah the Prophet. ⁴⁰ For, as Jonah was in the sea creature's belly for three days and three nights; the Son of Man will be in the heart of the ground for three days and three nights.

⁴¹ 'Then, the men of Nineveh will stand in the Judgment along with this generation and they will condemn it; for, they repented at what Jonah preached... but look; something greater than Jonah is now here!

⁴² 'The Queen of the South will also arise in the judgment and she will condemn this generation; for, she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom... but look; something greater than Solomon is now here!

⁴³ 'When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it travels through [many] dry places, searching for a [good] place to rest.

But, if it can't find one, it says:

⁴⁴ I'll just go back to the house that I left.

'And then, upon his return; if he finds [the house] empty, furnished, and swept, ⁴⁵ he'll move back in, bringing along seven more spirits that are even more wicked than him. So then, after [he] gets inside [of the man], the others will dwell in him also, making things worse than they were before... yes, that's how this generation will be.'

⁴⁶ Well, while he was still talking to the crowds, {Look!} his mother and brothers showed up and they were standing outside waiting to speak to him. ⁴⁷ So someone said to [Jesus]:

'Look, your mother and brothers are standing outside and waiting to speak to you.'

⁴⁸ But he said:

'Just who is my mother, and who are my brothers?'

⁴⁹ Then he held out his hand toward his disciples and said:

'Look... my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰ For, all those who are doing the will of my Father in the heavens are my brothers, sisters, and mother.'

Chapter 13

¹ Then one day, Jesus came out of the house and was sitting by the sea, ² when a huge crowd came and gathered around him. So, he stepped into a boat and [started teaching] those who were standing there on the beach, ³ and he did so using parables... for he said:

'{Look!} A farmer went out to do planting,

⁴ And some of his seeds fell by the road,

Where birds quickly came there and ate them.

⁵ 'Others fell among rocks where there wasn't much soil,

And there, they quickly started to sprout.

⁶ But when the sun came up, they were scorched,

And they withered, because they couldn't spread roots.

⁷ 'Still others fell among briars,

Which [quickly] grew and choked them all out.

⁸ 'Yet, the rest fell on good soil, producing [much] fruit...

One a hundred, one sixty, and thirty for another...

⁹ Let those who have ears, pay attention!'

¹⁰ Well later, the disciples came to him and asked him why he was speaking to the crowd in parables. ¹¹ And he replied: ‘Though you’ve been allowed to understand the mysteries of the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God), they haven’t. ¹² So, those who have will be given more, and they’ll have more than enough. But as for those who don’t have... even what they own will be taken from them.

¹³ ‘Therefore, this is why I’m speaking to them in parables; because when they look they can’t see, and when they listen they don’t hear or understand the meaning of it.

¹⁴ ‘Thus, the prophecy of IsaiAh is being fulfilled in them that says:
*By listening, you will hear, but not understand,
And by looking, you will look, but not see.*

¹⁵ *For the hearts of these people have grown thick;
So, their ears now listen very slowly,
And all their eyes lids are closed.
So, they are unable to see with their eyes,
And they can’t hear with their ears,
Nor can they understand in their hearts,
Then turn back, so that I can heal them.*

¹⁶ ‘However, your eyes are blest because they can see, as are your ears, because they can hear.

¹⁷ ‘I tell you the truth; many of the Prophets and righteous men wished to see the things that you’re seeing today... but they didn’t see them. And [they wished] to hear the things that you’re hearing... but they didn’t hear them.

¹⁸ ‘So now, listen to the [meaning of the] parable of the farmer who planted:

¹⁹ Whenever someone hears about the Kingdom but doesn’t understand it, the wicked one comes and snatches away whatever has been planted in his heart. This is the one that grew alongside the road.

²⁰ ‘As for the one that grew among the rocks; he hears the word and quickly accepts it with joy. ²¹ But because he has no roots, he just lasts a short time... when hard times or persecution come along because of the word, he's immediately trapped.

²² 'As for the one that grew among the thistles; this one hears the word, but the concerns of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke out the word, so he doesn't produce any fruit.

²³ 'But as for the one that is planted on good soil; he hears the word, understands it, and actually puts out fruit... this one a hundred, that one sixty, and the other thirty.'

²⁴ Well after that, he gave them another parable. He said:

'The Kingdom of the heavens is much like a man
Who planted good seeds in his field.

²⁵ But, while all his people were sleeping,
An enemy scattered weeds over his wheat.

²⁶ So, when the blades started sprouting with fruit,
The weeds also appeared.

²⁷ 'Then the master's slaves came and asked him:
*Lord, weren't those good seeds [that you gave us] to plant?
If so, then, why are there so many weeds?*

²⁸ 'And he replied:
It was an enemy of mine who did this.

'So, they asked him:
Then, should we go and pull up [the weeds]?

²⁹ 'And he told them:
*No, for as you're pulling up weeds,
You may also uproot the wheat!*

³⁰ *Let them all grow together 'til the harvest arrives.
Then I'll tell the reapers to collect the weeds first,
And put them in bundles and burn them;
Then, gather the wheat into my barn.'*

³¹ Thereafter, he told them another parable, saying:
'The Kingdom of the heavens is like mustard seeds
That a man had planted in his field.

³² Though it's [one of] the smallest of seeds;
It can grow to become the largest of plants...
[It can grow as large as] a tree
In whose branches, the birds in the skies can then roost.'

³³ And he told them another parable:
'The Kingdom of the heavens is like a bit of [yeast]
That a woman hid in three scoops of flour...
Which soon became filled with [the yeast].'

³⁴ Jesus said all these things to the crowds in parables. And it's a fact that if he wasn't using parables, he wasn't talking to them. ³⁵ This was done so as to fulfill what was spoken through the Prophet, who said:
'With parables, I'll open my mouth.
And I'll talk about things that have been hidden
Since the founding of the world.'

³⁶ Then, after dismissing the crowds, he went back into the house. And there his disciples came to him and asked him to explain the parable of the weeds in the field. ³⁷ So [Jesus] told them this:
'The one who planted the good seeds is the Son of Man, ³⁸ and the field is this system of things. The good seeds are the sons of the Kingdom, the weeds are the sons of the wicked one, ³⁹ and the enemy who planted them is the Slanderer. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are [God's] messengers.

⁴⁰ 'So, just as the weeds are collected and burned in a fire; that's what will happen at the end of the age. ⁴¹ The Son of Man will send his messengers to collect all the snares and all the lawless people out of his Kingdom, ⁴² and they will be thrown into a flaming furnace, where they will cry and grind [their] teeth. ⁴³ But after that, the righteous will shine as brightly as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father... let those who have ears pay attention to this!

⁴⁷ ‘Again, the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God) is like a net that is dropped into the sea and collects all sorts [of sea creatures]; ⁴⁸ then, when it’s full, they haul it onto the beach and sit down to collect the good things, which they throw into baskets, while they toss all the bad things away. ⁴⁹ Yes, that’s how it will be at the end of the age... [God’s] messengers will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous, ⁵⁰ and they will throw [the wicked] into a flaming furnace, where they’ll cry and grind their teeth.’

⁵¹ [Then Jesus asked them]:
‘Did you understand all these things?’

And they replied:
‘We do.’

⁵² So Jesus said:
‘Well, this is how all the disciples of the Kingdom of the Heavens will teach... they’ll be like a man (a master of his house) who brings both old and new things out of his stores.’

⁵³ Well, after Jesus had finished explaining these parables, he left that area ⁵⁴ and traveled to the place where he was raised, and there he started teaching in their synagogue. This dumbfounded the people, for they asked:

‘Where did this man get such wisdom and powers? ⁵⁵ Isn’t he the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Mary, and aren’t his brothers James, JoSeph, Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶ And his sisters... aren’t they all with us? Where did he get all these things?’

⁵⁷ So, they were stumbled over him. But Jesus said:
‘A Prophet is never treated with dishonor except in the place where he was raised and within his own home.’

⁵⁸ Therefore, he didn’t do many powerful deeds there, because of their lack of faith.

Chapter 14

¹ It was around this time that Herod (the ruler over that area) heard about Jesus. ² And he said to his boys:

‘This is really John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead, and this is why he can do such powerful things!’

³ He said this because Herod had arrested John and thrown him in prison due to thing that [John had said about] his brother’s (Philip’s) wife. ⁴ For, because John had told him that he had broken the Law by taking her, ⁵ [Herod] wanted to kill him. [Yet, he couldn’t], because he was afraid of the people, since they considered [John] to be a Prophet.

⁶ However, at Herod’s birthday party, the daughter of Herodias [came out and] danced before him, and this pleased Herod so much ⁷ that he promised with an oath to give her anything that she asked. ⁸ So, (with her mother’s coaching) she said:

¹² Well afterward, [John’s] disciples went to get his body and buried it, then they reported everything that had happened to Jesus. ¹³ And when Jesus heard about this, he got into a boat to find a quiet place where he could be alone. However, the crowds noticed [where he was going] and they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴ So, when he got to that place, he saw a huge crowd of people. And because he felt sorry for them, he went on to heal their sick.

¹⁵ Then later that evening, [Jesus’] disciples came to him and said: ‘This is a very remote place and it’s getting late, so we should send the crowds off into the villages around here so they can buy something to eat!’

¹⁶ But Jesus said to them:

‘They don’t have to go... why don’t you give them something to eat?’

¹⁷ And [the disciples] answered:

‘But, all we have is just five loaves [of bread] and two fish!’

¹⁸ So Jesus told them:

‘Bring them to me.’

¹⁹ Then he told the crowd to lie down on the grass, and he took the five loaves and two fish, and after looking into the sky, he spoke a blessing. Then he started breaking the bread and handing it to the disciples, who then passed it out to the crowd... ²⁰ and everyone ate until they were full! And when they picked up the scraps, they found that there were twelve baskets full of leftovers. ²¹ Yet, there were about five thousand men (as well as many women and children) who ate.

²² Well, after that, [Jesus] dismissed the crowd and he told his disciples to take the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side [of the sea]. ²³ And after most of the people had left, he went up the mountain to a private spot where he could pray. So, though it was getting dark, he stayed there all alone.

²⁴ Meanwhile, the boat [that the Apostles were rowing] had gotten a long way from land. But they had been fighting the waves, because there was [a strong] wind blowing against them. ²⁵ And then, sometime just before sunrise, [Jesus] came to them, walking across the sea.

²⁶ Well, when they saw him walking on the water, the disciples were terrified and they shouted:

And they started screaming out of fear.

²⁷ But right away, Jesus told them:

‘Be brave... don’t be afraid, it’s me!’

²⁸ Then Peter said:

‘Lord; If it’s you, then command me to come out to you on top of the water!’

²⁹ So, [Jesus] said:

‘Then, come on!’

Well, Peter got out of the boat and he started walking across the water toward Jesus. ³⁰ But he got distracted by the windstorm and he got frightened... and then he started to sink and he shouted:

‘Lord, please save me!’

³¹ So Jesus immediately reached out his hand and grabbed him, and he said:

‘O You with so little faith; Why did you start to doubt?’

³² Well, after they both got into the boat, the windstorm subsided, ³³ and the others in the boat all bowed low before him and said:

‘You truly are the Son of God!’

³⁴ Then, after they had finished the crossing, they docked their boat at GenNesaret. ³⁵ And there, the people recognized him and sent word throughout the surrounding countryside, so they started bringing all those who weren’t doing well to him... ³⁶ they were all begging to just touch the fringes on his clothes. And all those who touched them were made completely well.

Chapter 15

¹ It was sometime later that some Pharisees and scribes came from JeruSalem to see Jesus, and they asked him:

² ‘Why are you allowing your disciples to overstep the traditions of the elders? For example, they don’t wash their hands before they eat bread!’

³ But [Jesus] said to them:

‘Then, why do you overstep the Commands of God with your traditions?’

⁴ For, God told you to honor your fathers and mothers, and to have those who speak badly to their fathers or mothers put to death! ⁵ Yet, you're telling your fathers and mothers that all you might have to give to them is already [dedicated] as a gift [to God]. ⁶ So, [what you’re really saying] is that you don’t have to honor your parents at all. And when you do this, you’re voiding the word of God with your traditions.

⁷ ‘You hypocrites! How well IsaiAh prophesied about you, when he said:

⁸ *Though they offer Me praise with their lips,
They’re far away from Me in their hearts!*

⁹ *So, it’s in vain that they come to bow before Me,
Since they’re teaching the ideas and instructions of men.’*

¹⁰ Then he called the crowds closer and said to them:

‘Listen and understand... ¹¹ it isn’t the things that go into a man’s mouth that dirty him, it’s the things that come out of his mouth that pollute him!’

¹² Well later, the disciples came up to him and said:

‘Don’t you know that the Pharisees were stumbled by what you said?’

¹³ But he replied:

‘Anything that my heavenly Father didn’t plant will be uprooted. ¹⁴ So, just let them go, for they are blind guides! And if a blind man leads a blind man, they will both fall into a pit.’

¹⁵ Then Peter said:

‘Well then; please explain the meaning of that parable to us.’

¹⁶ And [Jesus] asked:

‘Don’t you get the point? ¹⁷ Don’t you realize that whatever you put in your mouth just goes into your belly and then into the sewer? ¹⁸

However, the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart...

these are the things that dirty a man. ¹⁹ For, out of the heart comes wicked thinking, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, thievery, false testimonies, and blasphemy. ²⁰ These are the things that pollute a man!

But, eating with unwashed hands doesn’t make him dirty.’

²¹ Well, on leaving that place, Jesus traveled up into areas of Tyre and

Sidon. ²² And there, {Look!} a Phoenician woman who lived nearby came to him and started shouting:

‘Have mercy on me O Lord, son of David; for my daughter is badly demon possessed!’

²³ Now, [Jesus] didn’t pay any attention to her. But his disciples begged him to [do something], because she kept following them and shouting at them. ²⁴ So he said to them:

‘I wasn’t sent to [help] anyone other than just the lost sheep of the house of IsraEl.’

²⁵ But then, the woman came up to [Jesus]. She bowed low and said:

‘Lord, please help me!’

²⁶ And he said to her:

‘It isn’t right to take bread from the children and throw it to the puppies.’

²⁷ But she replied:

‘Yes Lord, but aren’t puppies allowed to eat the crumbs that fall from the tables of their masters?’

²⁸ Well at that, Jesus said to her:

‘O woman; you have a lot of faith... may it be as you wish.’

And her daughter was healed from that hour on.

²⁹ Then, going cross-country from that place, Jesus traveled along the Sea of GaliLee. And finally, he climbed a mountain and sat down... ³⁰ and large crowds started coming to him, bringing people who were lame, injured, blind, and those who were unable to speak (along with many others). They almost threw them at his feet, and he cured them all. ³¹ So the crowds were amazed when they saw the speechless talking, the lame walking, and the blind seeing... and they praised the God of IsraEl.

³² Well later, Jesus called his disciples to him and said:

‘I’m concerned about the crowds, because they’ve stayed with me for three days and they don’t have anything left to eat. I certainly don’t want to send them away hungry, because they might give out on the road!’

³³ However, the disciples asked:

‘Where could we get enough bread to satisfy this large a crowd in such a remote location?’

³⁴ So Jesus asked them:

‘How many loaves do you have?’

And they replied:

‘Seven, plus a few little fish.’

³⁵ So he told the crowd to recline on the ground. ³⁶ Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after offering thanks, he broke them up and gave them to the disciples, who [distributed them] among the crowd... ³⁷ and everyone ate until they were satisfied. And after they picked up the scraps, they found that they had seven provision baskets full, ³⁸ though there were some four thousand men, plus women and children, who ate! ³⁹ Well finally, after dismissing the crowd, he got into the boat and they traveled to the area of MagaDan.

Chapter 16

¹ This is where the Pharisees and SadDucees (actually, Sad/dou/kai/um) came to [Jesus] and tried to tempt him by asking for a sign from heaven.

² --- ³ --- But he said:

⁴ ‘A wicked and adulterous generation is always looking for signs. However, no sign will be given other than the sign of Jonah [the Prophet].’

Then he just walked away and left them.

⁵ Well, after Jesus and his disciples got to the other side [of the sea], they [realized that they] had forgotten to bring along any bread. ⁶ And when Jesus told them to keep their eyes open and watch out for the fermentation of the Pharisees and SadDucees, ⁷ the disciples started saying to each other:

‘Why [did he say this]? Is it because we didn’t bring any bread along?’

⁸ Well, because Jesus knew [what they were thinking], he said:

‘You with so little faith; Why are you talking about not having any bread? ⁹ Don’t you get the point... don’t you remember how many baskets you picked up after [we fed] five thousand [with just] five loaves; ¹⁰ or how many provision baskets you picked up after we fed four thousand with just seven loaves? ¹¹ Why don’t you understand that I’m not talking about bread... [I’m telling you to] watch out for the fermentation of the Pharisees and SadDucees!’

¹² Well with that, they [finally] realized that he wasn't telling them to watch out for fermentation in bread, but for the teachings of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ Thereafter, he traveled on to Caesarea Philippi, and there Jesus asked his disciples:

‘Who are people saying the Son of Man is?’

¹⁴ So they told him:

‘Some say you're John the Baptist, others EliJah, and still others are saying that you are JeremiAh or one of the Prophets.’

¹⁵ Then he asked them:

‘But, who do you say that I am?’

¹⁶ And Simon Peter answered:

‘You're the Anointed One; the Son of the Living God.’

¹⁷ So Jesus said to him:

‘You are blest, Simon son of Jonah, because this wasn't shown to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in the heavens.

¹⁸ ‘I also tell you this: As you are Rock (Peter), I will build my congregation on this bedrock so that the gates of the place of the dead won't overpower it. ¹⁹ I will also give you the keys to the Kingdom of the heavens, so that whatever you bind on earth will be bound in the heavens, and whatever you set free on the earth will be set free in the heavens.’

²⁰ Then he sternly warned the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Anointed One. ²¹ And that's when Jesus (the Anointed) started showing his disciples that he would have to go to JeruSalem and suffer many things at [the hands of] the elders, chief priests, and scribes... and though he would be killed, [he would thereafter be] raised on the third day.

²² But at that, Peter took him aside and started scolding him, saying: ‘Be kind to yourself Lord; this isn't going to happen to you!’

²³ However [Jesus] turned to Peter and said:

‘Get behind me opposer! You’re a trap to me, because you aren’t thinking God’s thoughts, but those of men.’

²⁴ Then Jesus said this to his disciples:

‘If anyone wants to follow me, he’ll have to deny his own needs, then pick up his impaling pole and walk behind me. ²⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

²⁶ ‘So, what good it would do for a man to gain the whole world, if he just loses his life... and what will a man give [to save] his life?’

²⁷ ‘Well, the Son of Man is about to come into the glory of his Father and of His messengers, and then he will repay each one for the things that he has done. ²⁸ Yet, I tell you the truth when I say that some of you who are standing here won’t taste death at all until you see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom.’

Chapter 17

¹ Well, it was just six days later that Jesus took Peter, James, and John (the brother of James) to a private spot on a high mountain, ² where he changed form in front of them... his face became as bright as the sun and his clothes became as white as light... ³ and {Look!} they saw Moses and EliJah speaking to [Jesus]. ⁴ So, Peter said to Jesus:

‘Lord, it’s good for us to be here... and if you want, I’ll put up three tents; one for you, one for Moses, and one for EliJah.’

⁵ But just as he said this, {Look!} a bright cloud covered them and {Look!} a voice came out of the cloud that said:

‘This is my beloved Son whom I have approved... listen to him!’

⁶ Well, when they heard that, the disciples were frightened and they fell to their faces. ⁷ But Jesus went over to them and touched them, and said: ‘Get up; don’t be afraid!’

⁸ Then when they looked up, they saw just Jesus all by himself.

⁹ Well, as they were walking down the mountain, Jesus gave them this warning; he said:

‘Don’t tell anyone what you saw here until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.’

¹⁰ Then, sometime later, the disciples asked him:

‘Why do the scribes say that EliJah must come first?’

¹¹ And Jesus told them:

‘EliJah does indeed come and he restores everything. ¹² However, I tell you that EliJah has already come and they didn’t recognize him, So, they did whatever they wanted to him... and this is the same way that the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands!’

¹³ Well, it was then that the disciples finally realized that he was talking to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴ And as they were approaching a crowd, a man came up to Jesus, then he kneeled down, and said:

¹⁵ ‘Lord, please show mercy on my son! He gets loony and he often falls into the fire or into the water. ¹⁶ Though I brought him to your disciples, they haven’t been able to cure him!’

¹⁷ It was then that Jesus said:

‘O faithless and twisted generation; how much longer must I be with you... how much longer will I have to put up with you? Bring him here to me!’

¹⁸ So Jesus thereafter scolded the demon and it came out, and the boy was cured from that hour on.

¹⁹ Then the disciples came to Jesus while he was alone and asked:

‘Why couldn’t we cast it out?’

²⁰ And he replied:

‘Because of your lack of faith! I tell you the truth; If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, Move from here to there, and it would go... nothing would be impossible for you!’

²¹ _____

²² Then, while they were all gathered in GaliLee, Jesus said to them:

‘The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men ²³ who will kill him... but he will be raised on the third day.’

And this made them all very sad.

²⁴ Well, after they arrived in Capharnaum, the men who collected the double-silver [tax] came up to Peter and asked:
‘Doesn’t your teacher pay the double-silver [tax]?’

²⁵ And he replied:
‘Yes he does.’

Then, after he went back into the house, Jesus was already ahead of him and he asked [Peter]:

‘What do you think, Simon; From whom do the kings of the earth get their duties and head taxes... from their sons, or from strangers?’

²⁶ And [Peter] answered:
‘From strangers.’

Then Jesus said:

‘So, the sons are really tax-free, aren’t they! ²⁷ But because we don’t want to stumble them; go over to the sea and cast out a hook, then take the first fish that you catch. And when you open its mouth, you’ll find a coin. Take [the coin] and give it to them for both you and me.’

Chapter 18

¹ It was less than an hour later that the disciples came up to Jesus and asked:

‘Which [of us] will be the greatest in the Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God)?’

² So [Jesus] called a little boy over and stood him in their midst, and said:

³ ‘I tell you the truth; Unless you change your ways and become like this little boy, you won’t get into the Kingdom of the heavens! ⁴ But, the one who humbles himself like this little boy will be the greatest in the Kingdom of the heavens. ⁵ And whoever welcomes someone like this little boy in my name, welcomes me. ⁶ But if anyone sets a snare before one of these little ones that believes in me; it would be better for him to have the type of millstone that's turned by a burro hung around his neck and then to be dropped into the open sea.

⁷ 'Woe to this system of things because of its snares! Of course, there will always be snares... but woe to the man who sets them!

⁸ 'So, if your hand or foot is a snare to you, cut it off and throw it away. For it's better to enter life maimed or lame than to be thrown into the age-long fire with two hands or two feet. ⁹ Also, if your eye is a snare to you, rip it out and throw it away. For it's better to enter life with one eye than to be thrown with two eyes into the fires of the garbage dump.

¹⁰ 'This is why you should never disregard any of these little ones! For I tell you: Their messengers in the heavens gaze upon the face of my Father in the heavens! ¹¹ ——

¹² 'What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays, won't he leave the ninety-nine --- and search for the one that has strayed? ¹³ Then, if he happens to find it, I tell you; he'll be happier over that one than over the ninety-nine that didn't stray!

¹⁴ 'So it is with my Father in the heavens... He doesn't want even one of these little ones to perish. ¹⁵ Therefore, if your brother should fail in some way, take him aside and discuss it between you and him alone; then if he listens to you, you'll have won over your brother. ¹⁶ But if he doesn't listen, you should bring along one or two others, so that whatever is said can be proven by the mouths of two or three witnesses. ¹⁷ However, if he refuses to listen even to them, you should speak to the congregation. And if he refuses to listen to even the congregation, let him become as a gentile or as a tax collector among you.

¹⁸ 'I tell you the truth; everything that you bind on the earth will be bound in the heavens, and everything that you set free on the earth will be set free in the heavens.

¹⁹ 'Again, I truthfully say; If two of you agree to anything on this earth that you must request, it will happen because of my Father in heaven. ²⁰ For, wherever two or three are gathered in my name, I will be there among them.'

²¹ Then Peter came up to him and asked:

‘Lord, how many times must I forgive my brother when he sins against me... up to seven times?’

²² But Jesus replied:

‘I tell you; not up to seven times, but up to seventy-seven times! ²³ To illustrate; The Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God) is like a man, a king, who wanted to settle some accounts with his slaves. ²⁴ So, he started by bringing in a man who owed him ten thousand large silver coins. ²⁵ And because he couldn’t repay it, the master ordered that he, his wife, his children, and everything that he owned was to be sold to make the payment.

²⁶ ‘However, the slave fell down with his face to the ground before [the master] and begged:

Be patient with me and I’ll pay back everything that I owe you!’

²⁷ ‘Well, [the king] was moved to pity at this, so he forgave him and freed him from his entire debt.

²⁸ ‘But shortly thereafter, the slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him just a hundred small coins, and he grabbed him and started choking him, saying:

Pay me back everything that you owe me!

²⁹ ‘Then his fellow slave fell down and started begging him, saying:

Be patient with me and I’ll pay you back.

³⁰ However, [the first slave] had the man locked up until he could pay everything that he was owed.

³¹ ‘Well, when all the other slaves saw this they became very upset, so they went and told their master what had happened. ³² Then the master summoned him and said this:

Wicked slave; I canceled all that debt for you because you begged me. ³³ So, why didn’t you see the need to show the same type of mercy for your fellow slave that I had shown to you?

³⁴ And the master became so furious that he had him taken off to jail until he could repay all that he owed.

‘This is how my heavenly Father will deal with you if you don’t forgive your brothers from your hearts.’

Chapter 19

¹ Well, after Jesus had finished saying these things, he left GaliLee and traveled to the Judean border across the Jordan River, ² and because huge crowds followed along, he cured them there. ³ However, the Pharisees came to test him, asking:

‘Is it legal for a man to divorce his woman on any grounds?’

⁴ And [Jesus] replied: ‘You’ve read that the One who created them long ago made them male and female ⁵ and said:

This is why a man will leave his father and mother and join to his woman making the two one flesh. ⁶ So, they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, no man should split apart what The God has yoked together!

⁷ And they said:

‘Then, why did Moses say that we could give them divorce certificates and dismiss them?’

⁸ And he replied:

‘Moses realized how hardhearted you are, so he allowed you to release your women... but that hasn’t always been the way! ⁹ I tell you that whoever divorces his woman except on the grounds of sexual immorality and marries another, is an adulterer! And whoever marries a released woman is an adulterer.’

¹⁰ Then [one of] his disciples said:

‘If this is true of a man and his woman, then it’s probably best not to marry at all!’

¹¹ And Jesus said:

‘Yes, but this is something that not every man can do... just those who have the gift. ¹² For there are eunuchs who were born that way, eunuchs who were made that way by men, and those who have made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of the heavens. So, let those who can make room for it, make room for it!’

¹³ Well, after that, [people] started bringing their young children to him so that he could lay his hands on them and offer a prayer, but the disciples started scolding them. ¹⁴ However, Jesus told them:

‘Leave the children alone and don’t stop them from coming to me, because the Kingdom of the Heavens is for people just like this!’

¹⁵ And after he laid his hands on them, he traveled on.

¹⁶ Then later, {Look!} someone came up to him and asked:

‘Teacher, what sort of good things must I do so as to receive age-long life?’

¹⁷ And [Jesus] replied:

‘Why are you asking me about doing what is good? There’s just One who is truly good... but if you want to enter into the life, just follow the Commandments!’

¹⁸ Then [the man] asked:

‘Which ones?’

And Jesus replied:

‘You must not murder, you must not commit adultery, you must not steal, you must not testify falsely, ¹⁹ you must honor [your] father and mother, and you must love your neighbor as yourself.’

²⁰ And the young man said to him:

‘Well, I’ve kept all these things... so, what else am I lacking?’

²¹ And Jesus said to him:

‘If you want to be perfect, go and sell all your belongings and give to the poor, then come follow me, and you’ll have treasures in the heavens.’

²² However, after the young man heard this, he left very sad, because he owned many things.

²³ So then Jesus said to his disciples:

‘I tell you the truth; It will be difficult for a rich man to get into the Kingdom of the heavens. ²⁴ Let me put it this way... it would be easier [to thread] a rope through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to get into the Kingdom of God.’

²⁵ Well, the disciples were very surprised at hearing this, and they asked: ‘Then, who can really be saved?’

²⁶ And looking them straight in their faces, Jesus said: ‘With men, this is an impossibility. However, all things are possible with God.’

²⁷ But then Peter said to him: ‘{Look} Since we’ve left everything to follow you, what will we really get?’

²⁸ And Jesus replied: ‘I tell you the truth; In the rebirth – when the Son of Man sits down on his glorious throne – you who have followed me will sit on twelve thrones and you’ll judge the twelve tribes of IsraEl.²⁹ Also, anyone who has left a house, or his brothers, sisters, father, mother, children, or land for the sake of my name will receive many times more, and he will inherit age-long life.³⁰ Yet, many who are the first will be the last, and the last will be the first.

Chapter 20

¹ ‘For, the Kingdom of the heavens is like a man, the master of his house, who went out very early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard. ² And when they agreed on a payment of one silver coin per day, he sent them out to work in his field.

³ ‘However, he thereafter went out again (about the third hour) and noticed others who were standing in the marketplace looking for work, ⁴ and he said:

You go into the vineyard also, and I’ll pay you whatever is fair.

⁵ So, off they went.

‘Then he went out again about the sixth and the ninth hours and he did the same thing. ⁶ And finally (about the eleventh hour), he went out and found more workers standing around, and he asked them:

Why have you been standing here all day long unemployed?

⁷ And they said:

Because nobody has hired us!

So, he said to them:

Then, you go into the vineyard too.

⁸ ‘Well, later that evening, the master of the vineyard told the man who was in charge to call in all the workers and pay them their wages... and he told him to pay the last ones first.

⁹ ‘So, [after] the eleventh hour, the men came in and he started paying each of them a silver coin. ¹⁰ However, when it came time [to pay] the first, these figured that they would be getting more... yet they were also paid a [single] silver coin. ¹¹ And as they were receiving it, they started complaining about the master, saying:

¹² Though these last ones just put in only one hour’s work, he paid them the same as those of us who worked all day long in the burning heat!

¹³ ‘But in reply to one of them, [the master] said:

Man, I haven’t done you any wrong! Didn’t we agree on one silver coin? ¹⁴ Take what is yours and go. I paid the last ones the same as you, because I wanted to! ¹⁵ And isn’t it legal for me to do whatever I wish with my own things... are you viewing me as wicked because I’ve done something good?

¹⁶ ‘So, understand this: The last will be the first and the first will be the last.’

¹⁷ Then, as they were starting down the road to JeruSalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples off privately and explained this to them... he said:

¹⁸ ‘{Look!} We’re heading up to JeruSalem, where the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death. ¹⁹ Then they’ll hand him over to the gentiles, who will make fun of him, whip him, and impale him... but on the third day he’ll be raised!’

²⁰ Well, sometime later, the mother of the sons of ZebediOu came up to him with her [two] sons, and she bowed low as if to request something. ²¹ So he asked her:

‘What is it that you want?’

And she said:

‘[Promise me] that my two sons will sit, one at your right hand and one on your left, in your Kingdom.’

²² But Jesus replied:

‘You don’t really know what you’re asking... can they drink from the same cup that I’ll be drinking?’

And [her sons] answered:

‘Yes, we can!’

²³ So he said to them:

‘You will indeed drink from my same cup! But, sitting on my right and left isn’t mine to give... it belongs to those for whom my Father has prepared it.’

²⁴ Well, when the ten other [disciples] heard what the brothers had done, they became very angry with them. ²⁵ However, Jesus called them all to him and said this:

‘You know how the rulers of the nations like to be masters over [the people] and keep them under their feet... ²⁶ but you shouldn’t be like that! Rather, whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant, ²⁷ and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave. ²⁸ For, this is how the Son of Man came... not to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.’

²⁹ Then, as they were leaving Jericho with a large crowd following them, ³⁰ {Look!} there were two blind men sitting alongside the road who heard that Jesus was passing by. So they shouted:

‘Lord... have mercy on us, Son of David!’

³¹ But though the crowd told them to be quiet, they shouted even louder: ‘Lord... have mercy on us, Son of David!’

³² So, Jesus stopped and called them over, and asked:

‘What do you want me to do for you?’

³³ And they replied:

‘Lord; We want you to open our eyes!’

³⁴ Then, moved with pity, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately they were able to see... and they started following him.

Chapter 21

¹ Well, when they got close to JeruSalem and arrived at BethPhage (on the Mount of Olives), Jesus sent two disciples ahead, ² telling them: ‘Go into the village that’s across from us, and you’ll immediately find a burro that’s tied next to its colt. Untie them and bring them here to me. ³ If anyone asks you about it, just tell him that the Lord needs them, and he’ll send them with you.’

⁴ Of course, the reason why this happened is so that the thing spoken through the Prophet might be fulfilled:

⁵ ‘Say this to the daughter of Zion:

Look! Your King is coming to you!

[He’s] gentle and comes riding the colt of a burro...

The foal of a creature that bears heavy loads.’

⁶ So the disciples went and did just as Jesus told them. ⁷ They brought the burro and its colt to him, then they put their robes [over its back] for him to sit on. ⁸ Also, many in the crowd spread their robes out on the road ahead of him, while others cut branches from trees and spread them out on the road. ⁹ So, part of the crowd walked ahead of him, while the rest followed behind him shouting:

‘[\[God\] save](#) the Son of David! Praise the one who comes in the Name of Jehovah... save, we pray, from the heights!’

¹⁰ Well, as he was entering JeruSalem, this caused quite a stir throughout the city, [for people were asking]:

‘Who is this?’

¹¹ And the crowd [that was with Jesus] replied:

‘This is Jesus, the Prophet from Nazareth of GaliLee!’

¹² Well from there, Jesus entered the Temple and drove out all those who were buying and selling. He also overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the benches of those who were selling doves, ¹³ saying to them:

‘It’s written: My house will be called a house of prayer... but, you’re turning it into a den of thieves!’

¹⁴ And after that, people who were blind and lame started coming to him in the Temple, and he cured them. ¹⁵ But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he was doing and they heard all the children shouting in the Temple, ‘[God] save the Son of David,’ they became very upset. ¹⁶ So they said to him: ‘Don’t you hear what they’re shouting?’

And Jesus replied:

‘Yes... haven’t you ever read this:

*From the mouths of infants and babies
You have ordered up praises.’*

¹⁷ And with that, he left them... he walked out of the city and went to BethAny, where he spent the night.

¹⁸ Well, it was while he was on the way back to the city early the next morning (and because he was hungry) ¹⁹ that he walked over to a fig tree that was growing alongside the road. However, when he found nothing on it but leaves, he said:

‘Let no fruit come from you anymore through the rest of the age.’
And the fig tree withered instantly.

²⁰ Then, when the disciples saw this, they wondered: ‘How can a fig tree wither instantly?’

²¹ And Jesus said:

‘I tell you the truth; If you have faith (and you must not doubt), not only will you be able to do what I did to this fig tree, but you could say to this mountain, Lift up and be thrown into the sea, and it will happen... ²² you will receive anything you ask for in prayer if you have faith.’

²³ Then, after he had entered the Temple and started teaching, the chief priests and the peoples’ elders came up to him and asked: ‘Who authorized you to do these things... who said that you could do this?’

²⁴ In reply, Jesus said:

‘Let me ask you something, and if you answer me, I’ll tell you who authorized me to do these things. ²⁵ What was the source of John’s baptizing... did it come from heaven or from men?’

So, they started reasoning among themselves and saying to each other:

‘If we say from heaven, he’ll ask us, Then why didn’t you believe him? ²⁶ But if we say from men, we’ll have to deal with the crowd, because they think John was a Prophet.’

²⁷ So they told Jesus: ‘We don’t know.’

And he told them:

‘Then, I’m not going to tell you where I got the authority to do the things that I’m doing.

²⁸ ‘What do you think? There was once a man who had two children. He went to the first one and said, Son, I want you to work in the vineyard today.

²⁹ This one answered, Yes sir... but he didn’t [do it].

³⁰ ‘Then [the man] went to the second son and said the same thing. And he replied, I don’t want to... but later, he felt sorry and he did go [to work in the vineyard].

³¹ ‘So, which of the two did what their father wanted?’

And they replied:

‘The second one.’

Then Jesus said to them:

‘I tell you the truth; tax collectors and whores will go ahead of you into the Kingdom of God, ³² because John came to you [preaching] the ways of righteousness, but you didn’t believe him. However, tax collectors and whores believed him... and though you saw this, you didn’t feel sorry later and put faith in what he was saying.

³³ ‘Listen to another parable:

There was a man – the master of his house – who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower [to protect it], and hired [people to] cultivate it before he traveled abroad. ³⁴ Then, when the [harvest] season arrived, he sent his servants to the farmers to collect the fruit.

³⁵ ‘However, the farmers took his slaves and beat the first one up, they threw stones at the second, and they killed the third one. ³⁶ So, he sent other slaves to them (more than the first)... but they did the same things to these.

³⁷ ‘Finally, he sent his son to them, saying:
They will respect my son.

³⁸ ‘But, when they saw the son, the farmers said:
This is the heir! Let’s kill him and get his inheritance!

³⁹ ‘So they grabbed him and threw him out of the vineyard, then they killed him.’

⁴⁰ ‘Now, when the owner of the vineyard returns, what do you think he’ll do to those farmers?’

⁴¹ And they replied:
‘Because they’re so bad, he’ll destroy them in a painful way, then he’ll hire others who will cultivate the vineyard and give him the fruit when it’s due.’

⁴² And Jesus said to them:
‘Haven’t you ever read in the Scriptures,
The stone that the builders rejected
Has become the head cornerstone...
And this is a wonderful thing in our eyes?

⁴³ ‘This is why I tell you; The Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation that produces its fruit. ⁴⁴ For the person who falls on this stone will be shattered, and anyone it falls on will be smashed!’

⁴⁵ Well, after the chief priests and the Pharisees heard these parables, they realized that he was talking about them. ⁴⁶ Yet, though they were looking to grab him, they didn’t because they were afraid of the crowds, since [the people] viewed him as a Prophet.

Chapter 22

¹ Then Jesus gave them another parable. He said:

² ‘The Kingdom of the heavens (or, of God) is like a man... a king, who arranged a wedding banquet for his son. ³ And thereafter, he sent his slaves out to call all those whom he wished to invite. However, none of the people wanted to come.

⁴ ‘So then, he sent other slaves, giving them these instructions:

Tell those whom I've invited that {Look!} the banquet is ready... bulls and fattened animals have been slaughtered, and everything is prepared, so you should come to the meal!

⁵ ‘However, none of them paid any attention. One went out to his field, another to his business, ⁶ and the rest grabbed his slaves, abused them, and then killed them.

⁷ ‘Of course, this sent the king into a rage! So, he sent his army to destroy those murderers and to burn their city.

⁸ ‘And after he did that, he told his slaves:

The marriage feast is indeed ready, but those whom I invited were unworthy. ⁹ So, go to the roads that lead out of the city and invite everyone you find to my wedding banquet!

¹⁰ ‘Therefore, the slaves went out to the roads and they gathered everyone they could find (both the wicked and the good), and the banquet hall was soon filled with people reclining at the tables.

¹¹ ‘But then, when the king came in to inspect the guests, he noticed a man who wasn't properly dressed for a wedding celebration. ¹² So he asked him:

How did you get in here [dressed like that]?

‘Well, the man was speechless.

¹³ ‘Then the king said to his servants:

Tie him hand and foot and throw him into the darkness outside, where he can cry and grind his teeth. ¹⁴ For, many are called, but few are chosen.’

¹⁵ Well, after he said that, the Pharisees all went off and held a meeting [to discuss ways to] catch [Jesus] in something that he might say. ¹⁶ So, they sent some of their disciples along with some of the followers of Herod to ask him this:

‘Teacher, we know that you tell the truth and what you teach about the way of God is right. We also know that you aren’t overly impressed by anyone, because you don’t look at what a person seems to be on the outside. ¹⁷ So, tell us what you think: Is it right for us to pay Caesar’s head tax, or not?’

¹⁸ But Jesus (knowing their wickedness) said to them:

‘Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show me the coin that you use to pay the head tax.’

So, they brought him a silver coin, ²⁰ and he asked them:

‘Whose image and inscription is on this?’

²¹ And they replied:

‘Caesar’s.’

Then he said to them:

‘Give Caesar’s things to Caesar, but God’s things to God.’

²² Well, when they heard that, they were bewildered. So they left him and went away.

²³ Then on that same day, the SadDucees (actually, Sah/doo/kai/um) (who don’t believe in a resurrection) approached [Jesus] and asked him this:

²⁴ ‘Teacher; Moses said that if a man dies without having children, his brother must take his woman and sire [children] for his brother.

²⁵ ‘So now, let’s say there were seven brothers. The first one married and died without having [children], leaving his woman to his brother. ²⁶ Then the same thing happened to the second and to the third, until [she had gone] through all seven. ²⁷ Finally, the woman died. ²⁸ So, to which of the seven will she be married in the resurrection, since they all had her?’

²⁹ And Jesus replied:

‘This is why you’re headed in the wrong direction... for you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰ In the resurrection, they won't marry or be given in marriage, for they'll be like the angels in the heavens.

³¹ 'Also, haven't you read what God told you about the resurrection of the dead [when he said]:

³² I am the God of AbraHam, the God of IsaAc, and the God of Jacob? He isn't the God of the dead, but of the living!'

³³ Well, when the crowds heard that, they were amazed by his [way of] teaching.

³⁴ Then, after the Pharisees heard how he had muzzled the SadDucees, they all came to him as a group. ³⁵ And one of them who was well-versed in the Law asked (to test him):

³⁶ 'Teacher, which is the greatest Commandment of the Law?'

³⁷ And Jesus replied:

'You must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart, soul, and mind.

³⁸ This is the first and the greatest Commandment.

³⁹ 'The second, which is like it, is this:

You must love your neighbor as yourself.

⁴⁰ These two commandments are the basis of the whole Law and all the [words of the] Prophets.'

⁴¹ Then, as all the Pharisees were still there in front of him, Jesus asked them:

⁴² 'What do you believe about the Anointed One... whose son is he to be?'

And they replied:

'David's.'

⁴³ So he said:

'Then, why did David (through the Breath [of God]) call him his Lord, when he said:

⁴⁴ Jehovah said this to my lord: Sit here at my right hand, Til I set your enemies as a stool for your feet?

⁴⁵ 'So, if David called him Lord; how could he be his son?'

⁴⁶ Well, nobody was able to say even a word in reply, nor did anyone dare to ask him any more questions from that day on.

Chapter 23

¹ Then Jesus spoke to the crowd and to his disciples, and said this:

⁸ ‘But not you! Don’t [have people] call you rabbi, for you have but one teacher, while you are all just brothers. ⁹ Nor should you address anyone on this earth as Father, because there’s just One who’s your Father, the Heavenly One. ¹⁰ Don’t even be called leaders, because you have but one Leader, the Anointed One. ¹¹ Rather, the greatest among you must be your servant. ¹² For, those who promote themselves will be humbled, while those who humble themselves will be promoted.

¹⁵ ‘So, woe to you scribes and Pharisees – you hypocrites – because you travel land and sea to make a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of the garbage dump as yourselves!

¹⁶ ‘And woe to you blind guides who say:

If someone swears an oath by the Temple, it doesn’t mean anything. But if he swears by the gold in the Temple, the oath is binding.

¹⁷ ‘Morons and blind men! Which is really greater... the gold, or the Temple that makes the gold holy?

¹⁸ ‘You also say:

If someone swears an oath by the Altar, it doesn't mean anything. But if anyone swears by the gift on [the Altar], the oath is binding.

¹⁹ ‘Blind men! Which is really greater... the gift, or the Altar that makes the gift holy? ²⁰ Those who swear an oath by the Altar are not only swearing by it, but also by everything that's on it. ²¹ Also, those who swear an oath by the Temple are swearing by the One who dwells there, ²² and those who swear an oath by heaven are swearing by the throne of God and by the One who is sitting upon it!

²³ ‘Yes, woe to you scribes and Pharisees – hypocrites – for though you contribute even a tenth of your mint, dill, and cumin; you ignore the deeper things of the Law, like justice, mercy, and faith! Yes, you should do those things also... in addition to the rest. ²⁴ [However, you are just] blind guides who strain out weevils as you gulp down camels!

²⁵ ‘Woe to you scribes and Pharisees – hypocrites – because you wash the outsides of cups and dishes that are still filled with theft and excesses on the insides. ²⁶ Blind Pharisees; first clean the insides of the cups and dishes, so that the outsides can also be clean!

²⁹ ‘Woe to you scribes and Pharisees – hypocrites – because you build tombs to dead Prophets... yes, you decorate the tombs of the righteous and say:

³⁰ If we had lived back in the days of our forefathers, we wouldn't have shared in [spilling] the blood of the Prophets.

³¹ But, when you say this, you're testifying against yourselves that you are the sons of those who murdered the Prophets... ³² and now [it's time] for you to fully measure up to [the badness of] your ancestors!

³³ ‘Yes, you snakes and children of vipers; How can you escape the judgment of the garbage dump?

³⁴ ‘Look! I will be sending you Prophets, wise men, and writers, whom you’ll kill... you’ll hang some on poles, and you’ll whip others in your synagogues and chase them down in one city after another. ³⁵ And that’s when you’ll become responsible for all the righteous blood that has been spilled on the earth from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of ZechariAh (the son of BarachiAh), whom you murdered between the Holy Place and the Altar. ³⁶ Yes, I’m telling the truth when I say that all of this [guilt] will be laid upon this generation!

³⁹ ‘I tell you the truth; You won’t see me again until you say, Praise the one who comes in the Name of Jehovah!

Chapter 24

¹ Well, after Jesus had left the Temple, his disciples came up to him and they happened to be pointing admiringly toward its buildings at the time.

² So he said to them:

‘Do you see all these things? I tell you the truth; there won’t be a stone left on top of a stone here that won’t be thrown down.’

³ Then, as he was sitting in a quiet spot on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came up to him and asked:

‘Tell us when these things will happen... what will be the signs?’

⁴ And Jesus replied:

‘Watch out so that no one misleads you; ⁵ for, many will come in my name, saying, I am the Anointed, and they will mislead many. ⁶ You’ll also hear of wars and reports of wars, but don’t let that frighten you, for these things must happen too... but that isn’t the end. ⁷ Yes, nations will be rising against nations and kingdoms against kingdoms, and there’ll be famines and great shakings in many places... ⁸ yet, these will just be the beginnings of the birth pangs.

⁹ ‘Then people will hand you over to be persecuted and killed... you’ll be hated by all the nations on account of my name. ¹⁰ And because many will be stumbled, they will dislike like each other and they’ll even betray each other!

¹¹ ‘There will also be false prophets who will arise and mislead many; ¹² and because of the increasing of lawlessness, the love of the majority will grow cold. ¹³ However, those endure to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ For, this good news of the Kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole habitation of mankind as a testimony to all the nations before the end arrives.

¹⁹ ‘Also, woe to those who are pregnant and those who are nursing babies in those days... ²⁰ they should keep praying that their time to run doesn’t arrive in the winter or on a Sabbath! ²¹ For, a difficult time will then arrive that will be unlike anything that has happened since the beginning of this arrangement until now, nor should ever happen again! ²² And if those days weren’t going to be shortened, no flesh could be saved... but, for the sake of the elected, those days will be shortened.

²³ ‘Then if anyone should say: Look! Here (or there) is the Anointed One, don’t believe it! ²⁴ Because, false anointed and false prophets will arise and they’ll perform such great omens and signs that they could possibly mislead even the elected!

²⁵ ‘Now, I’ve warned you! ²⁶ So, if people should say, Look! he’s in the desert... don’t go there; or, Look. he’s in that barn... don’t believe it. ²⁷ For, as lightning flashes across the skies from the east to the west; that’s how you’ll know the Son of Man is nearby... ²⁸ as when vultures gather at a carcass.

²⁹ ‘Then, immediately after that difficult time;

The sun will grow dark,

The moon won't give out its light,

The stars will fall from the skies,

And the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

³⁰ ‘Thereafter, the Son of Man’s sign will appear in the skies, and all the tribes of the earth will beat themselves in grief as they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds in the sky with great power and glory. ³¹ For He’ll send his messengers [blowing] loud trumpets, who will then collect his elected from the four winds... from one end of the sky to the other.

³² ‘Now, learn this from the story of the fig tree:

When its young branches grow tender

And it starts putting out leaves,

You know that summer is near.

³³ ‘So, when you see these [things start to happen], know that it’s near... at the doors!

³⁴ ‘I tell you the truth; This generation will not pass away until these things have all been fulfilled. ³⁵ Though the skies and the lands may all pass away, my words will not pass away!

³⁶ ‘Yet, no one knows that day or hour, not the angels in the heavens or the Son... just the Father. ³⁷ For, as it was in the days of Noah is how it will be at the arrival of the Son of Man.

³⁸ ‘Back in the days that led up to the downpour, the people were all eating and drinking, getting married and being taken in marriage, right up to the very day that Noah entered the Chest. ³⁹ Yes, they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away! And that’s how it will be when the Son of Man arrives.

⁴⁰ ‘Then, where there are two men in a field; one will be taken along while the other is abandoned. ⁴¹ Also, where two --- will be grinding [grain] at a mill; one will be taken along, while the other is abandoned.

⁴² ‘So, [you should all] stay awake, since you don’t know the day that your Lord will arrive.

⁴³ ‘I want you to recognize this: If the master of the house had known in which watch the thief would be coming, he would have stayed awake and not allowed his house to be [broken into]. ⁴⁴ So, always prove yourselves ready; for the Son of Man will arrive at a time that he isn’t expected.

⁴⁵ ‘Who is the faithful and sensible slave that the master has put in charge of his household to provide them their food at the right times? ⁴⁶ That slave will be blest if he’s found doing so when his master arrives... ⁴⁷ I tell you the truth; he’ll put him in charge of everything that he owns!

⁴⁸ ‘However, if that bad slave should ever say in his heart, My master is late in arriving, ⁴⁹ and then he starts beating his fellow slaves and eating and drinking with the drunks; ⁵⁰ that slave’s master will arrive on a day and hour that he’s not expected, ⁵¹ and he’ll cut him down and assign him among hypocrites, where he’ll weep and grind his teeth.’

Chapter 25

¹ ‘For the Kingdom of the heavens is like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the groom and his bride. ² Five of them were wise, but [the other] five just didn’t care. ³ For, though they brought their lamps, they didn’t bring any oil, ⁴ while the wise brought jars of oil for their lamps.

⁵ ‘Well, as the bridegroom was taking his time, they all nodded off and went to sleep. ⁶ But in the middle of the night, someone shouted: Look, it’s the groom and his bride... let’s go and meet them!

⁹ ‘But the wise replied: There probably isn’t enough for us all, so you’d best go to the store to buy your own.

¹⁰ ‘Well, the bride and groom happened to arrive just as these ones were leaving. So, those who were ready entered the wedding banquet along with him... and then the door was closed.

¹¹ ‘Well, later on, the other virgins finally showed up and they shouted:
Lord! Lord! Open to us!

¹² ‘But he said to them:
I tell you the truth; I don't know you.

¹³ ‘So, this is why you must stay awake... for you don't know the day or the hour!

¹⁶ ‘Well, the one who got the five went right out and put [his five coins] to work, gaining five more coins.

¹⁷ ‘The same was true of the slave who'd received two; he gained two more.

¹⁸ ‘But [the slave] who received just one went and dug a hole in the ground, where he buried his master's silver.

¹⁹ ‘Then, after some time, the master of those slaves [finally] returned and he called them in for an accounting.

²⁰ ‘So, the one who'd received the five coins came forward carrying the five more and said:

Lord, you gave me five coins, and look... I've gained you five more!

²¹ ‘And his master said:

Well done, good and faithful slave! Since you've been faithful in a few things, I'll appoint you over many... enjoy the favor of your Lord!

²² ‘Next, the one who received the two coins came forward and said to his master:

Lord, you gave me two coins, and look... I've gained you two more!

²³ ‘So his master said to him:

You’ve done well, my good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things, so I’ll appoint you over many... share in the joy of your Lord!

²⁴ ‘Finally, the [slave] who was given the one coin came up to his master and said:

Lord, I know that you’re a hard man who reaps where he doesn’t sow and harvests where he doesn’t plant. ²⁵ So, because I was afraid, I hid your coin in the ground. Now see; I give you what is yours!

²⁶ ‘In reply, his master then said to him:

O you wicked and lazy slave; So, you know that I reap where I don’t sow and I harvest where I don’t plant, do you? ²⁷ Then you should have deposited my silver with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received what is mine with interest!

²⁸ ‘So now; take the coin away from him and give it to the one who has ten coins. ²⁹ Because, more will be given to those who have... and they will have plenty. But all will be taken from those who don’t have.

³⁰ ‘Now, throw this useless slave into the darkness outside, where he will weep and grind his teeth!

³¹ ‘Likewise, this is what’s going to happen when the Son of Man arrives in his glory along with all of the messengers... he’s going to sit down on his glorious throne, ³² and all nations will be led before him. Then he’ll separate the people as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³ He’ll put the sheep on his right, but the goats on his left.

³⁴ ‘And at that, the king will say to those on his right:

Come, you who’ve been praised by my Father; inherit the Kingdom that has been prepared for you since the founding of the arrangement. ³⁵ For, when I was hungry, you fed me; when I was thirsty, you gave me something to drink; when I was a stranger, you took me in; ³⁶ when I was naked, you clothed me; when I was sick, you looked after me; and when I was in prison, you came to me.

³⁷ ‘Then the righteous will ask:

Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and take you in, or naked and clothe you? ³⁹ Yes, when did we see you sick or in prison and come to your [aid]?

⁴⁰ ‘And the king will say:

I tell you the truth; when you did it for the least of my brothers, you also did it for me.’

⁴¹ ‘Then he will say to those on his left:

Leave me, you who’ve been cursed into the age-long fire that was prepared for the Opposer and his messengers. ⁴² For, when I was hungry, you didn’t feed me; when I was thirsty, you gave me nothing to drink; ⁴³ when I was a stranger, you didn’t take me in; when I was naked, you didn’t clothe me; and when I was sick and in prison, you didn’t come to my aid.

⁴⁴ ‘Then they will also ask:

Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and not serve your needs?

⁴⁵ ‘And he will answer:

I tell you the truth; when you didn’t do it for one of these least ones, you didn’t do it for me.

⁴⁶ ‘Then, these will go off into age-long punishment, but the righteous into age-long life.’

Chapter 26

¹ Well, after Jesus had finished saying all these things, he told his disciples:

² ‘You know that the Passover will be here in just two days, and the Son of Man is going to be betrayed and hung on a pole.’

³ Meanwhile, the chief priests and the peoples’ elders had all gathered in the courtyard of the High Priest (who was called CaiAphas) ⁴ to discuss sneaky ways to grab Jesus and kill him. ⁵ However, they decided not [to do it] at the festival, because that would have created a commotion among the people.

⁶ Then, it was while Jesus was in BethAny at the house of Simon the leper ⁷ that a woman arrived carrying an expensive alabaster case of perfumed oil... she came to him as he lying down and started pouring it over his head. ⁸ And when the disciples saw what she was doing, they were bothered by this and they asked her:

‘Why are you wasting this? ⁹ We could have sold this for a lot [of money] and given it to the poor!’

¹⁰ But Jesus asked:

‘Why are you bothering this woman? She just did a nice thing for me! ¹¹ You’ll always have the poor, but you won’t always have me. ¹² When this woman poured the oil on my body, she did it to prepare me for my burial. ¹³ And I tell you the truth; wherever this good news is preached throughout the entire world, what this woman did for me will be told in memory of her.’

¹⁴ Well after that, one of the twelve (the one called Judas IsCariot) went to the chief priests ¹⁵ and asked them:

‘What will you give me if I betray [Jesus] to you?’

And they told him that they would pay him thirty silver coins ([about a month’s wage]). ¹⁶ So from that point on, [Judas] started looking for a good opportunity to betray [Jesus].

¹⁷ Now, since it was [just before] the first day of [Passover], Jesus’ disciples came up to him and asked:

‘Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?’

¹⁸ And he told them:

‘Go into the city to (a certain person), and tell him that the Teacher says, My appointed time is near, so I will celebrate the Passover with my disciples in your home.’

¹⁹ Therefore, the disciples went and did just as Jesus told them and they got everything ready for the Passover.

²⁰ Then, later that evening, while [Jesus] was reclining at the table ²¹ eating with the twelve disciples, he said to them:

‘I tell you the truth; one of you will betray me.’

²² Well, they were all deeply saddened by this, and they each asked him: ‘Lord, it isn’t me, is it?’

²³ Then he said:

‘One who has dipped his hand into this bowl with me will betray me.

²⁴ ‘It’s a fact that the Son of Man must leave... just as it was written about him. But, woe to the one through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for him had he never been born!’

²⁵ Then Judas (the one who was about to betray him) asked:

‘That isn’t what I am, is it Rabbi?’

And [Jesus] replied:

‘You said it yourself.’

²⁶ Well thereafter, as they were eating, Jesus took a loaf, and after giving thanks, he broke it and distributed it among the disciples and said:

‘Take some of this and eat it, because this is my body.’

²⁷ He also took a cup [of wine], and after giving thanks, he passed it among them and said:

‘All of you should drink from this; ²⁸ for indeed, this is my blood of the Sacred Agreement with the many, which is being poured out for the forgiveness of their sins.

²⁹ ‘However, I’m telling you now that I definitely won’t be drinking the product of the vine anymore until the day that I drink it with you as it has never been drunk before, in the Kingdom of my Father.’

³⁰ And finally, after singing songs of praise, they walked out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹ [It was there that] Jesus said to them:

‘All of you will be stumbled [by what will happen to] me tonight, because it’s written:

When the shepherd is struck, the sheep will be scattered.

³² But, after I wake up, I'll go ahead of you into GaliLee.'

³³ However, Peter said to him:

'Though the others may be trapped, I'll never stumble!'

³⁴ But Jesus said:

'I tell you the truth; before a rooster crows tonight, you'll have denied knowing me three times.'

³⁵ Yet, Peter just kept on talking. He said:

'Even if I have to die with you, I'll never deny knowing you!'

And all the other disciples were saying the same thing.

³⁶ Then Jesus took his disciples to the spot called GethSemane (the Oil Press), and he said to them:

'Now, sit here while I go over there to pray.'

³⁷ Well, he took Peter and the two sons of ZebediOu with him... and then he became very sad and deeply disturbed, ³⁸ and he said to them:

'My soul has been saddened to the point of death; so, please wait here and stay awake with me.'

³⁹ Then, going a little way forward, he fell to his face and started praying, saying:

'My Father; if it's possible, let this cup pass from me. However, not my will, but Yours.'

⁴⁰ Yet, when he returned to the disciples, he found them sleeping. So, he asked Peter:

'Aren't you strong enough to stay awake with me for just one hour? ⁴¹ You should stay awake and pray that you won't be put to the test! But indeed... though the spirit is willing, the flesh is weak.'

⁴² So, he went off and prayed a second time, saying:

'My Father; if this can't pass and I have to drink it, may Your Will be done.'

⁴³ And when he got back, he found them sleeping again, because their eyes were heavy.

⁴⁴ So then, he left them and went to pray a third time, and he said the same things once more. ⁴⁵ And when he got back to his disciples, he said to them:

‘Here you are resting and sleeping... and look! The time has arrived when the Son of Man will be handed over to sinners. ⁴⁶ Get up... let’s go! Look! Here comes my betrayer!’

⁴⁷ And while he was still speaking, {Look!} Judas (one of the twelve) arrived with a large mob of Priests and elders, each of whom was carrying a sword or a club!

⁴⁸ Now, the betrayer had given them a sign to watch for. He said: ‘Whomever I kiss is the one... grab him!’

⁴⁹ And going straight up to Jesus, [Judas] greeted him with the words, ‘Rejoice, Rabbi!’ as he tenderly kissed him.

⁵⁰ But Jesus said to him:

‘Man, just why are you here?’

Then [some of the mob] came up and grabbed Jesus, and they tied him up. ⁵¹ However, {Look!} one of those that was with Jesus reached down and unsheathed his sword, and he struck the Chief Priest’s slave, taking off his ear.

⁵² But then Jesus said to him:

‘Put your sword away; for all who take up the sword will perish by the sword!

⁵³ ‘Don’t you realize that I can ask my Father to immediately send more than twelve battalions of angels? ⁵⁴ But if [I did] that, how would the scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?’

⁵⁵ Then Jesus spoke to the mob and said:

‘Have you come with swords and clubs to arrest me like some robber? I used to sit and teach in the Temple every day, and you didn’t choose to grab me then! ⁵⁶ However, all of this has happened so that the writings of the Prophets can be fulfilled.’

Well at that, all the disciples then just ran away and left him.⁵⁷ So, those who had arrested Jesus carried him off to [the house of] CaiAphas the High Priest, where the scribes and the elders had already assembled.

⁵⁸ Meanwhile, Peter followed the group (some distance behind) all the way to the courtyard of the High Priest. Then he went inside and sat among the building supervisory staff, to see what would happen.

⁵⁹ At the time, the chief priests and those of the Judean High Court had been trying to find [someone who would] lie about Jesus, so they could condemn him [to death].⁶⁰ However, of all those who came forward, none were willing to perjure themselves.

Yet, later on, two did come forward who said:

⁶¹ ‘This man told us that he could tear down the Most Holy Place of The God and rebuild it in just three days.’

⁶² And after they heard that, the High Priest stood up and asked Jesus: ‘Don’t you have a reply? What are these people are accusing you of?’

⁶³ However, Jesus just remained silent.

So the High Priest said to him:

‘By the living God; I put you under oath to tell us whether you’re the Anointed One... the Son of The God!’

⁶⁴ And Jesus replied:

‘You’re saying it yourself!

Now, let me tell you something; from this point on, you will see the Son of Man sitting at [His] powerful right hand and coming on the clouds in the sky!’

⁶⁵ Well at that, the High Priest ripped his clothes and he shouted:

‘He has blasphemed! Why do we need any more witnesses? See... now you’ve actually heard the blasphemy!’⁶⁶ Therefore, what is your opinion?’

And everyone shouted:

‘Hold him for death!’

⁶⁷ Then after that, some of them started spitting in his face and hitting him with their fists, as others were slapping him ⁶⁸ and saying:
‘Prophecy to us, O Anointed One... which of us hit you?’

⁶⁹ Meanwhile, as Peter was still sitting outside in the courtyard, a servant girl came up to him and said:

‘You were also with this Jesus the Galilean!’

⁷⁰ However, he denied it in front of everyone, and said:

‘I don’t know what she’s talking about!’

⁷¹ Then, as he [was walking out toward] the gatehouse, another girl noticed him and said to everyone there:

‘This man was with Jesus the Nazarene!’

⁷² And once again he denied it with an oath, saying:

‘I never knew the man!’

⁷³ But then, all those who were standing around came up and said to him:

‘Sure, you’re one of them! Why, your accent gives you away!’

⁷⁴ So Peter started cursing at them and swore:

‘I don’t know the man!’

And immediately, a rooster crowed.

⁷⁵ It was then that Peter remembered Jesus’ words:

‘Before a rooster crows you will have denied that you know me three times.’

So, he went outside and cried bitterly.

Chapter 27

¹ Then the next morning, all the chief priests and peoples’ elders held a meeting to discuss ways to have Jesus put to death. ² So they bound him and took him to be handed over to Governor Pilate.

³ It was then that Judas (who had betrayed [Jesus]) realized that he was condemned. So, feeling deeply regretful about what he had done, he tried to return [the thirty silver \[coins\]](#) to the chief priests and elders, ⁴ saying:

‘I sinned when I betrayed righteous blood.’

But they replied:

‘What is that to us? It’s your problem!’

⁵ So at that, he threw the silver into the Temple and left... and then he went out and hung himself.

⁶ Well, the chief priest then [picked up] the silver coins and said: ‘It isn’t legal for us to put these [coins] in the sacred treasury, because they’re the price of blood.’

⁷ So, after discussing it further, they decided to use them to purchase the potter’s field as a place to bury foreigners. ⁸ And to this day, that field has been called, ‘The Field of Blood.’

⁹ It was then that the words of the Prophet were fulfilled that he would take the thirty pieces of silver (which was the price that was put on a man, as was set by the sons of IsraEl) ¹⁰ and use them to pay for the field of the potters, as Jehovah had said.

¹¹ Next, they brought Jesus and stood him before the governor, who asked him:

‘Are you the king of the Jews?’

And Jesus replied:

‘You’re saying it yourself.’

¹² However, when the chief priests and elders had been accusing him, he didn’t say anything.

¹³ Then Pilate asked:

¹⁴ But [Jesus] wouldn’t answer him – he didn’t say a word – and that really got the governor to wondering.

¹⁵ Now, it was the governor’s custom to release whichever prisoner the crowd wanted during these festivals. ¹⁶ And at that time, they were holding a particularly notorious criminal called BarAbbas. ¹⁷ So when the people gathered before him, Pilate asked:

‘Which do you want me to release to you, BarAbbas or Jesus... the so-called Anointed One?’

¹⁸ Well, [Pilate] knew that the only reason they had bound [Jesus] over, was because they were jealous of him. ¹⁹ Also, while he was sitting on his judgment seat, [Pilate's] wife had sent [a message] to him, saying: 'Don't have anything to do with that righteous man, because I suffered a lot in a dream today over to him.'

²⁰ However, the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd to ask for BarAbbas, and to demand to have Jesus destroyed. ²¹ So when the governor asked which of the two they wanted released, everyone shouted:

'BarAbbas!'

²² And when Pilate asked:

'Then, what should I do with this Jesus, the so-called Anointed One?'

They all shouted:

'Hang him up on a pole!'

²³ But he asked:

'Why? What crime has he committed?'

And they all kept shouting louder and louder:

'Hang him up on a pole!'

²⁴ Well, when he saw that he wasn't doing any good and he was just inciting a riot, Pilate got some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd, saying:

'I'm innocent of this man's blood... you take the responsibility for this on yourselves!'

²⁵ And all the people said:

'May we and our children be responsible for his blood!'

²⁶ So he then released BarAbbas to them, and he had Jesus whipped and bound over for impaling.

²⁷ Thereafter, the governor's soldiers took Jesus inside the palace and they brought in the whole Battalion. ²⁸ There they removed [Jesus'] clothes, wrapped a scarlet cape around him, ²⁹ braided a crown of thorns and slipped it over his head, and they put a piece of cane in his right hand. Then, kneeling down, they made fun of him by shouting the greeting:

‘Rejoice, O you King of the Jews!’

³⁰ Then they spit on him and they took the cane and started hitting him on the head with it.

³¹ Finally, after they had tired of their fun, they took off the cape, put his clothes back on, and took him out to be impaled.

³² Well, as they were leading him out, they found a man from Cyrene [Libya] whose name was Simon, and they made him carry the pole. ³³ Then, when they got to the place called GolGotha (Skull Place), ³⁴ they offered [Jesus] some wine mixed with gall to drink. But after he tasted it, he wouldn’t drink it.

³⁵ It was after [they had nailed] him on the pole that [the soldiers] then divided his clothes by throwing lots. ³⁶ And thereafter, they all just sat around and watched him.

³⁷ They also put a sign over his head that showed the charge against him: ‘This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.’

³⁸ Two robbers were also hung on poles beside him... one on his right and the other on his left.

³⁹ Then those who were passing by started shouting terrible things at [Jesus], shaking their heads ⁴⁰ and saying:

‘O you who would tear down the Most Holy and rebuild it in three days; save yourself... if you’re a son of The God, come down off the pole!’

⁴¹ That’s the way the chief priests, scribes, and elders also made fun of him. They were saying:

⁴² ‘He saved others, but he can’t save himself! If he’s the King of IsraEl, let him come down from the pole and we’ll believe him. ⁴³ He has put his trust in God, so let [God] rescue him if He wants him. After all, he says, I’m God’s Son.’

⁴⁴ In fact, even the robbers who were hung on poles with him started saying cruel things to him.

⁴⁵ Then from the sixth to the ninth hours, darkness fell over the whole land. ⁴⁶ And at about the ninth hour, Jesus called out in a loud voice:

‘Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?’

That is:

‘My God, my God; why have you abandoned me?’

⁴⁷ Well, when some of those who were standing around heard this, they thought he was calling for EliJah. ⁴⁸ And immediately, one of them ran and took a sponge, soaked it in vinegar, then lifted it on a reed to give him something to drink. ⁴⁹ But the rest of them said:

‘Leave him alone! Let’s see if EliJah comes to save him!’

Finally, a man took a spear and jabbed it into his side, and blood mixed with water poured out. ⁵⁰ Then Jesus cried out loudly and gave up his breath.

⁵¹ And at that, {Look!} the Temple’s [inner] curtain ripped in two from the top to the bottom, as the ground shook and rocks split. 52 ----- 53 -----

⁵⁴ But the army officer and those with him who were watching over Jesus (after they saw the earthquake and the other things that had happened) were really frightened and said:

‘This truly was God’s Son!’

⁵⁵ Well, during this entire time, many women were standing around and watching from a distance. These women had traveled with Jesus from GaliLee in order to serve him. ⁵⁶ These included Mary from Magdala, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of ZebediOu.

⁵⁷ Then, later that afternoon, a rich man from HariMathea named JoSeph (who was also a disciple of Jesus) ⁵⁸ went to Pilate and asked for his body. So, Pilate commanded that it should be given to him.

⁶¹ Meanwhile, Mary from Magdala and the other Mary just sat there across from the tomb.

⁶² Then the next day (after the Preparation), the chief priests and Pharisees gathered and they went before Pilate to say:

⁶³ ‘Lord; We remembered that while he was alive, that impostor said, In three days I will be raised. ⁶⁴ Therefore, order the grave to be made secure until the third day, so his disciples don’t go there and steal him, then tell the people that he was raised from the dead. For, that would make this last deceit even worse than the first!’

⁶⁵ But Pilate replied:

‘You have watchmen; Go make it as secure as you know how.’

⁶⁶ So they went and made the grave secure by sealing the stone and posting guards.

Chapter 28

¹ It was after the Sabbath, in the early morning light of the first day of the week, that Mary of Magdala and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ² But {Look!} something tumultuous had occurred... Jehovah’s messenger had come down from heaven and rolled away the stone, and there he was sitting on top of it. ³ He looked like lightning and his clothes were as white as snow... ⁴ which made the watchmen shake in fear and become as dead men.

⁵ Then the messenger said to the women:

‘Don’t be afraid, for I know that you’re looking for Jesus who was impaled. ⁶ He isn’t here, because he was raised... just as he said. Come and see the place where he was lying, ⁷ then hurry and tell his disciples that he was raised from the dead. Why look... he has gone ahead of you into GaliLee! Look! You’ll see him there, just as I said.’

⁸ So, they quickly left the tomb (both in fear and great joy), and they ran to report [what they had seen] to his disciples. ⁹ However, {Look!} Jesus then [appeared] to them, greeting them with the word:

‘Rejoice!’

So, they both went up to him, and bowed low at his feet. ¹⁰ And Jesus said:

‘Don’t be afraid! Go and report [what you have seen] to my brothers. [Tell them to] go back to GaliLee... they’ll see me there.’

¹¹ Meanwhile, as [the women] were on their way back, {Look!} some of the guards had returned to the city to report all that had happened to the chief priests. ¹² And after holding a conference and meeting with the elders to ask for advice, they all [bribed] the soldiers with enough silver, ¹³ and said:

‘Tell the people that his disciples came during the night and stole [his body] while you were sleeping. ¹⁴ And if the governor hears about this, don’t worry; we’ll persuade [him] to release you.’

¹⁵ So, [the guards] took the silver and did as they were told. And the story that they made up has been spread among Judeans everywhere down to this day.

¹⁶ However, the eleven disciples then went back to GaliLee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged [to meet] them. ¹⁷ And when they saw him, they all bowed low before him (though there were some who doubted). ¹⁸ Then, coming toward them, Jesus spoke, and said:

‘All power has now been given me in heaven and on the earth. ¹⁹ So now, go make disciples in all nations in my name, ²⁰ and teach them to obey all the things that I have commanded you. Look...I will be with you every day until the end of the age!’

Mark

Written in Greek by the Disciple Mark about 55-CE and based loosely on the Gospel of Matthew, possibly because (according to Origen) there was no Greek translation of Matthew’s Gospel available to Greek-speaking gentile converts during the rest of the First Century.

Chapter 1

¹ This is the beginning of the good news about Jesus the Anointed.

² This was written by the Prophet IsaiAh:

‘Look!

I’m sending My messenger ahead

To prepare the road that’s before you.

³ Listen!

Someone calls out in the desert,
Prepare the way for the Lord;
Straighten out all of his roads!

⁴ So, this why John came... to do baptizing in the desert and to preach a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵ And throughout Judea and JeruSalem, people were going there to be baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they openly confessed their sins.

⁶ John wore clothes that were made of camel's hair and he wore a wide leather belt around his waist. His diet consisted of locusts and wild honey, ⁷ and this is what he preached:

‘Someone greater is coming behind me
Whose sandals I'm unworthy to bend and untie.

⁸ And while I baptize in water,
He'll baptize you in [God's] Holy Breath.’

⁹ Well back then, Jesus came from Nazareth of GaliLee to be baptized in the Jordan by John also. ¹⁰ And immediately after coming up out of the water, [John] saw the sky split open and the Breath [of God] descend upon [Jesus in the form of] a dove. ¹¹ Then a voice came from the sky that said: ‘You're My Son that I love and with whom I'm well pleased.’

¹² Then [God's] Breath immediately forced [Jesus] into the desert, ¹³ where he spent forty days among the wild animals, as he was being tempted by the Opposer. However, the [messengers \[of God\]](#) [thereafter came and] served him.

¹⁴ Well, it was after John had been arrested that Jesus went into GaliLee and started preaching the good news of God. ¹⁵ For he was saying:

‘This period has reached its fulfillment
And the Kingdom of God is at hand.
So, believe the good news and repent!’

¹⁶ Then, as he was walking along by the Sea of GaliLee, [Jesus] noticed Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets on the sea (because they were fishermen). ¹⁷ So Jesus said to them: ‘Come follow me and I'll make you fishers of men.’ ¹⁸ And right away, they released their nets and started following him.

²¹ From there, they all traveled on to CapharNaum, where on the Sabbath, [Jesus] entered their synagogue and started teaching... ²² which amazed everyone, because (unlike the scribes) he taught with great authority.

²³ Well at the time, there was a man in the synagogue who was under the influence of an unclean spirit, which caused him to shout, ²⁴ ‘What dealings do I have with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Did you come here to destroy me? I know who you are; you’re The Holy One of God!’

²⁵ But Jesus scolded [the spirit], saying: ‘Put a muzzle on it and come out of him!’

²⁶ So the unclean spirit (after throwing the man into convulsions and causing him to yell loudly) came out. ²⁷ This shocked the people, and they started asking each other, ‘What is this, some new teaching? For he has the power to give orders to unclean spirits and they obey him!’

²⁸ So after that, the story about him was spread throughout all the country around GaliLee.

³² Then that evening, after sunset, people started bringing all those who were ill and demon-possessed to him... ³³ virtually the whole city had gathered at their door! ³⁴ So he cured their various illnesses and expelled many demons. However, he wouldn’t allow the demons to speak, because they knew that he was the Anointed One.

³⁵ Then early the next morning, while it was still dark, he got up and went outside to a remote place where he started praying. ³⁶ However, Simon

(and those who were with him) searched ³⁷ for him, and when they found him they said: ‘Everyone has been looking for you!’

³⁸ But he said to them: ‘Let’s go into the nearby villages, so I can preach there also. For, that’s why I came outside.’

³⁹ And [after that], he traveled throughout all of GaliLee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

⁴⁰ It was while he was there that a leper came to him, who got down on his knees and said: ‘If you just want to, you can make me clean!’ ⁴¹ And moved with pity, [Jesus] stuck out his hand and touched him, saying: ‘I want to... be clean.’ ⁴² Then the leprosy immediately left him and he became clean. ⁴³ But then [Jesus] sent him away and gave him strict orders ⁴⁴ not to tell anyone what he had done. He just told him to go and show himself to the Priests and to bring along the offering of cleansing that was specified by Moses, as a witness to them.

⁴⁵ However, after the man left, he started telling everyone and spreading the word around, so that Jesus wasn’t able to enter the cities openly and he had to camp out in lonely places... yet [the people] still kept coming to him from all directions.

¹ Well, after several days, [Jesus] returned to CapharNaum, and when word got out that he was back home, ² so many people came to him that there wasn’t any room around the door. Then he started preaching the word to them.

³ Thereafter, four people came to him carrying a man that was paralyzed.

⁴ But because the crowd was so large, they couldn’t get him to [Jesus]. So they dug an opening through the part of the roof where [Jesus] was standing, and lowered down the cot on which the [man] was lying. ⁵ Then when Jesus saw how much faith they had shown, he said to the paralyzed man: ‘Child, your sins are forgiven.’

⁶ Well, when they heard him say that, some of the scribes who were sitting there started reasoning in their hearts: ⁷ ‘Why is he talking in such a way, for this is blasphemy! Who is able to forgive sins other than the one God?’

⁸ And through the spirit, Jesus immediately realized that they were reasoning in this way inside themselves, so he asked them: ‘Why are [such bad] thoughts entering your hearts?’ Which is easier; to tell the paralyzed man Your sins are forgiven, or, Get up, pick up your cot, and walk? ¹⁰ Well, so that you men will know that the Son of Man has been authorized to forgive sins on the earth,’ ¹¹ [he then said to the man], ‘get up, pick up your cot, and go home.’ ¹² And immediately, the man got right up, picked up his cot, and walked out in front of everyone.

Well, all those who were there were beside themselves and they started glorifying God, saying, ‘We’ve never seen anything like this!’

¹³ Then later, he went outside to the seashore, where huge crowds came to him and he taught them.

¹⁴ It was as he was passing the tax office that he noticed Levi the son of AlphaEus, sitting there. So [he] said to him, ‘Follow me’ ... and [Levi] got right up and went with him.

¹⁵ Then later [that day], as Jesus was reclining at the table in [Levi’s] home, several tax collectors and sinners started coming and reclining with him and his disciples (many of whom became Jesus’ followers). ¹⁶ But when the scribes and Pharisees saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples: ‘Why is he eating with the tax collectors and sinners?’

¹⁷ And because Jesus overheard this, he said: ‘Those who are well don’t need a doctor, only the ill do. I didn’t come to call the righteous, just the sinners.’

¹⁸ Well back then, John’s disciples (who practiced fasting, as did the Pharisees) came to [Jesus] and asked, ‘Why is it that while the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, your disciples don’t fast?’

¹⁹ And Jesus replied: ‘The sons of the bride chamber can’t fast while the bridegroom is among them, because, as long as he’s with them, there’s

[no reason to] fast. ²⁰ But the days are coming when the groom will be taken away... and then they will fast.

²¹ ‘Understand that no one sews patches of new cloth onto old clothes, for if they do, the new [cloth] will shrink and stretch the old cloth, which will make tear worse. ²² Also, if you put young wine into old wineskins, the [new] wine will burst the skins and both the wine and the skins will be lost. So it’s best for people use new wineskins for new wine.’

²³ Then on another day, as [Jesus] was walking through the grain fields on the Sabbath, his disciples started plucking heads of grain [to eat] as they were traveling along. ²⁴ And the Pharisees asked him: ‘{Look!} Why are they doing something that’s illegal on the Sabbath?’

²⁵ But he replied: ‘Haven’t you ever read what David did when he was in need and he and the men that were with him got hungry (in the account about AbiAthar, the High Priest)... ²⁶ how he entered the House of God and ate the Presentation Bread, which isn’t legal for anyone to eat other than the Priests, and how he also gave some of it to the men who were with him?’

²⁷ Then [Jesus] said this: ‘The Sabbath came into existence for the sake of mankind, not mankind for the Sabbath. ²⁸ But you should also know that the Son of Man is the Lord of the Sabbath.’

Chapter 3

¹ On another occasion, he entered a synagogue where there happened to be a man with a withered hand... ² and [the Pharisees] were watching [Jesus] closely to see if he would cure him on the Sabbath, because they were trying to find some that they could accuse him of doing wrong.

³ However, [Jesus] said to the man with the withered hand: ‘Get up and come into the center [of the room].’ ⁴ Then he asked everyone there: ‘Is it legal to do something good or bad, or to save a life or destroy it on the Sabbath?’ But no one would answer.

⁵ Then, after looking around at them angrily (because he was saddened by the dullness of their hearts), he said to the man: ‘Now, stretch out your hand.’ So he stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

⁶ Well right away, the Pharisees went outside and met with the followers of Herod and they started talking about ways to destroy him.

⁷ However, Jesus and his disciples then got up and walked out to the sea, followed by a huge crowd that had come from all around GaliLee and Judea. ⁸ For people were coming to him from as far away as JeruSalem, Idumea, the other side of the Jordan, and the area around Tyre and Sidon... huge numbers came to him when they heard of the things that he was doing.

⁹ Well, to keep the crowds at bay, [Jesus] had instructed his disciples to always have a little boat available for him. ¹⁰ For because he cured so many who had terrible diseases, people were literally falling on him just to touch him. ¹¹ And when unclean spirits saw him, they would bow low before him and shout, ‘You’re the Son of The God!’ ¹² However he scolded them and warned them not to expose him.

¹³ Then [Jesus] walked up a mountain, where he called for those whom he’d chosen, ¹⁴ and he formed a [special] group from these twelve that he started calling Apostles (Sent Ones), who were to stay with him. Thereafter, he also sent them out to preach, ¹⁵ and he gave them the power to cast out demons. ¹⁶ The names of those in the group of twelve that he formed were Simon (Peter), ¹⁷ James (the son of ZebediOu) and his brother John (he called them BoanErges, which means Sons of Thunder), ¹⁸ Andrew, Philip, BarTholomew ([NathaniEl]), Matthew, Thomas, James (the son of AlphaEus), ThadDaeus (Judas), Simon the CanaNaeon, ¹⁹ and Judas IsCariot (who later betrayed him).

Well, whenever he went into a house after that, ²⁰ so many people would show up that they couldn’t even eat a meal. ²¹ And when [Jesus’] relatives heard what was happening, they tried to take him away, because they said that he’d lost his mind.

²² There were also some scribes who had come down from JeruSalem that were telling people he was [under the influence of] BeElZebub, and that he was using the ruler of the demons to cast out the demons. ²³ So he called [the scribes] to him and he reasoned with them using [these] parables:

‘How can the Opposer throw out the Opposer?

²⁴ For a kingdom divided, won’t stand.

²⁵ And a house divided, can’t stand.

²⁶ So, if the Opposer is divided,
He won’t stand and he’s reaching his end.

²⁷ ‘Also, no one can enter a mighty man’s house
And rob him of all his things
Unless he first ties him up...
Only then can he loot his house.

²⁸ ‘So I tell you this as the truth:
Sons of men can be forgiven for all,
No matter what sins that they might commit
Or whatever blasphemies they speak.

²⁹ But, whoever blasphemes [God’s] Holy Breath
Will not be forgiven through the age,
And it remains a sin through the ages.’

³⁰ Of course, [Jesus] was saying this to them because they had accused him of having an unclean spirit.

³¹ Meanwhile, [\[Jesus’\] mother and brothers](#) had arrived and were standing outside, so they asked [someone] to call for him, ³² because there was a crowd sitting around him at the time. Therefore, someone went up to him and said: ‘Look! Your mother and brothers are outside and they’re looking for you!’

³³ But he said to them all:
‘Just who are my mother and brothers?’

³⁴ Then he looked at those who were sitting around him in a circle, and said:

‘Look... my mother and brothers!

³⁵ For, all who do the Will of our God
Are truly my brothers, sisters, and mother.’

Chapter 4

¹ Well on another occasion, when he started teaching by the seashore, such a huge crowd came to him there that he had to step into a boat and sit out on the sea, as the crowd stood on the shore. ² Then he taught them many things through parables, saying:

³ ‘Now, pay close attention!

{Look!} A farmer went out to do planting.

⁴ And as he was scattering seeds,
A few fell alongside the road,
Which were then eaten by birds.

⁵ ‘Other seeds fell among rocks,
And they sprouted where there wasn’t much ground.
But because there was too little soil;

⁶ When the sun arose, they were scorched...
They withered, because they didn’t have roots.

⁷ ‘Other seeds fell among briars,
Which grew and choked out those seeds,
So they couldn’t produce any fruit.

⁸ But, others fell upon good soil,
Where they flourished and grew, producing much fruit,
Some thirty, some sixty, or a hundred times more.’

⁹ Then he added: ‘Let those who have ears pay attention!’

¹⁰ Well later, the twelve (as well as the rest who were around him) asked [Jesus] what that parable meant. ¹¹ And he told them this: ‘The mystery of the Kingdom of God has just been given to you; for those on the outside only hear the stories. ¹² So when they can look, they can’t see, and when they hear, they don’t really listen and understand, so they can ever turn back and be forgiven.

¹³ ‘However, if you don’t understand the meanings of these parables, how will you be able to understand all the rest?’

¹⁴ ‘The one who is scattering the seeds is planting the word, ¹⁵ and where it falls beside the road, the Opposer immediately comes and snatches away all that was dropped there. ¹⁶ The same is true of those that fall among the rocks; these are the ones who joyfully accept the word as soon as they hear it, ¹⁷ but because they don’t have roots, they only last a little while. For when some difficulty or persecution comes along over the word, they are stumbled. ¹⁸ Likewise, those that are planted among the thorns are the ones who hear the word, ¹⁹ but let it get choked out by the concerns of this life, the allure of wealth, and desires for other things, so they become unfruitful.

²⁰ ‘However, those who are planted on the fine soil are the ones who listen to the word and accept it... then they bear fruit thirty, sixty, and a hundred times more.’

²¹ So Jesus went on to tell them this:

‘You don’t put a lamp under a basket,

Nor do you put it under a bed...

You it put on a table, instead.

²² So there is no secret that won’t be made known,

Or anything hidden that will not be shown...

²³ Let those who have ears pay attention!’

‘Pay attention to the things that I’m saying!

Whatever amount that you measure for others

Is the amount that you will receive...

And more will be added to that.

²⁵ For, those who have will be given more,

While all will be taken from those who don’t have.’

²⁶ Then he went on to say:

‘The Kingdom of God is much like a man

Who scatters his seeds on the ground

²⁷ And goes to sleep through the night.

Then, when he wakes up the next morning,

He finds that the seeds have sprouted and grown,
And he doesn't really know how it happened!

²⁸ 'For, the ground produces fruit by itself...

First the blades, then the stalks,
And finally, the full heads of grain.

²⁹ Then, as soon as it has all ripened,
The man arrives with his sickle...
For the time to harvest has arrived.'

³⁰ And he asked:

'To what [else] can the Kingdom of God be compared...
What parables can we use to describe it?

³¹ It's much like the small mustard seed,
Which, before it's planted under the ground
Is one of the smallest seeds on the earth.

³² Yet, after it's planted, it grows
To be larger than all vegetation...
It grows branches that can be so great
That birds in the skies can dwell in its shadow.'

³³ Yes, this is the way he taught the word to them, speaking in parables for as long as they were able to pay attention. ³⁴ It's a fact that if he wasn't speaking in parables, he wasn't talking to them. However, when they were all alone, he thereafter explained everything to his disciples.

³⁵ Well, later that evening, he said to them: 'Now, let's cross over to the other shore.'

³⁶ So after they dismissed the crowd, they left in the same boat that he had been teaching from (along with some other boats came with them).

³⁷ However, a gale-force wind then arose and waves were pouring into the boats, --- ³⁸ but meanwhile, [Jesus] was peacefully sleeping on a pillow in the stern. So they woke him up and said: 'Teacher, aren't you worried that we're about to die?'

³⁹ So he got up and scolded the wind, then he said to the sea: ‘Be quiet! Hush!’ And at that, the wind died down and a great calm set in. ⁴⁰ And he asked them: ‘Why are you so cowardly? Don’t you have any faith?’

⁴¹ Well, this really frightened them and they started asking each other: ‘Who really is this? For even the wind and the sea obey him!’

Chapter 5

¹ Then, when they got to the other side of the sea to the country of the Garasenes, ² [Jesus] got out of the boat and was immediately confronted by a man with an unclean spirit who had come from the tombs. ³ For he lived among the tombs and no one had been able to restrain him, even with chains. ⁴ In fact, he had often been bound with leg irons and chains, but he broke the chains and smashed the leg irons, for nothing was strong enough to hold him. ⁵ So all day and all night long he would go yelling crazily amid the tombs and in the mountains, while he beat on himself with rocks.

⁶ Then, when he saw Jesus coming in the distance, he ran up to him and bowed low, ⁷ screaming: ‘What dealings do I have with you, Jesus, the Son of the Most High God? I put you under oath by God not to torment me!’ ⁸ [He said this] because [Jesus] had told the unclean spirit to come out of the man.

⁹ Then [Jesus] asked [the spirit], ‘What is your name?’ And it replied, ‘My name is Legion, because there are many of us!’ ¹⁰ And [the spirits] repeatedly begged [Jesus] not to drive them out of those fields.

¹¹ Well at the time, there was a large herd of pigs feeding up on the mountain. ¹² So the [demons] begged Jesus to send them into the pigs, ¹³ and he gave them permission. So the unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs, then they all ran down a steep drop-off and fell into the sea, drowning about two-thousands of them.

¹⁴ Well thereafter, the herdsmen ran off and reported this to the people in the cities and the fields roundabout, and they all went there to see [what had happened]. ¹⁵ Then when they got to Jesus, they could see that the man who had once been possessed by the legion [of demons] was just sitting there wearing clothes and in his right mind... and this frightened them. ¹⁶ Then after [the herdsmen] who'd been there explained what had happened to the demon-possessed man and the pigs, ¹⁷ the people begged [Jesus] to leave their district.

¹⁸ Well, as [Jesus] got back into the boat, the man who was once demonized started begging to let him come with them. ¹⁹ However, [Jesus] wouldn't allow this, for he said, 'Go back to your home and family and tell them all the things that Jehovah has done for you, and about the great mercy He has shown to you.'

²⁰ So [the man] went back to the Decapolis and started telling everyone about the many things that Jesus had done for him, which amazed all the people.

²⁵ Among the crowd was a woman who had [endured] a blood flow for some twelve years... ²⁶ she'd suffered a lot at the hands of the healers, and she'd spent everything she had to no avail (she only got worse). ²⁷ So when she heard about Jesus, she came up behind [him] in the crowd and touched his clothes; ²⁸ for she kept saying: 'If I can just touch his clothes I'll be saved [from this condition].'²⁹ And right away, her fountain of blood dried up and she knew in her body that she had been healed of this plague.

³⁰ However Jesus also recognized in himself that some power had left him when this happened. So he turned around in the crowd and asked, 'Who touched my clothes?'

³¹ And his disciples replied: 'You see all these people crowded around you and you ask, Who touched me?'

³² But he kept on looking around to see who did this.

³³ Then the woman (who was frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her) came and fell down before him, and told him the truth. ³⁴ And he said to her: ‘Daughter; Your faith has saved you! Go in peace, and may this be the last of the plague.’

³⁵ Meanwhile, as he was still speaking, a messenger came from the home of the synagogue chief, who told him: ‘Your daughter has died, so don’t bother the teacher.’

³⁶ But when Jesus overheard this, he told the chief of the synagogue: ‘Don’t be afraid, just have faith.’

³⁷ Well [when he reached the home], he didn’t allow anyone to go with him other than Peter, James, and John (James’ brother). ³⁸ And when he got inside the synagogue-chief’s house and saw all the confusion, crying, and wailing, ³⁹ he asked, ‘Why are you creating such an uproar and crying? The little girl isn’t dead, she’s just sleeping!’

⁴⁰ Well at that, they all started laughing at him. But after he ushered them outside, he took the father, mother, and those who were with him into [the room] where the child was. ⁴¹ Then he took [the little girl] by the hand and said: ‘Talitha; Cumi!’ (which translates as, ‘Little girl; Wake up!’). ⁴² And the twelve-year-old girl got up right away and started walking around.

Well, [the parents] were beside themselves [with joy]. ⁴³ Then he told them to give her something to eat, and he repeatedly ordered them not to tell anyone what had really happened.

Chapter 6

¹ Thereafter, he left that place and traveled with his disciples to the town where he was raised. ² And when the Sabbath arrived, he entered their synagogue and started teaching.

Well, most of those who heard him were shocked, and asked, ‘Where did he get these things? Why has such wisdom been given to this man, and why are such powerful deeds being performed through his hands?’ ³

For isn't this is the carpenter – the son of Mary and the brother of James, JoSeph, Judas, and Simon – and aren't his sisters here among us?

So they were stumbled over him. ⁴ And Jesus told them: 'A Prophet doesn't go without honor anywhere other than in his own home, among his relatives, and in the area where he was raised.' ⁵ And because of this, he wasn't able to do any powerful deeds there, other than to lay his hands on a few [sick ones], whom he cured. ⁶ For he was amazed by their lack of faith.

Well from there, he traveled around to the local villages in a circuit, teaching.

⁷ Then he called the twelve and started sending them out by twos, and he gave them power over the unclean spirits. ⁸ He ordered them not to carry anything with them other than a walking stick... no bread and no food pouch or copper money in their sashes. ⁹ And he told them not to tie on their sandals or to [carry extra] underclothes. ¹⁰ For he said: 'Wherever you enter a house, stay in that place until you get ready to leave. ¹¹ But in those places where they don't invite you in or listen to you; shake the dirt off your feet as you leave, as a witness against them.'

¹⁴ Meanwhile, King Herod had heard about how famous [Jesus] was becoming. For people were saying about him, 'John, the man who did the baptizing, has been raised from the dead, and now there are great powers working through him.' ¹⁵ However, others were saying that he was EliJah, and some were saying that he was a Prophet like one of the Prophets [of old]. ¹⁶ But after he had listened to all of this, Herod concluded: 'The John whom I beheaded has been raised!' ¹⁷ For it was Herod himself who had John arrested and locked in prison over the matter of taking Herodias (his brother's woman), ¹⁸ since John kept telling Herod that he had broken the Law by taking her. ¹⁹ And this is why Herodias hated him and wanted him killed... however [until then], she'd been unable to do so.

²⁰ Herod was actually afraid of John, because he knew that he was a righteous and holy man; and as the result, he kept him safely [locked away]. For after he had listened to him for a while, Herod was at a loss as to what to do with him; so he gladly just kept on listening to him.

²¹ However, there came a day that turned out to be convenient for Herod... it was when he was holding a banquet to celebrate his birthday, to which he had invited several high-ranking men, military commanders, and the foremost people of Galilee. ²² And there the daughter of Herod and Herodias came in and danced before them, which pleased Herod and those at the table so much that the king said to the little girl: 'Ask for whatever you wish and I'll give it to you.' ²³ Yes, he swore to her: 'Whatever you ask of me I'll give you, up to half of my kingdom!'

²⁴ So she went out and asked her mother, 'What should I ask for?' And [her mother] replied, 'Ask for the head of John, the one who does the baptizing.'

²⁵ So she ran back to the king and said, 'I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter... right now.'

²⁶ And although this deeply disturbed the king, he didn't want to ignore her because of the oaths and because of those who were reclining at the table. ²⁷ So the king immediately sent his bodyguard and commanded him to bring back [John's] head. And that's when [the guard] went off and beheaded John in prison, ²⁸ after which he brought in his head on a platter and gave it to the young girl, who gave it to her mother.

³⁰ Meanwhile, all of the Apostles had assembled with Jesus, and they were reporting to him about everything that they'd been teaching and doing. ³¹ So he told them: 'I want you to come with me to a private place where you can rest up for a while.' Of course, he said this because there were always so many people coming and going that they didn't have enough free time to even eat a meal. ³² So they all traveled by boat to a remote place where they thought they could be by themselves.

³³ However, some people noticed them leaving and they started telling many others, who all ran from the cities on foot and got ahead of them. ³⁴ So when [Jesus and his Apostles] got out of the boat, they saw an enormous crowd. However, he felt sorry for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he started teaching them many things.

³⁵ Well, it was getting quite late, so the disciples came up to Jesus and said: ‘This is a very remote place and it’s getting late, ³⁶ so we should send the people off into the countryside and villages around here in order to buy some food for themselves.’

³⁷ But [Jesus] said to them: ‘Why don’t you give them something to eat?’ And they said: ‘Well, that would take almost eight months of a man’s wages! Are we to go and spend that much on bread just to feed them?’

³⁸ Then [Jesus] asked them: ‘How many loaves do you have? Go see!’ And after checking, they said: ‘Five, plus two fish.’

³⁹ So he told all the people to lie down on the green grass in rows, ⁴⁰ and they reclined in rows of fifties and hundreds. ⁴¹ Then [Jesus] took the five loaves [of bread] and two fish, and he looked up toward the heavens and spoke a blessing, then he broke up the bread and divided the two fish and started giving it to the disciples so they could set it in front of the people... ⁴² and thereafter, everyone ate until they were satisfied.

⁴³ Well, when they went to pick up the scraps, they found they had twelve baskets full, which didn’t include the fish! ⁴⁴ However, there were about five thousand men who ate the bread.

⁴⁷ But then, later that evening (as the boat was well out to sea and [Jesus] was there by himself on the land), ⁴⁸ Jesus could see [from a distance] that they were still out there rowing with all their might, since they had a strong headwind blowing against them. So the next morning (while it was still dark), he walked out toward them on top of the sea... in fact, he started to walk right past them! ⁴⁹ Well when they saw him walking on top of the sea, they thought, ‘It’s a phantom,’ and they started screaming in fright. ⁵⁰ For they all saw him and everyone was deeply disturbed.

But right away, he spoke to them and said: ‘Be brave... it’s me! Don’t be afraid.’

⁵¹ Then he got into the boat with them and the wind died down.

However, all these events left them stunned, ⁵² because they didn’t really understand the meaning of the bread, since their hearts had been dulled.

⁵³ Well, soon thereafter, they reached land, arriving at GenNesaret, where they dropped anchor. ⁵⁴ However, as soon as they got out of the boat, some people recognized [Jesus], ⁵⁵ and they ran [to tell others] throughout all that area. So, many people came to that place where they’d heard that Jesus was, carrying their ill to him on cots. ⁵⁶ And thereafter, wherever he entered any village or city (or fields or markets), they would all bring their sick and beg him just to let them touch the fringes of his clothes. And all who touched them were healed.

Chapter 7

¹ Now, some Pharisees and scribes had come from JeruSalem and surrounded him, ² because they had noticed some of his disciples eating bread with unwashed hands. ³ For none of the Pharisees (or any of the Judeans for that matter) would eat [anything] unless they vigorously washed their hands first, since they followed the traditions of the elders... ⁴ nor did they eat anything that they brought [home] from the market until after they had carefully rinsed it. And they observed many other traditions like this that had been passed down, such as soaking their cups, pitchers, and copper pots in water.

⁵ So these Pharisees and scribes asked him: ‘Why don’t your disciples follow the traditions of the elders? Look, they eat bread without washing their hands first!’

⁶ But [Jesus] replied, ‘IsaiAh prophesied well about you hypocrites when he wrote:

With their mouths, these people approach Me,

*And with their lips, they offer Me praise.
But because they're far from Me in their hearts,
They bow before Me in vain,
Since they teach the ideas and instructions of men!*

⁸ 'You're really ignoring the Commandments of God with all these traditions of men... ⁹ yes you zealously push aside the Commandments of God so you can observe your own traditions! ¹⁰ [For example]; though Moses told you to honor your father and mother and that anyone who says bad things to his father or mother should be put to death, ¹¹ you say that a man should tell his father and mother that everything he owns with which he might help them has already been set aside as a holy gift! ¹² So you don't allow [people] to do anything at all [to help] their parents. ¹³ And by these traditions that you're passing on, you're nullifying the Word of God... yes, you're doing so many things like that!'

¹⁴ Then he called the crowd to him again and said to them: 'I want all of you to pay close attention and be sure that you understand! ¹⁵ There's nothing on the outside that goes into a man which can make him unclean. Rather, it's the things that come out of a man that dirty him.' ¹⁶ —

¹⁷ Then after he left the crowd and went back inside the house, his disciples asked him what he meant by these things that he said. ¹⁸ And he said: 'Don't you understand either? Nothing from the outside that enters a man can make him unclean, ¹⁹ for [such things] don't go into his heart, but into his belly and then into the sewer. Therefore, everything that you eat is really clean! ²⁰ Rather, it's the things that come out of a man that make him unclean. ²¹ It's things that come from the inside — from the heart — that bad thoughts come... things such as immorality, thievery, murder, ²² adulteries, selfish desires, wicked actions, deceitfulness, lack of restraint, eyes that are wicked, blasphemy, arrogance, and unreasonableness. ²³ It's all these wicked things that come from inside of a man that make him unclean.' ²⁴ And at that, he got up and left.

Well from there, he traveled [north] into the area of Tyre and Sidon, where he entered a house. And though he didn't want anyone to know where he was, he couldn't escape being noticed. ²⁵ So when a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard where he was, she came to him and bowed low at his feet ²⁶ (she was a Greek woman of Syrian-Phoenician extraction). And she kept asking [Jesus] to cast the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷ But he told her: 'The children should be satisfied first... it isn't right to take bread from the children and throw it to the puppies.'

²⁸ But she replied: 'Yes Lord; but don't the puppies under the table eat the crumbs [that fall from] the little children?'

²⁹ So he said to her: 'Because you said this, go! The demon has left your daughter.'

³⁰ Then when she got back home, she found the child lying on her bed, and the demon was gone.

³¹ Thereafter, he left the area of Tyre and traveled on through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, and then through the middle of the region called the Ten Cities. ³² There they brought him a man who was deaf and dumb, and they begged [Jesus] to lay his hands on him. ³³ So [Jesus] led him away from the crowd to a private spot, and he put his fingers in the man's ears. And after that, he spit and touched the man's tongue. ³⁴ Then he looked up into the sky and groaned and said, 'Eph phatha,' (which means, 'Be opened').

³⁵ Well, the man was thereafter able to hear and the thing that held his tongue was loosened, so he started speaking normally. ³⁶ However, Jesus commanded those who were there not to tell anyone about this... but the more he commanded them, the more they talked about it. ³⁷ For everyone was amazed beyond belief, and they were saying, 'He does everything well... he even makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak!'

Chapter 8

¹ Back in those days, there was another huge crowd [listening to him] that had nothing to eat. So [Jesus] called his disciples and said to them: ² 'I feel sorry for the crowd, because they've stayed here with me for the past three days and they have nothing to eat. ³ If I just send them home hungry, they may give out on the road, for some of them have for a fact come a long way.’

⁴ But his disciples asked: ‘Where could anyone find enough loaves [of bread] here in this isolated place to satisfy that many people?’

⁵ And he asked them, ‘How many loaves do you have?’

And they replied, ‘Seven.’

⁶ So he told the crowd to get down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, gave thanks, broke them, and handed them to his disciples to serve... and they passed them out to the crowd. ⁷ They also had a few little fish. And after offering a blessing over them, Jesus told [the disciples] to serve these also.

⁸ Well, everyone ate until they were satisfied, and when the disciples picked up the leftovers, [they filled] seven provision baskets with them, ⁹ though [there were] about four thousand that were fed!

Then after that, he sent the crowd away, ¹⁰ and he immediately got into the boat with his disciples and traveled into parts of Dalmanutha. ¹¹ It was there that the Pharisees came up and started arguing with him, demanding that he give them a sign from heaven (so as to test him). ¹² But he breathed a deep sigh and asked them: ‘Why is this generation always looking for signs? I tell you the truth; this generation won’t be given a sign!’ ¹³ And with that, he walked over and got back into the boat, and traveled on to the opposite shore.

¹⁴ Meanwhile, it so happened that [the Apostles] had forgotten to bring along any [bread] for the trip. Therefore, except for one small loaf, they had nothing to eat in the boat. ¹⁵ And as the result, when [Jesus] started warning them saying, ‘Keep your eyes open and watch out for the fermentation of the Pharisees and the fermentation of Herod,’ ¹⁶ they started quarreling with each other over the fact that they didn’t have any bread. ¹⁷ And when [Jesus] recognized this, he asked them: ‘Why are you arguing about not having any bread... don’t you understand yet and don’t you get the meaning... are your hearts so dull when it comes to understanding?’ ¹⁸ You have eyes; Can’t you see? You have ears; Can’t you hear? Do you remember when ¹⁹ I broke five loaves [to feed] five thousand, and how many baskets full of leftovers were you able to pick up?’

And they replied, ‘Yes, twelve.’

²⁰ ‘And when I broke the seven loaves [to serve] four thousand men; [do you remember] how many provision baskets full of leftovers you picked up then?’

And they said, ‘Seven.’

²¹ So he asked them: ‘Don’t you understand all of this yet?’

²² Well from there, they traveled on to BethSaida, where the people brought him a man who was blind, and they begged [Jesus] to just touch him. ²³ So he took the blind man by the hand and led him outside of the village, then he spit on his eyes and laid his hands on him and asked, ‘Do you see anything yet?’

²⁴ And the man looked up and said, ‘I see men... they look a little like trees, but they’re walking around.’

²⁵ So [Jesus] laid his hands on the man’s eyes a second time, and after that, the man started seeing. And before long, [his eyesight] was completely restored and he was able to see everything clearly. ²⁶ So [Jesus] sent him home with the warning: ‘Don’t go back into that village.’

²⁷ Well from there, Jesus and his disciples traveled on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. And as they were on the way, he asked his disciples: ‘Who are the people saying that I am?’

²⁸ And they replied: ‘[Some say you’re] John the Baptist, others say you’re EliJah, and yet others say you’re one of the Prophets.’

²⁹ Then he asked: ‘But, who do you say that I am?’

And Peter answered: ‘You’re the Anointed One.’

³⁰ Then he ordered them not to say this to anyone. ³¹ And that’s when he started teaching them that the Son of Man would have to suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and then be killed... but after three days, he would arise. ³² Yes, he told them plainly [what was about to happen to him]. But at that, Peter took him aside and started scolding him. ³³ Then [Jesus] then turned and looked at his disciples, and he started scolding Peter, saying, ‘Get behind me opposer, because you aren’t thinking God’s thoughts, but those of men!’

³⁴ Well after that, he called the crowd and his disciples to him and he said this: ‘If any of you wish to be my disciples, [you’ll have to] deny your own desires, then pick up your impaling poles and keep on following me. ³⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever is willing to lose his own life for my sake and for the [sake of the] good news, will save it.

³⁶ ‘What good would it do for a man to gain the whole world and still lose his life... ³⁷ and what would a man give in exchange for his life? ³⁸ Well, if anyone is ashamed of me and my words before this adulterous and sinful generation; the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he arrives in the glory of his Father with his holy messengers.’

Chapter 9

¹ Then he went on to say this to them: ‘I tell you the truth; some of you who are standing here won’t taste death before you see the Kingdom of God coming in power.’ ² And just six days later, Jesus took just Peter, James, and John along to a private spot on a high mountain, where he changed form in front of them. ³ For his clothes started to glow much whiter than anyone on earth who washes and bleaches clothes could whiten them... ⁴ and then EliJah and Moses appeared and started talking to Jesus.

⁵ Well in reaction, Peter said to Jesus: ‘Rabbi, it’s good for us to be here. So, let us erect three temporary structures... one for you, one for Moses, and one for EliJah.’ ⁶ However, he really didn’t know what he was saying, because they were all so frightened.

⁷ Then right away, a cloud formed that covered them all, and a voice came from the cloud that said: ‘This is My Beloved Son; Listen to him!’

⁸ And when they looked around, they suddenly saw just Jesus standing by himself.

⁹ Well, as they were coming back down the mountain, [Jesus] ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen until after the Son of Man had been resurrected from the dead. ¹⁰ So they took these words to heart.

However, shortly thereafter, they started talking among themselves about what [Jesus meant] when he spoke of being resurrected from the dead.

¹¹ Then later, they asked him: ‘Why do the scribes say that EliJah must come first?’ ¹² And [Jesus] replied: ‘EliJah does indeed come first and he restores everything. But, why do you suppose it was written about the Son of Man that he will be tried, suffer greatly, and be treated as a no-account? ¹³ I tell you this: EliJah has in fact already come and they did whatever they wanted to him, just as it was written about him.’

¹⁴ Then when they got back to the rest of the disciples, they found that a large crowd had gathered around them, and there were some scribes who were arguing with them. ¹⁵ But when the crowd saw [Jesus], they were all stunned and everyone ran up to him and started greeting him.

¹⁶ So he asked [the disciples]: ‘What have you been arguing about?’

¹⁷ And someone in the crowd replied: ‘Teacher, I was bringing my son to you, because he has a spirit that won’t allow him talk. ¹⁸ And whenever it takes control of him, it throws him on the ground, he foams [at the mouth] and grinds his teeth, and then he just goes limp. I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they couldn’t.’

¹⁹ And Jesus said: ‘O you faithless generation; How much longer do I have to be with you, and how much longer must I put up with you? Bring him to me!’

²⁰ So they brought [the boy] to him, and at the sight [of Jesus], the spirit immediately threw [the child] into convulsions... he fell on the ground and rolled around, foaming [at the mouth].

²¹ Then [Jesus] asked the father: ‘How long has this been happening to him?’

And he replied: ‘Ever since he was a child, ²² it has thrown him into the fire and into the water repeatedly, trying to destroy him. So if you can do anything, [please] feel pity and help him!’

²³ And Jesus replied: ‘You said, If you can! Don’t you know that everything is possible for those who have faith?’

²⁴ Then the father of the young boy immediately shouted, ‘I do have faith... but help me to have more faith!’

²⁵ Well at the time, Jesus could see that more people were running toward [them]; so he scolded the unclean spirit and said, ‘I order you to come out of him, you spirit of speechlessness and deafness, and don’t go back into him anymore!’

²⁶ Then, after shouting and going through several convulsions, [the spirit] came out. However, [the boy] then looked like he was dead. So, most of the crowd started shouting, ‘He’s dead!’ ²⁷ But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he was able to stand erect.

²⁸ Well after that, [Jesus] went back into the house, and his disciples went in with him. But they asked him in private why they couldn’t cast it out.

²⁹ And [Jesus] told them: ‘This is the kind that will only come out through prayer.’

³⁰ Then from there, they traveled on through Galilee. But [Jesus] didn’t want anyone to know [where they were going], ³¹ because he wanted to spend what little time he had left teaching his disciples. And that’s when he went on to explain to them that he (the Son of Man) was going to be betrayed into the hands of men who would kill him... but after being dead for three days, he would stand again. ³² Nevertheless, they still couldn’t grasp the meaning of what he was saying, and they were all afraid to ask him any more questions.

³³ Well, they finally got back to Capharnaum (which is where [Jesus was staying]). And when they got there, he asked them: ‘What were you arguing about along the road?’ ³⁴ However, none of them wanted to answer, because they’d been arguing about which of them was the greatest. ³⁵ So he sat down and called the twelve over; then he said this to them: ‘Whoever wants to be first must be the last and the servant of the rest.’

³⁶ Then he took a little boy and stood him in their midst, and he put his arms around him and said: ³⁷ ‘Whoever welcomes any person like this little boy in my name, also welcomes me. And anyone who welcomes me, is welcoming the One that sent me.’

³⁸ [Then later], John said to him: ‘Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he isn’t one of your followers.’

³⁹ But Jesus told him: ‘Don’t try to stop him, because those who do powerful deeds in my name won’t be too quick to say bad things about me... ⁴⁰ for those who aren’t against us are for us.

⁴¹ ‘I tell you the truth; anyone who gives you so much as a cup of water to drink because you’re walking in the name of the Anointed One... that person will not lose his reward. ⁴² But as for anyone who becomes a snare to one of these little believers... it would be better if the type of millstone that’s turned by a burro was hung around his neck and he was cast into the open sea!

⁴³ ‘Therefore, if your hand traps you, cut it off; for it’s better to enter life physically handicapped than to have both hands and go into the garbage dump... into the fire that can’t be put out. ⁴⁴ — — ⁴⁵ And if your foot is a trap to you, cut it off; for it’s better to enter life lame than to have both feet and end up in the garbage dump. ⁴⁶ — — ⁴⁷ Also, if your eye is a trap to you, pluck it out and throw it away; for it’s better to enter the Kingdom of God with one eye than to have both eyes and be thrown into the garbage dump, ⁴⁸ (see Isaiah 55:24) where the worms won’t come to an end and the fire is never extinguished. ⁴⁹ For you will all be salted with fire [in the same way that a sacrifice is \[offered with\] salt](#). ⁵⁰ And though salt is good; if it loses its salty flavor, how can it be used for seasoning? So, you should each keep salt in yourselves by staying at peace with each other.’

Chapter 10

¹ Well from there, he traveled on to the border of Judea and he crossed the Jordan, where great crowds came [to see] him. So, as was his custom, he started teaching them.

² However, the Pharisees also came there, and to test him, they asked him whether it was legal for a man to divorce his woman. ³ So [Jesus] asked them: ‘What Commandment did Moses give you?’

⁴ And they replied: ‘Moses allowed [us to] write out a certificate of dismissal and let her go.’

⁵ Then Jesus said: ‘He wrote this commandment for you because you’re so hardhearted. ⁶ However, back in the earliest [days] of their creation, [God] made them male and female [and said]: ⁷ This is why a man will leave his father and mother, ⁸ and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹ Therefore, what God has put together under the same yoke shouldn’t be separated by any man.’

¹³ Then after that, people started bringing their young children to [Jesus] so that he could just touch them... but the disciples started scolding them. ¹⁴ And when Jesus saw this, he was irritated and said to them: ‘Let the young children come to me... don’t try to stop them, because the Kingdom of God belongs to people like this. ¹⁵ I tell you the truth; Anyone who doesn’t welcome the Kingdom of God like a young child won’t ever get into it.’ ¹⁶ Then he took the children in his arms and started blessing them, laying his hands on them.

¹⁷ Well, as Jesus was leaving, someone ran up and fell to his knees before him and asked: ‘Good Teacher; what must I do to inherit age-long life?’

¹⁸ And he said to him: ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good except the one God. ¹⁹ You know the Commandments: Don’t murder; don’t commit adultery; don't steal; don't give false testimony; don't defraud; honor your father and mother.'

²⁰ But the man said: 'Teacher, I've kept all of these things since my youth.'

²¹ Well, because Jesus saw what the man was on the inside, he felt love for him and he said: 'Then there's just one thing that's missing; Go and sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasures in the heavens... then come and be my follower.'

²² But at that, [the young man] grew very sad and went off grieving, because he owned so many things.

²³ Then Jesus looked around and said this to his disciples: 'It is a difficult thing for the wealthy to enter the Kingdom of God!'

²⁴ And because the disciples were surprised at those words, he added: 'Children, it will be difficult to enter the Kingdom of God. ²⁵ In fact, it would be easier [to thread a rope] through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to get into the Kingdom of God.'

²⁶ Well when they heard this, they were even more shocked and they asked: 'Then, who can actually be saved?'

²⁷ And looking straight at them, Jesus said: 'With men, this is impossible... but that isn't true of God, for all things are possible with [Him].'

²⁸ Then Peter said to him: 'Look! We've left everything to follow you!'

²⁹ And Jesus told him: 'I tell you the truth; All those who are willing to leave their homes, or their fields, or their brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers, or children for my sake and for the sake of the good news ³⁰ will get a hundred times more, --- along with age-long life in the era that's coming. ³¹ However, many that are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

happen to him, saying: ³³ ‘{Look!} We are heading toward JeruSalem, where the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, who will then condemn him to death and hand him over to the gentiles. ³⁴ They in turn, will make fun of him, spit on him, whip him, and finally kill him... but after three days, he will stand again.’

³⁵ Then [sometime later], James and John (the two sons of ZebediOu) came up to him and said, ‘Teacher, we want to ask you to do something for us.’

³⁶ And he asked: ‘What do you want?’

³⁷ So they said: ‘Allow us to sit, one at your right hand and the other on your left, in your glory.’

³⁸ But Jesus replied: ‘You don’t know what you’re asking. Can you drink from the same cup that I’ll be drinking and can you be immersed in the same type of baptism with which I’ll be baptized?’

³⁹ And they replied: ‘We can.’

Then Jesus told them: ‘You will indeed drink from the same cup that I’ll be drinking and be immersed in the baptism with which I will be baptized. ⁴⁰ However, sitting at my right or left isn’t mine to give. That belongs to those for whom it has been prepared.’

⁴¹ Well, when the ten others heard what the [two men] had asked, they became very irritated with James and John. ⁴² But Jesus called [them all over] to him and said: ‘You know that those who appear to be ruling the nations act like masters over [their subjects]... and [you know] how the greatest among them like to use their power. ⁴³ This isn’t the way it should be among you. For whoever wants to become great among you must become your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wants to be first among you must become everyone’s slave. ⁴⁵ [Remember that] the Son of Man didn’t come here to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.’

⁴⁶ Well before long, they finally arrived at JeriCho. Then as [Jesus] was leaving JeriCho (along with his disciples and quite a crowd), there happened to be a man called BarTimaeus (a blind beggar) who was sitting alongside the road. ⁴⁷ And when he heard that Jesus the Nazarene [was passing], he started shouting, ‘Jesus... son of David... have mercy on me!’ ⁴⁸ And when many [in the crowd] told him to be quiet, he started shouting even louder: ‘Son of David... have mercy on me!’

⁴⁹ So Jesus stopped and said, ‘Call him over.’ And they called the blind man over and told him: ‘Cheer up and come here, because he’s calling for you!’

⁵⁰ Well at that, the man threw off his robe, jumped to his feet, and went over to Jesus. ⁵¹ And Jesus asked him: ‘What do you want me to do for you?’

And the blind man replied: ‘My Teacher; Let me see again!’

⁵² Then Jesus said to him: ‘Go on, for your faith has made you well.’ And immediately, he was able to see! So he too started following Jesus.

Chapter 11

¹ Now, as they were getting close to JeruSalem (they were near BethPhage and BethAny on the Mount of Olives), he sent two of his disciples ahead ² and told them: ‘Go into the village across from us, and as soon as you enter you’ll find a colt that is tied, which no man has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³ And if anyone asks why you’re doing this, just tell him that the Lord needs it, and he will immediately let you take it.’

⁴ So they went and found the colt tied outside of a door on a side street, and they untied it. ⁵ Then when some of those who were standing there asked why they were untying the colt, ⁶ [the disciples] told them what Jesus had said, and they let them take it.

⁷ So they brought the colt to Jesus, then they put a robe over it and he mounted it. ⁸ And thereafter, many [of his disciples] started spreading their robes out over the road, while others were laying down palm fronds that they’d cut from trees in the fields. ⁹ Then those who walked in front of him and behind him started shouting, ‘May [God] save him! Praise the one who comes in the Name of Jehovah!’ ¹⁰ Praise the Kingdom of our

Father David that is about to arrive! Save him, we pray, from the heights!’

¹¹ Well from there, [Jesus] rode into JeruSalem. [And when he got there], he went into the Temple and looked around. But because it was late, he just [went back] to BethAny with the twelve.

¹² Then the next morning (as he was leaving BethAny), because he noticed some leaves on a fig tree, ¹³ and because he was hungry, he went over to see if he could find some [fruit]. But when he got there, he found nothing but just the leaves, because it was [a little early in the year] for figs. ¹⁴ So [Jesus] said to [the tree]: ‘May no one eat fruit from you for the rest of the age’ (and his disciples heard [him say] this).

¹⁵ Well from there, they traveled on into JeruSalem. Then [Jesus] entered the Temple and started throwing out those who were buying and selling. He also pushed over the moneychanger’s tables and the seats of those who sold doves... ¹⁶ and he wouldn’t allow anyone to carry things through the Temple. ¹⁷ He kept instructing them and saying, ‘Though it is written, My house will be called a House of Prayer for all nations; you’ve turned it into a den of thieves!’ ¹⁸ And when the chief priests and scribes heard about this, they started looking for ways to destroy him. However, they were afraid of him, because his teaching always amazed the crowds.

¹⁹ Then (when it got late) they left the city. ²⁰ And as they were returning early the [next] morning, [the disciples] noticed that the fig tree had become all withered up from its roots. ²¹ So, because he remembered what Jesus had said to it, Peter pointed this out and said to him: ‘Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered!’

²² And Jesus said: ‘You must have faith in God. ²³ For I tell you the truth; If you would say to this mountain, Rise and be thrown into the sea... and if you did it without any doubts in your heart but had total faith; whatever you say will happen, will happen. ²⁴ This is why I’ve told you that if you believe that you will receive anything you ask for in prayer, you will receive it. ²⁵ However, as you stand there praying, you must

[also remember to] forgive anything that others may have done to you, so that your Father in the heavens will forgive your errors.’²⁶ — —

²⁷ Well, after they got back to JeruSalem and as Jesus was walking around in the Temple, the chief priests, scribes, and elders all came up to him²⁸ and asked: ‘Who told you that you could do these things... who gave you the authority?’

²⁹ And Jesus replied: ‘I’m going to ask you a question, and if you answer me, I’ll tell you where I got the authority to do these things.³⁰ Did John’s baptism come from heaven or from men? Tell me!’

³¹ So they started reasoning among themselves and saying, ‘If we say it was from heaven, he’ll ask: *Then why didn’t you believe him?*³² But if we say it was from men...’

Therefore, they didn’t answer him because they were afraid of the crowds, for [the people] believed that John was a Prophet.³³ So they told Jesus: ‘We don’t know.’

And Jesus said: ‘Then I’m not going to tell you where I got the authority to do these things.’

Chapter 12

¹ Well after that, Jesus used this parable to teach them. He said:

‘There was once a man who planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a vat for a wine press, built a lookout tower [to protect it], and then he rented it out to some tenant farmers before he traveled abroad.² Then when the [harvest] season arrived, he sent a slave to the farmers to get some of the vineyard’s fruit.³ However, they grabbed [the slave], beat him up, and sent him away with nothing.⁴ So then he sent another slave to them. This one they hit on the head and treated dishonorably.⁵ Then he sent another, whom they killed... and [he sent] many others, some of whom they flayed with whips and others whom they murdered.

⁶ ‘Well, [the master] had one last [person whom he could send], a dearly loved son. So he sent his son to them, saying, Surely they’ll respect him!

⁷ ‘But those farmers said to each other: *This is the heir! Let’s kill him, and then his [land] will be ours!*⁸ So they grabbed him and killed him, then they threw [his body] outside of the vineyard.

⁹ ‘Now, what do you think the owner of the vineyard will do? Surely he would go there and destroy those tenant farmers, and then entrust the vineyard to others, wouldn’t he!

¹⁰ ‘Have you ever read the scripture that says:

The stone that the builders rejected

Has become the chief cornerstone...

¹¹ It’s by Jehovah that this came to pass, And it’s a wonderful thing in our eyes.’

¹² Well [when he said] this, they started to realize that he was applying the parable to them. So after that, they started looking for ways to arrest him. However, because they were afraid of the crowds, they just released him and left.

¹³ Thereafter, they sent some of the Pharisees and some of the followers of Herod to him to try to get [Jesus] to say something [they could use against him]. ¹⁴ So these people came up to him and said: ‘Teacher; we know that you tell the truth and that you aren’t impressed by anyone, for you don’t look at what men are on the outside, but you truly teach the ways of God. So, tell us: Does the Law require us to pay the head tax to Caesar or not... ¹⁵ should we pay, or shouldn’t we pay?’

But noting their hypocrisy, he said: ‘Why are you testing me? Bring me a silver coin.’ ¹⁶ So they brought him [a coin].

Then he asked, ‘Whose image and inscription is on this?’

And they replied, ‘Caesar’s.’

¹⁷ Then Jesus said: ‘Pay Caesar’s things to Caesar, but God’s things to God’... and that left them bewildered.

¹⁸ Now, the SadDucees (who say there’s no such thing as a resurrection) then came to [Jesus] and said: ¹⁹ ‘Teacher; Moses wrote that a brother of any man who dies and leaves his woman without a child should take his woman and sire offspring for him. ²⁰ So, let’s say that there were seven brothers. The first one took a woman, but he died without offspring.²¹ Then the second took her, but he also died without offspring, as did the third, and so on...²² therefore, none of the seven left her with any offspring. And finally, she also died.²³ So, whose woman will she be in the resurrection, since all seven of them had her as theirs?’

²⁴ Then Jesus replied: ‘This is why you’re so misled, for you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God!²⁵ When the dead are resurrected, they won’t marry or be married, because they will be like [God’s] messengers in the heavens.

²⁶ ‘When it comes to the dead that will be raised; haven’t you read in the book about Moses (in the story about the thorn bush) that God said to him, *I am the God of AbraHam, the God of IsaAc, and the God of Jacob?*²⁷ Notice that He isn’t the God of the dead, but of the living! Yes, you are very misled!’

²⁸ Well, one of the scribes who had just arrived and overheard the things that were being said knew that [Jesus] had given a good answer. So he asked: ‘Then, which is the primary Commandment?’

²⁹ And Jesus answered: ‘The primary one is this: *Hear, O IsraEl; Jehovah your God is your only Lord.*³⁰ *So, you must love your God Jehovah with your whole heart, soul, mind, and strength.*³¹ The second one is this: You must love your neighbor as yourself. No Commandments are greater than these.’

³² Then the scribe said: ‘That’s good... you’re speaking the truth, teacher, when you say that He is One and there is no other,³³ and that loving Him with our whole heart, mind, and strength, and loving our neighbors as ourselves is worth much more than all of our whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.’

³⁴ And when Jesus recognized that [the scribe] had responded intelligently, he said to him: ‘You aren’t far from the Kingdom of God.’ Well from then on, no one else had enough courage to ask him any more questions.

³⁵ So in reply to a question that had been raised while Jesus was teaching in the Temple, Jesus went on to ask [the scribes] this: ‘Why do you say that the Anointed One is to be a son of David? ³⁶ For through the Holy Breath [of God], David said, *Jehovah said to my Lord;
Sit here at my right hand
‘Til I put your enemies under your feet.*

³⁷ So if David called him Lord; how could he be his son?’

⁴¹ Then, as he was sitting across from the [Temple] Treasury, he noticed the crowd dropping money into the box, and he could see that the rich people were dropping in many coins. ⁴² But then he also noticed a poor widow who went up and dropped in just two small copper coins (they weren’t worth very much). ⁴³ So, [Jesus] called his disciples over and said to them: ‘I tell you the truth; this poor widow put in more than all the rest who were dropping their money into the Treasury chest, ⁴⁴ because they’re throwing in something of which they have plenty. However, this needy woman dropped in everything that she had... her whole [means of] living!’

Chapter 13

¹ Then, as he was leaving the Temple, one of his disciples said: ‘Teacher; just look at these stones and these buildings!’

² And Jesus said to him: ‘Do you see these great buildings? There won’t be a stone left on top of a stone here that won’t be thrown down.’

³ Then, as he was sitting in a quiet spot on the Mount of Olives across from the Temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him and asked: ⁴ ‘When will these things happen... what will be the sign that all these things are about to end?’

⁵ So Jesus said to them: ‘Be careful so that no one misleads you; ⁶ for many will come in my name, saying, I’m [the one], and they will mislead many. ⁷ And when you hear of wars and reports of wars, don’t worry, because [these things] must happen... that isn’t the end. ⁸ For there will be wars between nations and nations and kingdoms and kingdoms, and there will also be famines and rumblings in one place after another. Yet, these things will be just the beginning of the birth pangs.

¹¹ ‘But, when this happens and they’re leading you off to face your accusers; don’t worry about what you should say... just say whatever is given to you in that hour, since [God’s] Holy Breath will be doing the speaking, not you.

¹² ‘At that time, brothers will hand over their brothers for death, fathers [will hand over] their children, and children will oppose their parents and have them put to death! ¹³ For everyone will hate you because of my name. However, those who endure to the end will be saved.

or should ever happen again. ²⁰ And if Jehovah hadn't shortened those days, it's likely that no flesh would be saved... but for the sake of the elected ones whom He's chosen, He will shorten those days.

²¹ 'Then if anyone says to you, Look; here's the Anointed One! or, Look; there he is! Don't believe it! ²² For false anointed and false prophets will arise bringing signs and omens that could possibly mislead even the elected!

²³ 'Now, you must be careful, because I've warned you!

²⁴ 'Then in the days that follow this difficult time,
The sun will grow dark and the moon will not shine;

²⁵ The stars will be falling out of the skies,
And the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

²⁶ For they'll see the Son of Man arrive in the clouds,
With great power and glory.

²⁷ Then, he'll send his messengers to collect his elected
From the four winds [of the earth]...

From the ends of the lands to the ends of the skies!

²⁸ 'Now, you should learn this from the parable of the fig tree:

When its branches grow tender
And it starts putting out leaves,
You know that summer is near.

²⁹ So, when you see these things start to happen,
Know that he's near... at the doors.

³⁰ 'I tell you the truth; this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened. ³¹ For should even the lands and skies pass away; my words will not pass away.

³² 'However, no one knows that day or hour – not the messengers in the heavens or the Son, just the Father. ³³ Therefore, you should stay awake and keep watching, because you don't know when he will arrive!

³⁴ 'It's like a man, who before leaving his house and traveling abroad, instructed each of his slaves to just go on doing their jobs... but he commanded his doorkeeper to stay awake. ³⁵ This is why you must stay awake! Because, you don't know when the Master of the house will return... whether it's in the evening, at midnight, at rooster crowing, or early in the morning. ³⁶ Be sure that when he suddenly arrives, he doesn't find you sleeping!

³⁷ 'So, what I'm saying to you, I'm saying to everyone: Stay awake!'

Chapter 14

¹ Now, it was just two days before Passover and the festival of No fermentation, and the chief priests and the scribes were trying to come up with devious ways to grab [Jesus] and kill him. ² But they said, 'Not at the festival... not at any time when it will create a commotion!'

⁶ But Jesus told them: 'Leave her alone... why are you making trouble for her? She just did a good thing for me!' ⁷ You'll always have the poor with you, and you can do good things for them whenever you wish; however, you won't always have me. ⁸ For when she poured the perfumed ointment over me, she was doing everything that she could to prepare my body for its burial. ⁹ And I tell you the truth: Wherever the Good News is preached anywhere in the world, what this woman did for me will be told in memory of her.'

¹⁰ [Well after that], Judas Iscariot (one of the twelve) went to see the chief priests so as to betray him. ¹¹ And when they heard [his offer], they were delighted and they promised to pay him in silver. So that's when he started looking for an opportunity to betray [Jesus].

¹³ So he sent two of his disciples off, giving them these instructions: 'Go into the city, and there you will meet a man who is carrying a large pottery jar of water... follow him, ¹⁴ and wherever he goes inside, tell the master of the house that the Teacher wants to know where the guest room is that he can use to eat the Passover with his disciples. ¹⁵ He will then show you a large upper room that's already furnished... make your preparations there.'

¹⁶ Therefore, the disciples left and went into the city, where they found everything just as he said; so they prepared for the Passover. ¹⁷ Then that evening, [Jesus] went there with the twelve, ¹⁸ and as they were reclining and eating at the table, Jesus said: 'I tell you the truth; One of you who is eating with me here will betray me!'

¹⁹ Of course, they were all deeply saddened by this, and each one asked whether they were the one. ²⁰ But he told them: 'It's one of the twelve who is dipping into the common bowl with me. ²¹ It's a fact that the Son of Man is going to be taken away, just as it was written about him... but woe to the one who betrays the Son of Man, for it would be better had he never been born!'

²² Well, as they were eating, [Jesus] then took a loaf, and before breaking it, he offered a blessing over it. Then he passed it among [his Apostles] saying, 'Take it, for this is my body.'

²³ And after that, he took a cup, and after offering thanks for it, he handed it to them and they all drank from it. ²⁴ And he said to them: 'This is my blood of the Sacred Agreement that is being poured out [on behalf of] many. ²⁵ I tell you the truth; I definitely won't drink from the fruit of the vine again until the Day that I drink it new in the Kingdom of The God.'

²⁶ And finally, after singing songs of praise, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷ It was there that Jesus said to them, 'All of you will be stumbled over me tonight, because it is written:

I will strike down the shepherd,

And all the sheep will be scattered.

²⁸ But after I wake up, I'll go ahead of you into GaliLee.'

²⁹ Well at that, Peter said to him: 'Even if all the others are stumbled, I won't be!'

³⁰ And Jesus said to him: 'I tell you the truth; today... tonight... before a rooster crows twice, you will deny knowing me three times.'

³¹ Yet [Peter] kept insisting, saying, 'Even if I have to die with you, I definitely won't deny you.' And all the others were saying the same thing.

³² Then later, when they got to a place called GethSemane (the Olive Press), he said to his disciples: 'Now, sit here, while I [go over there] to pray.'

³³ So he took Peter, James, and John along with him, and then he became deeply upset and bothered. ³⁴ For he said to them: 'My soul is grieved to the point of death... so wait here and stay awake!' ³⁵ Then he went a little way forward and fell to the ground, praying that if it was possible, he could be freed from that hour. ³⁶ And he said: 'Papa! Father! Everything is possible for You, so remove this cup from me! Yet, not as I wish, but as You wish.'

³⁷ Well, when he returned, he found them all sleeping. And he said to Peter: 'Simon, are you sleeping? Didn't you have enough strength to stay awake for just one hour? ³⁸ Now, stay awake and keep praying that you won't be put to the test! But indeed; though the spirit is willing, the flesh is weak.'

³⁹ Then he went off and prayed once more, saying the same things. ⁴⁰ However when he came back, he found them all sleeping again, because their eyes were heavy... and they just didn't know what to say to him.

⁴¹ [And finally], after he returned a third time, and said to them: 'Here you are resting and sleeping. That's enough! The time has arrived! Look! The Son of Man has now been betrayed into the hands of sinners!

⁴² Get up, let's go! Look... my betrayer is nearby!'

⁴³ Well immediately (while he was still talking), Judas (one of the twelve) arrived with a mob, which included the chief priests, scribes, and elders, all of whom were carrying swords and clubs.

⁴⁴ Then the betrayer gave the sign that they had agreed on, for he'd said, 'The one that I kiss is him... grab him and arrest him!'

⁴⁵ Therefore, he went straight up [to Jesus] and said, 'Rabbi!,' and then he kissed him tenderly.

⁴⁶ Well at that, the men grabbed [Jesus] and bound him. ⁴⁷ However, one of those who was standing nearby drew his sword and struck the chief priest's slave, cutting off his ear.

⁴⁸ But then Jesus said to [the mob]: 'Did you come here with swords and clubs to arrest me like some robber? ⁴⁹ I was with you in the Temple where I taught for days, but you didn't grab me then. However, this has happened so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.'

⁵⁰ Then [the Apostles] all abandoned [Jesus] and ran away. ⁵¹ However, a certain young man (who had slipped a linen nightgown over his naked body) started following close behind them... and [the mob] tried to grab him too, ⁵² so he ran away naked, leaving his covering behind.

⁵³ Well from there, they led Jesus to the [house of the] High Priest, where all the chief priests, elders, and scribes had already assembled. ⁵⁴ Then Peter (who had been following at some distance) went into the courtyard of the High Priest and sat there among the building supervisors, who were warming themselves in front of the fire.

⁵⁵ Meanwhile, the chief priests and those of the Jewish religious court were trying to find witnesses against Jesus so that they could hand him over for execution. However, they couldn't find any. ⁵⁶ Many did come forward to give false testimony against him, but their stories just didn't agree. ⁵⁷ Then some stood up and perjured themselves with the words, ⁵⁸ 'We heard him say that he will tear down this Most Holy Place that was made with hands and build another that isn't made with hands in just three days.' ⁵⁹ Yet, even these witnesses couldn't agree.

⁶⁰ So finally, the High Priest stood up in their midst and questioned Jesus, asking, ‘Don’t you have an answer... what is it that they’re accusing you of?’

⁶¹ But [Jesus] remained silent and he didn’t reply to anything that he asked.

Then the High Priest questioned him again, and when he asked, ‘Are you the Anointed One, the Son of the Praised One?’ ⁶² Jesus spoke up and said: ‘I am... and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of the skies!’

⁶³ Well at that, the High Priest ripped his clothes and said, ‘Why do we need any more witnesses? ⁶⁴ You’ve heard the blasphemy! What is your opinion?’

So, they all [voted to] condemn him and hold him for execution.

⁶⁵ Then some started spitting on him, and they covered his face and started hitting him with their fists, shouting, ‘Prophecy!’ [And finally], the building supervisors (after slapping him in the face) took him into their custody.

⁶⁶ Meanwhile, Peter was still in the courtyard below, and there, one of the High Priest’s servant girls ⁶⁷ noticed him [standing there and] warming himself. She looked at him very hard, and then she said, ‘You were also with the Nazarene... this Jesus!’

⁶⁸ But he denied it, saying, ‘I don’t know him and I don’t know what you’re talking about!’

Then, when he went outside to the courtyard entrance, ⁶⁹ the servant girl saw him again and said to those who were around her: ‘He’s one of them!’ ⁷⁰ But once more, he denied it.

However, some who were standing around him said to Peter: ‘Sure you’re one of them, because you’re also a Galilean!’ ⁷¹ But Peter started cursing and swore, ‘I don’t know this man that you’re talking about!’

⁷² Well right away, a rooster crowed a second time, and that’s when Peter remembered what Jesus had said to him: ‘Before a rooster crows twice you will have disowned me three times.’ And at that, he broke down and cried.

Chapter 15

¹ Well at dawn, the chief priests sat down with the elders and scribes to consult with the complete Jewish religious court; and thereafter, they bound Jesus and handed him over to Pilate.

² So Pilate asked him: ‘Are you the King of the Jews?’

And he replied: ‘You said it yourself!’

³ Then the chief priests started accusing him of many other things. ⁴ So Pilate questioned him again and asked, ‘Don’t you have any reply? Look at all the charges they’re bringing against you!’

⁵ But Jesus wouldn’t say anything more, which amazed Pilate.

⁶ Well, it was [Pilate’s] custom to release any prisoner that they asked for at the festivals. ⁷ And at the time, there was one man in jail called BarAbbas, who was with a group of rebels that had committed murder during a rebellion. ⁸ So when the crowd came [to Pilate] to petition him to release a prisoner (as it was their custom), ⁹ Pilate asked, ‘Do you want me to release the King of the Jews to you?’ ¹⁰ (because he knew that the chief priests had only handed him over because they were jealous of him). ¹¹ But the chief priests stirred up the crowd and had them demand the release of BarAbbas instead.

¹² So Pilate asked: ‘Then, what shall I do with this one whom you call, the King of the Jews?’

¹³ And once again, they shouted: ‘Impale him!’

¹⁴ But Pilate asked: ‘Why? What crime did he commit?’

However, they just kept shouting louder and louder, ‘Impale him!’

¹⁵ So, to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released BarAbbas to them. Then after having Jesus whipped, he handed him over to be impaled.

¹⁶ Well from there, the soldiers took him out into the courtyard of the Governor’s Palace and assembled all the troops. ¹⁷ There they covered him with purple [cloth] and braided a crown of thorns, which they slipped over [his head],¹⁸ and they started greeting him, saying, ‘Rejoice, O you King of the Jews,’¹⁹ as they were hitting him on the head with a measuring rod and spitting on him. Then they got down on their knees and bowed to their faces before him.

²⁰ Finally (after they’d had their fun), they stripped him of the purple [cloth], put his clothes back on, and took him out to be hung on the pole.

²¹ So they drafted a man named Simon (a Cyrenian who was coming in from the fields... the father of Alexander and Rufus) to carry the pole.²² And from there, they took him to GolGotha (which translates as, Skull Place).²³ Then when they tried to give him wine mixed with myrrh; but he wouldn’t take it.²⁴ So finally, they hung him on the pole and they threw dice to see who would get his clothes.

²⁵ It was during the third hour that they hung him on the pole,²⁶ and they put a sign over him that showed the charge against him: ‘The King of the Jews.’

²⁷ There were also two robbers who were hung on poles along with him, one on his right and the other on his left.²⁸ — —

²⁹ Then those who were passing by started saying terrible things to him, shaking their heads and shouting, ‘Bah! O you who would tear down the Temple and rebuild it in three days...³⁰ save yourself! Come down from the pole!’³¹ And that’s also the way that the chief priests and scribes were joking about him, saying, ‘He saved others, but now he can’t save himself!’³² Let the Anointed One who is the King of IsraEl come down from his pole so we can witness it and believe in him!’ And even those who were hanging with him mocked him.

³³ Thereafter, [a great] darkness came over the whole land from the sixth to the ninth hours.³⁴ And at the ninth hour, Jesus shouted in a loud voice, ‘Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?’ (which translates as, ‘My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?’).³⁵ And when some of those standing there heard it, they said, ‘Look; He’s calling for EliJah!’

³⁶ So, someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine and held it up on a reed to give him something to drink. But the rest said, ‘Leave him alone... let's see if EliJah comes to take him down.' ³⁷ But then Jesus let out a loud groan and died.

³⁸ Well at that, the curtain [that separated] the Most Holy ripped in two from the top to the bottom. ³⁹ And when the centurion who was standing across from him saw all the things that happened when he died, he said, 'This man truly was God's Son!'

⁴⁰ Meanwhile, there were some women who had been watching from a distance. Among them was Mary of Magdala, Mary (the mother of Little James and Joses), Salome, ⁴¹ and many others who had traveled with Jesus to JeruSalem and who used to serve him back in GaliLee.

⁴² Well, since it was already late in the afternoon, and because it was Preparation \(the day before the Sabbath\), ⁴³ JoSeph of HariMathea (a well-known member of the Council who was also awaiting God's Kingdom) got up enough courage to go before Pilate and ask for the body of Jesus. ⁴⁴ However, Pilate didn't know if he was dead yet, so he called the centurion to ask if he had died. ⁴⁵ Then, after checking with the centurion, he released the body to JoSeph.

⁴⁶ So JoSeph then went out and bought some fine linen. And after taking Jesus down, he wrapped him in the cloth and laid him in a tomb that had been cut into the bedrock, then he rolled up a stone over the tomb's entrance. ⁴⁷ Meanwhile, Mary of Magdala and Mary the mother of Joses [just sat there], looking at the place where he had been laid.

Chapter 16

¹ Then, after the Sabbath, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome brought spiced ointments to grease his body ² (they went to the tomb early the next morning after sunrise). ³ And one asked the other, 'Where can we find someone to roll the stone away from the tomb entrance for us?' ⁴ But when they looked up, they saw that the extremely large stone had already been rolled away. ⁵ So when they entered the tomb, they saw a young man who was sitting on the right wearing a white robe, and they were shocked! ⁶ But he said to them: 'Don't be surprised; you're looking for Jesus the Nazarene who was impaled... but he isn't here, he has risen! Look, here's the place where they laid him! ⁷ Now, go tell his disciples and Peter that he's going ahead of them into GaliLee... they'll see him there, just as he said.'

⁸ Well when they came out, they ran from the tomb, because they were shaking with excitement. But then they didn't say anything to anyone, because they were too afraid.

Luke

A letter that was written in Greek to a man named Theophilus by Paul's traveling companion Luke the Physician about 62-CE, which is partially based on the Gospel of Matthew.

Note: Much of Luke's Gospel was written as poetry, for this is apparently how Jesus spoke many of his parables, and Luke in particular told of these parables. As the result, we have attempted to restore the rhythm of his words as closely as possible to the original poetic style, while attempting to maintain their exact meanings. And to those who would object, claiming that exact words are more important than style, we ask: Then why did Jesus put so much effort into style? The answer is obvious; He wanted at least some of his words to be remembered and quoted as parables or proverbs. Also, this unique teaching style tends to indicate that Jesus was the Lord who spoke the words of God (Jehovah) to many of the ancient Prophets, since most of those messages were also originally transmitted in poetry.

Chapter 1

¹ Since many others have already taken on the job of putting together a statement of the facts regarding the things we believe ² as they were given to us by those who were eyewitnesses from the earliest [times] and by caretakers of the message; ³ it seemed good for me to trace everything accurately from the start, then write it down for you in the order that it happened, O mighty TheoPhilus, ⁴ so that you can have confidence in the things you've been taught by word of mouth.

⁵ In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a Priest named ZechariAh who was of the division of AbiJah. He had a woman named EliZabeth (My God has Sworn), who was a descendant of Aaron. ⁶ Both of them were found righteous by God, because they obeyed all the commandments and requirements of Jehovah.⁷ However they never had children and they were both well up in years, so EliZabeth was [beyond child-bearing age].

⁸ Then, it was while he was assigned as the Priest before God in his division of Priests that ⁹ (following the custom of the Priesthood) [ZechariAh] had been chosen by lot to enter the Most Holy of Jehovah to burn incense there.¹⁰ And because it was the hour that the incense was to be offered, a large crowd of people had assembled outside to pray.¹¹ It was there that Jehovah's messenger appeared to [ZechariAh], just to the right of the incense altar.

¹² Well, ZechariAh was very disturbed and frightened by what he saw.¹³ However, the messenger said to him: 'Don't be afraid ZechariAh, because the things that you've begged for in your prayers have been favorably heard. So your woman EliZabeth will give birth to a son for you, and you must call his name John (gr. YoHanain – Jehovah Is Merciful).¹⁴ This will make you very happy and you'll dance with joy... in fact, many people will rejoice at his birth,¹⁵ because he will be great in the eyes of Jehovah.

'[This son] may not drink any wine or liquor at all, and he will be filled with [God's] Holy Breath while he's still in his mother's womb.¹⁶ Thereafter, he will turn many sons of IsraEl back to their God Jehovah,¹⁷ and he will travel before the Lord with the power and spirit of EliJah as he prepares a people for his [coming] by turning the hearts of fathers back to their children and the [hearts] of those who don't obey to righteous good sense (see Malachi 4:5, 6).'

¹⁸ But ZechariAh asked the messenger: 'How can I be sure of this? After all, I am quite old and my woman is well up in years.'

¹⁹ Then the messenger replied: 'I am GabriEl – someone who stands before God – and I was sent to bring this good news to you.²⁰ But because you didn't believe these words (which will come true right on time), {Look!} you will be silent and you won't be able to talk until the day that these things happen.'

²¹ Meanwhile, the people who were waiting [outside] for Zechariah started wondering why he was taking so much time in the Most Holy. ²² Then when he came out and couldn't speak, they realized that he had just seen something very unusual... he could gesture signs to them, but he couldn't talk.

²³ Well, when the period of his assigned [Temple] service was finished, he went back home, ²⁴ and that's when Elizabeth (his woman) became pregnant. However, she hid herself for five months, because she said: ²⁵ 'It is Jehovah's Will that I do this, so that people won't laugh at me.'

²⁶ Then in her sixth month, the Messenger Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee called Nazareth ²⁷ to a virgin who was engaged to a man named Joseph who was from the house of [King] David. This virgin's name was Mary (gr. Mariam). ²⁸ And when he came to her, he said, 'Rejoice, you most beloved person, because Jehovah is with you!'

²⁹ Well, these words bothered her, because she wondered just what type of greeting that was.

³⁰ Then the messenger said: 'Don't be afraid Mary, because you've found God's favor. ³¹ Look! You will conceive in your belly and give birth to a son whom you are to name Jesus (heb. YehoShuah or Jehovah's Salvation). ³² He will be great and he'll be called the Son of the Most High, and Jehovah God will give him the throne of his ancestor David. ³³ He will then rule over the house of Jacob through the ages, and there will be no end to his Kingdom.'

³⁴ But Mary asked the messenger: 'How can this be possible, since I haven't been with a man?'

³⁵ And the messenger replied: 'The Holy Breath of God will come over you and the Power of the Most High will overshadow you, so that what will be born will be called Holy... God's Son. ³⁶ Look! Your relative Elizabeth is also pregnant with a son, even in her old age. And this is the sixth month for this so-called sterile woman, ³⁷ because nothing is impossible when God says it will happen.'

³⁸ Then Mary said: ‘Look! I am Jehovah’s slave girl! May this thing that you said happen to me!’ And at that, the messenger left her.

³⁹ So after that, Mary got up and quickly traveled to a Judean city located in the hill country, where she ⁴⁰ entered the home of ZechariAh to speak to EliZabeth. ⁴¹ And just as EliZabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby in her womb jumped, and EliZabeth was filled with the Holy Breath [of God], ⁴² for she shouted aloud: ‘You’re a blest woman, and the fruit of your womb is blest! ⁴³ So, how is it that the mother of my Lord has come to me? ⁴⁴ Look! When I heard the sound of your greeting, the baby in my womb jumped for joy! ⁴⁵ So the woman who believes will be blest, and all things that were spoken to her by the Lord will come true.’

⁴⁶ Then Mary said:

‘I give glorify to Jehovah with my whole soul,

⁴⁷ And over my God and my Savior,
My body will cry out in joy,

⁴⁸ For He has looked down on His lowly slave girl.

‘{Look!} By all generations, I’ll be called blest,

⁴⁹ For the Almighty One did great things for me...
The One whose Name is Most Holy.

⁵⁰ ‘For generations, He has shown mercy
To those who show that they fear Him.

⁵¹ But with His strong arm, He will scatter
Those who think in their hearts that they’re better.

⁵² ‘He removes kings from their thrones,
And He puts the humble in charge.

⁵³ He fills the hungry with good things,
And He sends the rich off as starved.

⁵⁴ ‘He sent help to IsraEl, His child,
And He’s remembered His mercy

⁵⁵ As He promised to AbraHam, our father,
And to his seed, through the ages.’

⁵⁶ So Mary stayed there with EliZabeth for about three months before she went back home.

⁵⁷ Well, it soon came time for EliZabeth to deliver her baby, and she had a son. ⁵⁸ So when her neighbors and relatives heard how Jehovah had shown such magnificent mercy toward her, they were all overjoyed. ⁵⁹ But when they went to circumcise the boy on the eighth day, they expected that he would be named after his father, ZechariAh. ⁶⁰ However, his mother said: ‘Absolutely not! He’ll be called John.’

⁶¹ But [the neighbors] said, ‘That isn’t the name of any of your relatives!’

⁶² So they nodded to the father, to ask what he wanted to call it. ⁶³ And after asking for a tablet, he wrote, ‘His name is John’... which really caused them to wonder.

⁶⁴ Then [ZechariAh] was suddenly able to speak... his tongue came loose, and he started talking and praising God ⁶⁵ (which frightened all the neighbors). And thereafter, these things were talked about throughout the hills of Judea. ⁶⁶ Also, everyone who heard about it made a note of it in their hearts, for they were all wondering what this little boy would [grow up to] be, since the hand of Jehovah was upon him,

⁶⁷ Then ZechariAh ([the boy’s] father) became filled with [God’s] Holy Breath and he spoke this prophesy:

⁶⁸ ‘Praise Jehovah, IsraEl’s God,
For He looked down and set free His people.

⁶⁹ He raised the horn of salvation for us
In the house of his servant David,

⁷⁰ Just as He promised through the mouths of the holy
Back in the age of the Prophets,

⁷¹ To save us from our enemy’s hands,
And from the hands of all those who hate us,

⁷² To fulfill [His] mercy to our fathers
By remembering His Holy Sacred Agreement,

⁷³ And His oath to AbraHam, our father,

⁷⁴ That we don’t have to fear our enemy’s hands;
For because we’re His servants, He’ll save us,

⁷⁵ And we'll loyally stand here before Him
As righteous, throughout [the rest of] our days.

⁷⁶ 'But, as for you, little boy;
You'll be called a Prophet of the Most High,
And you will travel ahead of the Lord,
To prepare the road that's before him.

⁷⁷ 'You'll tell his people how [they can] be saved
By seeking forgiveness of their sins,

⁷⁸ Through the tender mercies of God,
Who looks down on us from above
As though it were a new day,

⁷⁹ Which is shining upon those in the darkness,
And on those who are sitting in the shadow of death.
For he'll straighten [the paths for] our feet,
And guide us in the ways that are leading to peace.'

⁸⁰ Well, the little boy thereafter grew and he kept getting stronger in the Breath [of God]. Then he went and lived in the desert until the day that he presented himself to IsraEl.

Chapter 2

¹ Back in those days, Caesar Augustus had decreed that everyone in the land had to be registered, ² and this first registration took place when QuiRinius was the governor of Syria. ³ So, everyone had to return to his hometown to be registered. ⁴ As the result, JoSeph had to travel from Nazareth in Galilee to David's city of BethLehem in Judea (because he was from the house and family of David) ⁵ to be registered with Mary, whom he married as he promised, and who was pregnant.

⁶ It was while they were there that it came time for her to have her baby. ⁷ So she gave birth to her first son and wrapped him tightly in a cloth, then laid him in a feed trough, because there wasn't any room for them in the lodge.

⁸ Well at that time, there were some shepherds who were staying outdoors in the surrounding countryside, keeping watch over their flocks at night. ⁹ Then a messenger of Jehovah [appeared] to them and the glory of Jehovah started shining around them, which frightened them. ¹⁰ But the messenger told them: ‘Don’t be afraid. Look! I’m bringing you good news of great joy for everyone, ¹¹ because a Savior – the chosen Lord – has been born to you today in David’s city. ¹² This is the sign to look for: You’ll find an infant wrapped tightly in a cloth and lying in a feed trough.’

¹³ And after that, a large heavenly army suddenly appeared along with the messenger, praising God and saying:

¹⁴ ‘Glory in the highest to God,
And on the earth, [may there be] peace
Among the people with whom He is pleased.’

¹⁵ So, after the messengers [of God] went back up into the sky, the shepherds said to each other: ‘Let’s go to BethLehem and see this thing that Jehovah has revealed to us.’

¹⁶ Therefore, they went and quickly found Mary and JoSeph, along with the infant who was lying in the feed trough. ¹⁷ So when they saw this, they told them what they had been told about the little boy.

¹⁸ Well, all those who heard about this were amazed by the things that the shepherds were saying, ¹⁹ and Mary started preserving all these words, drawing conclusions about them in her heart.

²⁰ Meanwhile, the shepherds kept on glorifying and praising God for all the things that they saw and all the things that they’d heard... just as it had been spoken to them.

²¹ Then eight days later, when the time arrive to circumcise the boy, he was given the name Jesus (gr. YaySous, heb. YehoShua), the name that [God’s] messenger said he was to be called before he was conceived in [Mary’s] womb.

²² Then at the end of the [\[seven\] days of purification](#) that were required by the Law of Moses, they took him to JeruSalem to present him to Jehovah, ²³ exactly as it was written in His Law, which said: ‘Every male that opens a womb must be called holy to Jehovah.’ ²⁴ So they offered the sacrifice that was specified in the Law, a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.

²⁵ {Look!} [Well at the time], there was a man in JeruSalem named SimeOn. He was a righteous and devout person who had been awaiting IsraEl's comforter, and [God's] Holy Breath was in him. ²⁶ For it had been divinely shown to him by the Holy Breath that he wouldn't die before he saw the Anointed of Jehovah. ²⁷ And it was because [God's] Breath was leading him that he came to the Temple that day.

So as the parents were bringing the boy (Jesus) in to do what the Law customarily required, ²⁸ [SimeOn] took him in his arms and praised God saying:

²⁹ 'Now, O Sovereign Lord,
You can set Your slave free in peace, as You said,
³⁰ For my eyes have now seen this one who will save...
³¹ The one You provided for all men to see...
³² The revealing light to all nations,
And a glory to IsraEl, Your people.'

³³ Well, [Jesus'] father and mother were amazed by all the things that he said about him, ³⁴ and SimeOn also blest them. However, he said this [Jesus'] mother (Mary):

'Look... this child has been appointed
To raise and lower many in IsraEl.
For, he'll serve as a sign that is spoken against,
³⁵ And your soul will be pierced by a sword,
Which will show what many have thought in their hearts.'

³⁶ There was also the Prophetess AnNa (a daughter of the tribe of Asher). This woman was well up in years and had only been married for seven years from her virginity. ³⁷ She was now an eighty-four-year-old widow who was always at the Temple, serving there day and night, fasting, and praying. ³⁸ And in that same hour, she stood up and gave thanks to God as she talked about [the child] to all those who were awaiting JeruSalem's release by ransom.

⁴¹ Well each year, his parents would travel to Jerusalem for the Festival of the Passover. ⁴² And when he was twelve years old, they again followed the custom of going to the festival. ⁴³ But after the festival days were over and as they were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem... and his parents didn't notice it. ⁴⁴ So, assuming that he was somewhere in the company of all the people who were traveling with them, they were a day's journey away before they finally started searching for him among their relatives and friends. ⁴⁵ And when they couldn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him.

⁴⁶ It took them three days, but they finally found him in the Temple sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking questions... ⁴⁷ and his understanding and answers amazed everyone who heard him.

⁴⁸ Well, since they had been in such a panic as they searched for him, his mother said: 'Child; Why did you treat us this way? Your father and I have been worried to death searching for you!'

⁴⁹ But he replied: 'Why did you have to search for me? Didn't you know that I would be in the House of my Father?'

⁵⁰ However, they really didn't understand what he was saying.

⁵¹ Then, after he returned home to Nazareth with them, he always obeyed them, and his mother carefully kept all these things that were said in her heart. ⁵² So Jesus continued to progress in wisdom, physical growth, and in the favor of God and men.

Chapter 3

¹ It was in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea and Herod was district ruler of Galilee (but Philip his brother was district ruler of the countries of Ituraea and Trachonitis), and Lysanias was district ruler of Abilene, ² in the days of High Priests AnNas and CaiAphas, that God's words came to John, the son of ZechariAh, [while he was] in the desert. ³ So he traveled throughout the country around the Jordan preaching a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins, ⁴ just as it was written about him in the book of the Prophet IsaiAh:

‘Listen!

Someone calls out in the desert:

Prepare the way for the Lord.

Straighten out all of his roads;

⁵ Fill the gullies and level the mountains and hills;

Straighten the curves and smooth-out the ruts,

⁶ So all flesh will be able to see

What God has provided to save them.’

⁷ And as he saw the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, he said to them: ‘Offspring of vipers; Who has frightened you into fleeing the rage that is about to arrive?’ ⁸ For you must first produce the type of fruitage that shows you’re ready for repentance!

‘And you shouldn’t say of yourselves, We have AbraHam as our father, because I tell you that God has the power to raise children of AbraHam from these stones!

⁹ ‘Why, the ax is now lying at the roots of the trees and every tree that doesn’t produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire!’

¹⁰ So the crowds started asking him: ‘Then what we must do?’

¹¹ And he replied: ‘Those who have two suits of clothes should share them with those who have none, and those who have something to eat should do the same thing.’

¹² Why, even the tax collectors came to be baptized. And when they asked, ‘Teacher, what should we do?’ ¹³ He told them, ‘Just collect a fair tax.’

¹⁴ Also, when those in the military came and asked him what they should do, he told them that they shouldn’t harass or falsely accuse anyone, and to be satisfied with just their provisions.

¹⁵ Well, since the people had been looking for [the coming of the Messiah] at that time, everyone was wondering in their hearts whether John was the Anointed One. ¹⁶ But John told them this: ‘My part is just to baptize in water. However, someone greater is coming behind me whose sandals I’m unfit to untie, and he’ll baptize you people with fire and [the Breath \[of God\]](#). ¹⁷ His shovel is already in his hand, and he’s going to sweep his threshing floor clean. Then he’ll carry the wheat to his barn, but he’ll burn the chaff with an unquenchable fire.’

¹⁸ [John] also said many other encouraging things as he was preaching the good news to the people.

¹⁹ However, Herod (the district ruler) had been scolded [by John] because of Herodias (his brother’s woman), and because of all the other bad things that he was doing. ²⁰ And [eventually], Herod added to this [badness] by locking John in jail.

²¹ Well, it was after all the [other] people had been baptized that [John] also baptized Jesus. And [Jesus] he was praying, the sky opened up ²² and the Holy Breath came down upon him in the shape of a dove. Then a voice came out of the sky [that said]: ‘You’re My Beloved Son and I approve of you.’

²³ Well, Jesus came into his power when he was about thirty years old, being the son \(as the opinion was\) of JoSeph, of Heli, ²⁴ of MatThat, of Levi, of Melchi, of JanNai, of JoSeph, ²⁵ of MatTathias, of Amos, of Nahum, of Esli, of NagGai, ²⁶ of MaAth, of MatTathias, of Semein, of JoSech, of Joda, ²⁷ of JoAnan, of Rhesa, of ZerubBabel, of ShealthiEl, of Neri, ²⁸ of Melchi, of Addi, of Cosam, of ElMadam, of Er, ²⁹ of JoShua, of EliEzer, of JoRim, of MatThat, of Levi, ³⁰ of Symeon, of Judas, of JoSeph, of JoNam, of EliAkim, ³¹ of Melea, of MenNa, of MatTatha, of Nathan, of David, ³² of Jesse, of Obed, of Boaz, of Salmon, of NahShon, ³³ of AmiNadab, of Arni, of HezRon, of Perez, of Judah, ³⁴ of Jacob, of IsaAc, of AbraHam, of Terah, of Nahor, ³⁵ of Serug, of Reu, of Peleg, of Heber, of SheLah, ³⁶ of Kainan, of ArPachShad, of Shem, of Noah, of Lamech, ³⁷ of MethuSelah, of Enoch, of Jared, of MaHalaleEl, of Kainan, ³⁸ of Enosh, of Seth, of Adam, of God.

Chapter 4

¹ [Well after this happened], Jesus became filled with the Holy Breath. Then he left the Jordan, and [God's] Breath led him into the desert, ² where he was tempted by the Slanderer for forty days. But because he hadn't eaten anything during that entire period, he became very hungry. ³ So the Slanderer came to him and said: 'If you are a son of The God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread!'

⁴ But Jesus told him, 'It is written: People can't live on just bread... they also need the Word of God.'

⁵ So [the Slanderer] took him up on a mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the earth in an instant of time, ⁶ and he said: 'I will give you glory and power over all of these. For they've all been given to me, and I can give them to whomever I wish. ⁷ They will all be yours if you'll just bow to your face before me.'

⁸ But Jesus replied: 'It is written:
*You should bow low before Jehovah, your God,
And Him alone, should you serve.*'

⁹ Then [the Slanderer] took him into JeruSalem and put him on one of the Temple's highest towers, and said: 'If you're a son of The God, jump down from here; ¹⁰ for it is written:
*He'll order His messengers to protect you;
¹¹ So they'll lift you up on their hands,
So you won't bump your foot on a stone.'*

¹² But Jesus replied: 'It is also said, You must not put Jehovah your God to the test.'

¹³ So after the Slanderer finished his tempting, he left him until the appointed time.

¹⁴ Then the Power of [\[God's\] Breath](#) moved Jesus to return to Galilee, and his fame spread throughout all that area. ¹⁵ He also started teaching in the synagogues, where he was honored by everyone.

¹⁶ Well, when he got to Nazareth (where he was brought up); as was his custom on the Sabbaths, he went into the synagogue and stood up to read. ¹⁷ Then someone handed him the scroll of the Prophet IsaiAh to read, so he opened it and found the place where it said:

¹⁸ ‘Jehovah’s Breath is upon me,
And I’ve been anointed by Him
To teach good news to the poor.

‘He sent me to heal broken hearts;
To proclaim a release to the captives;
A regaining of sight to the blind;
Deliverance to those who have been oppressed;

¹⁹ And to announce a year of [God’s] favor.’

²⁰ Thereafter, he rolled up the scroll and handed it back to the attendant, and he sat back down, as everyone in the synagogue was staring at him. ²¹ Then he said: ‘Today, this scripture that you just heard, has been fulfilled!’

²² Well after that, everyone started praising him as they marveled at the gracious words that were coming from his mouth. But they were also asking: ‘Isn’t this JoSeph’s son?’

²³ So he told them: ‘You would undoubtedly like to apply the words to me, Heal yourself, doctor! And, Do all the things that we heard you did in CapharNaum here in your own hometown!’

²⁴ Then he said, ‘I tell you the truth: No Prophet is ever accepted in his own hometown. ²⁵ Therefore, though it’s a fact that there were many widows in IsraEl back in the days of EliJah – back when the skies were closed up for three-and-a-half years, causing a terrible famine in the land – ²⁶ EliJah wasn’t sent to any of them; he was just sent to a widow in the land of Sidon. ²⁷ And though there were many lepers in IsraEl during the time of the Prophet EliSha; the only one who was cleansed was NaAman, a Syrian.’

²⁸ Well, this made everyone who heard him say this in the synagogue very angry, ²⁹ so they got up and pushed him outside to the edge of the mountain upon which the city was built, and they wanted to throw him down headfirst. ³⁰ But he just walked through their midst and continued on his way.

³¹ From there, he went on to Capharnaum (a city in Galilee), where he again taught on the Sabbath. ³² And those [people] were amazed by his way of teaching, because he spoke with such great authority. ³³ There he found a man in that synagogue [who was possessed by] an unclean demon. And [the demon] shouted at him: ³⁴ ‘Ah! What dealings do we have with you, Jesus... you Nazarene? Did you come here to destroy us? I know exactly who you are; [You’re] the Holy One of God!’

³⁵ But Jesus scolded it saying, ‘Put a muzzle on it and come out of him!’ So, the demon threw the man down in their midst, then it came out without hurting him.

³⁶ Well, everyone was astonished and they all started speaking to each other and asking, ‘What kind of talk is this? He gives orders to unclean spirits with authority and power, and out they come!’

³⁷ So the news about him was echoed everywhere throughout that entire region.

³⁸ Then, after he left that synagogue, he went to Simon’s house. And there, Simon’s mother-in-law was ill with a high fever, so they asked him to help her. ³⁹ So he stood over her and scolded the fever, and it left her. Then she got right up and started serving him.

⁴⁰ Well at sunset, all those who had people that were sick with various infirmities brought them to him, and he laid his hands on each one and cured them all. ⁴¹ Demons also came out of many of them, shouting, ‘You’re the Son of The God!’ But because they knew that he was the Anointed One, he scolded them and he wouldn’t allow them to speak.

⁴² Then the next day, he walked out by himself to an isolated place. But the crowds started searching for him, and when they finally found him, they tried to keep him from leaving. ⁴³ But he told them: ‘I have to preach the good news of the Kingdom of God to other cities... that’s the reason why I was sent here.’

⁴⁴ So thereafter, he preached in the synagogues throughout all of Galilee.

Chapter 5

⁵ But Simon replied: ‘Lord; We worked all night long and we didn’t catch anything. However, because you asked, I’ll lower the nets.’

⁶ Well when they did this, they netted a huge number of fish. In fact, their nets started to rip, ⁷ so they waved to their partners in another boat to come help them. And when they got there, they filled both boats to the point where they were about to sink!

⁸ And at seeing this, Simon (Peter) fell down at Jesus’ knees and said, ‘Get away from me, because I’m a sinful man, O Lord!’ ⁹ [He said this] because when they’d brought in so many fish, Simon and those who were with him were amazed and overwhelmed... ¹⁰ as were his partners James and John (the sons of Zebedaiou).

But Jesus said to Simon: ‘Stop being afraid! For from now on, you’re going to be catching men!’

¹¹ So then they rowed their boats back to land and they just walked away from everything to follow him.

¹² On another occasion, while he was in one of the cities, {Look!} there was a man who was full of leprosy. And when he saw Jesus, he fell to his face and begged: ‘Lord; If you just want to, you can make me clean!’

¹³ So [Jesus] stuck out his hand and touched him, saying, ‘I want to... be clean.’ And immediately, the leprosy left the man.

¹⁴ Thereafter, he ordered the man not to tell anyone about this. He just said, ‘Go and show yourself to the Priests and give an offering for your cleansing as a witness to them, just as Moses commanded.’

¹⁵ However, word about him kept spreading, and huge crowds would assemble both to listen and to be cured of their illnesses. ¹⁶ As the result, [Jesus] had to go into the desert to even pray.

¹⁷ Well, several days later (as he was teaching), some Pharisees and teachers of the Law were there [sitting among a crowd] of people who had come from every village of Galilee, Judea, and from JeruSalem, because [Jesus] was healing by the power of Jehovah.

¹⁸ Then {Look!} some men arrived who were carrying a paralyzed man that was lying on a cot, and they were trying to find a way to bring the man to [Jesus]. ¹⁹ But because they couldn’t get through the crowd, they climbed up on the roof and lowered the little cot through the tiles, down in front of Jesus. ²⁰ And when he saw their faith, he said: ‘Man; Your sins are forgiven!’

²² But Jesus recognized what they were thinking and he asked them: ‘What are you concluding in your hearts? ²³ Which is easier to say, Your sins are forgiven, or, Get up and walk? ²⁴ But, just so you’ll know that the Son of Man has been given the authority to forgive sins on the earth,’ he then said to the paralyzed man: ‘I tell you; Get up, pick up your little cot, and go home!’ ²⁵ And at that, the man stood right up before them all, then he picked up the [cot] that he had been lying on and went home, glorifying God.

²⁶ Well, everyone was delighted and they too started glorifying God. But they were also frightened and said, ‘We’ve seen some very strange things today!’

²⁷ Then sometime later, [Jesus] went out and happened to notice a tax collector named Levi sitting in the tax office, and he said to him, ‘Come be my follower!’ ²⁸ Well, [Levi] got right up, and leaving everything behind, he started following him.

²⁹ Then that evening, Levi held a big reception feast for [Jesus] in his home, where a large crowd of tax collectors and others were reclining with him at the meal. ³⁰ So the Pharisees and their scribes started complaining to the disciples, asking, ‘Why is he eating and drinking with the tax collectors and sinners?’

³¹ But Jesus told them: ‘Those who are healthy don’t need a doctor, only the sick do. ³² So I came to call sinners to repentance, not righteous people.’

³³ Then later on, they said this to him: ‘Why is it that though John’s disciples and those of the Pharisees fast frequently in order to make requests [of God], your [disciples] just go on eating and drinking?’

³⁴ And Jesus told them: ‘Friends of the bridegroom can’t be expected to fast while the groom is with them, can they? ³⁵ But the days will surely come when the groom will be taken away; and in those days, they will fast.’

³⁶ Then he gave them this illustration:

‘No one cuts a patch from new cloth
To repair a rip in old clothes.

For, if they do, the patch will rip out...

And the new patch won’t match the old anyhow.

³⁷ ‘And they don’t put new wine in old wineskins.

For new wine will burst the old skins,

Breaking the skins and spilling the wine...

³⁸ So new wine is put in new wineskins.

³⁹ And all who have tasted the old wine,

Don’t want the new, anyhow;

For they say that the old [wine] is better!’

Chapter 6

¹ Now, [Jesus] happened to be walking through some grain fields on a Sabbath and his disciples had been picking the grain, rubbing it in their hands, and eating it. ² So some of the Pharisees asked him, ‘Why are they doing something that isn’t legal on the Sabbath?’

³ And Jesus replied: ‘Haven’t you ever read how David did the same thing when he and his men got hungry... ⁴ how he went into the Temple of God and ate the presentation bread, sharing some with his men... something that isn’t legal for anyone to eat other than the Priests?’ ⁵ Then he added, ‘The Son of Man is the Lord of the Sabbath!’

⁶ And on another Sabbath, he again went into the synagogue and started teaching. Well, there he found a man whose right hand was withered, ⁷ and the scribes and Pharisees were watching [Jesus] closely to see if he would cure him on the Sabbath, so they could accuse him of some wrongdoing. ⁸ However, because [Jesus] knew what they were thinking, he said to the man with the withered hand: ‘Get up and go stand in the center [of the room].’ So [the man went over there] and stood. ⁹ Then Jesus asked them all: ‘Is it legal to do good or bad, or to save a life or destroy it on the Sabbath?’ ¹⁰ And after looking around at everyone, he said to the man: ‘Now stretch out your hand.’ And when he did, his hand was healed! ¹¹ Nevertheless, [the scribes and Pharisees] went into a rage, and they started talking to each other about what they could do to Jesus.

¹² It was also about this time that Jesus went up a mountain to pray, and he spent the whole night there in prayer to God. ¹³ Then the next day, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them whom he started calling Apostles (Sent Ones). ¹⁴ There was Simon (whom he also named Peter) and his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, BarTholomew ([NathaniEl]), ¹⁵ Matthew, Thomas, James ([the son] of AlphaEus), Simon (who is called the zealous one), ¹⁶ Judas ([ThadDaeus]) [the son] of James, and Judas IsCariot (who turned traitor).

¹⁷ Well, after they came down [the mountain], he found a level spot where a large group of his disciples, as well as a huge crowd of people from Judea, JeruSalem, and the seaside areas of Tyre and Sidon came to listen to him and to be healed of their illnesses. ¹⁸ And there, as many people who had been bothered by unclean spirits were being healed, ¹⁹ everyone in the crowd was trying to touch him. So power flowed from him, and he healed them all.

²⁰ Then he looked at his disciples and he said this to them:

‘Blest are the poor, for theirs is the Kingdom of God;

²¹ Blest are the hungry, for they will be filled;

And blest are those who are crying,

For they will find reasons to laugh.

²² ‘You are blest whenever men hate you

And do not wish to be with you;

Or when they say bad things about you

And call you wicked for the Son of Man’s sake.

²³ In that day, be happy, and jump for joy,

For {Look!} your reward in the heavens is great,

Since these are the very same things

That their fathers used to say of the Prophets.

²⁴ ‘But, woe to you who are rich,

For you won’t receive any comfort.

²⁵ And woe to you with full [stomachs],

For you’ll be the ones going hungry.

Also, woe to you who are laughing,

Because you’ll be crying and mourning.

²⁶ Yes, woe when they say nice things about you,

For that’s what their fathers said of false prophets.

²⁷ ‘I say this to all who will listen:

Show love for those who oppose you,

And do good to all those who hate you.

²⁸ Yes, praise the ones that would curse you,

And pray for those who insult you.

²⁹ ‘If someone should slap you on [the right] cheek,

Turn [your left] to him also.

And if someone should take all your clothes,

Give him your underwear too.

³⁰ ‘Yes, to each one who asks, you should give,
And don’t tell them that they must repay...

³¹ Treat others as you wish to be treated.

³² ‘If you love just those who love you,
What kind of good are you doing?
Even sinners love those who love them.

³³ ‘And if you’re good to just those who do good for you,
What kind of kindness are you showing?
Even sinners will do that same thing.

³⁴ ‘If you choose to lend without interest
To those whom you know will repay you,
What kind of good deed are you doing?
For, sinners lend to sinners without interest
When they know that they’ll be paid back.

³⁵ ‘So, love those [who hate you] and do what is good,
And lend without hope of return;
Then, you will receive a better reward...
You’ll be the sons of the Most High,
Who is kind to even the ungrateful...

³⁶ Show mercy as your Father shows mercy.

³⁷ ‘[Do not judge \[others\]](#), so you won’t be judged...
Do not condemn, and you won’t be condemned...
Set free, and you’ll be set free.

³⁸ ‘Give to others and you will receive...
They’ll give you a generous portion,
Overflowing and tightly packed down.
For the amount that you measure [to others]
Is the amount that they’ll measure to you.

³⁹ Then he spoke these parables to them:

‘If a blind man leads another blind man,
Won’t they both fall into a pit?’

⁴⁰ ‘A disciple isn’t over his teacher,
But those who learn [from their teachers]
Will then become like their teachers.

⁴¹ ‘Why look for chaff in your brother’s eye,
When you can’t see the rafter in yours?

⁴² For, how can you say to your brother,
Let me remove that [chaff] from your eye,
When you can’t see the rafter in yours?

Hypocrite!

First remove the rafter from your own eye,
And then you’ll be able to see clearly
How to take the [chaff] from your brother’s eye.

⁴³ ‘A good tree doesn’t produce rotten fruit
And a rotten tree doesn’t give good fruit...

⁴⁴ And all trees are known by their fruit.

So, as you don’t pick figs from briars,
And you don’t cut grapes from thorn bushes;

⁴⁵ A good man brings good from the good in his heart,
While the wicked bring bad things from theirs;
For their mouths speak from all the badness
That they have treasured in their hearts.

⁴⁶ ‘And why call out to me saying, Lord, Lord,
If you don’t do the things that I say?

⁴⁷ Those who come here to listen and do as I say

⁴⁸ Are like the man who dug down to rock
To lay the foundation for his house.

So when floods and the river washed on it,
It stood, because it was built upon rock.

⁴⁹ But, those who don’t listen and do as I say
Are like the man who built his house on the ground.
So, when the river washed on it,
It collapsed, resulting in damage.’

Chapter 7

¹ Well, after he had finished saying all these things within earshot of the people, he traveled on to CapharNaum. ² And there, a [\[Roman\] centurion](#) who had a trusted servant that was sick and near death ³ sent some Judean elders to ask him to come and save his slave's life (for he'd heard about Jesus). ⁴ So they quickly went to Jesus and begged him, saying: '[The centurion] is worthy of your doing this for him, ⁵ because he loves our nation and he built a synagogue for us!'

⁶ So Jesus went off with them. But he wasn't very far from the house when the centurion sent his friends to say, 'Sir, don't bother [to come here], because I'm unfit to have you under my roof. ⁷ It's only because I consider myself so unworthy that I didn't come to you personally. Just say the word and [I know that] my servant will be healed. ⁸ For I'm also a man who has been given authority, since I have soldiers that are under me. So if I tell this one to leave, he leaves, and if I tell that one to come, he comes... whatever I tell my servants to do, they do.'

⁹ Well when Jesus heard this, he was amazed, and he turned to the crowd that was following him and said: 'I tell you; I haven't found this much faith anywhere in IsraEl!' ¹⁰ And then, after the friends who were sent returned to the man's house, they found his slave to be in good health.

¹¹ Then from there, Jesus traveled with his disciples (there was quite a crowd of them) to a city called Nain. ¹² And as he was approaching the city gate, {Look!} he saw that they were carrying out [the body] of a man who had just died... the only son of a woman who was a widow, and she was being followed by a large crowd [of mourners]. ¹³ So when the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity and he said to her, 'Stop crying.' ¹⁴ Then he went over and touched the open casket; and at that, the pallbearers stopped. And Jesus said: 'Young man; I tell you to get up!'

¹⁵ Well, the man who had been dead then sat up and started talking... and then [Jesus] gave him to his mother.

¹⁶ Of course, everyone was startled by this, and they all started glorifying God, saying, ‘A great Prophet has been raised among us,’ and, ‘God has started paying attention to His people!’ ¹⁷ So thereafter, the news about him was spread throughout all of Judea and all the lands roundabout.

¹⁸ Meanwhile, John’s disciples had been reporting back to him about the things that were happening. ¹⁹ So John called two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?’ ²⁰ And when they got to [Jesus], the men told him: ‘John the Baptist sent us to ask if you’re the Anointed One, or if we are to expect someone else.’

²¹ Well during that hour, Jesus cured many people who were ill, or in great pain, or who had wicked spirits, and he granted many blind people the gift of vision. ²² And after that, he told [John’s disciples]: ‘Now, go back and report what you’ve seen and heard to John. [Tell him that] the blind are seeing, the lame are walking, lepers are being cleansed, the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised, and the poor are hearing the good news... ²³ so the one who isn’t stumbled by me will be blest.’

²⁴ Well, after John’s messengers left, he asked the crowd this about John:
‘What did you go to the desert to see...
Reeds being blown in the wind?

²⁵ Yes, what did you go out to see...
A man who is dressed in soft clothes?
Those who dress well and live well,
Are also those living in mansions.

²⁶ ‘So, what did you go out to see... a Prophet?
Yes, and I say, much more than a Prophet,
²⁷ For, he’s the one of whom it was written:
*{Look!} I will send My messenger before him,
To prepare the road that he’ll travel.*

²⁸ ‘So I tell you this:
Of all those born of a woman,
None have been greater than John.

Yet, the least in the Kingdom of God
Will be greater than him.’

²⁹ Well, when all the common people and the tax collectors heard this, they praised God’s righteousness, because they had all been baptized with John’s baptism. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and those who were trained in the Law disregarded this counsel from God and they didn’t go out to be baptized by John. ³¹ [So, Jesus said this to them]:

‘To what can I compare this generation...

Yes, what are they really like?

³² They’re like children that play in the markets
And then shout at each other and say:

We played the flute, but you didn’t dance...

We wailed, but you didn’t cry.

³³ ‘For when John the Baptist arrived,
He didn’t feast or drink any wine...

Yet, you said that he had a demon!

³⁴ But when the Son of Man arrived

Willing to eat and drink wine,

You called him an alcoholic and glutton...

A friend to tax collectors and sinners!

³⁵ But, wisdom is proven righteous by her children.’

³⁶ Thereafter, one of the Pharisees invited [Jesus] to dine with him, so he went to the Pharisee’s house and reclined at his table. ³⁷ But {Look!} a woman of the city (a known sinner) who had learned that [Jesus] was going to recline for a meal in the house of the Pharisee brought in an alabaster jar of perfumed ointment, ³⁸ and she reclined behind him at his feet and started weeping and wetting his feet with her tears, then wiping them dry with her hair, as she tenderly kissed his feet and greased them with the perfumed ointment.

³⁹ Well when the Pharisee who invited him saw this, he thought to himself: ‘If this man was truly a Prophet, he’d know who it is and just what kind of woman is touching him... she’s a sinner!’

⁴⁰ Then Jesus said to him: ‘Simon, I have something to tell you.’

And [Simon] replied: ‘Go ahead and tell it, Teacher!’

⁴¹ ‘There were two men who each owed money to a certain lender; one was in debt for five hundred silver coins, and the other for fifty. ⁴² Well, when neither could pay him back, he freely forgave them both. So, which one will love him more?’

⁴³ Then Simon answered: ‘I guess it’s the one for whom he forgave the most.’

And [Jesus] said: ‘You judged correctly.’

⁴⁴ Then Jesus turned and looked at the woman, and he said to Simon: ‘Do you see this woman? When I entered your house, you didn’t give me any water for my feet... yet this woman wet my feet with her tears and she wiped them dry with her hair. ⁴⁵ And you didn’t greet me with a kiss... yet from the time that I entered, this woman has been tenderly kissing my feet. ⁴⁶ You didn’t grease my head with oil either... yet this woman greased my feet with perfumed ointment. ⁴⁷ So I tell you: Although she has many sins, they are forgiven because she showed a lot of love. However, who haven’t been forgiven for much, don’t love as much.’

⁴⁸ Then he told her: ‘Your sins are forgiven.’

⁴⁹ Well at that, those who were reclining at the table with him started wondering within themselves, ‘Just who is this man that [thinks he can] even forgive sins?’

⁵⁰ But he said to the woman: ‘Your faith has saved you. Go your own way in peace.’

Chapter 8

¹ Well after that, [Jesus] started traveling from city to city and village to village with the twelve, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of God. ² Also [traveling with him] were some women whom [he had] cured of wicked spirits and illnesses. There was Mary (who is called the Magdalen) from whom seven demons had come out, ³ Joanna the wife of Chuza (Herod’s top aid), as well as Susanna and many others who were serving his needs from their possessions.

⁴ Well, when a large crowd had gathered along with those who were traveling with him from city to city, he spoke to them using this parable:

⁵ ‘A farmer went out to plant seeds.

And as he was planting, some fell by the road,
Which were walked on, and birds came to eat them.

⁶ Others fell among rocks,
Where they dried up after they sprouted,
Because there was too little water.

⁷ Still others fell among thorns,
Which grew and then choked them out.

⁸ But, some fell on the good soil and grew,
Producing fruit a hundred times more.’

And after he said this, he shouted: ‘Let those who have ears to hear, listen to me!’

⁹ Well, his disciples later asked him what this parable meant. ¹⁰ So he said: ‘While you’ve been allowed to understand the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, the rest of these people just hear the stories. So when they look, they look in vain, and when they hear, they don’t understand.

¹¹ ‘Now, the illustration means this: The seeds are the word of God. ¹² Those [that fall] by the road are those that hear, but then the Slanderer comes and snatches the word from their hearts, so they don’t believe and come to salvation.

¹³ ‘Those that fall on the rocks are the ones that hear and welcome the word with joy; but because they don’t have any roots, they only believe for a season. So when a time of testing comes along, they fall away.

¹⁴ ‘As for those that fall among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard, but because of their daily concerns such as [seeking] wealth and the pleasures of living, they are choked out and fail to produce any fruit.

¹⁵ ‘However, [those that fall] on the good soil have good and pure hearts; and after hearing the Word, they remember it and keep on bearing fruit. ¹⁶ For, no one who lights a lamp covers it with a pot or hides it under a bed... they put it on a lampstand, so those who step in can see by the light.

¹⁷ So there's nothing hidden that will not be shown,
Or nothing covered that will not be known
And then brought out in the light.

¹⁸ 'So pay attention to the way that you listen;
For, those who have will be given more.
But, as for those who have nothing;
What they think that they have will be taken from them.'

¹⁹ It was then that [\[Jesus'\] mother and brothers](#) came to see him, but they were unable to reach him because of the crowd. ²⁰ So someone came up to him and said: 'Your mother and brothers are waiting outside and [they] want to see you.'

²¹ But he replied: 'My mother and brothers are these who hear the word of God and obey it.'

²² Well, some days later, [Jesus] and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them: 'Let's cross over to the other side of the lake.' So they set off. ²³ And as they were sailing along, he fell asleep.

But then, a violent windstorm soon came down on the lake and the boat started taking on water, putting them in a dangerous situation. ²⁴ So [the disciples] went over and woke Jesus up and said, 'Lord... Lord... We're about to drown!' Then when he awoke, he scolded the wind and the raging water, which made them suddenly become very calm and peaceful. ²⁵ And he asked them: 'Where is your faith?'

Well, they were frightened and awestruck [by what had happened], and they started asking each other, 'Who really is this? For he even orders the wind and waves and they obey him!'

²⁶ Then from there, they sailed on to the country of the GeraSenes, which is on the shore directly across from Galilee. ²⁷ And when he stepped out on land, a demonized man came from the city to meet him. This man hadn't worn clothing for some time, and he didn't live in a house, for he stayed among the tombs. ²⁸ And when he saw Jesus, he screamed and fell down in front of him, shouting: 'What dealings do I have with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you... Don't torment me!' ²⁹

([He said this, because Jesus] had ordered the unclean spirit to come out of the man).

[This man had been] arrested repeatedly, then bound with chains and leg irons and put under guard. But he would break the chains, and the demons forced him to [live in] such isolated places.

³⁰ So Jesus asked him: ‘What is your name?’

And they replied: ‘Legion’ (because many demons had entered him). ³¹ And they kept begging him not to order them to go away into the abyss.

³² At the time, a large herd of pigs happened to be feeding there on the mountain; so they begged [Jesus] to allow them to go into [the pigs]... and he gave them permission. ³³ Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the whole herd ran down a steep drop-off into the lake and drowned.

³⁴ Well when the herders saw this, they ran and reported what had happened throughout the whole city and countryside. ³⁵ As the result, the people all came to see this; and when they got to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had come out wearing clothes and in his right mind there at Jesus’ feet... and this frightened them.

³⁶ Then those who had witnessed all that had happened explained to the people how the demon-possessed man had been cured. ³⁷ And the huge number that came from the surrounding area started begging [Jesus] to leave them, because they were so frightened. So he stepped back into the boat for their return. ³⁸ However, the man from whom the demons had come out [started begging \[Jesus\] to let him go back with him](#). But he sent the man away, saying, ³⁹ ‘Just go home and tell everyone about all the things that God has done for you.’ So the man went away and spread the word about what Jesus had done throughout the whole city.

⁴⁰ Meanwhile, a crowd was waiting for Jesus when he got back, because they were all expecting him. ⁴¹ And {Look!} a man named JaiRus (who was a presiding officer of the [local] synagogue) came to him and fell at Jesus’ feet, begging him to come to his home, ⁴² because his only daughter (who was about twelve years old) was dying.

Well, as he was on his way [to the man's house], the people were all crowded closely around him. ⁴³ And a woman who had [been experiencing] a blood flow for some twelve years (and whom no one had been able to cure) ⁴⁴ came up behind him and touched the fringe of his robe... and her flow of blood stopped instantly.

⁴⁵ So Jesus asked, 'Who touched me?'

Well, everyone denied it. And Peter said: 'Master; there's a whole crowd of people around you [and they're all] touching you!'

⁴⁶ But Jesus said: 'Someone else touched me, because I felt the power flowing out of me.'

⁴⁷ So, seeing that [what she did] didn't go unnoticed, the woman came up trembling and fell down in front of Jesus, then she told everyone why she touched him and of how she had been healed instantly. ⁴⁸ So [Jesus] said to her: 'Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go your own way in peace.'

⁴⁹ Then, as he was still talking, someone came up beside the presiding officer of the synagogue and said, 'Your daughter has died, so don't bother the teacher anymore.'

⁵⁰ But when he heard this, Jesus said to the man: 'Don't be afraid; just have faith and she'll be saved.'

⁵¹ Well when he got to the man's house, he wouldn't let anyone go inside with him other than Peter, John, James, and the girl's father and mother.

⁵² Meanwhile, the people were all crying and beating themselves in grief over her. So he said to them: 'Stop crying! The girl isn't dead, she's just sleeping.'

⁵³ Well, they all started laughing at him, because they all knew that she had died. ⁵⁴ But then he went inside and took her by the hand and called her, saying, 'Child, get up'... ⁵⁵ and she started breathing, then she stood up! So he told [her parents] to give her something to eat. ⁵⁶ They were of course beside themselves [with joy]... but he warned them not to tell anyone what had really happened.

¹ After that, he brought twelve of them to him, and he gave them power and authority over the demons and [the power] to cure illnesses. ² Then he sent them off to preach about the Kingdom of God and to do healing. ³ He told them: ‘Don’t carry anything with you... not a staff, or a food pouch, or bread, or silver, or even two pairs of underwear. ⁴ But wherever you enter a home, lodge there and go out [to preach]. ⁵ And wherever people fail to welcome you, just shake the dust off your feet as you are leaving that city, as a witness against them.’

⁶ So they left and traveled throughout all the villages, declaring the good news and curing people everywhere.

⁷ Meanwhile, Herod (the district ruler) had heard about everything that was happening, and he was bothered by doubts. For, some were saying that he was really John who had been raised from the dead, ⁸ while others were saying that EliJah had appeared, and still others were saying that he was one of the ancient Prophets who had risen. ⁹ But Herod was wondering: ‘Since I beheaded John, who is this man about whom I’m hearing so many things?’ And he looked for an opportunity to see [Jesus].

¹⁰ Well, after the Apostles had returned [from their preaching], they told [Jesus] about all that they had done. Then he took them along with him to a place where they could be alone, close to a city called BethSaida. ¹¹ However, when the crowds learned where he was going, they followed him... and he kindly welcomed them and started speaking to them about the Kingdom of God, as he healed those who needed a cure.

¹² Well, as the day was drawing to a close, the twelve came to him and said: ‘You should dismiss the crowd so they can go into the villages and surrounding countryside to find provisions and a place to rest, because this is a very desolate place.’

¹³ But he said: ‘Why don’t you give them something to eat?’

And they replied: ‘We don’t have anything... other than five loaves [of bread] and two fish. Should we go out and buy food for all these people... ¹⁴ for there are about five thousand of them!’

But he told his disciples: ‘Have them recline as they do at meals in rows of about fifty each.’

¹⁵ So [the Apostles] did this, and everyone reclined on the ground. ¹⁶ Then he took the five [loaves of] bread and the two fish, and after looking up to the heavens, he spoke a blessing over them, broke them up, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. ¹⁷ Then everyone ate until they were satisfied... and [afterward], they picked up twelve baskets of leftovers!

¹⁸ Well later, as he was praying in a quiet spot, his disciples came to him and he asked them: ‘Who are the crowds saying that I am?’

¹⁹ And they replied: ‘Some are saying that you are John the Baptist, others are saying that you are EliJah, while others are saying that you’re one of the ancient Prophets who has been raised.’

²⁰ Then he asked: ‘You though; Who do you say that I am?’

And Peter replied: ‘[You are] God’s Anointed One.’

²¹ And at that, he firmly instructed them not to say this to anyone.

²² Then he told them this: ‘The Son of Man must suffer many things... he will be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and he will be killed. But on the third day, he will awaken.’

²³ And after that, he said this to [all of his followers]: ‘If you wish to follow me, you must set aside everything else that you want, then pick up your own impaling pole every day and walk behind me. ²⁴ For those who wish to save their lives will lose them, while those who lose their lives for my sake will save them. ²⁵ Indeed, what profit is there for a man who gains the whole world just to lose it or to be destroyed? ²⁶ Yet if anyone is ashamed of me and what I’m saying; the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he arrives in his glory and the in glory of the Father and His holy messengers. ²⁷ And I tell you the truth; some [of you who are] standing here will not taste death until you've seen the Kingdom of God!

²⁸ Well, just as he said, this is what happened about eight days later. For he'd taken Peter, John, and James up on a mountain to pray; ²⁹ and as he was praying, his face changed and his clothes started to glow. ³⁰ Then {Look!} two men appeared and started talking to him... it was Moses and EliJah... ³¹ they could recognize them! And these men started talking [to Jesus] about his departure that was about to be fulfilled in JeruSalem.

³² Until then, Peter and the others had been very sleepy. But when they saw his glory and the two men standing with him, they were suddenly wide-awake. ³³ And through the separation between them, Peter said to Jesus: 'Master; It's good for us to be here, so let us erect three temporary structures... one for you, one for Moses, and one for EliJah' (but he really didn't know what he was saying). ³⁴ And just as he said that, a cloud formed and started to cover them. Then [Moses and EliJah] disappeared into the cloud, which frightened [the Apostles]. ³⁵ And a voice came from the cloud that said, 'This is My Son... the one whom I've chosen. Listen to him!'

³⁷ Then the next day, as they were coming down the mountain, they were met by a huge crowd. ³⁸ And {Look!} a man shouted from the crowd: 'Teacher! I beg you to take a look at my son, for he's the only one that I have! ³⁹ Look! A spirit comes over him and he screams; then it throws him into convulsions and he foams [at the mouth]. And though it stops after that, it leaves him all bruised. ⁴⁰ I begged your disciples to throw it out, but they couldn't do it!'

⁴¹ So Jesus said: 'O faithless and twisted generation; How much longer must I stay among you and put up with you? Bring your son over here!'

⁴² However, just as [the son] was approaching, the demon threw him to the ground and forced him into a violent convulsion. But Jesus scolded the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father... and everyone was astonished by the majestic power of God.

⁴³ Well, his disciples were stunned by all the things that [Jesus] was doing, but then he said to them: ⁴⁴ ‘Let these words live in your ears: The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men!’ ⁴⁵ However, they still didn’t understand what he was saying. In fact, it was hidden from them so they couldn’t understand, and they were afraid to ask him anything more.

⁴⁶ But then later, [the Apostles] started wondering which of them would be the greatest. ⁴⁷ And because Jesus knew what they were thinking in their hearts, he took a little boy and sat him down next to him, ⁴⁸ then he said: ‘Whoever welcomes this young child in my name, welcomes me. And whoever welcomes me, welcomes the One who sent me. Therefore, the one who acts as the least one among you will be the greatest.’

⁴⁹ Well later, John said: ‘Master, we saw a man casting out demons by using your name and we tried to stop him, because he isn’t one of us!’

⁵⁰ But Jesus said to him: ‘Don’t try to stop him, because those who aren’t against you are for you!’

⁵¹ Now, since the number of days before he was going to be taken were about to be fulfilled, Jesus became firm in his resolve to go up to JeruSalem. ⁵² So he sent messengers ahead of him, and they entered a Samaritan village in order to prepare [for his arrival]. ⁵³ However, [the people there told them] that he wasn’t welcome if he was headed toward JeruSalem. ⁵⁴ And when the Disciples James and John [heard about] this, they asked Jesus, ‘Lord, do you want us to call fire down from the sky to wipe them out?’ ⁵⁵ But he turned and scolded them, ⁵⁶ and they traveled on to another village.

⁵⁷ Well, as they were traveling along the road, someone said to [Jesus]: ‘Lord, I’ll follow you wherever you go!’

⁵⁸ And Jesus told him: ‘Foxes have burrows, and [birds] in the skies have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.’

⁵⁹ Well after that, he invited someone else to become his follower. But the man replied: ‘First let me go and bury my father.’

⁶⁰ And [Jesus] told him: ‘Let the dead bury their own dead. You should go out and preach about the Kingdom of God!’

⁶¹ Then another one came up and said, ‘I’ll follow you Lord... but first let me say goodbye to those in my home.’

⁶² However Jesus told him: ‘No one who looks back after he puts his hands to a plow is well suited for the Kingdom of God.’

Chapter 10

‘Remember this: The Kingdom of God is really near! ¹² And I tell you; It will be easier for Sodom to endure [\[the Judgment\] day](#) than for such a city to do so.

¹³ ‘So, woe to you ChoraZin, and woe to you BethSaida; for if the powerful deeds that happened in you had also happened in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in sackcloth and ashes a long time ago.

¹⁴ This is why it will be easier for Tyre and Sidon to endure the Judgment Day than for you. ¹⁵ And you, O Capharnaum; Will you be lifted into the heavens? [No]! You will go down to the place of the dead!

¹⁶ ‘Understand that those who listen to you are also listening to me, and those who ignore you are also ignoring me... and those who ignore me are ignoring the One who sent me.’

¹⁷ Well, when the seventy whom Jesus had sent out in pairs finally returned, they joyfully said to him: ‘Lord, even the demons obeyed us when we used your name!’

¹⁸ And he replied: {Look!} ‘I saw the Opposer falling like lightning from the sky. ¹⁹ For I’ve given you the authority to walk on serpents, scorpions, and on the power of the enemy... and nothing will harm you!

²⁰ However, don’t be joyful because [evil] spirits obeyed you; be joyful that your names have now been written in the heavens!’

²¹ Then the Holy Breath caused him to shout out joyfully: ‘I publicly praise You Father, Lord of the heavens and the earth, because You’ve hidden these things from the wise and understanding, but You’ve uncovered them to infants. Yes Father; this is why such clear reasoning was approved by You.

²² ‘Now my Father has given me everything! For no one knows the Son as well as the Father, [and no one knows] the Father as well as the Son... and those to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.’

²³ Then with that, he turned to his disciples and spoke to them privately, saying: ‘The eyes that are seeing the things that you’re seeing, are blest;

²⁴ for I tell you that many prophets and kings wished to see the things that you’re seeing, and didn’t see them, and to hear the things you’re hearing, but didn’t hear them.’

²⁵ {Look!} Then a man who knew the Law very well stood up [in the crowd], and to test [Jesus], he asked: ‘Teacher, what must I do to inherit age-long life?’

²⁶ And [Jesus] replied: ‘What is written in the Law.... what have you read there?’

²⁷ Then the man said: ‘You must love Jehovah your God with your whole heart, soul, strength, and mind, and your neighbor as yourself.’

²⁸ And [Jesus] replied: ‘That’s the right answer. Keep on doing that and you’ll live.’

²⁹ But [because the man] wanted to show how righteous he was, he asked Jesus: ‘Well then, just who really is my neighbor?’

³⁰ And this is how Jesus replied: ‘A man was traveling from JeruSalem to JeriCho when he was jumped by some robbers. They stripped him, beat him up, and left him for dead. ³¹ Well, it so happened that a Priest was traveling along the same road. But when he saw [the injured man], he passed on the opposite side. ³² In the same way, when a Levite reached that place and saw him, he too passed on the opposite side. ³³ However, when a Samaritan came along and saw him, he felt pity for him. ³⁴ So he got down and poured oil and wine on his wounds and bandaged them. Then he mounted the man on his own animal and carried him to an inn, where he cared for him. ³⁵ And the next day, he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper, and told him: Attend to this man, and I’ll repay you for all that you spend beyond this when I return.

³⁶ ‘Now, which of the three men seems to have made himself a neighbor to the person who had been jumped by the robbers?’

³⁷ And the [young man] answered: ‘The one who showed mercy to him.’ Then Jesus said: ‘Go on your way and do the same thing.’

³⁸ Now, as they were traveling along, they entered a certain village where there was a woman named Martha, who welcomed him into her home. ³⁹ This woman had a sister named Mary, who then sat down at the feet of the Lord and listened to all that he was saying. ⁴⁰ But at the time, Martha was distracted, because she was busy [preparing \[a meal\]](#). So she came to him and said: ‘Lord, doesn’t it bother you that my sister has left me to do all the preparing by myself? Tell her to give me a hand!’

⁴¹ But the Lord replied: ‘Martha, Martha; You’re worried and upset about [preparing] many things, ⁴² when all we need is just a few things... or just one. Mary has chosen the best part... something that they can't take away from her.'

Chapter 11

¹ Jesus was in a certain place praying; and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him: 'Lord, teach us how to pray, as John taught his disciples.'

² Then he told them, 'When you pray, you should say:

*Our Father who is in the heavens;
May Your Name be treated as Holy,
And may Your Kingdom arrive.
May Your Will be done on the earth
As it is done in the heavens.*

³ Give us the bread that we need for each day,

⁴ *And [please] forgive us our sins
As we forgive those indebted to us.
Into temptation, don't let us be led,
And from the evil one, save us.'*

⁵ Then he asked: 'Which of you has a friend to whom you could go at midnight and say, Friend, loan me three loaves [of bread] ⁶ because another friend of mine has arrived after a long journey, and I don't have anything [to feed him]? ⁷ Wouldn't he call to you from inside [his house] and say, Don't give me any trouble; my door is already locked and my kids are here in bed with me, so I can't get up and give you anything! ⁸ But I tell you the truth; Although he won't get up to give you anything because he's your friend, he will get up and give you what you need if you keep on bothering him.

⁹ 'Therefore,

If you keep asking, you will receive;
If you keep searching, you'll find;
And if you keep knocking, it will be opened.

¹⁰ For, those who keep asking, will [get what they ask];
Those who keep searching will find [what they want];
And for all who keep knocking, the door will be opened.

¹¹ ‘Now, which father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish? ¹² Or if he asks for an egg, who would hand him a scorpion? ¹³ Therefore, if you in your wicked condition know to give good gifts to your children; how much more will your Father in heaven give Holy Breath to those who keep asking Him!’

¹⁴ Well, [Jesus] had once cast out a demon that was causing a man to be unable to talk. And after the demon came out, the man spoke, which amazed the crowds. ¹⁵ But some of [the Pharisees] said, ‘He’s throwing out the demons with the help of BeElZebub, the ruler of the demons.’ ¹⁶ And at the same time, others were trying to tempt him by asking him to give them a sign from heaven. ¹⁷ But, knowing what they were thinking, he said this:

‘A kingdom that’s divided can be conquered,
And a house that’s [divided] can fall.

¹⁸ So if the Opposer is opposing himself,
How can his kingdom survive?

‘Now, you say that I’m casting out demons by the power of BeElZebub. ¹⁹ But if I’m casting out demons by BeElZebub; whose [power] are your sons using when they do the same? It’s over things such as this that you’re going to be condemned. ²⁰ For if I’m really casting out demons by the finger of God, you’ve been overrun by His Kingdom!

²¹ ‘When a strong, well-armed man guards his mansion,
All of his things will be safe.

²² But if someone who’s stronger should come there
And take the weapons in which he put trust;
He will divide up the loot.

²³ ‘Now, those who aren’t with me are against me, and those who don’t gather with me are pushing people away!

²⁴ ‘For when an unclean spirit comes out of a man,
It travels through [many] dry places
In search of a [good] place to rest.
And when it doesn’t find one, it says:
I’ll go back to the house that I moved from.

²⁵ ‘Then, when he sees it swept and arranged,

²⁶ He goes back with seven more spirits

That are even more wicked than he.

And after they get back inside,

They’ll all continue to live there.

And so, the end result for that man

Is worse than it was at the start.’

²⁷ Now, as he was saying these things, a certain woman in the crowd shouted, ‘Blest is the womb that carried you and the breasts that you sucked!’

²⁸ But he replied: ‘No, blest are those who hear the word of God and obey it!’

²⁹ Well, a crowd was starting to form, so he said: ‘This is a wicked generation that is always looking for signs. But no sign will be given to it other than the sign of Jonah... ³⁰ for as Jonah was a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be to this generation.

³¹ ‘Why, the Queen of the South will be raised in the Judgment along with this generation, and she will condemn it. For she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon’s wisdom. But look! Something more than Solomon is here!

³² ‘The people of Nineveh will be raised in the Judgment along with this generation, and they will also condemn it. For they repented at what Jonah preached. But look! Something more than Jonah is here!

³³ ‘No one lights a lamp and then hides it,
Nor do they put it under a basket.
They set it on a lampstand instead,
So people can see where they’re going.

³⁴ ‘Now, the body’s lamps are your eyes.
And when you keep your eyes simple,
They’ll make your whole body bright;
But, if you have eyes that are wicked,
They’ll make your whole body dark.

³⁵ ‘So be sure that your light isn’t darkness.

³⁶ For if your body is bright, with no dark parts,
It will serve a lamp to shine on your way.’

³⁷ Well after he said this, a Pharisee asked [Jesus] to dine with him, so he went in and reclined at his table. ³⁸ However, the Pharisee was surprised to see that Jesus hadn’t washed up before dinner. ³⁹ But the Lord said to him: ‘You Pharisees like to wash the outsides of dishes and cups while their insides are still filled with wickedness and things that are stolen. ⁴⁰ Unreasonable people; Didn’t the One who made the insides also make the outsides?’ ⁴¹ However, if you will be charitable to those who are in need, {Look!} not just your outsides, but everything about you will be clean!

⁴² ‘But, woe to you Pharisees; for though you offer even your mint and your rue when you tithe, you keep overlooking justice and the love of God! Yes, you do all that [the Law] requires of you... but then you bypass all the rest.

⁴³ ‘Yes, woe to you Pharisees; for you love [to sit in the] front seats in the synagogues and [to receive] all the greetings in the markets... ⁴⁴ yes, woe to you, for you’re like the hidden graves that men unwittingly walk on.’

⁴⁵ Well in reply, someone who was trained in the Law said to him: ‘Teacher; you know that when you say things like this, you’re insulting us!’

⁴⁶ But [Jesus] replied: ‘Woe to you who are trained in the Law, for you pile loads upon men so high that they can’t be carried and which you wouldn’t touch with even a finger! ⁴⁷ Yes, woe to you; for you build tombs for the Prophets that were murdered by your fathers! ⁴⁸ And in so doing, you’re testifying against yourselves, since you’re approving of these very same things that were done by your fathers when they murdered those Prophets... those whose tombs you’re now building.

⁴⁹ ‘It was concerning such things that the Wisdom of God said this:
*I’m sending Apostles and Prophets to you
Whom you’ll persecute and you’ll kill.*

⁵⁰ And this is why the blood of all the Prophets that’s been spilled since

this system was founded will be laid upon this generation... ⁵¹ from the blood of Abel that of Zechariah, who [was murdered] between the [Temple] and Altar. Yes I tell you; it will all be laid upon this generation!

⁵² ‘So, woe to you who are trained in the Law, for though you accept the key to [great] knowledge, you fail to enter through [the door]... and you even block the way for the rest who are trying to enter!’

⁵³ And after that, he got up and left.

Well, the scribes and Pharisees were always trying to pin him down, constantly asking him questions about things, ⁵⁴ because they were just lying in wait and trying to trap him in anything that he might say.

Chapter 12

¹ Well, a huge crowd had gathered... there were so many thousands that they were literally stepping on each other. Then [Jesus gave this warning to] his disciples. He said: ‘Watch out for the fermentation of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

² For there’s nothing hidden that won’t be exposed,
And no secret that will not be known.

³ So the things that you say in the darkness
Will be all heard in the light;
And whatever is whispered within private rooms
Will be shouted aloud from the rooftops!

⁴ ‘I tell you this, my friends;
Fear not those who can kill the body,
But who can do no more than that.

⁵ Let me show you whom you must fear:
Fear the One, who after killing [the body],
Can throw it into the garbage... Yes, He’s the One you must fear!

⁶ ‘Though you can buy five sparrows with just two small coins,
In the eyes of God, they’re not overlooked...

⁷ And He’s even numbered the hairs on your head.

So you have no reason for fear,
Since, more than many sparrows, is your value!

⁸ ‘I tell you this:

For those who’ll admit before others
That they are united with me;
The Son of Man will also admit
That they’re one with him before angels.

⁹ But for those who deny me to others,
I’ll deny knowing them before angels.

¹⁰ ‘Now, those who speak against the Son of Man can be forgiven; but those who [blaspheme \[God’s\] Holy Breath](#) will not be forgiven. ¹¹ So when they drag you up before synagogues, or authorities, or government officials; don’t worry about what you must do or what you must say in your defense, ¹² for you will be taught what to say by [God’s] Holy Breath in that hour.’

¹³ Then, someone in the crowd said: ‘Teacher; tell my brother to share his inheritance with me!’

¹⁴ And [Jesus] said: ‘Man, who appointed me as the judge or arbitrator between the two of you?’

¹⁵ Then he [went on] to say this:
‘Keep your eyes open and guard against greed;
For the things that you own will not give you life.’

¹⁶ And then he gave them this parable:

‘A rich man’s fields produced well,
¹⁷ So he thought about this and then asked himself:
*What should I do, since there’s not enough room
In which to store all my crops?*

¹⁸ ‘Then he said:

*Ah, I will do this:
I’ll tear down my barns and build larger,
And that’s where I’ll put all my wheat
As well as my other good things.*

¹⁹ *‘Then I will say to myself:
You now have many good things
Saved away [to last] many years.
So, you can just take it easy...
Yes, eat, drink, and enjoy it!*

²⁰ *‘But God said:
O foolish man;
Tonight, they’re demanding your life.
So, who will now own all these things?*

²¹ ‘You see; this is what happens to a man who lays away treasures for himself, but fails to gain wealth with God.’

²² Then he said to his disciples: ‘This is why I’ve told you not to worry about your lives and about what you will eat, or about your bodies and what you will wear. ²³ For your lives are worth so much more than food, and your bodies are worth [so much more] than clothes.

²⁴ ‘Notice the ravens; for they don’t plant or harvest, and they don’t have barns or storage sheds, since they are fed by God... and [think about] how much more you are worth than those birds!

²⁵ ‘And which of you through worry add even a smidgen to your lives? ²⁶ So if [worry] is unable fix little things, why be concerned about all the rest?

²⁷ ‘Also notice how the lilies grow. For although they don’t work or spin cloth; I tell you that even Solomon in all of his glory wasn’t as well-dressed as they are. ²⁸ So if God so well clothes the plants in the fields that are here today and thrown into an oven tomorrow; how much more would He rather clothe you... you with so little faith?

³² ‘Don’t be afraid, little flock; for it is the delight of your Father to give you the Kingdom. ³³ Therefore, sell everything that you own and give it to those who really need it, and make purses for yourselves that won’t wear out... the unfailing treasures in the heavens, which can’t be consumed by thieves or by moths. ³⁴ For where your treasures are is where your hearts will be.

³⁵ ‘Therefore, wrap on your sashes and light up your lamps, ³⁶ then act like men who are awaiting their master’s return from his wedding, so that when he arrives and starts knocking, you can open [the door] to him right away.

³⁷ ‘Blest are those slaves that are watching
When their master arrives!
For I tell you this as the truth:
He will then put on his apron
And make them recline at his table;
Then, he will come there and serve them!

³⁸ ‘If it’s in the second watch that he should arrive,
Or even if it’s during the third;
You’ll be blest if he finds you doing these things!

³⁹ ‘Recognize this:
If the master of the house would have known
The time when the thieves would arrive,
He would have been keeping watch
And not let them get into his house.

⁴⁰ ‘Likewise, you must also be ready;
For the Son of Man will arrive
At a time you consider unlikely.’

⁴¹ Then Peter asked: ‘Lord, are you giving this parable to just us, or to everyone?’

⁴² And the Lord said:
‘Who is the faithful house steward...
The sensible one, assigned by his lord

To be in charge over his faithful friends,
And to provide their meals at the right times?

⁴³ Such a slave will be blest
If he's found doing that when his master arrives.

⁴⁴ I tell you the truth...
He'll put him in charge of all that he owns!

⁴⁵ 'But, if that slave should say in his heart:
My master's delayed in returning;
And then he starts beating [the Lord's] boys and girls,
And he feasts and drinks, then gets drunk...

⁴⁶ His master will arrive on an hour and day
That he has not been expected,
And he'll whip him and count him among the unfaithful.

⁴⁷ 'So the slave who knows what his master expects
And doesn't prepare or do what he wants
Will be lashed with a whip many times.

⁴⁸ But the one who does not understand
And does things for which he deserves to be whipped,
Will be beaten with [just a] few [strokes].

'For from those to whom much is given,
Much is also expected.
And from those who've been put in charge over much,
Much is also required.

⁴⁹ 'I came here to start a fire on the earth; so what more could I possibly wish than to see it already lit? ⁵⁰ However, there's a baptism coming that I will have to endure... and I'm under great pressure until it arrives.

⁵¹ 'Do you think that I came to bring peace on earth? No, I've come here to create divisions! ⁵² So if there are five in a house, they'll be divided three against two and two against three. ⁵³ Fathers will be against their own sons and sons [will be] against their own fathers... mothers will be against their own daughters and daughters will be against their own mothers. It will be mothers-in-law against daughters-in-law and daughters-in-law against mothers-in-law!'

⁵⁴ Then he said this to the crowd:
‘When you see a cloud arise in the west,
You say that a storm is approaching... and it happens.
⁵⁵ And when you see the wind blow in from the south,
You say that a heat wave is coming... and it happens.
⁵⁶ Hypocrites!
Since you know how to read the land and the sky;
Why can't you read the [signs of the] times?
⁵⁷ ‘Why not decide what is righteous for yourselves?
⁵⁸ For, rather than taking a case to a ruler,
You should try to resolve it as you're on the way,
So you won't be dragged in front of the judge,
Who will hand you over to the bailiff,
Who will then throw you in jail.
⁵⁹ I tell you;
If that happens, you won't be set free
Until you've paid your last cent.’

Chapter 13

¹ Well at the time, some people who were there spoke to Jesus about certain Galileans whose blood had been mixed with their sacrifices by [Pontius] Pilate. ² So [Jesus] asked them: ‘Do you think those Galileans suffered such things because they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? ³ No! For I tell you this: If you don't repent, you'll be destroyed that same way! ⁴ And what about those eighteen people upon whom the tower at SiloAm fell and killed; Do you think they were worse sinners than all the others who live in JeruSalem? ⁵ No! I tell you this: If you don't repent, you'll all be destroyed that same way!’

⁶ Then he gave them this parable:
‘There was a man who had a fig tree in his vineyard, and when he looked for fruit, he found none. ⁷ So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard: I've been looking for fruit on this tree for the past three years, but so far I haven't found any. Therefore, you should just cut it down, for why should it be wasting the space?

⁸ ‘But [the vinedresser] gave this reply: Master, leave it alone for just one more year. I’ll cultivate and fertilize it, and then it might bear fruit in the future... but if not, I’ll cut it down.’

¹⁰ Well, [on another occasion], he happened to be teaching in one of the synagogues on a Sabbath ¹¹ where {Look!} there was a woman who’d endured a spirit of weakness for some eighteen years... she was bent over and unable to straighten herself. ¹² And when Jesus saw this, he called to her and said: ‘Woman, you’re now free from this weakness.’ ¹³ Then he laid his hands on her and she straightened up instantly and started glorifying God.

¹⁴ However, the chief of the synagogue resented this because Jesus had performed the cure on the Sabbath. So he said to the crowd: ‘There are SIX DAYS when work should be done. Come to be cured on THOSE DAYS, not on the Sabbath!’

¹⁵ But the Lord replied: ‘Hypocrite! Don’t you untie your bulls and burros from their stalls and lead them out to drink on the Sabbath?’ ¹⁶ Yet, this is a daughter of Abraham whom the Opposer has held tied {Look!} for some eighteen years! So, isn’t it appropriate for her to be untied from this type of bondage on the Sabbath?’

¹⁷ Well after he said that, all those who opposed him were ashamed; and the crowd started rejoicing over all the glorious things that he was doing.

¹⁸ Then he went on to say:
‘To what can the Kingdom of God be compared...
To what can it really be likened?’

¹⁹ ‘It’s like the seed of the mustard
That a man had planted in his garden.
For it grew and became as tall as a tree,
In whose branches, the birds of the skies came to roost.’

²⁰ And once again, he said:
‘To what can the Kingdom of God be compared?’

²¹ It’s like a little fermentation

That a woman hid in three scoops of flour,
Until the mass rose and was filled with [the yeast].’

²² Well, he did all of this as he was teaching in city after city and village after village on his way to JeruSalem.

²³ Then someone asked: ‘Lord, will only a few be saved?’

And he said to him:

²⁴ ‘You must strive to enter through the gate that is narrow,
For I tell you that many will try to get in,
But they won’t have enough strength.

²⁵ So when the master gets up and latches the lock;
If you find yourself on the outside
Knocking and shouting, Lord, open to us!
He’ll say, I don’t know where you’re from!

²⁶ ‘And if you should say,
Before you, we ate and we drank,
And you taught us along our main streets!
He will then give this reply:

²⁷ *I don’t know where you’re from...
Get away from me, you unrighteous men!*

‘Then you’ll be crying and grinding your teeth
When you see AbraHam, IsaAc, and Jacob
With all the Prophets in the Kingdom of God,
As you are left on the outside.

²⁹ ‘For they’ll come from the east, west, north, and the south
To recline at the table in the Kingdom of God.

³⁰ But {Look!} those who are last will be first,
And those who are first will be last.’

³¹ Well in that very same hour, some Pharisees came to him and said:
‘You’d better get out of here and go, because Herod is looking to kill you!’

³² But he replied: ‘Go tell the old fox that I’ll keep on casting out demons and healing today and tomorrow, and I’ll be finished on the third day. ³³

However, I'll also keep on moving [on toward JeruSalem] today, tomorrow, and the next day, since it wouldn't be fitting for a Prophet to be destroyed outside of [that city].

³⁴ 'O JeruSalem, JeruSalem... you murderer of the Prophets and stoner of those who've been sent to you. How often I've wanted to gather your young as a hen brings her chicks under her wings... but that isn't what you've wanted, ³⁵ so {Look!} your house has been taken from you! And now I'm telling you that won't see me again until [you are ready to] proclaim, Praised is this one who has come in the Name of Jehovah!'

Chapter 14

¹ Well, there was a time when [Jesus] went to eat a meal at the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath... and there everyone was watching him closely. ² Then {Look!} a man came to him who had [a fluid-buildup condition called] dropsy. ³ So Jesus asked those students of the Law and the Pharisees this: 'Is it legal to cure on the Sabbath or not?' ⁴ However, they wouldn't answer.

So he took hold of [the man], healed him, and then sent him away. ⁵ And he asked them: 'If your son or your bull were to fall into a well on the Sabbath, which of you wouldn't immediately go and pull him out?'

⁶ Well, they were unable to come up with a reply.

⁷ Then, after noticing how the guests were choosing the best spots at the table, he gave them this parable:

⁸ 'If you are invited to a wedding reception, Don't go and recline in the very best place.

For if someone more honored arrives,

⁹ The host must then come there and say:

Let this man have that spot.

And you'll be shamed when you're sent to the least honored place.

¹⁰ 'So whenever you're invited [to a banquet],

Go and recline in the very last spot.

Then when the host arrives, he will say:

Friend, take a better position!

And you'll be honored before all his guests.

¹¹ For the self-exalting will be humbled,
And the humble will be lifted high.'

¹² Then Jesus said to the man who invited him:

'When you spread a dinner or a supper,
Don't call your friends and your brothers,
Nor your kin or rich neighbors;
For you will then get your reward
When they, in turn, invite you.

¹³ 'But whenever you're planning a banquet,
Invite the crippled and poor,
As well as the lame and the blind...

¹⁴ Those who cannot repay you;
For then you'll receive your reward
When the righteous are standing again.'

¹⁵ Well, when one of the guests heard this, he shouted: 'Aren't those who
[are invited to] dine in the Kingdom of God the ones that will be blest?'

¹⁶ And [Jesus] said:

'There was a man who prepared a large supper,
And he invited many [friends] to come there and dine.

¹⁷ So, after the meal was prepared,
He sent his slave out to tell them:
Come on, for [the banquet] is ready!

¹⁸ 'But, each then gave an excuse.
Said the first, *I must look at a field that I've bought;
So, please let me be excused.*

¹⁹ 'And then another said this:
*I've purchased five pairs of oxen,
And I must now go to inspect them;
So, please let me be excused.*

²⁰ ‘Still another replied:
*Because I’m about to get married,
I’m unable to come at this time.*

²¹ ‘Well when the slave returned and reported these things,
The master of the house became angry,
And this is what he said to his slave:

*‘Go quickly to the main streets and alleys,
And bring the crippled and poor,
As well as the blind and the lame.*

²² ‘And when he returned, the slave told him:
*Though I’ve done all you told me to do,
There is still plenty of room!*

²³ ‘So the master then gave this instruction:
*Go out to the roads and backyards,
And make people come, so my house will be filled!*

²⁴ *For I tell you that none I invited
Will get even a taste of my supper.’*

²⁵ Well, since there was a large crowd that had come there with him, he then turned to them and said: ²⁶ ‘Unless those who come to me care less for their fathers, mothers, wives, children, brothers, and sisters – yes, even for their own lives – they cannot become my disciples, ²⁷ nor can anyone follow me who’s unwilling to carry his own impaling pole! ²⁸ For, which of you who might choose to build a tower for yourself wouldn’t first sit down to calculate the costs, so you’d be sure that you have enough [funds] to complete it? ²⁹ For if you laid the foundation and then found out that you’re unable to finish the project, everyone who sees it would make fun of you and say, ³⁰ This man started the job, but then he couldn’t complete it!

³³ ‘So, you too must be sure! For those of you who aren’t willing to give up everything that you own are qualified to be my disciples!

³⁴ ‘Yes, salt is good; but if salt should lose all its strength, what value will it have to season your food? ³⁵ If it isn’t good for soil or manure, people will just throw it away. Now, let those who have ears that can hear pay attention!’

Chapter 15

¹ Well, tax collectors and sinners kept coming to [Jesus] to listen to the things he was saying. ² And because of this, the Pharisees and scribes started murmuring, ‘This man welcomes sinners... and look, he even eats with them!’

³ So he then told them this parable: ⁴ ‘Which of you who owns a hundred sheep and loses just one, wouldn’t leave the ninety-nine out in the fields to search for the one that was lost until he finds it? ⁵ And when you find it, you’ll rejoice and [carry it home] on your shoulders. ⁶ Then when you get back home, you’ll call your friends and neighbors and say: Come and rejoice with me, because I’ve found my sheep that was lost!

⁷ ‘So in the same way, I tell you this:
There is more rejoicing in heaven
Over just one sinner who’s turned from bad ways,
Than over ninety-nine of the righteous
Who have no need of repentance.

⁸ ‘Or when a woman with ten silver coins finds that she has lost one, she’ll light [all her] lamps and carefully sweep her whole house to search for it until she finds it. ⁹ And then when she finds it, she’ll call her friends and neighbors to say: Come and rejoice with me, for I’ve found the silver coin that I lost!

¹⁰ ‘So I tell you:
There is joy among the angels of God
Over each sinner who repents.’

¹¹ Then he said: ‘There once was a man who had two sons. ¹² And the youngest of them came to him and said: Father, give me my share of the things that I’ll inherit! So he gave him the portion that was his.

¹³ ‘Well just a few days after that, this younger son gathered his things and traveled to a far away land where he quickly squandered all that he had.

¹⁴ ‘Then after he’d spent [all his money], a famine came to that land, which left him in a very bad spot. ¹⁵ So he went to work for a man in that country who sent him out into the field to take care of his pigs. ¹⁶ And soon he even started longing for the carob pods that he was feeding the animals, because the man wouldn’t give him anything [to eat].

¹⁷ ‘Then when he finally came to his senses, he asked himself this: Since my father’s hired-hands have plenty of bread; why am I here, dying from hunger? ¹⁸ I think I’ll just get up and return to my father! And since I’ve sinned against heaven and him, ¹⁹ I’ll admit that I’m unworthy to be called his son anymore, and I’ll tell him that all I want to do is to work for him as one of his hired hands.

²⁰ ‘So then he got up and returned to his father.

‘However, while he was still far way, his father recognized him in the distance, and in pity, he ran and fell on his neck and tenderly kissed him.

²¹ But the son said: Father, I’ve sinned against both heaven and you, so I’m unworthy to be called your son... just let me be one of your hired hands.

²² ‘But the father said this to his slaves: Quickly bring him a robe... bring the very best one, then put a ring on his hand and put some shoes on his feet. ²³ Also, slaughter the calf that we’ve fattened with wheat, then let’s hold [a feast] and have a good time! ²⁴ For my son who was dead is alive again... he was lost, but now he’s been found! So thereafter, they held a banquet.

²⁵ ‘Meanwhile, the older son had been out in the fields. And as he returned and got close to his home, he could hear [the sounds] of music and dancing. ²⁶ So he called to one of the servants and asked, What's going on?

²⁷ ‘And in reply, [the servant] told him: Your brother has just returned, so your father had us slaughter the fattened calf, because [your brother] has returned in good health!

²⁸ ‘Well at that, [the son] became very angry and he wouldn't go inside. So his father came outside to beg him to come on in. ²⁹ But this is what he said to his father: Though I've slaved for you all these years and I've never broken your rules, you've never given me so much as a kid goat to enjoy with my friends. ³⁰ But as soon as this son who spent all his money on whores returns, you slaughtered the fattened calf!

³¹ ‘But this is what his father told him: Child, you have always been with me, and everything I have is yours also. ³² However, we had to celebrate and rejoice, because your brother who was as one of the dead has now been brought back to life... the one who was lost has been found!

Chapter 16

¹ Then [Jesus] went on to say this to his disciples: ‘There was a rich man who had a house manager that was accused of mishandling his belongings. ² So [the rich man] called him in and asked, What is this that I'm hearing about you? Turn in your things, for you'll no longer manage [my] house!

³ ‘Then the [house manager] thought to himself: What should I do now that my master is taking away my position? I'm not strong enough to dig and I'd be ashamed to beg. ⁴ Ah! I know what I'll do when I lose my job... I'll do something to cause people to welcome me into their homes!

⁵ So he called in all those who owed debts to his master, and he asked the first one: How much do you owe my master?

⁶ ‘He replied, Nine hundred gallons of olive oil.

‘Then he told him: Here, take your contract, then sit down and quickly write four hundred and fifty.

⁷ ‘Then asked the next, How much do you owe?

‘And he replied: Thirty-six thousand quarts of wheat.

‘So he told him: Take your contract and write twenty-nine thousand.

⁸ ‘Well, though [what the man did] was unrighteous, his master spoke in praise of him, for he showed very good sense.

‘As you can see; the sons of this age are better at understanding how to deal with this generation than are the sons of the light. ⁹ Therefore, I’m telling you to make friends for yourselves with unrighteous wealth, so that when all else fails, they’ll welcome you into their tents through the ages.

¹⁰ ‘For, the one who is faithful in small things
Will also be faithful in much.
But the one who’s unrighteous in small things
Will also be unrighteous in much.

¹¹ ‘So if you fail to prove yourselves faithful
With the unrighteous wealth [of this world];
Who will trust you with things that are true?

¹² And if you fail to prove yourself faithful
With things belonging to others;
Which of us will trust you with our things?

¹³ ‘You cannot slave for two masters;
For you’ll dislike one and love the other,
And you’ll stick to the one while despising the other...
So can’t slave for God and for wealth.’

¹⁴ Now, the Pharisees (who loved silver) were listening to him as he was saying these things, and they were looking at him with contempt. ¹⁵ So he said to them: ‘You claim to be righteous before men, but God knows what’s really in your hearts. And things that are important to men are disgusting in God’s eyes.

¹⁶ ‘Until John [came along], we had the Law and the Prophets. However, since then, the Kingdom of God is what has been preached, and everyone has been trying to force their way into it. ¹⁷ Yet, it would be easier for the land and sky to pass away than for a single stroke on one of the Law's letters to fail. ¹⁸ Therefore, whoever releases his woman and takes another has committed adultery. And whoever marries a released woman has also committed adultery.

¹⁹ 'Now, there once was a very rich man who dressed himself in purple and linen, and he enjoyed the very best things each day. ²⁰ There was also a poor man named Lazarus, who used to sit at his gate. This [poor] man was covered with sores, ²¹ and all he wanted was to eat some of the things that fell from the rich man's table. Also, he had dogs come to lick his sores.

²² 'Well, the poor man [eventually] died, and [God's] messengers carried him off to the most-favored position of AbraHam. Then the rich man also died and was buried. ²³ And from the place of the dead he raised his eyes, and he was tormented when he saw AbraHam off in the distance with Lazarus lying before him. ²⁴ So [the rich man] called out and said, Father AbraHam, have mercy on me! Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water to cool off my tongue, for I'm suffering in these flames!

²⁵ 'But AbraHam replied: Child; remember that you had all the good things in life, while Lazarus [had just] the bad. So now he's here [receiving my] comfort, while you are there suffering. ²⁶ Also, an abyss has been placed between us, so that those who are here can't go there, and those who are there can't come here.

²⁷ 'Well at that, [the rich man] said: Then I beg you... please father, send him to the house of my father; ²⁸ for I have five brothers... have him testify to them, so they don't end up in this place of torment!

²⁹ 'But AbraHam replied: They already have the Prophets and Moses... [your brothers] should listen to them!

³⁰ 'Then [the rich man] said: No indeed, Father AbraHam; for they would surely repent if someone were to come to them from the dead!

³¹ 'But [AbraHam] said: No, if they won't listen to the Prophets or Moses, they wouldn't be persuaded if someone should even arise from the dead!

Chapter 17

¹ Well after that, [Jesus] said this to his disciples: ‘It’s unavoidable that there will be snares. However, woe to those who set them! ² It would be better if a millstone were hung around [such a man’s] neck and he was thrown into the sea, than to stumble one of these least ones. ³ So, pay attention to yourselves!

‘If your brother sins [against you], go to him and discuss it. Then if he repents, forgive him! ⁴ Even if he sins against you seven times a day; if he comes back seven times to say I’m sorry; you should forgive him!’

⁵ Then the Apostles said, ‘Lord, give us more faith!’

⁶ And he told them: ‘If you had faith [the size of] a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, Pull out of the ground and plant yourself in the sea... and it would likely obey you.

⁷ ‘Which of you has a slave who, after he’s been plowing or tending a flock, would say to him when he returns: Come over here and recline at my table? ⁸ No, it’s more likely that you’d tell him: Put on an apron and prepare my supper, then serve it to me. [You can wait] until I’m done eating and drinking, and thereafter you can get yourself something to eat and drink. ⁹ You won’t be grateful to that slave because he did what he was assigned, will you? ¹⁰ So you too... after you’ve done all that you’ve been assigned, you should say: We are just worthless slaves, and we’re just doing what we are expected to do.’

¹¹ Well, as [Jesus] was on his way to JeruSalem, he traveled through the midst of Samaria and then into Galilee. ¹² And as he entered a certain village, ten men who had leprosy -- ¹³ started shouting: ‘Jesus! Lord! Have mercy on us!’

¹⁴ So when [Jesus] saw them, he said: ‘Go and present yourselves to the Priests.’ Then as they were leaving, each one was made clean.

¹⁵ Well, one of them, when he realized that he had been healed, came back [to Jesus] glorifying God in a loud voice, ¹⁶ and he fell to his face at his feet to thank him (this one was a Samaritan).

¹⁷ So Jesus asked: ‘Weren’t there ten who were cleansed? So, where are the other nine?’ ¹⁸ Was this man of another race the only one who returned to glorify God?’

¹⁹ Then he said to him: ‘Get up and go, for your faith has saved you!’

²⁰ Well [later], there was a Pharisee who asked [Jesus] when the Kingdom of God was coming. And this is the reply that he gave: ‘The coming of the Kingdom of God won’t be easily noticed, ²¹ so people won’t be saying, Look, it’s here, or, Look, it’s over there! Rather, the Kingdom of God is within you!’

²² Then he went on to say to his disciples: ‘The time is coming when you’ll wish that you could see just one these days of the Son of Man... but you’ll no longer be able to see them. ²³ And though people will be saying, Look, he’s here, or, See, he’s there; don’t follow them. ²⁴ For when the Son of Man arrives, it will be like lightning that flashes across the whole sky. ²⁵ But before that, he will have to endure many things, and he’ll be rejected by this generation. ²⁶ For as it was back in the days of Noah, is how it will be in the day of the Son of Man. ²⁷ Back then, they were eating and drinking, getting married and being taken in marriage right up to the day that Noah entered the chest... and that’s when the Downpour arrived, destroying them all.

²⁸ ‘The same thing happened in Lot’s day; for they were also eating and drinking, buying, selling, planting, and building ²⁹ right up to the day that Lot [fled from] Sodom. Then fire and sulfur rained down from the sky, destroying them all. ³⁰ Yes, this is how it will be in the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

³¹ ‘So in that day, the man [who is] on his roof should not go back down into his house to retrieve the things that he owns, and the person who is out in a field shouldn’t go back for the things he’s left behind. ³² Rather, remember [what happened to] Lot’s woman. ³³ For those who try to save their lives will lose them, while those who lose them will live.

³⁴ ‘I tell you this:

In that night, there’ll be two in one bed;

One will be taken along,

And the other will be left behind.

³⁵ Two will be grinding at [the same] mill;
One will be taken along,
And the other will be left behind.’ ³⁶ —

³⁷ So they asked him: ‘When [is this going to happen], Lord?’

And he replied: ‘When [you see] the vultures gather at the carcass.’

Chapter 18

¹ Then he gave them an illustration to show them why they should keep praying and never give up. ² He said:

‘There once was a judge in a city
Who had no fear of The God,
And who couldn’t be shamed by other men.

³ ‘But a widow in that city kept coming and saying:
I want justice from the man that I [sued].

⁴ ‘Well at first, [the judge] did nothing at all,
But then he started to reason:

Though I have no fear of God,

And there is no man that can shame me;

⁵ Since this widow keeps coming and making more work,

I will see that she receives justice

So she doesn’t just nag me to death.’

⁶ Then the Lord asked, ‘Now, did you hear what this unrighteous judge said? ⁷ So won’t God, who is patient, also give justice to His chosen ones who keep calling out to Him all day and all night long? ⁸ Yes, I tell you; He’ll bring speedy justice for you!

‘Yet, when the Son of Man arrives, will he really find the faith on earth?’

⁹ Then he gave this illustration to some there who were putting more trust in themselves and thinking that they were righteous, while everyone else was just nothing. He said:

¹⁰ ‘Two men went up to the Temple to pray... one was a tax collector and the other was a Pharisee. ¹¹ Now, the Pharisee stood up and said this concerning himself in his prayer: I thank You O God, that I'm not like all the rest, who are robbers, unrighteous, and adulterers... or like that tax collector [over there]. ¹² Why, I fast twice each week and I contribute a tenth of everything that I receive.

¹³ ‘Meanwhile, the tax collector, who stood at some distance, wouldn’t raise his eyes toward the sky. He just beat on himself as he said: God, please don’t be angry with this sinner!

¹⁴ ‘Well, I tell you that this man went back home more righteous than the other, because the self-promoters will be humbled while the humble will be promoted.’

¹⁵ Thereafter, people started bringing their young children for [Jesus] to have him just touch them. However, when the disciples saw this, they started scolding them. ¹⁶ Then Jesus called [the disciples] to him and said: ‘Let the young children come to me... don’t try to stop them, because the Kingdom of God belongs to people like this. ¹⁷ I tell you the truth; Those who don’t welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child, won’t enter it at all.’

¹⁸ Then a certain ruler asked him: ‘Good teacher; What must I do to inherit age-long life?’

¹⁹ But Jesus asked him: ‘Why are you calling me good? No one is good except One... The God! ²⁰ You know the Commandments: Don’t commit adultery, don’t murder, don’t steal, don’t provide false testimony, honor your father and mother... ‘

²¹ Then [the ruler] replied, ‘Well, I’ve guarded all these [things] since my youth!’

²² And Jesus said: ‘But there’s still one thing that you’re lacking... go and sell all that you have, then give to the poor, and come be my follower. That’s when you will have treasures in the heavens.’

²³ Well when he heard this, [the ruler] became very sad, because he was extremely rich.

²⁴ So Jesus looked at him and said:

‘How hard it will be for those who are rich
To find their way into the Kingdom!

²⁵ It’s easier to thread a rope through a needle
Than for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God.’

²⁶ Well at that, those who heard him say this, asked: ‘Then, who can possibly be saved?’

²⁷ And he replied: ‘Things that are impossible for men are still possible with God.’

²⁸ But Peter said: ‘Look, we’ve left everything to follow you!’

²⁹ And [Jesus] said to him: ‘I tell you the truth;
There’s no one who loses a house or a wife,
Or brothers, parents, or children
For the sake of the Kingdom of God,

³⁰ Who won’t receive much more in this age,
And life in the age that is coming.’

³¹ Then he took the twelve aside and said to them: ‘Look! We’re on our way up to JeruSalem, where everything that the Prophets wrote about the Son of Man is now going to be fulfilled. ³² He’ll be handed over to the gentiles and made fun of; he’ll be treated shamefully and spit on; ³³ and then after flaying him with a whip, they’ll kill him... but on the third day, he will stand again.’

³⁴ However, they just didn’t grasp the meaning of any of these things, because what he said was hidden from them and they couldn’t understand it.

³⁵ Well later, as he was approaching Jericho, there happened to be a blind man who was sitting alongside the road begging. ³⁶ Then, as he heard the crowd moving past, he asked what was happening, ³⁷ and he was told:
‘Jesus the Nazarene is coming!’ ³⁸ So he started shouting: ‘Jesus! Son of David! Have mercy on me!’

³⁹ Well, those who were walking in front [of Jesus] told him to be quiet.
However, he shouted even louder: ‘Son of David, have mercy on me!’

⁴⁰ So Jesus stopped and gave orders to have him brought over. And when [the blind man] got to him, [Jesus] asked: ⁴¹ ‘What is it that you want me to do for you?’

And he answered: ‘Lord, let me see again!’

⁴² So Jesus said: ‘Then, see again... for your faith has saved you!’ ⁴³ And instantly, his sight returned. Then he started following [Jesus], glorifying God, and the people were also praising God after they saw this.

Chapter 19

¹ Well after that, as [Jesus] was continuing on through Jericho, ² {Look!} there was a rich man called Zacchaeus (he was the chief tax collector) ³ and he wanted to see just who this Jesus was, but he couldn’t because of the crowd, since he was too short. ⁴ So he ran ahead and climbed a fig-sycamore tree along the street where [Jesus] was walking, so he could see him. ⁵ Then when Jesus reached that spot, he looked up and said: ‘Zacchaeus, hurry and get down from there, because I’ll be staying at your house today.’

⁶ So the man quickly got down and started rejoicing that he could welcome him as his guest. ⁷ But when [the crowds] saw this, they all started grumbling: ‘Is he going to spend the night at the home of a man who’s a sinner?’

⁸ But then Zacchaeus stood up and said this to [Jesus]: ‘Lord, I will give half of my belongings to the poor, and whatever I got from anyone by extortion and false accusations, I’ll repay four times over!’

⁹ So Jesus said: ‘Salvation has come to this house today, for he’s also a son of Abraham! ¹⁰ This is the reason why the Son of Man came... to search for and save those who are lost.’

¹¹ Well, as they were listening to him say these things, Jesus gave them this parable (because he was getting close to Jerusalem and they all thought that the Kingdom of God was coming right away). ¹² So he said: ‘A certain man of noble birth
Traveled to a far-away land
To be appointed as king.

¹³ ‘So he called for ten of his slaves,
And he gave them each a large silver coin,
Saying, Do business [with this], until my return.

¹⁴ ‘But, he was hated by some of his subjects,
Who sent envoys ahead to say this about him:
We don’t want this man as our ruler!

¹⁵ ‘Well, when he returned, appointed as king,
He summoned all [ten] of those slaves
To whom he’d entrusted his silver,
To find out how much they had gained.

¹⁶ ‘So, the first one came up and told him:
With your coins, I’ve earned ten silver coins!

¹⁷ ‘And [the king] said this in reply:
Well-done, my good [faithful] slave!
*Since you’ve proved yourself faithful in small things,
I’ll appoint you over ten cities.*

¹⁸ ‘Then the second [slave] came up and said:
With your coins, I’ve earned five silver coins!

¹⁹ ‘So [the king] said:
I’ll appoint you over five cities.

²⁰ ‘But the last came up and said this:
*Lord; Here’s the coin you gave me,
Which I wrapped up in a bandanna.*

²¹ *I did this because I’m afraid,
For I know that you are a very harsh man...
One who picks up what he doesn’t put down
And harvests where he hasn’t planted.*

²² ‘Then [the master] said:
*O wicked slave;
From the words of your mouth, I have judged you...
So you know that I am a very harsh man
Who picks up what he doesn’t put down*

And harvests what he doesn't plant?

²³ *Then you should have put my coin in a bank,
Where it likely would have gained interest.*

²⁴ *'Then he said this to those who were standing nearby:
Take away the coin that I gave him
And give it to the one who has ten!*

²⁵ 'But when they said, O Lord, he already has ten;

²⁶ *He said, More will be given to those who have much,
While all will be taken from those who have none.*

²⁷ *'Now, bring all my enemies before me...
Those who didn't want me to serve as their king,
And before me, slaughter them all!'*

²⁸ Then after he said all these things, he got up and started leading the way to JeruSalem. ²⁹ And when he got close to BethPhage and BethAny (near the hill called the Mount of Olives), he sent two of his disciples ahead, ³⁰ telling them: 'Go into that village opposite us; and as you're entering it, you'll find a colt that is tied, which no one has ridden before. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹ And if anyone asks why you're untying it, just tell him that the Lord needs it.'

³² Well, those who were sent ahead found things exactly as he said they would be. ³³ So when the owners asked why they were untying the colt, ³⁴ they replied, 'The Lord needs it.' ³⁵ So they thereafter led it to Jesus, and they threw a robe over the colt and set Jesus on [top of it]. ³⁶ Then, as he was traveling along, they were all spreading their robes over the road in front of him.

³⁷ Well, as soon as he got close to the road that leads down the Mount of Olives [into JeruSalem], huge crowds of his disciples started rejoicing and praising God, shouting about all the powerful things that they had seen, ³⁸ and saying, 'Praise this one who comes as King in the Name of Jehovah! Peace in the heavens and glory in the highest places!'

³⁹ However, some of the Pharisees among the crowd went up [to Jesus] and said, 'Teacher! Scold your disciples!'

⁴⁰ But Jesus replied, ‘I tell you this: If they were to remain silent, these stones would be doing the shouting!’

⁴¹ Well, as he was approaching the city, he looked at it and shed tears over it, saying: ⁴² ‘If you just knew this today... the things that [would have led you] to peace... but now they’ve been hidden from your eyes. ⁴³ For the days are coming when your enemies will come here and build a fort of pointed stakes around you. Yes, they will completely surround you and come at you in force from all sides. ⁴⁴ Then they’ll toss you and your young to the ground, and they won’t leave a stone on top of a stone here, because you failed to recognize the time of your being inspected.’

⁴⁵ Then from there he entered the Temple and started throwing out the vendors, ⁴⁶ saying to them, ‘Though it’s written, My house will be a house of prayer, you’ve made it a den of thieves!’

⁴⁷ So he taught in the Temple every day after that; and though the chief priests, scribes, and prominent people were looking to destroy him, ⁴⁸ they couldn’t come up with a just reason for doing this, since all the people were gathering around him and listening to him.

Chapter 20

¹ Then one day, while he was teaching the people in the Temple and preaching the Good News; the chief priests, scribes, and elders came up ² to him and said, ‘Tell us where you got the authority to do these things... who told you that you could this?’

³ So he replied: ‘Let me ask you a question... tell me: ⁴ Did John’s baptism come from heaven or from men?’

⁵ Then they got together and reasoned among themselves, saying: ‘If we say, From heaven, he’ll ask, Then, why didn’t you believe him? ⁶ But if we say, From men, all the people will stone us, because they believe that John was a Prophet.’ ⁷ So they came back and told him that they didn’t know where it came from.

⁸ And Jesus said: ‘Then I’m not telling you where I got the authority to do these things.’

⁹ Well after that, he gave the people this parable:

‘A man once planted a vineyard
And contracted it out to some farmers;
Then he traveled abroad for a very long time.

¹⁰ ‘So, when it came time for the harvest,
He sent a slave to the farmers
To ask for some fruit from his vineyard.
But the farmers then had [that slave] whipped,
And sent him away empty-handed.

¹¹ ‘Thereafter, [the man] did the same thing again,
But sending a different slave.
This one, they whipped and dishonored,
And they sent him away empty-handed.

¹² ‘Thereafter, he sent them a third slave,
Whom they wounded and then threw him out.

¹³ ‘So the owner asked himself what else he could do;
Then he said, I’ll send my dearly-loved son,
For I’m sure that they will respect him.

¹⁴ ‘But when those farmers saw him arriving,
They discussed it, and then they said this:
This is the heir, so let us kill him,
And then his inheritance will be ours!

¹⁵ ‘So they threw him out of the vineyard,
And thereafter, they put him to death.

‘So now, what do you think the owner will do?

¹⁶ Won’t he come and destroy those [bad] farmers,
Then entrust his vineyard to others?’

Well when they heard this, the [Pharisees] said: ‘Nothing like that will never happen!’

¹⁷ But he looked at them and said: ‘Then, what is the meaning of the thing that was written, which says:

The stone that the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone?

¹⁸ ‘I tell you that all who fall on this stone will be broken, and it will smash all those upon whom it falls.’

¹⁹ Well after that, the scribes and chief priests started looking for ways to arrest him, for they realized that his parable was about them. However, they were still afraid of the people, ²⁰ so they just kept on watching him closely.

Then they sent men who pretended to be righteous so as to trick him into saying something that would give them a reason to hand him over to the government and to the power of its governor. ²¹ So they came up to him and said: ‘Teacher, we know that what you say and teach is right, and that you aren’t swayed by a man’s appearance... for you truthfully teach the ways of God. ²² So now, tell us; Should we pay the taxes to Caesar or shouldn’t we?’

²³ Well, recognizing what they were up to, he said: ²⁴ ‘Show me a coin... whose image and inscription is on it?’

And they replied, ‘Caesar’s.’

²⁵ Then he said: ‘You should pay Caesar’s things to Caesar and God’s things to God.’

²⁶ Well as the result, they weren’t able to catch him in anything that he said there in front of the people, and they were amazed by his answers, so they didn’t say anything more to him after that.

²⁷ However, some of the Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) went up to him and asked him this: ²⁸ ‘Teacher; Moses wrote that if a man dies leaving his woman childless, his brother should take the brother’s woman and sire offspring for him.

²⁹ ‘Now, let’s say there were seven brothers. The first took a woman and then he died childless. ³⁰ So the second one and then ³¹ the third took her, and the same thing happened to all seven... they all died before siring children. ³² Finally, the woman also died. ³³ So, whose woman will she be in the resurrection, since all seven had her as theirs?’

³⁴ And Jesus replied: ‘Though the sons of this age marry and are given in marriage; ³⁵ those who have been found worthy of that age and the resurrection from the dead won’t marry or be given in marriage, ³⁶ nor will they die anymore. For they will have the power of the angels, since, as sons of the resurrection, they [will also be] sons of God.

³⁷ ‘Even Moses showed that the dead will be raised. For when [he was] at the [burning] bush, he called Jehovah the God of AbraHam, the God of IsaAc, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ So He isn’t a God of the dead but of the living, since they’re all living to Him!’

³⁹ Then some of the scribes came up and said: ‘Teacher, that was a fine answer.’ ⁴⁰ And they didn’t have the courage to ask him anything more after that.

⁴¹ So [Jesus] then asked them: ‘Why do they say that the Anointed One is David’s son? ⁴² For David himself said in the scroll of the Psalms:

Jehovah said this to my lord:

Sit here at My right hand,

‘Til I set your enemies as a stool for your feet.

⁴⁴ ‘So if David called him Lord, how could he be his son?’

⁴⁵ Well at the time, all the people were there listening to this. So then he turned and said this to his disciples: ⁴⁶ ‘Watch out for the scribes who like to walk around in robes, to be greeted in the markets, to have the front seats in the synagogues, and to have the most prominent places at the suppers. ⁴⁷ For they swallow down the homes of widows and then cover up their wrong-doing by saying long prayers. This is why they’ll receive a heavier judgment.’

Chapter 21

¹ Well, as he looked up, he noticed the rich dropping their gifts into the [Temple] treasury chests. ² And then he saw a poor widow drop in just two small copper coins, ³ and he said: ‘I tell you the truth; though this widow is very poor, she dropped in more than they all did, ⁴ since they dropped in gifts from their surplus, while this needy person dropped in her whole means of living!’

⁵ Then, as certain ones were discussing the Temple (how fine its stonework was and how nicely it was adorned), ⁶ he said: ‘When it comes to these things that you see; the days are coming when there won’t be a stone left on top of a stone here that won’t be thrown down.’

⁷ So they asked him: ‘Teacher, when will these things take place... what will be the signs when they’re about to happen?’

⁸ And he replied: ‘Be careful that no one misleads you, for many will come in my name and say, I’m the one, and, The time has arrived, but don’t follow them!

¹⁰ And he told them: ‘Then nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, ¹¹ there’ll be many great rumblings, and there’ll be famines and plagues everywhere, as well as fearful sights and signs in the skies. ¹² However, before all these things happen, they’re going to persecute you and arrest you, then lead you up before religious courts and have you locked up. Yes, because of my name, they’ll drag you before governors and kings... ¹³ and that will be your sign!

¹⁴ ‘[But when this happens], resolve not to plan your defense; ¹⁵ for I’ll give you a mouth and enough wisdom so that anyone who lies about you will be unable to resist or contradict you.

¹⁶ ‘However, your own brothers and parents... yes, even your families and friends will betray you and kill some of you.¹⁷ And though everyone will dislike you because of my name, ¹⁸ not a hair on your heads will be harmed. ¹⁹ So by your endurance, you will have gained your own lives!

²⁰ ‘Now, when you see armies camped around JeruSalem, know that her destruction is near. ²¹ Then those in Judea should run to the mountains... yes, everyone in her midst should flee, and those who are in [fields] must not go back into her. ²² For those will be days of avenging and for accomplishing all that has been written about her.

²³ ‘Woe to those who are pregnant and nursing babies in those days, for there’ll be great distress in the land as [God’s] wrath is brought upon these people. ²⁴ They’ll either be cut down by swords or be carried to the nations as captives. Then JeruSalem will be trampled by the gentiles until the times of the nations are filled.

²⁵ ‘At that time, there will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars. And on the earth, the nations will all be in distress, for they’ll be confused by the roaring and the rolling surges of the seas. ²⁶ Then men’s hearts will become weak with fear in expectation of the things that will be coming upon the habitation of mankind, as [they see] the powers in the heavens being shaken. ²⁷ And that’s when they’ll see the Son of Man coming on a cloud with great power and glory.

²⁸ ‘But as [you see] these things start to happen, you should stand erect and raise your heads high, for you’ll know that your time of deliverance has drawn near!’

²⁹ Then he gave them this parable:

‘Consider the figs and all other trees;

³⁰ For, when they start putting out buds,
You know that summer is near.

³¹ ‘Thus, when you see all these things start to happen,
You should know that the Kingdom of God has drawn near.

³² ‘I tell you the truth;

This generation will not pass away

Until all these things have been fulfilled...

³³ Though the lands and the skies may all pass away,
My words will not pass away!

³⁴ ‘So, pay attention to yourselves
That your hearts don’t become overburdened...

Don’t allow the worries of life
To make your hearts reel and get drunk,
And let that day sneak up on you.

³⁵ For, it will arrive like a snare
Upon all who is sit on the face of the earth.

³⁶ ‘So, in every season, you must keep watch,
Praying that you’ll have the strength
To escape all these things that will happen,
And before the Son of Man, you can stand.’

³⁷ Well, [Jesus] taught in the Temple during the daytime, and every night he would go and camp on the hill called The Mount of Olives.³⁸ So, all the people would come to the Temple early each morning to listen to him.

Chapter 22

¹ Now, as the Festival of Passover was drawing near, ² the chief priests and scribes were looking for ways to get rid of Jesus. However, they were still afraid of the people.

³ But then the Opposer entered Judas (the one called IsCariot, who was one of the twelve), ⁴ and he went off and talked to the chief priests and [Temple] captains about ways that he could betray [Jesus] to them.

⁵ Well, they were delighted by this, and they agreed to pay him in silver coins, ⁶ which he accepted. So then he started looking for opportunities to betray [Jesus] when there were no crowds around.

⁷ Then, [just before] the day of No Fermentation (which is when the Passover was to be sacrificed), ⁸ [Jesus] sent Peter and John ahead of him, saying: ‘Go and prepare for us to eat the Passover.’ ⁹ And when they asked him where he wanted them to prepare it, ¹⁰ he told them: ‘{Look!} When you go into the city, you’ll be met by a man who is carrying a clay jar of water. Follow him into the house that he enters. ¹¹ Then tell the master of the house that the Teacher wants to know where the guest room is where he can eat the Passover with his disciples. ¹² And he will show you a large furnished upstairs room. Prepare for it there.’

¹³ So they left and found things just as he said; and they prepared for the Passover.

¹⁴ Then when it was time, he reclined at the table with his Apostles, ¹⁵ and he said to them: ‘I really wanted to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶ For I tell you that I won’t eat it again until it’s fulfilled in the

Kingdom of God.' ¹⁷ And at that, he took a cup, gave thanks for it, and said, 'Take this and pass it among yourselves. ¹⁸ I tell you that from this point on, I definitely won't be drinking the fruit of the vine again until after the Kingdom of God has arrived.'

¹⁹ Then he took a loaf [of bread], gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying, 'This is my body, which is being handed over for you. Continue to do this in memory of me.'

²⁰ He also did the same thing with the cup after supper. He said: 'This cup is the New Sacred Agreement of my blood that is being poured out on your behalf. ²¹ But look... the hand of my betrayer is with me here at this table! ²² So the Son (who indeed is from among mankind) will be going the way that has been marked out for him... yet, woe to that man through whom he's being betrayed!'

²³ Well at that, they started discussing among themselves which one would possibly do such a thing.

²⁴ But then, a friendly dispute also arose between them as to which one of them seemed to be the greatest. ²⁵ So [Jesus] said to them: 'The kings of the gentiles like to dominate them, and those with power like to be called their benefactors. ²⁶ However, you shouldn't be like that. Rather, the greatest among you should act like the youngest, and the one taking the lead should be the servant of the others. ²⁷ For, which one is truly the greatest... the one who reclines at the table, or the one who does the serving? Isn't it the one who reclines at the table? Yet, here among you, I'm the one who has been doing the serving.

²⁸ 'Now, because you're the ones that stuck with me during my trials, ²⁹ I'm giving this appointment to you, as my Father has given the appointment to me, for a Kingdom: ³⁰ In my Kingdom, you'll eat and drink at my table, and you'll sit on thrones, from which you'll judge the twelve tribes of IsraEl.

³¹ 'But Simon, O Simon; {Look!} the Opposer has demanded to have you so [he can] sift you like wheat! ³² However, I've pleaded with [God] on your behalf so that your faith doesn't give out... and then after you return, you can strengthen your brothers.'

³³ But [Peter] said to him: ‘Lord; I’m ready to go with you to prison and even into death!’

³⁴ But [Jesus] said: ‘I tell you this Peter; a rooster won’t crow today until you’ve denied knowing me three times.’

³⁵ Then [Jesus] went on to say this to them: ‘When I sent you out before without a money bag, or a food pouch, or extra sandals, you really didn’t need anything more, did you?’

And they all replied, ‘No!’

³⁶ But then he gave them this warning... he said: ‘But now; if you have a money bag, you must carry it along, as well as a pouch for your food. And if you don’t have a sword, you should go sell your coat and buy one. ³⁷ For I’m telling you that this thing that was written about me must now be fulfilled: He was counted among the law breakers. Yes, this scripture is now going to be fulfilled in me.’

³⁸ Then [the Apostles] said: ‘Look, Lord... here are two swords!’

And He said to them: ‘That’s enough.’

³⁹ Then he left, and as was his custom, he went to the Mount of Olives... and the disciples followed along. ⁴⁰ And when he got there, he told them this: ‘Now, pray that you won’t be tested!’ ⁴¹ And at that, he walked away from them about a stone’s throw, and he bent down and started to pray, saying: ⁴² ‘Father; If it’s Your Will, please take this cup away from me... but only if it’s Your will, not mine.’

⁴³ Then an angel from the heavens appeared to him, who gave him strength. ⁴⁴ Yet, because he was still in agony, he prayed even harder; and his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground.

⁴⁵ Well, after he had finished praying, he got up and returned to the disciples and he found them sleeping (because they were all very grieved). ⁴⁶ So he asked them: ‘Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you won’t be tested!’

⁴⁷ But while he was still talking, {Look!} a mob approached with one of the twelve (the one called Judas) in the lead, and he walked right up to

Jesus and kissed him! ⁴⁸ Well at that, Jesus said: ‘Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?’

⁴⁹ And when those who were around [Jesus] saw what was about to happen, they asked him: ‘Lord, shall we fight them off with the swords?’

⁵² And thereafter, Jesus asked the chief priests, Temple captains, and elders who had come for him: ‘Are you coming here with swords and clubs [as though I were] some thief? ⁵³ I was with you in the Temple every day, and you didn’t try to grab me then... however, this is your hour and the power of darkness.’

⁵⁴ So they arrested him and led him off to the house of the High Priest, as Peter followed behind at some distance. ⁵⁵ There they lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard, where they all sat down together, and Peter went and sat down among them.

⁵⁶ But then a servant girl noticed [Peter] sitting there in the light of the fire... she looked at him very hard and said, ‘[This man] was with him also!’

⁵⁷ But [Peter] denied it, saying, ‘I don’t know him, woman!’

⁵⁸ And a little while later, someone else saw him and said, ‘You’re also one of them!’

But Peter said: ‘Man, I’m not!’

⁵⁹ Then, after standing around for another hour, someone started insisting, saying, ‘It’s true; this man was with him, because he’s also a Galilean!’

⁶⁰ But Peter said: ‘Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!’ And just as he was speaking, a rooster crowed.

⁶¹ Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter, and Peter remembered the words that the Lord had said to him: ‘Before the rooster crows today, you will deny knowing me three times.’ ⁶² And at that, [Peter] went outside and wept bitterly.

⁶³ Well, the men who had taken [Jesus] into custody then started making fun of him, and they [slapped] him ⁶⁴ as they were covering [his head] and shouting, ‘Now prophesy... tell us who’s disciplining you!’ ⁶⁵ They were also saying all sorts of slanderous things about him.

⁶⁶ Well, as the day was dawning, the people’s body of elders assembled with the chief priests and scribes, and then they brought [Jesus] before the Jewish High Court, where they said to him: ⁶⁷ ‘If you really are the Anointed One, then say so!’

And he replied: ‘If I told you, you wouldn’t even start to believe it! ⁶⁸ Also, if I asked you any questions, you wouldn’t answer at all! ⁶⁹ But from now on, the Son of Man will be sitting at the powerful right hand of The God!’

⁷⁰ Well at that, they all asked, ‘So, are you the Son of The God?’

And he replied: ‘You’re the ones who are saying that I am!’

⁷¹ And then they said: ‘So, why do we need any more witnesses, for now we’ve heard it from his own mouth!’

Chapter 23

¹ Well thereafter, the whole assembly got up and took [Jesus] before Pilate. ² And there they accused him, saying: ‘We found this man trying to undermine the principles of our nation by forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and by saying that he’s the Anointed One... a king!’

³ So Pilate asked him: ‘Are you the king of the Jews?’

And he replied: ‘You’re the one who is saying this.’

⁴ Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds: ‘I can’t find anything wrong with this man.’

⁵ But they insisted, saying: ‘He’s been stirring up the people ---- throughout all of Judea... that’s why he came here from Galilee!’

⁶ Well on hearing that, Pilate asked whether [Jesus] was in fact a Galilean. ⁷ Then, after learning that he was from Herod’s realm, he sent him on to Herod (who also happened to be in JeruSalem at the time [for the Passover]).

⁸ Well when Herod saw Jesus, he was overjoyed, because he'd been wanting to see him for quite some time, since he'd heard so much about him and he hoped to see Jesus perform some sign. ⁹ So he asked many questions, but [Jesus] wouldn't answer him. ¹⁰ [And all the while], the chief priests and scribes kept standing up and accusing him.

¹¹ But then, not knowing what to make of him, Herod and his troops made fun of Jesus by dressing him in bright clothes, and thereafter, they sent him back to Pilate. ¹² This is also why Herod and Pilate became friends that day, for they really hadn't liked each other before that.

¹³ So Pilate then assembled the chief priests, rulers, and all the people, ¹⁴ and he said to them: 'You brought this man to me as someone who was inciting the people to revolt. And look! I've examined him before you and I can't find any basis for the charges that you're bringing against him. ¹⁵ In fact, Herod didn't either, because he returned him to us. So, since he's done nothing deserving of death, ¹⁶ I'm just going to discipline him and then release him.' ¹⁷ —

¹⁸ But with that, the entire crowd started shouting, 'Impale him and release BarAbbas to us!' ¹⁹ ([BarAbbas] was in prison at the time because of [his involvement in] a revolt in the city, and for murder).

²⁰ Well, Pilate shouted to them once again, because he wanted to release Jesus. ²¹ But they started yelling, 'Impale him! Impale him!'

²² So he asked them a third time: 'Why? What crime has he committed? I haven't found anything that he's done to deserve death, so I'm just going to discipline him and then set him free!'

²³ But they started shouting impatiently, demanding to have [Jesus] hung on a pole... and their voices began to win out. ²⁴ So Pilate gave in ²⁵ and he released [BarAbbas] (who was in prison for rebellion and murder) to meet their demands, then he did whatever they wanted [him to do] to Jesus.

²⁶ Well, as they were leading him away, they grabbed Simon (a Cyrenian who happened to be coming in from the fields) and laid the pole on him, so that he could carry it behind Jesus.

²⁷ Meanwhile, a huge crowd of people (including many women) followed behind [Jesus], beating themselves in grief and wailing over him. ²⁸ But then Jesus turned to the women and said, ‘Daughters of JeruSalem; Stop crying for me... cry instead for yourselves and for your children! ²⁹ Because, {Look!} the days are coming when people will say: Those without any children, those whose wombs have not given birth, and those whose breasts haven’t nursed, are the blest! ³⁰ For they will then call to the mountains and say, Come and fall over us! and to the hills they’ll shout, Come cover us over! ³¹ Because, if they’ve been willing to do such things when the tree is still moist, what will they do after it has withered?’

³² Well, two criminals were also being led out to be impaled along with [Jesus]. ³³ And when they got to the place that was referred to as ‘The Skull,’ they hung him and the criminals on poles there (one on his right and the other on his left). ³⁴ --- Then [the soldiers] threw dice for [Jesus]’ clothes, ³⁵ as the people just stood there watching. However, their rulers were looking on angrily and saying, ‘He saved others, so let him save himself if he’s truly the Anointed of God... His chosen one!’

³⁶ Even the soldiers made fun of him, coming up to him and offering him soured wine ³⁷ and saying, ‘If you’re the king of the Jews, save yourself!’

³⁸ There was also a sign that had been placed above him [that said], ‘This is the king of the Jews.’

³⁹ Then one of the criminals who was hanging there started speaking badly to him, saying: ‘If you’re the Anointed One, save yourself... and save us too!’

⁴⁰ But the other one scolded him, saying, ‘Aren’t you at all afraid of God, since you’ve received the same judgment... ⁴¹ which is only right, because we’re getting what we deserve in full measure for the bad things that we’ve done. However, he hasn’t done anything wrong at all!’

⁴² Then the man said to Jesus: ‘Remember me when you come into your Kingdom.’

⁴³ And [Jesus] replied: ‘I tell you this today: You will be with me in the Paradise.’

⁴⁴ Well, it was already about the sixth hour... and then the whole land became covered by a darkness [that lasted] until the ninth hour, ⁴⁵ for the sunlight had failed. Then the Temple curtain split down the middle, ⁴⁶ and Jesus called out in a loud voice, saying: ‘Father, I entrust my breath to Your hands.’ And after saying that, he died.

⁴⁷ Well when the centurion saw [all of this] happening, he glorified God and said: ‘This truly was a righteous man!’ ⁴⁸ And all the crowds that had come to watch this spectacle (after seeing all these things) started beating themselves [in grief] once again.

⁵⁰ Then {Look!} JoSeph (a man from HariMathea, a city in Judea), who was a good and righteous man and one of the Council members ⁵¹ (one who didn’t go along with what the [others] said or did, and who was also awaiting the Kingdom of God) ⁵² went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. ⁵³ So he took it down, then he wrapped it in fine linen and laid it in a tomb that had been cut into the rock where no one had ever been placed before.

⁵⁴ Well, since it was [\[the day of\] Preparation and the Sabbath was about to arrive](#), ⁵⁵ the women who had come with him from Galilee and who had followed along to look at the tomb to see how his body was laid out, ⁵⁶ went back to prepare spices and perfumed ointments. But they followed the Commandments by resting on the Sabbath.

Chapter 24

¹ It was on the first day of the week, at early dawn, that [the women] went back to the tomb carrying the spices that they had prepared. ² But when they got there, they found that the stone [that covered the tomb’s entrance] had been rolled away; ³ and when they went inside, they couldn't find the Lord Jesus' body.

⁴ Well, as they were standing there confused, {Look!} two men in glowing clothes appeared beside them, ⁵ which frightened them, and they hung their heads to the ground.

Then [the men] asked: 'Why are you looking for the living among the dead? ⁶ [Jesus] isn't here; he got up! Don't you remember? When he spoke to you in Galilee, ⁷ he said that the Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, then he would be hung on a pole, and [he would be] resurrected on the third day.'

⁸ Well, that's when they remembered what he had told them, ⁹ and they left the tomb to report these things to the eleven and all the others.

¹⁰ It was Mary of Magdala, Joanna, Mary (the [mother] of James) and the rest of the women, who reported these things to the Apostles. ¹¹ However, what they said sounded like nonsense, so nobody believed them.

¹³ {Look!} Meanwhile, on that very same day, two of [Jesus' disciples] had been traveling to a village named EmMaus (which is about seven miles from JeruSalem), ¹⁴ and as they [were walking along], they were discussing all the things that had happened. ¹⁵ Then, as they were talking and reasoning, Jesus himself came up and started walking along with them... ¹⁶ however, their eyes refused to recognize him. ¹⁷ So he asked them: 'What is this subject that you're debating as you've been walking along?'

And at that, they stopped and looked very sad. ¹⁸ Then the one named CleoPas said, 'Have you been living as a hermit in JeruSalem that you don't know what has happened over the past few days?'

¹⁹ And [Jesus] asked, 'What things?'

Then they said: 'The things [that happened to] Jesus the Nazarene... a Prophet who came before all the people with powerful words and deeds!'

²⁰ But our chief priests and rulers then handed him over to be sentenced to death and hung on a pole. ²¹ Yet, we were hoping that he would be the one that set IsraEl free... it has only been three days since these things happened! ²² Then some women among us really shocked us. For they went to the tomb early [this morning] ²³ and they said that they couldn't find his body. Then when they came back, they told us that they had a vision of messengers [from God] who told them that he's still alive! ²⁴ So, some from among us went to the tomb and found it was just as the women had said... they didn't see him.'

²⁵ Well at that, [Jesus] said to them: 'O senseless ones whose hearts are slow when it comes to believing all the things that the Prophets said. ²⁶ Wasn't it necessary for the Anointed One to suffer these things and then enter his glory?' ²⁷ So, starting from Moses and the Prophets, he explained all the scriptures that talked about him.

²⁸ Well when they reached the village where they were headed, he acted as though he was going to travel on. ²⁹ But they pressured him, saying: 'Stay with us, because it's getting late and most of the day is already gone!' So he stayed with them.

³⁰ Then, as he was reclining with them for a meal, he took a loaf, spoke a blessing over it, broke it, and started handing it to them... ³¹ and that's when their eyes were fully opened and they recognized him... but then he disappeared! ³² And they said to each other: 'Weren't our hearts burning as he talked to us along the road, completely explaining the Scriptures to us?'

³³ So they got up right away and went back to JeruSalem. And there they found the eleven gathered with the rest, ³⁴ who told them: 'The Lord was in fact raised, because he appeared to Simon!'

³⁵ Then these [two men] also told [the group] what had happened [to them] on the road and of how he became recognizable when he broke the loaf.

³⁶ Well, while they were still talking about these things, [they suddenly saw] Jesus standing there in their midst. And he said, 'May you have peace.’³⁷ However, this frightened and terrified them, because they thought they were seeing a [\[wicked\] spirit](#).

³⁸ So he asked them: ‘Why are you so worried, and what sort of conclusions are you reaching in your hearts?’³⁹ Look... my hands and my feet... it’s me! Touch me and see, because a spirit doesn’t have flesh and bones as you see that I have!’⁴⁰ And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

⁴¹ But because they still didn’t believe (due to both joy and confusion), he asked them: ‘Do you have something to eat?’

⁴² So they handed him a piece of broiled fish;⁴³ and he took it and ate it in front of them.

⁴⁴ Then he said to them: ‘These are the things that I talked to you about while I was still with you; for everything that was written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, had to be fulfilled.’⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to fully understand the meanings of the Scriptures.

⁴⁶ Thereafter, he said to them: ‘It was written that the Anointed One would suffer this way and then rise from the dead on the third day.’⁴⁷ Then in his name, [the message of] repentance for the forgiveness of sins is to be preached among all the nations, starting from JeruSalem...⁴⁸ and you [are the ones] who are to serve as the witnesses to these things!

⁴⁹ ‘So look! I will [soon] be sending you [something] that was promised by my Father. Therefore, you must stay in this city until after you’ve become clothed with the power from above.’

⁵⁰ And with that, he led them out along the road to BethAny... then he raised his hands and blest them.⁵¹ And as he was blessing them, he was taken away from them into the sky.

⁵² Then, after bowing to their faces before him, they all returned to JeruSalem filled with joy.⁵³ And after that, they were found in the Temple, praising God every day.

John

Written for Jesus' Apostle John, possibly in Aramaic, sometime late in the 1st Century CE.

Chapter 1

¹ In the beginning there was the Word. The Word was with The God (gr. Ton Theon) and the Word was a powerful one (gr. theos or god-like). ² This one was with The God in the beginning, ³ and through him it all came to be. ⁴ Life was in him, and the life was the light of mankind. ⁵ This light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overpowered it.

⁶ Then a man named John arrived who had been sent by God. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify about the light so that everyone might believe through him. ⁸ He wasn't the light, but he was to testify about the light; ⁹ for the true light that enlightens all mankind had come into the world. ¹⁰ He was in the world, and though the world came to be through him, it didn't recognize him. ¹¹ For even when he went to [those who were] his own, he wasn't welcomed by them. ¹² Yet, he gave all those who did welcome him (all those who put faith in his name) the authority to become the children of God. ¹³ So, they will not be born from blood, from the will of the flesh, or from man's will, but from God.

¹⁴ Thus, the Word became flesh and tented among us as we gazed upon his glory, which was the glory of the one-and-only next to the Father... and he was filled with kindness and truth.

¹⁵ Concerning him, John gave this testimony:

'This is the one about whom I said, Though he is coming behind me, he preceded me and he came before me!

¹⁶ So, we have received loving-kindness after loving-kindness from his great wealth. ¹⁷ For though Moses gave us the Law, loving-kindness and truth come to us through Jesus the Anointed One. ¹⁸ And though no one has ever seen God, this 'only generated god' (the one in the favored position of the Father) has explained Him.

¹⁹ Now, this is what John testified to when the Judeans sent Priests and Levites from JeruSalem to ask him who he was. ²⁰ [John] confessed... he didn't deny it, he confessed, saying:

'I'm not the Anointed One!'

²¹ 'Then when they asked:

'Then, who [are you]... are you EliJah?

He told them:

'No, I'm not.'

[And when they asked]:

'Are you the Prophet?'

He answered:

'No!'

²² So they said:

'Then, tell us who you are, so we can give an answer to those who sent us... what are you saying about yourself?'

²³ And he told them:

'I'm just the voice of someone who is calling out in the desert, as the Prophet IsaiAh said... I have come to straighten the way for the Lord.'

²⁴ Now, those who had come to speak to him had been sent by the Pharisees, ²⁵ so they asked him:

'Then, why are you baptizing if you aren't the Anointed One, or EliJah, or the Prophet?'

²⁶ And John told them:

'I baptize in water; but there's someone standing in your midst whom you don't know. ²⁷ He's the one that is coming behind me, the laces of whose sandals I'm unworthy to untie.

²⁸ Well, all of these things happened in BethAny-Behind-the-JorDan, which is where John was doing his baptizing.

²⁹ Then the next day, as [John] saw Jesus coming toward him, he said: 'Look! The Lamb of God who lifts away the sins of the world! ³⁰ This is the one about whom I said, There's a man coming behind me who preceded me and came before me! ³¹ Yet, even I didn't recognize him, though the reason why I came baptizing in water was so that I might reveal him to Israel.

³² Then John gave this testimony:

'I saw the Breath [of God] coming down from the sky like a dove and settle upon him! ³³ And though I didn't know who he was, the One who sent me to baptize in water told me this: Whomever you see the Breath [of God] coming down and resting upon is the one who baptizes in Holy Breath... ³⁴ and this is what I saw, so I can now testify to the fact that this is the Son of The God!

³⁵ Then the next day, as John was standing there with two of his disciples, ³⁶ he noticed Jesus walking by, and he again said:

'Look, the Lamb of God!'

³⁷ So, the two disciples who heard him say this started following Jesus. ³⁸ And when Jesus turned around and saw them following him, he asked them:

'What are you looking for?'

And they replied:

'Rabbi (Teacher); where are you staying?'

³⁹ Then he said:

'Come with me and see.'

So, they went and saw where he was staying, and they spent the rest of day with him (until about the tenth hour).

⁴⁰ Well after that, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter (one of the two who had heard what John said and who followed [Jesus]) ⁴¹ went and found his brother Simon and told him:

'I've found the Messiah (which translates as, the Anointed One).'

⁴² Then he led him to Jesus. And when Jesus saw him, he said:

'You're Simon, the son of Jonah... you will be called Cephas (gr. Petros or Peter).

⁴³ Then the next day, as Jesus was preparing to leave for Galilee, he found Philip and said to him:

‘Be my follower’ ⁴⁴ (Philip was from BethSaida, the same city as Andrew and Peter).

⁴⁵ Then after that, Philip [went and] found NathaniEl (BarTholomew) and told him:

‘We’ve found the one about whom Moses wrote in the Law and the Prophets... he is Jesus the son of JoSeph from Nazareth!’

⁴⁶ But when NathaniEl asked:

‘Can anything good come out of Nazareth?’

Philip told him:

‘Well, come and see!’

⁴⁷ Then when Jesus saw NathaniEl coming, he said to him:

‘Look... an IsraElite who really speaks his mind!’

⁴⁸ So, NathaniEl asked him:

‘How is it that you know me?’

And Jesus replied:

‘Before Philip called you, while you were under the fig tree, I saw you.’

⁴⁹ Then NathaniEl said:

‘Rabbi; you are the Son of God... you’re the King of IsraEl!’

⁵⁰ And Jesus asked:

‘Do you believe this because I said that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see even greater things than that.’

⁵¹ Then he said:

‘I tell you men the truth; you will see the heavens opening up and the messengers [of God] ascending and descending upon the Son of Man!’

Chapter 2

¹ Well, three days later, there was a wedding banquet in Cana of Galilee. And because Jesus’ mother was there, ² Jesus and his disciples were also invited. ³ Then when the wine started to run out, Jesus’ mother said to him:

‘They don’t have any more wine.’

⁴ And Jesus said to her:

‘Why is this any of my business, woman? My hour hasn’t come yet.’

⁵ But then his mother told the waiters:

‘Do whatever he tells you to do.’

⁶ Well, there were six stone water jars sitting there that the Judeans required for washing, each of which held about fifteen gallons. ⁷ So then, Jesus told them to fill the jars to the brim with water. ⁸ And he said: ‘Now, dip some out and take it to the banquet director.’

So, they did this and they took it to the banquet director. ⁹ And when he tasted the water that had been turned into wine (he didn’t know where it came from, but the waiters who drew the water knew), the director called the bridegroom ¹⁰ and said to him:

‘Everyone else puts out the finest wine first, then after people are intoxicated, the inferior. However, you’ve kept the best wine for now!’

¹¹ So it was, there in Cana of Galilee, that Jesus first showed the signs that revealed his glory, and it’s where his disciples [first started believing] in him.

¹² Well after that, [Jesus] went down to Capharnaum with his mother, brothers, and disciples. However, they didn’t stay there long, ¹³ because it was getting close to the Jewish Passover. So, Jesus then traveled up to JeruSalem, ¹⁴ where he found [people] in the Temple selling cattle, sheep, and doves, as well as some currency exchangers who were sitting there. ¹⁵ Then, after making a whip out of ropes, he drove all those with the sheep and cattle out of the Temple, and he poured out the currency exchangers’ coins, turning their tables over.

¹⁶ Then he said to those who were selling the doves:

‘Get these things out of here! Quit turning my Father’s House into a marketplace!’

¹⁷ And that’s when his disciples remembered that it was written:

‘Zeal for Your House will consume me.’

¹⁸ Well after he did that, the Judeans asked him:
‘What sign can you show us [to prove] that you should be doing these things?’

¹⁹ And Jesus replied:
‘When you tear down this Most Holy (gr. Naon or, Dwelling of God), I will rebuild it in three days.’

²⁰ Then the Judeans said:
‘It took forty-six years to build this Holy Place... and [you say] that you’ll rebuild it just in three days?’

²¹ But of course, Jesus was talking about his most holy body (gr. Naou tou somatos autou or, Most/Holy of/the body of/him). ²² For after he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he used to say this, and they believed the Scriptures and the things that Jesus said.

²³ It was there (while he was in JeruSalem for the Passover and its festival) that many people started believing in his name... that is, after they saw the signs that he was performing. ²⁴ But Jesus didn’t trust them, because he knew them... ²⁵ he didn’t need anyone to tell him about people, because he knew what they were on the inside.

Chapter 3

¹ Now, there was a man named NicoDemos (he was a Pharisee and a ruler of the Judeans) ² who came to him one night and said:
‘Rabbi, we know that you came as a teacher from God, because nobody can perform signs like you’re doing unless God is with him.’

³ Then Jesus said:
‘I tell you the truth; Unless a person is born from above, he can’t see the Kingdom of The God.’

⁴ So, NicoDemos asked: ‘How can a man be born again after he’s old... he can’t go back into his mother’s womb a second time to be born, can he?’

⁵ And Jesus replied:
‘I tell you the truth; Unless a person is born from water and [\[God’s\] Breath](#), he can’t enter the Kingdom of God. ⁶ Because, things that have been born from the flesh are fleshly, while things that have been born from the Breath are spiritual. ⁷ However, don't be surprised because I told you that people have to be born again... ⁸ for the wind blows wherever it wishes. And though you can hear the noise, you don't know where it's coming from or where it's going... and this is how it will be for all those who have been born of the Breath.

⁹ Then NicoDemos asked, 'How can things like this happen?'

¹⁰ And Jesus replied:

'You're a teacher of IsraEl, and you don't know? ¹¹ I tell you the truth; We talk about the things that we know, and we testify to things that we've seen... yet you haven't accepted our testimony. ¹² So if you don't believe the earthly things that I'm telling you, how will you believe the heavenly things?'

¹³ 'No one has gone to heaven other than the one who came down from heaven, the Son of Man... he [came from] the heavens. ¹⁴ And as Moses raised [the \[sign of the\] snake](#) in the desert; that's how the Son of Man must also be raised, ¹⁵ so that all those who believe in him might have age-long life.'

¹⁶ 'This is how [much] God loved the world: He gave His one-and-only Son so that all who believe in him might not be destroyed but have age-long life.

¹⁷ 'God didn't send His Son into the world to judge it, but rather, so that the world might be saved through him! ¹⁸ Therefore, those who believe in [the Son] won't be condemned, while those who don't believe have already been condemned, because they haven't put faith in the name of God's one-and-only Son. ¹⁹ Indeed, this [is the basis] for their judgment!

'Though the light has now entered the world, these men have loved darkness more than the light, because the things that they're doing are evil. ²⁰ For, people who do what's foul hate the light and they don't come into the light so [they won't] be disciplined for the [bad] things that they're doing. ²¹ However, those who do what is true will come toward the light, so that the things they're doing can be exposed as having been done in God.'

²² Well after that, Jesus and his disciples traveled into the Judean countryside, and he spent some time with them, baptizing. ²³ Meanwhile, John was also baptizing in Aenon near Salim (because there's a lot of water there), and people kept going out to be baptized [by him], ²⁴ since John hadn't been thrown into prison yet.

²⁵ Well, John's disciples had been arguing about purification with [a certain] Judean. ²⁶ And then they went to John and said: 'Rabbi; The man who was with you across the Jordan (the one whom you testified about) is also baptizing, and now everyone is going to him!'

²⁷ And John told them: 'A man can't have anything unless he receives it from heaven... ²⁸ and you are witnesses that I said I'm not the Anointed One, but that I've been sent ahead of him. ²⁹ So, the one who has the bride is the bridegroom. But his friend, when he stands and listens to him, gains much joy from the voice of the bridegroom. Therefore, my joy is now complete; ³⁰ for he must increase as I decrease.

³⁴ 'And since the one who is sent by God speaks God's words; he doesn't just measure out [small] portions of [God's] Breath, ³⁵ because, the Father loves the Son, and He has entrusted everything into his hands. ³⁶ So, those who believe in the Son will have age-long life, while those who disobey him won't see life at all, because the wrath of God remains upon them.'

Chapter 4

¹ Well, when the Lord realized that the Pharisees knew he was making and baptizing more disciples than John ² (although Jesus didn't really do any baptizing, his disciples did), ³ he left Judea and returned to Galilee.

⁴ However, on the way back, he had to travel through Samaria. ⁵ So he stopped at a Samaritan city called Sychar, which was close to the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph, ⁶ and it's where Jacob's [well] was located.

Since Jesus was tired from the journey, he sat down at the edge of the [well] (at about the sixth hour). ⁷ And at the time, there was a Samaritan woman who had come there to draw water. So, Jesus said to her:

'Give me a drink' ⁸ (at the time, his disciples had gone into the city to buy some food.)

⁹ But the Samaritan woman asked him:

'So, why are you, a Jew, asking me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink --?'

¹⁰ And Jesus told her:

'If you knew about the gift of God and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you might have asked him, and he would have given you living water.'

¹¹ Then she said:

'Lord; you don't have anything to draw water with... and it's a deep well! So, where will you get this living water? ¹² You aren't greater than our ancestor Jacob who gave us this well and who drank from it with his sons and cattle, are you?'

¹³ And Jesus replied:

'Whoever drinks this water will just get thirsty again. ¹⁴ But, whoever drinks the water that I give him won't be thirsty again in this age, for the water that I give will become a fountain inside him that bubbles age-long life.'

¹⁵ Then the woman said:

'Lord, give me this water so I won't be thirsty again and have to keep coming to this place to draw water!'

¹⁶ And he said to her:

'Go call your husband [and tell him] to come here.'

¹⁷ But the woman replied:

'I don't have a husband.'

And Jesus said:

‘It’s good that you say you don’t have a husband, ¹⁸ because you’ve had five husbands; and the one you have now isn’t your husband... you’ve spoken the truth.’

¹⁹ So the woman said:

‘Lord, I see that you’re a Prophet. ²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped here on this mountain, but you people say that JeruSalem is where we should worship.’

²¹ Then Jesus said to her:

‘Believe me, woman; the time is coming when you won’t worship the Father on this mountain or in JeruSalem!

²² ‘Yet, you worship what you haven’t known, while we worship what we have known... for salvation comes from the Jews. ²³ But the time is coming (and it’s now) when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, because, the Father is searching for such people to worship Him. ²⁴ And since God is spirit; those who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.’

²⁵ Then the woman said:

‘I know that the Messiah (who is called the Anointed One) is coming, and when he gets here, he will explain everything to us.’

²⁶ And Jesus said:

‘I (this person who is speaking to you) am that one.’

²⁷ Well, his disciples arrived just then, and they were puzzled, because he was talking to a woman. And of course, no one asked what she was looking for or why he was talking to her.

²⁸ However, the woman just left her water jar and walked back into the city. And there she said to the people:

²⁹ ‘Come and see a man who told me everything that I did... this couldn’t be the Anointed One could it?’

³⁰ As the result, everyone came from the city to see him.

³¹ Meanwhile, the disciples had been urging him, saying:

‘Rabbi, eat!’

³² But he told them:

‘I have food to eat of which you are unaware.’

³³ So the disciples started asking each other:

‘No one has brought him anything to eat, have they?’

³⁴ Then Jesus said:

‘Doing the will of the One who sent me and finishing His work is my food. ³⁵ For, though you say that there are still four more months until the harvest, I tell to you to look up and notices the fields, because they’re already white and ready for harvesting! ³⁶ Yes, the harvesters are already getting their pay and they’re gathering in the fruit of age-long life... so the planters and the harvesters can now rejoice together.

³⁷ ‘Though the saying is true, One does the planting while another does the harvesting, ³⁸ I’m now sending you out to harvest what you didn’t [plant]. Yes, though others have done the work, you’re now benefiting from their efforts!’

³⁹ Well at the time, many of the Samaritans in that city started believing in [Jesus] because of what the woman had testified to when she said: ‘He told me everything that I did.’

⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay there with them... and he spent a couple of days in that place. ⁴¹ However, many more started believing in him after that, because of the things that he was saying. ⁴² So they told the woman:

‘We don’t believe just because of what you said, but because of what we’ve heard for ourselves... and now we know that this man is truly the Savior of the world!’

⁴³ Well, two days later, he finally left Galilee; ⁴⁴ and there Jesus himself witnessed the fact that a Prophet receives no honor in his hometown. ⁴⁵ However, when he [first] arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him because they had seen all the things that he did in JeruSalem at the festival (since they had also been there).

⁴⁶ Thereafter, he traveled on toward Cana of Galilee (where he had turned the water into wine), and there happened to be a man of noble birth in

Capernaum at the time, and he had a son that was ill. ⁴⁷ So when the man heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went and asked him to heal his son (who was about to die). ⁴⁸ However, Jesus said to him:

‘You [people] just refuse to believe unless you see signs and omens.’

⁴⁹ But the man urged him, saying:

‘Lord; please come on, before my little boy dies!’

⁵⁰ And Jesus told him:

‘Be on your way! Your son is alive.’

So, the man believed what Jesus said and he went away. ⁵¹ Then, as he was traveling back, his slaves met him on the way and told him that his boy was alive. ⁵² And when he asked them exactly what time he got better, they told him:

⁵³ And at that, the father recognized that this was the same time that Jesus had told him his son was alive. So, after that, he and his whole household became believers. ⁵⁴ This was the second sign that Jesus had performed when he came out of Judea into Galilee.

Chapter 5

¹ Well, later, because there was a Jewish festival, Jesus [once again] went up to Jerusalem. ² And in Jerusalem, at the Sheep-gate Pool (it’s called BethZatha in Hebrew) where there are five stone columns, ³ he found many people who were sick, blind, lame, and otherwise physically handicapped, and they were all lying down. ⁴ ___ ⁵ And among them was a man who had been extremely weak for some thirty-eight years. ⁶ So when Jesus saw this man lying there (being aware of the long time he had this condition), he asked him:

‘Would you like to get well?’

⁷ And the sick man answered:

‘Lord, I don’t have anyone to put me into the pool when the water is shaking. And while I’m trying to get in, someone else steps in ahead of me!’

⁸ Then Jesus said:

‘Get up, pick up your cot, and walk around.’

⁹ And with that, the man immediately became healthy... he picked up his cot and started walking around.

Now, it so happened that this was a Sabbath day; ¹⁰ so the Judeans started saying to the cured man:

‘It’s the Sabbath, so it’s illegal for you to carry you cot!’

¹¹ But he said to them:

‘But the one who cured me told me to pick up my cot and walk around!’

¹² And they asked:

‘Which man was it that told you to pick it up and walk around?’

¹³ But the healed man didn’t know who he was, because Jesus had faded into crowd.

¹⁴ Then later on, Jesus found the man in the Temple and said to him:

‘See... now you’re healthy! Don’t sin anymore, so that something worse doesn’t happen to you.’

¹⁵ Well, after that, the man went off and told the Judeans that it was Jesus who had cured him. ¹⁶ So, this is why the Judeans started persecuting Jesus... because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷ But he told them:

‘My Father has kept working until now, and I keep working.’

¹⁸ As the result, the Judeans started looking [for ways to] kill him. For, not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he also called God his own Father, making himself equal to God.

¹⁹ Then Jesus said to them:

‘I tell you the truth; The Son can do nothing other than what he sees the Father doing... whatever [the Father] does is what the Son does. ²⁰ And because the Father cares about the Son, He shows him everything that He’s doing... and [God] will show him greater works than these, just to amaze you.

²¹ ‘For as the Father raises the dead and makes them alive; the Son can also give life to whomever he wishes. ²² And the Father doesn’t judge anyone, for He has left all the judging to the Son, ²³ so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Therefore, whoever doesn’t honor the Son, doesn’t honor the Father who sent him.

²⁴ ‘I tell you the truth; Whoever hears what I say and believes in the One that sent me will have age-long life... he won’t have to be judged, for he has come out of the death and into the life!

²⁵ ‘I also truthfully say that the time is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who listen to him will live. ²⁶ For, just as the Father has life in Himself, He has given the Son life in himself ²⁷ and authorized him to do judging... because, he is the son of man.

³⁰ ‘[Understand that] I am unable to do anything of myself... I just judge by what I hear, and my judgments are righteous, because I’m not looking to do what I want, but to do the Will of the One who sent me.

³¹ ‘Now, if I were to testify in my own behalf, that testimony wouldn’t be true. ³² But someone else has already testified about me, and I know that the testimony he gave about me is true. ³³ For you sent [people] to John and he testified to the truth. ³⁴ Nevertheless, I don’t really need the testimony of men... I’m just telling you these things to save you!

³⁵ ‘[John] was a burning, shining lamp, and you all wished to rejoice in that light during his hour. ³⁶ But now I have a testimony that’s even greater than John’s, because I’m doing the work that my Father assigned me to finish. And it’s these things that will testify about me [and prove] that I was sent by the Father.

³⁷ ‘For, even the Father who sent me has testified about me... yet, you’ve never heard His voice or seen His shape, ³⁸ and His words don’t stick with you, because you don't believe in the one whom He sent.³⁹ Rather, you keep searching the Scriptures, thinking that they will give you age-long life. And though they actually testify about me,⁴⁰ you still refuse to come to me so you can live!

⁴¹ 'I don't [need] glory from people,⁴² and I know that you don't have God's love in you.⁴³ For though I've come in the Name of my Father; you haven't welcomed me. Yet, if someone else came in his own name, you would welcome him!⁴⁴ So, how can you believe, when you receive your glory from each other and you don't look to glorify the one who has come here from the only God?

⁴⁵ 'Now, don't think that I'm going to accuse you before the Father, because the one who accuses you is Moses... the very person in whom you're putting all your hope.⁴⁶ For if you believed Moses, you'd also believe me, since he wrote about me!⁴⁷ However, if you don't even believe what he wrote, how can you believe what I have to say?'

Chapter 6

¹ Well [sometime] after this, Jesus had crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (or Tiberius),² and a large crowd followed along just to see the signs he was performing upon those who were sick.³ And there, Jesus went up a mountain and sat down with his disciples.⁴ It was close to the time of the Jewish Passover festival,⁵ so when Jesus looked up and noticed the huge crowd coming, he asked Philip:

'Where should we buy bread for them all to eat?'

⁶ However, he just said this to test him, because he already knew what he was going to do.

⁷ Then Philip answered:

'Two hundred silver coins worth of loaves wouldn't be enough to provide even a little for this many [to eat]!'

⁸ And one of his disciples (Andrew the brother of Simon Peter) said to him:

⁹ 'Here's a little boy who has five loaves of barley bread and two small fish... but then, what good is this when there are so many?'

¹⁰ Then Jesus said:

‘Have the people recline as they would at a meal.’

Well, there was a lot of grass there, so they all (about five thousand men) got down on the ground. ¹¹ Then Jesus took the bread, and after giving thanks, distributed it to those who were lying there. [He also did the same with] the small fish, [giving them as much] as they wanted. ¹² And after everyone had been filled, he told his disciples to pick up the leftovers so that nothing was wasted. ¹³ And when they picked them up, they filled twelve baskets with what remained of the five loaves of barley that those who had eaten had left behind.

¹⁴ So when the people saw the signs that he was performing, they started saying,

‘This really is the Prophet that was to come into the world!’

¹⁵ And then Jesus (because he knew that they were about to come and take him to make him their king) went away again... [he walked] up on the mountain [to be] by himself.

¹⁶ Well, later that evening, [Jesus’ disciples] went down to the water ¹⁷ and got into their boat, then they left for the other side of the Sea to Capharnaum, because it had grown dark and Jesus hadn’t returned yet. ¹⁸ However, a strong wind arose and the sea started becoming very rough.

¹⁹ Well, after they’d rowed for about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking across the sea toward the boat, and this frightened them. ²⁰ But he said to them:

‘Don’t be afraid... it is me!’

²¹ And at that, they were finally willing to let him into the boat. Then, shortly thereafter, they reached shore at the place where they were headed.

²² However, the next morning, the crowd that was still on the opposite shore could see that there was just the single little boat and that the other was gone... and they knew that Jesus hadn’t gotten into the boat with his disciples, and that [the disciples] had left by themselves. ²³ Then, some boats arrived from Tiberias and they docked close to the place where everyone had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks, ²⁴ and that’s when the crowd started to realize that Jesus and his disciples were no longer there. So, they got into their little boats and traveled to Capharnaum to look for Jesus. ²⁵ And when they found him across the sea, they asked him:

‘Rabbi, when did you get here?’

²⁶ So Jesus said to them:

‘I tell you the truth; You aren’t looking for me because you saw signs, but because you had enough bread to eat. ²⁷ Don’t work for food that can spoil. Rather, [work for] for the bread of life that lasts through the ages, which the Son of Man (who was sealed by our Father The God) will give to you.’

²⁸ Then they asked:

‘So, what must we do to perform the works of God?’

²⁹ And Jesus replied:

‘All that The God requires is for you to believe in the one whom He sent.

³⁰ So they asked:

‘Then, what sign will you perform for us, so that we can see and believe... what [miracles] can you show us? ³¹ Didn’t Moses give our ancestors manna as bread from heaven when they were in the desert?’

³² Then Jesus replied:

‘I tell you the truth; the bread that Moses gave them didn’t [really] come from heaven. However, my Father will give you bread that truly does come from heaven. ³³ For, God’s bread is the one who came from heaven so as to give life to the world.’

³⁴ Then they said:

‘Lord, always give us this bread!’

³⁵ And Jesus went on to say:

‘I am that bread of life, and those who come to me won’t ever be hungry again, nor will those who believe in me ever be thirsty again.

³⁶ ‘However, I tell you this: Though you’ve seen me, you still don’t believe... ³⁷ and only those whom the Father has given to me will come to me. However, I won't throw away anyone who comes to me, ³⁸ because I didn't come here from heaven to do my will, but [to do] the Will of the One who sent me. ³⁹ And this is what His Will is: That I shouldn't lose any of those whom He has given to me, and that I should resurrect them [on] the Last Day. ⁴⁰ Yes, it is the Will of my Father that everyone who pays close attention to the Son and believes in him should have age-long life. For I will resurrect him... [yes] me, on the Last Day!

⁴¹ Well at this, the Judeans started grumbling about him, because he'd said:

'I am the bread that has come down out of the heavens.'

⁴² And they started asking each other:

'Isn't this Jesus, the son of JoSeph, whose father and mother we all know? So, how is it that he's saying, I came down out of the heavens?

⁴³ Then Jesus said to them:

'Stop your grumbling! ⁴⁴ No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me... and then I will resurrect him on the last day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the Prophets: They will all be taught by God. So, all those who listen to the Father and learn, will come to me.

⁴⁶ 'However, no one has seen the Father other than the one who was with The God... yes, he has seen the Father. ⁴⁷ And I tell you the truth; those who believe this will have age-long life, ⁴⁸ because I am the bread of life!

⁴⁹ 'Even though your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, they [still] died... ⁵⁰ but those who eat this bread that came from heaven will not die!

⁵¹ 'I am the living bread that came from heaven, and all who eat this bread will have age-long life. Yes, the bread that I'm offering up is my flesh, and I'm giving it away so that I can bring life into the world!'

⁵² Well at that, the Judeans started arguing with each other, asking: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'

⁵³ So Jesus said:

'I tell you the truth; if you don't eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you won't have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴ For those who chew my flesh and drink my blood will have age-long life... because I will resurrect them on the Last Day.⁵⁵ Since my flesh is truly food and my blood is truly drink;⁵⁶ those who chew on my flesh and drink my blood will remain in me, and I in them.

⁵⁷ ‘I was sent here by the living Father and I became alive through the Father. So, those who chew on me will live because of me!

⁵⁸ ‘Yes, this is the bread that came down from heaven. It’s not the same as the bread that your fathers ate and then died; for those who chew on this bread will live through the ages.’

⁵⁹ Well, he said all these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capharnaum.⁶⁰ But after they heard him say these things, many of his disciples said:

‘These are tough words... who can listen to them?’

⁶¹ Well, because Jesus knew what his disciples were grumbling about, he asked them:

‘Has this become a trap for you?⁶² [If so], what will happen when you see the Son of Man going back up to the place from which he came?’

⁶³ ‘[Understand that your] breath is what makes you alive, for [without it], the flesh is useless. And these things that I’m telling you are your life and your breath...⁶⁴ yet, some of you still don’t believe.’

Well, Jesus knew from the start who wouldn’t believe and who would betray him,⁶⁵ so he went on to say:

‘This is why I told you that none of you can come to me unless you’ve been given to me by the Father.’

⁶⁶ However, as the result of [these things that he was saying], many of his disciples went back to what they’d left behind and they wouldn’t walk with him anymore.

⁶⁷ Then Jesus asked the twelve:

‘Don’t you want to turn back also?’

⁶⁸ And Simon (Peter) replied:

‘Lord, to whom else should we turn? You’re the one who speaks the words [that lead to] age-long life...⁶⁹ for we’ve known and believed that you’re the Holy One of God!’

⁷⁰ Then Jesus said:

‘I chose you twelve, didn’t I? Yet, one of you is a slanderer.’

⁷¹ Of course, he was talking about Judas, [the son] of Simon IsCariot; because, although he was one of the twelve, he was about to betray [Jesus].

Chapter 7

¹ Well after all these things had happened, Jesus limited his travels to [the area around] the Galilee... he no longer cared to travel through Judea, because the Judeans were looking to kill him. ² However, the Jewish Festival of Temporary Structures was coming up, ³ so his brothers said to him:

‘You should leave here and go to Judea, so your disciples there can also see the things that you’re doing. ⁴ For, nobody does things in secret when they want everyone to know what they’re saying.’

⁵ (Yes, it’s a fact that his brothers didn’t believe in him).

⁶ So Jesus told them:

‘My time hasn’t arrived yet... but it’s always your time, ⁷ because the world has no reason to hate you. It hates me, because I testify to the fact that it’s ways are wicked. ⁸ So, you go on up to the festival... I won’t be going to this festival yet, because my time hasn’t arrived.’

⁹ Well, he remained in Galilee [for a while] after telling them this. ¹⁰ However, after his brothers had left for the festival, Jesus also went (not openly, but in secret).

¹¹ Meanwhile, the Judeans were all looking for him at the festival, for they were asking:

‘Where is that [man]?’

¹² And there was a lot of discussion about him among the crowds. Some were saying:

‘He’s a good man.’

But others were saying:

‘No he isn’t... he’s misleading them all!’

¹³ Of course, nobody would talk about him publicly, because they were all afraid of the Judeans.

¹⁴ Well, by the time that Jesus arrived, the festival was half over. But then he went into the Temple and started teaching, ¹⁵ which caused the Judeans to wonder and ask:

‘How is it that this man understands the scriptures, since he hasn’t studied them?’

¹⁶ So Jesus told them:

‘What I’m teaching you isn’t mine... it belongs to the One who sent me.

¹⁷ And all those who want to do His Will already know whether the things I’m teaching come from God, or if I’m speaking on my own. ¹⁸

For, those who speak on behalf of themselves are just trying to glorify themselves, while this one whose only wish is to glorify that One who sent him is telling the truth, and there isn’t any unrighteousness in him.

¹⁹ ‘However, though Moses give you the Law; none of you are trying to do what the Law says... for, why are you looking to kill me?’

²⁰ Well at that, the crowd started shouting:

‘You’re demonized... who is looking to kill you?’

²¹ And Jesus said:

‘I just did this one thing that really bothers you.

²² ‘Moses gave you the circumcision (though it’s not really from Moses but from your forefathers); so, you circumcise men on the Sabbath. ²³

And if a man can be circumcised on a Sabbath without breaking the Law of Moses, then why are you so angry with me because I made a man healthy on a Sabbath? ²⁴ Stop judging from the way things look on the surface... judge righteously!’

²⁵ Well at that, some who lived in JeruSalem started asking:

‘Isn’t this the man that they’re actually seeking to kill? ²⁶ Yet, look... here he is speaking in public and they haven’t said anything to him! Have the rulers come to believe that he really is the Anointed One?’

²⁷ ‘We all know where this man came from; but when the [real] Anointed One arrives, no one will know where he’s from!’

²⁸ Then (as he was standing in the Temple, teaching) Jesus shouted aloud: ‘Yes, you know me and you know where I’m from! But, coming here wasn’t my idea; for the One who sent me is real and you don’t know Him. ²⁹ I know Him, because I came from Him and He sent me here!’

³⁰ Well after that, they started looking for ways to arrest him, but no one was able to lay a hand on him because his time hadn’t come yet. ³¹ But meanwhile, many who were in the crowd started believing in him and they were saying:

‘When the Anointed One arrives, he surely won’t perform more signs than this man has, will he?’

³² And because the Pharisees could hear what the crowd was saying about him, the Chief Priests and Pharisees did send officers to arrest him.

³³ It was then that Jesus said:

‘I will be here with you just a little while longer before I return to the One who sent me... ³⁴ and then you will look for me but not find me; for, where I’m [going] you can’t go.’

³⁵ So the Judeans started asking each other:

‘Where does he plan to go that we won’t be able to find him? He doesn’t intend to go to those scattered among the Greeks and start teaching the Greeks, does he? ³⁶ What does he mean when he says, You’ll look for me but not find me, and, Where I’m going you can’t go?’

³⁷ Well, it was on the last day (the climax) of the festival, that Jesus stood up and shouted:

‘If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! ³⁸ For the scriptures say this about those who will put faith in me:
A river of living water will flow from him.’

³⁹ Of course when he said this, [he was talking] about The Spirit that those who were putting faith in him were about to receive. However, the Spirit hadn’t arrived yet, because Jesus hadn’t been glorified.

⁴⁰ Then, some of the crowd who heard these words started saying: ‘This is surely the Prophet!’

⁴¹ While others were saying:
'This is the Anointed One!'

However, some also said:

'The Anointed One won't really come from Galilee, will he? ⁴² Didn't the Scriptures say the Anointed One is from the line of David and from BethLehem, the village of David?'

⁴³ So, the crowd became divided over him. ⁴⁴ And though some among them had come to arrest him, nobody laid a hand on him.

⁴⁵ Then, after the officers returned to the Chief Priests and Pharisees and were asked why they didn't bring him in, ⁴⁶ they replied:

'No man has ever spoken like this!'

⁴⁷ So, the Pharisees said to them:

'You haven't been misled also, have you? ⁴⁸ Why, none of the rulers or Pharisees believe in him, do they? ⁴⁹ Yet, this crowd that doesn't know the Law is cursed!'

⁵⁰ Then NicoDemos (the man who had come to him previously and who was truly one of [Jesus' followers]) said to them:

⁵¹ 'Your Law doesn't allow you to judge a man before you've heard what he has to say and get to understand what he's up to, does it?'

⁵² But they said to him:

'Are you also a Galilean? Search [the Scriptures] and you'll see that no Prophet is to come from Galilee!'

Chapter 8

(1-11) ¹² So, Jesus continued to speak [to the people], saying:

'I am the light of the world, and whoever follows me won't ever walk in darkness, because he'll have the light of life.'

¹³ Then the Pharisees said to him:

'You are just testifying about yourself, and what you're testifying to isn't true!'

¹⁴ But Jesus said:

'Even if I am testifying about myself; my testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I will return. However, you don't know where I came from or where I will be going, ¹⁵ since your judgment is fleshly.

'Now, I'm not really judging anyone! ¹⁶ But if I should judge, my judgment would be true, because I'm not alone... for there is me and the Father who sent me! ¹⁷ And isn't it written in your Law that whatever two people testify to is true? ¹⁸ So, though I am testifying about myself; the Father who sent me has also testified about me.'

¹⁹ Then they asked:

'So, where is your Father?'

And Jesus replied:

'You don't know me or my Father; for if you knew me, you would also know my Father.'

²⁰ And though [Jesus] was saying these things right there inside [the Temple] Treasury; during the entire time that he was teaching in there, nobody arrested him, because his time hadn't come.

²¹ Then He told them again:

'I am about to go away and then you will look for me. However, you will just die in your sins, because I'm going to a place where you can't go.'

²² So the Judeans started asking:

'Is he saying that he's going to kill himself? For he says, I'm going to a place where you can't go.'

²³ But he went on to tell them this:

'You came from the things below and I came from the things above... you're from this world, but I'm not from this world. ²⁴ So, as I told you before; you will die in your sins... indeed, if you don't believe that I am the one, you will die in your sins!

²⁵ Then they asked:

'So, who are you?'

And Jesus said to them:

‘Why am I even talking to you?’

²⁶ ‘Yet, I have so many things to tell you and to judge about you; for the One who sent me is true, and I’m telling the world whatever I heard from Him.’

²⁷ Well, because they really didn’t understand that he was talking to them about the Father, ²⁸ Jesus said:

‘After you hang the Son of Man up, you’ll know who I am and that I haven’t been doing anything on my own... I’ve just been telling you what I was taught by the Father. ²⁹ For, the One who sent me is with me, and He didn’t send me off alone, because I always do the things that please Him.’

³⁰ Well, as he was saying these things, many started to believe in him. ³¹ So Jesus then addressed those Judeans who believed in him, and he said this to them:

‘If you hang onto these things that I’m telling you, you are really my disciples... ³² you will know the truth and the truth will set you free!

³³ But some [in the crowd] replied:

‘We’re the seed of AbraHam and we’ve never been slaves to anyone! So, why are you saying that we’ll be set free?’

³⁴ And Jesus said to them:

‘I tell you the truth; everyone who sins is really a slave to sin. ³⁵ For a slave doesn’t always live in the house... only the son lives there through the age, ³⁶ and if the Son sets you free, you’ll really be free!

³⁷ ‘I know that you’re AbraHam’s seed... however, you’re looking to kill me, because what I’m saying isn’t getting through to you. ³⁸ Though I’m telling you the things that I saw [while I was] with my Father; you’re still doing the things that you heard from your father.’

³⁹ Then they said:

‘Well, our father is AbraHam!’

And Jesus said:

‘If you really are AbraHam’s children, then do what AbraHam did! ⁴⁰

However, you still want to kill me, a man who is just telling you the truth that I heard from God... AbraHam wouldn't do that! ⁴¹ So, you're doing the things that your father wants.'

Then they said:

'We weren't fathered through some immoral relationship... we have one Father, God!'

⁴² And Jesus said to them:

'If God were your Father, you would love me, because I came here from God. I didn't come here on my own, He sent me!

⁴³ 'Do you know why it is that you don't understand what I'm saying? Because you aren't listening!

⁴⁴ 'You're from your father the Slanderer, and you're wanting to do the will of your father, who's been a murderer from the beginning... he didn't stick with the truth, because there isn't any truth in him. So, when he tells a lie, he's saying something that's his, since he's a liar and the father of the lie. ⁴⁵ This is why, though I'm telling you the truth, you don't believe me.

⁴⁶ 'Who among you can accuse me of sinning? And if I'm telling the truth, why don't you believe me? ⁴⁷ Those who come from God listen to what He says... and that's why you aren't listening... because you aren't from The God!'

⁴⁸ Well at that, the Judeans said:

'Aren't we telling the truth when we say that you're just a demonized Samaritan?'

⁴⁹ And Jesus answered:

'I don't have a demon; I'm honoring my Father and you're dishonoring me... ⁵⁰ I'm not trying to glorify myself!

'However, there is someone who is watching and judging. ⁵¹ And I truthfully say that those of you who obey my words won't see death through the age.'

⁵² Then the Judeans said to him:

'Now we know that you're demonized! For though even AbraHam and the Prophets died, you're saying, If anyone obeys my words, he won't see death through the age. ⁵³ You aren't greater than our father AbraHam or the Prophets who all died, are you? Who are you claiming to be?'

⁵⁴ And Jesus told them:

'If I were just glorifying myself, my glory would mean nothing. However, my Father is the One who is glorifying me... the One whom you say is your God, ⁵⁵ though you've never really known Him! I know Him, and if I should ever say that I don't know Him, I'd be a liar like you. However, I do know Him and I'm doing what He told me to do.'

⁵⁶ [Then Jesus went on to tell them:]

'Your father AbraHam shouted in joy over the hope of seeing my day... yes, he saw it and he rejoiced!'

⁵⁷ But the Judeans said:

'You aren't fifty years old yet, and you've seen AbraHam?'

⁵⁸ And Jesus replied:

'I tell you the truth; I was before there was an AbraHam.'

⁵⁹ Well at that, they picked up rocks to stone him, but Jesus avoided them by just passing between them... then he left the Temple.

Chapter 9

¹ Well, as they were walking along, [Jesus' disciples] noticed a man who had been blind since birth. ² So they asked [Jesus]:

'Rabbi; Who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?'

³ And Jesus said:

'It wasn't because of the sins of this man or his parents... this happened so that the works of God could be demonstrated through him. ⁴ For, I must do the work of the One who sent me while it is still day, since the night is coming when no one can work. ⁵ And as long as I'm in the world, I'm its light.'

⁶ Well after he said that, he spit on the ground and made a paste with his saliva, then he put it over the man's eyes ⁷ and told him:

'Now, go wash in the Pool of SiloAm' (which translates as The Sent Place).

So, the man went off and washed, and he came back seeing.

⁸ Then when his neighbors (those who knew that he'd been a beggar) saw this, they asked,

'Isn't this the same man that used to sit and beg?'

⁹ And some agreed, saying:

'That's him!'

However others were saying:

'No, it's just someone who looks like him.'

But the man said:

'I'm him!'

¹⁰ So they asked:

'Then, how were your eyes opened?'

¹¹ And he replied:

'The man called Jesus made a paste and smeared it on my eyes, then he told to me to go to SiloAm and wash. So, I went and washed, and I started seeing!'

¹² And they asked him:

'Where is that man?'

But he said:

'I don't know.'

¹³ So, they took the man who used to be blind to the Pharisees ¹⁴ (for the day that Jesus made the paste and opened his eyes happened to be a Sabbath).

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees asked him again how he had gained his sight, and he answered:

'He put a paste on my eyes, then I washed it off and I started seeing.'

¹⁶ And some of the Pharisees said:

'Well, the man [who did this] isn't from God, because he doesn't observe the Sabbath!'

But then, others asked:

‘But if the man is a sinner, how could he perform such signs?’

So, as the result, they were divided.

¹⁷ Then they asked the blind man once more:

‘Since he opened your eyes, what do you have to say about him?’

And the man said:

‘He’s a Prophet!’

¹⁸ However, the Judeans still didn’t believe that he had once been blind and started seeing, so they called his parents in ¹⁹ and asked them:

‘Is this your son whom you say was born blind? And if so, how is he able to see now?’

²⁰ And his parents replied:

‘We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. ²¹ However, we don’t know how he started seeing or who opened his eyes... ask him, he’s old enough. Let him speak for himself!’

²² Of course, his parents said this because they were afraid of the Judeans, who had agreed that if anyone would admit that [Jesus] is the Anointed One, he would be expelled from the synagogue. ²³ So, that’s why his parents said:

‘He’s old enough, ask him.’

²⁴ Then they spoke to the man who used to be blind again, saying:

‘Glorify God... for we know that man is a sinner!’

²⁵ But he told them:

‘Whether he’s a sinner or not, I don’t know. The only thing I do know is that I was blind and now I can see!’

²⁶ So they asked him once more:

‘What did he do to you... how did he open your eyes?’

²⁷ And he replied:

‘I already told you, but you aren’t listening! Why do you want to hear me say it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?’

²⁸ Well at that, they spoke very rudely to him; they said:
‘You’re one of that man’s disciples... however, we’re the disciples of Moses. ²⁹ We know that God spoke to Moses, but we don’t know where this man is from!

³⁰ And the man said:

‘It’s truly marvelous that you don’t know where he’s from... yet, he opened my eyes. ³¹ We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, He only listens to those who are God-fearing and wish to do His Will. ³² Yet, through the ages, no one has ever heard of anyone who could open the eyes of a person that was born blind. ³³ And if this man wasn’t from God, he couldn’t do such a thing!’

³⁴ Then they said:

‘You were born a complete sinner... and now you’re teaching us?’

So at that, they threw him out.

³⁵ Well, Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he asked:

‘Have you starting to put faith in the Son of Man?’

³⁶ And the man answered:

‘Just who is he Lord, so that I can believe in him?’

³⁷ And Jesus said:

‘You have already seen him, for this one who is speaking to you is him.’

³⁸ Then the man said:

‘I do believe in him, Lord’... and he bowed low.’

³⁹ And Jesus said:

‘The judgments that I’m bringing into this world are helping those who don’t see, to see, and making those who can see, blind.’

⁴⁰ But when some of the Pharisees who were walking with him heard this, they asked:

‘We aren’t blind also, are we?’

⁴¹ And Jesus told them:

‘If you were blind you wouldn’t have any sin. But because you claim to see, your sins remain.’

Chapter 10

¹ ‘I tell you the truth; Those who don’t enter the sheep pen through the gate, but climb in at some other place, are thieves and robbers. ² Only the one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of those sheep. ³ He’s the gatekeeper who opens to them, and the sheep listen to his voice.

‘So, he calls his sheep by their names and then he leads them out. ⁴ And after he has them all out, he leads the sheep and they follow, because they recognize his voice. ⁵ They won’t follow a stranger... they’ll run from him, since they don’t recognize the voice of a stranger.’

⁶ Then, because they didn’t understand what he meant when Jesus gave them this parable, ⁷ Jesus again said:

‘I tell you the truth; I’m the gateway to the sheep, ⁸ and all those who came ahead of me were thieves and robbers... so the sheep didn’t listen to them.

⁹ ‘I am the gateway, and whoever enters through me will be saved... he can come in or he can go out and find a place to graze. ¹⁰ So, while thieves only enter to steal, kill, and destroy, I came here so they can have life... and plenty of it!

¹¹ ‘I am the good shepherd... and a good shepherd will give his life for his sheep. ¹² A hired hand (someone who isn’t a shepherd and who doesn’t own the sheep) will leave them and run away whenever he sees a wolf coming, so the wolf can scatter them and snatch some away. ¹³ For, since he’s just a hired hand, he doesn’t really care about the sheep.

¹⁴ ‘However, I am the fine shepherd, and I know my sheep and they know me, ¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. Therefore, I will lay down my life for my sheep!

¹⁶ ‘I also have other sheep that aren’t in this pen, and I must lead them too. They will listen to my voice and they will all become one flock under one shepherd.

¹⁷ ‘This is why I’m so loved by the Father... because I’m willing to lay down my life and then take it back again. ¹⁸ Nobody is going to take it from me, I’m giving it away! For I’m authorized to lay it down and I’m authorized to receive it again. Yes, this is the rule that I received from my Father!’

¹⁹ Well, the Judeans once again became divided over these words. ²⁰ For, many were saying:

‘He’s demonized and crazy... so, why are you listening to him?’

²¹ But others were saying:

‘These aren’t the words of a demonized man, for a demon can’t open the eyes of a blind man, can it?’

²² Well at the time, the Festival of Rededication was going on in JeruSalem (it was winter). ²³ And as Jesus was walking along in the Temple among the Columns of Solomon, ²⁴ some Judeans gathered around him and asked:

‘How much longer are you going to keep us in suspense? Just tell us if you’re the Anointed One!’

²⁵ And Jesus replied: ‘I [already] told you, but you don’t want to believe it! Although the things that I’m doing in my Father’s Name all testify about me, ²⁶ you still don’t believe it, because you aren’t my sheep.

²⁷ ‘My sheep listen to my voice... I know them all and they follow me, ²⁸ so I’m giving them age-long life! No, none of them will be lost in this age, because no one can snatch them out of my hands. ²⁹ For my Father who gave them to me is greater than everyone, and no one can snatch them from His hands... ³⁰ and my Father and I are one!’

³¹ Then once again, the Judeans picked up rocks to stone him. ³² So Jesus said:

‘I have shown you all these good things that I did, which came from the Father... so, for which of these good deeds are you getting ready to stone me?’

³³ And the Judeans replied:

‘We won’t be stoning you for doing good things, but for your blasphemy... though you’re just a man, you’re making yourself a god!’

³⁴ Then Jesus asked:

‘Isn’t it written in your Law, *I say that you are gods?*³⁵ So if God called those who were spoken against in His Word gods (and you can’t void the Scriptures);³⁶ how can you tell me (one who was made holy and sent into the world by the Father) that I’m blaspheming because I say that I’m God’s Son?’

³⁷ ‘Now, if what I’m doing isn’t my Father’s Will, then don’t believe me.

³⁸ But if what I am [doing is His Will], then believe in what I’m doing even if you don’t believe in me! For then you will come to know (and keep on knowing) that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.’

³⁹ So at that point, they tried to grab him again. However, he slipped out of their reach.

⁴⁰ Then he went off and crossed the Jordan [River], and he stayed at the place where John had started his baptizing.⁴¹ Many people came to him there, and they were saying:

‘John didn’t perform a single sign, but everything that John said about this man is true!’

⁴² So, many started believing in him there.

Chapter 11

¹ Now, there was a man who was very ill, Lazarus of BethAny (he came from the same village as Mary and her sister Martha).² This is the Mary who greased the Lord with perfumed ointment and wiped his feet dry with her hair. And Lazarus (who was her brother), was very sick,³ so his sisters sent word [to Jesus], saying:

‘Lord, {Look!} the one whom you care for is very ill!’

⁴ But when Jesus heard this, he said:

‘This sickness isn’t for death, it’s for the glory of God... so that the Son of God will be glorified by it!’

⁵ And though Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus; ⁶ when he heard that [Lazarus] was ill, he actually stayed where he was for two more days.

⁷ And after that, he told the disciples:
'Let's go to Judea again.'

⁸ But the disciples reminded him, saying:
'Rabbi, the Judeans just tried to stone you, so are you going there again?'

⁹ And Jesus replied:
'Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a person walks in the daylight he doesn't bump into things, because he sees the light of this world. ¹⁰ But if someone walks around during the night he'll bump into things, because there isn't any light in him.'

¹¹ Then after he said this, he told them:
'Our friend Lazarus is lying down and I'm going there to wake him up.'

¹² So the disciples said to him:
'Lord, if he's just lying down, he'll survive.'

¹³ However, Jesus had been talking about his death, while they thought he was talking about lying down to sleep. ¹⁴ So then, Jesus told them plainly:
'Lazarus has died... ¹⁵ and I'm happy for your sakes that I wasn't there, so you can believe. Now, let's go to him!'

¹⁶ Then Thomas (who was called the Twin) said to the other disciples:
'Let's go along, so that we can also die with [Jesus].'

¹⁷ Well, when Jesus arrived, he found [that Lazarus] had already been in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸ And since BethAny was just about two miles from JeruSalem, ¹⁹ many people had come there from Judah to see Martha and Mary in order to console them over [the death of] their brother.

²⁰ Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him, while Mary stayed at home. ²¹ And Martha said to Jesus:
'Lord, if you had just been here, my brother wouldn't have died. ²² But I know that whatever you ask of God, He will give to you.'

²³ Then Jesus told her:

‘Your brother will stand again!’

²⁴ And Martha said:

‘I know that he’ll stand again in the resurrection on the Last Day.’

²⁵ But Jesus said to her:

‘I am the resurrection and the life; so, whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live. ²⁶ And all the living who believe in me will not see death into the age. Do you believe this?’

²⁷ And she answered:

‘Yes, Lord; I have believed that you’re the Anointed One, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.’

²⁸ Then after saying this, she went off to call her sister Mary, and she told her secretly:

‘The Teacher is here and he’s asking for you.’

²⁹ So when [Mary] heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

³⁰ Actually, Jesus hadn’t gone into the village yet, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. ³¹ And when the Judeans who had come to the house to console Mary saw her get up quickly and go out, they followed her, thinking that she was going to the tomb to cry there.

³² Then when Mary got to the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying:

‘Lord, if you had been here, my brother wouldn’t have died!’

³³ Well, when Jesus saw her and all the Judeans who came with her crying, he groaned a deep sigh and was visibly upset. ³⁴ Then he asked her:

‘Where have you laid him?’

And she replied:

‘Lord, come and see.’

³⁵ Then Jesus broke into tears, ³⁶ and the Judean [women] said:

‘See how much he cared for him!’

³⁷ But some of them also asked:

‘Wasn’t this man who opened the eyes of the blind man able to keep him from dying?’

³⁸ Well, after groaning deeply again, Jesus went to the tomb (it was actually a cave with a [large] rock placed over it). ³⁹ And Jesus said: ‘Lift the stone.’

But Martha (the dead man’s sister) said:

‘Lord, by now he must smell, because it has already been four days!’

⁴⁰ However Jesus said:

‘Didn’t I tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?’

⁴¹ So they lifted the stone. Then Jesus raised his eyes toward heaven and said:

‘Father; thank You for listening to me! ⁴² I know that You always listen to me, but I said this for the sake of the crowd that’s standing around... so they can believe that You sent me.’

⁴³ And after he said that, he shouted loudly:

‘Lazarus, come on out!’

⁴⁴ Then the man who had been dead came out with his hands and feet still bound with wrappings and his face wrapped in a cloth. And Jesus said:

‘Now, untie and unwrap him!’

⁴⁵ Well, that’s when many of the Judeans who came with Mary and saw what he had done started believing in him. ⁴⁶ However, others went off to the Pharisees and reported what Jesus was doing. ⁴⁷ So, the Chief

Priests and Pharisees assembled the Jewish Court and said to them:

‘What should we do... for this man is performing so many signs? ⁴⁸ If we let him keep on doing this, everyone will believe in him and the Romans will come and take our land and our people!’

⁴⁹ Then one of those in the group, CaiAphas (who was the High Priest that year), said to them:

‘You don’t know anything ⁵⁰ and you haven’t figured it out yet... that it’s best for one man to die for the people so the whole nation isn’t destroyed!’

⁵¹ However, he didn't come up with this by himself; it was just because he was High Priest that year that he spoke this prophesy about Jesus having to die for the nation... ⁵² and not just for the nation, but so that he could also bring the scattered children of God together as one.

⁵³ Well, because these men continued meeting and discussing ways to kill him, ⁵⁴ Jesus no longer traveled openly among the Judeans. He left there and traveled through the country near the desert to a city called Ephraim, where he remained with his disciples.

⁵⁵ But then, because the Judean Passover was coming, many of the people had left the countryside for JeruSalem to undergo ceremonial cleansing before the Passover. ⁵⁶ So the people were looking for Jesus in the Temple, and they were asking each other:

‘What do you think? Won't he come to the Festival at all? ⁵⁷ For the Chief Priests and Pharisees have given orders that if anyone knows where he is, they should report it, so they can arrest him.’

Chapter 12

¹ Well, six days before the Passover, Jesus finally arrived at BethAny (the place where he had raised Lazarus from the dead), ² and they prepared a supper for him there. Martha was doing the serving and Lazarus was reclining at the table with the others. ³ Then Mary took a pound of perfumed ointment (it was very expensive... genuine nard) and greased Jesus' feet, wiping them dry with her hair and filling the whole house with the scent of the perfume.

⁴ But Judas IsCariot (one of his disciples who was about to betray him) asked:

⁵ ‘Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred silver coins and given to the poor?’

⁶ However, he didn't say this because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief... he kept the money box, and he used to [steal some of] the money that was put into it.

⁷ But Jesus said:

‘Leave her alone... let her keep this observance of the day of my burial.’ ⁸

For you will always have the poor with you, but you won't always have me.'

⁹ Well, a large crowd of Judeans had learned that he was there, and they didn't just come to see Jesus, but they also came to see Lazarus whom he'd raised from the dead. ¹⁰ As the result, the Chief Priests then met in counsel to kill Lazarus also, ¹¹ since many Judeans were going there and believing in Jesus because of what had happened to him.

¹² Then the next day, a huge crowd of people that had come to the festival (when they heard that Jesus was coming to JeruSalem) ¹³ took palm fronds and went out to meet him, shouting:

'[God] save the Praised One who comes in Jehovah's Name as the King of IsraEl!'

¹⁴ And when Jesus found a young burro, he mounted it, just as it was written:

¹⁵ 'Don't be afraid, O daughter of Zion;
For, look... your king has arrived
Sitting on the colt of a burro.'

¹⁶ And though his disciples didn't understand this at first; after Jesus was glorified, they realized that all of this had been written about him and that they actually did these things.

¹⁷ Also, the crowd that was with him when he had called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead, started testifying about him. ¹⁸ So, many among the throngs [of people who were there] came to meet him, because they'd heard about his performing this sign. ¹⁹ And as the result, the Pharisees started talking among themselves, saying:

'Look, we're getting nowhere! See, the whole world is following him!'

²⁰ Well, there were some Greeks among those who had come to worship at the Festival, ²¹ and they went up to Philip (who was from BethSaida of Galilee) and said:

'Lord, we would like to see this Jesus.'

²² So Philip went and told Andrew, then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. ²³ But Jesus told them no, because he said:

‘The time has arrived for the Son of Man to be glorified.

²⁴ ‘I tell you the truth; Unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a kernel. But if it dies, it produces much fruit. ²⁵ So, those who care for their lives will lose them, while those who don’t care about their lives in this system of things are grabbing hold of age-long life.

²⁶ ‘Therefore, if anyone wants to serve me, they must follow me, so that my servants will be wherever I am... for the Father will honor all those who wish to serve me.

²⁷ ‘Now, I’m deeply disturbed, so what should I say... Father, save me from this hour? No, for this is why I came to this hour! ²⁸ So Father; Glorify Your Name!’

Then a voice came out of the sky that said:

‘I glorified it and I will glorify it again!’

²⁹ Well, [many in] the crowd who were standing there heard [the sound] and they said it was thunder; but others said:

‘An angel has spoken to him!’

³⁰ Then Jesus said:

‘This voice didn’t happen for my sake, but for yours, ³¹ since this system of things is now going to be judged, and the ruler of this arrangement will be cast out! ³² For when I’m hung high off the ground, I will draw all men toward me.’

³³ (He was really saying this to show what type of death he was about to die).

³⁴ And the crowd started saying:

‘Since the Law tells us that the Anointed One will be here through the age; why are you saying that the Son of Man must be hung up... just who is this Son of Man?’

³⁵ And Jesus replied:

‘The light will be among you for just a little while longer. Therefore, walk while you have the light, so that darkness doesn't overtake you. For, those who walk in darkness don't know where they are going. ³⁶ But as long as you have the light, you have to put faith in that light. so you can become Sons of the Light.'

Then after Jesus said these things, he went and hid from them. ³⁷ For though he had performed so many signs before them, they still didn't believe in him. ³⁸ Yet, all of this happened so that the words of the Prophet IsaiAh could be fulfilled, which said:

'O Lord;
Who has believed in the things that we've heard,
And who has shown us the arm of Jehovah?'

³⁹ Now, the reason why they couldn't believe is as IsaiAh once again said:

⁴⁰ 'For the hearts of these people have hardened,
So that with their ears, they now listen slowly,
And all their eyelids are closed;
Thus, they will not hear with their ears,
Nor will they see with their eyes,
And their hearts just won't comprehend
To make them turn back so I'd heal them.'

⁴¹ Yes, IsaiAh said this, because he saw and talked about the glory [of Jesus]. ⁴² Why, even many of the rulers believed in him... but they wouldn't admit it because of the Pharisees, so they wouldn't be expelled from the synagogues. ⁴³ For they loved the glory of men even more than the glory of God.

⁴⁴ Then Jesus shouted [to the crowd]:

'Those who believe in me aren't just believing in me alone, but in the One who sent me. ⁴⁵ And whoever sees me also sees the One who sent me! ⁴⁶ For I came as a light to this world so that all those who believe in me won't remain in the darkness.

⁴⁷ 'Now, if anyone hears the things that I say and don't obey them; I'm not going to judge that person, for I didn't come into the world to judge it, but to save it! ⁴⁸ For, those who ignore me and don't welcome what I say already have someone who is judging them... the things that I've said are what will judge them on the last day,⁴⁹ since the things that I've said didn't come from me. Rather, it was the Father who sent me that commanded me and told me what to say.⁵⁰ And since I know that His Commandments mean age-long life, I've just told you whatever the Father told me... yes, these are the things that I've been saying to you!

Chapter 13

¹ Well, even before the Passover Festival, Jesus knew that the time had come for him to transfer from this world to the Father. Yet, he loved those who were his own in this world all the way to the end.² So, while they were eating supper (since the Slanderer had already put it into the heart of Judas IsCariot – the son of Simon – to betray him,³ and because he knew that the Father had put everything into his hands and that he came from God and was returning to God);⁴ he got up from the meal and laid his outer clothing aside. Then he took a towel and wrapped it around himself,⁵ and he put water in a bowl and started washing his disciples' feet and drying them with the towel that he'd wrapped around him.

⁶ However, when he got to Simon Peter, [Peter] asked:
'Lord, why are you washing my feet?'

⁷ And Jesus replied:

'You won't understand what I'm doing right now, but you will understand later.'

⁸ Then Peter said:

'Well, you aren't going to wash my feet any time in this age!'

And Jesus told him:

'If I don't wash you, you will never have a share with me.'

⁹ And at that, Simon Peter said:

'Lord, then not just my feet, but my hands and head also!'

¹⁰ But Jesus told him:

'Someone who has taken a bath is already completely clean and he doesn't need to have anything more than his feet washed... and you men are clean... but not all.'

¹¹ He knew, of course, which man would betray him. That's why he said, 'Not all of you are clean.'

¹² Well, after he'd finished washing their feet, he put his outer clothing back on and reclined at the table again. Then he asked:

'Do you know what I've done for you?' ¹³ You call me Teacher and Lord, and there's nothing wrong with this, because that's what I am. ¹⁴ But, if I as your Lord and Teacher washed your feet, you should also wash the feet of each other. ¹⁵ Now, I've set the pattern for you, so you must do just as I've done to you.

¹⁶ 'I tell you the truth; A slave isn't greater than his master, nor is the one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷ So, if you understand these things and do them, you will be blest.

¹⁸ 'However, I'm not talking about all of you, for I know those whom I chose. And the scripture must be fulfilled that says:

The one who used to chew on my bread has lifted his heel against me.

¹⁹ So, from now on, I will be telling you things before they happen. That way, when they do happen, you'll believe that I am the one.'

²⁰ 'I tell you the truth; those who welcome anyone that I send are welcoming me. And those who welcome me, are also welcoming the One who sent me.'

²¹ Well, after he said all these things, Jesus became deeply disturbed and he testified to this:

'I tell you the truth; One of you will betray me!'

²² So the disciples started looking at each other and they were all at a loss as to which one he was saying this about. ²³ And because the disciple whom Jesus particularly loved was reclining right next to Jesus, ²⁴ Simon Peter nodded to him and said:

'Tell [us] who he's talking about.'

²⁵ So, this one leaned back against Jesus' chest and asked him:

'Lord, who [are you saying this about]?'

²⁶ And Jesus replied:

‘It’s the one to whom I’m going to give this piece of bread that I’m dipping.’

So he dipped the piece of bread, then he took and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon IsCariot.

²⁷ Well, after [Judas ate] the bread, the Opposer entered him. And Jesus said to him:

‘Now, hurry and do all that you’ve planned to do!’

²⁸ Meanwhile, none of the rest who were reclining at the table knew why he said this to him. ²⁹ In fact, some thought that since Judas was in charge of the money box, Jesus was telling him to buy whatever was needed for the Festival, or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰ So, [Judas] left immediately after he’d received that piece of bread late that evening.

³¹ Well, it was after [Judas] had left that Jesus said:

‘Now the Son of Man is being glorified, and through him, God will also be glorified. ³² For God Himself will glorify him, and he’ll be glorified right away!’

³³ ‘Little children; I’ll only be with you a little while longer. Then you will look for me, and as I told the Judeans: Where I’m going you can’t come... and I’m saying the same thing to you right now.

³⁴ ‘Therefore, I’m now giving you a new commandment... to love each other! Yes, love each other just as I’ve loved you. ³⁵ For they will know that you are my disciples by the love that you have for each other’.

³⁶ Then Simon Peter asked:

‘Where are you going, Lord?’

And Jesus told him:

‘You can’t follow [to the place] where I’m going now... but you will follow later.’

³⁷ Then Peter said:

‘Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I’m [willing to] give my life for you!’

³⁸ But Jesus said:

‘Will you give your life for me? I tell you the truth; a rooster won’t crow before you’ve denied knowing me three times.’

Chapter 14

¹ ‘Now, don’t let your hearts be troubled... just have faith in God and have faith in me.

² ‘Understand that there are many places [for you] to stay in my Father’s house. If this weren’t so, I wouldn’t have told you that I’m going there to prepare a place for you. ³ And if I’m going to prepare a place for you, I will also return and take you with me, so you will then be wherever I am... ⁴ and you’ll know the way to the place where I’m going.’

⁵ But Thomas said:

‘Lord; Since we don’t know where you’re going, how can we know the way?’

⁶ And Jesus told him:

‘I am the way, the truth, and the life; so, no one can come to the Father unless [he comes] through me.

⁷ ‘If you men had [truly] known me, you would have recognized my Father also... and from now on, you’ve known Him and you’ve seen Him.’

⁸ Then Philip said:

‘Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us!’

⁹ And Jesus asked:

‘Have I spent so much time with you and you haven’t come to know me yet, Philip? Since those who have seen me have also seen the Father, why are you saying, Show us the Father? ¹⁰ Don’t you believe that I’m in the Father and the Father is in me?’

‘I’m not coming up with the things that I’m saying to you on my own... it’s the Father who is in me that is doing His work. ¹¹ Yes, believe me when I say that I’m in the Father and the Father is in me... or just believe because of the things that I’m doing!’

¹² ‘I tell you the truth; Whoever believes in me will do the same things that I’m doing. In fact, he will do even greater things than these, because I’m going to the Father now.... ¹³ and thereafter, I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son can glorify the Father. ¹⁴ Yes, whatever you ask of me in my name, I will do... ¹⁵ and if you truly love me, you’ll follow my commandments!

¹⁶ ‘Now, I’m going to ask the Father and He will provide another advocate for you who will be with you through the age... ¹⁷ the Spirit of Truth. The world won’t receive it, because they can’t see it or understand it. However, you will recognize it, for it will stay with you and in you.

¹⁸ ‘However, I’m not leaving you as orphans, because I’ll be coming [back] to you.

¹⁹ ‘Nevertheless, in just a little while, the world won’t see me anymore. However, you will see me again, because I’ll be alive and you’ll be alive. ²⁰ And in that day, you’ll come to know that I am in my Father, just as you will be in me and I will be in you.

²¹ ‘Those who know my commandments and obey them are the ones who truly love me. And because they love me, they will be loved by my Father... and I’ll love them and reveal myself to them.’

²² Then Judas (not IsCariot, [but ThadDaeus]) asked: ‘Lord, what [is about to] happen so that you’ll be showing yourself to us, but not to the world?’

²³ And Jesus replied:

‘If anyone loves me, he’ll obey my words. Then my Father will love him and we will come to him and dwell in him. ²⁴ However, those who don’t love me won’t obey my words. And the words that you’re hearing aren’t mine... they belong to the Father who sent me.

²⁵ ‘Now, I’ve told you these things while I was with you, ²⁶ but the Advocate – the Holy Breath that the Father will send in my name – will teach you everything and remind you of everything that I’ve told you.

²⁷ ‘So now, I leave you peace... I’m giving you my peace. I’m not giving it to you in the same way as this system of things offers it; I’m giving it to you so that your hearts won’t be troubled or fearful. ²⁸ For, though you heard me say that I’m going away... believe that I will also return. And if you love me, you’ll cry out in joy that I’m going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am!

²⁹ ‘Now, I’ve told you all of these things before they happen, so that when they do happen, you can believe.

³⁰ ‘I won’t be saying many more things to you, because the ruler of this system of things is coming... yet, he has no hold on me. ³¹ Then the world will know that I love the Father, and that I’ve [fulfilled] all the commandments that the Father gave to me.

‘Now, get up! Let’s leave this place!’

Chapter 15

¹ ‘I am the true vine, and my Father is the cultivator. ² So, He will remove any branch in me that doesn’t produce fruit, and He will clean up all those that do produce, so that they can bear more fruit.

⁵ ‘Yes, I am the vine and you are the branches; so, those who are in me (and I in them) will produce much fruit. But apart from me, you can’t do anything. ⁶ For when someone doesn’t remain in me, his branch will be removed and wither. Then men will gather up such branches and throw them into the fire, where they’ll be burned. ⁷ However, if you remain in me, and if the things that I tell you remain in you; you can ask for anything you wish and it will happen.

⁸ ‘My Father is glorified when you keep on producing much fruit and you continue to prove that you’re my disciples. ⁹ So, in the same way that the Father has loved me and I’ve loved you; remain in my love. ¹⁰ Yes, if you’ll obey my commandments, you’ll remain in my love, just as

I have obeyed the commandments of the Father and I have remained in His love.

¹¹ ‘Now, I am telling you these things so that you can share in the joy that I have, and so that your joy can grow. ¹² And this is what I am commanding you:

Love each other just as I have loved you!

¹³ ‘No one has greater love than a person who will lay down his life for his friends... ¹⁴ and you are my friends, as long as you keep on doing what I am commanding you.

¹⁶ ‘Understand that you didn’t choose me, I chose you... yes, I appointed you! So, you must now go and produce fruit... fruit that will last, so that whatever you might ask from the Father in my name, He will give to you!

¹⁷ ‘Yes, this is what I’m commanding you: Love each other! ¹⁸ And know that if this world dislikes you, it disliked me first. ¹⁹ If you’re from this world, the world will be fond of what is its own. But because you’re no part of this world (since I chose you out of the world), it won’t care much for you.

²⁰ ‘Remember what I told you: A slave isn’t greater than his master! So if they’ve hunted me down, they’ll also hunt you down... but if they’ve obeyed my words, they’ll also obey yours.

²¹ ‘So, they’re going to do all these things against you because of my name, since they don’t know the One who sent me. ²² And if I hadn’t come and spoken to them, they wouldn’t be guilty of sin... but now they won’t have any excuse for their sins!

²³ ‘Understand that those who dislike me, dislike my Father also. ²⁴ And if I hadn’t done things that no one else has ever done among them, they wouldn’t be guilty of sin. However, they have [in fact witnessed these things], and they’ve shown that they don’t care for my Father or for me.

²⁵ Yet, all of these things have happened so that the words written in [the Psalms] would be fulfilled:

They disliked me for no reason.

²⁶ ‘Now, when the Advocate that I’m going to send to you from the Father arrives (the Spirit of Truth that comes from the Father); that [one] will testify about me. ²⁷ And you are also to testify [about me], because you’ve been with me since the beginning.’

Chapter 16

¹ ‘Now, I’m telling you these things so you won’t be stumbled, ² for they’re going to expel you from their synagogues... in fact, the time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he’s doing a service to God! ³ However, they’ll be doing these things because they don’t know me or the Father. ⁴ I’ve told you this so that when their hour arrives, you might remember that I [warned] you about these things.

‘I didn’t say anything about this in the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵ But now I’m going to the One who sent me... and yet, none of you have asked me where I’m going.

⁶ ‘I know that because I’ve told you these things, your hearts are now filled with grief. ⁷ But, believe me when I say that my going away is for your own good... because, if I didn’t go away, the Advocate wouldn’t come to you. However, after I go, I’ll send him to you. ⁸ And when that one arrives, he’ll condemn this arrangement over its sins, its righteousness, and its judgments.

⁹ About sin: Because they have no faith in me.

¹⁰ About righteousness: Because I’m going to the Father and you won’t see me anymore.

¹¹ About judgments: Because the Ruler of this world has been judged.

¹² ‘I still have so many things to tell you, but you won’t be able handle them all right now. ¹³ However, when that one (the Spirit of Truth) arrives, he will lead you to all truth... and he won’t be speaking for himself; he’ll tell you what he hears and then he’ll announce the things that will be coming.

¹⁴ ‘That one will also glorify me, because he will receive things from me and then announce them to you. ¹⁵ For, everything that the Father has is now mine, and that’s why I say that he will receive things from me and then announce them to you! ¹⁶ Because, in just a little while, you won’t be able to see me anymore... but then after a little while, you will also see me again.

¹⁷ Well at this, some of his disciples started asking each other: ‘What does he mean when he says, After a little while you won’t see me, but after a little while you will see me again, and, because I’m going to the Father?’

¹⁸ They also asked: ‘What does he mean by, a little while? We don’t know what he’s talking about!’

¹⁹ Well, Jesus knew that they wanted to ask him [about this], so he said: ‘Are you asking each other questions because I said, After a little while you won’t see me; and after a while you will see me again? ²⁰ I tell you the truth; You will cry and bawl while the world rejoices... yes, you will be very sad, but then your grief will be turned into joy!

²¹ ‘Whenever a woman is about to give birth, she’s in pain because her time has arrived. But after the child is born, she forgets about the difficult time that she had because of her joy in knowing that a human has been born into the world.

²² ‘So, though you’re now feeling grief, I will see you again... and then your hearts will rejoice and no one will ever be able to take away that joy! ²³ Also, you won’t have to ask me any more questions then.

‘I tell you the truth; If you ask the Father for anything thereafter, He’ll give it to you in my name.

²⁴ ‘Until now, you haven’t asked for anything in my name; but then you will ask and receive, and your joy will be complete. ²⁵ For until now, I have been explaining all these things to you through parables. But the time is coming when I’ll no longer have to speak to you in parables, for I’ll talk to you openly and bring back reports to you about the Father. ²⁶

And in that day, you will ask in my name and I'll no longer [have to] tell you that I'll ask the Father for you.

²⁷ 'Understand that the Father cares for you, because you cared for me... and because you believed that I came here from the Father! ²⁸ So, since I came into the world from the Father, I'll also be leaving the world and returning to the Father.'

²⁹ Well at this, his disciples said:

'{Look!} Now you're talking openly without the use of parables... ³⁰ yes, now we're aware that you know everything and that you don't need anyone to be questioning you. And this is why we believe that you came from The God!'

³¹ But Jesus asked:

'Do you believe right now? ³² {Look!} The hour is coming (in fact it has already arrived) when you will each be scattered to your own homes and you'll abandon me. Yet, I won't be alone, because the Father is [always] with me.

³³ 'I've told you these things so you can find peace in me... for in this world, you'll only find hard times. But take courage, because I've conquered the world!'

Chapter 17

¹ Well, after Jesus said these things, he raised his eyes toward the heavens and said:

'Father; the hour has arrived! Now, glorify your son so your son can glorify You. ² You've put him over all flesh, so that he can give age-long life to all those whom You've given to him. ³ And knowing You (the only true God) and the one whom You sent (Jesus the Anointed) means age-long life.

⁴ 'Father, I've glorified You on the earth and perfectly completed the work that You've assigned to me. ⁵ So now, glorify me alongside You with the same glory that I had beside You before there was this arrangement. ⁶ For I've made Your Name shine among these men whom

You gave me from the world... they were Yours, but You gave them to me, and they've obeyed everything that You told them to do.

⁷ 'They also realize that everything that You gave to me came from You;
⁸ for I've passed along to [these men] all the things that You told me, and they've welcomed it... and they know for a fact that I came here from You. Yes, they believe that You're the One who sent me! ⁹ So, this is why I'm asking on their behalf... I'm not asking on behalf of the whole world, just for these whom You've given to me, because they are Yours.
¹⁰ For, all that is Yours is now mine, and all that is mine is Yours... and now I've been glorified among them!

¹¹ 'However, because I'm no longer in this world (though they are), and I'm coming to You, Holy Father; Watch over these whom You've given to me because of Your Name, and so that they may be in [each other], as we are in [each other].

¹² 'I've watched over these while I was with them (these whom You've given to me because of Your Name)... yes, I've watched over them so that none would be destroyed other than the son of destruction, and so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled. ¹³ But now I'm coming to You and I'm saying these things in the world so that they may all experience my joy in themselves.

¹⁷ 'Please, make them holy with the truth... for Your Word is the truth! ¹⁸ And as You sent me into the world; I'm now sending them into the world. ¹⁹ For I'm making myself holy on their behalf so that they may be made holy through the truth.

²⁰ 'Now, I'm not just asking for just these; [I'm asking that] all those who say that they believe ²¹ may become one, as You Father are in me and I am in You... yes, may they become one in us, so that the world may believe that You sent me.

²² ‘I’ve also given them the glory that You gave to me so that they can be one with [each other], just as we are one with [each other]... ²³ I in them and You in me. May they be perfected into one, so the whole world may know that You sent me and that You love them as You love me.

²⁴ ‘Father, as for those whom You’ve given to me; I want them to be where I am, so they can see the glory that You’re giving to me because You’ve loved me since before the founding of the cosmos.

²⁵ ‘Righteous Father; The world never knew You... but I know You, and these whom You’ve sent to me have come to know [You]. ²⁶ I’ve made Your Name known to them, and I will [continue to] make it known, so that Your love for me can be in them, and that I [can be] in them also.’

Chapter 18

¹ Well, after he said this, Jesus and his disciples crossed the Cedar (Kidron) Wadi, where they entered a garden.

² Now, Judas (his betrayer) also knew of this place, because Jesus often met with his disciples there. ³ So, Judas brought along a contingent of soldiers and some officers from the Priests and Pharisees, who all arrived carrying torches, lanterns, and weapons. ⁴ And since Jesus knew everything that was about to happen, he asked them:

‘For whom are you looking?’

⁵ And they replied:

‘Jesus the Nazarene!’

So he said:

‘That’s me!’

Well, Judas (his betrayer) was also standing among them. ⁶ And when he said, ‘That’s me,’ they all backed up and fell to the ground.

⁷ So he asked them once more:

‘For whom are you looking?’

And they again said:

‘Jesus the Nazarene!’

⁸ Then Jesus said:

‘I told you, that’s me! And if I’m the only one that you’re looking for, then let the rest of them go.’

⁹ He said this so that the words he spoke could be fulfilled:

‘I haven’t lost a single one of those that You gave me.’

¹⁰ And at that, Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the Chief Priest’s slave, cutting off his right ear (the slave’s name was Malchus). ¹¹ However, Jesus told Peter:

‘Put the sword away... shouldn’t I drink from the cup that the Father has given me to drink?’

¹² Then the officer, his soldiers, and the Judean officials grabbed Jesus and tied him up.

¹³ Well, first they first took him to AnNas, the father-in-law of CaiAphas (who was the High Priest that year)... ¹⁴ this was the same CaiAphas who had advised the Judeans that it was to their benefit for one man to die on behalf of the people.

¹⁵ Meanwhile, Simon Peter and another disciple followed behind Jesus. And since the Chief Priest was familiar with that disciple, he went into the Chief Priest’s courtyard along with Jesus, ¹⁶ as Peter stood outside by the gate. Then the disciple who knew the Chief Priest went outside and spoke to the gatekeeper, and he brought Peter into [the courtyard].

¹⁷ But the servant girl who served as the gatekeeper said to Peter: ‘You aren’t one of this man’s disciples also, are you?’

And Peter said:

‘No, I’m not!’

¹⁸ Meanwhile, all the servants and the officers were standing around warming themselves by a charcoal fire that they’d lit, because it was cold... and Peter was standing there with them, warming himself.

¹⁹ Well, the Chief Priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teachings. ²⁰ And Jesus told him:

‘I’ve spoken publicly before the whole world, and I’ve taught in the synagogues and in the Temple where all the Judeans meet. So, since I haven't said anything in secret, ²¹ why are you questioning me? Question those who heard what I said. See... they all know what I said!

²² Well at that, one of the officers who was standing nearby slapped Jesus in the face and said:

'Is that any way to answer the Chief Priest?'

²³ And Jesus replied:

'If I spoke in error, then testify that what I said was wrong. But if [what I said was] right, then why did you hit me?'

²⁴ Well after that, AnNas sent [Jesus] away to CaiAphas, the High Priest, still tied up.

²⁵ Meanwhile, as Simon Peter was standing outside and warming himself, someone else asked him:

'Aren't you one of his disciples?'

But he denied it, saying:

'I am not!'

²⁶ Then, one of the Chief Priest's servants (a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off) said:

'I saw you in the garden with him, didn't I?'

²⁷ But Peter denied it again... and immediately, a rooster crowed.

²⁸ Well, early the next morning, they led Jesus from CaiAphas' [home] to the Governor's Palace. However, they didn't go inside because they didn't want to make themselves unclean, so they could eat the Passover.

²⁹ As the result, Pilate came outside to them and asked:

'What is your accusation against this man?'

³⁰ And they replied:

'If this man hadn't done anything wrong, we wouldn't be handing him over to you!'

³¹ But Pilate said:

'Then, take him yourselves and judge him by your own laws.'

And the Judeans said:

'It isn't legal for us to execute anyone!'

³² (This was said so that Jesus' words would be fulfilled when he showed what sort of death he would die).

³³ So then, Pilate went back inside the governor's palace, where he called for Jesus and asked him:

'Are you the King of the Jews?'

³⁴ And Jesus replied:

'Is it your idea to ask this, or did others tell you about me?'

³⁵ So Pilate said:

'I'm not a Jew am I? Your own people and Priests handed you over to me... so, what did you do?'

³⁶ And Jesus said:

'My Kingdom isn't from this world. If my Kingdom were from this world, my followers would likely have fought so I wouldn't be handed over to the Judeans... but my Kingdom isn't from here.'

³⁷ And Pilate said:

'Then, are you a king?'

And Jesus replied:

'You're the one who's saying that I am a king. The reason why I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth, and everyone who's on the side of truth listens to my voice.'

³⁸ Then Pilate asked:

What is the truth?

And after he said this, he went back outside to the Judeans and told them:

'I haven't found any reason [to hold this man]. ³⁹ So, since you usually ask me to release someone to you on the Passover; do you want me release the King of the Jews?'

⁴⁰ But they shouted repeatedly:

'Not him, but BarAbbas!' (BarAbbas was a robber).

Chapter 19

¹ So then, Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged with a whip. ² And thereafter, the soldiers braided a crown of thorns and placed it on his head. Then they wrapped him in a purple cape ³ and started coming up to him and saying:

‘Rejoice, O you king of the Jews,’ as they were slapping him in the face!

⁴ Finally, Pilate went outside once more and said:

‘Look; I’m bringing him outside to you so you’ll know that I find no fault in him!’

⁵ Then he brought out Jesus wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cape, and [Pilate] said:

‘Look; The man!’

⁶ However, when the Chief Priests and the Temple officers saw him, they shouted:

‘Hang him on a pole! Hang him on a pole!’

And Pilate said to them:

‘Then, take him and impale him yourselves! I don’t find any fault in him!’

⁷ But the Judeans shouted back:

‘We have a Law; and according to that Law he must die, because he made himself God’s Son.’

⁸ Well, when Pilate heard them say this, it frightened him. ⁹ So he went back inside the Governor’s Palace and asked Jesus:

‘Where are you from?’

However, Jesus wouldn’t answer him.

¹⁰ So Pilate said to him:

‘Why aren’t you talking to me? Don’t you know that I have power to release you and the power to impale you?’

¹¹ And Jesus said to him:

‘You wouldn’t have any power at all over me unless it had been given to you from above... and that's why the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.'

¹² Well, because of that, Pilate kept on looking for ways to release Jesus. But the Judeans started shouting:

'If you release this man, you're no friend of Caesar. For, every man who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!'

¹³ So, after Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus back outside. Then he seated himself in the public-court area called the Stone Pavement (GabBatha in Hebrew)... ¹⁴ it was about the sixth hour of the day of preparation for the Passover. And [Pilate] said to the Judeans: 'See; Your King!'

¹⁵ However, they just kept on shouting: 'Hang him up! Hang him up! Impale him!'

Then Pilate asked:

'Should I hang your king on a pole?'

And the Chief Priests answered:

'We have no king but Caesar!'

¹⁶ So at that, he handed [Jesus] over to them to be impaled, and they took Jesus away, ¹⁷ bearing his own pole, out to the spot called Skull Place (GolGotha in Hebrew). ¹⁸ There they impaled him along with two other men, one on this side and one on the other, with Jesus in the middle.

¹⁹ Pilate also wrote a sign that he put on the pole, which said: 'Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.'

²⁰ And as the result, many of the Judeans read this title (because the place where Jesus was impaled was close to the city); for it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. ²¹ However, the Judean Chief Priests told Pilate:

'Don't write The King of the Jews, but, He said that he's the King of the Jews.'

²² But Pilate told them:

'What I wrote is what I have written.'

²³ Well, when the soldiers impaled Jesus, they took his robe and tore it into four sections so that each soldier could have a piece. But his long inner shirt was woven without a seam from top to bottom. ²⁴ So they said to each other:

‘Let’s not tear it; we’ll throw dice to see who gets it.’

This happened so that the scripture might be fulfilled:

‘They’ve divided my garments among them,
And thrown dice for the clothes that I wear’ ...

And the soldiers really did these things.

²⁵ Well, standing there by the impaling pole of Jesus was his mother, his mother’s sister Mary (the wife of Cleopas), and Mary of Magdala. ²⁶ So, when Jesus saw his mother and the disciple he loved standing there, he said to his mother:

‘Look, woman; Your son!’

²⁷ Then he said to the disciple:

‘Look; Your mother!’

And from that day on, the disciple took her into his own home.

²⁸ Then later, when Jesus realized that everything had been completed (so the Scriptures could be fulfilled), he said:

‘I’m thirsty.’

²⁹ Well, they had a full jar of vinegar, so they put a sponge filled with the vinegar on a stalk and held it up to his mouth. ³⁰ And when he received the vinegar, Jesus said:

‘It is finished!’

Then he hung his head and gave up the breath (gr. to pneuma).

³¹ Thereafter, since it was Preparation and so that the bodies wouldn’t hang on a pole over the Sabbath (because that was a Great Sabbath), the Judeans asked Pilate to have the men’s legs broken and their bodies taken away.

³² So, the soldiers came and broke the legs of both men who had been impaled with Jesus. ³³ But when they got to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they didn’t break his legs. ³⁴ However, one of the soldiers jabbed his side with a spear, at which blood and water poured out.

³⁵ Now, the one who saw this is a witness to the facts, and he is offering this as a true testimony. He knows that he's telling the truth and that you can believe it! ³⁶ For it's a fact that these things happened so that the scripture could be fulfilled:

'Not a bone of his will be crushed.'

³⁷ And another scripture says:

'They will look to the one whom they pierced.'

³⁸ Well, after that, JoSeph from HariMathea (who was a secret disciple of Jesus... because he was afraid of the Judeans) asked Pilate if he could take Jesus' body away, and Pilate gave him permission. So, he went and took the body down.

³⁹ Then, NicoDemos (the man who had come to him at night the first time) arrived with a roll of myrrh and about a hundred pounds of aloes. ⁴⁰ So, they took Jesus' body and bound it up with wrappings and spices (that's how the Judeans customarily prepare bodies for burial). ⁴¹ Then, because it was close to the place where he was impaled, they laid Jesus in an unused new tomb that was in a garden, ⁴² since this tomb was nearby, and it was the Jewish day of Preparation.

Chapter 20

¹ Well, on the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early while it was still dark, and she noticed that the stone had already been moved away. ² So she ran to Simon Peter and the other disciple (the one whom Jesus cared for) and told them:

'They've taken the Lord out of the tomb and we don't know where they've put him!'

³ Then Peter and the other disciple went to the tomb ⁴ (the two started running together, but the other disciple out-ran Peter and reached the tomb first). ⁵ And bending over, he saw the wrappings lying there... however, he didn't go inside.

⁶ Then Simon Peter came following him, and he went into the tomb. He saw the wrappings just lying there. ⁷ However, the cloth that had been placed over his head wasn't with the wrappings... it was rolled up and laid in another spot.

⁸ Then the other disciple (the one who had reached the tomb first) also went in... and he saw... and he believed.

⁹ But, since they still didn't understand the scripture that spoke of how [Jesus] was to be resurrected from the dead; ¹⁰ they just returned to the [place where they had been staying].

¹¹ Meanwhile, Mary [of Magdala] was standing outside the tomb crying. Then, as she was crying, she stooped over to look inside the tomb, ¹² and she saw two [of God's] messengers dressed in white... one was sitting at the head and the other at the feet of where the body of Jesus had been lying. ¹³ And they asked her:

'Woman; why are you crying?'

And she replied:

'They've taken my Lord away and I don't know where they've laid him.'

¹⁴ Then, when she turned around, she saw Jesus standing there (but she didn't recognize [him]). ¹⁵ And Jesus asked:

'Woman; why are you crying... for whom are you looking?'

And she (thinking that he was the caretaker) said:

'Lord, if you've carried him off, tell me where you've laid him and I'll take him away.'

¹⁶ Then Jesus said:

'Mary!'

And when she turned around, she said to him in Hebrew:

'Rabboni (My Teacher)!'

¹⁷ Then Jesus said to her:

'Don't cling to me, because I haven't ascended to the Father yet.

However, go to my brothers and tell them that I'm ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'

¹⁸ So then, Mary of Magdala went and carried the news to the disciples saying:

‘I have seen the Lord!’

And [then she told them] what he said.

¹⁹ So, late that evening, although the doors were locked at the place where the disciples were (for fear of the Judeans), Jesus came and stood in their midst and said:

‘May you have peace.’

²⁰ Then, after he said this, he showed them his hands and his side, and the disciples rejoiced at seeing the Lord. ²¹ And once again Jesus said:

‘May you have peace.’

Then he told them:

‘In the same way that the Father sent me, I am now sending you.’

²² And after he said this, he blew on them, and said:

‘Receive the Holy Breath. ²³ For, from now on; if you forgive anyone’s sins, they will remain forgiven. But if you don’t forgive their sins, they won’t be forgiven.’

²⁴ However, Thomas (one of the twelve, who was called the Twin) wasn’t with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So when the other disciples told him that they had seen the Lord, he said:

‘I won’t believe it unless I see the print of the nails in his hands and stick my finger in them, and stick my hand into his side!’

²⁶ Well, eight days later, his disciples were gathered inside... and this time Thomas was with them. Then Jesus came again and stood in their midst (though the doors were locked) and he said:

‘May you have peace.’

²⁷ Then he said to Thomas:

‘Now, put your finger here... and look at my hands, then take your hand and stick it into my side... stop doubting and start believing!’

²⁸ Well at that, Thomas said:

‘My Lord and my God!’

²⁹ And Jesus said:

‘Do you believe because you’ve seen me? It’s those who haven’t seen and still believe that are blest.’

³⁰ Well, it’s a fact that Jesus performed many other signs before his disciples, which I haven’t written about in this scroll. ³¹ However, I’ve written these things so that you can believe that Jesus is the Anointed One, the Son of The God... and that by believing, you may also gain life through his name.

Chapter 21

¹ Well after that, Jesus showed himself to the disciples again at the Sea of Tiberius, and this is how he did it:

² There was Simon (Peter), Thomas (the Twin), NathaniEl ([BarTholomew]) from Cana of Galilee, the [two] sons of ZebediOu, and two other disciples; ³ for Simon Peter had told them that he was going fishing, and they told him that they wanted to come along. So, they all went out and got into the boat. However, they didn’t catch anything all night long.

⁴ Then, just as it was starting to get light, there was Jesus standing on the beach... but the disciples didn’t recognize him. ⁵ And Jesus shouted: ‘Children; You don’t have anything to eat yet, do you?’

And they answered:

‘No!’

⁶ So he said:

‘Cast your net on the right side of the boat and you’ll find some!’

Then they threw the net out, but they weren’t able to bring it back in, because there were too many fish. ⁷ And at that, the disciple whom Jesus used to love said to Peter:

‘It’s the Lord!’

And when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he slipped off his robe (leaving him naked) and dove into the sea. ⁸ However, the rest of the disciples followed him in on the boat, dragging along their net full of fish, because they weren't very far from land (only about three hundred feet).

⁹ Well, when they reached the shore, they noticed that there was a charcoal fire with fish and bread already lying over it. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said: 'Bring me some of those fish that you just caught.'

¹¹ So, Simon Peter then pulled the net to land, and he found it was filled with a hundred and fifty-three large fish. However, despite the fact that there were so many, the net didn't rip.

¹² Then Jesus said:
'Now, come and get your breakfast!'

Well, none of the disciples had enough courage to ask him who he was, because they knew it was the Lord.

¹³ So, Jesus went over and handed each of them some bread and some fish ¹⁴ (this was the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he had been raised from the dead).

¹⁵ Then, following breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter:
'Simon, son of Jonah; Do you love me more than these [fish]?'

And he replied:

'Yes Lord; You know how much I care for you!'

Then [Jesus] said:
'Feed my lambs!'

¹⁶ And he asked [Peter] a second time:
'Simon, son of Jonah; Do you love me?'

And he said:

'Yes Lord, you know how much I care for you!'

Then [Jesus] said:
'Shepherd my sheep!'

¹⁷ And he asked a third time:
'Simon, son of Jonah; Do you care for me?'

Well, Peter was hurt when he asked whether he cared for him a third time, so he said:

‘Lord, you know everything... so you know how much I care for you!’

And Jesus said to him:

‘Feed my sheep!’

¹⁸ ‘I tell you the truth; When you were young, you used to wrap your clothes around you and walk wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will wrap you up and take you where you don’t wish to go.’

¹⁹ (He said this to show [Peter] the type of death he would [die, to] glorify God).

And after that, he said:

‘Keep on following me!’

²⁰ Well, when Peter turned around, he noticed the disciple whom Jesus loved following them (the one who had leaned back on [Jesus’] chest after supper and asked him:

‘Lord, who will betray you?’

²¹ And upon seeing him, Peter asked Jesus:

‘Lord, what about him?’

²² And Jesus answered:

‘If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you? You just keep on following me!’

²³ However, because of that, word was spread among the brothers that this disciple wouldn’t die. Yet, Jesus didn’t say that he wouldn’t die, he just said:

‘If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you?’

²⁴ This is the same disciple who is now testifying and writing about these things, and you should know that the testimony he is providing is the truth.

Acts

Likely written in Greek by Paul's traveling companion Luke the Physician about 64-CE, and possibly a continuation of a letter that started with the Gospel of Luke. This portion basically chronicles the life of Paul (the Apostle to the gentiles) up to just before his death, likely at the hands of Emperor Nero.

Chapter 1

¹ O Theophilus; This is the first account that I've assembled about all the things that Jesus did and taught ² from the day that he gave his instructions to the Apostles whom he chose by Holy Breath after he'd been raised [from the dead]... ³ yes, those to whom he showed himself after his suffering and to whom he provided many proofs during the forty days that they saw him, as he spoke to them about things having to do with the Kingdom of God.

⁴ Then after they all has assembled with him, he gave them this order: 'Don't leave JeruSalem; stay there and await the promise about which the Father spoke and which you heard from me. ⁵ Indeed, John baptized you with water; however, in just a few days you will be baptized in Holy Breath.'

⁶ And when he met with them all again, they asked him this: 'Lord, are you going to restore the Kingdom to IsraEl now?'

⁷ But he said: 'It isn't your business to know the times and periods over which the Father is in charge. ⁸ However, you will receive power when the Holy Breath comes over you, and you'll be witnesses of me in JeruSalem, throughout all Judea, in Samaria, and to the farthest parts of the earth.'

⁹ Well, right after he said these things; as they were looking at him, a cloud hid him from their eyes. ¹⁰ Then as they were staring into the sky watching him go, {Look!} two men in white clothes stood beside them and said: ¹¹ 'Men of Galilee; Why are you standing there looking up into the sky? This Jesus who was taken from you into the sky will return in the same way that you saw him going into the sky.'

¹² And thereafter, they returned to JeruSalem from the hill called ‘the Mount of Olives,’ which is close to JeruSalem (the [maximum] legal distance for travel on a Sabbath). ¹³ And when they entered [the city], they all went to the upper room where [the Apostles] (Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, BarTholomew, Matthew, James [the son] of AlphaEus, Simon the zealous one, and Judas [the son] of James) were staying. ¹⁴ And they were all in one mind and purpose as they continued praying, along with some women who had come there with Jesus’ mother Mary and his brothers.

¹⁵ It was at this time that Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers (about a hundred and twenty people in all) and said: ¹⁶ ‘Men! Brothers! The scripture had to be fulfilled, which through [God’s] Holy Breath, was a prophecy that [King] David spoke concerning Judas. This [Judas] was the man who guided those who arrested Jesus, ¹⁷ though he used to be one of us in sharing in this service. ¹⁸ Yes, he was the one whose wicked wages were paid to purchase the field into the middle of which he then fell head first and burst, causing his guts to pour out, ¹⁹ and which field has become known to everyone living in JeruSalem today as Akel Dama – the Field of Blood. ²⁰ This is what was written in about him the scroll of the Psalms:

Let his estate just lie empty

And may no one else ever live there;

Then let another take his position.

²¹ ‘Therefore, we have this obligation: One of the men who has been with us since the time that the Lord Jesus entered among us until the time that he left us ²² (starting with his baptism by John until the day that he was taken up from us) and someone who witnessed his resurrection, should become one of us.’

²³ So they asked two men to stand up, JoSeph (who is called BarSabbas and was surnamed Justus) and MatThias. ²⁴ Then they prayed, saying: ‘O Jehovah, the One who knows the hearts of all men; show us which of these two You’ve chosen ²⁵ to receive the position of Apostleship that Judas abandoned so that he could go his own way.’

²⁶ And at that, they were both handed lots, and the selected lot fell to MatThias. As the result, he was considered as being among the other eleven Apostles.

Chapter 2

¹ Now, toward the end of the day known as Pentecost, and while they were all observing that celebration, ² there was a noise that suddenly came from the sky. It sounded like a violent wind and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ And thereafter, they saw what looked like tongues of fire, which were distributed so that one [tongue] sat over each of them, ⁴ and they all became filled with Holy Breath and started speaking different languages, saying whatever the Breath was telling them to say.

⁵ Now at the time, there were reverent Jews from every nation under the sky that were staying in JeruSalem. ⁶ So when this sound occurred, a huge crowd gathered there and everyone was bewildered, because each person heard one of [the disciples] speaking his own language. ⁷ They were astonished and started to wonder and say, ‘These people that are talking are all Galileans, aren’t they?’ ⁸ So how is it that we’re each hearing our own native tongue being spoken?’

⁹ [Well, there were] Parthinians, Medes, Elamites, MesoPotamians, Judeans, CappaDokians, [and people from] Pontus, Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia, PamPhylia, Egypt, parts of Libya Cyrene, travelers from Rome (Jews and proselytes), ¹¹ Cretans, and Arabians. [They said]: ‘We hear them talking about the wonderful things of God in our own language!’ ¹² Yes, they were all astonished and confused, and they were asking each other, ‘What’s this all about?’ ¹³ However, others joked about them saying, ‘They’re full of sweet wine!’

¹⁴ But Peter then stood up beside the eleven, and raising his voice, he said this: ‘Men of Judea and all you who live in JeruSalem; I want you to know something... listen to what I’m saying to you!’ ¹⁵ These [men] really aren’t drunk as you think, because it’s only the third hour of the day. ¹⁶ What’s happening is the thing that was said through the Prophet Joel. ¹⁷ For through him, God said:

*‘In the last days, says The God;
I will pour out My Breath on all flesh,
And your sons and daughters will then prophesy;
Your young men will also have visions,
And the old among you will [see things in] dreams.*

¹⁸ *‘Yes, even upon My male servants
And on those who are My handmaidens,
I will pour out My Breath in those days, And all will then prophesy.*

¹⁹ *‘From the skies above, I’ll send omens and signs
With blood, fire, and smoke to the earth down below,
²⁰ Before the great, shining day of the Lord.*

*‘For the sun will be changed into darkness
And the moon will be changed into blood.*

²¹ *Then, all of those will be saved
Who have called on the name of the Lord.’*

²² ‘Men of IsraEl; listen to these words! Jesus the Nazarene was a man who was shown to you by The God with power, omens, and signs that He performed through him in your midst, as you already know. ²³ Yet you handed this man (who had received his advice and his ability to see the future from God) over to men who don’t have the Law, and who nailed him up. ²⁴ But then God resurrected him, freeing him from the cords of death, because it wasn’t possible for [death] to hold him.

²⁵ ‘So, notice that David said about him:

*‘I’ve always put Jehovah before me;
And since He is at my right hand,
I will never be shaken.*

²⁶ *‘So, in my heart, I am cheerful,
And with my tongue, I’ll rejoice;
For my body finds rest in the hope*

²⁷ *That in the grave, You’ll not leave me,
And Your loyal one will not see decay.*

²⁸ *'For the ways of life, You have shown me,
And You'll fill me with joy from Your face.'*

²⁹ 'Men! Brothers! It's good to speak to you openly about the patriarch David; for he died, was buried, and his tomb is still with us to this day.³⁰ For he was a Prophet, and he knew that The God had sworn an oath to him that He would put someone on his throne that was the fruit of his loins. ³¹ So [David] looked into the future and spoke about the resurrection of the Anointed One... that he wouldn't be abandoned in the grave and that his flesh wouldn't see decay.

³² 'So, now this Jesus has been resurrected by The God (to which fact we've all been witnesses) ³³ and he's been elevated to God's right hand, where he has received the Holy Breath that the Father had promised. Therefore, he's the one who poured out all that you've been seeing and hearing today!

³⁴ 'And though David didn't go to heaven, he said,

*'Jehovah said this to my Lord;
Sit here at My right hand,*

³⁵ 'Til I set your enemies as a stool for your feet.

³⁶ 'So let the entire House of IsraEl know for sure that God appointed this Jesus whom you impaled as the Lord and His Anointed One!

³⁷ Well when they heard this, they were all stabbed to the heart. And they said to Peter and the other Apostles: 'Men! Brothers! What must we do?'

³⁸ Then Peter told them: 'Repent, and each of you should get baptized in the name of Jesus the Anointed One, so your sins can be forgiven... and then you'll receive the gift of the Holy Breath. ³⁹ That's a promise to you, to your children, and to all those who are far away... to everyone who will be called by our God Jehovah!'

⁴⁰ Well thereafter, he went on and testified to them a lot more, giving them this advice: 'Get saved from this crooked generation!'

⁴¹ Then those who welcomed his words were baptized... and about three-thousand people were added that day. ⁴² These continued to attend, listening to the Apostles as they were teaching, and everyone participated as they were sharing in meals and prayers. ⁴³ For they were all in awe over the many signs and omens that started happening through the Apostles. ⁴⁴ And all who became believers started sharing everything they had. generation!'

⁴⁵ They even sold their belongings and properties and distributed the proceeds to anyone who was in need. ⁴⁶ And they also agreed to go to the Temple every day, after which they would eat their meals in private homes... eating the food happily and with sincere hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and finding favor with everyone. And all the while, the Lord kept adding the newly-saved to them each day.

Chapter 3

¹ Now, Peter and John had gone to the Temple for the hour of prayer (the ninth hour), ² and a man was there who had been lame from birth and had to be carried and placed near the Temple gate (the one called Beautiful) every day, to beg from those who were entering the Temple. ³ And when he saw Peter and John about to enter the Temple, he started begging from them. ⁴ But Peter and John stared at him and said: 'Look at us!'

⁵ So he looked at them, expecting to get something.

⁶ Then Peter said: 'I don't have any silver or gold, but I'll give you what I do have... in the name of Jesus the Nazarene, the Anointed One, walk!' ⁷ Then he took him by the right hand and lifted him; and instantly, the soles of his feet and his anklebones were made well. ⁸ So he jumped up and stood... and then he started walking! So he entered the Temple with them, walking, jumping, and praising God.

⁹ Well, everyone noticed him walking around and praising God, ¹⁰ and they started to realize that this was the man who used to sit and beg at the Temple's Beautiful Gate. This astonished them and they were all delighted by what had happened to him. ¹¹ So, as the man was holding onto Peter and John near what was called The Columns of Solomon, all the people came running to them, surprised out of their wits. ¹² And when

Peter saw this, he said: ‘Men of IsraEl; Why are you surprised at this, and why are you staring at us as though we made him walk by our own power or by our own devotion? ¹³ It was the God of AbraHam, IsaAc, and Jacob – the God of our ancestors – who glorified His servant Jesus, whom you betrayed and disowned before the face of Pilate after he had actually decided to release him. ¹⁴ Yes, you disowned that holy and righteous man, and you asked [Pilate] to release a man who was a murderer... ¹⁵ so you killed the Prince of Life! However, God thereafter raised him from the dead, which we all had witnessed! ¹⁶ And it is because of [our] faith in his name that this man here whom you see and know was made well... yes, it’s because of faith that everything that you see here has happened!

¹⁷ ‘And now brothers; I know that what you did was done in ignorance... and this was true of your rulers. ¹⁸ But, just as it was foretold by the mouths of all the Prophets; it was God who caused His Anointed One to endure all these things, so that it could be fulfilled this way.

¹⁹ ‘So now, repent and turn around to get your sins erased, so that you might come to see a period of refreshment from Jehovah. ²⁰ Then He will send this one whom He appointed to you, the Anointed Jesus. ²¹ However, he will remain in the heavens until the time when everything that God told us through the mouths of the holy [ones] in His age of the Prophets is restored. ²² In fact, it was Moses who said, Jehovah God will raise a Prophet like me from among your brothers, and you must listen to everything that he tells you. ²³ Then if the people don’t listen to that Prophet, they will all be destroyed!

²⁴ ‘Why, all the Prophets from SamuEl on – everyone who spoke – clearly talked about these days. ²⁵ And you are the sons of the Prophets and of the Sacred Agreement that God made with your ancestors, when he told AbraHam: All the families of the earth will be blest by your seed!

²⁶ Therefore, God then raised this servant and sent him to you first as a blessing to you, so that each of you might turn from the bad things that you’re doing.’

Chapter 4

¹ Well, as Peter and John were talking to the people; the Chief Priests, the Temple captains, and the SadDucees came up to them, ² and were very annoyed by the fact that [Peter and John] were teaching the people and telling them how Jesus had been resurrected from the dead. ³ So they had them arrested and held until the next day (since it was already evening). ⁴ However, many of those who listened to them started believing, and their numbers grew to where there were about five thousand men.

⁵ Then the next day, a meeting was held in JeruSalem that included the rulers, elders, and scribes, ⁶ along with AnNas the Chief Priest, CaiAphas, John, Alexander, and all the rest of the Chief Priest's relatives. ⁷ So they stood [Peter and John] in their midst and asked them: 'Who authorized you and who told you that you could do these things?'

⁸ Then Peter (who became filled with Holy Breath) spoke to them, saying: 'Rulers of the people and elders; ⁹ If we are being questioned here today because [we] did a good deed for a handicapped person, and if we are being asked who made him well, ¹⁰ then you and all the people of IsraEl should know that it was done in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, the Anointed One whom you hung on a pole. For God raised him from the dead, and he actually stood next to this man whom you now see here, healthy! ¹¹ Yes, this is the stone that was rejected by you builders, but which has now become the head of the corner! ¹² So, salvation isn't going come from anyone else, because there isn't another name that has been given to any man under the heavens that can save us.'

¹³ Well when they saw the confidence of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and common, everyone was amazed... and then they started to recognize them and they remembered that these men used to be with Jesus. ¹⁴ However, as they looked at the man who was standing next to them that had been cured, no one could come up with anything to say in rebuttal.

¹⁵ So then they sent them outside of the Jewish High-Court hall as they discussed the matter between themselves. ¹⁶ And they were saying, 'What will we do with them, for it's a fact that a sign has come through them. And because everyone in JeruSalem saw it, we can't deny it! ¹⁷ Therefore, to keep the news about this from being spread around among all the people, let's just threaten them and tell them not to speak to anyone about this name ever again!

¹⁸ So then they called them back in and warned them not to speak or teach in the name of Jesus anywhere. ¹⁹ However, Peter and John replied: 'If it's righteous in God's eyes to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves. ²⁰ But we can't stop talking about the things that we've seen and heard!'

²¹ So after they threatened them a little more, they let them go, because they couldn't find any reason to punish them. [They also chose not to do anything] on account of the people, since they were all praising God over what had happened... ²² for the man who was healed was more than forty years old!

²³ Well, after they had been released, [Peter and John] returned to their [brothers] and reported what the Chief Priests and elders had told them. ²⁴ And on hearing this, they all raised their voices to God together and said: 'O our only King... You who made the lands, the skies, the seas, and everything in them. ²⁵ Through Your Breath, You had asked through the mouth of our father David (Your servant):

*Why are the nations so noisy,
And why do the people think foolish things?*

²⁶ For all the kings and rulers of this land have now united against You and against the one whom You anointed. ²⁷ Even Herod and Pontius Pilate (these gentiles) have joined with the IsraElites in this city against Your Holy servant Jesus, whom You chose ²⁸ to do the all things that Your hands and directions commanded.

²⁹ 'So, O Lord; Pay attention to their threats and allow Your slaves to keep on speaking Your Word in full confidence, ³⁰ while You stretch out Your hand to do healing and continue to bring signs and omens in the name of Your Holy Servant Jesus.'

³¹ Well, as they were asking God for this, the place where they were meeting started to shake. Then everyone was filled with the Holy Breath and they started speaking the word of God confidently. ³² As the result, a huge crowd became believers, and they started sharing everything they had with a single heart and soul. None of them claimed that anything they owned was their own, for they shared everything... ³³ and all the while, the Apostles continued to give a powerful testimony about the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

So, there was a great manifestation of loving-kindness that came over them all. ³⁴ In fact, nobody could be described as being needy among them, because all those who owned fields or houses sold them and brought back the money from the things that they sold, ³⁵ laying it at the feet of the Apostles. Then everything was distributed among them according to each one's needs.

³⁶ For example; JoSeph, whom the Apostles called BarNabas (which translates as Son of Comfort), a Levite and a native of Cyprus, ³⁷ sold a piece of land that he owned and brought in the money, laying it at the feet of the Apostles.

Chapter 5

¹ However, a man named AnaNias (along with his wife SapPhira) also sold some property that they owned, ² but he secretly kept part of the money... and his wife knew about this. Then he brought in part of it and laid it at the feet of the Apostles.

³ But Peter asked: 'AnaNias; Why has the Opposer made you so bold as to try to fool the Holy Breath and to secretly hold back some of the money for the field? ⁴ As long you owned it, it was yours. And after you sold it, wasn't the money still yours? So, why did you plan to do such a thing in your heart? You should realize that you weren't lying to men, but to God!'

⁵ Well, just as he heard those words, AnaNias fell to the ground and died, which really frightened everyone who heard about it. ⁶ Then some of the younger men got up and wrapped him in a cloth, and they carried him outside to be buried.

⁷ Well, it was about three hours later that his wife came in... and she didn't know what had happened. ⁸ So Peter asked her: 'Tell me; Did you sell the field for (so much)?'

And she answered, 'Yes, for (so much).'

⁹ Then Peter said: 'Why did you two agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they'll carry you out also.' ¹⁰ And at that, she instantly dropped dead at his feet. So when the young men returned, they also found her dead and they carried her out to be buried her next to her husband.

¹¹ Well, when the whole gathering (and everyone else) heard about this, they were all frightened by the things that were happening.

¹⁵ [So after that], people started bringing their sick out into the main streets lying on little beds and cots, so that when Peter passed by, his shadow could fall on some of them. ¹⁶ Also, throngs from the cities around JeruSalem kept coming, carrying sick people and those who were bothered by unclean spirits... and everyone was cured!

¹⁷ However, the High Priest and all those who were with him (particularly those of the sect of SadDucees) became very jealous of this. ¹⁸ So they attacked the Apostles and arrested them, then they locked them up in a public jail. ¹⁹ But during the night, Jehovah's messenger opened the doors of the jail and brought them out, saying: ²⁰ 'Now go! Keep on standing in the Temple and telling the people everything about The Life.'

²¹ So after they were told this, they went back to the Temple at daybreak and started teaching again.

Then when the High Priest and those who were with him finally arrived, they assembled the Jewish High Court along with all the elders of the sons of IsraEl and they sent [officers] to the jail to have [the Apostles] brought in. ²² But when the officers got there, they couldn't find them in the lockup; so they reported back, ²³ saying: 'We found the jail locked and guards posted at the doors. But when we went in, we couldn't find anyone inside!'

²⁴ Well when the Temple captain and the Chief Priests were told this, they were confused and they wondered what had really happened.

²⁵ But then someone came and reported: 'Look! The men whom you put in jail are standing in the Temple teaching the people!'

²⁶ So the captain took his officers and brought them back peacefully (because they were afraid of being stoned by the people). ²⁷ Then they led them in and stood them in the Jewish High Court hall, where the High Priest questioned them and said: ²⁸ 'Though we ordered you not to teach about this name, {Look!} you've filled JeruSalem with your teachings and you're determined to bring the blood of this man down upon us!'

²⁹ So Peter and the rest of the Apostles replied: 'We must obey God as ruler rather than men! ³⁰ For it was the God of our fathers who raised this Jesus whom you arrested and hung on a tree. ³¹ And after that, God raised him to His right hand to serve as the Primary Leader and Savior in order to cause IsraEl to repent so that He could forgive their sins! ³² We are witnesses to these things, as is the Holy Breath that God gave to those who are obeying Him as their ruler.'

³³ Well when [the leaders] heard this, they were really cut to heart and they wanted to murder [the Apostles]. ³⁴ But then a certain man stood up in the Jewish High Court hall (a Pharisee named GamaliEl, who was a highly-regarded teacher of the Law) and he commanded that the men be taken outside for a little while.

³⁵ Then he said: 'Men of IsraEl; Be very careful about what you plan to do to these men. ³⁶ Do you remember when TheuDas came along saying that he was somebody important, and quite a few people (about four hundred of them) followed him? But then he was done away with, and all those who listened to him were scattered and came to nothing. ³⁷ And after him, Judas the Galilean arose during the registration, and he drew people after him. But then he died, and all those who listened to him were scattered.

³⁸ ‘So in this situation, I tell you not to mess with these men... leave them alone! Because, if the thing they’re doing is from men, it will be overthrown. ³⁹ But if it’s from God, you won’t be able to overthrow them and you’ll actually be fighting against God!’

⁴⁰ Well, they all agreed with him. So then they called the Apostles back in and had them whipped, and they ordered them to stop talking about the name of Jesus... and after that, they let them go.

⁴¹ But as they were leaving the Jewish High Court, [the Apostles] were actually rejoicing because they had been found worthy of being dishonored for [Jesus’] name. ⁴² So they didn’t stop after that... they kept on teaching and announcing the good news about Jesus the Anointed One every day, both in the Temple and in private homes.

Chapter 6

¹ Now, back in those days when the disciples were increasing, the Greek-speaking Jews started grumbling about the Hebrew-speaking Jews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution. ² As the result, the twelve called all the disciples to them and said: ‘The thought of our having to abandon the word of The God to serve tables is displeasing to us. ³ So brothers; find seven qualified males among you who are filled with wisdom and the Breath [of God], and we’ll appoint them to handle these needs, ⁴ so we can continue in our prayers and in serving the word.’

⁷ Thereafter, the word of God kept spreading and the number of disciples in JeruSalem kept on multiplying. For even a large number of Priests started obeying the faith.

⁸ Stephen was especially filled with joy and power, and he was performing great omens and signs among the people. ⁹ But then certain men came from the so-called Synagogue of Freed Men (along with some Cyrenians, Alexandrians, Kilikians, and [people from the province of] Asia) and started arguing with him. ¹⁰ And because their arguments couldn't stand against the wisdom and Breath [of God] with which he was speaking, ¹¹ they talked some men into saying that they'd heard him say blasphemous things against Moses and God, ¹² which riled up the people. So, some of the elders and scribes came and arrested him, then they dragged him up before the Jewish High Court, ¹³ where they produced some false witnesses who said, 'This man is speaking against this Holy Place and against the Law! ¹⁴ For we heard him say that Jesus the Nazarene will tear this place down and change the customs that were given to us by Moses!'

¹⁵ Then, as all those who were sitting in the Jewish High Court were looking at him, they saw his face become like that of a messenger [of God].

Chapter 7

¹ So the High Priest asked him, 'Is all of this true?'

² And [Stephen] said, 'Men... Brothers... Fathers... Listen! Our father AbraHam saw the Glorious God while he was in MesoPotamia, before he moved to Haran. ³ And [God] said to him, Leave your land and your relatives and go to the land that I'm going to show you. ⁴ So he went to the land of the Chaldeans and started living in Haran. Then, after his father died, [God] caused him to move to the land where you now live. ⁵ However, He didn't give him any land as his inheritance... not a foot's width. Yet [God] did promise him a land that he could own and pass on to his seed, though at the time when he didn't even have any children. ⁶ Moreover, God spoke to him and told him that his seed would also have to live in a foreign land where they would be slaves and be oppressed for four hundred years.⁷ But God said that He would thereafter pass judgment on the nation [that makes them] slaves... and then [his seed] would come here and serve Him.⁸ So he made a Sacred Agreement with [AbraHam] [that required] circumcision. And after that, [AbraHam] went on to father IsaAc, whom he circumcised on the eighth day... as IsaAc did to Jacob, and Jacob did to the twelve family heads.

⁹ ‘However, these family heads soon became jealous of [their brother] JoSeph, and they sold him into Egypt.¹⁰ But God was with him and He carried him through all of his problems. Then He made him likable and wise in the eyes of PharaOh, the king of Egypt. [So \[PharaOh\] appointed \[JoSeph\] to govern Egypt](#), as well as his entire house.

¹¹ ‘Then a famine came upon Egypt and CanaAn, which created such a difficult time that our ancestors couldn’t find any food.¹² But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors down there for the first time.¹³ And it was on their second visit that JoSeph made himself known to his brothers... which was when JoSeph’s ethnic background first became known to PharaOh.

¹⁴ ‘Thereafter, JoSeph sent for his father Jacob and all of his relatives (seventy-five people);¹⁵ and Jacob went down to Egypt, where he died, as did the rest of our ancestors...¹⁶ and their bodies were taken to Shechem, where they were laid in the tomb that AbraHam had purchased with silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

¹⁷ ‘Well, by the time that God’s promise to AbraHam had reached its fulfillment, the people had grown and multiplied in Egypt.¹⁸ And soon another king had arisen to rule over Egypt who was unfamiliar with JoSeph.¹⁹ So he treated our people treacherously and he forced our fathers to give up their young children to be killed...²⁰ and that’s when Moses was born.

‘Well, [Moses] was beautiful to God, and he was nursed for three months in [his] father’s home.²¹ But when he was discovered, the daughter of PharaOh picked him up and raised him as her own son.²² So, this is how Moses came to be trained in the wisdom of the Egyptians... and he grew up to become mighty in everything that he said and did.

²³ ‘Then when he turned forty years old, [Moses] decided to pay more attention to his brothers, the sons of IsraEl. ²⁴ And when he saw one of them being treated unjustly, he came to [the man’s] defense and took vengeance on behalf of the one who was being abused by beating an Egyptian to death.

²⁵ ‘Well, he assumed that his brothers would understand that God was going to use him to save them... however, they didn’t understand. ²⁶ So when he came to [his people] the next day and found [two of them] fighting; he tried to bring them together peacefully by saying, Men... you are brothers! Why are you treating each other so badly? And at that, the one who was mistreating his neighbor just pushed him away and asked, Who appointed you as the ruler and judge over us? ²⁸ Do you want to kill me the same as you killed that Egyptian yesterday? ²⁹ And when Moses heard him say this, he ran away and lived in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons.

³⁰ ‘Well, after forty more years, a messenger [from God] appeared to him in the flames of a burning thorn bush while he was in the desert near Mount Sinai. ³¹ And when Moses saw it, he was dazzled by the sight. But as he came closer to investigate, the voice of the Lord said to him, ³² I am the God of your fathers... the God of AbraHam, IsaAc, and Jacob. And at that, Moses started to shake so hard that he didn’t want to investigate any farther.

³³ ‘Then the Lord said to him: Remove your sandals; for the place where you’re standing is holy ground!

³⁴ ‘Now, I have seen the bad treatment of my people in Egypt and I’ve heard their groaning, therefore I’ve come down here to take them. So come on, for I’m going to send you to Egypt!

³⁵ ‘And though this was the same Moses that [the IsraElites] had previously disowned, asking, Who appointed you as our ruler and judge... he was the one that God sent off as both a ruler and savior by the hand of the messenger who had appeared to him in the thorn bush. ³⁶ And then, after he had performed many omens and signs, he’s also the man who led them out of Egypt, through the Red Sea, and into the desert for the next forty years. ³⁷ Yes, this was the [man] who told the sons of IsraEl: God will raise a Prophet like me from among your brothers. ³⁸ And he was the one who was with the congregation [when they lived] in the desert, who talked to [God's] messenger on Mount Sinai, and who received life-giving signs for our ancestors, so that we might receive them!

³⁹ 'But then our ancestors refused to obey him... they just pushed him aside, and in their hearts, they were back in Egypt! ⁴⁰ For then they told Aaron: Make gods to lead us, because we don't know what has happened to this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt!

⁴¹ 'As the result, [Aaron] made [an image of] a calf, and then they offered sacrifices to the idol... for they were very happy with this thing that they'd made with their hands!

⁴² 'So thereafter, God handed them over to bow before the [stars] in the skies, just as it's written in the Book of the Prophets: It wasn't to Me that you offered victims and sacrifices for forty years in the desert, was it, O house of IsraEl? ⁴³ Rather, you took up with the images that you made for worship in the tent of Moloch, and with the star of the god Rephan. This is why I'm going to send you into exile beyond Babylon!

⁴⁴ 'However, back when our ancestors lived in the desert, they had the Tent of Proofs that [God] had ordered Moses to build using the pattern that he was shown. ⁴⁵ And our ancestors who received it then brought it into this land that used to be owned by the nations that God had pushed out ahead of them, as they came here with JoShua... and it remained here until the time of David!

⁴⁶ 'Then [David] found God's favor, and he asked that [he might be allowed] to build a Temple for the God of Jacob... ⁴⁷ though it was really Solomon who built the House for him. ⁴⁸ However, the Most High doesn't really live in houses that are made by [human] hands, just as the Prophet foretold. ⁴⁹ For Jehovah said:
*Since the heavens are My throne and the earth is My footstool;
What kind of House can you build for Me,*

And in what sort of place should I rest,

⁵⁰ Since all of these things were made by My hands?’

⁵¹ ‘So now – you with the hardened necks and uncircumcised hearts and ears – you’ve become just like your ancestors, for you’re always resisting [God’s] Holy Breath!

⁵² ‘Which of the Prophets weren’t persecuted by your ancestors? Yes, they even killed the Prophets that foretold the coming of the Righteous One... and now you’ve become the betrayers and murderers of him also!

⁵³ So although you were the ones who received the Law that was brought to us by the messengers [of God], you haven’t kept it!’

⁵⁴ Well when they heard this, they were really cut down and they were grinding their teeth at him.

⁵⁵ But as he was being filled with Holy Breath, he stared into the sky and saw the Glory of God with Jesus standing at His right hand! ⁵⁶ So he said: ‘Look! I see the sky opening up, and there’s the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!’

⁵⁷ At this, they all started shouting as loudly as they could and putting their hands over their ears. Then they ran up to him and grabbed him, ⁵⁸ and they dragged him outside of the city, where they started stoning him.

Well at the time, those who came to watch started laying their coats at the feet of a young man called Saul.

⁵⁹ Then Stephen said this as they were stoning him: ‘Lord Jesus; Receive my breath.’ ⁶⁰ And he fell to his knees and shouted loudly: ‘Lord, don’t hold this sin against them!’ And with that, he fell asleep [in death].

Chapter 8

¹ Well, at the time, Saul actually approved of murdering him.

And on that same day, a tremendous amount of persecution started to be directed toward the congregation in JeruSalem; so all (except the Apostles) were scattered throughout the area of Judea and Samaria. ²

However, some devoted men [took the time to] carry Stephen’s [body] out to be buried, and they wept bitterly over him.

³ [It was then that] Saul started wiping out the congregation [in JeruSalem]; for he invaded one house after another, dragging out both the men and the women and sending them to jail. ⁴ Meanwhile, those who had been scattered around just kept on preaching the good news of the word wherever they went.

⁵ [For example]; Philip had gone to a city in Samaria, where he preached to the people about the Anointed One, ⁶ and crowds were paying attention to the things that he was saying... they listened to him closely and watched the signs that he performed. ⁷ For many who were there had been bothered by unclean spirits that shouted loudly as they came out, and many others who were paralyzed or lame were cured. ⁸ As the result, there was a lot of joy in that city.

⁹ There was also a man there named Simon, who used to practice magic. He had amazed the people of Samaria and he called himself, [Simon] the Great. ¹⁰ Why, everyone from the common people to the most powerful paid attention to him and said, ‘This man who calls himself The Great has the Power of God!’ ¹¹ So they followed him for a long time, because they were dazzled by his magic.

¹² However, when Philip came preaching the good news of the Kingdom of God and about the name of Jesus the Anointed One, they started believing him; and as the result, many men and women got baptized. ¹³ In fact, even Simon became a believer! Then after he was baptized, he stayed close to Philip and was amazed as he watched the signs and great powers.

¹⁴ Well, after the Apostles in JeruSalem heard that Samaria was starting to accept the word of God, they sent Peter and John there, ¹⁵ and they prayed for [the believers] to receive the Holy Breath, ¹⁶ since it hadn’t come to any of them yet, though they had been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ But when [Peter and John] laid their hands on them, they each started receiving the Holy Breath. ¹⁸ And when Simon saw that the Apostles could give the Breath by just touching people, he offered them money, saying: ¹⁹ ‘Give me the power so that anyone I lay my hands on can receive Holy Breath.’

²⁰ But Peter said: ‘May your silver be destroyed along with you! For because you think that you can buy the gift that God gives freely, ²¹ you aren’t going to have any part in this, nor will you share in it... for God sees that your heart is crooked! ²² So now, turn away from your badness and beg the Lord to forgive you for these thoughts that you have in your heart, ²³ because I see bitterness, hatred, and an unrighteous alliance in you.’

²⁴ Then Simon said: ‘Please beg the Lord on my behalf, so that none of the things that you said will happen to me!’

²⁵ Well, after they had given everyone who was there a thorough testimony and spoke to them about the things that the Lord had told them, [the Apostles] returned to JeruSalem. But because of what they had done, many other Samaritan villages also heard of the good news.

²⁹ So the Breath [of God] then told Philip: ‘Go and catch up with his chariot,’ ³⁰ and Philip started running alongside him. And when he heard the man reading from the Prophet IsaiAh aloud, he asked him, ‘Do you really understand what you’re reading?’

³¹ But [the eunuch] replied: ‘How could I, unless I had someone to explain it to me?’ So at that, he begged Philip to climb aboard and sit with him.

³² Well, the particular scripture he was reading at the time was this:
‘He was brought like a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb that is quiet before shearers,
He did not open his mouth...’

³³ Then he was shamed, and his justice was denied.

So, who'll tell the details to his generation
After his life is removed from the land?'

³⁴ Then the Eunuch asked Philip: 'Just who was the Prophet saying this about... was he talking about himself or someone else?'

³⁵ So Philip proceeded to explain this scripture, telling him the good news about Jesus.

³⁶ Now, as they were traveling along the road, they happened to be passing by some water. And the eunuch said to him: 'Look... here's some water! What's to prevent me from getting baptized?'³⁷ ———³⁸ So he commanded the chariot [driver] to stop, and then Philip took the eunuch down to the water and baptized him.

³⁹ Well, after they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord then sent Philip quickly away, so the eunuch didn't see him anymore... however he continued on his way rejoicing.

⁴⁰ Meanwhile, Philip found that he was in AshDod. So he traveled on throughout that area, preaching the good news in all the cities, until he got to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

¹ Well at the time, Saul was still breathing threats and murder against the Lord's disciples. So he went to the High Priest ² and asked him to write letters that he could carry to the synagogues in Damascus that would empower him to arrest anyone he found that belonged to The Way (both men and women) and bring them back to JeruSalem in chains. ³ But as he was getting close to Damascus, a light from the sky suddenly flashed all around him ⁴ and he fell to the ground. Then he heard a voice say, 'Saul, Saul; Why are you persecuting me?'

⁵ And he asked, 'Who are you Lord?'

Then he heard: 'I am Jesus, the one whom you are persecuting. ⁶ Now, get up and enter the city, and there you'll be told what to do.'

⁷ Well, as this was happening, the men who were traveling with him were speechless, because they heard the sound of a voice, but they couldn't see anyone. ⁸ And when Saul got up off the ground; though his eyes were open, he couldn't see. So they took him by the hand and led him into Damascus, ⁹ where he remained blind for the next three days... and he wouldn't eat or drink anything at all.

¹⁰ Meanwhile, there was a disciple named AnaNias in Damascus; and in a vision, the Lord called out to him saying, 'AnaNias!' And he replied, 'Here I am Lord!' ¹¹ Then the Lord said: 'Get up and go to the house of Judas on Straight Street, and ask for a man called Saul of Tarsus. Look... he's praying [right now]!' ¹² For in a vision he has seen a man named AnaNias who will come and lay his hands on him so he can start seeing again.'

¹³ However, AnaNias [objected], saying: 'Lord, I've heard about this man from many people, and they've told me about all the bad things that he did to your Holy Ones in JeruSalem. ¹⁴ He's even been empowered by the Chief Priests to lock up everyone who calls on your name!'

¹⁵ But the Lord said to him: 'Go on, because this man is the one I've chosen to carry my name before nations, kings, and the sons of IsraEl. ¹⁶ I will also make sure that he understands all the things that he'll have to suffer on account of my name.'

¹⁷ So AnaNias then went over to the house and went inside, and then he laid his hands on him and said: 'Saul, Brother; The Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here has sent me to restore your sight and to fill you with Holy Breath.'

¹⁸ Well at that, what looked like scales immediately fell from [Paul's] eyes and he started to see. Then he got up and he was baptized, ¹⁹ after which he started eating again and regaining his strength.

So after that, he spent several days there in Damascus with the disciples.

²⁰ And he immediately started preaching in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of The God. ²¹ However, all those who heard him were shocked, and asked: 'Isn't this the man that once ravaged those who are calling on this name in JeruSalem, and didn't he come here for that same reason... to carry them back in chains to the Chief Priests?'

²² But Saul's power kept on growing and he really confused the Jews who lived in Damascus, because he gave them logical proofs that [Jesus] is the Anointed One. ²³ So after several days, the Jews finally met to discuss ways to get rid of him. ²⁴ However, Saul learned about their plot against him; and because they were watching the city gates closely both day and night in order to arrest him, ²⁵ his disciples came to him one night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the city wall.

²⁶ Well when he got back to JeruSalem, he then tried to join with the rest of the disciples. However, they were all afraid of him, because they didn't really believe that he was a disciple. ²⁷ But BarNabas finally came to his aid... he took [Saul] to the Apostles and explained to them what had happened to him on the road... of how he had seen the Lord and spoken to him, and of how he had been boldly teaching in the name of Jesus while he was in Damascus. ²⁸ So thereafter, [Saul] stayed with [the brothers], as he entered and left JeruSalem, preaching in the name of the Lord.

²⁹ He also talked and argued a lot with the Greek-speaking Jews; but then they also attempted to do away with him. ³⁰ So when the brothers learned about their [plot], they took Paul to Caesarea and sent him on from there to Tarsus.

³¹ Well, for some time thereafter, there was a period of peace for the congregations in Judea, Galilee, and Samaria. So [the brothers] kept on walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Breath, as they were growing [in numbers].

³² Meanwhile, as Peter was traveling around, he finally reached the Holy Ones who lived in LydDa. ³³ And there he found a man named AiNean who had spent eight years lying flat on his back on a cot, paralyzed. ³⁴ So Peter said to him: 'AiNean; Jesus the Anointed One heals you. So now, get up and make your bed!' And at that he immediately got up. ³⁵ Then when those who lived in LydDa and the area of Sharon saw [what had happened to] this man, many started turning to the Lord.

³⁶ Well in JopPa, there happened to be a disciple named Tabitha (which is translated as Dorcas [in Greek]), who was well-known for the good things she was doing and for helping others when they were in need.³⁷ However, one day she got sick and died. So they washed her body and laid her in an upstairs room.

³⁸ Now, LydDa was fairly close to JopPa; so when the disciples heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him to beg him to please hurry and come to them.³⁹ Therefore, Peter got up and went with them.

Well when he got [to JopPa], they took him upstairs to the room [where she was laid]. And there, all the widows came to him crying and showing him the many pieces of clothing that Dorcas had made for them while she was with them.

⁴⁰ So after sending everyone outside, Peter got down on his knees and prayed. Then he turned toward the body and said, ‘Tabitha; stand again!’ And at that, she opened her eyes... and when she saw Peter, she sat up!⁴¹ So he gave her his hand and stood her [on her feet]; then he called the Holy Ones and widows in and presented her to them alive.⁴² And before long, this event became so well known throughout JopPa, that many started believing in the Lord.⁴³ And thereafter, [Peter] stayed in JopPa for several days, [in the home of] Simon the Tanner.

Chapter 10

¹ In Caesarea, there was a man named Cornelius (he was a centurion of the Italian Division)² who was a devout man. He and his family feared God, praying to Him often, and they regularly helped those who were in need.³ Well, it was about the ninth hour of the day when he clearly saw a messenger from God who came to him in a vision and called out, ‘Cornelius!’

⁴ So he stared at [the messenger] in fright and asked, ‘What do you want, Lord?’

And he answered: ‘Your prayers and kind gifts have arisen and have been remembered before God.⁵ So now, send some men to JopPa and call for a man named Simon, who is also known as Peter.⁶ He’s a guest of Simon the Tanner, who has a house by the sea.’

⁷ Well, as soon as the messenger [from God] who spoke to him left, he called two of his house servants and a devout soldier who was staying with him, ⁸ and he told them everything that had happened, then he sent them to JopPa. ⁹ And the next day (as they were on their way and getting close to the city), Peter had gone up on the roof (at about the sixth hour) to pray. ¹⁰ He was also very hungry and he wanted to eat... but then he fell into a trance. ¹¹ And in [a vision], he saw the sky opening and some sort of container (it looked like a huge linen sheet that was being held at its four corners) coming down to the ground. ¹² Inside it there were all kinds of four-footed animals, things that crawl on the ground, and birds of the sky. ¹³ Then a voice came to him that said: ‘Get up, Peter... slaughter [the animals] and eat them!’

¹⁴ But Peter said: ‘Not me Lord, because I’ve never eaten anything that is dirty or unclean!’

¹⁵ And the voice [spoke] to him a second time, saying, ‘Stop calling the things that God has made clean, dirty!’ ¹⁶ Then he heard it say this two more times, and the container was then immediately taken back into the sky.

¹⁷ Now, Peter was confused about the meaning of this vision. However, the men that Cornelius had sent were already at Simon’s house, standing at the gate and asking for him... ¹⁸ they were calling out and asking whether Simon (who is also called Peter) was a guest there. ¹⁹ And as Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Breath [of God] said: ‘Look! Three men are searching for you... ²⁰ so go downstairs and get ready to travel with them. Don’t worry, because I sent them.’

²¹ So Peter went downstairs to the men and said: ‘{Look!} I’m the one you’re looking for... why are you here?’

²² And they replied: ‘Cornelius, an army officer who is a righteous and God-fearing man of whom the whole nation of the Jews speak well, was given Divine instructions by a holy messenger to ask you to come to his house, so he can hear what you have to say.’

Of course, Cornelius had been expecting them, and he had called for all of his relatives and closest friends. ²⁵ Then as Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet, bowing low. ²⁶ But Peter lifted him up, saying: ‘Get up! I’m just a man!’

²⁷ Well, as they were talking, Paul walked inside; and there he found many people already assembled. ²⁸ So he said to them: ‘You know very well how illegal it is for a Jew to associate with or to even approach people of another race. Yet, God has shown me that I shouldn’t call any man dirty or unclean. ²⁹ Therefore, when I was called for, I came without any objections. But now, let me ask: Why have you sent for me?’

³⁰ Then Cornelius told him: ‘Exactly four days ago, I was praying here in my house during the ninth hour, when {Look!} a man in bright clothes came and stood in front of me and said, ³¹ Cornelius; Your prayers have been heard and your kind gifts have been remembered before God. ³² So send to JopPa and ask for Simon, who is also called Peter. He’s staying by the sea in the house of Simon the Tanner. ³³ Well, I then sent for you right away... and it’s good that you came. For now we’re all assembled here before God to listen to everything that the Lord has commanded you to say.’

³⁴ And Peter said: ‘I can see for a fact that God is impartial; ³⁵ for He accepts any man who fears Him and does righteous things, no matter what nation he’s from! ³⁶ So He’s sending word to the Sons of IsraEl that they must announce the good news of peace through Jesus the Anointed One to [the gentiles] also, for he is really the Lord over all!

³⁷ ‘Now, I can see that you’ve already come to know about this thing that is being proclaimed throughout all of Judea, which started in Galilee after John came preaching about [the need] to get baptized. ³⁸ For after that, God anointed Jesus from Nazareth with Holy Breath and power, and he traveled throughout the land doing good things and healing all those who were oppressed by the Slanderer. Yes, God was with him... ³⁹ and we are eye-witnesses to everything that he did in the region of Judea and in JeruSalem!

‘But then they murdered him by hanging him on a tree.⁴⁰ Yet, God raised this one on the third day and allowed him to be seen...⁴¹ but not by everyone, just to witnesses whom The God had selected ahead of time [from among] us. For he appeared to us, and we ate and drank with him after he was resurrected from the dead.⁴² Then he ordered us to preach to the people and to testify that he’s the one who was chosen by The God to judge the living and the dead,⁴³ and that he’s the one about whom all the Prophets had testified, saying that all who put faith in him will have their sins forgiven through this name!’

⁴⁴ Well, as Peter was still talking about this, the Holy Breath came over all of those who were listening to what he said.⁴⁵ And the faithful ones who were there with Peter (all of whom were circumcised) were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Breath was now being poured out on gentiles...⁴⁶ for they heard them speaking and glorifying God in different languages!

Then Peter asked:⁴⁷ ‘Can anyone forbid water to baptize these who have received the Holy Breath the same as we have?’

⁴⁸ So he commanded that they should be baptized in the name of Jesus the Anointed One. And afterward, they asked him to stay with them for several days.

Chapter 11

¹ Soon after that, the Apostles and other brothers in Judea heard that gentiles were also accepting the word of God.² So when Peter returned to JeruSalem, the circumcised started arguing with him,³ complaining that he had gone into the house of uncircumcised men and had eaten with them.⁴ So Peter explained it this way:

⁵ ‘While I was in the city of JopPa, I was praying. And in a trance, I saw a vision of some sort of container coming down from the sky that looked like a huge linen sheet being held by its four corners... it was very clear to me!⁶ And as I stared at it, I saw four-footed creatures of the ground, wild animals, things that crawl, and birds of the sky. ⁷ Then I heard a voice say to me, Get up Peter; slaughter [the animals] and eat them! ⁸ But I said, Not me Lord, because I've never eaten anything that is dirty and unclean. ⁹ Then the voice came from the sky a second time, and it told me: Stop calling things that God has made clean, dirty. ¹⁰ Well, this happened a third time, and then everything was pulled back up into the sky.

¹¹ ‘Then {Look!} at that very moment, there were three men standing outside of the house who had been sent from Caesarea to find me. ¹² And the Spirit told me to go with them and not to doubt. These six brothers here also went with me, and we all entered the man's house together! ¹³ [Well, when we got there, the man] told us how he had seen a messenger [from God] standing in his house, who told him: Send your men to JopPa and ask for Simon who is called Peter. ¹⁴ He will tell you what you must do, so that you and your household can get saved.’

¹⁵ ‘But after I started speaking to them, the Holy Breath fell upon all them, the same as it did upon us long ago. ¹⁶ And then I remembered that the Lord used to say, John baptized in water, but you will be baptized in Holy Breath. ¹⁷ So if God gave them the same gifts that he gave to those of us who have believed in the Lord Jesus the Anointed; who am I that I should be strong enough to resist God?’

¹⁸ Well, after they heard this, they all quieted down and started glorifying God, saying, ‘So then, God has also given gentiles the opportunity for repentance into life!’

¹⁹ Now, those who had been scattered because of the problems that arose over Stephen had traveled as far away as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and AntiOch; and until then they had been spreading the word just among the Jews. ²⁰ However, some Cypriots and Cyrenians who went to AntiOch started talking to the Greek-speaking [Gentile] peoples, declaring the good news of the Lord Jesus to them. ²¹ And the hand of the Lord was certainly with them, because many of them started believing and turned to the Lord.

²² So when news about this reached the ears of the congregation in JeruSalem, they sent BarNabas to AntiOch, ²³ and when he got there and saw the loving-care that God had shown for these people, he rejoiced and encouraged them all to whole-heartedly stick with the Lord! ²⁴ ([BarNabas] is a good man who is filled with Holy Spirit and faith). So, many were thereafter added to the Lord.

²⁵ Well from there, [BarNabas] went on to Tarsus to find Saul. ²⁶ And when he found him, he brought him back to AntiOch, where they stayed with that congregation for a year and taught many people. (It was in AntiOch that the disciples were by Divine providence, first called Christians).

²⁷ At the time, [brothers with the gift of] prophesying had traveled to AntiOch from JeruSalem. ²⁸ And one of them (named Agabus) stood up and told them (through the Breath [of God]) that a great famine was about to come upon the whole [habitation \[of mankind\]](#) – which did in fact happen in the time of [Emperor] Claudius. ²⁹ So the disciples there decided that each of them would collect relief supplies for the brothers who lived in Judea (as they could afford to) ³⁰ and send them on to the elders through BarNabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

⁵ Well, while Peter was in jail, the congregation prayed to God intensely on his behalf. ⁶ And on the night before Herod planned to produce him, they bound Peter with two chains, forced him to sleep between two soldiers, and guards were posted at the doors. ⁷ But {Look!} the Lord's messenger suddenly appeared, who lit up the whole cell. Then he tapped Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, 'Get up... Now!' And at that,

the chains just fell off his hands. ⁸ Then the messenger said to him, ‘Get dressed and tie on your sandals,’ which Peter did. Then he told him: ‘Now, wrap yourself up in your robe and follow me!’

⁹ So [Peter] left, following [the messenger]. However, he wasn’t really sure of what was happening, because, though [he knew that] the messenger was real, he thought that he was just seeing a vision.

¹⁰ Well, they walked past the first guard, then the second, and when they got to the iron gate that leads into the city, it opened by itself. Then after they got out and started down a street, the messenger suddenly left him. ¹¹ And at that, Peter finally came to his senses, he said: ‘Now I really know that the Lord sent his messenger and saved me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jews had planned to do [to me].’

¹² Then (after [taking a moment] to collect himself) he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John (who was called Mark), where several had gathered to pray. ¹³ And when he knocked at the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came; ¹⁴ then when she recognized Peter’s voice, she was so happy that she failed to open the gate... she just ran inside and told everyone that Peter was standing outside.

¹⁵ Well, everyone there said that she had to be crazy, but she kept insisting. So they said, ‘Perhaps it’s his messenger.’ ¹⁶ Meanwhile, Peter was still standing outside and knocking.

Then when they opened [the gate] and saw that it really was [Peter], everyone was astonished. ¹⁷ But he motioned with his hand for them to be quiet, and he told them exactly how the Lord had freed him from the jail. Then he said: ‘Tell James and the other brothers what has happened.’ And with that, he left and traveled on to another place.

¹⁸ Needless to say, the next day there was quite a stir among the soldiers over what had become of Peter. ¹⁹ Herod had them search for him, and when they couldn’t find him, he interrogated the guards and ordered to have them arrested. However, [Peter] had left Judea and traveled to Caesarea, where he spent quite a bit of time after that.

²⁰ Well back then, [Herod] had become extremely angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. And as the result, [people from there] went to the Royal Eunuch Blastus to convince him to ask [Herod] for peace, since [Herod] had been supplying their country with food [during the famine].

²⁴ Meanwhile, during this entire period, the word of the Lord kept on growing and spreading.

²⁵ As for BarNabas and Saul; after they’d finished delivering relief supplies to JeruSalem, they returned [to AntiOch]. And this time they took John (the one called Mark) along with them.

Chapter 13

¹ There were several Prophets and teachers in the congregation at AntiOch. These included BarNabas, Symeon (who was called Niger), Lucius of Cyrene, Mnaen (who had gone to school with Herod, the district ruler) and Saul. ² And it was while they were serving the Lord and fasting that the Holy Breath said to them: ‘You must consecrate BarNabas and Saul to do the work for which I have called them.’

³ So then [the brothers] fasted, prayed, and laid their hands on them, and sent them on.

⁴ Well, the Holy Breath first sent these men to Seleucia, then they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵ And when they arrived at the city of Salamis, they started preaching the word of God in the Jewish synagogues there, along with John (Mark) who had come along to help them.

⁶ Thereafter, they traveled across the whole island to Paphos, where they met up with a Jew named BarJesus, who was a sorcerer and a false prophet. ⁷ He happened to be with the Island’s governor at the time (an intelligent man named Sergius Paulus), who had summoned BarNabas and Saul, because he really wanted to hear the word of God. ⁸ But the sorcerer ElyMas (that's how his name is pronounced [in Aramaic]) opposed them and tried to keep the governor from becoming interested in the faith.

⁹ Then Saul (who is also called Paul) became filled with Holy Breath, and he looked at the man very hard and said: ¹⁰ 'O you unethical and deceitful person; you son of the Slanderer and enemy of everything that's righteous! When will you stop twisting the straight ways of the Lord? ¹¹ Now look! The Lord's hand has touched you so that you'll be blind and unable to even see the sun for a while.' And at that, [the man's eyes] started to cloud over and grow dim, so he had to search for someone to lead him by the hand.

¹² Well when the governor saw this, he was shocked and he started believing in the Lord's teachings.

¹³ From there, Paul and the men who were with him sailed from Paphos to [the city of] Perga in PamPhylia. However, John [Mark] left them there and returned to JeruSalem. ¹⁴ Then from Perga, they traveled on to AntiOch in Pisidia. And on the Sabbath, they entered the synagogue and sat down; ¹⁵ then after a reading of the Law and the Prophets, the presiding officers of the synagogue called them forward saying, 'Men... Brothers... If you have anything encouraging to tell the people, say it!'

¹⁶ So Paul got up, and with a sweeping gesture, he said: 'Men, IsraElites, and all you who fear God, listen! ¹⁷ The God of the people of IsraEl chose our ancestors, and when they were visitors in the land of Egypt, He elevated them... He raised His arm and brought them out of there. ¹⁸ But after that, He [had to] put up with their bad manners in the desert for forty years. ¹⁹ Then, after destroying seven nations in the land of CanaAn, He gave them each an inheritance of land... ²⁰ and all of this happened in a period of four hundred and fifty years.

'Thereafter, he gave them the judges until the time of the Prophet SamuEl... ²¹ for that's when they asked for a king. So then God gave them Saul, the son of Kish (a man from the tribe of BenJamin), who ruled over them for the next forty years.

²² ‘Then after removing him, He promoted David to be their king; for God gave this testimony about him: I’ve found a man after My own heart, David the son of Jesse, who will do as I wish. ²³ And it was from [this man’s] seed (according to the promise) that God brought a Savior to IsraEl named Jesus.

²⁴ ‘Now, John [the Baptist] preached publicly about a baptism of repentance to all the people of IsraEl before [Jesus] arrived. ²⁵ And as John was finishing the race that he was to run, he asked [the people], Who are you thinking that I am? It isn’t me! Rather, {Look!} someone is coming behind me whose shoelaces I’m unworthy to untie!

²⁶ ‘Men... brothers... you sons of the race of AbraHam and all among you who fear God; we’re the ones to whom these words of salvation have been sent! ²⁷ However, the people who lived in JeruSalem and their rulers didn’t recognize this one. And when they acted as his judges, they fulfilled the things that the Prophets said... the things that are read aloud [here] on each Sabbath. ²⁸ For though he couldn’t find any reason for putting him to death, the people demanded that Pilate should have him executed!

²⁹ ‘Well, after they’d finished doing everything that was written would happen to [this man], they took his body down from the tree and laid it in a tomb. ³⁰ However, God then raised him from the dead! ³¹ And for several days thereafter, those [of us] who had traveled with him from Galilee to JeruSalem, saw him again! So, we are now his witnesses to the people. ³² And here we are announcing the good news to you about the promise that God made to our forefathers, ³³ and which He has now completely fulfilled upon their children... upon us! For He resurrected this Jesus, just as it was written in the Second Psalm: You are my son, and today I am your Father!

³⁴ ‘Yes, He resurrected him from the dead so that [his body] wouldn’t see corruption. For He had said to him, [I will give you the sacred, trusted things of \[King\] David.](#) ³⁵ And He said in another place: You won’t allow your Holy one to see corruption. ³⁶ Yet when David (who served his generation well and followed God’s instructions) fell asleep [in death], he was buried with his ancestors, and [his body] did see corruption. ³⁷ However, this one who was raised by God didn't see corruption!

³⁸ 'Understand this, men and brothers; we're declaring to you that your sins can now be forgiven through him. ³⁹ Yes, all the wrong things for which the Law of Moses couldn't excuse you, can be excused for you by this one, if you'll believe [in him]! ⁴⁰ Just make sure that [this thing] that was said by the Prophet doesn't happen to you, when he said:

⁴¹ *'Behold, O you who show scorn;
Yes, be amazed, and then perish!
For there's a work that I'll do in your days,
Which you could never believe
Should someone declare it to you!'*

⁴² Well, as everyone was leaving, many of the people begged them to explain more about this on the next Sabbath. ⁴³ And after the meeting at the synagogue was concluded, several of the Jews and proselytes started following Paul and BarNabas, who urged them to stick close to God's favor.

⁴⁴ Then on the next Sabbath, most of the city assembled to hear the word of God. ⁴⁵ And when the Judeans saw all these people, they became extremely jealous and started contradicting the things that Paul was saying in blasphemous ways. ⁴⁶ However, Paul and BarNabas just kept on speaking out boldly. And they told them: 'We were told that we had to speak the word of God to you first. But since you're just pushing it away and you don't judge yourselves to be worthy of age-long life, {Look!} we will now be turning to the gentiles. ⁴⁷ In fact, Jehovah commanded us to do this when He said:

*'I will make you a light to the nations...
To bring salvation to the ends of the earth'*

⁴⁸ Well when the gentiles in the crowd heard this, they started rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord. And at that, all those who were inclined to accept age-long life became believers, ⁴⁹ and the word of the Lord was thereafter spread throughout that whole country.

⁵⁰ However, the Judeans who were there incited many of the city's elite (devout women and leading men), and they sent people against Paul and BarNabas who threw them out of the city. ⁵¹ So they then shook the dust off their feet against them, and traveled on to Iconium. ⁵² However, the disciples [in that city] continued to be filled with joy and Holy Breath.

Chapter 14

¹ Then the same thing happened in Iconium. [Paul and BarNabas] went into the Jewish synagogue together to speak, and a large number of both Jews and Greeks became believers. ² However, the Jews who wouldn't accept what they said riled up the gentiles and influenced them to act badly toward the brothers. ³ Nevertheless, [Paul, and BarNabas] spent a lot of time boldly telling them about the Lord. And [the Lord] himself testified to the fact that his favor was being shown by allowing these men to perform many signs and omens.

⁴ Well, the whole city was thereafter split... some were for the Jews and others for the Apostles. ⁵ Then some of the Jews and gentiles met with the local rulers, who arranged to finish them off by having them stoned. ⁶ And when [Paul and BarNabas] learned about this plot, they got out of there and traveled to the cities and countryside around Lystra and Derbe in LycaOnias, ⁷ where they continued preaching the good news.

⁸ Well in Lystra, they noticed a man sitting there who had something wrong with his feet. In fact, he hadn't walked at all since he was born. ⁹ This man was listening to Paul at the time; and when [Paul] looked at him and realized that he had enough faith to be healed, ¹⁰ he shouted: 'Stand up on your feet!' And at this, [the man] jumped up and started walking around.

¹¹ Well when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted (in the LycaOnian language): 'The gods have turned themselves into men and come down to us!'

¹² Then they started calling BarNabas Zeus, and Paul Hermes (since he was the one who took the lead in speaking), ¹³ and the city's Priest of Zeus brought bulls and garlands up to the gates so that he and the crowd could offer sacrifices [to them].¹⁴ However, when the Apostles BarNabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and jumped into the crowd, shouting and asking,¹⁵ ‘Why are you doing this? We’re just humans who have the same problems as you; and the reason why we’re here preaching the good news to you is to turn you away from this foolishness and toward the living God who made the skies, the lands, the seas, and everything in them!’¹⁶ For though He’s allowed the gentiles to go their own way for generations,¹⁷ He didn’t leave Himself without witnesses. And He did good things for you by giving you rain from the sky and good harvests, and He filled your hearts with food and happiness!’

¹⁸ Yet despite everything they said, they had a hard time keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹ But then some Jews arrived from AntiOch and Iconium, and they convinced the crowd that they should stone Paul. So after they did that, they dragged him outside of the city and left him, thinking that he was dead.²⁰ However, after the disciples gathered around him, he got up and walked back into the city.

Then the next day, he and BarNabas left for Derbe,²¹ where they preached the good news in that city, making quite a few disciples.

After that, they returned to Lystra in Iconium and to AntiOch,²² so as to strengthen the disciples there. They encouraged them to remain strong in the faith, saying, ‘We will all have to endure many trials if we wish to enter the Kingdom of God.’²³ They also appointed elders in each of the congregations. Then with prayer and fasting, they entrusted them into the hands of [the God in whom] they’d come to believe.

²⁴ Well from there, they traveled through Pisidia to PamPhylia.²⁵ And after teaching the word in Perga, they went on to Attalia.

²⁶ Thereafter, they sailed back to AntiOch, where by God’s kindness, they had first been entrusted with the work that they were performing so well.

²⁷ And when they arrived, they gathered the congregation and told them everything that God had done through them, and of how He had opened the door of faith to the gentiles. ²⁸ Then they spent quite some time there in AntiOch with the disciples.

Chapter 15

¹ However, some men then came down from Judea and started teaching the brothers that if they didn't get circumcised following the custom of Moses, they couldn't get saved. ² However, Paul and BarNabas opposed them and argued with them. So they arranged for Paul, BarNabas, and some others who were there, to go to the Apostles and elders in JeruSalem to ask [their opinion] on the matter. ³ And at that, the congregation sent them off.

Well, as they were traveling through Phoenicia and Samaria, they stopped and spoke [to the congregations] along the way about the conversion of gentiles, which brought great joy among all the brothers.

⁴ Then when they got to JeruSalem, they were welcomed by the congregation (which included the Apostles and the elders), and they told them about all the things that God had been accomplishing through them. ⁵ However, some of those who were believers from the sect of the Pharisees then stood up and said, 'We must circumcise those people and order them to obey the Laws of Moses!'

⁶ So thereafter, the Apostles and the elders held a meeting to discuss this matter. ⁷ And after a lot of wrangling, Peter then stood up and said: 'Men... Brothers... You know how long it has been since God chose to have gentiles hear the word of the Good News and believe through my mouth, ⁸ and of how God (who knows the heart) testified about them by giving them the Holy Breath, the same as He did to us. ⁹ So as you can see, He didn't create a difference between us. And since He has also purified their hearts in the faith; ¹⁰ why are you testing God by putting this yoke on the neck of the disciples that we and our fathers couldn't carry? ¹¹ For we believe that they've been saved the same as we have, through the loving care of our Lord Jesus!'

¹² Well at that, the group became silent, and they listened to BarNabas and Paul tell about the many signs and omens that God had used them to perform among the gentiles.

¹³ Then when they'd finished speaking, James said: 'Men... Brothers... Hear me! ¹⁴ Simon has explained to us how for the first time, God has [chosen] to take a people for His Name from among the gentiles. ¹⁵ And the words of the Prophet agree with this, for it is written:

In that day,

I'll rebuild the tent of David that has fallen...

I'll rebuild it and make it stand once again.

Then, those who remain of the nations

May inquire of those who have called on My Name.

'Yes, this was said by our Lord who made all of this happen, ¹⁸ because He has known about these things through the ages!

¹⁹ 'Therefore, I've decided not to create problems for the gentiles who are turning to God. ²⁰ Rather, I will send word to them to stay free from things polluted by idols, from immorality, from things that are strangled, and from blood. ²¹ For [these are the Laws of] Moses that have been preached in city after city and read in the synagogues on every Sabbath for generations.'

²² Well after that, the Apostles, elders, and the whole congregation were unanimously in favor of sending men whom they had selected from among themselves back to AntiOch. So, among those who traveled there with Paul and BarNabas were Judas (who was called BarSabbas) and Silas... leading men from among the brothers. ²³ And this is what was written by their hands:

'[From] the Apostles and the older brothers, to those gentile brothers in AntiOch, Syria, and Kilikia; Rejoice! ²⁴ We've heard that some who came from us have been stirring things up there with speeches, and they've urged you to make changes in your lives (though we didn't really tell them to do this). ²⁵ Therefore, we've unanimously decided to choose men to send to you along with our beloved BarNabas and Paul...

²⁶ these men who've been willing to give their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One. ²⁷ Yes, Judas and Silas can further explain these things to you. ²⁸ For through the Holy Breath, it has become clear to us that we shouldn't put any burdens on you other than these necessary things: ²⁹ Stay away from things that are sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things that are strangled, and from sexual immorality. If you stay away from these things, you'll do well. Good health to you!

³⁰ So when these men whom they'd sent arrived in AntiOch, they assembled the congregation and presented them with the letter. ³¹ And after reading it, [the brothers in AntiOch] were very happy over the encouragement that the letter conveyed.

³² Then Judas and Silas (since they were also Prophets) gave instructions to the brothers with many speeches to strengthen them. ³³ And after some time had passed, [the congregation] allowed them to return to those who had sent them with that message of peace. ³⁴ ——— ³⁵ However, Paul and BarNabas stayed on in AntiOch for a while (along with many others), teaching and preaching the good news of the word of the Lord.

³⁶ Then after many days, Paul said to BarNabas: 'Now that these matters have been settled, let's go back and visit the brothers in all those cities where we've preached the word, to see how they're doing.' ³⁷ However, BarNabas wanted to bring John (who was called Mark) along with them. ³⁸ But because Paul didn't think he was worthy, he didn't want to take him, because he'd left them at PamPhylia and he hadn't continued in the work. ³⁹ So there was quite an argument over this, which resulted in each man going his own way. Therefore, BarNabas took Mark and they sailed off to Cyprus, ⁴⁰ while Paul chose Silas.

Then, after sharing the joy of the Lord with the brothers, [Paul] traveled on, ⁴¹ going through Syria and Kilikia, strengthening the congregations there.

Chapter 16

¹ Well, [Paul] got as far as Derbe, and then he continued on to Lystra. {Look!} There he found a disciple named Timothy, who was the son of a believing Jewish woman and a Greek father. ² The brothers in Lystra and Iconium had many good things to say about him, ³ and Paul wanted to take this man along with him. So he went and circumcised him because of the many Jews who were in those places, since they all knew that his father was a Greek.

⁴ Well, as they traveled through the cities, they taught the decisions of the Apostles and elders in JeruSalem, and urged the brothers to obey them. ⁵ So the congregations kept getting stronger in the faith and growing day after day.

⁶ From there, they traveled through Phrygia and the country of Galatia. However, the Holy Breath [of God] wouldn't allow them to teach the word in [\[the province of\] Asia](#). ⁷ And when they got down to Mysia, they tried to go on to Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus wouldn't allow them to do so. ⁸ As the result, they passed Mysia and went on to Troas. ⁹ And there, during the night, Paul had a vision of a Macedonian man who was standing and begging him, 'Come over to Macedonia and help us!' ¹⁰ And as soon as he saw this vision, we started out for Macedonia, assuming that God had called us to preach the good news to them.

¹¹ So having been led from Troas, we set a straight course for Samothrace. Then the next day we traveled to NeaPolis, ¹² and from there to Philippi (a [Roman] colony that is one of the main cities in that part of Macedonia), where we spent several days. ¹³ And on the Sabbath, we went to the riverbank outside of the city gate where we thought we would find a place to pray, then we sat down there and started talking to the women who had assembled.

¹⁴ Well, a woman named Lydia from Thyatira (an importer of purple [cloth]) who was a worshiper of The God, was listening; and the Lord opened her heart to pay attention to the things that Paul was saying. ¹⁵ Then, as she and her household were being baptized, she begged: 'If you men have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my house!' And she kept urging us to come.

¹⁶ Thereafter, as we were going somewhere to pray, a servant girl with a divining spirit came and met us. Her masters used her to make predictions, which earned a tidy profit for them. ¹⁷ She kept following Paul and the rest of us, shouting, ‘These men are slaves of the Most High God and they’re preaching to you about the way of salvation!’

¹⁸ Well, after she had done this for several days, Paul finally got tired of it; so he turned and said to the spirit: ‘I order you to come out of her in the name of Jesus the Anointed One!’ And it came right out. ¹⁹ But when her masters saw that they had just lost their hope of any income [from her], they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the rulers in the marketplace. ²⁰ They brought them before the judges and said: ‘These men are Jews who are creating a disturbance in our city ²¹ and they’re preaching customs that are illegal for us as Romans to either accept or to practice!’

²² Well, the entire crowd arose against them. So the judges had their clothes stripped off and commanded that they should be beaten with rods. ²³ Then after they had received many blows, they threw them in jail, ordering the jailer to keep them safe. ²⁴ And since [the jailer] had received such an order, he took them into the innermost dungeon and put their feet in stocks. ²⁵ However, during the middle of the night, as Paul and Silas were praying and singing sacred hymns (within earshot of the rest of the prisoners there), ²⁶ a great earthquake occurred that shook the jail to its foundation... and this immediately opened all the doors and loosened all the chains. ²⁷ Then when the jailer woke up and saw the cell doors opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, because he thought the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul called out loudly, ‘Don’t harm yourself... we’re all still here!’

²⁹ So [the jailer] asked for lamps to be brought in; and shaking in fear, he jumped in and fell down before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them outside and asked: ‘Lords; What must I do so that I might get saved?’

³¹ And they replied, ‘Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you and all in your house will be saved.’ ³² Then they spoke to him and all those in his house about the word of God (or according to other texts, ‘the word of the Lord’).

³³ So at that hour of the night, he went and washed their whip wounds; then he and his family were immediately baptized. ³⁴ And thereafter, he brought them into his home, sat them at the table, and he and his entire household started rejoicing over their coming to believe in The God.

³⁵ Well the next morning, the magistrates sent officers who told him to release them. ³⁶ And the jailer said to Paul, ‘The magistrates have sent men to release you. So now that you’re free, you may go your own way in peace.’

³⁷ But Paul said to him: ‘Although we weren’t found guilty [of doing anything wrong], they had us publicly flogged and thrown in jail... and we are Romans! Are they now going to try to throw us out secretly? No, let them come down here and bring us out themselves!’

³⁸ Well at that, the officers went back and reported what he had said to the judges, and they were frightened when they heard that the men were Romans. ³⁹ So they called for them and released them, then they asked them to leave their city.

⁴⁰ So after they were released, they went to Lydia’s house, where they met with the brothers and encouraged them before traveling on.

Chapter 17

¹ From there they traveled through AmphiPolis and Apollonia to ThesSalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ² And as it was Paul’s custom, he went inside and reasoned with [the Jews] from the Scriptures for three Sabbaths. ³ He opened [the scriptures] and proved that the Anointed One had to suffer and be resurrected from the dead. Then he said, ‘This Jesus whom I’m preaching to you is that Anointed One!’ ⁴ And as the result, some of them became believers and associated themselves with Paul and Silas, as did a large number of devout Greeks, many women, and quite a few of the [city’s] leaders.

⁵ However, this made some of the Judeans very jealous, so they formed a mob... they assembled a group of wicked men who had been hanging around in the market, and these created quite an uproar in the city. Then from there, they all went to Jason’s house and they demanded to have

[Paul and Silas] brought out. ⁶ But when they didn't find them there, they dragged Jason and some other brothers before the city council, shouting, 'Those men who are creating confusion throughout the whole world are here also... ⁷ and Jason has even welcomed them into his home! Yet these people oppose the decrees of Caesar by saying that there's another king... someone called Jesus!'

⁸ Well when the councilmen heard the crowd saying this, they became quite agitated ⁹ and demanded a large bail from Jason and the others, before they would release them. ¹⁰ Then that night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas off to Berea.

Well [upon arriving in Berea], they went into the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹ And there they found the people to be more noble-minded than those in ThesSalonica, because they eagerly welcomed the word and studied the Scriptures each day to make sure that the things [they were being told] were true. ¹² So, many of them became believers, as did a number of the prominent Greek women and quite a few of the men.

¹³ However, when the Jews in ThesSalonica learned that Paul was also preaching the word of God in Berea, they traveled there to incite and agitate the crowds. ¹⁴ As the result, the brothers immediately sent Paul off all the way to the sea... however, Silas and Timothy stayed behind. ¹⁵ Then those who were taking Paul, brought him to Athens. And before they returned, he instructed them to send Silas and Timothy to him as soon as possible.

¹⁶ Well, while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he became disgusted to the core when he saw that the city was filled with idols. ¹⁷ So he started reasoning with the Jews and other worshipers in the synagogue, as well as with anyone that happened to be in the markets each day.

¹⁸ Then some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers came to hear him, and they started asking each other, 'What is this seed-picker trying to say?' And someone told them, 'He seems to be preaching a foreign demon' (because he was telling them the good news about Jesus and the resurrection). ¹⁹ So they grabbed him and took him up to the AeroPagus, where they asked him: 'Tell us; What is this new thing that you're preaching? ²⁰ For we've heard that you've brought some strange new ideas, and we want to know what they are!' ²¹ (It's a fact that all Athenians and even foreigners who traveled there had nothing to do other than spend their leisure time telling something new or listening to something new). ²² So Paul stood up in the middle of the AeroPagus and said: 'Men of Athens; I see that you have a greater fear of the demons than do others. ²³ And as I was going along and noticing all the things that you worship, I found an altar with the inscription: To an unknown God. So I'm here to preach to you about something that you don't know, but already worship. ²⁴ For this is the [same] God that made the cosmos and everything in it; and this Lord of the sky and the earth doesn't live in handmade Temples, ²⁵ nor does He need human hands to take care of Him (or anything at all [for that matter]), because He gives life, breath, and everything else to each of us. ²⁶ He's the One who made all the nations of mankind that dwell on the face of the earth from just one man, and He's the One that determines the times and the boundaries of [when and] where they would live ²⁷ so that we would each search for God and grope around to find Him... though He really isn't very far from any of us. ²⁸ For it's through Him that we have life, and move, and exist... even as some of your own poets have said: We are His offspring!

²⁹ 'Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we shouldn't think of this Divine One as being like gold, silver, stone... or like anything else that some man may have artistically sculpted! ³⁰ Yet, God has overlooked such periods of ignorance, and now He's telling all men everywhere to repent. ³¹ Because, He has set a day when He's going to judge the entire habitation of mankind righteously by a man whom He has appointed. And He has also given each of us a reason to believe in this man by resurrecting him from the dead!'

³² Well when they heard [him mention] a resurrection of the dead, some started joking about it. But others said, 'We'll listen to more about this at some other time!' ³³ So at that, Paul left them. ³⁴ However, some of the men started following him and became believers. This included Dionysius (a judge of the AeroPagus Supreme Court), a woman named Damaris, and several others.

Chapter 18

⁵ Then after Silas and Timothy finally arrived from Macedonia, Paul really intensified his work of witnessing to the Jews and proving to them that Jesus is the Anointed One. ⁶ However, they just kept on opposing him and blaspheming; so he shook out his clothes and said, ‘Your blood is now on your own heads... I am clean of it! From now on, I’ll just be going to the gentiles.’

⁷ Then he left them and entered the home of a man named Titius Justus (a worshiper of God), whose house adjoined the synagogue. ⁸ And later, Crispus (the synagogue’s presiding officer) became a believer in the Lord, as did his whole household... and many Corinthians who heard about it also became believers and were baptized.

⁹ Then one night, the Lord said this to Paul in a vision: ‘Don’t be afraid; keep on preaching here and don’t stop, ¹⁰ because I’m with you! Nobody will attack you or try to hurt you, since I have many people in this city.’

¹¹ And as the result, Paul stayed there for a year and a half, teaching the word of God among them.

¹² Well, it was while Gallio was governor of Achaea that the Jews got together and came against Paul. They took him to court and charged him, ¹³ saying, ‘This man is violating the Law by trying to convert people of other faiths to worshiping [his] God.’ ¹⁴ But just as Paul was about to answer, Gallio said to them: ‘O Jews; I’d be patient and put up with this if you were talking about [his doing] something wrong or committing some foul act. ¹⁵ But if all you want to do is complain about words, names, and your Law, take care of it yourselves. I don’t wish to be the judge of such matters!’ ¹⁶ And with that, he threw them out of his court.

¹⁷ So then they dragged [Paul] before Sosthenes, the presiding officer of the synagogue. And right there in front of the Judgment Seat, they started beating him up! However, Gallio didn't pay any attention to this.

¹⁸ Well, after staying there for several more days, Paul said goodbye to the brothers and sailed off for Syria, along with Priscilla and Aquila. Then [Paul] had his hair sheared in Kenchrea, because of a vow that he'd made. ¹⁹ And when they arrived at Ephesus, he left [Priscilla and Aquila] and went into the synagogue to reason with the Jews. ²⁰ But though they asked him to stay there for a while, he wouldn't do it. ²¹ He just said goodbye and told them: 'If it's God's will, I'll be back.'

So then he traveled from Ephesus ²² to Caesarea, where he went up and greeted the congregation; and from there, he traveled on to AntiOch. ²³ Then, after staying [in AntiOch] for some time, he left and traveled throughout the areas of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples there.

²⁴ Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos (a native of Alexandria) who was an excellent speaker and who knew the Scriptures very well, arrived at Ephesus. ²⁵ He had been taught the ways of the Lord and was aglow with the Breath [of God]. So, what he said and taught about Jesus was correct. However, he only knew about the baptism of John. ²⁶ Well, Priscilla and Aquila had been listening to him as he was boldly speaking in the synagogue, and then they took him under their wing and explained the ways of God to him more completely. ²⁷ Then, since he was planning to travel to Achaea, the brothers wrote to the disciples there, telling them to welcome him. And when he got there, he provided assistance to all those who (through [God's] loving care) became believers, ²⁸ as he publicly and very enthusiastically proved that the Jews were absolutely wrong by using the Scriptures to prove that Jesus was the Anointed One.

Chapter 19

¹ Well from there, Paul traveled inland while Apollos stayed in Corinth. And when he got to Ephesus, he found some disciples ² and he asked them: 'Did you receive the Holy Breath when you became believers?'

And they answered: ‘We’ve never even heard that there is Holy Breath.’

³ So he asked: ‘Then, into what were you baptized?’

And they replied: ‘In John’s baptism.’

⁴ So Paul told them this: ‘When John baptized, it was a baptism of repentance. However, he told the people to believe in the one that was coming after him... in Jesus.’

⁵ And after they heard this, they were all baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ Then when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Breath came over them and they each started speaking in different languages and prophesying ⁷ (there were about twelve men).

⁸ So after that, [Paul] went into the synagogue, where he spoke boldly... for the next three months he reasoned and talked persuasively about the Kingdom of God. ⁹ But when [he noted] that some were just becoming more difficult, refusing to believe and saying bad things about The Way in front of the crowds, he left them... he separated the [true] disciples from among them and started giving lectures in the School of Tyrannus each day, ¹⁰ which went on for the next two years. So everyone who lived in [\[the province of\] Asia](#) (both the Jews and the Greeks) eventually heard the word of the Lord. ¹¹ And [all the while], God kept demonstrating unusual powers through the hands of Paul. ¹² For even the bandannas and aprons that he wore were carried to sick people, which caused their diseases to leave and wicked spirits to come out.

¹³ However, there were some traveling Judean exorcists that also started using the name of the Lord Jesus against wicked spirits, saying, ‘I order you in the name of Jesus, the one whom Paul preaches ...’ ¹⁴ And Sceva (a Judean Chief Priest) had seven sons who were doing this. ¹⁵ However, one of the wicked spirits said to them: ‘I know Jesus, and I’m familiar with Paul, but just who are you?’ ¹⁶ And with that, the man who was possessed by a wicked spirit jumped on them, overpowered each one, and beat them up... so they had to run from the house naked and injured.

¹⁷ Well before long, everyone in Ephesus (both the Jews and the Greeks) came to know about this, and it frightened them. As the result, the name of the Lord Jesus kept growing in praise,¹⁸ and many that became believers would come and openly confess, telling of [the bad] things that they had done.¹⁹ In fact, several who used to practice magic brought their books together and burned them up in front of everyone. And when they calculated how much they'd paid for them, they found that they [were worth] some fifty thousand silver coins.²⁰ So the power of the word of the Lord kept growing and getting stronger there.

²¹ Then after all these things had happened, Paul resolved that he would travel to Macedonia and Achaea, and from there on to JeruSalem. And he told them: 'And after I get there, I want to see Rome!' ²² So he sent two of those who served him (Timothy and Erastus) on to Macedonia, as he spent more time in [the province of] Asia.

²³ However, a big disturbance thereafter arose [in Asia] because of The Way. ²⁴ For there was a man named Demetrius who was a silversmith that made silver shrines of Artemis (it was a very profitable business for him and his employees). ²⁵ So he gathered them all, along with others in his trade, and he said: 'Men; You know that we all make a very good living from this business. ²⁶ But now you're seeing and hearing how this Paul is persuading large numbers of people and making converts of them not only in Ephesus but in almost all [the province of] Asia, saying that or our hand-made gods really aren't gods! ²⁷ [Such teachings] not only endanger our business by damaging its reputation, but [soon] it will make the temple of the great goddess Artemis unimportant, and her magnificence (which the whole [province of] Asia and the entire land worships) is about to be brought to nothing!'

²⁸ Well when they heard this, they all became very angry and started shouting, 'Great is Artemis of the Ephesians,' ²⁹ and the whole city became filled with confusion. So at that, they rushed into the theater and grabbed Gaius and AristArchus (Macedonians who traveled with Paul). ³⁰ And though Paul wanted to go to visit them in public, the disciples wouldn't allow it. ³¹ For even some of the public game commissioners (who were friends of Paul) sent word to him, begging him not to enter the theater.

³² In the meantime, some [in the theater] were shouting one thing and others were shouting something else, for the whole group was confused and most of them didn't even know why they were there. ³³ So they located Alexander in the midst of the crowd, and the Judeans pushed him up to the front. Then Alexander started waving his hands to defend himself before the people. ³⁴ But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they started a shout that lasted for two hours: 'Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!'

³⁵ Well when the City Recorder finally quieted the crowd, he said: 'Men! Ephesians! Who in the world doesn't know that the City of Ephesus is the place where the temple of the Great Artemis and the image that fell from the sky is kept? ³⁶ So, since these things are undeniable, it would be better if you'd just calm down and not act so foolishly!

³⁷ 'Now, you've grabbed hold of these men, who aren't guilty of robbing Temples or blaspheming our goddess. ³⁸ But if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a case against them... [remember that] there are court days and there are governors! So, let them bring charges there. ³⁹ If you're looking for anything beyond that, it has to be decided in a legal hearing!

⁴⁰ 'Recognize that you are really in danger of being charged with rioting today, and you don't have a good reason for doing this! Who can explain this disorderly mob?'

⁴¹ And after he said that, he sent them all home.

Chapter 20

¹ Well, after all the rioting was over, Paul sent for the disciples and encouraged them before he said goodbye and left for Macedonia. ² Then after traveling around there encouraging the people with many speeches, he went on to Greece, ³ where he spent the next three months... but then the Jews [in Greece] started plotting against him. And though he had first decided to leave for Syria, he later changed his mind and returned through Macedonia.

⁷ Then on Sunday, when we met to have a meal, Paul gave a public speech (because he was going to leave the next day). This went on until midnight, ⁸ so many lamps were lit in the upstairs room where we met.

⁹ However, there was a young man named EuTychus that was sitting in a window and fell fast asleep while Paul was talking... he slumped over and fell out of the third-story window. And when they went to pick him up, they found him dead. ¹⁰ But then, Paul then went downstairs and threw himself on top of man, hugged him, and said, ‘Don’t worry; he’s still alive!’ ¹¹ So he went back upstairs and started the meal, and they all ate and talked until daybreak, before [Paul] finally had to leave.

¹² Meanwhile, they had taken the boy [home] alive, and everyone was extremely encouraged.

¹³ From there, we went on ahead of Paul by boat and sailed to Assos, where we waited for him (because that’s what he told us to do), since he was going to travel there on foot. ¹⁴ So when he caught up with us in Assos, we took him aboard and we went on to Mitylene. ¹⁵ Then we sailed from there the next day, coming ashore across from Chios, and on the following day we stopped at Samos, then we finally got to Miletus the day after that.

¹⁶ Now, Paul had planned to sail past Ephesus so he wouldn’t have to spend any time in the [province of] Asia, because he was in a hurry to get to JeruSalem before Pentecost if he could. ¹⁷ However, [while he was] in Miletus, he sent word to Ephesus to call the elders of the congregation to him. ¹⁸ And when they arrived, he told them: ‘You know very well that from the first day I stepped foot into Asia, I was with you all the time, ¹⁹ humbly slaving for the Lord, and [you know] of all the tears and trials that I endured because of the plots of the Jews. ²⁰ Yet, I didn't fail to remind you and teach you both [in public and in \[your\] homes](#); ²¹ for I thoroughly testified to both Jews and Greeks about [their need to] repent before God and to put faith in our Lord Jesus.

²² 'But now {Look!} I will be traveling to JeruSalem as though I were already in chains, for I don't know what's going to happen to me there. ²³ [All I know is that] in city after city, the Holy Breath keeps testifying to me, telling me that chains and difficulties are awaiting me there. ²⁴ However, I refuse to say anything that would make my life more valuable to me, so I can faithfully finish my course and fulfill the service assignment that I received from the Lord Jesus... to give a complete testimony about the good news of God's loving care.

²⁵ 'Now, {Look!} because I know that all of you to whom I preached the Kingdom will see my face no more; ²⁶ I'm testifying to you today that I'm clean from the blood of all men, ²⁷ for I haven't held back from telling any of you what God has purposed to do. ²⁸ Therefore, you need to pay close attention to yourselves and to the whole flock over which the Holy Breath has appointed you watchmen and shepherds... this congregation of God that He purchased with the blood of [His own Son]. ²⁹ For I know that after I leave, oppressive wolves will enter among you who won't spare the flock, ³⁰ and that men from among you will arise and speak twisted things to attract some of the disciples toward following them. ³¹ So, you must stay awake... and keep those three years in mind during which I didn't stop counseling each of you tearfully, both night and day.

³² 'Now I'm leaving you the loving care of our Lord who can build you up and give you an inheritance among all the Holy Ones.

³³ '[You know that] I haven't longed for anyone's silver, gold, or clothing; ³⁴ for you're aware of how I've used my own hands to take care of my own needs and [for the needs] of those who were with me. ³⁵ I've demonstrated to you how important it is for us to work like this, so we can help those who are weak. Therefore, remember the words that were said by our Lord Jesus: There is more happiness in giving than there is in receiving.'

³⁶ And after he said this, he kneeled down with them all and prayed.

³⁷ Well, many tears flowed as they hugged Paul's neck and tenderly kissed him. ³⁸ For when he said that they wouldn't see his face again, they were deeply saddened. And from there, they all accompanied him out to the ship.

Chapter 21

¹ Well, when we finally tore ourselves away from them and put out to sea, we ran straight over to Cos, then to Rhodes the next day, and from there to Patara. ² And when we found a boat that was going to Phoenicia, we went aboard and sailed off.

⁵ [Then a week later], we got ready to continue our journey; and everyone (including the women and children) followed us outside of the city. And after kneeling down on the beach, we had a prayer ⁶ before saying goodbye to each other. Then we boarded the ship, as they returned to their homes.

⁷ Well after we left Tyre, we finally arrived at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and spent the day with them. ⁸ Then on the next day, we traveled to Caesarea, where we went to the house of Philip the Evangelizer (one of the seven men), and stayed with him. ⁹ This man had four virgin daughters who all prophesied.

¹⁰ But after we'd stayed there for several days, a Prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹ He walked right up to us and removed Paul's sash, then he used it to tie up his own hands and feet, and said, 'This is what the Holy Breath has declared: The Judeans will bind the man to whom this sash belongs, and then hand him over to the gentiles.’

¹² Well when we heard this, we all (everyone there) started begging [Paul] not to go to JeruSalem. ¹³ But Paul replied: ‘Why are you crying and crushing my heart? I’m not only ready to be bound, but also to die in JeruSalem for the name of our Lord Jesus.’ ¹⁴ And when we couldn’t change his mind, we gave in, saying, ‘May [God’s] Will be done.’

¹⁵ So after several days, we prepared for the journey and headed toward JeruSalem. ¹⁶ Meanwhile, some of the disciples from Caesarea traveled with us and led us to the home of a man who showed us some hospitality... Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple.

¹⁷ Well when we arrive in JeruSalem, the brothers were all happy to see us. ¹⁸ And the next [day], we went with Paul to see James and the rest of the elders. ¹⁹ So [Paul] greeted them and started giving a detailed account of the things that God had done among the nations through his ministry.

²⁰ And after hearing about it, they glorified God.

Then they said to him: ‘Our brother; You know how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they all zealously obey the Law.

²¹ But they’ve heard the rumor that you’re teaching Jews who live among the nations an apostasy from Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to follow our traditions. ²² So, what do you suppose we can do about this? Since they’re going to hear that you’ve arrived, ²³ this is what we are telling you to do: We have four men who have taken a sacred vow... ²⁴ take them with you, and all of you should cleanse yourselves ceremonially, then pay to have your heads shaved. That way, everyone will know that there’s no truth to the rumors we’ve heard about you, and that you’re personally following the rules and obeying the Law. ²⁵ As for the gentiles who’ve become believers; We’ve already sent them our decision to stay free from things that are sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things that are strangled, and from sexual immorality.’

²⁶ So the next day, Paul took the [four] men along and they cleansed themselves ceremonially. Then they entered the Temple to give their notice of their ceremonial cleansing (to start counting the days until an offering should be made for each of them).²⁷ But when the seven days were about up, some Judeans from [the province of] Asia saw him in the Temple and started a riot among the crowd... they grabbed him,²⁸ shouting, ‘Men of IsraEl! Help! This is the man who is teaching against our people, and against the Law and this place to everyone everywhere. He has even defiled this Holy Place by bringing Greeks into the Temple!’²⁹ ([They said this], because they had seen him in the city earlier with Trophimus the Ephesian, and they thought that Paul had also brought him into the Temple).

³⁰ Well, the whole city was in an uproar and many people started running there. So they grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, then they closed the [Temple] doors³¹ and tried to kill him. But when the commander of the [Roman] garrison heard the uproar there in JeruSalem,³² he immediately took a contingent of officers and soldiers, and ran down to them. So when [the mob] saw the commander coming with his soldiers, they stopped beating on Paul.

³³ However, the commander then arrested [Paul] and ordered him to be bound with two chains. Thereafter, he asked [the mob] who he was and what he had done.³⁴ However, some in the crowd started shouting one thing and others were shouting something else. So, because he was unable to be sure of anything (due to all the confusion), he commanded [that Paul] should be taken back to their garrison.

³⁵ Well, when they reached the [garrison] stairs, the situation got even worse. For the mob became so violent that the soldiers had to literally carry [Paul] along...³⁶ as the people followed them shouting, ‘Take him away!’

³⁷ Then, as he was being carried into the garrison, Paul asked the commander: ‘Am I allowed to say something to you?’

And he replied: ‘Can you speak Greek?³⁸ Aren’t you the Egyptian who started a rebellion and led four-thousand dagger men into the desert some time ago?’

³⁹ But Paul said: ‘I’m really a Jew from Tarsus in Kilikia... I’m a citizen of a well-known city. So I beg you; Allow me to speak to the people!’

⁴⁰ Well at that, he gave Paul permission. So [Paul] stood on the stairs and waved his arms [to quiet] the crowd. And when everything quieted down, he spoke to them in Hebrew, saying:

Chapter 22

¹ ‘Men... brothers and fathers! Allow me to say something in my own defense now.’

² Well, when they heard him addressing them in Hebrew, things did get quieter. And he said, ³ ‘I’m a Jew who was born in Tarsus of Kilikia. I went to school right here in this city, and I received my instruction at the feet of GamaliEl, who taught me to obey the Law of our fathers strictly and to show the same zeal for God that you’re showing today.

⁴ ‘I personally persecuted this Way, by arresting and delivering their men and women to prisons for execution. ⁵ The High Priest and the entire assembly of elders can testify to this, because I obtained letters from them to our brothers in Damascus, where I went to bring all those whom they had in prison back to JeruSalem for punishment. ⁶ But as I was on my way and getting close to Damascus, at about noon, a bright light in the sky flashed all around me. ⁷ Then I fell to the ground and I heard a voice say to me, Saul; Saul; Why are you persecuting me? ⁸ So I asked, Who are you, Lord? And he replied, I’m Jesus the Nazarene, the one whom you’re persecuting.

⁹ ‘Well, the men who were with me also saw the light, but they didn’t hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me. ¹⁰ Then I asked, What must I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me: Get up and go into Damascus. There you will be told of everything that you’ve been assigned to do. ¹¹ However, since I could no longer see due to the brilliance of that light, those who were [traveling] with me had to lead me into Damascus by the hand.

¹² ‘Now, AnaNias (a man who devoutly obeyed the Law and who was well spoken of by all the Judeans who live there) ¹³ came and stood next to me. Then he said, Saul... Brother... See again! And I could immediately see him.

¹⁴ ‘Then he said: The God of our fathers has selected you to learn about His Will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice from his mouth,
¹⁵ because you are to be his witness to everything that you’ve seen and heard. ¹⁶ So now, why are you wasting time? Get up, get baptized, and wash your sins away by calling on his name.

¹⁷ ‘Then, after I got back to JeruSalem and while I was praying in the Temple, I fell into a trance where I saw [Jesus]. ¹⁸ And he told me: Hurry! You must leave JeruSalem right away, because the [people here] don’t want to listen to your testimony about me!

¹⁹ ‘But I said: Lord; they all know very well that in one synagogue after another I once had all those who believe in you arrested and whipped. ²⁰ And when the blood of your witness Stephen was being spilled, I stood there and approved... in fact, I guarded the robes of those who did away with him!

²¹ Well at that, he just told me: Leave, because I’m sending you to far-away nations.’

²² Now, they had been listening to him until he said that; but then they started shouting, ‘Kill this man, for he isn’t fit to live!’ ²³ And because they were shouting, throwing their clothes around and tossing dirt in the air, ²⁴ the commander ordered that Paul should be taken inside their garrison. There he gave orders to scourge him with a whip so as to force him to explain why everyone was shouting about him that way.

²⁵ But when they stretched him out to be whipped, Paul asked the centurion who was standing there, ‘Is it legal for you to whip a man who is a Roman and hasn’t been charged with a crime?’

²⁶ Well, when the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and asked, ‘Just what do you intend for us to do? This man is a Roman!’

²⁷ So the commander came to [Paul] and asked, ‘Tell me; Are you a Roman?’

And he answered, ‘Yes.’

²⁸ Then the commander said, ‘Why, I paid a lot to obtain my citizenship.’

And Paul said, ‘I was born [a citizen].’

²⁹ Well at that, the men who were about to torture him left immediately. And on learning that he had arrested a Roman [citizen], the military commander was frightened. ³⁰ So the next day, because he wanted to know for sure just what the Jews were accusing him of; he [unshackled] him and commanded the Chief Priests and the entire Jewish Court to assemble. Then he brought Paul down and stood him before them.

Chapter 23

¹ Well, Paul just glared at the [judges of the] Jewish Court, and said: ‘Men... Brothers... I have a perfectly clear conscience about the way that I’ve been behaving before God down to this day.’

² And at that, the High Priest AnaNias ordered those who were standing by him to hit him in the mouth.

³ So Paul said: ‘God is going to hit you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit there judging me by the Law, and at the same time break the Law by telling them to hit me?’

⁴ Then those who were standing by him said: ‘Are you speaking against the High Priest of God?’

⁵ And Paul answered: ‘Brothers; I didn’t know he was the High Priest. For it’s written: You must not speak badly of the one who rules your people.’

⁶ Then when Paul noticed that part of the group were SadDucees and the rest were Pharisees, he called out in the High Court: ‘Men... Brothers... it is because I’m a Pharisee and the son of Pharisee that I’m being judged over my hope in the resurrection of the dead!’ ⁷ And after he said this, quite an argument broke out between the Pharisees and SadDucees, which divided the crowd, ⁸ since the SadDucees say there is no such thing as a resurrection, or [divine] messengers, or the Breath [of God]. However, the Pharisees publicly preach all of those things. ⁹ So there was a lot of shouting, and some of the Pharisees’ scribes stood up and started heatedly arguing, saying, ‘We don’t find anything wrong with this man! For if the Breath [of God] or [one of His] messengers spoke to him... ‘

¹⁰ Well, the argument became so heated that the commander feared that they would pull Paul to pieces. So he ordered the soldiers to go down and take him from their midst and bring him back to their garrison.

¹¹ Then on the following night, the Lord stood next to [Paul] and said: ‘Be strong! So far, you’ve thoroughly testified to things about me in JeruSalem... but now you must also testify about me in Rome.’

¹² Well, the next morning, the Judeans formed an alliance and they all swore with a curse that they wouldn’t eat or drink until after they had killed Paul ¹³ (there were more than forty men who formed this oath-bound conspiracy). ¹⁴ So they went to the Chief Priests and elders and said: ‘We’ve taken a solemn oath with a curse not to take a bite of food until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ Therefore, we want you and the High Court to explain to the military commander that he should bring [Paul] to you so you can learn more about the charges against him... and we’ll be ready to do away with him before he gets there!’

¹⁶ However, Paul’s nephew heard that they would be laying for him, so he went to the garrison and reported it to Paul. ¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the centurions and said: ‘Take this young man to the commander, because he has something to report.’

¹⁸ So [the soldier] took [Paul’s nephew] to the commander and told him: ‘The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you.’

¹⁹ Well, the commander took him by the hand and led him in, then he asked him privately: ‘What is it that you want to report to me?’

²⁰ And he answered: ‘The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Jewish Court tomorrow, pretending to want to learn more about the charges against him. ²¹ But whatever you do, don’t let them convince you to do this, because they have more than forty men who are waiting to ambush him. These men have sworn an oath with a curse not to eat or drink anything until they've done away with him. And all they're awaiting is a promise from you.'

²² So at that, the commander sent the young man away, giving him the order: 'Don't tell anyone that you've explained this to me.'

²³ Then he called in two of his centurions and said: 'I want you to get two hundred soldiers ready, plus seventy cavalymen and two hundred spearmen... have them prepared to march all the way to Caesarea at eight o'clock tonight. ²⁴ Also, provide animals for Paul to ride, for I want you to carry him safely to Governor Felix.'

²⁵ Then he wrote a letter that read like this:

²⁶ 'Claudius Lysias to the mighty Governor Felix: Rejoice!

²⁷ This man was seized by the Jews and they were about to do away with him. However, I came there quickly with a contingent of soldiers and rescued him, because I learned that he was a Roman. ²⁸ And because I wanted to know their accusation against him, I had him taken down to their High Court. ²⁹ There I found that they had only accused him over questions having to do with their Law... but he hadn't been charged with anything that deserves death or jail. ³⁰ However, because I learned of a plot against this man, I'm sending him to you right away, and I'm ordering his accusers to speak against him there before you.'

³¹ So these soldiers followed their orders and they took Paul to AntiPatris that night.

³² Then the next day, they sent him on with the cavalry (which later returned to the garrison). ³³ And when they got to Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor along with Paul.

³⁴ Well, after he read the letter, [Felix] asked [Paul] which province he was from. And when he heard that he was from Kilikia, he said: ³⁵ 'I'll give you a thorough hearing after your accusers get here.'

So then he gave orders that [Paul] should be kept under guard in the Praetorian Palace of Herod.

Chapter 24

¹ Well, five days later, High Priest AnaNias arrived with some elders and an orator named Tertullus, and they explained their accusations against Paul to the governor. ² Then when he was called forward, Tertullus said this:

‘You’ve brought about so much peace, and we welcome the well-thought-out reforms that you’ve brought to our nation ³ in every way and everywhere with the greatest thankfulness, O mighty Felix. ⁴ But, so that I don’t waste any of your time, I beg you to hear us briefly, in your kindness.

⁵ ‘We found this man (this plague) stirring up rebellions among the Judeans throughout the whole inhabited earth, for he’s the leader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶ And when he tried to profane our Temple, we arrested him. ⁷ ——— ⁸ You can examine him yourself to learn more about all these things that we’re saying against him.’

⁹ And at that, the Judeans also joined in the attack, affirming that the things [Tertullus] said were true.

¹⁰ Thereafter, the governor nodded for Paul to speak. And Paul said: ‘I know very well that you’ve been the judge of our nation for many years. So I’m happy to speak in my own defense about these things that I’ve been accused of, ¹¹ since you are in a good position to understand them.

‘It hasn’t been more than twelve days since I went to worship in JeruSalem, ¹² and they didn’t find me in the Temple arguing with anyone, nor did they find me inciting a riot in the synagogues... or anywhere else in the city for that matter! ¹³ So right now, they can’t prove any of the things they’re accusing me of before you. ¹⁴ But I do admit to this: That which they’re calling a sect, is nothing more than the way that I’ve always worshipped the God of my fathers. For I believe everything that is written in the Law and in the Prophets, ¹⁵ and I have this hope in God (which they also share) that there’s going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. ¹⁶ This is why I’m constantly on the alert so as to not offend my conscience by doing anything against God or men. ¹⁷ And this is also the reason why, after [being gone for] several years, I returned [to JeruSalem]... to bring gifts to the poor in my nation and to present my offerings [before God].

¹⁸ ‘But, it was while I was doing this that they found me in the Temple (ceremonially cleansed, by the way), and I wasn’t there with a mob, nor did I start a riot... really, some Jews from the [province of] Asia ¹⁹ should be here before you to accuse me, if they could find anything against me. ²⁰ And why don’t you ask these who are here to tell you what bad things they found me doing as I stood before their High Court... ²¹ there was just the thing that I shouted while I was standing among them when I said, I am being judged before you today over the resurrection of the dead!’

²² Well, although Felix knew a lot about things that have to do with the Way, he just put them all off, saying, ‘When Commander Lysias gets here, I’ll make a decision on this matter that you’re so concerned about.’

²³ And thereafter, [Felix] ordered the centurion not to kill [Paul], but to allow him some liberty, and not to prevent his people from serving his needs.

²⁴ It was several days later that Felix arrived with his woman Drouille. And since she was a Jew, he sent for Paul and they listened to him talk about his belief in the Anointed Jesus. ²⁵ However, Felix became frightened when Paul started talking about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment; so he said, ‘That’s enough for now! Go on back, and when I have more time, I’ll send for you again.’ ²⁶ (However, he really hoped that Paul would try to bribe him; so he sent for him and talked to him frequently).

²⁷ Well after two years, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And because Felix wanted to be liked by the Jews, he kept Paul locked up.

Chapter 25

¹ It was just three days after Festus had been appointed the provincial governor that he traveled from Caesarea to JeruSalem. ² And there the Chief Priests and Judean leaders talked to him about Paul. ³ They begged him (asking it as a favor) to send [Paul] to JeruSalem... since they planned to ambush and kill him along the road. ⁴ However, Festus replied that he would just keep Paul in Caesarea. But because he would be leaving [JeruSalem] shortly, he said to them, ⁵ ‘Those of you who have been empowered to do so should come back with me, and if he has committed some crime, you can make your accusations against him there.’

⁶ Well, after he had spent about eight to ten days [in JeruSalem], Festus returned to Caesarea. And the next day, he sat on the Judgment Seat and ordered to have Paul brought in. ⁷ And when [Paul] arrived, the Jews who had come from JeruSalem stood all around him and charged him with several serious offenses... however, they couldn’t prove anything.

⁸ Then Paul stood up and spoke in his own defense, saying, ‘I haven’t committed any sins against the Law of the Jews, against the Temple, or against Caesar!’

⁹ However, Festus (in an attempt to gain favor with the Jews) asked Paul: ‘Do you want to go back to JeruSalem and be judged over these things before me there?’

¹⁰ But Paul said: ‘I’m standing before the Judgment Seat of Caesar, and this is where I ought to be judged! I’ve done nothing wrong to the Judeans, as you’re finding out for yourself. ¹¹ However, if I really am a criminal and have done something that I should die for, I’m not begging off from dying. On the other hand, if none of the things they are accusing me of are true, then no one can just hand me over to them as a favor. Therefore, I appeal to Caesar!’

¹² Well after discussing it with his counselors, Festus replied: ‘You have appealed to Caesar, so to Caesar you will go!’

¹³ Then, after several days had passed, Agrippa \(the king\) and Bernice arrived in Caesarea to pay a courtesy visit on Festus. ¹⁴ So, since they were to spend several days there, Festus laid the matter of Paul before the king, saying, ‘There’s a man here who was left as a prisoner by Felix. ¹⁵ And when I was in JeruSalem, the Chief Priests and Judean elders brought me some information about him and asked me to condemn him to death. ¹⁶ But I told them that it isn't the Roman way to just hand a man over as a favor before he meets his accusers face to face and gets a chance to speak in his own defense. ¹⁷ So when they got here, I didn't delay the matter... the next day I sat down on the Judgment Seat and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸ And when they came [before me], his accusers didn't really produce any serious charges as I thought they would. ¹⁹ They simply complained about some dispute they had with him over questions about their religion and about some Jesus who was dead, but whom Paul kept claiming was alive!

²⁰ 'Well, I became so confused over the matter that I finally asked if he would like to go to JeruSalem to be judged there over these matters. ²¹ But when Paul appealed to be bound over for a decision by the August One, I ordered him to be held until I can send him to Caesar.'

²² So Agrippa told Festus: 'I'd like to hear from this man also.'

And he said: 'Tomorrow you will hear him!'

²³ Then the next day, Agrippa and Bernice arrived with a lot of pomp and ceremony and went into the hearing room along with some military commanders and prominent men from the city. And when Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in.

²⁴ So Festus said: 'O King Agrippa and all of you who are here with us; Now you can see this man about whom all the Judeans both here and in JeruSalem are shouting that he shouldn't be allowed to live any longer. ²⁵ However, I haven't found anything that he's done to deserve death; so when he appealed to the August One, I decided to send him there... ²⁶ but I really don't have anything to write to [my] lord about. Therefore, I brought him here before you... and especially before you, King Agrippa, so you can examine him and judge something that I might write. ²⁷ For it seems unreasonable to send a prisoner [to Rome] and not be able to specify the charges against him.'

Chapter 26

¹ So at that, Agrippa said to Paul: 'You may now speak on your own behalf.'

Well, Paul stretched his hands out and said this in his defense: ² ‘King Agrippa; I’m happy to be here so as to defend myself before you today over all these things that I’ve been accused of by the Jews, ³ because you’re an expert on all Judean customs and controversies. Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

⁴ ‘This is the way that I’ve lived since I was a boy: From long ago, everyone in my nation (all in JeruSalem and all the Jews ⁵ who used to know me) can testify to the fact that I was raised in the strictest sect of our type of worship... I was a Pharisee. ⁶ And now, it’s over the hope of a promise that was made by God to our ancestors that I’m standing here being judged, ⁷ since it’s concerning the hope of attaining this, that our twelve tribes have been so earnestly serving [God] night and day. And it’s over this same hope that I’m being accused by these Judeans, O king. ⁸ For, why is it that they all find it so unbelievable that God can raise the dead?

⁹ ‘For a fact, I once thought that it was right to do whatever I could to oppose the name of Jesus the Nazarene... ¹⁰ and I did this in JeruSalem. Back then, I locked up many of the Holy Ones and threw them in jail, because I was authorized to do this by the Chief Priests. And as they were being brought up for execution, I voted against them! ¹¹ I often punished them in synagogues and tried to make them commit blasphemy; and since I was so crazy [in my hatred] against them, I even traveled to other cities to persecute them.

¹² ‘Well, it was while I was doing this that I traveled to Damascus with an authorization and a commission from the Chief Priests. ¹³ Then at noon, as I was [walking along] the road, O king, I saw a light that was brighter than the sun, which flashed from the sky around me and those who were traveling with me. ¹⁴ Then we all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice say to me in Hebrew: Saul; Saul; Why are you persecuting me, and why are you trying so hard to keep kicking against the goad?’

¹⁵ ‘Then I asked, Who are you Lord?

‘And the Lord replied: I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶ Now, get up and stand on your feet. I’ve made myself visible to you so as to take you ahead of time to be my servant, and you can testify to the fact that you saw me and all the things that I'm going to make you see. ¹⁷ For I'm selecting you out of the people and out of the nations where I'm going to send you, ¹⁸ to open their eyes, to turn them from darkness to light, and to lead them from the power of the Opposer toward God. I'm doing this so that their sins can be forgiven and they can receive an inheritance among those who have been made holy by [their] faith in me.

¹⁹ 'As the result, O King Agrippa; I didn't disobey this vision from the heavens. ²⁰ First I went to those in Damascus, then to those in JeruSalem and the entire countryside around Judea... and finally to the gentiles, to whom I carried the message that they should repent and turn to God by doing things that prove their repentance. ²¹ And this is why the Judeans grabbed me in the Temple and tried to beat me to death!

²² 'However, through the help of God, I've kept witnessing to both the least and the greatest down to this day. I haven't been saying anything other than what the Prophets and Moses told us would happen... ²³ that the Anointed One was to go to suffer. And then as the first to be resurrected from the dead, he was going to proclaim light to these gentiles.'

²⁴ Now, while he was saying these things in his defense, Festus shouted: 'You're crazy, Paul! All of the writings are driving you mad!'

²⁵ But Paul said, 'I'm not going crazy, O mighty Festus; I'm telling you things that are true and make good sense! ²⁶ For a fact, the king that I'm speaking to openly knows a lot about these things! I believe that none of this has escaped his notice, because none of it was done off in some corner! ²⁷ King Agrippa; Do you believe the Prophets? I know that you believe!'

²⁸ But Agrippa said to Paul: 'It wouldn't take long for you to convince me to become a Christian also!'

²⁹ And at this, Paul said: 'I wish to God (whether it takes a short time or a long time) that not only you, but also everyone who hears me today would become men just like me... except for these chains.'

³⁰ Then the king got up, as did the governor, Bernice, and the men who were sitting with them. ³¹ And as they were walking out, they were talking to each other, saying, ‘This man hasn’t done anything deserving of death, or even for which he should be locked up!’

³² Then Agrippa said to Festus: ‘This man could have been released if he hadn’t appealed to Caesar.’

Chapter 27

¹ Well, since it had been decided that we had to sail away to Italy, they handed Paul (along with some other prisoners) over to a centurion named Julius, who was [a soldier] of the Augustus Division. ² So we boarded a ship along with AristArchus (a Macedonian from ThesSalonica).

Now, the ship had come from AdraMyttium, and it was sailing to places along the coast of the [province of] Asia. ³ So the next day, when we landed at Sidon, Julius treated Paul very kindly by allowing him to visit friends who cared for his needs.

⁴ From there we sailed around Cyprus, because the winds were against us. ⁵ Then we got into the open sea [south of] Kilikia and PamPhylia, and we put into port at Myra in Lukias. ⁶ There the centurion found a ship that was coming from Alexandria and sailing for Italy, which he made us board. ⁷ Then after sailing slowly (and with a lot of difficulty) for several days, we stopped at Knidos. And because the winds wouldn’t let us go on, we sailed [south of] Salmone, Crete. ⁸ Then following the coastline carefully, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

⁹ Well, since we had lost so much time (it was already past [Yom Kippur]) and the sea was hazardous to navigate, Paul made a recommendation. ¹⁰ He said: ‘Men; I see that any further navigation is going to result in damage and huge losses not only to the cargo and ship, but to our lives!’

¹¹ However, the army officer preferred to listened to the pilot and the ship’s owner, rather than to what Paul was saying.

¹² Now, since this harbor was a poor place to winter, the majority recommended that they set sail and go on, in an attempt to make it to Phoenix, where they could spend the winter (it's a harbor in Crete that has openings to the northeast and southeast).

¹³ Well when the south wind started blowing gently, they thought that this would meet their needs. So they weighed anchor and coasted along the shore next to Crete. ¹⁴ But after a little while, a typhoon wind they call the Euro Clydeon bore down on us. ¹⁵ And because the ship was being tossed so violently that it couldn't maintain its heading, we just gave up and [allowed ourselves to be] carried along by the wind.

¹⁶ Then when we passed south of a small island called Cauda, we used all our strength to get hold of the rowboat that was tied at the rear of the ship. ¹⁷ And after we hoisted it aboard, they started wrapping the ship with [ropes and chains]. And since they were afraid of running aground on the shoals, they lowered the masts and we were just carried along.

¹⁸ Then on the next day (because we were still being violently tossed by the storm), they started to lighten the ship. ¹⁹ And by the third [day], they had tossed all the boat's furnishings overboard with their own hands.

²⁰ Now, since we hadn't seen the sun or stars for several days and a storm was still over us, we had lost any hope of being saved... ²¹ and considerable time had elapsed since anyone had been able to eat.

But then Paul stood up in the midst of them and said, 'Men; You certainly should have taken my advice and not put out to sea from Crete, just to suffer this kind of damage and loss. ²² But now I'm telling you to be happy, because not a single life will be lost... though the ship will [be lost]. ²³ For a messenger from the God whom I serve and to whom I belong came to me this evening and said: ²⁴ Don't be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. And {Look!} God has favored you by also giving you [the lives of] those who are sailing with you.

²⁵ 'So be happy, men! Because, I believe that God will do exactly as He told me! ²⁶ However, we will be cast ashore on an island.'

²⁷ Well thereafter (on the evening starting the fourteenth day), as we were being carried along in the Adriatic Sea (at about midnight), the sailors thought that we might be getting close to land. ²⁸ So they did a depth sounding and found it at twenty fathoms. Then after we had traveled on a little farther, they took another depth sounding, and this time it was fifteen fathoms. ²⁹ So, because they were afraid that we might soon run aground on the rocks, they threw out four anchors at the stern and waited for daylight.

³⁰ Meanwhile, the crew tried to escape from the ship by lowering the rowboat into the sea as they were pretending to drop the anchors from the prow. ³¹ But Paul then told the centurion and his soldiers: ‘Unless those men stay on this ship, you can’t be saved.’ ³² So the soldiers cut away the ropes that held the rowboat and let it drop.

³³ Well, very close to dawn, Paul encouraged everyone to eat something, saying: ‘Today makes the fourteenth day that you’ve been on watch, and during all that time you’ve gone without food or taking anything else into you. ³⁴ So I encourage you to eat something, since that will help you to survive. Then, not so much as a hair on any of your heads will be destroyed!’

³⁵ And after he said this, he took a loaf [of bread], gave thanks to God before them all, broke it, and started eating. ³⁶ So they all became more cheerful and started eating some food.

³⁷ At the time, there were two hundred and seventy-six people on the ship. ³⁸ And after they’d eaten enough food, they lightened the boat some more by throwing all the wheat into the sea.

³⁹ However, when it finally became light, they didn’t recognize where they were... there was just a bay with a beach, and they decided to try to get to the beach in the ship. ⁴⁰ So they cut away the anchors, letting them drop into the sea; then they untied the ropes that held the rudder, hoisted the foresail to the wind, and headed for the beach... ⁴¹ but then they hit a shoal out in the water, where the ship ran aground (the prow was stuck and it couldn’t be moved), and the stern started falling apart in the crashing waves. ⁴² So the soldiers decided to kill the prisoners to keep them from swimming away and escaping.⁴³ But because the centurion wanted Paul to make it, he prevented them from doing that. He told everyone who could swim to dive into the sea and get to the shore first,⁴⁴ then the rest could [float in] on planks and other things from the ship... and that's how everyone got to land safely.

Chapter 28

¹ Well, after we made it to safety, we recognized that this was the island of Malta. ² There the native people found us and showed us uncommon hospitality, building a fire and welcoming all of us in the cold and the rain.

³ Then when Paul went and collected a bundle of sticks and laid it on the fire, a viper was driven out by the heat, which bit into his hand. ⁴ And when the native people saw this dangerous animal hanging from his hand, they said to each other: 'This man must be a murderer; for though he made it to safety from the sea, justice isn't going to allow him to live!'

⁵ But [Paul] just shook the animal off into the fire, and he didn't suffer any ill effects... ⁶ though they thought he was going to swell up and suddenly drop dead. However, after they had waited a long time and saw that nothing bad happen to him, they started saying that he was a god!

⁷ Fortunately, there was some property located nearby that belonged to the island's leader ([a man] named Publius). He also welcomed us and treated us kindly and hospitably for the next three days. ⁸ Then when Publius' father became very sick with a fever and dysentery, Paul went into his room and prayed, then he laid his hands on him and healed him. ⁹ Well after that, the rest of the sick people on the island also started coming to him to be cured, ¹⁰ honoring us with many gifts, and several brought us provisions that we would need.

¹¹ It was three months later that a boat from Alexandria called The Sons of Zeus (which had been wintering on the island) finally took us aboard ¹² and carried us to Syracuse, where we stayed for three days. ¹³ Then from there, we traveled around [Sicily] and arrived at Rheggium. And a day after that, we caught a south wind and made it to Puteoli in just two days, ¹⁴ where we found some of our brothers who begged us to stay with them for the next seven days. Then from there, we traveled on to Rome.

¹⁵ Well, when the brothers [in Rome] got the news about us, they came as far as the Market of Appius and the Three Shops to meet us. And when Paul saw them, he thanked God, because he was very encouraged. ¹⁶ Then when we finally entered Rome, they allowed Paul to live on his own, with just a soldier to guard him.

¹⁷ Then three days later, he called a meeting of the local Jewish leaders. And after they had assembled, he said this to them: ‘Men... Brothers... Although I haven’t done anything against our people or against the customs of our ancestors, I was taken prisoner in JeruSalem and handed over to the Romans. ¹⁸ But after [the Romans] examined me, they wanted to release me, because they couldn’t find any reason to put me to death. ¹⁹ However, when the Judeans kept opposing [my release], I was forced to appeal to Caesar... though I didn’t do this in order to accuse my nation.

²⁰ ‘Well, this is why I begged to see you and to talk to you... for it’s because of the hopes of IsraEl that I have this chain around me!’

²¹ Then they told [Paul]: ‘We haven’t received any letters about you from Judea, nor have any of the brothers who’ve arrived from there reported or said anything bad against you. ²² So we think it’s worthwhile for us to listen to what you have to say, because we know for a fact that this sect is spoken against everywhere.’

²³ Well after that, they arranged for a day when many more could come to hear him at the place where he was staying. And there he laid things out for them by completely testifying about the Kingdom of God. He also reasoned with them about Jesus from morning until evening, citing both the Law of Moses and the Prophets. ²⁴ But though some started to believe what he was saying, the rest didn’t. ²⁵ And since they couldn’t reach a consensus, they all got ready to leave. So Paul said this: ‘The Holy Breath [of God] spoke very accurately to your ancestors through IsaiAh the Prophet, when he said:

²⁶ ‘You must go to these people and say:

*When you listen, you'll hear, but not understand.
And when you look, you'll look, but not see,
²⁷ For these peoples' hearts are closed.
So, though they can hear with their ears,
They will just not respond,
And they will have eyes that are closed.*

*'Thus, though they have eyes, they can't see,
Nor can they hear with their ears
Or understand with their hearts
And return, so I can bring healing to them.*

²⁸ 'Therefore, I'm warning you that God is now giving this hope of salvation to the gentiles... and they'll listen to it!' ²⁹ ———

³⁰ Well, he stayed in that rented house for two whole years, welcoming everyone who came to visit him, ³¹ telling them about the Kingdom of God and teaching them things about the Lord Jesus the Anointed One openly and without any interference.

Romans

A letter to the Christian congregation of Rome that was written (possibly in Aramaic) by Tertius for the Apostle Paul around 60-CE.

Chapter 1

⁷ To all those in Rome who are loved by God and have a holy calling; May you have favor and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus, the Anointed.

⁸ First, I thank my God for all of you through the Anointed Jesus, because your faith is being announced throughout the whole world. ⁹ For my God (who appointed me to use my breath in service to the good news about His Son) is my Witness that I never fail to mention you in my prayers. ¹⁰ I keep begging that I might find a way (as it is God's Will) to come to you sometime; ¹¹ for I long to see you so that I might be able to give you some spiritual gift that would make you unshakable... ¹² or perhaps we could encourage each other through our faith (both yours and mine).

¹³ I don't want you to fail to recognize this, brothers: I planned to come to you many times, but I've been prevented from doing so until now so that I could find the same type of fruitage that I have in you among the rest of the gentiles ¹⁴ (the Greeks and the barbarians, the wise and the ignorant... all those to whom I am indebted). ¹⁵ Yet, I'm still eager to preach the good news to you there in Rome also.

¹⁶ I'm not ashamed of the good news, because it's the power that God uses to save everyone who has faith... first the Jews, and then the Greeks. ¹⁷ For God's righteous ways are revealed in the faith of the faithful. Notice that it is written: 'It's by their faith that the righteous will live.'

¹⁸ However, God's rage is also being displayed from the heavens against all the ungodly and bad people who unrighteously try to resist the truth. ¹⁹ For everything that can be known about God already shines among them, because God made it shine among them! ²⁰ Indeed, His invisible qualities can be seen in everything that He's made since the creation of the cosmos. And when they understand these things that clearly demonstrate His eternal power and might, it leaves them without any excuses!

²¹ Yet, though they already know God, they don't glorify Him as God or thank Him. Therefore, their thoughts are wasted and their foolish hearts are darkened. ²² And while they claim to be wise, they've become morons, ²³ since they've turned the glory of the incorruptible God into images of corruptible men, or flying creatures, or four-footed creatures, or of things that slither. ²⁴ So God is allowing them the uncleanness that their hearts have desired so as to dishonor their bodies. ²⁵ Yes, they've exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and they've started worshiping and serving things that were created rather than the One who created them... the One who is to be praised through the ages, may it be so.

²⁶ So, this is why God has abandoned them to their dishonorable passions; for their females have changed the natural use of themselves into something that's unnatural, ²⁷ and the same is true of their males... they've left the natural use of females and started burning in their lust toward each other – males with males – doing what is indecent and receiving the reward that they deserve for such wrongdoing.

²⁸ Yes, because they don't approve of coming to an accurate knowledge of The God, He has given them depraved minds, which make them do these wrong things. ²⁹ So they've become filled with unrighteousness, wickedness, greediness, badness, envy, murder, arguing, deceitfulness, rudeness, and gossip. ³⁰ [They are] slanderers, God haters, insolent, proud, braggarts, inventors of badness, disobedient to parents, ³¹ without any understanding, agreement breakers, and without any natural love or mercy. ³² So though they know the righteous judgments of God very well (that those who do such things deserve death); they not only keep on doing them, but they also approve of others who do such things!

¹ So you are defenseless, O man, if you're someone who judges others; for when you judge others you're condemning yourselves, since you're doing the very same things that you judge [to be wrong in them]... ² and we know that God's judgment on those who do such things is righteous.

³ Therefore, when you judge those who do these things that you're also doing, do you think that you will somehow escape God's judgment... ⁴ or are you taking the loving care, patience, and tolerance that He's shown toward you for granted? What you should understand is that these [fine] qualities of God are just trying to lead you to repentance!

⁵ But now, because of your hard and unrepentant hearts, you're storing away a treasure of rage upon yourselves in that day of fury when the righteous decisions of God will be seen, ⁶ and He pays everyone back for the things that they've been doing.

⁷ Those who do good things are searching for age-long life, as well as glory, honor, and incorruption. ⁸ But for those who like to argue and disobey the truth by being unrighteous, there'll be just wrath, anger, ⁹ and some very hard times. Yes, this is what will come into the lives of all those who work at doing what's bad (to the Jews first and then to the Greeks). ¹⁰ However, there will be glory, honor, and peace for all those who work at doing what's good (for the Jews first and then for the Greeks), ¹¹ because God makes no distinction between them.

¹² Indeed, all those who are without the Law and who are sinning will perish without the Law, while those who are under the Law and who sin are condemned by the Law. ¹³ For God doesn't consider anyone righteous that just listens to the Law... only those who obey the Law will be found righteous.

¹⁴ However, when people of the nations who don't have the Law naturally obey things in the Law, they not only have the Law, they are the Law! ¹⁵ For when they are obeying the Laws, they show that it's written in their hearts and it's working with their consciences, which examine their thoughts. So, it's [their own hearts] that will either accuse them or defend them ¹⁶ in the Day that God judges the hidden things of men by this good news that I'm preaching through the Anointed Jesus.

¹⁷ So if you are called a Jew and you're resting on the Law and taking pride in your God, ¹⁸ and if you understand His Will and all the excellent instructions of the Law, ¹⁹ and if you think that you're a guide to the blind and a light to those who are in darkness ²⁰ (someone who can instruct the unreasonable and teach babies), and if you fully grasp all the knowledge and truth in the Law... ²¹ then do you, [the one] who is teaching others, also teach yourselves? Do you who preach Do not steal, steal? ²² Do you who teach Do not commit adultery, commit adultery? Do you who teach others to be disgusted with idols, rob temples? ²³ Do you who teach others pride in [God's] Laws, dishonor God by breaking the Law? ²⁴ For it is written: 'God's Name is being blasphemed among the nations because of you people!'

²⁵ Of course, circumcision is good... that is, as long as you're obeying the Law. But if you're a person who breaks the Law, then your circumcision has really become uncircumcision. ²⁶ However, if an uncircumcised person obeys the righteous requirements of the Law; Won't his uncircumcision be considered circumcision? ²⁷ So if those who are uncircumcised naturally obey the Law (except for what it says about being circumcised), they're really judging those of you who break the Law!

²⁸ Therefore, being a Jew isn't something that can be seen; for [true] circumcision isn't something that's visible in the flesh. ²⁹ Rather, being a Jew is something that's inside you, since circumcision comes from the spirit of the heart, not from something that's written... it's not there to be praised by men, but by God!

Chapter 3

¹ So in what way is a Jew superior, or of what benefit is circumcision? ² It's actually a huge benefit in every way! For God entrusted His word to the hands [of the circumcised]. ³ And if some [of them] don't believe; does their lack of faith prove that faith in God is worthless? ⁴ May that never happen! Rather, let God be proven true even if that makes every man a liar! As it's written:

'May Your words prove to be righteous,
And may You overcome with Your judgements.'

⁵ However, if our unrighteousness [is exposed by] God's righteousness; what can we say? Then God won't be wrong when He brings His wrath, will He? So I'm saying this to everyone: ⁶ May that never happen! Otherwise, how could God judge the world?

⁷ But if I should tell a lie and that makes the truth of God and His glory grow; then should I be judged a sinner? ⁸ Well, it's [because you are doing such things] that people aren't just slandering us, they're proving that some of us are saying, 'Let's do bad things so that good things can happen.' And this is why such a condemnation is so well deserved!

⁹ Is there anything that makes us [Jews] better than [gentiles]? No, not at all; for we have proven to you that both Jews and Greeks are sinners! ¹⁰

As it is written:

'No one is righteous... not one!

¹¹ For there's no one who truly understands,
And no one is searching for God,

¹² Since all have strayed and are useless.
And no one is kind... no not one!

¹³ 'Their throats are like open graves,
And with their tongues, they practice deceit,
For the poison of asps is under their lips.

¹⁴ 'With cursing and shouting, their mouths become filled,

¹⁵ And their feet are ready to go and spill blood.

¹⁶ In their swath, is misery and destruction,

¹⁷ And the road to peace, they've not known;

¹⁸ For, in their eyes, there's no fear of God.'

¹⁹ Now, we know that everything that was said in the Law was meant for just those who are under the Law... for it stopped every mouth and proved the whole world deserving of God's punishment. ²⁰ However, no flesh is going to be called righteous before Him by obeying the Law, because all the Law did was help us to understand what sin is. ²¹

Therefore, the absence of the Law is really revealing the righteousness of God... the Law and the Prophets all testified to this!

²² So, this is why the righteousness of God is now coming to all those who believe and who are showing their faith in Jesus the Anointed One. And it's why there is no longer any difference between us, ²³ since we've all sinned and fallen short of the glory of God.

²⁴ Understand that being called righteous is just a gift that [God] kindly gives to us through the ransom that was paid by the Anointed Jesus. ²⁵ For God sent him here as a sin offering so that when we have faith in his blood, the sins that we committed ²⁶ back when God was just tolerating us can be forgiven. And this is what allows us to look into His righteous ways today. For He proves Himself righteous by calling [all] those who have faith in Jesus, righteous!

²⁷ So, where is our reason for boasting? It's gone! Does it come from obeying the Law? No, it comes through the Law of Faith, ²⁸ since we believe that a man is called righteous because of his faith, not by the works of the Law!

²⁹ [Do you think that God is] only the God of the Jews and that He's not also [the God of] the gentiles? Yes, [He's the God] of the gentiles also! ³⁰ So God is really the One who calls both the circumcised and the uncircumcised righteous because of their faith.

³¹ Then, does our faith override the Law? Never may that happen! Rather, it makes the Law stronger.

Chapter 4

¹ For example, consider our fleshly ancestor AbraHam. ² If [God] had called AbraHam righteous because of the things he did, [AbraHam] might have had a reason to boast... but not to God. ³ What do the Scriptures say? 'AbraHam was counted as righteous because he believed in The God (gr. To Theo).'

⁶ Notice that David also spoke of how blest a man is whom God counts as righteous despite [all the bad things] that he's done. [For he wrote]:

⁷ ‘Blest are those forgiven for their lawless ways
And those whose sins He has covered...

⁸ ‘Blest are those in whom He doesn’t find sin!’

⁹ So doesn’t this ‘blessing’ apply to both the circumcised and the uncircumcised? For as [David] said: ‘AbraHam was counted as righteous because of his faith.’ ¹⁰ And just what was [AbraHam’s] situation when [God] thought of him that way? Was this before he was circumcised or after he was circumcised? It wasn’t after he was circumcised, it was while he was uncircumcised! ¹¹ For the sign that he received (circumcision) was a seal of the righteousness that he showed while he was yet uncircumcised!

Therefore, [AbraHam] became the father of those who have faith while they are yet uncircumcised... and [just like AbraHam], they can be counted as righteous! ¹² So, he not only became the father of circumcision to the uncircumcised, but also the father of those who follow in the faith and footsteps of our father AbraHam when he was uncircumcised!

¹³ Indeed, AbraHam and his seed weren’t given the promise of inheriting the world because of the Law, but because of their righteous faith! ¹⁴ But if [you can only] become heirs through the Law, then faith has no value and the promise is worthless... ¹⁵ for all that the Law brings is [God’s] wrath. Yet where there is no law, there’s nothing to break!

¹⁶ So, because we believe in [God’s] loving care, we are assured that the promise applies to all who are [AbraHam’s] seed... and they’re not just those who are under the Law, but all who have the same faith as AbraHam, who is the father of us all! ¹⁷ For notice that it was written:

‘I’ve appointed you to be the father of many nations.’

[And when this was said about him, AbraHam] was standing before The God in whom he believed... the One who makes the dead alive and who calls the things that aren’t and makes them exist. ¹⁸ So although [AbraHam originally] didn’t have any reason for hope, he came to believe that he would become the father of many nations; for he was told, ‘They will be your seed.’ ¹⁹ And the fact that his body was almost dead (since he was a hundred years old) and that the womb of Sarah was dead, this didn't weaken his faith, ²⁰ because it was promised to him by The God in whom he trusted. So he was strengthened by something that was unbelievable... and God was glorified by his faith! ²¹ For [AbraHam] was completely convinced that [God] could do whatever He promised, ²² and this is why he was counted as righteous!

²³ Now, the words, 'he was counted as,' weren't just written for his sake, ²⁴ but for the sake of all those whom [God] thinks of in that same way... those who believe in the One who raised our Lord Jesus from the dead. ²⁵ For after he had been offered up for our errors, he was then raised. And this is why we too can be counted as righteous!

¹ So, now that we've been declared righteous because of our faith, let's enjoy the peace that we have with God through our Lord Jesus the Anointed One. ² For it's through him that we have this faith and are able to bask in His loving care.

Therefore, let us boast of the hope [that we have] to the Glory of God. ³ And not only that; let's also boast about the difficulties we suffer, because we know that these difficulties give us endurance, ⁴ the endurance helps us to pass the tests, and passing the tests gives us a hope ⁵ that will never embarrass us, because it pours God's love into our hearts through the Holy Breath that He gives to us.

⁶ For a fact; the Anointed One came right on time and he died for ungodly men back when we were still weak! ⁷ Yet, few would be willing to die for the righteous, and even fewer would be willing to die for the good. ⁸ But God showed His love for us through the Anointed One, who died for us while we were still sinners!

⁹ Now, since we've been called righteous by [Jesus'] blood; isn't it even more likely that he will save us from [God's] wrath? ¹⁰ Because, if we found God's favor through the death of His Son while we were His enemies, how much more so will we be saved by His [Son's] life, now that He cares for us! ¹¹ And not only that; but now (through our Lord Jesus the Anointed One) we're also glorifying The God who has granted us this privilege.

¹² Sin entered the world through one man, and this sin resulted in death. So by this [one] sin, death was passed on to all men and they have all sinned. ¹³ Therefore, even before the Law arrived, there was sin in the world... however sin isn't counted [against us] when there's no law to break. ¹⁴ But despite that, death still reigned from [the time of] Adam down to Moses, even over those who hadn't sinned in the same wrong way that Adam had sinned... but he was a prototype of the one who was to come.

¹⁵ Now, the sin [of Adam] can't be compared to the gift [from God]. For if death came to many because of the wrongdoing of one man; think of how much more the loving-care of God and His gift (the loving care of one man, Jesus the Anointed One) has brought an abundance to so many!

¹⁶ This true gift didn't come from the one who had sinned (Adam)... indeed, his judgment was just condemnation. However, [God's] gift is the justifying of many errors. ¹⁷ So if death did in fact come to rule through that one error; how much greater is the abundance of the gift of righteousness and the receiving of life that will come to rule through the loving care of that one... Jesus the Anointed.

¹⁸ Also, since the result of one error was to condemn all mankind; then through this one righteous act, everyone can be counted righteous so they can live! ¹⁹ And as the disobedience of one man caused many to become sinners; through the obedience of one [man], many will also be counted as righteous!

²⁰ Now, the Law came along so as to show up many errors. However, where there are many sins, there is a superabundance of loving-care that can be shown. ²¹ Therefore, as sin has reigned and brought death; [God's] loving care will bring a righteous rule and age-long life through our Lord Jesus the Anointed.

Chapter 6

¹ So, what can we say? Should we remain sinners so there can be more [of His] loving care? ² May that never happen! For if we've died to sin, how can we continue to live in it?

³ Don't you know that all who were baptized into the Anointed Jesus were also baptized into his death? ⁴ Therefore, we were buried with him by our baptism into his death, so that just as the Anointed One was raised from among the dead by the glory of the Father, we should also be walking in a new way of life. ⁵ And if we've been buried with him into the same type of death; then [like him], we will also be resurrected.

⁶ However, we must recognize that the person we used to be was hung on a pole with [him] to bring an end to our sinful bodies... which means that we shouldn't be slaves to sin anymore! ⁷ For those who have died have been acquitted of their sins! ⁸ And if we believe that we have already died with the Anointed One, then we'll be alive with him also. ⁹ For we know that the Anointed One has been raised from the dead and that he won't die again. Therefore, death isn't his master anymore. ¹⁰ So when he died, he died for sins once and for all time... and now he's alive and he's living to The God (gr. To Theo)! ¹¹ And in the same way, you should also consider yourselves dead when it comes to sin, but alive to The God through the Anointed Jesus.

¹² This is why you shouldn't allow sin to rule your mortal bodies anymore and why you shouldn't obey its desires... ¹³ you should no longer offer your body parts to serve as unrighteous weapons of sin! Rather, you should offer yourselves to God as people who've been brought back to life from the dead, and [you should offer] your body parts to God as weapons of righteousness! ¹⁴ Indeed, sin must not be your master... for you aren't under the Law, you're under [God's] loving care.

¹⁵ So if we are no longer under the Law but under [God's] loving care, does this mean that we can just keep on sinning? May that never be so! ¹⁶ Don't you know that if you offer yourselves to obey someone as a slave, you become that person's slave? [So, you're] either [a slave] to sin, which results in death, or [a slave] to obedience, which results in righteousness.

¹⁷ Thank God that although you used to be slaves to sin, your hearts have started to obey this teaching that you were given, ¹⁸ which has set you free from sin and made you slaves to righteousness!

¹⁹ I'm going to put this in simple terms because of your fleshly weaknesses: Just as you once offered your body parts as unclean slaves to immorality and Law breaking, you must now offer your body parts as slaves to righteousness and holiness. ²⁰ For back when you were slaves to sin, you were free from any righteousness. ²¹ And what was the result of the things [you did] back then? Aren't these the very things that you're so ashamed of now? And these are the things that lead to death! ²² But now that you've been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, you can receive holiness and age-long life. ²³ For the wage of sin is death, while God's gift is age-long life through the Anointed Jesus, our Lord.

Chapter 7

¹ Are you ignorant, brothers? I'm telling those of you who know the Law that the Law is a man's master for as long as he's alive! ² This is the same situation as with a woman who is bound to the law of her man for as long as he's alive. However, after he dies, she's no longer under his law. ³ So though she would be condemned as an adulteress if she were to ever become another man's woman while her man is still alive; after he dies, she's free from his law and she isn't an adulteress if she marries another.

⁴ So my brothers; You died to the Law through the body of the Anointed One, and now you belong to someone else... you've been raised from the dead so that you can now produce fruitage for God! ⁵ Because, while you were fleshly, what the Law labels as sinful passions were working within you, and the fruitage they produced was death. ⁶ But now that you've been set free from the Law (because you've died to the thing that held you down), you can become slaves to something new... to a newness of spirit, and not to some old writings anymore!

⁷ So, what should we say... that the Law sinful? May that never be true! For I would never have known what sin was, were it not for the Law. For example, I wouldn't have known what envy was if it weren't the Law that said, 'You must not envy.'⁸ However, when I learned about this sin from the Commandment, it created every sort of envy [in me]. Yet, before the Law arrived, [this wasn't] a sin.

⁹ Actually, I once lived without the Law; but after I came under its Commandments, sin came to life and I died.¹⁰ Therefore, I found that the Commandments that were supposed to lead me to life, led me to death...¹¹ for the sins that I learned about in the Commandments seduced me and killed me.¹² Nevertheless, the Law and the Commandments are still holy, righteous, and good.

¹³ So, what was it that killed me? Was it the thing that was good for me? May that never be true! Rather, it is the sin, when it was exposed as sin by that which is good for me, that [led me to] death... for the Commandments showed the sin to be sinful!¹⁴ This is because the Law is something that's spiritual, while I am fleshly and sold into sin.¹⁵ So I really didn't understand what I was doing... for I didn't do the things that I wanted to do, and I didn't like the things that I was doing.¹⁶ And despite the fact that I still do things that I don't want to do, I say that the Law is good.¹⁷ For though I'm no longer under [the Law], sin is still dwelling within me.

¹⁸ Now, I know that nothing that's dwelling within me (in this flesh) is any good; for though I want to do what's right, I don't always have the will to do it.¹⁹ So I don't do the good things that I want to do and I still do bad things.²⁰ Therefore, if I'm doing things that I don't want to do, I'm really not in charge [of my body]... the sin that dwells there is!²¹ So, though I find that I want to obey the Law and do good things; badness is always here within me.²² And though the man that I am on the inside really enjoys the Law of God;²³ my body parts are obeying a different law and they're at war with the law of my mind... they drag me into the laws of sin that are there in my body parts.

²⁴ O what a miserable man that I am! Who will save me from this dying body? ²⁵ But thanks to God (through our Lord Jesus the Anointed); though I'm a slave to sin's law in my flesh, I'm still a slave to God's Law in my mind!

Chapter 8

⁶ Indeed, the thoughts of the flesh bring death, while the thoughts of the Spirit bring life and peace. ⁷ And obeying the flesh brings God's rejection, because [the flesh] isn't under God's Law, nor can it ever be! ⁸ Therefore, those who follow fleshly ways can never be pleasing to God. ⁹ However, if God's Breath is living in us, we are no longer fleshly but spiritual... and those who don't have the spirit of the Anointed One don't belong to him. ¹⁰ So if the Anointed One is truly within you, your body is indeed dead to sin and his spirit is making you alive through righteousness.

¹¹ As the result; if the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, the One who raised the Anointed Jesus from the dead will also make your dying bodies alive through His Breath that's in you. ¹² So brothers; since we don't owe anything to the flesh, we shouldn't be following fleshly [ways]! ¹³ For if you're living according to the flesh, you're intending to die; but if, through [God's] Breath, you're willing to destroy the deeds of the body, you will live!

¹⁴ Indeed, all who are led by God's Breath are Sons of God! ¹⁵ [And because of this,] you didn't receive a spirit of bondage to fear again;

rather, you received a spirit of adoption, through which you can now call out, ‘Papa! Father!’ ¹⁶ This is the same Spirit that testifies to the spirit within us that we are God’s children... ¹⁷ and if we’re [His] children, we’re also [His] heirs... yes, heirs of God and heirs along with the Anointed One!

However, we will all have to suffer together so we can be glorified together. ¹⁸ And I don’t believe that the sufferings we are currently enduring amount to anything when they’re compared to the glory that’s going to be revealed in us. ¹⁹ Indeed, [all] creation is awaiting and earnestly expecting the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰ For His creations were never willingly subjected to futility. Rather, they were subjected to it by the will of the One who gave us the hope that ²¹ all creation will soon be set free from bondage to decay and then enter the glorious freedom of the children of God!

²² We know that all creation has been groaning and in birth pains until now. ²³ And it isn’t by itself, since even those of us who have received the first fruitage of [God’s] Breath groan within ourselves as we await the adoption and the [payment of] the ransom that will free our bodies. ²⁴ Yes, this is the hope that is saving us!

Now, when you hope for something that you can see, that really isn’t hope... because people don’t hope for something that they can already see. ²⁵ However, if we keep on hoping for something that we haven’t seen, we’ll continue to patiently wait for it.

²⁶ And now we have the [Holy] Spirit that is helping us with our weaknesses, because we don’t always know what we should even be praying for. Yet the Spirit is always there, groaning the words [that we] haven’t spoken. ²⁷ And the One who searches hearts knows the thoughts of the Spirit; because, like a god, he’s an advocate for the holy ones.

²⁸ We know that God makes everything work together for the good of those who love Him (those who have been called to do His will). ²⁹ For He recognized them ahead of time and chose them to become like His Son, who was the firstborn from among many brothers! ³⁰ So, all whom

He chooses, He calls; all whom He calls, He makes righteous; all whom He makes righteous, He glorifies!

³¹ Therefore, what can we say about all of this? If God is over us, who can come down on us? ³² And since He didn't even spare His Son, but handed him over for all of our sakes; then why shouldn't [we believe that] He will also give us everything else? ³³ For, who can accuse those who've been chosen by God?

Yes, if God has declared us to be righteous, ³⁴ who can condemn us? So, since we now have the Anointed Jesus, who died, was raised from the dead, and is at God's right hand pleading our case, ³⁵ what can ever take us away from the love of the Anointed One? Not hard times, nor difficulties, nor distress, nor persecution, nor hunger, nor nakedness, nor danger or even swords!

³⁶ It was written: 'We're being killed all day long for Your sake ... we are thought of as sheep to be slaughtered!'

³⁷ However, through this One that loves us, we have conquered all these things! ³⁸ For I'm convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things that are happening or will happen, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in creation will be able to take us away from God's love that is in the Anointed Jesus our Lord!

Chapter 9

¹ In the name of the Anointed One, I'm telling you this as the truth (no, I'm not lying), for my conscience testifies with me in [God's] Holy Breath ² that I'm extremely sad and constantly sick at heart, ³ because I wish that I could be the one that is cursed by being separated from the Anointed One rather than my brothers and fleshly relatives, the IsraElites. ⁴ For they're the ones to whom the adoption as sons, the glory, the Sacred Agreement, the Law, the worship, and the promises belong. ⁵ They're the ones [who descended] from the forefathers and the ones through whom the Anointed One [came] in the flesh... yes, praise God who is over it all through the ages, may it be so!

¹⁴ So, what can we say? Is God unjust? May that never be true! ¹⁵ But he told Moses: 'I will show mercy upon whomever I choose to show mercy, and pity upon whomever I choose to feel pity.' ¹⁶ So it doesn't depend on the one who does the wishing or on the one who does the running, but on the mercy of God! ¹⁷ For the Scriptures say that He told the PharaOh: 'The reason why I raised you is so that I can show My powers through you, and to have My Name announced throughout the whole earth!'

¹⁸ So the [point is this]: He shows mercy on whomever He wishes to show mercy, and He hardens [the hearts] of whomever He wishes.

¹⁹ Therefore, you might ask: 'Then, why does [God] find fault with anyone who resists His plans?'

²⁰ O man, who are you to question God? Will the thing that is made ask its maker, 'Why did you make me like this?' ²¹ For isn't the potter in charge of his clay; and can't he make one pot for an honorable use and another for a dishonorable use from the same lump [of clay]? ²²

Therefore, God can choose to show His rage and make His power known through whatever pottery He's had to endure. And if He made it for His rage, then it's only fit to be destroyed! ²³ But He can also show the richness of His glory upon the pots of mercy that He has prepared ahead of time for glory... ²⁴ those of us whom He has called not just from among the Jews, but also from among the gentiles!

²⁵ It's as He said in Hosea: 'I'll call those who aren't My people, My people, and the one I didn't love, My loved one. ²⁶ So in those places where they were [once] told, You're not My people, they will be called, The Living God's sons!'

²⁷ Yet IsaiAh shouted this about IsraEl:

'The people of IsraEl will then grow to be as many as the sands of the seas, from the few that survive.'

²⁸ And for a fact, [we can see that] the Lord is [now] bringing about this reduction on the earth.

²⁹ IsaiAh also prophesied:

'If Jehovah of armies hadn't left us a seed, we would have become just like Sodom and the same as GomorRah.'

³⁰ So this is why we can say that gentiles became righteous (although they weren't trying to be righteous) with the [type of] righteousness that comes from faith, ³¹ while IsraEl, which was following a righteous Law, just didn't make it! ³² And why was that so? Because [IsraEl] didn't look for it in faith, but in the things that they were doing... they tripped over the 'stumbling stone.' ³³ As it is written:

'{Look!} Upon the foundation of Zion,
I'll place a valuable stone...

A costly, select cornerstone,

In order to serve as its base.

And those trusting in him will never be shamed.'

Chapter 10

¹ Therefore, brothers; the goodwill that I have in my heart for [the Jews] and the thing that I beg of God, is for them to be saved! ² For I can testify to the fact that though they have a zeal for God, they still don't know [Him]. ³ And since they don't understand God's righteous ways and they're always trying to prove their own ways to be righteous, they are unwilling to submit to God's righteousness. ⁴ However, the Anointed One fulfilled the Law so that he could bring righteousness to those who have faith.

⁵ Though Moses wrote: ‘You must follow all My rules and all My decisions... yes, follow them in such a way [that you learn to] live by them;’ ⁶ righteousness that is based on faith tells us: ‘Don’t ask in your hearts, Who could ascend into the heavens to bring the Anointed One down?’ ⁷ or, Who could descend into the abyss to bring the Anointed One up from the dead?’ ⁸ What does it say? ‘The words are close to you... they’re in your mouths and in your hearts’... and these are the words of faith that we are preaching!

⁹ So if you confess and say the words in your mouths that Jesus is Lord, and if you truly believe in your hearts that God raised him from the dead, you’ll be saved! ¹⁰ For heart-felt faith [moves you to] righteousness, and your mouth’s confession of this [leads you to] salvation. ¹¹ For the Scriptures tell us, ‘Those who believe in him will never be shamed.’

¹² Therefore, there’s really no difference between Jews or Greeks, because we all have the same Lord, and he provides abundantly for all those who call on him. ¹³ Therefore, everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved! ¹⁴ However, how will they call on someone in whom they don’t believe? How will they believe in someone of whom they’ve never heard? How will they hear without someone to preach? ¹⁵ And how will they preach if they aren’t sent? This is why it was written: ‘How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news about good things!’

¹⁶ Yet, not everyone will obey the good news; for notice that IsaiAh asked: ‘Who has trusted our report of the Lord?’ ¹⁷ So, faith comes from hearing... that is, by hearing the things that the Anointed [One] said! ¹⁸ So I’m now asking, Why haven’t they heard, since the call has gone throughout their whole land... in fact, the words have reached to the ends of the earth! ¹⁹ Yes I’m asking, Why doesn’t IsraEl already know?

[Notice that it was Moses who first told \[them\]:](#)

‘I will provoke you to jealousy with those who are not [of your] nation and anger you with those who don’t understand.’

²⁰ [Then IsaiAh dared to \[write\]](#):

‘I was seen by those not searching for Me,
And found by those not asking for Me.
I said, Here I am, to a nation
That has never called on My Name.’

²¹ And he went on to say this regarding IsraEl:
‘I’ve held out My hands all day long
To a people who just will not listen
And to those who prefer to talk back.’

Chapter 11

¹ So, let me ask: Has God pushed His people away? May that never be so! Why, I’m also an IsraElite... I’m the seed of AbraHam and of the tribe of BenJamin, ² and God hasn’t rejected these people whom He knew first!

Don’t you remember what the scriptures tell us that EliJah said as he was pleading with God concerning IsraEl? ³ [He said], ‘O Jehovah; They’ve killed Your Prophets, they’ve dug up Your Altars, and I’m the only one left... and now they’re seeking my life!’

⁴ And what was [\[God’s\] reply](#)? He said, ‘I’ve kept seven-thousand people for Myself who haven’t bent a knee to BaAl.’

⁷ Then what happened to IsraEl? Well, not all of them received the thing that they were seeking... just the ones who’d been chosen from among them received it, while the rest became more obstinate, ⁸ just as it’s written:

‘God gave them a spirit to slumber;
So their eyes haven’t seen and their ears haven’t heard,
Down to this very day.’

⁹ David also said:

‘Let their table be a snare, trip lever, and trap
As retribution upon them.

¹⁰ Let their eyes grow dim, so they cannot see,
And their backs forever bent double.’

¹¹ So I ask: Did they stumble so [badly that] they couldn’t be raised [again]? May that never be so! However, they’ve been missing out as the gentiles were being saved, in order to make them jealous. ¹² But if their missing out has enriched the world, and if their failures have enriched the gentiles; how much more will result when they are included?

¹³ Now, I want to address those of you who are gentiles: Since I’m really an Apostle to the gentiles, I can make my service even more glorious ¹⁴ if I can somehow make those who are my own flesh jealous and bring some of them to salvation. ¹⁵ Because, if throwing them away will restore the world’s relationship [with God], then what will receiving them back again mean other than life for those who are dead? ¹⁶ For if the first fruits [can be made] holy, [then the rest of the crop will also be holy]... if the roots are holy, so are the branches! ¹⁷ Therefore, if some of the branches were broken off so that you wild olives could be grafted in, you have become sharers in the fatness of that olive [tree’s] roots. ¹⁸ But don’t start cheering because those branches [were removed]; for if you find yourselves doing that, remember that you aren’t supporting the roots, they’re supporting you!

¹⁹ Yes, you could say, ‘The branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in’... ²⁰ and that’s a fact! They were broken off because they lacked faith, and you have taken their places because you have faith. But don’t think too much of yourselves... be afraid! ²¹ For if God didn’t spare the natural branches, He doesn’t have to spare you either!

²² Therefore, recognize God’s loving kindness as well as [His] willingness to remove. So, although those who have fallen have been cut off and you’re now receiving God’s loving care; it’s only yours for as long as you stay in that [good relationship], because you can be pruned off too! ²³ And then, if [the Jews] don’t continue in their disbelief, they will be grafted back in, since God can graft them back in again! ²⁴ For if you were cut from an olive tree that's wild by nature and then (contrary to nature) grafted into the garden olive tree; recognize how much easier it will be for those who are natural branches to be grafted back into their own olive tree again!

²⁵ Brothers, I don't want you to ignore this mystery, so you don't become too wise in your own eyes: IsraEl was allowed to become calloused until the full number of gentiles came in. ²⁶ Yet, this is how all IsraEl is going to be saved! For it's written:

'A Savior will come out of Zion
And remove from Jacob, his godless ways.

²⁷ Yes, this is My promise to them,
After I have removed all their sins.'

²⁸ Therefore, from the standpoint of the good news; they have become His enemies for your sakes! But from the standpoint of the choosing; they are the ones who are loved because of their ancestors, ²⁹ since the loving gifts of God and His calling are irrevocable!

³⁰ So, just as you were once disobedient to God but have now been shown mercy [despite your] disobedience; ³¹ they are now being disobedient. Yet, because you were shown mercy, they may also be shown mercy. ³² Yes, God has locked them up together in disobedience so that He might show mercy to us all.

³³ 'O the depths of God's riches, wisdom, and knowledge,
And the mysteries of all His decisions;
For His ways can't be figured out!

³⁴ 'Who's come to know the mind of Jehovah,
And who can give Him advice,

³⁵ Or give Him something that He must repay?

³⁶ Since all is from Him, by Him, and for Him,
To glorify Him through the ages '...

May it be so.

Chapter 12

¹ So I beg you by the compassion of God, brothers, to offer your bodies as living, holy sacrifices that are pleasing to God, and to serve Him in sensible ways. ² Don't [allow yourselves] to be molded by this system of things; rather, be transformed by renewing your minds so that you come to think well of the good, pleasing, and perfect Will of The God. ³ Yes, through the loving care that was shown to me, I'm telling all of you not to think too much of yourselves. Rather, you must think clearly, as God has given each of you your own share of faith.

⁴ [Remember that] our bodies have many parts, and none of [these parts] have the same function. ⁵ So although there are many of us, we're really just one body in the Anointed One, and starting from him, we are each parts of that body... therefore, we all belong to each other. ⁶ Likewise, each of us have different gifts that we were kindly given, whether it's prophesying according to our portion of faith, ⁷ serving in some service, teaching some point, ⁸ offering some encouragement, simply sharing, earnestly taking the lead, or cheerfully showing mercy. ⁹ Therefore, we should love [each other] without being judgmental... we should hate what is wicked and stick with the things that are good!

¹⁰ So, let your brotherly love make you more tender and caring to each other, and take the lead when it comes to showing honor to each other. ¹¹ Do your best... don't be lazy... slave for the Lord and bubble over with his Spirit... ¹² let your hope fill you with joy as you endure the difficulties and persecutions... and keep on praying. ¹³ Also, share whatever you have with the Holy Ones and be hospitable. ¹⁴ Learn to say nice things to those who persecute [you]... don't curse them, praise them! ¹⁵ Rejoice with people who are rejoicing and cry with those who are crying... ¹⁶ be aware of each other's needs... don't spend too much time thinking about high ideas, but deal with each other humbly... don't think too much of yourselves! ¹⁷ Don't be rude to people who treat you poorly, but plan to do good things in the eyes of everyone. ¹⁸ And if possible (whenever you can), be peaceable with everyone... ¹⁹ don't get even, loved ones; put anger in its place, because it's written: 'Let Me get *even and I'll pay them back, says Jehovah.*²⁰ Also: 'If your enemy is hungry, feed him; and if he's thirsty, give him something to drink; for whenever you do this, you're piling burning coals on their heads.'²¹ So, don't allow evil to conquer you. Rather, keep on conquering the evil with goodness.

Chapter 13

¹ Everyone should submit to the authorities that are over them. Indeed, there are no offices of authority that don't come from God, or any that haven't been instituted by God. ² So, those who resist the authorities whose laws have come from God are really opposing and condemning themselves! ³ For there is no reason to fear the rulers when we're behaving... just when we're misbehaving.

Do you wish that you wouldn't have to fear the authorities? Then, do good things and they'll praise you, ⁴ because they're God's servants for your own good. But if you're doing something that's wrong, you have good reason to fear them. For, that's why they bear the sword of God... they're God's servants and His avengers to show His rage upon those who are doing what is wrong!

⁵ So, it's important for you to obey them... and not just for [fear of] angering them, but because of [your] consciences. ⁶ This is why you pay your taxes; because, as public servants, they're serving God's purposes! ⁷ Therefore, pay everyone whatever they're owed... to the tax collector the property tax, and to the toll collectors the tolls. Also fear the police and show honor to those [who should be] honored. ⁸ Don't owe anything to anyone, except your love for each other, because those who love others have fulfilled [the] Law. ⁹ For [the Laws], 'You must not commit adultery; you must not murder; you must not steal; you must not envy;' (and whatever other Commandments there are) are summed up in the words, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'¹⁰ Yes, those who love won't do anything bad to their neighbors, since the Law is fulfilled through love.

¹¹ As for those of you who are aware of the season; it's time to wake up, because our salvation is now closer than it was when we first became believers! ¹² Since the night is almost over and the Day is near, we should be getting rid of the things that belong to darkness and start putting on the weapons of light. ¹³ Yes, let us all behave as we would in the daytime... not in wild partying and drunkenness; not in immoral sex and the lacking of principles; not in arguing and jealousy. ¹⁴ Rather, we should be putting on the Lord Jesus the Anointed One and no longer planning [to satisfy] the cravings of the flesh.

Chapter 14

⁵ Also, some consider one day as more important than others, while some consider each day to be the same as all the rest. However, each of us should be sure of this in our own minds! ⁶ Then those who observe a certain day [as holy] should observe it to the Lord. Also, those who eat [whatever they wish] should eat it to the Lord, because they have thanked God for it. Likewise, those who don't eat [everything] should abstain to the Lord, since they too have thanked God [for what they have received].

⁷ So, none of us should be living just for ourselves, and none of us should be dying just for ourselves. ⁸ For when we live, we live for the Lord, and when we die, we die for the Lord... because whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord! ⁹ And the reason why the Anointed One died and came to life again was so that he could be the Lord of both the living and the dead.

¹⁰ So, why are you judging your brothers, or why are you looking down on them, since we will all stand before the judgment seat of God? ¹¹

Notice that it's written:

'As I live, says Jehovah;

*Every knee should bend low to Me,
And by Me, every tongue should swear oaths.'*

¹² So, since each of us must answer for ourselves before God, ¹³ we should stop judging each other, and we shouldn't be setting anything before our brothers that will cause them to stumble and fall.

¹⁴ Now, I know (and I've been persuaded by the Lord Jesus) that nothing is unclean... it's only when a man considers something to be unclean that it's unclean to him. ¹⁵ Yet if what you're eating upsets your brother, you aren't following the path of love yet. For you shouldn't want anyone for whom the Anointed One died to be destroyed over the food that you're eating... ¹⁶ nor should they speak badly of the good things that you are doing. ¹⁷ Because, the Kingdom of God has nothing to do with eating or drinking... just with righteousness, peace, and the joy of [God's] Holy Breath. ¹⁸ So, those of you who choose to make yourselves slaves in such matters [for the sake of] the Anointed One will be approved both by God and by men. ¹⁹ And what we should all be doing is trying to do the things that promote peace and to build each other up... ²⁰ [we must] stop tearing down the work of God over food!

So, though it's true that all [food] is clean, it can still be bad for someone who stumbles over what we are eating. ²¹ Therefore, it isn't good to eat meat, or to drink wine, or to do anything else that could be a snare to our brothers, ²² because we should be sure that the things we believe [to be right] also look good in the eyes of God... and any man who isn't being judged over things of which he personally approves, should be praised. ²³ However, if he's unsure of something that he's eating, his lack of faith is condemning him for eating it; because, whenever we do something that we believe [to be wrong], we are sinning.

Chapter 15

¹ So, those of us who are strong must handle the weaknesses of those who aren't strong, and not just be pleasing ourselves. ² Rather, we should each be trying to please our neighbors by doing good things that build them up. ³ For even the Anointed One didn't just please himself. Notice that it's written: 'The insults of those who are insulting you, have fallen upon me.'

⁴ Understand that everything that was written until now has been written to teach us, so that through our endurance and through the comfort that comes from the Scriptures, we might have hope. ⁵ Therefore, may the endurance and comfort that comes from God supply this to you, so that you may pay close attention to each other's needs in the same ways that the Anointed Jesus did. ⁶ Then together, as with one mind and one mouth, we can all bring glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One.

⁷ So, welcome each other as the Anointed One welcomed us (to the glory of God). ⁸ For [he] became a servant to those who are circumcised for the sake of the truth of God, and he verified the promises that were made to their ancestors, ⁹ while he allowed the gentiles to glorify God for His mercies. As it is written:

'That's why I'll praise You to the nations,
And that's why I'll sing to Your Name.'

¹⁰ And again it says:

'Rejoice, you nations, along with His people!'

¹¹ And again:

'Praise Jehovah, you nations...
Let everyone give praise to Him.'

¹² Also, IsaiAh wrote:

'In that day, the root of JesSe [will sprout]...
He'll arise to rule [all] the nations.
In him, the gentiles will trust,
And upon him, honor will rest.'

¹³ So, may the God who provides hope fill you with all joy and peace in the belief that you'll have more than enough faith through the power of [His] Holy Breath.

¹⁴ I'm sure of this about you, my brothers: You are filled with goodness, because you've been filled with all knowledge so that you can strengthen each other!

¹⁵ Now, I'm writing to you in plain words to remind you that because of a gift that God kindly gave to me, ¹⁶ I was appointed a [temple] official to the gentiles by Jesus the Anointed One and to serve as their Priest of the good news of God, so that their offerings can be found worthy and clean through the Holy Breath... ¹⁷ and the Anointed Jesus has given me many good reasons to be cheerful when it comes to these things of God.

¹⁸ Therefore, I wouldn't dare to even speak of anything that the Anointed One could have failed to accomplish on behalf the gentiles through me, because I've obediently followed his instructions in everything that I have been saying and doing ¹⁹ through the power of signs, omens, and by the might of the Holy Breath. For I've thoroughly preached the good news about the Anointed One in a circuit from JeruSalem all the way to ILLyricum. ²⁰ And I've made it my goal not to preach the good news in places where they've already heard about the Anointed One, so that I wouldn't be building on another man's foundation. ²¹ As it's written: 'He'll be seen by those to whom he didn't preach, And those who haven't heard him will learn.'

²² So, this is why I've not been allowed to come to you on several previous occasions. ²³ But now that I no longer have a place in those regions, and because I've been wanting to come to you for several years, ²⁴ it's my hope to see you along the way as I travel to Spain. [And if so], perhaps you can come to the place where I'll be staying.'

²⁵ However, right now I have to travel on to JeruSalem to serve the needs of the Holy Ones, ²⁶ because those in Macedonia and Achaea have been so happy to share their things by contributing to the poor among the Holy Ones in JeruSalem.'

²⁷ Yet, while it's true that they were happy to do so, they were also indebted to them. For if they've shared their spiritual things with the gentiles, the [gentiles] are now indebted to them, as part of a public service, to share things for the fleshly body.

²⁸ So after I finish doing that and deliver these things to them safely, I'll visit you as I'm on my way to Spain. ²⁹ And I know that when I do get to you, I'll come with a full measure of blessings from Anointed One.

³⁰ Now, I beg you brothers, through our Lord Jesus the Anointed One and through the love of the Breath [of God], to please share in praying to God on my behalf, ³¹ that I might be saved from the unbelievers in Judea... and that my service in JeruSalem may prove to be what the Holy Ones need, ³² so that when I have the joy of getting back to you (if it's God's Will), I can spend some time resting up with you there. ³³ May the God who gives peace be with all of you. May it be so.

Chapter 16

¹ I want to especially recommend our sister Phoebe to you, who is a servant in the congregation at Kenchreae. ² Welcome her in the Lord as you would [welcome] the Holy Ones, and help her in any matter where she may have needs, because she has protected me many times... yes, me personally.

³ Give my greetings to Priska and Aquila, my fellow workers in the Anointed Jesus, ⁴ who have risked their necks for my life. And not just for me, but offer them thanks on behalf of all the called ones who are gentiles, ⁵ and [send my greetings] to the called ones in their home.

Also send my greetings to my beloved EpaiNeton, who is one of the first fruits of the Anointed One in [\[the province of\] Asia](#). ⁶ And send them to Mary, who has done so many things for you. ⁷ Give my greetings to Andronicus and Junias, my relatives and fellow captives, who are notable ones among the Apostles, and who've been in the Anointed One longer than I have.

⁸ Give my greetings to Ampliatus, my loved one in the Lord. ⁹ Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in the Anointed One, as well as my beloved Stachys. ¹⁰ Greet Apelles, the one who is approved in the Anointed One. Also greet those from the household of AristoBoulou. ¹¹ Send my greetings to my relative Herodion, as well as to those in the Lord from the household of Narcissus. ¹² Greet TryPhaina and TryPhosa, [women] who are working hard in the Lord. And send my greetings to our beloved Persida, because she has done so many good things in the Lord.

¹³ Greet Rufus, the Lord's chosen one, as well as his mother and mine. ¹⁴

Greet AsynCritus, Phlegonta, Hermes, PatroBas, Herman, and the brothers who are with them. ¹⁵ Send my greetings to PhiloLogus and Julian, Nereus and his sister Olympas, and all the Holy Ones with them.

¹⁶ Also greet each other with a holy kiss. For, all the congregations of the Anointed One send you their greetings.

¹⁹ Meanwhile, because everyone has noticed your obedience, I am rejoicing over you. I just want you to be wise when it comes to doing what's good, and not to be getting mixed up in doing bad things, ²⁰ since the God of peace will crush the Opposer under your feet shortly. So, may the loving care of our Lord Jesus be with you.

²¹ Timothy, my fellow worker, sends his greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and SosiPater, my relatives.

²² I Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in [the] Lord.

²³ Gaius, our host, and everyone in his congregation send their greeting to you. Erastus, the city public works manager, sends his greetings, as does KouArtos his brother. ²⁴ ———

²⁵ Now, to the One who can make you strong in the good news that I declare through my preaching about Jesus the Anointed One and about the revelation of the mystery that has remained a secret through the ages, ²⁶ but which through the prophetic scriptures have now been made known and seen among all the nations by the command of the God of ageless time to promote obedience by faith; ²⁷ yes, to God who is the only truly wise One, be the glory through Jesus (the Anointed) through the ages. May it be so.

1 Corinthians

Written to the congregation in Corinth, Greece for the Apostle Paul, possibly by Sosthenes and possibly in Aramaic, sometime between 53 and 60-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, who by the Will of God is called Apostle of the Anointed Jesus, and [your] brother Sosthenes, ² to the congregation of God in Corinth... to you who have been made holy in the Anointed Jesus and who are called to be Holy Ones along with all those who call on the name of our Lord Jesus the Anointed everywhere (their Lord and ours); ³ may you receive loving care and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus the Anointed.

⁴ I always thank God for you, because in His loving care (through the Anointed Jesus), God has given you ⁵ everything that you need to make you rich in Him. [He has given you] all the words and a complete knowledge, ⁶ while the testimony about the Anointed One is being made firm in you. ⁷ Therefore, you haven't lagged behind in any gift as you eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus the Anointed, ⁸ who will make you strong to the end and keep you free from any accusations to the Day of our Lord Jesus the Anointed. ⁹ For God, who called you to have a share with His Son (our Lord Jesus the Anointed), is faithful.

¹⁰ Now, through the name of our Lord Jesus the Anointed, I want to encourage you brothers to all teach the same things... there shouldn't be any divisions among you. Rather, you must all learn to think the same way and to share the same opinions. ¹¹ For those of the house of Chloe have told me that you do a lot of arguing, my brothers. ¹² What I mean is that some of you are saying, 'I follow Paul,' or 'I follow Apollos,' or 'I follow Cephas,' or 'I follow the Anointed One.' ¹³ And by this, the Anointed One is being divided. However, Paul wasn't hung on a pole for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? ¹⁴ I'm thankful that I didn't baptize any of you (other than Crispus and Gaius), ¹⁵ so that no one can say that they were baptized in my name.

¹⁶ Oh yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas; but as for the rest, I don't think that I baptized anyone else, ¹⁷ because the Anointed One didn't send me to baptize, but to preach the good news. [And I wasn't sent] with many wise words, because that would make the Anointed One's impaling pole less important. ¹⁸ For the message about the impaling pole is just foolishness to those who are dying... but to those of us who are being saved, it's the power of God. ¹⁹ As it's written:
'I'll destroy the wisdom of their wise,
And the understanding of their discerning, I'll hide.'

²⁰ So, where are all the wise men? Where are all the writers? Where are all the great debaters of this age? Didn't God make the world's wisdom foolish? ²¹ And since the world doesn't understand the wisdom of God, He saw that it was good for us to preach foolishness in order to save those who would believe!

²² So while the Jews ask for signs and the Greeks look for wisdom, ²³ we preach the Anointed One as having been hung on a pole. [Of course], this is a trap to the Jews and a lot of foolishness to the nations. ²⁴ But to those who are called (both Jews and Greeks), the Anointed One is the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ Because, a foolish thing from God is wiser than men, and a weak thing from God is mightier than men.

²⁶ Now, notice this about your calling, my brothers: Not many were called who were wise in a fleshly way, not many were called who had power, and not many were called from important families. ²⁷ Rather, God chose the foolish things of the world to put its wise men to shame; He chose the weak things of the world to put the mighty to shame; ²⁸ and He chose the common things of the world and the things that are looked down on – the things that aren't – in order to make the things that are, worthless. ²⁹ The reason why He did this was so that no flesh can boast before God. ³⁰ And because you are in the Anointed Jesus, he has become God's wisdom to us, as well as His righteousness, His holiness, and our ransom. ³¹ As it is written: 'Whoever boasts; let him boast about Jehovah!'

¹ So when I came to you, brothers, I didn't bring you the mysteries of God with high-sounding words of wisdom. ² In fact, I decided not to teach you about anything other than Jesus the Anointed, and about how he was hung on a pole. ³ I came to you as weak, afraid, and trembling. ⁴ And what I said and preached wasn't done with persuasive wise words, but with Spirit and power, ⁵ so you wouldn't believe because of the wisdom of men, but because of the power of God.

⁶ Yes, we do use wisdom when we're speaking to those who aren't mature... but not the wisdom of this age or that of the rulers of this age who are coming to nothing. ⁷ Rather, we speak God's wisdom as a mystery (hidden wisdom), when it comes to the things that God planned for our glory long before this age arrived. ⁸ This is the type of wisdom that none of the rulers of this age understand, because if they understood it, they wouldn't have hung our glorious Lord on a pole. ⁹ As it's written: 'Eyes haven't seen and ears haven't heard, Nor have the hearts of men even thought of the things That God has prepared for those who love Him.'

¹⁰ Yes, these are the types of things that have been revealed to us by God's Spirit, because His Spirit searches through all things... even through the deep things of God. ¹¹ For, just as no man really understands another man better than the spirit within him; nobody understands the things of God better than the Spirit of God. ¹² And this is why we don't really have the spirit of this world... because we've received the Spirit that comes from The God (gr. Tou Theou), through which we can understand the things that He has so kindly given to us.

¹³ Therefore, we don't speak with words that come from human wisdom. Rather, we are taught by the Spirit in spiritual ways that communicate spiritual things to us. ¹⁴ For physical men don't recognize the Spirit of The God, because these are just foolishness to them and they can't understand them, since such things can only be understood spiritually. ¹⁵ However, because a spiritual man can judge everything, no one can pass judgment on him. [As the scripture says:]

¹⁶ ‘Who can know the mind of Jehovah

And who has become His advisor?’

So, we now have the mind of the Anointed One.

Chapter 3

¹ However, brothers, I can’t talk to you as I would to spiritual men. Rather, [I must speak] as I would to fleshly men (as babies in the Anointed One), ² for I’ve had to feed you milk, not solid food, because you weren’t strong enough... and you’re still not strong enough, ³ since you’re still men of the flesh! For whenever you’re jealous and arguing, aren’t you fleshly... aren’t you acting like men of the flesh? ⁴ And when one of you says, ‘I follow Paul,’ and another says, ‘I follow Apollos,’ aren’t you [proving yourselves] to be men of the flesh?

⁵ For what is Apollos and what is Paul? [We’re just] servants through whom you became believers, since each of you was given to us by the Lord. ⁶ Though I planted and Apollos watered, it’s God who makes it grow! ⁷ So the one who plants is nothing and the one who waters is nothing, for it’s God who makes it all grow! ⁸ However, those who plant and those who water will each be rewarded for the work that they’re doing.

⁹ Understand that we are just God’s field hands, while you are God’s field and God’s house! ¹⁰ And it was only through the loving care of The God that I was assigned to be a wise chief craftsman. So although I laid the foundation, someone else is actually doing the building... and he must keep an eye on how he’s doing his building, ¹¹ because no one can lay a foundation other than the one that has already been laid, Jesus the Anointed.

¹² Now, whether someone builds on that foundation using gold, silver, and precious stones, or with wood, hay, and stalks, ¹³ [the quality of] his work will show up and be seen in the daytime, since it will be exposed by fire... and that fire will prove what kind of work each one has done. ¹⁴ Then if his construction remains, he’ll be rewarded. ¹⁵ But if his construction burns down, he'll be damaged by the loss... though he'll still be saved. However, it will be as though he came through fire.

¹⁶ Don't you know that you are God's Holiest of Holies? For God's Breath is dwelling within you! ¹⁷ And if someone should destroy God's Most Holy, God will destroy him... yes, you're God's Holiest of Holies! ¹⁸ Therefore, don't try to fool yourselves, for if you are thought of as being wise in this age, then you should become morons so you can be [truly] wise.

¹⁹ Recognize that the wisdom of this system of things is just silliness to God. As it's written:

'He catches the wise in their cunning deeds.'

²⁰ And again:

'God knows the ways that men think,
And that the things they ponder are foolish.'

²¹ Therefore, nobody should boast about [being followers of] men, since everything already belongs to you, ²² whether [it came from] Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or from this system of things, or from life, or from death, or from what's here or what's about to come... all of this already belongs to you! ²³ Rather, you belong to the Anointed One, and the Anointed One belongs to God.

Chapter 4

¹ Therefore, you should think of men [like us] as just galley rowers of the Anointed One and as house servants to whom the mysteries of God have been entrusted. ² And when it comes to house servants; all that is required of them is just to be found faithful.

³ Now, it really isn't too important to me if I'm being judged by you or by some human court... for I don't even judge myself, ⁵ since I'm unaware of anything against myself. However, this doesn't mean that I'm righteous, because Jehovah is my true judge.

⁴ So, recognize that we shouldn't be judging anything before its time. For when the Lord's Day arrives, the secret things that are done in darkness [will be brought] into the light and the secret thoughts of hearts will be put on public display... then each ones' commendations will come from God.

⁶ Now brothers; if I've overstated these things about Apollos and me, I've done it for your own good so that you'd learn the rule: Don't go beyond the things that are written! And don't get all puffed up by showing more favor for the one than for the other. ⁷ [After all,] who really knows us... and what do we have that wasn't given to us? So, since these things were just given to us; why should you be boasting over things that were given as gifts?

⁸ Are you already satisfied? Are you already rich? Have you started ruling without us? Oh, I wish that you had already started ruling so that we could be ruling along with you! ⁹ For I think that God has put us (the Apostles) last on display as men who are condemned to death... yes, we've become theatrical spectacles in this world to both men and angels!

¹⁴ Understand that I'm not writing this way to shame you, but to teach you as my beloved children. ¹⁵ For though you could have thousands of tutors in the Anointed One, you don't have many fathers... and since I became your father in the good news through the Anointed One, ¹⁶ I beg you to start imitating me!

¹⁷ This is why I'm sending Timothy to you. He's my loved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of the ways that I'm teaching in all the congregations everywhere, through the Anointed Jesus.

¹⁸ Now, I know that some [of you] are all puffed up as though I weren't coming to you. ¹⁹ But I'll be there shortly (if it's the Lord's will), and I won't pay any attention to what those who are puffed up have to say.

Rather, [I will pay attention] to their power, ²⁰ because the Kingdom of God doesn't have anything to do with words, but with power.

²¹ So, which would you prefer? Should I come to you with a stick, or with a loving and mild spirit?

Chapter 5

¹ However, I've actually heard that there is sexual immorality among you, and it's a type of immorality that isn't even [heard of] among the gentiles... that someone has taken his father's woman! ² Are you proud of this? Shouldn't you mourn instead, and shouldn't the man who committed this act be removed from your midst?

³ Although I'm not there physically, I am there in spirit, and I've already judged the man who has done this thing as though I were there. ⁴ My spirit and the power of our Lord Jesus agree that ⁵ in the name of our Lord Jesus, you should hand such a man over to the Opposer for the destruction of his flesh, so that the spirit within him may be saved in the Day of the Lord.

⁶ There's nothing for you to boast about here! Don't you know that a little [yeast] ferments the whole ball [of dough]? ⁷ So you must clean out the old fermentation in order to become something that's new and unfermented! For since the Anointed One (who is our Passover) has already been sacrificed, ⁸ we shouldn't be observing this Festival with old fermentation or with the fermentation of badness and wickedness, but with the unfermented bread of sincerity and truth!

⁹ Didn't I write you in my [last] letter and say that you must stop associating with those who are sexually immoral? ¹⁰ [Of course, I wasn't telling you to] completely avoid the immoral [people] of this system of things, or the greedy, or the extortionists, or the idol worshipers... otherwise, you'd actually have to get out of the world. ¹¹ But I'm writing to you now to tell you this: Stop associating with anyone called a brother who is sexually immoral, or greedy, or an idol worshiper, or who shouts insults, or is a drunk, or an extortionist... don't even eat with people like that!

¹² Indeed, how much can the judgment of outsiders mean to us when you aren't judging those who are in your midst? ¹³ For God is going to judge those on the outside... but you should expel any among you who are wicked!

Chapter 6

¹ Would any of you who think you've been [wronged] by another dare to take it to court [to be tried by] unrighteous men rather than by the Holy Ones? ² Don't you know that the Holy Ones will judge the world? So if you're going to judge the whole world, aren't you qualified to judge small matters?

³ Don't you know that we're going to judge angels? And if so, then how much more the things of this life! ⁴ Or would you rather bring them before those whom the congregation views with little regard?

⁵ I'm saying this to shame you! For isn't there at least one wise man among you who can [serve as] judge between his brothers? ⁶ Or must a brother take a brother to court to be judged by unbelievers? ⁷ Really, if you're bringing lawsuits against each other, you've already lost the battle! Why wouldn't you rather allow yourselves to be mistreated or defrauded? ⁸ Yet [it's a fact that] some of you are in fact mistreating and cheating others... including your own brothers!

¹² Yes, everything is legal for me, though not everything is good for me. And even though everything is legal for me, I won't allow anything to become my master. ¹³ For example; food is for the belly and the belly is for food. However, God is going to bring [the belly] and [food] to nothing. The same is true of the body... the body isn't for sexual immorality, it's for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴ Therefore, just as God raised our Lord, He will use His powers to raise us.

¹⁵ Don't you know that your bodies are all a part of the Anointed One? [And if this is so,] should I take one of the Anointed One's body parts and give it to a whore? May that never happen! ¹⁶ For whoever joins himself to a whore becomes one with her body, since [God] said, 'The two will become one flesh.'

¹⁷ Understand that those who share his Spirit are really in the Lord, ¹⁸ and this is why you should flee from sexual immorality!

Now, every other sin that a man commits is outside of his body; but when he has immoral sex, he's sinning against his own body! ¹⁹ And don't you realize that your bodies are the Divine Habitation of the Holy Spirit within you that you received from God? So, you no longer belong to yourselves... ²⁰ and since you were bought and paid for, you must use your bodies to glorify God!

Chapter 7

¹ Now, concerning those things that you wrote to me about:

It's best for a man not to even touch a woman. ² However, because of all the immorality, each man should be allowed to have his own woman and each woman her own man. ³ Then every man should give his woman what she's due, and every woman should do the same for her man.

⁴ Women don't have authority (gr. exousiazai) over their own bodies, their men do. And men don't have authority over their own bodies, their women do. ⁵ So you shouldn't deprive each other, except for set periods that you may agree on to devote time to prayer... then you may come together again.

No, don't allow the Opposer to tempt you by your lack of self control (gr. akrasian). ⁶ However, these are just my opinion, they aren't commandments.

⁷ I wish that you all were as I am. However, everyone has his own gift from God, and each in a different way. ⁸ So I'm telling unmarried people and widows that it's best for them to be like me. ⁹ But if they don't have self-control, let them marry, because it's better to marry than to burn [with passion].

¹⁰ To married people I give this warning (not really me, but the Lord): A woman shouldn't leave her husband. ¹¹ But if she does, she must either remain unmarried or make up with him... and the men shouldn't leave their wives.

¹² To the rest I say this (yes me, not the Lord): If any brother has an unbelieving woman who agrees to live with him, he should never leave her. ¹³ And if a woman has an unbelieving man who agrees to live with her, she shouldn't leave him, ¹⁴ because the woman makes [her] unbelieving man holy, and the brother makes [his] unbelieving woman holy. Otherwise, their children would be unclean... but now they are holy.

¹⁵ However, if the unbelieving one wants to leave, let him go, because a brother or a sister isn't a slave to such matters, since God has called us to peace. ¹⁶ But woman; how do you know that you won't save your man? Or man; how do you know that you won't save your woman?

¹⁷ Also, as the Lord has given each one his share and as God has called each one; let him follow in that same path. Yes, this is what I'm teaching in all the congregations.

¹⁸ Was any man called when he was circumcised? Then he shouldn't act like someone who's uncircumcised. Has any man been called when he was uncircumcised? Then he shouldn't be circumcised. ¹⁹ For circumcision doesn't mean anything and uncircumcision doesn't mean anything; [what's important] is obeying God's commandments! ²⁰ So it doesn't matter what state you were in when you were called... just stay that way.

²¹ Were you called when you were a slave? Don't let that bother you... but if you can become free, seize the opportunity, ²² because anyone in the Lord who was called [when he was] a slave has already become a free man in the Lord. And anyone who was free when he was called has become a slave of the Anointed One.²³ So, since you've already been bought and paid for; stop becoming slaves to men!

²⁴ Therefore, brothers; it doesn't matter what condition each [of you] were in when you were called... just stay that way, living to God.

²⁵ Now, when it comes to virgins, I don't have any commands from the Lord. However, I'll give you my own opinion (as one who by the Lord's mercy, has been faithful).²⁶ I think that it's best for anyone who's had a reason to stay one way, to continue as he [or she] is.²⁷ [For example], are you tied to a woman? Stop trying to get free! Are you free from a woman? Stop searching for a woman!²⁸ However, even if you marry, you aren't sinning. And if a virgin marries, she hasn't sinned.

Remember that those who [marry] will have fleshly problems, and I'm just trying to save you [from this].

²⁹ Let me say this, brothers... the season has been shortened! Therefore: Let those who have women act as though they have none;

³⁰ Let those who are crying act like those who don't cry;

Let those who are rejoicing act like those who don't rejoice;

Let those who are buying act like those who own nothing;

³¹ And let those who are using this system of things act like those who don't use it... because the ways of this world are about to change.

³⁵ Now, I'm just describing the best situation... I'm not trying to hang you, I'm just trying to move you to do things that work out well and sit well with the Lord, and which won't distract you.³⁶ But if anyone thinks his virginity isn't working out and he's past the bloom of youth, this is what should happen: Allow him to do whatever he wishes, for he isn't sinning if he marries! ³⁷ However, if someone is settled in heart, doesn't have any [sexual] needs, has self-control, and has decided in his heart to keep his virginity, he'll do better.

³⁸ Yes, though the one who gives up his [or her] virginity and marries does well, the one who doesn't marry does better. ³⁹ For a woman is tied down for as long as her man is alive. But if her man falls asleep [in death], she can marry whomever she wishes (but only in the Lord). ⁴⁰ However, it's my opinion that she'll be happier if she stays [single]... and I consider myself as having God's Spirit.

¹ Now, regarding things that have been sacrificed to idols; We realize that everyone knows something [about this]... but knowledge puffs up, while love builds up. ² So if anyone thinks he already knows everything about this, he doesn't really understand it as well as he should yet. ³ However, God knows those who truly love Him.

⁴ So, when it comes to eating food that has been offered to idols; We know that idols are really nothing in this world, and that there is no God but the One. ⁵ And though there are some that are called gods, whether heavenly or earthly (for there are many gods and many lords), ⁶ we have just one God, the Father, through whom everything has come, and we are in Him. There is also just one Lord, Jesus the Anointed, through whom everything came to be, and we are through him.

⁷ However, not everyone fully understands this yet. For up until now, some have followed the practice of eating food to an idol as a sacrifice to that idol... and this has damaged their consciences and made them weak. ⁸ But understand that what we eat doesn't really affect our standing with God; so if we choose not to eat [food that was sacrificed to idols], we aren't sinning... nor will we be blessed if we eat it.

⁹ But be careful that this power of yours doesn't become a trap to those who are weak. ¹⁰ Because, if they see you (the one who knows) dining in a temple; won't the weak one's conscience be built up to the point where he starts eating things as a sacrifice to idols? ¹¹ Then, because of your knowledge, you will have ruined the man who is weak... your brother for whom the Anointed One died! ¹² And when you sin against your brother in this way and wound his weak conscience, you're sinning against the Anointed One.

¹³ Therefore, if food is a trap to my brother, I'll not eat the meat [of idols] through [the rest of] the age, so I don't turn myself into a snare for my brother.

Chapter 9

¹ Am I not free? Am I not an Apostle? Haven't I seen our Lord Jesus, and aren't you my works in the Lord? ² If I weren't an Apostle to all the rest, I certainly am to you, because you're the seal that confirms my Apostleship in the Lord! ³ So I say this in my defense before those who would judge me: ⁴ I can eat or drink whatever I wish, ⁵ and I could also take a sister as my woman [if I wished], as did the other Apostles, the Lord's brothers, and Cephas (Peter).

⁶ Also, are BarNabas and I [the only ones] who have to work for a living? ⁷ Who serves as a soldier at his own expense... who plants a vineyard and doesn't eat its fruit... who shepherds a flock and doesn't drink some of the [sheep's] milk? ⁸ Is this just human reasoning, or doesn't the Law tell us the same thing? ⁹ For it's written in the Law of Moses: 'You must not muzzle a bull when it's threshing the grain.'

So, does God just care about bulls, ¹⁰ or didn't he say that for all of our sakes? Really, it was written for all of us, because the man who plows ought to plow in hope, and the man who threshes ought to do so in hope of eating [the grain].

¹¹ Therefore, if we've planted things of the Spirit within you, is it such a big thing for us to harvest things of the flesh from you? ¹² And if the people you work for are benefiting from your efforts, shouldn't we [benefit] from them even more? Yet, we haven't really used the [full] authority that we have, for we've been taking care of ourselves so that we don't get in the way of the good news about the Anointed One.

¹³ Don't you know that those who serve in the Temple also eat the things that are [contributed], and that those who serve at the Altar also share in the things that are sacrificed there? ¹⁴ So the Lord meant for those who preach the good news to be provided for by means of this good news. ¹⁵ However, I haven't used any of these provisions, and I'm not writing this so that will to happen to me... for I'd rather die than allow someone to take away my reason for boasting!

¹⁶ Now, there's no reason for me to boast when it comes to preaching the good news, because it's something that I must do... in fact, woe to me if I don't preach the good news! ¹⁷ For if I do this willingly, I'll receive my wages. However, if I don't do it willingly, it's still my assignment.

¹⁸ Therefore, what is my reward? It's my ability to preach the good news free of charge. And by doing this, I'm not abusing the authority that I have in the good news, ¹⁹ which leaves me free from being indebted to anyone.

Yes, I've made myself a slave to everyone so that I can gain more. ²⁰ I became a Jew to Jews, so I could gain Jews; I became as under the Law to those who are under the Law (though I'm not under the Law), so I could gain those who are under the Law; ²¹ I became as someone who is without the Law to those who aren't under the Law (though I'm not without law toward God and I'm under the law of the Anointed One), so I could gain those who are without the Law; ²² and I became weak to those who are weak, so I could gain the weak. Yes, I've become everything to everyone and used every means to save some of them, ²³ doing it all for the sake of the good news, so that I might share it with others!

²⁴ Don't you know that though all who [enter a] race in the stadium must run, only one gets the prize? So run to win! ²⁵ And every fighter has to maintain full control of himself just to win a garland that rots away... but we will receive one that doesn't rot. ²⁶ As the result, I'm not running timidly nor am I just swinging my arms, I'm boxing... ²⁷ I beat my body and treat it as a slave so that after I've preached to others, I won't be rejected!

Chapter 10

¹ Now, I don't want you to miss this point, brothers: Our ancestors were under the cloud and they all passed through the sea, ² so they were all baptized into Moses because of the cloud and the sea. ³ They all also ate the same food from [God's] Spirit, ⁴ and they all drank the same spiritual drink, because they drank from the spirit of the rock... and that rock was the Anointed One. ⁵ However, because God wasn't pleased with most of them, He left [their bodies] spread across the desert.

⁶ Now, things like this should serve as examples to us, so we won't become people who desire bad things as they did... ⁷ we don't want to become idol worshipers, as some of them did!

Notice that it's written: 'The people sat down to eat and drink, and then they got up to play.' ⁸ So we shouldn't commit sexual immorality as some of them did, because twenty-three thousands of them fell in just one day! ⁹ And we don't want to put Jehovah to the test as some of them did, because they were destroyed by snakes. ¹⁰ Nor do we want to complain as some of them did, because they were killed by the destroyer!

¹¹ Recognize that these things that happened to them [should serve as] examples to us, for they were written as warnings to us upon whom the end of the age has arrived. ¹² So let those who think they are standing be careful that they don't fall! ¹³ For none of you have faced any temptations yet, other than the things that are common to all men. And since God is faithful, He won't allow you to be tested beyond what you can bear... for with every temptation He provides a way out, so you can hang on.

¹⁶ Now, when we [say a] blessing over the cup of blessings, aren't we sharing in the blood of the Anointed One? And when we break the loaf, aren't we sharing in the body of the Anointed One? ¹⁷ So though there are many [of us], there's just one loaf... therefore, we are all one body, since we all eat from that same loaf. ¹⁸ And as in fleshly Israel; don't those who eat the sacrifices also share part of it with the Altar?

¹⁹ So what am I saying... that idols are anything, or that things sacrificed to idols are anything? ²⁰ No, I'm telling you that the things the nations offer as sacrifices are really being offered to the demons, not to God... and I don't want you to become sharers with the demons! ²¹ For you can't drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, nor can you eat at the table of the Lord and at the table of the demons. ²² We aren't trying to make the Lord jealous, are we? We aren't mightier than he is, are we?

²³ Recognize that though everything is legal, not everything is good for us... yes, everything is legal, but not everything makes us stronger. ²⁴ So, let's not just be watching out for our own interests, but [also for the best interests] of others.

²⁵ The fact is; you can eat whatever is sold at the meat markets without it bothering your consciences, ²⁶ for the earth and everything in it belongs to the Lord! ²⁷ And if an unbeliever invites you [for a meal] and you wish to accept, you can eat whatever is set before you and not let it bother your consciences. ²⁸ But if someone should say, 'This was offered as a sacrifice,' don't eat it. You should do this for the sake of the one who said that, because of conscience... ²⁹ not your conscience, that of the other person.

But [you might ask], 'Why should I let anyone else judge my freedom? ³⁰ If I'm eating thankfully, why should I be slandered over something for which I've given thanks?'

³¹ Well, whether you're eating, drinking, or doing anything else, you should be doing everything for God's glory. ³² So you shouldn't want to do anything that would stumble Jews, Greeks, or the Called Ones of God. ³³ And this is why I'm trying to please everyone in everything and not just doing what's best for myself... I'm [trying to do] what's best for others, so I can save them!

Chapter 11

¹ I'm asking you to imitate me as I'm [imitating] the Anointed One.

² I also want to praise you for remembering me and all the things that I've given to you, as well as for holding onto the things that I taught you.

¹³ So judge it for yourselves; Is it becoming for a woman to pray revealed before God? ¹⁴ Doesn't physical nature teach us that if a man has long hair it dishonors him, ¹⁵ but if a woman has long hair it glorifies her? Yes, that's why women were given longer hair. ¹⁶ However if anyone wants to argue about this, we don't have any other custom, nor do the congregations of God.

¹⁷ But when it comes to your meetings, I'm not praising anyone, for they seem to be doing more harm than good. ¹⁸ First, I hear that when you meet as a congregation, there are divisions among you... and I believe that's partly true, ¹⁹ because there had to be sects among you so that those who are approved could be clearly identified.

²⁰ However, when we meet in our gatherings, isn't it to eat the Lord's Supper? ²¹ Yet [I'm hearing that] some of you are bringing your own meals and eating, drinking, and getting drunk, while others are going hungry! ²² Don't you have homes where you can eat and drink... or are you condemning the congregation of God by shaming those who don't have anything?

What should I say to you? Should I praise you for this? No, I don't praise you!

²³ Let me tell you something that I received from the Lord, and which I want to share with you... it's that the Lord Jesus (on the very night that he was going to be handed over) took a loaf, ²⁴ and after giving thanks he broke it and said, 'This is my body that I'm giving for you. Keep on doing this in remembrance of me.' ²⁵ And after the meal he did the same thing with the cup, saying, 'In this cup is the blood of my New Sacred Agreement. Keep on doing this... and as often as you drink it, think of me.'

²⁶ Therefore, as often as you eat from the loaf and drink from the cup you will keep proclaiming the death of the Lord until he arrives. ²⁷ But recognize that anyone who eats the loaf and drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy condition will also be judged by the Lord's body and blood.

²⁸ As the result, each person should examine himself before eating from the loaf or drinking from the cup; ²⁹ for those who eat and drink are eating and drinking judgment on themselves if they don't judge [the worthiness of] their own flesh. ³⁰ And this is why so many of you are weak and unhealthy... and quite a few have fallen asleep!

³¹ Understand that if you would judge yourselves, you wouldn't have to be judged. ³² But [if you leave that] judgment to the Lord, you'll have to be disciplined so that you aren't condemned along with this system of things!

³³ Therefore, my brothers; when you come together to eat, wait for each other! ³⁴ And if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so you don't meet for judgment.

As for the rest of the matters; I'll straighten them out when I get there.

Chapter 12

¹ Now brothers; I don't want you to be ignorant when it comes to spiritual things. ² For you know that when you were 'gentiles,' you were led to be followers of dumb idols. ³ But now I want you to understand that nobody, when they're speaking through the power of God's Breath, can say that Jesus is cursed or that Jesus is Lord, other than by Holy Spirit. ⁴ For no matter how many types of gifts there are, they all come from the same Spirit. ⁵ And no matter how many types of services there are, [they all come from] the same Lord. ⁶ So although there are many types of manifestations, they all come from the same God who provides the outworking of everything for each person. ⁷ And it's all these many ways that the Spirit expresses itself through different people that brings it all together.

⁸ Therefore, through the same Spirit one is given words of wisdom, while another is given words of knowledge. ⁹ It gives words of faith to some, while others get the gift of healing, ¹⁰ or the ability to perform powerful deeds, or of prophesying, or of distinguishing different spirits, or of speaking different languages, or of interpreting the languages... ¹¹ yet they all come from the same Spirit, which works in many ways (as it wishes) through each person.

¹² So, just as the body is a single thing that has many members, and all the members (while being many) make up that one body... this is how the Anointed One is. ¹³ For through the same Spirit we were all baptized into that one body, whether we are Jews or Greeks, slaves or free men... and we were all made to drink from this same Spirit.

¹⁴ Therefore, you should understand that this body isn't one part, but many. ¹⁵ So if the foot should say, 'Because I'm not a hand, I'm no part of the body,' that doesn't mean it's no part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, 'Because I'm not an eye, I'm no part of the body,' that doesn't mean it's no part of the body either. ¹⁷ For if the whole body were just an eye, how would it hear? And if it could just hear, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ Therefore, God has placed each part in the body as He pleases. ¹⁹ For if all parts were the same, how could there be a body?

²⁰ So understand that though there are many body parts, there's just one body; ²¹ and the eye can't say to the hand, 'I don't need you,' nor can the head say to the feet, 'I don't need you.' ²² And notice that the weaker each body part seems to be, the more it is needed. ²³ For the body parts that we consider the least honorable are the ones that we surround with the most honor. And our unattractive parts were made more attractive ²⁴ because our attractive parts don't need any help.

When God assembled the body, He gave more honor to the parts that have less ²⁵ so that there would be no divisions in the body, and all the parts would show the same loving care for each other. ²⁶ As the result, if one body part suffers, all the other body parts suffer along with it. Or if a body part is glorified, all the other body parts rejoice along with it.

²⁷ Therefore, you should realize that you're all the Anointed One's body and body parts, ²⁸ and that God has designated each of your places in the congregation... first the Apostles, second the Prophets, and third the teachers. Then come [those with] powerful works, or the gifts of healing, or performing helpful services, or the ability to direct, or speaking different languages.

²⁹ Not all are Apostles, are they? Not all are Prophets, are they? Not all are teachers, are they? Not all can perform powerful works, can they? ³⁰ And not all have the gift of healing, or can speak different languages, or can serve as translators. ³¹ However, zealously keep seeking the greater gifts.

But now I'm going to show you something that's even better.

Chapter 13

¹ If I could speak the languages of both men and angels but didn't have love, I'd be the sound of [clanging] brass or a clashing cymbal. ² If I could prophesy, understand all the mysteries, had all knowledge and enough faith to move mountains, but didn't have love, I'd be nothing at all. ³ And if I were to give everything that I own to feed others or hand over my body so that I could boast, but didn't have love, none of this would have any value.

But [the \[gift of\] prophesying](#) will be done away with, the [gift of] speaking [in foreign] languages will end, and the [gift of miraculous] knowledge will pass away, ⁹ because we now have just a partial knowledge and we can only prophesy partially. ¹⁰ However, when the perfect thing arrives, the partial thing will be done away with.

¹¹ Back when I was a baby, I talked like a baby, thought like a baby, and reasoned like a baby. But now that I've become a [grown] man, I'm finished with baby's things.

¹² So, the things we see here today are like looking into a metal mirror... however, then it will be face to face. And though I can only understand partially now... then I will have a complete understanding and I will be completely understood! ¹³ And at that time, only these three things will remain: faith, hope, and love. And the greatest of them is love.

Chapter 14

¹ Therefore we should pursue love, as we also zealously seek the [gifts] of the Spirit... and I prefer that you prophesy. ² For those who speak in tongues aren't talking to men but to God, since nobody else is listening... so by the Spirit they're speaking mysteries. ³ On the other hand, those who prophesy are building up, encouraging, and bringing comfort to others.

⁴ So while the one who speaks in tongues builds himself up, the one who prophesies builds up [the whole] congregation. ⁵ And while I would like for all of you to [be able to] speak in tongues, I would prefer that you prophesy, because the one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues... unless he can also translate, so the whole congregation can be built up.

⁶ Brothers, if I were to come to you right now and speak to you in a foreign tongue, what good would it do if I didn't also speak to you with a revelation, or with knowledge, or with a prophecy, or with something that I can teach you?

¹⁰ There are many kinds of vocalizations in the world, and they all mean something. ¹¹ However, if I don't understand the meaning of the sound, I'm a foreigner to the one who is speaking, and the one who is speaking will be a foreigner to me.

¹² Therefore, if you have a zeal for the Spirit, use it in ways that build up the congregation so that everyone can prosper... ¹³ let the one who speaks in tongues pray that he can also translate! ¹⁴ For when I pray in a foreign language; although my spirit may be praying, my mind isn't receiving any benefit.

¹⁵ Then what should we do? If I pray by the Spirit, I'll also pray in my mind. And if I sing praises by the Spirit, I'll sing praises in my mind. ¹⁶ For if we're only offering praise by the Spirit, how will any ordinary man who is there and doesn't understand us say 'May it be so,' when we're giving thanks? ¹⁷ For though it may be true that we're giving thanks in a fine way, this person isn't being built up.

¹⁸ I thank God that I can speak more languages than all of you. ¹⁹ However, I would rather speak five words using my mind so that I can teach others when I'm in a congregation, than ten thousand words in a foreign language.

²⁰ Brothers, don't be like children when it comes to [using] the power of your minds... be babies when it comes to badness, as you perfect your abilities to reason! ²¹ For it's written in the Law: 'Though I speak to these people in other tongues and with other lips, they still won't listen to me, says the Lord.'

²² Understand that speaking in a foreign tongue isn't a sign to unbelievers, but to believers, while prophesying isn't for believers, it's for unbelievers. ²³ For if the whole congregation is speaking in tongues when some ordinary person or unbeliever comes into your meeting place, won't he just think you're crazy? ²⁴ However, if everyone is prophesying when an unbeliever or ordinary person enters, he is corrected and judged by them all. ²⁵ Then as the secrets in his heart are revealed, he will fall to his face before God and say, 'God is truly among you!'

²⁶ Therefore, what should happen, brothers? When you're meeting, one should have a psalm, another should have a teaching, another should have a revelation, and another should speak in a foreign language... that is, as long as someone else interprets it. Because, everything that's done there should be for [the purpose of] building up!

²⁷ So if some are speaking in tongues; limit it to two or three at the most, and do it in turns... then have someone do the translating. ²⁸ However, if no one can translate it, such people should be silent in the congregation, speaking just to themselves and to God.

²⁹ Let two or three Prophets speak instead, and allow the rest to judge the meaning of what they're saying. ³⁰ Then if someone else has a revelation while he's sitting there, the first one should [yield to him]. ³¹ This way, when each of them prophesy in turns, everyone can learn and be encouraged. ³² For the spirits of the Prophets should be controlled by the Prophets, ³³ because God doesn't send us confusion, [He sends] peace!

\(Disputed Verses\) And as [is true] in all the congregations of Holy Ones; ³⁴ the women should remain silent in the congregation... they shouldn't be allowed to speak out. Rather (as the Law says), they should be submissive. ³⁵ And if they wish to know something, let them ask their men [when they get] home; for it's disgraceful for a woman to speak out in a congregation.

³⁶ [Do you think that] the Word of God is coming from just you, and that you're the only one who understands it? ³⁷ Well, if someone thinks he's a Prophet and that he's under the influence of [God's] Spirit, then he should agree with these things that I'm writing to you, because these are the Lord's commandments! ³⁸ However, if there are those who choose to be ignorant, let them remain ignorant.

³⁹ My brothers; Keep on zealously seeking the [gift of] prophesying, but don't forbid the speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰ Just make sure that everything is conducted in a tasteful and orderly way.

Chapter 15

¹ Now brothers; I want you to understand this about the good news that I preached to you (which you received, in which you are standing, ² and through which you are being saved):

If you are still holding onto this good news that I preached to you, your faith hasn't been wasted, ³ because what I passed along to you was the first thing that I learned... that the Anointed One died for our sins (just as the Scriptures foretold), ⁴ and he was buried and then raised on the third day, ⁵ where he appeared first to Cephias (Peter), then to the rest of the twelve. ⁶ And after that, he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive today (though some have fallen asleep), ⁷ and he appeared to James and to all the Apostles. ⁸ But lastly – like some miscarriage – he appeared to me... ⁹ for I'm the least of the Apostles, and I'm unfit to even be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Called Ones of God.

¹⁰ Yet, through the loving care of God, I am what I am. And the loving-care that He showed me hasn't been wasted, because I've worked harder than all the rest... and not just for my own benefit, but because of God's loving care that's now in me. ¹¹ However, whether it was from me or from some other source; we have all preached and you have believed.

¹² Now, if we're preaching that the Anointed One was raised from the dead; then why are some of you saying there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ For if there was no resurrection of the dead, then the Anointed One couldn't have been raised either. ¹⁴ And if the Anointed One hasn't been raised, our preaching and our faith is all in vain ¹⁵ and we've proven to be false witnesses of God, because we've testified concerning God that He raised the Anointed One... who couldn't really have been raised if the dead won't be raised!

¹⁶ Indeed, if the dead won't be raised, the Anointed One hasn't been raised either! ¹⁷ And if the Anointed One hasn't been raised, our faith is useless and we're all still sinners. ¹⁸ Also, all those who have fallen asleep in the Anointed One are just gone! ¹⁹ So if we've been putting our hope in the Anointed One when this life all that there is, we're the most pitiable of all men!

²⁰ However, the Anointed One has been raised from the dead, and he's the first fruit of those who have fallen asleep [in death]. ²¹ For though death came through a man, resurrection from the dead has also come through a man. ²² And as all are dying because of Adam, all will be made alive in the Anointed One... ²³ but each one in his own order, [starting with] the first fruits of the Anointed One, followed by those who belong to the Anointed One when he arrives.

²⁴ Then in the end, after he has brought all governments, authorities, and powers to nothing, he will hand over the Kingdom to his God and Father. ²⁵ For he must rule [as king] until he has put all his enemies under his feet ²⁶ and the final enemy, the death, has been brought to an end.

²⁷ Yes, he will indeed put everything under his feet! However, when it says that everything will be put under his feet, it's evident that the exception is the One who put everything under him. ²⁸ For after everything has been put under him, the Son will submit to the One who put everything under him, so that God can be everything to everyone.

²⁹ Also, if none of the dead will be raised, then what good would it do for us to be [baptized into \[Jesus'\] death](#)? Yes, why [are we] being baptized for that purpose... ³⁰ and why are we in danger every hour? ³¹ For I'm dying every day just to prove that you are worthy of all my boasting about you... you whom I [call] my brothers through the Anointed Jesus our Lord.

³² And if the dead aren't going to be raised, and if it was just as a man that I fought wild animals at Ephesus, what good did it do me? Why not say, 'Let's eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die!'

³³ So, don't allow [anyone] to mislead you about this... remember that bad companions spoil worthwhile habits!

³⁴ Brothers, become more serious about your righteousness and stop sinning! For some [of you] know nothing at all about God (yes, I'm saying this to embarrass you)! ³⁵ Because, some have been asking, 'Just how will the dead be raised... in what sort of bodies will they return?' ³⁶ You foolish people! Those who plant seeds know that they can't live unless they die first; ³⁷ for whatever is planted isn't the body that it's going to become... it's just a naked grain of wheat, or whatever. ³⁸ So understand that God will give us any [type of] body that He wishes, just as He gives each seed its own body.

³⁹ Realize that not all flesh is the same! There is one type of flesh of men, another of cattle, another of birds, and another of fish. ⁴⁰ There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies... and the glory of heavenly bodies is different from that of earthly bodies. ⁴¹ The glory of the sun is one type, the glory of the moon is another, and the glory of the stars is yet another. In fact, stars differ from other stars in their glory. ⁴² So, that's how it will be with the resurrection of the dead:

'It's planted in decay and then raised as clean.

⁴³ It's planted without honor, and then raised in glory.

It's planted as weak, and then raised in power.'

⁴⁴ Therefore, what's planted as the body of something that breathes will be raised as a spiritual body... as there's a breather's body, there is also a spiritual [one].

⁴⁵ It's written that the first man (Adam) became a living soul. However, the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶ Thus the first [body] is human, not spiritual, for the spiritual one comes later. ⁴⁷ Likewise, as the first man came from the dust of the ground and the second man came from heaven; ⁴⁸ those that come from the dust are like the one who came from the dust, while those that are heavenly are like the heavenly one. ⁴⁹ Therefore, as we've worn the shape of the one who was made from the dust of the ground, we'll also wear the image of the Celestial One.

⁵¹ Look, I'm going to explain a mystery to you: Not all of us will be laid to rest; rather, we will be changed ⁵² in a moment – in the twinkling of an eye – during the last trumpet! For the trumpet will be blown and the dead will be raised incorruptible... yes, we will be changed. ⁵³ Then that which is corruptible will put on incorruptibility, and that which is dying will put on immortality. ⁵⁴ But when that which is dying puts on immortality, the words that were written will be fulfilled: 'Death, which prevails, will be swallowed.'

⁵⁵ 'So, where is your victory, O death... yes, where is your sting, O death?' ⁵⁶ The sting that brings death is sin, and the power for sin comes from the Law. ⁵⁷ But thanks to God that each of us will see victory through our Lord Jesus the Anointed One!

⁵⁸ Therefore, my beloved brothers; become settled, immovable, and always have plenty to do in the work of the Lord, since [you] know that the things you do in the Lord are never done in vain.

Chapter 16

¹ Now, regarding the collection for the Holy Ones: I want you to do the same thing that I told the congregations in Galatia. ² On each Sabbath day, you should set something aside in your savings, as you are prospering, so we won't have to take up a collection after I arrive. ³ Then when I get there, I can send whichever men you select and write letters about to carry your kind gift to Jerusalem. ⁴ And if I'm found worthy to go myself, they can travel with me.

⁵ I will come and [visit] you after I go to Macedonia, because I have to travel through Macedonia. ⁶ And if things turn out well, perhaps I can stay [with you] for a while, or even spend the winter with you. Then you can escort me part of the way to wherever I'll be going.

⁷ I don't want to see you as I'm passing through right now, because I hope to spend more time with you, if Jehovah allows it. ⁸ I'll be staying in Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹ because a large door of opportunity has opened to me there. However, there are also many opposers.

¹⁰ When Timothy gets there, make sure that he has nothing to fear while he's with you, because he's doing the Lord's work the same as I am... ¹¹ don't allow anyone to treat him disrespectfully! Then escort him part of the way in peace so that he can come here to me, because I'm waiting for him with the brothers.

¹² Now, regarding our brother Apollos; I begged him to come to you with the brothers, but he doesn't want to do that right now. However, he will come when he has the opportunity.

¹³ So stay awake, stand firm in the faith, carry on as men, and grow mighty. ¹⁴ And may everything you do be accomplished in love.

¹⁵ Now, I want to encourage you to do this, brothers: You know that the household of Stephanas is the first fruit of Achaia, and that they've been serving the needs of the Holy Ones. ¹⁶ Follow the instructions of such people, and all of you should labor and work hard together.

¹⁹ The congregations of [the Province of] Asia send you their greetings. Aquila, Priska, and the called ones in their home send you hearty greetings in the Lord. ²⁰ In fact, all the brothers send their greetings! So, greet each other with a holy kiss. ²¹ [Here are] my greetings (Paul's), written in my own hand.

²² May all those who don't care for the Lord be cursed. Come, O Lord! ²³ May the loving care of the Lord Jesus be with you, ²⁴ and may my love be with all of you, in the Anointed Jesus.

2 Corinthians

Written to the congregation in Corinth, Greece for the Apostle Paul (possibly by Sylvanus and possibly in Aramaic) within months after writing 1 Corinthians.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, who by the Will of God is an Apostle of the Anointed Jesus, and our brother Timothy, to the called ones of God in Corinth, as well as to all the Holy Ones throughout Achaia; ² May you receive peace and loving care from God our Father and from our Lord Jesus the Anointed.

³ May the God and Father of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One – the Father of mercy and the God of all comfort – be praised. ⁴ For [He's] the One who comforts us during all our trials and enables us to comfort others who are undergoing trials through the comfort that we receive from Him. ⁵ And since we have received plenty of suffering because of the Anointed One, we've also received plenty of comfort through the Anointed One... may it ever be so!

⁶ [We want you to know that] when we are being tried, it's on behalf of your comfort and salvation. And we are comforted by the fact that the comfort [you receive] is helping you to endure the trials that we [all] share in suffering. ⁷ So our hope for you is firm, because we know that since you're sharing in the suffering, you'll also share in the comfort.

⁸ Brothers, we wanted to tell you of the trials that we had to endure while we were in [\[the province of\] Asia](#). For we were under so much pressure that we thought there was no way out and we feared for our lives... ⁹ in fact, we believed that we had been condemned to death. But this taught us not to trust in ourselves, but in The God who raises the dead,¹⁰ because He rescued us and has continued to rescue us from such a great thing as death... and we hope that He'll keep on rescuing us.¹¹ You can help in this matter by praying for us, so that many faces will give thanks for the gifts that we are so kindly being given.

¹² Yes, this is something about which we can boast and to which our consciences can testify: It wasn't with fleshly wisdom, but through God's loving care that we've been conducting ourselves in holy ways and in godly sincerity toward this system of things, and especially toward you.

¹³ Now, we're really writing to you concerning things about which you already know and understand, and which I hope that you will keep on recognizing to the end:¹⁴ That we are something about which you can boast, just as you'll be for us in the Day of our Lord Jesus.

¹⁵ So, it's with this type of confidence that I had planned to come to you... to give you another reason for joy.¹⁶ I wanted to come there on my way to Macedonia and to stop over on my way back, then to have you escort me part of the way to Judea.¹⁷ And when I hoped to do this, don't think that I did so lightly. Rather, believe that what I had planned to do in the flesh is what I really planned to do, so that my yes would mean yes and my no would mean no.

¹⁸ You can trust in God that when we tell you yes, we don't mean no,¹⁹ because the Son of The God (the Anointed Jesus) about whom Silvanus, Timothy, and I have preached to you didn't become yes, but really no; for his yes really meant yes!²⁰ So all the promises of God – as many as there are – have become yes through him, and in him is the 'May it be so,' [which we say] to the glory of The God.

²¹ And indeed, the One who confirmed us into the Anointed One among you, and the One who anointed us, is God.²² So He is the One who sealed us and gave us the pledge of [His] Spirit that we now have in our hearts.

²³ Therefore, I call God as a witness against myself, that the reason why I haven't come to you in Corinth yet is to spare you.²⁴ For we aren't the masters of your faith, we're just co-workers for your joy, since your faith is what has enabled you to stand firm.

Chapter 2

¹ I've decided not to come to you again as long as I'm feeling sad about you. ² For if I've made you sad, then whom do I have to cheer me up other than those who've been saddened by me? ³ As the result, I'm writing this so that when I do get there, those over whom I should be rejoicing won't sadden me, since I'm confident that I have reasons to be joyful over them. ⁴ And I'm writing with great difficulty, pain of heart, and with tears, not to make you sadder, but to let you know of the special love that I have for you.

⁵ So if someone else has saddened you, he hasn't saddened me... therefore I won't be laying any further burdens on you, ⁶ since the discipline that the majority of you gave this man was sufficient. ⁷ You can kindly forgive him and comfort him now, so that he won't somehow be swallowed up by his deep sadness... ⁸ yes, I'm telling you to let him know that you love him!

⁹ The reason why I wrote you [before] was to prove that you're obedient in everything, ¹⁰ and that if you forgive anyone for anything, I do too. For when I forgive someone on your behalf before the Anointed One (that is, if I should ever have anything to forgive), ¹¹ it's so that none are lost to the Opposer, since we know how he operates.

¹² I wanted to tell you that when I got to Troas to preach the good news about the Anointed One and found that a doorway of the Lord had been opened to me there, ¹³ I was deeply disturbed by the fact that I couldn't find my brother Titus. So I left the others and traveled on to Macedonia. ¹⁴ And thanks to God, who (through the Anointed One) always leads us triumphantly and uses us to make the [sweet] smell of knowledge about Him known everywhere; ¹⁵ for [He has made us] the sweet smell of God and the Anointed One to those who are perishing and to those who are being saved... ¹⁶ yes, the smell of death to the dying and of life to the living!

So, who is qualified to do this work? ¹⁷ We aren't like others who are peddlers of the word of God. Rather, we speak sincerely from God and before God, through the Anointed One.

Chapter 3

¹ So now, do we have to introduce ourselves to you again, or do we (as do some men) need introductory letters either to you or from you? ² For you are our letters that are written in our hearts, which are recognized and being read by all men, ³ since you've proven to be a letter of the Anointed One whom we are serving. And you aren't written in ink, but in the Breath of the living God... not on tablets made of stone, but on tablets made of flesh... on hearts! ⁴ We are now even more confident of this, through the Anointed One and by The God.

⁵ No, we should never start thinking that any of this comes from ourselves, because all of our qualifications come from The God. ⁶ For He's the One who qualifies us to be the ministers of a New Sacred Agreement, which isn't something that's written but comes from the Breath [of God], since the thing that's written brings death, while the Breath [of God] gives life!

⁷ So if service to the written letters (which were engraved in stone and bring death) came with so much glory that the sons of IsraEl couldn't even look at Moses' face because of the shine (that was to pass away); ⁸ why shouldn't becoming servants to [something from] His Breath bring even greater glory? ⁹ Yes, if service to something that condemns brought glory, how much more should serving something [that leads to] righteousness bring glory, ¹⁰ since that which was once so glorious has now lost its glory because of this more glorious thing? ¹¹ And if the thing that was to pass away came in great glory, then how much more will this new thing be glorified?

¹² So, since we now have such a hope, we can speak out clearly. ¹³ We don't have to do the same as Moses did, for he had to put a veil over his face so the sons of IsraEl wouldn't see something that was to be done away with in the end. ¹⁴ And this [veil] has hardened their minds down to this day, for the veil still hangs there as a covering whenever the Old

Sacred Agreement is being read, though it has already been done away with by means of the Anointed One.

¹⁵ Yes, whenever Moses is read today, they still have a veil over their hearts, ¹⁶ which is removed when they turn to the Lord. ¹⁷ For the Lord is [now a] spirit, and wherever the spirit of the Lord is, there's freedom! ¹⁸ Therefore, when we uncover our faces, each of us have the glory of the Lord... we reflect his glory like mirrors, and we are transformed from [the old] glory to [a new] glory that comes from the spirit of the Lord.

Chapter 4

¹ So, because of this service to which we've been so mercifully assigned, we haven't given up. ² Rather, what we have given up is those things that lead to shame! No, we aren't sneaking around and changing the Word of God; rather, we're making the truth known! And before God, we're proving ourselves worthy to the consciences of all men. ³ So if the good news that we bring is hidden in any way, it's only hidden to those who are dying... ⁴ to the unbelievers, whose minds have been blinded by the god of this age, so that the light of the glorious good news about the Anointed One (who is the image of The God) is unable to shine through.

⁵ We aren't preaching about ourselves, but about the Anointed Jesus, our Lord! And we've become your slaves for Jesus' sake, ⁶ because God said, 'Light will shine from the darkness.' And He has caused this light of knowledge about the glory of God to shine into our hearts through the face of Jesus the Anointed. ⁷ Yes, we're storing this treasure within [these] clay pots, so that the power may prove to be God's and not our own.

⁸ Therefore, although we've been under pressure in every conceivable way, we've never been cornered; although [there were times when] we didn't know a way out, we've never been left without a way; ⁹ although we've been persecuted, we've never been let down; and though we've been knocked down, we've never been destroyed. ¹⁰ For we always bear the death of Jesus' body so that the life of Jesus can be seen in our bodies. ¹¹ [And that's why] those of us who are [still] living are always being handed over to death for Jesus' sake... so that the life of Jesus can be seen in our dying flesh. ¹² As the result, death is at work in us, while life [is at work] in you.

¹³ So, we share the same spirit of faith; for it's written: 'Because I had faith, I spoke.' And this is why we're speaking about the things in which we believe! ¹⁴ For we know that the One who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us to be with Jesus... and when that happens, we'll be standing there beside you! ¹⁵ Yes, everything is being done through you, so that this loving care can grow as [you] continue to grow, and there will be even more giving of thanks to God's glory.

¹⁶ No, we aren't behaving badly. And though the man [you see] on the outside is wasting away, the man on the inside is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For the difficulties that [we currently have to endure] are far less than what the age-long glory is producing in us. ¹⁸ So you should just disregard the things that you can see and notice the things that you can't see. For the things that you can see are temporary, while the things you can't see will last through the ages.

Chapter 5

¹ Here is one thing that we know [for sure]: If our earthly house (this temporary dwelling) is destroyed, we still have a dwelling from God that lasts through the ages... a house in the heavens that isn't made with hands ² and about which we groan, because we long to be clothed in that house from heaven ³ so that we aren't found to be stripped naked. ⁵ Yes, while we are still in this temporary dwelling, we're groaning and under pressure, because we don't really want to take it off and put on the other so as to allow that which is dying to be swallowed by life.

⁵ Now, the One who prepared us for this purpose is God, and He has given us an advance payment... His Breath. ⁶ Therefore, we can be courageous, because we know that as long as we are at home in this body, we aren't at home with the Lord... ⁷ so we're walking by faith, not by something we can see.

⁸ Yes, we can be courageous, for we'll be happy to leave this body so we can be at home with the Lord. ⁹ And we love the fact that whether we are in this home or we leave it, he is still pleased with us. ¹⁰ However, everything about us must be revealed when we stand before the judgment seat of the Anointed One; for what we will each receive will be based on the things that we did while we were in this body, whether it's good or foul.

¹¹ So, since we have come to know the fear of the Lord, we continue to persuade men [to turn toward] God. And I hope that we have shown your consciences what we really are, ¹² so we won't have to prove ourselves to you again... and then you'll have reasons to boast about us and have something to offer to those who are more influenced by what we look like on the outside than by what is really in [our] hearts.

¹³ So if we seem to be crazy to you, [we're crazy] to God, while we're sound in mind when it comes to you.

¹⁴ Indeed, we're all bound together by the love of the Anointed One; for we have concluded that he died for us all, because we are all dying. ¹⁵ Yes, he died for all of us so that none of the living might live for themselves anymore, but for the one who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶ So from now on, we don't know anyone by the flesh. And even if we knew the Anointed One in the flesh; we certainly don't know him that way anymore. ¹⁷ For all who are in the Anointed One are a new creation! Yes, the old things have passed away... but {Look!} now they've been made new! ¹⁸ And it all comes from The God who has restored us to a good relationship with Himself through the Anointed One.

Therefore, [God] has assigned us to be the servants of a restored relationship with Him! ¹⁹ For through the Anointed One, God is bringing the world back into a good relationship with Himself by no longer holding their sins against them. And because He has put the message of this reconciliation within us, ²⁰ we've become the ambassadors of the Anointed One, and God is calling [people] through us. Yes, we are begging them through the Anointed One to come back to a [good] relationship with God, ²¹ since He made this one who didn't know sin to be sin for us, so that we could become the righteousness of God through him.

Chapter 6

¹ Moreover, since we are your fellow workers, we urge you not to waste the loving care of God that you've received. ² For He says:

'In a season of favor, I heard you,
And in a day of salvation, I came to your aid.'

So look! This is the season of favor! And look! This is the day of salvation!

³ Therefore, we aren't doing anything that might offend anyone, so that our service might remain spotless. ⁴ And we're taking our stand as God's servants in everything... by enduring many difficulties, by shortages of necessities, ⁵ by beatings, by imprisonment, by mobs, by hard work, by sleepless nights, by hunger, ⁶ by holiness, by knowledge, by patience, by loving care (through the Holy Breath), and by love that isn't judgmental.

¹¹ Therefore, our mouths and our hearts have been spread wide open to you Corinthians! ¹² So, you aren't having a hard time finding room in us; you're having a hard time making room [for us] in yourselves. ¹³ Just be fair with us! I'm telling you as [my] children: Make room for us!

¹⁴ You must stop joining yourselves unevenly with unbelievers like different types of animals under the same yoke; for, what connection is there between righteousness and law-breaking? Or what does light have in common with darkness? ¹⁵ Yes, what harmony is there between the Anointed One and [the demon] BeliEl, or what can a faithful person share with an unbeliever... ¹⁶ how can a holy dwelling of God [make room for] idols?

Yes, you must recognize that we are in fact the living and holy dwellings of The God. As God Himself said: ‘I will live and walk among them... I’ll be their God and they’ll be My people.’¹⁷ And, ‘Come out from among them and separate yourselves... Stop touching unclean things, and I’ll take you in, says Jehovah’ ...¹⁸ ‘Then I’ll be your Father, and you’ll be My sons and My daughters, says Jehovah, the Almighty.’

Chapter 7

¹ So, since we’ve been given these promises, loved ones; let’s wash off all the filth of the flesh and the person we’ve been on the inside, and become perfectly holy in our fear of The God.

² Also, make room for us, because we haven’t wronged anyone, corrupted anyone, or taken advantage of anyone. ³ I’m not saying this to condemn you, because, as I told you before, you’re in our hearts... so we’ll live together and die together! ⁴ And this why I feel so perfectly free to speak to you. Yes, I’m very comfortable [with you], and I have many reasons to boast about you. In fact, I overflow with joy over you because of all the difficulties that we’ve shared together!

⁵ [I want you to understand that] since we’ve arrived in here Macedonia, our bodies haven’t had any relief, for there have been problems over everything. On the outside there are conflicts, and on the inside there are fears. ⁶ However, The God who gives comfort to the lowly has provided comfort to us through the presence of Titus. ⁷ And it wasn’t just his presence alone that brought us comfort... it was also because of the comfort that he felt over you, since he again brought us word of your longing, mourning, and zeal for me. And that made me very happy.

⁸ So if what I wrote in my [first] letter made you sad, I don’t regret it. And even if I did regret it [at first], I see that my letter only saddened you for a little while. ⁹ So now I’m rejoicing... not because you were saddened, but because you were saddened into repenting! And because you were saddened in a Godly way, we know that we didn’t damage you. ¹⁰ For being sad in a Godly way brings a repentance that results in salvation (and there’s nothing to regret about that), while the sadness of this world brings death.

¹¹ And look at what this sadness in a Godly way has accomplished... see how it speeded things up and gave us answers... how it caused indignation, fear, desire, zeal, and vengeance! Because after that, you proved yourselves pure in every way in this matter!

¹² Now, I didn't write [that letter to] you because of the one who was acting unrighteously or because of the one who was being treated unrighteously. Rather, [I wrote it] to prove how earnestly you obey us in the sight of God, ¹³ and this is what has brought us so much comfort! For we now have even more reasons to be joyful, because of the joy that this has brought to Titus, since the man that he is within has been refreshed by all of you.

¹⁴ Therefore, if I have boasted to him about you, I've had no reason to be ashamed of it, because everything that I said about you is true... yes, after we bragged about you to Titus, it has all proven to be true! ¹⁵ And he cares for you even more deeply now, as he remembers how well you've obeyed, and how all of you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶ So I'm rejoicing and I'm encouraged in every way because of you!

Chapter 8

¹ Brothers, we want to tell you about how God's loving care has been shown toward the congregations in Macedonia. ² Although they are undergoing many trials and difficulties, their great joy and deep poverty brought out the richness of their generosity. ³ For as they were able (and I testify that it was more than they were able to do) ⁴ and of their own accord, they kept begging us to [allow them to] have a share in contributing to the collection for the Holy Ones. ⁵ And it wasn't just as we had hoped they would do; first they gave to the Lord, and then they gave to us (as it was God's Will). ⁶ So this led us to encourage Titus (since he was the one who initiated it) to complete the collection among you also.

⁷ Therefore, because you're prospering in everything – in your faith, words, knowledge, eagerness, and in our love for you – may you share your prosperity through similar [acts of] loving kindness.

⁸ I'm not saying this to pressure you; [I'm saying this] because these others have been so eager, and because I want to prove the genuineness of your love.

⁹ Of course, you know of the loving care that was shown by our Lord Jesus the Anointed One; for though he was rich, he became poor for your sakes in order to make you rich through his poverty.

¹⁰ This is my opinion on the best way to handle it: Last year, you were the first ones who wanted to give, and you even started contributing. ¹¹ So now, finish what you started, and bring all of that eagerness and willingness to a climax. Just give from whatever you have on hand; ¹² for when [people] are already willing, it's best to accept what they have rather than what they don't have.

¹³ Understand that I'm not trying to make it harder on you than for the others, ¹⁴ because everything balances out. If you can give more right now, it will make up for those who can give less. And if others can give more than you, it will make up for those who can give less. So everything balances out. ¹⁵ As it is written: 'Those who gathered more didn't have too much, and the rest who gathered little didn't lack.'

¹⁶ Now, thanks to God that He has put the same earnestness [that I have] for you into the heart of Titus, ¹⁷ for he has responded to your encouragement and he's decided to return to you quickly.

¹⁸ We're also sending a brother along with him whose praise in the good news has spread throughout all the congregations. ¹⁹ He's the one that was appointed by the congregations to be our traveling companion, and who will actually distribute the gifts that are so willingly being donated for the glory of the Lord. ²⁰ That way, we can avoid having anyone complain about us over the generous contributions that are being handled by us. ²¹ For we are planning ahead to do good things not just in the sight of the Lord, but also from the viewpoint of men.

²² And of course; we're sending along our brother who has proven to be zealous so many times and in so many ways, but who is now even more eager because of his greater confidence in you.

²³ If there are any questions about Titus; he's my partner and co-worker for your interests. Or if [there are any questions] about [the rest of] our brothers; they are apostles to the congregations and a glory to the Anointed One. ²⁴ So now, prove your love for them that we've been boasting about to the congregations.

Chapter 9

¹ Regarding the collections for the Holy Ones; I really don't have to write anything about this to you, ² for I know how eager you've been. I've even bragged to the Macedonians about you, telling them that Achaia has been ready for a year now, and your zeal has been an incentive to most of them. ³ So at this time, I'm sending the brothers [to you] to prove that our boasting about you hasn't been in vain... and I hope that you're ready, as I said you'd be. ⁴ Otherwise, if the Macedonians should come with me and find that you aren't ready, we'd be shamed by the assurances we gave them. ⁵

So, I thought it would be best to encourage the brothers to come to you ahead of time in order for you to start collecting the generous gift that you promised. That way, what is given will for a fact be a generous gift and not something that we've extorted from you.

⁶ Remember that those who plant little will harvest little, while those who plant much will harvest much. ⁷ So, may each of you do whatever you've resolved in your hearts... but not grudgingly or because you feel pressured, since God loves a cheerful giver.

⁸ Moreover, God is able to show all of His loving kindness toward you, so that you can have more than enough of everything and an abundance of good deeds! ⁹ As it is written:

'They contribute to those who are needy,
And through the ages, they prove themselves just.'

¹⁰ Therefore, may the One who supplies an abundance of seeds to the farmers and plenty of bread to the hungry supply (and even multiply) the seeds that you need for planting, and may He increase your harvests because of your righteousness, ¹¹ so that you will be made rich because of your generosity... yes, thank God for that!

¹² For the purpose of this community service isn't just to supply the needs of the Holy Ones abundantly, but also to [make you] rich through their many words of thanks to God. ¹³ Realize that the proof of the value of the service [that you are performing] is when others glorify God because of you over your generous contributions to them and to everyone else, as you continue to obey and preach the good news about the Anointed One.

¹⁴ And this is why they're praying for you and longing [to see] you... because of the tremendous loving care that God has shown to them through you. ¹⁵ Yes, thanks to God for His indescribable gifts!

Chapter 10

¹ Now, I Paul – whose appearance is considered lowly among you – am pleading with you [in the same] mild and obedient ways as did the Anointed One. And though I'm not there, I hope that I can be so bold as to say this to you: ² I beg that in my absence, I can unflinchingly dare to take on some among you who think of us as just walking in the flesh. ³ For although we are in fact just flesh, we don't fight in fleshly ways, ⁴ because the weapons that we use aren't fleshly... they come from the power of God and they can tear down mighty fortifications!

⁵ So, this is what we will use to tear down their ideas and all the high-minded things that they are raising against the knowledge of God. Yes, we can capture all their thoughts and then force them to obey the Anointed One! ⁶ We are also ready to avenge any disobedience (whenever there is disobedience) ⁷ of those who are just looking at our faces!

Therefore, let those who are trusting that they belong to the Anointed One remember this: As they belong to the Anointed One, so do we! ⁸ And even if I do boast a little too much about the power that the Lord gave me to build you up (not to tear you down), ⁹ I'm not ashamed if I also give you the impression that I want to terrify you with my letters. ¹⁰ For it's a fact that some of you are saying, 'His letters are heavy and forceful, but when he's here, he looks weak and what he says has little value.’¹¹ So, may they be reminded that what we write about in letters when we’re away, is what we’re going to do when we get there!

¹² Notice that we don’t dare to make any comparisons... we aren’t comparing ourselves with those who think too much of themselves, because when they measure themselves (when they compare themselves against themselves), they aren’t reaching the right conclusions.¹³ However, we don’t have to brag about how we measure up, for we gauge everything by the yard stick that God gave us... and that stick reaches as far as you!

¹⁴ So, we aren’t stretching ourselves out so far that we can’t reach you, because we were the first to come all the way to you [when we] preached the good news to you about the Anointed One.¹⁵ Therefore, those braggarts can’t really measure [themselves against] the efforts of others.

What we are hoping is that as your faith grows, we will be recognized as great among you when you measure us by this same ruler; for then we will [see more results]¹⁶ as we go out preaching the good news to regions that are far beyond you, and there will be no more boasting over how we measure up to someone else’s stick.¹⁷ [As the Prophet said,] ‘Let those who boast, boast in Jehovah.’

¹⁸ So understand that those who think of themselves as being important aren’t necessarily the ones that will be approved... just those who are recommended by our Lord!

Chapter 11

¹ I wish that you’d bear with me in my foolishness... but then, you are bearing with me. ² For I’m jealous over you with a Godly zeal, since I personally promised you in marriage as chaste virgins to a husband... yes, to stand beside the Anointed One. ³ However, I’m afraid that somehow, in the same way that the snake cunningly seduced Eve, your minds might be corrupted away from the sincerity and chastity that we owe to the Anointed One. ⁴ For [I know that] if [someone] should come preaching about a Jesus other than the one that we preached to you, or if you should receive a spirit other than the one you've already received, or if [you should hear] good news other than what you've [already] accepted, you would likely tolerate it too well.

⁵ Now, I don't think that I've done anything to prove myself inferior to your super-fine 'apostles.' ⁶ And even if I am an unskilled speaker, I'm certainly not [inferior] when it comes to knowledge, for I've shown this to you in everything and in every way!

⁷ Did I commit some sin by humbling myself so as to make you greater when I gladly preached the good news of God to you free of charge? ⁸ If so, then I must have robbed other congregations by accepting their provisions in order to serve you! ⁹ For when I was with you and I needed something, I didn't make myself a burden to anyone... and then the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied what I needed more than adequately.

Yes, I've kept myself from being a burden to you in every way, and I will keep on doing so! ¹⁰ By the Anointed One; it's a fact that I won't allow anyone to end to this reason for my boasting in the area of Achaia.

¹¹ Why not? Is it because I don't love you? God knows [that I do].

¹² So, what I'm doing is what I will continue to do in order to cut off the attacks from those who wish to attack [me]... those who want to be proclaimed our equals in this thing about which they're bragging. ¹³ For they are false apostles... deceivers who are trying to turn themselves into the Apostles of the Anointed One. ¹⁴ And this shouldn't come as [a great] surprise to you, since the Opposer keeps turning himself into a messenger of light. ¹⁵ Therefore, it should be expected that those who serve him would also turn themselves into servants of righteousness. However, their end will show up what they're doing.

¹⁶ Allow me to say this once again: Don't let anyone think that I'm foolish! But even if you should choose to accept me while you believe that I'm foolish, that gives me a bit more reason to boast.

¹⁷ Now, I'm not saying this to follow the Lord's example, but foolishly as a braggart... ¹⁸ yes, since many [of you] are bragging as humans do, I'll boast also. ¹⁹ It seems that you're just too happy to put up with foolish people, because you're all so reasonable. ²⁰ In fact, you put up with anyone who enslaves, or eats, or takes, or who elevates himself, or slaps you on the face! ²¹ Therefore in dishonor, I will speak as though we had all been weak... and if anyone is daring, I'll foolishly say that I'm daring also!

²² Are they Hebrews? I'm one also! Are they IsraElites? Me too! Are they AbraHam's seed? So am I! ²³ Are they servants of the Anointed One? I reply like a crazy man... I'm even more so! For [I've] worked harder, been in prison more times, been beaten more than anyone else, and have often been near death! ²⁴ Why, five times I received forty strokes less one from the Judeans, ²⁵ I was beaten with rods three times, I was stoned once, I've been shipwrecked three times, and I've spent a night and a day in the sea!

I've often been sleepless, hungry, thirsty, and starving... and many times [I've even been] cold and naked! ²⁸ Then in addition to all these external things, there are the anxieties [that I feel] for the congregations that flood over me each day. ²⁹ For, who is weak that doesn't make me weak, and who stumbles into a trap that doesn't set me on fire? ³⁰ So if there has to be bragging; then I'll boast about the things that show how weak I am!

³¹ Before the God and Father of the Lord Jesus (the One who is to be praised through the ages), [I can swear that] I'm not lying about these things. ³² For in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas posted guards around the city to arrest me; ³³ and as the result, [the brothers] had to lower me on a wicker basket through a window in the [city] wall to help me escape from his hands!

Chapter 12

¹ Yes, although it isn't good, I have to brag... please allow me to pass along some supernatural visions and revelations from [the] Lord:

² I know of a man in the Anointed One who was caught away some fourteen years ago (whether [it happened] in the body or out of the body – only God knows) into the third heaven. ³ Yes, I know such a man (whether [it happened] in the body or apart from the body – only God knows) ⁴ who was caught away into a paradise where he heard unspeakable things that are illegal for a man to discuss.

⁵ Yes, I will boast about a man like that, but I won't boast about myself, other than about my own weaknesses. ⁶ Also, as I'm boasting, I won't do it foolishly... I'll just tell the truth. I'll hold myself back lest anyone should give me more credit than what they see in me or what they hear anyone say about me ⁷ when it comes to the surpassing types of revelations that I've shown to you.

And so that I wouldn't become too conceited, I was given a thorn in my flesh... a messenger from the Opposer that keeps slapping me so I don't get too impressed with myself. ⁸ I've begged the Lord three times to remove it from me, ⁹ and He really answered me and said, 'My loving kindness is enough for you, for [your] strength is being perfected [by your] weaknesses!'

Therefore I'll gladly boast of my weaknesses so that the power of the Anointed One will cover me like a tent! ¹⁰ Yes, I [actually] appreciate the weaknesses, the insults, the [times] that I've done without, and the persecutions and difficulties that I've experienced on behalf of the Anointed One, because when I'm weak, that's when I'm [the most] powerful!

¹¹ So now I've become foolish... and you're the ones who've made me that way, because I should have been recommended by you! But even if I were nothing, I wouldn't be less than those super-fine 'apostles' in any way.

¹² Indeed, it was the proofs of [my Apostleship] that produced endurance in you by means of signs, omens, and powerful works. ¹³ So, in what way have you received less than the rest of the congregations... other than the fact that I wasn't a burden to you? Kindly forgive me for this wrong!

¹⁴ {Look!} This is the third time that I've gotten ready to come to you, and [once again], I won't be coming as a burden to you, because I'm not looking for the things you have, but for you! For the children shouldn't be setting things aside for their parents; parents [should be setting things aside] for their children! ¹⁵ And as for me; I will happily spend and be spent for your lives!

Therefore, if I love you the most, why am I the one that is loved the least?

¹⁶ May that be as it is... but I've never been a burden to you.

Was I sneaky and did I try to capture you through trickery, ¹⁷ or did I try to take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you? ¹⁸ When I urged Titus [to come to you] and I sent a brother along with him; did Titus take advantage of you in any way... don't we in fact both act the same way and follow in the same footsteps?

¹⁹ [I hope that] you've been thinking about all of this as we've been defending ourselves to you, for we are speaking [to you] before God [and] the Anointed One!

Loved ones; everything [we've done is] to build you up! ²⁰ Yet I'm afraid that when I arrive, I may not find you to be as I wish... for then I might not be something that you'd wish for either.

I don't want to find divisions, jealousy, anger, arguing, backbiting, whispering, pride, or disorder; ²¹ for if that happens, perhaps the next time I come I'll be humiliated by my God over you and then I'll have to mourn for the many who have sinned and not repented their uncleanness, immorality, and the dirty things that they're doing.

Chapter 13

¹ Now, this is the third time that I'll be coming to you. And since from the mouths of two or three witnesses everything is proven ² (as I told you before in my second visit); though I'm not there now, I'm giving this warning once again to those of you whom [I found] sinning the last time (and to all the rest of you): When I come there the next time, I won't put up with it!

³ Yet, here you are searching for the proofs that the Anointed One is speaking through me!

Realize that [Jesus] isn't weak toward you... [in fact], he's very powerful among you! ⁴ For though he was hung on a pole in weakness, he's now alive through the power of God! And likewise, although we are weak in him, we are alive in him through the power of The God that's within you.

⁵ So, keep testing yourselves to make sure that you're really in the faith... yes, prove what you are! For you must understand that Jesus the Anointed One is within you... that is, as long as you have his approval. ⁶ And I truly hope you know that we haven't been disapproved!

⁷ Now, we keep praying to God that you don't do anything wrong. And we aren't doing this to make ourselves look like we're approved, but so that you may be doing what's better even if that makes us look disapproved. ⁸ For we are unable to do anything against the truth; only for the truth.

⁹ Therefore, we rejoice whenever we are weak and you are strong, because that's what we're praying for... for you to be restored! ¹⁰ This is why I'm writing these things while I'm away... so that when I get there, I won't have to cut anyone off. And then [I can] use the authority I've received from the Lord to build you up, not to tear you down!

¹¹ Finally brothers; Keep on rejoicing, growing to perfection, and being courageous. Also, be of the same mind and live peaceably, so that the God of love and peace will always be with you. ¹² Keep on greeting each other with a holy kiss.

¹³ All the Holy Ones send you their greetings.

¹⁴ May the loving care of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One, the love of God, and a sharing in the Holy Breath be with all of you.

Galatians

Written to the congregation in Galatia, Asia Minor by or for the Apostle Paul (likely in Aramaic) about 50-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ From Paul, who was appointed an Apostle not by a man nor through a man, but through Jesus the Anointed One and by God the Father [who raised \[Jesus\] from the dead](#), ² as well as from all the brothers who are with me, to the congregations of Galatia; ³ May you receive loving care and peace from God (our Father), and from the Lord Jesus the Anointed One... ⁴ the one who gave himself for our sins to save us from this wicked age because it was the will of our God and Father, ⁵ to whom all glory belongs through the ages of ages... may it be so.

¹⁰ Indeed, whose approval do you think I am presently seeking; do I wish to please God or men? Well, even if [I were trying to please] men, I would be servant of the Anointed One anyhow. ¹¹ So I want you to understand this, brothers: The good news that I preached as good news didn't come from men, ¹² because I didn't get it from men, nor did any man teach it [to me]. [It came] through a revelation from Jesus the Anointed One.

¹³ You've heard about the way that I used to act [while I was involved] in Judaism, for I fanatically persecuted the congregation of God and I was destroying it. ¹⁴ [I did this because] I was more advanced in Judaism than many others of my own age and race, and I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. ¹⁵ But when The God who took me from my mother's womb called [me] through His loving care ¹⁶ to reveal His Son through me so that I could preach the good news about him to the gentiles; I didn't look for the advice of flesh and blood, ¹⁷ nor did I go to Jerusalem to see those who became Apostles before me. Rather I went off to Arabia, and after that I returned to Damascus. ¹⁸ In fact, I didn't go up to Jerusalem until some three years later, when I went to visit Cephas (Peter) and I stayed with him for fifteen days. ¹⁹ However, I didn't see any of the rest of the Apostles... just the Lord's brother James.

²⁰ Look! I'm not lying to you about any of the things that I'm writing in the sight of God!

²¹ Then after that, I traveled to the provinces of Syria and Kilikia... ²² therefore, those who were called by the Anointed One in Judea wouldn't have recognized my face. ²³ All they heard about me was: 'The man who used to persecute us is now preaching the good news about the same faith that he once tried to destroy.' ²⁴ So they glorified God because of me.

Chapter 2

¹ Then after fourteen years, I finally went to Jerusalem again, taking BarNabas and Titus along with me. ² And the reason why I went there then, was because of a revelation [that I had received]. And while I was there, I explained to the prominent ones about how I had been preaching to the gentiles... however I did this privately, for fear that somehow I had been running in vain. ³ Yet, though Titus (who was with me) was a Greek, they didn't force him to get circumcised then. ⁴ However, they did bring in some false brothers who looked down on the freedom we have in the Anointed Jesus and who wanted to make us their slaves. ⁵ But we didn't give in to them, not even for an instant, so that the truth of the good news might continue among you!

⁶ And when it came to those who seemed to be important (whatever they used to be makes no difference to me, because God doesn't go by what a man appears to be on the outside), they didn't show me anything new. ⁷ In fact, it was just the opposite; for when they saw that I had been entrusted with the good news to the uncircumcised as Peter was to those who are circumcised ⁸ (since the one who gave Peter the powers of an Apostleship to the circumcised also gave me such powers for the gentiles)... ⁹ yes, when they came to know of the loving care that had been shown to me, James, Cephas, and John (the ones who seemed to be the pillars) gave BarNabas and I their approval to go to the nations, while they would go to the circumcised. ¹⁰ They just told me to remember the poor, and I've tried hard to do that.

¹¹ Then when Cephas (Peter) came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, since I knew that he was wrong. ¹² Because, before certain men who came from James arrived, he used to eat with the gentiles. But after they arrived, he stopped associating [with them] and [started acting like a Jew] in fear of those who were circumcised. ¹³ And because of this, all the rest of the Jews also joined in this performance, even influencing BarNabas to join in this hypocrisy!

¹⁴ So when I saw that they weren't following the path of the truth of the good news, I said to Cephas there in front of everyone: 'If you are a Jew who lives as the gentiles do, not as Jews do; why are you forcing gentiles to act like Jews?' ¹⁵ For those of us who are natural Jews (not sinners from the nations) ¹⁶ know that a man isn't called righteous because of following the Law, but because of his faith in the Anointed Jesus. Even we had to put faith in the Anointed Jesus so we could be called righteous by our faith in him... not by following the Law, for no flesh will be declared righteous by following the Law!

¹⁷ 'Now, if we are seeking to be called righteous through the Anointed One and we are still found to be sinners; is the Anointed One just a servant to sin? May that never be so! ¹⁸ But if I'm found rebuilding the things that I once tore down, this proves that I'm still a sinner!

¹⁹ 'As for me; I died to the Law so that I could become alive to God. ²⁰ Yes, I was hung on a pole along with the Anointed One! Therefore, I'm no longer the one that's alive... it's the Anointed One who is living within me. So, the life that I'm now living in the flesh is being lived for the Son of God, who loved me and handed himself over for me. ²¹ Therefore, I'm not going to push aside the loving care of God. For if righteousness comes through the Law, then the Anointed One died in vain.'

Chapter 3

¹ O you foolish Galatians... yes, you whose eyes have seen what was written about Jesus the Anointed One being impaled. Who has cast this evil spell over you? ² I just want to ask you this one thing: Did you receive [God's] Spirit because you were obeying the Law, or because you believed in the things that [you] heard?

³ Are you really so foolish? Did you start out in the Spirit just to end up in the flesh, ⁴ and did you go through so much suffering for no reason? For if there really wasn't any reason for your doing that; ⁵ then, did the One who gave you His Spirit and who performs powerful works through you do this because you're obeying the Law, or because you put faith in the things that you heard?

⁶ Remember that AbraHam was considered righteous because he put his faith in Jehovah! ⁷ So, don't you know that all who have such faith are the sons of AbraHam?

⁸ Why, the reason why God gave the good news to AbraHam was because He saw ahead of time that He would be calling gentiles righteous due to their faith. For He said, 'All the nations will be blest because of you.' ⁹ Therefore, those who have such faith are being blest along with faithful AbraHam!

¹⁰ Now, everyone who is under the Law is under a curse, because it's written: 'Any man who doesn't observe and obey all the words of this

Law is cursed!’¹¹ So it’s obvious that no one is called righteous before God because of obeying the Law, ‘For it’s by their faith that the righteous will live.’

¹² However, the Law really doesn’t have anything to do with faith; rather, obeying [the Law] is just a lifestyle. ¹³ And the Anointed One bought our freedom from the Law’s curse by becoming a curse on our behalf. For it’s written: ‘Anyone who is hanged on a tree is cursed before God.’

¹⁴ Therefore, the reason why this happened to him was so that the blessing of AbraHam could come through Jesus the Anointed One, and so that the gentiles could receive the promised Spirit... which [we have received] because of our faith!

¹⁵ Brothers, allow me to explain this in human terms: Nobody can change or destroy a valid agreement between men. ¹⁶ And notice that the promise was given to ‘AbraHam and his seed.’ It doesn’t say, ‘to his seeds,’ as though there were many of them, but to just one, ‘his seed,’ who is the Anointed One!

¹⁷ Moreover, I tell you that the Sacred Agreement that had been confirmed by The God some four hundred and thirty years earlier and from which the Law came, didn’t supersede the promise that He gave [to AbraHam]. ¹⁸ So if we could only receive the inheritance by [following] the Law, it couldn’t have come from the promise. [Yet, notice that] God granted this favor to AbraHam as a promise.

¹⁹ So, why [do we have] the Law? It was added to show us what sin was before the seed (the one about whom the promise was given) would arrive. And this was entrusted to the hands of a mediator by [\[heavenly\] messengers](#). ²⁰ However, there’s no need for a mediator when only one person is involved... and God is just one. [Therefore, it was just a promise].

²¹ Then did the Law override God’s promise [to AbraHam]? May that never be so! For if the Law had been provided to give [people] life, then the result of following the Law would be righteousness. ²² However, following these scriptures just locked everyone up in sin, so that the promise might be given to those who believe through their faith in Jesus the Anointed One.

²³ Yes, before faith arrived, we were all locked up and in prison to the Law until the things that have to do with faith were revealed. ²⁴ So the Law was just the tutor that led us to the Anointed One and [to the promise] that we could be counted as righteous by our faith. ²⁵ Therefore, now that the faith has arrived, we don't need the tutor anymore!

²⁶ The fact is, you've all become sons of God through your faith in the Anointed Jesus. ²⁷ Indeed, all who are baptized into the Anointed One have put on the Anointed One. ²⁸ So there are no more Jews or Greeks, slaves or freemen, males or females, because you're all in the Anointed Jesus. ²⁹ And if you belong to the Anointed One; as the promise told us, you are AbraHam's seed and his heirs!

Chapter 4

⁸ Therefore, back when you didn't know God, you were slaves to those who really aren't gods. ⁹ But now that you've come to know God (or rather, now that God has come to know you), why are you turning back to those weak and sorry rules... why do you want to become slaves to them once again? ¹⁰ For you've [gone back to] the observance of days, months, seasons, and years... ¹¹ so I'm afraid that all the work I've done on your behalf has been wasted!

¹² Brothers, I beg you to become like me, because I used to be just like you! You've never done me any wrong, ¹³ and you surely recognized that I had a severe fleshly weakness when I preached the good news to you the first time. ¹⁴ But even though this problem must have created difficulties for you, you didn't treat it with contempt or spit on it in disgust. Rather, you received me like a messenger from God... like the Anointed Jesus.

¹⁵ So, where is all the joy that you [once] had? I can testify to the fact that if it had been possible, you would have taken out your own eyes and given them to me! ¹⁶ But have I now become your enemy because I'm telling you the truth?

¹⁷ However, [there are those who are now] zealously chasing after you for wrong reasons... for they want to snip you off and make you their own zealous followers. ¹⁸ And it's good for you to always be zealously chased after (and not just when I'm with you), as long as it's for a good purpose.

²¹ So tell me this, those of you who want to be under the Law: Don't you hear what the Law says? ²² It was written that AbraHam had two sons, one by the slave girl and the other by the free woman. ²³ The one who came through the slave girl was born in the flesh, but the other ([the one who came] through the free woman) [was born] through a promise. ²⁴ So understand that this story is symbolic. For the two [women] symbolize two sacred agreements. [The first] one (Hagar) came from Mount Sinai and bore children into slavery. ²⁵ So this Hagar means Sinai (a mountain in Arabia), and she symbolizes JeruSalem today who is in slavery with her children. ²⁶ But the JeruSalem above is free, and she is our mother. ²⁷ For it is written:

'So be glad, all you who are sterile,
And yell, O you who did not give birth...

O you, the one without birth pains!
For the children of the barren will be many...
Yes, more than those who have [their own] man!

²⁸ Therefore, brothers; we are now children of the promise the same as IsaAc was. ²⁹ And just as the one who was born in the flesh started persecuting the one who was born through the Spirit... that's what's happening now! ³⁰ What do the Scriptures say? 'Drive out the slave girl and her son, because the son of the slave girl will never be an heir with the son of the free woman!'

³¹ So brothers; We aren't the children of a slave girl, but of the free woman!

Chapter 5

¹ Understand that the Anointed One set us free so we can truly be free! Therefore, we should be standing erect and not allowing ourselves to be put under the yoke of slavery again!

² Look! I (Paul) am telling you that if you get circumcised, the Anointed One won't be of any use to you! ³ And I again testify to every man who gets circumcised, that he's thereafter obligated to obey the whole Law.

⁴ So those of you who are trying to be called righteous by the Law have voided the Anointed One, and have fallen away from his loving care. ⁵ Indeed, it's by the spirit of faith that we are eagerly awaiting the hope of [being counted as] righteous! ⁶ As the result, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision have any value to the Anointed Jesus... just faith that is motivated by love!

⁷ Now, since you've been running so well; who is it that's trying to keep you from obeying the truth? ⁸ Ideas like this aren't coming from the One who is calling you; ⁹ rather, it's coming from 'a little bit yeast' that has started 'fermenting the whole ball [of dough].' ¹⁰ For I'm confident that you who are in the Lord wouldn't have even thought of such a thing. So the one who is causing all this agitation will have to face judgment, no matter who he may be!

¹¹ Brothers; if I were preaching circumcision, then why would I be persecuted... since the impaling pole wouldn't be a snare anymore! ¹² Oh, I wish that those who are stirring you up would cut on themselves!

¹³ You were called to be free, brothers! So, don't use this freedom to serve your flesh; rather, use it to slave for each other in love!

¹⁴ Understand that the entire Law is fulfilled in the words, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.' ¹⁵ However, if you keep on snapping at each other and chewing each other up; be careful that you don't swallow each other down!

¹⁶ I tell you this: If you are walking by Spirit, you won't do any of the things that your flesh desires. ¹⁷ For what the flesh wants is at odds with what the Spirit wants, and the Spirit is at odds with the flesh... they are in opposition to each other, keeping you from doing the things that you may wish to do. ¹⁸ But if you are being led by Spirit, you aren't under the Law!

²² On the other hand, the fruitage of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, caring, goodness, faith, ²³ reasonableness, and self-control... and there are no laws against such things. ²⁴ So those who belong to the Anointed Jesus have hung their flesh on the pole along with its passions and desires. ²⁵ And if we are living by Spirit, we need to walk in [the ways of the] Spirit... ²⁶ we shouldn't be conceited, or challenging or envying each other!

Chapter 6

¹ Brothers, if someone ever gets caught up in doing bad things, those of you who are spiritual should try to restore that person in a reasonable way, as you keep an eye on yourselves so that you aren't tempted also. ²

And if you'll carry each other's burdens, you'll fulfill the law of the Anointed One.³ However, if anyone thinks he's something when he's nothing, he's just fooling himself.⁴ Therefore, let us each prove [the value] of what we're doing to ourselves first, and maybe this will give us grounds for boasting to ourselves... but not to other people.⁵ For each of us has to carry our own load.

⁶ Also, may those who are being taught the Word share the good things they have with those who are doing the teaching.

⁷ Now, don't make any mistake when it comes to this, for you can't mock God! Whatever a person is planting is what he's going to harvest.⁸ So if he's planting [the desires] of his own flesh, he will harvest decay from the flesh. But if he's planting things of [God's] Breath, he'll harvest age-long life.

⁹ Therefore, let's not misbehave... let's keep on doing what's right until that time arrives, because we'll harvest what we deserve if we don't tire out.¹⁰ And until then, we should be doing good things for everyone... and especially for those who are related to us in the Faith.

¹¹ Look at these large letters that I have written with my own hand!

¹² Now, those who are urging you to get circumcised are appealing to your fleshly nature. [And the reason why they're doing this] is so that they won't be persecuted over the impaling pole of the Anointed Jesus.¹³ Therefore, despite the fact that they fail to obey the Law themselves, they want you to get circumcised so they can have reasons to boast over your flesh!¹⁴ However, may I never find myself boasting over anything other than the impaling pole of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One; for to me, the whole world has been hung on a pole through him... as I have been to this world.

¹⁵ Understand that circumcision isn't anything... nor is uncircumcision. Rather, [what matters is becoming] a new creation!

¹⁶ May peace and mercy be on all those who walk in line with this rule, and upon the IsraEl of God.

¹⁷ Finally, let no one undermine my work, because I have the brand of Jesus on my body.

¹⁸ May the loving care of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One be with you, my brothers. May it be so!

Ephesians

Written to the congregation in Ephesus, Asia Minor for the Apostle Paul (possibly by TychiKos and possibly in Aramaic) sometime around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, an Apostle of the Anointed Jesus (by the will of God), to the Holy Ones in Ephesus... those faithful ones in the Anointed Jesus; ² May you receive loving care and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Anointed. ³ Yes, may the God and Father of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One be praised, for He has blest us with every blessing of his Breath in the heavens through the Anointed One, ⁴ and He chose us to be in him before the system of things came to be, so we could become holy and unblemished before Him in love. ⁵ For He envisioned us as adopted sons through Jesus the Anointed One, as it pleases His will, ⁶ in praise of the glory of the loving care that [is shown by] the one through whom He shows His favor upon us... this one whom He loves. ⁷ It's through this one and his blood that our ransom has been paid, and it's through the richness of his loving care that our sins could be forgiven, ⁸ [and that we have received] such an abundance of wisdom and good sense. ⁹ For He has allowed us to understand the mystery of His will, according to His pleasure and which He purposed in Himself ¹⁰ for the management of His household at the appointed time when He intends to bring everything in heaven and earth under the headship of the Anointed One.

¹¹ So, it is through [Jesus] that we have obtained the inheritance that was predetermined by [God's] purpose for him... this one through whom all things are accomplished according to [God's] council and will, ¹² so that those who were the first to put faith in the Anointed One might give praise to his glory. ¹³ [For, he's the one] through whom you heard the words of truth (the good news about your salvation), in whom you put faith, and who has sealed you with the promised Holy Breath, ¹⁴ which is the guarantee that he inherited us through the ransom that he paid to purchase us for his glory and praise.

¹⁵ And this is why, when I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and of your love for all the Holy Ones, ¹⁶ I haven't stopped giving thanks for you. Yes, I keep mentioning you in my prayers and ¹⁷ asking the God of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One (the glorious father) to give you the spirit of wisdom and to reveal to you an accurate knowledge of Him, ¹⁸ so that the eyes of your hearts will be enlightened and you can know the glorious richness of the hope for which He has called you and which He holds as an inheritance for the Holy Ones.

¹⁹ O how great His power is toward those of us who are believers, as it operates through the mightiness ²⁰ that He demonstrated in the case of the Anointed One when He raised him from the dead and seated him at His right hand in the heavens ²¹ far above every government, authority, power, lordship, and above every name that has been given not only in this age, but also in the one that is to come, ²² when He will put everything under his feet and make him the head over everything to the called ones... ²³ those who are his body, his fullness, and the completeness [with which he is] filled.

Chapter 2

¹ For, you have died to the ways of sin and error ² in which you once walked (the ways of this world) when you used to follow the ruler of the power of the air... the spirit that now operates in the sons of disobedience, ³ which is the way we were all once headed as we followed our human desires and did whatever our bodies wanted. Yes, because of the cravings that we once had, we were like everyone else... the natural children of [God's] wrath. ⁴ But due to the love that He has for us, God (who is so rich in mercy) ⁵ made us alive in the Anointed One while we were still dead in our failings. So, it's by His loving kindness that we've been saved ⁶ and raised together, then seated

together in the heavens in the Anointed Jesus, ⁷ so that in ages to come, [God] can show the tremendous richness of His loving care by the kindness that He's shown upon us through the Anointed Jesus.

⁸ Yes, it's because of [His] loving care that you've been saved through a faith that didn't come from within yourselves, but as a gift from God! ⁹ No, it didn't come from anything that you've done, so you could boast. ¹⁰ Rather, we are His workmanship... we were created through the Anointed Jesus to do the good things that have been set out by God as the ways in which we should walk.

¹¹ Remember that; although you were once gentiles in the flesh and were called the uncircumcised by those who were circumcised by hand in the flesh, ¹² and you were without the Anointed One (you were aliens to the citizens of IsraEl and strangers to the Sacred Agreement of the promise... godless and without any hope in this world); ¹³ through the Anointed Jesus, you who were once far away have now come to be near to him through his blood.

¹⁴ So, he is our peace; for he made the two ([Jews and Gentiles]) one by breaking down the wall that fenced them off from each other. ¹⁵ Through his flesh, he destroyed the hatred [that was brought about by] the Law of Commandments and rules, so that through himself he could take the two and create a new man, in order to bring about this peace. ¹⁶ Therefore, he brought both [types of] people back to God as one body through the impaling pole, using himself to destroy the hatred between them! ¹⁷ For when he came, he proclaimed the good news of peace to you who were far away and to those who were nearby, ¹⁸ so that through him we can all access the Father in [the same] spirit.

¹⁹ As the result, you are no longer strangers and aliens; you are fellow citizens among the Holy Ones and fellow members of the House of God!

²⁰ You've been built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, whose cornerstone is the Anointed Jesus himself! ²¹ And through him, the whole building is being fitted together and growing into a Most Holy Place... yes, in the Lord, ²² you are being built into a place for The God to dwell in Spirit.

Chapter 3

¹ I give thanks that I (Paul) am a slave of the Anointed Jesus on your behalf... yes for you, the people of the nations.

² Perhaps you've heard about the responsibility that I (by the loving care of God) was given concerning you, ³ and of how this mystery, about which I wrote to you briefly in the past, was revealed to me. ⁴ So as you read on, hopefully you can grasp [how well] I understand the mystery of the Anointed One.

⁸ This loving care was revealed to me (a man who is less than the least of all the Holy Ones) so that I should preach the good news about the unimaginable richness of the Anointed One to the gentiles, ⁹ and to shine a light on how this mystery that was hidden away through the ages in God (who created all things) works out, ¹⁰ so that governments and heavenly powers might learn about the vast wisdom of The God through His called ones, ¹¹ which has been His age-long purpose through the Anointed Jesus our Lord. ¹² And it's through our confidence and faith in him that we have been given this direction and this freedom to speak out.

¹³ It's also because of this that I'm asking you not to grow tired of the concern that I have for you, because it glorifies you. ¹⁴ For it's over this that I thankfully bend my knees to the Father ¹⁵ (out of whom all lines in heaven and on earth get their paternal names) ¹⁶ to [ask Him to] grant you (by the richness of His glory) the power to become strong in His Spirit and to make the people that you are on the inside ¹⁷ alive in the Anointed One through the faith in your hearts along with love, and to give you sufficient roots and foundation ¹⁸ to be able to understand (along with the rest of the Holy Ones) the width, the length, the height, and the depth...

¹⁹ to recognize the love of the Anointed One (which is more than you can comprehend) and to fill you with all the fullness that can only come from The God.

²⁰ Now, to the One who through His power that operates in us can do far more than anything we can ask or even conceive; ²¹ may He be glorified by the called ones and by the Anointed Jesus throughout all generations and into ages of ages... may it be so!

Chapter 4

¹ So, as a prisoner in the Lord, I am urging you to be sure that you're worthy of the calling that you've received ² in all humility, gentleness, and patience, while you lovingly put up with each other. ³ Try hard to recognize the unifying force of [God's] Breath and its power to bring you together in peace. ⁴ For there's just one body and one Spirit, according to the one hope to which you were called (when you were called)... ⁵ there's just one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶ and one God and Father of everyone, who is over all, through all, and in all.

⁷ Now, the amount of loving care that was shown to each of us depends upon how much of the Gift that the Anointed One measured out to us. ⁸
For he says:

'To the highest places, he has stepped up,
And he's taken captivity as his captive;
Then, he gave gifts to the people.'

⁹ So, when it says 'he stepped up,' this also means that he first stepped down to the lower places... to the earth. ¹⁰ So the one who stepped down also stepped back up – high above the skies – so he could bring everything to a completion. ¹¹ Then he gave some to be Apostles, some to be Prophets, some to be messengers of the Good News, and some to be shepherds and teachers, ¹² in order to prepare the Holy Ones for the work of serving and strengthening the body of the Anointed One ¹³ until we all become one in the faith and gain a full knowledge of the Son of The God to the point where it's a complete man who fully measures up to the stature of the Anointed One, ¹⁴ so we won't be babies anymore, being tossed up and back by waves and being blown about by every spirit of the treacherous teachings of people who will use any means to do whatever is wrong.

¹⁵ So, while holding onto the truth (and in love), let's grow up in every way into this one who is the head... the Anointed One. ¹⁶ For he brings the body together... he assembles its parts and makes all the connections so as to supply each part with what it needs (depending on its function), in order to make the whole body grow and strengthen itself in love.

¹⁷ I tell you this and testify to it in the Lord: You must not continue in the same path that the nations are following, because their thoughts are worthless, ¹⁸ their minds have been darkened to any understanding, and they are aliens to a Godly life because of their ignorance and dull hearts.

¹⁹ For since it no longer brings them any pain, they've given themselves over to living wasted lives and they're greedily doing filthy things.

²⁰ However, that isn't what you've learned to be true of the Anointed One ²¹ (if you have for a fact heard were taught about him); because, truth comes through Jesus. ²² Therefore, you must get rid of those old ways that are being corrupted by the enticements that come from desires, ²³ and renew the spirits of your minds! ²⁴ Then put on the new person... [the one] that is created by God's will in the righteousness and loyalty of the truth. ²⁵ Also, get rid of lying... you must always tell your neighbors the truth, because we're all fellow body parts of each other!

²⁶ [Yes, you can] get irritated, but don't sin... don't let the sun set on the reasons for your irritation, ²⁷ nor should you allow any room for the Slanderer. ²⁸ If you've been a thief; you shouldn't steal anymore. Rather, you should work hard and do good things with your hands, so you'll have something to share with the needy. ²⁹ Nor should you allow any foul words to come out of your mouths. Rather, use good words that are upbuilding (as they are needed) to show that you care about everyone who listens to you.

³⁰ Don't impede the Holy Breath of The God with which you were sealed on the Day that your ransom was paid! ³¹ Yes, get rid of all the bitterness, anger, wrath, screaming, and slandering, along with everything [else]

that is bad, ³² and be kind to each other... be sympathetic and graciously forgive each other, as God (through the Anointed One) has graciously forgiven you.

Chapter 5

³ Don't allow sexual immorality or any type of uncleanness or greediness to be even mentioned among you, as would be expected of holy people. ⁴ Nor [should you share in] shameful conduct, foolishness, or dirty jokes (which are all unbecoming), but rather, in the giving of thanks. ⁵ [For it's easy] to recognize those who are immoral, unclean, and greedy (which really amounts to being idol worshipers), and you know that such ones won't receive an inheritance in the Kingdom of the Anointed One and of The God.

⁶ So, don't allow anyone to seduce you into using empty words. For it's because of things like this that the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷ Therefore, don't go along with them, ⁸ because; though you were once dark, you've now become light in the Lord. Rather, keep on walking as children of the light! ⁹ For the fruitage of light is every sort of goodness, righteousness, and truth... ¹⁰ things that prove to be pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹ Don't share in the unproductive deeds of darkness. Rather, speak out against them!

¹² It's shameful to talk about things that are only done in private, ¹³ because everything that the light speaks against is being exposed, since the light shines on everything. ¹⁴ And this is why He said, 'Wake up, you who are sleeping, and lift yourselves from among the dead... then the Anointed One will shine upon you.'

¹⁵ So, you must pay close attention to the ways that you're walking... that it's not like those who are foolish, but as those who are wise. ¹⁶ You must [set aside] time for yourselves [to do such things], because these are wicked days. ¹⁷ Don't be foolish, but start learning what the Lord's will for us is. ¹⁸ And don't be getting drunk on wine, which leads down an unsavory path. Rather, fill yourselves with the Breath [of God], ¹⁹ and speak to each other in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs... sing and create music in your hearts to Jehovah ²⁰ in the name of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One. Yes, always give thanks to our God and Father for everything!

²¹ You should also submit to each other in the same way that you show fear for the Anointed One. ²² Women should submit to their men as they would to the Lord, ²³ because a man is the head of his woman as the Anointed One is the head of the congregation and the savior of that body. ²⁴ So, just as the congregation submits to the Anointed One; that's how women should [submit] to their men in everything.

²⁵ Men; love your women as the Anointed One loved the congregation and gave himself up to make it holy. ²⁶ He washed it in a bath of water (so to speak), ²⁷ in order to present a glorious gathering to himself that doesn't have any spots, wrinkles, or any such things, but which is holy and without any blemishes. ²⁸ Yes, that's how the men should love their women... as their own bodies.

So, the man who loves his woman is really showing love for himself... ²⁹ and nobody ever hates his own flesh. Rather, he feeds it and takes pride in it, just as the Anointed One does the congregation. ³⁰ And we've become parts of [Jesus'] body... of his very flesh and his bones! ³¹ [So as the scripture says]: 'A man will leave his father and mother and stick with his woman, and the two will become one flesh.'

³² Now, this is a great mystery, because I'm comparing [the relationship between husbands and wives] to the Anointed One and [his love for] the congregation. ³³ But, this is how each man should love his woman... as he does himself. And women should have a [Godly] fear of their men.

Chapter 6

¹ Children; Obey your parents in the Lord, because this is righteous. ² Honor your father and mother, for this is the first Commandment that came with a promise...³ so that things will go well for you and you can live a long time on the earth.

⁴ Fathers; Don't frustrate your children, but bring them up in the discipline and council of the Lord.

⁹ Masters; Keep on doing the same for [your slaves]... and don't be threatening them, because you know that there's a Master who's over both them and you in the heavens, and He doesn't recognize any difference [between you].

¹⁰ Finally, become powerful in the mightiness and strength of the Lord.¹¹ Put on the complete suit of God's armor, so that you can resist the methods of the Slanderer.¹² For our fight isn't against flesh and blood, but against the governments, the authorities, the mighty ones of this worldly darkness, and against the unseen wicked powers in the heavens.¹³ So because of this, take up the complete suit [that comes from] God so that you can fight in that wicked day and still be found standing.

¹⁴ Yes, stand firm with your hips wrapped in the truth and wearing the breastplate of righteousness.¹⁵ Wrap your feet and prepare them with the good news of peace.¹⁶ And above all else, pick up the large shield of faith, with which you can quench all the flaming missiles of the wicked one.¹⁷ Also, accept the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit (the things that God has said).

¹⁸ Keep on praying and begging [God] about everything in Spirit throughout each season. Be aware of this and never stop petitioning [God] on behalf of all the Holy Ones.

¹⁹ Also [pray] for me... that the words may be given to me to open my mouth and speak freely so as to make the mystery of the good news known. ²⁰ For that's why I'm now an ambassador in chains... so that I can speak out boldly about these things and to say the things that I'm supposed to say.

²¹ Now, so you can know how I'm getting along and what I'm doing; TychiKos (a beloved brother and faithful servant of the Lord) will explain everything to you. ²² This is why I'm sending him to you... to let you know what's happening to us and to bring comfort your hearts.

²³ Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus the Anointed One. ²⁴ May all those who have an uncorrupted love for our Lord Jesus the Anointed One receive [His] loving care.

Philippians

Written to the congregation in Philippi, Greece for the Apostle Paul (possibly by Timothy and possibly in Aramaic) sometime around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul and Timothy, slaves of the Anointed Jesus, to all the Holy Ones in the Anointed Jesus [who are] in Philippi, along with the overseers and servants; ² May you have kindness and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus the Anointed.

³ I thank my God every time you're mentioned, ⁴ and I'm constantly begging [God] on your behalf... begging with joy, ⁵ because of your partnership in [sharing] the good news from the first day until now. ⁶ I'm confident that the one who started this good work among you will continue to perfect it until the Day of Jesus the Anointed One.

⁷ It's a righteous thing for me to think this way about all of you, and I keep you in my heart both when I'm in chains and when I'm defending and confirming the good news, for all of you are sharers in my loving care. ⁸ God is my witness as to how much I long for all of you with the same tender affection that the Anointed Jesus has. ⁹ And this is what I keep praying: That your love will continue to grow more and more, along with your higher knowledge and understanding; ¹⁰ and that you will keep on proving the most excellent things, so that you might be found pure and blameless until the day of the Anointed One... ¹¹ being filled with righteous fruit (through the Anointed Jesus) to God's glory and praise.

¹² Now, I want you to know this, brothers: I'm seeing results from the things that I'm doing for the advancement of the good news. ¹³ For my imprisonment because of the Anointed One has become public knowledge among the entire Praetorian Guard and everyone else [here].

¹⁴ Also, because of my chains, most of the brothers in the Lord are now more confident and they are showing more courage and fearlessness when teaching the word of God.

¹⁵ Unfortunately, it's true that some are preaching the Anointed One out of envy and rivalry. However, many others are doing it for good motives... ¹⁶ out of love, because they know that [the reason why] I'm lying here is to defend the good news. ¹⁷ Yet, none of the rest are doing it for good reasons; for they're preaching the Anointed One by arguing, and they think that this will create more problems for me while I'm in prison. ¹⁸ Why? It doesn't make any difference, for whether they're just pretending or they're being sincere, the Anointed One is being made known, and I rejoice over this. In fact, I'll keep on rejoicing, ¹⁹ because I know that through your earnest prayers and a [generous] supply of the spirit of Jesus the Anointed One, I will be saved. ²⁰ I eagerly hope (and don't expect to be disappointed) that I will soon be able to speak freely about the Anointed One as before, and even more so, whether my body is dead or alive.

²¹ To me, life is the Anointed One and my reward is death. ²² However, if I can keep on living in the flesh, I consider this to be the fruitage of my work. Which do I prefer? I won't say, ²³ for I'm obsessed by the two. What I really want is to be released [from this body] and to be with the Anointed One, since this is surely the best. ²⁴ However for your sakes, it's better for me to remain in the flesh. ²⁵ And because I'm confident of this, I know that I will survive and still be with all of you, so I can help you to grow in the joy of the faith... ²⁶ and then your reasons for pride in the Anointed Jesus will grow because of me, due to the fact that I'll be coming to you again.

²⁷ Just behave in a way that's worthy of the good news about the Anointed One, so that regardless of whether I'm coming to visit or I'm far away, I can hear [good] things about you... such as that you're all standing firm with the same motivations, and that you're serving the faith of the good news side-by-side as a single person, ²⁸ not being frightened by those who oppose you. Such [fine conduct on your part] will prove all the others to be worthy of destruction, while you are worthy of salvation by God, ²⁹ since you've been given the privilege of not only putting faith in Him, but also of suffering for the sake of the Anointed One. ³⁰ Yes, you've had to struggle with the same things that you saw me having to [struggle with], and which you're now hearing are happening to me again.

¹ Therefore, if there is any encouragement in the Anointed One, any consoling love, any fellowship of the Spirit, any depth of heart or compassion ² – anything that would make my joy in you complete – [it would be to hear that] you all agree and share the same love, that you've become as one person who is thinking the same thoughts, ³ [that you aren't] doing anything out of spite or pride but humbly believe all the others to be better than you, ⁴ and that you're not just watching out for just yourselves, but for the best interests of each other.

⁵ Yes, keep this attitude in you that the Anointed Jesus had. ⁶ For though he once existed in the same form as God, he didn't consider trying to make himself equal to God. ⁷ Rather, he emptied himself into the shape of a slave and became a human. ⁸ And when he found himself shaped as a human, he humbled himself and became obedient to death... yes, to death on a pole. ⁹ This is why God promoted him to a superior position and granted him a reputation that is far above every other name, ¹⁰ so that in the name of Jesus every knee in heaven, on earth, and under the ground should bend, ¹¹ and that every tongue should confess that Jesus the Anointed One is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹² So, my loved ones; In the same way that you have always obeyed (not just when I'm there but also while I'm away), keep on working toward your own salvation in fear and trembling. ¹³ For it is indeed God who is working through you to accomplish His work and His will, as He pleases. ¹⁴ Therefore, do everything without complaining or arguing, ¹⁵ so you can be found blameless and innocent children of God who are free from the accusations of this crooked and twisted generation, among whom you are shining as lights to the world!

¹⁶ Also, hang onto the life-giving words, so that I can boast in the Day of the Anointed One that I didn't run without reason or labor in vain. ¹⁷ And then, even if I am being poured out as a drink offering sacrifice over the welfare of your faith, I can be thankful and rejoice with all of you... ¹⁸ as I want you to be glad and rejoice along with me!

²⁵ I also considered it necessary to return EpaPhraditus (my brother, co-worker, and fellow soldier, but your envoy and social worker for my assistance) to you, ²⁶ because he's been longing to see all of you, and he's been concerned over the fact that you learned about his illness. ²⁷ Yes, he was indeed ill, almost to the point of death! However, The God had mercy on him... and not just on him, but on me too, so I wouldn't be grieved with sadness!

²⁸ Therefore, I'm sending him to you immediately, so that when you see him you can once again rejoice... and I can be less anxious too. ²⁹ Give him your customary welcome in the Lord with all joy... and remember his reputation! ³⁰ For he came very close to being killed while doing the Lord's work, and he has exposed his life to great danger in order to make up for your not being here to provide for my welfare.

Chapter 3

¹ Finally, my brothers; keep on rejoicing in the Lord. The fact that I'm writing these same things to you once again is no trouble for me, and it's for your own safety. ² Just watch out for the dogs, for those who are doing wicked things, and for those who cut the flesh! ³ Indeed, we are the circumcision to those who are serving the Spirit of God and finding glory in the Anointed Jesus, but not to those who are putting their trust in the flesh.

⁴ Realize that I'm someone who has every reason for confidence in the flesh... and if anyone else thinks he has a reason for confidence in the flesh, I have even more reasons! ⁵ [For I was] circumcised on the eighth day, [I'm] of the race of IsraEl, of the tribe of BenJamin, and a Hebrew from among Hebrews. When it comes to the Law, a Pharisee; ⁶ when it comes to zeal, a persecutor of the called ones; when it comes to righteousness by following the Law, one who has proven himself blameless! ⁷ Yet the things that I [once] considered my assets are what I now consider my shortcomings because of the Anointed One. ⁸ For now I consider everything a loss compared to the superiority of the knowledge of the Anointed Jesus, my Lord.

Because of him, I've accepted the loss everything and consider it all to be just so much garbage, so I can gain the Anointed One ⁹ and to be found in him. But this isn't because of my own righteousness due to following the Law; rather, it comes from my faith that he is the Anointed of God! For my righteousness [is now based on my] faith ¹⁰ and knowledge of him, and in the power of his resurrection. Therefore, I've been willing to share in his sufferings and resign myself to a death like his, ¹¹ so that I can somehow be found worthy of an out-resurrection from the dead.

¹² [I'm not saying] that I've made it yet or that I'm already perfect, just that I'm chasing after it... I'm trying to grab hold of that for which the Anointed Jesus grabbed hold of me!

¹³ Brothers, I don't think of myself as having achieved it yet, but I am doing this one thing: [I'm] forgetting the things in the past and stretching out to reach for the things that are ahead... ¹⁴ I'm running toward the goal, the prize of the higher calling from God, through the Anointed Jesus. ¹⁵ And may all of us who are mature start thinking this same way; for if your thinking is inclined any other way, God will [soon] reveal this to you.

¹⁶ Nevertheless, we've gained all of this by following the rule: We should walk together in the same mind. ¹⁷ So, become imitators of me, brothers, and consider those who are walking as you've been doing, to be the pattern for each of us.

¹⁸ Yet, there are many that I used to talk to you about, whom I now mention with tears. For because they've become enemies of the Anointed One's impaling pole, ¹⁹ they'll end up by being destroyed, because their bellies have become their gods and the things they are proud of are the things that shame them, since all they think about is earthly things! ²⁰ But as for us; we possess a citizenship in the heavens, from which we're eagerly awaiting our Savior the Lord Jesus the Anointed, ²¹ who will transform our humiliated bodies and mold them into his own glorious body in the same way that he's able to make all things subject to himself.

Chapter 4

¹ So my brothers who are loved and longed for (my joy and my victory garland); keep standing just as you are in the Lord, my loved ones!

² I encourage EuOdia and SynTyche to think the same way in the Lord. ³ And I'm asking [the rest of] you who have truly shared under my same yoke to stick by these women who have worked so hard side-by-side with me in the good news... along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers whose names are [written] in the Scroll of Life.

⁴ Always rejoice in the Lord! I'll say it again: Rejoice... ⁵ and let everyone know how reasonable you can be! Since the Lord is close [to you], ⁶ don't be anxious about anything! But through prayers and heartfelt petitions (along with the giving of thanks), make your requests known to God... ⁷ and then the peace of God, which is beyond all understanding, will guard your hearts and your reasoning, through the Anointed Jesus.

⁸ Finally, brothers; Keep on thinking about whatever things are true, serious, righteous, chaste, lovable, well spoken of, virtuous, and praiseworthy. ⁹ And if you continue to do the things that you learned, accepted, heard, and saw through me, the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰ I'm so joyful in the Lord that you've finally started thinking about my needs once again. It's not that you've forgotten me, it's just that you haven't had much opportunity. ¹¹ I'm not saying this because I'm in need, for I've learned to be very self-sufficient... ¹² I know how to be poor and I know how to have plenty. For in everything and in every way, I've learned the secrets of how to have enough to eat and how to go hungry, how to have plenty and how to do without. ¹³ Yes, I have the strength for everything by the One who gives me power.

¹⁷ It's not that I'm begging for such gifts; I'm just looking for the fruitage of becoming a greater part of your conversations. ¹⁸ I've received everything that I need from you, which is more than enough! I've been filled with the sweet-smelling odor of a sacrifice that is acceptable and very pleasing to God, now that I've received these things from you through EpaPhraditus. ¹⁹ So be assured that my God will in turn fully supply all of your needs from His great wealth, through the glory of the Anointed Jesus.

²⁰ Now, may our God and Father be glorified for ages of ages... may it be so.

²¹ Give my greetings to all the Holy Ones in the Anointed Jesus. The brothers who are with me also send you their greetings. ²² Yes, all the Holy Ones – and especially those of the house of Caesar – send you their greetings. ²³ May the kindness of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One be with the spirit [that you are showing].

Colossians

Written to the congregation in Colossae for the Apostle Paul (possibly by Timothy and possibly in Aramaic) sometime around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, an Apostle of the Anointed Jesus by the Will of God, and Timothy our brother, ² to the holy and faithful brothers in the Anointed One at Colossae; May you have loving care and peace from our Father, God.

³ We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One, when we are praying for you, ⁴ since we've heard of your faith in the Anointed Jesus and of the love that you have for all the Holy Ones ⁵ through the hope that has been reserved for you in the heavens. This is the same hope that you were taught when the truth of the good news ⁶ was first brought to you. [And today] it's producing fruit and increasing throughout the entire world, the same as it has been doing among you since the day you first heard of it and came to an accurate understanding about the truth of God's loving care ⁷ [through the hand of] EpaPhras our beloved fellow slave, who is a faithful servant of the Anointed One on our behalf. ⁸ And he's the one who told us of the love that you have through the Breath [of God].

⁹ As the result, from the very day that we heard [this about you], we haven't stopped praying for you and asking for you to be filled with a complete knowledge of [God's] will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. ¹⁰ For we want you to walk in a way that's worthy of the Lord and to be completely pleasing as you keep on producing the fruitage of all sorts of good deeds, growing in a full knowledge of The God ¹¹ and getting stronger in the power of His Glorious Might, so that you'll be able to endure everything joyfully and patiently, ¹² as you thank the Father who qualified you to receive a portion of the inheritance among the Holy Ones in the light. ¹³ For He is drawing us to Himself out of the power of darkness and transferring us into the Kingdom of His beloved Son ¹⁴ (into which we have been delivered by the forgiving of our sins), ¹⁵ who is the image of the invisible God and the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶ It was through him that everything in the heavens and on the earth was created, both the things that are visible and the things that are invisible... it was all created through him and for him, regardless of whether it is thrones, or rulerships, or governments, or powers, ¹⁷ since he was before everything and everything came into existence through him. ¹⁸ And now he's the head of the body of the congregation, the beginning, and the first to be born from the dead so that he would be first in everything. ¹⁹ Yes, [God] saw that it was good for him to be the completion of everything, ²⁰ and He's using [Jesus] to bring it all back into a peaceful good relationship with Himself through his blood [that was shed] on the pole, whether these things are heavenly or earthly.

²¹ So, though you were once just aliens and enemies, since all you thought about then was doing wicked things; ²² [Jesus] has restored your relationship with [God] by means of the death of [his] fleshly body. [This was done so that] you could be presented to Him as holy, without any blemishes, and free from all accusations... ²³ that is, as long as you stay firmly founded and deeply rooted in the faith and aren't diverted from the hope of the good news that you were taught and which is being preached in all creation under heaven (of which I, Paul, am a servant). ²⁴ So, even as I'm here suffering, I'm rejoicing over you.

Yes, right now my flesh is finishing whatever may have been lacking during the difficult time that the Anointed One endured, and I'm doing this on behalf of his body, the congregation, ²⁵ which is what I'm serving. For this is the obligation that God has assigned to me for your sakes so as to fulfill His Word ²⁶ about the mystery that was hidden from past ages and generations, but which has now been made clear to His Holy Ones. ²⁷ For it was God's Will to allow you [people] of the nations to understand the glorious richness of this mystery, so that the Anointed One would also be in you and [give you the same] hope of glory ²⁸ that we've been advertising about him to you!

Yes, we've been teaching you his wisdom and putting his mind into each one, so that we can present every person as being complete in the Anointed One. ²⁹ This is why I'm working so hard and struggling... so that [Jesus] can demonstrate his power and his ways of doing things through me.

Chapter 2

¹ I want you to realize what a great struggle I'm undergoing on your behalf, as well as for those in LaoDikea and for all those who haven't met me face to face yet. ² And I want your hearts to be comforted over this, so that you can be brought together in love and be provided with a rich and sure understanding and an accurate knowledge of that great mystery of God... the Anointed One. ³ For hidden in him are the treasures of all wisdom and knowledge.

⁴ I have been wanting to explain this to you so that no one can mislead you with strong arguments [to the contrary]. ⁵ For though I'm not there in the flesh, I am still there with you in spirit.

I am also rejoicing, because I've noticed the ways that you've come into line with and become firm in the Anointed One. ⁶ Therefore, since you've accepted the Anointed Jesus (our Lord), [you must] keep on walking with him... ⁷ becoming rooted and built up in him, and growing firmer in your belief in the things that you were taught. [Yes, I want you to] overflow with these things whenever you're giving thanks!

⁸ But watch out so that no one carries you off as a captive into the philosophies and empty hopes of human traditions, because these base things of the world don't come from the Anointed One. ⁹ Rather, in him lives all the fullness of the divine body... ¹⁰ and you're also part of the fullness of this one who is the head over all governments and powers, ¹¹ for you were circumcised into him with a circumcision that was done without hands when you stripped away your fleshly bodies though the circumcision of the Anointed One. ¹² Then you were all buried with him when [you went] under the water, and you were all raised together by your faith in what God (who raised him from the dead) has done in you. ¹³ For that's when you died to your errors and to the uncircumcised state of your flesh and became alive with him, and he kindly forgave all your errors ¹⁴ by wiping away the handwritten Laws that held you down and oppressed you... he lifted them out of the way and nailed them on the pole, ¹⁵ which stripped away the governments and powers, and openly displayed that this is how he had conquered them.

¹⁶ So, don't allow anyone to judge you over [what you] eat or drink, or over your views of festivals such as the New Moons or Sabbaths; ¹⁷ for these are just shadows of things to come, while the realities belong to the Anointed One.

¹⁸ And don't allow anyone to steal your prize by suggesting some lowly form of angel worship and by making strong claims of things that [he says] he has seen. For [this man has become] overly impressed with something he just imagined in the flesh, ¹⁹ and he's no longer hanging onto the head... the one who holds the whole body together with its joints and ligaments so that it keeps growing with the [type of] growth that comes from The God.

²⁰ However, since you've already died to the base things of this world along with the Anointed One, why is it that you (as though you're still living in this world) are putting yourselves under such laws as ²¹ 'don't feel it,' 'don't taste it,' or 'don't touch it,' ²² when it comes to things that are just going to be consumed... for these are the commands and teachings of men! ²³ And though choosing such a form of worship may sound wise with all its humility and mistreatment of the body, it has no value when it comes to meeting the needs of the flesh!

Chapter 3

⁵ Therefore, deaden your earthly [body parts] to sexual immorality, unclean passions, desires for bad things, and greediness (which is idolatry); ⁶ for it's due to such things that the wrath of God is coming. ⁷ And though that may have been the way you acted back when you used to live for such things, ⁸ you must now remove all the wrath, anger, badness, slander, and obscenities from your mouths... ⁹ and don't lie to each other! Yes, you must now take off the old person and the things that he did ¹⁰ and put on the new person that is being remade with a complete knowledge in the image of the One who is creating it.

¹¹ So, there are no more Greeks or Jews, circumcised or uncircumcised, foreigners, Scythians, slaves, or freemen... there is just the Anointed One, who is everything and in all of you! ¹² Then, as God's chosen people who are holy and loved, you must put on the caring traits of empathy, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. ¹³ Also, keep on putting up with each other and forgiving each other kindly, whenever anyone has a reason to complain. Yes, just as the Lord kindly forgave you, you must do the same... ¹⁴ and add love to all of that, because it's the perfect unifying force.

¹⁵ Let the peace of the Anointed One serve as the judge in your hearts, because it's calling [all of] you into one body. So be thankful and ¹⁶ allow the words of the Anointed One to live in you richly and in all wisdom, as you kindly teach and remind each other through psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Yes, sing to God from your hearts! ¹⁷ And no matter what you're saying or doing, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, continuously thanking God (the Father) through him.

¹⁸ Women should always obey [their husbands], since this is proper [for those who are] in the Lord.

¹⁹ Men should love their [wives] and not be bitterly angry with them.

²⁰ Children should obey their parents in everything, because this is pleasing to the Lord.

²¹ Fathers shouldn't [demand too much of] their children, so they don't discourage them.

²² Slaves should obey those who are their fleshly masters in everything... not just putting on a good show to please men, but [doing everything] sincerely and from the heart, in the fear of the Lord.

²³ Yes, whatever you're doing, work at it wholeheartedly as though [you're doing it] for the Lord and not for men. ²⁴ And because you know that you'll be rewarded with an inheritance from the Lord, you should slave for the Lord (the Anointed One), ²⁵ since the unrighteous will be [judged] impartially for the unrighteous things that they're doing.

Chapter 4

¹ Also, those who are masters should act righteously and fairly with their slaves, because we know that we all have a Master in the heavens.

² Keep on praying, staying alert, and giving thanks. ³ Also, keep praying for us... that God may open doors for us to speak and tell others about the mystery of the Anointed One; for that's the reason why I'm [here in] shackles... ⁴ to display whatever it is that I'm supposed to say.

⁵ Keep on walking wisely when it comes to those on the outside, and keep an eye out for opportunities.

⁶ Be respectful in everything that you say... season everything with salt and know how to [give the best] answer to each person.

⁷ TychiKos (my dear brother, faithful servant, and fellow slave in the Lord) will explain to you everything that has been happening to me. ⁸ That's why I'm sending him to you... to keep you abreast of what's going on and to comfort your hearts. ⁹ [I'm also sending] OneSimus, my faithful and loved brother who came from you, who will tell you all the rest.

¹⁰ AristArchus (my fellow prisoner) sends you his greetings, as does Mark (BarNabas' cousin). He's the one that you were told to welcome if he ever comes to [visit] you... ¹¹ and so does Jesus (who's also called Justus). All of them are circumcised, but they are also my fellow workers for the Kingdom of God, and they've done so much to comfort me.

¹² Epaphras (who came from you), a slave of the Anointed Jesus, sends you his greetings. He always puts a lot of effort into his prayers for you, asking that you might become perfect in the stand that you're taking and [that you'll] completely carry out the will of God. ¹³ I can testify to the fact that he goes to a lot of effort on your behalf, as well as for those at Laodikea and Hierapolis.

¹⁴ Luke (the beloved physician) sends you his greetings, and so does Demas. ¹⁵ Give my greetings to the brothers at Laodikea, as well as to Nympha and the called ones in her home.

¹⁶ After this letter has been read among you, also arrange for it to be read in the Laodikean congregation... and you read the one from Laodikea. ¹⁷ Also, tell Archippus to keep an eye on the service assignment that he accepted in the Lord and to make sure that he fulfills it.'

¹⁸ Here is my greeting (Paul's) in my own hand. Remember me in prison. May [God's] loving care be with you.

1 Thessalonians

Written to the congregation in Thessaloniki, Greece (possibly in Aramaic) for Paul around 52-CE by either Timothy or Sylvanus.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the called ones among the Thessalonians who are in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus the Anointed; May you have peace and [God's] loving care.

² We always thank God when we mention you in our prayers, ³ because we never forget your faithful work, loving labors, and endurance that comes from [your] confidence in our Lord Jesus the Anointed, [who stands] before our God and Father. ⁴ We know that He chose you, our brothers who are loved by God, ⁵ because the good news that we are preaching didn't become just words to you, but power, Holy Breath, and a strong conviction, since you recognized what sort of men we became to you for your sakes.

⁶ Then you started acting like us and like the Lord, because you accepted the word in the joy of [God's] Holy Breath despite many difficulties, ⁷ and you became examples to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸ For you've preached the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has been spread everywhere... so we don't have to say any more, ⁹ since everyone is talking about the way we first came to you and of how you turned away from idols, then [turned toward] The God... yes, to slave for a God who's living and true. ¹⁰ And [they speak of how you're] awaiting His Son from the heavens whom He raised from the dead... this Jesus, who has drawn us to himself and away from the coming wrath.

¹ Brothers, you know that our visit with you hasn't gone without results. ² For though we had just suffered and been mistreated in Philippi (as you well know), our God gave us the boldness to speak to you about the good news of our God... though with a lot of difficulty. ³ Because, the encouragement we give doesn't come from errors, uncleanness, or deceit. ⁴ And since God has proven us fit to be entrusted with the good news, we don't speak just to please men, but [to please] God, who proves what's in our hearts.

⁵ So, as God is my witness (and as you well know), we didn't come to you with flattering words or as pretending to be in need of anything, ⁶ nor have we looked for glory from men... no, not from you or from anyone else (though as Apostles of the Anointed One, we are empowered to be such a burden). ⁷ Rather, we came to you as gently as a mother who feeds and cares for her children. ⁸ And because we cared for you so much, we were not only happy to share the good news of God with you, but also our lives, since you've become so dear to us.

⁹ Brothers, surely you remember how we toiled and labored... how we worked hard night and day so we wouldn't put an expensive burden on anyone, as we preached the good news about The God to you. ¹⁰ And both you and God are our witnesses as to how loyal, righteous, and free from blame we became to you believers. ¹¹ For each of you must recognize how we kept on encouraging you, consoling you, and testifying to you, just as a father does to his own children. ¹² [We did this] so that you would keep on walking in a way that's worthy of The God who's calling you to His Kingdom and glory.

¹³ And we keep on thanking God, because, when you accepted the word of The God that you heard from us, you didn't accept it as the word of men, but just as it truthfully is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers. ¹⁴ Yes, you became our imitators and our brothers in the same way as those who were called by The God in Judea and are in the Anointed Jesus, because you started suffering at the hands of your own countrymen, just as the [Called Ones] did at the hands of the Judeans ¹⁵ who killed the Lord Jesus and the Prophets, and who persecuted us. These men aren't pleasing to God, for they are opposing all men ¹⁶ by trying to keep us from speaking to the gentiles so we can save them. As the result, they're always filled to the brim with their sins, and in the end they will receive His wrath.

¹⁷ As for us, brothers; We're forced to be orphans to you for a short time... in body, but not in our hearts, for we anxiously desire to see your faces. ¹⁸ That's why I wanted to come to you (yes me, Paul) on two different occasions. However, the Opposer kept on cutting us off. ¹⁹ For when our Lord Jesus arrives and we're standing before him; why would we have any hope, or joy, or a winner's garland of which we can boast, if it were not for you? ²⁰ Because you – yes you – are our glory and joy!

Chapter 3

¹ So, when we couldn't bear it any longer, we arranged to be sent to Athens alone. ² Then we sent Timothy – our brother and God's servant in the good news about the Anointed One – to strengthen and comfort you in your faith, ³ so that none of you would become discouraged by all these difficulties. However, you know that we were all appointed [to endure] things such as this. ⁴ Yes, when we were there with you, we warned you that we were about to suffer persecution (as you well know is now happening). ⁵ And it's because I just couldn't stand [not knowing how you were faring] that I sent [Timothy] to see how your faith [is bearing up], and whether the Tempter has put you to the test and brought all of our hard work [on your behalf] to nothing.

⁶ But now that Timothy has returned from you, he has brought us the good news about your faithfulness and love; and [he's told us] how you keep us in your fond memories and of how you're always longing to see us, just as we are [longing to see] you. ⁷ And that's why, brothers, despite all our own needs and difficulties, we find comfort in you and in the faith that you're showing. ⁸ Because, if you're standing firm in the Lord, we are alive! ⁹ So, what sort of thanks can we offer to God for you in return for all the joy that we now have because of you before our God? ¹⁰ Therefore, we will keep on begging night and day to see your faces and to correct anything that may be lacking in your faith.

¹¹ Now, may our God and Father Himself and our Lord Jesus straighten our road to you. ¹² May the Lord cause you to grow and to have more than enough love for each other and for all, just as we have for you. ¹³ And may he make your hearts firm in holiness, without any blame before our God and Father when our Lord Jesus appears with all of his Holy Ones... may it be so!

Chapter 4

¹ Finally brothers; We ask and urge you by the Lord Jesus to follow in the path of the things you learned from us and to keep on pleasing God. Although you're already doing this, you must do it even more so! ² For you are aware of these orders that we gave you through the Lord Jesus: ³ 'It is God's Will [for you] to be holy and to stay free from sexual immorality.'

⁴ So, you must each learn how to take control of yourselves in holiness and honor... ⁵ not in passionate desires like those of the nations that don't know God! ⁶ Nobody should overstep the limits or take advantage of his brothers in this matter, for the Lord is the avenger in all of such things, just as we warned you before and explained completely... ⁷ God didn't call us to uncleanness, but to holiness!

⁸ So, those of you who [choose to] disregard this [warning] aren't disregarding a man, but The God who put His Holy Breath in you.

⁹ Yet, when it comes to the matter of brotherly love; there's no need for us to write you, because God has taught you to love each other... ¹⁰ and you're showing this to all the brothers throughout Macedonia. But we're now urging you brothers to become even better at it! ¹¹ Also, pledge yourselves to living quietly, to minding your own business, and to working for a living (just as we've instructed you to do), ¹² so that you will always be acting in an appropriate way toward those on the outside, and so that you won't ever be in need of anything.

¹³ Brothers, we want you to understand the situation of those who are sleeping [in death], so you aren't saddened like those who don't have any hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and was resurrected, we must also believe that The God will (through Jesus) lead back those who have fallen asleep.

¹⁵ Understand that what we are saying to you is the word of the Lord... that those who are still living at the appearance of the Lord will definitely not go ahead of those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶ Because, the Lord himself will come down from the sky and give the command in the voice of the [highest messenger \[of God\]](#) and with God's trumpet; then those who have died in the Anointed One will be the first to be resurrected.¹⁷ And after that, the living (those of us who are still left at that time) will be snatched into the clouds along with them for a meeting with the Lord in the air... and thereafter, we'll always be with the Lord.

¹⁸ Keep comforting each other with these words.

¹ Now, when it comes to the times and seasons brothers, nothing needs to be written to you, ² because you know very well that the Lord's Day is coming as a thief in the night. ³ And whenever they're saying 'Peace and security,' destruction will come upon them instantly like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they won't escape. ⁴ Therefore brothers; since you aren't in the dark, don't let that Day [sneak up] on you like a thief. ⁵ For you're all sons of light and sons of the day... you don't belong to the night or to darkness!

⁶ As the result, we shouldn't be falling asleep like all the rest. Rather, we should be staying awake and remaining sober; ⁷ for those who are sleeping, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. ⁸ But may those of us who belong to the day stay sober, as we put on the breastplate of faith and love, and wear our hope of salvation like a helmet. ⁹ Because, The God didn't destine us for His wrath, but so that we might gain salvation through our Lord Jesus the Anointed One ¹⁰ who died for us, that whether we remain alert or we fall asleep [in death], we'll all live together with him.

¹¹ Keep on comforting each other with these words and continue to build each other up, just as you're already doing!

¹² Now brothers; We're asking you to give [special] recognition to those who are working so hard among you by taking the lead over you in the Lord and in counseling you. ¹³ Give them extraordinary loving consideration because of what they're doing, and be at peace with each other!

¹⁴ We also urge you brothers to reprimand the disorderly, to comfort the depressed, to support the weak, and to be patient with everyone.

¹⁵ Also, make sure that no one is trying to get even with anyone else over bad things... keep on searching for the best interests of each other and for all the rest! ¹⁶ Keep on rejoicing, ¹⁷ praying constantly, ¹⁸ and giving thanks for everything, because this is God's will for you in the Anointed Jesus! ¹⁹ Don't put out the fire of [God's] Breath ²⁰ or ignore the prophecies, ²¹ and prove everything... then hang onto whatever is good ²² and avoid anything that appears to be wicked!

²³ May the God of peace make you completely holy and sound in every way – in spirit, soul, and body – and may He find you blameless, so that you can be preserved when our Lord Jesus the Anointed One arrives. ²⁴ For the One who is calling you is faithful, and He'll make it happen.

²⁵ Brothers; continue to pray for us, ²⁶ and keep on greeting all the brothers with a holy kiss.

²⁷ Now, I'm putting you under oath in the Lord to read this letter to all the brothers.

²⁸ May the loving care of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One be with all of you.

2 Thessalonians

Written to the congregation in Thessaloniki, Greece on behalf of Paul (possibly in Aramaic) by either Timothy or Sylvanus between 52 and 54-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the called ones among the Thessalonians who are in God our Father and in the Lord Jesus the Anointed; ² May you have loving care and peace from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus the Anointed.

³ We're always obligated to give thanks to God for you, brothers, which is appropriate because of the super growth of your faith and [because of] the love that you have for each other, which keeps on growing. ⁴ We also take special pride in you among all the called ones of God because of the endurance and faith that you've shown through all the persecutions and difficulties that you've been enduring. ⁵ So, the righteous judgment of God is being revealed in that you're being counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you are suffering.

⁶ And it's a righteous thing for God to repay those who are persecuting you by crushing them, ⁷ while providing relief to you who are suffering this persecution (and to us also) when the Lord Jesus is revealed in the sky with his powerful messengers ⁸ in a flaming fire. Then he'll bring vengeance upon all those who don't know God and those who aren't obeying the good news about our Lord Jesus. ⁹ In justice, they'll be repaid with age-long ruin away from the face of the Lord and the glory of his might ¹⁰ when he arrives to be glorified among his Holy Ones and to be marveled at by all of you who are found to be believers in that day, because you've put faith in the testimony that we provided.

¹¹ We're also always praying this for you: That our God may count you worthy of the calling and that He might fulfill in you all [His] good intentions through powerful deeds of faith, ¹² so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you (and you in him), through the loving care of our God and of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One.

Chapter 2

¹ However, brothers; regarding the appearance of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One and our being gathered to him: We urge you ² not to quickly lose hope or to be disturbed by [something from the] spirit, or by words, or [by things written] in a letter that may have come through us, indicating that the Lord's Day has arrived. ³ Don't allow anyone to mislead you in any way, because [that day] won't arrive until after there has been a great turning away and a revealing of the lawless man (the son of destruction) ⁴ who opposes and puts himself higher than all others that are called gods or things of worship, and who seats himself in the Most Holy Place (gr. Naos) of The God, where he publicly displays himself as being a god. ⁵ Don't you remember that I used to warn you of such things while I was still with you?

⁶ So understand that what's holding everything up is the revealing of this one at the [proper] time. ⁷ Indeed, the mystery of this lawless one is already at work, for everything is being held up until he is no longer among us. ⁸ For, that's when this lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will destroy and bring to nothing with the breath from his mouth when he arrives.

⁹ This one will come with the works of the Opposer, using great powers, lying signs, false wonders, ¹⁰ and with every sort of deceit of the unrighteous (those who will perish for not loving the truth that they received, which would have saved them)! ¹¹ For The God will send them delusions so they'll start believing whatever is false, ¹² and they'll prefer unrighteousness to believing the truth... which is what will condemn them.

¹³ However, we are obliged to always thank God for you brothers who are loved by the Lord, since God chose you for salvation from the beginning through the holiness of the Spirit [because of] your belief in the truth. ¹⁴ This is why He called you through the good news that we brought to you... so that you might also receive the glory of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One.

¹⁵ Therefore, brothers; Stand firm and hang onto the traditions that you were taught by word [of mouth] and in the letters that we sent to you. ¹⁶ May our Lord Jesus the Anointed One himself and God (our Father who loved us and kindly gave us comfort and good hope in this age) ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and make you firm in all good words and good deeds!

Chapter 3

¹ Finally brothers... pray for us! Pray that the word of the Lord may be glorified and spread rapidly, just as it is currently being done among you. ² And [pray] that we might be delivered from unruly and wicked men, because the Faith isn't for everyone. ³ However, you can trust that the Lord will make you firm and guard you from the Wicked One.

⁴ We also have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are following – and will continue to follow – the commandments that we've given to you. ⁵ So may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of The God and into the steadfast ways of the Anointed One.

⁶ Also brothers; We're warning you in the name of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One that you should draw away from any brother who is walking disorderly and not following the traditions that you've received from us, ⁷ since it's important for you all to imitate us. You know very well that we weren't lazy when we were among you, ⁸ and we didn't ask anyone to provide us with food. Rather, we worked hard day and night so we wouldn't be a burden on any of you. ⁹ This isn't because we aren't authorized to [ask for such things], but because we wanted to set an example for you to imitate. ¹⁰ So when we were with you, we told you: 'If anyone isn't willing to work, don't feed him.'

¹¹ However, we're now hearing that some among you aren't following these instructions and they aren't working at all... they're meddling in other people's affairs. ¹² So we are warning them and inviting them through the Lord Jesus the Anointed One to be quiet and go to work so they'll be able to eat their own bread.

¹³ Brothers, don't give up when it comes to doing what's good! ¹⁴ But if there is anyone who isn't willing to obey the things we're writing about in this letter, take note of it and don't keep company with him, so as to shame him. ¹⁵ However, don't consider him an enemy; rather, council him as a brother.

¹⁶ Now, may the Lord of peace himself give you peace in every way throughout all time. Yes, may the Lord be with all of you.

¹⁷ [Here's] my greeting in my own (Paul's) hand. Every letter proves it, because this is the way that I write.

¹⁸ May the loving care of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One be with all of you.

1 Timothy

A letter from Paul to Timothy, which is thought to have been written (possibly in Aramaic) around 62-CE.

¹ Paul, an Apostle of the Anointed Jesus by the authorization of God our Savior and of the Anointed Jesus [who is] our hope; ² to Timothy, a genuine child in the faith. May you find loving care, mercy, and peace from God the Father and [from] the Anointed Jesus, our Lord.

³ [Please] stay in Ephesus as I had encouraged you to do, while I travel on to Macedonia. For I want you to give orders to some who are there not to be teaching anything different ⁴ or paying attention to myths and genealogies, because there's no end to these things, and such research detracts from the job of serving the needs of the Faith in the household of God. ⁵ Rather, what I want you to [encourage them to do] is to love [each other] with a clean heart and a good conscience, and to develop a faith that isn't judgmental. ⁶ For because of what they are teaching, some are being misled into foolish discussions. ⁷ And though they want to be teachers of the Law, they don't have any idea what they're talking about, and they don't understand the effects that all of this will have.

¹² I am so grateful to the Anointed Jesus (our Lord) who has considered me faithful, given me this authority, and made me his servant ¹³ [despite the fact that] I used to be a slanderer, a persecutor, and an arrogant man. However, I was just ignorant and I acted [that way] because I didn't believe... and then I was shown mercy ¹⁴ by the loving kindness of our Lord, through the faith and love of the Anointed Jesus.

¹⁵ Therefore, when we say that the Anointed Jesus came into the world to save sinners; these words are faithful and deserve to be believed, because I was the foremost of them! ¹⁶ And the reason why I was shown mercy was so that the Anointed Jesus might demonstrate all of his patience and use me as a prime example of someone who can still put faith in him and receive age-long life. ¹⁷ So, to the King of the Ages [who is] incorruptible and invisible (the only God), may there be honor and glory into the ages of ages... may it be so!

¹⁸ Now, this is the responsibility that I'm laying upon you, my son Timothy: As the prophecies about you foretold (that you would be a soldier in a good war); ¹⁹ hang onto your faith and good conscience... for some have pushed theirs aside and experienced shipwreck. ²⁰ This includes Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I've handed over to the Opposer so they can be taught not to blaspheme.

¹ First, I'm encouraging you to beg for, to pray for, to ask on behalf of, and to give thanks for all sorts of men ² (for kings and for all those in high offices) so that we can just go on living a calm and quiet life, devoutly and seriously; ³ for this is something that is good and acceptable in the eyes of our Savior God, ⁴ because He wants all men to be saved and to come to a complete knowledge of the truth.

⁹ (Questionable verses:) Likewise, all women should dress themselves modestly and adorn themselves sensibly, not with fancy hairstyles or in gold and pearls or expensive clothes, ¹⁰ but in ways befitting women who have promised to worship God and to do everything that's good. ¹¹ Yes, the women should learn quietly and obediently, ¹² for I don't allow them to teach or to act independently from men, but to [listen] quietly... ¹³ because Adam was created first, then Eve. ¹⁴ Also, Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman was thoroughly deceived and went beyond [what she was told]. ¹⁵ However, [the women] will be kept safe through childbirth as long as they remain in the Faith in love, holiness, and sensibleness.

Chapter 3

¹ You can believe that whenever anyone is reaching out to be an overseer, he's looking for good work. ² However, an overseer must be [someone who] has not been charged [with misconduct]... a one-woman man who is moderate in habits, sensible, orderly, friendly to strangers, and a teacher. ³ He shouldn't be someone who drinks a lot of wine or is quarrelsome, but [someone who is] gentle and peaceable, and not a lover of money.

⁶ He must not be a newly-converted man, for fear that he might become too proud and fall into the judgment of the Slanderer. ⁷ And those outside [of the congregation] should also speak well of him, so he doesn't fall into the reproach and snares of the Slanderer.

¹¹ Women should likewise be serious and not slanderous, but moderate in their habits and faithful in everything.

¹⁴ I'm writing these things to you, though I'm hoping to come to you shortly, ¹⁵ so that if I'm delayed, you'll know how you should conduct yourself in God's household (the Congregation of the living God) as a pillar and supporter of the truth.

¹⁶ Admittedly, our sacred devotion is a great mystery. For he was shown in the flesh, was found righteous in spirit, was seen by [\[God's\]](#) messengers, was preached about among the nations, was believed in the world, and was then taken up in glory.'

Chapter 4

¹ However, the Spirit definitely says that some will leave the faith in the future and pay attention to wicked spirits and the teachings of demons, ² as well as to hypocritical men who are liars and whose consciences are seared as with branding irons. ³ These will forbid marrying and the eating of food that God created to be eaten appreciatively by all those who have faith and who understand the truth. ⁴ For everything that God created is good, and nothing should be thrown away. So if we thank Him for it, ⁵ it becomes holy by what we say to God in our prayers.

⁶ So, if you'll explain these things to the brothers, you'll prove yourself a fine servant of the Anointed Jesus, and [you'll] grow strong on the words of the Faith and the fine teachings that you've been following so closely.

⁹ Yes, what I'm saying is trustworthy and deserves [your special] attention, ¹⁰ for this is why we've been struggling and working so hard as we've continued to put faith in a living God who is the Savior of all men... but mostly of the faithful.

¹¹ So, instruct and teach... ¹² and don't allow anyone to look down on you because you're young. Rather, become an example to the faithful in what you say, in what you do, in your love, in your faith, and in your purity!

¹³ Until I get there, work at public reading, at giving council, and on your teaching ability. ¹⁴ Don't be careless with the gift in you that was given through a prophecy when the elders laid their hands on you. ¹⁵ Think deeply about these things... get wrapped up in them, so that everyone can see the progress that you're making. ¹⁶ Yes, pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching, and stick with it; for if you do that, you'll save both yourself and those who are listening to you!

Chapter 5

¹ Don't be too harsh with older men... speak to them as you would to fathers, to younger men as brothers, ² to older women as mothers, and to younger women as sisters, with all purity.

⁷ So, you must always teach them this, so they'll be found blameless: ⁸ 'If you don't provide for [those who are] your own (especially for those in your own households), you have denied the faith and you are worse than an unbeliever!'

⁹ However, put a widow on the list if:

- She's more than sixty years old

- She's had just one husband
- She's done good things that can be attested to
- She's raised children
- She's been hospitable
- She's washed the feet of the Holy Ones
- She's provided for those in difficulty
- She's followed the course of doing all sorts of good deeds.

¹¹ On the other hand, turn down younger widows. For when they feel the need, they leave the Anointed One because they want to marry... ¹² and they're judged for doing this, because they set aside the faith that they had at first, ¹³ while learning wasteful habits such as going around and doing a lot of visiting. They not only waste time, they also gossip, meddle in other people's affairs, and talk about things that they shouldn't.

¹⁴ I prefer to see younger widows marry, have children, and manage a home. That way, the Opposer isn't given something over which he can gleefully gloat. ¹⁵ Yet, some of them have already returned to following the Slanderer.

¹⁶ So if any believing woman has a widow [in her family], she should take care of this herself, so that the congregation won't have to handle the burden and can then help those [who are truly are in need].

²² Also, don't be too quick to lay your hands on any man [to appoint him to a responsibility], so you aren't found to be a sharer in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure!

²³ And don't just drink water; rather, you might take a little wine for the sake of your stomach and for your frequent illnesses.

²⁴ [Remember that] the sins of some people are done in the open and lead directly to judgment. However, the [sins] of the rest will eventually become known. ²⁵ For just as many good deeds become widely known, [sins] can't be kept hidden either.

Chapter 6

¹ Now, those who are in bondage as slaves should treat their masters as worthy of all honor, so that the Name of God and our teachings won't be slandered. ² And those who have believing owners shouldn't think less of them because they are brothers. Rather, let them really serve them as slaves, because those who work hard are considered faithful and are loved in return. Keep on teaching these things and giving them this encouragement!

³ Now, if anyone is teaching something different and doesn't follow these life-giving words (which are those of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One), or doesn't teach deep respect for God; ⁴ he's just blowing smoke, he doesn't understand anything well, and he has become mentally diseased with doubts and debates over words... the results of which create envy, arguing, slandering, wicked suspicions, ⁵ and 'making mountains out of mole hills.' Men with corrupt minds like that have let themselves be robbed of the truth... and they're the same ones who say that we should earn a profit from this worship.

⁶ Yet, we do gain much profit from this worship... that is, if we pay our own way. ⁷ For none of us brought anything into the world and we can't carry anything out. ⁸ So if we have enough to eat and enough to wear, we should be satisfied with that.

⁹ However, those who want to be rich fall into temptation, snares, and many foolish and damaging desires, which drag people down into destruction and ruin... ¹⁰ for the love of money is the root of everything that's bad. And because some have reached out for it, they've been led away from the faith and into error, stabbing themselves all over and causing themselves a lot of pain.

¹¹ But you, O man of God; flee from these things and pursue righteousness, reverence, faith, love, endurance, and inner strength. ¹² Yes, wrestle the fine match of the faith and put on the age-long life to which you were called and about which you offered such a fine confession before so many witnesses!

¹³ I'm ordering you in the sight of The God through whom all lives may be saved and of the Anointed Jesus who gave such a fine confession before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴ to obey these instructions flawlessly and blamelessly until the appearance of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One! ¹⁵ For he will appear at his own set time... this praised and only sovereign; the King of those who rule as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords; ¹⁶ the one who alone has immortality and who lives in unapproachable light; the one whom no man has seen or can see. May he have honor and age-long power... may it be so!

¹⁷ Give orders to those who are rich in this age not to think too much of themselves and not to trust in their wealth (which is fickle), but in God who brings [the type of] wealth to us that we can truly enjoy. ¹⁸ [Teach them to] work at being good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and ready to share, ¹⁹ as they safely store away for themselves the treasures of a fine foundation in that which is coming, so they can put on the real life.

²⁰ O Timothy; Guard this hope and turn away from all the worldly babbling, as well as all that is falsely called 'knowledge;' ²¹ for it's through [such things] that some who once showed much promise in the faith have been turned aside.

May [God's] loving care be with you.

2 Timothy

A letter from Paul to Timothy (possibly written by Luke), which is thought to have been written (possibly in Aramaic) around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, an Apostle of the Anointed Jesus by the will of The God and by the promise of life in the Anointed Jesus, ² to my loved child Timothy; May you find loving care, mercy, and peace from God the Father and from the Anointed Jesus, our Lord.

³ I'm thankful to The God whom I'm worshiping with a clean conscience (as did my forefathers) that I never forget you in my prayers, which I offer [on your behalf] night and day. ⁴ For I remember you with tears and I long to see you, so that I can be filled with joy.

⁵ I fondly remember the unhypocritical faith that your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice had first, and I'm confident that you have this also. So, this is the reason why I'm reminding you to rekindle the gift of God that you received when I first laid my hands on you. ⁷ Since God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and good sense; ⁸ don't be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord... or of me, a prisoner for his sake.

So, come and share with us in suffering evil for the good news with the power of God. ⁹ For He didn't save us or call us to holiness because of anything that we've done, but because it has been His will through ages time to show us His loving kindness through Jesus the Anointed One. ¹⁰ And all of this has now been manifested by the arrival of our Savior the Anointed Jesus, who has done away with death and is shining a light on life and freedom from corruption through this good news ¹¹ of which I was appointed a preacher, an Apostle, and a teacher.

¹² Yes, this is the reason why I've been suffering these things and why I'm unashamed... because I really know this one in whom I've put my faith, and I'm confident that he'll guard everything that I've entrusted to him until that Day.

¹³ Likewise, you should be hanging onto the healthy words that you heard from me and which I laid out for you through the love that is in the

Anointed Jesus, ¹⁴ and you should be guarding these things that you've been given through the Holy Breath that dwells within us!

¹⁵ I'm sure that you're aware of the fact that all those in the [province of] Asia have turned their backs on me, and especially PhyGelus and HermoGenes. ¹⁶ But may the Lord's mercy rest upon the household of Onesiphorus, because he has often brought me refreshment and he's never been ashamed of my chains. ¹⁷ For, when he came to Rome, he diligently started searching for me and quickly found me. ¹⁸ So, may the Lord grant him mercy from Jehovah in that Day. Yes, it would be good if you knew all the services that he provided for me in Ephesus.

Chapter 2

¹ However, as for you my child; Keep growing stronger in the loving care of the Anointed Jesus, ² and keep on teaching the things that you heard from so many witnesses while you were with me, to faithful men who are qualified to teach others. ³ Then, as a fine soldier of the Anointed Jesus, [be prepared to] endure the hardships. ⁴ For no soldier can just go on living his life as he once did, since he wants to please the one that enlisted him. ⁵ And the same is true of an athlete... he can't win the prize unless he plays by the rules. ⁶ Yet, the hardworking field-hand must also be the first to eat the fruit.

⁷ If you'll visualize what I'm saying, the Lord will truly give you insight into everything.

⁸ Remember that the good news I've been preaching teaches us that Jesus the Anointed (the seed of David) was raised from the dead... ⁹ and it's over this that I'm being persecuted and imprisoned like a criminal. However, the word of God hasn't been locked up with me, ¹⁰ and the reason why I keep on enduring all of this is for the sake of the elected ones... so they can gain the salvation that comes from being in the Anointed Jesus and receiving age-long glory. ¹¹ For you can believe the saying, If we die together, we'll also live together; ¹² and if we hang on together, we'll also rule as kings together! However, if we deny this, he'll deny us.

¹³ Yet, even if we're unfaithful, he'll be faithful, because he can't deny himself.

¹⁴ I want you to keep on reminding [the brothers] about these things, and I want you to instruct them in the sight of God not to be arguing over words, for this is just a waste of time and it's a snare to those who listen to it.

¹⁵ As for you; zealously keep on seeking God's approval, so you can be accepted by Him as a workman who has nothing to be ashamed of and who lays out the truth in straight ways. ¹⁶ Therefore, you should avoid speaking about worldly and foolish topics, because this leads [people] away from pure worship, ¹⁷ and whatever is said [spreads like] a field of gangrene!

That's what happened to Hymenaeus and Philetos; ¹⁸ they got away from the truth and they started teaching that the resurrection has already happened, which misdirected the faith of some.

¹⁹ However, you have a solid foundation in God and you have His seal [of approval]. So, as we were told: '[Jehovah knows those who \[respect Him\]](#),' and, 'Let everyone who speaks in the Name of the Lord stop doing what is unrighteous.'

²⁰ Now, in a large house there are not only containers that are made of gold and silver, but there are also those [that are made] of wood and pottery... because some were made for honorable purposes, while others were made for dishonorable purposes. ²¹ So if anyone chooses to be clean, he must remove [everything that's dishonorable] from himself so that he can then become a container for an honorable purpose that is holy and useful to his master. And thereafter, he must ready himself to do every sort of good work.

²² So, flee from the desires of youth and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with all the rest of those who are calling on the Lord with a clean heart. ²³ However, avoid foolish and ignorant questions, because you know that they just create fights... ²⁴ and a slave of the Lord shouldn't be fighting. Rather, we should be gentle with everyone, we should be good teachers, and we should know how to keep our composure in bad [situations] ²⁵ so that we can calmly teach those who disagree. For perhaps God may lead them to repentance and to an accurate knowledge of the truth ²⁶ so that they may escape the Slanderer's snares and return to their good senses, once they realize how they've been lured into his cage.

Chapter 3

¹ Recognize that the last days will bring fierce times. ² For people will just love themselves and money. They'll be braggarts, arrogant blasphemers, disobedient to their parents, unthankful, and disloyal. ³ They won't have any natural \(family\) love, and they they'll be disagreeable. They'll be slanderers who don't have any self-control, and they'll be wild people who won't love anything that's good. ⁴ They'll also be betrayers who are headstrong and proud, and who care more for pleasures than for God. ⁵ So, though they may practice some form of religion, they'll deny its power.

You should reject people like this, ⁶ because it's from among such ones that certain men will arise who will work their way into homes and seduce weak women that are loaded down with sins (because they have so many desires) ⁷ and will always be just students who can never come to a higher knowledge of the truth.

⁸ So, whenever you must deal with men who are resisting the truth and who are corrupting their own minds (making themselves worthless when it comes to the faith), follow the example of Moses when he opposed JanNes and JamBres, ⁹ so they can't make any more inroads. Then (as happened [to JanNes and JamBres]) their unreasonableness will become plain to everyone.

¹⁰ Now, you've closely followed my teachings, my directions, my purposes, my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance. ¹¹ [However, you've also had to share in] my persecution and my sufferings (such as the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra), and you've endured the same types of opposition that I've had to endure (but from which the Lord has delivered me). ¹² For everyone who wants to worship The God through the Anointed Jesus is going to be persecuted, ¹³ because wicked and deceitful men will just get worse and worse, misleading and being misled.

¹⁴ As for you; stick with the things that you've learned and were convinced to believe... and remember from whom you learned them. ¹⁵ For you've been familiar with the Holy Writings since you were a child, and they can make you wise for salvation through your faith in the Anointed Jesus. ¹⁶ [Remember that] all the Holy Writings were inspired by God and they are good for teaching, for correcting, for setting things straight, and for providing righteous discipline... ¹⁷ they qualify a man of God by providing him with whatever he needs to do all sorts of good work.

Chapter 4

¹ So, I solemnly charge you in the sight of God and the Anointed Jesus (who's going to judge the living and the dead when he manifests himself in his Kingdom) ² to keep on preaching the word! Keep on doing it through both good times and bad!

Then, as you consider the situations, you must offer criticism and encouragement! However, you should do this patiently and with all of your teaching skills.

³ Yet, the time is coming when they won't put up with life-giving teachings anymore. Rather, because they will prefer to follow their own desires, they will gather teachers for themselves who will tell them whatever they wish to hear. ⁴ They won't listen to the truth, but they'll all show up when it comes to listening to fables.

⁵ But as for you; be serious about everything, endure all the bad, preach the good news, and completely carry out your ministry!

⁶ As for me; though I'm already being poured out as a drink offering and the time for my departure (death) is almost here, ⁷ I can say that I've wrestled the fine match, I've finished the race, and I've obeyed the faith.

⁸ So, all that's left for me now is to lay down my gold crown, which the Lord (who isn't over just me but is over everyone who loves the way in which he showed himself) will return to me in that Day.

⁹ Hurry... come to me quickly! ¹⁰ For Demas has let me down and gone to Thessalonica (since he still loves this system of things), Kreskes has gone to Galatia, Titus has gone to Dalmatia, ¹¹ and Luke is the only one who is here with me. So, go find Mark and bring him with you, because his services are very useful to me. ¹² Oh yes, I also sent Tychikus off to Ephesus. ¹³ And when you come here, bring along the robe that I left with Carpus in Troas... and the scrolls, especially the parchments.

¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith has testified and said many bad things against me. But the Lord will repay him for what he has done. ¹⁵ So watch out for him, because he really opposes everything that we say!

¹⁶ Unfortunately, nobody stayed with me during my first court hearing... but though they all left me, I don't want this held against them, ¹⁷ because the Lord stood by me. Yes, he gave me strength so that the preaching might be completed through me and that all the gentiles might hear it. As the result, I was virtually saved from the lion's mouth! ¹⁸ And the Lord will continue to save me from every sort of wickedness until he brings me into his celestial Kingdom. May he be glorified through the ages of ages... may it be so!

¹⁹ Give my greetings to Priska and Aquila, and to the household of Onesiphorus.

²⁰ Erastus stayed in Corinth and I left Trophimus at Miletus, because he was sick.

²¹ Hurry and get here before winter arrives!

EuBoulos sends you his greetings, as do Poudes, Linos, Klaudia, and all the brothers.

²² May the Lord bless the spirit you're showing, and may his loving care be with all of you.

Titus

A letter from Paul to Titus, which is thought to have been written (possibly in Aramaic) around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ From Paul – a slave of God, an Apostle of Jesus the Anointed One and a follower of the faith of God's elected who have a complete knowledge of truth and whose worship ² is based on the hope of age-long life, which The God (who doesn't lie) promised ages ago ³ and who in His own due time made His Word known through an important message that was entrusted to me by the command of our God and Savior – ⁴ to Titus, a true child in the faith that we hold in common; May you have loving care and peace from God the Father and from the Anointed Jesus our Savior.

⁵ The reason why I left you in Crete is so that you could straighten out some of the problems there, and for you to appoint elders in each city, as I instructed you. ⁶ [So, choose those who] have not been charged with misconduct... one-woman men who have believing children that aren't rebellious or accused of being beyond hope. ⁷ Because, as a manager of the household of God, an overseer must be blameless. [He can't be] selfish, quick tempered, a heavy drinker, a fighter, or a greedy person. ⁸ Rather, [he must be] hospitable, a faithful friend, levelheaded, righteous, devout, self-controlled, ⁹ [and a person who] lives by the word of truth, so he can teach and encourage those who are strong as he exposes the wrongs of those who contradict. ¹⁰ For there are many who are rebellious and deceitful windbags (most of whom are circumcised) ¹¹ and whose mouths need to be sealed. They're the ones who are dishonestly making money by teaching things that they shouldn't, and they're misleading entire households.

¹² It was one of their own prophets that once said, 'Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and lazy gluttons' ... ¹³ and that's a fact! This is why you'll have to be tough when it comes to exposing their wrong ways, so they can become healthy in the faith and stop ¹⁴ paying attention to Jewish myths and the rules of men, which are turning them from the truth. ¹⁵ For though everything is clean to those who are clean, nothing is clean for those who are dirty and faithless, because both their minds and their consciences are dirty. ¹⁶ And while they all claim to know God, everything they do disproves it, because they are disgusting, disobedient, and unqualified to do anything worthwhile.

Chapter 2

¹ You however, keep on talking about the correct, healthy teachings. ² Encourage the older men to be free from excesses and to be serious, levelheaded, and healthy in their faith, love, and endurance. ³ [Also encourage] the older women to behave as though they had just entered a holy place... not to be slanderers or alcoholics, but to become teachers of good things.

⁶ And you must give younger men the same encouragement... to be levelheaded. ⁷ [Teach them to] become good examples in all sorts of good deeds, to be serious and blameless in their teaching, ⁸ and to speak in wholesome ways so that no one can condemn them and none who oppose us will have anything bad to say about us.

⁹ Also, teach those who are slaves to obey their masters in everything... to please them well, not to talk back, ¹⁰ and not to steal things! They should prove that they are faithful in doing whatever is right, so they can adorn the teachings of our God and Savior in everything. ¹¹ For the reason why God's loving care is being displayed [through us] is so that we all might be saved.

¹² And once they have rejected the godlessness and worldly desires, they must then be taught how to live sensibly, righteously, and devoutly in this age, ¹³ as they await the blest hope and the manifestations of the glory of the great God and Savior of us, the Anointed Jesus, ¹⁴ who handed himself up in order to free us by ransom from lawlessness, and to bring out a clean people for himself who are all zealous in doing whatever is good.

¹⁵ Yes, I'm authorizing you to talk about such things, as well as to encourage and correct... and don't let anyone ignore you!

Chapter 3

¹ Keep on reminding them that they must be obedient and that they must submit to the rulers and the authorities... that they must always be ready and willing to do good things!

² They shouldn't be slanderous to anyone or want to fight with them. [Rather, they should all] be willing to give in to [the wishes of] others and to be humble before everyone. ³ For though we were all once senseless disobedient sinners who were slaves to our own desires in badness and envy (disgusting [people] who hated each other), ⁴ our God and Savior came here to display [God's] loving care for mankind... ⁵ not because we were righteousness, but because of His mercy! Then He saved us through the bath that re-created us and made us new by his Holy Breath. ⁶ Yes, He poured plenty of it over us, through Jesus, our Anointed Savior, ⁷ so that after we are counted as righteous (through His loving care), we might become heirs who have the hope of age-long life.

⁸ You can believe these things... and these are the instructions that I want you to keep on giving them, so that those who have come to believe in The God will stand firm in doing all that is right! Yes, these are good and helpful things that you must teach them. ⁹ [For they must learn to] avoid foolish questions, genealogies, arguments, and fights over the Law, since such things don't really do any good and they're just a waste of time.

¹² After I send Artemas or TychiKos to you, try to come to me here in NikoPolis, because this is where I've decided to spend the winter. ¹³ Hurry and send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos... and make sure that they have everything they need. ¹⁴ Let our [brothers] learn how to do good things by providing for their needs, so their efforts won't be wasted.

¹⁵ All of those who are with me send you their greetings.
Give my greetings to all those in the faith who truly care about us.
May [God's] loving care be with all of you.

Philemon

A letter that was written to a faithful Christian named Philemon apparently by the hand of Paul himself, around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Paul, a prisoner for the sake of the Anointed Jesus, and your brother Timothy, to our beloved fellow worker PhileMon, ² our sister ApPhia, our fellow soldier ArcHippus, and to the called ones in your homes; ³ May you receive loving care and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus the Anointed One.

⁴ I always give thanks to my God when I mention you in my prayers, ⁵ because I keep hearing about the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and of the love that you have for all the Holy Ones. ⁶ [And I pray that] that we can have a share in the faith that's in you by telling you more about the good things that we're doing through the Anointed One. ⁷ For I have felt so much joy and comfort, our brother, over the loving things that you've been doing to refresh the hearts of the holy ones. ⁸ And this is the reason why I feel free in the Anointed One to lay an obligation upon you to do something that would be very becoming... ⁹ or should I say that I'm encouraging you because of your love, seeing that I am who I am, Paul, an old man and now a prisoner for the sake of the Anointed Jesus.

¹⁰ The encouragement that I wish to offer is in regard to my child (someone to whom I've become a father while I've been in prison) OneSimon. ¹¹ For though he was once useless to you, he has now become useful to both you and me... ¹² and I'm returning this one to you, for whom I care so deeply.

¹³ Actually, I would rather keep him here for myself instead of sending him to you, so he can continue to serve my needs while I'm in the shackles that I'm wearing for the sake of the good news. ¹⁴ However, I don't wish to do anything without your consent, because I don't want any good deed that you may wish to do happen because you were forced into it... I'd rather it was something that you really wanted to do.

¹⁵ Perhaps that's the reason why he was able to break away from you for a little while... so that you could have him back in this age ¹⁶ no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, as a beloved brother. He's especially that to me, and now much more so to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷ So if you consider me a worthy associate, welcome him kindly as you would welcome me. ¹⁸ And if he did you any wrong or if he owes you anything, charge it to my account. ¹⁹ I (Paul) am writing this in my own hand and telling you that I'll pay you back... of course, let me remind you that you already owe me. ²⁰ Yes, my brother; May I request some profit from you in the Lord... please offer me this refreshment in the tender mercies of the Anointed One!

²¹ Now, I'm writing you in full confidence that you'll go along with my request, and I'm sure that you'll do even more than what I've suggested. ²² In addition, prepare a place for me to stay, because I hope that (because of all your prayers) I'll soon be free for your sakes.

²³ EpaPhras (my fellow captive in the Anointed One) sends you his greetings, as do ²⁴ Mark, AristArchus, Demas, and Luke, my co-workers.

²⁵ May the loving kindness of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One be upon the spirit that you show.

Hebrews

Paul's most scholarly work, written for him by an unknown disciple (possibly Luke and possibly in Aramaic) to the congregation in Jerusalem around 65-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ A long time ago, God spoke to our fathers through the Prophets in many places and in many ways. ² And in the last part of these days, He spoke to us through a Son whom He has made the heir to everything... the one that He used to create the ages and ³ who shines with the same glory, is the exact image of His being, and is responsible for everything that is said through His power. Then, after he cleansed us of our sins, this one sat down at the right hand of the Great One in the highest places, ⁴ and has now become so much greater than the [other] [messengers \[of God\]](#) and so different that he has inherited a [special] name among them.

⁵ For example; to which of [God's] angels did He ever say, 'You're my son; today I have fathered you.' Or, 'I will become his Father and he will become My son.' ⁶ And again (when He sent His firstborn into the earth), 'Let all the angels bow low before him.'

⁷ [Also notice that] when He spoke of those angels, He said that He made them spirits and public servants that are like flames of fire. ⁸ But when He spoke of His Son, [He said]:

'Your throne, O god, is through ages of ages, and the scepter of your kingship is the scepter of righteousness. ⁹ So, because you loved righteousness and hated wickedness, The God (your God) has [anointed] you with the oil of great joy among those who are your companions.'

¹⁰ And [it was also said concerning him]:

[In the beginning, O Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth and \[you\] made the heavens with your hands.](#) ¹¹ But though they will pass away, you'll still remain; for like clothes, they will grow old. ¹² Then, as [you would do to] a robe, you will wrap them up and repair them. Yes, you're the one and your years will never expire.'

¹³ Also, to which one of His angels did He ever say, 'Sit here at My right until I set your enemies as a stool for your feet?' ¹⁴ Yet, all these others are all divinely-authorized spirits... public servants that are being sent to serve the needs of those who will inherit salvation!

¹ This is why it's so important for us to pay extraordinary attention to the things that we've heard, so we don't drift away! ² Because, if these words that were spoken through [\[God's\] messengers](#) should prove to be true and the reward for all errors and disobedient acts is going to be strictly enforced; ³ how could we escape such a great thing if we have neglected our salvation, which began with and was received by those who heard it being confirmed upon us by the Lord? ⁴ Notice that even God joined in this testimony by providing signs, omens, many powerful deeds, and by distributing His Holy Breath as He wished.

⁵ However, He didn't entrust the home that is coming (the one that I'm talking about) to the hands of [His] messengers. ⁶ For someone somewhere testified to this fact when he asked, 'Just what is man that You should remember him, or the Son of Man that You should watch over him?' ⁷ Though You made him just a little lower than [Your] messengers, You crowned him with glory and honor and put him over everything that You had made with Your hands... ⁸ You put everything under his feet!'

So, notice that when [God] put everything under [his feet], He didn't leave anything over which he isn't in charge. Nevertheless, we don't see everything obeying him yet.

⁹ Well, though he was made lower than [God's] messengers for a little while, we can see that after Jesus suffered and died, he was crowned with glory and honor so that (because of God's loving care) he might taste death for us all!

¹⁰ Yes, it was fitting that this one through whom and for whom everything exists – this primary leader [who is responsible for] our salvation – should bring many sons to glory and make them perfect through his sufferings. ¹¹ And because this one who is holy and those whom he makes holy are one, he isn't ashamed to call them his brothers, ¹² saying, 'I will report Your Name to my brothers.' And again, 'In the midst of the called ones, I'll sing Your praises.' ¹³ And again, 'In Him, I will put all my trust.’ And again, ‘ {Look!} The children God gave me, and I...’

¹⁴ Therefore, since his ‘children’ share in his blood and flesh, he shares [with them] in the same way, so that through his death he can finish off the one who has the power [to bring] death, the Slanderer, ¹⁵ and to set free all of those who have spent their lives as slaves to the fear of death.

¹⁶ So [when he came], he really didn’t take on [the shape] of one of [God’s] messengers somewhere. [Rather, he took on \[the shape of\] AbraHam’s seed](#)... ¹⁷ for he was obliged to become like his brothers in every way so that he could become a merciful and faithful High Priest before God and to offer a sacrifice that would cover their sins. ¹⁸ And because he suffered and was tempted, he is also able to help those who are still being tempted.

Chapter 3

¹ Therefore, holy brothers who are partakers of the celestial calling; consider this Apostle and High Priest for our confessions, Jesus. ² He was faithful to the One who made him just like Moses, who was the man that [God] [appointed to be over] His whole House. ³ However, [Jesus] was considered to be worthy of a greater glory than Moses, because the one who builds the house receives more honor there.

⁴ Of course, every house is built by someone, but the One who built everything is God.

⁵ Now, this Moses was truly a faithful, willing servant within His whole House, [and he served] as a witness to things that were going to be said. ⁶ However, the Anointed One is the Son who is over [God’s] House... and we are that House as long as we keep on boasting of our hope and hanging on until the end! ⁷ This is why it was said through [\[God’s\] Holy Breath](#):

‘If you should hear His voice today, ⁸ don’t harden your hearts as they did in the bitter day of testing in the desert. ⁹ For that’s when your fathers put Me to the test to prove [My power], although they had already witnessed all that I’d done during [the previous] forty years! ¹⁰ And this is the reason why I became so disgusted with that generation and said, Their hearts are always wandering and they've never understood My ways. ¹¹ So in My rage, I swore that they would never enter My rest!

¹² Therefore brothers, watch out... yes, be careful that none of your hearts should ever become so wicked and unbelieving that they cause you to pull away from the Living God! ¹³ Rather, you must encourage each other every day – including today – so that none of you will ever become hardened and be tempted to sin. ¹⁴ For if we can hang onto this position from the time that we start believing until the end, we will remain sharers in the Anointed One. ¹⁵ And that's why it was said, 'If you should hear His voice today, don't harden your hearts as happened in the bitter day of testing in the desert.'

¹⁶ So, who was it that heard [God's voice] and brought Him this bitterness? Wasn't it all those who left Egypt under Moses? ¹⁷ Then, who was it that He became disgusted with for the next forty years? Wasn't it those who had sinned and whose carcasses fell in the desert? ¹⁸ And who was it that He said wouldn't enter His rest? Wasn't it those who disobeyed? ¹⁹ As you can see, they didn't enter [His rest] because they didn't have enough faith!

Chapter 4

¹ Therefore, we should be afraid that some of us might actually be left behind when it comes to the promise of entering His rest. ² For we've had the good news preached to us the same as they did... and they failed to benefit from what they heard, because they didn't share in the faith of those who were paying closer attention!

³ Indeed, we have in fact entered the rest of those who believed... those about whom He also said, 'So in My anger, I swore that they would never enter My rest!' Yet, remember that His work [had actually been completed] since the founding of the world! ⁴ For in one place He said this about the seventh day:

'God rested from all His works on the seventh day.'⁵ And [this is the period that He was talking about when He said], 'They will never enter My rest.'⁶ So from this we must conclude that some will enter it, while those to whom this good news was first given didn't enter it because of their disobedience.

⁷ Also notice that He mentioned a particular day, 'today,' in David's [psalm]. For He went on to say (as I mentioned before), 'If you should hear His voice today, ⁸ don't harden your hearts.' ⁸ So if they had already been led to this place of rest by JoShua, [God] wouldn't have spoken of another day later on. ⁹ Therefore, the Sabbath that the people of God must observe is something that is yet to come! ¹⁰ And that's when those who enter His rest will also rest from all the things that they're doing, the same as God is resting from [the things] that He [was doing].

¹¹ So as you can see, we should be doing everything we can to enter that rest, so that none of us will fail because we didn't obey!

¹² Understand that the word of God is alive, it's at work, and it's sharper than any two-edged sword... it cuts so fine that it can separate the breath from the breather, as well as his joints from his marrow. Therefore, it can even judge our thoughts and the desires of [our] hearts. ¹³ For, nothing in creation is invisible to His eyes... everything is naked and open before the One who sent us His word!

¹⁴ So in view of the fact that we have such a great High Priest who has passed [into] the heavens – Jesus, the Son of The God – let's keep talking about him! ¹⁵ For we don't have a High Priest who can't sympathize with our weaknesses; rather, we have one who has been tested in every way just like us... [but he didn't] sin! ¹⁶ Therefore, we should boldly approach his throne of loving kindness and speak freely, so that we can receive his mercy, loving care, and aid whenever we need it.

Chapter 5

¹ Now, all High Priests are selected from among mankind, and then they're appointed over other men and assigned to doing the things of God, such as offering the gifts and the sacrifices for sins. ² However, [the Priests] feel a kinship with those who don't understand and who make mistakes, since they're also surrounded by their own weaknesses. ³ And this is why they have to make offerings not only for the sins of the people, but also for themselves!

⁴ However, no man can take this honor on himself; he can only be called to [the Priesthood] by God, as Aaron was. ⁵ Likewise, the Anointed One didn't glorify himself to the position of High Priest. That was done by the One who said to him:

'You're My Son... today I have fathered you!'

⁶ And He said in another place:

'You're a Priest through the ages in the order of MelchiZedek.'

⁷ Then, during the time that he was here in the flesh, [Jesus] begged and pleaded with the One who was able to save him from death, calling out with tears... and he was drawn close and listened to, because he was faithful. ⁸ But thereafter, although he was the Son, he learned obedience from the things that he suffered. ⁹ Then when his [training] was finished, he became the source of age-long salvation for all those who would obey him, ¹⁰ which is when God made him a High Priest in the line of MelchiZedek.

¹¹ Now, we have so much to say about him that will be hard to explain to you, since you've become so slow in your hearing. ¹² For though you should be teachers in view of the time, you now need someone to go back and teach you the basics of God's word again... you've become people who need milk, not solid food! ¹³ Yes, those who are unfamiliar with righteous teachings are [in fact] babies who need milk to survive, ¹⁴ while those who have trained their senses to recognize the difference between right and wrong have become adults who can eat solid food.

Chapter 6

¹ Therefore, let's go beyond the basics of the Anointed One and move on toward maturity! Let's not go back and lay a new foundation on such matters as repenting over bad deeds, having faith in God, ² or about baptisms, ordinations, the resurrection of the dead, or the age-long judgments. ³ Yes, let's [go beyond the basics], if God will allow it.

⁴ It's impossible for those who have been enlightened, tasted the heavenly gift, been partakers in [God's] Holy Breath, ⁵ and savored the word of God and the power of the coming age ⁶ to be revived and make them repent once they've fallen away; for they would have to hang the Son of God back on the pole and subject him to shame once again! ⁷ They're like a piece of ground that should give birth to green plants after it drinks in all the rain that falls on it and after it's been cultivated by those who hope to receive its blessings from God, ⁸ which then produces just thorns and thistles. They will be rejected (almost cursed), and in the end, they'll be burned off!

⁹ Yet, regardless of what they may do; when it comes to you, my loved ones. We believe that you will receive better things and salvation, ¹⁰ because God isn't unrighteous and He won't forget the all the good things that you've done, the love that you've shown for His Name, or the ways that you've served the needs of the Holy Ones, and [of how you] keep on doing so.

¹¹ So, what we want is for each of you is for you to show a real zeal when it comes to holding onto these things that you've been hoping for all the way to the end... ¹² we don't want you to become lazy! What we want you to do is to become just like those who through their faith and endurance are going to inherit the things that they've been promised!

¹³ For when God gave his promise to AbraHam (and because He couldn't swear by anyone greater, He swore by Himself), ¹⁴ He said: 'When it comes to blessings, I will bless you; and when it comes to growth, I will make you grow.'

¹⁵ Then, because he was patient, [AbraHam] finally received what he was promised.

¹⁶ Now, men always swear by the greater one when they make agreements as an assurance of the thing that they are promising. ¹⁷ So when God wanted to show the heirs of the promise how unchangeable His words are, He agreed to it with an oath, ¹⁸ so that through two unchangeable things about which God cannot lie, those of us who are fleeing would have a strong incentive to hang onto the hope that He's laid before us. ¹⁹ And this is what should be the sure and stable anchor for our lives, since it goes through the inner curtain [into the Most Holy], ²⁰ which is where Jesus eventually entered as the age-long High Priest in the line of MelchiZedek.

Chapter 7

¹ This MelchiZedek (who was the king of Salem and a Priest of the Most High God) is the one who met AbraHam as he was returning from the slaughter of the kings and who blest him. ² Then AbraHam shared a tenth of everything that [he had captured] with him.

Notice that [the name MelchiZedek] translates as King of Righteousness... and as the king of Salem (Peace), he's also the King of Peace. ³ Also notice that there are no genealogical records of him, so he was [virtually] without a father or mother, for there is no [record] of the beginning of his days or of the end of his life. And in the same way; as the Son of God, [Jesus] remains a Priest throughout all time.

⁴ Now, do you see how great this man was to whom [our] family head AbraHam gave a tenth of the best things from his loot?

⁵ So, while it's true that the sons of Levi were [also] made Priests and they were commanded by the Law to collect a tithe from the people (who were their brothers, because they all came from the loins of AbraHam), ⁶ this man whose genealogy we can't trace took ten percent from AbraHam himself! Then he blest the one to whom the promise was given, AbraHam, ⁷ and you can't argue the fact that the lesser one is always blest by the greater!

⁸ Therefore, when mortal men receive the tithes in that place today, they are testifying that he's still alive. ⁹ And we can also say that Levi received those tithes through AbraHam, ¹⁰ since he was in the loins of his forefather when MelchiZedek met with him!

¹¹ Now, if perfection could have come through the Priesthood of Levi and from the Law, we wouldn't have needed another Priest to come in the line of MelchiZedek (someone who isn't of the line of Aaron). ¹² However, since the Priesthood has been changed, there must also be a

change in the Law,¹³ because this man that we're talking about was a member of another tribe... one from which no one has ever served at the Altar.¹⁴ For we all recognize that our Lord came out of Judah, a tribe that Moses never spoke of as Priests!¹⁵ And this makes it even more obvious that a new Priest has arisen who is like MelchiZedek,¹⁶ because he didn't become [a Priest] by the Law of human commandments, but by the power of a life that can't be destroyed!¹⁷ And in witness to this fact, it was said:

'You are a Priest through the ages in the order of MelchiZedek.'

¹⁸ Therefore, the Commandments that were given [to Moses] have obviously been set aside, because they were weak and they didn't do any good,¹⁹ since the Law didn't make anyone perfect. All it really did was lead us to a better hope that's [now] drawing us closer to God.

²⁰ [Notice that the Old Law] didn't come with a sworn oath.²¹ So, those who became its Priests [were appointed] without a sworn oath. And no one else has had an oath sworn about him like the one that said, 'Jehovah has sworn (and He won't change His mind): You are a Priest through the ages.'

²² Therefore, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better Sacred Agreement,²³ because [under the old Agreement], many had to become Priests, since their deaths prevented them from continuing [in that position].²⁴ However, [Jesus exists] through the ages, so the Priesthood that he holds is permanent.²⁵ And this is why he's able to save those who approach The God through him, because he will always be alive to intercede for them!

²⁶ Yes, he has truly become a High Priest for us that is loyal, righteous, pure, and far-removed from the sinners, since he's now higher than the heavens.²⁷ And unlike the former High Priests who had to offer sacrifices daily (first for their own sins and then for those of the people), he did this just once when he offered himself!²⁸ And though the Law appointed men as High Priests who had weaknesses; the promise that came with a sworn oath (and which supersedes the Law) appointed a Son who remains perfect through the ages.

Chapter 8

⁴ However, he likely wouldn't have been a Priest if he were here on the earth, since there are already those who are appointed by the Law to offer the gifts. ⁵ But when they handle these Priestly duties, what they're doing is following a pattern that is just a shadow of how these sacred duties are being handled in the heavens! For when Moses was about to finish the [Sacred] Tent, He was given a divine warning that said: 'Be sure to assemble everything by the pattern you were shown on the mountain.'

⁶ But now, [Jesus] has received a much better Priestly assignment, because he has become the mediator of a better Sacred Agreement, which was legally established on better promises. ⁷ For if there hadn't been problems with the first [Agreement], there would have been no reason to search for a second one. ⁸ But [notice that God] had a problem with the people, for He said:

'{Look!} The time is coming, says Jehovah, when I'll make a new Sacred Agreement with the Houses of IsraEl and Judah ' that's unlike the Agreement that I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand and led them from Egypt; For, because they didn't keep their agreement, I stopped caring for them, says Jehovah.

¹⁰ 'This is the Agreement that I'm going to make with the House of IsraEl at that time, says Jehovah: I will put My laws in their minds and write them in their hearts. Then, they'll be My people and I'll be their God.

¹¹ 'So, at that time, no one who lives in the land will have to teach their neighbors and brothers and tell them to know of Jehovah. For from their least to their greatest, they'll all know Me. ¹² Then, I will be merciful toward their unrighteous ways, and I will forget all their sins.'

¹³ So when He spoke of a New Sacred Agreement, He was making the old one obsolete! And now that which was made obsolete is growing old and is about to disappear!

² So they prepared this first Tent, which contained both the [sacred] lampstand and the table for the showbread, and this was called the Holy.

³ Then behind the curtain was a second Tent that was called the Most Holy. ⁴ It contained a gold incense holder and the Chest of the Sacred Agreement that was completely overlaid with gold and held the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that grew buds, and the Tablets of the [Sacred] Agreement. ⁵ Then on top of that, there were the glorious cherubs that cast a shadow on its cover.

So now, let's discuss some of the details of these things.

⁶ After they were all constructed, the Priests entered the first Tent regularly to perform their sacred duties. ⁷ However, the second [tent] was only entered once a year, and just by the High Priest. But even he couldn't enter it without blood, which he had to offer both for himself and for the sins of the peoples' ignorance.

⁸ Now, the Holy Breath makes it clear that the entrance to the Most Holy couldn't be seen while the first Tent was standing... ⁹ and this is an illustration of this time in which we are now living.

So, with this illustration in mind, [we must understand that] the gifts and sacrifices that were being offered couldn't make the conscience of the one who was serving there perfect, ¹⁰ for that whole thing had to do with food, drink, and types of cleansing, which were fleshly, legal requirements [that would last] until the time for setting things straight would be imposed.

¹¹ But when the Anointed One came as the High Priest of good things and entered through the greater and more perfect Tent that wasn't made by [human] hands (something that wasn't part of this creation), ¹² he didn't enter the Most Holy with the blood of goats and young bulls; rather, [he entered] the Holy Place with his own blood once and for all time, so as to provide an age-long ransom for us!

¹³ Now, if the blood of goats and bulls or the ashes of a heifer that are sprinkled on those who've become unclean can make their flesh holy and clean; ¹⁴ how much more will [this be true of] the blood of the Anointed One! For through the age-long spirit of himself that he offered spotlessly to God, he is purifying our consciences from our own dead deeds, so that we can start serving the living God. ¹⁵ And because of this, he is the mediator of a New Sacred Agreement that redeems us from the death that came from [failing to obey] the first Agreement, and so that those who have been called could receive the promised age-long inheritance!

¹⁶ [Understand that] whenever there's [any sort of an] agreement, death is part of the bargain for the one who agrees to it, ¹⁷ since an agreement that lasts until death is something that has been proven. However, it isn't as strong while the one who made the agreement is still living. ¹⁸ [And this is why] that first [Sacred Agreement] had to be made with blood!

¹⁹ So, after Moses explained all the Commandments of the Law to the people, he took the blood of young bulls and goats, mixed it with water, and then [he] used scarlet wool and hyssop to sprinkle the scroll and all the people. ²⁰ And he said:
'This is the blood of the Sacred Agreement that God has made with you.'

²¹ Thereafter, he sprinkled the blood on the Tent and over all the things that were used for worship.

²² Yes, according to the Law, almost everything is cleansed by blood. So, unless blood is spilled, there is no forgiving. ²³ And this is why it was also necessary for the heavenly things that are symbolized by [the earthly things] to be cleansed that way.

However, heavenly things require better sacrifices. ²⁴ So the Anointed One didn't enter a Most Holy that was made with hands (which is just a copy of the real thing); rather, he actually entered heaven itself to stand before The God on our behalf! ²⁵ Nor does he have to offer himself often, as the High Priest who enters the Most Holy each year must do with blood that isn't his own. ²⁶ Otherwise, [Jesus] would have been required to suffer many times since the founding of the world. But now he has displayed himself at the end of the age and offered himself in order to do away with sins just once through his sacrifice.

²⁷ So as men must die just once (which is followed by a judgment); ²⁸ the Anointed One was also offered just once to carry the sins of many. So, the next time he's seen by those who are so eagerly awaiting him, they'll be free from sin and ready for salvation!

Chapter 10

¹ Therefore, since the Law isn't the reality, but just a shadow of good things to come; the sacrifices that are offered annually will never make the one who brings them perfect. ² For if that were true, they wouldn't have to be offered anymore, since those who are cleansed would no longer have any sins on their consciences!

³ However, these sacrifices remind us of our sins year after year, ⁴ because the blood of bulls and goats can't remove sins! ⁵ And it was because of this, that when he came into the world, he said, 'You didn't want sacrifices and offerings. So, You prepared a body for me, ⁶ because You found no delight in burnt offerings and sin offerings.'

⁷ Then he said, 'Look! I have come to do Your Will, O God... in the knob of the scroll it was written about me.'

⁸ So notice that after he first said, 'You didn't want or approve of sacrifices and offerings, or burnt offerings and sin offerings' (which are being offered in observance of the Law); ⁹ he went on to say, 'Look, I have come to do Your Will.' So, he had to remove the first one to establish the second! ¹⁰ And it's because of this Will that we've been made holy through that single offering of the body of Jesus the Anointed One!

¹¹ Now, all the Priests take their stations each day in Temple service, and they offer the same sacrifices over and over... which can never take sins away completely. ¹² However, [Jesus] offered just one sacrifice for sins through the ages... and then he sat down at the right hand of God,¹³ where he's awaiting [the time when] his enemies will be set as a stool for his feet.

¹⁴ Indeed, he made this single offering so as to bring those who are being made holy to perfection forever.¹⁵ And the Holy Breath testifies to us about this, for first it said,¹⁶ 'This is the Sacred Agreement that I will make with them in those days, says Jehovah: *I will put My Laws in their hearts and I'll write them in their minds.'*¹⁷ [Then it says,] 'I will be merciful toward their lawless acts, and I will forget their sins.'

¹⁸ So when such things are forgotten, there is no more need for sin offerings!

¹⁹ Therefore, brothers; We can confidently say that we have an entrance into the Most Holy Place through the blood of Jesus,²⁰ because he has worked out a way through the curtain for us... a sacrificial but living way, through his flesh.²¹ And since we now have such a great Priest who is over the House of God,²² let's approach him with honest hearts and complete faith, since we rinsed our wicked conscience from our hearts back when we washed our bodies in clean water.

²³ Therefore, let's hang onto the confession of our hope and not give up, because the One who gave us this promise is faithful.²⁴ And let's keep reminding ourselves that we must continue to help each other to grow in love and in good deeds.

²⁵ Also, don't stop meeting together as some have made it their custom. Rather, let's keep on encouraging each other... and [do this] even more so as we see the Day drawing near.

²⁶ However, we must understand that if we still choose to follow a sinful course after coming to an accurate knowledge of the truth, there are no more sacrifices left for our sins.²⁷ All [that remains] then will be just the fear and anticipation of judgment through the same roar of the fiery zeal that is going to consume those who are now opposing us.

²⁸ Understand that if anyone ignored the Law of Moses and two or three testified against him, he was to die without compassion.²⁹ So, how much more worthy of punishment do you think a person will be if he tramples on the Son of The God, or if he considers the blood of the Sacred Agreement that made him holy as something unclean, or if he has outraged the loving care of the Breath [of God] by treating it with contempt?

³⁰ For we know who it was that said, ‘Vengeance is Mine... I will repay!’ And again, ‘Jehovah will judge His people.’ ³¹ Yes, it’s a fearsome thing to fall into the hands of the Living God!

³² I want you to each think back to those days, just after you came to an understanding and were enduring so much suffering, what a hard fight it was. ³³ Sometimes it was like being in an arena where you were being insulted and persecuted along with [many] others who had to share in this experience. ³⁴ Back then, you were so sympathetic toward those who were in prison. And even when everything you owned was being taken away, you were still joyful... because you knew that you had gained something much better and longer lasting!

³⁵ So, don’t throw away your willingness to speak out, because you’ve paid too much to earn it! ³⁶ You need to hang on, so that after you’ve done God’s will, you can walk off with [the prize] that you were promised!

³⁷ For in just a little while, the one who is coming will be here, and he won’t be late! ³⁸ ‘But My righteous ones will live because of their faith,’ and, ‘If he gives up, My soul finds no pleasure in him.’

³⁹ Therefore, we don’t want to be the type that gives up just to be destroyed. Rather, let’s be the type that has the faith that will save our lives!

Chapter 11

¹ Understand that true faith is when you expect the things that you’re hoping for and you’re convinced of things that you haven’t yet seen... ² and we can testify that the ancient ones [had such faith].

³ Likewise, our faith teaches us that each of the ages were set in place by the Word of God, and from that which was not, the things that we now see have appeared!

⁴ Thereafter, it was because of his faith that Abel offered a greater sacrifice to God than did Cain. And the One who witnessed his righteousness and who saw the gifts that he offered was God. So although [Abel] is dead, he is still speaking.

⁵ And it was because of his faith that Enoch was transported so as not to see death... no, he couldn't be found, because God transported him. However, before he was transported, he proved that he had pleased God well.

⁶ So we can see that it's impossible to please God well without faith, because, those who want to come to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards all those who are eagerly searching for Him.

⁷ It was also because of [his] faith in a divine warning about things that he had not yet been seen, that Noah was moved by his fear to build a chest that saved his [family]. And through this righteous act of faith, he condemned that world and became its heir.

⁸ It was because of his faith that AbraHam obeyed when he was called and traveled to a place that he was about to receive as an inheritance... yet when he left, he had no idea where he was even going! ⁹ Then by faith, he lived in tents like an alien in a foreign country, in the same land that had already been promised to him, along with IsaAc and Jacob, who also became heirs of that promise. ¹⁰ For he was awaiting the founding of a city that was to be designed and built by God.

¹¹ It was by her faith that Sarah received the power to conceive a seed when she was barren and when it was too late [in life] for her to do so. However, she considered the One who gave her the promise to be trustworthy. ¹² So from [this woman] that was sexually dead came a huge number... like the stars in the skies or the countless grains of sand on the seashore!

¹³ And though all of these faithful people died without having received what they were promised; they saw it from afar and embraced it, confessing that they were strangers and aliens in their own land. ¹⁴ And indeed, when people talked like that, they showed that they were seeking their own fatherland. ¹⁵ For if they were remembering [the place] from which they came, they likely would have had the opportunity to go back to it. ¹⁶ However, they were reaching out for something better... something that's under the influence of the heavens. As the result, God was never ashamed of them or to be called their God. For He has in fact prepared a city for them!

¹⁷ It was also by his faith that AbraHam offered up IsaAc when he was being tested. And he did this [despite the fact that IsaAc] was the only-conceived son who was to receive the promises... ¹⁸ the one of whom [God] had said, 'What will be called your seed will come through IsaAc!' ¹⁹ But [AbraHam] trusted that God would be able to raise him from the dead. And in effect, that's what really happened!

²⁰ It was also because of his faith that IsaAc blest Jacob and Esau concerning future things. ²¹ And it was because of his faith that Jacob blest each of the sons of JoSeph before he died, bowing low as he leaned on his cane. ²² Then JoSeph, when he was getting close to his end showed his faith when he talked about the exodus of the sons of IsraEl and gave them instructions regarding his bones.

²³ The parents of Moses showed faith when they hid him for three months after his birth, because they saw that the young child was beautiful, and they weren't afraid of the king's decree. ²⁴ Then after he became great, Moses showed his faith by refusing to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter... ²⁵ yes, he chose to be treated badly with the people of God rather than to spend his time enjoying sinful pleasures. ²⁶ [He did this] because he considered the insults of being the anointed as far more valuable than all the treasures of Egypt... and he was looking to the future for his reward!

²⁷ Then again, by his faith, Moses left Egypt... no, not because he feared the king's anger; rather, he hung on like someone who was seeing something that was invisible! ²⁸ Then by faith, he arranged for the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer wouldn't touch [IsraEl's] firstborn.

²⁹ It was also by their faith that [the IsraElites] thereafter passed through the Red Sea as though it were dry land. But when the Egyptians tried to do the same thing, they were swallowed down.

³⁰ And it was also by the faith of these people that the walls of Jericho fell after they'd circled them for seven days. ³¹ And it was by her faith (when she peacefully welcomed the spies [into her home]) that the prostitute RaHab didn't die along with those who were disobedient.

³² What more can I say? I don't have enough time to tell you about Gideon, Barak, Sampson, JephThah, or David... or about SamuEl and the Prophets. ³³ Yet by their faith, they defeated kingdoms in war, did righteous things, received the promises, fenced off the mouths of lions, ³⁴ overcame the force of fire, and escaped the edge of the sword. Nor [can I tell] of all the weak ones who were made powerful and became mighty enough in war to drive off foreign invaders.

³⁵ [It was also by faith] that women received their dead through a resurrection. And while some were being tortured, they wouldn't allow a ransom to be paid on their behalf, so that they might receive a better resurrection.

³⁶ Yes, others were mocked and tried with whips... and even put in shackles and in prisons! ³⁷ They were tried, stoned, sawed in half, and slaughtered with swords... and some had to dress themselves in sheepskins and goatskins as they were in need, oppressed, and mistreated. ³⁸ So although the world didn't deserve them, they were forced to wander the deserts, mountains, caves, and peepholes of the earth. ³⁹ Yet their faith speaks well of them, though they never received the promise! ⁴⁰ And because God has foreseen something better for us, they won't be made perfect apart from us.

Chapter 12

¹ So, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, we should each get rid of the things that are weighing us down and set aside any entangling sins, then just hang on and keep running the difficult course that's ahead of us, ² as we keep on looking toward the founder and perfecter of our faith, Jesus, who, because he realized the joy that was before him endured the impaling pole and despised its shame so that he could sit at the right hand of the throne of The God!

³ So, let's pay close attention to his example and notice how he was able to endure all of that at the hands of sinners (who just condemned themselves), so we don't tire out and give up on who we are... ⁴ for to this point, none of us have had to struggle against sin to the point of bleeding.

⁵ And don't forget the encouragement that was given to you as [His] sons, that said, 'My son; Don't treat the discipline of Jehovah lightly, and don't try to avoid being corrected by Him. ⁶ For God disciplines those whom He Loves and He whips those whom He accepts as His sons.'

⁹ We all once had fleshly fathers who disciplined us, and we respected them. Therefore, shouldn't we obey the Father who gave us His Breath even more... so we can live?

¹⁰ Yes, for a brief period [in our lives, our fathers] used to discipline us over things that seemed right to them. However, [now] we're being brought [before God] to be partakers of His Holiness! ¹¹ And while it's true that this discipline doesn't make us joyful when we receive it (it makes us sad); later on, those who learn from it harvest the fruit of peace and righteousness.

¹⁴ Try to make peace with everyone and to become holy; for without that, no one can see the Lord. ¹⁵ Therefore, make sure that none of you are falling short of God's loving care, and that no bitter roots are sprouting up to create trouble and make any of you unclean.

¹⁶ [Of course, I'm comparing you to people] who are immoral or worldly, like Esau, who gave away his rights as the firstborn for a single meal. ¹⁷ Remember that he changed his mind later and wanted to inherit the blessing; but despite the fact that he tearfully tried to reclaim it, he was rejected.

¹⁸ Now, [this mountain] that you've approached can't be felt, nor is covered with a burning fire, or darkness, or fog, or a thunderstorm, ¹⁹ nor [can you hear] the sound of trumpets being blown, or any voice speaking... a voice that the people begged not to have to listen to ²⁰ and which they couldn't bear when they heard it say so clearly, 'If so much as a wild animal touches this mountain, it must be stoned!' ²¹ Yes, it was such a frightening scene that even Moses admitted, 'I'm terrified and shaking!'

²² But what you've approached is Mount Zion... the City of the Living God. It is Heavenly JeruSalem, where millions of [\[God's\] messengers](#) ²³ are attending a convention of the gathering of the firstborn whose names have been written in the heavens by God, who is the judge of them all. [Yes, you've approached] the unseen force of those who are righteous and who have been made perfect, ²⁴ and [you've approached] Jesus, the mediator of a New Sacred Agreement, whose sacrificial blood speaks out better than Abel's. ²⁵ Therefore, let's be sure that we aren't also found to be begging not to have to listen to the One who is speaking.

Back then, those people begged not to have to listen to the One who gave that divine warning here on the earth. Yet they had to listen to it anyhow! So, how much more should we refuse to turn away from the One who has been speaking to us from the heavens!

²⁶ Back then, His voice just shook the ground. But He promised:
‘Next time, I’ll not only shake the ground, [I’ll also shake] the sky!’ ²⁷
And when He spoke of the next time, He implied that the only things that
He will shake then are [the \[temporary\] creations \[of mankind\]](#)... yes, they will be done away with. However, the things that aren’t shaken will still be here.

²⁸ So in view of the fact that we’re going to receive a Kingdom that won’t be shaken; let’s show how much we really care by serving God pleasingly in fear and in deep reverence... ²⁹ because our God is a consuming fire!

Chapter 13

¹ Therefore, you should love your brothers... ² and don’t forget to care about even the ones that you don’t know! For it was because some did this that they unknowingly showed hospitality to [\[God’s\] messengers!](#)

³ And don’t forget those who are in prison... act as though you’re locked up with them! Also, [don’t forget] those who are being persecuted... [act as though it’s happening to] your own bodies!

⁴ And make sure that your marriages are kept honorable and that your beds remain clean, because God is going to judge the sexually immoral and the adulterers.

⁵ Live your lives free from the love of money... be satisfied with the things that you have, because He promised:

‘I won’t forget you and I’ll never let you down.’ ⁶ So, let’s be courageous and say:

‘Jehovah’s my helper, so I will not fear;
For, what can men do to me?’

⁷ Listen to those who are taking the lead among you and teaching you the word of God. Then, as you see the results of their conduct, imitate their faith.

⁸ [Remember that] Jesus the Anointed One was the same yesterday as he is today, and [the same] as he will be through the ages. ⁹ So, don’t allow yourselves to be misled by various strange teachings.

Indeed, it's better for [your] hearts to be strengthened by [God's] loving care than by anything that you would eat... for such things are no benefit at all to those who are walking in The Way. ¹⁰ Rather, we have an Altar from which we may eat that even those who serve at [the Temple] may not eat.

¹³ Therefore, let's all go to him outside of the camp, bearing all the bad things that were said about him. ¹⁴ And since the city that's there isn't going to last, we should all be seeking the one that is coming! ¹⁵ For it is through him that we should be continuously offering the fruit of our lips (along with everything else) as sacrifices of praise to The God and in praise of His Name!

¹⁶ And don't forget to do good things, such as sharing whatever you have with others! Because, these are the types of sacrifices that are truly pleasing to The God.

¹⁷ Also, have confidence in those who are taking the lead among you and submit to them, because they're watching over your lives! May they do this with joy, not with groaning, because that would be harmful for you.

¹⁸ In addition, keep on praying for us. For we feel that our consciences are clear, since we've acted properly in everything. ¹⁹ And I especially want to encourage you to do this, so that I can be returned to you a bit sooner.

²⁰ Now, may the God of peace who raised the great Shepherd (our Lord Jesus) from the dead with the blood of an age-long Sacred Agreement ²¹ use everything that's good to make any adjustments that are necessary for you to do his will. And may the One that is working within us (through Jesus the Anointed One) in order to accomplish everything that He sees to be good be glorified into the ages of ages... may it be so.

²² Now, I urge you brothers to live up to these words of encouragement, although I haven't really written very much.

²³ O yes; I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been released, and if he gets here soon, I'll come to see you.

²⁴ Give my greetings to all those who are taking the lead among you and to all the Holy Ones.

Those in Italy send you their greetings.

James

A letter for general circulation among Jewish believers by James, the brother of Jude and half-brother of Jesus through Mary. Likely written in Aramaic sometime before 66-CE. Notice from the text that James is speaking just to Jews and that unlike Paul, he is a staunch defender of the Old Law and its customs.

Chapter 1

¹ James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One, to the twelve tribes that are scattered about; Rejoice!

² Consider it all a joyful experience, my brothers, when you have to endure various types of trials, ³ because you know that this proving of your faith helps you to endure. ⁴ So, may your endurance reach its goal of making you perfect and complete in every way, lacking in nothing.

⁵ If any of you are lacking in wisdom, you should continue to ask God, and He will give it to you... He provides it easily and without any scolding. ⁶ However, you must believe [that you'll receive it] and not have any doubts, for those who doubt are like waves of the sea that are driven and blown about by the wind. ⁷ Such a person shouldn't expect to receive anything at all from the Lord, ⁸ due to his unsureness and lack of faith.

⁹ Therefore, let the lowly brother boast of his high standing, ¹⁰ and the rich one boast his lowliness, because he too will pass away like a flower in a field. ¹¹ For when the sun comes up and puts out all of its heat, the plant withers, the flower drops off, and its beauty fades... and this is how the rich man will fade away in his journey through life. ¹² However, the man who endures his trials is blest, because after he's been approved, he'll receive the crown of life that the Lord promised to all those who love him.

¹³ So may no one who is being tried ever say, 'I'm being tried by God,' for God doesn't send bad things to try us. In fact, He doesn't try anyone. ¹⁴ Rather, we are each being tried by our own desires, which are what bait us and lead us on. ¹⁵ Then when our desires become pregnant, they give birth to sin. And once the sin is committed, it ends in death.

¹⁶ Don't allow anyone to mislead you, my beloved brothers; ¹⁷ every good deed and every perfect gift comes to us from above. It comes down from the Father of all Light, who doesn't change any more than a shadow when it turns. ¹⁸ And because it was His Will, He gave birth to us through the message of truth, so that we could be some of the first fruitage of His creation.

¹⁹ Recognize this, my beloved brothers: Every man must be eager to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. ²⁰ For a man's anger doesn't make him righteous with God. ²¹ So, once you've gotten rid of all the filth and badness, humbly allow the Word to grow within you... because it can save your lives.

²⁵ However, the one who gazes into the perfect Law that belongs to a free people – and then keeps on looking into it – isn't someone who listens and forgets, but someone who takes action! This man will be blest in whatever he does.

²⁶ Now, if any of you think of yourselves as devout, but you're misleading your hearts by not putting a bridle on your tongues, your worship is worthless. ²⁷ For what our God and Father views as clean, pure worship is this: [providing aid] to orphans and widows when they're in need and keeping ourselves free from the stains of this system of things.

Chapter 2

¹ My brothers; Don't show favoritism when it comes to the glorious faith of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One. ² For if a man who is wearing a gold ring and fine clothes should enter your synagogue, then someone whose clothes are filthy also enters, ³ do you favor the one that's wearing the fine clothes and say, 'Here's a good place to sit?' And do you then say to the poor one, 'Stand [over there],' or, 'Sit here under my footstool?' ⁴ If so, aren't you showing favoritism among yourselves and judging from evil thoughts?

⁵ Listen, my beloved brothers; Didn't God choose the poor of this system of things to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom that He promised to those who love Him? ⁶ Yet, you [tend to] dishonor the poor! Aren't rich people the ones that are oppressing you and dragging you into courts? ⁷ And aren't they the ones that speak badly of the good name by which you are called?

⁸ Now, if you're obeying the royal law of the Scriptures that says, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself,' you're doing well. ⁹ But if you're showing favoritism, you're sinning and the Law convicts you of being its violator! ¹⁰ For if someone who is trying to obey the Law fails in just one little part of it, he has broken the whole thing. ¹¹ Because the One who said, 'You must not commit adultery,' also said, 'You must not murder.' So if you aren't committing adultery but you murder someone, you've broken the whole Law.

¹² Therefore, speak and behave as though you're about to be judged by the law of a free people... ¹³ and [remember that] the merciless will be judged without mercy, since mercy is an important part of justice.

¹⁴ So, what good does it do, my brothers, if someone says he has faith, but isn't moved to do anything about it. Can his faith save him? ¹⁵ [For example], if a brother or sister doesn't have clothing or enough food for each day, ¹⁶ and you tell him, 'Go in peace; be warm and well fed'... if you don't give him what he needs to survive, what good have you done?

¹⁷ So, faith without good deeds is dead!

¹⁸ Now, someone can say, 'Though you may do good things, I have [more] faith!' Well, you show me your faith without good deeds and I'll show you my faith by the good things that I do.

¹⁹ So, do you say that you believe that there's just one God? That's good... but the demons believe that too! Yes, they believe and it frightens them!

²⁰ I want you to know, O empty man, that faith apart from [good] deeds is dead! ²¹ For wasn't our father AbraHam called righteous because of the things that he did... such as when he offered up his son IsaAc on the altar? ²² Yes, you can see how his faith worked along with his deeds, and that it was his deeds that perfected his faith. ²³ So the scripture was fulfilled that says, 'AbraHam believed in The God, and for this he was considered to be righteous and God's friend.'

²⁴ So you see; a man is pronounced righteous by the things that he does, not just by the things that he believes.

²⁵ The same was true of the prostitute, RaHab. For she was called righteous because she took the messengers in and then sent them out by another way. ²⁶ So, just as a body that isn't breathing is dead, faith without good deeds is dead.

Chapter 3

¹ Brothers, not many of you should become teachers, because you know that [teachers] will be held more accountable... ² and we all make a lot of mistakes! So if there is any man that doesn't stumble in his words, he's perfect and he can lead his whole body as with a bridle. ³ For if we put a bridle in the mouth of a horse to make it obey us, we can control its whole body.

⁷ Though every sort of wild animal, flying creature, slithering thing, and sea creature can be tamed and has been tamed by men, ⁸ no man can tame the tongue... for it won't stop saying bad things and it's full of deadly poison. ⁹ With it we can praise our Lord and Father, or curse men who came into existence in God's image... ¹⁰ so out of the same mouth comes both blessings and curses.

There's no need for things like this to keep happening, my brothers! ¹¹ Are there any fountains that bubble up both sweet and bitter [water]? ¹² Fig trees can't produce olives, grapevines can't produce figs, and you can't get sweet water from salt water, can you my brothers!

¹³ So, who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show that he has the inner strength that comes from wisdom by the ways that he acts and the things that he does. ¹⁴ But if you are bitterly jealous, and in your hearts you just want to argue; don't be too proud of this and don't lie about the facts. ¹⁵ This isn't wisdom that comes from above; it's earthly, animalistic, and demonic.

¹⁶ For where you find jealousy and arguing, you'll also find disorder and everything that's foul. ¹⁷ But the wisdom that comes from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, reasonable, ready to obey, and full of mercy and good fruitage. It isn't hypocritical or prejudiced, ¹⁸ because the seeds of the fruit of righteousness are planted in peace by the peacemakers!

Chapter 4

¹ So, where are all these fights and wars among you coming from? Aren't they the result of battles that are being fought in your body parts over [sensual] pleasures? ² You want, but you can't have. You're jealous and murderous, but that doesn't get you anything. You're fighting and waging war, but you haven't received because you haven't asked. ³ Then when you do ask, you don't receive, because you're asking for the wrong reasons, since all you're really interested in is pleasure!

⁴ Adulteresses, don't you know that if you're a friend of the world you're an enemy of God? So, whoever wants to be a friend of this world is putting himself down as God's enemy. ⁵ For what do you think the scripture means that says, 'The spirit within us yearns with envy?'

⁶ Now, the loving care that He sends to us is greater than of all that, for we were told: 'God shows loving-care for the lowly, but He opposes the haughty.' ⁷ So, let's do what God says... resist the Opposer and he'll run from you! ⁸ Yes, draw closer to God and He'll draw closer to you!

So, wash your hands, you sinners, and those of you who are undecided should purify your hearts! ⁹ Otherwise you'll be crying, moaning, and miserable... your laughter will be turned into moaning and your joy will be turned into sadness! ¹⁰ Yes, humble yourselves in the eyes of the Lord and He will lift you higher!

¹¹ Brothers, stop complaining about each other, because those who speak against or judge their brothers are speaking against and judging the Law. And if you're judging the Law, you aren't someone who's under it, you're its judge... ¹² and there's just one Lawgiver and Judge who can either save or destroy. So, who are you to be judging your neighbors?

¹³ And those of you who say, 'Today or tomorrow I'm going to travel to this city or that, and I'll spend a year there doing business and making profits'... ¹⁴ you don't even know what's going to happen in your life tomorrow, because you're just a mist that appears for a little while and then disappears! ¹⁵ Shouldn't you rather be saying, 'If it's Jehovah's will, I will live and do this or that.'

¹⁶ But now you're taking pride in things that you just assume to be true, and being proud over such things is wickedness. ¹⁷ Because, whenever you know what's right and you don't do it, that's a sin to you!

Chapter 5

¹ So go on, you who are rich; cry and bawl over the miseries that you'll have to endure! ² For your wealth will rot away, your clothes will be moth-eaten, ³ your gold and silver will corrode, and whatever remains will testify against you and eat your flesh like the fire that you've treasured away for yourselves in the last days.

⁴ Look! The wages that you refused to pay the workers who harvested your fields are crying out, and the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of Jehovah of Armies. ⁵ For you've lived on the earth just to satisfy yourselves... yes, you're nourishing your hearts on self-indulgence for the day of slaughter! ⁶ And since you even condemned and murdered the Righteous One, won't He stand and oppose you?

⁹ Brothers, stop moaning about each other, so you won't be judged. For look... the judge is now standing at the door!

¹⁰ Brothers, you should learn from the examples of the Prophets who spoke in the Name of the Lord about how to suffer bad things and how to be patient, ¹¹ for we call those who endured, blest!

You've all heard of the endurance of Job and you saw how the Lord ended it... and this proves that Jehovah is very kind and merciful.

¹² But above all, my brothers; Stop swearing oaths by heaven, or by the earth, or by anything else. Just let your yes mean yes and your no mean no, so you don't fail when you're being judged!

¹³ Are there any among you that are being persecuted? Let them keep on praying!

Are there any among you that are cheerful? Let them sing psalms!

¹⁴ Are there any among you that are ill? Let them call the elders and ask them to pray over them, as they rub them with oil in the name of the Lord! ¹⁵ Then their faithful prayers will rescue the ill and the Lord will lift them and forgive any sins that they've committed.

¹⁶ So, admit your sins to each other and pray that each one of you will be healed, because prayer has a lot of power when it's working through righteous people.

¹⁷ Remember that EliJah was just a man with passions like ours; but when he prayed and asked for it not to rain, it didn't rain in the land for three and a half years. ¹⁸ Then when he prayed again, the skies poured with rain, causing the ground to produce its fruitage.

¹⁹ My brothers, whenever someone is led astray from the truth and someone else leads him back; ²⁰ recognize that the one who turns the sinner from the error of his ways will save his own life from death... and it will cover many of his own sins as well.

1 Peter

Written from Babylon for Peter (the Apostle to the Jews) by the noteworthy Christian Scribe Silvanus, probably in Aramaic, sometime before 66-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Peter, an Apostle of Jesus the Anointed One, to the elected ones among the scattered \(Jews\) that are living in Pontus, Galatia, CappaDokia, Asia Minor, and Bithynia, ² who by the foreknowledge of The God and Father and by the holiness of [His] Breath are obedient and sprinkled with the blood of Jesus the Anointed One;

May loving care and peace be multiplied among you.

³ Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One, who according to His great mercy fathered within us the hope of life by resurrecting Jesus the Anointed One from the dead, ⁴ so that an undying, incorruptible, and enduring inheritance will be reserved for you in the heavens. ⁵ Yes, you who are being guarded by faith through the power of God for a salvation that is ready to be revealed in this final season, ⁶ and in which you are rejoicing.

So, although you are currently being grieved by various trials, ⁷ understand that these things are happening to you to prove your faith, which is something that is much more valuable than gold that is refined and proven by fire, and so that you will be found to be a reason for praise, honor, and glory at the revealing of Jesus the Anointed One. ⁸ For though you've never seen him, you've loved him; and though you can't see him, you've believed in him and are rejoicing with an unspeakable and glorified joy. ⁹ For it's by this that you are carrying off for yourselves the reward of the hope that is bringing salvation to your lives!

¹⁰ And when it comes to this salvation; understand that the Prophets (those who prophesied that this loving-kindness would be shown to you) used to seek and search, ¹¹ trying (through the spirit of the anointing that was in them) to determine the exact time and circumstances of the sufferings of the Anointed One and of his being glorified... yes, they knew about this even back then! ¹² However, it wasn't revealed to them as it has been to you, for they were just servants of the things that have now been revealed to you by those who proclaimed the good news to you through the Holy Breath that was sent from heaven. Yes [at that time], even the [messengers \[of God\]](#) wanted to see these things!

¹³ As the result, prepare your minds to understand, and become perfectly sober when it comes to your hope of the loving kindness that will be manifested in you at the revelation of Jesus the Anointed One. ¹⁴ And as obedient children, don't go back to being what you used to be by desiring ignorant things. ¹⁵ Rather, like the Holy One who called you, become holy in all of your ways. ¹⁶ For it is written: 'You must be holy, because I am holy!'

¹⁷ So if you are calling this One your Father (someone who doesn't discriminate but judges each person by the things that they do), you should be living your lives in fear! ¹⁸ For you must recognize that the ransom that was paid to release you from the worthless way of life that you learned from your fathers wasn't paid for with things that waste away like silver or gold. ¹⁹ Rather, it was paid for with the precious blood of a spotless and perfect lamb, the Anointed One. ²⁰ And though he was known before the founding of the cosmos, he has finally been revealed for your sakes during this period, ²¹ so that through him you could come to believe in The God who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so that you could put all your faith and hope in that God.

²² Then, after you have purified your lives by [learning how to] obey the truth, you must also learn to love each other intensely... yes, develop a sincere brotherly love for each other out of a pure heart! ²³ For you weren't born again as seeds that are planted [in the ground] and will perish, but as something that through the enduring Word of the living God is now imperishable. ²⁴ [As it is written]:

‘All flesh is like grass
And its glory is like the flowers in a field.
But though grass dries up and its flowers will drop,
²⁵ God's Word lasts through the ages.’

Yes, these are the words that we have preached to you as good news.

Chapter 2

⁴ Yes, you must approach him as though he's a living block of stone that was for a fact rejected by men, but who has been chosen as something precious by God. ⁵ Because, it's upon him that you are being built as living blocks into a [Spiritual \[Temple\]](#) and as a Holy Priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus the Anointed One. ⁶ For the Scripture says: ‘{Look!} I am laying in Zion a select and precious cornerstone, and all who put faith in it will never be shamed.’

⁷ Therefore, you have put faith in this precious thing in which others don't believe... the block that the builders rejected but which has become the head of the corner... ⁸ the stumbling block and snare to those who stumble over the words because of the disobedient ways to which they've been appointed. ⁹ And now you've become a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, and a people who were specially selected to announce the virtues of the One who called you out of darkness and into

His wonderful light. ¹⁰ So, though you haven't always been a nation (gr. laos or people), you're now a nation of God. And though you once knew no mercy, you're the ones who are now being shown mercy.

¹¹ My loved ones; I want to encourage you who are [living as] foreigners and exiles not to indulge in the things that your bodies might crave and which fight a battle against the person that you are on the inside. ¹² Yes, while you're [living] among the gentiles, behave yourselves, so that when they condemn you and say bad things about you, they can see the good things that you're doing and then glorify The God in the Day that He arrives for His inspection.

¹³ Also, you must obey every office that men have created (through the Lord), regardless of whether the one that is over you is a king, ¹⁴ or [just] a governor that has been sent [by the king] to punish criminals and to praise those who do good things. ¹⁵ Because, it's God's Will for you to do good things, so that you can put a muzzle on the ignorant accusations of unreasonable men.

¹⁸ Those of you who are household servants should obey and fear your masters... and not just those that are good and reasonable, but also those that are hard to please. ¹⁹ For if a person with a Godly conscience has to put up with the grief of having to suffer for something he didn't do, it shows a lot of inner strength.

²⁰ So if you are being slapped for something that you didn't do wrong and you [choose to] put up with suffering when you've only done good things, this shows your inner strength to God.

²¹ And for a fact, this is the [course] to which you were called. Because, the Anointed One suffered on your behalf as an example, so that you would follow in his tracks. ²² For though he wasn't guilty of any sin and his mouth didn't speak any lies; ²³ when they shouted bad things at him, he didn't shout back, and when he was suffering, he didn't threaten anyone. He just left himself [in the hands of] the One who judges righteously. ²⁴ Then he bore our sins on his body when he was hung on the tree... and that's when the sins died so that we could thereafter be counted as righteous. For, 'By his wounds, you were healed.'

²⁵ And though you were once sheep that had strayed, you have now returned to the shepherd who is watching over your lives.

Chapter 3

¹ Also, you women should obey your [husbands], so that those who aren't obeying the Word can be won over without words through your fine conduct ² when they see the fear that you're showing by being pure.

⁸ And finally, you should all share the same attitude when it comes to being sympathetic, loving your brothers, caring for each other, being humble, ⁹ and by not trying to get even or by trading insults. Rather, you should bestow blessings, since you were called to the Way so as to inherit blessings.

¹⁰ Yes, may those of you who love life and want to see good days keep your tongues from saying bad things and your lips from telling lies... ¹¹ turn away from what's bad and do what's good, as you search for and chase after peace! ¹² [For it's written]:

'Jehovah watches out for the righteous,

And He listens when they are crying to Him...
But He opposes those who are doing what's bad.'

¹³ Therefore, who will treat you badly if you're zealously doing what's righteous? ¹⁴ And even if you should have to suffer for doing something righteous, you'll be blest! So, don't be afraid or even be bothered by such things! ¹⁵ Rather, make the Anointed One the Holy Lord in your hearts, and always be ready to make a defense before anyone who demands to know why you have this hope. However, do it calmly and with [Godly] fear.

¹⁶ Yes, keep a clean conscience so that anyone who may accuse you and speak out against you will be shamed by your fine conduct. ¹⁷ And remember that it's better for you to suffer for doing something good (if that's God's will) than for doing something that's bad.

¹⁸ For even the Anointed One died (once and for all time) over sins as someone who is righteous on behalf of those who are unrighteous, so as to lead you to God. And then, though his flesh was in fact destroyed, he was brought to life as a spirit.

¹⁹ Thereafter, he preached to the spirits that had been imprisoned ²⁰ because of their disobedience during the time that God was patiently waiting for Noah to build the chest in which a few people (just eight souls) were saved through the water. ²¹ And this is the same type of thing that's saving you now... [I'm talking about] baptism, the purpose of which isn't to get rid of the filth of the flesh, but to ask God for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus the Anointed One, ²² who is currently at God's right hand in the heavens, where all of [God's] messengers and all the authorities and powers must now obey him.

¹ So, since the Anointed One had to suffer in the flesh, you had best start thinking about fighting that same battle. For someone who has suffered in the flesh has stopped sinning ² and doesn't live for human desires anymore, but to do the will of God for the rest of his life in the flesh.

⁵ However, they will have to answer to the One who is ready to judge both the living and the dead. ⁶ Indeed, this is why we are preaching the good news to those who are the dead... so that, though they may be judged in the flesh, they can now start living to God in the spirit!

⁷ Therefore, since the end of everything has drawn closer, you should become more sensible and sober-minded when it comes to prayer. ⁸ And more than anything else, you should be reaching out to each other in love, because love covers a multitude of sins. ⁹ Yes, be hospitable to each other without grumbling; ¹⁰ and as each of you has received a gift, use [that gift] to serve each other as good managers of the abundant loving kindnesses of God, ¹¹ so that whenever anyone speaks the Word of God, or whenever anyone serves through the strength that is supplied by The God, He may be glorified by it all through Jesus the Anointed One... may He have glory and power through ages of ages... may it be so.

¹² Loved ones; You shouldn't think it strange that there's a fire blazing among you and testing you, as though what's happening to you is something that's very unusual. ¹³ Rather, as you [find yourselves] sharing in the sufferings of the Anointed One, rejoice! Because, when his glory is revealed, you will once again be happy and cry out in joy! ¹⁴ For if you're being slandered over the name of the Anointed One, you are truly blest, because [this proves that] God's glory and Breath has come to rest upon you.

¹⁵ So, although none of you should ever have to suffer for being a murderer, a thief, a criminal, or for not minding your own business; ¹⁶ if you're suffering because of being a Christian, you should never be ashamed of it! Rather, you should keep on glorifying God in that name. ¹⁷

For the time of judgment has arrived... and it's starting with the House of God. So, if it's starting with us first; how will those who don't obey the good news of God end up? ¹⁸ For if the righteous are just barely being saved; where will those who are godless and the sinners make a showing?

¹⁹ Therefore, let those who are (by God's will) suffering, gladly entrust their lives to the faithful Creator by doing whatever is good.

Chapter 5

¹ I encourage the elders among you (my fellow elders and witnesses of the sufferings of the Anointed One who will share in the glory that's soon to be revealed) ² to shepherd the flock of God that has been entrusted to you. Don't do this because you have to, but because you want to! No, don't do it to make a lot of money, but because you want to help! ³ And don't [set yourselves up as] rulers over those who have been entrusted to your care; rather, become examples to the flock. ⁴ Then when the Chief Shepherd is revealed, you'll walk away with the enduring garland of glory!

⁵ And the same [is true] for you younger men; Obey the elders! All of you should be humble before each other. In fact, tie humility around yourselves with knots! For God opposes those who think too much of themselves, while He's kind to those who are humble. ⁶ Therefore, humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God so that He can eventually raise you to a higher position. ⁷ Throw all your worries upon Him, because He really cares about you!

⁸ Also, be serious and stay alert, because your accuser (the Slanderer) is roaming about like a roaring lion that is looking for someone to swallow down. ⁹ Oppose him by taking a solid stand for the faith, and realize that the things you're suffering in this system of things are also happening throughout the entire brotherhood... ¹⁰ and that the God of all loving kindness will call you to age-long glory in the Anointed Jesus.

For after you have suffered a little while on His behalf, He will prepare you, establish you, strengthen you, and firmly set your foundation! ¹¹ Yes, to Him be the power through the ages... may it be so!

¹² I'm sending what I consider these few words that I wrote through Silvanus (a faithful brother) to encourage you and to testify to the fact that you are standing in the true loving-care of The God.

¹³ I send you greetings from the woman who was chosen along with you, and from Mark (my son), from Babylon. ¹⁴ Greet each other with a kiss of love!

Peace to all of you in the Anointed One.

2 Peter

Written for Jesus' Apostle Peter, possibly in Aramaic, sometime before his death in or near Babylon around 66-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Simon Peter, a slave and Apostle of Jesus the Anointed One, to those who are all precious to us and who have received their share of faith by the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus the Anointed One;

² May you grow in loving care and peace by coming to a higher knowledge of The God, and of our Lord Jesus. ³ For He has granted us all of His Divine Power when it comes to [clean] living and godliness through the knowledge of the one who called us to his own glory and virtue, ⁴ and through whom He has given us the most precious and greatest promises, so that through these you might become sharers in the divine nature now that you've left the corrupt desires of this system of things.

⁵ And then, after you've zealously done all of this, add virtue to your faith, knowledge to [your] virtue, ⁶ self-control to [your] knowledge, endurance to [your] self-control, piety to [your] endurance, ⁷ brotherly-love to [your] piety, and pure love to [your] brotherly love. ⁸ For if you're filled and overflowing with these things, they will keep you from being lazy or from failing to produce fruitage when it comes to gaining a higher knowledge of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One.

⁹ However, there are those in whom these qualities are not present, for they've proven to be short-sighted and they've forgotten how they had once been purified, so they've returned to their old sinful ways!

¹⁰ Therefore, brothers; be zealous when it comes to making your calling and electing a sure thing! For if you can do that, you'll never stumble, ¹¹ and you'll be richly supplied with entry into the age-long Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Anointed.

¹² This is why I always want to remind you of these things, despite the fact that you already know [them] and are firmly rooted in the truth. ¹³ However, as long as I must live in this temporary dwelling, I will consider it righteous to shake you and remind you, ¹⁴ since I realize that this 'tent' will soon be set aside, as our Lord Jesus the Anointed One has indicated to me. ¹⁵ Therefore, I'm going to do everything that I can whenever I can, so that you'll keep on reminding each other of these things after I'm gone.

¹⁶ Now, what we've told you about the power and appearance of the Lord Jesus the Anointed One wasn't some myth that we just made up. Rather, we were eyewitnesses to his magnificence! ¹⁷ For he was honored and glorified by God (the Father) through a voice that came to him, which glorified him in an appropriate way when it said, 'This is My Son whom I love and of whom I have approved!'

¹⁸ Yes, we heard these words from heaven itself as we were there with him on the Holy Mountain! ¹⁹ And by this, we had the prophetic words made surer to us. So, you will do well to pay attention to them. For [these words] are like a lamp that will illuminate the dark places until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts.

²⁰ Understand this: None of the prophecies in the Scriptures came from [anyone's own] ideas, ²¹ nor [were they spoken] just because some men wanted to prophesy. Rather, men spoke from God as they were being born along by [His] Holy Breath.

Chapter 2

¹ However, there have also been false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. These will introduce destructive heresies and deny the master who bought them, which will bring swift destruction upon them.

² Yet, many will follow them into their dirty deeds. And because of this, the way of the truth will be slandered. ³ Also, since such ones will desire whatever you have, they will worm their way [in among you] with carefully-planned words. However, the ancient judgment upon them will not be delayed and their destruction hasn't fallen asleep.

⁴ Notice that God didn't spare the angels that sinned, for He threw them into the dark pits of Tartarus where they are still awaiting His justice. ⁵ Nor did He spare the first system of things... though He guarded Noah (who was a preacher of righteousness) along with seven others, when He brought a downpour upon that world of godless people.

⁶ Also, after He condemned the cities Sodom and Gomorrah, He reduced them to ashes. And all of these things are examples of what is going to happen to such godless people!

⁹ So, [understand that] the Lord knows how to rescue devout people from trials, while he keeps the unrighteous for a day of judgment when they will be destroyed.

¹⁰ This is especially true of those who chase after flesh in filthy acts of lust and who despise divine appointments... the self-willed who don't tremble when they speak ill of the glorious ones. ¹¹ However, even the messengers [of God] (who are much stronger and more powerful than them) wouldn't think of looking down on such [glorious] ones, for fear of being judged as blasphemers by the Lord.

¹² So, people like that are like unreasoning animals, which were born to be caught and killed. And because they speak badly of things that they don't understand, they will rot in their filth. ¹³ Yes, the payback for their unrighteousness is the mistreatment of themselves.

For what brings pleasure to these people is just spending their days in luxury... they are spots and flaws that enjoy doing anything that they feel tempted to do, as they feast among you! ¹⁴ Such ones have eyes that are always full of adultery and sins, as they try to tempt those who are weak. For their hearts have been trained to want things that aren't theirs, and they [give birth to] children that are cursed. ¹⁵ For they've been led away from the straight path and are directed onto the course of BalaAm [the son] of Beor, who loved the reward for doing what was wrong, ¹⁶ but was scolded for going beyond the limits by a farm animal that couldn't speak... yet it did speak in a man's voice and it stopped that crazy prophet!

¹⁷ Such people are like springs without any water and like clouds being blown by storms that are reserved for the gloom of darkness. ¹⁸ Yet they talk in big ways about stupid things, as they try to tempt [people] into following human desires and loose lifestyles... yes, they turn the little ones who are fleeing [this system of things] back into doing what's wrong. ¹⁹ They keep promising them freedom, while they are in fact slaves to filth... for whoever is conquered by another, becomes his slave.

²⁰ Understand that anyone who has escaped from the filth of this system of things by coming to an accurate knowledge of our Lord and Savior (Jesus the Anointed) and then turns back to it, is conquered by it again and is worse off than he was before [he became a Christian]. ²¹ Therefore, it would be better for such ones if they had never learned about the ways of righteousness than to have turned from it after they've been taught the ways of Holiness! ²² So what happens to them is as the proverb truthfully says: 'The dog has returned to its own vomit, and the sow that was bathed to rolling in its manure.'

Chapter 3

¹ My loved ones; This is now the second letter that I've written to you. In the first letter, I tried to shake you into thinking clearly and remind you to ² never forget what the holy Prophets used to say, or of the commandments that our Lord and Savior gave to us through [his] Apostles.

³ Recognize this: In the last days there will be those who will ridicule... they'll go their own way and do whatever they want, ⁴ then they'll mock you by asking, 'So, where is this appearance of his that they've been promising since our ancestors fell asleep? For everything is still the same as it has been since the beginning of creation!'

⁵ However, what is hidden from them is this: Though the ancient skies and lands were out of the water; by the Word of God, they still stood between the waters. ⁶ And it was through this that the world back then was flooded and destroyed by water.

⁷ Likewise, it's by this same Word that what's in store for the skies and the lands today is the fire of the Judgment Day, when those godless men will be destroyed.

⁸ But loved ones; don't overlook the fact that one day to the Lord is as a thousand years (or, thousands of years), and a thousand years (or, thousands of years) as just one day. ⁹ For the Lord isn't slow when it comes to his promises, as some people think. Rather, he's being patient with you, because he doesn't want anyone to be destroyed... he's allowing enough time for everyone to repent!

¹⁰ However, the Day of the Lord will come just like a thief! And then the skies will become extremely hot, their basic parts will melt, and they will all pass away with a hissing noise... then the earth and everything that's being done on it will be exposed!

¹¹ So, since all of this is about to be dissolved; what sort of people should you be when it comes to holy conduct and godliness?

¹² Yes, we're awaiting and anticipating the appearance of the Day of the Lord, during which the skies will burn and dissolve and their basic parts will melt due to the intense heat! ¹³ But we're also awaiting the new skies and lands that He has promised in which righteousness will dwell!

¹⁴ Therefore, loved ones; since we are [truly] expecting these things, we should be swift about making ourselves flawless and spotless, so we'll be found to be at peace with him!

¹⁵ You should think about the patience that our Lord is showing when it comes to our salvation... which is something that our beloved brother Paul wrote to you about through the [special] wisdom that he has been given ¹⁶ and which he speaks about in all of his letters. Yes, some of [what he writes] is hard to understand, so it is being twisted by the ignorant and unstable, the same as they are doing to the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

¹⁷ So to you, my loved ones: Since you've been warned; be careful that you aren't led astray by the bad things that these lawless people are doing and then lose your grip on your firm convictions. ¹⁸ Rather, keep growing in the loving care and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Anointed One. May he be glorified now and into that age-long Day.

1 John

Written for Jesus' Apostle John, possibly in Aramaic, sometime late in the 1st Century CE.

Chapter 1

¹ The message of life has been here since the beginning. We've heard about it, seen it with our eyes, stared at it, and felt it with our hands. ² Yes, the life was on display... we've seen it, we've testified about it, and now we're reporting to you that there is age-long life with the Father, because He has shown it to us. ³ As the result, we're reporting back to you about these things that we've seen and heard, so that we can share in it with you.

Yes, we've shared in this with the Father and His Son Jesus the Anointed One,⁴ and now we're writing these things down so that our joy may be made complete.

⁵ The message that we heard from Him (which we want to announce to you) is this: God is light and there isn't any darkness in Him!

⁶ Now, if we say that we're sharing with Him but we just keep on walking in the darkness, we're lying and we aren't being truthful. ⁷ But if we're walking in the light (since He's in the light), we're also sharing what we have with each other, and the blood of His Son Jesus is cleansing us of all our sins.

⁸ However, if we should say that we don't have any sins, we're misleading ourselves and there is no truth in us. ⁹ But if we will admit to our sins, He will forgive us and wash away all our unrighteousness, because He is faithful and righteous. ¹⁰ For when we say that we haven't sinned, we're saying that He is a liar and His words aren't in us.

¹ My little children; I'm writing these things to you so as to keep you from committing any sins. However, if anyone does commit a sin, we have someone righteous who is our advocate with the Father, Jesus the Anointed One. ² For he is the sacrifice that begs forgiveness for our sins... and not just for ours, but also for those of the whole world!

³ This is how we can be sure that we've come to know him: If we keep on obeying his commandments. ⁴ So the one who says, 'Now I know him,' but doesn't obey his commandments, is a liar and the truth isn't in him. ⁵ However, God's love has been made perfect in all those who really do as they've been told. And that's how we know whether we're in him. ⁶ For whoever says he's in [Jesus] is obligated to keep on walking in the path that [Jesus] walked.

⁷ Loved ones; What I'm writing to you about here isn't a new commandment, it's an old commandment that you've had since the beginning. This old commandment is all the instructions that you've heard so far. ⁸ But now I'm also writing a new commandment for you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

⁹ However, those who say that they are already in the light but dislike their brothers are still in the dark. ¹⁰ Only those who love their brothers are in the light, so they don't go stumbling about, ¹¹ while those who dislike their brothers are still in darkness and they're walking around in the dark without any idea of where they're going, because the darkness has left them blind.

¹² I'm writing to those of you who are still boys, because your sins have been forgiven through his name.

¹³ I'm writing to those of you who are fathers, because you've come to know the one who is from long ago.

I'm writing to those of you who are young men, because you've conquered the wicked one.

I have written to you who are boys, because you've come to know the Father.

¹⁴ I have written to you who are fathers, because you've come to know the one who is from long ago.

I have written to you who are young men, because you are strong, God's word is in you, and you have conquered the wicked one.

¹⁵ Don't love the world or anything in [it]; for if anyone loves the world, there's no love of the Father in him. ¹⁶ Because, nothing in this world – its fleshly desires, its lusting after the things we can see, and its trusting that we can each provide for ourselves – comes from the Father. Rather all of this comes from the world... ¹⁷ and the world is passing away with all of its desires! However, those who do God's Will remain through the age.

¹⁸ Young children; It's the last hour. And as you've heard, the Antichrist is coming, for there are already many Antichrists... and that's how we know it's the last hour. ¹⁹ They left us because they weren't like us; for if they had been like us, they would still be with us... and this is what proves that they aren't like us. ²⁰ However, the Holy One has chosen you

(but then, you already know that). ²¹ So, I'm not writing to you because you don't know the truth, but because you have known it.

Remember that there are no lies in the truth. ²² And who are the liars? They are the ones who deny that Jesus is the Anointed One. Yes, these are the Antichrist (gr. antichristos – anti-anointed): They are the ones who deny both the Father and the Son! ²³ For whoever denies the Son [also denies] the Father. But those who have the Son also have the Father.

²⁴ As for you; Hang onto the things that you heard long ago! For if the things that you heard long ago stick with you, you will remain in the Son and in the Father... ²⁵ and what they have promised us is age-long life.

²⁶ Now, I'm writing this to you [so as to warn you] about those who are trying to lead you astray. ²⁷ I realize that you don't need anyone to be teaching you, since the anointing that you received from him is still in you, and his anointing is teaching you about everything... it's true and it doesn't lie. So, just as it is teaching you, you must remain in him.

²⁸ Little children; You must stay in him, so that when he is revealed, we can then speak freely and not be shamed at his appearance. ²⁹ For if you recognize the fact that he is righteous, you'll also recognize that all those who do righteous things have been fathered by him.

Chapter 3

¹ Look at the type of love that the Father has given us... to be called the children of God (which is what we are). And that's the reason why the world doesn't understand us... because they don't understand Him!

² But loved ones; Although we're the children of The God, we really haven't been shown what we will be yet. All we do know is that when [Jesus] is revealed, we'll be like him, and then we'll see him just as he is. ³ Therefore, all those who have been given this hope will purify themselves [so that they can be like him]. ⁴ However, those who just keep on sinning are lawbreakers... for lawlessness is sin.

⁵ You already know that the reason why he showed himself [in the flesh] was to take away our sins, since there are no sins in him. ⁶ Therefore, no one who is in him will keep on sinning. However, those who continue to sin haven't seen him or come to know him yet.

⁷ Little children; Don't allow anyone to mislead you. Only those who do righteous things can be righteous in the same way that he is righteous; ⁸ for sinners come from the Slanderer, because the Slanderer has been sinning since ancient times. And the reason why the Son of God was shown [in the flesh] was to wipe away the deeds of the Slanderer.

⁹ Therefore, no one who has been fathered by God can remain a sinner, because [God's] seed is in him... he can't keep on sinning, because God has become his Father!

¹⁰ Now, it's easy to tell the children of God from the children of the Slanderer, for God doesn't become a father to the unrighteous and those who don't love their brothers. ¹¹ Indeed, from the earliest [days] you've heard the message that we must love each other. ¹² [We don't want to be] like Cain who came from the wicked one and slaughtered his brother. And why did he slaughter him? Because what his brother did was righteous, while what he did was wicked. ¹³ Therefore brothers; Don't be surprised that the world hates you!

¹⁴ We know that we've crossed over from death to life when we truly love our brothers. However, those who don't love them just stay dead. ¹⁵ For whoever dislikes his brother is a murderer... and we all know that murderers won't receive age-long life. ¹⁶ But we know that we've been loved, because [Jesus] gave his life for us... and this is why we should also be willing to lay down our lives for our brothers! ¹⁷ However, how can God's love be in a person who may have the worldly means to give aid, but doesn't feel any pity for his brother when he sees that he's in need?

¹⁸ Little children; Don't just love with your tongues and with words, but in reality, by doing [whatever is needed]. ¹⁹ And this is how we can prove whether we are really being truthful with ourselves and that our hearts can be confident when we stand before Him. ²⁰ But if our hearts are still condemning us, God is greater than our hearts and He knows all that's happening there!

²¹ Loved ones; If our hearts don't condemn us, we can have full confidence in God ²² and trust that we'll receive whatever we ask of Him, because we're obeying His commandments and doing the things that are pleasing in His eyes. ²³ And this is what He has commanded: We must believe in the name of His Son Jesus the Anointed, and [we must] love each other... just as He told us. ²⁴ For those who keep His commandments are in Him, and He's in them! And this is how we can know that He's in us: By the Spirit that He has given to us.

Chapter 4

¹ But loved ones; Don't believe every spirit... you must test the spirits to prove whether they actually come from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

² You can tell whether a spirit is from The God by this: Every spirit that speaks of Jesus the Anointed One as having come in the flesh, comes from God. ³ But any spirit that doesn't speak of Jesus, doesn't come from God but from the Antichrist, whom you heard would come into the world... and who is already here.

⁴ Little children; Since you were fathered by God, you've already conquered them all... for [the One] who is in you is greater than the whole world!

⁵ Now, those who are fathered by this world talk about worldly things, and the world listens to them. ⁶ But because we have been fathered by The God, only those who know Him will listen to us, while those who aren't from Him won't listen to us... and this is how you can tell the true spirits from the false spirits.

⁷ Loved ones; Keep on loving each other, because love comes from God... so those who love, know God, because love comes from God! ⁸ However, those who don't love haven't known The God, because God is love! ⁹ He showed His love for us when He sent His one-and-only Son into this world so that we could gain life through him. ¹⁰ And this is true love; because, [back when] we didn't love God, He still loved us and He sent His Son as a sacrifice to cover our sins.

¹¹ Loved ones; If this is how much God loves us, then we're also obliged to love each other! ¹² Indeed, no one has ever seen The God; but as long as we love each other, He is in us and He's perfecting His love in us. ¹³ Therefore, we can know that we're in Him and He's in us, because He has given us His Breath... ¹⁴ and we've also seen and testified to the fact that the Father sent His Son as the Savior of the world. ¹⁵ For whenever anyone admits that Jesus the Anointed One is God's Son, God is in [this person] and he's in God.

¹⁶ So, this is how we've come to know and believe in the love that The God has for us... because God is love, and whoever keeps on loving is in God and God is in him. ¹⁷ This love is also being made perfect in us, so we'll be able to speak freely in the Judgment Day. And by this, we can be just like Him while we're still in this world!

¹⁸ Understand that there isn't any fear in love, because perfect love casts out all our fears. However, those who are still afraid are being tormented by it, because they still haven't perfected their love. ¹⁹ But, as for us; We love because He loved us first!

²⁰ Therefore, if anyone says 'I love God,' and he still dislikes his brother, he's a liar! For if he doesn't love his brother whom he can see, how can he love God whom he can't see? ²¹ So we have this commandment from Him: 'All who would love God must also love their brothers!'

Chapter 5

¹ Now, those who believe that Jesus is the Anointed One have been fathered by The God. And those who love the One who fathered [them] must also love those whom He fathered. ² And this is how we know that we love the children of God: When we love God and we are obeying His commandments. ³ Yes, you show your love for God by obeying His commandments... and His commandments aren't hard to follow. ⁴ For all who have been fathered by The God have conquered the world; and the victor that conquers the world is our faith.

⁵ So, who has conquered the world other than those who have faith that Jesus is the Son of The God? ⁶ For he's the one who came through water and blood... Jesus the Anointed! No, not just through water, but through water and blood! And the Spirit testifies to this, because the Spirit is true. ⁷ So there are these three witness bearers: ⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and these three are one.

⁹ Understand that if we can believe the testimony that men provide, the testimony that God gives is even greater... and God has personally testified about His Son! ¹⁰ So, all those who put faith in the Son of God now have this testimony within themselves!

Yet, those who don't believe God's own testimony are making Him out to be a liar, because they haven't trusted what God personally said about His Son. ¹¹ And this is what He testified to: That He will give us age-long life, and this life is in His Son. ¹² Therefore, those who have the Son also have the life, but those who don't have the Son don't have the life.

¹³ I'm writing all of this to you, so you'll know that those who have faith in the name of the Son of God have age-long life. ¹⁴ As the result; we can trust that no matter what we may ask for ourselves (as long as it's His Will), He hears us. ¹⁵ So if we know that He hears whatever we ask of Him, we also know that we'll have the things for which we've asked, just because we asked Him.

¹⁶ Now, if you should see your brother committing a sin that isn't deadly, you can ask that he might be given life, not death. However, there are sins that do bring death, and when it comes to such sins, I'm telling you not to ask for anything. ¹⁷ Of course, everything that's unrighteous is a sin... but there are sins that aren't deadly.

¹⁸ We know that none of those who have been fathered by God will continue to sin; for having The God as their Father protects them so that the Wicked One can't touch them... ¹⁹ and we know that while we come from The God, the whole world is still under the influence of the evil one.

²⁰ We also know that the Son of God has come and he has given us the understanding that we might know this One who is true, and that we are living in this True One through His Son Jesus the Anointed. For He is the God of truth and of age-long life!

²¹ Little children; Guard yourselves from the idols!

2 John

Written for Jesus' Apostle John, possibly in Aramaic, sometime late in the 1st Century CE.

Chapter 1

¹ The older man, to the chosen lady and to her children whom I truly love... and not just from me, but from all those who've come to know the truth ² through the truth that exists in us and will continue to be with us through the age. ³ For the kindness, mercy, and peace from God the Father and from Jesus the Anointed One (the Son of the Father) [comes to] us through this truth and love.

⁴ I'm so very happy, now that I've found out that your children are still walking in the truth and following the commandments that we received from the Father. ⁵ So I'm begging you lady (I'm not giving you a new commandment, just one that we've had since the beginning) to love each other. ⁶ And this is [how we prove our] love: By following His commandments!

Yes, that's the commandment! It's the same thing that you've heard since the beginning... just keep on following it. ⁷ Because, many have strayed [back] into the world and will no longer admit that Jesus the Anointed One came in the flesh... and those who have strayed are the AntiChrists.

⁸ So, watch out for yourselves! Be careful not to destroy the things we've worked [so hard] on, so that you can receive the full reward! ⁹ For those who are running ahead and not remaining in the teaching of the Anointed One don't really have God. However, those who stick with this teaching have both the Father and the Son.

¹⁰ Therefore, if someone comes to you and doesn't bring this teaching, don't welcome him into your homes or even greet him, ¹¹ for those who greet him become sharers in his evil deeds.

¹² Although I have many [other] things to write to you, I don't want to do it with paper and ink. Rather, I'm hoping to come and speak to you face to face, so your joy can be realized.

¹³ The children of your chosen sister send you their greetings.

3 John

Written for Jesus' Apostle John, possibly in Aramaic, sometime late in the 1st Century CE.

Chapter 1

¹ The older man, to my beloved GaiUs, whom I truly love.

² My loved one; I pray that you're doing well in everything, and that you continue in good health as the man within you prospers.

³ I was so happy when the brothers came and testified to the fact that you're continuing to walk in the truth. ⁴ For nothing brings me greater joy than hearing that my children keep on walking in the truth!

⁵ Loved one; You're doing a faithful work by helping the brothers... and even those who are strangers, ⁶ for they've testified about your love to the called ones. So, it would be a fine thing if you'd also send them off in a way that is worthy of The God, ⁷ because they've been going to the gentiles in [His] name and they haven't asked anything from them. ⁸ As the result, we're obliged to welcome such ones hospitably, so we can be fellow workers for the truth.

⁹ I wrote something to the congregation, but DioTrepes (who likes to be the most prominent) refused to welcome us. ¹⁰ That's why, if I come there, I won't forget the way that he acted or any of the wicked rumors that he spread about us. For even these things weren't enough for him, because not only does he fail to welcome the brothers, but he also prevents the rest from doing so... even expelling them from the congregation!

¹¹ Loved one; Don't imitate his bad ways, just do what is good. Because, those who do what's good come from God, but those who do what's bad haven't seen God.

¹² Why, everyone has testified about this matter to DeMetrius, so he knows the truth. And now we're warning you about this... and you know that what we're saying is true.

¹³ I have many other things to write about, but I don't wish to write them with pen and paper. ¹⁴ I hope to see you soon, and then we can talk face to face.

May you have peace.

The friends send you their greetings. Give my greetings to the friends by name.

Jude

A letter for general circulation by Jude, the brother of James and half-brother of Jesus through Mary.

Likely written in Aramaic around 62-CE.

Chapter 1

¹ Jude, a slave of Jesus the Anointed One and a brother of James, to those who are in God the Father (and are loved) and are in Jesus the Anointed... yes, those who have been called and who are watched over; ² May you grow in mercy, peace, and love.

³ Loved ones; Although I really wanted to write to you about the salvation that we hold in common, I found it necessary to write instead so as to encourage you to keep on struggling for the faith that the Holy Ones have passed on to you. ⁴ Because, some men have slipped in among you whose judgment was written about long ago. These are godless men who are turning the loving care of our God into something that's immoral, and they're denying our only owner and Lord, Jesus the Anointed One.

⁵ Now, despite the fact that you already know everything, I want to remind you of this: Although Jehovah once delivered our people from the land of Egypt, He later destroyed the ones who didn't show enough faith. ⁶ And He also locked up those [heavenly] messengers that didn't keep the position to which they had [been assigned] long ago, because they left the place where they lived. So He's now keeping them in perpetual darkness where they're awaiting their judgment on the Great Day. ⁷ For, just like [the people] once did in Sodom, GomorRah, and in the cities round about them; these also started chasing after strange flesh and for things that are sexually immoral.

Yes, this is why such examples have been set before us; to show us that [those who do such things] will undergo the penalty of age-long fire.

⁸ Yet, that's how some among you who are day-dreamers have also started polluting the flesh... and you aren't showing proper respect for those who've been put over you, for you're even speaking disrespectfully of the Glorious Ones.

⁹ Indeed, when MichaEl (the Highest Messenger [of God]) had an argument with the Slanderer over the body of Moses, he didn't dare to bring a blasphemous judgment against him by speaking disrespectfully. All he said was, 'May Jehovah give you what you deserve!'

¹⁰ However, these men continue to speak disrespectfully about many things that they really don't understand. And like senseless animals (who everyone knows [dirty themselves] naturally), [these men] are really messing on themselves [when they're doing] things like this.

¹¹ So, woe to them, because they're going the way of Cain, they've rushed into the wrongs of BalaAm for a reward, and they're bringing destruction upon themselves with rebellious words like those of KorAh!

¹² [Yet, these men are still] feasting among you at your loving [congregational] meals. And like rocks that are hidden [below water], they are fearless shepherds over just themselves, or dry clouds that are blown in every direction by the winds, or fruitless trees in late autumn that have died twice and been uprooted. ¹³ [They are also] like wild waves of the sea that foam shameful things on themselves, or like wandering stars that have been reserved for the gloom of age-long darkness.

¹⁴ Remember that the seventh man from Adam, Enoch, prophesied about them when he said, ‘ {Look!} The Lord will arrive with tens of millions of His holy ones ¹⁵ to condemn them and to give all those godless ones what they deserve for the irreverent things that they’re doing in their worldly ways, and for all the shocking things that these godless sinners have said against Him.’ ¹⁶ For these men continue to grumble and complain about how things work out, as they keep on doing whatever they wish. Their mouths also do a lot of bragging, and they feign admiration of people in order to serve their own [evil] purposes.

¹⁷ But as for you, loved ones; remember what you were once told by the Apostles of our Lord Jesus the Anointed... ¹⁸ yes, remember that they used to say to you, ‘In the last days, there will be those who speak disrespectfully as they go their own way and do godless things. ¹⁹ These are the ones who will create divisions, for they are carnal and they don’t have the [Breath \[of God\]!](#)’

²⁰ However, as for you, loved ones; Keep on building the Holy Faith within yourselves, continue to pray through the Holy Breath ²¹ and keep yourselves in God’s love, as you await the mercy of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One and age-long life.

²² Also, be merciful to those who are unsure... ²³ save [them] by snatching [them] from the fire. However, as you’re showing them mercy, do this in fear, because you must hate any dirty underwear that has been spotted by the flesh.

²⁴ Now, to the One who is able to protect you against stumbling and who can make you free from any defects; may you continue to joyfully shout aloud within the sight of His glory! ²⁵ Yes, to our only God (our Savior) and to Jesus the Anointed One (our Lord), may there be glory, majesty, might, and authority throughout all time, both now and through the ages... may it be so!

Revelation

Written for Jesus' Apostle John, possibly in Aramaic, sometime late in the 1st Century CE.
A vision of The Lord's Day.

Chapter 1

¹ A revelation that The God gave to Jesus the Anointed One to show his slaves the things that must happen very quickly. He sent it by his messenger to his slave John in signs. ² And [John] testifies that everything he saw was the Word of The God and the testimony of Jesus the Anointed. ³ Those who read it aloud, as well as those who listen to the words of this prophecy and obey the things that are written in it are blest, because the appointed time is near.

⁴ From John, to the seven congregations in Asia [Minor]; May you find loving care and peace from The One who is, who was, and who is coming, as well as from the seven spirits that are in front of His throne, ⁵ and from Jesus the Anointed One, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth, who loves us, who freed us from our sins by his own blood ⁶ and who made us to be a Kingdom of Priests to his God and Father. May he have glory and might through ages of ages... may it be so!

⁷ Look! He's coming in the clouds and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him, and all the nations of the earth will wail because of him. Yes, may it be so!

⁸ 'I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,' said Jehovah The God; 'the One who is, who was, and who is coming... the Almighty.'

⁹ I (John) am your brother who shares in your difficulties over the Kingdom, and in your endurance in Jesus. I am now on this island called Patmos because of the Word of God and because of my testimony about Jesus.

¹⁰ It was through the Breath [of God] that I found myself in the Lord's Day. For from behind me I heard a voice that was as loud as a trumpet, ¹¹ which said:

‘Write the things that you’re about to see on a scroll and send it to these seven congregations: Ephesus, Smyrna, PergaMōm, ThyaTira, Sardis, PhilaDelphia, and LaoDikia.’

¹² Then I turned around to see who was speaking to me. But when I turned, I saw seven gold lampstands. ¹³ And between the lampstands, [I saw] someone [who looked] like a son of man. He was dressed in a robe that came down to his feet, and his chest was wrapped in gold. ¹⁴ His head and hair were as bright as white wool or snow, and his eyes were as flames of fire. ¹⁵ His feet looked like the finest copper as it is being poured from a smelter, and his voice sounded like the noise that’s made by large bodies of water. ¹⁶ In his right hand [he held] seven stars, a long, sharp, two-edged sword was protruding from his mouth, and his face glowed as brightly as the sun.

¹⁷ Well, when I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man. Then he laid his right hand on me and said:

‘Don’t be afraid; I’m the first, the last, ¹⁸ and the living one. And though I died, {Look!} I am living through ages of ages. I also hold the keys to death and the place of the dead.

¹⁹ ‘You must now write down the things that you’re about to see... for they are things that are now and things that will soon be.

²⁰ ‘As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lampstands; The seven stars signify the messengers of the seven congregations, and the seven lampstands signify the seven congregations.’

Chapter 2

¹ ‘Write this to the messenger of the congregation in Ephesus. Tell him that one who is holding the seven stars in his right hand and who walks among the seven gold lampstands said this:

² ‘I know what you’re doing... that you’ve worked hard and endured, that you don’t tolerate evil men, and that you’ve put those who say they are Apostles (but really aren’t) to the test, showing them to be liars. ³ You’ve also been patient, because you’ve been bearing my name and you haven’t given up.

⁴ ‘However, you’ve lost the love that you had at first, and I hold this against you. ⁵ So you must recognize how far you’ve fallen and turn around... go back to doing what you did at the first! For if you don’t (and unless you repent), I’ll be coming to you and I’ll remove your lampstand from its place.

⁶ ‘However, I can say this on your behalf: You hate what the Nicolaitans are doing, and I also hate what they are doing.

⁷ ‘Let those who have ears hear what [God’s] Breath says to the congregations. I’ll allow those who conquer to eat from the Tree of Life that is in the Paradise of The God.

⁸ ‘And write this to the messenger of the congregation in Smyrna. Tell him that this is what the one who is the first, the last, and who died and came to life, has to say:

⁹ ‘I know of your problems and your poverty (although you’re really rich), and about the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews (although they really aren’t, they’re just a synagogue of the Slanderer).

¹⁰ ‘Don’t be afraid of the things that you’re about to suffer, for {Look!} the Slanderer is about to throw some of you into prison to test you, and you’ll be persecuted for ten days. But if you’ll be faithful to death, I’ll give you the garland of life.

¹¹ ‘Let those who have ears hear what [God’s] Breath says to the congregations. The ones that conquer won’t be harmed by the second death!

¹² ‘And write this to the messenger of the congregation in PergaMōm. Tell him that the one who has the long, sharp, two-edged sword said this:

¹³ ‘I know that the place where you’re living is the very throne of the Slanderer, and yet you keep hanging onto my name. For you didn’t deny your faith in me even in the days of my faithful witness AntiPas, who was killed among you there where the Slanderer lives.

¹⁴ ‘However, I still hold a few things against you, for there are some among you who are following the teachings of BalaAm – the one who taught Balak how to set a trap before the Sons of IsraEl [by getting them] to eat sacrifices to idols and to be sexually immoral.¹⁵ You also have those who are following the teachings of the Nicolaitans.¹⁶ So turn around; for if you don’t, I’ll be there soon and fight a war against you with the long sword from my mouth!

¹⁷ ‘Let those who have ears hear what [God’s] Breath says to the congregations... to those who conquer, I will give some of [the hidden manna and a white \[voting\] pebble](#). This pebble has a new name written on it that no one will know other than those who receive it.

¹⁸ ‘And write this to the messenger of the congregation in ThyaTira. Tell him that the Son of The God (the one who has eyes like flames of fire and whose feet are like fine copper) said this:

¹⁹ I know what you’re doing, and I know of your love, your faith, your service, and your endurance. [I also know that] what you’ve been doing recently is even more than what you’ve done in the past!

²⁰ ‘However, I do hold this one thing against you: You’re still putting up with that woman JezeBel... the one who calls herself a prophet but who teaches and misleads my slaves into immoral sexual acts and into eating things that are sacrificed to idols.²¹ And though I have given her enough time to turn around, she doesn’t wish to repent her immorality,²² so {Look!} I will be throwing her into a bed and I will bring a time of great difficulty upon those who are enjoying sex with her, unless they repent over what they’re doing with her.²³ I’m also going to put her children to death, so that all the congregations will know I’m the one who searches their kidneys and hearts, and who repays each one according to his deeds.

²⁴ ‘But, to the rest of you in ThyaTira (those of you who are unaware of such teachings and who haven’t come to know about what they call the deep things of the Slanderer), I’m saying that I won’t lay any more loads on you. ²⁵ Just hang on until I get there. ²⁶ For then I’ll give those who conquer and who’ve obeyed everything that I’ve told them to do down to the end, authority over the nations... ²⁷ they will shepherd them with an iron rod with the same [authority] that I received from my Father, and they will shatter them like clay pots. ²⁸ I’ll also give them the morning star.’

²⁹ ‘Let those who have ears listen to what [God’s] Breath says to the congregations!’

Chapter 3

¹ ‘And write this to the messenger of the congregation in Sardis: Tell him that the one who has the seven Breaths of God and the seven stars says this:

‘I know what you’re doing, and though you have the reputation of being alive, you’re really dead!’ ² So you must wake up and revive the things that aren’t quite died yet, because I don’t see where you’ve accomplished any of the tasks [that you’ve been assigned] in the sight of my God!

³ ‘You must start remembering [all the things] that you’ve received and heard, then hang onto them and repent! For if you don’t stay awake, I will come like a thief... and you won’t be aware of it until I’m right there on you!

⁴ ‘However, there are a few names in Sardis that haven’t dirtied their robes. These will walk with me and they’ll wear white [robes], because that’s what they truly deserve. ⁵ Yes, all those who conquer will be dressed like that... in white robes. I’ll never erase their names from the Scroll of Life, and then I’ll admit to knowing their names before my Father and His messengers.

⁶ ‘Let those who have ears hear what [God’s] Breath says to the congregations!’

⁷ ‘And write this to the messenger of the congregation in PhilaDelphia. Tell him that the one who is holy and true, and who has the key of David that opens what no one can close and closes what no one can open, said this:

⁸ ‘I know what you’re doing, and Look; I’ve put an open door before you that no one can close!

‘I also know that, although you don’t have much strength, you’ve kept my word and you haven’t denied knowing my name. ⁹ So, look at what I’m going to do to those from the synagogue of the Opposer who say they are Jews (but who really aren’t and are just lying)... {Look!} I’m going to make them come and bow at your feet, and I’ll make sure that they know how much I love you.

¹⁰ ‘Also, since you’ve obeyed my instructions to be patient, I’m going to protect you from the hour of trial that’s coming upon the whole habitation of mankind, which will try everyone who lives on the face of the earth.

¹¹ ‘I’m coming soon, so hang on and don’t let anyone steal your garland;
¹² for I will make those who conquer pillars in the Most Holy Place of my God, and they’ll never leave it. I’ll also write the Name of my God upon them, as well as the name of the city of my God, New JeruSalem, which will come down out of the sky from my God, along with my new name.

¹³ ‘Let those who have ears hear what [God’s] Breath says to the congregations!

¹⁴ ‘And write this to the messenger of the congregation in LaoDikia. Tell him that the Amen (the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation by The God) said this:

¹⁵ ‘I know what you’re doing, and that you’re neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other; ¹⁶ but, since you’re neither hot nor cold (but lukewarm), I’m going to vomit you out of my mouth! ¹⁷ For you’re saying, I am rich, and because I’m rich, I don’t need anything! However, what you don’t realize is that you’re really miserable, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.

¹⁸ ‘Therefore, I advise you to buy gold that has been refined by fire from me, so that you can become truly rich and wear white robes, then nobody will see the shame of your nakedness. Also, buy salve to rub in your eyes so you can see; ¹⁹ because, I correct and discipline all those whom I really care for. Yes, [you should] repent and become zealous!

²⁰ ‘Look, I’m standing at your door and knocking! And if anyone hears my voice and opens that door, I’ll come in and we’ll dine together. ²¹ Then I’ll allow the ones that conquer to sit down with me on my throne, just as my Father has allowed me to sit on His throne, because I have conquered.

²² ‘Let those who have ears hear what [\[God’s\] Breath](#) says to the congregations!

Chapter 4

¹ Well, after I saw those things, I saw a door that opened up in the sky. And the first voice that I heard speaking to me (which sounded like a trumpet) said:

‘Now, come on up here, and I’ll show you what must happen next.’

² And at that, I immediately [became like] the wind. And look... there was a throne in the sky, and someone was sitting upon the throne. ³ The One who was sitting on it looked like jasper and sardius gems, and all around his throne was a rainbow that looked like an emerald.

⁴ Then, surrounding this throne, there were twenty-four more thrones, upon which sat twenty-four elders who were each dressed in white robes and who had garlands of gold on their heads. ⁵ And at the time, there was lightning, thunder, and voices coming from the throne. Then in front of the throne there were seven flaming lamps, which were the seven Spirits of The God.

⁶ Also in front of the throne was a transparent sea that looked like crystal. And on each of the four sides of the throne there was a cherub that had many eyes on its front and back sides.

⁷ The first cherub looked like a lion, the second looked like a young bull, the third had the face of a man, and the fourth looked like a flying eagle.

⁸ Also, each of the four cherubs had six wings that were wrapped around them, and the inner parts of their wings were full of eyes. These didn't rest night or day, and they were saying:

‘Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah God the Almighty... the One who was, who is, and who is coming.’

⁹ Then as the cherubs were giving glory, honor, and thanks to the One who was sitting on the throne (the One who lives through the ages of ages), ¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fell down before Him and bowed to their faces. Then they threw their garlands in front of His throne, and started saying:

¹¹ ‘O Jehovah our God; You deserve all the glory, honor, and power, because You created everything... yes, everything was created and exists because You willed it to be!’

Chapter 5

¹ Then I saw a scroll that had writing on both sides in the right hand of the One who was sitting on the throne. However, it had been sealed tightly with seven seals.

² And at that, I saw a mighty messenger who called out in a loud voice: ‘Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?’

³ However, there wasn't anyone in the heavens or on the earth that was able to open the scroll or to examine it. ⁴ So I started crying, because nobody could be found that was worthy to open and examine the scroll.

⁵ But then, one of the elders said to me:

‘Stop crying. Look! The Lion who is from the tribe of Judah and of the root of David has conquered, so he will be able to open the scroll and its seven seals!’

⁶ And that's when I saw a lamb that looked like it had been slaughtered standing between the throne and before the four cherubs and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which symbolize the seven Spirits of The God that have been sent throughout the entire earth.

⁷ Then [the lamb] went right up and took [the scroll] from the right hand of the One who was sitting on the throne. ⁸ And when he took the scroll, the four cherubs and the twenty-four elders (each of whom held harps and gold bowls that were filled with the incense that symbolizes the prayers of the Holy Ones) fell down in front of him, ⁹ and they sang a new song, which went:

‘You’re the only one who is worthy
To receive the scroll and open it’s seals.
For, you’re the one that was slaughtered
To buy a people for God with your blood
From every tribe, language, country, and race,
¹⁰ To serve as Kings and Priests of our God,
And to rule as Kings on \(gr. epi\) the earth.’

¹¹ Then I looked around, because I heard the voices of many messengers who were all around the throne and who (along with the cherubs and the elders) numbered into the millions and tens of millions. ¹² They were all shouting in a loud voice: ‘This Lamb who was slaughtered deserves to receive the power, the wealth, the wisdom, the strength, the honor, the glory, and the blessings!’

¹³ And after that, I heard all the creatures in the skies, on the ground, under the ground, in the seas, and everything else in those places say: ‘May the One who is sitting on the throne and His Lamb be praised, honored, glorified, and allowed to retain the power through ages of ages.’

¹⁴ And during all of that, the four cherubs kept saying, ‘May it be so,’ as the elders fell down and bowed to their faces.

Chapter 6

¹ It was then that I saw the Lamb open one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four cherubs say in a thundering voice, ‘Come on out!’ ² And suddenly {Look!} I saw a white horse, and the one who was sitting on it had a bow. Then he was given a garland, and he went out to conquer and to finish his victory.

³ And after that, he opened the second seal, and I heard the second cherub say, ‘Come on out!’ ⁴ So another horse came out, which was fiery red; and the one who was sitting on it was authorized to remove peace from the earth, so that [people] would slaughter each other... and a large sword was given to him.

⁵ Then he opened the third seal, and I heard the third cherub say, ‘Come on out!’ And at that, I saw {Look!} a black horse; and the one who was sitting on it had a balance scale in his hand. ⁶ I also heard a voice that sounded like it came from the midst of the four cherubs, which said: ‘A quart of wheat for a silver coin and three quarts of barley for a silver coin... but, don’t damage the olive oil or the wine.’

⁷ Then when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth cherub say, ‘Come on out!’ ⁸ And I saw {Look!} a greenish-yellow horse; and the one who was sitting on it was named Death... and the Place of the Dead was following closely behind him. These were given authority over a quarter of the earth to kill with the sword, with famines, with plagues, and with the wild animals of the earth.

⁹ Next he opened the fifth seal, and underneath the Altar I could see the lives of those who had been slaughtered because of the Word of God and because of the things to which they had testified. ¹⁰ They were crying out in loud voices and asking:

‘How much longer, O Sovereign Lord who is holy and true, will You keep holding back Your judgments and from bringing vengeance for our blood upon those who live on the earth?’

¹¹ Well at that, they were each given white robes and they were told to rest just a little while longer, until the full number of their fellow slaves and brothers was to be filled (who were going to be killed as they had been).

¹² Then I saw him open the sixth seal, and there was a great shaking that caused the sun to become as black as haircloth and the entire moon to become like blood. ¹³ And at that, the stars in the skies fell to the earth like a fig tree drops its figs when it’s shaken by a strong wind.

¹⁴ Thereafter, the sky looked like it was being rolled up like a scroll, and all the mountains and islands were removed from their places.

¹⁵ Well, when that happened, all the kings of the earth, all the important people, all the military commanders, all the rich and powerful, as well as all the slaves and free people went and hid themselves in caves and under rocks on the mountains. ¹⁶ For they were saying to the mountains and rocks:

‘Fall over us and hide us from the face of the One who is sitting on the throne and from the rage of the Lamb... ¹⁷ for the Great Day of their rage has arrived and who can oppose them!’

Chapter 7

¹ Then I saw four messengers who were standing on each of the four corners of the earth. These were holding onto the four winds of the earth so they couldn’t blow on the lands, the seas, or the trees.

² And after that, I saw another messenger arising from the sunrise, and he was carrying the seal of the living God. Then he shouted loudly to the four messengers who were allowed to harm the lands and the seas, saying:

³ ‘Don’t harm the lands, the seas, or the trees until after we have sealed the slaves of our God in their foreheads.’

⁴ Well, that’s when I heard the number of those who were to be sealed... a hundred and forty-four thousand out of all the tribes of the sons of IsraEl. ⁵ Twelve thousand were to be sealed out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand out of the tribe of ReuBen, twelve thousand out of the tribe of Gad, ⁶ twelve thousand out of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand out of the tribe of NaphTali, twelve thousand out of the tribe of ManasSeh, ⁷ twelve thousand out of the tribe of SimeOn, twelve thousand out of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand out of the tribe of IsSachar, ⁸ twelve thousand out of the tribe of ZebuLun, twelve thousand out of the tribe of JoSeph, and twelve thousand were to be sealed out of the tribe of BenJamin.

⁹ And after that, I saw {Look!} a crowd so large that no one could count them. They came from all countries, nationalities, ethnic groups, and languages, and they were all standing within view (gr. enopion) of the Lamb and the throne. They were each wearing white robes and carrying palm branches in their hands, ¹⁰ and they were shouting:

‘We owe our salvation to our God who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb!’

¹¹ Well when that happened, all the messengers who were standing in a circle around the throne (as well as all the elders and the four cherubs) started falling to their faces in front of the throne and bowing low before God ¹² and saying:

‘May it be so! May our God have all the praise, glory, wisdom, thanks, honor, power, and strength through ages of ages... may it be so!’

¹³ Then one of the elders asked me:

‘Just who are these that are dressed in the white robes and where did they come from?’

¹⁴ And I replied:

‘My lord; You’re the one who knows!’

So he told me:

‘They’re the ones who have come out of the great time of difficulty and who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵ This is why they’re under the gaze of the throne of The God, serving Him day and night in His Most Holy Place. For the One who is sitting on the throne will spread His tent over them, ¹⁶ then they won’t be hungry or thirsty anymore, nor will the sun beat down on them with blistering heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and guide them to the springs of the waters of life, and God will wipe all the tears from their eyes.’

Chapter 8

¹ Well, after he opened the seventh seal, the skies went silent for about a half hour. ² Then I saw that seven trumpets were distributed among seven of the messengers who were standing before God.

³ And at that, another messenger arrived who was carrying a gold incense bowl. So, he stopped in front of the Altar and he was given a large quantity of incense that was to be offered on the gold Altar that was in front of the throne with the prayers of all the Holy Ones. ⁴ And the smoke from the incense that was being offered by the messenger thereafter kept arising before God along with the prayers of the Holy Ones.

⁵ Well after that, the messenger then took the incense bowl and filled it with some of the fire [that was burning on] the Altar and he threw it down to the earth, which caused thunder, voices, lightning, and a great shaking. ⁶ And that's when the seven messengers prepared to blow the seven trumpets.

⁷ So the first one blew his trumpet, and hail and fire that was mixed with blood was thrown down to the earth, which caused a third of the lands, a third of the trees, and a third of all of the green plants to be burned.

⁸ Then the second messenger blew his trumpet, and something that looked like a huge burning mountain was thrown down into the sea, which caused a third of the sea to turn into blood, ⁹ and this killed a third of the creatures that live in the seas and it destroyed a third of the ships [that were traveling there].

¹⁰ Then the third messenger blew his trumpet, and a huge star that was burning like a lamp fell out of the sky onto a third of the rivers and onto a third of the springs of water. ¹¹ I was told that the name of this star was wormwood. So, a third of the water turned into wormwood, and many people died from the water, because it had become so bitter.

¹² Well when the fourth messenger blew his trumpet, a third of the sun was then struck, as was a third of the moon and a third of the stars, which brought darkness upon a third [of the earth], so that the day didn't appear over a third of [the earth], nor did the night.

¹³ It was then that I saw an eagle that was flying high in the sky, and I heard it shout:

‘Woe, woe, woe, to those who are living on the earth, for there are three more trumpet blasts that the three messengers are getting ready to blow!’

Chapter 9

¹ Then the fifth messenger blew his trumpet, and I saw a star fall out of the sky onto the earth, and this had been given the key to the abyss. ² So it opened the abyss, and smoke poured out of it as though it was coming from a huge furnace. The smoke from the abyss thereafter darkened the sun and all of the air.

³ Well at that, locusts started dropping to the earth out of the smoke, and they were given the same power as earthly scorpions. ⁴ However, they had been told not to damage any of the earth's vegetation or trees, only those men who didn't have God's seal on their foreheads... ⁵ they weren't allowed to kill them, just to sting them for five months.

However, the pain that they would bring would be like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a man. ⁶ So during that time, men will look for ways to die, but they won't find any. Yes, though they will wish to die, death will escape them.

⁷ These locusts looked like horses that are prepared for battle. On their heads were what appeared to be gold garlands, and their faces looked like the faces of humans. ⁸ They had women's hair, they had teeth like lions, ⁹ and they wore breastplates that looked like they were made of iron. Also, [the flapping] of the wings [of these locusts] sounded like the attack of many chariots in a war, ¹⁰ and they had tails with stingers like scorpions. The tails [of these locusts] were to be allowed to sting the people for five months.

¹¹ And they also had a king who led them... the messenger of the abyss. In Hebrew, his name is AbadDon, but he's called ApollYon (the Destroyer) in Greek.

¹² Well, after this first woe passed, {Look!} there were two more woes that were getting ready to follow!

¹³ So then the sixth messenger blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice that came from the gold horned edges on the Altar that are in front of God. ¹⁴ And they said to the sixth messenger who held a trumpet:

'Now, release the four messengers who have been tied down at the great EuPhrates River!'

¹⁵ Well at that, four messengers who were prepared to kill a third of all mankind on [a specific] hour, day, month, and year were untied, ¹⁶ and they led an army that I was told numbered two-hundred million horsemen.

¹⁷ This is what the horses and their riders looked like in the vision: They wore fire-red, hyacinth-blue, and sulfur-yellow breastplates. Their horses had heads like lions, and fire, smoke, and sulfur came out of their mouths.

¹⁸ It was these three plagues (the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came out of their mouths) that killed a third of all mankind. ¹⁹ Also, the power of their horses was all in their mouths and their tails, and their tails were like snakes that had heads... which is what they used to do all the damage.

²⁰ However, the rest of the people who hadn't been killed by these plagues still refused to repent over the things that they were doing... they refused to stop bowing before the demons, or before their idols of gold, silver, copper, stone, and wood (things that can't see, hear, or walk); ²¹ nor did they repent their murders, their occult practices, their sexual immorality, or their thievery.

Chapter 10

¹ Well after that, I saw another very powerful messenger coming down out of the sky who was wrapped in a cloud and he was wearing a rainbow on his head. His face was [as bright] as the sun, his feet were like columns of fire, ² and he held a small opened scroll in his hand.

Then he put his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the ground, ³ and he shouted in a loud voice that sounded like the roar of a lion. And as he was shouting, there were seven rumbles of thunder that each spoke in its own voice.

⁴ Well, I was getting ready to write down the things that the seven thunders were saying, but then I heard a voice from the heavens say: 'Don't write what the seven thunders said... seal up [those words]!'

⁵ Then the messenger that I saw standing on the sea and on the ground raised his right hand toward heaven, ⁶ and he swore this by the One who lives through ages of ages, the One who created the heavens and everything in them and all the lands and everything in them ---. [He shouted]:

‘The time has finally arrived! ⁷ For when the seventh messenger blows his trumpet (which is about to happen), God’s mystery that has been revealed through the good news that He sent through His slaves the Prophets will then be fulfilled.’

⁸ And at that, I heard the voice from the sky speaking to me again. It said:

‘Now, go and take that little open scroll out of the hands of the messenger who is standing on the sea and on the ground!’

⁹ As the result, I went over to the messenger and I told him to give me the little scroll. And he said to me:

‘Yes, you must take it and then eat it! It will be as sweet as honey in your mouth, but it will be very bitter in your stomach.’

¹⁰ So I took the little scroll out of the hand of the messenger and I ate it... and it was in fact as sweet as honey. However, after I ate it, my stomach became very bitter.

¹¹ Then I was told:

‘Now you must go on to prophesy to peoples, nations, languages, and many kings!’

Chapter 11

¹ Next, [he] handed [me] a cane that was like a large walking stick. And he said:

‘Now, go measure God’s Most Holy, the Altar, and those who are bowing low there. ² Pay no attention to the courtyard outside of the Most Holy... don’t measure it, because it has been given to the nations and they’re going to trample the Holy City under their feet for forty-two months.

³ ‘But after that, I’m going to have my two witnesses prophesy for one thousand, two hundred and sixty days wearing sackcloth. ⁴ These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that have been standing on the earth before the Lord. ⁵ And if any of their enemies should wish to harm them, fire will come out of their mouths and consume them.

‘So, if anyone wants to persecute them, that’s how they’re going to die! ⁶ Because, these have been authorized to close up the skies so that no rain will fall during the period of their prophesying. They’re also authorized to turn water into blood and to bring every sort of plague onto the earth whenever they wish.

⁹ ‘There, the peoples, nationalities, tongues, and ethnic groups will look at their corpses for three and a half days, during which time they won’t allow them to be buried. ¹⁰ All the while, those who live on the earth will be happy and approve of what happened to them, even sending gifts to each other, because these two prophets will have brought so much pain to those who live on the earth.’

¹¹ However, after the three and a half days, The God then sent His breath of life into them and they stood up on their feet, which frightened everyone who saw them. ¹² Then [the two witnesses] heard a loud voice from heaven that said to them, ‘Come on up here.’ And their enemies saw them ascend into the sky in a cloud. ¹³ This was followed by a tremendous shaking, and a tenth of the city ([Sodom and Egypt]) toppled, destroying the names of seven thousand people.

Of course, this frightened all those who were left, and they gave glory to The God of the heavens.

¹⁴ Well, this ended the second woe. But look; a third woe was on its way!

¹⁵ Then the seventh messenger blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in the heavens that were shouting:

‘The kingdom of this world now belongs to Jehovah and to His Anointed One, and He will be its ruler through ages of ages!’

¹⁶ Well at that, the twenty-four elders who were sitting on their thrones fell to their faces before God and bowed low before Him, ¹⁷ saying: ‘We thank You, O Jehovah God the Almighty (the One who is and who was), because You’ve finally assumed Your great power and started ruling as King. ¹⁸ Yes, this made the nations angry, but [the time for] Your rage has arrived when the dead will be judged, when Your slaves (the Prophets, the Holy Ones, and those who fear Your Name – the small and the great) will be rewarded, and when those who are corrupting the earth will be thoroughly corrupted.’

¹⁹ Then the heavenly Most Holy Place of God became visible to me. And inside of His Most Holy Place I could see the Chest of His Sacred Agreement. This was all followed by lightning, voices, thundering, shaking, and a great hailstorm.

Chapter 12

¹ And thereafter, a great sign appeared in the sky... there was a woman who had the sun wrapped around her, the moon was under her feet, and there was a garland of twelve stars on her head. ² She was also pregnant and screaming in labor and agony to give birth.

³ Then another sign appeared in the sky. {Look!} There was a huge fire-red Dragon that had seven heads and ten horns. On its heads there were seven royal turbans, ⁴ and it was dragging a third of the stars of the sky with its tail, which it then threw down on the ground! This Dragon was standing in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she did give birth he could swallow [her child] down!

⁵ Well, she then gave birth to a son... a male, who is to shepherd all the nations with an iron rod. And thereafter, her child was snatched away to God and to His throne, ⁶ as the woman escaped into the desert to a place that God had prepared for her, where she was to be fed for a thousand, two hundred and sixty days.

⁷ Next, a war broke out in heaven. MichaEl and his messengers battled with the Dragon, and the Dragon and his messengers fought back. ⁸ However, [the Dragon] lost [the battle] and he could no longer stay in the heavens. ⁹ So the huge Dragon (the original snake who is called the Slanderer and Opposer) that is misleading the whole habitation [of mankind] was thrown down... he was thrown down to the earth along with [all of] his messengers.

¹⁰ And at that, I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

‘Now the salvation, the power,

And the Kingdom of God has arrived;

For His Anointed has now been empowered,

And the accuser of our brothers has been cast down,

Who blames them before God day and night!

¹¹ ‘By the blood of the Lamb, he was conquered,

And by the things to which they had testified.

For, they did not value their lives

As they stared death in the face!

¹² ‘So, rejoice you heavens and all those who live there;

But, woe to the earth and the sea,

For the Slanderer has come down to you in great rage,

Knowing that he has little time.’

¹³ Then when the Dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he started persecuting the woman who gave birth to the male [child]. ¹⁴

However, the woman was given the two wings of a huge eagle so she could fly away to her place in the desert where she was to be fed for [a time, \[two\] times, and half a time](#), and where the snake couldn’t reach her.

¹⁵ Then this snake shot a river of water out of its mouth after the woman in an attempt to drown her. ¹⁶ But the ground came to the woman’s aid... it opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the Dragon shot out of its mouth. ¹⁷ This made the Dragon so angry with the woman that he went off to wage war with the rest of her seed... those who are obeying God’s instructions and carrying the testimony of Jesus.

¹⁸ And thereafter, [the Dragon] came to a stop on the sands of the sea.

Chapter 13

¹ Well at that, I saw a wild animal that had seven heads and ten horns come up out of the sea. On its horns there were ten royal turbans, and on its heads were blasphemous names. ² This wild animal that I saw looked like a leopard, but it had feet like a bear and a mouth like a lion. Then the Dragon gave [this beast] power, a throne, and great authority.

³ One of [the animal's] heads looked like it had been mortally wounded, but this deathblow had been healed and the whole earth started following it admiringly. ⁴ They also bowed to the ground before the Dragon, because it is what gave the wild animal its authority. And they bowed before the wild animal too, saying:

‘Who else is like this wild animal and who can stand against it?’

⁵ Then [the animal] was given a mouth to speak great things and blasphemies, and it was given the authority to act for forty-two months. ⁶ So it opened its mouth and spoke blasphemous things against The God... it blasphemed His Name, His Tent, and all those who are tenting in the heavens.

⁷ Thereafter, he was allowed to go to war with the Holy Ones and conquer them, and he was given power over every nation, people, language, and ethnic group, ⁸ so that all those on the earth whose names aren't written in the Lamb's Scroll of Life would have to bow low before him... this one who had been slaughtered from the founding of the world.

⁹ Now, all who have ears should listen to this: ¹⁰ If anyone is a jailer, he'll be thrown in jail, and if anyone kills with the sword, he'll be killed with a sword! For this is where the Holy Ones will need faith and endurance.

¹¹ Then I saw another wild animal coming up out of the ground. It had two horns like a lamb, but it started speaking like the Dragon. ¹² It had all the authority of the first wild animal, which it used in its presence to force all the lands and all those who dwell in them to bow low before the first wild animal whose deathblow had been healed. ¹³ It performed great signs, even making fire come down from the skies onto the earth before everyone,¹⁴ so as to mislead those who live on the earth with the signs that it is allowed to perform in front of the wild animal. It also told those who live on the earth to make an image to the wild animal that had survived the sword stroke.¹⁵ Then it was allowed to give breath to the image of the wild animal so that the image could speak and cause everyone that doesn't bow low before the image of the wild animal to be killed.

¹⁶ Thereafter, it forced everyone (the small and the great, the rich and the poor, the free and the slaves) to receive a branding on their right hands or on their foreheads,¹⁷ so that no one would be able to buy or sell other than those who have the branding... which is the name of the wild animal or the number of its name.¹⁸ This is where wisdom is required: Let those who can reason calculate the number of the wild animal... it's a human number, six hundred and sixty-six.

Chapter 14

¹ Then {Look!} I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion; and with him there were a hundred and forty-four thousand who had his name and his Father's Name written on their foreheads. ² I also heard a noise coming from the sky that sounded like a lot of water and loud thunder.

Well, the sound that I heard was of people who were all playing harps and singing. ³ They were singing a new song before the throne and before the four cherubs and the elders, and no one was able to master that song but the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased from the earth. ⁴ These hadn't spiritually defiled themselves with women. In fact, they are virgins who kept following the Lamb no matter where he went. They were bought from among mankind as first fruitage to God and to the Lamb, ⁵ for no lies were found in their mouths and they didn't have any defects.

⁶ Then I saw another messenger flying high in the middle of sky, and he had age-long good news to proclaim to those who live on the earth... to every ethnic group, nation, language, and people. ⁷ He was shouting aloud:

'Fear God and glorify Him, because His hour of judgment has arrived.

So, bow low before this One who made the skies, the lands, the seas, and the springs of water!’

⁸ Then another (a second) messenger followed him, saying:

‘She has fallen... the Great Babylon has fallen! She’s the one who made all the nations drink the wine of her sexually-immoral rampage!’

⁹ He was followed by a third messenger who was shouting aloud:

‘If anyone bows low before the wild animal and its image and receives its brand on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ He will have to drink the pure wine of the wrath of God that is being mixed in the cup of His rage, and he will be examined through torture by fire and with burning rocks in front of the holy messengers and in front of the Lamb. ¹¹ The smoke from this torture of those who bow low before the wild animal and its image and all those who receive the branding of its name will ascend through ages of ages, and they won’t have any rest either day or night.

¹² ‘Yes, this is where the Holy Ones (those who keep the commandments of God and have faith in Jesus) must hang on!’

¹³ Then I heard a voice coming from the sky that said:

‘Write this: From now on, the dead who die in the Lord are blest! Yes, [God’s] Breath said, Let them rest from their hard labor... and may their [good] deeds follow them!’

¹⁴ Well after that, I saw {Look!} a white cloud, and someone was sitting on top of the cloud that looked like a son of man. He had a gold garland on his head and he held a sharp sickle in his hand.

¹⁵ Then another messenger came out of the Most Holy and he shouted this at the one who was sitting on the cloud:

‘Now, take that sickle and start harvesting, because it’s time for the harvest... and the harvest is absolutely ripe!’

¹⁶ So at that, the one who was sitting on the cloud lowered his sickle to the ground and started harvesting.

¹⁷ Then another messenger came out of the Most Holy in the heavens who also carried a sharp sickle. ¹⁸ [He was followed by] a messenger that arose from the Altar, whose responsibility was to burn. And this one shouted to the messenger who held the sharp sickle:

‘Now, take that sharp sickle and harvest the clumps of grapes from the vine of the earth... for its grapes are now ripe!’

¹⁹ So the messenger lowered his sickle to the ground and harvested the grapes of the earth. Then he threw them into the great winepress of God’s rage, ²⁰ where they were trampled by foot outside of the city. And what came out of this winepress was blood that flowed in a stream, which was as deep as a horse’s bridle for two hundred miles.

Chapter 15

¹ Well after that, I saw another great and wonderful sign in the sky... there were seven messengers [who were bringing] seven plagues. These were the last ones, because they would bring an end to God’s rage.

² Then I saw what looked like a sea of crystal and fire. And standing beside the crystal sea were those who had conquered the wild animal, its image, and the number of its name. They were each holding harps of God, ³ and they were singing the song of God’s slave Moses and the song of the Lamb. It went:

‘Everything that You may do,
O Jehovah the Almighty God,
Is wonderful and great, King of ages.

‘For Your ways are all righteous and true,

⁴ And who doesn’t fear You, Jehovah?

[Yes, who won’t] honor Your Name?

‘And because You’re the One we can trust,
All the nations will come and bow before You;
For Your righteous deeds have now been revealed.’

⁵ And at that, I looked I and saw that the heavenly Most Holy (which is [inside] the Tent of Proofs) had been opened up, ⁶ and seven messengers who had the seven plagues came out of the Most Holy wearing clean, bright linen, and they had gold braids around their chests.

⁷ Then one of the four cherubs gave [each of] the seven messengers one of the seven golden bowls that were full of the wrath of The God who lives through ages of ages.⁸ And then the Most Holy became so filled with smoke because of the glory of God and His power that no one could enter it until after the seven plagues that were being brought by the seven messengers had been delivered.

Chapter 16

¹ Well after that, I heard a loud voice coming from the Most Holy that told the seven messengers to go and pour the seven bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth. ² So the first one went and poured his bowl out on the ground. And with that, the men who had the brand of the wild animal and who were bowing low before its image broke out in very bad malignant sores.

³ Then the second one poured his bowl into the sea, and it became like the blood of dead men. So, everything in the sea – every living creature – died. ⁴ And after that, the third one poured his bowl into the rivers and springs, and they turned into blood.

⁵ Then I heard the messenger who was over the waters say: ‘O Holy One who is and who was; You are righteous, because You’ve passed judgment on these things. ⁶ Since they’ve shed the blood of Your Holy Ones and Prophets, You’ve given them blood to drink... and that is what they deserve!’

⁷ And after that, I heard the Altar speak. It said: ‘Yes, Jehovah God the Almighty; Your judgments are righteous and true.’

⁸ Then the fourth [messenger] poured his bowl out on the sun, which caused it to sear men with fire. ⁹ And though the tremendous heat seared the men, they just blasphemed the Name of The God who has the power over these plagues, and they didn’t turn back and glorify Him.

¹⁰ Thereafter, the fifth one poured his bowl out on the throne of the wild animal, which made its whole kingdom become dark and its [people] were biting their tongues in pain. ¹¹ However, they just blasphemed the God of the heavens for all their pain, and they didn’t repent ---.

¹² So then the sixth one poured out his bowl into the great EuPhrates River, and this dried up all of its water. [He did this] to prepare the way for the kings from the sunrise.

¹³ And then I saw three unclean spirits that looked like frogs come out of the mouths of the Dragon, the wild animal, and the false prophet. ¹⁴ These were the unseen powers of demons, and they were to serve as signs. They were sent to all the kings of the habitation of mankind in order to assemble them for the battle of the Great Day of the Almighty God.

¹⁵ ‘Look, I’m coming as a thief! So, whoever stays awake and keeps his clothes on will be blest... he won’t have to walk around naked and have people see his shame.’

¹⁶ They then assembled [all the earth’s kings] at the place that is called in Hebrew, Har-Mageddon.

¹⁷ And at that, the seventh [messenger] poured his bowl out into the air. Then a loud voice from --- the throne inside the Most Holy proclaimed: ‘It has now been completed!’

¹⁸ This was followed by thunder, lightning, voices, and a shaking that was so great and covered so large an area that nothing has been seen like it since men have been on the earth. ¹⁹ For it split the great city into three parts, and all the cities of the nations fell into ruin!

It was then that God looked at The Great Babylon and He remembered to also give her the cup of the wine of His anger and rage. ²⁰ But by then, all the islands were gone and there weren’t any more mountains. ²¹ For a great hailstorm had come out of the sky upon the people (each of its stones weighed about a hundred pounds). However, the people just blasphemed God over the plague of hail, though it was an unusually bad plague.

Chapter 17

¹ Then one of the seven messengers who had the seven bowls came over and spoke to me. He said:

‘Come here and I’ll show you the judgment on the great whore who sits over many waters. ² [She’s the one] with whom the earth’s kings have

had sex and who made the people of the earth drunk from the wine of her sexual immorality.’

³ So he carried me on the wind into the desert, and there I saw a woman who was sitting on a scarlet-colored wild animal that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ This woman was wearing purple and scarlet clothes that were covered with gold, precious gems, and pearls, and in her hand [she held] a gold cup that was full of disgusting things and the filth of her immoral sexual acts. ⁵ She also had a mysterious name written on her forehead:

‘The Great Babylon, the Mother of Whores and of [all] the Disgusting Things of the Earth.’

⁶ It was then that I realized that this woman had been getting drunk on the blood of the Holy Ones, as well as on the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.

Well, when I saw her, I was both confused and amazed. ⁷ So the messenger asked me:

‘Why are you so confused? I’ll tell you the mystery of the woman and of the wild animal with the seven heads and ten horns that she’s riding. ⁸

The wild animal that you see had once been, but then it was not.

However, it’s about to come out of the abyss again, and then it will go off into destruction. Yet, when they see the return of the wild animal that once was but is no longer, those who live on the earth will marvel at it... but their names haven’t been written in the Scroll of Life since the founding of the world.

⁹ ‘Here’s where intelligence and wisdom are required: The seven heads are seven mountains upon which the woman is sitting. ¹⁰ And there are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, and the other hasn’t arrived yet. But when he gets here, he will only be allowed to stay for a little while. ¹¹

However, the wild animal that was but isn’t is an eighth king that comes from the seven, and it will go off into destruction.

¹² ‘Now, the ten horns that you saw represent ten kings that haven’t received a kingdom yet; however, they will be authorized to be kings for one hour with the wild animal. ¹³ And they’ll all have the same idea in mind... to give their power and authority to the wild animal. ¹⁴ Then they will go and fight against the Lamb; but because he's the Lord of lords and King of kings, the Lamb and those who are with him (the called, elected, and faithful) will conquer them.'

¹⁵ And then he said this:

'The waters over which you saw the whore sitting mean peoples, crowds, ethnic groups, and languages. ¹⁶ And because the ten horns and the wild animal that you saw will hate the whore, they're going to take away everything that she has and leave her naked... then they'll eat her flesh and burn [what's left] in a fire. ¹⁷ For God will put [the thought] into their hearts to do what He knows she deserves, and He's also the One who will give them the idea to hand their kingdoms over to the wild animal, so that whatever God says will be fulfilled.

¹⁸ 'Now, the woman that you saw means the great city that dominates the kings of the earth.'

Chapter 18

¹ Well after all that, I saw another messenger coming down out of the sky. This one was so very powerful that the earth glowed with his glory.

² Then he shouted in a mighty voice, saying:

'She has fallen... the Great Babylon has fallen and she has become a home for demons, a prison for unclean spirits, and a cage for scavenger birds! ³ Because, all the nations have fallen [victim] to the wine of the rage of her sexual immorality, all the kings of the earth have had immoral sex with her, and the earth's businessmen have become rich through the power of her shameless luxury.'

⁴ And at that, I heard another voice coming from the sky that said:

'Come out of her my people! Come on out, so you don't share in her sins and receive part of her plagues! ⁵ For her sins have piled all the way to the heavens, and God has remembered all the unjust things that she has done. ⁶ So, now she must be paid back for all of those [bad] things that she's done! In fact, pay her back with twice as much... double the payback for the things that she did! If she poured [poison] in a cup, then pour in twice as much for her!

⁷ ‘Also, as she glorified herself and lived in shameless luxury, pay her back that much more in pain and sorrow! Because she keeps saying in her heart, I’m sitting as a queen. I’m nobody’s widow and I’ll never have to mourn!’⁸ That’s why her plagues will come upon her in a single day – death, mourning, and famine – and she’ll be consumed by fire, because the Almighty God Jehovah is passing judgment on her!

⁹ ‘Then those kings of the earth who had sex and lived in shameless luxury with her will bawl and beat themselves in grief over her, as they stand and watch the smoke from her fire. ¹⁰ However they’ll stand at a distance, because they’ll be afraid of her torture. And they’ll say, Woe, woe, you great city... O Babylon you mighty city; for your judgment has arrived in a single hour!’

¹¹ ‘The earth’s businessmen will also bawl and mourn over her, because there won’t be anyone to buy their complete stock of goods anymore... ¹² any of the gold and silver, the precious stones and pearls, the fine linen, the purple, the silk, the scarlet, any of the scented wood, or any of the things made of ivory, precious wood, copper, or iron... or the marble, ¹³ the cinnamon, the Indian spice, the incense, the perfumed oil, the frankincense, the wine, the olive oil, the fine flour and wheat... or the cattle, sheep, horses, coaches, slaves, or the lives of humans. ¹⁴ Yes, all the juicy fruit that she so deeply desired has been taken from her, as have all the fatty foods and the bright colors. They’re no longer available to her, and she’ll never have them again.

¹⁵ ‘Then the men who sold these things and who became rich from her will cry and mourn at some distance from her, because they’ll [also] be afraid of her torture. ¹⁶ They’ll say, O woe, woe, you great city that wore all the fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and who was so richly covered in gold, precious stones, and pearls; ¹⁷ because all of that great wealth has been taken away in a single hour!

‘And this was also true of the ship captains, all those who sail, the seamen, and everyone who makes a living at sea. They too stood some distance away ¹⁸ and called out as they watched the smoke of her burning, saying, What other city was like this great city?

¹⁹ ‘Then they threw dust on their heads, bawled, and mourned, shouting, O woe, woe, for this great city that made so many shipping companies rich with her wealth, because everything has been taken away from her in a single hour!’

²⁰ ‘O heavens, you Holy Ones, and you Apostles and Prophets; rejoice over this, because God’s judgment has brought vengeance upon her for your sakes!’

²¹ Then a mighty messenger picked up a stone that looked like a huge millstone and threw it into the sea, shouting: ‘This is how fast that city (the Great Babylon) will be thrown down, and she’ll never be found again!’

²² ‘Then the sounds of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpet players will no longer be found in her, nor will craftsman and tradesman be found there anymore. --- ²³ No lamplight will ever shine in her again, and the voices of brides and grooms won’t be heard in her thereafter. For though her traveling merchants were once the most important men on the earth and she misled all the nations with her sorcery; ²⁴ the blood of the Prophets, the Holy Ones, and of all those who’ve been slaughtered throughout the whole earth have been found within her!’

Chapter 19

¹ Well after all that, I heard what sounded like the voices of a huge crowd proclaiming from the skies:

‘Praise Jah! [Yes, praise] the salvation, the glory, and the power of our God, ² for His judgments are righteous and true! He has finally passed judgment on the great whore who made the whole earth filthy with her immoral sex, and He has avenged the blood of His slaves [who died] at her hands!’

³ Then they shouted a second time:

‘Praise Jah; because the smoke from her will keep ascending through ages of ages!’

⁴ And at that, the twenty-four elders and the four cherubs fell down and bowed low before The God as He sat on His throne, saying:

‘May it be so! Praise Jah!’

⁵ And a voice came out of the throne that said:

‘Praise our God, all of you who are His slaves... yes you, the great and the small, who fear Him!’

⁶ Then I heard what sounded like the voices of a huge crowd, along with the noise of a lot of water and heavy thunder. They were shouting:

‘Praise Jah! For Jehovah our God the Almighty has started ruling as king! ⁷ Let’s rejoice, shout in joy, and glorify Him, since it’s time for the Lamb’s wedding!’

‘Yes, his bride has now prepared herself, ⁸ and she’s been found worthy to be dressed in bright, clean, fine linen, for the fine linen represents the righteousness of the Holy Ones.’

⁹ Then he said to me:

‘Write this down: Those who are invited to the Lamb’s wedding banquet are blest!’

And he added:

‘God really said this.’

¹⁰ Well when that happened, I fell down in front of his feet to bow low before him. But he warned me, saying:

‘Be careful... don’t do that! For I’m just a fellow slave of you and your brothers who are witnesses of Jesus. And testifying for Jesus is the spirit behind this prophecy. You should just bow low before God!’

¹¹ Then I saw the sky opening up, and Look... there was a white horse, and the one who was sitting on it was called Faithful and True, because he judges and he fights his wars for righteousness! ¹² His eyes were like flames of fire and he wore many royal turbans on his head. He also had a name that was written, which nobody knew but him, ¹³ and he was wrapped in a robe that was splattered with blood. This name that he was called is The Word of The God.

¹⁴ Then following behind him were all the armies of the heavens, [riding] on white horses and wearing white, clean, fine linen.

¹⁵ He also had a long sharp sword protruding from his mouth that he could use to strike the nations; for he will shepherd them with an iron rod.

[It was then that I realized that this is the same one that I saw] crushing the grapes with his feet in the winepress of the Almighty God's anger and rage. ¹⁶ For on his robe and on his thigh, he had the name written: 'King of kings and Lord of lords.'

¹⁷ And I also saw a messenger who was standing on the sun and shouting in a loud voice. He was saying to all the creatures that fly high in the skies:

'You should all come and gather here for God's great supper. ¹⁸ For here you can eat the flesh of kings, generals, mighty men, horses, and riders, as well as the flesh of all the freemen and slaves... yes, both the small and the great!'

¹⁹ Then I noticed the wild animal along with the kings of the earth and their armies all gathering to wage war against the one who was sitting on the [white] horse and his army.

²⁰ However, the wild animal was thereafter captured along with the false prophet that performed the signs in front of it that he had used to mislead those who received the branding of the wild animal, as well as those who bowed low before its image. Then, while they were all still alive, they were tossed into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.

²¹ And after that, the long sword that was in the mouth of the one who was riding the [white] horse killed off all the rest... then the birds came and ate their fill of flesh.

Chapter 20

¹ Well after that, I saw a messenger coming down out of the sky who had a long chain in his hand [that held] the key to the abyss. ² Then he grabbed the Dragon – the original snake, the Slanderer and Opposer – and chained him up for a thousand years (or possibly, thousands of years).³ And then he threw him into the abyss... he closed it up and locked it up over him, so he couldn't mislead the nations anymore until the after the thousand years had ended. However, he will be set free for a little while after that.

⁴ Next I saw thrones... and those who sat down on them were the ones who had been executed with axes for testifying about Jesus, for telling about God, and those who hadn't worshiped the wild animal or its image, nor had they received its branding on their foreheads or on their hands. For they were appointed to be judges. Yes, they came to life and ruled as kings with the Anointed One for a thousand years...⁵ this is the first resurrection.⁶ Those who have a part in the first resurrection are blest and holy, because the second death won't have any power over them. For they will be Priests of God and of the Anointed One and they will rule for a thousand years.

⁷ However, after the thousand years have ended, the Slanderer will be set free from his prison⁸ and he'll go out to mislead people – Gog and Magog – in all four corners of the earth. Then he'll assemble them for a war... there will be as many as the sands of the seas!

⁹ These will thereafter march across the whole earth and they'll surround the camp of the Holy Ones and the loved city... but then fire will come from the sky and consume them!¹⁰ And the Opposer who misled them will then be thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the wild animal and the false prophet will already have been, and they will be tortured there day and night through ages of ages.

¹¹ Then after that, I saw someone sitting on a huge white throne... and before him the land and the sky just vanished and couldn't be found.¹² I also saw the dead – the great and the small – standing before the throne, and several scrolls were opened. Then another scroll was opened, which was the Scroll of Life. And the dead were judged by the things that were written in the scrolls, according to the things that they had done.

¹³ Then the sea gave up its dead, and death and the grave gave up the dead in them, and they were all judged by the things that they had done.

¹⁴ And finally, death and the grave were thrown into the lake of fire (the lake of fire symbolizes the second death), ¹⁵ and anyone whose name wasn't found written in the Scroll of Life was also thrown into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

¹ Well at that, I saw new skies and new lands, because the previous skies and lands had disappeared, as had the seas. ² I also saw the Holy City, New JeruSalem, stepping down out of the sky from God, prepared like a bride who had been adorned for her man.

³ Then I heard a loud voice from the throne say:
'Look! The Tent of God is with mankind! He's going to pitch His Tent among them, then they'll be His people and He'll be their God. ⁴ He's going to wipe all the tears from their eyes and there won't be any more death, mourning, wailing, or pain, because all that once was will be gone!'

⁵ And the One who was sitting on the throne said: 'Look! I'm making everything new!' And he added:
'Write this down, because these words are faithful and true.'

⁶ Then He said to me:
'It has all been accomplished! I'm the Alpha and the Omega – the beginning and the end – and I'm going to give everyone that is thirsty a free drink from the Spring of the Water of Life! ⁷ Yes, those who conquer will inherit these things... then I'll be their God and they'll be My sons! ⁸ But as for the cowards, the unbelievers, the nasty, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who cast spells, the idol worshipers, and all the liars; their inheritance is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur... the second death.'

⁹ Well at that, one of the seven messengers with the seven bowls that were full of the seven last plagues came and spoke to me, and said:
'Come here and I'll show you the bride... the Lamb's woman!'

¹⁰ So he carried me off on the wind to an enormously high mountain, and there he showed me JeruSalem, the Holy City, as it was coming down out of the sky from God. ¹¹ It had all the glory of God, it sparkled like the most precious of gems, and it gleamed like crystal-clear jasper stones. ¹² It had high, thick walls and twelve gates. There was also a messenger standing at each of the twelve gates, and each gate was inscribed with the name of one of the twelve tribes of the sons of IsraEl. ¹³ There were three gates on the east side, three gates on the north side, three gates on the south side, and three gates on the west side. ¹⁴ The city wall also had twelve foundation stones upon which the names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb were written.

¹⁵ Now, the one who was talking to me held up a ruler (a gold reed) that he used to measure the city, along with its gates and its walls. ¹⁶ The city was square... as long as it was wide. For he then measured the entire city with the reed; and its length, width, and height (which were all equal) measured twelve-thousand stadions.

¹⁷ Then he measured [the thickness of] its walls. These were the length of a man's forearm (which is about the same as for a messenger [of God]), times one hundred and forty-four.

¹⁸ The walls were made of jasper, and the entire city was made of gold that was as pure as clear crystal. ¹⁹ And the foundation stones of its walls were decorated with all sorts of precious gems.

The first one was decorated with jasper, the second with sapphires, the third with chalcedony, the fourth with emeralds, ²⁰ the fifth with rubies, the sixth with sardius, the seventh with peridots, the eighth with beryls, the ninth with topaz, the tenth with chrysoprase, the eleventh with hyacinth, and the twelfth with amethysts. ²¹ Also, the twelve gates were twelve pearls (each of the gates was made of a single pearl), and the city's main street was paved with gold that was as pure as clear crystal!

²² I didn't see a Most Holy within [the city], because Jehovah God the Almighty and the Lamb are its Most Holy. ²³ Nor did the city need the sun or moon to shine upon it, because it was lit by the glory of God... and the Lamb was its lamp. ²⁴ So, all the nations were able to walk in its light, and the earth's kings were bringing their glorious things into it.

²⁵ Its gates won't ever be closed during the day, and night won't exist there. ²⁶ For this is where they will carry the glory and honor of the nations. ²⁷ And nothing that's dirty, or anyone who does disgusting things or tells lies will ever enter it... only those [whose names] are written in the Lamb's Scroll of Life.

Chapter 22

¹ Well after that, he showed me the River of the Water of Life... it was crystal clear and it flowed out [from under] the Throne of The God and of the Lamb, ² down the middle of the street. And along both of its banks were the Trees of Life, which bore twelve [crops of] fruit, putting out the fruit every month; and the Trees' leaves were used to heal the nations.

³ Then, everything that might cause people to sin will thereafter be gone, for the Throne of God and of the Lamb will always be there, where His slaves can come to bow low before Him ⁴ and see His face, and they'll wear His Name on their foreheads.

⁵ Also, since there won't be any night, they won't need lamps or sunlight, because Jehovah (The God) will be shining upon them, and they'll rule as kings through ages of ages.

⁶ Then he said to me:

'These words are faithful and true. Yes, Jehovah (The God who gave His Breath to the Prophets) sent His messenger to show His slaves the things that will happen very quickly. ⁷ And look... I'm coming quickly! Blest is the one who obeys the things that are prophesied in this scroll.'

⁸ Well, I (John) was the one who saw and heard these things. And after I saw and heard it all, I fell down to bow at the feet of the messenger who had shown me these things. ⁹ But he warned me again, saying:

'Be careful... don't do that; for I'm just a fellow slave of you and your brothers, who are Prophets and who are obeying [the things that] are spoken of in this scroll. Rather, bow low before God!'

¹⁰ He also warned me:

'Now, don't seal up the things that are said in the prophecy of this scroll, because the season is near. ¹¹ So, may those who are acting unrighteously stay unrighteous, and may the filthy stay filthy. However, may those who are righteous remain righteous, and those who are holy remain holy.

¹² ‘Look, I’m coming quickly! And the reward that I’m bringing is the repayment to each one for what he has done.

¹³ ‘I’m the Alpha and the Omega; the first and the last; the beginning and the end.

¹⁴ ‘Blest are those who wash their robes, for they’ll be allowed access to the trees of life and they will be able to enter these city gates. ¹⁵ But the dogs, those who cast spells, those who are immoral, the murderers, the idol worshipers, and everyone who enjoys lying will be left on the outside.’

¹⁶ ‘I am Jesus, and I sent my messenger to testify to you about these things that will be [coming] to the congregations. I am the root and the descendant of David... the bright morning star.

¹⁷ ‘Now the Spirit and the bride are saying to you, Come! And let all those who hear this also say, Come! Yes, let all who are thirsty come; for anyone who wishes to do so may partake of the water of life freely!

¹⁸ ‘I’m also testifying to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this scroll, that if anyone adds anything to it, God will add the plagues to him that are written about in this scroll. ¹⁹ And if anyone removes any of the words of this scroll of prophecy, God will remove his share from the Tree of life and from the things that are written in this scroll concerning the Holy City.

²⁰ ‘So, the one who is testifying to you about these things has said, Yes, I’m coming quickly!’

May it be so! Come Lord Jesus!

²¹ May the loving care of our Lord Jesus the Anointed One be with all the Holy Ones.
